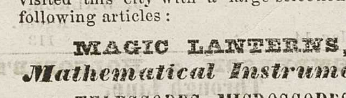
SPECIAL NOTICE.

THE SIGHT PRESERVED!



Blindness Prevented!

MESSRS. ROSENTHAL & MICHAEL, the Celebrated OPTICIANS, from the city of Berlin, Prussia, beg to announce to the Citizens of Montreal and vicinity that they have visited this city with a large selection of the following articles:

MAGIC LANTERNS,
Mathematical Instruments,
TELESCOPES, MICROSCOPES,
Double and Single Theatre Perspectives,
OPERA AND EYE GLASSES,
FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,
And, also, a large assortment of their Celebrated
SCOTCH PEBBLE SPECTACLES,

Which they offer for Sale at their Rooms,
No. 18 Great St. James Street,
Over Gibb & Co's, next door to the Bank of British North America.

OFFICE HOURS from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.

The Spectacles not alone protect the eye, but also strengthen the sight. Their excellence has been acknowledged by several of the most celebrated Oculists of Europe and other countries, who have recommended them as the most suitable and useful for the Eye, of which fact all purchasers can satisfy themselves personally.

Those Glasses correspond so thoroughly with the curve of the Eye, that the light coming from all directions is refracted fully as strongly as through the centre of the glass. This allows persons of weak sight to follow the most imminent employment, either by day or candle light, without causing the least sensation or drawing of the sight, which common glasses generally produce.

TESTIMONIALS.

HAMILTON, November, 1856.

We, the undersigned, having used the Optical Instruments and Scotch Pebble Spectacles of the manufacture of Rosenthal & Michael, and having thoroughly tested their powers and qualities, do certify that we have found them to be good, and can recommend them to the public as well worthy of consideration. We can particularly recommend the Scotch Pebble Spectacles, for the protection which they afford the Eye, and the increased clearness and power of vision.

JOHN O. HATT,
JAS. KIRKPATRICK,
D. WRIGHT,
JOHN MITCHELL,
ROBT. W. KERR.

QUEBEC, 10th October, 1856.

I hereby certify that I have purchased, from Messrs. Rosenthal & Michael, a pair of Scotch Pebble Spectacles, which have given me much satisfaction. I can safely recommend them as able Opticians.

E. BOWEN, D.C.L.

QUEBEC, 10th October, 1856.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the good effects produced on my eyesight from the use of a pair of Scotch Pebble Spectacles, purchased from Messrs. Rosenthal & Michael and can confidently recommend them to all whose sight is at all impaired.

CATS AND DOGS;
NATURE'S WARRIORS and GOD'S WORKERS. Beautifully Illustrated, with Coloured Engravings.

"If these pages for the young help to give them ideas sufficiently just to prevent in after life a useless and dangerous collision with the Word of God, in more mature study of His Works; above all, if they assist in ever so small a measure to form the habit of looking not only for God in all things, but at all things in God, which is the more Scriptural expression, as well as the higher attitude of mind, the writer will not have been employing a few of her leisure hours in vain."—Extract from the author's preface.

Provincial Parliament.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Toronto, May 23, 1857.

Mr. Loranger presented a petition from J. Donegani, of Montreal, Esquire, which set forth that he is the proprietor of property in Capital Street, Montreal, adjoining the property of the Harbor Commissioners, connected with the property of Mr. Wm. Daw, by a gallery crossing over Capital Street. The Harbor Commissioners and Mr. Coleman had been indicted on account of this gallery, and a verdict rendered against them, which was sustained by three judges. After this judgment, a clause was inserted in a Bill providing for the management of the harbor, authorizing them to retain this gallery—a matter totally foreign to the sail Bill, and in violation of the rights of the petitioner. Mr. Loranger moved to suspend the rule, in order to enable him to introduce a Bill to abolish the clause referred to.

Hon. Mr. Cameron said the House should pause before they consented to this motion. The clause had not been introduced by the Harbor Commissioners, but at his own suggestion and with the full concurrence of the Private Bill Committee; and its object was not to affect the rights of any individual, but rather to protect the rights of all persons concerned.

Mr. Holton said the private rights of Mr. Donegani were as much preserved by this clause as they ever were.

After some discussion, the motion was granted, and a Bill introduced and read a first time.

THE ESTIMATES.

On the motion of Hon. Mr. Cayley, the House proceeded with the further consideration of the Resolutions reported from Committee on Supply, on the item of £200 pension to Widow Antrobus.

Mr. Mackenzie said that the late husband of widow Antrobus received a pension out of the public pursé for many years. She had received a pension of $800 a year for many years, and as she had no claim to it he should move that it be discontinued.

Motion lost—yeas 9, nays 57.

