His Majesty Is Back On The Job

King George VI attends his first big ceremony in London since he became ill last fall, but he rides in a coach to the traditional trooping of the colors on his official birthday instead of on horseback. Following the King's coach are Princess Elizabeth, mounted side-saddle, wearing the uniform of a Colonel of the Grenadier Guards, and the Duke of Gloucester as a Colonel of the Scots Guards. King George's real birthday is December 14.

Woman Sought By Rescuer of 35 Years Ago

On August 6, 1914, J. M. Collins of Lawrence, Mass., went to the rescue of a woman whom he knew as Miss Harriet M. Fraser, then a resident of Westmount, and now he has enlisted the aid of local police to help him find her once again.

In a letter to Chief Robert Byford of the Westmount police, Mr. Collins said that within the next three weeks he will be coming to Montreal on a business trip and "I would like very much to find Miss Fraser, or whatever her married name may be, and renew acquaintances with her."

In his rescue of Miss Fraser, Mr. Collins plunged fully-clothed into the deep waters at Old Orchard Beach, Me.

No Laughing Matter

Safety Said Difference Between Smile and Tear

"Safety is the difference between a smile and a tear and we should be thankful each morning and night that we are still alive and healthy," George Witt told members of the Rotary Club of Westmount on Wednesday at their regular weekly meeting held in Victoria Hall. Mr. Witt spoke on "Traffic," noting the many precautions which should be taken to insure safety always. He is a member of the Borden Company Limited and he brought with him a large, intricate, model scale set-up of traffic intersections that proved extremely interesting to the Rotarians.

First piece of advice from the speaker was to those who own or have control over vehicles.

"Good driving begins with a good seat to sit on", he stated. Then going on to the driver himself, Mr. Witt told his audience that many people die each day "because they won't wait 90 seconds for a traffic light to change."

"'Stop' means stop, not slow down", he emphasized.

"When parking a car," Mr. Witt

continued, "you should not leave it on space reserved for people to walk on. This forces pedestrians to travel on dangerous paths."

The speaker then described two poor driver types — the stiff neck starter and the white line driver.

A stiff neck starter is one who pulls from the curb without looking round for oncoming traffic or who doesn't watch for anyone but himself, he said. He especially urged care when in a zone where there are bound to be children. "You must think for the child because the child does not think for himself", was Mr. Witt's way of putting it.

He then urged drivers to give wide berth to white line drivers for all they do is "get nearer and nearer to an accident".

Concerning the speeder, he said they will, sooner or later, run into trouble.

As a cure-all for these infractions, he suggested that you should be a defensive driver by allowing for the mistakes of others. "Don't cut the other fellow off because he cut you off," he said.

Mr. Witt concluded by saying "Remember, a moment of carelessness can mean a lifetime of regret".

Westmount Cadet Leaves Soon For Great Britain

This is a big day in the lives of twenty-five top Royal Canadian Air Cadets chosen to fly the Atlantic for three weeks in Europe. The lads got an exciting preview of their trip today when Air Cadet League Headquarters, Ottawa, released details of the entertainment planned for them by the Air Training Corps of Great Britain and the Royal Air Force.

Representing all parts of Canada the youthful goodwill ambassadors will gather at R.C.A.F. Station, Trenton, on Saturday. The real thrill will come on August 4th when they fly to Montreal and clamber aboard an R.C.A.F. North Star for a trip across the Atlantic, via Goose Bay and Iceland. They will arrive at Northolt Airport, London, the following morning and will be greeted by ranking R.A.F., and A.T.C. dignitaries.

One Westmount youth, Fraser Ronald Lindsay, 17, 48 Arlington Avenue, a member of the No. 1 (West Montreal) Squadron will be included in this group journeying abroad. Lindsay, a student in the past at Roslyn School, Westmount Junior High School, and Westmount High School, has had 40 hours of flying time in R.C.A.F. planes. He told The Examiner that he is looking forward to his trip abroad, and is anxiously awaiting seeing the Royal Family, Scotland, the English Parliament, and the city of London.

After mingling briefly with their opposite numbers from Britain, the widely-travelled Canadians will head north for Scotland, stopping en route to visit A.T.C. summer camps, historic castles and other places of interest. On August 10th, they will be in Edinburgh where, in addition to touring the great Scottish centre, they will be received by the Lord Provost and enjoy a "night at the theatre". Leaving Edinburgh they will travel to Glasgow by coach and from there will make a steamer trip to the Island of Rothesay where additional receptions are planned. Another coach tour is scheduled for Saturday the 13th, this one taking them from Glasgow to Inverness. The week will draw to a

No Parade Needed For This Float

There's an old cook-book axiom to the effect that "bad eggs always float" or "only bad eggs float," but you couldn't prove it today by Mrs. E. West, 5355 Cote St. Luc Road. Mrs. West bought a carton of Grade "A" Medium "Wonder" eggs at the Steinberg store on Monkland Avenue on Saturday, and when she came to boil them for dinner, lo and behold, one of the eggs floated. Slightly shorter and wider than the average egg, this rare specimen had a paper-thin shell, which crumbled into dust when the egg was cracked on Tuesday afternoon. The egg, which it was feared would be bad, was edible and fresh. Seen above watching the floating egg, is Doris West, 16, a student at D'Arcy McGee High School, Mrs. West's daughter. If there's a moral in all this, it's that if you can float a little, you're bound to start at the top.

Youth Problems Described To Westward Rotarians

"If we can get our boys, and train them the right way, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will never have to worry too much about getting their men," Detective-Constable Jim Archer of the Westmount group of the R.C.M.P. told an appreciative audience at the weekly meeting of the Montreal Westward Rotary Club in the Montreal West Town Hall last Thursday.

"Love of God and love of your fellow man is the whole basis of our law," Detective-Constable Archer said, "and discipline today is as necessary to our society as is the very air we breathe."

Introduced by Dr. Clifford Smith, the speaker, a native of Northern Ireland, who joined the force in 1932 and has become very interested in boys' work in the past several years, many of which were spent in Western Canada, gave Rotarians a glimpse behind the scenes of police youth work, commending the helpful aid given to law enforcement agencies by such organizations as Rotary, who are working with the youth of our country.

Detective-Constable Archer gave a brief history of the R.C.M.P., pointing out that the force had been founded in 1876, when Sir John A. Macdonald was Prime Minister and Minister of Justice of the newly formed Dominion. The speaker also briefly traced the history of law, defining it as a series of rules by which we must guide our actions.

He went on to tell of the commencement of the R.C.M.P.'s youth programme under Commissioner F. J. Meade, and pointed out the success that the force has enjoyed in dealing with boys' in efforts to prevent future crime. He gave several examples of actual work done in this field, from such widely divergent points as Moncton, N.B., Montreal, Alfred, Ontario, and Brandon, Manitoba.

He commended the service clubs'

Scouts & Cubs

By REG. GROOME

Camp Tamaracouta, July 27th, 1949:

The First Canadian Boy Scout Jamboree is all over now except for the three thousand Scouts and Scouters who will talk of this great scouting event for months to come . . . until the next Jamboree in 1953. In the eyes of this observer nothing else could have been done that would further the interests of Scouting more than this Jamboree. To see the Jamboree while it was in full swing is a sight that will long be remembered. A veritable city of tents sprang up overnight on July 16th, and vanished just as quickly on July 24th, proving once again the versatility of trained Scouts.

