Open Allied talks on JFK's proposals

WASHINGTON — (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk called in the ambassadors of Britain, France and Germany today to open urgent Allied conversations on proposals by the Kennedy administration for military preparations to meet expected Soviet pressures against West Berlin.

The United States, it is understood, intends to seek a fast buildup of conventional NATO military strength in Europe by the addition of several divisions to the western European defence force. Some officials indicate this would mean an increase to the long-planned goal of 30 divisions from the present strength of 22 divisions.

Ambassadors Sir Harold Caccia of Britain, Herve Alphand of France and Wilhelm Grewe of West Germany were scheduled to meet at the state department with Rusk at mid-afternoon.

The immediate purpose of the conference was to give them detailed reports of decisions on U.S. policy made by President Kennedy at a National Security Council meeting late Wednesday. In the 48 hours between the NSC conference and the session with the ambassadors, officials at the White House, the state department and defence department have been putting the president's decisions into detailed plans and proposals for U.S. and Allied action programs.

FLY TO EUROPE
Saturday Defence Secretary Robert McNamara, Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and other high defence officials will fly to Europe for conferences with Allied leaders in Paris and London.

Early next week, probably Monday, the permanent council of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization at Paris will get a report on U.S. plans and proposals from U.S. Ambassador Thomas Finletter who is also flying to Paris this weekend. He is American representative on the NATO council.

Next Thursday Assistant State Secretary Foy Kohler will take a task force to Paris to meet with British, French and West German planners to make preparations for a Western foreign will be dispatched to Europe later this year.

Kennedy is known to believe, however, that total American strength must be raised to a point where it will be capable of meeting Communist challenges not only in Europe but in other parts of the world. His plans are expected to be disclosed in some detail in a report next Tuesday night (10 p.m. EDT) over TV-radio and a message to Congress next Wednesday.

West is on 'warpath' according to Pravda

CP from AP-Reuters
MOSCOW — A Moscow commentator said today the German problem must be settled at the negotiation table. The Soviet Union does not want war, he added.

"From beyond the ocean we can hear the mass beating of war drums in American newspapers," said Vladimir Zhukov, described as a Pravda observer. "A number of leading statesmen and politicians, senators and representatives, have taken to the war path."

Pravda is the official organ of the Soviet Communist party. Articles in it signed Observer are usually taken to represent the official line.

"Some hotheads in the West do not want negotiations on the (West Berlin) issue. They do not want to make any constructive lead in Paris and London."

"They want to preserve at any cost the present high explosive situation in Europe and they threaten war, a third world war, against anyone who tries to remove the delayed action bomb that is endangering the peace of the world."

"The Soviet Union has been threatened more than once, more than once it has been attacked, and every time the enemy got a crushing blow in retaliation."

"But we do not want war. The German sabre - rattling provocateurs intimidate no one. They are merely pushing the world further along the dangerous road of an accelerated arms race. The great mass of the people throughout the world, in the West as well, are conscious of this danger."

The German problem must be settled at the negotiation table. That is the unanimous demand of all people of goodwill. That is what the Soviet government has been urging right along, and the sooner the Western politicians agree to this, the sooner will the black war clouds disappear from the horizon."

This, he said, is a 1,000-per cent expansion in 13 years.

French planes bomb Bizerte

War flames forging new unity for Arabs

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
TUNIS — (AP) — War flames sweeping Bizerte are forging new Arab unity in North Africa. France's fighting retaliation to President Habib Bourguiba's drive to expel the French garrison from the big base at Tunisia's northern tip has rallied the support of Morocco, the Algerian rebels, and the United Arab Republic, all of whom have been at odds with the Tunisian leader in the past.

The battle around Bizerte is another serious threat to France's chances of retaining a foothold in the Tunisia-Algeria-Morocco crescent that once was her exclusive preserve.

Western diplomats in the Tunisian capital believe that the entire West could lose its influence in the strategic area.

No. 2 MAN GRIM
Bahi Ladgham, Bourguiba's No. 2 man, was grim when he summoned U.S. Ambassador Walter Walsley Thursday.

"Now is your chance to prove how anti-colonialist you are," he told the American.

For Tunisia—and the Arab world—Bizerte is a clearcut case of an underdog trying to drive out a colonial power.

"They have put us before our conscience — and God knows what we can do about it," an American diplomat commented. "After all, we too have bases abroad and France is our ally."

The shooting crisis apparently stunned the Tunisians themselves. Few of them had expected the dispute over the Bizerte base would reach such a tragic climax.

One polio case
OTTAWA (CP) — One new case of polio was reported in Canada during the week ended July 15 increasing the total number of cases in 1961 to 44 compared with 275 at the same date last year, the health department said Thursday.

The single case was in Saskatchewan. In the corresponding week in 1960, 23 new cases were recorded.

A dog's life is pretty good
NEW YORK (AP) — No dogs were allowed in the Astor ballroom today but other than that everything there indicated a dog's life is a pretty good one.

The hotel was host to a pet product manufacturers' trade show.

The consensus: Pets apparently are better cared for than their masters.

As a result of this tender loving care, the pet products industry has soared to a yearly volume of $3,000,000,000, said Allan Levey, president of the Pet Products Manufacturers' Association.

This, he said, is a 1,000-per cent expansion in 13 years.

He noted that pet food sells baby food by nearly two to one (pets eat pet food for a lifetime but babies grow up), and that more tin cans are used for pet food than for any other product but beer and oil.

(CP from Reuters-AP)

TUNIS — French planes were reported today to have begun dropping bombs in an all-out assault on Bizerte, near the big air and naval base which Tunisia is trying to force France to abandon.

French paratroopers were reported to have been dropped on the city after the bombing attack and fighting was reported going on in the streets.

A Tunisian government communiqué quoted by Reuters news agency said low-flying planes began dropping bombs 7 a.m. EDT and that French tanks were moving on the town.

The new assault came shortly after Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba announced he would accept volunteers from other countries in the fight to oust France from the strategic base.

