Met points are made by mayor

Westmount will not enter the proposed Metropolitan government for Montreal as a parasite but as a partner on an equal basis, said Mayor A. S. Bruneau Wednesday.

Speaking to Westmount Rotary Club the Mayor added, "The impression one gets from recent reports is that the object of Metropolitan government is to relieve the City of Montreal of parasites in the form of the municipalities around it. But our relations with this City already prove we are partners. In fact we give more than we receive."

The Mayor then pointed out that Westmount pays for all its water on a tax basis, maintains roads which are used by 95% of non-local traffic, provides police-control of these roads, has its own fire-force, and provides athletic grounds, halls and a reference library for the benefit of everyone who cares to use them.

"Besides these direct costs," the Mayor stated, "There are many more that are indirect. Items such as hospital and charity contributions are substantial. It is difficult to estimate the money we spend in Montreal but it is a very expensive item."

GIVE AND TAKE

"The most that can be said about the project is that it will be impossible to strike a balance. It will be give and take. At the moment we contribute far more than we receive."

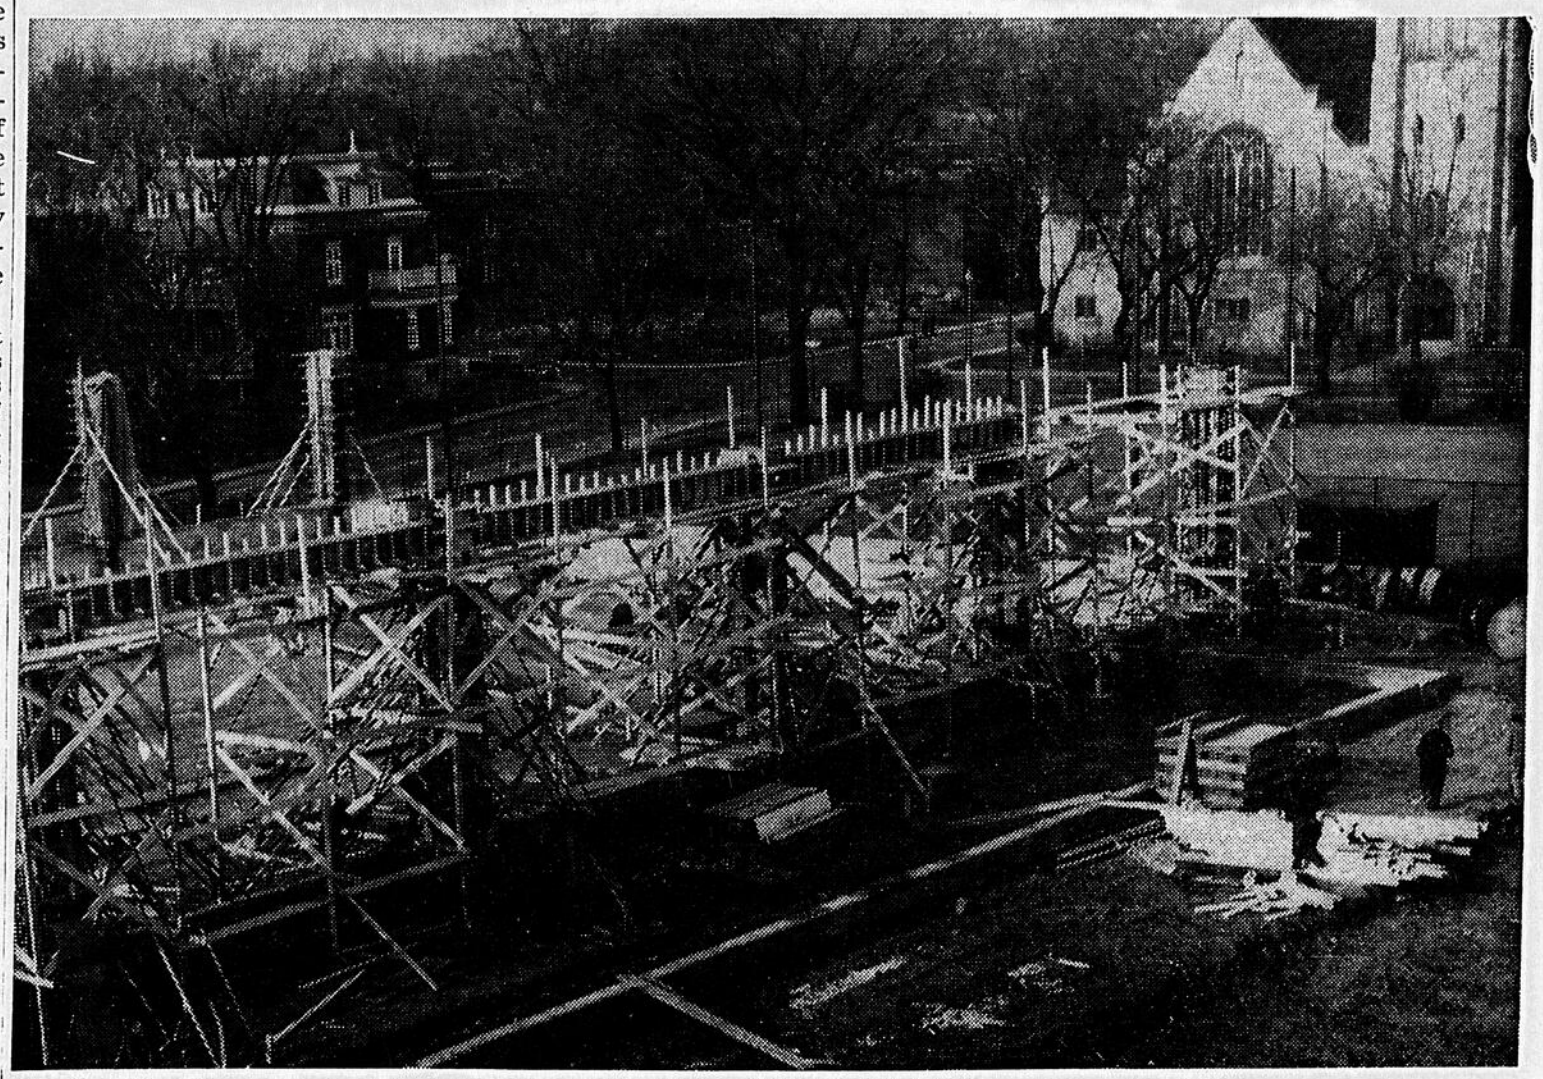

Dealing with the 1955 Paquette report the Mayor pointed out that it stressed that local autonomy was not to be interfered with unless absolutely necessary. Also it stated that the whole island should come under the new form of government.

"Since then it has become obvious that even this area will be too small. It will be absolutely necessary to extend farther than was originally planned."

He said that intra-municipal services would include collective sewers, water intake, main traffic arteries, bridges and tunnels from the island, fire-service standards, parks, community markets, control of land used to ensure planned development,

Expect ice-rink ready by April

By DEREK BLACKMAN

Westmount's new ice-rink is rapidly becoming a reality.

Work on the $580,000 project is right on schedule and completion should be by late April.

Situated after prolonged argument off St. Catherine street on the south side of the Park, both the side-walls and foundations are completed and the roof should be on by Christmas.

Recreation superintendent B. A. Rothwell reports that tentative plans for the new rink's use are already in progress. They include the customary hockey, figure skating, ice-carnival, and free-skating during the winter, while in the summer the rink will be covered and used for indoor tennis, badminton, shuffleboard and even dancing. If the concrete floor is suitable there is a possibility that there will also be roller-skating.

The rink will be available free to residents of Westmount only.

There will be ten changing rooms equipped with lockers for both children and adults, and the team changing rooms are to be equipped with showers.

Space for spectators will be limited but there will be a wooden-promenade around the ice, and earth-banks around the perimiter of the building — which will allow members of the public to see inside.

