ROJESTVENSKY ILL BUT READY TO FIGHT

To Command At Coming Battle—Birileff To Succeed—Several Damaged Russian Torpedo Boats Return Home.

London, May 19.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times claims to have high authority confirming the report that Admiral Birileff will succeed Admiral Rojestvensky in command of the Russian fleet when it reaches Vladivostock. A high official of the staff informed the correspondent that Admiral Rojestvensky was not compelled by sickness to abandon his command, but that his nerves have been shattered by the terrible strain he has undergone since he left St. Petersburg, and his breakdown is probable. Nevertheless, the staff is confident of his physical ability to retain command long enough to engage the Japanese, and it hopes that he will be able to take the fleet to Vladivostock. When that is accomplished his arduous and glorious mission will be more than fulfilled.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times, says that the date of Admiral Birileff's departure for Vladivostock, where he will have the naval command, is kept secret, lest it indicate Admiral Rojestvensky's movements, but it is understood that he will be allowed ample leisure to prepare for the journey. This implies a further sojourn of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet in southern waters.

A ST. PETERSBURG STORY.

St. Petersburg, May 19.—It is reported that several of Admiral Rojestvensky's torpedo boats have returned to Libau, on the Baltic, in a damaged condition. No details are given.

HEARD IN LONDON.

London, May 19.—Now that it seems definitely established that Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky has started on his northward journey, there is a great revival of interest here in the Far Eastern campaign. Kwang Chau Bay, where provision junks are said to be waiting for the Russian fleet, is said to be the most northward of French possessions on the Chinese sea, and the last port which Rojestvensky can select for his final departure to meet the Japanese. It has a fine anchorage and a sheltered channel, where a large fleet may ride in safety.

Reports still circulate in London to the effect that the Russian Pacific squadron's coaling arrangements are extremely inadequate, and to have been the main cause of its prolonged stay in Indo-Chinese waters, and that the admiral is finding ever increasing difficulty on this score.

POSITION OF FLEET.

Singapore, Straits Settlements, May 19.—The Russian fleet was in latitude 13.30 north, and longitude 111.30 east about 120 miles northeast of Cape Varella, coast of Annam, during the morning of May 16, according to a report brought here by the British steamer Hong Wan I.

The German steamer Segovia sighted 42 Russian ships 40 miles from Cape Varella May 15 steaming slowly north.

JUNCTURE AGAIN REPORTED.

Saigon, May 19.—A junction was effected May 8, by the squadrons of Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky and Rear-Admiral Nebogatoff. It took place outside of territorial waters.

The vessels started seaward May 14, going in an easterly direction.

AGENTS ASKED TO LEAVE.

Washington, D.C., May 19.—Richard S. Greener, American commercial agent at Vladivostock, has cabled the American State Department that all the foreign commercial agents there have been asked to leave Vladivostock fortress, and are given permission to reside in the cities of the maritime provinces. Mr Greener himself was just leaving Vladivostock for Haborowsk. It is recalled here that a similar measure was adopted by the Russian authorities at Port Arthur at the beginning of the investment of that place by the Japanese land and sea forces, and hence it is assumed that Vladivostock is expected to become a centre of the seat of war very soon.

RAISING THE CRUISER.

Shanghai, May 19.—It is stated that the Japanese have raised the cruiser Pallada, one of the Russian vessels that was sunk at Port Arthur.

PROCEED NORTHWARD.

London, May 19.—(Special.) — The Russian fleet appears to be making a very slow pace northward. It was sighted on Tuesday about 120 miles northeast of Cape Varella, which is just to the north of the promontory enclosing Honkohe Bay, whence it sailed on Sunday. Its furture path is of course wholly unknown, though reports of a large fleet of junks anchored to the southwest of Hong Kong suggests that Rojestvensky may put into Chinese waters to take on provisions. Reports that the Russian admiral has asked to be relieved on account of ill-health are denied in St. Petersburg. Admiral Birileff, it is said, will go to Vladivostock, and if Rojestvensky defeats Togo, will then take over command of the whole Russian naval force in the East, with powers something like those enjoyed by Alexieff as viceroy.

Annual Meeting Was Held Last Night.

92 NEW MEMBERS RECEIVED DURING YEAR—REPORTS VERY SATISFACTORY.

The 30th annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held last night in the Association parlors, there being a good attendance of representative men. Encouraging reports were given of each department of the work. The hearty co-operation of citizens, and an increasing corps of workers has made possible a larger work than in previous years.

The membership report showed a satisfactory growth: 92 new members have been received during the year, a net increase of 20 over last year, as the Association sustained a loss through a large number leaving the city or being unable to renew; 4 have been removed by death. The members in good standing number 257, an increase of 102 in three years. The church preference given by the 92 new members is: Anglican, 27; Methodist, 17; Presbyterian, 21; Congregational, 9; Baptist, 8; Roman Catholic, 7; others, 3. A library is being started.

The religious work department provided a series of strong meetings during the year. A number of able speakers were secured whose messages were helpful to the young men. There were 52 Sunday afternoon meetings held, with a total attendance of 2,097. The Saturday night meeting enrolled a number. The special services conducted by John Currie were very successful. The average attendance at the men's Bible class was 12.

THE GAYNOR AND GREENE CASE.

APPEAL RE POWER OF EXTRADITION COMMISSIONER DISMISSED.

