D. C. Abbott Addresses Young Liberal Meeting

"The Liberal Party is a middle of the road party," the Hon. Douglas C. Abbott, Minister of National Defence and Member of Parliament for the Westmount-St. Antoine riding, told a meeting of the Westmount Young Liberals Association on Monday evening. The meeting was held in the Green Room of Victoria Hall.

The cabinet minister, who was speaking on "What It Means to Be a Liberal," added, "We believe in change — but we also believe that things should be changed gradually."

More than 35 people attended this second meeting of this newly formed political organization. President William Macdonald was in the chair.

Among the head table guests at the meeting were Mr. Abbott, who accepted the honorary presidency of the association; George Marler, M.L.P., who accepted an honorary vice-presidency; Senator A. K. Hugessen, who also accepted an honorary vice-presidency; and William Mulloch, president of the National Young Liberal Federation.

Mr. Mulloch, the son of the for-

R.M.R. Band Plan Party

The Bugle Band of the Royal Montreal Regiment is holding a juke box party for members and friends on the evening of Sat. 16 Mar. This enthusiastic group of young soldiers also finds other recreation at the Armoury of the Regiment, bowling and playing soft ball and volley ball in regular leagues.

This recreation however, is a minor place in their activity. They are at present training hard for Bn. parades as well as in anticipation of the annual competition for the T. Eaton Co. Trophy for the best Reserve Unit Bugle

PROPOSED THEATRE FOR WESTMOUNT

The attractive architect's sketch above is the new movie house which has been proposed for erection on Greene Avenue at a cost of $150,000. Plans call for a total seating capacity of 1,152, including a balcony seating 204. A self contained building, the theatre will be known as the "Avenue". Parking space, check room, vanity room and soda bar have been included in the plans. The building will be two stories high and occupy a lot measuring 66 x 120 feet. Red Granite and red press brick will be used extensively on the exterior as a finishing. Architects contracted are Luke and Little.

Municipal Association Invites New Members

Citizens of Westmount are invited to take an interest in civic affairs by joining the Westmount Municipal Association, according to a statement issued yesterday by W. Boyd Robson, vice-chairman of the Association. At present, the membership committee is conducting a campaign to increase the number of members and get the citizens of Westmount squarely behind the Association which for many years has played an important part in the daily lives of all Westmount residents.

It is necessary that the public spirited citizens join the organization if Westmount is to maintain its high level in municipal status throughout the country.

The organization is a truly civic one, strictly non-political, and representative of all Westmount residents. The Association through its many committees, studies and reports on all phases of municipal affairs to the Mayor and Council of Westmount, placing before them its views for their consideration.

Recorders Court Has Busy Week

Westmount Recorders' Court was kept busy during the past week when sentences totalling eight months imprisonment and fines totalling $50 were meted out to four offenders.

Wilfred Nicholas, 25, address unknown and Charles Rochol, 18, address unknown, were each sentenced to three months in jail by Deputy Recorder A. E. Laverty for conspiracy to commit theft. Their arrests were made by Det. A. Talbert and Sgt. C. Baker.

Howard Lowe, 20, no given address, was sentenced to spend one month in jail or pay $25 and costs by Recorder C. A. Hale, for loitering within the City of Westmount.

Jean Thomas Guerin, 28, was also sentenced to pay a $25 fine or one month in jail by Recorder Hale for loitering on Canadian Pacific Railway property.

Boys' Brigade Revive Band

Last Friday night, a number of old faces appeared once more on the 1st Westmount Company's parade, with Alan Robinson, former leading cornetist in the Brass band, Peter Bailey, former second-cornet, Louis Wright another talented musician and George McFarlane, former squad leader, all wanting to get back into the ranks and see the old band up on top again. They were delighted to see Eddie Goring taking charge of drill and P.T. work and threw their full weight behind him, in pepping up the squad which will shortly endeavour to defend the drill trophy they now so proudly hold. Lt. Goring is also trying to see if the P.T. Shield cup cannot be won again.

Captain J. H. Richardson is happy to announce the return of the Brass band and its leader, Chas King. With the ranks filled with former musicians and present new talent, it is quite likely that before many months it shall go far beyond expectation.

Council To Consider Planned Theatre Mon.

The Westmount City Council will take under consideration the proposed plan to build a new movie theatre on Greene avenue at Monday night's weekly Council meeting.

To date only two protests have been filed against the proposed movie house, and both of these have been made by persons disapproving of Sunday entertainment. This, however, is not the concern of the council members, as the opening of a business establishment comes under the Lord's Day Act, which is under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Government.

It is felt that the majority of Westmounters will welcome the new theatre to the community. The Westmount Business Association has expressed its satisfaction with the plan.

Although no dates for the start of construction have been set, it is believed that the promoters will go ahead with building plans when the permit is secured from the civic officials.

CCF Elect Committee

At a recent meeting of the Westmount C.C.F. Club the following members were elected to form a good will committee: Mrs. H. Goodman, Chairman; Mrs. A. Taffler and Mrs. W. A. Green, committee members.

Hobby Show Set For April 3

The 10th Annual Hobby Show contestants are preparing for the yearly event which will open April 3, at the Westmount Y.M.C.A.

The prize committee have made arrangements to display all exhibits in the display window of Steinberg's Store at the corner of Victoria and St. Catherine street. President Jimmy Parsons has completed plans for a dance to be held April 6. Kaz Nishio made a number of speeches to the pupils of Kings, Queens, Roslyn and Westmount Junior High Schools during the past week in an endeavour to secure exhibits for the show.

There promises to be some interesting exhibits this year and many companies have loaned models to add to the show.

Those persons who wish to enter dogs, cats, white mice, birds or other types are requested to have the animals in good shape before the contest. Persons having singing stage or musical talent may enter the entertainment section of the show.

The only requirement for entry is that the contestant be under 19 years of age.

Joy Of Living Comes To Healthy Oscar Pearson Tells Rotarians

"The joy of living comes to those who have health," declared Oscar L. Pearson, director of Physical Education at the Central Y.M.C.A., at the regular weekly meeting of the Westmount Rotary Club in Victoria Hall. Mr. Pearson, who served overseas in two world wars with the Y.M.C.A. lectured on "Physical Fitness over Forty".

Continuing he said, "Health is that which people have when they feel as if they must jump and shout. The joy of living is one of the results of this super-abundant health. Count that day lost, whose low-descending sun finds no exercise, no perspiration.

Mr. Pearson gave examples of men he had come into contact with who although over 60 years of age take part in regular gym activity. He pointed out however that he was not advocating that men in their 50's, 60's and 70's should start strenuous exercise or engage in sports unless they have been taking regular physical activity.

"It would be foolish and great danger would be present", he warned.

"History proves without a doubt that man owes his existence to muscular activity. Science teaches us that function makes structure and an underdeveloped organ is a place of weakness and susceptible to disease. It is a wise man who keeps in close contact with his medical advisor," he added.

Man alone does not usually obey the laws of instinct, while the whole animal world leads a rational existence. Dogs and cats have perfect relaxation. When ill, they refuse to eat. Man constantly breaks the laws of instinct because he pays too little heed to the laws of conservation of energy, relaxation and adaptation. While young he may disregard these laws with impunity, but as she approaches middle age he begins to feel the power of the biological laws. It is then he stands face to face with Nature's command for self-readjustment, he said.

Westmount Highlights

BY GEORGE COCHRANE

The gentleman who has been wandering through the musty corridors of Westmount High School the last few days, his hairy, sine-wy arms filled with tickets and his face creased by a smile is Robert Bert Grindley, business manager of the Purple and White Revue '46.

The duckets, some 1,400 of them, are for the Purple and White Revue. With able Bert behind the counter, the pasteboards went on sale Tuesday at noon and there has been a great rush for them ever since. Almost 250 were sold Tuesday alone.

Co-producers Art Voronka and John Clennel Dickins, with less than a month to go before opening night, have begun to clamp down on members of the cast who have been missing too many rehearsals. And the energetic duo have also increased the number of get-togethers.

So, all things considered, everything should be hunkey-dorey by the time April 11 and 12 roll around. Ye co-producers and co-directors certainly hope so.

Incidentally, the Purple and White Revue publicity committee, of which we are a member, has at last started to work. Results should be evident in a very short time.

THE HOT CLUB

Having nothing better to do, your roving reporter dropped in on a session of the justly famous Hot Club of Montreal last week. The get-together, held at president Arnaud Maggs' mansion at 2040 Grey avenue, was attended by such lovers of music that is jazzy as Peter "The Head" Farrell, William Hannington, Bert Grindley, the treasurer of the organization, Monty Squire, Fred Jones and Claud Root. A good time was had by all.

Stage 46, no relation to the Purple and White Revue '46, was part of the evening's entertainment. A recording made by Arnaud Maggs, ye prexy himself, this little playlet concerns itself with the cooking troubles that beset a group of WHS'ers who spend a week-end in the Laurentians.