The building will be partially open-air. Both the north and west sides will be completely open. The roof will rest on huge

3 thefts occur at same store

Three thefts have occurred at the Luggage store, 4190 St. Catherine street in the past three weeks, owner Mrs. Thomas Clack reported to Westmount police Wednesday.

The first occurred when thieves stole a camera valued at $90 and a pair of driving gloves from a car parked behind the

Municipal Association will meet December 10

The fall meeting of the Westmount Municipal Association has been scheduled for Victoria Hall on Tuesday, December 10th, it is announced.

On that occasion there will be a well-rounded program including entertainment, discussions and nominations for municipal offices.

The Westmount High School's Band will play, under the direction of Morley Calvert, professor of music. At a meeting last year the association was pleased to present the school's glee club which was exceedingly well received, and it is expected that the band will also find favor with the members of the association.

Open forum type discussions will be led by chairmen of the various committees of the association, when it will be possible for members to join in discussing the various aspects of municipal progress in Westmount and to express their views.

Nominations will be received during the evening for two aldermanic posts which become vacant shortly, one library trustee post, and two positions on the Protestant School Commission.

The executive of the association are leaving no stone unturned so that the meeting will afford every opportunity to residents to turn out and participate in this regular fall session.

Car driver injured in 3-way accident

Lawrence Goode, 26, 178 Cote St. Antoine road was treated for injuries at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital Saturday after an auto he was driving was in collision with two other cars at Metcalfe avenue, and Sherbrooke street. Three stitches were inserted over his left eye but he was not detained.

The two other drivers, Andre Gougeon, 29, 4302 Messier street and Ernest Nagy, 21, 9123 Hothurst avenue were unhurt.

'Y' drive for funds going over the top

Canvassing for YMCA funds has been in full progress in Westmount for the past week and it was reported Wednesday that there is every indication that the objective of $8,500 will be reached by December 5th when the campaign closes.

At the second report luncheon Westmount Division showed a total of 34.8% of their objective obtained.

John C. Annesley chairman of the Westmount Division said, "The encouraging feature of the canvassing so far is that 24.5% of the money received is either new money or increased subscription. Judging by the returns in — and if all cards are covered — Westmount will obtain its objective."

With two campaign reports left C. Lloyd Welton, executive secretary of Westmount 'Y' urged all canvassers to complete all their returns by Wednesday, Dec. 4th. Last year several returns were delayed and were unable to be counted in during the banquet.

An interesting feature of this campaign is an oil-painting which has been donated to the campaign by Hal Ross Perrigard ARCA. Entitled "Early Spring" and painted at Lake Memphremagog, the picture will be presented to the highest bidder.

Highest bid to date is $125. The painting may be seen by any interested person at Montreal YMCA, 1441 Drummond street on the second floor. Bidding will close Wednesday at 6 p.m.

A. Vincent Whipple buried Wednesday

Final tribute was paid Wednesday to A. Vincent Whipple, of 4472 Sherbrooke St. West, who died at his residence Sunday. He was in his 78th year.

Mr. Whipple, who was known as one of America's foremost authorities on treasures from the past, spent the last 25 years of his life repairing old ship models, refurbishing oil paintings and priceless museum pieces. He had always been interested in treasures of art and craftsmanship, and especially in their restoration. In the 1920's he owned an antique and curio shop on Drummond street, but when the depression came in 1929, he was forced to abandon business. However, his talent and craftsmanship did not leave him long unemployed. He was soon commissioned by a Montreal museum-piece collector to restore old ship models. His work has received world-wide acclaim.

A few years ago he retired, but never lost interest in his work. In 1948, he built a portable telescope for his wife, who had taken an interest in astronomy. At a contest in Springfield, Vermont, his telescope won first prize, and was later presented to the Royal Astronomical Society. For the past few years he has spent his time repairing whatever anyone cared to bring to him.

His wife was the late Gladys E. Manning. He is survived by two daughters, Gladys (Mrs. J. E. Molyneaux), and Helen (Mrs. F. W. Mavor Moore), and five grandchildren.

Funeral service was held at Trinity Memorial Church, and the burial was in Mount Royal cemetery.

Edward H. MacNider buried on Tuesday

Final tribute was paid Tuesday to Edward Henry MacNider of 5062 Glencairn Ave., Westmount, who died at the Montreal General Hospital Sunday. He was in his 86th year.

Edward MacNider lived in Montreal all his life, and had always taken a keen interest in the activities of the city. Especially active in sports at the turn of the century as a member of the Track and Snowshoe Club, he won many medals and honors for his sport triumphs. He was a member of the Health Curling Club, and in his earlier years was an active member of the Hudson Yacht Club. His enthusiasm for sports resulted in membership in the Montreal Athletic Association.

He belonged to Queen Mary United Church, and was a member of the Masonic Order for 45 years he worked as a salesman for Canada Bag Company.

He is survived by his wife, Ethel Louise; three sons, Henry, Hartland, and Kingdon; and two daughters, Isabel and Gwendolyn (Mrs. R. J. Rohde). Last year he and his wife celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Funeral services were at the chapel of Joseph C. Wray and Bro. and burial in Mount Royal Cemetery.

Mrs. Hector Mount dies in 80th year

Funeral service was held in St. Thomas' Church, November 18, for Mrs. Hector P. Mount, who died at her home on Mayfair avenue, N.D.G., in her eightieth year. Service was conducted by the Rector of St. Thomas', the Rev. F. J. Sinnamon, assisted by Archdeacon J. F. Morris and the Rev. Sydney Meade. Interment was in Mount Royal Cemetery.

Sarah Maud Moore was the daughter of Thomas Moore and Ellenor Westgate of Lakefield, Quebec. In 1902 she married the Rev. Hector P. Mount, and they lived successively in the parishes of Bristol, Longueuil and Foster, Quebec. Her husband predeceased her ten years ago.

Mrs. Mount is survived by one son, Whitley Mount, of. Aldershot, Ontario, and six daughters; Alethea (Mrs. George Halliday), of Sawyerville, Quebec; Miss Hilda Mount, of Montreal; Helen (Mrs. Leonard Wrong) of Montreal; Verna (Mrs. William Price) of Montreal; Winnifred (Mrs. Sydney Meade) of Grand'Mere, and Florence (Mrs. Stewart Griffin) of Drummondville. There are eleven grandchildren: Vivien

Mrs. Rene Dastous buried Wednesday

Final tribute was paid Wednesday to Mrs. Rene Dastous of 1470 Closse St., who died Monday. She was in her 60th year.

Formerly Corinne Basilières, Mrs. Dastous was predeceased by her husband. For many years she had been a teacher at St. Irenée School. In her later years she was very active in charity work as a patroness of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, and as a charity worker for the Sisters of Providence.

She was a member of the Sir Wilfrid Laurier Club and La Chambre de Commerce de Montreal.

She is survived by a daughter, Margot; three sons, Roger, Guy, and Rene Jr.; five sisters, Mrs. Yvonne Dandurand, Mrs. Margot Daviault, Mrs. Aline Portenier, Mrs. Paulette Paradis and Mrs. Andrée De Oliveira; three brothers, Gerard, Roland and Jean Basilières, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in St. Leon de Westmount Church, and the burial was at Cote des Neiges cemetery.

Francoise Pagnuelo buried here Friday

Funeral services were held Monday for Miss Françoise Pagnuelo of 26 Arlington avenue, Westmount, who died at Le Royer Pavilion last Friday after a year's illness. She was in her 39th year.

Miss Pagnuelo was born in Montreal, and has lived here all her life. She was educated at St. Paul's academy and also studied at the Museum of Fine Arts. She was very active in charitable organizations, especially those which patronized the Arts. Les Amis de L'Art, an organization which helps artists, was one of her main interests.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Bertha Pagnuelo; two sisters and a brother. The funeral service was held in her residence, and the burial was at the Cote des Neiges cemetery.

Plans for convention keeping Marler busy

(Special to The Examiner)

Ottawa — In addition to his duties as a major figure in the official Opposition, Hon. George Marler is up to his ears these days in plans for the Liberal party national convention, to be held here January 14-16.