Nine of the Scouts who were in the Quebec contingent to the Jamboree are now here at Tamaracouta, where we shall be spending the next two weeks. Several local Scouts and some Troops are in camp for this third period. The second period, which concluded last Saturday morning, was very successful, following an equally successful first period. The third period is well on the way to continuing the precedent set by the first two periods.

Staying in Cumberland House (the group camp-site run by the staff) are Paul de Savoye, St. Matthews Troop; Richard Dendy, Willingdon; Robert Enright, St. Aidan's; Bruce Fewtrell, St. Aidan's; Lorne Fewtrell, St. Aidan's; Stanley Garbacz and Miroslaw Grzadzka of Holy Trinity; Edmund Idziak, Holy Trinity; Edmund Kulin, Stanley Kulin, Claude Lamarre, Philippe Leclerc and Robert Leclerc, all of Holy Cross; Richard Marino, Holy Cross; Richard Marshall, Wellington; Ed Masson, Queen Mary United; Fred Cooper Newton, Holy Cross; Leonard Pilon, Holy Cross; Zygmunt Stanczyk, Holy Trinity; Donald Tetrault, St. Aidan's; Paul Vaine, Holy Trinity; Lloyd Wait, St. Matthias; Gilles Waronaski, Holy Trinity; Gerald Waronaski, Holy Trinity; William Wilkinson, Holy Cross.

Iona Troop are camped in Fort Chesterfield under SM Alex Bramson, and have in camp Ted Cress, Claude Daccord, Cliff Dakers, Bert Easton, Ronald Prince, John Scott, Bud Simms, and Alan Turnbull.

Bill Clinton is in charge of Rosedale camping in Fort Simpson, and has several other Troops camped in with him. Prominent among these is our old friend, Mel Burge who is there with six of his St. Saviour's boys. Camping in Fort Simpson are Murray Bain, Kensington Troop; Robert Brown, St. Saviours; Gary Kay, John Kingan, of Rosedale; Merrill Kl-

Visit Highlands

Following a church service on Sunday they will drive through the picturesque Scottish Highlands on the return to Edinburgh. Next day they will again head south, taking a coach trip through Britain's famed lake district. One day will be spent in Birmingham visiting the Austin Motor Works and in the evening they will see a Shakespeare play produced in the famous theatre at Stratford-on-Avon.

August 17th is a rest day at Uxbridge in preparation for an air trip to the Continent. In company with a group of U.S. Cadets also visiting Britain, the Canadians will fly to the British Zone of Germany to witness the Berlin Airlift in action.

The final few days will be spent sightseeing in the London area. A visit to Buckingham Palace, a boat trip down the Thames, and an afternoon at the printing plant of the famous London Daily Mail are included in the schedule. The exciting holiday will draw to a close on Wednesday, August 24th, when the young Canadians are scheduled to depart for Canada. They will arrive at Dorval Airport on the following day and will disperse to their home points.

While they are abroad, a return party of A.T.C. Cadets will be entertained by the League and the R.C.A.F. in Canada. This is the third annual exchange of Air Cadets between the two countries. The scheme was launched in 1947 under the leadership of Air Cadet League honorary president, C. Douglas Taylor, Montreal.

A Dominion director of the Air Cadet League of Canada will accompany each of the two "goodwill parties" of Royal Canadian Air Cadets selected to tour the United States and Europe. Lawrence S. Marsh, Montreal, will travel with the 26 cadets chosen to make a

All that hammering and painting which you have heard and smelt means that the club rooms on the second floor of the Westmount YMCA are being redecorated for the coming winter's program. New flooring will assure us of the smoothest dancing. The new colour schemes will blend in with all the special decorations for parties and socials. This may mean a slight change in the present program, but it will assure all members and their friends of the best times next winter.

This, however, has not changed our summer program, and the Bridge Club meets in the Games Room every Monday night at 8 p.m.

The Tuesday trips are continuing, and this Tuesday a number of the members will be taking a cruise on the St. Lawrence River to escape the heat and to enjoy the city by night from the waterfront.

Despite the heat, a number of the members and their friends are attending the social dances which follow the mixed swim session on Thursday night. This is your opportunity to get cool in the pool and mix sociably with your fellow members.

Friday night at 7.00 will find a number of softball enthusiasts up at King George Park enjoying a friendly game. Hope to see you there.

Don't forget the trip to Sorel on Sunday, August 7, and that your reservation must be in by Monday night.

Boys' Division

This week has been the final week of Camp Westmount. However, starting Monday, the Westmount 'Y' Vacation Club will commence and continue throughout the month of August.

During this last week of July, campers have been busy with group games, sports, swimming, crafts, etc. On Monday, the group was taken through the LePresse Publishing Company. On Tuesday they were guests of Steinberg's at Belmont Park. On Wednesday they had an all-day picnic at Mon Repos Beach. Friday is tournament day at the Camp, and the closing Camp party will take place in the afternoon.

Next Wednesday the boys will meet and proceed to the SS Island Queen, where they will take a picnic cruise up the river.

Friday will be the all-star baseball game between Southwestern and Westmount Y.

Monday Night — Parents' Night at Westmount YMCA — Monday night will be one of the highlights of the Westmount Y.M.C.A. summer program. The boys are invited to bring their parents for the evening. At 7.30 the presentation of prizes and awards will take place. Mr. J. G. Atkinson, Chairman of the Boys' Work Committee, will present the awards to the boys. Following this there will be a father and son swim in the 'Y' pool, and a short swimming demonstration by the boys, as well as races between the boys and their dads. The evening will close with refreshments.

Teenage Club—The Westmount 'Y' Teenage Club announced that their annual summer hardtimes party will take place this Friday evening. The evening will open with a splash party at 9.00 and continue till 10.00. Dancing will start in the social room at 9.30.

World Service In Action

VENEZUELA

Biggest success story of the year for YMCA growth and resourcefulness comes from the Association in Caracas. Just 2½ years old, this infant Association has overcome almost insuperable staff and equipment limitations and other great obstacles to build a 1948 membership of 1,400 (reflecting 21 nationalities) and a work program that operates in 18 areas throughout the city. Two financial campaigns oversubscribed by large percentages proved wide popular approval for the Y and made possible a vast range of services that most Associations four times larger cannot duplicate.

These services included: education, sports and health activities for under-privileged children in slums; inauguration of the first Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs in South America; development of a camp site; organization of an industrial softball league; organization of a city-wide Volleyball Association which conducted tournaments for 27 teams; and the designing of playgrounds for the city and schools.

For the large immigrant population in Caracas, the YMCA has been particularly helpful with their problems of employment, mail, housing, etc. For its varied athletic services, the Sports Writers of Caracas awarded a citation to the Caracas YMCA for making the most outstanding contribution to sports in 1948.

two-week air jaunt through the U.S., while the trans-Atlantic party of 25 cadets will be accompanied by Urwin Finch, Vancouver.

In addition to supervising the general welfare of their youthful charges, the two directors will officially represent the Air Cadet League at receptions, luncheons and other functions along the route of travel. Both men have been associated with the League since its inception in 1941.