Montreal, May 19.—(Special.) — The full bench of the Court of King's Bench upheld the decision of Justice Davidson in Superior Court, who held that Judge Lafontaine, extradition commissioner, was qualified to set in extradition proceedings against Gaynor & Greene, wanted by the United States Government.

The Court held that the Dominion Government has the right to appoint extradition commissioners, one of the principal contentions of prisoners being that such authority belonged to Provincial Governments. They therefore dismissed the appeal.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

BISHOP THORNLOE SAILS FOR ENGLAND

Chief Object is Interests of His Diocese.

WILL BE AWAY THREE MONTHS—REV. J. BOYDELL ACTING BISHOP.

Montreal, May 19. — The Right Rev. George Thornloe, Bishop of Algoma, sailed for Liverpool on the Allan liner Bavarian, early this morning. He said, last night: "I am going across in the interests of my diocese, primarily. We have in England an association known as the Algoma Association, which raises funds for the prosecution of the work in my diocese and I intend to visit its members and report progress, at the same time making arrangements for the raising of more funds. Algoma, as you know, is larger than all of England and Wales, and although much of it is unsettled and wild the boundaries of civilization are ever increasing and it requires more money than heretofore we have been able to raise of ourselves to support the work of the Church. Since I became bishop, however, I have seen the work grow steadily until our own contributions have more than doubled, and we have vastly increased our centres of labor. I am in great hopes, therefore, that this may be my last trip on such an errand and that the time is not far removed when we will be self-supporting. That is, that we may become non-dependent is so far as outside assistance is concerned. Of course, it will be years yet before we will be able to supply all our needs from our own diocese."

His Lordship will be away for three months, and in his absence, Rev. J. Boydell is administering the diocese. It is five years since His Lordship crossed the Atlantic.

NEW AGENT AT C. T. R. STATION.

Mr. T. King, Of Brockville, Appointed.

IS EXPECTED TO ARRIVE HERE SHORTLY.

Mr. T. King, agent at Brockville, Ont., has been appointed to succeed Mr. F. Crane, as agent at the Grand Trunk station in Sherbrooke. He is expected here to-day or to-morrow.

Mr. F. Crane has not yet been notified when to assume his new duties as ticket agent at the Bonaventure station, Montreal, but the probability is that he will leave for Montreal in a day or two.

MR. C. MILLIER TO GET POSITION.

Will Become Crown Lands Agent.

TO SUCCEED MR. PICARD, WHO HAS RESIGNED.

It is understood that Mr. C. Millier, accountant, of this city, will be appointed to the position of Crown Lands agent for the St. Francis District, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Jacques Picard, owing to ill-health.

Mr. Millier stated this morning that he had received no word from Quebec about the appointment, but expected that it would be put through this week.

THE MISSISQUOI BAY FISHERIES.

MATTER IS BROUGHT UP IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Ottawa, May 19.—Mr. Demers, of St. Johns and Iberville, brought up in the House on the preliminary proceedings, yesterday, the fact that the State of New York had passed a law refusing the admission of Canadian-caught fish. He said that this was retaliatory legislation passed because the Canadian Government would not stop seining in Missisquoi Bay. Mr. Demers suggested the Canadian Government restoring the tolls on the Chambly canal, which was largely used by Americans, in the way of hitting back.

Mr. Prefontaine said that the Americans violated previous arrangements entered into with Canada in regard to fishing in Missisquoi Bay, so that the Dominion had to issue licenses to give Canadians a share of the fishing. He offered the United States to lay this matter before the proposed international fishery commission. The Dominion could not place tolls on the canal.

Mr. Monk said that placing tolls on the canal would not make the Americans the only ones to suffer. He approved of negotiations instead of coercion.

IN THE QUEBEC LEGISLATURE.

Discussion re Rural Judge's Residences.

THE ADULTERATION OF MAPLE SUGAR SUBJECT OF MOTION.

Quebec, May 19.—There was quite a discussion in the House, yesterday afternoon, on Mr. Dupuis' motion for an order for copies of all documents and correspondence relative to the change to be made to the Judiciature Act in regard to resident of judges of rural districts. Several members took part in the debate, and the consensus of opinion was that all judges in rural districts should be forced by the Government to reside in the districts of which they had been appointed. Judge St. Pierre was unknowingly the cause of the debate, and Mr. Dupuis for a time made serious charges against the presiding judge of Beauharnois district.

The Laurentian Water & Power Company's Bill again made its appearance shortly before the adjournment, when it was taken up in committee of the whole. This bill was strongly objected to by Mr. Speaker Weir, who as member for Argenteuil, occupied a seat on the floor of the House during the debate, and handled the bill and its prompters without gloves.

MAPLE SUGAR ADULTERATION.

Mr. Caron (L'Islet), in moving for all documents respecting the adulteration of maple sugar and the classification of dairy products, spoke at length on his motion, and remarked that his object was to draw the attention of the Government and his colleagues to two important questions in agriculture, maple sugar and dairy industries. He specially laid strain on the fact that years ago good prices were obtained for maple sugar, while to-day the farmers only obtained six cents per lb., and this was due to the enormous quantity of adulterated maple sugar and syrup placed on the market. Although this Legislature had not the power to pass a law restricting such falsification, they could at least express their opinion, and thereby strengthen the federal member for Beauce, who is trying to have a measure passed at Ottawa to that effect. Even if the Government spent a few thousand dollars to encourage farmers to secure the most perfect apparatus to make pure sugar, it would still be better than a restrictive law. He also suggested that the Provincial Government grant a premium in favor of sugar-makers.