Mr. Marler is chairman of the convention's Resolutions Committee. As such, he is charged with assessing, sifting and putting into final form the resolutions which are beginning to come in from Liberal constituencies all over the country.

The three-day convention will be held with the primary purpose of choosing a new Liberal party leader, but there will be several subsidiary features which, it is hoped, will give the public a better insight into the realm of practical politics.

For one thing, Mr. Marler's committee is making arrangements with the CBC to move a television camera right into the resolutions room, to pick up part of the actual work involved in processing and approving, or disapproving, the many resolutions.

Since these represent the thinking and wishes of Liberals from every section of Canada, their importance is self-evident. Moreover, the resolutions which are finally passed by the convention will in effect constitute the party's platform at the next election.

Another feature of the convention consists in the decision to allot six hours—apportioned throughout each of the three sitting days — to permit the 2,500 delegates and alternates to propose resolutions from the floor.

"This has never been done before at a national political convention in this country," said Mr. Marler, "but we believe it is the only truly democratic way to do things."

Hon. G. Marler champions cause of French MPs

(Special to The Examiner)

Ottawa — drawing on his experience as a member of the Quebec provincial Legislative Assembly, Hon. George Marler this week in the House of Commons championed the cause of the French-speaking Members of Parliament.

"My own personal experience has been that when I spoke in English, I could make no impression whatever in debate (in the Quebec Legislature)," Mr. Marler said. "On the other hand, even though I had not attained perfection in English, far from it, it did seem that I made much more impression when I made my remarks in French.

"I would say . . . that the French-speaking members of this House would understand the problems of this House much better if the remarks of English-speaking members were simultaneously translated into French.

"Conversely, it would enable English-speaking members to understand the meaning of what is being said by hon. members who were using the French language."

Mr. Marler was speaking on a motion introduced by J. P. Breton, Member of Parliament for

Westmounters in key roles as McGill plays 'Antigone'

Ted Brown and Jane Anders, residents of the city of Westmount, have been assigned leading roles in the McGill University English Department production of Sophocles' "Antigone", it was announced this week. Mr. Brown will play the part of Creon, King of Thebes, and Miss Anders will be seen as Ismene, daughter of Oedipus.

Mr. Brown appeared in the title role of the English Department's production of Shelley's "The Cenci" in 1955; and Miss Anders has played many leading roles for the Department during the last few years. She appeared last year as Celia in Ben Jonson's "Volpone", and as the unknown lady in Shaw's "The Man of Destiny." Miss Anders also played leading roles in Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing", de Musset's "The Caprice of Marianne", and Euripides' "Hippolytus".

"Antigone" tells the story of the fate of the four children of Oedipus, erstwhile King of Thebes. Because of the curse laid upon them by their father, Oedipus' two sons quarrel about royal power, and one is driven from Thebes. He later returns with an army, and during the battle for the city the two brothers meet and kill each other. It is at this point that the play opens. Creon, Oedipus' uncle, has succeeded to the throne and is attempting to restore order to the troubled state.

Creon has given a state funeral to his loyal nephew, and has refused decent burial to the rebel. Antigone and Ismene, the two daughters of Oedipus, attempt to recover the body of their brother and bury it, against the express order of Creon. In the en-

WE SAY YOU SAY

Safe driving week can save your life

DEC. 1 to 7 is Safe Driving Week.

While safe driving is something for 52 weeks every year, a special Safe Driving Week each twelve months may save many lives, your own included.

Whether you drive or walk, unless you are an idiot or a moron, you know there are certain things that cause accidents. There are laws, signs and signals to be obeyed. There are accidents that an individual's common sense warns him can lead to injury, to property damage and even to death — not only for himself, but also to his passengers and others.

You know this at all times — but because you are human, you must be reminded of it from time to time. The perils of thoughtless, carelessness, deliberate chance-taking and false pride on the streets and roads must be pin-pointed so that you will not — if even for a week — take the risks that are entailed. And by seeing the nonsense of unsafe driving and walking for one week, it is hoped you may abstain forever.

In promoting safe driving and walking in this way, lives can be saved.

Safety in traffic is a national as well as a community problem. It concerns every individual. In 1956, 3,200 persons in Canada lost their lives in traffic accidents, 73,600 suffered injury and there were in all 400,000 accidents. For every death one person was totally and permanently disabled — to become a financial burden on his family, the community or both. For every traffic death 23 persons were injured, more or less seriously, and 68 accidents took place, costing $100 or more each. The economic toll last year was over $300,000,000. If this sum could be applied to education, for example, many of its problems could be solved.

Traffic is the single greatest killer of Canadians between the ages of three and 40.

More industrial workers are killed in traffic than on their jobs.

Accidents must be stopped as they occur — one at a time.

Accidents are caused by individuals.

Individuals must stop them.

Interest is asked in education meet

Sir: There has been much discussion lately about the Russian methods of education as compared with ours, sparked by the Sputnik venture into outer space. Thousands of words have been written, some hysterical and some worthwhile, but out of this welter one fact emerges, and that is that Russian students are far ahead of ours.

Some people will claim that only educators belong in the discussion of education for our children, but I claim, that education is everyone's business, parents, industry, organization representatives and trustees.

Many parents feel that the pace of education is too slow, and that the average and bright child could progress at a faster rate. Too many of our students in the elementary grades, let alone university level, are bored with school, because the curriculum is not a challenge to them. We need provision for the extra bright child as well as the mentally retarded child.

Some people claim that Russia has a compulsory educational system, and that we would never emulate her. What nonsense! We also have a compulsory educational system, with compulsory subjects taught in the elementary schools, as well as a set number of subjects during university training. The emphasis in the Soviet Union may at present be on scientific subjects, but who is to say that chemistry, physics, and mathematics are not vitally important subjects in the training of the mind? And who would refute that one of the main objectives of our educational systems in the lower levels (elementary and secondary schools) is to produce pupils who can cope with the world we are now living in.

NATIONAL DISGRACE

Furthermore, it is a national disgrace that the teachers' salaries remain at their present low level. We see the results — teacher shortage. If it is up to the taxpayer to provide more money to raise teachers salaries, then I claim that the taxpayer must participate actively in the present problem.

In February of next year, there will be a meeting of vital importance to be held in Ottawa, attended by educators, parents, corporation executives and trustees.

This meeting will be the first Canadian Conference on Education, and we hope that many changes will be suggested in our text books and curriculum in Canadian schools.

I would suggest that parents who belong to Home and School associations propose that committees be set up to study

(1) The lack of teachers;

(2) Low salaries paid to teachers;

(3) Non-provision for accelerated education of bright children;

(4) Over-crowded classrooms;

(5) Antiquated text books, particularly those dealing with Canadian history and geography.