On the item of £400 to the late Assistant Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

Mr. Mackenzie moved that it be struck from the estimates, as Mr. Feribault had been abundantly compensated for his services, having been paid at the rate of £550 a year.

Motion lost—yeas 18, nays 50.

On the item of £200 to Col. Richard Bullock,

Mr. A. A. Dorion moved that no new pensions ought to be granted in the present state of the finances of the country, and that therefore this item be not passed.

Mr. Sidney said that Colonel Bullock was a native Canadian, and had greatly distinguished himself during the American war. He afterwards gave up a valuable office in 1837 to take charge of the militia, and having placed the militia on a proper footing, he was again dismissed without any provision being made for him, and now in his old age this man who had served his country in the hour of need was actually in want of food and clothing. He thought it would be a burning shame if now, when this country was prosperous, this old soldier, a native Canadian, was left to want.

Attorney General Macdonald could add nothing to what had been said by the gentleman who had just spoken, but to show the House the valuable services rendered by this old soldier, he would read the modest statement which he had laid before the Government, and which was fully corroborated in every particular. Mr. Macdonald then read the statement which showed that Colonel Bullock had taken an active and distinguished part through the whole war of 1812, and had held a high and important position during the rebellion. He thought that this was a case of extreme hardship, and he had no doubt the justice of the claim would be allowed by the House.

Mr. Holton was opposed to pensions, but thought that this was a special case, and deserving of consideration. This gentleman had been dismissed from the office of Adjutant General of militia to suit a political arrangement of the friends of the Attorney General West, and this showed the impropriety of mixing that office up with political affairs.

Mr. Dorion said that he was quite ready to admit that this was a special case, and under these circumstances he should withdraw his motion. At the same time he must say that he would like to see the system of granting pensions placed on a different footing to what it was at present. One day they were asked to grant a pension to a really deserving person, and on another day to give one to a person who had no claim whatever to it. As regarded the public servants, some such plan might be adopted as that which prevailed in England—namely, deducting from their salaries a sufficient per centage to enable the Government to give them a retiring allowance when they reached a certain age. Rather than that the present unsatisfactory system should continue any longer, he would have no objection to raise the salaries of the officers for the purpose of deducting the per centage and creating a superannuation fund.

Hon. Mr. Macdonald thanked the hon. members for Montreal for the spirit they evinced on this occasion, and with regard to the valuable suggestions made by the last speaker, he would [illegible] sideration of the Government, and the first step to the establishment of this system was the Civil Service bill introduced by Mr. Spence.

Hon. Mr. Drummond contended that provision should be made for the officers of the Government in their old age and trusted that next session a measure would be introduced by the Government by which this would be secured.

Mr. Mackenzie admitted the claim of Col. Bullock to be a just one, believing that he had always endeavoured to do his duty according to what he thought to be right.

Mr. Gamble said that all the acts of this House should be made in the cause of right and sound morality and hon. members should be made aware that the Government had been obliged to deprive Col. Bullock of his situation as Adjutant-General on account of utter incapability caused by his own misconduct.

Hon. Mr. Cayley said that the hon. member for South York should also have recollected that Col. Bullock's infirmity had been chiefly caused by a wound received in the service of his country.

Hon. Mr. Merritt said it was owing to the services of Col. Bullock and those who had served with him that we had a country at all.

The motion in amendment being withdrawn the various items were concurred in.

On the motion for concurrence in the various grants to hospitals and other charities amounting to £44,150,

Mr. Mackenzie moved, in amendment, "That it be resolved that the appropriation of public moneys in the support of charitable institutions under the exclusive control of religious sects is wrong in principle, productive of injurious consequences, and entails a constantly increasing charge upon the public revenue, and that in view thereof the report of the Committee of Supply be recommitted, for the purpose of leaving out all grants of a sectarian character. He said this was a copy of a rosolution moved last year by Mr. Brown, who was not now in the House.

The motion being put was lost.—Yeas 7. Nays 55.

Mr. Mackenzie then moved, "That no grant of money from the treasury be paid over to any hospital, society, institution, corporation, nursery or other charitable institution or commission, until a full, true and particular account in detail be transmitted to the Secretary of the Province, showing the whole receipts and expenditure of such hospital, society, institution, corporation, nursery or other charitable institution or commission for the year previous to such grant, and that such report be laid before this House within fifteen days of the commencement of next session."

Motion lost—Yeas 5, Nays 43.

On the item of £1,250 to various public institutions.

The Inspector General moved to strike out the £250 to the School of Medicine, Toronto.

Mr. Mackenzie considered this a most mysterious and extraordinary course for the Government to pursue. Some secret influence had been at work, which was, perhaps, explained by the fact that the votes of the Hon. Mr. Rolph were now given to the government.