Algerian insurgent leaders immediately offered to supply soldiers and arms to the Tunisians. The Algerians have some 15,000 well-armed guerrillas in camps along Tunisia's border with French-ruled Algeria.

The Tunisian news agency Afrique Presse said Tunisian troops still controlled the "nerve centres" of the town of Bizerte but French troops had moved to within 1,000 yards of the town.

PLANES RAKE BARRACKS
French aircraft were sweeping low, machine-gunning Tunisian barracks. Strong concentrations of French troops also were reported on roads leading into Bizerte.

The Tunisian government communiqué accused the French of engaging in "deliberate genocide" through its measures against the civilian population.

Bourguiba, meanwhile, disclosed that he had rejected a French ultimatum to evacuate Bizerte town and ordered the Tunisian garrison "to resist by all means the French offensive."

Bourguiba said he had ordered seizure of the French pipeline that carries the output of France's Sahara oil field. The pipeline is at Sakhrin, in southern Tunisia, and carried the output of France's Edjele field, 225 miles southeast of the Tunisian border.

Confer over Arab force as safeguard for Kuwait
CAIRO (AP) — Abdel Khalek Hassouna, secretary-general of the Arab League, said today he will consult with Arab states' leaders with his military advisers about forming an Arab force to be sent to Kuwait to replace British troops in the oil-rich Persian Gulf sheikdom.

The Arab League council session late Thursday night ignored Iraq's vehement protests and admitted Kuwait to league membership.

The council, now made up of 11 Arab states, at the same time entrusted Hassouna with the necessary steps to safeguard Kuwait's independence against Iraqi threats to annexation.

The council resolution did not mention formation of an Arab force, but it was clearly understood that the nine member states' delegates who voted for the resolution had in mind the formation of such a force to replace as quickly as possible British troops sent to Kuwait after Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassam made his claims on the sheikdom.

IRAQI WALKED OUT
Kuwaiti ruler Sheikh Abdullah as-Salim as-Saba had promised he will ask the British to leave his country immediately if the league guarantees Kuwait's independence by sending an Arab force as replacement.

The Iraqi delegation walked out of the council session Thursday night after Kuwait's admission.

The resolution admitting Kuwait to the league also said the Arab states will help Kuwait join the United Nations.

The resolution, adopted by Lebanon, Jordan, Tunisia, Morocco, Sudan, Yemen, Saudi Arabia, the U.A.R. and Libya, was opposed by Iraq.

Walkout averted at TCA

MONTREAL (CP) — A last-minute agreement that provides for small salary increases and reduced working hours Thursday night averted a strike by 8,000 Trans - Canada Air Lines flight attendants.

Both company and union, who fashioned the final agreement after 11 months of negotiating and little more than 5½ hours before the strike was scheduled to start, praised the settlement as "fair, just and equitable."

In addition to the salary increases, the two - year pact gives the attendants a general retroactive payment and a special retroactive bonus for service in jet airliners.

A few hours after the agreement was announced, it was ratified by groups of stewardesses and pursers in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Calgary. Vancouver attendants still were to ratify it but that was expected shortly.

The crown - owned company has never had a strike in its 24 - year history.

TALKS OPENED JULY 5
The talks that led up to the settlement started under special federal mediator Remi Duquette here July 5 on the invitation of federal Labor Minister Starr.

Bargaining for a new contract started 11 months ago. A conciliation board report handed down May 17 failed to resolve the conflict.

A joint company - union statement said the final agreement was based on a recently introduced company offer.

The pact does not give Canadian Air Line Flight Attendants Association (CLC) the point it had insisted on right up to the end of the negotiations — a "speed" clause that would give the attendants extra flying-time credit for service in jets or turbo - prop planes.

NIMBLE AT FINISH
Except for inhaling the water, Grissom came through in great shape. He jumped nimbly from the copter when it settled on the deck of the aircraft carrier Randolph.

America's second space man rocketed 118 miles high and impacted in the Atlantic 305 miles down range in a thrilling 16-minute journey.

At one point in the flight, Grissom reported he was so fascinated by the view of the earth below that he momentarily forgot to work.

A helicopter hoisted the 35-year-old air force captain from his capsule after it parachuted into the sea northeast of Grand Bahama Island.

Grissom was ferried to the nearby carrier Randolph for immediate physical examination.

The Randolph reported at 9:01 a.m. EDT that Grissom was on the deck. He was smiling and appeared in excellent condition.

The pickup came at 8:51 a.m., 31 minutes after the Redstone booster rocket thundered away from Cape Canaveral to fling America's latest space hero over almost the same sub-orbital course covered by astronaut Alan Shepard May 5.

The flight had been delayed twice previously — Tuesday and Wednesday — by heavy clouds over the launching area that prevented camera tracking of

Has narrow escape, water fills vehicle

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — (AP) — Astronaut Virgil Grissom was rocketed on a 5,310-mile-an-hour ride into space today but had a narrow escape at the end of his journey when his capsule filled with water.

Grissom had to climb out of the space craft in a hurry when it sank and when he was hoisted into a helicopter his first words were:

"Give me something to blow my nose. My head is full of sea water."

Grissom's helicopter hovered overhead for several minutes while a second helicopter attempted to get a cable in the rung of the space craft. But it sank lower and lower in the water and finally disappeared in 280 fathoms (1,600 feet).

The flight had been delayed twice previously — Tuesday and Wednesday — by heavy clouds over the launching area that prevented camera tracking of the Redstone during powered flight.

Today a thin layer of clouds was over the cape but a hot sun burned the clouds away.

Grissom asked to remain in the capsule an additional two minutes after he landed to complete a check of instruments inside the vehicle.

Calling on his many years of experience, Grissom said: "I'm a little out of shape, but I'm a little out of shape."

Grissom's plane would have arrived in Cuba Sunday midnight.

Admits drinking toast to extermination plan

JERUSALEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann there? The judge Eichmann admitted today he asked.

"I had to write the minutes drinking toasts the day they drew up the plan to exterminate Europe's Jews."

The testimony, was extracted by Judge Izhak Ravah as the trial of the former SS officer for mass slaughter of the Jews neared the end.

