With No Change in New York and New England

SOME IMPROVEMENT

Both Seamen and Transportation Men Expect Mediation

Special to The Star.

BOSTON, July 18.—The strike of 7,800 employees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, which has completely tied up the transportation system of the city, and of many municipalities nearby, began its second day with state, city and company officials making every effort to bring about an early settlement.

It was announced that the Carmen's Union and the trustees of the Boston Elevated have agreed to submit the grievances of the employees to an arbitration board.

NEW YORK MARKS TIME.

Special to The Star.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Both sides in the seamen's strike were marking time today, each apparently for the other to make overtures for settlement. The United States Shipping Board officials said they were unable to get volunteers as crews for six cattle ships for France because of the activities of the strikers' pickets.

Action by the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association officials, who have returned from a conference with the Shipping Board in Washington, was expected during the day.

Railroad officials announced that diversions of shipments are tending to reduce the congestion to some extent.

VIOLENCE BREAKS OUT.

A band of striking seamen, 75 strong, wrecked the employment office of Bergoff Brothers on the Bowery this morning and put to rout 250 men who had gathered there to seek employment as strike breakers on trans-Atlantic and coastwise vessels. One of the members of the firm was attacked but was not seriously injured. No arrests were made.

Notwithstanding optimistic statements made yesterday by union leaders there was no sign today of a break in the strike which has disrupted commerce out of this port. Both the strikers and the private steamship owners declared it was up to the U. S. Shipping Board to bring abut a settlement. Union leaders said the shipping losses at this port now aggregated $5,000,0000 a day with $3,000,000 more along the seaboard.

HUNDRED THOUSAND IDLE.

CHICAGO, July 18—Building operations in Chicago are at a standstill today and more than 100,000 workmen are idle as a result of lockout ordered by the executive committee of the Building Construction Employers' Association of Chicago.

Early yesterday the executive committee of the building employers sent a letter by special messenger to every constructor with instructions immediately to stop work of every character.

An ultimatum to the striking building trades that they return to work today was issued yesterday by the Building Construction Employers' Association. Approximately $50,000,000 in construction will come to a standstill if the lockout occurs. Other operations about to be started at an estimated cost of $75,000,000 will be deferred.

The 16,000 carpenters on strike will ignore the order, D. J. Ryan, secretary of the joint strike arbitration board, and members of the Carpenters' District Council said when the ultimatum was received. The remainder of the men who are out either to enforce demands of their own or in sympathy with the carpenters, also will ignore the contractors' order declared Edward N. Nockels, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

The decision to declare a lockout came as a climax to a series of strikes in the building industry and was precipitated by the walkout of the carpenters, who are charged by the employers with violating their agreement and refusing to negotiate a compromise. They now receive eighty cents an hour but are holding out for $1 an hour.

VICTORY MEDALS FOR ALLIED VETERANS

By Canadian Press.

PARIS, July 18.—Soldiers and sailors of the Allied nations who have seen at least three months' fighting service, are eligible for the "Victory Medal," which the French Government propose to institute.

The medal will be of bronze, about an inch and a half in diameter, recalling the commemorative medal of the Franco-Prussian war. The obverse will show a winged figure of Victory without any inscription, while the reverse will bear the words "The Great War for Civilization," with the name and in the language of the Allied state to which the bearer belongs.

The ribbon will be the same for all Allied nationalities. It will have a double rainbow on a red ground, with white edges.

GERMANS ENGAGE IN COUNTER-STRIKE

By Canadian Press.

BERLIN, July 18—A citizens' counter-stricke at Settin began Thursday as a protest against the strike which paralyzed the transportation facilities there for the last few days. All stores, including food establishments, drug stores and people's kitchens, have been closed, physicians refuse to treat patients, gas and water plants have been shut down, and wells throughout the city are already pumped dry. Railroad workers threaten to extend the strike to Stralsund.

SENATORS GOING BACK OF WILSON

Foreign Governments are Sounded on Attitude to Treaty Amendments

SLAP AT PRESIDENT

Vetoed Repeal of Daylight Law Re-attached to Measure

Special to The Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Foreign Governments are being sounded on their attitude towards the proposed Root reservations to the Peace Treaty, in the event the Senate should adopt one or all of them, a leading Administration Senator said today.

The Senator who declined to be quoted directly, indicated the belief that if the Senate adopts reservations, counter-reservations will be proposed by at least one other Government. The general results, he declared, would be:—

1.—Serious delay in carrying out the peace settlement through delaying final ratification by a sufficient number of powers to make the treaty effective.

2.—Hampering the immediate and successful launching of the League of Nations.

3.—Re-opening of questions presumed settled by the treaty.

In other words, this Senator declared reservations by the Senate would "vitiate the contract the nations had made for restoration and maintenance of peace."

If, however, the other Powers give assurance that they will be disposed to accept Senate reservations as mapped out by Root, there would be less objection to some of the proposals, the Senator said.

Illustrating the probable effect of American reservations, the Senator declared that a reservation stating that the United States regards immigration as a purely domestic question, never to come under the jurisdiction of the League of Nations, probably would bring from Japan a reservation to the effect that Government understands that under the League, equal treatment is to be accorded nationals or all nations.

DEFIANCE TO PRESIDENT.

Special to The Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Repeal of the daylight saving plan was again attached as a rider to the agricultural appropriation bill by the House agricultural committee today.

This action was taken despite the fact that President Wilson has already vetoed the bill once, because of the daylight saving repeal.

Administration foes appeared determined to force the agricultural appropriation measure and the repeal clause through the House, and put it before President Wilson again.

The new bill differs from the one already vetoed in that it exempts from repeal the standard time zones which were established in the original Daylight Saving Act.

PLACE MATERNITY UNDER THE STATE

Weimar Assembly Adopts Some Radical Social Laws

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, July 18—A wireless despatch received here says the Weimar Assembly has adopted a bill placing maternity under the care of the state.

A proposal by the Independents that the mother of an illegitimate child should officially be designated as "Frau" was carried by a vote of 138 to 133.

It was also decided by the assembly that the same educational and social opportunities should be provided by legislation for illegitimate as legitimate children. Likewise it was decided that large families were entitled to state assistance.

U. S. CIVIL BILL PASSES.

WASHINGTON, July 18—The Senate appropriations committee voted today to report favorably the sundry civil bill as passed by the House. The bill, once vetoed by President Wilson, carries $14,000,000 for vocational education for soldiers and sailors.

WILSON MAKING HEADWAY AGAINST FOES OF LEAGUE

Leaders of Republican Opposition Much Disturbed Over Situation

PRESIDENT'S TACTICS

Gives Information to Senators Which Cannot Reveal Otherwise

Special to The Star from Our Own Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 18. — Whether the plan of President Wilson of inviting the Republican Senators to the White House for comfortable heart-to-heart talks on the debatable clauses of the peace treaty is having any proselytizing effect, is not yet known. Most of those who have conferred with the President have been extremely reticent regarding what was divulged to them, and what effect it had on their attitude toward the Peace Treaty and the covenant of the League of Nations in particular.

One effect, however, the plan certainly has had. It has been most disturbing to the leaders of the opponents of the League. In fact, they almost admit that it would have been much wiser for the Foreign Relations Committee to have accepted the invitation to meet the President at the White House and the advisability of intimating that such is their desire when they complete the reading of the treaty, which at present occupies them, is, I understand, being considered.

SHOCK FOR OPPOSITION.

Another shock was administered yesterday, when Senator Colt, of Rhode Island, made his speech on the League. The training of many years as judge of the Circuit Court resulted in a most judicial address, undoubtedly one of the finest expositions of the case for and against the covenant yet heard.

It left no doubt in the minds of his audience that he was a firm believer in the League, and that despite the fact that he reserved judgment on the reservations, he could not be accounted too certainly as a supporter of them. He was one of the callers at the White House in the afternoon, and was closeted for some time with the President.

The four reservations which the opponents are determined shall be made in accepting the covenant if amendments cannot be carried are not, I understand, to be directly opposed by the President. A more subtle line and one that it is expected will gain greater public sympathy, is to be followed. These four reservations are on Article X, guaranteeing the integrity of states and the inviolability of their boundaries, the Monroe Doctrine, the question of withdrawal and immigration.

The President will almost acquiesce in the objection that the covenant is not sufficiently clear on these matters. But he will point out that there were many conflicting interests in Paris. It was necessary to shape matters to meet these conflicting interests, and to draw them together. The United States were extremely active in these efforts, and finally were successful in a large degree. As the unanimous consent to the covenant shows.

MIGHT REOPEN WHOLE CASE.

If the Senate of the United States insists on reservations, the whole question will be re-opened. Other nations that sacrificed their demands will probably enter them again with greater insistence, and all that was gained might be lost.

This argument, backed by the President's intimate knowledge of what took place in Paris, and especially the difficulties that had to be overcome before the French and Italians could be won over, it is believed, will have a solutory effect on Republican Senators who approve the League, but are somewhat fearful of the covenant, as it stands.

On the question of Shantung, it is anticipated he will meet with greater difficulty. The question in the public mind will never be judged on its merits, owing to the increasing racial fear and hatred that for years have been cultivated in the United States. As a matter of fact, one of the first broad tests of Senate sentiment may be held on this agreement following the resolution presented by Senator Spencer, Republican, of Missouri, proposing that the Senate express its deep regret at the Shantung settlement and proclaims, "the sincere hope of the United States that this manifest injustice may be speedily re-considered and remedied."

SENATORS POORLY INFORMED.

The President has, however, much information which he considers it would be unwise to to make public on this question, but he is imparting to the Senators as they call on him.

The opponents of the agreement are hard put for arguments, it would seem. Senator Sherman, of Illinois, in his speech yesterday, in which he pointed with terror to the alliance between Japan and Britain, argued that their interests in the Orient were identical, declared that Britain has been devoid of sentiment and sometimes of humanity in breaking down her rivals, and urged the United States to watch the Philippines.

A YEAR AGO TODAY THE WAR TIDE TURNED

Gen. Mangin, who commanded the attack. Marshal Foch, who planned it. Gen. Pershing, the U.S. Commander-in-Chief.

A year ago today, the tide of the war turned definitely in favor of the Allies. Gen. Mangin, acting under direction of Marshal Foch, began his counter-offensive, which resulted in elimination of the Marne salient.

Part of the attacking force was American, taking their first active part in the fight.

The counter-offensive that began a year ago this morning, hit the German line a little to the south and west of Soissons, and in the first twenty-four hours of fighting bent the German line far back, and practically cut the direct connection between Soissons and Chateau-Thierry, which place marked the farthest advance of the German drive across the Marne toward Paris.

NARROW ESCAPE FOR B.C. TOWN

Slocan City Saved from Forest Fire by Hard Fight

TOWNSITE INVADED

Women and Children Loaded on Train Ready to Flee

By Canadian Press.

NELSON, B. C., July 18—After a hard fight yesterday morning, Slocan City, about 30 miles northwest of here, was saved from being wiped out by forest fires, which have been burning in a stand of timber adjoining the town for two days.

According to reports received here, from passengers who arrived on the C.P.R. train from Slocan City yesterday afternoon, the fire invaded the townsite at one point and, fanned by a high wind, threatened to sweep it. Lines of fire hose had been laid down during the previous day to all threatened areas and with these a crew of fire fighters, assisted by citizens of the town succeeded in holding the flames in check.

Late Wednesday night all the women and children in the town and surrounding districts had been loaded on a special train, which stood at the station ready to pull out at a moment's notice should the situation become hopeless. When the passenger train for Nelson left Slocan City yesterday afternoon the fight was still going on. A call has been received by the forestry department here for more fire fighters. A portable fire pump was sent out this morning.

A Doukhobor settlement at Pass Creek is said to be threatened by a fire which is burning on the mountain side.

Very heavy gales have been blowing throughout the interior for the past 48 hours. Several roads have been blocked by fallen trees, interferring with movement of fire fighters. Several sections of the district got rain early yesterday, but not enough to materially check the fires. Forest fires which have been beginning to sweep throughout the Kootenay district for the past 36 hours, are reported at an early hour this morning to be well under control. Several towns and interior settlements are reported to be in danger, but as a whole the outlook is encouraging.

Very heavy clouds were to be seen both to the north and southwest of Nelson, although the sky over the city was perfectly clear.

TRAPPED PARTY IS SAFE.

NELSON, B. C., July 18.—The four men and one woman who were trapped in a forest fire in the tunnel of the second relief mine, near Erie, about twenty miles south of here, on Wednesday night, were alive and well when rescued this morning, after the fire had passed. Those in the mine were: Mrs. A. B. Westby, wife of the mine manager, whose home was destroyed; K. D. McIntosh, mine foreman; Ed. Syms, Fred. Anderson, cook, and Mike Toney, blacksmith.

All the buildings and the mill at the mine were destroyed by the fire which made a clean sweep of the entire locality.

U.S. FORESTS IMPERILLED.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 18,—Every available man in Western Montana, Northern Idaho and Eastern Washington, is being employed by the Federal Forest Service and the private forest protective associations to fight the forest fires in Montana and Idaho that today were threatening two western Montana towns and millions of feet of standing white pine.

High winds, abnormally high temperatures combined with parched forests are all but rendering the efforts of 1,000 men fighting the many forest fires useless. The towns threatened with destruction are Atherton and St. Regis, in Montana.

Between 700 and 1,000 acres in the Helena forest are burning, ravaging some of the timber and destroying the old mining town camp of Jimtown, one and one-half miles from York. The blaze has been burning for weeks, most of the time under control, but Thursday's high winds spread it rapidly and meagre reports indicate the fighters are being beaten steadily backward. Fires at the head of Rock Creek on the Smith River slope, hitherto under control, broke away from the fire fighters and are burning freely.

INTERVENTION IN HUNGARY TALKED

Supreme Council Takes Up Question of Hungarian Crisis

By Canadian Press.

PARIS, July 18.—The Allies' reparation bill for Bulgaria will be from one to two billion francs, it was learned today. A decision was reached to avoid elaborate reparation provisions by naming a fixed sum.

The Peace Treaty with Bulgaria was nearly completed today. This Government has commandeered the Chateau de Madrid, at Neuilly, as a residence for the Bulgarian peace delegation. The Bulgarians are expected here July 25. The Chateau de Madrid is a hotel between the Seine and the northwestern corner of Bois de Boulogne. It is closer to Paris than any of the other places where delegations from the former Central Powers have been quartered.

The principal topic of discussion before the Allied Supreme Council yesterday, the Journal says, was Allied intervention in Hungary where military action seems the only means to end a situation dangerous for Rumania and Poland.

Announcement was made here semi-officially that Baron Kurt von Lersner, the head of the German mission here, had been appointed charge d'affaires to look after German interests in France.

ITALY IS DISAPPOINTED.

The Council of Five has turned down definitely the Italian demand for the Austrian concession at Tien Tsin. The concession will revert to China, as originally planned. The Americans were opposed to the Italian request.

Premier Clemenceau, appearing before the commission investigating the Peace Treaty, declared late yesterday that the moral and material support of America and Britain toward France would enable that country to shorten greatly her period of military service. He stated that the military details for the occupation of the three German bridgeheads after peace will be drawn up by Marshal Foch.

The committee of the Chamber of Deputies which is considering the treaty of peace today took up a report on German colonies. This report says that the return of Togoland and the Kamerun to France only revives the prior rights of France from a political viewpoint. It adds, however, that "a recent accord between France and Great Britain fixes the limitation and rights of each in those colonies."

KAISER WAS SATISFIED

By Canadian Press.

BERLIN, July 17.—A letter written by former Emperor William July 28, 1914, to Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, then Imperial German chancellor, is published here.

The letter says that after having read the Serbian reply to the Austrian ultimatum, it was the opinion of the emperor that all of Austria's wishes had been met and that all ground for war was removed. It adds, however, that as the Serbians "are Orientals and untrustworthy" that the Austrians should occupy Belgrade until the Serbian promises are fulfilled.

"On this basis" says the Emperor, "I would be ready to arrange peace in Austria."

COAL INCREASE EFFECTIVE SOON

Six Shilling Boost Comes Into Operation on July 21

DELAYS DANGEROUS

Mr. Bonar Law Tells Parliament of Labor Perils

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, Thursday, July 18.—The six shilling increase in the price of coal, previously announced by the Government, will be effective July 21. Andrew Bonar Law, government leader, made this announcement in the House of Commons yesterday. He said the increase postponed pending action by the miners' conference at Keswick on the government's proposal that the miners' agreed to prevent any stoppage of work, must be put into effect soon, as any delay in raising the price to meet the cost of production would be fatal.

Mr. Bonar Law added that the government's action in putting the increase into effect did not preclude the possibility of further negotiations on the subject.

The overnment proposal to the miners' conference was that the increase would be postponed for three months if the miners would agree not to stop work, with the additional understanding that a committee of inquiry proposed by the miners' leaders would be accepted by the government.

The miners' conference on Thursday by an overwhelming majority decided against this proposal. The conference, however, decided almost unanimously to cooperate with the government if it is prepared to effect the economies in the coal industry suggested in the first report of Justice Sankey and to introduce legislation for the nationalization of coal mines.

INCOME TAX CONCESSIONS

Chancellor of the Exchequer Austin Chamberlain in the House of Commons yesterday announced a number of income tax concessions, including an increase in the allowance in respect to a wife of from £25 to £50 increase, an increase in the allowance of from £25 to £40 in respect of the first child, the substitution of the age of 18 for 16 for children when enagaged their whole time in studying and the same allowance as for widowers in the case of the elder sons who were family bread-winners and have to engage house keepers or guardians for younger brothers and sisters.

The same concessions made on a motion to raise the exemption on income tax from £130 to £250 were withdrawn.

RUSSIAN SITUATION CHANGED IN FORTNIGHT, CHURCHILL PREDICTION

British War Minister Makes Stirring Statement, But Does not Explain — Hungarian Soviet Collapsing — Bela Kun Out

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, July 18. — "Russia at the present time is the keynote of the future peace of the world, and the uplifting of that country must be the first duty of the League of Nations," said Colonel Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary of State for War, in an address at the British-Russian Club dinner last night.

Mr. Churchill predicted an entire change in the situation within a fortnight, but did not explain what it might be.

BOLSHEVIKI THREATEN TO WREST LIBERTY FROM SMALL STATES

"If the whole of Russia and its resources fall into the hands of Lenine and Trotsky, the whole power of the Bolshevik forces will be thrown against those little states which have been promised the protection of the League of Nations. If the Bolshevik forces prevail in Russia, those little states, nay, Russia itself, will fall into the hands of Germany," he continued.

Mr. Churchill defends the action of the Allies in sending troops to Russia and said if the five Great Powers had been able to act in concert, "things would not be as they are there. "He declared that more than 308,000 Bolsheviki were being held in check by the Allies," and "if the British Government contributed in any way toward that result, I, for one, rejoice."

MENACE TO WHOLE SOVIET SYSTEM IS ADMITTED BY BELA KUN

London Times-Public Ledger Cable to The Montreal Star. Copyright.

VIENNA, July 15, (Delayed).—Bela Kun, in an interview, declared that the proletariat dictatorship was passing through a three-fold crisis, namely, the crisis manifesting itself in diminished confidence against the counter-revolution; an economic crisis, due to difficulties in feeding the population and of production, while a moral crisis has sprung from various directions.

Bela Kun said the external situation was more favorable since the Hungarian and Russian proletariat revolutions had created the existence of conditions for a world revolution, although he admitted this revolution of the world proletariat could not immediately release them from the blockade, and that it could be broken down by the bayonets of the Entente.

Herr Boehm has left for Budapest after having tried to get in touch with the Entente through the Austrian government. Boehm's proposal roughly is the institution of a social Democratic parliamentary government in exchange for raising the blockade and the import of food supplies.

The Bolsheviki are never more dangerous than when negotiating and Boehm's proposals, ignoring the yet unfulfilled conditions of the original armistice and innumerable grievances of Entente residents and interests, should not be accepted unless accompanies by Hungarian disarmament and permanent military occupation by the Entente.

PHYSICIAN FEARS FOR EX-KAISER

Greatly Depressed, and Spends Many Hours in Prayer

By Canadian Press.

BERLIN, July 18.—The Pan-German Deutsche Zeitung, which stands close to former royal circles, takes a serious view of the illness of former Emperor William, calling it "deep melancholy." It is said that the one-time monarch is so depressed that his physician views his condition as critical."

Count Hohenzollern is said to rarely leave his apartment and seldom sees his closest friends. The paper says that he spends many hours in prayer and that when he does talk he wants to converse on religious subjects. The former emperor is said to show a "high degree of nervousness."

The condition of the former empress is such, according to the newspaper, that she may have to return to Germany for treatment of her old heart trouble.

SEVERAL BRITISH AMONG VICTIMS

Were Shot by Bolsheviki in Petrograd Island Fortress

Special Star Cable by United Press.

HELSINGFORS, July 18.—A refugee direct from Petrograd declares that several British subjects were shot at the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, the great island prison of Petrograd, after the fighting at Krasnaya-Gorka, opposite Kronstadt. They were forced to dig their own graves.

The informant declares that women take part in the executions. The British embassy has been wrecked.

The Bolsheviki are concentrating reserves on the Gatchina front, 30 miles southwest of Petrograd, where they have suffered heavy losses in fighting with the north Russians and Finnish volunteers. They offer $250,000 for anyone who will assassinate Gen. Mannerheim, the Finnish regent, with the object of paralyzing Finnish resistance.

GRAIN GROWERS ADOPT RECALL

By Canadian Press.

MORSE, Sask., July 18.—The political executive of the Grain Growers of the Swift Current Federation at a meeting here Wednesday decided that regardless of what existing parties may do in the way of nominating candidates for the House of Commons, the Grain Growers will place their own man in the field.

It was decided that each candidate must be a bona fide farmer and agree to give his resignation as member to the executive to become effective when eighty per cent. of their members ask it.

DUKE OF PENHIEVRE DEAD.

GUN SALUTE TO MARK PEACE DAY

Military Ceremony on Fletcher's Field with Band Concert

Montreal will not be without a celebration to-morrow to mark the observation of Peace Day, for Brig.-Gen. C. J. Armstrong, acting G.O.C., has issued an order for a salute of 21 guns to be fired on Fletcher's Field at 12 o'clock to-morrow morning. The band of the 4th Garrison Regiment will play selections on the Field from 11 o'clock until the firing of the salute. An armed guard will also be present. The day will be observed as a holiday at Headquarters, but unless further orders are received from Ottawa, military headquarters will take no other steps than those mentioned to mark the day.

No official word has been received in connection with the visit of the Prince of Wales to Montreal and until such news comes from Ottawa it will not be known what part the military will have in welcoming the royal visitor.

FLEET PREPARES FOR BIG PAGEANT

By Reuter's Agency.

LONDON, July 18. — The peace celebrations tomorrow will culminate with the lighting of elevn night chain bonfires throughout the Kingdom.

The great peace pageant will be inaugurated this afternoon by the arrival of the fleet at Southend. Four submarine flotillas will be anchored between West Cliff and Southend pier, opposite which will lie the first, second, third, fourth and fifth destroyer flotillas, with the repair ship Assistance and the flying ship Furious, which was originally one of the four famous "mystery cruisers," between them and the shore.

Thence dreadnoughts will stretch eastward in a long line, headed by the Queen Elizabeth, the Lion, Tiger, Barham, Valiant, Malalla, Revenge, Royal Sovereign, King George Fifth, Erin, Conqueror, Orion, Monarch and Thunderer.

The public will be admitted to practically all the ships excepting the Queen Elizabeth. The ships will be illuminated on Saturday night and rockets and dockflares will be fired from the docks of all the ships.

It is announced that five thousand officers and men of all ranks have been chosen to represent the British and Dominions forces in the Victory march tomorrow. Regiments and various sections of artillery, signallers, royal engineers and infantry will be represented by composite battalions. Composite battalions comprised of officers and men will be selected from the English, Scottish, Irish and Welsh regiments. Detachments from the headquarters of the Australian, New Zealand and South African forces will represent the overseas troops. There will be one mounted band, a band of pipes and drums and eight infantry bands.

Four tanks will be detailed and the sections of a machine gun battalion. Some 300 of all ranks will represent the Territorials and yeomanry. The labor corps, army service corps, horse and mechanical transport, women's forage corps, women's legion, R.A.M.C., field ambulance, matrons, nurses, military probationers, V.A.D.'s, ordnance, veterinary corps, chaplains, army pay department, military police and W. A. A. C. will also be represented.

LABOR ATTITUDE MAKES SERIOUS CRISIS CERTAIN

STRIKES SPREADING

Thinking Men Believe Salvation Lies in Hands of the Workers

Special Cable to Chicago News and Montreal Star, by Gordon Stiles. Copyright.

LONDON, July 18.—Gloom pervaded business circles throughout England today and it is recognized that a serious crisis cannot be averted for long.

The miners assembled in Keswick are delaying action and this is taken by many people as the sign that the action when taken is likely to be unfavorable towards the Government's offer made with the idea of solving the coal problem.

Serious strikes threaten the railways, while the miners continue to lay down their tools. In Yorkshire alone 150,000 are out, 17,000 in Wales, and 1,300 in Kent, while in Southern Scotland, a strike has been voted because of the dismissal of two men.

A sharp fall in exchange has had a depressing effect in financial circles and men of affairs despair of an early settlement of the country's problems. Constructive action is hampered by the Irish situation, which has been badly aggravated by Sir Edward Carson, and the political uncertainty caused by the Churchill announcement of a new Centre party has only increased the confusion.

The consensus of opinion among thinking men appears to be that salvation lies in the hands of the workers, who must devote all their energy to producing regardless for the time being of wages and hours and whatever else comes under the head of what they deem to be their rights. It is perfectly apparent that the men must do this from patriotic motives in the same spirit with which they went to fight in France for a shilling a day in 1914.

Intense interest is shown in the evolution of the new party which is generally looked upon as a move by Lloyd George to consolidate his following from all other parties. With the return of peace the need for a gigantic constructive program of coalition is crumbling. Every day increases the premier task of holding together on a working basis the various elements which will go to make up the coalition. It is certain that the return of Lloyd George to Westminster will be followed by some momentous happenings.

Sergt. N. Newman Victor After Shooting Off a Tie

Canadian Associated Press.

LONDON, July 18.—Sergeant N. Newman, a Canadian, won the St. George's competition at Bisley today after a tie with Sergeant Westcott, of the Marines, and Sergt. Petts, of the Herts Yeomanry. The final stage called for twenty shots at six hundred yards. The three men tied with 86 and in the shoot off Newman made fourteen points, Pitts ten and Westcott six.

Newman was born in London forty-three years ago. He and his three sons were in Canada at the outbreak of the war at Windsor, Ont., and all enlisted. Newman shot twelve years ago at Bisley for the East Sureys, but the St. George's is his first big prize.

The winner of the King's silver medal after a tie shoot off was Private R. W. Lockwood, Seventh Essex, who defeated Quartermaster Sergeant Samways, of the Dorsets.

In the Queen Mary competition, snap shooting, twenty rounds and two hundred yards, the winner was Q.M.S. Strickland, Hythe staff, with a score of 51. He won after a tie. The second place fell to Sergeant Peard, Second Grenadiers. Canadian prize money winners were Alexander $5.89, Harrison, $5, 36, Mortimer $5, 36, and Newman, $5 36.

HATCH OUT OF KING'S.

Hatch failed to secure the one vacant place in the King's final. Canada has therefore seven marksmen for this event. Only scores in the second and third stages are included in the aggregate. Canadian aggregates are: Balfour 122, Francis, 116, Mortimer, 121, W. Morris, 116, E. Spalding, 117, Litton, 117, McInnes, 118.

MOTHER COUNTRY WINS KOLAPORE CUP

By Canadian Associated Press.

BISLEY, July 18. — The Mother Country won the Kalapore Cup yesterday, Australia second, Canada third.

The Kalapore Cup is shot for by eight men teams, 10 shots at 300, 500 and 600 yards, giving a possible of 150 per man and a team possible of 1,200.

The scores were:

Team.	300 yds.	500 yds.	600 yds.	Total
Mother C.	342	374	344	1060
Australia	346	356	352	1054
Canada	325	343	341	1009
S. Africa	326	330	329	985
N. Zealand	329	325	321	975

The Canadian Scores.

The scores of the Canadian team were:

Name.	300 yds.	500 yds.	600 yds.	Total
Vincent	39	44	46	129
Hutchison	40	40	37	117
Martin	41	45	42	128
W. Morris	43	43	46	132
Snelser	39	44	40	123
Goodhouse	40	46	43	129
Mabee	40	38	44	122
M. Innes	43	43	43	129
Totals	325	343	341	1009

The Mother Country therefore wins the Kolapore Cup. Australia secures the Colonial Cup.

All teams did poorly at the unusual range of 300 yards.

Some excellent shooting by the Mother Country team was shown. Captain Maxwell, of the Suffolk Regiment, scored a possible at 500. Doctor Kelly, of London University, dropped only one point. Sergt. A. G. Fulton, former King's Cup prize winner, dropped two points. Major Parnell, of the Kensington Regiment, dropped three points. One Australian scored 49 at 600 yards. Fulton made 44, finishing with an outer.

THE LONDON CUP.

In the Corporation of London Cup, ten shots at a thousand yards with service rifle, the scores were: Roberts, 48; O'Neill, 44; Daunt, Elmitt and Martin, 43 each; Bruce, V. Spalding, Hay, Litton, Mortimer, Rae, Francis and Goodhouse, 42 each, and A. Woods, 40.

BABY STRANGLED BY ITS COMFORTER

BELLEVILLE, Ont., July 18.—Kenneth Wilson Royle, three months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Royle, met death by strangulation in a very peculiar manner on the lawn of his parents home. Mrs. Royle had placed the child on a lawn swing so that it might be in the fresh air. The baby rolled over and the string on the comforter caught around its neck and in a slat of the swing. The result was that the child was strangled to death.

COUNT KAROLYI OUT OF HUNGARY

Well-Known Austro-Hungarian Now on Way to United States

By Associated Press.

ROME, July 18. — Count Michael Karolyi, former Premier of Hungary, has reached Italy, en route to the United States.

He was allowed by Bela Kun to take with him all of his available private fortune.

When the armistice with Austria-Hungary was signed last November, Count Michael Karolyi, who had been the leader of the Hungarian Independence Party, proclaimed a Hungarian republic. He remained in office until late in March, when he resigned and turned over the authority to the communists headed by Bela Kun. He gave as a reason for his action the plea that he could not recognize the boundaries of Hungary as outlined by the Peace Conference.

Advices received in Peace Conference circles in Paris, Thursday, said that Bela Kun had been driven from office and that disorders had occurred in Budapest. It was declared that the Hungarian communist army was disintegrating rapidly. Herr Boehm, and Herr Lender were said to have seized the reins of power.

WEEPS OVER TERMS.

Associated Press Correspondence.

BUDAPEST, July 1 — Count Michael Karolyi, former president of the Hungarian republic, continues to denounce the Peace Treaty, declaring that its terms are impossible and that the boundaries fixed for Hungary are ruinous.

"Central Europe has gone to the dogs," the Count told the Associated Press correspondent today. "You are astonished by Bolshevism here. Blockade Paris and it will go communist too. The Allies say 'We cannot talk to such Bolsheviki.' That is making a comedy of politics. It is treating the people of Europe as though they were Zulus.

"You want to sell us goods, but beggars cannot buy shoes nor motor cars. Before the war we exported two-thirds of our coal. Now we are left with two small mines, no forests, no salt, no oil, no iron, no electric waterpower. We are left only our wheat lands and mineral water.

"Without free trade the League of Nations is useless so far as we are concerned.