Mr. Aikins said he would like to have some explanation from the Inspector General, of the reason for the withdrawal of this grant.

The Inspector General said there were difficulties with regard to this vote, which precluded him from keeping it on the estimates.

Mr. Aikins said the professors of the institution had sent in a petition for the grant.

Mr. Mackenzie said there was something vindictive in the conduct of Mr. Rolph in asking the government to withdraw the grant, because he was no longer connected with the institution.

The yeas and nays were demanded—for the motion, 40, against it 8.

Hon. Mr. Rolph said that the application for this grant by those who pretended to be the Toronto School of Medicine was a fraud and imposition on the public. During the last session only five students attended their lectures. He would not venture to use language in the House which would express his feelings in the matter. He went on to make some further statements, which were inaudible in the gallery.

Mr. Mackenzie moved "that the Government has asked and this House has voted a grant of $1000 in aid of a public institution known as the Toronto School of Medicine, which grant has now been revoked at the instance of the Government, and that the grant of $1000 to the School of Medicine at Montreal be also struck out."

The Speaker said the first part of the motion was irregular. The House having declared that the item should be struck out, it could not again be discussed. The hon. member might, if he chose, attach a condition to the grant to the School of Medicine at Montreal.

Mr. Mackenzie then moved to add the following proviso to the grant—namely, that no part of $1000 should be paid over until an equal sum be granted and paid to the Toronto School of Medicine.

Mr. Holton could not see why the Montreal School of Medicine should be deprived of its grant because two schools of medicine at Toronto chose to quarrel.

Mr. Aikins said that Dr. Rolph had mistaken the facts. The Toronto School of Medicine was formed in 1847, and was chartered in 1851; and Dr. Rolph having had a misunderstanding with the other Professors, arising from his overbearing conduct, had left it. The President of the Toronto School of Medicine, by virtue of that office, had a seat at the University Board, and no one knew better than the hon. member for Norfolk, the position which was held by the Toronto School of Medicine. He maintained that the seal and charter were in the possession of those opposed to Dr. Rolph.

Mr. Daly said that the Toronto School of Medicine was formed in 1854, and it was only Dr. Rolph's name which gave a character to the school at all.

Mr. Brown said this circumstance showed the absurdity of giving aid to such private institutions. Either aid should only be given to public schools or withheld altogether.

Mr. Hartman observed that it further shewed the absurdity of attempting to decide by legislation what was true in science any more than what was true in theology.

The motion was then put and lost. Yeas 10, Nays 49.

Mr. MacKenzie then put the same motion, again substituting the word Kingston for Montreal.

Lost—Yeas 7, Nays 46.

The various items were then concurred in.

On the motion for the concurrence in the various items of contingent expenses of the administration of justice,

Mr. MacKenzie moved to disallow the payment of £200 to T. L. Terrill, Provincial Secretary, for professional services rendered between 1852 and 1855.

This motion was ruled out of order, the money having been voted and paid.

Mr. MacKenzie then moved that no part of the said sum or of any of the public funds shall be paid to members of the Legislature, as Queen's counsel, nor should any old claims for former services be allowed to members of the executive council, and that the payment of £200 to T. L. Terrill, Provincial Secretary, should not have been paid.

Mr. Sanborn thought that some explanation ought to be given as to this payment of £200. He was unaware of the Provincial Secretary having performed any such services.

Mr. Terrill said that whenever this matter fairly came before the House he would give every explanation that could be desired.

Mr. Brown contended that some explanation should be given of this item either by the Provincial Secretary or the Inspector-General.

Mr. Papin could not understand why the Provincial Secretary should remain silent when asked for explanation. Surely no time was more suitable for him to do so than the present.

Mr. Stuart concurred in the remarks which had fallen from the hon. member for L'Assomption. The subject was one on which the representatives of the people had a right to ask for information, it being no other than the expenditure of the people's money.

The Provincial Secretary said that he still thought this was not the proper time for him to offer explanations; but, had certain hon. members not shown a disposition to treat him unfairly, he would not have hesitated to give it without delay. The fact was, that this grant was for professional services rendered in breaking up a bold and extensive gang of forgers and counterfeiters, who were located in the eastern section of the Province. He had made this claim before he was a member of the Government, and it had been reported upon by the late Attorney General, (Hon. Mr. Drummond), although not in the way that he had expected, or that he had a right to expect. Other persons who had been similarly employed had been treated much more liberally.

Mr. Sanborn denied that the Provincial Secretary had any right to complain of the treatment which he had received at the hands of the members of the House. Had it not been for the extreme indulgence of the House, matters could have been brought up which must have led to his resignation or removal from office. The explanation which had at last been extorted was scarcely satisfactory; the inference to be drawn from it being that the claim for remuneration was not advanced until he found himself in a position to enforce it. It was a fact that the Provincial Secretary had not been employed altogether in the prosecution of the wrongdoers he had referred to; he (Mr. S.) knew that in several instances he had been employed in defending them.