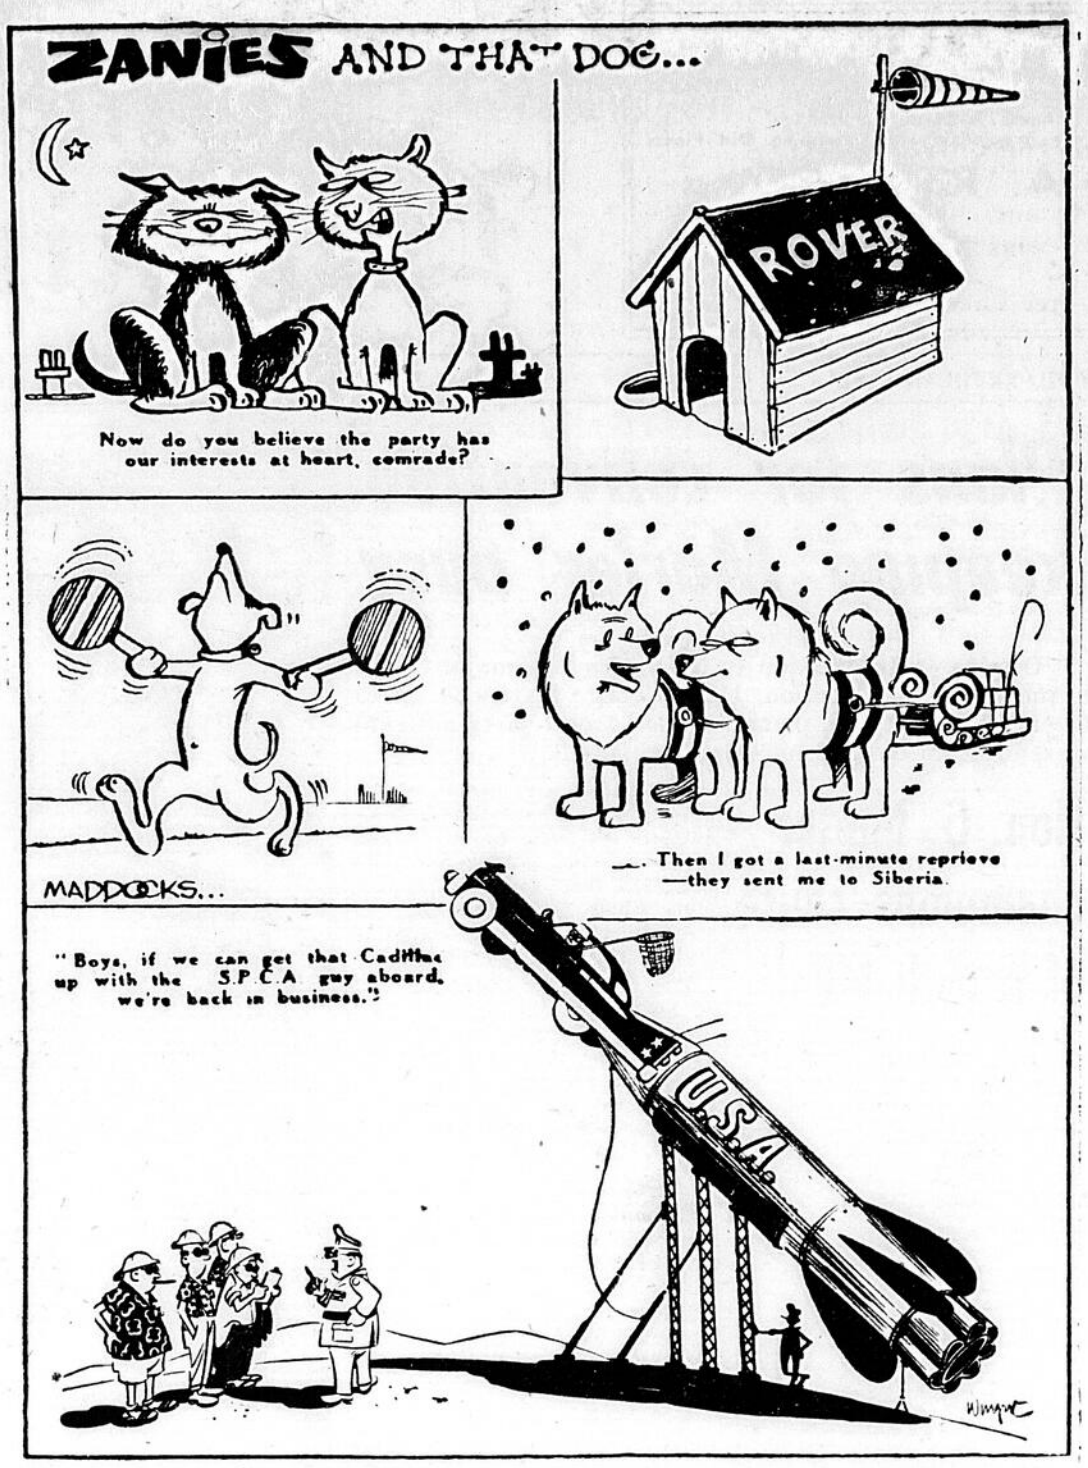

Any resolutions which may come out of these committees should be forwarded to the National Committee of Home and School Associations, which would then see that such information and suggestions be brought to the attention of the Canadian Conference on Education.

(Mrs.) Beatrice Simkover.

By the way . . .

What! No Seagulls?

NOT all the strange sounds on the radio come from satellite moons. Someone has complained of a noise like a train being shunted during a concert. Anybody with an elementary knowledge of today's music could have told him that a shunting train was probably one of the instruments in the orchestra. There may be another explanation. Perhaps a talk on freight yards, with background noises cut into the concert. I care so deeply about all this that I am fast losing my appetite.

The little dyer

"TWO people at cross-purposes are a delight to a third person," remarks, very truly, a writer. What fun was the violent argument in front of Tintoretto's "The Rescue," in Dresden. "It's a Tintoretto," said one man. "Not at all," said the other, "it's a Robusti." After an exchange of insults, it was pointed out to them that Tintoretto's real name was Robusti, and that he was only called Tintoretto, the little dyer, because his father was a dyer or tintore. His son painted as Robusti, and there is a picture of his in a church at Murano, where the glassblowers work. If I am not mistaken (and if I am, I care not a groat) the little dyer also had a daughter who painted. This being Culture Thursday, I may add, without offending the rabble, that Titian was Tintoretto's first teacher.

Two local residents, A. B. Hunt, 338 Roslyn avenue, and F. F. Fulton, 10 Rosemount avenue, are in the news this week as the result of executive changes made by the Northern Electric Company.

Mr. Hunt has been appointed general manager of research and development for the company while Mr. Fulton has been named genral manager of the telephone contract division of the company succeeding Mr. Hunt.

Mr. Hunt was born in London, Ontario, and received his education in that city and at the University of Toronto, where he graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Applied Science, receiving also the medal of the British Association for the Advancement of Science.

Joining the Company in 1928, as a manufacturing methods engineer, Mr. Hunt has also been manager of the company's electronics and communications equipment divisions, and during 1954 and 1955 served as director of the electronics branch of the Department of Defence Production.

He is a member of the Corporation of Professional Engineers of Quebec, the Engineering Institute of Canada, the Institute of Radio Engineers, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the Canadian Industrial Preparedness Association; the Mount Stephen Club in Montreal and the Rideau Club in Ottawa.

A native of St. John, N.B., Mr. Fulton received a certificate of engineering from Mount Allison University and graduated from McGill University with a BSc. degree in electrical engineering.

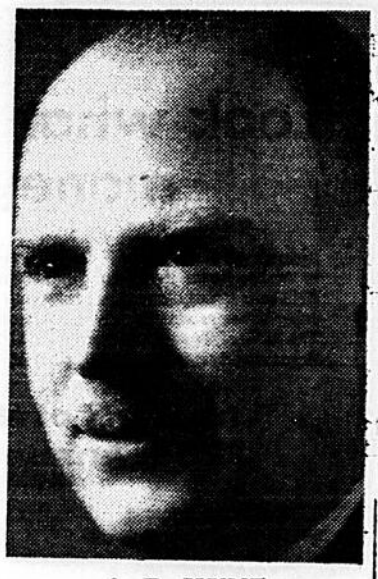

He joined the company in 1927 as a sales engineer in the electronics division and was general sales manager of special products at the advent of World War II. Assigned to the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals as a lieutenant, Mr. Fulton's wartime experience included tours of duty in England, North Africa, Italy and North-West Europe, culminating in his appointment as chief technical officer for the Canadian Army overseas with the rank of brigadier.

Returning to Northern Electric, Mr. Fulton was appointed chief engineer of the electronics division in 1946, Government contracts manager in 1949, manager of the Belleville plant in 1950 After a period as assistant to the vice-president and managing director, he became general manager of the sales division in 1952.

business premises. A similar incident took place Friday when a pair of fleece-lined boots were taken.

Tuesday thieves struck again and smashed the wind-screen of a van before disappearing with tools and other property.

