THE Subscriber having recently enlarged and fitted up his extensive establishment, is now prepared to build to order CHURCH ORGANS of any dimensions. Having introduced many improvements highly approved of by the profession, he feels confident that his instruments will bear a favorable comparison with those of any other maker. Amongst his improvements is the

PATENT OCTAVE COUPLE,

which doubles all the notes throughout the instrument; and the TUBA, now for the first time introduced into CHURCH ORGANS; it is a powerful Sub-Bass Stop, introducing great volume of tone to the instrument.

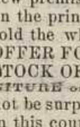
OWEN McGARVEY'S
Chair and Furniture Warehouse,
No. 244 NOTRE DAME STREET.



THE Subscriber, thankful to his friends and the public generally for the encouragement received during the past six years, takes this opportunity of informing them that, notwithstanding the very extensive stock on hand when he opened his new premises, on the 1st of April last, he has, on the principle of quick sales and light profits, sold the whole of it, and is now prepared to OFFER FOR INSPECTION ANOTHER NEW STOCK OF PARLOR AND BEDROOM FURNITURE of the NEWEST STYLE, which cannot be surpassed, if equalled, by any other house in this country. Mahogany, Cane, Wood, and every other kind of Chairs; Mattrasses, Feather Beds, Bolsters, Pillows, &c. &c., from the lowest to the highest prices. Parties residing at a distance from the city will find this the most convenient establishment, as they can here purchase any article in the Furnishing Line, and have it conveyed on board the cars or boats, or if resident within the boundary of the toll-gates, delivered free of charge. Every article warranted as represented. Parties will save at least 20 per cent by purchasing at this establishment. Wholesale and Retail.

CANADA TYPE FOUNDRY,
Removed to St. Therese Street,
IN DESBARAT'S BUILDINGS.

THE Proprietors of this Establishment beg to inform the Printers of Canada, that they have now manufactured and ready for delivery a large quantity of LONG PRIMER, BOURGEOIS, BREVIER, and SMALL PICA, of SCOTCH FACE, which they will guarantee cannot be surpassed by any Foundry upon this continent for durability and appearance.

They have also on hand a choice assortment of various kinds of ORNAMENTAL TYPE.

The prices at which these and other Types are sold at the CANADA TYPE FOUNDRY, will be found at least 30 per cent less than they could be purchased previous to its establishment.

It is therefore hoped that the Printers of Canada will show their appreciation of the advantages it holds out by bestowing upon it a fair share of their patronage, in return for which the proprietors pledge themselves to leave no means untried to give the most ample satisfaction.

Printers! mark the reduction in the price of Type since this Foundry was opened; and bear in mind that a greater reduction depends upon yourselves. Our motto is: supply the Trade with Types of such qualities and at such prices as will prevent the necessity of patronising Foreign Manufacturers.

The following List of Prices of a few of the principal articles required by Printers, will give an idea of the great advantages of the Canada Type Foundry:—

PRICES:

Spring of Miraculous Virtue!!

SAINT EUSTACHE MINERAL WATER,

ONLY DEPOT

JOSEPH LAURIN'S,

No. 149 St. Dominique Street, St. Lawrence Suburbs, Montreal.

THIS WATER was, not long since, discovered by MR. LAURIN, is most agreeable to the palate, and possesses curative qualities of the most striking and extraordinary character.

The great and increasing demand for it at the Spring has induced the proprietor to open the above establishment for its sale in Montreal, and he hopes, with his partner, that the public, and especially invalids, will avail themselves of it, and favor his establishment by calling and ascertaining the numberless cures which have been effected by the use of the SAINT EUSTACHE MINERAL WATER.

In the meantime their attention is invited to the following—it would occupy too much space to lengthen the list:—

Joseph Bonin, of St. Augustin, cure of weakness of the eyes; Francois Voyantcourt, of St. Benoit, cure of his child; Feror Salais, of St. Augustin, cure of fever; Norbert Obe, of St. Eustache, cure of weakness in the stomach; Paul Robert, of Montreal, cure of his child of a disease of the throat; Antoine Charette, of St. Augustin, cure of rheumatism in the back; Jean Baptiste Dajenais, do do; Elize Dajenais, do, cure of the eyes; Vernon Catafor, of St. Eustache, cure of the eyes; Jos. St. Jean, jr, of St. Damase, cure of a swelling in the foot; Francois Denot, of St. Benoit, cure of sore eyes; Jaques Dihote, do do; Hyacinthe Carriere, do, cure of blindness; Louis Gauthier, do, cure of rheumatism; Armenie Malatte, parish of the Cedres, cure of consumption; Joseph Charbonneau's wife, of St. Eustache, do; Joseph Gauthier, of St. Scholastique, do; Antoine Lahais, of St. Eustache, do; Filinte Ouimet, of St. Scholastique, do; Gregoire Gauthier, of St. Eustache, cure of cough; Anne Willsey, of St. Augustin, do; Xavier Charette, do, cure of weak eyes; Hyacinthe Daoust, of Montreal, No. 278 Visitation Street, do; Maton Curen, do, 61 Campeau Street, do; Angelique Labreque, do, 147 St. Dominique Street, cure of headache; Mrs. Alexis Etier, do, 149 do, cure of cholera; Mrs. Marcelan, 183 St. Constant Street, of rheumatism in the teeth; Mrs. Guillermean, 142 do, rheumatism in the shoulder; Eustache Denot, of St. Damase, cure of weak eyes; Louis Larouche, effort et puresil; Mrs. Labelle, soreness in the legs; David Fleuri, cure of rheumatism; Edward Vaillancour, do do; Mrs. St. Germain, cure of eyes; Pierre Perat, apoplexy, and Madame Laurent; Lemoine, vomiting; Lagarde, stomach-ache; Lecompte, disease of the womb; and at least two hundred whose certificate would be too long to insert.

P. S.—I am prepared to bring forward any of the above named persons to testify to the correctness of the above.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 8, 1856.

MEN AND MACHINES.—At the beginning of the present century a grave divine, who was also supposed to be a philosopher, wrote a dismal work in which he laid down as an axiom the awful doctrine that nature had invited to her table many guests for whom she had prepared no repast. In other words, he held that out of the necessity of things, a portion of the population of the world at a certain period in the history of the race must be starved, not for want of a fit distribution; but from absolute deficiency of food. The theory was that the natural increase of the human animal was more rapid than that of his food, and therefore that a time must come—and that time was supposed to have been reached in Europe—in which it would be impossible to fill the mouths which would be opened. We need not go into the horrible but logical consequences drawn from this statement of supposed truth. It is sufficient that though they were revolting to all the best principles of the human heart, many wise men thought them true, and many good men could not see the way to disprove them. It may indeed seem wonderful now, that such notions could ever have been regarded as having any practical bearing on human happiness within the widest limits within which one generation of men can look forward to posterity. At the end of half a century millions of human beings have settled on millions of acres covered with forests in the beginning of the period, and yet we see no end to the vast wildernesses offering themselves to human cultivation. American and Australian settlement have scarcely begun, and even already, the far-seeing men of the day are looking forward to vast fields for colonization on the boundaries of Europe and Asia, which would be at once opened to the human family, if the despotism, and anarchy, subsisting in company with despotism, of these regions could be changed for a government as favorable to industry and happiness as that enjoyed by the countries placed under either of the two great branches of Anglo-Saxon institutions.

In wondering at the narrowness of vision of our ancestors, however, we must not forget the means by which our own views have been so indefinitely extended. The capabilities of Australia were absolutely unknown—those of the great West imperfectly understood, and when a few convicts were shipped for Botany Bay, no one dreamed of the Gold Mines of the Island to which they were banished, nor of the immense merchant ships which by wind and steam were so soon to transport hundreds of industrious and honest laborers to the land set apart for thieves and murderers.

But leaving theories and retrospects, we come to the facts and find that Providence has done much more for mankind than the philosophers found out. The last advices from Europe brought accounts of the great scarcity in England of that raw material—man—which down to a very recent period seemed to be the only drug in a market where economy, science, and competition had discovered profitable modes of disposing of the vilest refuse. The farmers could no longer "grind" their labourers; but had to compete for men, instead of finding two men to compete for every job that might be offered at starvation prices. So great was the lack of hands that the navvies had been discharged from the railways to take the cradle and the sickle, and Sir Morton Peto was recommending the Government to allow the troops to gather in the harvest. Accounts of the the same cheering description reach us from Ireland. Indeed the demand and handsome remuneration which labour now receives in that country, by checking the ancient tendency to flood the English labour market during the period of hay and wheat crops has greatly served to bring about the existing state of things in Great Britain. The chief reasons, however, are doubtless to be found, paradoxical as it may seem, in the general prosperity brought about by the abolition of the "protection" which farmer and farm labourer once enjoyed and hugged as their only comfort in their distress; and in the freedom afforded to all to travel from places where labour is in excess to where it is required, not only in the British Islands, but throughout the world.