"Both French and Italian policies of buffer states are impractical. It is fruitless to attempt balances of power. The more you try to avoid future wars the more certain it is that they will come. Already Germany is being educated to a policy of revenge, although the League of Nations cannot have hatred as its basis. It is no longer a question of Bolshevism or non-Bolshevism for the Central Empires, but a question of standing or falling together.

"The German people were not responsible for the war, it was the Kaiser, the Ludendorffs and the like who might well all be sent to St. Helena, together with Germany's bankers and steel manufacturers."

No Intention to Slight the Troops of United States

Special Star Cable by United Press.

LONDON, July 18.—Field Marshal Haig's failure to mention the Americans in his recent Newcastle speech "certainly was not due to any lack of appreciation of their work," he declared in a statement last night.

"I was speaking personally, as one Britisher to another, on the subject of our own part in the war," Haig said. "I pointed out the difficulty of the situation and how greatly the people at home helped the army. I had no occasion to mention the Americans, because my references were to the middle part of the war, particularly 1917—one of the most critical periods—before the Americans arrived.

"At that time America was our one great hope. In the next year this hope was justified by the splendid work done by the United States armies, co-operating with both the British and the French, and operating by themselves.

SPLENDID COMRADESHIP.

"On the battlefields of Europe there grew up a splendid comradeship and a feeling of mutual respect between the British and the Americans. I hope this will be continued in peace by the interchange of our young men by British and American universities."

Speaking at the Government's private dinner to General Pershing, Field-Marshal Haig paid further tribute to the American soldiers, mentioning several divisions and army corps individually. He referred to his own warm personal friendship and admiration for General Pershing, adding:

"In the spring of 1918 our troops were inspired to withstand the German onslaughts with the knowledge that we only had to hold on until the American army, hurrying across the ocean, arrived with aid. That is the measure of our debt to you. It is a great debt and one we are glad to acknowledge. Pershing came with a small staff at the psychological moment. The effect on all was magical.

"Your first affair at Cantigny was hailed with as keen satisfaction as if it were one of our own actions and at Chateau-Thierry our praise for you was very great."

He referred humorously to the Thirty-Third division's successful participation July 4, at Hamel, where they fought "by mistake." Speaking of the Argonne, he said the assistance of the Americans was of the greatest value, forming a definite and indispensable part in the Allied operations.

HAD A DIFFICULT TASK.

"Meanwhile," he continued, "the Twenty Seventh and Thirtieth divisions were doing equally as well on our own front and on Sept. 29 participated in the decisive battle on the British front. The second army corps was of great assistance and fought well. No one had a more difficult task than General Pershing and no one could have handled it more successfully.

"One of the finest results of the war was the real and lasting friendship between our men and yours. Thank God, we didn't win without the Americans. The Americans are similar to ourselves. The men got on well together and the more we saw of the Americans the better we liked them."

U.S. JUDGE ALLOWS 2 3-4 PER CENT BEER

By Canadian Press.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—Judge Dickinson, in Federal Court yesterday concurred in the recent decision of Judge Thompson, of Pittsburgh, involving the right of a brewing firm to make 2¾ per cent beer.

Judge Dickinson qualified his decision by saying he saw no reason at this time for a formal opinion to that effect. He held that the court could not pass in advance on a question that should properly be brought before a jury.

FRENCH GUN HAS 100-MILE RANGE

Great Cannon Ready When Armistice Signed, Says Engineer

By Canadian Press.

PARIS, Thursday, July 17.—While giving evidence before a committee of the Chamber of Deputies investigating the Briey question today, M. L. Bourgeois, chief engineer of the Navy Department, said that at the time Paris was being bombarded by German long-range guns, he had designed a cannon with a range of 100 miles, which could be put in position in one hour.

M. Bourgeois stated that previous to that time he had urged upon Albert Thomas, then under-secretary for war and munitions, the importance of bombarding the Briey ironworks, and had been asked to design a long-range cannon. His plans, however, were sent from one committee to another, and the order to manufacture it was not given until February, 1918. The gun was ready for action at the time the armistice was signed, he said.

"DOC" WATERBURY LANDED.

NEW YORK, July 18.—A telegram has been received by District Attorney Swann saying a detective left Seattle today for New York, with Jules Waterbury, known to the police of two continents as "Doc" Waterbury, who is under indictment here for grand larceny and assault in the first degree. The indictment for assault was based on charges brought against Waterbury by a girl who went to his office in answer to an advertisement for a stenographer.

Stage and Screen.

THE Big Four seem to be smaller, now they are standing together.

Florence Reed is the first film star, so far as it has yet been announced, to have a studio on her own estate, where she can produce and have her vacation hand in hand.

"Nugget Nell" is to be the title of Miss Dorothy Gish's next Paramount picture.

"The Love Burglar," now nearing completion, will present Wallace Reid in the name part.

Miss Evelyn Greeley in "The Oakdale Affair" will be released in August.

Miss Eve Unsell has written the continuity for Major Rupert Hughes' scenario of his novel "The Cup of Fury."

Miss Enid Bennett played the title-role in "The Gay Miss Fortesque."

Thomas H. Ince is at work on a new photo-drama called "Americanism vs. Bolshevism."

"L' Apache," the new picture starring Miss Dorothy Dalton, just completed, had a cast including Robert Elliott, Aussein Webber, George Furry, Misses Mary Harlan and Alice Gale

Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin, author of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," is also the author of "Rose o' the River," in which Miss Lila Lee soon is to be seen.

William S. Hart is working at Santa Cruz on lumber camp scenes for "John Petticoats," an original photo play by C. Gardner Sullivan.

Henry B. Walthall will appear in six productions for the Pioneer Film Company this season. Other players under contract to the organization include Stuart Holmes, Wilfred Lucas, George Beban and Misses Hawley, Alma Hanlon and Cleo Madison.

Gilson Willets, manager of the scenario department of the Pathe Exchange, Inc., has left Newport for Los Angeles, where he will remain during the filming of the early episodes of Ruth Roland's new serial, "The Adventures of Ruth," the first production of the new company, Ruth Roland Serials, Inc.

"The Adventures of Ruth" is based on a story written by Miss Roland herself, and Mr. Willets is writing the scenario. It is Miss Roland's theory that writer and star should be closely associated during the making of a picture, and Mr. Willett's trip to the coast is made at her request.

"The action of "The Adventures of Ruth" calls upon Miss Roland to portray thirty-five or forty different characters, each a distinct type, in the course of the quest upon which the story is based. This is an innovation in serials, and, Mr. Willets says, is worked out in a decidedly novel manner by the young author-star-promoter.

Much has been said about the ideal leading woman, and the type of woman required for moving pictures. To be honest with everybody, there is no type of woman which will fit into every picture. There are, perhaps, a dozen different types of women, each different from the other in makeup, hair, eyes, facial development, figure and expression. Each has probably played leads in the greatest moving-picture productions, but upon close observation it will be discovered that while one star fits admirably into one class of film action, she would be a failure in a production of an entirely different character. And so it goes clear down the line. A success in one is usually a failure in another production not suited to her personal charms.

One qualification for success is, however, indispensable. You must be human. Apart from that, you can be pretty nearly anything you like.

DRAYTON WITH BORDEN ON TRIP

Gives Color to the Rumor of His Entrance to Cabinet

REID MAY RETIRE

Drayton Mentioned for Railways or Finance Portfolio

Special to The Star by Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, July 18.—Sir Robert Borden left the Capital yesterday afternoon for a brief holiday trip. He will return within a fortnight and shortly afterward it is expected he will announce several changes in the Cabinet. It is understood that the Prime Minister will spend his vacation on the lower St. Lawrence and, it is said, is accompanied by Sir Henry Drayton, chief commissioner of the Dominion Railway Board.

Both circumstances are regarded as significant. From the fact that Sir Robert is going to the lower St. Lawrence it is deducted that Cabinet reconstruction and the subject of Quebec representation in the ministry may not be entirely forgotten on the pleasure trip.

That Sir Henry Drayton is accompanying the Premier lends force to the report that the Chief Commissioner is about to abandon his place on the railway board for a seat at the Privy Council table. What portfolio he would receive is uncertain, unless the rumor is true that Hon. J. D. Read is about to retire from his place at the head of the Department of Railways and Canals. If he retains his present office Sir Henry Drayton might go to the Department of Finance vacated by the resignation of Sir Thomas White or to some other department.

If Sir Henry does enter the Ministry he will be making a financial sacrifice inasmuch as his present salary is considerably larger than that of a member of the Cabinet.

Hon. F. B. Carvell returned from New Brunswick last night. While there have been rumors that he would withdraw from the Government there has been no really definate intimation that he will take such a step. He is not likely to do so, moreover, during the absence of the Prime Minister.

EXPECT MEETING TO QUIET UNREST

Coming Conference Between Capital and Labor Hopefully Anticipated

WINNIPEG LEADERS

Mass Gathering Tonight on Fletcher's Field—Textile Strike on Continues

The event now looming largest in the eyes of both capital and labor is the industrial conference to be held in Ottawa on September 11 next when the Prime Minister will meet representatives of the two parties from all over the Dominion. Already oragnizations, such as the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and others are arranging for delegations.

In this industrial conference melting pot the whole matter will be thrown, lock, stock and barrel; and all concerned are of the opinion that there will emerge from it some strong governmental action which shall be the solid basis for a general settlement of labor troubles throughout the country. The labor organizations have now turned their attention to the matter, and delegates will be sent to uphold the arguments of labor before the Government authorities. Many delegates from either side will likely go from this city and more initial interest is being taken than in the visit of the Royal Commission on Industrial Relations, which met in this city some weeks ago and which has already submitted its report.

MEETING TONIGHT.

Regarding the local situation, an important coming event is the mass-meeting to be held at 8.30 this evening on Fletcher's Field. At this meeting, Winnipeg strike leaders will present their brief for the action of Winnipeg labor in the recent strike. The city has issued an order that the speakers stick strictly to events in Winnipeg and no preaching of Socialistic doctrines will be permitted. The Montreal Trades and Labor Council has given its guarantee that these conditions will be ashered to strictly.

In the minds of striking members of the building trades organization, the conference to be held on Monday evening next in the Blue Room of the Windsor Hotel will be an outstanding event.

At this conference, members of the Building Trades Council will meet contractors of the city who are willing to receive the men and arrange a settlement with them. One conference has already been held and it is believed that some definite basis of settlement will grow out of Monday night's gathering.

The carpenters of Henry Morgan & Company are demanding 65 cents an hour and a eight hour day, and are awaiting a reply from Ottawa. Previously they received 55 cents an hour and worked nine hours. They are now engaged on a contract for the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa and it is believed that a settlement will be effected within the next two or three days. Meanwhile the men remain idle.

TEXTILE STRIKE.

Although Horace Riviere, international organizer of the textile workers, is expected here, the news of his coming has not brought about any change in the strike. It is hoped though, that his presence will bring about a final agreement.

Bakers, cigarmakers and horseshoers are still out, but these strikes are small compared with strikes involving hundreds of workers.

A member of the executive of the boilermakers' union told The Star this morning that the men were perfectly satisfied with the new conditions at the Canadian Vickers plant and were very happy to be back at their old jobs under improved conditions.

GREAT ADVANCE UNLIKELY IN COAL

Prices May Rise to Certain Extent, But Not Alarmingly

U.S. PROPHESIES

Word from Across Line Have Referred to the Heavy Increase

The discussion which has been going across the border lately in connection with the supply and price of coal for next winter, has awakened considerable anxiety in Montreal. Some American coal operators have prophesied that the shortage may develop into a famine, and that the price per ton of coal may jump $5 or $6.

The consensus of opinion among Montreal wholesale and retail dealers indicates a more optimistic view of the situation, but no one will take the responsibility of prognosticating with any exactness what the state of affairs in the coal trade may be next winter. Practically very dealer advocates laying in supplies of fuel for next winter early.

"But," emphasizes one of the most prominent retail merchants in the city, "there is no need of a stampede. If that happens, the demand naturally exceeds the supply and the price of coal, like that of any other commodity under similar circumstances, will be forced up unnaturally. There is no need to get panicky."

NO FEAR NOW.

The Geo. Hall Company, while advocating the early filling of the coal bin, does not see the possibility of an increase in price at present, although the labor situation may change next month. One member of the company, who has just returned from the United States where he has looked into the matter, says that in many coal centres there are not enough men to work the mines to the full extent. In one case 600 Italian miners left last month for their own country, and it has been impossible to fill their places. From shipments received here, conditions seem to be getting much tighter.

The operators say that is due to car shortage. But the opinion in other quarters is that labor trouble may also be to blame. If labor trouble is the cause, nothing will be known about prices until the trouble really develops, in which case there will be a tendency to put prices up within a short time. In any event, anything so discouraging as an increase of $5 a ton is regarded as impossible.

C. Petrie of the Lee Coal Company, says that a shortage of anthracite coal exists to a certain extent. But (in so far as the shortage exists today and in regard to its effect upon next winter) if labor at the mines is not upset, and if mining continues at a normal rate, the country will be in a position to face a normal winter. There will be a natural increase on the basic cost of coal according to the regular schedule increase of wages to the miners.

RATE OF EXCHANGE.

The rate of exchange between Canada and the United States will also affect the price per ton to a small extent. There is not the trouble with miners that there is in Europe, for the war increase in wages, equivalent to $1.05 per ton granted by the Government, has been maintained by the operators, so that the miners still receive the wartime wage. For that reason no trouble is looked for.

The price of soft coal depends upon industrial activity. To-day there is a surplus of soft coal as against the requirements. If manufacturing becomes active, it will be reflected in the demand for coal. If exportation of coal to Europe assumes large proportions, that will also affect the general bituminous situation. Soft coal is being sold below cost to-day because soft coal operators are forced by circumstances to sell it below cost rather than to shut down and sustain heavier losses. It is only natural to expect an increase in soft coal prices to equal at least the cost and ordinary profit. But, it is unnecessary to talk about a sudden rise of $5 or $6 a ton.

Several retail coal dealers state that local conditions may affect the price of coal to a small extent, but nowhere in local coal circles is any anxiety expressed with regard to the situation.

N.D. DE GRACE LADY HAS RIBS BROKEN

Knocked Down by Automobile when Leaving Tram Car

With two ribs broken and severe injuries to her head, Mrs. S. D. Vallieres, wife of ex-Alderman Vallieres, is in the Hotel Dieu hospital in a serious condition, as a result of being knocked down by an automobile last evening. Mrs. Vallieres was getting off a tramcar at the corner of Clairemont avenue and Cote St. Antoine road, when the automobile ran into her from behind and knocked her down, dragging her about forty feet before coming to a stop. The unfortunate lady was rendered unconscious and was picked up by a lady and by the car conductor. She was put in the automobile, which belonged to Mr. Friedman, of Notre Dame street, and was driven to her home at 370 Marlowe avenue, and afterwards to the Hotel Dieu hospital. Her husband is anxious to ascertain the name and address of the English lady who witnessed the accident.

$30,000 ROYALTIES ON HUN PATENTS

Canadians Have Paid This Into Patent Office During War

The patent office has an involved problem to solve in the near future in the matters of German patents used in Canada during the war and German trade marks used in this country. When the war broke out there were in use in Canada many patents, the owners of which resided in Germany. For the privilege of using these patents, the Canadians paid royalties. These royalties, of course, went to the German patentees.

The war changed all this and Germans no longer received the royalties accruing to them. The royalties were paid, however, into the patent office and held there. It is understood that between $25,000 and $30,000 now reposes in funds in the patent office, having accrued from these royalties on enemy patents.

The question as to whether or not the German patentees are to be credited with these funds, has not been decided.

The most difficult problem, it is pointed out by a patent attorney of the city, is in connection with the abuse of German trade marks during the war. This was particularly glaring in the case of drugs. Prior to the war a number of German drugs were popular on the Canadian market. They were really good drugs and people with physical troubles had few qualms in using German products if they were effacious.

This was where unprincipled persons saw their opportunities. These people immediately began to manufacture cheaper and sometimes poor substitutes for German drugs, using genuine German trade marks without permission. The great need of these drugs was an excuse for the vendors to handle them, and much money was made in this fashion. An attempt will be made to punish these people.

It is not considered likely that German patents will be cancelled by the Canadian patent office. They were of course annuled for the duration of the war, so far as the payment of royalties to the German patentees was concerned, but it is understood that when the whole matter is completely arranged the German patents will be re-established upon their old basis.

CHARGE OF MURDER WAS LAID TODAY

Staring straight before him, with seemingly little interest in the proceedings, William Fallon, of Peterboro, an ex-soldier, was this morning formally charged before Judge Cusson in the Arraignment Court, with murdering Bella Picken, of Ottawa.

Fallon's appearance in court today was a sequel to the verdict rendered yesterday by a coroner's jury holding him criminally responsible for the death of the woman, whose body was found in a room on St. Lawrence boulevard on Wednesday morning.

As usual, arraignment proceedings were brief, the clerk of the Court, Mr. Demers, read out the formal charge accusing Fallon of "In the City of Montreal, on July 15, killing Bella Picken."

Fallon, who was unrepresented by counsel, made no reply and was led back to the cells to await the enquete on Thursday next.

WHITE STAR-DOMINION LINE STEAMER MOVEMENTS.

The freighter Dominion, which sailed from Montreal July 3rd, is reported as having arrived at Bristol Tuesday, July 15th.

The Turcoman sailed from Avonmouth for Montreal July 16th, carrying general cargo, also 202 sheep, which will be used for breeding purposes, and a number of horses for the Canadian Government. This steamer should arrive in Montreal about July 27th.

The Regina sailed from Liverpool for Boston via Halifax Tuesday, July 15th, with 182 cabin and 1,773 third class passengers to be disembarked at Halifax.

EXPIRY OF LEASE

The expiration of the lease of 423 Union avenue compels the removal of the Union avenue Branch of The Star. Until other arrangements can be made, the business of the Union avenue Branch will be transacted at the Windsor street Branch, corner of St. Catherine street.

ELECTRIFY HARBOR RLWY. THIS MONTH

Contract to Be Given Next Week on the Tenders Received

The electrification of the railway of the Montreal Harbor will likely commence in the course of a week or so. The tenders for the work have all been received, numbering about thirty, and coming from all parts of the United States and Canada. They will be studied by experts and reported on to the meeting of the Montreal Harbor Commissioners, which will be held early next week.

The electrification of the railway lines on the harbor front will extend from Victoria Pier to Montreal East, and it is expected that the work will be completed about the time of the close of navigation.

BRITAIN AND U.S. MUST CO-OPERATE

Close Understanding Necessary for World's Benefit, Says Gen. Bethell

Major-Gen. H. K. Bethell, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., who is attached to the British Embassy at Washington, is in Montreal today and has renewed his acquaintance with Brig.-Gen. Armstrong, acting G.O.C., who was his colleague in France. Gen. Pethell spent the entire period of the war with the British Army in France. Following the armistice he was closely associated with the Canadian Corps.

Seen at the Ritz-Carlton this morning by The Star, he had high words of praise for the Canadian Corps. "What it achieved is well-known," he said. "Any one connected with it can have nothing but good to say of its performance. The whole of the British Army holds it in tremendous respect due to its magnificent fighting record, second to none.

Gen. Bethell joined the British Embassy at Washington two weeks ago. He has spent the past few days in Ottawa—his first visit to Canada—and there renewed his acquaintance with Gen. Mewburn, whom he met overseas.

FRIENDLY TO U. S.

Gen. Bethell spoke of the intense importance to both countries and the only thing on which the League of Nations can possibly stand," he said. "The future peace, law and order of the world are conditional upon it."

He did not like, he said, to see newspaper discussions on "who won the war." Comparisons on such a matter were invidious. "There is no doubt whatever that the raising of the American Army was a wonderful effort," he said, "and that they were able to put their force into the struggle at a crucial moment, even to the extens of giving the knock-out blow; but it is a ridiculous matter to attempt to state who won the war. Every one of the Allies did jolly well."

Gen. Bethell was closely associated with two of the American divisions and spoke of them as "a fine body of fighting men." The general leaves for Quebec this evening with Brig.-Gen. Burstall.

WATCH MONTREAL FOR LIQUOR SALES

Secret Service Men Taking Measures to Prevent Shipments to Ontario

Ontario authorities have placed secret service men in several of the large warehouses in this city, in an effort to trace illegal shipments of liquor to Ontario, according to a report received this morning by The Star from a good authority in these matters. Recently very heavy shipments of liquors have been sent from Montreal to Toronto and other Ontario centres. This traffic began as soon as the war measure of inter-provincial shipments became a dead letter. The traffic has increased, and to cope with it successfully the Ontario provincial authorities have taken this method of tracing shipments originating in Montreal.

Recently many seizures of liquor have been made in central Ontario points, and it is believed that the efficiency with which these goods were picked out by the inspectors was due in a very large measure to the information secured by secret service men placed in the foremost warehouses of this city.

The Provincial Government also has inspectors on this work now, and a determined effort is being made to catch all shipments from Montreal into a dry territory. Railway lines and express companies are being watched carefully in a greater spirit of determination than has ever been evinced before, to see that the law is observed and that dry territory is not irrigated via Montreal wholesale liquor dealer route.

So far, the work has been done quietly, without much publicity, although it has been in progress for some time and excellent results have been attained. It is believed that supervision by inspectors accustomed to the work, at the point of origin of these shipments, is much more likely to bear fruit than any effort made to corral shipments at points of delivery. This belief has been justified by results.

A CRITICAL DAY

The fate of the Charity Organization is trembling in the balance. On Monday or Tuesday next a meeting of the directors of the society will be held to decide to go on or close down. The generous citizens who have come forward with cheques to avert the crisis deserve well of the citizens. They have manifested an appreciation of the duties and responsibilities that are attached to citizenship.

On behalf of the Charity Organization, The Star thanks the kind donors whose contributions are flowing in to meet a public danger. If the society has to go under there will be lamentations far and wide. Many a charitable man and woman will realize that they have missed an opportunity. It will then be too late. Street begging will be revived. Impostures will prevail. Thousands of people sick or disabled and utterly helpless will be destitute and desperate. We warn the public against permitting such conditions as will arouse public clamor for remedy, that will be almost impossible to provide.

If the society closes down, every dollar subscribed will be returned to the donors. For this promise the word of The Star is given as guarantee.

REAL ESTATE SALES

The following real estate sales were registered this morning:

John Williamson sold to Thomas Williamson, 1-2 undivided lots 1627-1 to 5, St. Andrew ward, measuring 128x 147.7 in one line, and 147.11½ another line, with buildings and fronting on St. Catherine street West Nos. 920 to 928, and Fort street Nos. 63 to 69, for $55,000 and other considerations.

Chs. Allan Spencer sold to Chs. Wm. Lindsay, lot 26 Centre ward, with a building fronting on St. Paul street west Nos. 124 and 132, for $48,500.

Samuel Wagnelstein sold to Michael Waxman, lots 894-14, 15, St. Louis ward, with buildings fronting on Cadieux street Nos. 705 to 713, for $15,000.

Mrs. Odilon Bastien et al sold to E. Rene Lapierre lot pt. N.W. 1641-3 pt. S.E. 1641-34, pt. 1641-33, 34, St. Andrew ward, with buildings fronting into a dry territory. Railway lines and express companies are being watched carefully in a greater spirit of determination than has ever been evinced before, to see that the law is observed and that dry territory is not irrigated via Montreal wholesale liquor dealer route.

So far, the work has been done quietly, without much publicity, although it has been in progress for some time and excellent results have been attained. It is believed that supervision by inspectors accustomed to the work, at the point of origin of these shipments, is much more likely to bear fruit than any effort made to corral shipments at points of delivery. This belief has been justified by results.

MICHIGAN ASSURED OF A REFERENDUM

By Canadian Press.

DETROIT, July 18.—A referendum at the election in November, 1920, of Michigan's ratification of national prohibition is assured, according to officials of the State Hotelmen's Association. It was stated today that sufficient signatures have been secured to a petition asking the Secretary of state to submit to the electors for approval or rejection, the act of the legislature early this year, in formally approving legislational prohibition.

PERSONALS

Commander J. K. L. Ross is now at his summer cottage at Sydney, N.S. He will be in the city on the 29th and 30th of this month.

Meredith Campbell, K.C., is out of the city on his annual holiday trip.

C. N. Ham, secretary of the Express Traffic Association, is absent in Toronto on a business trip.

NOTHING KNOWN RE EXPRESS RATES

Companies Await Award re Zones and Rates Before Speaking

"We don't know yet what to think of the new finding of the Railway Commission on express rates," was the expression of opinion received by The Star this morning from prominent express officials in the city. No copy of the full text of the award has yet been received by any of the express companies and until there is an opportunity of studying the full text the express officials state that they will not be able to form a sound opinion. "We can only guess at it so far," said one manager, "and you can do that as well as we can."

The local manager of the Dominion Express Company pointed out that while a broad summary of the finding had been published, it was not in sufficient detail to satisfy the express companies. "For instance, it is stated that the delivery zones are to be widened, but we do not know how much, and until we know that we will not be able to discover how it will affect our operations. The same thing is true of the announcement with respect to percentage increases in business in Eastern Canada, and Western Canada, as well as the Coast."

Manufacturers and other shippers in the city are in much the same boat, but on the broad resume of the finding they are fairly well satisfied. They are particularly pleased with the decision of the Railway Commission not to abolish the commodity rates.

One gleeful section of the business public of Montreal is composed of those who handle cheese. The cheese men of Montreal have the matter of commodity rates on cheese so far as freight is concerned, now before the Railway Commission. They view with considerable confidence the decision not to abolish commodity rates in the matter of express traffic, and while there is a movement on foot to abolish commodity rates on cheese in freight movements, which they are opposing as strongly as possible, they are inclined to feel that the view of Sir Henry Drayton that commodity rates in express matter should not be abolished augurs well for their argument in favor of a similar action by the commission so far as commodity rates on cheese in freight movements are concerned.

There is no well defined opinion, however, to be secured in the matter at this time, because of the fact that the finding is a long one and even when received it will take some days to study it in detail and compare it with present conditions, while, on the other hand, no copy of the original draft has yet come to hand. The express companies expect to receive tonight or tomorrow copies of the document giving the full details.

CARSON SPEECH ROUSES MANY TO HOT PROTEST

Sinn Fein Leader Applauds it, Saying it Helps Them

REAL SENSATION

The Times Declares That Britain Must Force a Solution Soon

Special Cable to Chicago Daily News and Montreal Star.

DUBLIN, Ireland, July 18.—Sir Edward Carson's Belfast speech is discussed with great indignation everywhere except among the Sinn Feiners. They rather admire the directness of the Ulster leader, for they are always able to use his utterances to strengthen their own position.

Arthur Griffith, who next to De Valera is the most prominent Sinn Fein leader says he welcomes Sir Edward's propaganda, for it is teaching the people of Northeast Ulster that the British Parliament has no right to impose upon them any law they dislike. This, he says, is good Sinn Fein doctrine. The more Sir Edward teaches it in Ulster the more he is preparing the ground for the Sin Feiners to teach their followers to resist all British law.

"Personally," says Mr. Griffith, "I prefer a man like Carson to any English politician. He is a straighter and abler man, but, they will sell him as they have sold other men who stood in their way."

BRITISH PRESS OUTSPOKEN.

Canadian Associated Press.

LONDON, July 18.—The British Government and Commons, have turned down the motion of Hon. J. R. Clynes, former Food Controller, to prosecute Sir Edward Carson for the speech he made recently on the Irish question in which he threatened to call out the Ulster volunteers to resist any attempt to place the Home Rule Act in operation, keeps Irish affairs still prominent. The Daily News is very angry. It says:—"A corrupt government cannot proceed against a rebel with whom its own members have been in collision and the repudiation of Parliament and the Government is a natural consequence. Until we have a government which can deal with this outrage and put Carson where better men have been put, there will be no check to the perilous drift of opinion towards direct action and rejection of the authority of parliamentary institutions.

The Times, which contends that a settlement must be imposed on Ireland, as an agreement is impossible, says that Ulster has the right to ask for the safeguarding of her liberties, but with that done, Great Britain has the right to insist that Ulster shall, if necessary, remain part of Ireland.

"Law and order must be maintained, but simultaneously with their maintenance there should immediately be offered to the Irish people some hope of a reasonable fulfilment of their aspirations. If this is done we believe the situation in Ireland will mend in proportion to the good faith and justice of government.

LORD DENBIGH'S VIEW.

Lord Denbigh, a leading English Roman Catholic, is one who has based his opposition to Home Rule chiefly on the strategical question writes to The Times saying:

"This will always be a fatal obstacle to Home Rule as it exists in the Dominions. Now that the German danger is over does not that furnish one reason for a legitimate change in our views towards such a solution of the Irish question as will satisfy the reasonable elements of the Irish race and their desires for Home Rule largely based on sentiment and the utter mishandling of Ireland by a long succession of British governments."

Sir Edward Carson did not speak in the debate in the House of Commons, but in conversation gave his reasons for his Belfast speech.

"Consider this De Valera campaign in America which is being conducted against the integrity of the British Empire by people who were our enemies all through the war," he said. "It is being utilised, both on the other side of the Atlantic and on this with the obvious aim of browbeating Ulster and forcing her under some sort of Dublin parliament.

"Now remember that throughout the war Ulster men and women were the foremost of the King's subjects in devoting themselves and their substance to the support of the Empire and to the fight for liberty and justice. I know well how bitterly they feel at the suggestion that their reward should be to be handed over to their enemies and I spoke as I did, in order to let it be clearly known that Ulster will not stand it."

Jewish Pogroms Exaggerated, Says Paderewski

NIAGARA ON THE LAKE, Ont., July 18.—Replying to a letter sent by John Weston of Toronto, who is spending the summer at his cottage here, Premier Paderewski, of Poland, assures Mr. Weston that the reports of persecution of the Jews in Poland are not correct. In the course of his reply from Paris, Premier Paderewski said: "The Polish Government issued several official declarations guaranteeing equal rights to all citizens of our country, without difference of race or creed. The majority of Jews are satisfied with their lot, and entertain friendly relations with the rest of the Polish population. The campaign which tends to misinform the world as to our mutual relations is conducted by a minority which sympathizes with our mutual foes, the Germans."

Crocker Returns; Irish Climate Did Not Suit Him

DUBLIN, July 18.—Richard Crocker, former Tammany leader in New York City, will return to the United States in two months, having found the Irish climate unsatisfactory.

Mr. Crocker will hold a large sale of his horses soon. He intends, however, to retain several and he will continue to be represented on the Irish turf.

ONTARIO FLAX CROP IS A FAILURE

TORONTO, July 18.—This is a bad year for the flax industry in Ontario. Reports received by Justus Miller, field crop specialist of the department of agriculture show that 16 of the 20 companies in Ontario which operate 37 of the 51 mills in different parts of the province, claim that the crop on the 11,000 acres will have to be cut instead of being pulled. The flax is very short because of the drought.

RAIN IS FALLING IN ALBERTA NOW

But Too Late to Save the Season's Wheat Crops

MANITOBA GOOD

Crops There Above the Average, Especially Hay

Special to The Star.

WINNIPEG, Man. July 18. — Intense heat and high winds, unrelieved except with rains in the Edmonton district, was the distressing report from all over western Canada last night. Grain firms are admittedly disturbed, and mill agencies display alarm. For Manitoba the weather is ideal for growing, since this province has enjoyed exceptional rains, but otherwise the condition is grave. Outside of Manitoba the next best section in western Canada is the famous Peace River country of northern Manitoba, which reports plenty of moisture, and crop prospects better than any former year. The intense heat is ripening grain very rapidly.

Yesterday's bulletins follow:

Lethbridge, Alta. — High winds, temperature 99, added to distress this section today; no sign rain.

Kamloops, B.C. — Moisture quite sufficient through central British Columbia, with no indication drouth. In Penticton, fruit growing section of Okanagan country, one hundred in shade has not damaged grain, as irrigation here.

