CITY MAKES 4TH APPEAL FOR BOTTLES

Also Seeks to Salvage Broken Glass and Bottle Caps and Stoppers Containing Valuable Cork

The Westmount Salvage Campaign Committee is conducting its fourth special drive for bottles and broken glass throughout the current week and while no quota has been set the city is attempting to break previous records. Residents should, as usual, place bottles and broken glass alongside their garbage cans for collection on garbage removal days.

The bottles will be sold by the city to a bottling exchange while the broken glass will be sold to glass manufacturing companies.

With the exception of milk bottles, which are the property of the dairies, all types of glass containers have a definite market value. The city is also particularly anxious to salvage all types of bottle caps and stoppers as in many instances these are partially or wholly made of cork and have a high value.

While the city is making a special effort to salvage bottles and old glass from now until Saturday, it should be borne in mind that all articles which have any value for war use will be collected and waste paper, books, scrap metal, rags, rubber, etc., should be placed alongside garbage cans on garbage collection day. The local drive is conducted in conjunction with the National Salvage Campaign.

Officials of the drive pointed out that the salvage of glass serves a double purpose, as it not only increases its amount but also effects a considerable saving in foreign exchange as certain materials used in its manufacture must be imported into the country.

The phone number at Salvage headquarters is FL 8331.

C. L. COPLAND IS SPEAKER AT Y.P.U. MEETING

Addresses Westmount Park Church Group on Question of India

The Westmount Park Church Young People's Union held a successful Tuesday evening meeting. The meeting began in the spirit of fun with several games under the direction of Gladys Thornber.

This was followed by the speaker of the evening, C. Leslie Copland. Mr. Copland is a member of the Adult Education Study Group of the Church and spoke on the timely subject of "India". He gave a brief resume of the studies which the Group has made of the problems of India, and told the members of the history of the conditions which led to the visit of Sir Stafford Cripps. He touched on the meaning of the mission and the proposals of the British Government.

Margaret Cooke, a talented singer of the group, led a sing-song. Piano solos were rendered by Lillian Walker who played Tchaikovsky's "Concerto No. 2" and "Gypsy Rondo," and Elizabeth Webster who played Handel's "Largo".

The theme of the Worship Service was "Christian Soldiers." The service was led by Gordon Young, with the devotional and inspirational talk and prayer by Gladys Thornber. Wilma Pettigill was soloist for this part of the program singing expressively "The Old Rugged Cross," accompanied at the piano by Elizabeth Webster.

The meeting closed with informal recreation and refreshments were served.

The Y.P.U. announces a meeting next Tuesday, when a debate on the subject "Resolved that the Church has hindered Social Progress" will take place.

Corporal Grant Forrest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin S. Forrest, who has been on active service for two years, returned from Britain for special duty in Canada. He has left for Ontario after spending a short leave with his parents.

BUSINESS MEN WILL SPONSOR VICTORY REVUE

Net Proceeds From Sale of Tickets Will Aid Westmount Air Cadet Squadron

The net proceeds from the sale of tickets in aid of the No. 1 Westmount Squadron, Air Cadet League of Canada, a "Victory Revue" will be presented by the Business Association of Westmount in Victoria Hall on Saturday evening, April 25, commencing at 8.15 o'clock.

The revue, which is under the direction of Miss Betty Speirs, will be a variety entertainment comprising many of the best numbers from the War Services shows appearing currently at the many army camps throughout the country. A large number of the acts will be contributed by the Canadian Legion War Services—The Blue Bell Bullets, the T. Eaton Revue and the M.R.T. Tin Hats. With the exception of piano accompaniments all talent will be voluntary.

The show, which will last slightly over two hours, is expected to prove a wide attraction as it will not only provide an unusually attractive evening's entertainment, but will be a real contribution to the advancement of the Cadet Squadron.