A crowd of old theories will be exploded, and new truths become acknowledged, as the result of the state of things on which we are remarking. It will no longer be believed that the employment of mechanical power is inimical to the interests of the laborer, for it will become palpable that the laborer, whose human intelligence directs a mowing-machine, earns and must be paid more than the human machine, who with his sickle cuts but a twentieth part of the grain laid down by the other. Many of the well-meaning, but mistaken, movements of philantropists will also be consigned to the limbo of useless imaginations.

Socialism must give way before free competition for labor as well as for employment. Laws that restrict the hours of labor will be found to be useless, when men can earn a fair living with a reasonable industry. Songs of the shirt, too, will go out of date, and it will be found that what humanity has never been able to accomplish—not for want of good will, but for want of power to make her vigilance extend into all the affairs, and her prudence provide for all the necessities of life—will be achieved by that independence, which will enable every poor seamstress to repel oppression, when she knows that her wages are not a charity, but a fair equivalent for a service, worth just as much as the money she is to receive.

We do not imagine that all this is to happen without many stops and retrogressions in the march of improvement. But the tendency of events is in the direction we indicate; and how rapid may possibly be their course may be gathered from the change in Ireland, brought about in seven or eight years by causes which have yet only begun to operate. We have spoken, after all, only of changes which lie manifestly before us. We might, however, speculate on a much wider circle of results, of a political as well as a social and economical kind. On our own side of the Atlantic it is possible that the demand for labor in the British Isles will check the emigration to America; though there can be no doubt that the tide will continue with a greater or less strength so long as there are new lands to be possessed. On the continent of Europe we may, perhaps, witness the rise of an emigration directed towards the British Islands to fill up the vacancy caused by the departure of population hence. And the lessons which may be there learned may be communicated alike to the continental peoples and sovereigns, producing, at the same time, an increased admiration for British freedom—political, religious, commercial, and social, and a conviction that such freedom, by establishing general happiness, is a better security for thrones than thousands of bayonets.

ROBBERY.—On Friday night the store of Messrs. Gemmill, Dresser & Co., clothiers, McGill street, was entered by some person or persons unknown, when the cash box was broken open, and cash to the amount of £14 17s. 7d. taken out of it. The following articles were also stolen:—One speckled German (morning) coat; one pair brown check doe pants; a fancy dark brown vest; four white shirts; one box of collars; and two neck ties. It appears that the store was locked at ten o'clock, as usual, on Friday night, and everything appeared to be secure at that time; but on Saturday morning, when the clerk went down to the store, he found the front door open, and the latch broken; so he went immediately to where the cash box was, and found its contents, amounting to £14 17s. 7d., stolen by some party unknown. It appears that the thieves must have effected their entrance to the store through the cellar, and from thence to the shop by the trap-door, and that it was when they made their exit they broke the latch of the front door. They left three keys and several curiously constructed picklocks, as well as a suit of their clothing, consisting of an old brown frock coat, an old pair of black pants; a calico shirt; and an old neck tie. We are informed that there are gangs of thieves prowling about this city, as well as through the principal cities in the Province and the States, for the purpose of plunder; and we therefore deem it right to inform the public that they should adopt every precaution in securing their stores and dwelling-houses. The police are on the sharp look out for these gentry, but their efforts up to the present time have been unsuccessful.

THE CORPORATION AND THE ADMINISTRATION.—We recently made a few observations on the position of the Government with reference to the Corporation of Montreal and the Recorder of this City. We understand that the matter is likely to be discussed again to day, and we, therefore, to keep all parties in mind of the true position of the affair, republish the petition forwarded to Toronto by the Mayor and the reply of the Ministry, among whom is Mr. Cartier, who aspires to represent this city in a future Parliament. We think that it might be well for a gentleman with such an ambition to show, by deeds, that interest in the welfare of the city which he will no doubt hereafter assert in words. Instead of that, he treats the local authorities as if they were altogether unworthy of any notice besides a mere formal announcement that the Government had thrown their representations into the waste paper basket.

To His Excellency the Governor General.

The Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Montreal.

Most respectfully represents,

That the frequent absence from Montreal of the Hon. Joseph Bourret, Recorder of the City, attending to his duties in Toronto and elsewhere, as a Member of the Legislative Council of this Province—an office which is, in the opinion of your Petitioners, wholly incompatible with that of Recorder; and also the various other occupations of emolument, such as Executor of the Estate Masson, President of the City and District Savings Bank, and Appraiser for the Trust and Loan Company, in which the Honorable Mr. Bourret has hitherto been engaged, whilst filling the Office of Recorder, have prevented him from properly discharging the important and responsible duties devolving upon him, as Recorder of the City of Montreal.

That although the Hon. Joseph Bourret has been appointed to the Office of Recorder by the Executive of this Province, nevertheless, as he derives his salary, as such Recorder, exclusively from the Revenues of this City, your Petitioners feel it to be due to the interests of the Citizens of Montreal, that he should be required to devote to the duties of his office the time and attention necessary for the proper and efficient discharge of these duties.

Your petitioners, therefore, on behalf of their constituents, the citizens of Montreal, and in the interests of public justice, respectfully beg leave to represent the preceding facts to the grave consideration of your Excellency and the Executive Government of the Province; and your petitioners earnestly pray for such prompt and effectual interference by your Excellency and Government in the premises, as shall in future secure for the citizens of Montreal, the exclusive devotion of the time and services of the Recorder of this city to the weighty and increasing duties of his important office.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

City Hall,
Montreal, June, 1856.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Toronto, 10th July, 1856.

SIR,—The petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and citizens of the city of Montreal, transmitted by you, complaining of the frequent absences of the Recorder of Montreal, having been referred to that gentlemen for his remarks, I have it in command from his Excellency the Governor General to state, for the information of the petitioners, that the explanations given by that officer appear to his Excellency to be such as to make further action on his part unnecessary.

I have, &c.,
T. LEE TERRILL,
Secretary.

J. P. Sexton, Esq.,
City Clerk,
Montreal.

HALL ROBBERS.—We understand that a great many of our fellow citizens have recently had their halls robbed of coats, walking sticks, umbrellas, &c., by persons who seem to have laid themselves out for this special kind of industry. A word to the wise:—Never leave your hall door open without you are there to see who comes.

FLORAL EXHIBITION.—Our readers will notice that the price of tickets for the exhibition is 1s. 3d. each; or, for a gentleman and two ladies 2s. 6d. Members, with their families, will be admitted free, on presenting their tickets. We anticipate a good display. Fruits have improved much of late; and flowers are just now in their prime. We only hope our friends may be favored with propitious weather.

BUCHANAN ON THE SUMNER OUTRAGE.—A correspondent at Lancaster of the New York Tribune relates an interesting incident, in connection with the recent commencement exercises of the Franklin and Marshall College at that place; Mr. Buchanan being the President of the Board of Trustees, and upon the stage during the performances of the graduating class:

Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of any one, unless it was the oration of W. W. Davis, of Sterling, Illinois, which really chafed the sage of Wheatland. The subject was "Decline of Political Integrity!" The sentiments were noble and manly, delivered in a pleasant and forcible style, worthy of maturer years. He commended the patriotism of the fathers of the Republic, and denounced the degenerate political hucksters of the present day, who make all kinds of sycophantic promises to all parties and portions of the country for even a nomination by a convention, no matter how corrupt or regardless of political integrity. "So truckling in their character and destitute of moral courage and political integrity that men are found who applaud the attack of Canine Brooks upon the noble Sumner for defending Freedom."