HI-Y

There is one thing about this Westmount Girls' Hi-Y Club. When they act, they act fast. But definitely.

At their noon-day meeting this Tuesday the gals voted to hire the Skyliners Orchestra for their annual spring Sadie Hawkins dance which comes off in the Westmount High gym on the night of Friday, March 29.

On Tuesday night Judy Knowles, the blue-eyed lass who leads the feminine Hi-Y's dance committee, affixed her signature to a contract that guarantees the presence of Jerry Miller and his Skyliners at good old WHS on the night of March 29 and early morning of March 30. Fast work.

Incidentally, these Skyliners will be playing at a dance at Strathcona Academy tonight. They're a very capable group of musicians.

The Boys' Hi-Y Club, who were thinking of holding their annual spring get-together at the school on the eve of Good Friday, April 18, have shelved that idea and will now be holding sway in the WHS gym on May 5. James Jumbo Parsons will be in charge.

Fred Griffiths Recovers

It is reported that Fred Griffiths, proprietor of the Acme Radio Company on Victoria avenue, has returned to work after recovering from a recent appendicitis operation at the Homoeopathic Hospital.

A discarded starter motor is the power plant of a midget electric auto built from scrap parts by a 12-year-old Schenectady boy.

At present with the proposed plan to erect a new theatre and also the question of licensing grocers to sell beer within Westmount, it is important to each citizen that he voice his approval or disapproval and expect to receive action on his views.

The Municipal Association takes pride in its work and has done a great amount of good work for the youth of the community. Improvements suggested by the organization have brought about improvement in parks, streets, homes and shopping districts of Westmount.

Membership is open to all residents and to all those who own property in Westmount. The drive has been underway for two weeks, and favorable results have been reported by G. M. Barry Morton, chairman and W. Boyd Robson, vice-chairman, of the committee.

One of the remarkable achievements made by the Association was to install a free X-ray clinic in Victoria Hall for Westmount residents. The clinic sponsored by the city and operated by the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital has done exceptional work here and has to a large extent given shoppers "health insurance" while purchasing food stuff in Westmount.

A recent resolution made by the Association was a study of traffic and parking on Westmount streets; this should interest the average citizen who lives on narrow streets and drives a car. Throughout the year many resolutions are passed which have a bearing on the individual, and it is up to the Westmount residents to back up the Association, if this community wishes to retain its high standing.

Enclosed on the editorial page, a special membership coupon has been attached to the Municipal Association's advertisement which can be clipped and mailed to the organization membership committee.

Westmount Y.M.C.A.

Westmount Y.M.C.A. Juvenile Basketball Team squeezed out a close decision over L.M.H.A. Blues when they won the second game in the play-off series 18 to 17. The game was slow all the way through, due to the close checking of both teams. Westmount carried a two point lead into this second game of a total point play-off series. The locals checked closely and the first half ended with the low score of eight all.

Seimers started for Westmount in the first half by picking up two loose balls and scoring both times. Starting the second half — Westmount scored two goals and a foul shot to Y.M.H.A. one goal to lead 13 to 10 at three quarters time. The Blues, led by Berger, and outscored the locals to take the lead 17 to 16. Then Seimers scored again for Westmount with 50 seconds to go. Y.M.H.A. tried valiantly to regain the lead but were checked at every move.

Westmount won the second game with a total lead of only 3 points in the play-off series; With the win goes the right for the locals to meet Catholic High School for the Juvenile Championship of the Montreal Basketball League.

Playing dates have not yet been set.

Young Men's Gym

It's always a pleasure to welcome old members back to our Gym periods. This past week Art Wilkd and Marc Hanington turned up for the first time. Hack Yates has been leading the boys on the apparatus, while Bill Morrow still enjoys his basketball.

Swim Club

Members of the Swim Club have been enthusiastic about their coaching from Don Rose. The Swim Club meets Tues. evenings at 8:30 p.m. for swimming, diving and water polo. Incidentally there's mixed swimming every Friday at 9:00 p.m. Join the gang in a "splash".

Women's Gym

meets Monday and Thursday at 10:00 A.M. If you haven't been out lately, start next week right by coming to "Y" Monday morning Gym class.

Business Girls Gym

In response to popular demand the hour for the Bus. Girls Gym Class has been changed from 8:00 to 7:30 p.m. A period of exercise led by Nita Black twice a week is the ideal way to Health and Beauty. We'll be seeing you.

Badminton Club

A representative team from the "Y" Badminton Club visited the Westmount Badminton Club last Tuesday and lost the match to more experienced players. On Wednesday the "Y" club played host to a four man team from M.A.A.A. — lead by Gordie Cook and Bill Price. The men put on a first class exhibition game — after which they gave the "Y" players a few pointers on playing techniques.

Saturday House League

The "Y" Srs. added another win to their standing when they defeated Calvary 51 to 47 last Saturday. Juv. A. in an open fast game won from West Baptist by 54 to 20. Juv. AB players also won their game from Calvary by a score of 62 to 21. There are only two games left in the present schedule. This Saturday 2.00 p.m. Juv. B. meets St. Andrews and a 3:00 game for Y Srs. and Juv. A.

Saturday Night Club

It was just a regular Sat. Nite Club Dance but everyone had a swell time at last Saturday Party. Loraine and Johnny made a "clean sweep of things" with the brooms in the novelty dance. For all the trouble "Gray" Reipert presented each with a popular dance record as a prize. "Gray" kept the party in a jovial mood and proved himself a popular M.C. for Club Parties.

This Saturday the committee are planning a special St. Patrick's Dance with novelties and refreshments. Remember the S.N.C. on Saturday night and come with the gang for a pleasant evening.

Scouts & Cubs

By Reg. Groome

St. Matthias Troop recently held the third of a series of ski-hikes (before the spring weather set in) and the destination was an old camp-site used several years ago. This was reached by a round-about route and meals were cooked on arrival. Immediately after lunch three members of the Troop, who had brought along cameras, took pictures of the Troop in various activities.

Some skiing and three-climbing in which Paul Arnold was voted "Mr. Mountaineer" followed. One half of the Troop then surrounded a grove of trees, and the other half tried to stalk through without being discovered. After some thrilling ski-pole duels, the defenders won the game. Skiing back in the face of the sunset the boys boarded a tramway and soon arrived at home, tired, but happy.

Trinity Pack

The opening Grand Howl was led by Michael McLearn of the Green Six and this was immediately followed by inspection. After two lively games a quiz was held on star tests, with points awarded for correct answers. Another short game preceded the presentation of badges which were as follows: Collector Badge, Bob Matthews, Michael McLearn and Bill Kavanagh; Guide Badge, Brian McKeown and Charles Antrum; Artist Badge, Brian McKeown; Toymaker Badge, Duncan McNeill; First Star, Michael McLearn and Bill Cane; Service Star (one year, Carlton Moody and Billy Harthey.

Special mention was given to Bill Kavanagh's collection and Duncan McNeill's model for Toy-maker's Badge, which were both classed as excellent. A sing-song was held, led by Bob Albiston, Senior Sixer, at the piano. It was announced that St. Matthias Pack have been invited to attend the next meeting at Trinity.

Bagheera visited Eddie Smith at his home and passed boot-cleaning and the model test for 2nd star. All hope that Eddie will be able to return on Monday next and also John Smith.

1st Westmount

1st Westmount Troop is rising up after a short lull under its new Scoutmaster, A. J. Smith. Mr. Smith has just returned from overseas service with the Grenadier Guards and he was the Scoutmaster of Calvary before enlisting. Aided by the three Patrol Leaders, Mr. Smith is rapidly going about the job of building up a good Troop. The Troop meets every Thursday night in Stanley Church.

Contributions

Contributions for this column are invited from all units, Scouts, Cubs and Sea Scouts, in Westmount Area. These should be mailed to R. K. Groome at Headquarters, 1523 Bishop Street, Montreal 25, before Monday of each week. That is to say they must be mailed before Sunday evening. We regret that no articles may be taken over the telephone.

Burning Sugar Technique

Many sugar cane farmers burn their crop of sugar cane before they harvest it. The burning removes the heavy useless leaves but does not harm the juice-filled stalks.

Greyhounds Hunt by Ear Greyhounds follow game by sight and ear instead of scent. They are one of the oldest breeds of dog and are remarkable for their swiftness and keen vision.

Gutted Store To Re-Open

Mr. Jack Wexler and Mr. Ned Wolman, proprietors of Melville Wholesale Produce, 4471 St. Catherine St. West, announce that their popular fruit and vegetable market, which was badly damaged by fire a few weeks ago, will be reopened for business on Friday, March 22nd.

The store will be modernized and attractively redecorated. Former customers will be pleased to know that they will again be able to depend on Melville's for their fresh fruit and vegetables.

Tribute Paid H. Robinson

Final tribute was paid at a service at the D. A. Collins Funeral Home, Sherbrooke street, to Henry (Harry) Robinson, well known former Westmount resident who died suddenly at his residence, 64 Prince Edward avenue, Valois.

