Farewell Recital

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF

LADY DRUMMOND
LADY VAN HORNE
LADY GALT

LADY SHAUGHNESSY
MRS. S. GREENSHIELDS
MISS SKELTON

Willie Eckstein

The phenomenal boy pianist, whose playing has caused such a furore in local musical circles during the past year, will give a Farewell Recital, in

Karn Hall, on Friday, May 19th, '05

He leaves immediately after the recital for New York, for the purpose of completing arrangements for his American concert tour next season. He will then go to Atlantic City, where he will spend the summer, giving a few Recitals.

Arrangements are now being made to have him appear as soloist with the Boston Symphony, Damrosch, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati and other leading orchestras. As soon as all arrangements are completed for the American tour, he will sail for Europe, where he will make a preliminary tour during the months of October, November and December, making his American debut in New York in January.

The subscription list is now open at Nordheimer's. Sale of seats opens to subscribers on Saturday, May 13th, and to the public on Monday, May 15th.