During the delivery of this sentence the whole house was still as death, and at its close it was heartily applauded. Mr. Davis finished his oration and retired from the front of the stage amid thunders of applause, and showers of bouquets from his lady friends. For him it was truly a triumph But on retiring to his seat, next to that of Mr. Buchanan, did he receive the congratulation of the Sage of Wheatland? No, no Mr. Buchanan said to him loud enough that the whole class could hear: "My young friend, you look upon the dark side of the picture. Mr. Sumner's speech was the most vulgar tirade of abuse ever delivered in a deliberative body." To which the young orator replied that he "hoped Mr. Buchanan did not approve of the attacks upon Mr. Sumner by Brooks and others." To which Mr. Buchanan rejoined that "Mr. Brooks was inconsiderate, but that Senator Butler was a very mild man." Mr. Davis expressed his regret at the moderation of Mr. Buchanan's views, and dropped the conversation. After the close of the exercises, the friends of Mr. Davis related what I have written. Mr. Davis himself said he "did not think for a moment that he was not in conversation with James Buchanan," but now learns that it was the representative of the Cincinnati platform he was addressed by. The whole matter has caused no little gossip here in quiet old Lancaster.

HORTICULTURAL EXHIBITION.—Competitors are requested to send their articles to the ground to-morrow evening, or early on Wednesday morning.

FIRE.—A fire of great magnitude, involving immense destruction of property, broke out in Mr. Hood's soap and candle manufactory, Wolfe Street, Quebec Suburbs, about a quarter past nine o'clock on Saturday night. In a short time the "Neptune" engine was on the spot, and was followed by the "Montreal", as well as the engine of the 39th Regiment, with the officers and men, all of whom, assisted by the neighbours, worked might and main to stay the fury of the flames. For upwards of ten minutes the fire was confined to the lower story of the building, and might have been effectually arrested had there been a sufficient length of hose; but unfortunately there was not, and some considerable time elapsed before the engines could be brought properly to bear on the devouring element, which had now seized upon every part of the building, and vast bodies of flame kept ascending high into the air, illuminating the neighbourhood, and lighting up the steeples of the city churches. Some score tons of water were scattered over the conflagration, but it was nearly an hour before the least effect was produced, and then not before the factory was in a heap of ruins, leaving nothing but bare walls to mark the scene of the disaster. As to the origin of the misfortune, and the amount of property destroyed, nothing could be ascertained during the intense excitement which prevailed; but we understand that Mr. Hood is partially insured.

QUEER DOINGS AMONG THE STEAMERS—A MYSTERY AND ITS SOLUTION.—On Saturday last our citizens were somewhat surprised to see the fine steamer Francis Saltus at our wharves.—The following day the good steamer Canada made its appearance, hitched a bow line to the Saltus, took her a short way up the river, and, after spending some time very mysteriously there, brought her back again. What were we to think? Was there piracy or any horrible deed being committed? As in duty bound, in the interest of the readers of the News, we made enquiry into the case and found nothing very dreadful had occurred. Here is the "tale they told" us:—

Early in May last an arrangement was entered into between the President, on behalf of the Rutland Railway Company, with the proprietors of the Francis Saltus to lay her up during the season of 1856,—the money consideration for not running the boat to be paid over on good security being given by the steamboat proprietors that they would fulfil their contract for the whole season. Mr. Cook, of Plattsburg, became security, and to secure him, the steamer was made over to him by the owners, a bill of sale being given and a transfer executed. The boat was taken over from Burlington to Plattsburg to be delivered to Mr. Cook, and by his orders moored to the United States' breakwater for the summer. The money was then paid over to the owners by the authorities of the Rutland Railroad. Soon after this business called Mr. Cook to New York, and during his absence Captain Lott Chamberlain, with a crew, took possession of the boat and commenced running her in violation of the contract, thereby rendering Mr. Cook liable for an action of damages. Mr. Cook tried various means, in vain, to regain possession of the boat and stop her running. Last week, however, he applied to the proper Court in Vermont for a writ of replevin, which was issued, and under it the boat was attached and placed by the Sheriff of Burlington in Mr Cook's possession. In order to avoid any attempt at "Border Ruffianism," which he feared might be employed against him to get the boat out of his his possession, (and he has had some experience of that sort of thing) Mr. Cook started by the Saltus for Canada. She now lies quietly moored at our wharves; and, we learn, that as a result of the mysterious movements of the steamer Canada, she is unlikely to do any running this season, unless it be in tow of another steamer. And thus ends all the mystery and the romantic visions of black-bearded pirates, phantom ships, &c, &c., with which we feared over-excited imaginations might be haunted.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the MONTREAL HERALD.

SIR,—Reading an excellent article lately in the London Quarterly on "The Police and the Thieves," I was struck by the following passage, quoted from the evidence given by the celebrated Bow Street runner, Mr. Townsend, before a Committee of the House of Commons. Speaking of the infamous "trading justices," he said: "The plan used to be to issue warrants, and to "take up all the poor devils in the streets, and "then there was the bailing them, 2s. 4d., "which the magistrate had. In taking up a "hundred girls, that would make it, at 2s. 4d., "£11 13s 4d. They sent none to jail, for the "bailing them was so much better!" I would ask, does not something analogous exist, in the present year of grace, not a thousand miles away from your sanctum?

Sept. 6, 1856. QUERY.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY.

To the Editor of the MONTREAL HERALD.

SIR,—The letter written by "Old Fogie," (I was going to say Bogie) is calculated to convey an impression that we are in a very precarious state. This is a mistake. Many a year have we struggled on in the same state which we now are It is a fact that speaks volumes in favor of a well managed Institution that our Clerks have so long been content with a mis-managed Institution. Our progress has hitherto been spasmodic, one year prosperous, the next unfortunate. Like a vessel at anchor we have drifted forwards and backwards with the tide, but still remaining in the old place. This year we have shipped the anchor, and all depends now upon ourselves whether we get strand or not. A bye-law prohibiting merchants from holding office has been repealed. This gives us liberty to retain a good officer when we get him. Smart clerks do not long remain so, and all our ills have arisen from the fact that when our officers arrived at a position in which they could be most useful, they became disqualified for office.—A member now who takes an active part in the Institution, no matter what his profession may be if capable, he is eligible to office.

We want now the sympathy and support of our fellow clerks. There are only 300 clerks members, and there ought to be 2000. Every member of the Institution should exert himself to increase the subscription list. We make no appeal for public sympathy other than this. It is a clerk's Institution, and they should glory in placing it in a prosperous position. If there is a class of Institutions more important than any or all others, to the moral character of our community, it is that which furnishes entertainment and employment during the evenings,—the long winter, and especially the short summer evenings too,—for young men, and more especially for those, who either have no rooms to which they may resort, or for whom the influences of the paternal roof have, in any way, been paralised; libraries and reading rooms for the merchants' clerks, and the mechanics' apprentices of our city, numerous enough and spacious enough to accommodate them all, and furnished with every attraction which the amplest endowments can supply. These are the most effective instruments which can be devised for advancing our highest moral and social interests, and are entitled to the encouragement of all true philanthropists. Innocent entertainment and useful occupation must be supplied, and supplied with some circumstance of interest, and attraction, and facination, if possible. And when the glorious spectacle is exhibited of the young men of the city associating themselves for this great end in their own self-defence; organising themselves not into a company, like that recently instituted by the merchants' clerks in London, for making up to their employers, out of a common stock, the losses which may result from their own annual ascertained average of fraud and roguery, but into a company to insure themselves against vices, and immoralities, and idleness, from which those losses and frauds flow as from their fountain. What heart can refuse them its most sincere sympathy, what tongue its most encouraging word, what hand its most efficient aid.

To you we appeal to assist us in our good work; with your kind support we hope to place ourselves in a position which will reflect honor upon our FELLOW CLERKS.

UNITED STATES.