The House then adjourned until Tuesday.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1857.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Toronto, 26th May.

In the Legislative Council the St. Lawrence Dock and Wharfage Bill was read a third time.

The Bill for the security of the lives of passengers on Steamboats was considered in Committee, and the Committee reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again.

The Bill for the punishment of Juvenile Offenders passed through Committee; also the Bill to diminish the expense of administration of Criminal Justice.

In the Assembly, on motion of Mr. Holton, it was resolved that, during the rest of the Session, the House should meet from 10 to 1 o'clock on Wednesday and Friday.

A message was read from his Excellency, announcing his intention of giving his assent to bills.

The Judicature bill was then taken up on the concurrence of the House in the report of the Committee of the Whole, and the discussion continued till the House rose at six o'clock.

Seat of Government.—While we cannot agree with the suggestions of our correspondent, "One Interested," from respect to him, we willingly give his letter, on this subject, a place in our columns, leaving our readers to form their own opinions as to the expediency of the people of Montreal appearing as interested parties in a cause, which ought, and which, we trust, will be decided irrespective of all merely local interests and on one ground alone, that of the common advantage and convenience of the entire population of Canada, present and future.

Courtesy demanded a compliance, on the part of our City Council, with His Excellency's request that a memorial should be prepared, and forwarded by them to the Colonial Minister, containing a statement of the facts and circumstances which so eminently point to Montreal—whether viewed in a geographical, political, military, commercial, or social aspect—as the true centre of Canadian affairs; and, consequently, as the natural and proper capital of the Province. Courtesy towards His Excellency, we say, demanded a compliance with his request, on the part of our City Council; but had no such request been made, we should have considered any formal, ex parte statement of the claims of Montreal to the much-coveted honor, as alike bad policy and bad taste.

In this modern "Judgment of Paris," Montreal, in our opinion, will leave Venus, Minerva and Juno—beauty, wisdom and strength—as advocates, and if she have not the "golden apple" (so meanly stolen from her in 1849) restored to her, on the "documentary evidence"—first, of her indisputable title to it, and second, of the flagrant larceny by which she lost its possession—furnished at His Excellency's request, no mere "oral testimony," such as our correspondent suggests, could be of any avail.

Montreal is in quite a different position from her rivals in this contest. Her right to the Seat of Goyernment was conceded in 1843, by the only Court in Canada competent to decide the question—and after the most elaborate and voluminous pleadings of all her rival claimants. All Montreal now claims, is the confirmation of her title by the Imperial authority, and the restoration of her stolen property. And even this she demands, not in the interest of her own citizens, but in that of the whole people of Canada. She can only weaken her position by any mere selfish personal appeal to her judge, and by praying for that as a favor, which the people of Canada, not the citizens of Montreal alone, have already decided to be her just and legitimate right.

The Estimates.—The Parliamentary reports bring us the usual careless and languid debates upon the passage of the estimates, an annual ceremony which appears to be kept up only out of superstitious respect for the form, which once clothed the substance of the now extinct Parliamentary authority.

Several divisions took place upon the second readings of the items of the estimates, and the varying number of members present, from forty-nine up to about ninety, testified to the little interest felt in what was going on. Mr. McKenzie was almost the only speaker on these grants of the public money, Mr. Brown occasionally putting a question, but speedily subsiding, oppressed by the universal apathy. The truth is, that nothing is more disheartening than the attempt to resist any portion of this annual bill. The sauciest of exorbitant cabbies, demanding double fare, is not more peremptory than the finance minister of the day, and as cabby usually has a chorus of his fellows to put his recalcitrant customer out of countenance, so it happens in Parliament that the Chancellor of the Exchequer has the assistance of the most hideous noises, which can be cotrived out o the accoustic conveniencies of the chamber, to drown the voice of any statistician who may be inconveniently curious. In fact, it may well be affirmed that the passage of the estimates is an occasion for a great deal of noise without the slightest real business. The minister might as well pass his printed list on his own authority as submit it to the useless ordeal which it has to go through.

Yet the estimates might, it would seem, furnish worthy matter for serious consideration; for the constant augmentation of our public expenditure is going on with a rapidity which threatens very serious consequences unless means can be found to check it. It is not quite unworthy of reflection that, to go back no farther, during the four years from 1853 to 1856, both inclusive, the cost of our government rose from £760,553 to no less than £1,509,433, and that the estimates for the coming year—and we know how the fact always exceeds the estimates—still show an advance of £20,647. There has been no increase of population within this period to justify any such profusion, and it is to be feared that there is as little solid reason in the growth of Canadian wealth. No doubt wealth has been really enhanced by our late enterprises; but he must be a sanguine man who can believe that it is now as easy to pay £2 for taxes as it was four years ago to pay £1.

