

Fashion Show Presented at Howick Proves Great Success

Style Trends of 1950 Displayed to Appreciative Audience

To people of this district fashion shows have been out of reach. True, there have been the exceptions—those who have been more fortunate—but to the average person, the usual rushed visits to the city do not include the luxury of a fashion show.

Now this is no longer true for it, the Howick High School Auditorium, Thursday evening, April 27th, people gathered in large numbers to enjoy just such a show.

Sponsored by Georgetown Ladies' Aid, Madame V. Blondin of the "Mademoiselle Dress Shoppe," Huntingdon, presented a parade of fashions which would satisfy even the most critical tastes.

The two scenes of the performance—first, "Sunday Afternoon in the Park," and later, "Garden Wedding Reception," were depicted by two colourful stage settings, the most outstanding feature of each being a large, beautiful scene for backdrop painted by Mrs. A. S. White of Howick.

However, colourful as they were, these stage settings and the sweet mood music in the background were insignificant when one by one the fourteen attractive models became a part of the setting, each adding her own charming personality, and with perfect poise, gracefully displayed dozens of beautiful dresses, suits and coats—complete with the correct accessories, hat, purse, gloves or jewelry. The polished performance of these girls was a credit to their directress, Mrs. Rose Rosenschlein.

The wide range of colours and styles gave evidence of Madame Blondin's unique taste and ability to choose clothes. There they were displayed one after the other—from the crisp, gay prints with their full skirts, the cool soft lines of the sheers, the tailored linens and the perky taffetas, to the soft pastel shirred coats, chic linen or gabardine suits, to the coats serviceable in colours, up to the minute in style.

Several of this year's trends were in evidence. Among the dresses were large, white collars and cuffs or the large stand-up collar, the very full skirts, sleeveless bodices, trim, accented pleated bodices, and numerous colours combined in a single dress of the same material. Among the suits, long or short coats—again the stand-up collars, raglan sleeves and the new but style shortie.

The "Pièce de résistance" of the evening came in scene two. Ensembles suitable for a garden wedding were displayed, showing how delicate, colourful and chic they can be. Finally the strains of "Here Comes the Bride," played by Mrs. F. Mattice, the bride and her bridesmaid appeared—the answer to any June bride's prayer of white satin and lace and an attendant in shiny pink. They carried bouquets of sweet peas in paste and flowers.

Completing the performance with polish and smoothness was the commentator, Mrs. D. A. Rivett who, with her own vivid personality not only capably commented on the outfits but during intermission gave a clever and humorous monologue much to the amusement of the audience.

As one viewed such a Fashion Show, polished and smooth, one is able to see the commentator, the models, the stage setting and realize the work and training entailed but as in all successful performances there's the hustle and bustle back stage where other conveners are hard at work and are never seen. In this case, we had Mrs. Rose Rosenschlein, there with her last minute instructions and encouragement to models—the make-up being quickly but deftly applied by Miss Lucille Mercier, the final touches to coiffures by a representative of "Valma's Beauty Parlor" outfits kept in proper order and in readiness by Mrs. M. Charbonneau and a very busy Madame V. Blondin overseeing all, for on her shoulders rested the full responsibility of the finished production.

During intermission, following Mrs. Rivett's monologue, Monsieur Mercier had the four models make the drawings for the door prizes. These, eight in number were won by Mrs. C. Fletcher, Mrs. R. Trimmer, Mrs. P. McCartney, Mrs. W. F. Welch, Mrs. Roy Carson, Mrs. E. Reddick, Miss Grace Ford and Mrs. K. Farquharson.

Following are the names of members of the cast or of people who in some way aided in the success of the show:

Commentator—Mrs. D. A. Rivett.

Production Director—Mrs. Steve Blondin.

Production Directress—Mrs. Violet Blondin.

Mannequin Directress—Mrs. Rose Rosenschlein.

Mannequins—Mrs. Jean Rowat, Mrs. Frances Sparrow, Mrs. Stan Liveridge, Mrs. W. L. Carr, Mrs. Carmen Wardle, Mrs. Rod. Montpetit, Miss Renee Boyer, Miss Suzanne Boyer, Miss Meta Broberg, Miss Allison Carr, Miss Marilyn Martin, Miss Meta Oney, Miss Denise Robertson.

Stage Scenery—Mrs. A. S. White, Mrs. R. McFarlane, Mrs. J. W. Holmes.

Make-up Harmony—Miss Lucille Mercier, "Beauty Counsellors".

Styling—Valma's Beauty Parlor.

Hosery—Chatelaine.

Flowers—Bertrand's Florists, Miss Gertrude Hampton (agent).

Wardrobe—Mrs. M. Charbonneau.

Georgetown Conveners—Mrs. R. McFarlane, Mrs. J. W. Holmes.

Assistants—Tickets—Mrs. C. Fletcher; Door Prizes—Mrs. C. Fletcher, Mrs. W. Watson; Cashiers—Mrs. Buchanan, Miss L. Robertson; Lunch—Mrs. M. Glasgow, Mrs. A. Foltz.

Doors Prizes donated by—Mrs. Fletcher's Gift Shop, Grovier Seed Company, Gebbie's Store, R. Dubuc Store, B. Parent Store, S. Beaudin Store, Mrs. H. Holmes, Beauty Counsellor, Morin Store.

Following the performance a Georgetown Ladies' Aid invited the visiting performers to the School Cafeteria where, over a cup of coffee and lunch, a social time was enjoyed before returning to Huntingdon.

And so the Fashion Show is over. It was definitely a success, both from the Blondins' point of view of production and financially for Georgetown Ladies' Aid.

Women left with new ideas and plans for bigger and better wardrobes, a few husbands are probably wondering how many their wives' generous insight into the field of fashions will cost them, but one is assured—it definitely provided the women with many answers to that age-old question of "What will I wear?" and it would leave no doubt in anyone's mind where they should go for it.

Panther Believed Seen Near Franklin

FRANKLIN CENTRE—One night, recently, Mrs. Dan Leahy heard a weird crying, like a child in trouble, and the men found, when they went to investigate, a large wild animal walking around the pig pen. The car lights were turned on the animal and it was seen quite clearly before it got into the darkness. Its long tail and child-like cry fits the description of a panther. The animal was also heard in a brush pile on Mr. Philip Prevost's farm, on the old McDowell place; several others have seen it at a distance. It is hoped it will be caught before the young cattle are turned out to summer pasture as it is very destructive to animals and human beings. Parents cannot be too careful about allowing their children to roam around any distance from the house.

St. Agnes Boy Badly Injured By Power Saw

Right Arm Almost Severed and May Not Be Saved

ST. AGNES — On Thursday morning, April 27th, little Richard Caza, aged 10 years, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Aurele Caza of St. Agnes, suffered a very painful accident. He and his older brother Bernard had an hour's free time from school this morning and were helping their father to set up a circular saw in readiness for sharpening fence pickets. Richard was standing between the tractor and the saw, when his father, who was leveling the saw, asked the boy to hand him a piece of board. Richard picked up the board and as he went to hand it across the saw, his right arm caught in the blade. The saw, which was idling at the time, completely severed one of the main bones of the arm at the elbow and deformed the upper part of his forearm in a gash 3 inches long and 1/2 inch deep. This makes the injury twice as severe as the near two wounds to heal in place; the cords and muscles are also severely cut.

The young boy lost a great deal of blood, even though his father applied a tourniquet almost immediately. Upon the advice of Dr. Lefebvre, of Huntingdon, Richard was taken at once to Hotel Dieu Hospital in Valleyfield, where Dr. O. E. Caza took X-Rays and operated on the arm. The last reports stated that he was a bit brighter but still suffers a lot of pain. It is not sure yet whether or not the arm will have to be removed, and everything medically possible is being done to save it. The hand and arm which were practically twice the normal size, is the same size as everyone that little Richard will soon be restored to health and once more be able to mingle with his young friends.

train ready for the road; there is also the upkeep or maintenance of the track, the station where it stops, the engine and the cars. Everything must be perfect; no error is permitted otherwise the consequences would be serious.

Another interesting figure for you to remember is the cost of a modern passenger train. Have you ever thought what this enormous mass of steel costs; take one of our fast trains between Montreal and Quebec for instance.

You have the engine at the head-end which alone costs $300,000. Then come a couple of Baggage, Express and mail cars; the engine cost $125,000 to each. Next are the Parlor cars; there are a minimum of 3 such cars, and they cost about $140,000 each. Then there is the Dining car at a cost of $200,000. And finally, come the coaches which cost $125,000 to build. This makes a total cost of $1,500,000 for a modern train today and is double the cost of a similar train before the war. These figures should be remembered particularly when you hear that the railroads are seeking an increase in rates.

Our Canadian railroads are among the greatest in the world; our entire economic life is based on the service and dependability of our railroads.

Railroads never close down. Have you ever wondered what would happen if railroads ceased to operate? Railroad transportation is indispensable; it is important that we give our railroads the support and encouragement they need to continue to perform their vital task.

In the Passenger Department we are every day getting letters suggesting how we should run our business. Yet, we have I believe improved our service considerably since the war. Millions of dollars have been spent to give to our travelling public the best that money can buy.

I believe that the passenger train today offers advantages that cannot be equalled and when our program of modernization is complete, we are hopeful that we will win thousands of persons back to the train. We are hopeful that with the serious efforts that we are making to satisfy public taste and convenience, people will realize that travel by train is still the best and most practical method of travel.

Watson Sellar Urges Changes In Presenting Estimates

Is Critical of Officials by Passing Spending Authority

Far-reaching changes in the system of presenting estimates to Parliament were urged on Thursday by Auditor-General Watson Sellar before the House public accounts committee.

While some of his suggestions had been made already to a Senate committee these had brought up-to-date, and Mr. Sellar explained he had given close study to them because the Government has planned this session to make a long delayed over-hauling of the Consolidated Revenue and Audit Act. But Mr. Sellar was just as critical of the form of estimates and also of the way Government departments or officials had been enabled to by-pass parliamentary spending authority as he was in his brief to the Senate committee.

Plain words were spoken by Mr. Sellar when dealing with a British plan of having the Treasury Department vested with authority over all other departments in matters of money and expenditure. "The risk will be present in such a system," said Mr. Sellar, "that the public service bureaucracy may be placed in a position to by-pass the ministers."

"It is the deadweight of administrative cost that is of concern when estimates are under review," the auditor-general declared. "In the present estimates provision for salaries and wages of public employees exceeds $300,000,000. It will be the salaried expert, not the minister, who will be in direct contact with the committee, therefore the form or text of items should be such that the expert is not in position to barter."

Three important briefs were presented by Mr. Sellar to the House committee, and in one of them he repeated what he has often advocated, namely, that the Post Office Department should be placed on a self-supporting basis. He urged that a system of financing the department be devised that would encourage officers to make servicing activities self-supporting. At another stage he bluntly declared, "It would please me to see the Post Office Department fully financed by its own revenues."

In one of the briefs, Mr. Sellar criticized the principle of gifts of food by the Farm Prices Support and like bodies to organizations in Europe and the Palestine which were caring for refugees, especially the undernourished children. Mr. Sellar said that it was surplus food supplies that were given to Europe, but he thought that such surpluses should be distributed in Canada if and where real need existed.

During the financial year 1948-49 farm and fish products to a total value of $1,500,000, which had been acquired by the price support boards and which had become surplus, was donated to relief bodies in Europe and the Near East. Some of the fish was traded for flour and the remainder was actually donated to public and charitable institutions in Canada.

Mr. Sellar didn't want any "technical quibbles" to stand in the way of distributing food products and thus prevent them from going to waste, but he wanted these transactions by Government bodies to be regularized. "Until a formula is enunciated to regulate such practices," said Mr. Sellar, "parliamentary control over the public purse is impaired."

Turning to the present form of estimates laid before the legislators he said there was looseness to the extent that it was hard to find what was involved in a particular proposed vote and just as hard afterwards to police its expenditure.

Singling out a number of items Mr. Sellar pointed to an agricultural vote of $1,342,000 for live stock and poultry production service, and to another vote of $1,204,000 for the department's marketing service in live stock and live stock products.

"Where is the dividing line Parliament intends being drawn between production and marketing?" he asked.

Four tests must be met by the form in which estimates are given to parliament, said Mr. Sellar. They are: Disclose clearly principal objects and purposes to which money be applied; control and regulate charges to the vote; to Parliament whether use of money has conformed to text of estimates; and be so phrased as to permit efficient application.

More Consolidation
Mr. Sellar repeated a suggestion he had made to the Senate committee. That was that there should be more consolidation of certain departmental items. This, he declared, would facilitate debate in the House without lessening fiscal control.

Scoring the manner in which Public Works estimates were presented, Mr. Sellar urged fuller information. "The first vote for a large job," said Mr. Sellar, "will be for a small sum, enough to permit plans to be prepared and, perhaps, to negotiate for the site. As a result, over several years Parliament may vote several millions of dollars. Why not at the outset give information which will enable Parliament to judge whether a project costing a certain amount should be approved or whether one costing less will serve the public need?"