The R.C.A.F. will be represented on the U.S. tour by W/C R. M. Cox, AFC, DFC, Air Cadet Liaison Officer at Air Force Headquarters, Ottawa. Escorting officer with the overseas cadet party will be S/L A.G. Dagg, Air Cadet Training Officer at AFHQ.

Lawrence Marsh

For many years Lawrence S. Marsh has been associated with boys' work in Montreal where he is manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. In the League's early days he served as civilian chairman of No. 39 (Kiwani's) Squadron and later as a member of the Quebec Provincial Committee. He was elected chairman of the Quebec Committee in 1948 and again in 1949.

Last summer he organized the crack Air Cadet precision squad which flew to New York, performed before 130,000 spectators and won the General Beau International Challenge Trophy — awarded annually to the top Air Cadet drill team in Canada and the U.S.

In addition to his Air Cadet interests, Mr. Marsh is a director of the Quebec Society for Crippled Children, a past president of the Montreal Boys Association and past vice-president of the Kiwanis Club of Montreal.

Urwin Finch

Urwin Finch, of Vancouver, B.C., is an R.F.C.-R.A.F. pilot of the First Great War who has maintained his connections with aviation since his early flying days.

A past president of the Air Force Officers Association, he is now in his fifth year as chairman of the British Columbia Provincial Committee of the Air Cadet League. In this post he heads one of the League's most active and well-organized civilian groups. Mr. Finch's outstanding services to Air Cadets were recognized in 1946 when he was appointed Dominion director of the League. Last year he was selected to accompany the exchange cadet party from western Canada which toured the United States.

Highlights of the trip of the British cadets to Canada, slated to begin with their arrival at Dorval airport on August 8, will be a three-day stay in Montreal, a stay in Toronto, visits to North Bay, Trenton, the Muskoka Lakes, and Niagara Falls, and a day at the St. Agathe country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Douglas Taylor.

Feature of the Canada-U.S. exchange will be a grand final meeting of the cadets of the two countries at Edmonton, Alta. General Spatz of the U.S. Army Air Force will represent the American government at this event.

The Canadian cadets touring the U.S. will go through Texas, Arizona, and Southern California, seeing flying conditions and inspecting American equipment in these areas.

contributions in this field, and had a special word of appreciation for the Boy Scouts Association and the work they are doing with such institutions as Camp Tamaracouta in the Laurentians.

"I can't eradicate juvenile delinquency by myself," Detective Constable Archer said, "but I can do it with your help."

The speaker then described in some details the manner in which the R.C.M.P. deals with delinquent or mis-guided youths, in order that they may shape their lives so that they will become a help rather than a burden to society.

Herb. Patterson thanked the speaker, and said a few words about youth work being carried on in Lachine.

Goodwill In Britain Towards U.S.A.

What American Aid Gives Us

American Aid gives us food
 The new level of every three we are made for by American Aid. After the Four Year Plan comes to an end, Britain must pay for all that she eats.

American Aid gives us jobs
 By helping us buy raw materials on which our employment depends. They are only one-twelfth of the cost we import, but the materials paid for by American Aid are vital to British production and impossible to obtain elsewhere.

American Aid gives us time
 American Aid gives us time for recovery, time to develop our industries and pay our own way, time to increase our efficiency and build up our trade in world markets. American Aid gives us time—but only till 1952, when the Four Year Plan comes to an end. One year of the four has already gone by.

Posters such as these are seen throughout Britain in factories and office buildings, posted by the British government to stress U.S. aid through the ERP. Emphasizing the need for self-help to bring England out of its economic doldrums by 1952, when ECA aid ends, the labor government has used press, radio, movies and pamphlets to assist in the drive.

4-H Convention To Attract 500 Delegates to Mtl.

For the seventh consecutive year, the Quebec 4-H Clubs will hold their provincial convention. More than 500 delegates are expected to attend this important gathering which will take place at the Mount-Royal Hotel, in Montreal, August 8-11.

The motto of the convention reads as follows "The 4-Hers, guardians of our natural resources". It will serve as a leit-motive for the study meetings carried on during these three days. The leaders of the movement intend to make the 4-Hers face their responsibilities towards the conservation of the natural wealth which the young rural people should consider as a national heritage.

Several members of the Clubs have received a training in leadership. They will be put in charge of the study meetings, during the convention. An interesting display of the 4-H talents will take place on this occasion. An exhibition will be set up showing the handicraft works achieved by the 4-Hers in the course of the year. The winners of the sixteen 4-H contests will receive their rewards consisting in scholarships and certificates attesting their ability.

Lizabeth Scott To Appear in East

Hollywood — Lizabeth Scott arrived in Princeton, N.J., recently from Hollywood for her first stage appearance in five years, in the title role of the Princeton Drama Festival production of "Anna Lucasta". The play will run for a week and goes on the road for an indefinite run.

Last time she was before the footlights was in the Boston company of "Skin of Our Teeth", in 1944. Since then she has achieved top prominence as a screen star. Her most recent film appearance was a co-starring role with Robert Cummings and Diana Lynn in Hal Wallis' "Bitter Victory" at Paramount.

Miss Scott is appearing in the Princeton production on loanout from Hal Wallis Productions.

Boys and girls from 10 playgrounds will share in the inauguration of the recently reconstructed track and field at the Westmount Athletic Grounds. This will be the first event to be held at the grounds since municipal authorities resumed control from the military.

Co-operating in the track meet are the City of Westmount Recreation Department, and the Montreal Parks and Playgrounds Association, a Red Feather Service of Welfare Federation. Invitations also have been extended to playgrounds at Dixie in Lachine and at Dorval.

The date for the event has been set at Thursday, August 4th, at 2 p.m., and a full program of track and field competitions has been arranged. No competitor may be over the age of 16 years, and the contestants will be grouped according to height, with four groups for boys and three for girls. This division allows greater equality of competition, rather than a system in which the contestants are grouped according to ages.

Herb Linder of the Westmount Recreation Department and Hank Stegmayer of the Parks and Playgrounds Association worked together to arrange the track meet. The emphasis will swing a way from the competitive idea, and will strive to give the youngsters some idea of track and field activities. It also is hoped that the boys and girls will grasp some idea of true sportsmanship.

Eliminations have been held at the various playgrounds this past week, and the best competitors have been selected to take part in the big meet. It is hoped to have a number of track and field stars of former years to assist in the judging and supervision of the meet.

S. J. Hungerford Is Next Speaker At Rotary Club

Stewart J. Hungerford, district sales manager of the nylon division of Canadian Industries Limited, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Rotary Club of Westmount, Wednesday, at 12 noon.

Born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Mr. Hungerford was educated in the east and is a graduate of McGill University where he took a B.Sc. course. From there he went to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, earning an M.Sc.

He followed a varied business career with Canadian Steel Foundries Ltd.; Manitoba Paper Co. Ltd.; Canadian National Railways, and the Duke Price Power Co. Ltd. He joined C.I.L. as a cost clerk.

Prior to joining the nylon division in 1940, he served in numerous other positions in the company and was appointed assistant to the sales manager at Kingston, Ontario, in 1944, returning to Montreal a year later in his present position.

LABOR, AND "PLANNED" WAGES

It is difficult to understand Labor's sympathy for socialistic or communistic movements. It seems quite obvious that every move toward a planned economy must end in restricting the cherished rights that labor has fought so hard and so single-mindedly to sustain. The socialistic experiment in Britain is coming closer and closer to the day when it must either admit its failure, or regulate labor's working conditions, hours and wages, writes Joseph Lister Rutledge.