GROSS OUTRAGE UPON TWO FEMALE EMIGRANTS.—A most gross outrage, which was perpetrated upon two female emigrants, came to the knowledge of the Brooklyn authorities within the past two weeks. The facts are these:—Two girls arrived in New York on the 22nd ult. Their names are Catherine Sullivan, aged 17, and Jane Muldoon, apparently about 23 years old. The destination of the first was Baltimore, and that of the other, one of the South-Western States. On the 23rd two stevedores named Joseph Jackson and Jno. Dixon, boarded the vessel and made the girls believe that they would procure them a lodging-place. On these representations the girls accompanied them, and were conducted about the streets for some time, when they were taken into a saloon and furnished with eatables. They were also plied with liquor. Thence they were taken to Brooklyn to see the city, and two carriages were procured, in which the party drove off to Sheep's Head Bay, where they arrived about 9 o'clock in the evening. They stopped at Delevan's United States Hotel, where they engaged rooms for the females, and during the night dragged one of them into another room and thus succeeded in their object. Next morning Jackson and Dixon went off, leaving the females there, and returned about 2 o'clock in the afternoon in company with another man named Richard Lewis. The girls insisted upon being taken back to New York, where they were threatened with violence if they did not "shut up." They finally succeeded in inducing the girls into the carriages and drove them to a tavern kept by John Friend, where they took supper. It was now after dark. They then drove off again on pretence of going to the city, and coming to a wood forced the girls out of the carriage, separated them and violated their persons. In this Jackson and Dixon were aided by Richard Lewis, not being able to master the girls themselves. They then took the females back to the tavern and offered them gin, but they refusing to drink, were violently assaulted, and Dixon struck Catharine in the face. The fellows then left them, and a man named Totten brought the girls to Brooklyn, and placed them in charge of Captain Thomas King of the Second District Police. They related all the circumstances to Captain King and Officer John Fulton, and as they did not know the names of the scoundrels it took some days before the officers were enable to ascertain. They finally succeeded in identifying the stables where the horses were hired, and on Wednesday the above officers arrested Jackson and Dixon. Lewis made his escape and has not yet been arrested. Jackson and and Dixon were brought before Justice Smith on the day of their arrest, and were committed to jail to answer the charge. Next morning Judge Morris admitted them to bail in the sum of $2,000 each, The women were committed to jail for safe keeping; and having no home, nor funds, nor friends to see that they had justice But on Friday they were brought before Judge Morris, on writs of habeas corpus, and admitted to bail in $250 each. Abraham B. Birkbeck went their security, and a third party (name not ascertained) assured Judge Morris that a decent boarding place had been procured for the girls in Bridge Street.

The girls were then conducted out of the Court and since then have not been seen; and there is every reason to believe that either by plausible representations, or by force, they were taken out of the jurisdiction of the Courts of Kings County.

The girls are very green, without friends and without money, and were approached by a set of suckers whose only effort was to clear the scoundrels who perpetrated the outrage.

THE WALLS OF THE BROADWAY THEATRE.—A considerable portion of one of the side walls of the Broadway theatre fell about half-past ten o'clock yesterday morning. As its fall, however, was expected, every precaution was taken to prevent injury to those employed in and about the premises. Our readers are already aware that a new building was in course of erection for Messrs. Bowen and McNamee, on the lot adjoining the theatre, and that the workmen have been engaged for some weeks in excavating for the foundation. The work was commenced about the latter part of April, but in consequence of a difficulty between Mr. Marshall, the lessee of the theatre, and Messrs Bowen & McNamee, it has been subject to frequent interruptions. The origin, cause, and progress of this difficulty are fully set forth in the subjoined statements of the contestants themselves. From these statements it appeared that Mr. Marshall refused to allow the workmen to run needles into his walls, on the ground that they would interfere with his business. These needles are large beams of wood, used for the support of walls of buildings when their foundations are being undermined or excavated. Mr. Marshall intimated his willingness, however, to allow them to go on with the work, if Messrs. Bowen & McNamee would agree to indemnify him for the loss caused by the closing of his theatre during its progress. Both parties, however, refused to agree to the terms proposed by each, so the needles were not put in, and the workmen did the next best thing, which was to shore up the walls. But it was still deemed unsafe for the workmen to go on with the excavations, as the walls were considered insecure, and might fall upon them while engaged in their work. Under these circumstances a machine called a scoop was procured. This is simply a gigantic shovel, worked by seven or eight men, by means of a handle some twenty or thirty feet long. With this the process of excavating was resumed. On Monday last, the workmen had dug a large hole under the side wall of the theatre, at a distance of about one hundred feet from the front. The portion of the wall thus undermined fell down, leaving a yawning chasm about thirty feet in height by twenty-five in width in the side of the building. Fortunately, as we have said, every precaution was taken to prevent those who were at work about the theatre from being injured, and the only damage caused was to the building itself. At half-past ten o'clock, that portion of the wall which had been undermined gave way, falling outward with a terrible crash, and carrying with it in its fall a portion of the scenery. Houses, castles, forests, dungeons, clouds—all came tumbling out in dire confusion, and it seemed as if the last day had arrived for the mimic world which lay behind the curtain of the Broadway theatre. One of those comets which, according to some astronomers, are perpetually flying through space with evil designs on peaceful planets, could not be more destructive than was "the scoop" on that mimic world. There lay the splendid castles in which kings and nobles had held their banquets and drank air draughts from golden goblets; there, too, the dungeons where prisoners had suffered the torture of years in a single night; there were the ruins of the great cities Venice and Rome, and the gorgeous palaces of Eastern monarchs, all lying in one confused heap, and in utter disregard of geographical distinctions. The whole mysteries of the stage were open to the eyes of the uninitiated, and its hidden secrets revealed to the light of day. And the instrument by which all this was accomplished, which produced this terrible earthquake, was a common scoop; but, like the mighty Hebrew of old who pulled the temple down about his ears, it lay buried beneath the ruins.

As it was feared that the rest of the building would fall during the day, the Mayor ordered a portion of the police force to keep watch over it, and to prevent vehicles from running within too dangerous a proximity. A portion of the front wall was cracked, and a tenement house in the rear was so badly damaged as to be unsafe for further habitation, and was deserted by all the inmates. During the day several thousand persons assembled about the building, in expectation of seeing it fall; but with the exception of the damage to the side wall, it remains as it was yesterday morning.

A WHITE WOMAN FOR SALE.

(From Parson's "Inside View of Slavery")

Mr. C., a dry goods merchant of Boston, was with me at the city of M, where he went to visit a partner in trade. He had not been in a Slave State before, and was bitterly opposed to emancipation.—Two merchants—slaveholders—had been in our company on the way to that city.—Whenever slavery was talked of, Mr. C. uniformly concurred with them. The next morning after we arrived, we saw a handbill in the bar room, in which four female slaves were advertised for sale. Stepping out into the street, we found those girls sitting on the sidewalk. At the further end of the row was a very beautiful girl, apparently white and neatly dressed. The moment Mr. C. discovered her he exclaimed, "What do you think that white girl is sitting there with those negroes for?"

"I presume she is a slave, sir," said I.

"That can't be," replied Mr. C., "just look at her! Why, I never saw a prettier girl in my life."

Now, Mr. C. had heard that likely quadroons are held as slaves and sold in the market; but he had never believed that a young lady, so entirely American, so elegant in form and features, so intellectual in appearance, with pure blue eyes, and the perfect red and white Caucassian complexion, was in the same degraded condition as the African girl. And his fine sensibilities were greatly shocked at the idea that a white girl, so beautiful was doomed to such disgrace. His heart was steeled against sympathy for the blacks but it was unshielded on the side toward the white races, to which his mother, wife and daughter belonged. Hence he was unprepared to beleive it, when I said to him, "She is a slave, sir!"

There was the precise number, including her, advertised in the bill. Still incredulous, Mr. C. stepped up to the drover and asked "Is that white girl a slave."

"That's not a white girl; she is a nigger, sir," replied the drover.

Mr. C. bit his lip with suppressed indignation, paused, and then ejaculated, "is it possible!"

"Does she belong to you?" said he to the drover.

"Yes, sir," replied the drover.

"What do you ask for her?" inquired Mr. C.

"I was offered eighteen hundred dollars for her last night. I want two thousand for her."

"What do you ask for that one?" said Mr. C. pointing to a light quadroon sitting next to the white girl.

"I will take fifteen hundred for her."

"Well, how much for the black ones here at this end of the row?"

"I will take eight hundred apiece," replied the slave dealer.

"Why, can that white girl"——

"That isn't a white girl; that's a nigger, sir, I tell you," interrupted the drover, contemptuously. At the same time he removed a woollen cap from her head, which exposed the light brown hair, and added, "you see her hair is waved."

This is regarded as evidence that African blood is mingled with the white. Mr. C. had now become excited, and he exclaimed—"Well, then, can that white nigger do more work than one of your black niggers, that you ask so much more for her?"

"Oh, no," replied the drover; and perceiving that Mr. C. did not comprehend the superior value of female beauty, to physical ability in a slave, he added—"but you know she is a high priced fancy girl."

"By Heaven!" vociferated Mr. C. "'tis too bad!" and turning to me, with clenched hands raised towards the heavens, he added, "I will never say another word against the abolitionists so long as God lets me live!"

FROM TEHUANTEPEC.

(From the New-Orleans Picayune, August 27.)

By the Texas, which arrived this morning from Vera Cruz, we have very encouraging accounts of the progress of the Tehuantepec enterprise.