Questioned closely by committee members on his criticism of the food gifts for relief, Mr. Sellar explained that when a department asks Parliament for money and is granted that sum, the department should be kept down to that amount. The Farm Prices Support Board had been voted a certain amount by Parliament. When it gave away surplus food it was, in effect, giving away money without authorization of Parliament.

Percy Wright, C.C.F. member, said also that when that surplus food was given away in Canada it really tended to defeat the very purpose of setting up a Farm Prices Support Board for the surplus food might be distributed in an area where there would be competition with food sold there by the producers themselves.

"I agree with Mr. Sellar," said Charles Johnston, Social Credit member from Alberta. "If there is a need in Canada surplus food supplies should be distributed at home. And it looks as if there is need now with over 400,000 jobless in the country."

"We are in big business in this country now," said Mr. Sellar, summarizing his views on the need of revising the form of estimates. "Parliament is asked to vote about $1,400,000,000. This brings up the question as to whether we should have an estimates committee of the House of Commons. Sooner or later I think Parliament will be forced to take action on this question. Legislators will have to satisfy themselves that in the estimates as presented they can get the information they want."

Then listing suggested steps in the troubling question of food donations for relief purposes, Mr. Sellar said that first such food surpluses should be transferred or sold to the provinces, that no sizable donation of surplus foods should be made without the specific authority of Parliament, that the particulars of all such transfers to the provinces be laid before the House of Commons, and that disposal of surplus foods or other goods to Government departments be "for value."

Dr. J. E. Caza, President Dental Society

On Sunday, April 23rd, the dentists of the district of Beauharnois met at the Huntingdon Chateau for the purpose of naming the officers of the Beauharnois Dental Society.

The election of officers took place with Dr. J. E. Caza elected President; Dr. R. Dionne, Vice-President and Dr. R. Scoote, Secretary-Treasurer. The directors named were Dr. H. E. Purcell of Huntingdon, Dr. Emile Prevost of Valleyfield and Dr. A. Boisvert, of Beauharnois.

The next meeting will take place in Valleyfield, on May 25th, when the members will hear a lecture on dentistry.

Break Jail Second Time Recaptured

Two Boys Escape Jail at Valleyfield

The two young delinquents who escaped of breaking out of Reform School and being responsible for several robberies in this district were recaptured in the last issue of this newspaper, again broke out of jail at Valleyfield.

They made their escape from the women's portion of the jail at Valleyfield where they had been lodged pending sentence for the first break. This occurred during Sunday night between the hours of 10:30 p.m. and 7 a.m. on Monday. The boys kicked out a screen on the outside of some which are six or seven inches apart, and then squeezed between these bars. The window is about three feet from ground level.

What happened after that time can only be imagined. The break was discovered by the guard and Chief Lefebvre of Huntingdon was notified to be on the look-out for the boys. On Tuesday afternoon, the chief was notified by the Director of Police at Three Rivers, Director Bellemare, that the boys had been picked up at Three Rivers, Que.

One of them was located at his home at Cap-de-Madison where boys were being held awaiting the arrival of Provincial Police to take them to Montreal. Apparently they had hitch-hiked to this point as no reports have come to hand that they stole a car as in the previous escapade.

Cold Storage Unit Being Built at Ormstown, Que.

Plans are underway for a cold-storage unit in Ormstown. Mr. D. A. Barrington announced last week that the building and equipment, consisting of 312 deep-freeze compartments, would be ready for use by June 15th and that construction would begin as soon as possible. In charge of the project is Mr. O. Barbeau, who built a unit of his own not long ago in Howick.

Although at present plans call for a building 90 x 20, allowances will be made for possible expansion later on. The individual compartments will be 21" high, 21" wide and 32" long. It will enable perishables (fruit, vegetables and meat) to be kept at a temperature of zero degrees.

present, the plans for the building and the equipment are being developed and the materials prepared. Construction will begin on a lot on Center Street, Ormstown, as soon as the ground and weather permit.

Large Attendance at Barn Day at Glen Ayerst Farm

Holstein Breeders' Club Holds Numerous Competitions For Juniors and Seniors

Over 200 people attended the Huntingdon - Ormstown Holstein Breeders' Club Barn Day on Saturday at the Glen Ayerst farm, Ormstown. There were 199 entries in the judging competitions held under the supervision of Mr. W. A. Hodge, National President of the Holstein Association of Canada. Taking part in the competitions were 52 representatives of the district club clubs from Ormstown, Howick and Huntingdon with Mr. D. Robertson acting as fieldman and Mr. D. McCaig adding an extra feature to the event by giving a demonstration on the choice of heifers.

Among the distinguished guests were Mr. A. Labege, M.L.A. from Chateaugay County, who spoke briefly on the importance of agriculture and improved herds. Mr. Labege is to be thanked for his contribution to the Ormstown and Howick Club.

Mr. W. A. Hodge, acting as official judge, brought a greeting from the National Organization and Mr. J. R. Proulx, assistant fieldman replacing Mr. Lajoie, presented the compliments of the Provincial association. Mr. Donald Robertson, federal fieldman of the club clubs and Mr. D. Robertson, congratulated the club club members for their turnout and Mr. H. W. Rick, president of the local Jersey Club, presented the compliments of his organization to the Holstein Club.

During the afternoon Mr. Gilbert McMillan spoke briefly on the dairy situation. Mr. Ayerst gave an address of welcome, expressing his pleasure in being host to the barn day gathering, and Mrs. E. Watters, president of the local Holstein Club thanked the host suggesting that Glen Ayerst, judging from the large attendance, should be chosen as a permanent place for these meetings.

The list of prizes and winners in connection with above Barn Day will appear in next week's edition of this newspaper.

Home-made Liquor Not So Good
Mr. Albert Roger, who lives on the Athelstan Road, is suspected of attempting to make home-made liquor. When the matter was investigated, it was found that Mr. Roger had in his possession a number of gallons of a mixture which appeared to be some form of alcoholic liquid. He had no still, however, and the concoction, it is believed, had not fermented. The case has been turned over to provincial authorities but, at last report, no charge has been laid.

Prince Street Not To Be Commercial Street

Heated Discussion on Subject and of By-laws Brings Vote Against

A full council was present for the regular meeting held at the County Building, on Monday evening and a considerable amount of business was on the agenda. Following the reading of the minutes of previous meetings and the passing of a number of accounts, requests of rate-payers were heard.

Requests were heard for drainage in several different parts of town and the council promised that these matters would be attended to at an early opportunity. Gravel was requested for Kelly Street and it was promised as soon as trucks were allowed to haul heavy loads again.

A delegation from Garden City appeared at the meeting and on their behalf, Alderman Tinker acted as spokesman. The delegation was with regard to the old question of annexation of this part with Huntingdon Town. It was pointed out that the valuation that could be added to Huntingdon was in the neighborhood of $103,000. There are twenty houses, plus four apartments as well as the plants. In addition there are twenty vacant lots and all have water and sewer. The delegation felt that the council should approach Hinchinbrook Council with a proposal that would be in answer to one laid down by that council last year. The residents were anxious to be annexed to Huntingdon and felt that the town would benefit by such annexation. Mayor Cappiello was in favor of giving the matter consideration and having a caucus to discuss some form of proposition to be made. Alderman Fournier was in favour of annexation but was if it was going to cost money. He was of the impression that the residents would soon come to the council with requests to be done. Things that needed to be done. It was partially decided to attend a meeting of the Hinchinbrook Council and to make a proposition after further discussion of the matter.

A second revolver was purchased from Leach's after the price of $50.00 for the police department. A letter was read from the Huntingdon Junior Chamber of Commerce suggesting that name plates be placed on the streets in a certain direction to the north and south those running in an opposite direction be named streets. That in all cases numbers be given such as 1st, 2nd, 3rd Avenue or Street as the case may be. It was also suggested O'Connor Street be renamed O'Connor. It was felt that the name Cemetery Street was a detriment to people locating on that street. Someone humorously referred to it as a dead sounding name. The council was in favour of the idea and said they would be glad to do it. There may be some legalities to changing the name of a street and this matter will be checked upon before decision is made in this regard. Another letter was read from the J. C. of asking that the council follow up on the matter of the cement wall along the river from the Shell Service Station by sending a letter to the Federal Government regarding this matter. This was agreed to.

Mr. Thomas Bell submitted a proposition to the council for an anniversary photograph of prominent citizens and business places such as Valleyfield had for its anniversary. The cost of the proposition would be borne by the citizens as per a list suggested or approved by the council. The council said they felt that it was on Mr. Bell to go ahead on the proposition and he had permission to do so.

A letter was read from the Huntingdon Gleaner with regard to advertising in a special souvenir edition that is to be published in connection with "Old Home Week". This brought on a discussion as to suitable decorations for the town and what money should be allowed for this purpose. Some thought that at least $500 should be set aside for this purpose. With regard to the decorations some felt that decorations should take first place, but more believed that the town should advertise some message of welcome to visitors for "Old Home Week". It was decided that a committee would interview the publisher of the Gleaner with regard to the advertisement. Meantime a committee is to go ahead with plans as to decorations for the town on the event of this 125th anniversary.

The claim of Mrs. Valcourt for money already received from a fall on the sidewalk on Chateaugay Street, last fall, has been refused by the court.

Milk report for samples taken April 20th was read as follows: Elmhurst, 12,000cc and 3.6 butterfat; Belle Vallee, 200,000cc and 3.4 butterfat; Monqui, 5,000cc and 3.4 butterfat; Pringle Bros., 460,000cc and 3.7 butterfat; R. Goodfellow, 72,000cc and 3.4 butterfat.

Fry-Cadbury sent a request for permission to open up a road near their plant. This was granted.

A request for a permit to build two houses on Bouchette Street was received from A. C. H. Picard. He will be asked to submit a proper application for the permit in which full particulars of the type and construction of the buildings will be given.

Alderman Lefebvre reported that much work is required to be done at the town dump. He said a bulldozer was needed to move the rubbish further inside the dump and off the road into the dump. Also gravel is needed on the road into the dump to fill in the holes that are there. It was further suggested that the public be asked to dump rubbish in the dump during the days when the town rubbish was being put there. It was decided that the work required should be done and the dump put into proper shape.

The matter of the dump brought up the matter of new trucks as the town will probably take over the collection of the garbage. It was decided to call for tenders for a new three-ton truck with short wheelbase and a hoist. Tenders to be in time for an adjourned meeting which will be held on May 15th.

A petition for Prince Street between Dalhousie and Bouchette to be declared a commercial street was read and contained a large number of full particulars of the matter. Mayor Cappiello wanted it understood that despite rumors he had heard, that there was no pressure being brought to bear by the firm of Labege and Lalonde and that he had no interest in this firm. He was speaking as a private citizen when he said he was opposed to a plumbing shop in front of his door. He did not want a mouthpiece to say this for him and he felt that the people on the street felt as he did that such would have the effect of lowering residential property values on the street.

Alderman Tinker said he was still of the opinion that no other businesses should be allowed on this street.

Mr. Lloyd Duhamel said he operated his plumbing business from this point in question, but that he had used as a warehouse. There are people in business on the street now and it is certainly a commercial street.

Alderman McWhinnie said we must adhere to the by-law until it is changed.

Alderman Foley said he was of the same opinion as when the matter was brought up before. Alderman Lefebvre said he believed the matter should be decided by a vote of the people on the street. Some businesses had been started on other streets and should not have been.

Alderman Fournier said he was also of the same opinion as was discussed before, but now other were feeling the same as he and he believed that Prince Street should be declared commercial.

Alderman Lefebvre said that only people on that street should pass an opinion.

Mayor Cappiello said that the by-law should be adhered to until it is changed.

A resolution was made by Alderman Fournier that Lloyd Duhamel be permitted to operate a shop until the by-law is revised. This was seconded by Alderman Saumur. It was opposed by Alderman Foley, Tinker and McWhinnie, Alderman Lefebvre remaining neutral and holding to his opinion of a vote.

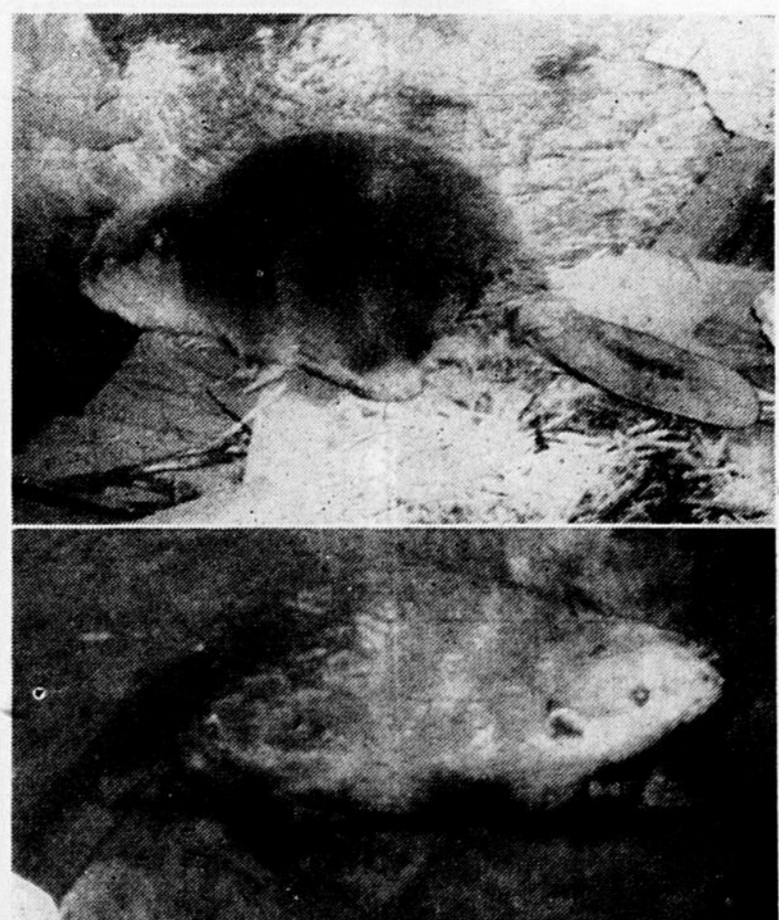

Alderman Fournier thereupon said the Mayor would have only until next February until it was changed. He remembered that there appeared two cards of thanks in the Gleaner after the last election and these were from Alderman Foley and Mayor Cappiello. It looked to him that this meant their job was done right then, but he is there for the people and he will not figure his job done until his office has expired. Meantime he will do his job for the people.