It may be supposed that this enlargement of our financial burdens arises altogether out of the miscalculations of Grand Trunk costliness, into which the Province was betrayed by Mr. Hincks; but, in fact, the augmentation of interest has made but a very small portion, so far, of the forces which bring about the constant expansion. In 1853, the interest of the debt was £215,442; in 1856, £225,223; so that out of £760,000 of augmentation £750,000 had crept up, chiefly by larger expenditures than had formerly been found necessary to obtain the same services. The review of a few departments during the period of four years will be enough to show the way the money goes and has been going, and it is only by such a retrospect that any true conception of the progress of our finances can be arrived at. No one can look at any particular item and say whether the outlay was required at all, or if required, whether it was not extravagant; but it is not so difficult to judge whether anything has happened in four years to pile up our expenditures to the present point. Going over, then, some of the heads of account, we find that in the department immediately connected with the Governor General—the Private Secretary's—the expense rose from £1,034 to £1,665; in the Provincial Secretary's office, from £4,361 to £6,099; in the Provincial Registrar's Department, from £883 to £1,586; in the Receiver General's, from £2,510 to £4,151; in the Inspector General's, from £4,572 to £8,564, and so forth. There is, perhaps, about the Department of Public Works, something special which makes the increase of its charges greater than that of other Departments, but as it appears from the accounts the mere cost of the office has risen from £2,072 to £6,167. The Bureau of Agriculture was an imposture from the beginning. It was announced that it was to cost nothing, and at first it really seems to have cost only about £300 a year; but its pristine innocence was not of long continuance, and we see that the charge for 1856 was £1,827. What service it has rendered to the farmers, they know best; we certainly never could find them out. But these are comparatively petty matters. On looking under the head of deductions, that is to say, the costs of carrying on the several Departments through which money is collected, we find that the Custom House expenses in 1856 were £77,983, or £47,605 more than in 1853, when they amounted only to [illegible] cost rose in the same period more than 50 per [illegible] Lands Department, from £34,143 to £85,800; and on seizures—probably in this case chiefly because their numbers increased,—from £136 to £5,568.

Lest it should seem that we are only exhibiting the extravagance and recklessness of the government, we must add that the cost of the Legislature has augmented in a still greater ratio. The charges for the Legislative Council in 1853 were £4,152, in 1855, £18,287, and those of the Legislative Assembly in 1853, £43,622, and in 1855, £99,157.

Upon almost all the items of estimates just voted this year, there again is a large addition to old prices, and there is every reason why, instead of the careless passing of every grant laid before them, our legislators should resolve, that this extravagance has increased, is increasing, and ought to be diminished.

Lower Canada Schools.—We give below Mr. Attorney General Cartier's bill for the amendment of the School laws in this section of the province. It will be observed that its requirements are restricted to the Common Schools proper and do not affect the Dissentient and Separate Schools, which are not under the control and management of the "School Commissioners" of the Municipalities but of "School Trustees," who have no right to employ the authority of the Municipality in collecting the rates required to support their schools, as they have in Upper Canada. The following is Mr. Cartier's bill:—

Whereas it is expedient to amend the School Laws of Lower Canada, in the manner hereinafter mentioned: Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

I. So much of the School Act passed in the ninth year of Her Majesty's Reign, and chaptered seventy eight, as authorizes the School Commissioners of the School Municipalities of Hochelaga, Cote Visitation, Cote St. Louis, Cote des Neiges, Village St. Henri and Cote St. Pierre, in the Island of Montreal, to levy annually a school-rate equal to three times the amount of their respective shares of the Provincial Educational Grant, is hereby repealed; and they shall henceforth, respectively, have power to levy such an annual rate on the assessed value of the real property within the limits of their School Municipality as they may see fit.

II. Whenever any rate for the purposes of education shall have been imposed in any year in any School Municipality in Lower Canada, after the time prescribed by law, the same may be confirmed by an order of the Governor in Council, and being so confirmed, shall have then full force and effect as being made within the time prescribed by law; except, however, that the Governor in Council may, by any such order, withhold the share of the Provincial grant coming to such Municipality for the year, and this enactment shall apply to rates already imposed; provided always that no judgment given by any Court of Justice shall be thereby in any way invalidated or affected.

III. So much of the twenty-first section of the School Act passed in the ninth year of Her Majesty's Reign, and chaptered twenty-seven, as limits the amount to be levied for the building or repairing of school-houses, is hereby repealed; provided always that on appeal to the Superintendent of Schools in the manner provided by law, the amount may, if considered by him excessive, be moderated and reduced.