Ravah, one of three Israeli justices who will decide if Eichmann hangs, reminded the defendant of the Wannsee (Berlin) conference of Jan. 20, 1942, at which Reinhard Heydrich, chief of the Gestapo and security police, spelled out the doom of the Jews as instructed by Hitler.

The judge noted that after the meeting, Heydrich, SS Gen. Heinrich Mueller and Eichmann remained behind.

No formal welcome for Gagarin at Gander

GANDER, Nfld. (CP) — Russia's handsome Yuri Gagarin, world's first space traveller, makes his first visit to Canada Sunday when he arrives here for a 14-hour, overnight stop-over enroute to Cuba.

No official functions have been planned for the Soviet astronaut and the party of 23 accompanying him on the 12-hour flight from Moscow.

An official of the RCAF radar pine tree base here said Thursday tentative plans are to entertain the Russians at an informal dinner in the station's mess hall. They would also provide the visitors with sleeping accommodations.

"Everything is still betwixt and between," said RCAF F.R. L.A. Mallabieu. "We don't know officially yet if we'll be acting as their hosts. But we are making arrangements in anticipation that we will, and we likely will."

The Russians made reservations through their Ottawa embassy at the new, plush 80-room Hotel Gander Tuesday, to arrive at this modern air but cancelled them Wednesday night without explanation.

Hotel owner Jack Robertson, who is also the town's mayor, said reservations were arranged for a party of 24. "I don't know any more about their visit than that," said Mr. Robertson.

The town plans no special function for the Soviet astronaut. "We might try to arrange a tour of the town if it's possible," the mayor said.

terminal, known as the cross-roads of the world because it is a handy refuelling stop for transatlantic airlines, at 7:15 p.m. His flight will depart for Cuba non-stop Monday morning at 9:15 a.m.

The reason for the long Gander stopover was not revealed officially. But authorities here believe it was planned to give the Russian party a chance to rest, and to arrive in Havana at a more convenient time — early Monday afternoon. Without a stopover, Gagarin's plane would have arrived in Cuba Sunday midnight.

If present plans are followed through, Sqdn. Ldr. K. S. "Pat" Patterson of North Bay, Ont., will greet the Soviets on behalf of the 200-man RCAF station. Also on hand will be Dr. Amasasp A. Aroutunian, Russian ambassador to Canada.

ROME (AP) — American actors have different reasons for living in Europe.

Many are here to save taxes.
Some hate Hollywood because they find it crass and uncultured.
Some hate Hollywood because they can't get jobs there.

An actor like Jack Palance isn't so easy to classify. A dark and complicated man, he left Hollywood four years ago. The town figured he was heading for a tax haven, like some other film names. He made his home in the American-Swiss colony of Lausanne.

"But how could I come over just for money?" he asks. "I made two pictures at the first, and then I didn't work for a year and a half, even though I had offers."

"I have done only seven pictures in four years—three in Cameo parts, including Barab-as, and one of the films for TV."

"I have heard the secretary of the treasury and various senators railing about American actors who are losing American dollars abroad. As a matter of fact, I am paid by Italian producers, and much of the money ends up in the United States.
So I am helping our gold balance."

HAS COMPLEX REASONS
Europe's reason for moving to Europe are complex. They are connected with the strange history of a Pennsylvania coal miner's son who graduated from Stanford University with the aim of being a newspaper man.

One exposure to newspaper salaries convinced him to pursue his college minor—dramatics.

"I played only comedies at Stanford," he recalled. "They told me with my face that was all I could ever do. The first five plays I did on Broadway were comedy parts, too."

But he played an electrifying heavy for Elia Kazan in his film debut, Panic in the Streets. That did it. From then on, he was cast as nothing but a menace.

Palance's discontent began to show after seven years. Weary of some roles and of life in the Beverly Hills, he took off for Europe.

"It really isn't so strange that I would have an interest in life abroad," he said. "Both my parents were born in Russia.
I spoke Russian at home before I spoke English." He now can handle eight languages with some fluency.

On highway Truck kills man

A 45-year-old Sawyerville man was killed instantly early Thursday afternoon when he was hit by a truck on the highway between Lennoxville and Sherbrooke.

Philippe Lafrance was walking along the highway towards Sherbrooke about 12.05 p.m. when he was hit by a truck driven by Lionel Jutras, 30, of Sherbrooke.

Jutras told police he was following another truck when Lafrance suddenly turned from the side of the road and walked in front of the truck. Jutras put on his brakes as he hit Lafrance and skidded across the road.

By the time the truck stopped, Lafrance was dead.

A five-man coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death Friday morning.

District coroner, Dr. Louis Gagnon, presided.

Funeral services will be held Monday. Brien's Funeral Parlor is in charge of arrangements.

FIRE-FIGHTING DEMONSTRATION — Young Yves Dumont, 14, shows that it's really not so hard to operate a fire extinguisher once you know how. Under the watchful eye of Captain Gerard Roy of the Sherbrooke Fire Department, Yves demonstrates how to put out a fire for the benefit of the 1700 children who — like Yves — received a lecture in basic fire prevention procedures from Fire Director Percy Donahue at Jacques Cartier Park Thursday afternoon. The children, taking part in the OTJ park program, also saw firemen operate hoses and demonstrate a resuscitator unit.

Suicide ruled cause of death by inquest

A verdict of suicide in a moment of mental derangement was returned at a coroner's inquest held Thursday morning into the death of P. E. Sweet, of Sherbrooke.

Mr. Sweet was found dead of wounds inflicted by a 12-gauge shotgun shell at his home at 1760 Denault Street Tuesday afternoon.

His body was discovered by his wife when she returned from a shopping trip.

His wife testified at the inquest that her husband was suffering from cancer and had been in considerable pain for some time. Other witnesses at the inquest were neighbours of the Sweets and Sherbrooke police.

St. Francis District Coroner Dr. Louis Gagnon, presided at the inquest.

Woman, 40 is injured by tractor

THETFORD MINES — A 40-year-old Thetford Mines woman was rushed to the St. Joseph hospital here Thursday afternoon with a serious throat injury.