Born and educated in Westmount, Mr. Robinson joined the Audit Bureau of Passenger Receipts, Canadian Pacific Railway, after leaving school and served there for 19 years. He spent the past three years with the Eastern Trust Company. He was a member of the Sergeant's Mess of the R.M.R.

Survivors include his wife, the former Jean Provan; a daughter, Patricia, and his mother, Mrs. A. H. Robinson of 222 Melville avenue. The Rev. Gilbert Oliver of St. Matthias Church conducted the service and interment was at Lakeview cemetery.

R.M.R. Band

Band in the city. This trophy in its two years has been won once by the R.M.R. Band who were runners up the other time. This year the Band has brighter prospects that ever-special instruction is being given to the boys in the band. The drummers are being taught by J. Emerson, long one of the most prominent drum instructors in the city. Drum-Major Bale is coaching the buglers.

Dance Held

On Sat. night 9 Mar. 46, a dance was held by the Officers' Mess of the Royal Montreal Regiment. Open to members only, the dance was attended by about 60 couples. Music was provided by Larry Edwards Orchestra. Officers of the Unit commanded by Lt.-Col. R. Pearson, MC. and their guests enjoyed themselves at one of the most successful dances held in the Unit's Officers' Mess.

Legion Desires Living Memorial

A shrine room in which will be commemorated the names of the fallen who gave their lives in the Second World War will feature the War Memorial Building for which a drive will be launched by the Quebec Command of the Canadian Legion on March 25th.

The building, however, will be used as a centre for all Legion activities throughout the province, and besides providing accommodation for rapidly expanding veterans' needs, will be a recreation centre in which lounges and meeting-rooms will be provided together with a swimming pool, bowling alley and other amenities.

Objective of the drive is $375,000.00. Quebec, it is claimed, is the first Canadian province to make such an appeal for "a living memorial" to Canadian war veterans. A strong campaign committee in which many of the most prominent businessmen and citizens of the province are active,

has been organized headed by

Maj.-Gen. C. B. Price, C.B., D.S.O.,

D.C.M., who has been active in veterans' affairs for many years and who, besides serving actively in two world wars, headed the Canadian Red Cross overseas during the latter years of the late war.

Montreal, which led the rest of the large cities in Canada in the recent Christmas Tree gift scheme for disabled and sick veterans in hospitals, is believed ready to respond generously to the appeal to secure the welfare of veterans through the purchase of a central headquarters in the city.

Open Talk Planned At Junior High

"The Need for Vocational and in Greater Montreal" and "The Lack of Local Facilities for Guidance, both Vocational and Educational."

At the November meeting of the section, a committee was named to study the problem of vocational Service Military training.

Seen addressing last week's annual reunion of the Westmount Old Boys' Association held at the Mount Royal Hotel is the Hon. J. L. Ralston, K.C. The former Minister of National Defence told the packed ball room that the future of Canada rested in the hands of returning veterans and that older men would have to step down from responsible positions.

Central Board Urged To Provide Facilities

The Montreal Protestant Central School Board was urged to provide educational and vocational guidance facilities for the pupils in the schools under its jurisdiction at a meeting held Tuesday night in the Westmount Junior High School. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Educational and Vocational Guidance Section of the Quebec Psychological Association. Dr. Kenneth Norris, Past President of Quebec Psychological Association, of Sir George Williams College was in the chair.

A. M. Patience, President of the Quebec Federation of Home and School Associations, presented the resolution. It asked that the Central Board appoint a Director of Guidance, who would have the duty of organizing guidance in the local schools. It also asked that a more diversified high school curriculum should be arranged with an extension of local vocational training facilities.

The resolution was sponsored by representatives of 35 different organizations, an important cross section of the community, including Home and School Associations, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, Canadian Legion War Services, National Office Management Association, Board of Trade, Unemployment Insurance Commission, Regional Employment Office and the Head Office, McGill Alumnae Society, Women's Personnel Association, Montreal Council of Social Agencies, Montreal Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A., Jewish Vocational Service.

A funeral service was held on Wednesday at 2 p.m. for Miss Mary N. (Cis) King at her late residence, 328 Grosvenor avenue. Miss King died on Sunday evening after a short illness. Daughter of the late H. W. King, pioneer resident of the Snowdon district, Miss King had resided in Westmount for many years. The funeral service, which was private, was conducted by Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor and was attended by many intimate friends.

Trio Caught in Act By Westmount Police

Three men were caught in the act by Westmount police as they attempted a burglarize a Montreal home adjacent to the Westmount boundary, Wednesday morning.

Sgt. C. Baker, Const. P. Morgan and Const. H. Ward apprehended the three men as they attempted to break into the residence. A neighbour who witnessed the arrest was also instrumental in the apprehension of the trio. The accused were turned over to City of Montreal police officers.

CONGRATULATIONS—MR. MARLER

It was with great satisfaction we read of George Marler's stand at the Legislative Assembly when the Westmount-St. George Liberal was the only member to voice an objection to a resolution asking the federal government to grant amnesty to defaulters. However, the bill was passed. But it is with profound pride that all voters of Westmount-St. George read the details of Mr. Marler's lone stand against 67 other members of the assembly. It is also interesting to note that when Mr. Marler alone rose and voted against the measure, he received the respectful silence of the house.

DON'T SLEEP WITH THE DOUGH!

In her book Golden Fleece, Hughie Call tells about the many cooks who worked for her at different times at the big Montana sheep range.

One woman made the finest bread Mrs. Call ever tasted. It was snow-white, even-grained and surprisingly light. The men were crazy about it and lavish in their praise.

One day, however, nobody touched the bread. Puzzled, Mrs. Call tried a slice. It was as good as ever, maybe better.

The trouble, it seems, was that the chore boy had learned that morning from the cook herself the secret of her bread. She slept with the sponge to keep it warm.

HOW DO THEY GET THAT WAY?

A New York judge sent a lawyer to jail for contempt.

Said the judge to the lawyer: "Not only were the language, words, and acts contemptuous, but the circumstances, tone, look, manner and emphasis, all collectively, afforded the Court an opportunity to observe the character of your contemptuous, insolent manner toward him."

Said the lawyer to the judge: "I deny vigorously, but without vehemence, that I had wilfully or deliberately intended to be contemptuous, insolent, disorderly or derogatory of the authority, integrity, or dignity of the Court or Judge."

"Why do lawyers talk like that?" asks Frank Sullivan in P.M. "It's one thing to impress a client, but why do they talk like that to each other? The more words a lawyer can get into a brief, and the longer the words are, the more delighted he is."

SPANISH YEARNING FOR LIBERTY

Spain, being a Fascist country, allows its people to read nothing from the outside world. Its newspapers are rigorously censored, and what news of the world reaches the Spanish people is slanted and coloured by Fascist editors. The curtain between the Spanish people and the outside world is complete. But the Spanish people, having once briefly experienced democratic government, yearn for liberty and news of the democratic countries. An example of this was furnished recently when the censors slipped up on the ban against U.S. magazines and allowed "Newsweek" into the country. The magazine was displayed on Madrid newsstands for a whole day before police confiscated it. One dealer was getting 75 cents a copy for it before the police went into action.

SUCCESS STORY SUPERSTITION

It was recently pointed out at a small luncheon that a surprising number of financial fatalities have occurred among that group of men who have been featured in magazines that publish articles about business geniuses.

Some successful men have become superstitious about "write-ups" but they need not be. It is not the publicity that causes the downfall of financial adventurers, but rather the fact that these men are adventurers. They are usually doomed to failure, write-up or no write-up, for the reason that they trade on thin margins of capital. They are creatures of fair weather. Like trees that have not sunk their roots deep, they are knocked over by the first hard blow.

But their rapid rise makes good copy.

ministers' association that England will come through. Her housing facilities are relatively good, but food and clothing are limited. France is out of balance financially and otherwise. Many of the necessities of life are beyond the reach of the poor. If Germany escapes starvation, it will be by a miracle. But the most acute suffering will be in Japan. In Russia vast regions have been desolated, but the people are resourceful and optimistic. Stalin is not an absolute dictator, as many people in America suppose. Hostilities between Russia and America are unthinkable. China will again recover, as she always has. Dr. Freeman said that 100,000 of our soldiers have married overseas.

Many Canadians admit to the Gallup Poll that they do not understand the St. Lawrence Seaway plan. We wish some of the experts would be similarly frank.

A discussion on Zionism that cannot but be productive of good because of the manner in which it is being carried on is that between Rabbis Jacob J. Weinstein and Louis L. Mann. Rabbi Mann, whose Sinai congregation is worshipping in Rabbi Weinstein's K. A. M. Temple until their own new temple can be built, preached a vigorous sermon against Zionism. In complete amity Rabbi Weinstein took exception. "Is it fair to define nationalism as something evil?" he asked. "Nationalisms are of various types. For good or ill, they are here to stay. The one world of tomorrow must first pass through a stage of the federation of nation states. . . . In the building of positive nationalism, Palestine can play a vital role. . . . The prophets of Israel were at one and the same time passionate nationalists and ardent universalists." Of that kind of discussion, most sensible people will say, let there be more and more.