IV. It shall be lawful for any School Commissioners to entrust the levying and collecting of the annual rate on assessable property for the support of the Schools, to the local Municipal Council, whenever the local municipality shall have the same limits as the school municipality; and if such local Municipal Council agree to collect and levy the same, the collecting and levying thereof shall be proceeded with in the same manner and form as provided for all other municipal taxes; provided that if such Municipal Council, after having agreed to levy such school rates, shall neglect to do so, the members thereof shall be liable to the same penalties as are imposed by law on School Commissioners for the like neglect.

V. That whenever any land or other real property shall have been omitted in the valuation roll, or whenever any Seignorial or Crown land shall have been conceded or sold, or in any other way any new real property shall have become assessable for the purposes of the School laws, after the making of the valuation roll in any School municipality, the School Commissioners shall cause such real property to be valued in the manner provided for as regards the making of a valuation roll, and shall inscribe it on the valuation roll and the assessment roll, and shall give the like notices as are required in the case of a new valuation roll, and the School rates shall be collected and levied from the proprietor or occupant of such real property in the ordinary manner.

VI. This Act shall only apply to Lower Canada.

Presentation.—Previous to their march to the Exercise Ground on the morning of the Queen's birth-day—the regiment being mustered in the Barrack Yard,—Lieut. Col. Munro, C.B., presented Sergeant Major Joseph Jobberns, of the gallant 39th regiment, with Her Majesty's Medal "for distinguished conduct in the field"—an honor which carries with it the substantial accompaniment of an annuity for life of £15 Sterling.

In presenting the medal, the gallant Colonel said that he regretted that he had not an opportunity of doing so before, but he did not think a more favourable one could be chosen than that of Her Majesty's Birth day. He hoped that the worthy Sergeant would long have an opportunity of wearing a decoration so distinguished, and he was sure that he would never lose it by misconduct. He (Col. Munro) also hoped that other non-commissioned officers and privates in the Regiment would emulate the example of Sergeant-Major Jobberns; as he felt sure Her Majesty would feel happy in conferring at a future day a similar decoration on any of her deserving soldiers. In connection with this interesting ceremony, we may just mention that a short time ago Sergeant Jobberns received the Legion of Honor from the Emperor of the French.

Caustic.—We cut the following from the Toronto Colonist of Monday:—

The Leader of Saturday informs us that there were 9,391,531 barrels of flour exported from this Province in 1856, against 6,413,428 barrels in the previous year—showing an increased export in 1856 of 2,978,103 barrels; and further, that in the matter of wheat, it is estimated that the produce in 1856 amounted to 26,555,684 bushels, of 60 lbs. per bushel; while the crop of 1851 was estimated at 16,155,956 bushels—showing an increase in five years of 10,399,783 bushels. Now, as, according to the usual estimate of five bushels of wheat per barrel of flour, 9,391,531 barrels of flour would require 46,957,655 bushels of wheat to make it, we should like to be further instructed by the Leader by what ingenious process that large quantity of flour could be manufactured out of 26,555,684 bushels of wheat, given as the crop of 1856; and what the natives managed to subsist upon after exporting nearly twice the quantity of flour that their whole crop of wheat would make. We presume the exports, or at least all beyond some three or four millions of barrels, must have gone chiefly by way of the Sault St. Marie Canal, the Leader's lately newly discovered route for the produce of Chicago to the Eastern Markets.

Consieerate Liberality.—We have to thank our enterprising fellow-citizen, Mr. John Lovell, for a handsomely printed pamphlet, containing Mr. Justice Haliburton's (Sam-Slick) Address on the present condition, resources and prospects of British North America, delivered by special request, in Glasgow, on the 25th March last. The pamphlet bears on its title-page, that it has been "printed for gratuitous circulation."

The Queen's Birth-day.—In our account of the Military arrangements on Her Majesty's Birth-day, we erred in saying that the troops of Volunteer Cavalry were under the command of Lieut.-Colonel David—we should have said of Major Hogan. Colonel David, however, was in the field, on the Staff of the Commanding Officer.

An Omission.—We ought to have mentioned in our account of the disastrous fire on Saturday evening last, that the Officers and men of the gallant 39th were indefatigable in their exertions to extinguish and prevent the spreading of the devouring element, for which they earned and merit the thanks of the community.

The Ship "Great Britain," Capt. Wilson, from London, arrived at Quebec on Monday and is expected in port this morning. Her manifest will appear to-morrow.

The Ship "Eliza Mary," when leaving port on Saturday last, broke down the Light-house at the point of the Island Wharf.

Thalberg.—Our readers will be gratified to learn that Thalberg is about to give a concert in Montreal. He is expected here early in June. Whatever differences of opinion there may be as to the rival merits of Liszt and Thalberg, there can be no doubt that the latter is one of [illegible] is progressing [illegible] she has done in a commercial way, when an individual whose name is a "musicial household word" on the two continents, should expect to derive pleasure or profit from a visit to it.