BUTTER AND CHEESE.

Speaking of butter and cheese, he remarked that the quality of our butter, although not being perfect, was still much better than the cheese from this province, which had decreased considerably for several years past. If the farmers of this province do not succeed in selling their products on the European markets it would be most disastrous to them, and to sell, cheese and butter had to be of the best quality and should be classified so that the bad products would not be shipped with the good. Mr. Walker also spoke on the necessity of improving the quality of cheese and butter and was strongly in favor of classifying.

Hon. Mr. Tessier, while admitting the importance of the matter, said that it was entirely under the control of the federal Government.

TOTAL $820,184,635.

FIGURES FOR THE LAST SESSION OF CONGRESS.

Washington, May 19.—The volume of appropriations required to be compiled after each session of Congress has been completed for the third session of the Fifty-Eighth Congress, and the summary of the appropriations show a grand total of $820,184,635. In addition to the specific appropriations made, contracts are authorized to be entered into for public works requiring future appropriations by Congress aggregating $26,770,058, an increase of $3,878,757 over the second session.

JOHN SULLIVAN AND MITCHELL.

OLD-TIME PUGILISTS TO DO BATTLE ONCE MORE.

Tacoma, Wn., May 19.—Chas. Mitchell and John L. Sullivan have signed articles for a fifteen-round fight in Tacoma, September 19th, for the gate receipts, to be divided 65 and 35 per cent.

Mr. E. W. Tobin, of Bromptonville, is in to-day.

COTTON MILLS CLOSED DOWN.

Reduction of Wages Causes Strike.

WEAVERS AT WINDSOR, N. S., MAKE DEMANDS AND QUIT WORK.

Halifax, N.S., May 19.—The weavers in the mill at Windsor, one of the Dominion Cotton Company's mills, are out on strike on account of a reduction in wages of three cents per 120 yards. The price paid was 48 cents and it was placed at 45. This meant a loss of 90 cents per fortnight, and owing to a difference in the quality of the cloth they were engaged upon the work was more difficult. At the old rate the weavers claimed they had to work twice as hard to make the same pay. The weavers sent a deputation to the manager, urging him not to enforce the reduction, and asked him to give them an answer after dinner. The weavers worked till noon, and after dinner, not having received any reply from the manager, they went on strike to the number of 48. In consequence of this strike of the weavers, the cotton mill was closed down. The company says that the contracts they have made for this cotton are at a low price in order to keep the mill running, and that the wages paid are higher than what is given in their other mills.

When the mill is running full time, as it has done lately, from 200 to 250 hands are employed.

LECTURE AT COATICOOK.

Coaticook, May 19.—Mr. Howard Haywood, F.R.C.S.A., gave an illustrated lecture in the High School hall last evening on the Russo-Japanese war. The views were of a superior type, having been made by the Japanese themselves. Photos of the leading officers on both sides were followed by views of battleships, battlefields, trenches, forts, guns in action, Red Cross service, etc., etc. The interest throughout was well maintained, while the lecture was a most instructive and profitable one. Mr. Haywood lectures again to-night on "Rambles through the British Empire."

CHURCH MEETING AT BONDVILLE.

Bondville, May 19.—(Special.) —The Brome Clericus, the clerical association of the county of Brome, met here on Tuesday. There was a large attendance, most of the members of the Association being present. The proceedings of the day commenced with a celebration of the holy communion in the Church of the Good Shepherd, at 10 a.m.

A largely attended missionary meeting was held in the church in the evening. Most interesting addresses were delivered by Reverends Rural Dean Carmichael, rector of Knowlton; E. P. Judge, Incumbent of Brome; Thos. Everett, Incumbent of Bolton, and G. A. Mason, Incumbent of this parish.

MASSAWIPPI SCHOOL CLOSING.

Massawippi, May 19.—(Special.)—At the closing of the school several of the parents and members of the W. C. T. U. went in to listen to the exercises of the scholars, which they had prepared for the day and witness the distribution of prizes to those who obtained the largest number of marks.

Mr. W. Stevenson, school commissioner, was also present and gave a short talk to the scholars, urging them to be diligent in their studies and by so doing to prepare themselves for future usefulness.

The teacher, Miss Jessie Davidson, has been engaged for the third term, thus proving herself acceptable to the district. In the afternoon a picnic was had at the lake by the teacher and pupils, such as youngsters "let loose from school" can enjoy when vacation time has come.

LAKE MASSAWIPPI FISH AND GAME PROTECTION CLUB.

North Hatley, May 19.—Special.) — A meeting of the Executive Committee of L. M. Fish and Game Protection Club met at Ayer's Cliff. There was a large attendance. Nearly all the Wardens and Deputy Wardens were present and gave in their reports, and it was found that the spring campaign had been a very satisfactory one. In the rivers, where in former seasons thousands of fish had been destroyed, there has been practically no attempt toward illegal fishing. The reason possibly may be in a measure due to the strong guard who have been on duty. It is felt that this move is being appreciated, and that there will be less attempts at violation of the fish and game laws as the good results of protection are manifested.

Millions of spawn and fingerlings will soon be put in Massawippi Lake, and if all the people who should be interested in restocking and protecting will do their individual duty, ere long good fishing will be the result. A large number of deputy wardens will take the oath of office this month (without salary) excepting the $15 bonus given by the club for each conviction. All mill owners who have mills on tributaries to Lake Massawippi and Massawippi river will receive a notice of the statute regarding refuse and sawdust, and it must be complied with, as it is considered a great menace to the propagation of spawn and fish in the streams.