Mrs. Georges Routhier of R.R. No. 2, Thetford Mines, received the injury when she was thrown under the wheels of a tractor she was driving on her husband's farm.

At the time of the accident, Mrs. Routhier was transporting a load of hay to the barn.

Woman injured in Granby

GRANBY — A 57-year-old Granby woman was seriously injured in an accident early Wednesday on Route one between Rougemont and Marieville.

Mrs. Emile Sylvain was a passenger in a car driven by Louis Lehoux of Thetford Mines when the accident occurred. Lehoux had stopped the car at the side of the road to change a tire.

A heavy truck driven by Raymond Marceau of St. Evariste hit the car from behind, went out of control, crashed into the ditch and overturned.

The driver of the truck received minor injuries as did three other passengers in the car. Mr. and Mrs. Philippe Lavigne and their two-year-old son Francois.

Mrs. Sylvain was taken to the St. Joseph de Granby Hospital and hospital authorities said Friday morning that her condition was improving.

Both the car and the truck were heavily damaged.

US deficit high

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration announced Thursday that the United States budget deficit in the last 12 months totalled $3,900,000,000.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon and Budget Director David Bell said that "the deficit was higher than expected because the revenue and expenditure effects of the recent recession were greater than anticipated."

$96,761 from Ottawa to city's public works

The city of Sherbrooke received a total of $96,761 from the Federal Government for public work done in the winter of 1960-61.

The news was released in an official communique Friday morning.

The aid was the Federal government's contribution towards work on the following seven projects: the municipal library, the Olympic size swimming pool in Victoria Park, the fire station, City Hall and the enlarging of three city streets.

Employed in these works were 316 Sherbrooke men, for a total of 19,840 man-hours of labor.

The government's contribution was approximately 50 per cent of the total cost of the work.

Maurice Allard, Sherbrooke's Federal Government representative, said the Government hopes to contribute even more in the coming winter.

Find new specimen in city water

Washing machine plugged

Yvon Ethier is a reasonable man—but he says he draws the line when it comes to paying $3.25 for a two-inch worm-like creature from the city water supply.

So yesterday he gathered up his specimen and headed for Sherbrooke City Hall and the Director of Services, Charles Langlois, to register his complaint.

It all happened this way: Mr. Ethier lives in an apartment house on Malouin Street in the North Ward and his wife has a washing machine. Yesterday the washing machine was out of order. The cold water pipe just wouldn't deliver.

A repairman was called in. And what did he find?—Mr. Ethier's two-inch creature.

The worm-like creature was presented to Mr. Ethier along with a bill of $3.25.

"I don't mind so much for myself, but I do mind for my children," Mr. Ethier said. "They drink the stuff."

"For myself, I can make other arrangements."

Appeal launched by mayor

Mayor Armand Nadeau of Sherbrooke Thursday launched an appeal to all associations and social groups in the city, asking for their co-operation to resolve once and for all the crucial problem of Sherbrooke's drinking water.

The Mayor said that the proprietors of Sherbrooke must study this problem with the utmost seriousness, since they might be asked to pay a higher water tax in order to rectify the situation.

The Mayor has asked all these clubs to get together on this occasion, as this problem is one of the most pressing in the city.

If these clubs work on this project they are liable to come up with the right solution, he said.

Nehru plans visit to U.S.

CALCUTTA (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru will visit the United States at the invitation of President Kennedy Nov. 7, it was announced today by American Ambassador John Galbraith.

Galbraith, former Harvard professor of economics who was born near St. Thomas, Ont., said it was hoped Nehru would be able to spend a greater length of time in the U.S. than the three days which would be the official visit period.

Afterwards he would be able to tour other parts of the country if he wanted to.

Search continues for robbers of $20,000

Police today were continuing investigation into Thursday's $20,000 robbery of race-track accountant Valmore Morin, 31.

Morin, employed by the Sherbrooke Racing Association, said he and his wife returned home with the track receipts after work to find four men awaiting them.

The men bound the couple while they ransacked the accountant's automobile and found the two canvas money bags.

Mrs. Morin managed to untie herself and her husband and police were summoned.

Mayor to see Howard about buying estate

Sherbrooke Mayor Armand Nadeau announced Thursday that he intends to meet Senator Charles B. Howard to discuss the possibility of the city's purchasing Howardene, the Senator's estate on Portland Avenue.

Rumors have been circulating during the past week to the effect that if no buyer was found for the park intact, it would be parcelled into smaller areas and sold for building lots.

During the week, various clubs and associations such as the Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce have announced they would like to see something done to ensure that the park will continue to be available to the public.

Common Mart decision to be revealed July 31

LONDON (Reuters) — Prime Minister Macmillan said Thursday he will make a statement July 31 on possible British entry into the European Common Market.

Answering questions in the Commons, Macmillan told legislators: "Perhaps it would be better if you would await the statement I am to make."

(In Paris, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville said that if Britain wished to join the Common Market she would have to accept the political as well as the economic obligations of membership.

(He told the National Assembly: "I believe that today all our partners have arrived at the conclusion that the Common Market is not conceivable in the long run without some form of political union in Europe.")

The big question was whether Macmillan in his month-end statement will disclose the government's positive intention to negotiate.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and family of Pointe Claire, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Driver. Mrs. Brown with her children stayed to spend a week with her parents.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

experience as a combat and test pilot, Grissom performed a variety of tasks on the pulse-pounding flight.

For brief periods he controlled the two-ton space ship by switching its roll, pitch and yaw. Throughout the flight Grissom, of Mitchell, Ind., radioed assurances that his condition was good and that all capsule systems performed normally.

As the Redstone rose, the pilot reported:

"The sun is really bright."

Through his 19-inch "picture window," he reported seeing the east coast of the United States but was unable to identify landmarks because of the bright sun.

"Nine minutes after launching, as his space craft re-entered the atmosphere, he reported: "I feel very good. Everything is looking good."

Shouting encouragement to Grissom from the ground was the astronaut who preceded him to the threshold of infinity. Shepard was at the vital capsule communicator post in the control centre.