Recently a group of Norwegian trade unionists visited Russia to see the conditions of labor there at first hand. Their findings, reported in A.F. of L.'s "Labor's Monthly Survey," emphasize that labor's dearest right—the right of trade unions to carry on wage fights—does not and cannot exist in Russia. In that land of economic planning, one of the first and most definite plans is to establish a wage basis for workers. From this regulation they have no appeal, because there would be appealing against the State, and the State has ruled that no union organization can challenge its decisions.

The visiting delegates reported that there are 25 million trade unionists in Russia, a powerful force that still has no power to determine its own destinies. Union dues are used for such secondary objectives as social health and cultural objectives. Some 512,000 received the benefits of convalescent homes and a million shared in vacation benefits. One wonders what the remaining twenty-three and a half million received for their fees.

The delegates also pointed out something that will be of interest to workers. The benefits, such as they are, go to the most valuable workers, another instance of planning hardly in the tradition of trade unionism. These favored workers mainly include the managers and scientists and the Stakanovite workers who are the pace setters—the speed-up men.

Reporting on other phases of trade unionism under the hammer and sickle, the Norwegian delegates pointed out that the planned wage, from which there is no appeal, is barely sufficient to purchase the bare necessities of family life. The result is that more and more women are being driven into the heavy labor market, many into road gangs, unskilled construction or heavy dock work. This is the land of planning for the worker. This is what it offers in return for the freedom to seek one's own employment and to negotiate one's own wages.

SOME APES HAVE SOCIAL SECURITY

The most popular word in the political arena today is "security".

Conspicuous by its absence in the recent battle of the hustings was the word "opportunity".

Years ago, Canada was called the "Land of Opportunity". Pioneering Britons and hopeful Europeans boarded the westbound boats at Liverpool and Cherbourg and Rotterdam with their thoughts on a common mental target — improving their and their children's lot in this new and untapped country. And not so long ago, Canada was still the promised land for many a Dutchman and Belgian and German when he talked to Canadian soldiers at war's end and discussed the chances of repairing his fortunes in a free country spared the ravages of war and the suffocating stricture of the numerous "isms".

Freedom, opportunity, hope and faith in a richly endowed land should be the selling points of the men who aspire to guide Canada in the next few years of this amazing technological age, not merely security and benefits.

Security is a wonderful thing, but not if it is bought at the price of vanished incentive and lost freedom, not to mention the steadily increasing taxation to pay for the alleged benefits. Genuine security for Canadians can be obtained if the word "opportunity" is resurrected from the list of obsolete words by our national leaders. Security can become a reality if it is paid for not merely out of additional imposts but out of multiplied national wealth and increased production of goods and services.

Security without opportunity in a country like Canada, which should be considered a barely-trodden hunting ground for the new pioneer and not an exhausted tract of badland, will drag us down to the level of those countries where enervating security measures have robbed the people of all moral and spiritual fortitude and tied them inexorably to the apron strings of the state.

Except that he pays a high rate of tax for the privilege of security, the welfare state citizen is much like an ape behind bars at the zoo. The ape has security but he has lost his freedom.

RECIPE FOR PRESERVING CHILDREN

Take one large, grassy field; one half dozen children; two or three small dogs; a pinch of brook and some pebbles. Mix the children and the dogs well together, put them into the field, stirring constantly. Pour the brook over the pebbles, sprinkle the field with flowers; spread over all a deep blue sky and bake in the hot sun. When brown, remove and set away to cool in a bathtub.—Cleveland Plain Dealer

Christian Science

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from 11 Corinthians 13: 11. "Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:—

"And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and ministered unto them." (Matthew 8: 14 and 15.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:—

"We approach God, or life, in proportion to our spirituality, our fidelity to Truth and Love; and in that ratio we know all human need and are able to discern the thought of the sick and the sinning for the purpose of healing them. The tender word and Christian encouragement of an invalid, pitiful patience with his fears and the removal of them, are better than hecatombs and gushing theories, stereotyped borrowed speeches, and the doling of arguments, which are but so many parodies on legitimate Christian Science aflame with divine Love". (Pages 95 and 367.)

PRAYER

By Agnes Rudland

Prayer is a longing of the soul, Uplifted to realms in the sky, Winging like unto a spirit, Around God's throne on high. Prayer is the substance of faith and love,

And the essence of faith is grace, The foundation then is true belief, The outcome is joy and peace. Prayer is not always answered, Just the way we ask,

But He will answer what is best, To be patient is our task. Prayer gives us strength and courage,

To meet every trial through life, For when Jesus prayed in the garden, He overcame a world of strife.

Prayer and the reading of God's word, Are important as daily bread, For by each our minds are nourished,

And by each our souls are fed. (Reprinted with permission from The War Cry.)

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holland Rethoret

Shown above, cutting their wedding cake at the reception following their recent marriage at St. John's Lutheran Church, are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holland Rethoret. Mrs. Rethoret, formerly Miss Marion Florence Raab, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto L. Raab, of Westmount, and Mr. Rethoret is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rethoret, of Vida, Oregon.

RETHORET-RAAB

The marriage of Miss Marion Florence Raab, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto L. Raab, of Westmount, to Mr. Ralph Holland Rethoret, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rethoret, of Vida, Oregon, formerly of Montreal, took place on July 9 at St. John's Lutheran Church. The Rev. John Peters officiated and Miss Kochenduffer played the wedding music with Mr. Cyril Emblem as soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Marion Kelly, as maid of honor, and Miss June Scheufler, of Long Island, her cousin, as bridesmaid.

Mr. W. Frederick Corkran was best man, the ushers being Mr. George Lasnier and Mr. Lucien Cloutier.

The bride was gowned in a classic model of white princess lace over satin, the fitted bodice having a yoke effect of lace trimmed with seed pearls, the sleeves long and ending in points over the hands, and the bouffant skirt flowing into a slight train. Her fingertip veil of French tulle illusion was held with a coronet of lace and seed pearls, her semi-cascade bouquet being of red roses and stephanotis.

The bridal attendants were in similarly styled off-the-shoulder effect frocks of aqua and peach bloom nylon with halo hats and long mitts of matching material. They carried shower bouquets of rose carnations.

The reception was held in the Blue Room of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel where the floral decorations were of summer flowers in pink and white. Later Mr. and Mrs. Rethoret left for Virginia Beach, Virginia, the bride travelling in a navy blue sheer dress with a bolero trimmed with white pique and worn with a red straw picture hat and white accessories, her corsage of white carnations.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. Rethoret, parents of the bridegroom.

HICKS — ROGERS

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kent have returned home, after spending a month at York Beach, Me.

Mrs. John Clarke and family are returning home this weekend, after spending four weeks at Gordonville Inn.

Mrs. W. A. D. McPhee, accompanied by her daughter Lorna, has returned home from York Beach, Me., where she spent three weeks.

The Misses Vivianne and Mimi Berlinguette are spending two weeks at Blue Sea Lake, Messine, Quebec, the guests of their uncle, Dr. Paul Larose.