FELL INTO CISTERN.

Stanstead, May 19.—(Special.) — What nearly proved to be a sad chapter of accidents happened here yesterday morning when Miss Alma Harvey had the misfortune to fall into a soft water cistern situated in the rear of Mr. J. W. Williamson's residence. Her cries for help quickly brought Mr. Williamson to the rescue, but in his efforts to help Miss Harvey out, Mr. Williamson unfortunately fell into the cistern himself. Mrs. B. Hunt, who happened to be nearby at the time, hastened to their assistance, but in her hurry and excitement stumbled and fell on the edge of the cistern, injuring her wrist as a result. Relief was finally brought by the timely arrival of Mrs. Murdock on the scene, and thanks to her aid all hands were rescued, and, save for a severe fright, happily not much the worse for their exciting experience. Fortunately there was very little water in the cistern.

SUCCESSFUL IN THE WEST.

Richmond, May 19.—(Special.)—The Brandon (Man.) Sun speaks in high terms of Miss Noreen Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly, formerly of Richmond. She was presented with a purse of gold by the members of St. Augustine's choir of that place in recognition of her services as organist of the church. She is a musician of rare ability and graduated from St. Patrick's Convent, Richmond, where she was the gold medalist.

STANSTEAD GOLF LINKS.

Stanstead, May 19.—(Special.)—The work of laying out the course and preparing the greens on the new links of the Sunnyside Golf Club has been completed and local golfers may now enjoy their favorite sport.

The new course is an excellent one, consisting of nine holes and a sufficient number of obstacles to make the play exciting. The view, especially from the upper part of the links, is perhaps one of the finest in this locality, so noted for its beautiful scenery.

The links will be formally opened on Saturday afternoon, the 20th inst. Tea and refreshments will be served on the grounds. This promises to be one of the social events of the season.

EAT SLOWLY.

(From the London Standard.)

The propriety of eating slowly ought always to be remembered. Mr. Gladstone's thirty-two bites are historical. Napoleon was a terribly fast eater, and this habit is supposed to have paralyzed him on two of the most critical occasions of his life, the battles of Leipzig and Borodino, which he might have converted into decisive and influential victories by pushing his advantages as he was wont. On each of these occasions he was known to have been suffering from indigestion.

COUNTY COUNCIL BILL.

A Quebec despatch says:

"In the meantime the business of the House is progressing very rapidly and the measures seeking legislation by considering their merits, without much discussion. Mr. P. S. G. MacKenzie made quite a hit in the House on Tuesday last in connection with the bill entrusted to him to amend the Municipal Code respecting the sessions of the County Councils. In committee this bill was amended, and when it came before the House for its second reading the member for Richmond made a fight to have the measure adopted in its original form. He succeeded after an hour's speech in which he pointed out that the aims of the bill were mainly to curtail expenses, and his contention was ably assisted by Hon. Mr. McCorkill. The bill in the end was adopted which reads that: "The ordinary or general sessions of county councils are held on the second Wednesday in each of the months of March, June, September and December, but any county council may, by by-law, ordain that the ordinary or general sessions thereof shall be held only on the second Wednesday in each of the months of March and September.

AN AWKWARD SITUATION.

(From the New York Tribune.)

Congressman Morrell of Philadelphia, said in the course of an address to National Guardsmen: "As colonel of the Third Regiment of Pennsylvania, I once took part in an odd and amusing episode. My regiment was marching down Broad street in the van of an immense and magnificent parade, when, near Walnut street, it became necessary to push the people back a little. The ropes had broken at this point, and the people, quite unintentionally, encroached on the line of the parade. I assigned a handful of young privates to help the police handle the crowd, and one private stationed near me, I kept my eye on. He got everybody back except a fat man. This person did not move.

"'Private,' said I, 'put that fat man back.'

"'He says he can't get back, the crowd is pushing so,' the private answered.

"'Put your musket butt in his chest,' said I, 'and force him back. You are the stronger.'

"'Yes,' said the private, 'I know I'm the stronger, but he's the foreman of our shop.'"

Fuddy—There is nothing provokes me more than to hear somebody assert that the brute creation is possessed of reason rather than of blind instinct.

Duddy—Aren't you a little mixed?

Fuddy—Not at all. The idea is absurd! Who ever heard, for instance, of a brute that would drink whiskey in reference to water or talk from morning till night about baseball?

CROWN FOR SALE.

THE SPIRITED DISPOSAL OF AN INDIAN STATE DIADEM AND ACCOMPANYING JEWELS.

The Englishman contains an account of the sale by auction at Calcutta of the jewels of the late Maharana of Dholpur, a native Rajput state of about a quarter of a million inhabitants. The proceedings lasted seven days, and the great event was the bidding for the state crown, which is thus described: In addition to the presence of many private bidders, the jewelry and precious stone trade was represented by numerous experts both of this country and from Europe. Among others was to be seen Mr. J. Iwi, who was not only taking a keen interest in the sale, but was a prominent and active bidder.