Mayor Cappiello said that every man was there to do his duty. The by-law can be amended at any time. There the matter was settled for the time being.

The Old Home Week committee requested that Friday night, July 21st be set aside for a street dance in connection with celebration. The request was granted.

The meeting adjourned until May 15th.

BEAVERS AT KENSINGTON, COUNTY OF HUNTINGDON

Above is an unusual close up shot of a beaver building its nest in an unused grist mill at Kensington, belonging to Mr. Maitland McCracken. The top picture shows the beaver at work inside the mill and the lower picture shows it in the water. These animals have been seen around this place for the past two years. They do not do any damage, apparently only making it a stopping off place. The picture was taken by The Gleaner photographer, Mr. Wm. Boyd.

Rotarians Hear Talk on Canadian Railroads

Frank Fortier, District Passenger Agent For C.P.R. Gives Interesting Address

On Monday, Mr. Frank Fortier addressed the members of the Rotary Club on the subject, "Canadian Railroads." Mr. Fortier, who is District Passenger Agent of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, is well known and well liked by the members of the club. He presented many interesting facts and figures which many of us who are inclined to take the railway for granted would do well to take note of.

Presented below is a condensed history of the country car: Being a railroader, it is only natural that my talk should deal with railroads in general and particularly about the Passenger Department with which I am connected.

I think the railroads hold a special place in the imagination of the Canadian people. To millions of small boys, their first trip to a railroad train was a great adventure.

The railroad is the greatest industry in Canada with its 200,000 employees. It carries over 32 million passengers and 140 million tons of goods. In other words, in one single year the Canadian railroads carry the equivalent of over 2 times the entire population of the country. The history of the country car: fall to give the railroads a brilliant chapter and to tell the colorful story of how the lines were built, in the fact of almost incredible obstacles, across the plains and mountains. Then, as time moved on, the railroads that made our industrial and agricultural development possible. Finally, when the country became involved in the great tragedy of war, it was the railroads that contributed enormously to the ultimate victory.

A railroad is more than an industry, more than a vast commercial undertaking. A railroad may be said to have a body and soul, just like an individual. The

Farm Forum Rally And Public Speaking Contest

Successful Contestants Announced at Ormstown Meeting on Monday

A very successful Public Speaking Contest sponsored by the County Farm Forums, His successor in Quebec, Mr. J. Davidson was also present.

Mr. King, Principal of Ormstown High School, told briefly the steps that were taken in Ormstown prior to the finals. Every pupil in the school was given an opportunity to speak. In the higher grades the speeches were written as part of their English Composition and marked as such. The process of elimination took several weeks, until one in each class group was left. This one representing his class in the finals.

There were eleven entrants in the competition from four of our six schools — Hemmingford, Howick, Ormstown and Huntingdon; Dundee and Franklin having no entrants this year. We hope that all our schools will have entrants for next year's finals. Start thinking about it now, and early in the Fall organize for the highest and best competition held yet.

This year contestants chose their own topics, which were varied and quite original. Miss Getty of Valleyfield, Mr. W. R. Wilson, Huntingdon and Rev. Mr. Marshall of Howick, very graciously acted as judges. Their task was not an easy one, and required very careful consideration, as the marks were very close. During the time of deliberation, Mr. Grisbach and Mr. Davidson spoke briefly on Farm Forum activities. Farm Forums will meet on June 24th, for their annual picnic at Macdonald College. A varied program has been arranged for that day, which should provide entertainment for all who can attend.

Mr. Grisbach and Mr. Davidson jointly conducted a song song. Mrs. Bruce Ness very kindly accompanied on the piano. This was enjoyed by all, especially the young fry, who sang lustily.

Rev. Marshall in his remarks, congratulated the contestants, especially the Juniors, who had done exceptionally well, and showed fine promise of oratorical ability.

The following are the results:

Juniors, Grades III—VI:

1. Peter Sutton, Ormstown, Topic—"Monkeys".
2. Billy Ness, Howick, Topic—"Puppies".
3. Garfield Beare, Huntingdon, Topic—"My Pet Lamb".
4. Betty Millar, Hemmingford, Topic—"The Versatile Peanut".

Intermediate, Grades VII—IX:

1. Eva MacFarlane, Howick, Topic—"Our Flag".
2. Betty Phillips, Huntingdon, Topic—"Down With Radio Commercial".

Howick Curlers Annual Supper is Great Success

On Wednesday, April 19th, the Howick Curlers, 150 in all, which included wives and sweethearts, met in the Temperance Hall, for their Annual Supper. The word supper hardly seems adequate. Oyster stew, cooked to perfection, delicious ham, salads, pickles, rolls, cakes, pie, ice cream and coffee. The couples selected to serve are George and Edith, and they alone know what an iron will is needed to prod them on to the later duty of serving their hungry fellow curlers. A clergyman wondered if the curlers hadn't eaten since the annual supper one year ago.

During the evening, Mr. Munro from Montreal, with Mrs. R. Stewart as accompanist, sang three numbers, Dedication, Where'er You Walk, and Bless This House. This music was well received and heartily applauded. Mr. Munro also led community singing.

In the absence of Mr. T. T. Gebbie, Mr. Wallace Logan acted as chairman. He called on Rev. Mr. Marshall, Rev. Mr. Edward, Mr. Welch and Mr. Keith Farquharson, who spoke briefly. Mr. Marshall had written some amusing verses suitable to the occasion. Mr. Edwards spoke of the value of such clubs in drawing members of a community closer. Mr. Welch summed up the feelings of all the curlers when he expressed genuine regret that some amusing verses Stewart were unable to attend the annual supper. Mr. Farquharson thanked the curlers for the hearty welcome they give the teachers and in a lighter vein referred to the curling activities of his wife.

The evening would not be complete without Dr. Wilfrid Watson and his humorous sidelights. This year he is compiling a book about curling. Bruce Ness has promised a chapter entitled "To sweep or not to sweep"; Willie Peddie, "That last stone of mine"; Mitchell Ness, "O'curler, I've missed it again"; Wallace Logan, "Short and narrow again". It should be a good book if the writers cooperate.

The bachelors take some good-natured ribbing at these affairs. Archie Roy was shaking in his slippers without Dr. Wilfrid Watson, who was allowed to suffer in silence. I've missed it again, however, who had played as a lady in a 10c bonspiel, looked slightly perturbed when called upon by Mrs. Mattice to accept a pattern suitable for a new curling costume.

The highlight of the evening was singing by the four ladies who attended the Sherbrooke Bonspiel: Mrs. S. Roy, Mrs. Don Ness, Mrs. Brown, Miss Laura Robertson. These ladies, wearing long skirts (over their husbands' red underwear), plaid shirts, tams and sashes, and carrying brooms, had the crowd in tears of laughter as they sang with great pathos, "Don't Go Curling Tonight, Mother". As an encore they sang, "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Curling Stones", which was equally well received. One of the pleasing features of the evening was the presentation of prizes. Mrs. Bruce Ness, president of the Ladies' Club, spoke briefly, then assisted by Mrs. W. Logan, presented the prizes.

Prize donated by English River Ladies, cup and saucer — Mrs. Farquharson, Mrs. Desrosseiller, Mrs. McRae, Mrs. J. R. Younie, skip.

— Mrs. Mattice, Stay-at-Home Bonspiel, ear rings — Miss C. Robinson, Mrs. Potts, Mrs. C. Younie, Mrs. Don Ness, skip.

Club prize, water glasses — Mrs. Farquharson, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Mattice, Mrs. Bruce Ness, skip.

Miss Laura Robertson prize for points, teapot, won by Mrs. Frank Sutherland.

The ladies did not win any trophies, but played an outstanding games in Montreal and brought prizes home from several bonspiels.

The Men's Club had a successful year and several cups were on display. Other club prizes were presented.

Lacolle Trophy — Geo. Menard, Ken McRae, Eric Ness, Bruce Ness, skip.

Hawley Trophy, Kingston — Wilfrid Gruer, Ken McRae, Clarence Kerr, Donald Ness, skip.

Dr. Moore Trophy, Wilburn Anderson, Mervyn Craig, Russell Logan, Bruce Ness, skip.

Runners-up, Valleyfield Bonspiel — Ivan Knox, Archie Peddie, Donald Roy, Archie Roy, skip.

Consolation at Aubrey Bonspiel — Whitford McKell, Ken McRae, Roy Younie, William Peddie, skip.

Runners-up in Elgin — Robert Ness, Ken McRae, Russell Logan, Bruce Ness, skip.

Shawinigan Rinks — local — Geo.

Activities at St. Joseph's

The pupils of St. Joseph's School staged their annual evening entertainment last Friday. The Parochial Hall was not spacious enough to seat the 300 people who attended. Rev. Father Pigeon presided assisted by Rev. Father Quenneville and Rev. Bro. Raymond, c.s.v., the principal of St. Joseph's School.

St. Joseph's Choir opened the concert with a hymn of gratitude to their beloved parents. All were dressed with a white shirt and blue breeches and a tam with the initials S.J.S. — St. Joseph's School.

Then the "bots" offered their gratitude to Rev. Father Pigeon in an appropriate manner appreciated by all and there followed a series of gymnastics given by a group of junior boys. Mr. S. J. Currie provided the facilities for the music. The boys did well, though there were a couple of slight mistakes.

Our English boys gave a playlet entitled "The Counter-Sign"; well acted, with the exception of one delicate voice of one of our "guards". A French song, "Maitre Pierre", was presented by the choir, assisted by the audience.

Our senior boys executed their gymnastics with great skill and they are to be congratulated.

Later another English playlet was given, entitled "The Taught Lesson", with the two actors doing extremely well. Again our choirists gave another popular song, "Pun-cu-cu Funicula", which pleased the audience.

Another special number was dedicated to Rev. Bro. Raymond, our principal. It was given by a group of our youngsters, "The end of comedy, 'Les Terreurs de l'Oncle Berburon', a play in two acts. Our seniors did very well and amused the audience greatly. The stage was well ornamented with brand new furniture, thanks to Mr. Fradet and Mr. Beaudin.

Finally, Rev. Father Pigeon gave a word of thanks and congratulations to the pupils and to Bro. J. A. Gagnon who organized and presented the programme. All the pupils relatives left the hall very pleased and proud of their children.

In the afternoon the entire programme was given again to the girls and boys of our school. Attending were over 350 pupils.

Bro. J. A. Gagnon wishes to thank most sincerely all those who contributed to the success of the production. Monday morning at 10.30 was the

ATHELSTAN — The Southern Division of the United Church W.M.S. held its Easter Thank Offering meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the good Mrs. Reese. The worship service theme was "Christ is Risen", in which several of the members participated. Mrs. T. J. Graham gave a most interesting report of the last year's meeting in Montreal. The thank offering was a most gratifying. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. George Boyce when a social hour was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. E. C. Boyce, one of the oldest residents of this community, quietly celebrated her 87th birthday at her home on Friday last, when her friends kindly remembered her with cards, flowers and other gifts. Mr. Alex Arnold attended the funeral of the late Mr. Robert Arnold at Brainardville, N.Y., on Saturday.

Miss Lillian Munro, R.N., of the Western Hospital, Montreal, spent the week-end at her home on the Ridgeway.

Miss Helen Elder and friend, Miss Bonnie Pung-a-ling, of Macdonald College, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Elder.

Mrs. E. DeBanks and daughters Margaret and Sandra, Mrs. Forrest and daughter Ann, and Marion Anders, all of Montreal, spent the week-end at the Anders home.

Mrs. Myrtle Stewart spent the week at Como, where she was the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Jesty.