GOOD CROP AT BRANDON.

Brandon, Man. — Weather during week has been ideal for the growing crops. A few points last week have had fairly heavy rain, but this was not needed, and the only places requiring more moisture are on the Estevan subdivision from Napinka west. Wheat and barley are headed out and are now filling. Crops generally are in excellent condition, and conceded to be the best for many years at this season. Anxiety was expressed in some quarters that the abundant rains of last week or two, together with the extreme heat might develop rust in the crops, but to date there is apparently little or no crop thus affected. Fall rye is being cut in the Portage and Bagot districts, also around Melita. During the coming week it is expected that harvesting of the rye crop will be general. Grasshopper pest is abating fast.

Regina, Sask. — Crops show improvement, and apart from the dried out districts in the southwestern portion of the province and along the Wilkie subdivision and around Macklin, where the crop is in very poor shape on account of drought damage, the balance of the province is in pretty fair shape. In the beforementioned drought affected areas, rain would now do very little good, except to create feed, and even that is doubtful in certain parts of the southwest. Wheat is all headed out and is starting to fill, and it is expected that the harvest will be about 10 days earlier than last year.

FAILURE IN SOUTH ALBERTA.

Calgary, Alta. — In northwestern Alberta, including Edmonton and the district adjacent, crops are in very good condition, and the same applies to the Peace River and Grand Prairie districts, where there are heavy crop prospects. In southern Alberta, with the exception of the irrigated districts and a few small districts including Gleichen, Bassano and Cluny, the crops are a failure, and a very large portion of the province. Tame hay is very light throughout the whole of Alberta, and pasture is getting extremely short throughout the south and east.

Feed for stock presents a serious situation, particularly feed for the winter. Many farmers are shipping stock to the packers, while other are turning their cattle into the grain fields. Others are searching Northern Alberta for fodder, but the supply there is hardly sufficient to meet their own requirements. The Peace River and Grand Prairie districts, however, report a heavy hay crop.

RAIN FALLING NOW.

EDMONTON, Alta., July 18—Pretty nearly all Alberta is getting a moistening, according to the weather reports. Rains that began in the Edmonton district in the early hours of the morning, have since extended to a large area of the province, and are giving promise of continuing through the day. A substantial improvement in the grass and green feed crops is the anticipated result.

The railway offices report good showers over most of the lines in Central Alberta, and in parts of the south country. The rain has apparently not yet reached the extreme east of the province, and is considerably lighter in the southern district, but is fairly general notwithstanding. In the north country, where crops are excellent, there is rain and cooler weather.

Fires in the Nordegg country west of Red Deer has practically been extinguished by a heavy four hours' rainfall. A little more will put the district out of further danger from the fires, which have raged with considerable loss of forage and farm property for weeks past.

OPTIMISM IN MANITOBA.

Special to The Star.

WINNIPEG, July 18. — Manitoba farmers will soon be cutting a splendid crop of wheat, other grains and hay, according to a cheerful report issued yesterday by Hon. Val. Winkler, Minister of Agriculture. Here is a summary of the report which covers all portions of the province:

"The promise of a good crop in Manitoba is practically universal. In the Red River valley the rains of the past month have drowned a small portion of the potatoes, and have flooded a small percentage of the lowest lands but this has been more than offset by the abundance of grass and heavy crop produced on the other lands of that district. In the remainder of Manitoba an occasional place has failed to receive its proper allotment of rain and is suffering from drouth, but almost every correspondent reports good showers.

"No place outside the Red River valley has received too much rain. Many correspondents mention that recent weather has been ideal for filling the wheat heads. The amount of hail has been small. The crop promises to be a very early one with some wheat out in July and a general movement in cutting during the first week in August.

"A little rust appears here and there but each bright breezy day lessens the chances of a serious outbreak. There has been some damage by cutworms fairly well all over the province, with grasshoppers in the southwestern district. Also a little damage has been done by western wheat stem sawfly, but the total harm done by insects has been comparatively small.

ABUNDANT HAY.

"Hay prospects the province over were never much better than now, and the abundant pasturage is ideal for dairying and livestock raising. In view of the certainty that thousands of cattle and sheep will be shipped out of Alberta and Saskatchewan because of shortage of feed, the abundance of forage in Manitoba is particularly fortunate, and farmers should take steps to conserve all the feed possible. The smallness of the crop in the provinces farther west will greatly increase the available labor for securing the Manitoba harvest. What is wanted for the next month is cool, sunshiny weather, with only occasional showers."

ALBERTA GOVT WILL GIVE AID TO FARMERS

EDMONTON, Alta., July 18.—The Alberta Government will finance the purchase of fall rye seed for farmers in the drought districts and will in this way give relief under the terms and provisions of the seed grain act. This is the first definite action to be taken as a result of the Cabinet conference on Wednesday and will, it is believed, contribute materially to a solution of the present difficulty.

Fall rye is strongly recommended by Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture, as a means of providing fall and spring pasturage and still ensuring a crop a year later. It is well adapted to conditions such as prevail this year, and the Minister considers that Alberta farmers who have lost their wheat crops will be well advised to sow rye and thus secure a supply of green feed for their stocks.

There is said to be between 10,000 and 15,000 bushels of rye in the province, which would be available for seeding purposes and the Government has decided to finance purchases from this stock or from such other sources as may be found necessary, for farmers unable to make their own arrangements. The work will be done through the municipalities where organized and directly by the department of agriculture in unorganized districts, on substantially the same terms and conditions as the purchase of seed grain supplied last spring.

WINNIPEG UNIONS TO BE REORGANIZED

No One Big Union Councils for the Trades Congress

Special to The Star by Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, July 18.—R. A. Rigg, special representative at Winnipeg of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, has been instructed by the executive of the Trades and Labor Congress to proceed at once with reorganization of the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council. This course has become necessary from the action of a number of delegates of the Winnipeg Council in voting for affiliation to the One Big Union.

The Winnipeg Trades Council, says the executive's announcement, is composed of delegates from locals of international trade unions which are affiliated to the American Federation of Labor and the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. The One Big Union has nothing in common with these organizations, believing as it does in a policy of securing its aims by force, massed action and disregard of agreements as against the Trades Congress and International Trade Union policy of negotiation between employers and employes, collective bargaining and strict observance of sighed agreements.

The instructions given to Mr. Rigg provide for definite steps to bring the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council into harmony with the principles of the Trades Congress. The Congress exective is confident that this can be done by reorganization of the council with delegates who desire to carry on in harmony with the Trades' Congress principles. It is also convinced that many by their votes have repudiated the One Big Union and are ready for this reorganization.

Repudiation by subsidiary bodies of their own constituted central authority will not be tolerated, declared Mr. Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, today. Such action destroys organized effort and we would sooner withdraw our charters entirely than attempt to carry on as a mob throughout the country and allow the Trades Council chartered by us to be used by O. B. U. members to destroy the bona fide trade unions.

O. B. U. MEN CLAIM VICTORY.

WINNIPEG, July 18.—According to leading local labor officials who have taken a prominent part in championing the cause of the O. B. U. Winnipeg labor toay is a One Big Union organization. The business of reorganizing the craft system is merely a matter of time, they declared.

Sixty-two of the seventy-five unions affiliated with the Labor Council have taken a vote on the O. B. U. plan and, it is said, in every case, the majority required favored the plan.

The other thirteen unions have not made returns as to vote or their membership, leaders stated. The typographical union was the only one to refuse to take a vote on the proposal.

An alleged threat by the Dominion Trades Congress to cancel the charter of the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council appeared to cause union authorities no worry. They anticipated that should any unions fail to fall in line with the O. B. U. such bodies would break away from the present organization and form a little trades and labor council of their own.

Canadians Not to Parade Saturday Though Invited

By Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LONDON, July 18. — Canadian headquarters have issued an explanation of the absence of Canadian troops from the great London peace procession on Saturday. They say it is a matter of deep regret but it has been found impossible to accept the invitation extended by the War Office to the Canadian forces to take part in the peace celebrations procession. Unfortunately owing to the Canadian scheme of demobilization all organized units have already been repatriated. Canadian soldiers still remain in this country but while they individually represent a number of fighting units, the circumstances of their departure prevent their being given ceremonial formation.

Repatriation is Slightly Behind the Estimate

Special Star Cable From Our Own Correspondent. Copyright.

THE MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 20 Cockspur street, London, July 18. —Canadian repatriation for half the month of July totalled 15,295 troops of all ranks and 2,060 dependents. The total program for July calls for 27,000, plus an 8,000 balance from June. It is anticipated some delay may occur in the balance of the month's sailings, owing to the shortage of labor following the peace celebrations. WINDERMERE.

UNION JACK NOT ALLOWED ON COFFIN

TORONTO, July 18.—Local war veterans are indignant because Rev. Dean Moyna refused to permit the British flag to remain on the coffin of Private J. J. Riley, while the funeral services for Private Riley were being conducted in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church yesterday and stated that there is no law in the Catholic Church which prohibits the use of any flag at funeral services. The Archbishop said Dean Moyna had acted on his own responsibility in having the flag removed.

INDUSTRIAL UNREST CONFERENCE SEP. 11

Govt. Provincial Premiers, Employers and Employes to Meet

By Canadian Press.

OTTAWA, Ont. July 18—The recommendations of the Royal Commission on Industrial Relations for a national conference in Ottawa of federal and provincial ministers with representative employers and workmen on the subject of industrial relations has been accepted by an order-in-council, adopted yesterday, which outlines also the basis of representation, procedure and the objects in view.

The convention or sessions will be held in the House of Commons chamber beginning on September 11, and will probably continue for about one week. They will be open to the press and public. Invitations will be extended to the several provincial governments to be represented by their respective Prime Ministers and any other Ministers who may be designated for the purpose. Employers and employes will each be invited by the Minister of Labor to select approximately sixty representatives to appear for them at the conference, the selection to be arranged through the representative associations of employers on the one hand and through the representative bodies of organized labor on the other hand in such a way as to make the gathering as representative as possible of all branches of trade and industry throughout Canada.

It is expected that the members of the Royal Commission on Industrial Relations and representatives of engineering and technical organizations will also be invited. The total number of persons attending the conference will not exceed 150 in all. The arrangements for the conference will be made by the Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor.

A suggested agenda has been prepared by the Labor sub-committee of the reconstruction committee of the Cabinet, based on the report of the Royal Commission on Industrial Relations. This agenda includes among other subjects the desirability of unifying and co-ordinating the existing labor laws of the Dominion Parliament and of the provincial legislatures, and consideration of any new labor laws which are doomed necessary, also consideration of the proposals of the Royal Commission relating to hours of labor, the enactment of minimum wage laws, the right of employers to organize recognition of labor unions, the right of employers to collective bargaining, and the establishment of industrial councils.

MENNONITES LOSE IN SCHOOL FIGHT

Not Immune from the Law and Fines are Imposed

A LONG FIGHT

Refused to Allow English Taught to Children in Schools

By Canadian Press.

WINNIPEG, Man. July 18.—Guilty, with a fine of $5 and costs, was the judgment given in the cases of eleven Mennonites, charged with unlawfully neglecting to send their children to school or make satisfactory provision for their education, by Magistrate C. C. Milne, of Morden, Man., yesterday.

The charges which were laid by the Government of Manitoba constitute a test of whether the Mennonites are immune from the acts of the provincial Governsent so far as education is concerned or not. One of the eleven cases will be appealed as a test case and will be taken by the Mennonites to the highest judicial authority in the Empire—the Privy Council.

The Mennonites who have appeared as defendants all belong to the same colony near Morden and Gretas, Manitoba.

ORIGIN OF THE TROUBLE.

The first difference in views between the particular Mennonites colony represented in court and the provincial Government occurred in 1907, when the Roblin government enacted legislation making it compulsory for all public schools in the province to fly the Canadian flag. The Mennonites decided that they could not do this on account of their religious principles and in consequence reverted to the private school class, in which they did not receive the Government grant. In 1913 they reconsidered this decision and flew the flag, thus becoming once again a public school. In 1916, when the school attendance act was passed, making it compulsory that English be taught in the schools of the province, they once again reverted to the private school standing. The department of education, however, forced the matter, insisting that their children should be taught the English language. On Mal 1, of this year the department sent a teacher to the Houston school, but it was shown in evidence that during the time he was at the school, from May 1, until the latter part of June, the attendance was nil. The Government then took action against some of the principal Mennonite citizens.

CLAIMED IMMUNITY.

The defence in the actions, as put forward by counsel, was that the Dominion Government by an order-in-council had granted the Mennonites on their arrival in Canada in 1874, the fullest privilege of exercising their religious principles and educating their children, as provided by law, without any kind of molestation or restriction whatever."

The prosecution, however, claimed that there was no statute on which such an order-in-council could be issued nor was there any statute under which the federal government at that time could enter such an agreement.

ALLIES FEARFUL OF CONSEQUENCES

Intervention in Hungary Should Have Been Undertaken Before

LABOR OPPOSING IT

Meantime Bela Kun Blocks Peace by Tieing Up Railways

Special Cable to The Chicago News and Montreal Star By Paul Scott Mowrer. Copyright.

PARIS, July 18.—The chances of Allied intervention in Hungary still seem meagre. The Allied nations now all appreciate the advantages which would be gained if this intervention had been undertaken when the Reds first seized power. The attempts to deal gently with the Hungarian Bolsheviki have brought nothing but disillusionment.

Bela Kun is blocking the whole peace movement in Central Europe by interrupting traffic on the Danube and over the Hungarian railroads. It is considered that these means of communication belong not only to the Hungarians but to other Central European states and that the Allies should have occupied and kept them open long ago. Though their past errors are now clear the Allied Governments at present feel unable to undertake this intervention because of the strong opposition from the labor element.

Next Monday's general strike is directed largely against the idea of further foreign interventions. Premier Nitti has promised the Italian Chamber that Italy will not interfere in Hungary. Britain and France are equally fearful and our own Government is apparently determined to avoid further entanglements in strictly European affairs for the time being.

BELA KUN OUSTED, ARMY DEMORALIZED

Communist Hungary Going Rapidly to Pieces Now

PEASANTS OPPOSED

Budapest Alone Has Any Tendency to Sovietism

PARIS, July 18.—Bela Kun, head of the Hungarian Communist Government, has been ousted, according to despatches from reliable sources in Vienna received by the Peace Conference.

Troops returning from the Czech front were reported entering Budapest in large numbrs. Budapest was in disorder.

Herr Boehm and Herr Lander have taken over control of the Communist Government.

ARMY DEMORALIZED.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, July 18.—Dispatches reaching Peace Conference circles from Budapest indicate that general demoralization has struck Bela Kun's army, which is straggling back from the different fronts with utter lack of discipline.

The breakdown in the spirit of the troops is attributed to discontinuation of the fighting against the Czechs and the Rumanians in consequence of the armistice and to the hasty increase of the well drilled loyal army of 60,000 to more than 125,000 men.

Reports from the same source received by peace delegates are to the effect that Bolshevism in Hungary is confined almost exclusively to Budapest. Peasants are said to be obstructing shipments of food to the capital, which is rapidly reaching a desperate state.

MAJOR SHOOTS HIMSELF.

By the Associated Press.

VIENNA, July 18.—A report from Budapest says Major Bartha, head of the military school, recently shot himself when he learned that eleven of his students had been sentenced to death and twenty-five others to life or less terms of imprisonment. Chief Justice Kisks, who is a former blacksmith, was unable to secure answers from Bartha when the students were on trial.

The report adds that M. Bartha on being questioned by the court replied, "I refuse to recognize the legality of this court, or you as a judge."

A METEORIC CAREER.

Bela Kun was reported in a Budapest dispatch received Wednesday to have broken off with nearly all the Socialist leaders. Officers of the Soviet army were said to be deserting at every opportunity.

The Communist leader was quoted as saying to his minister of education that he was tired of trying to ride Socialist and Communist horses at the same time.

Herr Boehm, who has been commander of the Hungarian armies, was reported in prison, in a dispatch from Vienna on Wednesday. This dispatch also stated that Bela Kun was seeking some excuse to leave Hungary and that he would not return.

IN THE SADDLE SINCE MARCH.

Bela Kun assumed the post of foreign commissary or minister of foreign affairs in the Hungarian Soviet Government, which succeeded the republican Government set up by Count Karolyi. He took office in March, 1919, and immediately got into touch with the heads of the Russian Soviet Government. He was considered the founder of the Communist party in Hungary.

The Council of Five at Paris, on July 5, reached the conclusion, it was stated, that it was impossible to make peace with Bela Kun's Government. Consequently it was considered necessary to maintain the blockade.

Recent events in Budapest have presaged trouble. An attack was made on the Soviet headquarters by three monitors in the Danube, aided by land forces, on July 2. As a result of this uprising forty youths from the Budapest military academy and three officers, were hanged. Bela Kun then issued a proclamation stating "Blood shall flow henceforth if necessary to insure the protection of the proletariat."

Since Bela Kun's advent to power there has been much friction between the Hungarian Government and the Allied representatives.

REVOLUTION HERE PLANNED BY BOLSHEVIKI

Premier of B.C. Says Soldiers Would Not Stand for it

MISSION, B.C., July 18.—Hon. John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, spoke in plain words to his Dewdney constituents.

"We had to raise your taxes, and we're going to do it again," he said after outlining the financial situation of the province.

"It may not make me popular to tell you this, but I don't very much care whether it does. If you don't like the Government, or do not trust it, you can put another one in, and I would not mind being relieved of the burden. I can tell you that the pinch is coming, and it means sacrifice for all."

"I have no hesitation in saying," declared the Premier, in his address, "that there is a Bolshevik element in Canada of the social democratic party in this province that hoped for, worked for and expected to so work on the returned soldiers that there would be a revolution in Canada this summer. There is the strongest evidence to this effect. The soldiers did not fall into the snare, and I say that we owe as great a debt to them for their stand in the recent troubles in Canada, as for their bravery on the battlefields. If it had not been for them, conditions might have been very serious in Canada to-day."

Labor Moderates in Toronto Council are Badly Beaten

TORONTO, July 18.—Almost all the "Moderates" amongst the officers of the Toronto district trades and Labor Council were wiped out of office at the annual elections last night and the "Progressives" or Socialists are now in the saddle. President Arthur E. O'Leary, a Moderate of the Moderates, went down to defeat in his contest for re-election, and his chief supporter, Secretary W. J. Hevey also is among the slain. The only old official regarded as a Moderate to be left in office is J. T. Gunn.

Following are chief officers elected last night: President, R. Monroe; recording secretary, Alfred Mance; financial secretary, J. Cattam; delegates to the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, J. T. Gunn, H. Lewis, and James Simpson.

Fuselage, Wings and Engine All Broken in Fall

Special to The Star.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., July 18.—The Martinsyde essayed the trans-Atlantic flight yesterday at 3.30 in a fine west breeze. She ran 100 yards, and on a good hop rose twenty feet. In a sudden gust she crashed her nose into the earth. The machine's propellor, wings and carriage were torn away and broken, and the engines strained. The men jumped clear unhurt. They are disheartened by the mishap.

A PATCHED-UP MACHINE.

The machine used by Raynham in yesterday's attempt at flight was known as the "Chimera," and was rebuilt from the original machine which was wrecked when Captain Raynham and his former navigator, Captain Wm. T. Morgan, attempted to get away late in May and race across with Harry Hawker, pilot of the Sopwith biplane. Both Raynham and Morgan were injured, the navigator so seriously that he had to withdraw from the crew and return to England.

After expperiencing considerable difficulty in finding another navigator, Lieut. Biddle Coombe was finally selected and came here to prepare for a second attempt. The re-building of the machine was completed some time ago, but adverse weather conditions delayed the start of the flight. Later, radiator trouble was experienced and only a few days ago, while the machine was being taken from its hangar, a tire burst, causing a further delay.

Raynham's machine, the only one of the numerous trans-Atlantic entries remaining here, was the smallest craft entered for the overseas flight. It had a wing spread of only 41 feet, with a fuselage 26 feet long, and was equipped with a single motor, capable of developing 275 horsepower and a speed of 110 miles an hour when fully loaded.

TOO MUCH WEIGHT.

In yesterday's disastrous attempt to "hop off," the re-built machine made a good run of 300 yards along the ground, and then flew about fifty yards at a height of about twenty feet. It then plunged to the earth, and its nose was buried deep in the turf. The wreck was ascribed by airmen to the inability of the machine to lift the weight of the 375 gallons of gasoline which she carried for the ocean trip.

One axle of the undercarriage was broken, both wheels torn off, the propellor splintered, the radiator ripped out, the aluminum tanks split, the lower planes broken where they joined the fusilage and the fusilage shattered.

Both Raynham and his navigator leaped from the plant just as it struck the ground. They said they felt it sag from the heavy weight before it began to fall and realized it could not ascend.

Doubt was expressed as to whether Raynham would make a third attempt to get away because of the heavy cost of the enterprise to the owners of the plane.

OFFICER BEATEN BY ENRAGED MEN

Rough Justice Awarded Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith, of U.S. Army

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith was beaten nearly to death when he arrived as a prisoner, at Fort Jay, a few days ago, according to a statement made last night by Representative Dallinger, chairman of the sub-committee which has been investigating the treatment of prisoners in American army camps in France. Other prisoners at Fort Jay, who accused Smith of maltreating them, leaped upon the former officer before the guards could restrain them, and he is now in a hospital.

In the statement, Dallinger asserted that other witnesses would be called to prove that a Lieut. Mason, another officer in charge of camps, "clubbed prisoners, robbed them, and stole their money," yet his sentence was nothing more than a dishonorable discharge. Commenting that the first sentence imposed upon Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith was a dishonorable discharge, Dallinger sarcastically inquired:

TOOK LAW IN OWN HANDS.

"Why didn't the court have him slapped on the wrist?"

Only seventy-seven hours were consumed by the congressional committee in ascertaining that "awful cruelties" had been practised upon the prisoners, says Dallinger, and adds that it would have taken the War Department seventy-seven years to accomplish this disclosure. Of the attack upon former Lieut. Smith, the statement says:

"'Hard Boiled' Smith arrived at Fort Jay, N. Y., the other day and was almost at once seen by some of his victims there serving sentence. He was recognized by them and before the guards arrived he was beaten to a pulp and I believe he is now in the hospital recovering from a punishment meted out to him by those very men whom he had himself tortured. It is thus that man takes the law into his own hands when the courts fail."

CASTE SYSTEM IN ARMY.

The statement continues:

"Since the beginning of the war I have called on the War Department to investigate specific instances of inefficiency and specific charges of one kind or another concerning the treatment of our soldiers. In every instance Secretary Baker has diplomatically assured me that an investigation would be made. As a result and ordinarily after several months' delay I have been politely assured either that a most thorough investigation showed no truth whatsoever in these charges or that they had been grossly exaggerated and whatever faults had been found had been corrected. Always there is delay and nothing is done.

"As a result, you may believe me when I say that I am thoroughly disgusted with these army official investigations. The caste system in vogue in our army makes an investigation nothing more than a joke. These regular army officers naturally want to protect themselves and each other and it becomes a case of simply My helping you if you'll help me, let's work together and pull the wool over the eyes of Mr. Baker, Congress and the country.'"

SCHOOL CASE ADJOURNED.

TORONTO, July 18.—In the action of Mackell vs. Ottawa Separate School Board, the case stands one week, and then the question of further enlargement will be considered.

MARTINSYDE PLANE WHICH WAS WRECKED YESTERDAY

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., July 18—Frederick P. Raynham failed again yesterday to get away on an attempted trans-Atlantic flight in his Martinsyde plane. The machine rose only 30 feet and then crashed to the ground. It was completely wrecked but neither Raynham nor his navigator, Lieutenant Conrad H. Biddlecombe, were injured.

NATIONALIZATION MEANS DISASTER

Says Lord Inchcape—Would Make Britain Fourth-rate Power

LONDON, July 18 (Reuter)—There was an interesting debate in the House of Lords on the question of nationalization, to which the majority of speakers expressed themselves as frankly hostile.

Lord Inchcape declared that the nationalization of the leading industries would reduce Great Britain to the position of a fourth class power in a few years.

Viscount Milner admitted the situation was serious but believed he saw the dawn of better things. He was convinced there was an irresistible trend of all countries towards a greater measure of public ownership and control, but such control did not mean control from Whitehall. He suggested experimental control working of all mines within an area for one month. Viscount Milner maintained that without control of food, coal, shipping, etc., etc., in the later years of the war, there would have been complete disaster.

CRERAR AND PARDEE TO BE AT CONVENTION

Have Taken Credentials to Liberal Gathering in August

By Canadian Press.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 18.—Hon. T. A. Crerar, formerly Minister of Agriculture in the Union Government, and Fred Pardee, M.P., will probably both attend the National Liberal convention which meets in Ottawa on August 5, 6, and 7. Neither has yet officially intimated to convention headquarters here that he will be present, but it is regarded as likely that both will be in attendance. It is understood they have received official credentials. Mr. Pardee was formerly chief Liberal whip, but disagreed with Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the conscription issue. During last session he took his seat in the "No Man's Land" of the cross benches.

Reports received indicate that any difficulties which existed in New Brunswick and Manitoba in regard to the selection of delegates have been removed and that throughout the Dominion, the work of preparation is proceeding smoothly. Grain Growers, it is said, still form a large part of the western delegation, although the National Council of Agriculture will not be officially represented.

GENERAL DENIKINE WORTHY OF SUPPORT

A Great Liberator and Not An Ambitious Reactionary

By Associated Press.

LONDON, July 18.—Lieutenant General Briggs, chief of the British military mission with the Russian general Denikine, has arrived in London. In a statement today he warmly refuted the published reports that General Denikine is an ambitious reactionary and flatly denied charges that he was guilty of atrocities. He declared that the charges were prompted by German and Bolshevik propaganda.

As proof of what he said, General Briggs produced the program of the policy drafted by the leaders of the British, French and American missions, which has been willingly signed by Denikine and all members of his council. The program embraces abolition of Bolshevik anarchy, the reconstruction of a united Russia, the convocation of a national assembly based on universal suffrage, decentralization by means of liberal local autonomy or self-government guarantees of full civic and religious freedom and agrarian and labor reforms.

General Briggs asserts that 85 per cent of the entire population of Russia is anti-Bolshevik. He adds that the work General Denikine has accomplished in the last fifteen months is miraculous.

Misunderstanding Over the Liberal Convention in Aug.

Special to The Star from Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, July 18.—It is stated that there has been misunderstanding of the proposal made by those in charge of the preparations for the national Liberal convention to the Dominion Council of Agriculture, the Great War Veterans' Association, and organized labor. The Council of Agriculture and the Veterans have declined to participate as organizations in the convention.

It is now explained that the organizations mentioned were not asked to send delegates to the August gathering, but simply representatives to explain their views on public questions. A period would be fixed before the commencement of the business sessions of the convention for hearing such representations. The Dominion Council of Agriculture has decided not to send representatives to Ottawa, but has instead forwarded a copy of its platform to be read and considered by the delegates.

WRECK U.S. GOVT., PLAN OF THE I.W.W.

Labor Leader Says 85 P.C. of Reds are Foreigners

NEW YORK, July 18. — James P. Holland, president of the New York State Federation of Labor, testifying yesterday before joint executive committee investigating radical and seditious activities in this state, declared that the I.W.W. had organized many thousands of workers throughout the country on a platform which included in its planks one calling for the destruction of the American Government.

The most powerful of the radical organizations, Mr. Holland asserted, was the Amalgamated Garment Workers of America, with a membership which is estimated at 70,000.

As an evidence of the wide-sweeping plans of the I.W.W., letters were read into the testimony, before Mr. Holland took the stand, in which the I.W.W. leaders urged European and South American workers to join in a scheme for an "international revolutionary industrial union." One of the most ambitious projects was the organization of the marine workers of the two Americas and the maritime European countries into "One Big Union."

Outside of the garment workers, Mr. Holland mentioned the moulders and the hotel and restaurant employes as two of the trades in which radical propaganda had been successful. The whole I.W.W. movement is controlled by foreigners, according to the New York labor leader.

He asserted that 85 per cent of the radicals in this state are not American citizens and that the Amalgamated Garment Workers Union is controlled by foreigners also.

Scores of letters seized at I.W.W. headquarters here were read and contained details of plans to organize the "international revolutionary marine transport workers of the I.W.W." with a view to forcing demands that might be made in the future.

The organization was to comprise marine workers in Canada, Mexico, Argentina, Chile, Uruguay, Spain, and Ireland.

In this country efforts were made to organize the Great Lakes workers, according to the letters. Other activities were concentrated in New York, Boston, Portland (Maine) Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Providence, R.I.

WHO COMES FIRST IS GRAVE PROBLEM

VIENNA, July 18.—The appointment of Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau as Germany's ambassador to Austria raises the question of precedence in the diplomatic corps, as it is understood Great Britain and the United States will send only ministers here. On the other hand, it is understood that France purposes to be represented by an Ambassador. The Austrians are reported to be unwilling to burden the nation with the expense of a big-titled foreign service.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau will assume the post made vacant a fortnight ago through the retirement of Count von Wedal a member of the old German regime, who is said to have felt uncomfortable as head of the embassy, especially as he had to deal with Socialists.

NO WAR IF FRANCE WAS GUARANTEED

Clemenceau Says British and U.S. Guarantee Satisfactory

Paris, July 18. (Havas.) — Premier Clemenceau yesterday appeared before the committee of the Chamber of Deputies appointed to consider the peace treaty, and declared that the treaty and its attendant guarantees insured the security of France.

The Premier said that if British and American aid in case of attack by Germany had been guaranteed in 1914, the war would have been averted, even with Germany strong and redoubtable. He expressed confidence that on the verge of a just war, should one come, the United States and Great Britain would give their whole effort to securing the safety of France.

CZECHO-SLOVAKIA HAS NEW CABINET

Results of Recent Elections Lead President to Act

SOCIALISM GROWS

But Socialists of Czechs is Democracy Not Bolshevism

Special Cable to The Chicago News and Montreal Star by A. R. Decker. Copyright.

PRAGUE, Czecho-Slovakia July 14—Via Paris July 18—As the result of the recent local election held in all parts of the new republic except Slovakia, President Masaryk has complied with the voice of the people and has asked Vlastimil Tusar, the Czech Ambassador to Vienna, to form a new cabinet.

The election showed first that in Czecho-Slovakia there is a growing sentiment for Socialism, which as near as I can learn is real democracy and vastly different from the Socialist movement in Germany, the incapacity of Austria or the desperation of Hungary. Socialism in Czecho-Slovakia signifies the construction of a solid state based upon work, national feeling, separation of church from state and the encouragement of industry.

The Tusar ministry was completed at noon today with the following former ministers retained: M. Svepla for the interior; M. Stefanik for post and telegraph; M. Prasckek for agriculture, M. Saboermanne for education; M. Winter for social welfare; Mr. Stribray for railroads; Dr. Benes for foreign affairs; M. Sarvar, for health; M. Klofar for national defence.

The new Ministers are: M. Hesley for justice; M. Horacek for finances; M. Heidler for commerce and M. Hampel, for food. I had the honor of obtaining the first interview with M. Tusar and was much impressed by his sincerity after my experience with the lying Hungarian Bolsheviki.

COMPULSORY WORK NOW FOR GERMANS

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, July 18.—Allied representatives have told the German delegation at Versailles, it is reported here in Government circles, that Germany must be prepared to introduce measures for compulsory work if necessary. This, it was said, was intended as a means of bringing about prompt execution of the reparation work in Northern France, utilizing troops and a half million civilian laborers.

Officers said the Allied conferences on this subject were conducted in a friendly spirit. These officials agreed that Germany has a problem in her labor troubles.

SAYS BOLSHEVISTS AT THEIR LAST GASP

Russian Attache Says They Have Exhausted All Resources

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Colonel A. M. Nikolaieff, military attache to the Russian embassy, made public last night the following official communique from Omsk, describing the situation on the anti-Bolshevist fronts on July 12th.