Conducted by Howard S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Chicago. —Boards of the three national agencies of the consumers cooperative movement met here recently and voted to merge into one body, National Cooperatives, Inc. The agencies forming merger are the Cooperative League of the U.S.A., 30 years old, which had been in charge of education; National Cooperatives, Inc., which for 12 years had supervised production and merchandising; and the Cooperative Finance Association of America, which had handled finances. The new organization will have one board of directors and one executive secretary. It represents an estimated 1,750,000 families in the United States and Canada, and has 4,000 retail outlets.

In this simplified spelling craze, why don't they do something about punctuation, too, and drop the exclamation mark? Nothing surprises anybody any more.

For a gag with a slightly political slant, cousin Winston at Miami might drop Clement Attlee a picture postcard message, "Wish you were here."

A group of North Carolina Baptist laymen and ministers have begun publication of a new monthly journal, "Christian Frontiers." The group "feel the need for an organ of expression which is financially independent of denominational institutions" and will have editorials and articles "on the deeper insights of Christian thought and ethics motivated by the Baptist spirit of individualism," book reviews and "news of the Christian church world-wide." The magazine is published at Chapel Hill, N.C., with Das Kelley Barnett as editor. An advisory board includes many well known Southern Baptist leaders.

"We no longer have to take from somebody else in order to have these basic needs (food, clothing (housing and health) for ourselves," said Reuben G. Gustavson, vice-president of the University of Chicago, in his address before the Chicago Sunday Evening Club on the new world opened by the discovery of atomic energy. "Thus," he said, "the reason for going to war with our neighbors has been removed." The very existence of the greatest power to destroy means that survival demands assertion of "the world of values, where all other things are subordinate to the worth of the individual," a new world in which the driving motive must be sharing.

Biography And History --In Streets--

(As has been previously noted, the material available upon the subject of Clarke Avenue is quite extensive, because Washington Irving's "Astoria" published in 1836 and Miss Adele Clarke's "Old Montreal: John Clarke: His Adventures, Friends and Family" published in 1906, give detailed accounts of the activities of one of Westmount's most famous sons, John Clarke, who was born in the house built by Simon Clarke about 1750, and demolished about the turn of the present century, which stood at what is now the north-east corner of Clarke Avenue and Sherbrooke Street. Previous installments have given an outline of the fur trade upon which John Clarke embarked in about his twentieth year, and we now follow him, by Washington Irving's "Astoria" in what is perhaps the most famous of his adventures.)

Clarke Avenue

It may be assumed that John Clarke, having been taken on as a partner by John Jacob Astor, was one of those to whom fell the assembling of the party which was to make the overland voyage to the new centre of the fur trade on the Columbia. Irving gives (1836) a colorful picture of the problems involved: "Mr. Hunt the chief partner in the enterprise) repaired, about the latter part of July, 1810, to Montreal, the ancient emporium of the fur trade, where everything requisite for the expedition could be procured. One of the first objects was to recruit a complement of Canadian voyageurs from the disbanded herd usually to be found loitering about the place. A degree of jockeyship, however, is required for this service, for a Canadian voyageur is as full of latent tricks and vice, as a horse; and when he makes the greatest external promise, is prone to prove the greatest 'take in'. Besides, the Northwest Company, who maintained a long-established control at Montreal, and knew the qualities of every voyageur, secretly interdicted the prime hands from engaging in this new service; so that, although liberal terms were offered, few presented themselves but such as were not worth having.

From these Mr. Hunt engaged a number sufficient, as he supposed, for present purposes; and having laid in a supply of ammunition, provisions, and Indian goods, embarked all on board one of those great canoes at that time universally used by the fur traders for navigating the intricate and often-obstructed rivers. The canoe was between thirty and forty feet long, and several feet in width; constructed of birch bark, sewed with fibre of the roots of the spruce tree, and daubed with resin of the pine, instead of tar. The cargo was made up in packages, weighing from ninety to one hundred pounds each, for the facility of loading and unloading, and of transportation at portages. The canoe itself, though capable of sustaining a freight of upward of four tons, could readily be carried on men's shoulders. Canoes of this size are generally managed by eight or ten men, two of whom are picked veterans, who receive double wages, and are stationed, one at the bow and the other at the stern, to keep a lookout and to steer. They are termed the foreman and the steersman. The rest, who ply the paddles, are called middle-men. When there is a favourable breeze, the canoe is occasionally navigated with a sail.

The expedition took its regular departure, as usual, from St. Anne's, near the extremity of the island of Montreal, the great starting place of the traders to the interior. Here stood the ancient chapel of St. Anne, the patroness of the Canadian Voyageurs, where they made confession, and offered up their vows, previous to departing on any hazardous expedition. The shrine of the saint was decorated with relics and votive offerings.

ADDRESS

Stanley Church Banquet Given Returned Men

On Friday evening a Welcome-home banquet and reception in honor of the men and women of Stanley Church who had served their King and Country in the recent war, was held in Franklin Hall Memorial. Rev. J. D. Wilkie, gave the address of welcome to the veterans. The hall was tastefully decorated with flags for the occasion through the courtesy of the T. Eaton Co., and the banquet table attractively arranged with red, white and blue bangles.

Following an excellent dinner prepared by the ladies of the church, a health was proposed to His Majesty by J. S. Mitchell, who acted as chairman during the evening. Later a delightful variety program was given which included songs by Mrs. Margaret Messenger and Harry Maude. The lighter side of the entertainment was provided by Nat Grosin, who mystified the guests by his sleight of hand, and young Terry Goodwin who entertained with his singing and clever tap dancing. Mrs. Mildred Neville acted as a most talented accompanist, and the evening concluded with "Auld Lang Syne" and "O, Canada."

Maude Clarke Dies At Home

The First Baptist Church in Montreal lost one of its most beloved and devoted members in the person of Miss Maude Clarke, who passed away at her home, 32 Windsor Avenue, on February 22.

Miss Clarke became a member of the former Olivet Baptist Church in November, 1888, taking an active part in its life and work as a Sunday school teacher and in many other capacities. She served for many years as treasurer of the Women's Baptist Foreign Mission Board of Eastern Ontario and Quebec.

This active interest continued after the union of the two congregations, First Baptist Church and Olivet, until failing health for the past few years made it impossible for her former activity. Considerate, kindly, generous, in uncounted ways she ministered to human need and many were the recipients of her thoughtful help. Miss Clarke was the remaining member of a family of three brothers and three sisters. She was the youngest daughter and taught school with three sisters at the High School of Montreal for 33 years. Miss Clarke was a life member of the Women's Art Society of Montreal.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church, where the large attendance bore testimony to the esteem in which she was held by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The Rev. M. F. McCutcheon officiated at the service.

CALVARY RED CROSS REVIEWS THE WORK OF PAST SIX YEARS
 The Calvary Red Cross Unit No. 15, held its final meeting with the president, Mrs. A. W. Brown, in the chair. In her presidential address Mrs. Brown expressed sincere thanks to each and everyone who had helped the unit in any way during the six and a quarter years.

Special Mention
 Specially mentioned were Mrs. Wm. Kerr, convener of sewing articles, who had been convener since 1941 to end of hostilities along with Mrs. J. D. Ross; Mrs. A. E. Robinson, convener of knitting throughout the years, as well as taking the chairmanship for each and every Red Cross campaign, and Mrs. J. Heggie, convener of conservation, for her loyal and conscientious service.
 A synopsis of the work accomplished during the past six and a quarter years was read by the secretary and noted that from November, 1939 to February, 1946, the work totals were: 4,473 sewing articles, 2,281 knitted garments, 120 quilts, 21 af-gans, 250 kits, 100 housewives, 51 prisoner of war capture bags, 242 kits (donation), 214 donations.

Westmount Women's Club Notes 28th Anniversary

The annual charter day luncheon celebrating the Westmount Women's Club's 28th anniversary was held on Friday in the Ball Room of the Mount Royal Hotel, and at this first birthday party since the end of hostilities, all of the guests who spoke, dwelt upon the club's magnificent wartime accomplishments. Women's work in war and the influence they may exert during the post-war days, was emphasized throughout both by the speaker of the afternoon, the Hon. Douglas C. Abbott, P.C., K.C., M.P., Minister of National Defence, and by Mrs. Edwin M. Briggs, president of the club, who presided.

Women's Influence
 After welcoming the representatives of sister organizations, Mrs. Briggs pointed out that there are certain reasons for the existence of woman's clubs—among them education, contacts and representation. "Women want a representative form of government" said Mrs. Briggs. "Women want peace, and women want religious activities emphasized; but due to their own apathy and their failure to recognize the power which is theirs, they are not as effective as they should be. Women have worked to improve penal institutions, and educational and welfare facilities in this country. The development of public opinion is of great importance today, and women's clubs have it in their power to sway public opinion for public betterment if they so desire." The president ended with a plea that women avail themselves of the opportunities to help do their share in promoting a lasting peace in a war-torn world.