Thankoffering

A belated Easter Thankoffering meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary was held on Thursday night in the Presbyterian Church Hall. The programme for Easter as given in the Glad Tidings was followed, the Call to Worship, followed by several hymns, and prayer by Mrs. Jamieson. Roll call was answered by a verse on "Mercy". The treasurer's report showed a small sum on hand, and she was instructed to forward same to Montreal. The offering amounted to $20. and Offertory prayer given by Mrs. Jamieson. Mrs. H. G. Grace gave a very earnest talk on the Message of Easter and the Risen Christ. Mrs. W. C. Tully thanked Mrs. Grace on behalf of the Society for her inspiring talk. The meeting closed with singing "Go,

A WEEKLY INFORMATION SERVICE

MONTREAL—Now what is it that people like most about chocolate? Its rich flavour? Its tempting colour? Its creamy smoothness? Probably all three when you come right down to it. And I'm so pleased to find that BAKER'S UNSWEETENED CHOCOLATE provides all three in any of my chocolate dishes. Baker's has that deep, dark deliciousness that makes chocolate the "most requested" flavour, for Baker's is all pure chocolate with nothing added, nothing taken away. Do try Baker's the next time you want to have a particularly grand frosting, or a superb chocolate cake. I know you'll enjoy Baker's richer flavour.

May's Longer Days mean jaunts to the country and evenings out of doors. I find I spend more time away from home in the Spring and Summer months than that's why my Safety Deposit Box for less than two cents a day! So ask about this service at your nearest B of M branch tomorrow. You'll find a B of M Safety Deposit Box will give you a wonderful sense of security!

Planning a Bridge Party? Your list of "nothing-but-the-best" refreshments won't be complete without RED ROSE TEA! Yes, Red Rose is a taste-treat to cause happy comment among your bridge guests. And it's not just a special occasion treat, but so economical that you can make an every-day, year-round habit of it! Did you know that a delicious, flavour-packed cup of Red Rose Tea costs you less than a cent, including the cream and sugar? It's a simple, mathematical fact! Because Red Rose Tea is good tea, it actually gives you more cups per pound — its flavour goes a long, long way! Just one more thing. When you're ordering your Red Rose Tea, ask for Red Rose Coffee, too! You will find that Red Rose Coffee is as good as Red Rose Tea.

Just For Us Women! . . . the makers of that great DURHAM CORN STARCH know that a handy to handle package helps make cooking a pleasure! That's why they've spent months designing this brand new Durham Corn Starch package that's a pleasure to open! Just pinch the top and roll back — no fumbling with a knife or other sharp instrument to open it! Inside you'll find "Durham" carefully protected in a paper bag. Then, when you've finished using it, replace the lid and your corn starch will be protected completely from dust for the next time you use it. And you'll be thrilled by the luscious recipes on every package of Durham Corn Starch! One of my favourites is Maple Walnut Cream — so good when it's made with Durham!

It's ALWAYS In Demand in our house at mealtimes . . . that's why I make a particular point of having a good supply of HEINZ TOMATO KETCHUP always on hand! There's scarcely a dish that doesn't taste twice as tempting when it's flavoured with zesty, exciting Heinz Ketchup! Just try it! You'll find so many taste-wise uses for this Heinz "Flavour Magic" . . . it's perfect with egg dishes, stews and hashes and wonderful in gravy. Of course the Heinz Chef uses plenty of rich, rosy pigmented "Aristocrat" tomatoes as a base in Heinz Ketchup — so no wonder it's good! When eating out or at home be sure to look for the famous red bottle.

If Your Husband has discovered here a "sure" side to Spring gardening . . . here's the answer to his problem! SLOAN'S LINIMENT brings wonderful relief to muscles sore from digging and planting! In fact, Sloan's is a wonder for all kinds of aches 'n' pains! It brings amazingly quick relief to folks suffering from sprains — stiff necks — neuralgia or rheumatism. You see, its penetrating heat gets right to the root of the ache . . . soothes it — relieves the congestion. You never without a bottle of Sloan's Liniment — Winter, Summer, Spring or Fall . . . it's such a comfort! Ask your druggist for Sloan's Liniment tomorrow . . . it's only 40c a bottle!

There's Good Reason why this Silver Moon Cake is so popular. It's tender, light, and melt-in-your-mouth. There's a reason for that, too, and the super-fineness, the superb evenness of SWANS DOWN CAKE FLOUR is the answer! Try this and see if you don't agree it's one of the best cakes you've ever made.

SILVER MOON CAKE (5 egg whites)

3 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
3 teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

2/3 cup butter or other shortening
1 3/4 cups sugar
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
egg whites

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt; sift together three times. Cream butter, add sugar gradually; cream together until fluffy. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Beat egg whites until they will hold up in moderate peaks. Stir quickly but thoroughly into batter. Bake in three greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375° F.) about 20 minutes. Spread lemon icing between layers and over cake.

Mrs. D. McDonald, Montreal, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Simpson.

Mr. T. Leahy's sale on Thursday drew a large crowd. Prices were good. Mr. and Mrs. Leahy and family will move to Plattsburg, N.Y., in the near future, where Mr. Leahy has accepted a position. Their neighbors and friends wish them much happiness in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Peets, Tupper Lake, N.Y., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Deneault, also called on other relatives.

Mrs. Heather, Montreal, is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Barr.

Mr. Charles Barr has purchased Mr. S. Walsh's house and will move the beginning of May.

Mr. Roy McCause purchased Mrs.

Andrew Cascard's house on West St. They will also move in May. Best wishes are extended to both families by their friends and neighbors.

Mr. John Ryan, Huntingdon and Mr. Francis Ryan, Montreal spent Sunday afternoon at their home here.

On Wednesday evening the congregation of St. Andrew's United Church together with a few intimate friends gathered in the Church Hall to bid farewell to two of their well-loved workers, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Walsh. A programme of music and recitations was very much enjoyed and included recitations by Miss J. Wilson and Mr. Sweet, piano solos by Miss Sheila Holmes and Mr. Arnold McNaughton, a solo by Rev. W. Holmes and singing by both choirs. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh were presented with travelling valises on behalf of the church by Mr. Walter Barr and Mr. R. J. M. Reid. Mr. Walsh on behalf of himself and Mrs. Walsh expressed the appreciation they felt for the many kindnesses extended to them and hoped their friends would visit them in their new home. Refreshments were served by the Women's Association under the leadership of Mrs. A. Derrick.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Walsh left on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Walsh is going to Sherbrooke, while Mr. Walsh expects to spend a short time in Florida before going to join Mr. and Mrs. Walsh. They expect to spend the most of the summer in Sherbrooke with Mrs. Walsh's mother, Mrs. Andrew Sangster. Mr. Kenneth Walsh has secured a position in Ottawa for the summer months. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barr are moving into Mr. Walsh's home, having purchased the farm a short time ago.

Artificial Ice Assured For Beauharnois Curlers

BEAUHARNOIS — Tuesday evening, April 25th, the Beauharnois Curling Club held its fourth annual meeting at the Beauharnois Hotel, to wind up the 1950 season. After a hearty steak dinner, Dr. Edouard Simon presented his President's report. The high light of his talk was his statement that the contract for the installation of artificial ice equipment had been signed by the Club with McDonald & Wilson Co., Limited, of Montreal. This announcement was greeted with enthusiastic applause as it was the culmination of three years' effort on the part of the members to achieve this object. It will extend the season over double the present length and will give an opportunity to curl from November to April without the uncertainty which has marked the past seasons due to the mild and unseasonable weather. Further, it will develop the young Beauharnois curlers as it will provide the chance to engage in some friendly matches with the experienced curlers from the Howick and Aubrey district and even from Ormstown during their off season.

At the conclusion of his remarks Dr. Simon then presented the trophies and prizes to the skips and members of winning rinks of the local competitions. The St. Lawrence Alloys & Metals Limited Trophy was won by the rink skipped by M. R. Reany with Alex. MacLachlan, third, John Lloyd, second, and Len Gardiner, lead. The Pat Lid Trophy was won for the second time in a row by Ed. Elliott, skip with Zenon D'Aoust, third, L. M. Vigeant, second and J. P. Carriere, lead. These curlers also received four cups and saucers each from the Granite Association. Dr. Simon then called on Jacques Turnbull to present the Bridge Club Curling Trophy. This was donated three years ago by eight members of a local bridge group for competition amongst themselves. Since the local curling has been organized these members have been too busy curling to find time for bridge. This trophy was won this year by the rink consisting of A. R. Turnbull, lead, C. W. Kilgour, second, Andrew Kokko, third, and R. B. Calhoun, skip.

During the business meeting the following Directors were elected for a two-year term: J. C. Atkinson, Zenon D'Aoust, Andrew Kokko, Francois Roussau, Dr. Edouard Simon, L. M. Vigeant, and J. G. Watson and the following remained for the second year of their two-year term: R. B. Calhoun, J. E. Charlebois, C. W. Kilgour, J. A. Larose, J. O. Parker, M. R. Reany and A. R. Turnbull.

The election concluded the annual meeting and then the Directors met to elect the officers of the Club with the following results: President, Dr. E. Simon; Vice-President, Andrew Kokko; Secy., R. B. Calhoun; Chairman, Ice Committee, J. O. Parker; Match, J. A. Larose; Entertainment, I. C. Watson; Membership, J. E. Charlebois.

"Young Man With A Horn" is truly a great motion picture. It's compelling and unforgettable. The saga of a man who found jazz was the biggest thing in his life, who sacrificed love and happiness to pour his soul into music. "Bad Boy" is a story of a boy who did not come from the wrong side of the tracks. Who came from a fine family with a good bringing up, and yet became the nation's number one criminal. What does it? You will find the answer when you see "Bad Boy".

Plan Now for Ormstown Exhibition

WE have now started into the month of May which brings us to within one month of the date of Ormstown Exhibition. Entries must be in by the 17th of this month and that leaves very few days in which to decide what will be entered. Many entries have already been received, but the exhibition officials are looking for many more and expect that as in other years there will be a record number by the closing date.

The show is a great event and is looked forward to by a large number of people every year. In fact it starts off the events of the summer season in this area. Not only this, but it attracts a great patronage from points far and wide. The horse show is something which everyone likes to see and also brings in a number of very fine horses to participate.

Watchdog of Treasury Rouses Ire in The House

MR. WATSON SELLAR, Auditor-General for Canada, usually puts his finger on the vital spots that affect the spending activities of the Federal Government. It is the job of the auditor to point out and find out errors and be satisfied that all is well with the books and accounts he has been charged to look into. If there are any covering up tactics used, they should be investigated to see if such are responsible for losses that may appear. It should also be ascertained if such losses are legitimate or merely appearing that way. Advice as to better methods of book-keeping is also in order and sometimes economies can be effected by such advice.

As is the custom, Mr. Sellar gave a brief on the general financial set-up of the Federal Government and in so doing, pointed out where he believed some things to have been done wrong. Many times in business there enters a negotiation which might almost be termed "barter", where an article, or articles are exchanged for a predetermined value of other articles. No cash is involved, but it is necessary to make a record of the transaction so that it can be included in the inventory and keep the balances straight. In fact any transaction in business should be recorded in order to keep account of what is being done. On the other hand, if goods are purchased and then given away as donations, such donations becomes a charge against the business and must be listed as expenses. It was something similar to this that Mr. Sellar brought to the attention of the House.

Mr. Sellar stated that surplus food was being given away by the Farm Prices Support Board and that such donations were a charge against the amount of money voted to the Board by Parliament. He made a suggestion that instead of sending this food overseas, it would be better to distribute it where needed in Canada and have the Provincial Governments look after the distributions. Mr. Sellar was of the belief that it was not up to individual departments to dispose of anything in a way that was contrary to the requirement for which money had been authorized in the first place. Giving away surplus food was in effect giving away money without authorization of parliament. This part of the brief brought forth the ire of the Premier and also brought on a heated discussion in the House. Mr. Sellar also had

What's The Difference

EARLY in the war, Canada introduced national registration regulations and all adult Canadians had to carry their registration certificates with them at all times. The war was over less than a year when the necessity for carrying certificates was ruled out.

Ottawa's action in calling a country-wide registration when it did was due to the exigencies of war, but its almost immediate dispensation with the rule at the cessation of active hostilities satisfied Canadians that here was not the vaguest suggestion of police state. Compare Canada with East Germany today under its Communist masters. Soviet authorities on the far side of the Iron curtain splitting Germany into uneasy halves are busy compiling a master card index detailing the political history of each of the 17,000,000 persons in the red-controlled state.

The new "personal" sheet, which must be answered truthfully—or else!—by everyone, will record the beginning, duration and ending of the citizen's membership in any poli-

A ribbon from Ormstown Exhibition for any one of your cattle exhibits is as good as a prize won at any of the larger shows, so well in this exhibition thought of. To persons intending to exhibit at other fairs during the year, it pays to be sure and show at Ormstown. It pays too, to exhibit at this show, for it builds up prestige for the showman and for the entry he places on exhibition. Therefore do not delay too long in getting those entries in—time goes fast at this time of the year when everyone is busy—better be early than late.

Meanwhile let us urge everyone to keep in mind that Ormstown Exhibition is little more than a month away and to plan now to attend at least once during the period of the show.

something to say about the estimates and he wanted the texts of estimates so phrased as to permit efficient application.