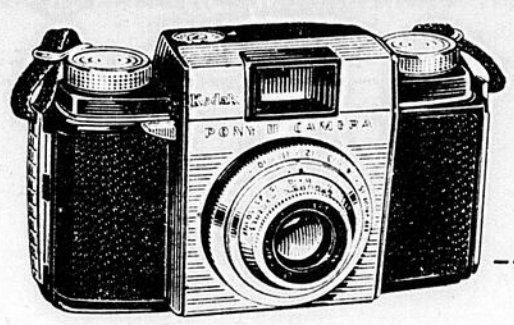

Mrs. Clack told The Examiner that previous to these incidents there had been no such occurrences in the area to her knowledge.

"A large number of children use the alley behind the store to travel to and from school. There have been recent cases of some of them climbing over our roof to steal bottles of soft drinks from the rear premises of the Avenue Restaurant. Perhaps they are responsible. But in any case we'll make sure it doesn't happen again," she said.

Two cars were in collision at Wood and Western avenues Monday evening. The drivers, James Russell, 55, 4082 Tupper street and Jean Paul Beaubien, 25, 6528 Boyer street, were uninjured.

Look what your money is doing!

Every time you make a bank deposit—no matter how small—you are helping to finance better living for yourself and for your fellow Canadians. The BNS statement below shows how your money is put to work, so that you enjoy better products . . . better schools . . . better roads . . . better living. The Bank of Nova Scotia is proud to be associated with more than a million depositors in this continuing story of money in action.

The Bank of Nova Scotia's 126th Annual Statement
AS AT OCTOBER 31, 1957

LIABILITIES —money entrusted to us

$1,260,611,795 Deposits. More than a million customers now bank with the BNS. They deposit their money for a host of reasons—to meet business and household needs . . . as a retirement fund for the future . . . or to finance a college education. Our customers place these funds for safety and convenience in current and savings accounts, personal chequing accounts, and such special accounts as the Bank's unique PSP.

$19,780,600 Letters of credit. This is the extent to which the Bank has guaranteed the credit of our customers buying from suppliers, particularly those in foreign lands. It matches the amount pledged by customers for repayment (see amount opposite similar heading under "Assets"). Business at home is thus encouraged to expand abroad . . . another way the Bank serves as a partner in Canada's progress.

$4,964,680 Other liabilities. This represents money set aside to cover expenses which must be met but are not yet due . . . such as our 1957 Income Tax.

WHAT THE SHAREHOLDERS CONTRIBUTE

$70,004,090 Capital paid up, rest account and undivided profits. The shareholders—the real owners of the Bank—contribute these funds which protect the interests of the customers. They thus ensure the strength and stability of the BNS, and help make possible the Bank's increasing role in a growing Canada.

Total Liabilities $1,355,361,165

ASSETS —how The Bank puts the money to work

$193,546,011 Cash, cheques, and due from banks. This is like cash in the Bank's till to service the cheques which BNS customers draw on their accounts.

$318,852,943 Investments. This amount (mostly Canadian Government Bonds) helps finance varied Government activities such as the St. Lawrence Seaway; the National Harbours Board; Wheat Board payments; our National Defence needs. Other investment funds go into the building of schools, highways, new plants and equipment—to make available for us all more of the good things in life.

$141,498,363 Call loans, secured. This money, lent to investment houses, is subject to immediate recall if required.

$659,702,434 Other loans, less provision for estimated loss. Our customers in Canada and abroad borrowed this amount for all kinds of personal and business purposes. These loans help finance the purchase of materials and the sale and distribution of goods . . . from the cutting of trees in the forest to the sale of refrigerators . . . from starting a business to improving a farm or home. Loans of this kind are the lifeblood of Canada's growth—the Bank's most important service to the community.

$19,780,600 Customers' liability under letters of credit. This is the amount customers are pledged to repay the Bank for funds it may pay out under "Letters of Credit" (see this heading under "Liabilities").

$21,980,814 Bank premises and other assets. Most of this sum goes into a continuous programme of improving our branch facilities so that customers can do their banking more pleasantly and easily.

St. Leon School students hear address on safety

Hundreds of interested youngsters of the junior and senior classes of St. Leon de Westmount listened in rapt attention during a most instructive address on traffic precautions and dangers by Lorenzo Dallaird, of the Quebec Ministry of Transport and communications this week.

Mr. Dallaird spoke forcibly of the need for the utmost prudence by pupils attending schools to prevent numerous accidents that could have been avoided if the laws relating to traffic were better understood and obeyed.

"Carelessness and ignorance," he said, "are responsible for the majority of accidents on the highways."

The department and its minister were anxious to do all they can to reduce the number of accidents due in large measure to imprudence and recklessness, he said. By means of illustrations he showed the causes that led to pedestrians and others being seriously or fatally injured.

Pointing to the officers of the Quebec Provincial Police and the Westmount Police Department represented by Sergeant Romeo Harnois and Constable Lessard, he told his young listeners that the police should be looked on as friends to whom the children can turn to at any time for help.

"Don't forget," he said, "that anything you can do to help when an accident occurs is appreciated."

He particularly emphasized the dangers to cyclists in heavy traffic.

"The cyclist who is not the master of his machine, or ignores traffic regulations constitutes a great danger for himself and others," he added. "Their collaboration and that of their parents was indispensable to eliminate the massacre on the public highways."

Judging by the applause the audience welcomed the sound advice.

Municipal Judge Rose, who had been invited to attend said, "Mr. Dallaird is entitled to warm thanks for his interesting and instructive address. I fully concur with him that our growing youth should be grateful that the police are their friends and ready to help at all times."

BULLETINS FROM BIRDLAND

BY WINIFRED E. WILSON

COWBIRD TACTICS

To say that Cowbirds by being parasitic make a nuisance of themselves in Birdland is to speak mildly. Accusing them of imposing on other parents by trying to shift the responsibility of bringing up children may not sound very disastrous — but it actually is. Apparently by design, birds oftenest affected are smaller than Cowbirds, and this causes death to many tiny, infant songbirds.

When a large, Cowbird egg is deposited in the nest of a Warbler it takes up too much room; usually hatches first; and the baby, bigger to begin with than the young Warblers, occupies most of the space, demands most food, grows fastest, and finally pushes the real offspring out of their rightful home.

Certain kinds of birds seem to be more submissive to this treatment than others. In July it is very usual to see a big, baby Cowbird following around an adult Warbler ever so much smaller than itself. You will easily find them, if you follow the loud, harsh voice of the young imposter, crying incessantly. Rather naturally, the nest of a Kinglet (Canada's second to smallest bird) is frequently chosen for a Cowbird's nursery.

But even some of the larger birds are sufferers. We know of the nest of a Brown Thrasher (nearly 4 inches longer than a Cowbird) that contained one of the objectionable eggs. That was particularly odd, because Cowbirds generally avoid nests that are built on the ground, evidently realizing that such a spot is not very safe. For that reason "ground" Sparrows, like the Savannah, are seldom victimized. However, we are unable to read a Cowbird's mind to find out why the Hermit Thrush and the Veery, very little smaller than the intruder and both ground builders, are so frequently imposed upon. Redwinged Blackbids that nest among cattails are rarely disturbed.

Other birds have a variety of ways to outwit Cowbirds. Robins often kick out the offending egg; several kinds abandon the original home and start another nest.

A few weeks ago we discussed the selection of ornamental plants to enhance the beauty of your aquarium, and also, the more popular types of fish. Now that winter is almost upon us you will have to pay special attention to the lighting and heading of your tank. As you undoubtedly know cold water is fatal to tropical fish.

If you have just acquired your aquarium, you will notice that after a few days a certain amount of sediment is beginning to collect at the bottom. This is merely the accumulation of excreta and other excess food. At first this is not important but when the water begins to cloud and the sediment swirls around the time has come to take preventative action. This condition can be prevented by regularly siphoning off the sediment with a piece of rubber tubing, or with one of the very cheap and efficient aquarium sediment removers. Some of these are made of glass and though quite efficient are easily broken. Cellulois or metal cleaners are to be preferred.