Clear Picture Of Services
 His Worship Mayor Percy R. Adams introduced the Hon. D. C. Abbott, who, in his speech clearly outlined the accomplishments of the Department of National Defence in relation to the expansion of the Armed Services upon the outbreak of hostilities, their demobilization after victory, and the repatriation of not only the personnel themselves, but their dependents. He also warned of false optimism about the present state of the world, and gave a resumé of future plans for the peacetime active forces of the Navy, Army and Air Force, their reserves and auxiliaries, and stated that they would be equipped with the most modern defence devices that scientific research and development could make available. "We must not repeat the mistakes of the period between the World War I and World War II," he stated, and suggested that this adequate preparation of the most modern striking forces be regarded by all as a precautionary interim measure till world peace is assured. He also told of the creation of a new sub-department of National Defence which will ensure that in peacetime, as well as in war, the country's foremost scientists will be able to study problems affecting the defence of the land, and keep abreast, or ahead, of the times.

Women In War
 Prior to World War II, Mr. Abbott pointed out, only nursing sisters in the R.C.A.M.C. had gone to war. Many had doubted the wisdom of forming the women's services, but, he stated, the Wrens, C.W.A.C., and the R.C.-A.F. Women's Divisions had rendered valuable service to their country and earned nothing but the highest praise for the work they took over in order to release men for active service.

Dependents.
 The repatriation of dependents has been a difficult problem, said Mr. Abbott, and somewhat out of the ordinary routine of the Department. However, it had been tackled with the happiest results, and already 16,000 wives and children had been brought from the U.K. and north-west Europe. It was hoped to have all of the remaining 40,000 here before the end of the year.

Canon Oliver
 The Rev. Canon Gilbert Oliver invoked the blessing. Mrs. A. T. Stikeman, I.O.D.E., responded for the guests, and Mrs. Briggs proposed the toast to the King, and thanked John V. Rooland (of Bluebell Bullets fame), the soloist, and Phyllis Rowell Hutchins, who accompanied him at the piano. The president also mentioned the fine work of Mrs. Herbert Holland and her hospitality committee, and noted that Mrs. C. W. Williams and Mrs. P. C. Delgado were responsible for the arrangements at the head table. Tulips, daffodils and other spring flowers were used in decoration.
 Mrs. T. de G. Stewart, the founder of the club, was among those seated at the head table.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR REPORTED BY NO. 75, REMEMBRANCE BRCH.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary Remembrance Branch, No. 75, Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., the president, Mrs. S. T. Preston, pointed out, that the auxiliary had a most successful year.

Red Cross Work

The work accomplished by the Red Cross Unit included civilian and hospital sewing, 408 articles of sewing and 179 articles of knitting being made. The members also assisted in canvassing for the Red Cross drive, topping their quota by 15 per cent. Twenty-five ditty bags were filled for the Navy League. The hospital visiting committee made 700 visits to service men in the Royal Victoria Hospital, St. Anne's and Montreal Military Hospital, distributing cigarettes, candy, games, playing cards, books, stationary and magazines. The members also assisted with the distribution of Christmas gifts from Jas. A. Ogilvy's store, and 51,900 cigarettes were sent to boys overseas and also to the boys stationed in Canada at Christmas time.

The membership of the auxiliary has increased considerably. A very successful "Welcome Home Party" for the returned service men was sponsored by the auxiliary. The contacting and entertaining of war brides is an enthusiastic feature of the work for the ensuing year.

The supplying of fresh flowers for the C. N. R. Welcome Rooms for the returned personnel has been maintained for several years by donations from the members.

Welfare assistance to needy veterans' families and their dependants has been maintained during the war years, and this work will continue to be Branch 75's most serious endeavour for the postwar period. Blood donations to the Canadian Legion Blood Bank by members of the auxiliary definitely eased the mental anguish of the veteran.

The Greater Montreal Poppy Campaign was assisted greatly by members of the auxiliary.

Cash Donations

Cash donations to the amount of $250.74 were made to the following: Canadian Red Cross, Canadian Legion Montreal Hospital Committee, Montreal Sailors' Institute, Greater Montreal Poppy Fund and general welfare. Several and various money-raising projects were carried out successfully.

Officers Elected

Officers elected for the following year are: President, Mrs. Bashford Browne; first vice-president, Mrs. H. L. Seale; second vice-president, Mrs. H. B. Grant; secretary, Mrs. B. Taylor; treasurer, Mrs. J. Fisher; Sergeant at Arms, Mrs. L. Tucker; executive committee, Miss C. Booth, Mrs. H. K. Harper, Mrs. A. Ferguson, Mrs. M. Wheatley, and Mrs. W. E. Montgomery.

Rev. Father Lally Will Address C.W.L. Westmount Subdivision

The Westmount subdivision C.W.L. is holding its monthly meeting and tea today in St. Leo's School Hall.

Mrs. Edmund Foster, the president, will be in the chair.

The Rev. Wilfrid McDonagh will introduce the speaker, the Rev. T. J. Lally, of Belleville, Ont., who will speak on "The Canadian Martyrs' Shrine" of which he is the founder.

Mrs. A. I. Peterson will thank Father Lally.

Tea will be served by Mrs. C. J. Lovett and her committee, and the tea table will be centred with Shamrocks and greenery.

PARTY TABLE

A centerpiece of branches, from which you can hang clusters of artificial cherries, will make festive the party table you set in honor of Spring festivities.

Put your "cherry tree" centerpiece in a white flower pot or bowl, and fill it with sand for anchorage. If you own a white figurine, suspend a tiny basket, made of green crepe paper or cardboard, from its neck, and fill the basket with artificial cherries.

You can go farther with your color theme, as Carole Stupell does, in designing the table setting above, by using white and green table accessories.

Xavier Guild

The monthly meeting of the Xavier Apostolate Guild will be held in Congress Hall at 3 p.m. on Monday. The speaker will be the Rev. Father Jasper Stanford, pastor of St. Dominic's and the subject of his talk will be "The Daughter of Maria Monk." Mrs. J. P. Boyle will preside and refreshments will be served under the convenship of Mrs. E. Thibodeau.

Church "Year" St. John Divine Plan Conference

At a recent meeting of the Churchwomen's Year of the Church of St. John the Divine, Verdun, presided over by the president, Mrs. P. M. Mulock, the members decided to sponsor a conference for all churches which have adopted this system of fellowship and wide-sharing of financial responsibilities of the work of each parish. This conference will serve as a clearing-house of experiences and problems which have arisen with the organization's growth, some peculiar to particular parishes, some general to all.

The programme was drawn up and approved, and the following sub-committee conveners were appointed: Programme, Mrs. R. Higgins; Refreshments, Mrs. F. Newcomb; Finance, Miss M. Young; Reception, Mrs. H. Hudson; Publicity, Mrs. A. L. Larocque.

Biography And

ings hung up by these superstitious beings, either to propitiate her favors, or in gratitude for some signal deliverance in the wilderness. It was the custom, too, of these devout vagabonds, after leaving the chapel, to have a grand carouse, in honor of the saint and for the prosperity of the voyage. In this part of their devotions, the crew of Mr. Hunt proved themselves by no means deficient. Indeed he soon discovered that his recruits, enlisted at Montreal, were fit to vie with the ragged regiment of Falstaff. Some were able-bodied but inexperienced; others were expert, but lazy; while a third class were expert and willing, but totally worn out, being broken down veterans, incapable of toil.

With this inefficient crew he made his way up the Ottawa River, and by the ancient route of the fur traders along a succession of small lakes and rivers to Michilimackinac. Their progress was slow and tedious. Mr. Hunt was not accustomed to the management of "voyageurs," and he had a crew admirably disposed to play the old soldier, and balk their work, and ever ready to come to a halt, land, make a fire, put on the great pot, and smoke, and gossip, and sing by the hour.

Norma Shearer Joins C.A.T. Advisory Board

Norma Shearer has joined the Advisory Board of the Canadian Art Theatre, according to a statement made by Joy Thomson, C.A.T. director. Miss Shearer, who spent several weeks vacationing in the Laurentians with her husband, Martin Arrouge, will spend a week in New York before returning to Los Angeles.

Miss Shearer recalls that her first MGM role was that of "Consuelo" in "He Who Gets Slapped." The Canadian Art Theatre is staging this Andreyev play at Victoria Hall on March 19, 20, 21 and 22. Although the film version was made some time ago, Norma remembers how thrilled she was with the opportunity of acting with two great stars, Lon Chaney, who played "He," and John Gilbert in the role of "Bezano."