The climax of the excitement was reached when the state crown, a beautiful piece of workmanship, resplendent with many valuable gems and rare pearls, was put up for sale. This regal headpiece was of pearls and diamonds. The set of pear-shape pearls was perfectly graduated, and as a set was unmatchable. The diamonds were all of the best quality, and in the centre was set the "Grosvenor" diamond of watery clearness. Supplied with the crown was a necklace of diamonds, to which the larger pearls could be attached for wear as a necklace. Though the bidding for this started comparatively low, namely, at a lakh of rupees (£6666), it very rapidly rose to three lakhs. From this figure it at once jumped at four lakhs on a bid made by Mr. Iwi. This was topped by a bid of Rs4,25,000, which was quickly responded to by Mr. Iwi with a bid of Rs4½ lakhs. The bidding, however, did not cease here, but was continued briskly. At five lakhs it looked as if Mr. Iwi was to become the happy possessor of the crown, but this last-mentioned bid was ultimately capped by one of Rs5,05,000 (£33,666) made by another keen bidder, to whom the prize was knocked down.

Among other prices were: Nine assorted pearls, £5933; ornaments of pearls, £3200; string of fine pearls, £1880; large yellow diamond, about 100 carats, set as a pendant, £1000; a set of nine diamonds, "of absolutely pure water and great brilliancy," £7533; a pair of pearl and diamond epaulettes, £1613; pearl, diamond and sapphire necklace, £1573; drop-pearl and diamond brooch £1300, and a single-row pearl necklace, £1066.

KING ALFONSO NOW 19.

Madrid, May 19.—The Senate assembled especially yesterday to congratulate King Alfonso on the occasion of the 19th anniversry of his birth. The speeches made were largely occupied with anticipation of His Majesty's coming foreign tour. The conviction was expressed that it ought to strengthen Spain's relations with France and Great Britain. The speakers also tactfully voiced the hopes that His Majesty's marriage would not be long delayed. In reply King Alfonso said: "I hope with you, that my forthcoming visit will strengthen the ties of friendship, good feeling and co-operation towards universal peace, which unit is with other people. As for that event frought with the happiness of my country and my hearth, which you await with such anxious desire, I have confidence in God that it will be realized for the good of the nation, for family love is so closely united in my mind with the love for my country that I have no idea of any marriage than that of two people living and seeking the happiness of the country and its greatness."

MYSTERY OF THE WOODS.

Parry Sound, Ont., May 19.—The body of Vincenzo Gutozzo, an Italian lad, about 18 years of age, one of a gang of Italians working on the James Bay Railway construction, was found in the bush near Falding Post Office, about nine miles from here on Monday. According to reports which were received here Gutozzo had been missing three weeks, and it was supposed had lost himself in the woods. An examination of the body revealed a bullet hole in the left side near the heart. A discharged gun, which evidently had been tampered with, was found near the body. There is an air of mystery about the whole affair, and an inquest is now being held at Falding. Crown-Attorney Haight is investigating the case.

THE AMBULANCE DOGS IN WAR.

THEIR USEFULNESS ON THE FIELD OF BATTLE AS PROVED IN ACTUAL SERVICE.

(From the Medical Record.)

It is well known that dogs, of certain breeds, especially, have a considerable amount of intelligence. As the constant companion of man through generations the brain of the dog has been developed until at the present time it is probable that this animal can be more easily trained than any other. For something like 80 years the monks of St. Bernard have trained and used dogs to rescue travellers lost in the snow. In Europe many of the armies, inspired by the idea, employ dogs to seek out the wounded on the field of battle, and thus aid in the work of the ambulance corps. In Germany dogs are attached to the ambulance service in many regiments, and were employed in the Herrero expedition in Africa. In Austria, France, Italy, Switzerland, Holland, Russia and America dogs are utilized in ambulance work.

The British Medical Journal of Dec. 10, 1904, contains a special article on the subject and describes the methods pursued in training and using dogs for this purpose. With the object of rendering first aid to those men who are not mortally wounded, the writer says the dog: is equipped with a waterproof canvas saddle with a pocket at each side. In these pockets are placed eight triangular bandages, while slung around the dog's neck is a small cask of brandy or rum, and a bell for use after dark. If the wounded man be strong enough he may take the bandages and temporary bind his wounds, and he can also help himself to stimulants. Supposing him to be too weak to take advantage of his temporary assistance, the dog barks loudly until he attracts the notice of the search party.

Several officers of the British service have been experimenting with dogs in order to satisfy themselves whether they are calculated to be of a value in the role of ambulance assistants. These men have reported favorably, but as yet the British War Office has made no move. However, as the most hide-bound and conservative of all the notoriously conservative state departments of that country, this is not to be wondered at. As a matter of fact the scheme is but in its experimental stage and needs to be weighed carefully before it is adopted on a large scale. Its humanitarian side cannot but appeal to all, and if the use of dogs is found practicable and of value it will be another step in the direction of ameliorating the horrors of war.

GOLD OUTPUT OF THE WORLD.

HAS DOUBLED IN LESS THAN TEN YEARS.

The Economiste Francias of Paris, M. Leroy-Beaulieu's financial journal, published a few weeks since, a rather noteworthy review of the latest estimates of the world's annual gold production, and of the outlook for the future. It reckons a probable $400,000,000 production for 1905, as against the $358,800,000 estimated for 1904, the $325,527,000 in 1903, and the $202,251,000 as recently as 1896. The article questions continued increase at this pace, but shows why it is at all events possible, and adds a word on the relations of such a movement, in the writer's opinion to prices.

WHAT OF THE NEXT TEN YEARS.

"Are we to expect ten years hence, in 1915, twice as large a gold production as to-days? It is dangerous to make predictions on matters of this sort. All that is necessary to point out is that the movement of gold production these past five years seems to indicate a less rapid tendency towards increase, and that considering only the regions nowadays most productive, it would appear that the output will be slow in raising itself much above 2,000,000,000 francs per annum.