It was only natural that Opposition Members should seize on the matters that were brought out and perhaps it was this that aroused the anger of Premier Louis St. Laurent more than the suggestions made. We are of the opinion that the Auditor-General is right in what he says, because it is only following the practices of general business. Sometimes government is spoken of as big business, but after all its business affects everyone and it is only right that its practice of business should be along the lines that are generally followed by all business. The only difference in government business, there is no profit supposed to be made. If a profit (or surplus as it is known) is made, then savings in taxes should be passed on to the taxpayer to reduce the profit. It should be in the interests of government to effect economies as much as it is to other business. The whole of government business is based on estimates, therefore they are an important factor. It follows then that great attention should be paid to the estimates and that there should be no chance of juggling the funds as between one department and the other.

Estimates can only be estimates, but parliament votes money to various departments of the government on the basis of estimates provided by them. It is up to each department to do its best to see the money is used to the best advantage of that department. If some can be saved by economy, then it should be saved. If a slip has been made and the estimate proves too low, then the loss should be reported as such. If this was understood in the beginning, each department would be more careful in the handling of its allotted sum.

Actually this was all Mr. Sellar was asking, but he was almost accused of dictating to the government and setting up the procedure which the government should be following. In other words, of trying to take the place of the elected representatives. There is no doubt that a large number of the members in the House were deeply interested in what Mr. Sellar had to say. If his report has brought such notice, then it may result in changes being made that will be of benefit.

Russia Warming Up The Cold War

FOR the past several weeks Russia seems to have been finding things to throw into the face of the United States in particular and to all members of the West in general. There have been several "incidents" over the past few weeks, probably one of the most serious, the shooting down of an American plane over the Baltic with some loss of life to American airmen. There is the demand for the withdrawal of British and American troops from Trieste and making this a free territory. There is the threat that a march will be made on Berlin in May with the object of ousting British, French and United States authorities.

To some extent the foregoing sizes up the warming up processes in the cold war of which we have heard so much about. The British have warned Russia that if a march is started on Berlin and trouble occurs, they will not hesitate to use machine guns to stop the disturbance. Meanwhile the United States has asked restitution in the case of the downed plane and Russia has refused to recognize any claims. The United States regards this as a very serious incident and is considering the course of action it should follow. There is a possibility of a break in diplomatic relations, but this would arouse feelings among the populace of the States that war could follow.

There is no doubt however, that a tense situation is developing and the threat of the May march could have even wider implications. If bloodshed should enter into the picture, it is possible then for anything to happen. As the situation now stands, the picture is anything but beautiful, we could say it is decidedly ugly.

May 6
The Edison Phonograph tone test was held in O'Connor Hall on Thursday evening under the auspices of Pringle, Stark & Co., the dealers in Edison machines. About 1000 people were present. Three talented artists provided the entertainment. Miss Claire Peteler, who by the natural sweetness of her singing and ease of manner at once won the approval of the audience. From time to time she paused in her singing and the Edison carried on the melody, the only perceptible difference being in the volume of sound; tone for tone the instrument matched her voice perfectly. The other performers, a whistler and a violinist also held the audience in spell-bound silence.

Nearly every day the papers carry reports of fresh outrages perpetrated by the terrorists in Ireland. It is debatable that, if such outrages were perpetrated against authorities in the United States, the U.S. would show as much leniency as the British have. Yet we read column after column in the American papers condemning Britain and her policy toward Ireland.

Howick—The building at the Grand Trunk Station previously owned by Jas. Desrosellier, the barber, has been rented to the Bank National and a branch will be opened shortly.

Saturday night we were reminded of Kentucky where rival factions would meet from time to time and fight, win-lose-or-draw, in an effort to wipe out an old score. Two local rivals staged a disgraceful row on the back streets on Saturday evening, the results being black eyes and several cuts which required medical attention. Some people are better at "rough neck" stuff than at enlisting for a real fight when their services as fighters might be of some value.

SINCE BRITISH QUIT INDIA

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

Four years ago I sat in the Strangers' Gallery of the House of Commons in London and looked down and listened to Prime Minister Attlee reading the proposed new Constitution for India, which was to separate that country from the British Empire. Mr. Attlee read the long and fateful document in a matter-of-fact and routine manner, like a lawyer's clerk reading a will to the assembled members of a family after a funeral. A solemn silence prevailed in the packed chamber throughout the reading. Beside me in the Gallery were several natives of India who listened with intense interest. Directly opposite to me in the front Opposition bench sat Winston Churchill with his chin on his chest, brooding and probably recalling what he had said during the war, that he had "no intention of presiding over the liquidation of the Empire." Beside him sat Anthony Eden with arms folded and head thrown back, calmly surveying the throat-tree of the historic chamber.

Some days later I sat at the dining-room table of a private hotel in Glasgow with three natives of India who were attending the local University. During the meal one of them was occupied in studying a sheet of mimeographed papers, from which he read excerpts to his companions. At first I thought it was a report in one of the numerous Indian languages, for he read so rapidly and ran one word into another. Occasionally I caught an English word, and later learned that he was reading from a copy of the new Indian Constitution which Mr. Attlee had read in the House of Commons.

In conversation with the three young men I discovered that they were Moslems, and they vehemently declared that the Moslems would never agree to a single government for India, because it would mean the domination of 300 million Hindus over 100 million Moslems. They wanted India divided into Hindu and Moslem states. "We want Pakistan!" they shouted.

Well, that was four years ago, and after much bloodshed and the assassination of Gandhi, the Moslems got their Pakistan and the British have withdrawn from India. In this morning's paper there appeared a news dispatch from Karachi, Pakistan, which read: "Unless international aid is swiftly provided for Pakistan's more than 8,000,000 refugees—the largest dispossessed population in the world—a terrible human disaster may be shaping up. Epidemics are feared by government officials. Sporadic cases of smallpox and measles have already been reported in camps situated in the western part of this huge country, divided into two sections by the subcontinent of India."

That is only a bit of the story of the result of the withdrawal of British government from India. Most of the country is in a state of political chaos and racial and religious strife. Pakistan is today the world's largest Moslem state, but more than 10 per cent of its population is said to be comprised of penniless refugees, and hundreds of thousands are swarming into East Pakistan from the Hindu parts of the country.

The Moslems have got their Pakistan, but if those three Moslem students in Glasgow could have foreseen what it would mean, they would not have been so vehement in their demand for independence. They did, however, tell me that although they regarded the British as "foreigners" they did not want them to withdraw from the country right away. They admitted that the British had established a good form of government and that the presence of the British garrisons prevented serious racial and religious uprisings. What impressed me most about those Moslem students was their intense hatred of the Hindus, whereas they were extremely courteous to me as a Britisher.

Whatever may be said about British rule in India, it maintained law and order in that country for over a hundred years. Moreover, the British occupation put an end to the repeated invasions of India and made peace among the native princes who were constantly at war with each other. With the achievement of independence India is rent in twain and might easily be overrun by the Russians and the Communist armies of China. Communists are already organized as fifth columnists in various parts of In-Rockburn—Last Thursday afternoon a heavily loaded American car pulled into town from the north, bound for the domains of Uncle Sam. Had it carried a cargo of booze, the incident would have been too commonplace to attract attention; but the passage of the vehicle was marked by a dense cloud of smoke. The driver complacently puffed a cigar, quite unconscious that anything was wrong until suddenly the odor of burning rubber reached his nostrils and he discovered that the jalopy was on fire. Hastily applying the brakes, he jumped to safety. He neglected, however, to shift to neutral and the car sped on until stopped by a friendly telegraph pole. The ladies' bucket brigade came to the rescue and soon had the flames under control.

After the acceptance by Germany of the terms of the Allies, a few weeks at least of quietness is expected in Europe.

Athelstan—Mr. Harold Bickford motored to his home in Richford, Vt. Saturday, returning on Monday. Miss Annie Johnson has returned from Montreal where she has been with her mother for a number of days. Miss Ina Macdonald came home last Friday to spend a week with her mother. The fountain on Chateauguay St. has received a fresh coat of paint but owing to a defect in the water connection, no water is available. On Wednesday morning, two deer were seen grazing on the farm of Mr. McCaffery, of Boyd Settlement. They were fine, large animals which did not seem to be at all alarmed in their strange surroundings. Later in the day they crossed several farms and were probably heading for their old haunts in the south woods.

The Grand Trunk ran their first Sunday train on May 2nd. It is a most popular train during the summer months. The General Passenger Agent in Montreal has announced that Mr. Phil Lefebvre has been appointed Town Agent of Huntingdon. The G.T. are to be congratulated on their choice.

ORMSTOWN BRANCH, QUEBEC WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

MISS KATE MURPHY,

President, Ormstown Branch, Quebec Women's Institute.

THE BARRIE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL has been substantially aided by the Women's Institute of Ormstown, Quebec. The Institute has donated $350 to the Hospital and contributed $225 toward furnishing the reception room. Last year it held a shower at which home-made jam, jellies and pickles were collected to brighten patients' meals.

THE HUNTINGDON COUNTRY HOSPITAL and the County Hospital Fund have also been given financial assistance by the Women's Institute.

A WHEEL CHAIR for public use is the gift of the Women's Institute. Members also do Red Cross work and assist the Canadian Cancer Society.

SCHOOL CHILDREN are not overlooked by the Women's Institute. The 38-member organization contributes both cash and canned goods to the School Cafeteria. Prizes for public speaking are donated to children up to Grade 7.

FOOD SALES, dance recitals, school parties, card parties and birthday boxes are among the many ways in which the Institute raises the funds necessary to carry on its work. In addition, members donate money out of their own pockets.

THE OGILVIE FLOUR MILLS, in recognition of outstanding community achievement, is donating $100 to the Women's Institute of Ormstown.

The Town of the Week is selected by The Ogilvie Flour Mills Co., Limited on the basis of outstanding community achievement. As a more tangible tribute, Ogilvie also donates $100 for the benefit of each town selected. Presentation of this award is made on the Kate Aitken Radio Program over a coast-to-coast network.

St. Andrew's W.M.S. Meeting
The April meeting of St. Andrew's W.M.S. met on Wednesday, April 26, at the home of Miss C. Robb, with a large attendance. The president, Mrs. Geo. Paul, was in the chair and conducted the devotional exercises. The roll call was responded to by giving a verse of Scripture containing the word "Resurrection".

Miss Turner read several letters from members to whom cards and fruit had been sent. Mrs. Paul read a letter from the secretary of the children's department with the object of promoting interest in missions among the children and young people. The treasurer reported that about $22 had been taken in at the recent food sale. Arrangements were made for the spring Thank-offering meeting to be held on the evening of May 4, when Miss L. Simpson will speak. As she is addressing the different auxiliaries she will stay in Huntingdon for several days and will be entertained by Mrs. Bruce.

Mrs. Turner gave the report of the meeting in Ormstown, at which Mrs. Williams gave an interesting talk.

Mrs. Moody asked for new subscribers for the price 75 cents. Next meeting to be on May 31, with the word "Glory" chosen for the roll call.

Mrs. Bruce had the lesson for the day and gave an interesting talk on Japan's New Day. Japan, which has a population of 75 millions. Only a small part of the land is tillable, being mostly rough and mountainous. The people claim celestial origin for their land, as was shown by an old legend of how Japan was formed by the gods.

In 1842 ships from Portugal and France came; then in 1800 English sailors arrived. But Japan banished all white men from the land and lived in seclusion.

Years after, a young emperor came to the throne who became interested in other lands. He sent experts to the other nations that they might learn their ways. American business methods were adapted very quickly. Schools were built when they realized the value of education. Thus with the help and example of other nations, Japan is in the way of becoming a modern nation.

Dr. J. B. Maclean closed the meeting with prayer, after which a social time was spent, with refreshments served by the hostess and the Desvittville members.

Y.W.A. Meeting
The regular monthly meeting of St. Andrew's Y.W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Irvin McWhinnie, on Tuesday, April 18th, with nineteen members and one visitor present. The meeting was with a prayer by the president, Mrs. Albert Godin, followed by a scripture reading by Mrs. Kenneth Ferns. A discussion followed and it was decided to invite a play to be held in May. A committee was appointed to work on the play and cut nighties for the layettes. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction after which tasty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ed Goodfellow.

W.I. Meeting
The monthly meeting of the Huntingdon branch of the Women's Institute was held on Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Alex Robb. The roll call was made with each member naming her favourite flower. Minutes of the last meeting were read, also letters of thanks.

A motion was carried that the Branch present $25, as prizes for different classes at the Huntingdon Fair.

Plans were made to go to the County Convention which is being held Friday, May 5th, at Riverfield. After the reports from the different conveners were given, Mrs. Bernhardt gave a very interesting talk on the short course held last summer at Macdonald College which she attended.

At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served.

Tony Returns Home from Rome
A. M. (Tony) Cappiello has returned home from a pilgrimage trip he made to Rome where he spent Easter. Mr. Cappiello made the trip as a member of a conducted tour that provided for visits to France and his native land, Italy. Tony thoroughly enjoyed his trip irrespective of the fact that he had a severe cold during part of the journey. We hope to be able to have a visit with Tony this week-end and then be able to further enlighten our readers, as a result of the interview.