Mr. and Mrs. Birrell and Miss Shirley Birrell, also Mr. Alaister Stansall have been guests for the past week at Speirs-Miller ranch, Aubrey, Quebec. A dance is being held at their new Barn Studio tomorrow evening, when many out-of-town guests are expected.

Miss Patricia Boyd, R. N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kirke Boyd, Victoria Avenue, Westmount, is sailing Saturday from Quebec City, aboard the Cythia, to spend two months visiting relatives in England and Scotland.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Jackson of Westmount announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Amy to Mr. W. E. Macdonald Walsh, son of the late Dr. W. E. Walsh and of Mrs. Walsh, of Westmount. The wedding has been arranged to take place on Saturday, September 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan Benett of Notre Dame de Grace announce the engagement of their daughter Alice Melanie, to Mr. Nathaniel Harrison Gifford, son of Professor and Mrs. George Hussey Gifford, of Cambridge, Mass. The marriage will take place on Saturday August 27, in St. Matthias Church, Westmount.

England, took place on Saturday afternoon, July 23, at four o'clock in Westmount Park — Emmanuel Church, Rev. Dr. H. Campbell officiating. White baskets of gladioli were used as decoration in the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a fitted gown of heavy white satin having a panel of lace in the front and lace pep-lums at the hips, the full skirt falling into a short train. Her long veil of hand-embroidered tulle illusion fell from a coronet of pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of Easter lilies.

Mrs. T. M. Lacey, sister of the bridegroom as matron of honor, wore a frock of mauve French lace over taffeta with a headdress of matching flowers. She carried a bouquet of palest pink carnations.

Miss Rita Ann Rogers, sister of the bride as bridesmaid, wore a full-skirted frock of shell pink organza with a matching feather headdress and carried a bouquet of pastel shaded sweet peas.

Mr. Thomas M. Lacey acted as best man for his brother-in-law and the ushers were Mr. S. J. Bailey and Mr. A. Glass.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the 400 Club and later Mr. and Mrs. Hicks left for Lake George, N. Y., the bride travelling in a light grey tropical suit with navy blue and white accessories. On their return they will reside in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chinn

Pictured above, following their wedding on Saturday afternoon, in the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chinn. Mrs. Chinn, formerly Miss Ruth Toye, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Su Toye, of Westmount, and Mr. Chinn is the son of the late Y. Y. Chinn, and of Mrs. Chinn, of Vancouver, B.C.

CHINN-TOYE

The marriage of Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Su Toye, of Westmount, to Mr. Frank Chinn, B. Eng., son of Mrs. Chinn and the late Y. Y. Chinn, of Vancouver, took place on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul. Rev. Graham M. Jamieson officiated assisted by Rev. Paul Chan, of the Chinese Presbyterian Church, and Miss Doris Killum

Women with Ideas

Miss A. L. Shaw

By HELEN B. SANDWELL

In every province of Canada the name of A. L. Shaw was formerly known among agricultural scientists. Annie Louise Shaw herself probably has never turned a spadeful of earth, nor tracked down a potato bug or a spruce bud worm, never hung over a microscope to study the germs of diseases that afflict bees, fruit, fish or wild and domestic animals. Yet top Canadian experts in these fields have acknowledged how much her skill and knowledge aided them when for 35 years she acted as Librarian of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, in Ottawa, from 1910 till 1945.

Residing at 2503 Hampton Avenue, Miss Shaw who at the time of her retirement could lay her hands in a couple of seconds on any requested article among 90,000 books and periodicals, is now blind and her reading confined to works in Braille. But this white-haired and scholarly lady is still interested in libraries, librarians and would-be librarians, and her vast experience in this work combined with her talent for talking about it, make time spent in her company a shining hour to remember. "The work of a librarian is satisfying and rewarding," she says. But she emphasizes that to be a first class librarian one must study all the time and keep abreast of current events.

Empty Shelves

When Miss Shaw left the Main Library of the Dept. of Agriculture in 1945, an Acting Librarian was appointed who is now retiring, and this month the Dept. again sought a Librarian. Whoever takes over the job, however, can never repeat Miss Shaw's own particular success, because she started the Library when the shelves were all empty, and the 90,000 volumes, over 600,000 catalog cards and hundreds of microfilms and photoprints of rare articles that filled the shelves when she retired are the testimony to her industry, vision and those special qualities of character that brought her hundreds of letters of thanks and appreciation in 1945 from officials of the Agriculture Dept. in every Province.

The Library which she brought into being at Ottawa exists, Miss Shaw explained, for the use of officials of Federal and Provincial Depts. of Agriculture, Agricultural Colleges across Canada, 21 Experimental Stations and of Field Laboratories for Entomology, and Plant Diseases. These officials are doing admirable work in administration, research or teaching, she remarked. All are college graduates.

The Library does not contain only books on agriculture, she noted, but on the basic sciences as well, such as technical chemistry, biology, botany zoology, nutrition, veterinary medicine, agricul-played the wedding music. Standards of white gladioli were used as decoration in the church.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon net having a fitted bodice with a round neckline and short sleeves. Her long gloves were of nylon net and her floor-length veil of embroidered tulle illusion fell from a coronet of simple net. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Miss Maude Toye as maid of honor for her sister was frocked in turquoise blue taffeta, with matching gloves and bandeau. She carried a bouquet of pastel carnations.

Miss Jean Toye, sister of the bride as bridesmaid, was in rose taffeta with matching gloves and bandeau and carried a bouquet of pastel carnations.

Mr. James Chinn acted as best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Simon Toye, brother of the bride, Mr. Gordon Chan, Mr. Robert Lee and Mr. Eric Yee.

Mrs. Toye, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of French grey crepe, with navy blue and white accessories and a corsage of orchids.

A reception followed at the Queen's Hotel and later Mr. and Mrs. Chinn left by motor for Northern Ontario, the bride travelling in a blue-grey gabardine suit with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Macdonald College School for Teachers and the bridegroom of the University of British Columbia.

tural economics, home economics and agricultural history. Sending on requested material on all these subjects is part of the service given by the Library.

Other phases of her work dealt with the circulation of books and periodicals, which are sent post free to officials; compiling upon request bibliographies for those doing research work; studying lists and classifying books; also the compilation of a current list of accessions sent out to officials; and taking care of inter-library loans.

Articles in Rare Books Filmed

One of the most valuable services which came into use in Miss Shaw's later years of service is that of supplying films of articles in rare magazines and books obtainable only at distant points. These films are read by means of a Recordak which enlarges the printed words on a paper screen, the scientist being able to stop the film in order to make notes, and start it again at will.

Born in St. Lambert, Que., Miss Shaw, a graduate of McGill, spent a few years as a teacher in Montreal before going to the Capital. Her library training included courses at Albany, Toronto, and Boston, Mass. She was appointed Canadian member of the International Committee of Agricultural Librarians in 1937; and is a Life Member of the Professional Institute of the Civil Service of Canada. Her father, the Rev. W. I. Shaw, was at one time Principal of Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal.