"On the Siberan front, the Bolsheviki after capturing Perm, Kungora and Krasnoufimsk, continued their offensive along the Samara-Zelatoust railroad. South from the Samara-Zelatoust railroad up to Orenburg the situation remains unchanged. The rural and town populations are leaving their homes and retreating together with our troops.

"On the southern front, the army of General Denikine continues successfully its operations. In the Astrakhan direction the troops have reached the mouth of the Volga. In the Alexandrovsk direction the troops of General Denikine have occupied the entire Verkhnednieprovsk. In the south they have occupied Alexandrovsk, Orlekhov, Melitopol and Perekop. The entire Taurida peninsula is liberated from the Bolsheviki. The beaten Bolshevist troops are retreating in the direction of Saratov, Tambov, Voronezh, Kqursk and Kherson. The Bolshevist losses, from June 24 up to July 8, are over 50,000 men. The troops of General Denekine have captured about half of the military supplies and ammunition of the Bolshevist troops.

"In Bolshevist Russia, the Bolshevist reserves are all exhausted and they are unable to send additional troops to the Siberian front. The Bolshevist commissaries are trying their best to organize voluntary detachments. Detachments of "greens" consisting of Bolshevist soldiers, who deserted the front, appeared in the woods of the Moscow and Vladimir districts.

In order to combat destruction the Bolshevik commissaries have introduced flogging in the red army. There is great religious and patriotic enthusiasm in south Russia in connection with the success of General Denekine's army."

IMPOSSIBLE TO FORCE DROUGHT

Special Star Cable by United Press.

LONDON, July 18.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor arriving at Southampton on the Mauretania, declared regarding American prohibition that "it is all rot to think you can compel a country to be dry." It was a physical impossibility, he said.

Speaking of Ireland, Gompers said America had only good will for England, but the general feeling was that the Irish question should be settled, because the League of Nations provided for self-determination.

"Surely the British will satisfy the claims of the Irish in a manner to make them as grateful as the Dominions," Gompers said.

LIPTON HAS NEW AGENT---HUBBUB ON BOWLING GREEN

BRITISH AMATEUR TO REPRESENT SIR THOMAS LIPTON

W. P. Burton Will Have Full Charge of America's Cup Race Arrangements — Challenger Will Try Again if Shamrock IV. Fails

Special Cable to The Montreal Star.

LONDON, July 18.—It has been decided that W. P. Burton, vice-president of the Yacht Racing Association, and one of the best amateur helmsmen in Great Britain, shall have full control of the arrangements to be made for Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV. as challenger for the America Cup. Burton, who has raced his own boats very successfully against the best professional skippers, will sail the challenger in the cup races.

Charles E. Nicholson, designer of the Shamrock IV., will proceed to New York at an early date for the purpose of making a thorough examination of the vessel, which has been laid up under cover since the autumn of 1914.

Sir Thomas Lipton is confident that the Shamrock IV. is the fastest yacht he has every owned, and he states that if she is unsuccessful in the cup contest he will challenge again with a fifth Shamrock.

QUIET GREEN SEES QUEER UPHEAVAL

They say there is universal peace, if those who say so had been at the St. George's Snowshoe Club Chalet on the upper levels of Westmount last evening they would have doubted it.

Also lawnbowling is supposed to be an eminently quiet and unsensational game, destined to soothe the nerves of the hardworked, harrassed, business man and of the worn-out stock broker who has spent a hectic day on the exchange, but events at St. George's last night have proven this also to be an absolute fallacy.

KICKED IN GUTTER.

It was all caused by the Montreal West-St. George's match for the M. A. A. A. trophy. It was a tight match, and a quiet, well-ordered match, till some one accidentally or on purpose kicked a few live "touchers" into the gutter, and mixed up the count when both sides claimed to be ahead.

Then the hubbub started and a hundred bowlers and supporters took a part in it, some of the rapid-fire exchange of accusation and denial being both parliamentary and unparliamentary. After half an hour's wrangling it was finally agreed to call the match a draw thus far. Then the question came up of how to settle the draw, and at some one's suggestion it was decided to let the two last opposite rinks that played, bowl an extra end.

WRONG THEY SAY.

Many who claim to be authorities say that this was dead against the rules, every rink concerned should have played an extra end.

This caused more wrangling and more hot talk and will result no doubt in the Province of Quebec Association or the M. A. A. Trophy Committee being obliged to adjudicate upon one of the most unusual scenes that has ever taken place on a Montreal bowling green, or perhaps in Canada.

Jap, Canadian Tennis Champion Beaten

UTICA, N. Y., July 18. — Seichiro Kashio, tennis champion of Canada and last year's challenger for the New York state and Middle States titles, was defeated yesterday afternoon in the second round of play on the courts of the Yahnundasis Club. His conqueror was Kirk Reid, of Cleveland, Captain of the Cornell University team and the match was decided in three sets, scored at 3-6, 6-4, 6-4.

There were no other startling up-sets, although Reid previously eliminated Major G. B. Harran, the English star, in unexpectedly one-sided fashion at 7-5, 6-2.

Reid's triumph over Kashio was achieved in spectacular fashion. He began by driving with terrific speed to the corners, stroking the ball freely backhand and forehand, and going to the net for sharp volleys whenever he had his opponent subset position.

GRAND TRUNK AND VERDUN MEET AGAIN

TO-MORROW'S P. Q. F. A. GAMES.

Connaught Cup Semi-Final.

Verdun City vs. Grand Trunks.
Lyalls vs. Royal Highlanders.

First Division.

Dominion Bridge vs. C. P. R.

Second Division.

Calvin vs. Sons of England.
Beloeil vs. Rosemount.
Bakers vs. St. Paul Town.

Third Division.

Rosemount Jrs. vs. C.P.R. Jrs.
Vickers Jrs. vs. Sons o Scotland A.
St. Anne's vs. Aylwin.

Connaught Cup semi-finals are the feature in to-morrow's soccer, and this accounts for the league program being rather curtailed. So good are the local quartette left in to battle for Dominion supremacy, that it is difficult to even attempt to select winners, but one thing is assured, that Verdun City and Grand Trunks will attract a crowd never known before in Verdun. The Charity Cup final will be fought over again, with the added advantage to Verdun that this time it is on their own ground. Trunks have gone through a heavy program without defeat, up to last Wednesday, and as a matter of fact, so has Verdun. But league and cup ties are different affairs, so even if Trunks did lose to Great War Veterans that is not to say Verdun will win to-morrow. Still Grand Trunks must re-learn the art of scoring goals, for the last four games they have only scored three. This is not championship form, and much improvement is needed for victory; so as Verdun are at home, they start favorites, and the public will expect them to win.

Lyalls face a stiff proposition in Royal Highlanders, at Royal Avenue. The Highlanders may not be as skilled at Lyalls, but for progessive cup work are hard to beat. Lyalls feel that it would never do for a Second Division club to knock them out, and have no intention of letting them; but the Highlanders will play the cup form that does not recognize divisions. Admitting Lyalls' ability, this game looks good for the soldiers, who certainly know where the goals lie. The great fault of Trunks, Lyalls and Verdun is their failure to get goals. Lyalls will want all they can lay their feet on to-morrow. This game is worthy of a great attendance.

One senior game will be played, Dominion Bridge and C.P.R. Bridge is a hard team to defeat at Lachine, so C.P.R. must go well prepared.

Calvin meet Sons of England in a Second Division fixture and if S.O.E. have got over their goal keeping trouble, Calvin will find a hard game.

Rosemount go to Beloeil and this should result in a home victory.

As Bakers won last Saturday, why not to-morrow against St. Paul Town? But the Town also won, therefore a good contest is looked forward to, with odds on St. Paul.

Three Third Division games are staged, the chief being the undefeated Rosemount Jrs. versus C.P.R. Jrs. Rosemount are aiming to go right through the season without a loss, and the way they are playing it looks mighty like it. Vickers Jrs. and S.O.S. A meet at Longue Pointe; and Aylwin go to St. Annes.

Locos defeated Canadian Vickers last evening by 2-1, in a listless game. At the close, Figg, Locos' goalkeeper, was presented with a signet ring and Gillette safety set, as the club's appreciation of his, great efforts in the past. Figg leaves to take up his residence in Ottawa, and is a rare catch for some one in the capital.

M.A.A.A. defeated Verdun Reserves at Regina Park by one goal to nil, in a game in which both goalkeepers saved from a penalty kick.

WILD DUCK TRAINED FOR ISLAND BATH HUNT

The Montreal Swimming Club have prepared a pleasing program for tomorrow at St. Helen's Island. As usual, all the events will be handicaps. There are two junior and two senior contests, of the total of four there are three of the events open to members of all sister clubs. The events are as follows:

100 yards, Junior Club.
440 yards, breast stroke, open.
Fancy diving, open.
220 yards, breaststroke, junior, open.

Entries can be sent to the chairman of the sports committee., Wm. H. Gathercole, Laurentian Baths, or can be handed to any member of the committee at the island, up till the start of the races. The juniors have not been showing up in the numbers that they should this season. Their interests have been looked after, however, and those who have turned up are making a fine showing and cleaning up a lot of prizes without much contest. The juniors should remember that all events are handicaps, which means that a quite commonplace swimmer is given a good enough start to sometimes make a champion hustle. The program will start at 3:30 p.m., and at its conclusion there is to be a wild duck hunt, the duck has been practicing fancy stunts all week and should give a good account of itself.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD.

Yesterday's hero—Ping Bodie. Using reverse English. Ping allowed the winning run for the Browns to trickle past him and the Yankees fell 17 innings to defeat 7 to 6.

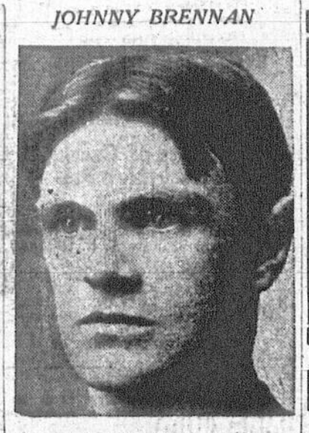

The Dodgers put over a thirteen hit barrage on the Reds, but Slim Sallee came through unscathed and wan 5 to 1.

The fill out the schedule the Tigers smashed the Athletics with a 5 to 3 triumph.

Lee Meadows opposed his former teammates, the Cardinals, who sent Jacobs against his former brickies, the Phils. Result 1 to 0. Meadows taking the decision.

Four hits were not enough to overcome the Giants, so the Cubs succumbed, 2 to 1.

Alf. Shrubb.

Just a few lines to tell you that I am quite well after our terrible experience at sea.

Thanks to our Captain, Mr. Turnbull, and officers and crew for the prompt action they took for our safety, we are enjoying a very happy time in St. John's and have arranged for some sports to be run here tomorrow, Saturday, for the benefit of the widows of the two poor fellows that were killed on our ship. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and all passengers will attend same. It was simply wonderful how everyone took the shock; no panic whatever; everyone stood by orders, and what a relief it was when the glad news came from the captain that the boat was not taking water. We arrived in port on Thursday morning at 5.30. The Empress of Britain will take us to England next Thursday. I enclose you a little clipping, showing you that we are working hard, to do all we can for the widowa. I will write you more news on my arrival at Liverpool.

With best wishes,
FRIEND SHRUBB.

The St. John's, N. F. Telegram, says:

"Mr. Alfred Shrubb, the famous English marathon runner, is a passenger on the Grampian, being en route to England. Since retiring from professional running in 1914, Mr. Shrubb has taken up farming in Bowmanville, Ont., where he has been managing his own farm. In 1910 Mr. Shrubb first visited the United States and met all the best men Uncle Sam could produce.

"Mr. Shrubb is returning to England to compete against John McRae, a well known Scotch long-distance man, who claims the championship of Great Britain. A program is also being prepared in England, and Mr. Shrubb expects to do some running in different parts of the Old Country and also Paris.

Although Mr. Shrubb has done no racing since 1913 he informs us that he is feeling fit and hopes to give a good account of himself."

CLOSER AND CLOSER GETS AM. LEAGUE RACE

Special to The Star by H. C. Hamilton.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Closer and closer the race in the American League is being drawn, with a possibility that any one of five teams may suddenly start for the wire with such speed that the impetus will carry it through to a pennant.

The first four teams are grouped with a separation of seven games, and a half game behind Detroit, in fourth place, rest the Browns.

The Yankees and White Sox are slumping, the latter much more recently than the Gothamites, but enough to make their position dangerous. The Indians are coming strong again, and the Browns are playing the game of their life.

Something is bound to break when the Sox and Yankees tie into each other in the next change of series. If Cleveland can pelt along at a favorable clip when that time comes the club will slip past the Yankees or the Sox.

Meanwhile the tightness of the National League pennant chase grows more pronounced. Cincinnati lost a day's work yesterday when the National League board of directors threw out a game the Reds won from the Pirates and ordered it played again. They defeated the Dodgers, but remained stationary while the Giants were advancing over the recumbent bodies of the Cubs.

DON CABLE BROKE THE JAVELIN RECORD

Don Cable threw the javelin 133 feet 7 inches at the weekly handicaps of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association at the Westmount grounds last night, and broke the Canadian record, established at the last championships of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada with 131 feet.

The honors in the other events were carried off by W. Antliffe, who won the high jump and finished second in the 880 yards.

Results:

120 yards (Olympic distance)— First heat—Bruneau, scratch, first; A. E. Light, 5 yards, second; E. Berriau, 6 yards, third. Time 12 3-5. Second heat —W. Drysdale, scratch, first; J. King, 3½ yards, second; F. Consiglio, 7 yards, third; time 13 4-5. Final — Bruneau, first; J. King, second; A. E. Light, third. Time 13 2-5.

440 yards, intermediate — A. Mackenzie, 10 yards, first; R. E. Vennor, 20 yards, second. Time 57 1-5.

880 yards, senior—J. Findlay, 65 yards, first; W. Antliffe, scratch, second. Time 2.01 4-5.

High jump—W. Antliffe, 5 feet 7 inches, first; W. B. Kennedy, 5 feet 5 inches, second. Antliffe had a handicap of 2 inches.

Throwing the javelin — D. J. Cable, 132 feet 6 inches, first; W. R. Kennedy, 105 feet 10 inches, second; F. Consiglio, 94 feet 9 inches, third.

STATEMENTS ABOUT WILDE-MOORE TWENTY ROUND BOUT IN LONDON

Special Cable to The Star.

LONDON, July 18.—Newspaper experts agreed today that Wilde experienced the fight of his life last night. There was no disposition to blame Moore for fouling.

"I thought I had won," said Moore, "as I got in more blows than Wilde."

"We accept the decision, but I think Moore did enough to win," said his manager, Nate Lewis.

"I though I'd won all the way," Wilde declared.

ENDURANCE GAME ON ST. LOUIS DIAMOND

Special to Star from Our Own Correspondent.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Cincinnati Reds jumped on the Brooklyn Dodgers with all their feet. Likewise did they prove quality and not quantity is the measure of their success for five runs resulted from the nine hits they made. The Dodgers amassed thirteen wallops and drew down one solitary tally. Al Mamaux managed to show, however, that good pitching will annoy the Reds. He held them to one hit in four and two-thirds innings, but thereafter Sherrod Smith appeared on the scene and awarded eight hits to the visitors.

At St. Louis the Yankees lost an endurance contest with the Browns in the seventeenth after the New York brigade had apparently made victory sure in the seventh. The visitors used four pitchers in the game, while the locals were contented with three. The Yanks picked up two runs in the seventh and one in the eighth. Then the Browns started to Quinn, blew him out of the box, knocked Mogridge right out after him, and then took a fancy to Shore. They tied it up 6 to 6, on Sisler's homerun in the ninth, and then Gallia and Thormahlen went at it tooth and nail for seven more innings before St. Louis earned the winning tally.

OTTAWAS WILL BE HERE READY TO FIGHT HARD

Special to The Star.

OTTAWA, July 18, — Though the Ottawa Lacrosse Club faces a hard proposition in the Shamrock team at the Mile End grounds tomorrow, Captain Cy. Denenny and his Senators are confident that they will turn the trick and thus get back into the running for the championship of the National Lacrosse Union. Shamrocks are now in second position, and if they win tomorrow they will be right on the heels of the Cornwall team. On the other hand, if the Ottawas slip one across at the expense of the green shirts, the race will be tighter than ever, and the local club, despite its earlier reverses, will have a first-class opportunity of winning out.

The Ottawas held their final practice at the Lansdowne Park field last night, when all the regulars were in uniform. There is some uncertainty with regard to the ability of Houston and other Almonte boys to get down for to-morrow's match, but if at all possible they will do so, as Coach Smith wants to take down his strongest squad. About sixteen players will be in the Ottawa party, and changes will be made from time to time for the purpose of keeping the team up at top strength. The Ottawas leave at 8:45 tomorrow morning via the Grand Trunk Railway, and their team for the match will be chosen from the following: Benedict, Carroll, Frobel, Sarazin, Ritchie, Yeatman, Schultz, Shea, Malone, Smith, Dooley, Duncan, Denenny, Burke, Hearns, Lascelle, Shields and Houston.

Cambridge, New Zealand and Australia Win

PARIS, Wednesday, July 18.—Elimination heats were rowed in the interallied regatta on the Seine today, the races being rowed over the route and a half course from the St. Cloud bridge to Suresnes.

In the single sculls the first heat was won by Hadfield, of New Zealand, with Major Willington, United States, second, and Buston, of England, third. In the second heat, Donas of Italy, was first and Giran of France, was second.

France won the first heat of the four oared event, with Canada second, Italy third and Belgium fourth. The American crew won the second heat, beating the New Zealand four.

Australia won the first heat of the eight oared race, Czecho-Slovakia being second and Italy third. In the second heat New Zealand was winner, Canada being second, Belgium third and Portugal fourth. The Cambridge, England, crew won the third heat, beating the American crew by half a length in the best race of the day. The French crew was third.

The above are playing a game on Sunday (July 20th), when the Irish (Caughnawaga) team on the Cartier grounds (top of Davidson st.) at 3.30 p.m., as keen rivalry exists between these teams; a splendid game may be confidently expected.

EDUCATIONAL WORK IN SOCCER WAS STARTED

The Referees' Association last night opened the first of a series of addresses from prominent soccer officials, and this innovation promises to eventually become an affair of great importance from interest and instructional points of view. Last evening's speaker was Craig Campbell, the P.Q.F.A. and D. F. A. president, whose subject was "The Referee, his position, power and protection."

Jim Ryder, president of the Referees' Association, presided, and in a few words outlined the objects of such gatherings, the getting together and exchanging views for mutual benefit. He welcomed Mr. Campbell in the name of his association.

In his short address, Craig Campbel, dwelling on the referee's position, said that official represented the board, consequently should feel the importance of his office. Advice of a most friendly nature was given referees to understand, without fear, the "arrows of outrageous fortune," in the nature of criticism of their actions. The public loved a strong official and had little use for weaklings, consequently if referees asserted their personality, kept eyes open and ears closed to a lot of inevitable abuse, their respect would surely be theirs.

Mr. Campbell was listened to very attentively, and in conclusion asked the referees to support the game and the board, all in one family to make soccer the greatest game in Canada.

Others who took part in the discussion were: Messrs. Topp, Ryder, Wainwright, Farrance, Prendergast, Grundie and Henderson. Mr. Henderson proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker of the evening, and Craig Campbell, in responding, said it required little imagination to see the day when the room would be packed for discussions of a like kind.

THIRTY YACHTS FOR BAIE D'URFE RACES

Yachtsmen on Lake St. Louis and the Lake of Two Mountains are showing the greatest enthusiasm for the race for the Ishkoodah Cup to be sailed off Thompson's Point, Beaurepaire, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

In addition to the above cup, which is open to all boats sailing on a handicap basis, there are four other cups, namely the "Fours" Cup open to the Four Raters, the "B" Cup, open to "B" class boats, a special cup for the miscellaneous class and the Dinghey Cup for the Dingheys.

In the "B" class there are five boats entered, in the "Fours" class six, and in the miscellaneous class twelve boats. The Dinghey class has filled very well and eight boats have been promised showing that interest in this class is still active on the lake. This makes a total of thirty boats promised and the committee hope that all owners will make a special effort to race their boats and others make the Regatta a success.

The Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club launch has kindly been placed at the disposal of the committee for the afternoon and will leave Dorval at 2:30 p.m. towing any yachts requiring it to the starting line.

It has been arranged that an official press photographer from the United Photographic Stores will be present on the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club launch.

Mr. Mann has kindly consented to allow those who are interested to view the race from his grounds on Thompson's Point.

In the evening a dance will be held at the Baie d'Urfe Town Hall and contestants and their friends are invited to attend.

The following yachts have been entered:—

"B" Class—Green, W. S. Clouston; Knoll, I. Leger; N. O. Y. D. B., V. Whitehead; Wheaf, S. Day; Joy, M. Badgely.

Four Raters—Wa-Wa, F. W. Mills; Geraldine, Dr. G. H. Parke; Kelpie II, A. F. Robertson; Gwenold, Dr. Howell; Gudrun, A. S. Poe; Ventura, R. C. Stevenson.

Miscellaneous—St. Lawrence, R. Hutchins; Dorval, G. H. Rainville; Whitecap, D. R. Burden; Iona Dea, B. B. Tudor; Wyoma, Mr. E. Smith; Dorothy, G. H. Duggan; Altair, H. R. Drummond; Sunbeam, Mr. Mead; Flounderer, F. Sherwood; Whistler, Mr. Desbarats; Marmot, T. Bacon; Challenger, L. G. Morris.

Dinghey—W. S. Clouston, E. C. Wurtele, Mr. Napier, Capt. Timberlake, Mr. Cassils, A. H. Burton, A. S. Poe, R. C. Stevenson.

TEN DATES SELECTED TOUR OF U.S SOCCER

NEW YORK, July 18.—Ten of the dates to be filled by the American soccer team in Sweden and Denmark, under the auspices of the United States Football Association and the Bethlehem Steel Football Club, were given out yesterday upon receipt of the schedule from the Swedish Football Association of Stockholm. The schedule covers a full month, beginning August 8, but the dates for Norway are yet to be arranged.

It was also announced that a baseball nine will be picked from the seventeen members of the American soccer expedition to play games on intermediate dates against the Vasternas Baseball Club at Vasteras and against the club at Gothenburg.

The soccer schedule for Sweden and Denmark and Finland follows:

August 8.—Tigrarna, at Stockholm Stadium; 10th, Allmanna Idrottsklubben, at Stockholm; 14th, Djurgardens Idrottsforening, at Stockholm; 17th, All-Sweden, at Stockholm; 22nd, All-Finland, at Relsingfors; 27th, All-Stockholm, at Stockholm; 31st, All-Denmark, at Copenhagen.

September 2—Malmo at Malmo 5th, Goteborg Orgryte, at Gothenburg; 7th, Goteborgskamraterna, at Gatenburg.

At the conclusion of the Scandinavian tour the American team may go to South America to contest a series of six games under the auspices of the Brazilian Federation of Sports.

MOORE LOST BY FOULING IN 20 RD. BOUT

Special to The Star by Don Chamberlain, United Press Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, July 18—Jimmy Wilde was still the idol of Great Britain today, although only his desperate gameness and Pal Moore's fouling gave him the decision over the Memphis lad at the Olympia Stadium last night.

Jimmy Wilde.

Moore outpointed the British flyweight champion, but repeatedly struck him with open gloves. Referee Corri cautioned him in the tenth. This cost him the victory. The verdict went to Wilde on points. In the last five rounds Wilde was bleeding at the mouth and nose, but he hung on and forced the fight, though Moore landed freely.

Moore's best rounds were the sixteenth and seventeeth when he walloped Wilde all over the ring. Wilde came back in the twentieth showing a burst of speed and taking the offensive. Wilde missed frequently in the last ten rounds and left the ring nearly exhausted. Moore was fairly fresh.

The American tried desperately toward the end of the bout to knock out his agile opponent, but Wilde evaded him.

Seventeenth thousand persons saw the fight, which included much brilliant boxing.

The Prince of Wales, Prince Albert and General Pershing were present.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, July 18.—Jimmy Wilde, the British flyweight champion, defeated Pal Moore, of Memphis, Tenn., in a twenty round bout at the Olympic Club last night. The referee gave the decision to Wilde on points.

Twenty thousand persons witnessed the fight.

Moore administered much punishment on his antagonist in the early stages of the bout, but at the end of the twelfth round, Wilde led slightly on points.

In the fourteenth round Moore sent a jab to Wilde's mouth, which made the blood spurt. It was evident in the last rounds that Moore was trying for a knockout, but Wilde's ring craft and cleverness prevented the American from carrying out his plan.

On the invitation of the Prince of Wales, General John J. Pershing occupied the royal box with the Prince and his brother, Prince Albert. The party was given an ovation.

Moore and Wilde were matched for last night's bout as a result of a four round contest in London last December during the inter-Allied army boxing bouts. Moore then was given the judge's decision, and there immediately was a demand for a second meeting between the boys in a 20 round bout. A purse of $25,000 was offered for the second bout, and Moore sailed from this country for England on June 14. The weight was fixed at 116 pounds, but Wilde was not expected to tip the scales within ten pounds of this limit, owing to his slight build. No championship or title was at stake, owing to the inability of the two boxers to meet at equal weights.

Wilde has a remarkable record as a hard hitting flyweight. He won the English title in this class from "Young" Symonds, on February 14, 1916. His victories include a knockout of Johnny Rosner, of New York.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Joe Lynch, the international bantamweight sensation, must be a big favorite in England, for early yesterday his manager, Eddie Mead, was in receipt of a cablegram from Promotor Cochrane offering the West Side star a purse of $15,000 to meet the winner of last night's bout between Pal Moore, of Memphis, and Jimmy Wilde of England. The latter wants to stage Lynch for the second week in November.

Lynch is without a doubt one of the best bantamweights in America today, not even barring the champion, Pete Herman, whom Lynch holds a newspaper decision over, having beaten him at the Pioneer Sporting Club.

Champion Herman has been sidetracking Lynch for a long time. Herman has turned a deaf ear to many offers to meet Lynch, and should he keep on ignoring a match with Joe, the latter will claim his title.

OHIO got away to a month's start on Prohibition and so had more time to experiment with soft drinks. Just what do they slip in the lemonade that makes a crowd of 10,000 look like 50,000? A potation of searching qualities.

PRINTERS TO HAVE INT'N'L BALL GAME

The Montreal Printers' Baseball League held a very important meeting last night at 371 St. Catherine street west. With President Champlain Provencher in the chair, the following clubs were represented. Star, Gazette, La Patrie, Ronald Press and Herald.

Lots of important matters in connection with the doings of the league were dealt with at this meeting. It was announced by James Drury, one of the prominent members of the local Typographical Union that he had received a communication from the Boston Printers to the effect that their baseball club were anxious to arrange a game with the local club some time in August. The whole matter was put up to the league delegates and after considerable discussion it was decided to form a special committee to make all arrangements and handle all details in connection with this play-off between Montreal and Boston teams. Mr. Drury was asked to find out from his Boston friends when would be the most convenient time for them to take the trip so that if the game is arranged a grand reception will be given the Boston Printers.

President Provencher gave his decision in connection with the La Patrie-Star game which was protested by the latter club on the grounds that the La Patrie manager had played two non-eligible players. As the La Patrie manager admitted the truth of the charge the game was awarded to the Star.

It was decided by the delegates to try to make some new arrangements in connection with playing grounds as at the present time it is impossible to use the playgrounds on Fletcher's Field, where all the league games have been played to date.

Another meeting will be held at a later date and same will be announced in these columns.

The following is the letter received:

BOSTON UNION PRINTERS BASE-BALL ASSOCIATION.

To promote a feeling of good fellowship among the membership of Boston Typographical Union No. 13.

John H. Riley, president; Thos. O'Shaughnessy, vice-pres.; John A. McLaughlin, treas.; Ames H. McCarthy, secy.; Charles Doherty, manager. National Commissioner, H. C. Whitcomb. July 6, 1919.

Mr. James Drury, Montreal.

Dear Sir,—I was informed that you were in the Boston Globe a short time ago, and Messrs. Stubbs, Wickins and McLaughlin were talking baseball with you, and the possibility of arranging a game in Montreal the latter part of August or the first of September.

If you will take up the matter with parties interested in Printers' Baseball and have them or yourself correspond with me, I believe arrangements can be arrived at for such a game.

There is no tournament of the Union Printers National Baseball League this year, and at a meeting of our Association last week a game with Montreal Printers was favorably discussed and I was instructed to correspond and endeavor to arrange a game.

We recall our short stop in Montreal a few years ago and the royal reception we received at your hands at the station, and are anxious to meet some Montreal printers and also visit points of interest in your beautiful city.

Our ball team has won three championships in the U. P. N. B. L. and play a fairly good game and feel sure it would prove an interesting game between the two cities. We would defray our own expenses and no expense would be caused Montreal outside of some entertaining they may wish to do.

The Boston boys are enthusiastic to visit Montreal, and trust you will drop me a line at your convenience and that we may arrange a get-together between Montreal and Boston.

Hoping to hear from you, and with best wishes for a game, I am

Sincerely yours,
H. C. WHITCOMB.

Many Entries for Woodland Tennis

A number of entries have already been received for the tennis tournament which is to take place on six of the best courts in Woodlands during the first three weeks of August in aid of the furnishing of one of the cottages at the Shawbridge Boys' Home and Training Farm. The entries close on July 31 to Douglas McD. Haines, Woodlands. Silver cups will be awarded the winners of the contests, which will be for open singles and doubles and mixed doubles, with ladies' open singles and doubles if sufficient entries are received. There will also be tournaments at Beaurepaire, Como, Vaudreuil, and St. Lambert during the same period, the winners of the local tournaments playing the semi-finals and finals in Montreal courts during October.

D.S.O. MAN WILL FACE BALL SAT'Y

President W. P. Kennedy, of the Shamrock Lacrosse Club, has invited an old-time player of the Shamrock team to face the ball on Saturday in the game against Ottawa, at Mile End Grounds. The guest will be Sibby Nicholls, who has recently returned from overseas, and is remaining in Montreal for a few days before going west. Nicholls was awarded the D.S.O. and enlisted in the naval service, and later transferred to the artillery; he also played hockey for the Vancouver team, and hockey and lacrosse for the Shamrocks years ago.

Saturday will be the celebration of "Peace Day," so the Shamrock Lacrosse Team will endeavor to couple with it a victory over the Ottawa Lacrosse Team at Mile End Grounds. The team held a work-out last evening, and all the regulars were out and feel confident that Ottawas will have to carry the old veterans, who helped them to down Cornwall last Saturday, to Montreal, if they intend to register a victory over the Irishmen.

W. Loye, president of the association, is doing quite a lot of repairing to the grounds, and has now contracted to have the platform at the club-house in good shape for the game, and has issued instructions that only the officers and guests of the club will be permitted to the club-house until the new platform will be completed. This is done to prevent any accidents that may occur due to overcrowding.

Ed. Farney, the big defense player of the team, is suffering from lacerated knees, which he got at the games on Saturday and Sunday, but it is thought that he will be well enough to play on Saturday.

Jack Egan, one of the absentees at the last practice, and, therefore, unable to give his word as to the playing of Sunday lacrosse, has now informed the executive that he will abide by the decision of his team mates.

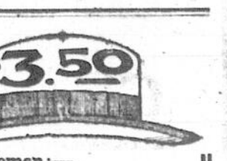

Capt. Harry Hyland had good reasons to lose his temper in the game against the Indians, when he received the crack on the nose that required three stitches. But he did not know just how bad it was, so he continued till resting time that he was fixed up to finish out the period, and it was not by the doctor.