When you remove water in cleaning the tank, make sure you replace it with water of the same temperature. This process ensures that a small regular supply of water enters the tank and is valuable in keeping the tank clean and healthy.

There was a time when the aquarist valued every drop of water in the tank, and would not replace it. Experience has proven that this was a mistaken premise. With tropical fish the water lost in evaporation has to be replaced.

Nova Scotia Bank assets at record

The annual statement of The Bank of Nova Scotia for the year ended October 31 shows that, largely as a result of an upsurge in deposits, total assets reached a new record of $1,355,000,000. The increase in assets of $85,219,000 was the second largest in the bank's 125-year history, being exceeded only in 1955.

Last year the savings of BNS customers rose by more than $83 million, as total BNS deposits climbed to a new high of $1,260,600,000. The increase the previous year was $56 million.

Personal savings during the year rose by $21 million. Another $14 million was transferred from "personal savings" to "other deposits", following a change made in the official classification of deposits in this category.

The Coming

By

The Venerable R. Kenneth Naylor, D.D.,
Rector, Trinity Memorial Church

Once more we turn our thoughts to the Coming of our Lord, which we describe under the one word "Advent," and we think both of His Coming in His humility and to His future Coming in glory. There are two ways for us to consider the preparation for the Coming of our Lord: The one is to follow the traditional teaching of the four Sundays in Advent; the second is to cast our net much more widely and think of the preparation which God made through the great nations of the Ancient World.

Let us be modest on this occasion and see what the different Sundays mean to us and how they prepare us to receive the Infant Christ, so that we too may hear the message that came to the shepherds: "Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

The Epistle for the First Sunday in Advent reminds us that "the night is far spent and the day is at hand;" the Gospel tells us of the Coming of the Christ into the Temple. The old Salisbury Benediction and the modern English Collect then lay the stress on the Coming and the need for preparation.

Preparation for what? We know the preparation that God had made among His own people through His prophets; and even among the Gentiles through longings variously expressed in the èi9poets. And yet we know how unprepared the world was for that Coming: "He came unto His own and His own received Him not." He Himself made preparation of His own people in His Ministry; but when He came into His own city the authorities received Him with hostility. His disciples have been maing preparation for the Coming for centuries, and the world is still unready for Him.

St. Paul's suggestion for preparation is simple but not easy: it demands surrender and acceptance. You will find it in the Epistle: "Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness and put on the armour of light." Notice the plural — "works". St. Paul has a very nasty list of the works of the flesh or darkness in Galations V; and a description of the armour of the Christian in Ephesians VI. The passage is familiar enough but suppose we read it again for ourselves and see whether we would find the armour so unaccustomed that we could not put it on; the girdle of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. Armour is of no use unless we are trained to it. But the preparation for the the Coming is not an easy-going affair, but a warfare, and in warfare we must have our weapons ready and be trained to use them.

Canada's present-day progress is very much a "moving picture" . . . one that you can be proud of because it's all about the part played by the money you have on deposit at the Bank of Montreal.

In this major production, your Bank puts the money through its paces by making it work hard at establishing, expanding and improving Canadian enterprise of every description and size. The results benefit Canadians in every walk of life, enable them to achieve important goals, continue to improve Canada's high standard of living.

The significance of the B of M's role in Canada's over-all progress in 1957 can be seen in the following highlights taken from the main picture — the B of M's Annual Report for this year.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THE B OF M's ANNUAL REPORT ON ITS 140TH ANNIVERSARY

PREVIEW

With the focus being largely on future events, facts and figures such as these form the solid framework on which the promise of the future is based. In the years to come — as it has done since 1817 — the B of M will play a major role in helping to make the picture of Canada's progress grow even brighter.

"MY BANK" TO 2 MILLION CANADIANS — B of M

BANK OF MONTREAL

Canada's First Bank

working with Canadians in every walk of life since 1817

DEPOSITS: At the end of the Bank's year, October 31st, 1957, over two million Canadians had $2,632,251,291 on deposit at the B of M — the highest year-end total on record. Although much of this money belongs to institutions and business firms, well over half of these deposits represent the personal savings of Canadians in every walk of life — savings that the B of M puts to work for you and for Canada.

LOANS: Your savings at the B of M provide much of the basic framework for our country's expansion . . . in the form of loans to farmers, miners, fishermen, oil men, lumbermen, ranchers, to industrial and business enterprises and to Provincial and Municipal Governments. As of October 31st, B of M loans totalled $1,437,636,447 — all of which played their part in making Canada a better place in which to live.

INVESTMENTS: At the close of the year, the B of M had $657,133,040 invested in high-grade government bonds and other public securities which have a ready market. This money is helping to finance government projects for the betterment of the country and the welfare of all Canadians. Other securities held by the Bank — which include a diversified list of high-quality short-term industrial issues — bring total investments to $872,675,309.

Saint Andrew's Day observed by Anglican Church Auxiliary

Saint Andrew's Day, observed on November 30, around the world, is the commemoration of the life and martyr-death of the 'first-called' of the Twelve Apostles.

Known as the Patron Saint of Scotland before the time of the Norman Conquest of England, tradition has it that he was the first missionary to the Russians — reaching as far as the borders of Poland.

The missionary-mindedness of the gentle saint was evident from the first, when after receiving his 'call' he "findeth his own brother Simon . . . . and he brought him to Jesus". This desire to share the 'Good News' was undoubtedly one of the reasons why he was chosen — and by this honor was witness to all the important events of Christ's ministry.

In most parts of the World the name St. Andrew has become synonymous with missionaries and many are the mission churches in the outposts of Christendom bearing this ancient name.

In Canada the Woman's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church dedicated to the extension work of the Church at home and abroad, observes the day wherever possible with corporate worship and continuous intercession.

The self-denial offering made on this day is set aside by the Dominion Board to meet special overseas projects. In answer to an appeal by the Lord Bishop of Jamaica help will be sent to St. James' Parish Church, Montego Bay, which suffered severe damage by earthquake.

In India there is a revival of the great non-Christian religions. Study Centres are being established for the purpose of a fresh study of these religions with the Christian approach to them. This important and difficult task also will receive assistance.

Harry Rolland retires from the Bell Telephone after 50 years service

Fifty years service with Bell Telephone Co. — interrupted only by service in two World Wars — ended for Harry 'Dusty' Rolland, 531 Claremont ave. with his recent retirement.

Mr. Rolland's career is one of "office boy to executive." He began work on May Day, 1907 as the office boy in an audit office and finishing as Area Personnel Supervisor. He also won acclaim as a soldier, and as a pioneer wartime aviator.

Harry Rolland joined the Traffic Department of the Company, when it was formed in 1911. He served in Montreal until 1929 when he went to Ottawa as Eastern Ontario Division Traffic Superintendent. He returned to Montreal in 1938, and was in turn Superintendent of the Eastern, Quebec and Montreal Division.

In 1955 he went to Toronto as area personnel supervisor, the position he left on retirement.

Mr. Rolland began his military career in 1916. He joined the Scottish Light Dragoons, and served overseas with the Canadianian Grenadier Guards and the Expeditionary Force in France and Belgium. Later he was transferred to the Royal Air Force in Italy with the rank of Lieutenant.