Andree Marat will play the role of Consuelo in C.A.T.'s production next week. Miss Marat will be remembered for her characterization of "Toinette" in the imaginary invalid by the same company last September. "HE" will be played by Carl Dubuc, well-known actor, radio artist and author. D'Anjou, who is costume designer for the C.A.T., will be seen as Count Mancini. Suzanna Avon will appear as Zinida, a lion tamer. Other important roles will be filled by Joseph Carmen, Sydney Litwack and Bruce Raymond. The balance of the cast of forty, including clowns and acrobats.

THE MERRIEST DOWN-TO-MIRTH COMEDY! Rita Johnson, Fred MacMurray and Marguerite Chapman, who are featured in "Pardon My Past," which plays the Seville United Theatre from Saturday until Tuesday.

Bette Davis and Miriam Hopkins Co-Star in "Old Acquaintance"

"Old Acquaintance," Warner Bros.' powerful drama of a woman's steadfast loyalty for her faithless friend, starring Bette Davis and Miriam Hopkins, is now playing at the Seville United Theatre until Friday night, is based on the Broadway success of the same name, features Gig Young, John Loder and Dolores Moran.

Bette Davis, as Kit Marlowe, successful young novelist, visits her home town as guest of her childhood friend, Millie Drake (Miriam Hopkins), selfish, vixenish young matron. Although happily married and an expectant mother she is nevertheless envious of Kit's success and strives to emulate her.

Spurred on by jealousy and avid for money, she writes a series of superficial novels that "catch on" and enjoy a huge success. Rich and famous, Millie sets out to enjoy life in the only way she knows how: by spending money lavishly on herself and her family.

Alienates Husband
Her domineering attitude, however, alienates both her husband, Preston, who has fallen in love with Kit, and her daughter, Deirdre. In a heated quarrel in which Preston suggests that Millie get him a dog-collar encrusted with diamonds and inscribed "property of Mildred Preston Drake," he packs up and leaves, but not before he has professed his love for Kit and asked her to leave with him. Though loving him, Kit, generous and loyal to Millie and the child, refuses, and Preston goes away.

Their next meeting is many years later. Kit has become a successful playwright, and Millie's daughter, Deirdre, has grown to womanhood. Millie, still complaining that she is a deserted, misunderstood woman, continues to write her novels and live in lavish style. When they meet again Millie tries to win Preston back and when she discovers that he regards her with contempt, takes out her spite on Kit, accusing her of stealing her husband many years ago, and of playing around with Rudd Kendall (Gig Young) ten years her junior.

Rudd, in love with Kit, but held off by her because of the great difference in age, falls in love with Deirdre just as Kit has decided to marry him. In the end Kit is left alone, heartsick and weary. It is at this moment that the ubiquitous Millie breezes in, repentant and humble, recovered from her tantrum. Kit's sense of humor which has never failed her in her management of the childish Millie serves her in good stead as the two old friends—facing middle-aged loneliness—drink to "old acquaintance."

Children's Theatre Scores New Success

On Saturday afternoon, March 9, at Victoria Hall, the Children's Theatre, now in its thirteenth season, presented to a capacity house the play, "Children's Hearts For Adoption", played for the first time in Canada. The audience was moved by this appealing little play. The story centres around a number of little orphans, left to the caprices of the matron of Happy Haven Home. Cecile Reinhartz, as forlorn little Tatters, who is abandoned to the orphanage by Peter the Bum, gave a performance that would have done credit to one of wider theatrical experience. Sharing equal honours with her, is Hilda Yates, who portrayed Molly, the little slavey. Burton Metcalf as Sam and David Luck as Skeeter, two orphans who were "growing up" displayed fine acting ability.

Harriet Beecher and Bonar Stuart, two veterans of the Children's Theatre, were excellent in their respective roles of Mrs. Moore and Dr. Miller.

Walter Wakefield, evidenced his wide dramatic experience by convincing characterization of Jed Moore, the matron's husband. The six tiny tots who delivered the Welcome Speech, stole the hearts of the crowd with their winning baby smiles.

One cannot let pass unnoticed the fine acting ability of Beatrice Picard as the vivacious Madame La Tour. The affectations of Lady Pennywaite, and the naughtiness of Michaeline, her precocious off-spring, as depicted by Muriel Haltrecht and Myrna Lee Swidler, evoked much laughter from the amused spectators.

29 Gershwin Numbers Provide Film's Lavish Musical Backdrop

Based on the life of the late George Gershwin, Warner Bros. lavish and inspired musical film biography, "Rhapsody In Blue," which is now playing the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday night, takes its title from the famed composer's best known work. Covering the musician's life span from 1908 when he was ten, through 1937 when he died, the main story thread picks up Gershwin, portrayed on the screen by the newly-created star Robert Alda, at the age of eighteen.

Others sharing top starring honors with Alda are Joan Leslie, Alexis Smith, Charles Coburn, and numerous stars of stage and screen who portray themselves in the film. Among the latter are Paul Whiteman, Oscar Levant, Al Jolson, George White, Hazel Scott, Anne Brown and Tom Patricola. In important supporting roles are Julie Bishop, Albert Basserman, Morris Carnovsky, Rosemary De Camp and Herbert Rudley.

Twenty-nine of Gershwin's compositions provide an exciting musical background for the film. Presented in full, the "Rhapsody In Blue" number is conducted by Paul Whiteman with the piano solos recorded especially for the film by Oscar Levant, lifetime friend of the composer and foremost exponent of his works.

Music Played In Film

Also played in the film, in full or in part, are: "Concerto in F," "An American in Paris," "Porgy And Bess," "Cuban Overture," "When You Want 'Em You Can't Get 'Em" (Gershwin's first published song), "Swanee," which is sung on the screen by Al Jolson exactly as he originally presented it back in 1918, "S Wonderful," "Somebody Loves Me," "Lady Be Good," "Blue Monday Blues," "The Man I Love" (effectively sung in the film in both French and English by Hazel Scott), "Someone To Watch Over Me," "Embraceable You," "Strike Up the Band," "Mine," "Delicious," "Love Walked In" (the last number Gershwin composed), "Nobody But You," "Do It Again," "Nashville Nightingale," "I Was So Young, You Were So Beautiful," "Drifting Along With the Tide," "I Found A Four-Leaf Clover," "Pepita," "Stairway to Paradise," "That Certain Feeling," "Liza" and the unforgettable "I Got Rhythm."

"Those Enduring Young Charms" Played as Romantic Comedy

Sparkling romantic comedy is achieved in "Those Enduring Young Charms," which is now playing at the York United Theatre until Friday night. It stars Robert Young and Laraine Day in the story of a modern wolf who steals his friend's girl, only to be thoroughly tamed by the time she gets through with him.

Robert Young is the dashing Air Corps Lieutenant Hank Travers. Laraine Day is the girl, Helen Brandt, who works in a department store, Bill Williams is the likeable though naive young Air Corps mechanic, Jerry, who unwisely brings the two together, with disastrous results to his own romantic interests. Ann Harding has the role of Helen's mother, and guides her lovely daughter through a maze of amusing complications that ensue when Hank seeks to add Helen to his long list of romances and sweeps the girl completely off her feet.

How Hank is cured forever of his romantic philanderings, and (nearly) everybody lives happily ever afterwards, forms the climax of this engaging theme.

Marc Cramer, Larry Tierney, Anne Jeffreys and Glenn Vernon round out the supporting cast.

MARY VAN KIRK

Mary Van Kirk, contralto of the Metropolitan Opera Association, guest soloist at the Ninth Annual Concert of the Montreal Masonic Choir in St. James United Church on Tuesday evening March 26th. Miss Van Kirk came to the Metropolitan Auditions of the Air. She has appeared extensively in recitals and has been soloist at the Berkshire Festivals, the Cincinnati Music Festival, the Cleveland, Indianapolis symphony orchestras and other famed organizations. She recently concluded a tour of Army camps under the auspices of USO-Camp Shows.

A MUSICAL MIRTHQUAKE! Eddie Green, Archie (Ed. Gardner) and Finnegan (Charles Cantor), the stars of the radio show, as they appear with Bing Crosby, Betty Hutton, Alan Ladd, Paulette Goddard, Dorothy Lamour and many others in the film "Duffy's Tavern," which starts at the York United Theatre on Saturday, playing until Tuesday night.

Robert Montgomery Perfectly Cast in "Unfinished Business"

Light comedy roles are the most difficult type for any actor to play, says Robert Montgomery, who should know.

Montgomery has tried both comedy and drama, and both with success.

It is in the field of light comedy that the actor has achieved widest note, and although his first hit performance was in the powerful dramatic role of the prison coward in "The Big House," and he rated Academy Award consideration for his psychopathic killer of "Night Must Fall."

In Best Element

Montgomery is in his best-known element in Universal's "Unfinished Business," now at the Monkland United Theatre until Friday night, with Irene Dunne co-starred, although the comedy-drama has its highly emotional moments, too. Gregory La Cava, the producer-director, saw to that.