HONORING A HERO.

U. S. DOES TRIBUTE TO THE LAST VETERAN OF WAR OF 1812.

New York, May 19.—The body of Hiram Cronk, who lived to be the last survivor of the war of 1812, was brought here yesterday and will be buried to-day in Cypress Mills Cemetery with full military honors. In the meantime the body will lie in state in City Hall. Accompanying the body were Mr. Cronk's three surviving sons and one daughter. They were: Philander Cronk, 81 years old; William, 72 years old; John, 66 years old, and the daughter, Mrs. Sarah Rawley, 71 years old.

WHO WILL CALL HIM?

(From the Chicago Evening Post.)

In playing international poker, the kaiser well knows the value of "bluffing," and it is reasonable to suppose that his speech at Strasbourg is intended to try the nerves of Great Britain and France. It is all a part of the great European game and whether the emperor of Germany takes any serious action will depend largely upon the size of the stakes and the pluck of the other players.

WHAT WOULD THE KAISER SAY?

Lord Charles Beresford has suggested that the British and American navies combine in a series of naval manoeuvres.

"O, won't you come and play with us,"
Says Beresford, so gay;
"We'll sail our boats together, Ted,
Full half a world away;
We'll form in column and in line;
We'll shoot from dawn to dark,
And dine together every night,
To hear our sea-dogs bark."

Good Teddy smiled and winked his eye,
"That suits me to the ground;
Perhaps while cruising too and fro
A foeman could be found;
And if that foeman should be Bill,
The German potentate,
His ironclads might soon be found
A trifle out-of-date."

"Do you think it is better to lie on the right side or the left side?" asked the man who is fussy about his health.

"I have found, my friend, that it often pays to lie on both sides," replied the fat man with the silk hat, for he was a practical politician.

BISHOP POTTER'S OPINION.

(From the Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.)

Bishop Potter's criticism of the Young Men's Christian Association of Pittsburg for refusing to admit an actor to membership may be just, but inasmuch as the bishop made a record for extreme liberality in opening up a saloon with a religious service and starting it off with the blessing of the Church, so far as he was able to bless, there will naturally arise in many minds the question of whether he is authority worth considering on the point of what the Y.M.C.A. in Pittsburg or elsewhere ought to do. In view of what the bishop has done, many will believe that it is not improbable that he would advocate the establishment of bars in Y.M.C.A. buildings for the dispensation of liquor under Y.M.C.A. auspices, and with this in mind the Y.M.C.A. will probably concern itself less about the good bishop's opinions than about the opinions of many less conspicuous persons. Let us not be misunderstood, however, as indorsing a policy of exclusion of actors from the Y.M.C.A. for no other reason. We don't indorse it.

WIDESPREAD EARTHQUAKES.

(From the London Telegraph.)

Some surprise has been expressed at the largest of the area over which the recent earthquake of the Midlands was felt, considering that the shock at its worst was very slight. But the mildness of earth movements produce as a rule sensible effects over wide regions. Dr. Charles Davison, F. G. S., who has made a special study of recent earthquakes, computes that the disturbances which shook the city of Hereford on Dec. 17, 1896, caused notable tremors over 155,000 square miles, which is about the size of England and Wales; this estimate being based on 2902 records from 1943 places affected. The Inverness earthquake of Sept. 18, 1901, though of still less intensity, was felt over an area of 33,000 square miles, about the size of Ireland. "In Japan," says Dr. Davison, "we see the mountain-making forces acting with violence and producing effects too apparent to the eye. In Scotland, whatever may have happened in former theological epochs, the changes in surface-structure are now taking place with almost infinite slowness, and hundreds of thousands of years must elapse before Loch Ness makes any visible progress in its march to the sea.

DEATH OF MRS. GEDEON OUIMET.

Dame Marie Genevieve Martin dit Pellant, widow of the late Hon. Gedeon Ouimet, ex-superintendent of public instruction, died on Thursday last, at the age of 78 years. Mrs. Ouimet had been an invalid for several years past; and she died only a couple of weeks after her husband. The funeral took place privately and a requiem mass for the repose of her soul was chanted in the Church of St. Hilaire.

"I want to complain of the flour you sent me the other day," said Mrs. Newlywed, severely.

"What was the matter with it, ma'am?" asked the grocer.

"It was tough. My husband simply wouldn't eat the biscuits I made with it."

DAILY NEWS FROM TOWNSHIPS.

Mr. Dawe was presented with a pair of gold cuff links, together with an address, which was read on behalf of the choir by Mr. Chas. H. Poole, and expressed the deep sense of regret at the loss of their friend and leader, who took such interest in conducting the choir, and also the esteem felt by all for the choir master, who replied in suitable terms in saying to the choir that the last few months with them were among the happiest he ever spent in his life, and would remain fresh in his memory for a long time to come. He thanked the choir for their appreciation of his services, and their presence with him that evening.

Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening spent in games and other amusements, after which Mr. Dawe bid farewell to all and left on the early morning train.

Mr. E. W. McCone went to Sherbrooke yesterday on business.

KAISER PRAISES JAPANESE.

Berlin, May 19.—Emperor William, addressing the officers of the 145th Regiment of Infantry at the Officers' Club at Strassburg recently, said, according to Colonel Gaedke: "The marching on parade of my regiment was not altogether brilliant. But I have shut my eyes. The Japanese have shown that although they do not make a fine review they march and fight well."