Among the passengers is Col. William T. Smith, the contractor for the building of the carriage-road. He is on his way North, on the business of the Company, and we are glad to learn that he goes to make arrangements for the final opening of the road for travel, from sea to sea, by the 1st day of December next. There are thirty miles already completed and in order, and the remainder is in such a state of progress that no doubt exists that it will be completed for the reception of carriages and stock by the 1st of November. Col. Smith tells us he is about to order a new iron steamboat for the navigation of the river, and to order the building of coaches for the transportation of travellers and their luggage in eighteen hours across the Isthmus.

The contractor has now a thousand men at work upon the road, and the amount of labor to be had so abundant that if he only had tools and supplies for them he could just as readily have two thousand as one. He has distributed them at various points of the road. The most difficult places have been already overcome. Much as has been said of the facility with which the road could be built the reality has exceeded expectation. There are really few places of any difficulty at all The proof is that the whole distance of 111 miles will be completed within sixty or seventy days; and, if no accident happens in the arrangements for stocking the road, it will be open for travel in a little over ninety days from this time.

Some of our citizens, who may remain away until December, will, on reaching home, find that they are within reach of the Pacific coast in four days from New-Orleans, and of San Francisco in ten or eleven. A steamboat from New-Orleans will land them on the third day in the Coatzacoalcos; and the next day will find them on their way up the western coast of the continent, and six or seven days will land them in San Francisco. It will be a great event for the country, and particularly for this city, and will work a vast change in the routes of communication between the Atlantic and the Pacific States.

Capt. Smith states that the treatment of the Americans by the natives and the Government was of the most friendly kind; that they were aided by the inhabitants as persons who came to confer a great benefit upon the country, and to give employment The rights of exemption from texas, ceded to the Company in their grant, were scrupulously observed, by orders from the City of Mexico, where all the parties appear to be warmly interested for the completion of the work. The fact goes very far to dissipate the ideas which have been circulated at the North of the indisposition or unfriendliness of the Mexican authorities. On the contrary, they are cordial and friendly.

Capt. Smith went to Vera Cruz in the Company's steamer, to purchase supplies and tools, which were scarce on the Isthmus. She was to return immediately.

It is now the rainy season on the Isthmus; but it has not obstructed the work for a single day.

BREADSTUFF TRADE.

(From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.)

The returns from the wheat harvest of the United States are now complete, and it is settled that the crop is of most excellent quality, and if not the largest ever gathered since the settlement of the country, is at least above the average. With the certainty of such abundance, the probable reliance to be placed upon an active export demand is a subject of much importance. Our imports of foreign merchandise for the eight months of the current year are larger than for any similar period in our history, the total being upwards of $150,000,000; and although much of this increase has been in consequence of large exports of domestic produce to this date, yet if these exports are to cease with the ingathering of the present harvest in Europe, it might take a larger portion of the receipts of gold than we could conveniently spare, to balance the account. Great Britain has always been the best customer for our surplus breadstuffs. To most other countries which take breadstuffs of us, our shipments of flour have been comparatively uniform, whether the crop was large or small, but to British ports the shipments have varied with the quantity we have had to spare, although averaging nearly half the total clearances for all foreign ports. Thus of 18,583,151 bushels of wheat shipped to all ports from July 1, 1849, to June 30th, 1855, 14,061,212 were sent to Great Britain; and of 43,757,597 bushels corn exported to all ports within the same period, 36,563,951 bushels had the same destination. We annex a tabular statement showing the exports from all ports of the United States to all foreign ports, of wheat, wheat flour and Indian corn, both in quantity and value, from 1849 to 1855 inclusive, with a comparison of the quantity of each sent to Great Britain. It must be noted that of many direct clearances to Great Britain for orders, there are sometimes considerable quantities directed from thence to Continental ports. The "famine" of 1847 led to large shipments of breadstuffs, and to the inauguration of free trade in England, and we commence therefore with 1848-9, when the business had become settled under this system. The periods noted are the fiscal years, ending June 30th:

The ordinary shipments in the past year have not included anything direct for France. In the first year named above (1849) there were no exports of flour to French ports, and only 108 bushels of wheat; in 1852 the total includes 2,700 bbls of flour, and in 1853 only 8,784 bbls; but in the year ending June 30, 1854, there were shipped direct to France 1,041,086 bushels of wheat, 728,279 bbls. of flour, and 39,400 bushels Indian corn. In the following fiscal year (1854-5) the shipments of flour to the same ports had dwindled down to 8,557 bbls., and there was no shipment of wheat, but the exports of corn increased to 312,740 bushels. During the year 1855 the partial failure of the crops on the Continent of Europe led to large direct shipments, and the total exports to France for 1855-6, not yet officially compiled, have been larger than ever before recorded to the same ports. As soon as the threshing of wheat commenced in the West and North of France in 1855, its bad quality and light weight created a general panic, and prices continued to advance up to the first of January.

The abundance caused by the large receipts from this country, Spain and other sources of supply, caused a downward tendency in prices throughout January, 1856, and everything was promising for the next harvest until the inundations in May. These checked the decline without wholly arresting it, but as the harvest approached, the hopes of an average crop became less sanguine, and it is now generally admitted that the supply will be deficient from five to ten millions hectolitres, that is, from fourteen to twenty-eight millions of bushels. The quantity of arable land in France, is set down at 56,810,000 acres, of which fourteen millions hectares, or 34,580,000 acres are devoted to the culture of grain. The average annual product is 495,000,000 bushels of wheat, oats, rye, maize, and meal,—of which about one-fourth are oats, and two-fifths or 198,000,000 bushels of wheat. With an average crop France has heretofore been able not only to supply her own wants, but to furnish about 6,500,000 bushels of wheat, (or its equivalent in flour,) for the consumption of Great Britain. It is evident that this export trade must be cut off or greatly reduced during the current year, as the crop in France is below the wants of her own people. Indeed the total exports to Great Britain from all French ports for the year 1855, amounted to an equivalent of only 880,000 bushels, or about fifteen per cent. of the usual shipments, and this was all foreign produce, shipped from bond

In Great Britain, the crop this year is very good, but it is never sufficient to supply the wants of the people. The total imports of breadstuffs into the United Kingdom for the last three years (reckoning flour, &c, at its equivalent in grain) is as follows:

Calendar Year.	Equal to bushels of wheat
1853	84,419,632
1854	62,267,440
1855	50,237,608

The high prices have contributed to reduce the import into the United Kingdom during the last two years to the lowest possible point; but for the first six months of the current year the total imports amounted to 1,359,003 quarters, showing an increase of 161,000 quarters, or 1,248,000 bushels, and must continue at about this rate throughout the remainder of the year. Even with a good harvest, the kingdom must need, at least, 40,000,000 bushels grain, or its equivalent in flour, for its own consumption. Of this amount, Russia (Northern and Southern ports,) whose supplies were cut off during the war, can now furnish 10,000,000 bushels. Prussia (whose harvest is this year below the average) 10,000,000 bushels; all other countries, 5,000,000, leaving 10,000,000 to come from the United States. If prices rule at a comparatively low rate, the consumption will be increased, and the quota from this country may reach twenty or twenty-five millions of bushels. Spain and Portugal have hitherto exported to both France and England, the shipments to the latter, last year, being upwards of 4,000,000 bushels. This year, the harvests are there so poor that the export is prohibited, and supplies for consumption in the Peninsula are going forward from this port.

We see, therefore, that in addition to the demand for the breadstuffs from regular customers, we are likely to have an increased export trade to Europe, making the aggregate probably more than 40,000,000 bushels wheat and corn, or its equivalent in flour.