The actor believes that light comedy is difficult to play because it requires most accurate timing.

"Timing is the most important element of any performance," Montgomery states. "And light comedy calls upon a performer to establish and maintain correct timing in situation which are usually unexpected and, in many cases, unorthodox."

Dramatic Roles, Easy

Most dramatic roles fall into a pattern which is comparatively easy to sustain evenly throughout a picture, according to Montgomery. Surprisingly, he even stamps the seemingly difficult role of "Danny" in "Night Must Fall" as a comparatively easy role.

"'Danny' was a psychopathic character, one which followed a definite pattern of behavior," Montgomery says. "Although it was one of my favorite roles, I thought it also one of my easiest."

Montgomery's role in "Unfinished Business" is that of a playboy New Yorker who awakens one morning to find himself married to a beautiful girl who, it turns out, is really in love with his brother.

Complications Ensur

Romantic and comedy complications ensue when the ex-playboy falls in love with the girl.

Preston Foster is the "other man," with Eugene Pallette, Dick Foran, Esther Dale, Walter Catlett and June Clyde also featured.

Two Women Spirit British Flyers From Under The Gestapo Thumb

An old antique shop holds the escape secrets of over 300 British flyers in "Paris Underground," which is now playing at the Snowdon United Theatre until Friday night.

Constance Bennett as the irrepressible Kitty de Mornay and Gracie Fields as Emmyline Quayle, her British companion, co-star in the picture. The two of them are caught in the sudden occupation of Paris by the Germans. Accidentally they become involved with a young British flyer forced down in a Paris suburb and decide to smuggle him across the border to unoccupied France.

The young British flyer, played by Leslie Gray, is only the first to be helped by them. Kitty and Emmy pit their feminine intuition and wits against the German Gestapo. Behind the facade of an antique shop, they go into the business of helping British flyers cross the border wholesale.

Constance Bennett magnificently portrays Kitty as a vivacious and distinctive American girl with a determined will beneath the sparkle of her gaiety. And Gracie Fields will be applauded for her splendid creation of the practical, understanding but humorous Emmy.

A brilliant newcomer, George Rigaud makes his first appearance on the American screen as Andre de Mornay, Kitty's husband. Broad-shouldered and lanky, Rigaud plays with a high sense of dramatic values and an easy confidence. He gives character and humor to the part of Andre.

The heel-clicking Captain Von Weber is skillfully portrayed by Kurt Kreuger. Blond Kurt Kreuger tops six feet and perfectly fits the description of an Aryan Gestapo Captain. Completely captivated by Constance Bennett, Von Weber lays himself out to please. He innocently pays for his dances with the American girl in black market gasoline that speeds British flyers home to England.

The picture is dramatically directed by Gregory Ratoff. Skillfully he etches the characters and paces the story. With keen understanding he weaves the supporting parts into the fabric of the whole, creating bit by bit an effects that builds up into a powerful climax. Under his expert guidance the cast, including Charles Andre, Eily Malyon and Roland Varno, turns out splendid performances. Constance Bennett's "Paris Underground" is more than an absorbing story of two women vs the German Gestapo, it is a story superlatively told.

HER OWN JEWELS

Dorothy Lamour wore a family heirloom gold necklace for scenes in Paramount's "Masquerade in Mexico" in which she gets innocently involved with a jewel thief.

St. Leo's Pucksters Cop B Title

Tie C.H.S. 1-All To Cinch Honors

By DICK GRIFFIN

St. Leo's Senior B completed their regular schedule last week by battling the formidable Catholic High Squad to a 1-all draw on the Forum ice. The Academites went into this game enjoying a two-point lead in the standings over the Black and White puckmen and by virtue of the draw protected their margin of two points. This was the last game of the schedule.

The game was a thriller all the way with little to choose between the two clubs as they battled away at each other on a slow sheet of ice. Jimmy McCarthy* was the marksman for the Academy while Tremblay notched the Durocher St. aggregation's only goal. Guy Vidroaire, Jimmy McCarthy, George Bourbonniere and Dave Manning* were the best for the Saints along with a starry performance by goalie Dave O'Meara.

Casey, Roach, Armstrong and MacCabe were the standouts for Catholic High. Goaler Gagnon turned in his best game of the season for CHS.

CHAMPIONSHIP SIDELIGHTS

Brother Paul came near making it a royal flush in his quest for all the Interscholastic hockey championships as his Bantam, Junior and Senior A already had their titles safely tucked away and only needed Senior B honors to make school hockey history by sweeping aside all opposition. At that, the Catholic High mentor accomplished a rare feat in winning the three titles. . . . The St. Leo's bench was honored by the presence of the Rev. Father Wilfred McDonagh, P.P. who took in the proceedings sitting on one end of the players' bench. Father McDonagh, a real sport enthusiast, has always been a tremendous help to his young parishioners in all their sport endeavors and his presence at any of the games is always an inspiration for the boys to go all out to win.

Brother Paul really scraped the bottom of the pot in search of hockey talent at his school and dressed no less than 17 players in a futile effort to win this im-

SPORTS

By George Cochrane

Sometimes your shorts on sportser gets downright discouraged. Last week we selected an all-star team from the seven teams that saw action in the Protestant section of the Senior A Interscholastic Hockey League and had same published in The Monitor, sister publication of the popular weekly journal which you are now perusing. The same column was also to appear in last week's Examiner. But, the paper shortage being what it is, your favorite sports column didn't appear here. So we hereby publish our all-star team selection.

First team: Goal, Phil Layton, Montreal West; defence, Tommy Manastersky, Montreal High, and Eric Swaine, Montreal West; centre, Jack McKissock, Westmount; wings, Frank Read, Westmount, and Ken Booth, West Hill.

Second team: Goal, Roy Scurrah, West Hill; defence, Ross Knights, West Hill, and Johnny Piers, Westmount; centre, Sam alvatore, Montreal High; wings, Billy Munro, Montreal High, and Bill Ranson, West Hill.

The usual deluge of criticism will be accepted in good spirit until Royals opening day at what friend Al Parsley calls Delorimier Downs.

The Quebec Rugby Football Union is going to try to have the schools modify their Americanised football rules. According to the QRFU larrigans, it takes too long for a graduate from high school football to become used to the Canadian code. George Jones, publicity man for the QRFU and sports editor of The Verdun Guardian, says that Jack Lang, director of physical education for Protestant schools on Montreal Island, will be approached soon. . . . The QRFU would like to have all local leagues operating under the same rules.

Also from George Jones comes the report that George Brown, the lad who co-coached Montreal's Big Four entry last season as well as the Montreal High team, is trying to line up enough material in N.D.G. to enter a team in the QRFU junior loop. . . . And why couldn't Westmount do the same thing?

Art Mann's Westmount Dodgers, footballers de luxe, will be operating in only the Westmount Municipal League this season. Last year the Mann men were also in the Snowdon Senior Softball League and up there they finished fifth in a six team circuit.

Len Mendel, the bespectacled character who has covered school football for The Gazette the last two seasons and who is now a grade 12 student at West Hill, is momentarily expecting his draft call. He's a Yank and the Americans are still conscripting.

That McGill-Varsity tilt at the Forum tonight should be a hum-dinger. We'll pick the Varsity to win but with those battling McGillians one can never tell what is going to happen.

Primary Schools Open Cage Season Monday, March 25

The Westmount Protestant Elementary Schools' Basketball League will open its schedule a week from this coming Monday, on March 25, at Queen's School when Coach George Cochrane's Roslyn senior and junior entries will tangle with Richard Lord's Squads.

The schedule was released this week and calls for each team in the three-team circuit to play one home and one away game with each of the other two teams. That means that each school will play four games. There will be no playoff unless two or more teams are tied for first place at the end of the regular schedule.

Each game will consist of four six-minute periods. The weight limit for juniors is 87 pounds or under as shown on their medical cards for September. There is no weight limit in the senior division.

While there is still a certain amount of doubt about who'll be on the starting lineups once the schedule gets underway, the experts are picking King's and Roslyn to battle it out for the senior honors and Queen's and Roslyn to be up near the top in the junior race.

Bob Putnam, high scoring forward of the Westmount Y's highly rated juvenile basketball quintet and of the Westmount Junior High Senior B team, has taken over the coaching duties at King's School. George Gough, who started out as the Kingpin's cage mentor had to give up the job due to the pressure of other duties.

The complete schedule follows:

SCHEDULE

- March 25: Roslyn at Queen's.
- March 27: Queen's at King's.
- March 28: King's at Roslyn.
- April 2: King's at Queen's.
- April 4: Queen's at Roslyn.
- April 8: Roslyn at King's.

Two points will be awarded for a win, one for a tie.

His first and second Protestant division all-star teams are as follows—

First team: Goal, Layton, Montreal West; defence, Manaster-sky, Montreal High, Moore, Lachine; centre, McKissock, Westmount; wings, Read, Westmount, Hellyer, Westmount. Coach, D. N. McRae, Westmount. (We warned you that Mike is a local boy.)