The two fellow astronauts maintained almost constant voice communication throughout the flight.

However, communication with the Liberty Bell 7 was troubled some at two periods—once when the radio frequency was switched from ultra high to high frequency. The other time was when the space craft passed over the horizon down range and project officials reported difficulty in hearing him.

NEAR-PERFECT FLIGHT

The flight was almost as perfect as Shepard's. America's first space man travelled 116 miles high and 302 miles down range in 15 minutes.

The two United States space performances were far from matching Soviet cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin's feat of orbiting the earth in an 80-minute flight. But both Grissom and Shepard gained valuable experience for later orbital missions.

Gagarin circled the globe once at a maximum altitude of 187 miles at a speed of more than 17,000 miles an hour last April 12.

The National Space Agency hopes to orbit an American late this year or early in 1962.

The Redstone rocket blasted off at 8:20 a.m. following three holds in the countdown. One was to check out a system in Liberty Bell 7. A second brief hold was called to remove floodlights from the launch area. And a third 40-minute hold was called at 7:25 to allow some clouds to pass from the cape area.

At the time of launch, Grissom had been inside the space craft three hours, 22 minutes.

VALE PERKINS — Miss Ann and John Jewett are spending a week at Camp Livingstone on Fitch Bay. They were accompanied to camp by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jewett, Faye, Ian and Billy.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sanborn, Eric and Fiona, of Sweetburg, were guests of Mrs. Sanborn's sister, Mrs. George Jewett, Mr. Jewett and family.

AUSTIN — Mrs. G. Kimball, Lowell, Mass., is spending some time with her cousin, Mrs. H. A. Channell, and Mr. Channell.

Mrs. J. W. Butters has returned home from a two-week stay in the General Hospital, Montreal, following an accident.

Auditorium filled to capacity

Fashion Show highlights Sherbrooke Festival Week

To the strains of soft music played at the piano by Mrs. Paul Camirand, the curtain of the St. Charles Auditorium was unfolded Wednesday evening showing a background of a dimly lit dress-makers shop, complete with material strewn table, dressmakers dummies, sketches of gowns upon the easel and the truly traditional sewing machine, without which there would have been no gowns to model at this very fine and most beautiful Festival Fashion Show.

The seven models, were Miss Denise Ferland, Miss Jackie Fortin, Mrs. John Dunn, Mrs. Guy Joubert, Mrs. Russell Marois, Mrs. Felix Pellerin and Miss Frechette took strolling as they passed through the dressmakers shop, lingering for a while and then passing down the dais amidst dazzling lights and the glare of T.V. cameras, displaying the many lovely creations for Summer and Autumn.

AN ALL OCCASION CREATION — Miss Denise Ferland wears a stunning Flamingo princess line dress with drape effect at the back, can be worn with or without the belt.

There definitely shows a trend towards rose trimmed dresses for the Fall, ranging from small to large, made in self material or coloured, they adorn the hemline and the waist. Suits are fashioned with elbow length sleeves and fur trimmed collars and the waist line is where it should be in the right place.

Following the intermission the show continued, this time the models were wearing attractive wigs supplied by Felix Salon, and Oh! to have the nerve to wear one. These really added to the beauty of the models for the display but rather extreme for the average person to wear, but who knows what fashion will demand of the female sex in the future.

Mrs. Marcel Savard was in charge of the publicity for the show and during the course of the evening prizes were distributed to the lucky winners as follows: Four suit cases donated by Molsons went to Miss L. Labonte, Mrs. V. Gagne, Miss F. Labonte and Miss C. Labbe. The ten dollar certificate by Jeanne Brien Reg'd. to Mrs. M. Lafreniere, Skinner and Nadeau gift to Mrs. J. M. Dionne. Pair of Kid gloves donated by Le Petit Salon to Miss G. Cloutier and the anonymous gift of five dollars to Mrs. A. Clarke.

The show was concluded with a grand finale with the models all taking their places in the dressmakers shop which made a blaze of color with all the different shades of gowns. This was one of the most well timed and planned shows to take place in Sherbrooke and for a most worthy and charitable cause.

Double christening at St. Peter's

The christening of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright, of Longueuil, Quebec; took place recently in St. Peter's Church, Sherbrooke. Rev. J. D. Franklin officiating. The baby received the names Cathy Marlene and the godparents are Mrs. Emily Schofield, Sherbrooke, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wright, Longueuil, aunt and uncle of the baby.

Also at the same service the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hampden Schofield, Sherbrooke, was christened and received the names of Susan Beth and the godparents are Mrs. Douglas Miller, Lennoxville; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright, Longueuil, aunt and uncle of the baby. Following the service a reception was held at the summer cottage of the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hatch. The lace covered table was centred with two christening cakes flanked by white tapers in crystal holders and low bowls of English daisies and forget-me-nots. Among those present was Mr. George Wright, great grandfather of Kathy Marlene.

C.G.I.T. Conference at Bishop's University from July 22 to 29

Leaders representing 46,000 girls who are members of Canadian Girls in Training groups will meet at a national conference at Bishop's University from July 22 to 29.

Leaders from all across Canada will have the opportunity to exchange ideas and learn new methods. Forty years ago the last C.G.I.T. National Leaders Conference was held and the progress which has been made since then will be reviewed at the conference at the end of July.

Among the activities planned for the conference are an address by guest speaker, Dr. G. Baez-Camargo of Mexico, chairman of program for the World Council of Christian Education and Sunday School Association.

Sunday evening, there will be informal discussion on the use of hymns and a discussion period on how leaders can help girls to develop a concern about their vocation.

Lecturers, workshops, discussion groups dealing with leadership and the understanding of teenage problems, group work and Bible study, will make up the program of the conference in the hope that these activities will be of help to the leaders in solving their problems.

Miss Lois Tupper will lead the discussions on Bible study each day during the conference. Dr. Katherine Hockin will deal with the problems of Faith and Life at a discussion group. Delegates will also receive an introduction to Christian drama and the use of folk songs. The use of audio visual techniques, recreation and handicrafts at C.G.I.T. meetings will also be discussed.