It is difficult to ascertain the exact production of the United States. The total arable land under actual cultivation is given in the Census of 1850 at 113,032,614 acres, of which 51,760,000 acres were producing breadstuffs. The following was the total production of grain as given in the Census returns for 1840 and 1850:

	1840.	1850.
Wheat, bushels	84,823,272	100,485,944
Rye	18,645,567	14,188,813
Oats	123,071,341	146,584,179
Corn	377,531,875	592,071,104
Barley	4,161,504	5,167,015
Buckwheat	7,291,743	8,956,912
Total bushels	615,525,302	867,453,967

A very large amount of arable land has been brought under cultivation since 1850, and those most conversant with the West and its increased resources, think that the product of wheat has increased at least 50 per cent since the date last given, while other grain has increased 20 to 25 per cent. The total yield of wheat being computed at 150,000,000 bushels, it is easy to see that the export demand can be filled without creating any extraordinary excitement throughout the country. Last year the farmers anticipated such high rates, that many of them refused to sell in time, and thus, to their great chagrin, were obliged to dispose of their stock at the close of the season far below the average price. This year the early sales promise to be the best, but there appears to be a limit below which foreign orders would rapidly diminish any home accumulation. At present good white wheat is worth here about $1,60, and good red about $1,50. We scarcely expect to see a decline of 20 cents from these rates during the current season, but within that range an active foreign business may be expected. The prospectus for Indian Corn cannot be given until nearer the close of the harvest. Flour will fluctuate more in price; sales have been made to arrive in England at a price which would net here about $5 for standard superfine, but this is generally thought to be an inside price. We have compiled from the official records a statement of the average export price of flour in each year since 1800. The highest was $14,75 per barrel, at which all the shipments averaged in the year 1817. The lowest was $4,24, which was the average of 1852. The following is the average of the total shipments to all ports in each year for the last 20 years:—

Yearly Average Price of the Exports of Wheat Flour from the United States to Foreign Ports, from 1836 to 1855:—

Year.	Price.	Year.	Price.	Year.	Price.	Year.	Price.
1836..	$7,50	1841..	$5,20	1846..	$5,18	1851..	$4,77
1837..	10,25	1842.	6,00	1847.	5,95	1852.	4,24
1838..	9,50	1843.	4,50	1848.	6,22	1853.	5,60
1839..	6,75	1844.	4,75	1849.	5,45	1854.	7,88
1840..	5,37	1845.	4,51	1850.	5,00	1855.	10,10

The periods above noted are the Government fiscal years, ending June 30th. The average for 1856 is not yet made up, but will be considerably below that of 1855. If any think that we have over-estimated the present production of wheat in this country, we have only to remind them, that the cultivation of this grain for export received but little stimulus until the repeal of the English Corn Laws in 1847, and that the export trade has since rapidly grown into importance. This trade has contributed more to the importance of New York, as a commercial emporium, than is generally acknowledged, and is likely to increase in magnitude for many years to come.

It is very strange that some people will endure Rheumatic pains for days and nights, while a few applications of Perry Davis' Pain Killer, which can be procured at any store, will entirely relieve them.

REVIEW OF THE Montreal Produce and Stock Market,

[Prepared by the Board of Brokers for the MONTREAL HERALD]

BOARD ROOM, EXCHANGE,
Saturday, 6th September, 1856.

FLOUR.—The receipts from Canada West continue moderate, and the quotations of last week are maintained. The demand is chiefly for the Lower Ports and for local consumption; prices are above the views of shippers. We quote No. 1 Superfine, 33s 6d to 34s 6d; Fancy, 35s 6d to 36s, and Extra, 36s 9d to 40s.

WHEAT.—All descriptions have advanced from 3d to 6d per bushel, with sales of Chicago Spring at 6s to 6s 3d, and of Upper Canada White at 7s 9d to 8s 3d, the latter price having been paid yesterday for a very prime lot. New Red Winter would bring 7s to 7s 3d per 60 lbs.—Inferior old high mixed difficult of sale at 6s 6d to 7s.

CORN.—About 20,000 bushels have been sold for shipment at 2s 9d to 3s per 56 lbs.

BARLEY—Continues scarce and in much request at advancing prices; 6s would be given for shipping lots.

OATS.—Not much doing, the crop of last year being nearly exhausted.

PEAS.—The new crop is not yet offering in shipping parcels, and we have no sales to report.

PROVISIONS.—Mess Pork continues dull and drooping; offered at $21 to $21½ without inducing purchases.

ASHES.—Pots have advanced 1s 3d to 1s 6d per cwt on the week, and are in active request at 37s 6d. Pearls remain at last week's quotations, 42s 6d to 42s 9d.

FREIGHTS.—Flour has been taken to Liverpool at 2s 9d. per steamer, Grain at 9s by sailing vessels, and Ashes at 35s to 40s. To the Clyde Grain has been engaged at 7s 6d, and Ashes at 27s 6d to 35s. The steamer Black Prince has taken grain at 8s per quarter to London.

STOCKS.

BANK OF MONTREAL.—At 16½ per cent premium for "Old," all offering has been taken up; unless in small quantities it is not procurable under 17 per cent premium. "New" has been placed at 15¼ per cent premium; holders look for 15½, at which figure but little can be found; the transactions have been large.

BANK OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA.—None offering.

COMMERCIAL BANK.—We are without transactions to quote for this week.

CITY BANK—Both "Old" and "New" are inquired for, and for the latter 4 per cent premium has been paid.

BANK OF UPPER CANADA.—Has this day been placed at 3 per cent discount.

PEOPLE'S BANK—The half yearly dividend of 4 per cent having been paid, we reduce our quotation to par.

MONTREAL MINING COMPANY CONSOLS—We note an improvement. The quantity offering is small. Sales at 11s 6d per share.

CHAMPLAIN AND ST. LAWRENCE RAILROAD.—Nothing doing.

GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD.—Without animation.

GREAT WESTERN OF CANADA.—This stock has not found its way to our market for some weeks past.

MONTREAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY.—Any shares put in market since the issue of the additional stock have been bought at 10 per cent premium.

MONTREAL CITY GAS COMPANY.—Nothing to report.

GOVERNMENT DEBENTURES.—Have changed hands at ¼ per cent premium, and are saleable thereat.

CONSOLIDATED MUNICIPAL LOAN FUND DEBENTURES.—The demand on English account has abated; they have been sold at a reduction on our last week's rate; they are offering at 8½ per cent discount without meeting buyers; 9 per cent discount might be presently had for them.

IN OTHER STOCKS—Nothing doing.

EXCHANGE—Demand moderate, with tendency slightly downwards.

The Banks are drawing on New York "on demand," at a ¼ per cent premium.

Arrived at this Port from the 30th August to the 6th September, 1856.

General Review of the Montreal Market for the Week ending Saturday, Sept. 6, 1856.

(Prepared for the MONTREAL HERALD)

During the last fortnight there has been an unusually small Upper Canada and country business going on, transactions being principally with the local trade, and that being only to a small extent, as they have been buying pretty freely at the few auction sales held during the time. The arrivals for the Fall trade are now usual. During the period the "Neander," "Two Brothers," "Superb," and "Ariel," have arrived from Halifax, with cargoes of Sugar and Fish.

RICE has been offering rather freely, but there are no large transactions.

FRUITS—There are no sales to report.

SPICES—Nothing doing. Peppers have been rising in New York, which has influenced the market here.

SPIRITS—There is no change to report in Brandies, but there is a large margin in the asking prices of different holders. Gin has advanced in value.

WINES—Cheap Ports and Sherries are very firm.

TEAS—Nothing doing. At auction a lot of poor Twankay was sold at prices varying from 9d @ 1s 2d.

SUGARS—The news from New York being, for some time past, of falling prices, the market here is very depressed, and there are no transactions to notice but Public Auctions, where buying has been very limited.

MOLASSES are also much depressed.

CANDLES—Belmont Sperms have been bought freely.

SOAPS—No transactions.

OILS—Salad Oil, in pints, is very scarce, there being almost none in town. Boiled and Raw Linseed has risen considerably in England, and is freely bought here. The price is at present much below the New York quotations.

SALT—Stoved Salt has been sold on the wharf in lots; but there have been no public sales of common.

FISH—No large sales to report.

A. MACKENZIE FORBES,
Broker.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET—Sept. 4.

At market 2560 Beef Cattle, 560 Stores, 21 pairs Working Oxen, 178 Cows and Calves 3560 Sheep and Lambs, and 960 Swine.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

MONTREAL, TO WIT: PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the undermentioned LANDS and TENEMENTS will be sold at the time and place mentioned below. All oppositions 'a fin de conserver' may be fyled at any time within two days next after the return of the writ:—

VENDITIONI EXPONAS.