Hospital Donations
The Huntingdon County Hospital wishes to acknowledge with thanks the donations received of recent date. The collection received at Lenten Service in United Church, $14.20; Easter service of song in St. Andrew's Church, $7.15; Rev. J. Maclean, D.D., T. J. Whealon, S. Rosenschein, Mrs. Boldovitch, Gordon McLean and Miss Hazel L. Vass, $10, each; A. H. Crutchfield and J. L. Cluff, $20, each; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rolfe $40, and an anonymous donation of $25. Total $250.35.

School Concert
On Friday, many Huntingdon parents may be surprised to find that their sons and daughters have a considerable amount of talent. On May 5th the students of the Huntingdon High School will present a variety concert and a play which promises to be highly entertaining, an event which no one should miss.

Mrs. George Hood and Mrs. H. R. Graham attended the Diocese of Montreal Hundredth Anniversary Lay Luncheon, on April 26, Windsor Hotel, Montreal.

In the article on the public speaking contest at Ormstown, which appeared in last week's Gleaner, it was erroneously reported that Basil Kelly came third in his group. Mr. Kelly who, in the semifinals was rated as the best speaker in Grade XI, did extremely well in Ormstown where he ranked second.

Mrs. Steve McDermid was the week-end guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Yule, at Verdun.

Mrs. W. Perkins, Mae, Messrs. John and Jim Jamieson were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McEwen, Ormstown, Que.

Mrs. Irene Helm, of Montreal, was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Cairns, Mr. Herbert Cunningham was a Sunday guest at the Cairns home.

RECENT WEDDING

NUSSEY-JONES

The wedding of Miss Jean Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jones to L.A.C. K. C. Nussey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nussey, Brysonville, took place Saturday, April 22, at 3 o'clock in St. Stephen's Church. The Rev. Mr. Love officiated at the double ring ceremony with Mrs. M. McNaughton at the organ. Pink and white snapdragons formed the decorations.

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Walker, as matron of honor, and by Misses Dona and Diane Raney as flower girls. The best man was Mr. Jack McAllister, and ushers were Mr. Douglas McGerrigle, Jr., and Mr. Bert Jones. The bride wore a gown of white bridal satin with fitted bodice, and long sleeves ending with points over the hands. She wore a finger-tip veil of tulle illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

The matron of honor wore a gown of lavender satin, styled along the same lines and a matching scoop bodice. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses. The flower girls wore pale green satin dresses, with a halo of sweet peas and lily of the valley and carried nosegays of pink, yellow and white flowers.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jones, Westmount. The bridal couple left for Ottawa for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a navy blue two-piece suit with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Nussey will reside at Aylmer, Ont.

GEEBRO CORD

The Modern Floor Covering

GEEBRO CORD floor coverings are now obtainable in a range of charming colour combinations and the fact that it is manufactured from the Empire's best Sisal, which has been dyed with a carefully selected range of colours to ensure maximum fastness to light, makes this GEEBRO CORD the pre-eminent floor covering of modern time.

The material is tough for it will withstand many years' hard and continued use without showing signs of wear. The harmonious colours are woven in fourteen patterns in three different ranges.

GEEBRO CORD is the least expensive and the most durable of modern floor coverings, and the various designs can be obtained from the leading stores and furnishers. Full details of the many widths and sizes available are given at store.

GEEBRO CORD lies flat and will not curl or wrinkle. Should it become necessary to clean the covering, soap should not be used, only plain warm water is needed.

Available in the following sizes:

Size 46" x 23"	4.95

MEUNIER-RAYMOND

Last Saturday, Miss Laurette Raymond, daughter of Mr. and the late Mrs. Napoleon Raymond, of St. Mathias de Laprairie, and Mr. Romeo Meunier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Meunier of St. Clothilde, were joined in wedlock. They were married in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Remi by Father Lucien Roy. The bride was given away by her father.

Huntingdon

Play at United Church On Friday evening, the lecture room of the Huntingdon United Church was completely filled with a large audience attending a play put on by the Valleyfield Y.W. The three-act comedy was entitled, "Too Many Relatives"; it was presented under the auspices of the Evening Auxiliary of the United Church.

Those who attended agreed that the production was well-acted and extremely entertaining. What most people found hard to believe, however, was that it was acted by an all-woman cast. Policemen, bandits and other male parts were handled with considerable skill by these talented ladies.

All things considered the production was, in every way, a success.

Several people in Huntingdon have spoken to the Gleaner about attending School Board meetings, but such has never been our practice except on special occasions, such as when the present school was about to be built. The business transacted at a school board meeting is, generally speaking, of routine matters; much of that is of a personal character between Board and Principal. The ratepayers to the Huntingdon Protestant School Commission are perfectly free to attend regular School Board meetings.

About Sunday noon, a small closed-in truck, driving towards Huntingdon, went in the ditch north from Miss E. Purcell's home on the Ridge Road. The vehicle carried two or three persons from Cornwall, none of whom were hurt. The wrecker from Kyle's Garage was called but the damage was slight.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Perkins and Mae were Mr. Jas. Stewart and Mrs. Carmichael, of Howick, Messrs. John and Jim Jamieson.

AT FRANKLIN AND ORMSTOWN

Mr. Johnny Walker, the well-known Montreal singer and entertainer, is to be guest artist at the musical play, "The Mark of the Fairies" to be held at Franklin Centre on May 6th and again at Ormstown on Wednesday, May 10th. Mr. Walker worked with the Y.M.C.A. entertaining troops overseas and is at present soloist in the Wesley United Church, Montreal.

CARDS OF THANKS

We wish to thank our relatives and friends for so kindly remembering us with flowers, Mass cards and spiritual offerings during the recent bereavement of our dear mother; also for assistance at time of funeral.

Heliodore Lefebvre family

We wish to thank our friends and neighbours for the kindness and sympathy which they extended to us during our recent bereavement. We particularly wish to thank those who lent their cars, brought in food and sent flowers. We also appreciate the lovely floral offerings sent by the boot and shoe workers' union of Bombay, N.Y.

Mr. Dan Kovaneff and the Kazulak family.

We wish to thank everyone for the kindness shown us while in the Huntingdon County Hospital; to Dr. Lefebvre, the Nurses and Staff, also to those who sent fruit, flowers, gifts and cards.

Olive McDermid and Baby Dianne.

SPORTS PAY DIVIDENDS

An example of how sports can pay off in dividends was demonstrated to the Gleaner on Thursday. Mr. John Gallery of Montreal called, wanting to have the Gleaner print a magazine he is publishing. Mr. Gallery first asked, "Are you the Seller who played hockey against Loyola College in the J.A.H.A. league?" The answer was no, that that Seller was the late Leslie Seller who died in August 1922. So there you go; one never just knows what sport may yield in the way of business over the years.

HYDRANT DAMAGES TRUCK

No, the hydrant did not run into the truck, but it was the cause of about $50 worth of damage to a new 1950 Mercury truck on Tuesday morning. The truck belonging to Vipond-Tolhurst Ltd., of Montreal, was parked in front of the hydrant at 20 Chateauguay Street and when the driver moved the truck, it struck the hydrant and above damage was caused. Hydrants must know that people should not park in front of them, so this one took the law into its own hands and struck out in self defence. Moral—do not park in front of a hydrant, it may cost money any way you look at it.

STRIKE AT WOOLLEN MILLS

Twenty-five employees in the weaving department of the Huntingdon Woollen Mills decided they would call a strike of their own on Monday and on Tuesday the department was silent. The reason for the sudden strike was an objection to one man being responsible for four looms; the workers claim that three are enough for any one person to look after. A meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon with the directors of the firm and it is rumored that word must come from headquarters before the matter is settled.

STORE TO CHANGE HANDS

The Huntingdon 5c to $1.00 Store owned and operated by Mr. H. Bingley has, we understand, been sold to the firm of Stedman Bros., Toronto, who operate a chain of such stores. The store is closed for the time being and stocktaking is going on preparatory to the re-opening.

A preliminary glance at the material the Gleaner is gathering for its special Old Home Week edition shows that it will contain much that is of interest historically. The Gleaner files contain a wealth of first-hand reports on the important events in the development of Huntingdon County and these are being used to prepare articles on every phase in the history of this district and the town of Huntingdon. The Old Home Week edition will be enjoyed not only by those who recall, with some nostalgia, the early days of this town, but by those who would like to read for themselves the fascinating story of Huntingdon's past.

Winners In Public Speaking Contest at Hemmingford

The annual public speaking contest for school children, sponsored by the Hemmingford Branch of the Women's Institutes, was held on Friday, April 21st, at the school. The President, Mrs. J. P. Simpson, invited by the Principal, Mr. Bruce, to open the proceedings, said she was pleased to note that despite the lack of time given the pupils in which to prepare their speeches 9 children had entered the contest.

In the junior group Florence Brown spoke on "The French in Canada"; Betty Miller gave some very interesting and little known facts in her talk on "The Versatile Peanut"; Elsie Hadley spoke on "The Owl"; Alan Kyle exhibited an extremely good memory for figures in his speech on the liner "Queen Mary, Queen of the Seas"; Irene McAdam chose "Big Ben" as the subject of her speech.

In the senior group Shirley Cookman spoke on "The Housewife talks back"; Andrea McNaughton took "The Diamond King" as her subject; Mildred Kyle gave a very humorous speech on "How to become a Doctor"; and Elsie Fisher rounded off the contest with an interesting talk on "Sound".

While the judges, Rev. T. E. Bennett, Mrs. E. M. Cunningham and Mrs. C. Smith were considering their decision, the Rev. Mr. Holmes and Miss D. Upton were invited to address the assembled pupils.

Announcing the winners Mr. Bennett, in a few well chosen remarks, said he was sure everyone would agree that the speeches were getting better each year.

The winners in the junior group were 1. Betty Miller, 2. Irene McAdam, 3. Elsie Hadley.

The winners in the senior group were — 1. Mildred Kyle, 2. Andrea McNaughton, 3. Esther Fisher.

In closing Mrs. Simpson congratulated the winners and invited all the contestants to the next meeting of the Women's Institute to give their speeches again and to receive their prizes.

Mrs. Florence Barr thanked the judges, Mr. Holmes and Miss Upton for their assistance in making the afternoon a success and Mrs. Simpson thanked the Principal and Staff of the school for their helpful co-operation.

Canadian Garden Service

Most for the Room

Even a tiny vegetable garden 10 feet by 20 will give big returns with a little planning and double cropping. In these small plots one is wise to forget those bulky or spreading sort of things like potatoes, corn, squash or peas. One should concentrate on beans, carrots, beets, spinach, radish, lettuce, possibly a half-dozen stalked tomatoes and perhaps a hill or two of cucumbers trained over the boundary fence. None of these vegetables take up much room. Beans, beets and carrots can be grown in rows only a foot apart, though an inch or so wider will make cultivation easier, and 10 feet of any of them will produce many meals for the average family. With some of the very early things like lettuce, radish and spinach double cropping can be practised. Plant these in rows, say 18 inches apart, with rows of the later things — beets, beans, carrots, parsnips, etc., in between. By the time the latter require full room the other quick-maturing items will be out of the way. It is also possible to have two crops in one season, where such quick-growers as radish are followed in the same ground by late beets, carrots or beans.

Nothing Will Grow

No matter the location there is some flower or shrub that will thrive in it. Some flowers, vegetables and certain varieties of grass actually prefer shade, some want acid soil rather than sweet, some like heavy clay better than loam or sand. The thing in planning is to consider these special likes and dislikes, then to select those plants that suit one's special location. Flowers and shrubs with special preferences are usually so marked in the seed catalogues.

Most vegetables, however, are pretty keen on a generous amount of sun but they have distinct likes and dislikes in the matter of soil. For deep-rooted carrots, potatoes, etc., it is important that the soils be fairly loose at least a foot down. Certain types prefer sandy soil to clay. But no matter what the soil is to start with by a little planning and care one can change it fairly easily.

Spread Them Out

In most parts of Canada it is perfectly true that the season is short but this does not prevent a succession of vegetables. The trick is to make a succession of sowings of such things as beets, beans, lettuce, radish, carrots, etc. It's a good plan to sow about a third about the normal time, then a fortnight or so later plant the rest. This will spread the harvest out over many weeks. A still greater spread can be obtained by using early, medium and late varieties.

RESCUES DRIVER TRAPPED IN CAB OF SUBMERGED TRUCK

Russell Yard, 25, of Vancouver, B.C., frees man after repeated dives into icy harbour waters

1. After visiting friends on a tanker, William Hagsted climbed into and started the truck which had been parked on the refinery wharf. When the wheels accidentally hit the side of the wharf, the vehicle was thrown 30 feet down into the chilly 39 degrees above-zero water.

2. Russell Yard, a refinery employee, waited only long enough to see that others had gone for ropes and to phone the inhalator squad. Then, without removing his clothes, he plunged into the frigid water. The harbour was 12 feet deep and Yard had to make several dives before he was able to grapple with the truck door.

3. Getting the door open under water was no easy task but Yard persevered, finally dragging the driver free and bringing him to the surface. At the wharf, both men were pulled up to safety. We proudly add the name of this Vancouver hero to the list of those who have won THE DOW AWARD.