May we add our welcome to the C.G.I.T. leaders on the occasion of their Convention at Bishop's University.

You are invited to visit our shop during your stay in Lennoxville.

Green thumb hazards

Garden safety is something all gardeners should practise. Without a doubt modern gardening presents many more hazards to present-day gardeners than beset our forefathers. The impressive array of new gadgets and power machinery such as electric hedge trimmers, rotary mowers and rotary tillers, can be dangerous if mishandled.

Always use electric hedge trimmers when the foliage is dry. It almost goes without saying that you should never remove the shield from rotary mowers while the engine is running, since the blades move so fast they can hardly be seen.

Some other safety hints for consideration are:

Never gas up a power mower or cultivator while the engine is running or while you are smoking.

Always release pressure from spray equipment before opening to refill or clean out. Never plant trees or shrubs where they will impair traffic vision at street intersections. Avoid over-exertion, especially in the heat of the day and take a rest period between gardening chores during hot weather.

Do not leave the rake lying on the ground with tines up, or the hoe, and any other small tools, with sharp edges up. This may cause someone to be cut.

It is therefore important to acquire the habit of placing all garden tools with the teeth or blade downward, even if only laid down for a few minutes. We feel it necessary that children be taught this safety measure. Care should be taken against inhaling the fumes of all sprays and dusts, and the hands should be thoroughly washed after using any fungicides insecticides or chemical fertilizers.

It is always a good idea to keep pesticides stored in a place inaccessible to children. The necessity of keeping garden tools clean cannot be over-emphasized. Clean tools last longer and require much less effort to use than do those which are dirty or rusty. The experienced gardener provides himself with proper tools and keeps them sharp.

Tools are best kept hanging up; they are likely to become warped if left standing against wall or fence. (TNS).

"Safety is a family affair" is the caution-word theme of National Farm Safety Week, which has been officially proclaimed to begin July 23 and run till July 29.

Sponsored by the National Safety Council, Farm Safety Week will attempt to concentrate thinking among the nation's rural population on ways to reduce farm accidents.

Selected for emphasis this year are two critical areas: rural highway and farm machinery safety.

One of the problems up for study will be the old one contained in the question. Should a boy be allowed to drive a tractor?

This is a problem which has been bothering farm safety experts for some time.

A report from the National Safety Council shows that each year more fatal tractor accidents occur in the 10-14 age group than in any other age category.

"This seems to point up the fact that young people who don't know how to handle tractors are being allowed to operate them," the Council said.

SAFETY TRAINING

"If it is absolutely necessary for a youth to drive a tractor, he should be thoroughly trained in all phases of tractor safety before he takes over the wheel," the Council warned.

A teenager—or anyone who operates a tractor for that matter—should be aware of the need for regular safety inspections, should know the proper way to handle a tractor in any situation or on any terrain and should use extreme caution at all times," the Council added.

FARM SAFETY CALENDAR

HAZARDS + PEOPLE = ACCIDENTS

SUNDAY: Don't overcrowd your schedule. Many farm folk are killed off the farm. Hurrying invites accidents.

MONDAY: Practice safety at home. Keep your farm and home in order. Eliminate those hazards as you find them.

TUESDAY: Use agricultural chemicals carefully. Read, and heed, labels. Store safely. Keep them away from children.

WEDNESDAY: Prevent falls. Watch your step on floors, rugs. Have stairs well lighted, guarded. Plan. Don't hurry.

THURSDAY: Drive safely. A large portion of off-farm deaths occur on highways. Walk safely. Carry light at night.

FRIDAY: Follow safety rules with farm machinery. Keep equipment in tiptop shape. Shut off before repairing.

SATURDAY: Play safely. Build safety into vacation plans. Be especially careful around water. Take no chances.

"SAFETY IS A FAMILY AFFAIR" — Safety calendar highlights pointers for National Farm Safety Week, co-sponsored by the National Safety Council and Department of Agriculture. Data from Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, as published in Buckeye Farm News.

ed. The Council said carelessness and ignorance are responsible for most tractor accidents.

"Too many chances are taken," it added.

The Council said one of the biggest chances is taken when more than one person rides a tractor.

"This is just inviting trouble," a Council spokesman said.

Tractors are made for one person to operate—no more. But too often, someone hitchhikes a ride. And that can lead to tragedy.

CHILDREN KILLED RIDING

The Council said the majority of children in the 4-19 year old group killed in tractor accidents last year were riding a tractor. Not operating one—just along for the ride.

A farmer recently told a Council official, "I would rather hear a child cry because he was refused a tractor ride, than to hear him cry because he got hurt riding one."

In general, accidents with farm machinery are decreasing, the Council's report are on the upswing.

"It is alarming," the Council said, "And the only way farm persons can lick the rising tractor accident rate is to use every safety precaution available."

SPECIALIZED SCREW DRIVERS

Do-it-yourself

Screw drivers useful

BY MR. FIX

The man who owns just one screw driver is ill-equipped.

There's no such thing as an all-purpose screw driver. You have to match the tool with the job and this means at least three sizes, possibly more.

The nearest thing to an all-purpose screw driver is the combination screw driver—a single handle with a variety of detachable blades. Some even have chisel blades and wrench heads included.

Like any other combination tool this represents a compromise, fine for light duty, occasional work.

TROUBLES

A screw driver blade that is too narrow will turn in the slot of the crew. This chews up the top of the screw, often slips and damages the surrounding surface. Thick blades won't fit. Blades that are too narrow or too wide may slip.

Screw driver sizes are generally designated by the length of the blade. But judge your needs according to widths.

Blade widths of 3/16, 1/4 and 5/16-inch will take care of most screws up to and including number 12 screws.

To make your work faster you can buy screw driver bits to use in place of a drill bit in a ratchet brace.

There are also ratchet screw drivers that contain a ratchet mechanism. The simplest is the type in which the handle turns either way but the blade turns only one way. The spiral ratchet turns the blade when you press down on the handle—is much faster, ideal for production work.

Either type of ratchet can be adjusted to turn in either direction.