Montreal, to wit: No. 179. ANTOINE CADORET, fils, of the Parish of St. Simon, in the Circuit of St. Hyacinthe, in the District of Montreal, yeoman, plaintiff; against the lands and tenements of JOSEPH HAINEAULT, formerly of the Parish of St. Hyacinthe, in the said Circuit of St. Hyacinthe, in the said District of Montreal, and now residing in the Parish of St. Simon, in the Circuit and District aforesaid, yeoman, defendant;

The said Land and Tenements mentioned and described in the Schedule annexed to the said Writ, marked A, as follows, to wit:

A LOT OF GROUND, number twenty-one, situate in the Range of St. George, in the Fief Ramsay, in the Seigniory Langan, in the Parish of St. Simon, in the Circuit of St. Hyacinthe, in the District of Montreal, and in the County of Bagot, containing four arpents in front by twenty-one arpents in depth, the whole without warranty of any precise measure; bounded in front by the road of said range, in rear by the ground belonging to the Honorable James Leslie, Esquire, on one side towards the south-east by lot number twenty-two, and on the other side towards the north-west by lot number twenty—with a House, Stable, and other buildings thereon erected.

To be, nevertheless, subtracted from the said Lot of Land, in favor of Salime Ostilly, the opposant in this cause, and as it appears in the schedule annexed to the said Writ marked B, the south-east half of the said whole Lot of Land, and as follows, to wit:—

The South-East half of Lot number twenty-one, of two Arpents in front by twenty Arpents in depth, more or less; bounded in front towards the South-West to the Road of the Range St. George, in depth to the Line of the St. Lawrence and Atlantic Railroad; to the North-West to the other half of said Lot, and to the South-East to Lot number twenty-two.

To be sold, the said Lot of Land, subject to the aforesaid distraction, at the Parish Church door of the Parish of ST. SIMON, on the twenty-third day of SEPTEMBER instant, at ONE o'clock in the afternoon.

The said Writ returnable on the first day of October next.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Read the following letter from Caleb Parker, Esq., of Concord, N. H., a man honoured and esteemed by all who know him:—

Gentlemen—With no disposition to make my name conspicuous, I take the opportunity to state to the afflicted the benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Green's Oxygenated Bitters, and to recommend them to others. For two years I have been troubled with indigestion and its attendant evils, such as flatulency, constipation, severe attacks of diarrhœ, accompanied with water-brash at the stomach, which reduced me in flesh, strength, and spirits, so low that I was nearly unfitted for business. I applied to several physicians, from whom I obtained only temporary relief, and finding in a short time my disease returning upon me in all its malignity, I concluded, with the advice of friends, but without the least faith in their efficacy, to try the Oxygenated Bitters, from the use of which I found immediate relief, having no return of water-brash after taking the first portion. I continued to use it according to the directions, until I had taken eight or ten bottles, which have entirely cured me. My weight has increased some thirty-five pounds, and my health is perfect. I can truly say that I consider the Oxygenated Bitters the best tonic extant. I have recommended them to several, who have invariably found great benefit from their use.

Yours respectfully,
CALEB PARKER.

BEST SUMMER DRINK.—Extracts from letters of professional gentlemen received at the Depot:—

"As a grateful and cooling drink, a tumblerful of Plantagenet Water taken during the intense heat of a summer day is fast usurping the place of the favourite and fashionable Ærated Soda Waters. It is found to be equally as refreshing as the latter, and should command a preference, as its influence on the healthy condition of the system is far more beneficial."

"From the analysis by Mr. Hunt, I was induced to prescribe it in the course of treatment of a few obstinate cases of skin disease, and its administration was attended with the most favorable results."

☞ Free Reading Room and Depot, No. 4 Place d'Armes.

Let the public once know the value of the Oxygenated Bitters, and it will immediately assume its rightful position at the head of all the medical preparations of the day for all derangements of the stomach.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—From all we can learn, we are inclined to believe that this is the best article of the kind ever introduced to the public. The Professor has left with us a long list of certificates, that any person can see who is disposed to call upon us; but we have chosen to inquire for ourself from reliable persons, and we are perfectly satisfied that it is all it claims to be. We have faith, and we shall therefore have works. Our hair is now gray; and if it restores that to the original color (as we believe it will), then some others we wot of will hasten to use it, or, will they lead off? - Dubuque Tribune

NOTICE TO TRAVELLERS.

Very few persons who are constantly moving about from place to place, changing their diet and drinking different kinds of water from what they are accustomed to at home, go far without suffering from Diarrhœa or Dysentery. Now, a certain remedy has been found which will cure the above-named complaints at once, and what is the best of it, also leaves the system in a regular state, an excellence possessed by no other medicine which professes to help those diseases. This remedy will also prevent Cholera, for there was never yet a case of cholera known which was not preceded by diarrhœ or dysentery.—This invaluable medicine is prepared by H. S. Humphrey, Ogdensburgh, N. Y., and is called the Balm of Zanthorea, or East Indian Remedy. It is sure, and being prepared without opium is safe.

For sale in Montreal by Carter, Kerry & Co., S. J. Lyman & Co., W. E. Bowman, and Druggists generally.

PREVENTATIVE IS BETTER THAN A CURE—Extraordinary case—Dropsical swellings—Turn of life.—Mrs. Morgan, of Windsor, Nova Scotia, aged 45, was suddenly thrown on a bed of sickness; her feet, legs, and ankles began to swell, strongly indicating Dropsy; weeks passed away and she became worse instead of better; medical aid was called in, and her life was endangered, owing to a wrong treatment being adopted. Mr. Morgan therefore dismissed his medical attendant, and resolved to commence the Holloway system of medicine; this quickly produced a beneficial effect, and by a continuance with this infallible remedy the husband had the satisfaction of again seeing his wife restored to the blessings of health.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY
CURES BRONCHIAL AFFECTIONS AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

From the Boston Evening Traveller, Jan. 6.

"It is perhaps but a simple act of justice to the proprietors of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for us to say, that our personal experience in the use of this article has impressed us favorably. One of the proprietors of the "Traveller" was entirely cured of a severe cough of four months' continuance, by the use of this Balsam, and several of our friends and acquaintance, who have tried the article, have found it of great service in relieving them of severe coughs and shortness of breathing, with which they had been afflicted."

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, only by SETH W. FOWLE, Boston, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed, and for sale by his agents. William Lyman & Co. Agents for Montreal.

HEAR! HEAR!

That's the place for the Clocks, Watches, Jewellery, and Looking Glass Plate.
137 Notre Dame Street, 137,
Next door to the Masonic Emporium.

SIMON HART

CALLS the attention of Watchmakers and Dealers, either Wholesale or Retail, to his large and complete stock, embracing every size of Looking Glass Plate, from 6¼ x 8½ to 40 x 22; Clocks and Timepieces from five shillings and upwards; Gold and Silver Watches and Chains, and a fine selected stock of Plated Ware, Fine Gold Jewellery, Portemonaies, Fancy Goods, Watch Materials, Watch Glasses, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Puffing is not required here, as the selected stock will speak for itself. Having lately added largely to my stock, I am now prepared to furnish any amount of CLOCKS, of superior quality, and on as reasonable terms as can be obtained in any establishment in this city.

No connection whatever with any other establishment in this city; and all Watches and Clocks warranted to keep good time, or the money will be returned.

N.B.—No business done on Saturday till after 6 o'clock P.M.

MRS. ALEXANDER GIBBS,
(FORMERLY MISS GRADDON),
THE EMINENT VOCALIST,

HAVING been solicited to give EVENING SINGING CLASSES in this City, has finally consented to leave lists at the Music Stores, to form an Adult and a Children's Class, in order that all who feel desirous of obtaining a systematic and thorough knowledge of Music, may subscribe their names.

Ladies and Gentlemen who intend commencing the study of any instrument, will also derive considerable benefit at these Musical Meetings, as by learning the theory they will only have the mechanical portion to surmount.

Families and Friends forming Classes will be taught on moderate terms.

Private Lessons as usual, 23 St. Antoine Street.

TO THE ELECTORS
OF THE
ROUGEMONT DIVISION.

GENTLEMEN,—Having been requested, by several parties in this Division, to offer myself as a candidate for the honor of representing you in the Legislative Council, I think it right now to adopt this mode of addressing you, and to make public the answer which I have, on each occasion, returned to those who have urged me to come forward. I have invariably declared that, if the Electors choose me for their representative in the Council, I would accept the trust and discharge the duties it imposes to the best of my abilities; that I must, however, be their free choice—that I would not solicit a vote, nor expend money to obtain one; and that I preferred remaining in private life. To this answer I still adhere.

I cannot here refrain from expressing a regret that my political views should have been grossly and unjustifiably misrepresented. In saying this, I make no allusion to the gentleman, whom I have reason to believe to be in a position similar to my own in regard to the approaching election for your Division. I have had the pleasure of his acquaintance for many years, and I know him to be an upright and honorable man, incapable of such conduct. I hope that he and I will show on this occasion that it is possible to entertain different opinions on public affairs, and, at the same time, not only respect each other, but continue on close terms of friendship.

