Lions Tap Dance Concert Wonderfully Received

Parents, grand parents, aunts and uncles turned out 'en masse' Saturday evening, May 26 to enjoy with enthusiasm, the fine display of tap dancing which our young folk gave. These little ones have faithfully attended their tap dancing lessons, held since last autumn, each Saturday afternoon in the dining hall of the Agricultural building. They progressed very well which accounted for their great performance on stage in the high school auditorium. No less faithful were the mothers of these girls and boys who attended regularly with them, some of whom attended the Renfrew Recital as well, and saw that each one was properly dressed and 'beautiful' before every act. Some of the little girls perhaps enjoyed their little experiment with make-up almost as well as the show. Showing very little, if any, fear of the audience, they bravely performed with the ease that few adults can. In the case of an emergency when two cowgirl lassos became entangled calmness prevailed, as Linda Judd and Ann Beaulieu quickly and silently removed the entanglement to the joy of the audience, who perhaps were much more panicky than the girls were themselves.

Programs were distributed to the audience which made the show even more enjoyable, and

WI Resolution Goes To Quebec

Pontiac County Women's Institute has sent a resolution to Quebec Women's Institute to try and arrange that money left by the late Miss Abbie Pritchard, of Wyman, be made available for furnishings at the John Ade Memorial Home in Bristol. This of course depends entirely upon decision of the Q. W. I.

Roly's Pacer Doing Well

Roland Rennick's Poplar King has been making a very good account for himself at Connaught Park.

In three starts he has won in 2:12 and been third in 2:11 and 2:09.

Roley purchased this six year old gelding at Delaware this spring and from all appearances this pacer will make a creditable addition to the Rennick stable.

a great deal of credit must be given to those engaged in getting the acts on so continuously. We don't believe we ever have seen a recital of any kind conducted here in which there was as little delay. Time between each act only provided a short breathing space. Such contributes very much to any performance.

The groups from Shawville and district conducted dances entitled Top Hats and Canes; Tea for Two; The March of the Wooden Soldiers, with one group being 'On Guard' while the other was the 'Precision Squad'; Lads and Lasses, Chair Dance, Singing in the Rain, Pistol Pack 'n Gals and A Hoe Down in which all participants took part and provided the Grand Finale in 3 acts. Those who took part from Shawville were Dale Bean, Debbie Clarke, Jane Cuthbertson, Maydon Dods, Cathie Hayes, Frances Langford, Debbie Stones, Brenda Strutt, Susan Young, Margaret Langford, John Langford, Donna Dale, Janet Dale, Laurie Ann Glenn, Ann Musgrove, Debbie Musgrove, Caroline Dagg, Cathy Roy, Brent Carson, Patricia Hodgins, Colleen Lacourse, Gordie Pearson, Stephen Strutt, Wendy Wickens, Muriel Hobbs, John Laframboise, Lois Nadeau, Sandra Towell, Barrie Zacharias, Bonnie Zacharias, Margaret Baker, Ann Beaulieu, Helen Belsher, Valerie Clarke, Paulien Germain, Judy Hynes, Linda Judd, Norma Judd, Ginny Stones, Heather Hayes, Helen Fleury, Diane Tourangeau and Marcienne Lemaire.

Twelve other acts were performed by actors from Renfrew, ranging in age from 4 to 21 (?) The two older girls certainly proved what can be done by faithful practice.

On completion of the program Mr. Harold Muise, in the absence of Dr. Gerald Green, President of the Lions Club, tendered words of thanks to all those involved. Presentations were made to the versatile teacher Mrs. Shirley White of Ottawa, her wonderful piano accompanist Harry Hooligan and to Miss Betty Young who has acted Secretary-Treasurer for the collection of lesson money and kept all the records, during the season. Mrs. Don Dods on behalf of the mothers thanked the Lions Club for having sponsored the dancing lessons. Lions members and Lionettes provided lunch to all participants who were able to stay after the recital.

Prominent Historian Here Next Week

The prominent historian Kaye McFarland of Napanee, Ontario, will address members and friends of the Pontiac Historical Society next Wednesday at the High School in Shawville.

At the present time she is attending the Canadian Museums Association meeting in Halifax, N. S. She is vice-president of the Ontario Historical Society and represents that body on Canada's Centennial Council. One of her present interests is the opening of the United Empire Loyalist Museum of Adolphustown, Ontario on June 16th.