FREAK BLOW SAID TO HAVE BEATEN WILLARD

NEW YORK, July 18.—Prof. James Byrne, of the Toledo Athletic Club, is said to have taught Dempsey a new body blow which won for him the heavyweight crown. The blow, which it required Professor Byrne weeks to teach the new heavyweight king to perfect, is new in the annals of the prize ring and is nameless.

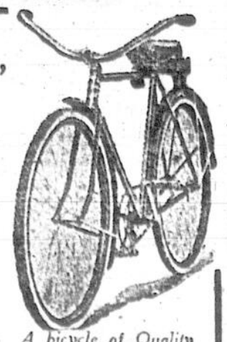

It is delivered with the heel of the right hand above an opponent's belt line a little in front of the right hip. The effect is said to be astounding, the impact paralyzing nerves affecting both the limbs and shoulders of an opponent and causing him to droop and robbing him entirely of punching power.

According to some experts, it was this blow, delivered by Dempsey on Willard in the third round of their fight, that prevented the giant from leaving his corner for the fourth round.

THE PASSING HOUR

A WHOLE FIRE.

Bob—Is the lady in pink an old flame of yours?

Jack—No, a conflagration; my ex-wife.

The senator was talking about the Bolsheviki. "They don't have it all their own way, though," he said, and described what happened to an orator spouting in a Washington park. "Progress," he yelled, "progress and bolshevism. We are wiser than our fathers were and our fathers were wiser than their fathers." "Gee, mister," cried a heckler, "what a fool your grandfather must have been."

Jackson came tripping merrily into his tiny hall one day and almost spoiled his manly beauty by tripping over someone's shoes left lying about.

"Whose ferry-boats are those in the hall?" he asked later when he entered the drawing room.

"Ferry boats?" cried his mother-in-law angrily. "Why, those are my shoes!"

"My dear, good ma," said Jackson hurriedly, "who said ferry-boats? You misunderstood. Fairy boots, you know—fairy boots!"

And then he wiped the sweat from his brow.

"Yes, the pretty girl is worshipped," says David Belasco, "but she remains unspoiled. I heard the other day about an elderly millionaire banker who proposed to a pretty girl in the surf at Palm Beach.

"Think," said the old rascal, "think of the automobiles and pearls and saddle horses a rich husband could give you."

"The girl looked at him critically.

"'Oh, a rich father would do just as well,' she said. 'Marry mamma.'"

TOWN GOSSIP

NEAR WHERE I live,
THERE'S A stable.
WHERE THEY keep horses.
AND YESTERDAY morning.
I WAS sitting in the window.
LOOKING DOWN,
AT A little bit of a kid.
WHO WAS all bundled up.
AND COULDN'T do anything.
WITHOUT FALLING over.
AND I was feeling sorry for him.
AND JUST then,
AROUND THE corner.
THERE CAME a vacant horse.
OR WHATEVER they are.
WHEN THEY'RE completely naked.
AND NOT harnessed up.
AND IT was walking along.
AND JUST looking around.
AND RIGHT after it.
THERE CAME a man,
AND HE was running.
AND HE got near the horse,
AND THE horse started,
AND TROTTED a little.
AND THE man called to it.
AND RAN a little faster.
AND SO did the horse.
AND DOWN the street.
THERE WAS another man.
WHERE THE horse was going.
AND HE ran out,
IN THE middle of the road.
AND WAVED his arms.
AND YELLED.
AND THE horse stopped.
AND LOOKED at him a minute.
AND FIGURED he was crazy.
AND TURNED around.
AND BEAT it back.
IN THE direction he'd come,
AND THE other man,
WHO HAD first appeared.
HE WAVED his arms.
AND THE horse didn't stop.
BUT GALLOPED right past him.
AND BY that time.
THERE WERE a dozen men.
AND A horde of boys.
AND THREE or four dogs.
AND THEY were all running.
AND THERE were automobiles.
THAT NEARLY ran over them.
AND OUT of the hospital.
JUST HALF a block away.
THE AMBULANCE came.
AND WENT clanging down the street.
AND ALL the neighbors.
WERE HANGING from the windows.
AND YELLING for their children.
AND THE little kid.
THAT I'D been watching.
WAS IN the gutter,
TRYING TO get up.
AND ALL was excitement.
AND THE poor horse,
HAD GONE plumb mad.
AND WAS galloping around.
AND KNOCKED a man down.
AND BEAT it for its stable.
AND GOT into its stall.

OFFER TO DEMPSEY.

Special to the Star.

LONDON, July 18.—George MacDonald, representing Promoter C. B. Cohran, will leave next week for America, for the purpose of making an offer to Heavyweight Champion Jack Dempsey to meet the winner of the Carpentier-Beckett go September 2.

The representative, it is said, has been empowered to make an offer of a $125,000 purse. The fight would be held in London.

LESSONS IN BASEBALL

By HUGH S. FULLERTON

No. 30—RIGHT FIELDISM

The right fielder, more than any other outfielder, should be able to catch fly balls in position to make throws. Catching a ball out of throwing position is the worst fault of any player. To do this requires, in the first place, that judgment which comes of long practice. Judging fly balls is partly instinctive, but it may be acquired by practice. Some of the greatest outfielders we ever have known were former pitchers who learned to handle fly balls. To catch a ball in position to make a quick, accurate and low throw, constitutes the art of right fielding.

More runs score on hits toward right than on any others, and fewer runs score on fly balls in that direction. The field is played as a rule much shorter than the others, save when long driving left handers are at bat. Against right handed batters, purposely hitting toward right, the fielder plays short to make throws. He should select a spot on the infield inside the diamond and toward the plate, and toward third at which to throw the ball. Some outfielders have such spots marked and, instead of hurling the ball toward the plate, they throw at the spots on the infield, knowing that the ball will bound off those spots straight to the baseman.

Ryan, one of the greatest of all throwing outfielders, had spots smoothed and pounded down off which to carrom the ball into the hands of the catcher or third baseman. He also had a spot thirty feet or more back of first base at which he threw on sharp hits, bounding the ball into the hands of the first baseman in throwing out runners at first.

No duty of the right fielder is more important than fielding ground hits that get through or past first or second baseman. Right field, usually, is slightly down-hill. Balls hit that way bound rapidly and it is necessary to handle them rapidly and while coming forward at top speed. Therefore a good pair of hands, a quick judgment of position and ability to make the short snap throw without looking are desirable. The right fielder should practice on the infield, or just back of it, and practice throwing at different angles to third and to plate without stopping to straighten up to make throws. Persistent practice will help, and a study of the angles prior to games is essential.

Practice making catches of low line hits while running forward. Quick judgment is required on such plays, and the right fielder should be able to decide instantly whether he can reach and catch a low line drive. To make the effort and allow the ball to get under the hands is the worst kind of blunder, as in most cases it is impossible for anyone to back up such plays, and a mistake of judgment often means the difference between a single and a home run.

REDSKIN RUNS A SPEEDY MILE

TORONTO, July 18.—Tom Longboat convinced his friends that he is as good as ever he was when he galloped a mile so fast at the Island Stadium in preparation for his race with Billy Queal at the open air show to be held under the auspices of the Grand Army of Canada this Friday night that he made them gasp. Longboat was barely puffing at the close and Queal will have to break his own record for the three mile distance to lead the Redskin when they meet. All the boxers who will take part in the entertainment are here, with the exception of Jimmy Goodrich, the Buffalo boy, who is listed to go ten rounds with Fighting Dick Atkins, Pelletier, of Montreal "blew in" this morning and expressed himself as being confident of successfully swapping punches with Frankie Bull. Pelletier has never seen the Canadian champion in action and the general opinion is that he is due to receive a big surprise about 9:15 p.m. two days hence.

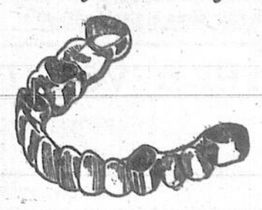

A strong card has been made even stronger by the addition of another bout which will bring together George Dorsey of Baltimore, the boy who floored Pete Scott at Brantford, and Chris James of Welland. Dorsey has fought Leonard, Dundee and Willie Jackson and claims the colored lightweight championship of the world.

Notes and Queries, and not to this department.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON.

Would you kindly convince the writer as to what race Sir Thomas Lipton belongs? H. MORRIS.

Ans.—Sir Thomas Johnstone Lipton was born in Glasgow of Irish parentage on May 10, 1850.

JUNE BUG.

(1) Any simple, becoming way. (2) No. (3) There is no fixed rule for height. (4) Just silly. (5) Depend on the boy. (6) Don't speak to a man to whom you have not been introduced. (7) Why no, ask him for an explanation. (8) It depends on whether or not you wish to marry the "one."

WRITE TO YOURSELF.

Before going to the country on your vacation, write a letter and mail it to yourself—if it reaches you—all's well. If not, then do you wonder why your friends or relatives do not write to you. Try it for once. MISS VACATION.

HAROLD F.

(1)—No, I was not in New York last summer and I have never been in Philadelphia. I think the article you refer to was written a year ago after a flying visit to Detroit. It may have been re-printed in the paper you mention.

(2)—A. R. Carman, formerly head of The Star's staff of editorial writers is now one of the editorial writers on the Philadelphia paper. Other than that I know of no connection between the two papers.

TWO POEMS.

I wonder if it would be possible for you to give me the names of the authors of the two following pieces of poetry. I think they are beautiful and would like so much to know who the writers are:

1. The night has a thousand eyes,
And the day but one;
Yet the light of whole world dies
With the dying sun.

The mind has a thousand eyes,
And the heart but one;
Yet the light of a whole life dies,
When love is done.

HOPE.

2. Hope is the light of tomorrow's dawn,
The sun of tomorrow's day;
A budding flower that ne'er may bloom,
Yet points to a faith-lit way,
And lessens the weight of the cares we wear
And the burdens we bear today.
"MISS OPTIMIST."

Ans.—1. By Francis William Baurdillon, born in 1852.
2. Referred to readers.

UNITED JUBILEE SHOWS.

Would you kindly inform me by your column the date when the show under the name of "United Jubilee Shows" were at Lafontaine Park during the Kermesse Festivities. When they will be next in Montreal (DATE). I think they are to play some time this month at Dufferin Park. FLORA.

Ans.—I have never heard of the United Jubilee Shows.

ICE CREAM AND SKIMMED MILK

1. What becomes of all the skimmed milk?
2. How much ice cream is devoured daily?
3. Why are people allowed to devour ice cream, whilst the workers are obliged to use oleomargerine instead of butter?
4. Does any of the milk sold to the public, be skimmed or partly skimmed before being delivered to the customers? If so, by whom?
DOUBTING THOMAS.

Ans.—1. Who knows; I don't.
2. More than I can tell.
3. Ask the Minister of Labor.
4. Get your milkman into a corner and put that right up to him.

A PICNIC.

(1) I will be fifteen next week and being unable to have a party at home, I want to have a picnic. Mother won't let me give it in the country so naturally I will make it on top of the mountain, but there are some difficulties. I have invited sixteen girls and some of them are afraid to go with the Mount Royal Incline car and of course I wouldn't like the girls to walk up. Couldn't you tell me what to do? (2) Is it alright for them to take their lunch along I supplying the fruit and drinks besides carfare (if we take the car.) (3) Do you think it will be very dull, boys not included? (4) What should the weight of a girl of fifteen be, being 5 ft., 1 in. tall. (5) Do you think a handsome young fellow, who is the boss of a clothing manufacture would benefit more by marrying a poor girl or a rich one. (6) Do you think a girl who has a very bad reputation in town can spoil her sister's character by her disgraceful doings. DIMPLES.

Ans.—1. As the incline is not running you will either have to walk or drive. 2. Yes. (3) No. (4) 114 lbs. (5) If he is wise he will marry where he loves. (6) It certainly makes it harder for her sister.

LACHINE RED.

Do you want me to go down for the third time? Don't you know I would be absolutely swamped by the flood of letters that would descend upon me?

BERTRAM.

If you will go to the rooms of the Society Decorative Art, 101a Drummond street, I am sure they will be glad to give you the information you request.

GUM VS. TOBACCO.

In answer to the article a short time ago re. "Why men don't like girls," I think it is ridiculous. I am sure the majority of fellows agree with me that the more a girl is looked at in the street on account of her dress, or looks, the prouder her friend is to be with her.

As for girls chewing gum, I think it is much healthier and cleaner than chewing tobacco or smoking is for men. HAROLD.

BOYS AND GIRLS.

(1)—How late should a girl (sixteen or seventeen years) remain out driving at night in a car with a number of boys and girls?

(2)—Do you consider it a sign of affection or just a mere habit, for a boy to put his arm over the back of the seat where his girl friend is sitting?

(3)—For a reception, what kind of a frock would be proper? that is for a girl of seventeen.

(4)—Do you agree with "Mr. Fed-up" Miss Currie?

(5)—Do you think a boy, meeting his girl friend on the street just as it is getting dark, should turn around and go home with her?

(6)—Is it alright to let your boy friend have a snap of yourself, if he coaxes you for it?
"MISS NONENTITY."

Ans.—(1)—Consult your mother's wishes in the matter. (2)—It might be either, or just an attempt to see if he could. (3)—Any pretty, light frock. (4)—Partly. (5)—It would be polite of him. (6)—If you can trust him.

A BUSINESS MAN'S PRAYER.

Teach me that sixty minutes make one hour, sixteen ounces one pound, and one hundred cents one dollar. Help me to live so that I can lie down at night with a clear conscience, without a gun under my pillow, and unhaunted by the faces of those to whom I have brought pain.

Grant that I may earn my meal ticket on the square, and that, in earning it, I may not stick the gaff where it does not belong.

Deafen me to the jingle of tainted money and the rustle of unholy skirts. Blind me to the faults of the other fellow, but reveal to me mine own.

Guide me so that each night when I look across the dinner table at my wife, who has been a blessing to me, I shall have nothing to conceal. Keep me young enough to laugh with my children.

And when comes the smell of flowers, and the tread of soft steps, and the crunching of wheels out in front, make the ceremony short, and the epitaph simple: HERE LIES A MAN. —From "United Briefs."

RESPECTS TO THE THREE GIRLS.

We read "Under the Sea," the other night as requested by three girls, so intelligently described on your page. Please do the same for us. We are three school boys (not far from Montreal.) John, Jack, Jimmy. We want to know what are the gardens under the sea?

THE GARDENS OF THE SEA.

The flowers of the sea are flowers in appearance more than in fact.

Seen in masses through the clear water they look like beds of mountain pinks or fields of fern or hillsides of wild asters, with moss and ice-plant and cactus-growths scattered between, but the likeness is superficial.

The plants are very different from those of the earth.

They have no root, they require neither rain or air, and some of them manage to exist with little or no light.

There are no blossoming forms, no leaves, seldom any fruit; and while there are growths having a foothold on the bottom that rise up through a thousand feet of water to float ball-shaped tangles upon the surface, yet in form they are not at all like trees.

The "trunk" that climbs upward so many feet is no larger than one's finger, and the bunch of weed at the surface that makes a sleeping-place for the sea-otter has nothing resembling the foliage of the maple or the blossom of the horse-chestnut . . .

And what of those plants far down in the sea-gardens that never feel the push of waves, those plants that never move or are moved from age to age?

Are they perhaps modeled upon the same pattern as their cousins near the shore?

By no means.

In the depths where no storm or wave ruffles the eternal serenity nature is free to expand; and there she grows plants of symmetrical designs. . .

Wonderful forms she models — crimson weeds with plumy fronds, purple dulses of lace-like patterns, iridescent mosses with antlered branches.

Countless algae, wing-shaped, threaded with lines, cupped and domed, starred and crossed and circled, are there. . . .

"Cor and sea-fern and tangle, the blooms and the palms of the ocean. Stand in meadows and forests unchanging, unfading from decade to decade."

FASHIONS FOR TODAY

Long Blouse Trimmed With Velvet Flower.

No Patterns are sold with this.

Designers of blouses appear to have finally decided that the model reaching well below the normal waist line is quite the smartest thing. The question of sleeve length is now being bandied about. French designed blouses brought over this season generally show very short sleeves, in fact some are entirely sleeveless. American women have never favored the very short sleeves for day-time wear, most emphatically not for street wear, but the three-quarter length sleeve has always been a favorite whether in dresses or blouses. Indications are that the smartest blouses for next season will have three-quarter length sleeves and that the average blouse will be just about hip length.

Handsome laces are used to make blouses for wear with separate skirts of satin, net, or chiffon. In this way an unusual and interesting costume may be developed, and as the waist of a dress made of one of the very sheer materials usually wears out before the skirt shows any signs of wear, the separate dressy blouse of all-over lace is an excellent investment. It enables a woman who is economically inclined to utilize every bit of available material and wear each frock until it is wholly worn out.

For blouses of georgette, chiffon or crepe de chine is a favorite trimming. Artificial flowers are also effectively used.

The blouse shown in the sketch is made of pale tan-colored georgette. It is trimmed with stitching in self color and a red velvet flower is caught lightly just above the waistline at one side. Red buttons fasten the blouse. The belt may be in red or tan according to choice.

THE REVOLT OF SUSAN HYDE

By CAROLYN BEECHER

(Copyright, 1919, by Carolyn Beecher.)

CHAPTER LXXVII.

When I opened my eyes I was lying on a grassy bank beside the wreck. Anna was sitting by my side playing with her doll. Leaning over me, with love-light and anxiety in his eyes, was Lawson McKee.

"Lawson—how did you get—here?" I struggled to a sitting position, then saw others lying and sitting around me, the wreck of the train in front of me, the cars, some of them on their sides, the one next the engine being the one in which the casualties had occurred.

"You are not injured—thank God! See if you can stand." He helped me to my feet, and, save a weakness, a trembling of my limbs, I was evidently all right.

"How did you get here?" I asked again as I dropped back on the bank. He sat beside me.

"I am on my way west—a business trip. How is it I did not see you on the train?"

"We stayed closely to our stateroom, Anna and I." I felt myself flushing at his keen look.

"You are—are you—leaving Hyde?" He stammered the question, but the light in his eyes, the eagerness in his voice, although suppressed, told me what it would mean to him.

"No—not—I don't know." I stumbled also for words.

"What do you mean, Susan? You do not know? You are either leaving him or you are not."

"No—I told him—in my letter — that I would come back — if he wanted me." It was dreadfully hard to explain matters to Lawson with his eager eyes boring into mine as if he would read my very soul.

"If he wanted you! Oh, Susan! You have made some sort of a break. Make it final. You are unhappy with him, I know it, June and Alfred know it. You have kept up a brave front, little girl, but what is the use? You are only spoiling two lives—yours and mine—for what? To live with a man who makes you miserable, unhappy. From a mistaken sense of duty you are——"

"Don't, Lawson—please don't!" I some way knew in that moment that I did not love Lawson McKee, although I had thought I did. I had paid scant attention to him. My thoughts were on Manville and his feelings if Anna and I had been killed. I knew it was love of Lawson's love for me that I felt, not for the man himself. Any attractive man with whom I had been thrown would probably have affected me in the same way. It is the greatest danger a neglected wife has to face—the love for love that she feels is her due, and which she doesn't receive from her husband.

"No, I am a brute. They will soon have a train here now. Where are you going? Will you write me occasionally. There can be nothing wrong in doing that—until you have decided to come to me for always, you and Anna." That was another hold Lawson had on my affections. He was passionately fond of and indulgent with children. Anna loved him.

I had seen a man moving about among the people with a paper and pencil, but was still a bit dazed, so paid no attention. Lawson was most helpful and solicitous. He brought some milk for Anna from a near-by farm house and took entire charge of her while I rested and recovered from the shock. I had been thrown violently across the stateroom, my body shielding Anna. I was bruised, but aside from that unhurt. And, oh, so thankful! It would have been a terrible thing to have happen even to Manville, cruel as he had been at times, to know that he had driven us to our death.

It was several hours before the train arrived which was to bear Anna and me on our journey. After I had convinced Lawson that I was not thinking of a divorce or of him, he told me with a peculiar look on his face that he had to go straight back to Newtown. "People will — your husband may think we have gone away together," he said, not looking at me.

"Why should they say that? I have given no one reason to think any such thing of me."

"People, society, isn't very kind to handsome young women who leave their husbands upon any pretext. Mrs. Clayton, for instance. If she should hear that we both left home at the same time, were on the same train, and that you had temporarily left your husband, don't you think she would concoct some kind of a story connecting us. If you will say you love me, that you will divorce Hyde and marry me, it will make little difference. Otherwise I must go back—I must anyway, I can't have them gossip about you dear."

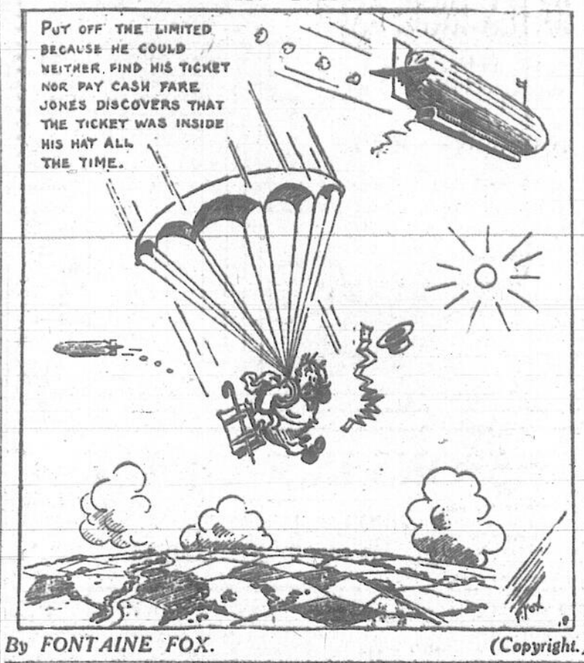

I felt singularly alone and sad when Lawson finally left. As I watched his train disappear I could not control my tears.

"'at is oo cyin' for mamma? I isn't cyin'."

"No dear, and mother won't cry any more." I gathered her in my arms, breathing a prayer of thankfulness that she was uninjured.

HEALTH TALKS

By JOHN B. HUBER, A.M., M.D.

By JOHN B. HUBER, A.M., M.D.
ROSE COLD.

This is a catarrh due to the action of the pollen of some 25 grasses and of at least 7 plants on the morbidly sensitive mucous membrances of the nose and throat of some people. there are two kinds: "The June or Rose Fever; and the Autumnal hay fever which starts in August and which is relieved by the coming of the first frost. In the southland there are cases occurring all the year around.

The susceptibility to the disease is often hereditary; certain families are affected; the educated and the highly nervous are prone. It is rather an affection of the high-browed. The tendency is to lessen with advancing age. Rye pollen is the most active cause, the ragweed is also very prominent. The severity of the attack is in direct proportion to the pollen present and floating in the atmosphere. In the susceptible more than two or three tiny pollen grains applied to the whites of the eye or the nasal mucous membrane provoke the characteristic attack.

Dr. Dunbar has succeeded in obtaining pollantin, an antitoxin from pollen which is capable in many cases of cutting short ordinary attacks.

In most cases the disease is like a severe cold in the nose, but there is unusual headache and distress; and some sufferers become very low spirited. At the onset or even daily throughout the attacks sneezing is frequent; cough is common and very distressing.

Questions and Answers.
LOCOMOTOR ATAXIA.

A member of my family has been told that he has the symptoms of locomotor ataxia. Do you think there is any danger?

Answer—Locomotor ataxia or tabes is a disease of the nervous system. I am sorry to say that it is a chronic one and practically incurable, although life may be prolonged many years, in fair comfort, by the right doctoring and nursing. It is made worse by exposure to cold, and wet and by over-work. The patient should put himself in the hands of a good family physician who can do much to prolong his life in comfort and freedom from physical distress.

ORGANIC HEART AILMENT.

I have been feeling bad for nearly five years. Not sick enough to be in bed but still a long way from being well. I am only 23 years old but feel like eighty. I have a continual pain in my left breast and under my shoulder blade. Sometimes it continues up into my neck and left arm. At times it is so bad when I draw a long breath I nearly choke. I also have palpitation of the heart quite bad at times. My heart beats very rapid nearly all the time and so hard you can see the bed clothes shake when I am in bed. When my babies were born and when I had the 'flu the doctors had to keep ice over my heart, it went so fast. Sometimes I get so weak I can't stand up and tremble all over. If the least little thing happens to excite me my heart will pound and I always have such a thumping in my left side. I am not asking you to prescribe for me only I would like to know what to eat and drink to overcome constipation. I also have gas and sour stomach and sometimes I have a throbbing headache for a week at a time, then it will pass away and I won't have it for some time. So you see I feel pretty bad all the time and would do almost anything to overcome these bad feelings.

Answer—I am grieved to read your letter. The one thing absolutely essential for your relief is rest. It would be better to rest in bed for several weeks to take care of the bowels, the kidneys and the skin and to subsist for the most part on milk, cereals and fruits. Further information is being mailed you.

THE OLD GARDENER SAYS.

There isn't much use in trying to keep a strawberry bed for more than two years. It is sure to become a tangle of grass and weeds. Your best plan is to start a new bed every season. Then you will have a bed always in bearing. The old bed may be ploughed or spaded up now and the ground used for some late crop, such as cabbage or cauliflower. If you have neglected to start a new bed you can set out potted strawberry plants at any time from now until the middle of August and get almost as good a crop next year as though you had set out plants in the spring.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME BY THORNTON W. BURGESS

TWO FUNNY FOLKS WITH BIG MOUTHS.

(Copyright, 1919.)

"Am I to understand that Whip-poor-will is cousin to Boomer the Nighthawk?" inquired Peter Rabbit.

"He is a sort of second cousin, the same as Sooty the Chimney Swift," retorted Jenny Wren. "He and Boomer look enough alike to be own cousins. Whip-poor-will has just the same kind of a big mouth and he is dressed very much like Boomer, save that there are no white patches on his wings."

"I've noticed that," said Peter. "That is one way I can tell them apart."

"So you've noticed that much, have you," cried Jenny. "It does you credit, Peter; it does you credit. I wonder if you have also noticed Whip-poor-will's whiskers."

"Whiskers!" cried Peter. "Who ever heard of a bird having whiskers? There are some things I can't swallow, and bird whiskers are among them."

"Nobody asked you to swallow them. Nobody wants you to swallow them," retorted Jenny. "I don't know why a bird shouldn't have whiskers just as well as you, Peter Rabbit. Anyway, Whip-poor-will has them and that is all there is to it. It doesn't make any difference whether you believe in them or not, they are there. I guess Whip-poor-will finds them just as useful as you find yours, perhaps a little more so. I know this much, that if I had to catch all my food in the air I'd want whiskers and lots of them so that the bugs would get tangled in them. I suppose that's what Whip-poor-will's are for."

"I beg your pardon, Jenny," said Peter very humbly. "Of course Whip-poor-will has whiskers if you say so. By the way, do the Whip-poor-wills do any better in the matter of a nest than the Nighthawks?"

"Not a bit," replied Jenny Wren. "Mrs. Whip-poor-will lays her eggs right on the ground, but usually in the Green Forest where it is dark and lonesome. Like Mrs. Nighthawk she lays only two. It's the same with another second cousin, Chuck-will's-widow."

"Who?" cried Peter wrinkling his brows.

"Chuck-will's-widow," Jenny Wren fairly shouted it. Don't you know Chuck-will's-widow?"

Peter shook his head. "I've never heard of such a bird," he confessed.

"That's what comes of never having travelled," retorted Jenny Wren. "If you'd ever been south as I have, you would know Chuck-will's-widow. He looks a whole lot like the other two we've been talking about but his mouth is even bigger. What's more, he has whiskers with branches. In his habits he is like his two cousins, no nest and two eggs. I never have seen people so afraid to raise a real family. If we Wrens didn't do better than that I don't know what would become of us."

LITTLE HELPS.

Ease for Tired Feet—Long standing at your work will tire you much less if you will put a thick mat under your feet.

A Clothes Whitener—A spoonful of borax dissolved in hot water and added to the last rinsing water will whiten the clothes wonderfully.

To Cool the Oven—Opening the oven doors cools the oven too quickly. A better way is to put a dish of very cold water in the oven. This will lower the temperature gradually.

For Women Who Like Perfume—As most of us women like delicate sweet scents, perhaps some of your readers may be interested in this method of perfuming bureau drawers, boxes, etc. Pour a few drops of your favorite perfume on small pieces of pumice stone. Do not use the powdered pumice as that does not absorb liquids.

Dry-Cleaning Curtains — Everyone likes clean curtains, but everyone dreads the ordeal of washing and stretching them. The following method of cleansing them will keep them fresh without washing for a long time. Rub them in corn meal, then gently brush and shake them or let them hang in a brisk wind for a while. You will be delighted to see how clean they will look.

CUCUMBER PICKLES.
For "Consuelo."

Pick small cucumbers, wash and place in a strong brine that will float an egg. Weigh down to keep them under the brine. Let stand for 6 days; take from brine and rinse well. Place in a preserving kettle and cover with spiced cider vinegar. Cook slowly for 10 minutes and fill into all glass jars. Fasten securely and stand in a cool place.

Puccini's LION BRAND Maccaroni

The Factory Behind the Product

IN this airy, sunlit factory, at St. Catharines, Puccini's "Lion Brand" Maccaroni is made. Only the BEST QUALITY of "Durum" wheat is used. Experts prepare it in the original Italian way. This takes time—and care—and patience. No artificial drying is permitted. The maccaroni must dry, naturally, on long, clean wooden poles. More than 60,000 of these poles are in use all the time.

The result is a pure, nutritious product of delicious flavor, containing greater food value than the ordinary brands of maccaroni.

Always INSIST on Puccini's "Lion Brand." Your grocer has it, or will get it for you.

DO TO IRELAND AS TO BOHEMIA

Says General Smuts in His Farewell Message

CANKERING SORE

Septic Effects Poisons Britain's Foreign Relations

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, July 18.—Lieutenant General Jan Christian Smuts, of the Union of South Africa and member of the British peace delegation, in a farewell message advocates appeasement and reconciliation with Germany and encouragement of the "present moderate republican administration in Germany which is successfully fighting the European battle against anarchy."

General Smuts strongly urges leaving Russia to settle her own affairs, on the ground that "a sobered soviet system may be better than barbarism, to which the present policy seems inevitably to be tending," and declares that British statesmen should apply the same medicine to Ireland that they applied to Bohemia.

An appeal is made by General Smuts for an abiding faith in high ideals, despite what he terms the disillusions produced by the peace treaty. He says the fundamental significance of the war has been a victory spiritual and moral over the material factors, a victory of the finer elements of human nature over the baser, and hence there should be no bitterness left in the minds of the peoples.

He pleads for appeasement and reconciliation as the only means for the regeneration of exhausted Europe, which he says is the most awful spectacle in history.

"A brutal fact," General Smuts continues, "is that Britain is a very small island on the face of a continent in which 70,000,000 Germons represent a most important and formidable national factor. You cannot have a stable Europe without a stable and settled Germany; you cannot have a stable and settled Britain while Europe is weltering in confusion. Therefore the appeasement of Germany becomes of first importance."

General Smuts in urging encouragement of the republican administration of Germany says the issue probably will be decided in Germany and that President Ebert "deserves our backing and encouragement."

"Do not let us deal with Ebert as we have dealt with Kerensky and Karolyi (former premier and president respectively of Russia and Hungary)—with results beyond recall today," the statement of General Smuts concludes.

Dealing with the questions concerning the empire and the dominions, General Smuts says the most pressing of all is the Irish question.

"It has become a chronic wound whose septic effects are spreading to our whole system and through its influence on America is beginning to poison our most vital foreign relations", says General Smuts. "Unless it is settled on the great principles which form the basis of this empire, this empire must cease to exist. Our statesmen in Paris dealt with racial problems resembling Ireland, and in every way as difficult as the Irish problem and they may not shrink from applying to Ireland the same medicine they applied to Bohemia and many another part of Europe.