In order that you may judge for yourselves to what extent I am worthy of your confidence on public grounds, I take this opportunity of stating expressly what my political views are. Under the circumstances above adverted to, this declaration is due to myself and to those among you who are favorable to my Election. I am not, nor have I ever been, a party man, and it is now too late for me to become one. If elected, therefore, you will understand that I shall enter the Council, not only independent in my course, but entirely free from party ties and obligations, and ready to vote for any liberal and safe measure, come from whom and what quarter it may. I claim to be a Liberal, in what I consider the best sense of the word, indisposed to hurry on rashly changes and innovations, but quite prepared after careful consideration, to apply the needful remedy when alteration and amendment are proved to be required.

If elected I will earnestly endeavor, by favoring sound and judicious measures, having these objects in view: To promote the cause of general Education; to improve Agriculture; to increase Trade and encourage Commerce. I shall not by any vote of mine aid in bringing about a violation of the compact entered into at the time of the Union of Upper and Lower Canada, nor will I concur in any act which would place Lower Canada, the earliest settled section, with its peculiar laws and institutions, at the mercy of the Upper Province, or in a position of inferiority to it. Any scheme which may be brought forward for the annexation of this noble country to the United States of America, will meet with my most determined opposition.

My most strenuous exertions shall be devoted to raise and improve the standard of political probity and honor among our public men in place and power, by opposing to the utmost every species of jobbing and corruption, by making public every well authenticated case of that description which may come to my knowledge, by exposing the guilty parties, and, if possible, bring them to deserved punishment.

I do not fear the disapprobation or the hostility of Government: I ask from it no favor, nor do I seek for place or emolument. I have already refused them when offered to me. But while I claim to be perfectly independent, and free to vote as my judgment dictates, I will not join in a factious opposition to the Administration, being convinced as I am that in the present House of Assembly no better could be found, at least none which could command a working majority.

My solicitude in regard to the future progress and public welfare of this Province should be, and undoubtedly is, identical with yours. My home, my exertions, and my material interests are here and among you; and these interests, I may add, are irrevocably placed in a country where I have passed so many years of my life, and with which my own and my family's hopes are permanently united and identified.

I have thus with perfect freedom and frankness, briefly stated to you upon what conditions and with what political views I am prepared to enter the Legislative Council, if elected to form one of that body, as your representative. And I now leave it to you to determine by your votes whether I shall in future take a part in the public affairs of this great and rapidly advancing country, or continue to enjoy the tranquility and seclusion of private life.

I have the honor to remain,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
T. EDMUND CAMPBELL.

TARRANT'S PREPARATIONS.

To the Medical Profession and the Public.

THE attention of the Medical Profession and Public is invited to the following preparation:

Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient prepared on an entirely new principle, from a late and accurate analysis of the celebrated
SELTZER SPRING, IN GERMANY,
combining efficacy, economy, and portability, with such additions and improvements as will be found materially to increase its efficacy.

This much esteemed highly valuable preparation will not fail to effectually remove Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious Affections, Headaches, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Costiveness, Gout, Rheumatism, Loss of Appetite, Gravel, Nervous Debility, Nausea of Vomiting, Affections of the Liver, &c. &c.

Tarrant's Compound Extract of Cubebs and Copaiba,

Sanctioned by popular opinion and the high authority of the most distinguished of the medical faculty; it offers to the afflicted a remedy whose success has in every instance supported its deserved reputation. Being convenient and agreeable in its use, experience has proved that it retains in every climate its desirable and truly valuable character, be it in the form of a paste, a tasteless, and does not impair the digestion. It is prepared with the greatest possible care, upon well tested principles. To persons following the sea, or going long voyages, this preparation possesses qualities far surpassing any other—neat and portable in its form, speedy and efficacious in its operation, successful both in the earliest and worst stages of the severest diseases, whilst the usual and nauseous taste and unpleasant odor to copaiba is wholly avoided in this preparation.

Prepared and sold, Wholesale and Retail, by JOHN A. TARRANT, successor to James Tarrant, 213 Greenwich, corner of Warren street, New York; and for sale by the principal Druggists in the United States, British Provinces, West Indies and South America.

Thorn's Compound Extract of Copabin and Sarsaparilla possesses a few advantages not enjoyed by any other medicine, and which make it the most intelligible and public, render it assuredly highly popular, and a desideratum long sought for in the medical world. It needs no confinement or change of diet. In its approved form, that of a paste, it is entirely tasteless, and causes no unpleasant sensation to the patient.

It has acquired the utmost fame in almost every part of Europe. It has been examined, approved of, and sanctioned by the faculty of unquestionable, and recommended by the most eminent of the profession. Prepared by J. E. Thorn, Chemist, London, and for sale wholesale and retail by J. A. TARRANT, sole agent for the United States, 213 Green wich street, New York.

☞ The serious attention of the afflicted is respectfully invited to a trial of

Dr. Grover Coe's Standard Family Remedies

Dr. Coe's Liquid Hirmatian is guaranteed to be the most efficient external application extant, for the certain cure of Ulcers or Fever Sores, Abscesses, inveterate Sores and Lumbar, Felons, Bites, Carbuncles, Chancres, Babees, Agne in the breast, and every variety of external inflammation.

Warranted to arrest Mortification, when arising from Burns, Wounds, and other external conditions, and to prevent it when used in time.

Also warranted to check Felons, and prevent suppuration when applied before matter has commenced forming. Used early in cases of punctured wounds from nails, pitchforks, &c., it prevents all symptoms of Tetanus or Locked-jaw, and removes them when arising from want of its timely application.

Dr. Coe's Anti-Mercurial Alterative Syrup

A pleasant, safe and efficient remedy for the radical cure of Rheumatism, Erysipelas, Leucorrhœa, Scrofula, Gonnorrhœa, Syphilis, Mercurial Affections, Ulceration of the Kidneys & Bowels, and all diseases arising from a vitiated condition of the blood and fluids.

Dr. Coe's Family Vegetable Pills.

The best and safest Cathartic Pill for popular use ever offered to the public.

For the cure of Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Constipation, functional derangements of the Liver, Spleen, and other viscera, they stand unrivalled. These are not quack and untried remedies, experimentally placed before the public, but they have stood the test of years. The proprietor is a practising Physician, and they are the same remedies he has used in his own private practice, with a competent and successful guardian of the public health. The Harmatian has stood the test of 50 years, the original formula having been obtained from the Indians by an ancestor of the present proprietor, who has improved and brought it to its present degree of perfection.

The Syrup and Pills originated with himself, and during 13 year's extensive practice, thousands have had cause to feel grateful for their efficacy.

For cuts and sores on Horses, the world is challenged to produce anything equal to the Harmatian.

For full directions and explanation, see pamphlets accompanying the medicines.

ALBION LIFE INSURANCE COMP'Y,
LONDON.
ESTABLISHED A.D. 1805.

THIS COMPANY has now been in successful operation for half a century, during which period the amounts paid to the families and representatives of Policy-holders have exceeded £1,700,000.

The conditions on which Insurances are granted by the Annual, offer important advantages to the assured; for which reference is requested to the prospectus.

The Profits are divided every Third Year, and may be made payable in Cash, or applied to the reduction of the Premium, or the increase of the sum insured, as may be chosen on effecting the insurance.

The amount returned in cash to each Policyholder who elected that mode of appropriating his share of the profits has exceeded a fifth of the total amount of premium paid. The bonus added to the sums insured has, of course, been of much larger amount.

☞ The Prospectus, with the rates of Premium, may be had on application.

The "Equitable" Fire Office will, by a constant analysis of its own experience from time to time, adopt such rates of Premiums as the nature of the risk may justify.

With this view, an annual investigation will be made into each class of risk, and a return of one moiety—or fifty per cent,—of the net excess will be made to all classes of Insurers, whose Policies have been in force for three years.

The engagements of the Equitable are guaranteed by a responsible proprietary, and an ample subscribed Capital. The insured are free from the liabilities of a Mutual Insurance Society, and entitled, according to the plan of the Company, to a return of half the profits.

Losses are made good, without deduction or discount, and are adjusted and paid in Montreal, without reference to London.

☞ By a Resolution of the Court in London, PREMIUMS ARE RETAINED IN MONTREAL to pay Losses and ACCUMULATE a FUND of £10,000.