PHILLIPS SCREW DRIVER Aside from the standard screw driver you'll want some with blades for Phillips screws.

The Phillips crew has two slots crossing the head. The Phillips screw driver is designed to fit these screws which are found on furniture and some appliances.

For extremely close work in hard-to-reach spots you will need an offset screw driver. This is a handle with a blade at each end at right angles to each other.

There are others that you might want for specialized jobs—stubby screw driver, length a little over three inches, to use where there's little space above the screw; screw-holding screw driver, spring jaws on the end for holding a screw, or a split blade that spreads to wedge itself in the screw head slot, ideal for working in hard-to-reach spots.

Use screw drivers with insulated handles for electrical work.

TAKE CARE Buy good screw drivers and take care of them. Keep the blade tip filed so that it is smooth and square. Blade ends should not be sharp. If you use an emery wheel for dressing the blade, don't let the metal get overheated or it will lose its temper.

Never use a screw driver for a crowbar, a punch, or a chisel. Never pound on a screwdriver.

Use screw drivers with insulated handles for electrical work.

Short cuts often cause farm accidents

PLAY IT

Is the farm safe for children?

Any time a man begins taking chances to save time he begins working against the law of averages. Each short cut which he takes to save a minute brings him closer to the disaster which may take his life.

Farming is not an arm-chair business. There is some risk of injury to the best man working under the best conditions, but there is almost certain trouble ahead for the indifferent man working under untidy conditions.

The loss of fingers, hands, arms and feet comes most often from attempting to do some simple job involving running machinery. That is why the advice to "stop the machine" is given so often.

Loss of life in farm work most often results from mis-handling of tractors. Overturning is the chief hazard of tractor operation. To avoid, spread wheels as far apart as practical for the job at hand; put liquid in tires according to manufacturers' instructions to reduce bouncing; stay off soft road shoulders and edges of cut-banks; avoid side hills where the low wheel drops into a depression, or the high wheel runs over a hump; hitch all loads to the draw-bar; make safe speeds a habit; stop by closing the throttle before using brakes.

Highway operation: Observe traffic rules; keep to the right; observe signal for turns, stop; carry proper signal lights at night; use low gear going up or down hills; go slowly on loose gravel or on rough roads.

farm machinery

Combine operation requires good judgment. Know your machine. Shut off power before cleaning, adjusting or lubricating. Walk around the machine before starting it. Be certain that everyone is clear before engaging the power. Keep shields in place.

Child victims of harvest accidents are often injured or killed in driveways or farm yard. Do not allow small children into work areas, unless accompanied by an adult who can give them full attention. If older children want to help, supervise them carefully.

Drive carefully while hauling grain. Tractor brakes are not very effective in stopping a loaded grain wagon. Keep hitches in good condition. Use a safety chain when hauling on public roads. Never work under a lifted dump box. No extra riders.

Portable elevators and grain augers are leading harvest time labor savers. They are, however,

Johns-Manville Corrolux

IS VERSATILE

— with numerous uses around your home, and particularly useful on the farm!

Today's trend finds farmers endeavouring to acquire more natural light in their buildings, still avoiding use of easily damaged materials... the answer has been translucent fibres, of which the most versatile is Johns-Manville Corrolux, a 'wonder' product with numerous uses.

IT'S THE MODERN ANSWER TO DAYLIGHTING
Corrolux shatterproof translucent panels afford lower cost daylighting for industrial and commercial buildings than ever before attainable. These light-weight, high strength panels are composed of extremely tough, weather resistant resins reinforced with fibrous glass — the same type materials now used for boat hulls, and exterior aircraft parts.

IDEAL FOR SKYLIGHTS
Corrolux is so easy to install! In metal buildings, Corrolux translucent reinforced structural panels are installed like any sheet of corrugated metal or asbestos. No flashing, no framing, no closure strips are necessary. Strong, yet light-weight, the average Corrolux skylight contains over 25 miles of glass fiber reinforcing rods.

PERFECT AS SIDELIGHTS
Corrolux daylighting in your building eases eye fatigue with the soft, diffused light... reduces heat transmission too. When shatterproof Corrolux goes in, maintenance costs go out. Easily installed in existing buildings with ordinary tools, Corrolux nests snugly with standard corrugated siding.

Argos Nip Lions 28-17 In Final Minutes Of Game

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto Argonauts scored two last-quarter touchdowns in two minutes Thursday night to defeat British Columbia Lions 28-17 in an exhibition football game before a shirt-sleeved crowd of 22,415.

The Lions, who had three touchdowns nullified on clipping and offside pass penalties, were ahead 17-14 with less than nine minutes remaining in the game when the eastern conference team blitzed them with their game-winning touchdowns.

Veteran Tobin Rote of Argonauts clicked for three touchdown passes to Dave Mann, Stan Wallace and Dick Shatto. Bobby Kuntz, filling in at full-back for Cookie Gilchrist who came to terms only Wednesday, hopped off a block of bodies from one yard out for Argonauts' final touchdown. Bill Mitchell kicked four converts.

Lions rookie import quarterback Bob Schloredt of the University of Washington Huskies clicked in the second quarter to speedy Willie Fleming and Jim Walden flipped a short pass to Clyde Thomas late in the third that gave the Lions a 17-14 lead. George Grant kicked the converts and also a 40-yard field goal.

C. Prud'Homme Picks Up Win In Heavy Slugging Tilt; Waterloo Gains On Leaders Down Coaticook 7-4

In a game featured by heavy hitting and studded by costly errors, Sherbrooke Alouettes edged out a 11-10 win over the Granby Knights in a three and a half hour contest at the Park Avenue Stadium last night.

Waterloo moved within four and a half games of first place Granby by virtue of their 7-4 victory over the Coaticook Canadians in the other Provincial Eastern Townships Baseball League fixture played.

Sherbrooke will next see action when they visit Acton Vale Sunday afternoon at 2:00. The Sherbrooke-Acton Vale evening tilt will be postponed due to the closing of the Summer Festival. Granby battles it out at Coaticook and Drummondville hosts Waterloo in the other Sunday afternoon games. Coaticook visits Granby while Waterloo hosts Drummondville in the evening.