Tigers Still Undefeated

The Shawville Tigers regained first place in the UOVBL over the weekend with a pair of one run decisions over the Fort Coulonge Comets.

The Tigers won the first game 6-5 on the strength of lefty, Harvey Sweetman, his first start on the mound, allowing only seven hits and then took the other game 5-4 behind right hander Bryan Murray's four hitter.

Sweetman struck out seven and walked four in gaining the win, saving the day with a brilliant defensive play on a line drive by Ken Rose with two out and the bases loaded in the top of the fifth. George Gagnon allowed only six hits and didn't allow a walk as he was tagged with the defeat.

Harvey Smith had two hits and two RBI's while Sweetman delivered a key two run double to lead the Tigers to victory. Dave Wilson, Ranger and Murphy collected the other Tiger safeties.

In the second game Bryan Murray allowed four hits and struck out seven for his third victory of the season. Cliff Romain started for Coulonge but was again charged with defeat. They allowed eight hits and struck out eight.

Offensively Royce Richardson and catcher Wayne Chamberlain lead the way for the Tigers with a double, a single and an RBI each. They combined in the bottom of the sixth with back to back doubles to give the Tigers the margin of victory.

Harvey Sweetman again delivered a two run double to give him four RBI's for the day while Murray, Garrison and Ranger collected the other Tiger hits, and Murray double in the fourth.

The game featured a pair of

Farewell Party At Otter Lake

A large group of friends and neighbours were present at a surprise farewell party held on Saturday evening, May 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zimmerling in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Zimmerling who are leaving this community. Lionel Bussiere read the address in which he expressed to them on behalf of all present the best of luck and happiness in their new home after which Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerling were presented with a beautiful pair of living room lamps. Mr. Zimmerling then thanked his many friends. The evening was spent dancing and playing cards after which refreshments were served.

32 Herefords Fetch Over Seven Thousand At Sale

The Pontiac Reg. Hereford Club had a satisfactory sale of Herefords last Saturday, May 26. The consigning breeders received prices, which would leave them in the black. The reasonable prices, which they sold for will make it easier for their new owners to make well with them. The 32 head sold, sold for a total of $7,319.00.

Their largest purchaser was Mr. William Coddington who purchased 6 young heifers from William Hanna and H. I. Hobbs consignment for $970.00.

The second largest purchaser was Mr. Bruce Bennett, who purchased 4 lots for $875, consigned by H. I. Hobbs, William Hanna and Wes Hamilton and Son.

The highest price bull, Vickdale Real Silver Pi7R sold for $425.00, to Mr. John Maxwell of Wakefield Que., consigned by H. I. Hobbs.

The two bulls that were placed for the $25.00 additional grant by the Quebec Hereford Association were consigned by Mr.

Also Studies Proposed Hospital Act

The regular monthly meeting of the Pontiac Community Hospital board of directors held last Wednesday evening in the Doctor's room was one of many surprises. Bill No. 44 of the proposed Quebec hospital act came under discussion.

Another cause for consternation was the list of allocations from Quebec towards various departments in the hospital. In this connection a letter of protest was sent by the Board because of inadequate payments on the part of the government. The protest also went to the Quebec Hospital Association in Montreal.

On the brighter side, a good progress report was received from Chairman Leonard Horner about the John Ade Memorial Home in Bristol where a well has been dug and all electrical renovations have been made.

The Board passed approval for the purchase at the Hospital of a cardiograph machine. The machine's use will cost $10 to out-patients and be free to patients admitted to the hospital.

As some members were uncertain of their future eligibility to sit on the Board, an election of officers and nomination of committees was held over for a future meeting.

Past President Leonard Horner presided over the meeting which included a full board including Dr. McDowell, Dr. Horner, Clarence Dean, Laurie Moore, Dave Davies, Mrs. Fred Fraser, Rev. Emard, Alvin Brown and Joe McGahren.

Other small matters of business which were cleared up included notification of the front office of the lowering of X-Ray rates which had been passed by the Board before the annual meeting and ordering the removal of the glass which surrounds the nursing stations in the hospital.

A nurse for the Ade Home has since been engaged from Smith Falls and her duties will begin whenever the patients are moved in. After that time only active care patients will remain in the hospital.

Bristol Retires Team From Softball League

By Ted Hayes

During the past week there have only been two game played in the Shawville and district softball league.