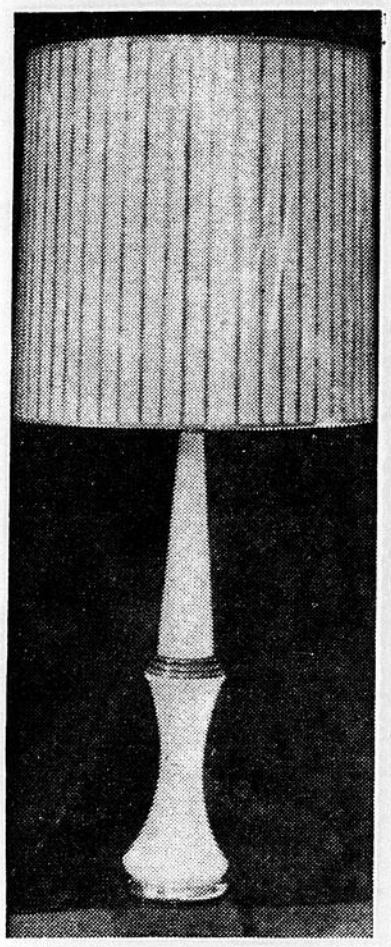

Between the wars he served in the Canadian Grenadier Guards (Militia) and in 1940 took command of the 2nd Reserve Battalion. Under his leadership the battalion trained 240 officers and 3,000 men for active service units.

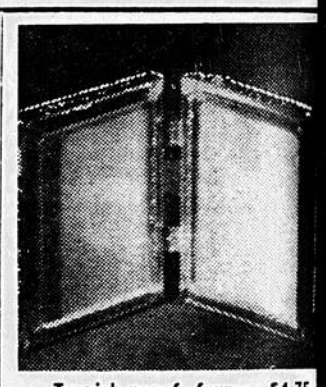

Mr. and Mrs. Rolland were honored at a reception both in Montreal and Toronto — attended by many company officers. At the Montreal reception he was presented with a power lawn mower.

Bank of Montreal resources are high

Highest paid-up capital figures in Canadian banking history are revealed in the 140th annual statement of the Bank of Montreal, issued Monday, for the year ended October 31. The report also shows record figures for total deposits and loans, with resources at a new high for the bank at $2,866 million, up by $83 million in the year.

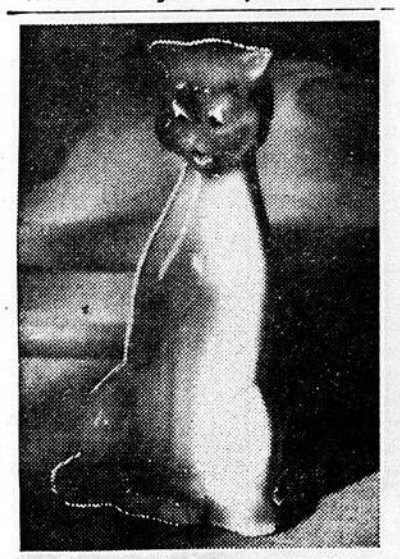

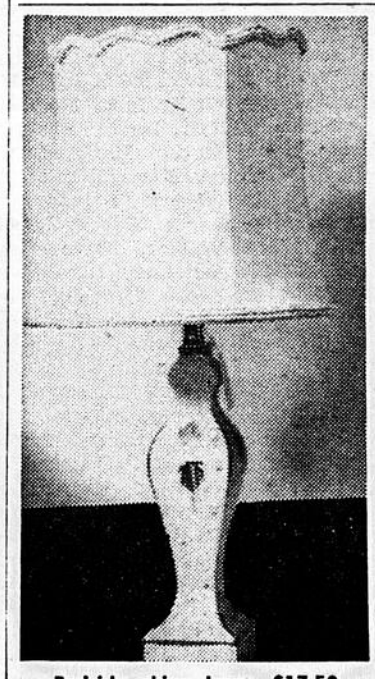

Paid-up capital, which was increased three years ago from $36 million to $45 million, now stands at $53,686,832, following the recent offering of new B of M stock, while the rest account has grown to $117,373,665. The new issue was subscribed to the extent of 99 per cent, and the remainder of the stock was sold to a group of investment dealers.

When peace will touch the eyes of pain,
And withered hopes, will bloom again.

Hadassah members commended for great work in Israel

A budget of $2,250,000 for aid to Israel was adopted Monday by members of the Hadassah organization of Canada at its 17th biennial convention.

This is an increase of $250,000 over the previous budget of 1955, reported national treasurer Mrs. Charles Eisenstat of Montreal.

"The problems that confront Israel today are very real and very great. Since 1955, $2,000,000 has been raised to aid Israel," she told the 500 Hadassah delegates from across the country.

Hadassah money fed, clothed, educated and healed-Israel people. It saves human lives and had helped build a country.

"Our treasury report shows such achievements and reflects tremendous efforts on the part of each chapter whose spirit energy is devoted to the needs of Israel," she said.

More than $690,000 has been contributed to Hadassahs' major fund-raising projects: Hadassim, a children's village, Nahala, an agricultural school and Youth Alijah.

She reported that Youth Alijah has received $627,394 which includes clothes, shipments of food and machinery.

"Our income from the United Israel Appeal has shown a steady decrease, in 1956, $58,518 was donated, in 1957, $37,793 for a total of $88,375."

The sum of $12,429, raised in Winnipeg, was devoted to specific gifts to Israel such as a new hydro-therapy pool. Some $40,000 represented the value of materials sent to Israel.

She reported that the women's division of the State of Israel Bonds has raised $325,000 this year.

She urged members to intensify their efforts as the main concern of the world Zionist movement is to deal with the hardships that are being faced in Israel.

Mrs. H. Wisenthal of Montreal, regional vice-president, said the household of Hadassah stretching from Vancouver to Newfoundland presents a formidable challenge to the Hadassah treasury.

"Each and every one of us has the duty and the innate responsibility to think, to examine to criticize, to advise and to shape the way in which our money becomes transformed into the instrument of our noble purpose," she said.

Mrs. H. Sokolov of Winnipeg, national chairman of the fund raising committee, urged delegates to seek new and interesting techniques in fund raising. She commended Hadassah members for their great work in aiding Israel.

civil-defence, pollution and many other items that can only be discussed at intra-municipal level if they are to be successful.

"There are other matters also urgently needing attention," the Mayor continued. "Items such as taxi-services, co-ordination of mass transportation, and other problems that should be introduced to the new organisation.

"Although we may not agree with all the recommendations we do feel that it is a foundation on which to build for future development."

"I think we should support it rather than introduce an alternative which would only confuse the situation. I am sure this report will give us a good start."

TIME UNKNOWN

Mayor Bruneau then said that nobody knew when the Metropolitan government would be introduced.

"Possibly they are waiting for the City to straighten itself out after the recent elections. But we have been assured that no measures will be imposed without consultation with the municipalities. We have excellent provincial departments in Quebec and I would have faith in their decisions.

"However, one thing I am sure of is that the new body should not be over-loaded in its initial stages."

Referring to reports that taxes would be reduced the Mayor said that there had been pledges to this effect.

"What we can expect primarily, however, is more efficient services and regulated development and prosperity.

ASSESSMENTS

"Regarding uniform assessments, it is only fair that we should contribute to these intra-municipal services on an equal basis. But I think we should, if possible, leave the property tax to the municipalities who need it for their own purposes. Their income has only been doubled in the time that the Federal income had been multiplied twelve times, despite the increased services required of them.

"The conference in Ottawa should have discussed the re-distribution of taxes to leave municipal property taxes unshared with others. They could then have been responsible for their own valuations.

"However," the Mayor concluded, "We have approved the Paquette report in principle and feel the City should support its councillors in this decision. We will seek to preserve within this framework as much as possible of our local tradition — which has given you a clean government — one thing that is outstanding in this community."

concrete pillars whose foundations are in some cases as deep as forty feet in the earth.

The ice-sheet will be divided into a hockey rink and a free-skating area. The rink will measure 200 by 85 feet, and the other area 100 by 85 feet. This will mean that members of the public can still skate even while hockey matches are actually in progress.

Other features of the building will be special fluorescent-lighting, a public address system and ornamental flower-boxes at the entrances. Color scheme is not yet finally decided but it has been agreed that it will involve cherry-red brickwork.

It has been rumored that temporary skating facilities might be available in late February but this depends mainly on whether or not weather holds up program.

Russia invites Canucks to USSR tournament

Russia has officially invited Canada to send a soccer team to Russia in 1958.