Harper for June.—Mr. B. Dawson has received this popular Magazine for June.

Harper's Story Book.—Mr. Dawson has received a supply of this excellent little book; it is full of well selected matter for the youthful mind.

First Direct Cargo Sale.—The Cargo of Mediterranean Goods, imported by Messrs. A. Urquhart & Co., per "Sarepta," will be sold, by auction, at their Stores, St. Peter Street, this morning, at ten o'clock, by Mr. Leeming.

We direct attention to R. W. Cameron's advertisement of ship "Continent" for Melbourne.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

To the Editor of the Montreal Herald.

Sir,—It is surprising the apparent apathy that exists on the part of the citizens of Montreal to the very important question of a permanent seat of Government for United Canada.

A number of persons consider, from the very favourable articles written in the London Times and other English Journals, all coinciding that Montreal is the place, that it is quite unnecessary for us to use the least exertions to obtain so great a boon—that it will, of its own accord drop into our lap like a ripe plum.—Others state that the Grand Trunk influence is in our favour; also, that certain distinguished civil and military personages are well disposed towards Montreal becoming the future capital.

All this may be true, and I trust it is so.—But if it is desirable to expect Her Majesty's decision, or rather that of her Ministers, to be in our favour, it is certainly our bounden duty to show to the Home Government the advantages Montreal possesses as a claimant for metropolitan honours, both by documentary and oral evidence.

We see the anxiety displayed by other places upon the subject. Quebec has named two gentlemen to represent her interests. So also has Kingston decided upon sending two of her most influential citizens home. Toronto will no doubt follow suit; but she has her ambassador—the Hon. Judge Draper, (if so instructed) already on the spot—who is certainly well qualified to represent her claims. Ottawa has not, as yet, made much noise about the matter; but she is wide-awake to her own interests.

As the question is of the utmost importance to us and our descendants, let us bestir ourselves, and if we should unfortunately be disappointed in obtaining it, let us not have ourselves to blame for want of proper diligence having been used in the premises.

It is well known our worthy Mayor is going to England immediately on private business, and will no doubt carry the address and other papers which the Corporation have wisely prepared for the occasion.

But, Mr. Editor, I consider, and so do many others, that at least two gentlemen, one of each race, should be associated with His Worship in this important matter. Let a public meeting be called, and a respectful request made to such gentlemen as they may select, and I do not believe they will meet with a refusal. The Corporation ought to be called upon by the meeting to bear the expense of the delegation, as it will be for the general good of all rate-payers they will be acting. If that plan is not approved of, the requisite amount can easily be obtained by subscription. I would suggest a few names of gentlemen that naturally occur to me, who, from their talents, and high social position amongst us—any two of them acting in conjunction with the Mayor,—would no doubt do their duty towards their fellow-citizens as far as lay in their power:—

Hon. P. McGill,	Hon. L. V. Sicotte,
" Jno. Young,	C. S. Cherrier, Esq.,
" L. T. Drummond,	W. Dumas, Esq.,
Wm. Workman, Esq.,	A. A. Dorion, Esq.

These gentlemen are all well qualified for the mission, but there are others equally so. Although the whole mercantile community is, at this busy season of the year, naturally engrossed with Imports and Exports, surely an hour or two may be devoted by a few influential parties for such a desirable object.

Yours, &c.,

One Interested.

PRIVATE BILL LEGISLATION.

To the Editor of the Montreal Herald.

Sir,—As the Legislature is now assuming all the powers of a Court, I crave your permission to make a few remarks upon a Bill which has lately passed the House of Assembly. A party interested in two certain Islands situated in Lake St. Peter, accidently discovered that a member (whose constituents were not interested in the matter,) which had for its effect to declare that he had no right of property in these Islands; that they were a common. Having been spoken to on the subject, I advised my friend to lay the facts before Parliament; and to show that these Islands were not a common. He did so by filing an authentic copy of the Deed of Concession. All this was of no avail, and the House of Assembly has decided that my friend's titles are good for nothing, and that a land regularly conceded by a Seignior is a common!!! Parliamentary rules require the publication of notices for application of private Bills; but any one who wishes to proceed secretly, does not advertise, but gets a member to move that the "rule be suspended"! and if there be no Parliamentary agent at hand, the rule is suspended. Admirable legislation! Had we not better abolish our Courts of Justice?