General Smuts regards whole chapters of the peace treaty as nothing compared with the supreme importance of having a stable democratic republican Germany represented on the League of Nations.

He expresses doubt of the wisdom of the policy which seems to be pursued towards Russia and declares that Russia can only be saved internally by the Russians themselves, working on Russian methods and ideals. He says:

"Our military forces, tanks and war materials may temporarily bolster up one side, but the real magnitude of the problem is quite beyond such expedients."

He urges the Allies to leave Russia alone, remove the blockade and adopt a policy of friendly neutrality and impartiality to all factions. "It may well be," he continues, "that the only ultimate hope for Russia is a sobered, purified soviet system, and that may be far better than barbarism, to which our present policy seems inevitably tending. Be patient with sick Russia, give her time and sympathy and wait the results of her convalescence."

DID NOT STRIKE HIS SUPERIOR OFFICER

KINGSTON, Ont., July 18. — Ex-Gunner Mossman, of Belleville, who was tried at Barriefield by court-martial, was found "not guilty" of the charge of committing an assault on an officer in Belgium in November, 1918. Lieutenant-Colonel Crocker was president of the court.

Mossman was released and returned to his home in Belleville. He will be paid for the entire time he has been under arrest. Mossman served in France from February, 1915, until December, 1918, and was a good soldier throughout his service.

JEWS PAY HONOR TO GREAT LEADER

Herzl Memorial Meeting in Monument National was Very Impressive

Montreal Jews, in common with Jewry throughout the world, gathered last evening to pay tribute to the memory of Dr. Theodor Herzl, founder of the great Zionist movement, the Hungarian Jew who died fifteen years ago yesterday, and who, by his writings and influence, inspired Jews throughout the world with a new sense of their being as a nation.

The Montreal Herzl memorial meeting was held in the Monument National. The speakers included Louis Fitch, vice-president of the Montreal Zionist executive; Rabbi Melamed and Ab. Goldberg of New York, the Jewish author and leader of the Zionist movement in the United States.

The most impressive moment of the evening came with the chanting of the "Hascarah," the lament with which the people of Israel have for centuries past mourned the loss of their dead. Cantor A. M. Segal of the McGill College avenue synagogue, chanted the thrilling music with solemn dramatic force, while the audience stood in silence, the men having put on their hats in recognition of the solemnity of the occasion.

FROM EVERY COUNTRY.

The gathering represented Jews from every country. Yiddish was spoken by most of the speakers, though Rabbi Melamed addressed the gathering in English for the benefit of the English Jews.

Mr. Fitch, who was the chairman, opened the meeting by explaining why Jewry mourned the death of their great leader, whose passing away had prevented the realization of his ideals for Israel.

H. M. Caiserman sketched the career of Dr. Herzl. He paid a tribute to the English for the warm support which they had given his liberal movement.

Rabbi Melamed pointed out that it was an interesting fact that the Jews, the "peculiar people," commemorated the death days of their heroes rather than the birth days as did the Christian nations. It was the tragedy of modern Jewry, he said, that they had lost their great leader before his work was complete, that he had not lived to see the liberation of the Jews with the conclusion of the war.

Mr. Goldberg, speaking in Yiddish, gave a sketch of the life and work of Dr. Herzl, pointing out that his influence with the chancellories of Europe had eventually led to the practical adoption of his Basel program by the Peace Conference.

GENERAL EXPRESS RATES INCREASED

Increase in Eastern Canada is Almost Fifty Per Cent.

COMMODITY RATES

Remain Unchanged in Interest of Producer and Consumer

By Canadian Press.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 18. — The Board of Railway Commissioners has issued its judgment on the application of the Express companies for increases in rates, and of municipalities for increased deliveries. The judgment is long and exhaustive, covering some ninety-three type-written pages.

The chief contest that arose was with reference to commodity rates, under which perishable foods moved in bulk. On this question the board's judgment, which is written by the chief commissioner, is as follows:

"I am ready to admit that the value of all the commodities has very greatly increased since commodity rates first came in, and that one of the elements in rate-making relates to the value of the commodity carried, and to the increased risk undertaken. As against the shippers and vendors of these articles of daily necessity, there is no difficulty in the express companies justifying a reasonable increase. I do not think, however, that the matter ought to be considered at the moment. The companies will obtain a fair measure of increase in their first class and second class rates.

PROTECT CONSUMER.

That increase, it is hoped, will prove sufficient to properly maintain the companies and the business, but whatever increase is placed on these commodities would form a reason (a comparatively small one, it is true, in most instances, but still a reason), for further increases in the charge made to the consumer. In the past experience it would appear that the increase in charge to the consumer would be much greater than the increased cost per pound or per pint of the commodity. The cost of living is still mounting. As I see it, it is not to the public interest, and not in the interest of the express companies themselves, to afford the excuse that a raise in the price of transportation of these essential commodities would give for still higher charges against the public. Over and above the essential interest of the consumer, a further and very real ground for withholding increases in these commodity rates, unless it proves to be absolutely necessary, lies in the position of the producer. The commodity rates are the producer's rates. He produces in quantity and ships in bulk. In the pound unit of production his resultant profit is small. His costs have greatly increased. I would dismiss the companies' applications insofar as the commodity rates are concerned, entirely.

GENERAL SCALE INCREASED.

The judgment finds that the railways and express companies are carrying on business at a large loss. In order to increase receipts and make good this loss, increases are allowed in the general merchandise scale, and in the special scale "H." The increases in the general merchandise scale amount to, taken over the whole country, an average increase of 45.94 per cent, in Eastern Canada; 23.75 per cent on the prairies; and 11.48 per cent in British Columbia. The higher rate of increase in Eastern Canada results from the abolition of discriminatory rates and extending similar treatment to all districts. The result, having regard to the express rates in the three different sections of the country, is as follows:

At the present, express rates on the prairies average 39.55 per cent higher than those of Eastern Canada, they become only 17.88 per cent higher. The present rate in British Columbia averages 29.29 per cent over the prairie rate, this percentage will be reduced to 15.01.

The increases in scale are tempered by changes in the basing and graduate tables, and the reduction from the first class by absolute instead of average deductions. The result of the increase in this scale will be to increase the cost per pound by one-fifth of a cent for the fifty mile distance, and for a movement of 450 miles to increase the cost of transportation two-fifths of one per cent. per pound. In like manner, the increase per dozen eggs, in shipments of two cases and upwards (the usual shipment), is approximately one-third of a cent, the actual increase being .366 of one cent, and on a movement of 450 miles the increase is not quite three-quarters of a cent, the exact figures being .73 of one per cent.

RELIEF FOR THE CITIES.

The companies' waggon service is materially extended, and on the basis of population, thus relieving many populated districts of Montreal, Toronto and other cities that have not had the benefit of a waggon service. Over and above this, however, a radical change is made as to the companies' tariffs, as they will have in the future to carry goods at a lower rate when originating in or being delivered to points without waggon service, thus removing a discrimination which has been much objected to. Between points where no delivery service exists a reduction is made, having regard to the appropriate graduate table of 30 cents per 100 pounds, and between points where but the one waggon service exists of 15 cents per hundred pounds.

Important concessions are made in case of traffic by extending the pound unit from 10 to 15 pounds, and by re-casting the graduate table under multiples of five, both as to the price and weight, as against the companies' proposition of tables based on multiples of ten.

Effect is being given to the special complaint of Prince Edward Island against the proposed 25 cent arbitrary in connection with the ferry service between Port Borden and Cape Tormentine.

PERSHING GIVEN SWORD OF HONOR

City of London Honors the United States Army Commander

FREEDOM OF CITY

Quaint Ceremony at Guildhall for American Officer

Special Star Cable by United Press.

LONDON, July 18.—With quaint traditional ceremonies, the Lord Mayor of London tendered General Pershing the honorary freedom of the city today and presented him with a sword of honor.

The presentation occurred at Guild Hall at noon, after which Gen. Pershing attended a luncheon in his honor at the Mansion House. Crowds lined the streets and cheered at the state carriages passed on their way to Guild Hall for the presentation ceremonies.

Alighting at the hall, Gen. Pershing inspected the guard of honor, formed of Grenadier Guards. He was then conducted to the dais in the great hall, where he was greeted by the Lord Mayor and members of the council, dressed in ceremonial robes.

The town clerk read the resolution giving the American commander the freedom of the city and presenting him with the sword. Gen. Pershing replied briefly.

LOCAL LABOR NOT FOR O.B.U. IDEA

But President Foster Does Not Believe O.B.U. Made the Winnipeg Strike

The Montreal Trades and Labor Council is inclined to believe that the recent trouble at Winnipeg was indirectly due to an organized attempt on the part of employers of labor and others to crush trade unionism for all time in that centre. While the so-called capitalist is claiming that this strike was the beginning of an attempt to establish Bolshevism in Canada, the Montreal Trades and Labor Council is of the opinion that the strike was an attempt to break down the system of organized labor in Canada. This latter opinion was expressed last night at a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council. Tonight, Winnipeg strike leaders will give their version at an open meeting on Fletcher's Field tonight.

The appeal made by the Winnipeg visitors for assistance in defending the leaders coming to trial shortly, was placed in the hands of a sub-committee. The council also adopted a resolution embodying a protest against arrests made under the new amendment to the immigration law.

INVESTIGATE RAIDS.

The defence committee in Winnipeg wrote the Council asking for a detailed report from raids made in Montreal, when the police was searching for seditious literature. A special committee was appointed to secure affidavits from individuals whose homes were visited by the police. A communication that all labor men sign a petition demanding a trial by jury for the Winnipeg leaders, was placed in the hands of the sub-committee.

President Foster said he was not inclined to believe all the reports appearing in local papers. On the other hand, he was not prepared to believe all that had been said in labor papers, which were likewise partisan, with respect to the Winnipeg trouble. He had come to the conclusion that the One Big Union movement had little to do with the Winnipeg strike, adding that he was strongly opposed to the O.B.U. idea. He referred to a report in an American publication which should be purely neutral. This publication had said that, at one of the first meetings of the Committee of One Thousand, one of its leading members said, "Now is the time to crush labor unions in the city of Winnipeg, so that they will never be able to lift their heads again."

AGAINST STANDING ARMY.

The Council endorses a resolution recently passed by the Trades and Labor Council of Hamilton, against the establishment of a standing army in Canada, claiming that it was a needless expenditure of money.

The case of the textile workers was presented to the Council by two delegates, and a request for financial assistance made for the strikers. This matter was referred to the executive.

Robert E. Blackstone, of the International Association of Machinists, San Francisco, Cal., made a plea with regard to the Thomas Mooney case. He asked for co-operation in organizing a mass meeting in Montreal for an expression of sympathy for Mooney, whom he claimed had been railroaded to life imprisonment in connection with the dynamiting case in San Francisco.

FRANCE DEMANDS REPARATION

PARIS, July 18.—Marshal Foch, in a telegram to Berlin demanding reparation for the murder of a French sergeant there, pointed out that the incident was not an inter-Allied affair, but was purely a French question. France is demanding 10,000 francs for the family of the dead sergeant and an indemnity of one million francs.

G.W.V.A. TO HAVE CO-OPERATIVE STORES

VERNON, B.C., July 18.—The Vernon branch of the G.W.V.A. has decided to take steps toward organising a chain of co-operative stores throughout the Okanagan Valley. A committee has been working on the scheme for sometime and the plan was supported at a large meeting of the local branch.

DOMINION TIRES

Royal Cord

The Ideal Touring Tires

Blow-outs and punctures are the bane of the touring motorists. Don't spoil your trip by being held up by such accidents. Equip your car, front and rear, with "DOMINION ROYAL CORD" TIRES.

The tens of thousands of sinewy cords, laid in compact layers and each imbedded in pure rubber, make a tire structure and tire wall free of friction, puncture-proof and practically blow-out proof.

More than this, "DOMINION ROYAL CORD" TIRES in themselves are shock absorbers and prevent side-slipping.

Careful tests also prove that a car equipped with "DOMINION ROYAL CORD" TIRES makes more miles per gallon of gasoline than the same car can make on fabric tires. This means a big saving in actual cash, when touring.

DOMINION INNER TUBES are the touring mates of Dominion Tires. They are made of the same high grade materials; they go well together; and they insure perfectly balanced tires.

DOMINION TIRES and ACCESSORIES are distributed through DOMINION RUBBER SYSTEM BRANCHES and sold by the Best Dealers throughout Canada.

FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1919.

JULY 18, 1918.

ONE year ago today the tide of war finally and definitely turned. Early on the eighteenth of July, 1918, Foch, the French generalissimo, loosed the first of the thunderbolts of the counter-offensive which from that time until the curtain fell upon an overwhelming German defeat, swept forward in an irresistible torrent toward the Rhine.

It is only a year, and yet we are already beginning to forget the gnawing anxiety of the weeks that had gone before. The last great thrust of the German forces in the west had begun in Picardy in the previous March with a frantic bombardment over a line of unprecedented length, from Arras to St. Quentin, some fifty miles in length. Again and again and again, fives times in all, had the seemingly inexhaustible legions of field grey surged forward from the Ypres salient almost to the Vosges. For a few days it seemed as though even the holy ground of Ypres could no longer be held. Bailleul went up in flames, and to the south Amiens trembled in the balance while the Allies grimly held the crumbling fragments of Villers-Brettoneux, an outpost almost under the walls of the city. The grey torrent spread and spread, licking forward toward the Marne. The Portuguese battalions broke and the Germans crossed the river, pushing forward steadily until the apex of their position rested on Chateau-Thierry. The whole western front seemed to hang by a hair's breadth, and once again the Allied world felt the sickening apprehension of 1914, when it seemed as though nothing could save Paris.

* * * *

Then something happened. With the awful suddenness of an avalanche Foch hit the German line between Soissons and Chateau-Thierry. The latter place was already virtually gone, the American battalions having been pushed into the most westerly outskirts. The German commander had not meant to extend his line so rapidly, but the Portuguese break had opened a gate which he could not neglect. His advance divisions were nearly exhausted when the Chateau-Thierry obstacle was met, but it is not probable that the position could have been held much longer had relief not come when it did. Relief did come, but not directly. For weeks Foch had concentrated men and guns below Soissons, and when he struck the German line crumpled and bent. The French drove into it mile after mile, and in twenty-four hours Soissons was useless to the Boche, and his advance divisions, away south beyond the Marne, trembling with the impact of the terrific fighting to the north. The Franco-American attack began on a Thursday, and by Monday the German command was beginning, with amazing skill to get back out of the pocket which threatened to close to the north. Mangin on the Chateau-Thierry-Rheims line was feeling out his opponent and, although fighting through most difficult country, was beginning to move forward to meet Gouraud, Foch's hammer, beating in below Soissons. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were days of hair-raising excitement. It seemed as though nothing could save the enemy, but it was evident by the end of that time that there could be no "pocketing" of the Crown Prince's forces. What did save him was the superb handling of the retreating armies by his generals and the stiffening of his resistance from Soissons westward by divisions snatched from the Ypres front and the final abandonment of his cherished hope to take the bloody salient at last.

The rest is history. From that wonderful July day until Germany threw up her hands in November there was no stopping the victorious advance of the Allied armies. The German retreat, conducted as it was with extraordinary skill, never became a rout. It might have become such, for it was growing more and more rapid as time went on, but German cool-headedness saved the German army while it could still be saved. The game was up; there was nothing further to gain by more slaughter, and "Vorwarts!" changed abruptly to "Kamerad!"

There are many glorious war anniversaries which we shall celebrate through the coming years. We should not forget July eighteenth, nineteen hundred and eighteen, for that day was the beginning of the end.

THE ROCKET AND THE STICK.

THE withdrawal of the forces of Admiral Koltchak under pressure and the abandonment of Ekaterinburg by the All-Russian Government shows that the misfortunes that have dogged the steps of this army since early in May are continuing. At first the retirement was slow, but increasing pressure forced the abandonment of Okhansk on June 24 which led to the fall of Perm, to be followed by withdrawal from the important city of Ekaterinburg. The indecision of the Allies must be held responsible for part of this disaster, for had the Entente navies made proper use of their position on the Baltic, the withdrawal would have been checked and a counter-advance begun.

Coincident with the news of further successes in the south and the establishment of bank credits by the British Government in a defined area in the eastern corner of the Black Sea, by which trade facilities will be established, comes news of the downfall of that flash-in-the-pan Communist Bela Kun, the dictator of Buda-Pesth since March 24. Dr. Bela Cohen, or Kun, as he prefers to style himself, has had a spectacular career since he first leaped into prominence by provoking disorders in Buda-Pesth on January 5 of this year. His reactionary temper was proved by an audacious attempt to bribe the crews of the Danube gunboats to turn their guns on Buda-Pesth, and in the disturbances which occurred in the Hungarian capital early in March, Bela Kun was reported lynched, shot by accident, murdered and a suicide. With feline tenacity of life, he bobs up again a few days later and is named Foreign Commissary of the Revolutionary Government on March 24.

The first act of the Allies was to send General Smuts to Buda-Pesth to open negotiations with Bela Kun and to invite him to Paris. Bela Kun played a double game, and while treating the British representative with all courtesy, proceeded to open negotiations with Lenine for a closer understanding between the Soviets of Moscow and the Communists of Hungary. Secure of this support he openly led Hungarian troops against the Czecho-Slovaks, and when the Conference at Paris protested he sent "a defiant note." More protests and more defiance followed, and the indecisive action of the Allies again sent up the stock of Bolshevism in Europe several points.

It was evident a few days ago that the end was near. The people saw through the thin veneer which covered Bela Kun's duplicity. Bela Kun falls, and another nail is driven in the coffin of Bolshevism, which must soon be lowered to the ground for permanent interment, unwept, unhonored and unsung.

TRYING TO SHIFT GEARS.

WE can almost find it in our hearts to envy Henry Ford these days, not for his millions alone, but for the many new sensations he must be experiencing as the result of his libel suit for a million dollars against a Chicago newspaper, which called him an anarchist.

The father of the flivver is an ingenuous soul. He has hitherto estimated the world in terms of business. He got where he is in the industrial world by making a good article and selling it cheaper than anybody else had ever sold a similar article before. By an inevitable consequence a large number of people bought his article and made him a very rich man indeed. It was all quite simple and above-board, and Mr. Ford, while still a comparatively young man, found himself free to turn his mind to other things than motor cars.

Unfortunately for him, he failed to realize that there are a great many things in the world more complicated than making and selling a popular article, and when he attempted to apply the simple methods of barter and trade to international problems, or even to questions of a purely internal character like "preparedness" in the United States, he failed lamentably. He knew how to put an end to waste in a factory, but you cannot close down a war as you would an unprofitable branch of your business. Perhaps anybody but Mr. Ford with his very direct mental processes and the taste of power millions have given him would have realized in advance that his famous "Peace Ship" was bound to be in the same class with "H.M.S. Pinafore"—amusing but of little practical value. Similarly the resonant phrases anent "butchery," "buzzards" and "murder" which Mr. Ford hired someone to present as his views on war fell flat when war refused to obey the Ford dictum and stay away from the United States. The last straw which made the load too heavy even for a Ford was when the Detroit millionaire manufacturer was called an "anarchist." It was all most bitterly disappointing, and Mr. Ford seeks public vindication from the courts.

He has learned many painful things, but let us hope he has really learned them. He has, no doubt, discovered that "the world is so full of a number of things" that cannot be measured by rule of thumb or settled by a formula, however convincingly put. Mr. Ford is not an anarchist, he is merely a business man with an extraordinarily able business brain who has been trying to use that brain for something that is not "business."

I am a man and nothing that concerns a man do I deem a matter of indifference to me.—Terence.

THE WORLD'S PRESS

A New Factor.

Kansas City Journal: Hereafter political orators will have to be careful how they appeal to the "plain people." Women compose a large part of the voting population now.

Her Own Medicine.

Kansas City Star: "The Government of the German Republic solemnly declares that its attitude is to be understood that it bends to force." Force was the only means of argument Germany ever used, and was the only kind it ever understood.

One Way of Being Unanimous.

New Orleans Times Picayune: By the process of elimination the Supreme Council at Paris—which started with five members and now has three—can at least be sure that it will ultimately attain complete harmony of counsels and views.

Gets it in the Neck.

Detroit News: Here is a long road that apparently gets nowhere. The farmer says he loses money when beef prices fall; the packer says he loses money; the wholesalers and all the other dealers acknowledge no advantage—everybody loses all along the line, but—the purchaser of a pound of beef pays more than ever before. Now the question, which would seem pertinent, is, what became of the money when the wholesale price of beef slumped from three to five dollars per hundredweight; and the price of every pound of meat at retail remained the same or was boosted a few cents?

Then and Now.

London Daily Mail: "The All-Highest War Lord" was by military law responsible for the the atrocious policy followed by his troops in Belgium and Northern France, even if, to remove any doubt, he had not written in his famous letter to the late Francis Joseph: "My soul is rent, but everything must be put to fire and sword; men, women and children must be slaughtered." As for the monstrous German doctrine that a murderer is inviolate in person if he is a Sovereign it has been obsolete in England since Stuart days.

The Lesson of Winnipeg.

Milwaukee Journal: It is well not to lose sight of the principle that nobody gets anything who doesn't earn it. Work is the only thing that will save the world. But he who works must receive all that is honestly coming to him, not only in the shape of pecuniary reward, but in the respect and esteem of his fellow men. The citizens' committee of Winnipeg has rendered as great a service as has ever been rendered to a country. It has said to labor in effect: "We are with you in so far as you are right, but when you set up judgments which ignore the rights of all the rest of us, we are against you."

Waiting for the Monsoon.

London Daily News: Every year, during this week, more than 100 millions of adult people in India wait in extreme anxiety for the telegram from Bombay, or some other city on the west coast, announcing that the Monsoon has burst. This year it has come according to schedule. During the first half of June, over the whole country from Cape Comorin to the Himalayas, the heavens are as brass, and the heat grows daily more terrific. Then clouds, driven before the southwest Monsoon, begin to pile up in mighty black masses, which, on the appointed day, break in a thunderous downpour. A week or ten days ago the Monsoon, blowing up the Bay of Bengal, brings the rain to the Ganges Delta in far quieter fashion.

Standing at the Cross-Roads.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: A League of Nations without the United States as a member is not to be thought of. It would be a confession of impotency on the part of those who established it. Either we go in or there will be no society of nations for the preservation of peace. Rejection or vital amendment of the league covenant by the senate, therefore, means an end or an indefinite postponement of the high ideals which are written into every article of the covenant. America stands at a fork in the road of national honor and responsibility, with the senate at the moment about to direct which course to take. It cannot be believed that senators will choose the way which leads toward repudiation of the principles for which the war was fought.

The Episcopal Dignity.

London Daily Telegraph: So long as there is a State Church it must be kept up, not with ostentatiousness certainly, but with a due regard for decorum. Its ministers must not be in actual need. They must be able to discharge their exceedingly valuable functions with a certain amount of dignity as well as comfort. So long as the Church is a definite and integral part of the State at large, it deserves every kind of recognition, and it become a miserable mockery to ask praiseworthy and educated men to keep up the appearance of gentlemen on wages which would be scorned by any artisan. Either the Church must be maintained or it must be disestablished. Disestablishment, of course, opens a large number of serious questions. The only alternative, however, imposes a real duty on the community. In a State Church the officers must be adequately remunerated, just like ministers and ambassadors and Government officials, who represent the State in its political capacity.

The Cost of a Cloud.

Philadelphia Public Ledger: What is the cost of a cloud? In a city like Philadelphia tens of thousand of electric lights are turned on when the sun is blanketed and there are murky or sombre skies because of the dark clouds. Electric light means more use of coal and coal means money and the money comes from the public's purse when the electric light bill comes in. Some one figured that a rainy day cost New York an unconscionable amount of money. Women, he explained, disbursed 85 per cent of the money earned by men. On rainy or dark days they remained indoors mostly. Store sales were curtailed, traffic reduced, and nearly every class and character of business was affected adversely. Theatres, movie shows, ball games and general amusements suffered seriously. In New York, in one of the tallest structures, the electric light people have watchers stationed night and day to search the skies. At the first sign of approaching storm or dark clouds the word is passed to the great power houses, and the firemen get buy shovelling coal, so the Edison people will be able to give all the light New York needs.

The Veil.

"There is no death; only a veil."—Sir A. Conan Doyle.

When darkness gathers all of sleep's largesse,
And from gold day steals the reluctant light,
When e'en the little, playing wind is still;
And only music of great silence
Makes straight the way for this slow-pacing night,

Then do they come, our dear, our living dead,
Walking beside us in familiar ways;
Not as elusive shadows, vague and chill;
But warm with life that is as perfume shed,
Gay with the laughter that made fair their days.

And still we say, with ever blinded eyes,
"How keen the aching thrust of mem'ry's spears, Almost I felt the touch, the presence thrill."
While they who are beyond life's wisdom wise
At our dull grief, smile, as at children's tears!

EXCELSIOR OR AIRCRAFT—WHICH?

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—One is almost forced to believe that the people of all the walks of life have forgotten the real meaning of Excelsior and have substituted Aircraft. R.

HOPE FOR THE PRISONERS?

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—Will Peace Day, on the 19th instant be widely observed all over Great Britain and her possessions as a day of happiness and rejoicing? If so, will His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada think of granting freedom to a number of war, civil and criminal prisoners, or at least, of shortening their sentences on such an eventful day?

Shall we hope for freedom on Saturday next?

A PRISONER UNJUSTLY INTERNED.

WAIT FOR AN ACCIDENT.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—No doubt there are many others beside myself who were pleased to see recently in your columns letters on the parking of automobiles on our busy streets, and would like to see some change for betterment. It is not against the city's bylaws to do it, and if it is, why is it not stopped? Do those in authority intend to wait until a serious accident occurs, with perhaps loss of lives, before any steps are taken to stop it? "PEDESTRIAN."

WHY NOT GET STARTED?

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—Replying to your correspondent, Mr. T. O. Woods, on the above troublesome subject, I would like to inform your readers that the lease-holders that I have come in contact with certainly do wish to have this abominable drawback removed, and I think there is no time like the present, but everyone must move with a concerted action. As far as this end of the city is concerned, the writer has been advocating the abolition of the yearly lease for some time, but unfortunately met with no success. Something should be done and like Mr. Woods, I would like to see it started without delay.

LACROSSE FOR C. O. S.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—Would you kindly allow me space to say a few words regarding the present plight of the "Charity Organization" of this city.

Some week or so ago, according to a friend of mine, a football match was held in competition for what is known as "The Charity Cup," and the gate receipts from said game, which amounted to some ten hundred dollars, was handed over to the various hospitals, etc., of the city. This affair is, I believe, a regular event in the Old Country, and is of great benefit to charity, and to the game also. Now, just at present there is quite a fight going on in local lacrosse circles to stimulate the old national game, which no doubt is not at all as it used to be, and as my friend suggested, it would be a great help to the game to stage a big contest for the benefit of the C. O. S., right now when the C. O. S. is in distress, and let the game be well advertised, (the game itself needs some advertising just now), and the receipts from such a game donated to the cause for which the C. O. S. stands, would shower a not-to-be-forgotten honor upon our local sporting circles. Has any other person any suggestion to offer?

SOCIALISM AND THE BIBLE.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—Regarding Mr. Hutchison's letter "Theory vs. Socialistic Practice," in issue of 12th inst., would it be in order of merit to ask a few questions of the gentleman named in reference to remarks he made in that letter?

Presuming on your hospitality or broadmindedness we will make the venture. First and foremost can he tell us if there ever was anything worth while done in this world which was not preceded by theory—even for an instant? According to accounts the only exalted who dispense with theory before action are the insane unfortunates—maniacs. And we know what they produce in consequence. I believe their product has not, as a rule, come up to our satisfaction. Secondly, presume he is a Christian when he read the New Testament's part devoted to St. Matthew, where he found the Sermon on the Mount which caused him to consider it a meeting of selected auditors, evidently, did he continue to read the chapters following the narrative he spoke about? If so, what does he think of chapter XIX, and particularly verses 21 and 24? Do they bear out his contention that there is no connection between the Socialistic theory and Christianity? And where did he read that the Sermon on the Mount was for a minority only, and not a democratic gathering, free to all under the clear sky and no selections or admissions charged?

Was England "as Christian as Turkey" 168 years ago made so as a result of Socialistic teaching—(which never existed then in the sense we understand the movement today)? In mentioning the Winnipeg incident, does he confound Bolshevism with Socialism? There is a difference and a good one if the writer will find leisure to seek it. Does he believe that it's the faltering of Christianity where it should be strongest that has caused the growth of Socialism and like movements?

His answers to the foregoing questions would make interesting reading for many of your readers, I am certain, if your medium is open to such enlightening communications. The writer does not call himself a Socialist for one reason only, but like the oldest Christian church, realizes the evils of amassed fortunes in the hands of the few and its consequences, in general, amongst the masses, and like this same religious teaching, believes in the betterment of things in general for the laborer who is "worthy of his hire." Socialist or autocrat, diplomat or Democrat, aristocrat, or anything no real person sanctions theft, or its many dignified aliases, in any shape or form.

JUST THE SAME

By DR. FRANK CRANE

When the NC-4 started on its trip across the Atlantic it broke down and had to limp into port for repairs. It started again. It was attempting to do what had never been done before, to fly across the ocean. But it got there just the same.

Type of the eternal forthputting of the human race! The struggle of the indomitable force of progress against the undying forces of reaction and obstruction.

When the Wright Brothers were experimenting with their flying machines on the sand dunes they were looked on as a joke. But they got there just the same.

Elias Howe with his sewing machine, Cyrus Field with his cable, George Stevenson with his steam engine, and Edison with his talking machine, were each up against it once, just as desperately as you are, son. But they got there just the same.

Whoever seeks to make an improvement, in this world finds the cohorts of Bourbonism fighting mad and drawn up to oppose him.

If you think the mass of men are in favor of reform you are mistaken. The mass does not want to go on; it wants to stand still and be let alone.

Go ahead and push the world up a bit if you so desire, but know that the gray wolves will get you if they can.

They poisoned Socrates. They crucified Jesus. They burnt Bruno. They shot Lincoln.

The ingenuity of men is a hundred times more facile in finding objections than in finding reasons for trying a new thing.

Still, if you are right you will get there just the same.

The abolition of the open sale of alcoholic poisons will seem reasonable enough to our children. For years it was ridiculed, sneered at, violently opposed. It got there just the same.

The abolition of human slavery was once exceedingly unpopular, and those who favored it were called fanatics. But it got there just the same.

The doctrine that any man has a right to think as he pleases about religion was long considered subversive to society and the state, and its advocates were hunted as criminals. But it got there just the same.

The right of wage-earners to organize was once denied, and those who dared to assert it were jailed, deported, and otherwise punished. But it got there just the same.

And the League of Nations?

Unless this world is ruled, not by a God who is a Friend to the human race, but by a sinister Demon who mocks at man's struggles and delights in woman's tears, the League of Nations, the first serious attempt of mankind to rid itself of its greatest curse, War, will arrive just as surely as the NC-4 made Plymouth.

FROM THE STAR FILES

THIRTY YEARS AGO.

(From The Star Files, July 18, 1889.)

Montreal.—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, leader of Her Majesty's loyal Opposition in the House at Ottawa, spoke at two Liberal meetings in this city yesterday. In the afternoon he attended a caucus held at the St. Lawrence Hall, and in the evening was guest of honor at a public meeting in the Club National. At both gatherings the "silver-tongued orator" was enthusiastically received.

Providence, R.I.—A big balloon, believed to be Campbell's airship, passed over this city yesterday.