The invitation arrived at the office of George Anderson, Canadian association secretary, via the Russian embassy at Ottawa.

In view of the visit of the Lokomotivs in 1956, Canada is somewhat obligated to make the visit and will want to do so when the Russians have given the details and time of the tour.

At January 1, 1957, Canada's steel furnaces had a rated ingot capacity of 5,504,000 net tons per annum, an increase of 51.6 per cent over five years earlier.

McGill water show set for two nights, Dec. 6-7

The seventh annual McGill Water Show will be held at the McGill Memorial Pool, December 6 and 7. The show is sponsored by the McGill Women's Student Athletic Association, and is performed by the university's best synchronized swimmers.

Each year the show has a main theme around which the swimming routines are planned. This year the theme is "Alice in Waterland", taken from the famous classical children's book.

In previous years the show has been of the revue type. This year's theme allows for a continual plot to exist throughout the show. The swimming routines will be correlated by dancing routines performed at the side of the pool in between swimming numbers.

The swimming routines are performed to music and demonstrate the rhythm and grace of synchronized swimming. Many excellent and imaginative routines are to be executed.

The "Queen's Card Game", has the swimmers at the opening of the number, in the formation of a hand of cards, following which they go through formations of the diamond, the heart, the spade and the club. Many other numbers, such as "The Cheshire Cat" and "The Mad Hatter's Tea Party" make the show both interesting and fun.

Girls from the N.D.G. - Westmount area are swimming in the show. The girls from Westmount are Eydie Dorset, Janet Savage, Joan Clayton, Eleanor Garcia, Frances Silver, Helgi Ulk, Mimi Cooper and Marilyn Ross. From N. D. G. are Joan Rodger, Diane Matheson, Joan Blundell, Andrea Barlow and Judy Barlow.

Tickets can be bought for the December 6 performance at the Physical Education office, Royal Victoria College, 555 Sherbrooke street west. There is no advance sale of tickets for the December 7 performance.

Shrine All Star grid game here Dec. 7 to help crippled children

"Strong legs run . . . that weak legs may walk", is the motto of the Canadian Shrine East-West All-Star Game to be played in Montreal, December 7.

The Canadian Shrine All-Star Football Game will be played for the benefit of Canadian Shriner's Hospitals for Crippled Children in Montreal and Winnipeg.

One of the finest examples of weak legs that walked can be found in big Dick Batten, now a cattle rancher in Dos Palos, California.

When Dick was two years old, he suffered from a diseased bone in his right leg. He was admitted to the San Francisco Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children in 1932. After six months' treatment Dick was completely cured.

He grew into a big, strong boy and became a fine football player . . . first at Dos Palos High School, then at College of Pacific. His attendance at College of Pacific . . . he majored in animal husbandry . . . was made possible by an athletic scholarship.

Dick realized his greatest ambition in life by playing in the Shrine East-West College All-Star game in San Francisco as an offensive tackle in 1952.

The East-West College game is staged annually in San Francisco for the benefit of the same hospital, San Francisco Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children, that enabled Dick's weak legs to walk . . . then run for his college education and other crippled children.

Shrine game players wear $161 equipment

When the teams take the field for the Canadian Shrine East-West All-Star Football Game in Montreal, December 7, they will be wearing approximately $161.00 worth of equipment.

From head to toe: helmet, $25.00; face mask, $3.00; jersey, $15.00; shoulder pads, $25.00; trousers, $29.00; hip pads, $20.00 thigh pads, $3.50; knee pads, $1.50; shoes, $24.00; blocking pads, $15.00.

Speedy Philip Issanman roared around end for Westmount's first score and quarterback John Lechter scored the other on an option play Doug Sparks converted the first one.

Ron Bacchiochi was the Newman scorer rolling across the goal-line from about four yards out. Paul Meany converted.

Westie Stars, St. Laurent register hockey victories,

Westmount Stars and the St. Laurent TP's continue to dominate the St. Laurent Intermediate Hockey League. Last Saturday the Stars defeated winless Loisirs de Fabvreville 4-1. The boys from the Taverne Principale defeated the new Royal Pharmacy entry 2-1.

The Loisirs gave the Stars their hardest battle of the year before bowing to the power of Jimmy Bissant and company. The Stars took a two goal lead in the first period on goals by Heaney and Brown.

In the second period the teams exchanged goals with Curray slapping in St. Pierre's rebound to score for the Loisirs. Heaney bagged his second goal of the afternoon when he deflected Bobby Painchaud's drive into the corner of the net.

Stew McGowan took Johnny DellE'lce's pass in the third period to beat Penning and round out the scoring for the afternoon.

In the nightcap, TP's were back in their winning ways by edging Royal Pharmacy in one of the best games seen this season.

Roy Cherrier gave the TP's a one goal lead at the five minute mark of the first period. The TP's gave a great defensive display while waiting for the breaks. This came early in the second period when Jim Kearns intercepted a Pharmacy pass in his own end zone and beat Pete Jodoin on a breakaway.

While the powerful Pharmacy team pressed for the remainder of the game they were checked into submission. Brian McCann scored their only goal in the third period.

Just prior to game time, Gerry Kerr, league president, announced executive approval had been given for the transfer of the Snowdon Wanderers franchise to the Royal Pharmacy colors.

M. Goulet, owner of the Royal Pharmacy, has long been an active supporter of the league. His entries in the past have always produced pleasing hockey. It is understood he is trying to woo Bob Patterson out of retirement to take over the coaching chores. If he succeeds, Patterson's coaching ability will be taxed trying to weld this group of stars into a team, for there is no doubt that on paper they are the strongest team in the league.

Patterson wins Calvert trophy

Hal Patterson, pass receiving and defensive star of the Alouettes, became the first three-times winner in the nine-year history of the Lord Calvert Trophy.

Prior to his third straight coup, the Big Four's leading scorer was tied with veteran Herb Trawick in copping the fans' voting award twice apiece.

Unlike last season when he won the "Player of Distinction" honor by a record margin, Patterson drew tighter competition from the rest of the Alouettes. Red O'Quinn in particular.

He clinched his third Calvert Trophy at last playoff with a season's count of 15.358 points representing a lead of 1,117 over runner-up O'Quinn.

Jack Clifford, supervisor of voting, presented the award to Patterson. "The Montrea. fans have given Hal the greatest tribute ever accorded a local football favorite when they voted him their top choice for the third year in a row," Mr. Clifford commented.

"They showed their appreciation of his fine all-round work by giving him a heavy vote at every home game."

Red O'Quinn who was present at the Patterson announcement, stated that "it was an honor in itself being runner-up to Hal."

The popular redhead added that the fans' selection was very sound. "I'm sure I echo the feelings of the players when I say that Hal is the hardest worker we have. His spirit and hustle have been an inspiration to us", he added.

TWO OF THREE

Three players in the National Hockey League this season were born in Hamilton, Ontario and two of the three play with the Chicago Black Hawks.

NORMAN KIHL, an important member of the telecasting crew describing the pre-game and half-time ceremonies in the 1957 Molson's Grey Cup broadcast. He is one of the most popular men in radio and television in Montreal. During his six years on radio station CJAD he was Montreal's most popular announcer.

St. Lambert shades all star Westmount grid 8-7

The All Star team from Westmount were shaded 8-7 by a tear from St. Lambert. Westmount played a much stronger defensive game than the visitors, although Saints seemed a better drilled team.

There was no scoring in the first quarter, but both teams threatened on several occasions. In the second quarter, Westmount's Tony McCullagh gathered in a forward from Dave Tyldsley for a combined pass and run effort of 40 yards to open the scoring. Bernie Kelly kicked the convert.

In the third, St. Lambert gambled on third down and Terry Mayhen went 75 yards down the middle to set up a touchdown by Bob Lussier on the next play. The convert was good to even the score 7-7.

In the fourth, both teams fought desperately. On the last play of the game, Terry Mayhen punted into the Westmount end zone and Dave Tyldsley received but was not quick enough to return the kick.