Second team: Goal, Scurrah, West Hill; defence, Knights, West Hill, and Edmison or Piers, Westmount; centre, Dowbiggin, Strathcona; wings, Munro, Montreal, Booth, West Hill. Coach, Botts, Montreal High.

Energetic Mike, a gentleman with more of the old school try than the vast majority of his schoolmates, has also concocted two all-star teams from the seven Protestant and two Catholic teams entered in the Senior A loop.

The first: Goal, Layton, MWHS; defence, Deslauriers, CHS, Joe McArdle, Loy; centre, Newton, CHS; wings, Frank McArdle, Loy, Frank Read, WHS. Coach, D. N. McRae, WHS.

The second: Goal, O'Shaugnessy, Loy; defence, Manastersky, MHS, Moore, LHS; centre, McKissock, WHS; wings, DelVeccio, CHS, Mullen, CHS. Coach, Gordy Marriott, Loyola.

Catholic High Cagers Edge Westmount 38-33

BY GEORGE COCHRANE

Displaying some of the best bounce ball artistry that they've shown all season, Westmount High's Senior A cagers were edged out 38-33 by the powerful Catholic High quintet on the Black and White's own floor Monday afternoon. Brother De Paul's boys, who are generally rated second only to Baron Byng in school cage circles, had to go all out to rack up the win over the hard-fighting local aggregation. The game was played on even terms throughout and on a couple of occasions Coach Lew Davies' boys broke into the lead.

As usual, captain Fred Bridel paced the winners in the scoring department. The smooth-working centre managed to shake himself free of the locals' tight zone defence often enough to sink 22 points. Without Bridel, the Westmounters would have won the game without raising a sweat. Only three other players broke into the scoring department for Catholic High. They were McCabe, the second stanza the Purple and Kavanaugh with one.

EVEN STEPHEN

The two teams battled it out on even terms during the first quarter with the home team holding a 10-9 lead when the whistle ending the first quarter blew. In the second stanza the Purple and White outscored their opponents 11-10 to make the half-time count 20-20.

The Durocher street crew were ahead 20-18 with seconds to go to half-time when a time out was called. After the rest, Johnny Field potted a two-pointer for Westmount to tie the game up.

The old Westmount fatigue began to show itself in the second half. The starting lineup of Pete Siemers, John Field, Bud Cochrane, Jim Henderson and John Macfarlane were on the floor until the game was 35 seconds but over when Gordie MacLeod replaced Field. Bridel was the only CHS'er to play the whole game.

CHS TAKES LEAD

The Catholic boys had a slight margin on the play throughout the second half and went into a lead that they never relinquished soon after the second portion of the hard-fought tussle got underway. But Lew Davies' boys battled with everything they had and at three-quarter time the Black and White were leading by a scant three-points, 30-27.

The locals really went to work in the final canto and were breathing on their hosts' necks when the CHS'ers plunked in a couple of long shots from outside the Westmounters' zone defence to sew up the game. The final count: 38-33.

It was a tough game to lose, a good one to win. The verdict could have gone either way.

GUARDS STAR

Guards Jimmy Henderson and long John Macfarlane were the real stars on the Westmount outfit Monday. The husky duo fought fiercely for all the rebounds under the locals' basket, checked hard and often and worked the ball up the floor at a faster clip than they have all season.

In the scoring department, blonde Johnny Field was the number one man for the Cote St. Antoine Road crew. He sank five baskets and two free throws for a total of 12 points. Captain Bud Cochrane was second with nine, Pete Siemers third with six, Macfarlane fourth with five and Henderson fifth with one.

LINEUPS

Westmount (33): Cochrane (9), Field (12), Grant, Siemers (6), Trueland, MacLeod, Macfarlane (5), Fotheringham, Lark, Henderson (1).

Catholic High (38): Bridel (22), Powers (2), Tremblay, Kavanaugh (1), McCabe (13), Pelletier, Avon, Richardson, Leduc, Birmingham.

Referee: Joey Richman, GAME POSTPONED

The Westmounters' scheduled tilt with Montreal High, slated for the Blue and White's gym on Tuesday of this week, was postponed at the MHS lads' request.

The Australian gliding record has been broken by Matthew Warner, of Sydney, N.S.W. He flew 205 miles from Parkes to Jerilderie, both N.S.W., in a Gull sailplane. The previous Australian gliding record was established by Len Schultz in 1939, when he flew 105 miles.

portant tilt and force a deadlock in the final standing.

In competition with Catholic High this year our team won one, lost one and drew one, having scored 15 goals with eight been scored against them . . . Through the kindness of St. Leo's, Brother Bernard, the school students were released a half an hour earlier to allow them to go to the game to support their team. It was the best attendance of the students in years at any game of which their team was a participant.

If there was any award for the comeback of the year among St. Leo's athletes, then goaler Dave O'Meara would walk away the honors with his coach, Andy McGillis rating an assist. Last year, when Dave was playing Bantam, he went into a bad slump in the playoffs against CHS and consequently his confidence took a terrific beating. At the start of this season coach Andy promoted Dave to Senior B ranks, skipping the Junior section, and his protege more than justified his coach's confidence in him as he proceeded to turn in one good game after another to come through the season with a high rating among school net minders.

Not only is defenceman McCabe of Catholic High one of the most promising defence players in school hockey but is in addition a genuine sportsman as he showed by his actions in coming forward to congratulate the St. Leo's players at the termination of the game . . . There was a good sprinkling of former St. Leo athletes in attendance at the game rooting for their old school and among those noticed were Kevin Kennedy, Paul Peterson, Adrian Lunny, Tootsie Provost, George Mulligan and Yvve Hudon.

Frank Creaghan hard working Academy defenceman came near being the goat of the game, incurring three penalties to put his team a man shy for six minutes of the 45-minute game. While on the ice Frank was a big help with his aggressive and spirited type of play . . . With about five minutes remaining in the game smoothing skating George Bourbonniere appeared to have put the game on ice for St. Leo's when he slid the puck past goaler Gagnon from a scramble but referee Al Murray had lost sight of the puck and in accordance with the rules blew his whistle a split second before the goal.

Brother Paul dropped around to the St. Leo's dressing quarters after the game to offer his congratulations to the new champions . . . With the clinching of the Senior B title this makes the fifth hockey championship of the year for St. Leo's as they had already had garnered the Westmount Pee Wee honors, Westmount Bantam A, Westmount Bantam B and the Westmount Midget B.

mer Canadian postmaster-general, also addressed the gathering. He outlined the history of the organization of which he is president and offered to help the Westmount association in any way he can.

Mr. Abbott was introduced by John Pepper, first vice-president of the Westmount Young Liberals Association, and thanked by Chuck McCrae, second vice-president. George Cochrane, secretary of the organization, introduced Mr. Mullock and Robert Overing, corresponding secretary, thanked him.

Barry Campbell, chairman of the association's social committee, announced that the first social meeting will be held at Victoria Hall on the night of Friday, April 5. Abbe Maheux will be asked to speak and the meeting will then adjourn for dancing and refreshments. Members will be invited to bring their friends.

President William Macdonald has announced that he hopes to have the next meeting held early in the week of March 25. It is hoped that Brooke Claxton, Minister of National Health, will speak.

Tribute to Genest Trudel, the association's adviser who died last Sunday, was paid by William Macdonald and by William Mullock.

The mud skipper—which is found along the coast of Africa, Asia and Australia—got its name from the fact it sometimes leaves the water and goes skipping along the mud flats of the coast chasing insects for a meal. Mud skippers can move along more rapidly on land than they can on water; indeed, they can outrun a man.

Jobs Follow Organization

But Employers and Workers Must Assist

During the war organization of manpower was made possible through co-operation of employers and workers.

This co-operation is no less necessary to assist in organizing the employment market during the present critical period.

Some manpower controls still remain. These are still law. They are aimed at assisting in organizing the employment market.

Remaining controls are designed to help employers and workers—and actually require only minor assistance from the public.

YOU ARE URGED TO COMPLY WITH THE FOUR CONTROLS WHICH REMAIN:

- 1—Employers MUST notify the National Employment Office of any need for workers, as soon as that need is known.
- 2—Where employers engage workers outside the National Employment Service they MUST notify the nearest NES Office within three days, that an employee has been engaged. (Form NSS 312 is provided for this purpose.)
- 3—Unemployed workers seeking employment MUST register with the National Employment Office if unemployed for seven consecutive days.
- 4—Generally speaking, any employer or employee MUST give seven days' notice to the other party of any intention to terminate employment. (Form NSS 120 is still required.) Exceptions may be learned from the nearest NES Office.

The partners to industry—employers and employees—should help the National Employment Service to promote a high level of employment by complying with these simple rules.

Only with public support can an employment service give full assistance to the community.

Make full use of the Local Office of the National Employment Service. It is there to serve your needs, and those of the entire Community.