New York.—A pilot reports seeing a balloon dragging its car along the surface of the water. He gave chase with his boat, but it disappeared before he could reach the spot. It is feared that this balloon was the Campbell airship.

Boston.—Max O'Rell has accepted a second invitation to lecture in the United States and Canada. His tour will begin in this city in January.

St. Lambert.—St. Barnabas church celebrates its anniversary this evening with services at which Rev. Osborne Troop will preach. The church was opened on July 18, 1886.

Montreal.—Hon. Mr. Justice Cross left today on a trip through the North-West.

London.—The Princess Louise, the Marquis of Lorne, Lord and Lady Dufferin and many other prominent persons, were guests at the reception given last night by Lady Tupper.

Montreal.—Sir George Stephen has returned from his salmon fishing trip and gone to New York.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

(From The Star Files, July 18, 1899.)

Montreal.—Hon. C. A. Geoffrion, member without portfolio of the Dominion Cabinet, died this morning at his country residence at Dorion. Mr. Geoffrion was a member of a family which has been exceedingly influential in the county of Vercheres for many years. Mr. Geoffrion was born at Varennes in 1843 and studied law in the office of Sir A. A. Dorion, whose son-in-law he eventually became. Mr. Geoffrion was also a graduate in law of McGill University. The Messrs. Victor and Aime Geoffrion are his brothers.

Cape Town.—Mr. Cecil Rhodes, former Premier of Cape Colony, arrived here today and was enthusiastically received as he drove through the streets.

Montreal.—Sherbrooke street is to be extended to Montreal West, thus being increased in length by two or three miles.

French-Canadian Views

AN EMPIRE PARLIAMENT.

Le Canada:—Certain newspapers are trying to revive an old scheme which they are endeavoring to clothe in a new garb—a parliament for the whole Empire. It appears from time to time under the name of Imperialism, Imperiali Federation, Imperial Parliament, but under all these different guises it remains the same. An effort is made to centralize in London the energies of the different parts of the Empire at the expense of local autonomy. Our sentiments with regard to these centralization tendencies have not changed one iota. Today, just as we have always been, we are strictly in favor of maintaining Canada's autonomy. For this reason we repudiate without the slightest hesitation every attempt to attain such an end as is proposed, and we are opposed to every scheme of federation. The war has taught peoples to live their own lives and to remain masters of their own destinies. More than ever before are we jealous of our autonomy, and in this matter we know that we are in sympathy with the sentiment in Australia and South Africa. Let us, therefore, fight against every "imperializing" scheme. Let us, at all times, affirm our intention to remain autonomous and to be governed from Ottawa and not from London.

TIME REFORM.

La Patrie:—President Wilson's veto has temporarily preserved to the United States the putting forward of the clocks for an hour in the summer season. If the benefits obtained by the new time are not beter apreciated, and if the rural districts persist in their appeal for the annulling of the law, the United States will return to the former legal time without any seasonal change. And if they decide eventually not to put forward the clocks in the summer months, our own railways will be operated on legal time. Yet it is quite obvious that with the approval of the railways the putting forward of the clocks in summer could be accomplished in Canada even if the United States refused to do the same. A sudden change of 60 minutes at the boundary could not in any way disorganize traffic if travellers were advised before hand. Similar variations already exist. The traveler who journeys from Vancouver to Halifax has no less than five points at which the hands of clocks and watches must be put back one hour in order to conform with legal time. In the majority of European countries advancing the time, which allows for a greater utilization of sunshine, has become a permanent institution. It would be regrettable if the United States and Canada did not avail themselves of the opportunity presented.

BELGIANS HERE WILL CELEBRATE PEACE DAY

Observe Anniversary of Belgian Independence with Procession

The Belgian Union of Montreal will celebrate the eighty-ninth anniversary of the independence of Belgium on Sunday and Monday. To commemorate the signing of peace and the freedom of their country by the victory of the Allies, members of the colony, with Belgian soldiers who have served with the Belgian and Canadian armies, will assist at mass, followed by a thanksgiving "Te Deum" in Notre Dame Church on Sunday next.

The meeting will take place at 10.30 a.m. at the corner of St. Denis and St. Catherine streets, in front of Laval University, from which point the procession will proceed to church, headed by a band. After the service the procession will proceed to the quarters of the Belgian Union, 1040 St. Catherine street east, where a reception will be held. In the evening a social will be held for Belgian soldiers returned from battle, this reception being continued the next day.

15,000 TROOPS MET

Troop Trains Passed Through City —Hut Served 6,383 Meals

Six thousand, three hundred and eighty-three soldiers were served with meals at the Red Triangle Hut last week. Of these meals, 4155 were served in regular canteen hours, while 2228 extra meals were served to men passing through the city, making an increase of 1761 meals over the previous week.

Beds paid for during the week numbered 683, an increase of 202 over the previous week, while 74 beds were donated.

Thirty troop trains, bearing over 15,000 returning soldiers were met at the Turcot Yards by Miss Crawford and her workers last week. This creates a record in the work of this committee. All these men were served with cold drinks, buns and other refreshments in addition to smokes and newspapers and magazines.

Over 300 returned men were present at the Hut last night and enjoyed the movie program in addition to the special numbers. Pte. Charles E. Burbidge, with four years service to his credit sang several songs of his own composition. Mrs. H. Scott gave several recitations.

FIVE YEARS FOR AUTOMOBILE THIEF

Man Who Stole Bicycle, Senteneed to Month in Jail

Jack West had only been out of Bordeaux jail for two months when he resumed his criminal activities and stole a motor car valued at $700. When he was tried before Judge Choquet it was proven yesterday that West had taken the car in order to transport goods which he had acquired after breaking into a grocery store. He was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

A bicycle thief named Angus Seguin was sentenced to one month in jail. He had already served two months while awaiting his trial. He stole a bicycle valued at $45 and sold it at once to a second-hand dealer for $5.

CITY WON'T PROCEED AGAINST G. MENARD, SR.

Administrative Commission Takes Advice of Counsel

The Administrative Commission, acting upon the advice of the city chief counsel, has declared its intention not to proceed further in the case of Gordien Menard, Sr., charged with theft of sand and stone belonging to the city in connection with the Bordeaux Ward sewers. The Court of Appeal recently ordered a new trial of the case, at the same time quashing the conviction pronounced by the Court of Special Sessions against ex-Ald. Gordien Menard and acquitting him of the accusation brought against him of theft of sand and stone belonging to the city, in connection with the same sewers.

The People's Verdict On President Wilson's Plea

Out and out opponents of the League of Nations Covenant are not converted by President Wilson's plea that it is "a practical necessity," "the only hope for mankind," and that to reject it would be to "break the heart of the world." The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for this week—July 19th—gives a country-wide survey of the press and interviews with United States Senators, enabling readers to gain a very definite idea of what the United States thinks of the President's Senate speech for a League of Nations.

While the Minneapolis Journal (Rep.) urges us "to be very sure that the Covenant does not permit the European camel to get its head inside our tent," the New York Times sounds the dominant note in public opinion when it declares that "the President's address compels ratification; it is an irresistible force which the Senate can not withstand."

Keep "Up-to-date" By Reading the Digest

Nothing means more to every man and woman in these days of momentous happenings and world-wide change than to be able to follow intelligently all that is taking place, both at home and abroad, and to take part in any discussion upon topics of general interest with confidence and authority. To fit oneself to do this in any real sense would seemingly involve an impossible amount of reading of current periodicals of all sorts, for which few, indeed, of us would have the time. But this difficulty is merely apparent. You will find a solution for it on every news-stand in the shape of THE LITERARY DIGEST, the world's greatest newsmagazine, which gives you all sides of all the vital questions of the day from week to week in a compact and readily assimilable form. If you want to be properly informed on all current issues read THE DIGEST this week and every week.

It's Hot! But Not at Strathmore Gardens

THE down-town streets are ovens of baking humanity. A few steps to a Lachine car or a G.T. or C.P. train, a short cooling motor ride, and all the broiling, stifling discomfort of downtown (or uptown — or middle town), the worry and the fret of business are completely forgotten. You have entered into another world—a world of beautiful homes. Cool breezes off Lake St. Louis temper the too ardent breath of Old Sol, and here, with its expanse of green lawn, its shady trees and verandah, awaits the HOME that you have long pictured and dreamed of—HERE in Strathmore Gardens by the Lake, WHERE IT IS ALWAYS COOL! No sun-born vision is this, but a blissful reality, brought quickly and easily (on Easy Terms) within your reach, by our exclusive plan of buying and building. See us about it now.

Spend Your Holidays at Far Rockaway, Long Island, N.Y.

Every one desires a real change this summer and one of the most delightful spots for a vacation is Far Rockaway. It combines all the natural advantages of country and seashore which is not to be had at the more famous beaches. The Ocean House and Belmore are conveniently situated to the station and beach, where the surf bathing is unexcelled elsewhere in the United States. The hotel affords splendid accommodation, with spacious shady grounds, large piazzas and tennis courts. The cuisine is excellent and the rates moderate. Far Rockaway is only an overnight run from Montreal. Try it this summer for a change and make your reservations now.

Head Line Has New Freighter and Others are Being Built

Port officials and shipping men to the number of nearly one hundred gathered aboard the new Head Line freighter Ballygally Head at shed 13 yesterday to partake of luncheon at the invitation of McLean, Kennedy Limited, agents of the line in Montreal, and to inspect the vessel, which is here on her maiden voyage, and the construction of which represents the last word in modern ship-building design.

The guests were welcomed by William R. Eakin, vice-president and managing director, and A. E. Frances, secretary-treasurer of McLean, Kennedy, Ltd. Mr. Eakin in the course of a speech after the luncheon promised that more ships of the same high standard as the Ballygally Head would soon be nosing their way up the St. Lawrence River to Montreal to replace those lost in the war. In this connection Mr. Eakin mentioned that whereas the Head Line had 17 ships in operation at the outbreak of the war they had but five now. A sister ship to the Ballygally Head had been launched at the Workman, Clarke yards, Belfast, a few days ago, and two slips at these yards had been reserved indefinitely by the Head Line, for further construction.

ONLY DIRECT LINE.

Mr. Eakin pointed out that the Head Line was the only steamship company operating a direct line of steamers between Montreal and Belfast. Tracing the growth of the company from small beginnings twenty-seven years ago, the speaker said that whereas the average tonnage of the Head boats then was 3,000 dead weight, vessels of 9,000 were now required to deal with the business. In all the years Head Line steamers had been coming to Montreal there had never been a serious accident, and this fact reflected great credit both on the Line's officers and to the splendid aids to navigation supplied by the Canadian Government. Mr. Eakin concluded with a word of thanks to the Montreal Harbor Commissioners for their unvarying courtesy and proposed a toast, which was enthusiastically responded to, to the Port of Montreal, the Harbor Commissioners, and their efficient staff.

Brig.-General Labelle, of the Harbor Commission, expressed his pleasure at seeing new ships coming to Montreal, and was followed by M. P. Fennell, secretary to the Harbor Commissioners, who proposed a toast to Capt. E. Sufferin and the success of his new ship, the Ballygally Head.

Replying, Capt. Sufferin praised the aids to navigation in the St. Lawrence and Gulf, and also the facilities in the harbor of Montreal, which he characterized as second to none in the world.

Capt. T. Bourassa, harbor master, spoke of the big increase of business which the port of Montreal kas enjoying, and stated as an example, that 100 more ships had entered the port to date this season as compared with last season.

Capt. Bales, port warden, addressed the gathering, as did Tim Slattery, tide-water surveyor; J. L. McCullough, of Dale and Co., underwriters, and Mr. Alderson, surveyor for Lloyd's Register.

The Ballygally Head, to celebrate the arrival of which the luncheon was held, is a brand new steel steamer of 3,166 tons net, with a length of over 40 feet, a beam of 55 feet, and a speed of 14 knots. She was recently completed at the yards of the Workman, Clarke Company, Belfast, and is the latest addition to the line fleet of freight steamers of the Head Line plying direct between Montreal and Belfast.

N. Y. PRICES GO LOWER---LOCAL STEADY---EXCHANGE FIRMER

INDEFINITE LOCAL TONE, POWER ROSE

In spite of the pronounced weakness in the Wall Street market and the impending holidays both in Wall Street and here, the tone on the Montreal Stock Exchange this morning was fairly steady. Around midmorning there was a flurry in Montreal Power started by some brisk buying which served to drive the price sharply upward. The first transactions on the movement ran into several hundred of shares, and immediately the opinion was vouchsafed that the dividend would be raised at next Monday's meeting. The price advanced rapidly to 93, the high of the morning, after the opening at 90½, while the close was strong at 92½, a net advance of 2.

Elsewhere the demand ran into Brompton, Brazilian, Steel of Canada, Iron, Textile, Spanish Rivers, B.C. Fish, Riordon and the cotton issues.

Fish was an outstanding feature of strength despite the news that nothing was done in the matter of dividends by the board yesterday. The stock opened at 62, advanced to a new high at 65 1-2 and closed at 63, a net gain of 1 1-2. Brompton also made an new high) at 66, but closed down at 65 3-8, off 3-8.

Textile opened at 124, eased to 123 and closed 123½, down 1½. Brazilian opened at 58 and closed firmer at 58 3-8, up the fraction. Converters opened at 62½ and advanced a further ½. Riordon was quiet at 143½ to 143, unchanged. Can. Cottons was 93 to 92½. Montreal Cottons was 71½.

There was a fairly general market in the iron and steel list. Iron was easier touching 69, off ½. The market however, received good support around the lower level closing at 69¼, unchanged from the opening, and down a net 1-4. Steel of Canada was 72½ to 72, down ½. Lyall was 80½, unchanged.

Spanish River common opened at 44 and eased to 44½, down ½. The preferred was 108½, unchanged.

Waygamack was 55 to 54¾, down 1-4; Laurentide held at 220; Pulp 6. Elsewhere in the list there was a fairly steady tone with Penman at a new high of 96 to 97; St. Law-Flour 108½, ex-dividend 2½ per cent.; unchanged; Asbestos 72, unchanged; Cement 68½, down ½; Car 42, unchanged; the preferred 99 to 98, down 1½, Shawinigan 121¾, unchanged; Smelters 31¾ 31¼, down ¾; Breweries 179 to 179½, up ½; Sugar 53, down ¾; Glass 59, unchanged; Tram-Power 19, unchanged; Felt 28, unchanged; while there was some heavy buying of Steamships preferred at 83¾ to 84, up ¾.

LONDON DISCUSSES CONTROL OF STERLING

LONDON, July 18.—The Saturday general holiday and the peace celebrations are causing a general slackening in business. The stock markets have not recovered as expected after the victory loan, partly because the prompt resumption of the issue of treasury bills caused disappointment and partly because the rush of new capital issues is absorbing large amounts of investment money. Meanwhile, the coal situation still causes anxiety and the railway strike threatens to spread.

Regarding the decline in New York exchange, this fulfills the expectations expressed when the Government relaxed control. Some experts argue that control should be resumed to support the exchange, but the majority say that lower rates mean England must pay more for imports. It is hoped that the present movement will help force economy in consuming exports and at the same time stimulate exports artificially. Supported exchange, they argue, creates a fool's paradise.

FUNDS ARE ADVANCING; FOREIGN 'CHANGE FIRM

Marked strength was shown in the market for New York funds here this morning, and the rate advanced to 3 13-64 per cent. premium, as compared with 3⅜ at the close last night, an advance of 5-64 per cent.

The position of the market was apparently hard for foreign exchange bankers to analyze. At the same time, however, a rather heavy buying power appeared from both local and Toronto sources. In fact, some bankers were of the opinion that further strength would probably be seen, and one authority made the forecast that the rate would probably touch 3½ per cent. premium before long.

The New York foreign exchange market continued firm but presented an uncertain front and quotations, in large measure, were purely nominal. Sterling exchange opened at 4.35¾ for demand, off 3¾ cents from last night's close, but later in the day the rate firmed, the recovery had carried the rate up to 4.35 for demand and 4.37 for cables.

In France, the situation was also towards greater firmness, with quotations ruling more or less nominal. At the opening French cheques were quoted at 7.12, while after mid-day they had advanced to 7.05.

Dealers hesitated to quote other currencies, rates for which were not available. Throughout, dealers appeared to take varying views with the result that business was small. In fact, one Montreal circle stated that the market could not readily absorb £50,000 which were placed in the market for Canadian account. In an endeavor to improve the foreign exchange situation, it was announced in New York today that conferences would be held during the next few days between a committee of foreign exchange bankers and various shipping interests. Committees will be appointed by cotton and grain dealers to represent them at these meetings, and while no definite plan of action has been decided upon, it is hoped that some means may be found of stabilizing the market which has been marked by violent declines during the past few weeks.

Dominion Bank Made Good for Half Year

TORONTO, July 18.—The financial report of the Dominion Bank shows net profits for the half year at $553,698, an increase of $31,000 over the same period last year. Net for the whole of last year were $1,086,498.

Total deposits at June 30 were $96,140,000, about unchanged, though showing an increase of $17,100,000 in the twelve months. Cash assets now stand at $27,697,000, compared with $28,498,000 at the 12 months ago, but showing an increase of $3,200,000 compared with a year ago.

Total assets are $123,872,000, and current loans and discounts are $55,500,000. Balance at profit and loss carried forward is $640,201, compared with $446,503 at December 31 last.

PHILA. BANK CLOSES

PHILADELPHIA, July 18. — The North Penn. Bank, a state institution, closed its doors today. The bank's last report, issued in June, showed that it had deposits of $2,066,643, resources $2,695,282, and loans and investments of $2,304,533.

Press Opinions on N.Y. Situation

Sun.—The fact that prices went lower on the stock exchange again yesterday in face of another sharp advance at the outset did not reflect the entrance of any new factors into financial situation. It simply meant that the pace of trading had reached a point where it was humanly impossible for Wall Street to maintain it any longer without a breathing spell.

Times.—The attitude of numerous brokers seemed to have become influenced by a feeling that the long advance had weakened the technical position of stocks, making them vulnerable to unfavorable developments.

World.—Until the last day or two stocks have been in rather scant supply and have responded quickly to buying orders. They were supplied freely yesterday, however, and in many instances could be sold only at concessions. When this fact was discovered many of the traders took the short side for a turn and the operations of course helped the reaction along. Some of the more conservative houses moreover, issued warnings.

Herald.—The fact that sterling exchange declined to the lowest level in its history, reaching a point where bankers and dealers deemed it necessary to hold conferences, disturbed the more thoughtful who foresaw in a continuation of the decline grave danger to American overseas trade.

Tribune.—The reaction was overdue and should prove beneficial to the whole market. Most people will concede that stocks, particularly the industrial issues, have been travelling much too fast on the advance.

REACTION IN N. Y. PRICES CONTINUED

Special to The Star.

NEW YORK, July 18—There were a good many cross currents in the market this morning and it was evident that those who were inclined to turn bearish on the market were meeting with opposition. On the whole, however, the reactionary tone prevailed and around 1 o'clock this afternoon, prices for the most part were around the low of the day.

Following the drive at the market in the final stages yesterday many stocks were offered for sale at lower prices this morning, but there were the inevitable exceptions with a few cases of substantial advances.

Stutz Motor which closed yesterday at 114 1-2 opened today at 119 3-4 to 1-2 and quickly advanced to 123, later reacting to 118 1-2, but recovering 3 points. Studebaker was also very active and strong advancing from an early low of 110 1-4 to 113 1-2. Pan American rallied over a point from the close yesterday at 108 1-2 and touched 109, but later reacted a couple of points.

Republic Iron and Steel weakened as the result of the publication of a poor statement opening at 96 3-4, compared with 98 7-8 the previous close and touching a low of 94 3-4, after which it rallied a couple of points. U. S. Steel opened fairly steady at 111 7-8 to 112 1-8, but in the early afternoon reacted as low as 110 1-2. Beth. Steel B., which closed at 103 7-8 yesterday, opened easier today at 103 3-8 to 3-4, and went off to 101 7-8, recovering a point in the later trading. Midvale was fairly firm at 57 1-4 to 57 3-4 to 56 3-4. Crucible opened a fraction lower at 137 1-4 and went to 132 3-4, recovering 2 points. Scotia weakened to 83 3-4 to 84.

In the railway group C.P.R. sold off from 165⅝ to 164 rallied to 165; Union was 134⅝ to 133⅞ to 134; Texas Pac., 63⅛ to 62⅞ to 63¼; St. Paul, 50 to 48⅛ to ⅞; Southern Pac., 108⅝ to ½ to 108 to ½; Erie, 19½; New Haven, 37⅜; Reading, 91⅛.

Other features of the market were: Cigar Stores, 195⅜ to 194¼ to 192¼ to 193⅜; Sugar, 136½ to 137½; Sinclair Oil 63 1-4 to 62 3-4 to 63⅜; Rubber, 129½ to 125¼ to 128½ to 127; Royal Dutch, 117⅛ to 115¼ to ⅝; Ohio City Gas, 58⅜ to 57 to 57⅝; Mexican Pet., 197 to 193 to 194; Marine, 63¼ to 64¼ to 62⅜ to ⅝; Alcohol, 141 to 144½ to 141½; Gen. Motors, 232 to 231½ to 233⅜ to 231⅞; Cuba Cane, 34½ to 33 to ⅜; Bosch, 117½ to 116 to 115⅝; Baldwin, 115 to 114½ to 115½ to 113⅝ to 114½; Smelting, 87½ to 88 to 86⅝; Anaconda, 75⅝ to 75; A. I. C. 110½ to 111 to 109¾ to 110⅝.

Selling of recent speculative favorites was resumed at the opening, the sharp reaction of yesterday's final hour making further headway. Reversals ranging from large fractions to two points were recorded by Crucible and Bethlehem Steels, United Cigars, American International, Central Leather, Baldwin Locomotive and U. S. Rubber. Offsetting features included Royal Dutch, Mexican Petroleum and the more popular low priced rails.

Oils displayed the best tone, with Mexican Petroleum up a full point and Royal Dutch New York ⅛. Ohio Gas opened unchanged at 58¾. Buying of this issue is based on important trade developments which are expected to be announced in the early future. At 112 Steel common was off ¼, while Bethlehem B. sold down ⅝ to 103½. Tobaccos were reactionary. American Tobacco, at 239, was off, while United Cigar Stores showed a point loss at 195.

A rumor pervaded that the Federal Reserve Board contemplated another warning against over-speculation, and the price movement was irregular. Oil shares turned slightly reactionary. Mexican Petroleum sold down to 194⅝ and Sinclair to 63. Pan-American Petroleum was strong, recovering to 109 after touching a low of 107½. Doheny interests are reported to be steady buyers of this issue.

Sentiment through the list was heartened by bold operations in motors, where little attention was paid to the exhortations to caution. On the heels of a 7½ point advance Thursday, Stutz was bid up in spectacular fashion. Opening at 114, it was off a half point. The next sale was at 116 and following ones at 118¾ and 119¾. Four hundred shares brought 122 on a succeeding transaction. Studebaker was also strong, selling up to 118⅝ a gain of nearly 2 points.

The early decline was partially checked, probably as a result of the further strength shown by oils and motors with Stutz the chief feature at an extreme advance of 8½ points. Before noon however, renewed and broader offerings effected another and more general setback steels, oils, rails and equipments losing 1 to 3 points. Among specialties the impairment ranged from 2 to 3 points. Rumors of prospective labor differences accelerated the break, which gathered additional momentum from extensive short selling. Initial rates for call money were six to seven per cent.

Regular on Riordon; Directors at Kipawa

Following yesterday's meeting of the directors of the Riordon Pulp & Paper Company, the board left last night for the Kipawa plant, which is to be completed this year and which they propose inspecting. The party will be away until Sunday evening.

At the meeting yesterday, the business was mainly of a routine order. When the matter of dividends was taken up, the board confined themselves to the declaration of the regular distributions on both the preferred and common. The preferred dividend of 1¾ per cent for the quarter will become payable September 30, to shareholders of record Sept. 24 while the common dividend of 2½ per cent is payable on August 15 to shareholders of record, Aug. 11.

Opinions from Wall Street

Laidlaw & Co.—While keeping in mind that we are in a period of frequent reactions we still feel that many of the industrials have not exhausted their advancing possibilities. It would perhaps be wise however, to be chary of those which have just had such spectacular moves.

Post & Flagg.—G. B. Post wires: I don't feel like advising purchases. However, as I have said, this is a public market and predictions are perfectly useless.

Miller & Co. wire Fairbanks, Gosselin & Co.—With the double holiday ahead there may not be a great deal to it today but in a general way we see no reason to change our view as to the future.

Pynchon & Co. wire Craig, Luther & Irvine: Sharp reaction in final hour yesterday concerned itself mainly with issues that had scored violent advances in early part of week, and represented an extension of reaction in those shares that started previous day.

Goadby & Co. wire Burnett & Co.—In our opinion the market was overbought and the reaction was due.

E. & C. Randolph.—H. K. Evans wire—The market showed less strength on the reaction yesterday than it has for some time, and the trading element has turned bearish. They have done this before without making much progress, but the peace has been so wild lately that the reaction is apt to be more severe than any of the previous ones.

Topics of the Street

Both the Montreal and New York stock markets will be closed tomorrow.

The Montreal stock market was again fairly active this morning, although the total was somewhat lower than that reported yesterday, the decrease being 1,224 shares to a total for this morning of 11,448.

There was a less broad demand noted, however, probably owing to the break in Wall Street, which tended to check bullish ardor, but the specialties and those of the standards which were prominent in the dealings.

Brompton was the most active stock on the list, with 2,155 shares, while Fishing was second with 1,520 shares, and Power third with 1,357 shares. These were the three real active stocks of the session. The balance were as follows:

Steamships pfd., 930; Spanish River, 835; Iron, 590; Smelters, 520; Wayagamack, 360; Brazilian, 350; Steel, 310; and Spanish River pfd., 290.

The action of Power shares reminded the market of the Finnegan story. Last week the price shot up about four points to 93½, and the Street jumped to the conclusion that the dividend increase was on. Only yesterday it sagged back as low as 90½, and the deduction was that the dividend increase was off. When it suddenly jumped to 93 again, it seemed certain that the dividend raise was on again.

The bull movement in Wall Street has carried so far up now that a section of the market is diligently exploring for the summit. This has proved as exciting and unsuccessful as the experience of many Alpine climbers. There always seems to be another.

Yesterday's reaction near the close was one of the many which brought forth the prediction that the summit had been reached but the Street is divided in its opinion on that score and while admitting that the real reaction must come sooner or later, believe that the period of inflation has not yet finished its work.

It is too extraordinary a market to indulge in prophecies about as many have found to their cost and market writers are becoming more careful about predicting the end of the bull movement.

A good reaction would help a lot but reactions have so far been very shallow affairs.

The action of the B. C. Fishing board in declaring the former rate of dividend for the current quarter was followed by a sharp advance in the stock so that its evident failure to increase the rate at this time was no disappointment to the buyers.

Price movements become so irresponsible in a broad general bull movement that it becomes difficult to follow their action, more particularly when an anticipated dividend increase is expected or talked about.

When the public appetite for trading is good and the imagination vivid with respect to possible speculative profits bulls are inclined to push their campaigns regardless of what boards of directors may do.

In the case of B. C. Fishing the buying might be based on a conviction of a higher rate eventually or it might be ordinary bull business. The public will have to take its choice for the present.

In some quarters very positive assertions were made that Riordon would do something better for the shareholders either in the way of a bonus or dividend increase, but the board did neither.

With a bull pool operating in the stock it is not impossible that this impression was deliberately spread for the purpose of furthering the aims of the speculators. It must be remembered, on the other hand, that like a story which becomes magnified in the repetition, rumors of dividend changes become enlarged from mere suggestion of the possibility to the positive assertion.

Unfortunately many people rush blindly into the market under such circumstances fearing to miss some profit but in the end likely losing more than they would have saved by waiting.

While British financiers and business men continue to view the severe decline in sterling exchange as possessing advantages as well as disadvantages in so far that it will help to check imports and help exports, New York bankers are more or less perturbed as it may operate, to minimize the advantage Americans would have as the result of England's crippled position in international trade as the result of the enormous burdens imposed by the war and the general disruption to business and manufacturing by war efforts.

One result is that a committee of New York bankers has been appointed to consider methods of stabilizing and checking the demoralized market for sterling. New York opinion does not seem to be very hopeful of success owing to the heavy volume of bills offering and the fact that the crop moving season is yet to come.

CONFLICT OF OPINION ON LOAN RESULT

Special Star Cable.

LONDON, July 18.—The result of the Victory loan shows satisfactory cash subscriptions, but surprisingly small conversions.

The grand total is £708,000,000, whereof £274,000,00 is cash for the funding loan, £265,000,000 cash for Victory bonds and £169,000,000 conversions.

The small conversions upset most estimates, but the cash result exceeded many expectations. The total of national war bonds alone which were convertible exceeded £1,645,000,000.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, July 18 — The Victory loan campaign is disappointing, in the opinion of several morning newspapers. Others, however, accept the statement of J. Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, that "in view of the circumstances the result is very satisfactory." The Daily Mail says:

"Doubtless millions of people are so hard hit by high prices and taxation that they cannot subscribe, but there are accumulated war and other profits whose possessors have lamentably failed to respond to the patriotic appeal."

"The results made it only too clear," says the Telegraph, "that further efforts will be needed before our finances are placed on a really sound basis."

The Labor Herald insists that the country's finances must be rehabilitated through a levy on capital.

The Daily News does not take an optimistic view of the situation, but says: "If the disappointing result of the Victory loan persuades the Government that the stage of easy borrowing is over and that the financial demand for the future will in some way have to be met out of income and capital and not by mortgaging posterity, it will not have been too dearl ybought."

"When the innumerable counter-attractions open to the investor are considered," says the Chronicle, "the loan must be considered a great success. With the removal of capital issue restrictions, every trade and industry is clamoring for new capital to set factories to work again and to reconstruct trade."

BELGIUM SPRINGS BIG STEEL COMBINATION

BRUSSELS, July 18. — Out of the ruins of Belgium's steel industry, which was systematically destroyed by the Germans, will spring one of the biggest steel combinations in the world. Ten or twelve of the most powerful corporations whose plants were laid waste have decided to pool their interests into one immense undertaking. The only thing remaining to be done is to place a valuation on the ore mines in the Briey Basin and the Duchy of Luxembourg, which will form a part of the new trust. This will require but little time.

Such a combination of companies would naturally include the Ougree-Marihaye Steel Works and the John Cockerill Works, both near Liege, and also the Providence Mills at Charleroi. Each plant in the combination will be so built as to specialize in some particular branch of the steel industry.

SENTIMENT BEARISH IN CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, July 18.—Bearish sentiment predominated in the corn market today owing largely to favorable weather conditions. The break in foreign exchange and the resulting check on export demand for foodstuffs tended also to weaken values. Beside, domestic labor troubles received widespread notice.

Opening quotations which ranged from ½ to 1¾ lower with September 192½ to 193½, and December 161¼ to 162 were followed by decided further setbacks.

Enlarged crop estimates which were current did a good deal to put oats on the downgrade. After opening a quarter to 1⅛ to 1⅜ lower, including September at 78⅜ to 79½ the market continued to descend.

Provisions were weaker and lower with grain and hogs. Labor difficulties at the stock yards here had a further depressing effect.

Chicago grain range to noon:

Corn:	Open	High	Low	Noon
July	192½	192½	191	191
Sept.	193⅛	193	190½	191⅞

BOSTON WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, July 18.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: "While the market has been somewhat quieter at the seaboard markets the undertone is very strong and prices are firmly maintained. In the west buying continues with prices fully as high as a week ago. The goods market is without material change, demand being less insistent.

WINNIPEG OATS DOWN

WINNIPEG, July 18. — Oats opened ½ lower for July at 91; October ⅝ to 1¼ lower at 85½ to 85, and December 1¼ cents lower at 83.