MAJOR CARRINGTON DISMISSED.

Manila, May 19.—The court-martial which convened April 17th, for the trial of Major Frank Carrington, of the First United States Infantry, on the charge of converting public funds to his own use, has resulted in the dismissal of Major Carrington.

"I tell you what, George! I never before saw such a shoe polish as this

2 in 1

It puts on a dandy shine in about three rubs. The gentlemen in my car are so well pleased that when they tip me in the morning they do it with a smile instead of a grunt. They don't complain about the shine on their shoes any more."

The Tan "2 in 1" never darkens tan shoes as most tan polishes do. It is something entirely new.

A SCRIP SCANDAL IN THE NORTHWEST.

Men With a Pull Stand to Make Lots of Money.

HALFBREEDS GIVEN SCRIP WHICH THEY SOLD FOR A SONG TO AGENTS OF OFFICIALS.

Winnipeg, Man., May 19.—An Ottawa despatch received here yesterday has caused no small sensation among buyers of scrip. It says that the half-breed commissioner, Mr. McKenna, when going through the west received a number of claims for scrip from half-breeds resident in American territory. He disallowed these. An Order-in-Council was passed at Ottawa some time later granting scrip to all Canadian-born half-breeds living in the States, and this order was dated August 13, 1904. A clause was put through in November of last year permitting the holder of this scrip to locate land without the presence of the half-breed, as had been the rule respecting scrip formerly issued. To take advantage of the ignorance of the half-breeds agents, said to be very close in touch with officials of the Department, got orders from natives for the location of about seventy thousand acres of land for mere nominal sums and now stand to clear about half a million dollars.

Petitions have been received at Ottawa protesting that the half-breeds were in ignorance of the fact that when they gave an order for their scrip on Ottawa they were also assigning it wholly to the agent who took said order.

These agents, it is intimated, will clear up half a million dollars. It is contended that scrip should not have been issued to these half-breeds living in American territory, and that the Commissioner's decision in the first place should never have been changed. By so doing the Government virtually gave away seventy thousand acres of lands to these American half-breeds. Several agents have been at Ottawa and the whole matter is now in such a shape that Hon. Mr. Oliver may order an investigation.

LAST ENGLISHMAN.

WHEN THE ENGLISH BIRTH RATE WILL DWINDLE TO NOTHING.

(From the London Express.)

In spite of the outspoken criticisms of the Bishop of Ripon and the Bishop of London on the subject of childless marriages and limited families, there are many who take a less pessimistic view of the matter.

William Schooling, the mathematical and insurance expert, discussing the case from the national standpoint, saw no reason for alarm.

"Though there has been a drop in the birth rate per 1000 from 29.6 in 1897 to 27.9 in 1904," he said to an Express representative, yesterday, "there's no reason to suppose that we are about to share the fate of ancient Greece and Rome.

"Taking the average decrease of 1.3 in ten years with a birth rate of 27.9 per 1,000 in 1904, it is quite a simple arithmetical exercise to prove that in 214.6 years births will have entirely ceased.

"But it is obvious that this is merely an amusing mathematical diversion.

"There will always be those who love children and will have them. Consequently, it is plain that the lower the birth rate gets the more slowly it will decrease until it arrives at a stationary figure—which it inevitably must do in time.

"Meanwhile, in spite of heavy emigration of young people, the population is increasing. The births are still a long way ahead of the deaths, and until the two figures threaten to equalize, the depopulation theory should have no very great terrors. There is no pressing reason, in my opinion, to fear that this equalization will ever come to pass."

MR. HYMAN AND THE CABINET.

HAS NOT YET BEEN OFFERED A PORTFOLIO, HE SAYS.

London, Ont., May 18. — Hon. C. S. Hyman, acting minister of public works, arrived home from Ottawa, at noon, yesterday. When interviewed, he said he did not know of any dates having been set for bye-election in this city, nor that of North Oxford. He also stated that he did not know if a bye-election would be held in this city or not, and when asked as to whether he had been offered a portfolio, said it had not been offered him yet, but that if it were he would come to London for re-election. Mr. Hyman said that no arrangements between himself and Hon. Mr. Beck had been made in regard to an election by acclamation for the former gentleman.

THREE MILLION AN OUNCE.

London, May 19.—The price of radium has increased, owing to the difficulty of obtaining further supplies. The consequence is that research work involving its use is almost at a standstill. Sir William Ramsay states that £20 a milligram, or at the rate of $3,000,000 an ounce, is now demanded. An expert expresses the opinion that not more than half an ounce of radium has been manufactured since Professor Curie discovered it.

THE TITLE OF "HONORABLE."

Considerable discussion has been going on in Toronto papers lately regarding the title of "honorable" and whether it may be retained by ex-ministers of the Provincial Government.

A writer to the News on the subject says:

"I see nothing absurd in according the title of "honorable" to one who was a Federal Minister for only two months—or for only two days for that matter—and in compulsorily withholding it from a former Provincial Minister of even twenty years' standing. My position in the matter is impregnable. I obey the mandate of the Crown, both in letter and in spirit. In this case the clear and explicit wording leaves no room for doubt that letter and spirit are identical. And why not? Federal Ministers move in loftier spheres than executive councillors of the Provinces, many of whom are little better than executive councillors of counties!