Reads Braille in English and French

When deprived of her eyesight the door to Miss Shaw's beloved world of books was kept open to her by Miss Wilcox, of the Montreal Association for the Blind, who taught her to read English books in Braille; and by Miss Tremblay of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind who taught her to read French by her fingertips. The magazine "Et La Lumière Fut" (And God said "Let there be Light") published in Paris, is one of her great delights and she also enjoys the Braille edition of Readers Digest. Now she spends a lot of time listening to the radio, going walks with a guide, and writing many letters to her friends on her typewriter. Her faculties for concentration and organization, her enthusiasm for books and friends, the qualities of helpfulness and kindness

Milk Pasteurization Easily Done at Home

Harried housewives and others responsible for their own and others' welfare during summer months at holiday resorts or isolated cottages have many problems not common to city life, and one of them is the problem of a safe milk supply.

It is well known that pasteurized milk is the only safe milk, yet it is not always possible to obtain the commercially pasteurized product at vacation spots. Therefore, some way must be found to make milk safe for human consumption — some method of home pasteurization must be found.

There are quite a few home pasteurization methods, but the Health League of Canada suggests the following method as easy and effective:

Use a double boiler. Put enough cold water in the bottom pot to touch the lower part of the top utensil which then should be half-filled with cold milk. Bring the water to a boil and keep it boiling for eight minutes.

Concert, Opera "La Tosca" Features Music Festival

AT THE SEVILLE SATURDAY

Two major events will be in the program of the second week of the Montreal Music and Drama Festival. On Tuesday, a gala concert will be given at the Molson Stadium by Les Disciples de Massenet with a full orchestra, conducted by Charles Goulet, and Pierrette Alarie and Leopold Simoneau as soloists. On Thursday, a spectacular production of Puccini's opera "La Tosca," will be given also at the Molson Stadium. Rose Bampton will sing the title role.

Tuesday night's concert will be the last appearance on this continent of the two young Canadian soloists, Pierrette Alarie of the Metropolitan Opera and Leopold Simoneau. Immediately following their Montreal engagement, they are leaving for France to take up their year's contract at the Paris Opera where they will both appear in leading roles next season.

Miss Alarie will sing, with Lucien Gagnier as flutist, Variations on Adam and the Italian Street Song by Victor Herbert, Ponce's Trallita and the Blue Danube by Johann Strauss. Mr. Simoneau will be heard in the aria Questa Quella from Verdi's Rigoletto, Liza by Rossini, Granada by Gustav Larra, Lehar's Je T'ai une Mon Coeur and Funiculi, Funicula, by Denza. The two soloists will be heard together with the Disciples de Massenet choir and the orchestra in Selections from The Tales of Hoffmann by Offenbach and Selections from The Tale of Cadiz by Francis Lopez.

The concert will open with the overture to the Marriage of Figaro by Mozart which will be followed by the Pilgrim's Chorus from Tannhauser and the Church Scene from Cavalleria Rusticana with Jeanne Senecal as soloist and the choir of Les Disciples de Massenet.

The remainder of the orchestral portion of the program will consist of Bacchanale by Offenbach and El Relicario by Padilla, La Cumparsita by Rodriguez and Jarabe Tapatio by Parichela. Les Disciples de Massenet will also be heard in a special choral arrangement of Liszt's Liebestraum.

Fast-rising Janet Leigh has another dynamic role as the frightened wife of Van Heflin in "Act of Violence", the story of a strange revenge which opens Saturday at the Seville Theatre.

The second major event of the week will be the performance of Puccini's masterpiece, Tosca, on Thursday, August 4, with a roster of Metropolitan stars, which is being given by The Montreal Festivals organizers of this initial summer festival in the metropolis of Canada.

Rose Bampton and Raoul Jobin will be heard respectively in the roles of Floria Tosca and Mario "La Tosca"

Mrs. Sarah Wakely, 78, Returns Soon To Wales

Mrs. Sarah C. Wakely, who has been the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wakely, 1053 Greene Avenue, Westmount, for the past year, is returning by plane to her home in South Wales on August 19. Mr. John C. Wakely plans to accompany his mother on the flight, for his first trip to Wales in 25 years.

When she made her first flight to Canada a year ago, Mrs. Sarah Wakely was 77 years of age. The mother of ten children, she enjoys excellent health and has revelled in shopping and "window shopping" while in town, the luxurious displays of goods here being so different from wartime and post war shopping conditions in South Wales.

One of her keenest interest is needlework. She made complete layouts for all her grandchildren, and still an expert needlewoman at 78 (she celebrated her birthday recently in Canada) she delights in fine stitchery and the crocheting of lacy shawls for infants. She says she has greatly enjoyed her year's vacation in the Dominion, but is happy to be going back again to see her Welsh home to which she went as a bride fifty years ago.

Mary Lawrence Cast in "The Lie"

Hollywood — Mary Lawrence, wife of director Delmar Davis, who made her screen debut in "The Stratton Story", has been signed by Paramount for her second screen appearance in "The Lie" co-starring Barbara Stanwyck and John Lund.

Although married to Daves eleven years, Miss Lawrence was not interested in acting until Director Sam Wood induced her to accept a part in the current Jimmy Stewart starrer. Wood started Daves on his career 25 years ago. "The Lie" is directed by Mitchell Leisen under Richard Maibaum's production supervision.

Cavaradossi. The great Metropolitan soprano will be singing the title role in Canada for the first time. Mr. Jobin, who will also sing in Manon on August 11, is recognized as the greatest singer Canada has produced in the last 20 years and also as being amongst the greatest living French tenors.

In the role of the sinister Baron Scarpia, will be the distinguished French baritone, Martial Singher. Others from the Metropolitan on the Tosca performance include Salvatore Baccaloni, the noted Metropolitan basso, George Cehanovsky and Alessio de Paolis. Jean Beaudet will conduct.

WEEKLY REVIEW

The Travelling Circus
 By Lewis Milligan

The travelling circus is the hardest of all perennials in the field of entertainment; it flourishes under all climatic conditions and is forever popular with young and old. To the children it is a wonderland in which they wander with open-mouthed amazement, and it is a second-childhood to the parents and grandparents who accompany them. The modern circus reached its climax with Barnum and Bailey in "The Greatest Show on Earth," which travelled at one time pretty well all round the earth. In the latter part of the nineteenth century it toured the British Isles, and I recall, as a boy, the thrill of anticipation, the popular excitement and the wonder of realization created by the Great-est Show when it visited Liverpool.

Those were the piping times of peace, before Great World Wars were even thought of. Wars in those days were local conflicts which occurred in distant lands — with the Zulus in Africa, the Dorvishes in the Sudan or the wild hill tribes of India. We had read Wild West stories of Buffalo Bill and Deadwood Dick and their clashes with the Red Indians, but they too were remote and we felt that they were, for the most part, fictitious. But here was Buffalo Bill himself — Red Indians and everything — transported across the ocean to prove the truth of his "adventures" and actually show how he triumphed over the Redman, and finally smoked the Pipe of Peace with Chief Blackfoot — surrounded by all the "dead" Indians, who had mysteriously come back to life for the occasion!

That was the big open-air feature of the Show; but there were numerous other attractions, the chief of which was the three-ring circus in the big tent, with its display of horsemanship and horse-womanship, performing animals of all kinds, including ravenous and roaring wild beasts, acrobats, jugglers and whimsical clowns — all to the accompaniment of a brass band, which would stop suddenly at a daring stunt on the tight-rope or the flying trapeze. The song about "The Daring Young Man on The Flying Trapeze" was popular in those days, although I find it was written as far back as 1865, and it is attributed to George Leybourne, the celebrated comedian.