Barley opened quarter lower for July at 1.28⅝ and ⅜ down for October at 1.22¾.

Flax opened 9 cents lower for October, 5.70.

BAR SILVER IS FIRMER

Bar silver was firmer today at $1.05½ an ounce in New York and 54¼d in London.

LOANS AT HIGH COST

NEW YORK, July 18. — Loans on stock exchange collateral, including a large amount of Liberty Bonds, have reached a total of more than $1,500,000,000 — the highest point of the year, it was learned today.

Notes on 'change

U. S. oil experts see nothing but higher prices for high grade crude ore. Reserves were drawn upon to the extent of 22,000,000 barrels last year. In June, consumption exceeded production of 2,250,000 barrels. At this rate, there will not be a barrel of high grade crude above ground at the end of three years.

Seven thousand bales were offered at the London wool auction sales yesterday. Prices were unchanged. Inferior crossbreds were frequently withdrawn.

Figures just available will be somewhat startling to people who think "Fruit is King" in California. These figures show that the lumbering industry of California stands first in industries of the State. More than 250,000 wage earners are engaged in this work, which is about 20 per cent of the employes in the State's manufactures. The annual output of manufactured lumber in California, exclusive of custom saw mills, is put at $48,000,000.

CONDITIONS ARE BETTER FOR CROPS

Crop conditions throughout the different important agriculture areas of the Dominion are showing up better than was the case a week or ten days ago, according to latest reports received. Practically all parts of Manitoba will have an excellent crop. Some rains in the Red River valley have injured potatoes and flooded lowlands, but no place outside this section has received too much rain, and harvesting is expected to start the latter part of this month. Hay prospects in Manitoba are splendid, and while a little wheat is seen, there is no cause for anxiety.

Gratifying rains have fallen in many sections of Alberta the past day or so, which will cause a substantial improvement in grass and green feed crops.

Fire damage in some districts has been heavy, but now it is thought that danger from such a source is no longer likely owing to the moisture.

The Alberta Government will finance the purchase of fall rye seed for farmers in the drought districts. This is the first definite action to be taken and will contribute materially to a solution of the present difficulty. Fall rye is strongly recommended, as a means of providing fall and spring pasturage and still ensuring a crop a year later. It is well adapted to conditions such as prevail this year.

The most serious losses have occurred in Southern Saskatchewan where crops have been utterly killed by the drought, and is a general failure. An exodus of farm labor from the crop failure area of Saskatchewan to Manitoba where such good conditions are in evidence is now beginning, and the Saskatchewan Government is lending its aid to facilitate transportation for these people. There will be a conference in Winnipeg, July 24, to consider the question of harvest help for the prairie provinces.

Reports from the Canadian National Railway representatives along that line show many improvements in conditions during the past week. Of course, the C. N. R. does not traverse the most seriously damaged sections of Southern Saskatchewan and Alberta, where the drought injury is manifest, which accounts for the lighter list of failures than otherwise might show.

In all 231 places reported. Of these 52 gave the wheat as growing and looking fine, 44 indicated conditions good and prospects bright, 15 declared prospects for a bumper crop, 14 for an average crop, and 9 for a poor crop. Seventy agents reports rain in their districts, and 43 showed rain was needed. Thirteen agents reported damage from weather, and 18 points declared that the gain was delayed from drought.

Six points in Saskatchewan and three in Alberta report the crop a failure through drought.

COPPER AT 22 1-2 CENTS

NEW YORK, July 18.—The advance of copper to 22½c for September delivery is announced.

FLOUR ORDERS LESS, BUT MILLERS ACTIVE

Bradstreet's Weekly Trade Report.

According to Government reports the fixed price for wheat will terminate at the end of next month. The market for wheat trading will be opened next week, July 21st. No more orders for flour are expected for the Government for the balance of the present crop year. Millers, however, are very busy, completing the contracts they now have on hand. New winter wheat flour is being offered for shipment this week by Ontario millers, but so far the volume of business has been very light.

The feed outlook in the Province of Alberta is poor and it is expected that they will have to come into Quebec Province to purchase their hay. The weather has been good for harvesting the hay crop; a great portion of which is now in the barns. There is a good inquiry this week for mill feed.

The butter and egg markets are commanding higher prices, but the cheese market is easier owing to the absence of inquiries from the European markets.

All grades of hardwood flooring have gone up ten dollars per thousand feet. The scarcity of leather for the manufacture of boots and shoes is making it very difficult for manufacturers, who have taken large export orders to get them filled.

Wholesale and retail trade has been good. Money is plentiful, which makes collections all that could be desired.

ONTARIO MASONS ELECT OFFICERS

F. W. Harcourt, K.C., is Elected Provincial Grand Master

Reprinted From Yesterday's Postscript Edition.
By Canadian Press.

TORONTO, July 17.—F. W. Harcourt, K.C., was elected grand master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada, in the Province of Ontario, at the closing session of the sixty-fourth annual communication in the new temple this morning. His election was by acclamation. Lieut.-Colonel N. W. Ponton, of Belleville, defeated A. J. Young, of North Bay, in the contest for the deputy grand mastership.

The other officers elected were: Grand senior warden, T. Barber, Toronto; grand junior warden, M. Wilbee, Brantford; grand chaplain, Rev. G. H. Purchase, Toronto; grand treasurer, E. T. Malone, K.C., Toronto (unopposed); grand secretary, W. M. Logan, Hamilton (unopposed); grand registrar, G. McLeish, Toronto. Board of general purposes: R. F. Richardson, Strathroy; G. S. May, Ottawa; W. J. Drope, Grimsby; A. Cowan, Barrie, and G. Moore, Hamilton. Following the election, the officers were installed by M. W. Bro. E. T. Malone, K. C.

The next annual communication will be held at Niagara Falls, the delegates by a substantial vote preferring that town to St. Thomas.

The report of the committee on general purposes showed the attendance during the two days to be the largest in the memory of some of the oldest members of the Grand Lodge. Out of 370 lodges in the jurisdiction 337 were registered. Individual registrations numbered 1,383, representing a total vote of 2,015.

Campaign Medal Meets Approval of His Majesty

By Canadian Associated Press.

LONDON, July 18.—A general campaign medal has been approved by the King and will be issued in silver to all troops, British, Dominion, colonial and Indian and women's units, who served in the war theatre. The ribbon attached to the medal has a watered orange centre, white and black stripes on each side, and a border of royal blue.

INSURRECTION IN CROATIA SPREADING

Special Star Cable by United Press.

TRIESTE, July 18.—Reports from Agram yesterday said insurrentions were spreading throughout Croatia. Armed bands of farmers were attacking small Serbian garrisons, the despatches said.

The situation in Bosnia was reported to be similar.

Agram, located 160 miles southwest of Vienna, is the capital of Croatia and Slavonia.

BUILDING TRADES TO CONFER SATURDAY

Greatest Problem in Labor Circles Now to Ease Textile Deadlock

The fact that the Canadian Vickers company strike is settled, that the building trades trouble is wending its way towards a successful conclusion, and that other smaller labor troubles in the city are being arranged, has given an impetus to those involved in the strike of the employes of the Dominion Textile Company to secure a settlement.

It is difficult to discover where the deadlock is and who is responsible for it. Naturally the employes blame the company, and the company return the compliment, while the fact remains that for weeks little or no headway has been made in the direction of a settlement. The boilermakers of the Canadian Vickers Company returned to work yesday and it is expected that by the end of the week normal conditions will have been re-established in the big plant. Another concentrated effort will be made by the employes upon the authorities at Ottawa in an attempt to get a settlement for the textile workers. Labor here is of the opinion that the actual settlement of the difficulty should not present such a perplexing problem, provided the parties at issue have a genuine desire to effect such settlement.

While it is believed that machinery will be set in motion the first of next week by the provincial government, in order to effect a settlement so far as the female employes of the company are concerned, the problem of returning the male strikers to work has no suggested action to hitch on to it. Conditions in the situation are practically unchanged today.

J. T. Foster, president of the Trades and Labor Council yesterday, announced that final details were being arranged for the open air mass meeting on Friday evening on Fletcher's Field, when the Winnipeg strike leaders will deliver addresses. Some member of the executive of the trades and labor council will act as chairman, and the only speakers will be the Winnipeg visitors.

He said that the labor situation in Montreal was easier now than it had been in some months, and that the outlook generally was very hopeful. So far as can be learned there are no big strikes in immediate prospect, and it is believed that the breathing spell will be conducive to the future settlement of all difficulties between capital and labor in Montreal via the arbitration route, rather than submitting to the strike method.

NO CHANGE NOTED.

While the outlook is hopeful in both the horseshoers and the cigar makers strikes, these are still in effect. No change is noted in the situation as affecting the building trades but something definite is expected to grow out of the second conference with the contractors to be held on Saturday evening next in the Blue Room of the Windsor Hotel at 8 o'clock. Both sides it is understood will have definite and clear cut proposals to make and in all probability the two arguments will be cemented finaly into a solid and substantial agreement.

ARRIVED FROM TOWN WHICH DOESN'T EXIST

Boy Up Before Juvenile Court Has Strange Story of Travels

There appeared before the Juvenile Court yesterday a Jewish boy of about ten years of age, who had made his way to the police station, saying that he had been in Montreal since Monday and that he had no friends in town and no money. He told the authorities that he had boarded a train in his home town in the United States and had got off when the train reached this city. When asked for the name of the town he started from, he mentioned one which is non-existant. His story sounded doubtful to Judge Choquet, so he is being held while the Jewish authorities are trying to trace his parents.

One boy was fined $1 for selling papers without a license, and another one incurred a fine of $25 for driving a motor without license. The father of the latter boy showed some reluctance when he heard of the fine, but as it was a question of a month for the boy or paying, he eventually decided to produce the money.

Two boys who had been kept for a week for trespassing on C. P. R. property were sent home to their parents.

GOULD APPEAL CASE ENTERED

Reprinted From Yesterday's Postscript Edition.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Counsel for George J. Gould today filed notice of an appeal from the decision of Supreme Court Justice Whittaker removing their client as testamentary trustee under the last will of his father, Jay Gould. The notice was served on attorneys for Frank Jay Gould, the petitioner in the original action.

FRANCE FACING ARDUOUS TASK OF RECONSTRUCTION

Present Strike Epidemic Threatens a National Disaster

THE PEACE TREATY

Socialists of Europe Feel it Makes New Wars Possible

London Daily Telegraph-Public Ledger Cable to the Montreal Star. Copyright in U. S. and Canada. By Dr. E. J. Dillon.

PARIS, July 18.—The national festivities have happily ended, the country must now settle down to the arduous work of reconstruction, surmounting redoubtable obstacles, internal and external. Among these are the high cost of living, decrease in national production, depreciation of money, insufficiency of manual labor.

The discontent of wage-earning organizations whose inability or unwillingness to subordinate class interests to the general welfare constitute the most serious danger of the immediate future.

The strike epidemic cannot continue without bringing national disaster. Policemen recently sent in a schedule of demands which must be accorded by next Sunday, otherwise they will make a demonstration of some hours on Monday (during the "general strike" set for that day) and then will call a strike. Last Sunday electricians and gas-fitters were on the point of striking, depriving Paris of light during Monday's festivities, but the prefect of police, supported by the ministry, succeeded in appeasing the men by stating that their claims would be favorably considered.

Dissatisfaction with the Peace Treaty on the ground that it perpetrates causes of fresh wars, is growing among the Socialist bodies of continental Europe, which continue to pass resolutions calling for radical revision. Even those who profess willingness to abide by the conditions because they terminate the suicidal struggle of civilization, decare that three-fourths of President Wilson's promises to the people of the world have been unfulfilled and the remainder are water, imperfectly realized.

The disastrous fall in the productivity of European countries has not yet touched bottom, because the forces that caused it are still operative.

POLES HAVE PLAN TO PAY OFF DEBT

London Daily Telegraph-Public Ledger Cable to The Montreal Star. Copyright in U. S. and Canada. By Dr. E. J. Dillon.

PARIS, July 18.—Polish statesmen have devised an interesting combination for settling the financial difficulties arising out of the four monetary systems prevailing in the country — the ordinary German marks, the occupation marks the Austrian kronen and the Russian rubles.

The Poles demand the signature of the Entente for a billion francs (200,000,000) as a cover for the emission of five or six billion francs ($1,000,000,000 or $1,200,000,000). To meet the resulting obligations the Polish government would have recourse to sums annually transmitted to Poland by emigrants amounting to an average of two hundred million gold francs ($40,000,000).

Instead of sending this sum to Poland emigrants in the United States would deposit it in a branch office of the Polish National Bank whereupon the depositors would be credited with that amount in Poland. This gold deposit abroad would gradually extinguish the national debt.

GERM DUEL MIGHT MEAN MURDER, SAYS MINNESOTA OFFICIAL

St. Paul Attorney Declares Death of One or Other of Doctors in Germ Test Would Class as Murder

Special to The Star by United Press.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 17.—Death resulting from injection of disease germs in the body, whether experimentally or otherwise, would be murder.

This was the opinion today of H. Peterson, assistant Prosecuting Attorney, regarding the "threat" of two physicians to inoculate each other with disease and use different methods of attempting to cure themselves.

Dr. H. W. Hill, who challenged Dr. John B. Fraser, of Toronto, said he had heard no more from the latter.

In the meantime Dr. H. A. Zettel, of St. Paul had offered to take Dr. Fraser's place, but was refused by Dr. Hill.

EIGHT CANADIANS IN KING'S PRIZE

Leiut. Balfour Top Man of Team in the Second Stage

Reprinted From Yesterday's Postscript Edition.
Canadian Associated Press.

BISLEY, June 17. — Excellent weather prevailed today for the second stage of the King's prize, ten shots each at 200, 500 and 600 yards.

Lieut. Balfour made the top Canadian score, 122, making 39 at the 200 and 600 yards, and 44 at 500 yards. Mortimer made 44 at 200 and 500, and 33 at 600 yards.

Vincent fell off, making 40, 32 and 33, an aggregate of 105; Francis 38, 34, 44—116; Gerring 37, 36, 38—111; Alexander 40, 32, 33—705; Htuchison 38, 33, 37—108; Martin 39, 34, 39—112; W. Morris 41, 41, 34—116; Richardson 37, 38, 31—106; F. Spalding 40, 37, 40—112; Utton 36, 40, 41—117; Faulkner 31, 32, 31—94; Goodhouse 30, 33, 34—96; Hatch 38, 34, 43—116; McInnes 37, 37, 44—118; Newman 41, 39, 30—110; Daunt 39, 42, 32—113.

Hatch and eight others who aggregate 115, shoot off for one place in the final stage.

Balfour, Francis, Mortimer, W. Morris, F. Splanding, Utton and McInnes already are in the final.

ANOTHER STRIKE BREAKS OUT HERE

Carpenters on Parliament House Work Quit Yesterday

Another strike broke out in the city this morning, which will affect the Federal Government directly, and the comfort of every member of Parliament indirectly, for the carpenters and joiners of Henry Morgan & Co., who are engaged in making the panelling, oak doors, jambs, etc., for the interior decoration of the new Parliament House, went out on strike. If they stay out long the completion of the new home of legislation will be delayed still further.

There are fifty men employed on this Government job, and a week ago they made a demand for an eight hour day and 65 cents an hour, instead of the 55 cents an hour and a nine hour ten minutes day which they now have.

When the pay envelopes were distributed the men expected to find the increase in them, but they were disappointed, and decided to go on strike at seven o'clock yesterday.

A delegation of three men is in consultation with the firm, who state that they are in communication with the authorities at Ottawa on the matter and have not yet received a reply.

BRITISH MINERS REFUSE PLEDGE

Won't Agree to Work Pending Full Inquiry

Reprinted From Yesterday's Postscript Edition.

KESWICK, Eng., July 17. — The miners' conference decided almost unanimously today to co-operate with the Government if it is prepared to undertake to put into operation the economies in the coal industry suggested in the first report of Justice Sankey, and to introduce legislation for the nationalization of the coal mines.

By an overwhelming majority the conference decided not to give the pledge asked for by Bonar Law, the Government spokesman in the House of Commons, in the debate on the coal question in the House Monday night.

Mr. Bonar Law announced at that time that if the leaders of the miners would undertake that there should be no stoppages or strikes in the meantime, the Government would accept the suggestion of William Brace, president of the South Wales Miners' Federation, that a committee of inquiry be appointed and that the six shilling increase in the price of coal be postponed for three months.

FAMOUS JAPANESE SCHOLAR IS DEAD

Dr. Inouye Succumbed Suddenly in India

Correspondence of Associated Press.

TOKIO, July 6.—Dr. Enryo Inouye, a widely known scholar in Buddhistic philosophy, is dead at Dairen after completing a journey to India, where he pursued further researches into Hindu thought.

Dr. Inouye has been popularly known as the "ghost doctor" owing to the great interest taken by him in studying supernatural phenomena. He was president of a school of philosophy in Tokio which he founded, and was a popular lecturer on philosophy. He had travelled extensively in America and Europe.

He was giving a lecture at Dairen when he was attacked by congestion of the brain and died.

FREEHOLD, N. J., July 18.—Edward O'Brien, charged with the murder of Gardiner S. Hull, his employer, a New York stationer, was discovered yesterday tearing his blankets and bedding and tying them into a rope, according to jail officials. A watch was stationed outside his door.

AVOID ALUM IN FOOD

Baking Powder is one of the most important food ingredients. Alum or other injurious acids are frequently used by some concerns to lower the cost of production.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

Contains No Alum

It is a pure phosphate baking powder and is guaranteed to be the best, purest and most healthful baking powder possible to produce.

W. Matthew Williams, in "Chemistry of Cooking," says: "Phosphates are the bone-making material of food and have something to do with building up of brain and nervous matter."

There's No "False Economy" in Buying

United Clothes

They Meet All "Style" Demands

THERE are only three things that you will look for when you buy a suit of clothes—Style, Fit and Quality. Yet the added inducements behind "United" Clothes are Value and Satisfaction.

Value in that you save up to $10 on any suit that you select, because you buy direct from the maker. You don't pay any middlemen's profits.

Satisfaction in knowing that your suit is correct in every detail, that the reputation of our entire organization is back of every suit we sell. Try this way of "suiting" yourself.

"United" Clothes Satisfy As Well As Save.

LABOR RULINGS FOR ALL WORLD

Weighty Questions to Come Up at Great Conference in October

EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Conference Called in Accordance with Peace Treaty Terms

Special to Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Plans of the international labor conference, created by the Peace Treaty, when it convenes here for its first meeting next October, were outlined today by Dr. James T. Shotwell, American representative on the organizing committee of the conference.

This meeting, he declared, will be the first step taken in accordance with the Peace Treaty, on behalf of labor. Dr. Srotwell, who is head of the history division of the American Peace Commission, commented on these four major questions to be taken up by the conference:

1.—An eight hour day throughout the world. "In the treaty all powers have agreed to accept the principle so it can be applied by each nation and prepare a detailed treaty to make the obligations reciprocal."

2.—State help to remedy unemployment. "The Peace Treaty," he said, "provides that each nation provide remedial legislation with reference to unemployment. The conference in October will discuss definite laws."

WOMEN IN INDUSTRY.

3.—Women in industry. "This is to be taken up with reference to three separate problems, "Dr. Shotwell stated. "First, safeguarding the health of mothers obliged to work for their living. It is proposed to prohibit their work for a certain period before and after childbirth. To provide for a mothers' maintenance during this period she is not permitted to work each nation will be required to create a maternity fund. The second will be enforcement of prohibition of night work for women and third consideration of women in dangerous trades."

4.—Children in industry. "The main question involved here," he said, "is the prohibition of child labor up to fourteen years of age. There is a definite clause in the Peace Treaty stating that no country shall be asked or required as a result of any of these annual labor conferences to lessen any of the protection accorded to its workers by law.

The organizing committee, Dr. Shotwell stated, has cabled a long series of questions to each member of the League of Nations, about its existing and proposed laws on these matters. Answers are now arriving.

Four delegates from each nation in the League of Nations will be sent to the conference he said—two representing the government, one representing capital, and the other representing labor. They may be accompanied by technical experts, who will not have a vote.

FORD'S MEMORY NEEDS SANDPAPER

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., July 18.—Henry Ford's fourth day on the witness stand in his $1,000,000 libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune was much like Wednesday in the subject matter and in the prolonged multiplying of questions to obtain answers. This was true even of answers which he returned Wednesday but which apparently he had forgotten overnight. He repeated such words as "preparedness," "over-preparedness," and "militarism," in such apparent disassociation with the questions that Attorney Elliott G. Stevenson, counsel for the Tribune, occupied pages of transcript in trying to straighten the testimony into coherence.

Mr. Ford's conduct on the stand was explained by two of his publicity men, Joseph O'Neill and Wm. J. Cameron, who were with Mr. Ford and his personal attorney, Alfred Lucking, after court when Mr. Lucking asked Mr. Ford if he had actually forgotten who Benedict Arnold was, as he testified.

Mr. Ford said that he had not, but when asked the question he was thinking of something else of a man in the shop named Arnold, "who used to write a little." The lawyer then urged him to keep his mind on the testimony. The story was confirmed by Mr. Lucking.

Scattered through his testimony it appeared that Mr. Ford ascribed the world war to a variety of causes including bankers, munitions makers alcoholic drink, kings and their henchmen, and school books.

John Reed, a magazine writer of New York and recent Russian Bolshevik emissary to the United States who was indicated under the Espionage Act, disclosed the alleged facts in an article published in 1916. It was entitled "industry miracle make" which Attorney Lucking characterized as "much Reed and little Ford." The reading of this article cut severely into the time that Mr. Ford was on the stand and arguments on admissibility of evidence among counsel cut in much more.

Ford criticized school books as glorifying wars and the heroes of them, thus instilling the military spirit in the youngsters.

Attorney Stevenson introduced the congressional records report of the congressional committee examination of General Weaver on coastal fortifications. In the Ford advertisement entitled "Concerning Preparedness" written by Delavingne, General Weaver appeared to say that an addition of 11,000 men would give the country a perfect system of coast defense.

Mr. Stevenson said that the Weaver testimony was so manipulated as to make General Weaver say this, while as a matter of fact the full report showed that the contrary was true of his statement to the committee.

"If that is so, I am sorry," said Mr. Ford. "Mr. Delavigne was supposed to publish facts."

The Detroit manufacturer, in explaining why he forgot so many things, said that hundreds of persons visit the factory, and that in those days he talked to many of them, making casual remarks which passed from his head almost as soon as made.

ANNIVERSARY MASS.

DOWNEY.—An Anniversary High Mass was sung in St. Ann's Church, July 18th, for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Arthur Downey, who died July, 1914. R. I. P.

THE Greatest Clean-Up SALE on Record IN EVERY DEPARTMENT OF Wilders New Store

Yellow Tag Days

Yellow Tag Days

LIMITED

323 to 327 BLEURY ST (Opposite the IMPERIAL THEATRE)

Will Commence on Monday!

Real "SNAPS" in high-class Household Furnishings, that can never be duplicated, will go to the first buyers.

"NOW IS THE TIME"—Such an array of magnificent productions will be swept into this "greatest-of-all" outflowes of Bargains—"SNAPS" from a range so extensive that it is impossible to enumerate each item, in this small space.

One Moment, Please! This "Clean-up Sale" is a Big Money-Saver to You! — Watch the "Yellow Tag."

Throughout every department of Furniture—Household Linens—and even many lines in the Basement, the YELLOW TAG has been placed, and is marked in plain figures, showing the old prices and the actual reductions specially for this Clean-up Sale.

"OTHER IMPORTANT REASONS"

Owing to the building not being completed in time, many of the lines have become over-crowded, and must now be cleared out. Since April 15th, the manufacturers have made three advances, which means that prices today are actually 40% higher.

During this sale you can walk into any department, look at the plain figures on the "Yellow Tags," and, in many cases, buy at lower prices than what the manufacturers are now asking.

WISE BUYERS! ACT QUICKLY—An immense stock of beautiful goods will be cleared out at prices that positively cannot be repeated!

We extend a most hearty invitation to the Home Lovers looking for remarkable cuts and exceptional values throughout the extensive range of Chesterfields—Living Room—Dining Room—Bed Room Suites—Chairs—Wicker goods, odd pieces,—in fact everything required to complete any portion of the modern home.

The early buyers will get the first selection of this great sale and extraordinary discounts. Commencing Monday, we will advertise some of the striking exceptions that are now offered. Many of the early buyers will secure real money-saving bargains. You can stroll through any department, see the Tags and also the most beautiful examples of fine furniture created by the master furniture designers of the continent.

Extraordinary Specials!

150 Samples—Cast Iron White Enamelled Beds in many sizes. This large assortment will be cleared out at a special discount of 50%, no matter what prices they are now marked at. All these samples are marked in plain figures.

WITH THE VETERANS

Military Queries and Answers

In this Veterans' Department matters of pay, gratuities, pensions, vocational training, repatriation and all other subjects of interest to the returned soldier and his dependents will be dealt with. Enquiries in these matters, if briefly stated, will be given consideration. Brief, interesting letters, truthful and fair, are invited. Address correspondence to the Veterans' Column, Montreal Daily Star.

MAY TAKE COURSE.

C. N., St. Annes Military Hospital.—I enlisted in 1915 at the age of 16. I would like to know if when I am discharged from the hospital I will be entitled to the 6 months course, if so, what pay per month would I receive?

A.—You will be entitled to a vocational course. If single you will be paid $60 per month whilst taking the course. Write to the D. V. O., Drummond Building, Room 109.

TWO QUESTIONS.

L. J. C., Esplanade Ave.—I enlisted on January 31, 1916. After serving 20 months in England I was returned to Canada on March 20, 1918. Was discharged May 31, 1918. 1. How much gratuity am I entitled to? 2. Can I get the $35 for clothing, less the $8 which I got on discharge?

A.—1. Five months. 2. Yes, if you turn in your full kit and equipment.

NO GRATUITY.

M. C. T., Gordon Ave., Verdun.—I enlisted on February 7, 1916. Went to Valcartier Camp. Was discharged on January 25, 1917. Am I entitled to any gratuity, if so, how much, and where would I have to apply to receive it?

A.—No—as you were not in uniform for one full year.

NUMBERS MIXED UP.

T. M., Plymouth Grove.—I enlisted in February 1916 with the 69th. Served about 6 weeks with that unit and then was transferred to the 148th. Was given a new number for each regiment. Proceeded overseas and was transferred to the 42nd in France in February, 1917. Was told to use my first regimental number. Served with that unit until January 1919. Returned to Canada and was discharged on July 7, 1919. When I got my discharge I was paid $70 gratuity, but did not receive any clothing allowance. According to my pay book I should have drawn $152, being for gratuity, clothing allowance and credit. I think there is some mix-up in the two numbers. Will you try and see if you can do something for me? How much gratuity am I entitled to?

A.—You should receive 6 months' gratuity acording to your own figures. I will try to help you if you send in your L. P. C. and other documents, also a statement of your service.

REFERRED TO OTTAWA.

D. R., Wellington St.—My son was killed in action October 1, 1918. I have not received any effects or pay belonging to him yet. I received a form on December 17, 1918, which I filled out and returned. On May 1 I sent my new address and received his death report and since then I have heard nothing further. Would you please advise me how to go about this matter?

A.—Write the officer administering deceased Soldiers' Estates, Ottawa.

PAPERS WERE STOLEN.

"One Wro Didn't," Blue Bonnets.—On being discharged I received £15 gratuity. I only got as far as England while the war was on. I have over one year's service. I have been told by the Officer Paying Imperial Pensions that I am entitled to a class "C" badge. 1. Can you tell me if the Canadian Government is going to make up for the loss in gratuity to Canadians who enlisted in the R. A. F. in Canada, if so, where could I apply for it, and what amount of gratuity would I be entitled to as a 2nd Lieutenant? 2. Would I be able to get the badge if I applied for it, having no papers now to show that I have been in the R. A. F., as they were stolen in Hamilton, and where should I apply for same? 3. Am I entitled to join the G. W. V. A. and where could I apply for admission?

A.—1. It has not been decided to make up the difference. 2. Write the Officer Paying Imperial Pensions, Ottawa. 3. Apply to the Secretary, No. 2 Bishop st.

TWO SONS ENLISTED.

Mrs. M. M. N., Grosvenor Ave.—My two sons enlisted in April, 1915. Went overseas and to France. After being wounded both were sent home and discharged. On enlistment they each assigned me $35. I also received separation allowance from both. When my eldest son applied for the gratuity for me, I got a paper from Ottawa to fill out, which I did and returned. On May 15th, I received word from Ottawa that I was not eligible for war gratuity, as I had not been receiving separation allowance under my eldest son's name. I wrote back to Ottawa, advising that both my sons had signed for their separation allowance, but it must have been granted under the youngest son's name. So far I have heard nothing further. Am I entitled to the gratuity, and, if so, what further steps can I take to get it?

A.—I will make an effort to have Ottawa straighten the matter out.

DESERVES GRATUITY.

Curious, 2nd Ave., Rosemount.—I enlisted on November 29, 1916. Returned from France, April 10, 1919. Was a little over 17 years old when I enlisted. 1. How many months' gratuity am I entitled to? 2. Am I entitled to a vocational training course?

A.—1. If you were discharged on or after April 10, 1919, you are eligible for 5 months' gratuity. 2. Yes, apparently; apply to room 109, Drummond Bldg.

FOR HIGHLANDERS.

Royal Highlanders Reserve will hold a business and social meeting at the Armoury, Bleury street, on Tuesday evening next, July 22nd, at 8.30 o'clock. All members are earnestly requested to be present. It is now proposed to hold the postponed picnic on Saturday, August 23rd.

Veterans' Rifle Club.—A Returned Soldiers' Rifle Club has been formed by Calgary Veterans.

Windsor an Aerial Station.—Windsor has been chosen as one of the stopping places for the proposed air route from Toronto to Detroit.

Coming Trek to the North.—Another committee of veterans has investigated Peace River lands, and reports that portions of it are suitable for settlement. As a result, there will be a trek to the north. It is satisfying to know that the situation up here is not so bad as was first painted by the spies sent out by the veterans' organizations.—Calgary Herald.

Owing to the fact that real estate dealers in certain parts of New Brunswick are endeavoring to exploit returned soldiers by securing options on farms and attempting to sell at prices out of proportion to value, the Chairman of the Soldier Settlement Board has issued instructions to the St. John office that no land may be purchased by the Board through the medium of real estate operators.

The Board's determination is to protect to the fullest measure the returned soldier interests, and no prices will be paid for lands beyond the actual value for farming purposes.—Canadian Daily Record.

Departmental Activity.—In order to make it easier for employers of labor to co-operate with the Soldiers' Re-Establishment Department in placing returned soldiers in employment, a complete list of the names of soldiers registering for employment will be issued fortnightly. These lists will be sent to all citizens and employers cooperating with the Department.

No Enemy Immigrants.—No immigrants from enemy countries will be allowed to enter Canada without a special permit, according to a recent Order-in-Council. No time limit is set for the new regulation and no objection wil be found should it be decided to make it for ten or twenty years.—Calgary Herald.

State Loans for Soldiers.—Opinion among returned soldiers is pretty sharply divided upon the expediency of the State granting loans to returned soldiers who may not be desirous of taking up farm land for settlement. There is argument on both sides, though it should always be remembered that the Government of Canada is primarily concerned with the settlement of population upon the land.

War Memorials.—We should not lose the opportunity of enriching our national life by the erection of War Memorials which will appeal to the aesthetic sense and finer emotions of the people, and be worthy to rank with the famous memorials in all parts of the world. Such would be priceless assets in the years to come.—Halifax Chronicle.

LIBRARY WILL CLOSE.