The Alouettes racked up a 7-1 lead over Granby and blew it but finally salvaged a 11-10 victory last night before a crowd of 1,400. The victory enabled the Als to move into fourth place in the standing one half a game in front of Coaticook.

Claude Prud'Homme, who relieved John Rovel in the fourth, allowed six hits for his second victory in two games and tenth win of the season. Jean-Guy Mathieu started for the Als but he faltered in the third and relinquished the mound to Royal in the third after his team mates had committed two errors.

This was a hard game on the pitchers in particular as the

Rough Riders Rally For Win Over Bombers

OTTAWA (CP) — The Grey Cup champion Ottawa Rough Riders, using their first-stringers, only sparingly, easily disposed of Winnipeg Blue Bombers 28-15 in an exhibition football game Thursday night before some 17,000 fans.

Three of Ottawa's four converted touchdowns were scored by newcomers — Dick Desmarais of Boston University, John Nichols of Syracuse and Chuck Stanley, formerly with Sarnia Golden Bears of the Ontario Rugby Football Union.

The fourth touchdown was scored by veteran Canadian end Bill Sowalski on a 44-yard pass from Quarterback Ron Lancaster. Rookie Robin Ritchie of Queen's University converted all four touchdowns.

Blue Bombers scored first on Carver Shannon's 31-yard field goal but didn't come to life again until the third quarter when rookie Roger Hagberg of Minnesota scored on a long breakaway and end Farrell Funston on a 15-yard pass from new import quarter Dick Thornton of Northwestern.

All Bomber convert attempts were no good.

Little League All-Star Game At Waterloo Tomorrow

The Quebec Regional Little League playoffs get underway Saturday afternoon in Zone I with St. Johns, Valleyfield, Waterloo, Sher-Lenn and Kiwanis W. represented.

The big game in Eastern Townships circles is the meeting between the Les Hopperton Memorial Little League and the Sher-Lenn Little League. This game will be played at Waterloo tomorrow afternoon at 2.30. The two leagues have picked their strongest squads for this tussle and Manager Armand Lemay, Waterloo, has had his boys working out each day for the past week in preparation for Saturday's event. The Sher-Lenn and Waterloo have met each other in the past two seasons and on both occasions the Sher-Lenn boys have come through with victories. No doubt Waterloo will be after revenge this season and though they went down last year it was only by a slim margin.

The Sher-Lenn crew under the management of Tom Walker and Coach Bob Morin have not been resting on their laurels and have been out on the Skin diving demonstrations, water skiing exhibitions, breathtaking aerobatics, beauty contests, outdoor dancing, and hundreds of dollars worth of prizes, including a prize of $1,000 in cash will highlight the first Aquatic Pageant ever to be held in Sherbrooke. The pageant will take place on Sunday, July 23, starting at 2 p.m. at the Auberge des Pines at Little Lake Magog, Deauville.

The Aquatic Pageant, is sponsored by the Sherbrooke Barracudas Club in an attempt to raise funds for their work. The club has gone all-out to make this first Pageant of its kind here a great success. Admission to the all day affair is $1.00.

The Sherbrooke Barracudas Club was formed last summer by four Sherbrooke skin diving enthusiasts Pierre Bruno, Gaston St. Pierre, Camille Blais and Gerry Plamondon. They had started skin diving as a hobby and soon formed the club which now has some 45 members.

The members of the club have repeatedly been called out this summer to recover the bodies of drowned victims in Eastern Township waters. All their work has been entirely voluntary.

The first event on the Aquatic pageant program is a skin diving exhibition in Little Lake Magog starting promptly at 2 p.m. Six members of the Sherbrooke Barracudas Club will demonstrate how to use fins, glasses and snorkel and various other diving equipment in the water.

Two interesting highlights of the half hour demonstration will be the demonstration of the Buddy breathing system. Three divers, all using one tank will submerge in waters for 10 minutes and demonstrate just how the buddy breathing system works.

Another interesting feat will see a diver go under water and while submerged put on all his diving equipment including his oxygen tank.

Seven members of the Little Lake Magog Water Skiing Club will hold a 20 minute demonstration of water skiing as the second event during the aquatic pageant. They will demonstrate the different tricks done while on water skis.

Outdoor dancing will be held all afternoon for visitors. Ti Blanc Richard and his orchestra will be on hand to provide music for dancing. A 24 by 20 foot pavilion has already been constructed for dancing on the Auberge des Pains grounds. Andre Breton, of CHLT-TV will act as master of ceremonies.

An aerobatic demonstration will hold the attention of many visitors to the pageant.

For ten breathtaking minutes, an aerobist from Grandmere will do the spinning loop and other tricks from a low-flying plane over Little Lake Magog.

Two seaplanes will also be on hand to take visitors for rides over the lake.

Some 55 Three Rivers drum majorettes will be present and during a half hour demonstration will show off their marching abilities.

Here is where the cash prizes come in. There will be some twenty rocks, each marked one to 20, thrown into the lake before the exhibition by Barracudas Club members. They will have been thrown into 10 feet of water. During a half hour free-for-all, visitors will have a chance to dive for the rocks and try to find the ones marked with numbers. For visitors to have a fair chance a rule has been made that no contestants are allowed to use tanks.

Each rock recovered will bring a prize for the finder. Prizes marked one to nineteen bring prizes of toasters, electric kettles, watches, lighters and skin diving equipment, but the lucky finder of Rock Number 20 will receive $1,000 in cash.

To keep the Pageant moving at a fast pace there will be registration during the beauty contests to pick a Barracudas Club Queen. Many prizes await the lucky lady who is elected Barracudas Club Queen, 1961.

Later, another beauty contest will be held which will mark the end of Aquatic Pageant, 1961. This time it will be for the ladies over 45 years of age. The Master of Ceremonies, Andre Breton will choose the winner of this prize, and prizes also await this beauty queen.

Proper Size Hose

Stockings that are too short can actually change the shape of your big toe, turning it toward the center of your foot. So be careful to buy your hose at least a half inch longer than your big toe.