The travelling circus of today is little changed from what it was in the nineteenth century, except for a few thrill-producing mechanical devices and electric lighting. None of them, however, are on the same scale as the big Barnum and Bailey Show, and there are quite a number of small circuses which travel over all parts of the continent. There must be some strange fascination about circus life, and I have often wondered how it attracts and holds so many and various types of talented persons and camp followers. For they must have a hard life moving from place to place in all weathers, pitching and striking tents, setting up and taking down mechanical equipment, feeding and tending the elephants and other animals — not to mention themselves — and going through the same round from day to day, month to month and year to year in monotonous regularity. One would think they would get fed-up with such a strenuous and uncomfortable life.

Some years ago, during a stop-over at a remote village in Northern Ontario, I got into conversation with the proprietress of one of these small circuses which was in process of being set up on the outskirts. She was a handsome young woman in her thirties, but strong and businesslike. It was a miserable wet day and she told me that she was having trouble with the mechanical organ. The rain had got into the pipes and valves. She had a bandage on one of her hands, and explained that she had been bitten by a monkey. She was married and had several boys who were running around. Her husband was a disabled veteran of the First World War and she had to do most of the work herself. She told me all this in a casual way, and I asked her how or why she endured that kind of life. She said she was born into it and liked it, although there was little profit in it. During the winter months she worked in Detroit, but with the approach of summer she had the urge to get out on the road again. My sympathy was lost on her. The explanation is that circus people, like pets, are born, not made. Also, like true poets, they are the Peter Pans of life, for they never grow up or grow out of it, and they keep the Peter Pan alive in all of us.

Potato Cheese Surprise is a nourishing dish with superb flavor — hearty enough to serve as the main dish of the meal. To make it, use other plentiful foods — an egg and cheese. To serve four, you will need 2 cups of hot mashed potatoes, 1 egg beaten, salt and pepper, ¼ pound of cheese cut into slices, 2 tablespoons of melted fat, 4 slices of tomatoes, ¼ cup of crumbs. Add eggs, salt and

Sport Topics

QUIPS, QUOTES, AND QUERIES

Frank Sedgman, the Australian singles champion, looms as the No. 1 threat to American domination of the Davis Cup and of the U.S. National Singles since a paper-hanger named Adolf Hitler made the world forget for eight years about such things as international sport. The 21-year old Sedgman, a Johnny-come-lately to the ranks of big-time tennis, who surprised the sports world by taking America's great Ted Schroeder to five sets at Wimbledon earlier this summer, hit his peak last week in Montreal, when he blasted Canada's best, Henri Rochon and Brendan Macken, off the courts in straight sets, hardly working up a sweat. The young, curly-headed Aussie is definitely a future world's champion, but we don't think he or his mates, Billy Sidwell and John Bromwich, have enough on the ball to take the Davis Cup back to the Land From Down Under this year. Ted Schroeder will very likely win the Nationals in September, for he has a $100,000 incentive, that being the amount the La Crescenta, California stands to make in the next year if he turns pro as U.S. Singles champion.

Jersey Joe Walcott, who fights Olle Tandberg, the Swedish heavy-weight in a bout at Stockholm on August 14, still figures he can get to be world's champion, despite three past unsuccessful attempts. Said J. J., alighting from a plane in the Swedish capital, "I will get back into the title picture by beating Tandberg by a knockout or by decision." If aging Jersey Joe can't beat the Swede, he should be barred for life from the ring. Walcott figures on fighting the winner of the Savold-Woodcock fight for the British version of the heavyweight crown, and, after he wins that one, he plans to fight the winner of the Ezzard Charles-Gus Lesnevich bout for the world's title. Thus J.J. has only three obstacles on his way to the top, Tandberg, Savold or Woodcock, and Charles or Lesnevich. Then, of course, there's Joe's doubtful age, which is probably 38, or thereabouts.

Stanley Musial, the Donora Greyhound, put the St. Louis Cardinals back into first place, temporarily at least, last week, when he slashed out 9 hits in 15 times at bat in a four-game series in Brooklyn. His hits, which enabled the Cards to take three of the games and tie in the finale, included 2 homers, 2 triples, 2 doubles, and 3 singles.

It was slugging like that which enabled Musial last season to become the first hitter in over ten years to chalk up over 400 total bases in one season. The last previous player to do it had been Jolting Joe Dimaggio, when the San Francisco Italian did it during his great 1938 season. That slugging, along with what is probably the greatest left-handed pitching staff ever assembled on one team—Howie Pollett, Harry Brecheen, Max Lanier, and Alpha Brazle, was also keeping the Cards in the 1949 pennant race.

With the signing of Chuck Anderson, one of the heroes of Calgary's upset victory over the Ottawa Rough Riders in the Grey Cup final last year, the Montreal Alouettes seem to have lined up enough material to make a winner and a half for the French-Canadian fans of that city. Anderson could centre what will likely be the greatest front wall in Canadian football history, with such fellows as Herb Trawyk, Eagle Keys, Chet Gladchuk, Cas Vidruk, and the four young ends, Ralph Toohy, Johnny Taylor, Keith English, and Glen Douglas. The backfield boasts quite a roster too, with such aces as Flinging Frankie Filchock, Virgil Wagner, Bronco Reese, Bruce Coulter, Bobby Cunningham, Johnny Harper, and Tommy Manastersky. This one should be quite a football team.

Didn't Jimmy Churchill have an awful lot to do with the selection of that Junior All-Star team from Montreal which played so well in Brooklyn on Tuesday night? No less than five of Churchill's players from Rosemount were on that team, while Town of Mount Royal, which leads the Royal Junior League, and has beaten Rosemount three times in a row, had to settle for only two representatives.

Chet Gladchuk, newest addition to the coaching staff and playing ranks of Les Alouettes, meets a new neighbour, Jolting Johnny Greco, Canadian welterweight champion, now preparing for his bout with Laurent Dauthuille at the Montreal Baseball Stadium, August 3. The photo was taken when the towering Alouette lineman visited Greco's training site at the Palestre Nationale recently. The huge Gladchuk is a new resident of N.D.G., living out in the Trenholme Park district, only a few blocks from the Mayfair Avenue home of Greco. The big American, a former All-American at Boston College in 1940, when he played under Frank Leahy, was duly impressed with the stocky Greco's build, and finally agreed to hold the heavy bag for the Canadian fighter, providing Greco would not hit it. It was all in fun, of course.

the border, including Nat Fleischer, editor of Ring Magazine, officially recognized as the literary spokesman of the sport. The fight should be a great one because each of these boys is a puncher, there being nothing of the "Fancy Dan" in either of these two boxers. Each is willing to get hit twice to get in one telling blow, and neither plans to change his style of fighting for this bout. Greco said yesterday afternoon that he will definitely fight his usual fight, and that he has been training in the same manner in which he prepared for his other bouts, that being sparring with heavier opponents and lots of work on the light bag.

Thus an exciting fight can be foreseen, for Greco is a boring type of fighter, always coming in after his opponent. Dauthuille also plans to fight his usual fight, which means that a good deal of mixing and punching at close range will likely be the result. It should be a really good fight.