THE DOW AWARD is a citation presented for acts of outstanding heroism and includes, as a tangible expression of appreciation, a $100 Canada Savings Bond. The Dow Award Committee, a group of editors of leading Canadian daily newspapers, selects Award winners from recommendations made by a nationally known news organization;

Dundee Residents Suffer Injury in Auto Accident

DUNDEE—Mr. Walter Richer, son of Mr. Eusebe Richer, of the New Road, was involved in an accident in Fort Covington, N.Y., on Saturday night. His car, a 1928 Model A. Ford was damaged considerably when he struck a coupe driven by a man from Bombay, N.Y., who drove out from a side street as the Richer car was proceeding down Main. Richer's brother Elie, 15 years old, was badly cut as his head was driven through the windshield by the force of the collision. He was given surgical attention at a house nearby and a glass of Hamlet removed from his eye and had his face and knee patched up. Other occupants of the Model A escaped unhurt. None of the passengers, 3 in number, in the other car, were injured. Considerable body damage was done to the coupe.

ST. AGNES—The April meeting of the Dundee United Church Women's Association was held on Wednesday afternoon, April 26th, at the home of Mrs. Lisle Watterson, with Mrs. Watterson and Mrs. Basil Hewson acting as hostesses.

Mrs. Ella McNicol, president, presided over the meeting and also led the devotional period. 13 members and several guests answered the roll call with an economy hint. Plans were made to invite an outside group to present a play in the Church Hall in the near future. Mrs. Ella McNicol is looking after the details of arrangement. Several other ladies were named to look after the sale of refreshments should such an entertainment be forthcoming.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Vernon Elder gave a paper on the subject "Enjoy yourself, it's later than you think". She stressed the fact that a lot of people miss out on things that give the greatest pleasures for the simple reason that they forget, "the best things in life are free". There are also many people who might be likened to a person who stops overnight in a hotel room and decides it isn't worth unpacking for such a short visit. There are many in the world today who are just waiting to unpack their suitcases—just waiting to start living a real honest-to-goodness life, but the trouble with most of us is, we never really get around to it. We talk and talk about our plans and when we're 60, we're still talking! We live in such a hurried world. We "catch" a train, we "grab" a bite to eat, we "dash" down to the village for an hour. Somehow, we've got to sneak into this life we're living today, some of the pleasures we're saving for old age. We should never be in too much hurry to stop and sip life, but — we should never lose our sense of the enormous value of a minute. "Time," said a famous writer, "stays long enough for those who use it!"

So often a couple plan a trip to some place they have longed to go, but keep putting it off from year to year for any number of reasons. Then the time is ripe, and every-thing is in readiness, the long-anticipated journey is at hand. But the couple who planned the trip several years ago have different values of life now, the trip does not give the pleasures they had envisioned. Why? Because they are old, and this trip was built around "dreams of a younger man and woman. If we could all remember to "Enjoy ourselves while we're still in the pink," this old world would be that much pleasanter and happier for all.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction. A sumptuous supper was served by Mesdames Watterson and Hewson to the assembled members and guests. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ella McNicol.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Carriere and family visited with Mr. Carriere's mother in St. Louis, on Sunday. Mrs. Carriere's many friends in this district will be sorry to hear of her present ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Leboeuf and family, of Huntingdon, Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Dupuis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Remi Dupuis and family were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurent Dupuis.

Franklin Centre

W. I. Meeting
The regular meeting of the Franklin Centre Branch of the Women's Institute was held on Wednesday evening, April 26th, at the home of the president, Mrs. George Goldie, joint hostess being Mrs. R. J. Blair, with an attendance of 12 members.

The meeting was opened by the president with the Ode and Creed, followed by the roll call. "Your Favorite Quotation in the Creed". Letters were read from recipients of parcels sent to Britain expressing their appreciation for food sent. A public speaking contest was planned and is to be held in the Franklin Centre School in the near future. $10.00 to be donated for prizes to be divided as thought best.

Mrs. Jas. Bruce, Mrs. Wm. Hope and Mrs. Geo. Goldie were appointed to act as judges. A resolution was signed by all members present to be sent to our Member of Parliament requesting that the National Film Board be allowed to continue.

Mrs. R. J. Blair was appointed to be the delegate to the Convention at Macdonald College in June. A letter was read from U.E.F.B. stating that parcels could still be sent overseas by organizations at the former rate of 55c.

Mrs. Geo. Elliott of Ormstown was the guest speaker, her subject being Red Cross work and what is being accomplished by that organization. Her talk was much enjoyed and quite a few members took work home to be done. She was tendered a vote of thanks.

The evening was brought to a close with the serving of refreshments by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Fox and Bernice Goldie.

Rockburn

ROCKBURN—Mrs. E. Fox is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Goldie. Mr. Henry Hirsch has rented the property of Mr. Olive Cooke and with Mrs. Hirsch and family will presently be in residence in Rockburn. Mr. Cooke is reported to be going to Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis, of Montreal, are spending a few days with Mrs. A. Pollock.

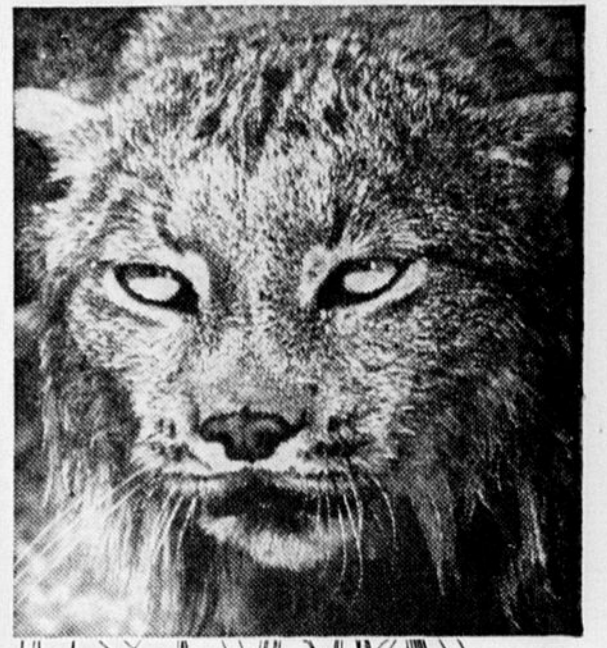

Mrs. Cordick, who spent the winter with her son in St. Johnsbury, Vt., is now visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Arden Douglas.

Mrs. John Oliver accompanied Dr. Wm. Oliver on his return to Montreal last Tuesday and remained there visiting her many friends until Saturday when she came home with Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry and Mrs. Lawson who spent the week-end with friends in Rockburn.

Glad to report that Mr. William Simpson, who had to return to the Barrie Memorial Hospital recently, was doing as well as his friends could hope for following a second operation.

Wildcats are risky

To an oil man a "wildcat" is a well drilled in an area where oil has never been found. Drilling a wildcat is a risky undertaking and a costly one. Some wells have cost more than a million dollars—and have not been successful.

For that reason oil men make as certain as they can, before drilling, that there is a good chance of finding oil. They use the most modern instruments and skills to locate each drilling site; but still the odds are 20 to one against them. Only about one wildcat in 20 becomes a producer.

Over the past 30 years oil men have worked continuously against these odds. In western Canada Imperial alone drilled 134 wells—all dry—before the Leduc field was discovered in 1947.

But the end result has been new oil for Canada and benefits for Canadians. There are thousands of new jobs. Millions of U.S. dollars are being saved as the need for imported oil lessens. And, as another natural resource moves toward full development, the Canadian standard of living climbs higher.

These are real benefits to Canadians and they will increase as more oil is found. But to find more oil and to spread the advantages it brings, oil men must continue to work against long odds.

Sometimes a job that must be done can't be done without great risks.

Bringing you oil is a big job
... and a costly one

About Canada's Oil—Canada's proven oil reserves now amount to about one billion barrels, as compared with only 72 million barrels in 1946.

It is estimated the oil industry will spend $150 millions for exploration and development in western Canada this year.

Last year Imperial drilled or shared in the drilling of 70 wildcat wells.

Wells drilled by Imperial to find and produce oil in Canada during 1949 totalled 231 miles in depth.

Howick

HOWICK—Mr. Claire St. Dizier of Montreal, called last week on friends in and around Howick.

Miss Naomi Barrier, of Montreal, visited during the week-end at the home of the Misses Henderson.

On Tuesday, April 25th, the Howick Knox W.M.S. met at 2 o'clock at the home of Miss Martha Goudrey. Six members and one visitor were present, answering the roll call by repeating a verse of Scripture. The meeting opened by reciting the Lord's Prayer in unison, followed by the singing of a hymn. Mrs. Willie Stewart read the Bible reading which was in the form of a story called "Jesus Visits Bethany." The Glad Tidings prayer was read by Mrs. Math. Orr. A letter from an old lady in the People's Home was read by Mrs. Willie Stewart, thanking her for an Easter card which she had received from Mrs. Stewart, the same lady to whom she had sent a Christmas box. Members were reminded of the Hostess Tea which is to be held this month at Riverfield. Report of the Presbyterian meeting which had been held in Melville Presbyterian Church, Westmount, in February, was read by Mrs. J. J. Anderson. Miss Ritchie read the Glad Tidings item "Hospital Visiting." The item on Gambling, "Something for Nothing" was read by Mrs. J. J. Anderson. The meeting closed by repeating the W.M.S. Auxiliary Prayer in unison.

Miss Hazel Standish, nurse-in-training at the Montreal General Hospital, spent the week-end with her cousin, Mrs. Mitchell Ness, at Burnside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Armitage, of Montreal, were guests of Hon. R. R. and Mrs. Ness on Sunday.

On Tuesday, April 25th, the Howick Home and School Association sponsored a very interesting lecture and slides called "Tundra Trails." The guest speaker, Mrs. Bradford Beckett, of Fort William, Ont., and Churchill, Man., was a former Principal of Howick School.

When mention is made of the Canadian North we usually picture an uninhabited land of ice and snow, but Mrs. Beckett explained through her beautiful colored slides that although the winters are long and cold, the short summers are very warm, so wherever there is any soil many fruits, vegetables and flowers can be grown. Her close-up pictures of some of the birds and animals and the northern sunset were something one cannot forget.

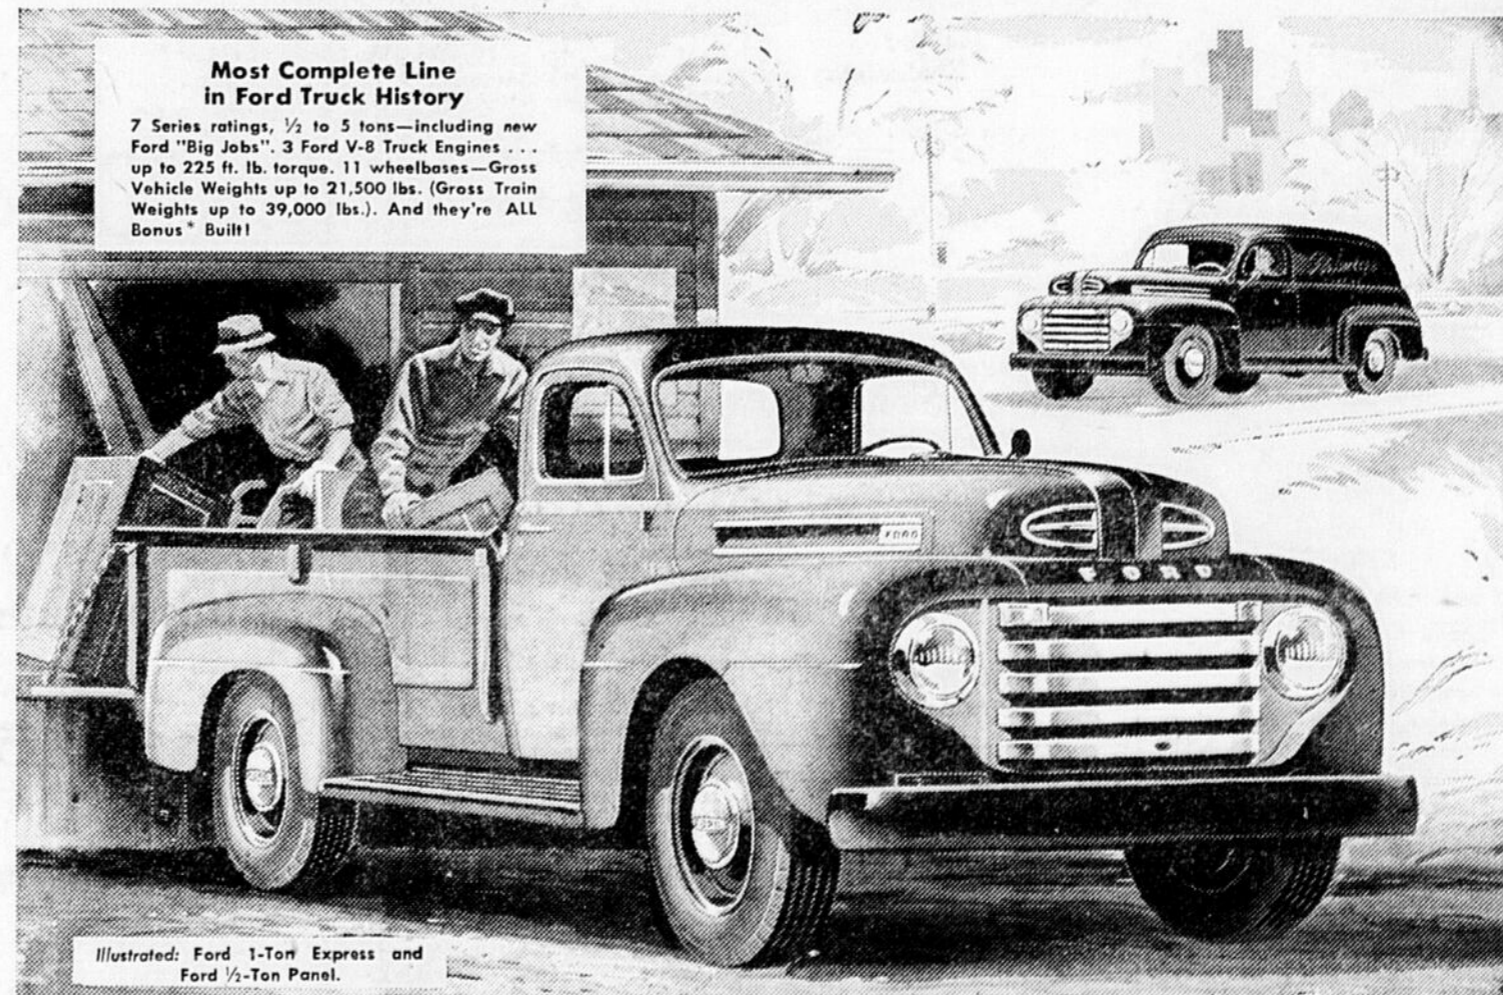

Mrs. Florence Mitchell and some of her pupils entertained the guests with piano selections after which refreshments were served to Mrs. Beckett, some of her former pupils and friends.