"What shall I say of Mr. Whitney's views, especially as the Premier intimated that he spoke without knowing all the facts? Had Mr. Whitney expressed the correct view (which is my view), he would at once have been charged with lack of magnanimity. I have a very great respect and a sincere regard for Mr. Whitney, and I may remark in passing, that that honorable gentleman has, since his accession to the Premiership of Ontario, been nothing if not magnanimous, and even chivalrous. But Mr. Whitney is too essentially honest to deny the truth of my contention, and so he says, in the difficult circumstances of the interview, "Technically speaking, of course, the rule must govern."

"I repeat for the last time, that the according of the sham title of "Hon." to former Provincial Ministers is an odious and indefensible vulgarity; and, speaking for myself, I have not the least doubt that an application even at this late date to Downing street would prove that this humble scribe has correctly interpreted the spirit of the approved Royal regulations in this regard. The letter of them leaves no room for doubt at all. Why should we be so tender of the ridiculous susceptibilities of former Provincial Ministers? And if people are, why are they not equally carefully of the feelings of ex-mayors and other public officers who have to resign their official titles without a grimace."

"INTOXICATED MONEY."

A well dressed woman of twenty-five or forty (she didn't announce her age) bustled into a hill car yesterday morning. A little later the gaze of every passenger was fixed on her in mild astonishment. When the conductor presented himself she sprung the top of a plain leather bag, dove into it with a far-away look in her eyes, fished out a handful of crumpled, twisted bills, selected the one that pulled off easiest and passed it over. She didn't so much as glance at the notes and change she received. She threw them back into the reticule, shut it with a snap and busied herself with her thoughts.

Two men alighted at the foot of the dip. Said one: "Did you notice that woman who paid her fare as if she were playing a long shot in a race on a stake day? She's either very rich or very peculiar. Maybe she's both. At any rate, ninety-nine women out of one hundred open one of those small swinging trunks as it there were jumping frogs in it. Then they grope around carefully among handkerchiefs, prescriptions, keys, visiting cards, postage stamps and dress patterns till they find a purse. The purse has compartments and it contains all their cash, so that if they lose it they will be helpless. Finally they come to the sack in which their silver and copper are hidden and peck and peck. Usually they produce a nickel and five pennies; but if by any chance they have to break a bill they go over the remains as if they were bank tellers. But that woman I'm talking about carried a wad; that's the name of it; it wasn't a roll. It was a wad such as you see on good fellows who have been doing the town and who have money—what I call intoxicated money—in every pocket. That woman interested me."

Barnes—My, but it will cost more than ever to see the animal.

"So the lawyers got most all the estate. Did Ethel get anything?

"Oh, yes; she got one of the lawyers."

Hicks—I have frequently noticed that a financial crash is apt to follow upon the heels of a brilliant party.

Wicks—Just so. Lightning comes before the thunder, as it were.

"What I admire about Rojestvensky," said one Russian officer, "is his reckless bravery."

"Reckless bravery?"

"Yes; in allowing himself to get into the same ocean with the Japanese."

What an uncharitable world this is to be sure! You never hear anyone say he has lost his umbrella. He always declares that it has been stolen from him, notwithstanding that umbrellas though frequently found, are never stolen.

GAME LAWS.

A Kingsey Falls correspondent writes: "If we have game laws for the Province of Quebec it would be well they were enforced and not allow our animals to be slaughtered out of season. A game warden and bailiff would seem an acquisition to our vicinity at present."

"Are strikes frequent at your shop?"

"Gee, yes! Strikin' all the time."

"Where do you work?"

MRS. CHADWICK TELLS STORY.

Since Jan. 1, 1901, She Has Had Over $3,210,000.

SHE IS OFFERED BAIL BY WEALTHY CLEVELANDER.

Cleveland, O., May 19.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick has made a statement concerning her affairs in which she has told of the beginning of her financial troubles. She said: "Since Jan 1, 1901, I have had $3,210,000. Of this amount I borrowed not over $900,000, the remainder coming from a trust fund and some sales. In April or May, 1901, I owed only $900,000, the remainder coming from a trust fund and some sales. In April or May, 1901, I owed only $53,000. I paid that debt. I was then induced to make an investment which called for almost $400,000. I took no security for this investment and the transaction so far as I was concerned never materialized. The investment was made upon the advice of a friend."

After relating her experiences while abroad during which time her husband and her niece were ill for several months, Mrs. Chadwick said: "Early in February, 1902, after my return home I was informed that my investment was a loss and that I was in debt $400,000. Besides that sum there was an additional loss which I had incurred of $200,000. In order to meet these obligations I made large loans for which I paid heavy commissions. I have borrowed in all $900,000. I obtained $175,000 on my own note. A loan of $240,000 was secured by me on the indorsement of a prominent New Yorker. The other $400,000 I have mentioned before. I have been offered bail by a prominent Clevelander who wishes his name kept secret. I shall not accept freedom on such a condition. The person who makes the offer is wealthy."

CHICAGO STRIKE.

MISUNDERSTANDING CAUSES A HALT IN IMPENDING SETTLEMENT.

Chicago, May 19.—Peace in the teamsters' strike is still hanging in the balance, and although it is generally expected that a settlement will soon be reached, it seems further away than it did twenty-four hours ago.

It was confidentially asserted by the Team Owners' Association that the teamsters had consented to arbitrate with the boycotted houses. President Shea, of the Teamsters' Union, declared that he had never agreed to any such proposal. This misunderstanding caused a halt in the impending settlement.

For the first time in several days riots broke out yesterday, and there were numerous fights between non-union men and teamsters.