Greco-Dauthuille Bout Best Ever In Montreal

Notre Dame de Grace's Johnny Greco, born and raised on Minto avenue, faces the toughest and most important fight of his career on Wednesday night when he meets the French sensation, Laurent Dauthuille, in a ten-round scrap at the Montreal Baseball Stadium. A title fight is awaiting the winner of this scrap, for by emerging victorious, Dauthuille, who beat Jake LaMotta here during the winter, will be in line for a crack at LaMotta's middle-weight crown, while, on the other hand, Greco, by winning, can establish himself as a foremost contender for the world's welter-weight crown now held by Ray "Sugar" Robinson.

A match between these two fighters, both immensely popular in Montreal, was bound to come sooner or later, and now is being hailed as the greatest fistic attraction ever staged in Montreal. Dauthuille has been a smash success since coming from France to make his North American headquarters in Montreal, and has thrilled local fans with his great exhibitions against such foes as Ralph "Ripper" Zanelli and the rugged LaMotta. Greco has been well-liked in and around this Canadian metropolis for several years, with the high spot of his career here being his victories over such favourites as Gus Mell, Gaby Ferland and Beau Jack.

This match could be the turning point in the career of both these fine fighters, and both realize it, for they are training steadily, Greco at the Palestre Nationale and Dauthuille at the Stade Exchange, Dauthuille is expected to weigh in for the battle at between 150 and 155 pounds, with Greco scaling slightly over the welterweight mark of 148 pounds.

This battle promises to be a great fight and is attracting influential boxing men from below

PQLTA Says Tourney Will Be Largest In Canadian Tennis World

A splendid example of co-operation and team-work is shown by the member clubs of the P.Q.L.T.A. in the arrangements made for the holding of the Provincial Intermediate Championships.

This tournament, one of the largest in Canada, has at one time attracted as many as 256 entries in the men's singles alone, and no single club in the City has enough courts to accommodate the large entry expected this year.

As a result, seven clubs have combined to hold the event. The Women's Singles and Doubles will be played at the Mount Royal Country Club in the Town of Mount Royal, commencing Saturday, July 30th. Wes Richmond, of the home club, will act as manager.

Five sectional qualifying tournaments commencing Thursday, July 28th and played down to the semi-finals in each case will handle the early rounds of the men's singles. IMPORTANT ROLES FILLED FOR "THE PALOMINO"

Columbia this week set Beverly Tyler for the feminine lead and Joseph Calleia for the part of the principal heavy in "The Palomino", Technicolor outdoor drama which has Jerome Courtland in the male lead. Robert Cohn will produce with Ray Nazarro directing. Miss Tyler was formerly under contract to MGM, where she played leads in such pictures as "The Green Years". Calleia, who returned last month from London, where he scored a hit in the stage presentation of "All My Sons", was last before the cameras at Paramount in "After Midnight".

ONE JUMP AHEAD

Dentists tell us that the best way have healthy teeth is to stay one jump ahead of tooth decay at all times. The best way to do this is to visit the dentist regularly—twice a year is a good interval. He can attend to cavities while they are still small and save you a lot of grief later on. Brushing the teeth is a good practice, but it alone won't prevent tooth decay.

Answer To This Week's Puzzle

Knowing Pitch, Outfielder Will Shade to the Batter's Power

By JOE DIMAGGIO
Yankees' Center Fielder

Watching outfielders may prove to be a dull afternoon or evening unless you understand why they apparently wander aimlessly around.

The prime requisite of an outfielder, taking for granted that he can hit, run and throw, is temperament. He must be patient and wait for the ball.

All the tricks he learns aid in getting the jump on the ball, add up to good judgment.

He learns the hitters, always shades to their power.

This is done by knowing the pitch and the pitcher's stuff.

A fast ball pitcher may have the batters swinging late, thus not pulling the ball as much as normally. A pitcher with trick stuff may have the batters popping up.

An outfielder has to learn to charge ground balls as fast he can, meet the ball, and not to let it play him. The valuable outfielder fields ground balls and throws like an infielder.

You think ahead of time, know what to do when you get the ball.

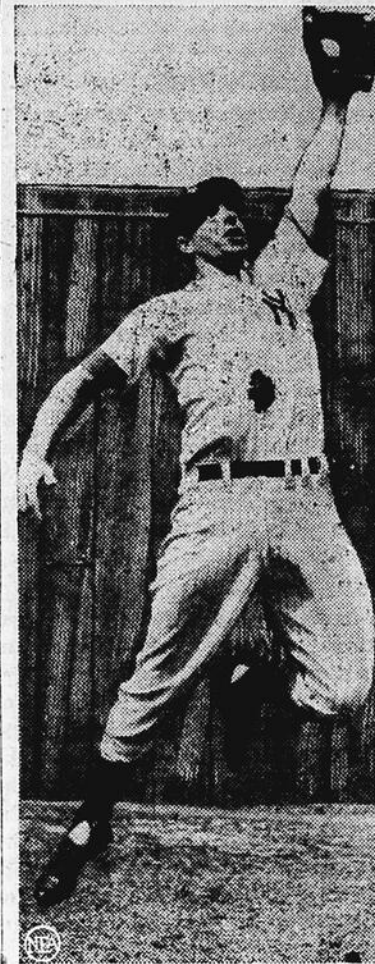

Say fast runners are on first and second. On a hard hit ball driving you deep, you give them one run, and try to get the runner going from first to third.

When the run is the winning or tying one, the outfielder, within reason, will attempt to throw out the runner at the plate.

It is very important to keep the throw low, so an infielder can cut it off. The ball is intercepted when it is decided that a run can score. The play is then on another runner. You don't want the man who hit the ball taking second on a futile throw to the plate.

With a potential play at the plate the man who hit the ball is liable to make a wide turn rounding first base looking for an opportunity to advance to second on the throw in.

An alert infielder cutting off the throw may trap him between bases.

On the Yankees we sometimes throw with this purpose in mind.

Such little tricks may win important games.

BOUND FOR EUROPE

Hedy Lamarr will head for an extended vacation in Europe as soon as she completes her co-starring role with Ray Milland, Macdonald Carey, Mona Freeman and Harry Carey, Jr., in Paramount's Technicolor western, "Copper Canyon."

Record Rendez-Vous George Gahan's

Did you know

That one of Duke Ellington's most ardent fans is the Duke of Windsor? .. That following the Page Cavanaugh Trio, The Mills Brothers will appear at the new Chez Maurice Danceland? That Kirk Douglas will star in the celluloid version of the Life of Bix Biederbecke, old Dixieland trumpet star Name of the pix will be "Young Man with a Horn" That Decca has released the best of the "Baby, It's Cold Outside" records, and that it's by Louis Jordan and Ella Fitzgerald?

The last of the concerts on the mountain was held last Tuesday night with tenor Raule Jobin sharing the spotlight with conductor Desire Defaw. These summer concerts have always been very enjoyable, and it is a pity that the season came to a close so soon this year.

Ziggy Ellman's latest for the MGM table is a lovely tune which goes by the name of "Cheek to Cheek". The reverse is every bit as lovely, and is named "That Wonderful Girl of Mine".

If you were smart, you went down to the Chez Maurice this week and heard the Page Cavanaugh Trio do a number called "We're From Afar". However if you happened to miss it, you can pick it up on a new Victor release, and have a very enjoyable listen.

.... And, by the way Record Rendez-Vous was one year old earlier this month .. So long See you next week.