Hemmingford

The play, "A Pair of Country Kids" presented by the United Young People's Society was repeated on Friday evening in the Church Hall. There was an excellent attendance again and needless to say, everyone enjoyed the whole performance.

Mrs. Robert Whyte of Henrysburg spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Cookman. Pleased to report Master Billy Cookman up and around again, after being shut in with the measles.

Class of 1950 Completes Its Yearbook

CHATEAUGAY, N.Y.—On April 24 the staff of the "Maroon and White" completed its work, and the 1950 yearbook was sent to the printers. The seniors boast that the book has great originality, with a new, streamlined cover, a theme (called "Fascinating"), more photographs, and clever drawings. They do not claim that the book is a serious one but they do say that it is well worth the price asked and will serve as a reminder of a year full of activity for the whole school. Now that the "Maroon and White" is in the hands of the printer, a campaign is under way to secure subscriptions. Robert Dalley is in charge of this work. The staff responsible for the book includes: Editor—Phyllis Newton; Associate Editor—Helen Adams; Mariene Whitehead; Business Manager—Robert Dalley; Literary Editor—Patricia Martin; Assistants—Doris Ann Grover, Mary Alice Baker; Photography Editors—John O'Neil, Peter Rose; Art Editor—Jean Gray; Assistants—Gloria Swanson, Rhoda Whalen; Activity Editors—Carmine Pezzulo, Paul Dupree; Sports Editors—Julia Murray, Clarence Patnode; Circulation Managers—William Travers, Mary Woods, Ariene Hill; Business Staff—Richard Wilson, Frank Dwyer, Roger Ryan, Lorraine McCray; Faculty Advisor—John Hotchkiss.

JUNIOR PROM HELD FRIDAY, APRIL 28

The Junior Prom, called the outstanding spring social event of Chateaugay High School, was held in the Town Hall, Friday, April 28. Clare Taro and his orchestra furnished the music. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of a King and Queen, they being Gerald McDonald and Katherine Jones, both members of the Junior Class. The Committee included: General Chairman—Janet Lepage; Programs—Jeanne Perry; Tickets—Katherine Jones; Publicity—Charles Juntunes; Joan Quinlin; Properties—Henry Ryan, John Hill. During intermission while the dancers were relaxing, Mrs. Paul DesGrosseliers (Hotel Chateaugay) announced a contest for best looking couples. 20 couples paraded in the dining room to the music of Clare Taro's pianist. By the applause it was decided to give first prize to Miss Beverly Cooper and Richard Cook. Second prize went to Doris Ann Grover and John English. The first prize was perfume for the lady and a wallet for the gentleman. Second prize was a dinner at Hotel Chateaugay.

NEW YORK LIBRARY ASSOCIATION HOLDS CONVENTION
Miss Isabelle Phillips, Chateaugay, Assistant Librarian at Champlain College, Plattsburg, and Mrs. Julia Harria, Librarian at Chateaugay High School, were among those present at the N.Y. L.A. Convention held in New York City on April 27, 28 and 29. Meetings were held in Hotel Roosevelt and were planned to give both special aid and inspiration to all who attended. Among the speakers heard at the different meetings were: Roy Larsen, Pres. of Time Magazine; Waldemar Kaempfert, Science Editor of New York Times; Ann Peary, author of "The Street"; Adele de Leeuw, well-known author of children's books; Roger Duvoisin, famous artist and illustrator; Margaret Scoggin, who had recently returned from Germany, where she had assisted in setting up library facilities for young Germans in the city of Munich, gave an interesting account of the way in which these young people responded to the opportunity given them to get an understanding of the way of life in other countries. The universal idea of the speakers, each speaking on his own line of work, seemed to be in harmony with the experience of Miss Scoggin, namely "Give the people a wealth of library material, both for research and relaxation, and give them an opportunity to widen their horizons and extend their activities into unexplored paths. Thus they may get the needed power to do best the work which they are seeking, and to realize a destiny worthy of free-thinking people."

CHATEAUGAY WOMAN HURT IN ACCIDENT

A Chateaugay woman, Mrs. Delmar Gadsby, suffered lacerations and abrasions when the car in which she was riding ran into the rear of a parked car Saturday night in Brainardsville near Hoy's store. Dr. J. E. McIntosh of Chateaugay, who treated her for her injuries, said that the Chateaugay woman was the only one hurt in the crash. Her husband, driver of the car, escaped injury. The parked car struck by Gadsby was one owned by Raymond Blow of Brainardsville. State Police of the Chateaugay sub-station investigated the accident.

HARRIET COOK AND M. J. DUPREE EXCHANGE VOWS

Miss Harriet Jane Cook, daughter of Thad Cook of Brainardsville and the late Mrs. Cook, became the bride of Maynard Joseph Dupree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dupree of Chateaugay, April 26 in St. Patrick's Church, Chateaugay. The Rev. Edgar Gallagher performed the ceremony, and said the nuptial. The bride wore a white bouffant gown in organza embroidered in white velvet, a fingertip length veil in white nylon net attached to a headress of simulated seed pearls and carried a white prayer book set with white roses and orange blossoms. Miss Norma Dupree of Chateaugay was maid of honor and she wore pink taffeta with pink and white accessories and carried a nosegay of white roses. Keith Cook of Chateaugay was best man. Traditional wedding music was played and the church was decorated with white gladioli. The wedding reception was held in the town hall in Chateaugay. Mrs. Robert Dupree, Mrs. Keith Cook and Mrs. Francis Crump were hostesses. Following a wedding trip downstate the newlyweds are now at home in the bridegroom's parents' home. The bride is a graduate of Chateaugay High School. Mr. Dupree attended C.H.S. and is now engaged in farming. FISH AND GAME CLUB MEETS
The Fish and Game Club held its annual banquet in the Church Basement on Tuesday evening with a roast beef supper was served by the Roman Catholic Daughters of America to about 300 guests. There were a number of local speakers and the special speaker was Hon. James Fitzpatrick, Assemblyman from Clinton County, who spoke on conservation and a little on Communism. The address was very fine and instructive.

As I walked along a country lane
And heard the robins sing
I felt the joy of living again
At Herdman in the spring.
I heard the sound of a motor car
As it went rushing by
I heard the sound of an airplane
Away up in the sky.
I heard the song of the bluebird
I also saw the bee
And the beautiful song of the Pewee
As he seemed to sing to me.
The tall stately pines
And the trilliums in white
By the silvery brook
Made a beautiful sight.
From a sugar house roof
I saw the smoke curl
As I listened to the chatter
Of a little red squirrel.
Behind a stone wall
There was blood root in bloom
And a farmer at work
As he whistled a tune.
As I turned around the corner
I saw children at play.
I got a view of the mountains
'T'ho' many a mile away.
I heard the ring of the church bells
Calling the people to pray
The ancient tree on the highway
Told the tale of another day.
They talk about their city scenes
And all the joys they bring
But to me there is no place
Like "Herdman" in the spring.

The Gore
THE GORE — A very pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ord Taylor on Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Carl Anderson, Mrs. Jimmie Henderson and Mrs. Lily Henderson were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Patsy Hersey's approaching marriage. Having spent the night at the home of Mrs. E. Pringle, and on returning home Saturday afternoon, Patsy got a big surprise when she entered and found the house filled with relatives and friends. After being placed in a nicely decorated chair (with pink and white streamers), Miss Pringle and Linda Anderson drew in a decorated wagon filled with gifts and placed it before the bride-to-be. After opening her gifts and passing them around for all to see Patsy thanked everyone and invited them to come and see her in her new home. As the bride-to-be entered the room "Here Comes the Bride" was played by Mrs. Jimmie Henderson, then all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." The room was nicely decorated with the snap dragon and tulips. Refreshments were served by the hostesses after which all departed wishing Patsy many years of happy wedded life. Miss Hazel Henderson, of Montreal, was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. Lily Henderson. Miss Joan Armstrong, of Montreal, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Whaley. Mrs. Jack Donnelly has returned home with her little son from the Barrie Memorial Hospital. (Congratulations). Mr. and Mrs. R. Robb, of Montreal, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ord Taylor. Mrs. F. and 7 to 9. Miss Carole Roach was the winner of the first group with Jackie Currie getting the second prize. Miss Barbara Roach received the first prize in the second group and Ronald Fleming won the second prize. Judges for the occasion were the Rev. A. E. Hagar, Mrs. Peter Ferguson and Mrs. D. A. Fraser. The same night a Card Party was held in the Community Hall. Mrs. John Fleming and Mrs. Strit respectively won first and second prizes among the ladies, while Mr. James Arnold and Franklin Cameron took home the gent's first and second prizes. Mr. James Arnold was also the lucky winner of the $2.00 door prize.

W.M.S. Meeting
The regular meeting of the W.M.S. of Zion Church was held at the home of Mrs. Cora Fraser, on Thursday afternoon, April 13th. In the absence of the president, the vice-pres., Mrs. Vernon Elder conducted the meeting. The Easter programme in the Missionary Monthly was very ably carried out, with the leader and two members taking the passages of Scripture reading. The assistant secretary, Mrs. Colquhoun, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved as read. The Easter thank-offering was received at this meeting. There were fifteen members and three visitors present. Delicious refreshments were served at the close by Mrs. Fraser and her helpers.

Mrs. D. S. Smellie is at present a patient in the Barrie Memorial Hospital, where she underwent an operation last week.
Mrs. R. G. Steven is now much improved in health after her recent illness and operation in the Western Hospital. She is able to be about and this week it was a pleasure for her friends to see her driving the family car again. Mrs. Eleanor McNicol is spending several weeks at the Steven home during Mrs. Steven's convalescence.
Mrs. Harold Smith of Amsterdam, N.Y., is spending a couple of weeks with her family at the McMillan home.
Mrs. H. A. Cameron left Sunday morning for Lebanon, N.H., to attend the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Morris Howard, which took place on Monday afternoon.

Representatives of the manufacturers of Stainless Steel Kitchen Ware put on a supper and demonstration of their products at Mr. Albert Dupuis' Hall, on Tuesday, April 25. A free supper cooked in Stainless Steel utensils was served by the two men and their wives to about 20 guests. Afterward a lecture and sales talk on the advantages of waterless cooking took place, it being clearly shown that boiling destroys the essential food vitamins. Mrs. Dupuis was presented with a fine kitchen cutlery set for allowing the visitors the use of her kitchen for their demonstration. Similar events were held at St. Anicet and Cazaville within the past few weeks.

Community Draw
General 5c to $1.00 Store
Huntingdon, P.Q.

A weekly drawing will take place for a prize of $10.00 cash. To be eligible you must purchase $5.00 or more in merchandise during the week. Your name is then put into a chest from which one name will be drawn at the end of each week! Your name remains in the chest and is eligible for the prize as long as you have purchased the necessary amount for that week. If no one wins, $10 is added to the jackpot for the next week's drawing. You need not be present for the drawing; your name, if drawn, will ensure you of the prize.

4 reasons why ALUMINUM should be used for roofing and siding:

1. It is non-corrosive. It will stand all weather without the assistance of paint or roof coatings.
2. It is a non-conductor of heat. Its reflective qualities turns heat back towards its source.
3. It is an insurance against damage caused by rats and mice. These pests hate aluminum.
4. Properly installed it will withstand all the usual stress and strain of wind and weather. Copper and steel do not mix with aluminum. Use the correct nails and an aluminum roof will prove its value over any other roofing material.