Once again Shawville is still undefeated. Last Thursday evening in Shawville they swamped Bristol so badly that Bristol left the field and dropped out of the league. The final score was Shawville 28 Bristol 7 in the middle of the fourth inning.

On Monday evening the boys from Stark's Corner came to town and although they were soundly defeated by a score of 27 to 11 they showed signs that they are going to be hard to beat come playoff time.

Shawville's next two games will both be played in Murrells against Moorehead. Some home town supporters would be greatly appreciated. These games will be this coming Thursday and Monday.

Any other team in this district that would like to come into the league to take Bristol's place would be gladly welcomed to make it a four team league. All teams will make the playoffs.

Team Standings:

Shawville	5	5	0	0	10
Moorehead	3	2	1	0	4
Stark's Corner	3	0	3	0	0

Wyman Couple Celebrates 60th Wedding Anniversary

On Sunday, May 27, Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles Kelly of Wyman celebrated their 6th wedding anniversary. They are originally from Shawville district where Tiger double plays plus some fine fly catching by the Tiger outfielders, as well as a few very serious mental lapses, yes, the Tigers got the four points, that's what counts.

As for next week at Vinton our Tigers will have to look much sharper both offensively and defensively if they are going to knock off the leagues top hitting club. Can Vinton break the Tigers 4-0 record? See you there, starting time 2 p.m.

STAYED IN SCHOOL

It should give the people of Luskville certain pride in their own Edgar Mulligan to see his name in the Carleton University bulletin of degrees conferred last week. Mr. Mulligan who has always taken time to be a leader in the public affairs of his community, has also taken time over the past few years to complete seven courses in Government at the University.

In this age when educators sometimes find it hard to persuade a boy to stay in school after the law permits him to leave, Luskville's Edgar stands out as a fine example. Having discovered the satisfactions and benefits to be derived from continuing his education, his latest achievement at Carleton is, a certificate in Public Service Studies.

Congratulations to a good scholar.

PRESERVE THE SITES

Morrison's Island is probably the most important Archeological discovery ever made in the North American Continent. Indian relics buried there belong to a prehistoric age unknown to modern man until quite recently. They prove the existence here of a civilization probably five or six thousand years ago.

At present there is a danger that this valuable historic site might be cut up into lots and sold for cottage sites. The relics would then likely be bulldozed into the Ottawa River and lost forever.

To prevent the destruction of this most important part of Canadian history, the Upper Ottawa Travel Council has petitioned the Federal and Provincial Governments to retain Morrison's Island for the purpose of insuring that the Indian relics buried there are kept within our area due to their value to us as a tourist attraction.

This is to be greatly commended but their value is far greater than simply as a tourist attraction. They are a link with the past and can become, when the archeologists have completed their studies, the key which will bring the prehistoric past into history.

A worthwhile endeavor for Chambers of Commerce, for the County Council and particularly for the Pontiac Historical Society, would be to add their petition to that of the UOVTC and ask both the Federal Government and the Province of Quebec to protect the Morrison's Island find.

Instead of road signs in two languages, Quebec will now have road signs in sign language. "Cahot - Bump" will be replaced by a yellow sign with three large black bumps! Will "Glissant si humide - slippery when wet" be a slippery sign with three wet spots? (This could be an interesting party game.)

Father D. J. Harrington Jr. is not the nephew of Father J. F. Harrington, nor is he the son of Father D. J. Harrington Sr. He is the brother of the former Father and the nephew of the latter Father. Is that clear? Anyway he is the new priest at Maryland and has already found his way into the hearts of his new flock. Promising to be as popular as his brother was here, the new Father's first visit to Shawville Rotary this week brought a record turnout of members.

He didn't lose his shirt at the Hereford Sale but Laird Hamilton did lose his hat. He promised the western sombrero to a visitor if the latter would purchase some cattle. The buyer bought and Laird parted with the hat. Lucky he didn't promise to eat it.

The Tragedy of Agriculture

May, 1962

The Editor,
The Equity,
Shawville, Que.

This letter is in no sense an attempt to take sides politically for agriculture had been in difficulties ever since the war and no successive Government, as yet, has found any very adequate solution for its problems. Election time, however, is a time when people are thinking more about Government and, as such, it could be an appropriate time to suggest a more effective line of policy approach.