The Bill as passed by the House is certainly a wonderful piece of work; the Trustees for this by Act of Parliament common are elected by something more than universal suffrage, for it provides that every person [man, woman and child,] claiming to have a right, may vote! The Trustees elected by the women and children of the Province, and beyond the Province—have not only a right to levy upon all claimants for present expenses, but, also for the costs of suits at law which unfounded claimants had to pay some years ago; and to prevent all trouble in the way of collection, the jurisdiction of our ordinary courts is set aside, and the amount may be sued for, before any Justice of the Peace who may, for anything that appears to the contrary, reside at Gaspe or Coteau du Lac!! and this too without appeal.

I appeal to you, Sir, if such legislation should be tolerated?

One Who Knows.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE MONTREAL HERALD.

Sir: The firemen have again raised their favorite old cry of "no water," that cry so often uttered when their own culpabable negligence, incapacity, or obstinacy has been carried so far that they fear the tide of public opinion so long in their favor is about to be turned against them.

Now, Sir, the cry this time most certainly was a false one. Water was turned on quite sufficient for the purpose long before any fire apparatus was on the ground.

This cry was raised to serve two purposes, to endeavor to bring the new water works into disrepute, and to cover their lamentable want of organisation, alacrity, and capacity displayed at the fire on Saturday last.

As I have repeatedly said, the members of the fire brigade have a perfect horror of using hydrants, except to supply their engines, which, when fair play is granted, are invariably flooded by the former. Witness the fire at Battle's cooperage; although the full pressure of the water was on, and hydrants plentiful in the vicinity, yet, to gull the public, almost every engine in the city was pressed into service to accomplish—what? simply to put out an old shed on fire. One stream or two, at the furthest, from any hydraut would have been amply sufficient that night, nay—a smart hook and ladder company might have pulled the whole building to the ground in five minutes.

And such a scene of confusion—disorder, and shouting, it has seldom been my lot to witness.

Again, at the fire on Saturday the Brigade seemed utterly paralized.

They were very dilatory in the first instance in turning out, and when on the ground managed everything very slovenly, not to say stupidly. Particularly does this refer to the hose-men of the engine Companies. Hose were stretched at sharp angles round the hydrants that fed them, and thus the water in a great measure was cut off, whilst "twists" and "kinks" were seen in every direction. In all that relates to the proper management, there either was a real or professed total ignorance.

Even one of the Captains, who at times indulges himself by appearing in print, and soaring into what he calls "tissues of rhapsody," (he will know what I mean) whilst hanging round the hydrant opposite Messrs. Mitchell's stores, doing all in his power to bring the works into public odium, proposed to open it, but no water appeared. A gentleman who understood the dodge, immediately tried his hand at it, and the stream issued forth a perfect torrent.

For the present, yours respectfully,

M.

OUR OCEAN STEAMSHIPS.

(To the Editor of the Morning Chronicle.)

Sir,—With reference to Mr. Lee's letter, and your own remarks in this monring's paper, relating to Quebec goods carried to Montreal by the Ocean Steamer, I beg to say that this arose in the instance alluded to, from the large number of passengers on board, who, being booked [illegible] be delayed.

It is our intention, as soon as it can be carried into effect, to land all our passengers in Quebec, and we hope then to be able to get the Quebec goods ashore before proceeding upwards, and thus obviate all ground of complaint It is impossible to discharge goods with three hundred passengers crowding the decks.

In justification of our previous course, however, I must state that, in the Bills of Lading of all goods consigned to Quebec there is a clause permitting the Steamship to carry them on to Montreal.

I am, Sir,
Your obdt. Servant.
Hugh Allan.

The Last Attempt at Insurrection in Mexico.—According to a telegraphic despatch in the New York papers, the "very last" attempt at insurrection in that country was of an unusually desperate character, being in some of its characteristics rather "Frenchy." The plan was to seize the person of President Comonfort, and and then attack the city. Captain Noguera, a protege of Comonfort's, was to plunge a dagger into his patron's breast, and his death was to be the signal for the attack. The ringleaders in this conspiracy had all been arrested, and it was rumored that they would be beheaded. Others had also been arrested, said to be concerned in the affair. It was reported that ex-Minister Aguilar was also implicated.

Murray & Lanmans Florida Water.—France and Germany are challenged to produce an article of perfume as lasting and delicate as this. It is a distillation of topical flowers of matchless fragrance, not a mere chemical composition. The aroma it diffuses, is eminently healthful. Every bottle sold, brigs a dozen orders. Sold by D. T. Lanman & Co., wholesale druggists 69 Water street, New York, and by all druggists, at 50c. per bottle.

Bathing.—The "Persian Balm" is a most delightful accompaniment in bathing. No person using it once will willingly be without it. Pour a few drops of the Balm on a sponge or towel, and rub the body previous to applying the water. The water assumes a most delicious feeling, becoming richly perfumed. It removes from the body all offensive oder, purifies the skin from all blemishes, and gives a healthy tone to the whole system.