Ever since the war practically all thought on the part of Governments and Farm Organizations has been directed toward production control than toward one of consumer approach and trading achievement on new and wider markets. In fact, the urge to get rid of some of the too long held surpluses has been so great that the quality of some products arriving at destination has been so sadly neglected that the good name of Canada, previously high, has actually been blacklisted on the markets of the world. The recent local issues of bad meat and contaminated cake mixes on our own home markets are but two examples. When the same or similar quality arrives on export markets and has to be returned, almost irreparable damage has been done. High maintained quality should be the basic consideration in any national policy making program.

To look back many of the things that have been done in a policymaking way, in both the States and Canada, since the war, have not been conducive to the maintaining nor the improvement of quality, the plowing down of cotton; the shooting of hogs; the payment of farmers to take land out of cultivation; area payments; support prices; average prices; deficiency (not efficiency) payments; and Government producer subsidies of many and varied kinds. It is not the producers that hold the answer except to produce what is wanted. It is the consumers on home and world markets.

The trouble is that Canadian Government standards of quality for agricultural products are either too low or, that those that have some semblance of real utility are not being effectively administered. Look at the quality of Canadian apples and potatoes that have been offered to consumers this past winter, marked 'Fancy' or Canada No. 1, the potatoes at times being half or more unusable. Something is seriously wrong when all butter manufactured grades 97-98% First Grade when one considers the widely varying sanitary conditions under which much of the milk and cream is produced and what about the too long held butter that goes out as 'First Grade'. Government standards of quality for eggs and poultry are no higher, in some cases lower, than they were 30 years ago and standards of quality for egg products that were in effect during the war have been dropped altogether. In meats practically all grades are sold to the consumer at the same price when there is a 100% differential and more in the price of the producer on the hoof and the difference in quality so great that one chain that claims to specialize in meat asserts that their buyers are so fastidious that they accept only one carcass in ten that is offered. What happens to the rest could be a 64 dollar question?

In the last ten or twelve years nearly all the discussion in Farm organizations and in Government circles has been about surpluses when all the time there has been no surplus of that quality of essential agricultural foodstuffs that eminently satisfies. So distorted has agricultural thinking become that in one recent ten column interchange of views, in a prominent agricultural publication, between broiler growers and processors in Ontario, the word 'quality' does once appear, and this at a time when many current production and processing practices are not conducive to the best in either food value or quality.

Government subsidies for this and that are not the answer. Agricultural food stuffs are an essential to human existence and the demand for basically good food is paramount among consumers. Make the quality right and what it should be, the standards and higher as grading knowledge accumulates and the consumer, by virtue of his demand, will establish the premium that is due all high quality products. Some Government legislation may be necessary to insure that the premium that is established is passed back to the party or parties to whom it rightfully belongs.

It is the Canada Department of Agriculture that is responsible for the conception and administration of standards of quality for agricultural products. In the department organization, in addition to the industry established, quality, regulatory divisions, there is a special service, known as the Consolidated Retail Inspection Division that is responsible for the checking of quality of farm products at all retail outlets. Things have come to a pretty sad pass when another department, the Food and Drug Department, have found it necessary to step in and take charge when some of these products, so-called quality graded products, are found unfit for food on the home market, to say nothing of the export market.

Agricultural food products of high maintained quality are so important to the health and prosperity of the nation that any Government that would espouse a policy of standardized high quality, rigidly administered, should have the support of a very large part of the population, consumer and producer alike.

Children Say Farewell To Father Harrington

The pupils of St. Edward's school assembled in the school auditorium Monday morning, May 14th under the direction of their teachers to say goodbye to their pastor Rev. J. F. Harrington.

A short program of songs and good wishes was held followed by the presentation of a bouquet of roses by little Cathy Roy, a Spiritual Bouquet by Carl Hortie and a purse by Robert Muise.

Father Harrington thanked the children for their good wishes and generosity and their teachers Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Bilodeau and Miss Dumas for the excellent manner in which they have conducted the school and asked the children to appreciate those teachers and co-operate with them at all times. He expressed his regret at leaving St. Edward's Parish especially the children whom he had spent so much time with since the opening of the school. He concluded by asking the children to give to his successor Rev. D. J. Harrington the same spirit of good-will which he had received during his three and one half years as parish priest of St. Edwards.

Father J. F. Harrington addressed the members and thanked them for their splendid co-operation not only in the past year but during his 3½ years as Pastor of St. Edward's. Father expressed regrets at having to leave St. Edward's Parish but assured the members that he would always have an interest in all their parochial activities.