Donald Ross, chairman of the association's entertainment committee, is in charge of arrangements.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE CAPT. E. EAGER

Academy Road Resident Had Spent 20 Years as Accountant on Liquor Board

The funeral service for Captain Geoffrey Eager, of 52 Academy road, was held in the Church of St. Augustine de Canterbury yesterday morning, followed by interment in Cote des Neiges Cemetery. Captain Eager died on Monday morning in St. Mary's Hospital following an illness of two months. He was 59 years of age.

Born in Dublin, Ireland, the son of Geoffrey Eager and Kate Jacques, he was educated there and came to Canada when he was 20 years old.

In 1914 he enlisted as an officer with the Seaforth Highlanders and went overseas, accompanied by his wife, who went as a nursing sister to serve in England. Later he transferred to the Army Service Corps and after the armistice was sent to Mesopotamia with a special commission, remaining there three years.

Since his return to Canada from service he lived in Montreal. At the onset of his recent illness he had spent 20 years as an accountant with the Quebec Liquor Commission.

He was a member of the United Services Club and the Knights of Columbus and, until a few years ago, of the Royal Yacht Club.

ORGANIZATION MEETING HELD BY PLANE CLUB

Model Group Will be Operated as Part of the City's Recreational Program

An organization meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon of the model aeroplane club. This club will be operated as part of the City recreation program of the Westmount Parks department.

Twenty-five prospective members attended the inaugural get-together and the opinion seemed that many more would be joining up at the next meeting. Unfortunately space will not allow many more members so that only a limited additional number can be accepted. Boys wishing to join this club should get in touch with recreation supervisor, Jimmie McCormick, at an early date.

The boys will have a large, bright club room to do their work in and will meet every Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. They will have space to leave their models at their table from meeting to meeting so that they will not have to bring them back and forward from home. Later on they will have the park available for test flights and contests. Building contests and flight contests will be held at regular intervals.

The following boys signified their intentions of becoming members of the club: Jack Dubney, Gordon Riddell, William Taylor, Douglas Reed, Lloyd Brown, Jan Sandzeilus, Christopher Armstrong, John O'Reilly, Chuck Clement, Gerald Pecknold, Barry Shaw, Brian Shaw, Martin Shaw, Peter Wilson, John Wilson, Alfred Howell, Kenneth Hansen, Carl Hansen, Allan Neilson and these boys acting as supervisors: Robert Grindley, John Dickens, Stephen Terry, Douglas Creighton, Ian Stewart and Derek Ramsay.

It is hoped to get more supervisors and in this way they will have a section of their own. The first regular working day of the club will be this Monday afternoon at four o'clock. The group will meet at the Greenhouse back of Victoria Hall.

Youngster Injured In Fall In School

Seven-year-old Philip Martin, of 35 Selby street, suffered a head wound requiring three stitches, when he slipped and fell, striking his head against a fire hose, while running in a corridor in St. Leo's Academy.

The boy was taken to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital by Constable Peter Morgan in a police radio car, and treated by Dr. Read.

He was allowed to return home following treatment.

FIRE HAZARDS DEMONSTRATION WILL BE GIVEN

Preventative Measures to Be Shown in Demonstration in St. Leo's Academy

Chief Instructor A. Brisebois of the Montreal Fire Department, assisted by Lieutenant Blackstead, will give a lecture, movie and demonstration of fire prevention measures at St. Leo's School Hall on Tuesday, April 14 at 3 p.m. The demonstration has been arranged through the Catholic Mothers Club of Westmount for the benefit of their members but any interested persons are invited to attend.

The various fire hazards, including the dangerous incendiary bomb, will be dealt with. The aim is to instruct the ordinary householder how to act in an emergency, how to prepare in advance and how to avoid unnecessary risks. The lecture and movie will be given in the School Assembly Hall, the demonstration in the school yard. Chief Brisebois will set and extinguish various types of fires. The audience will be invited to inspect and handle the equipment and materials used to extinguish fires.

This is information with which every householder should be acquainted more than ever in these hazardous times with the ever present possibility of sabotage and aid raids, the league points out.

Mr. Alcock stated that the accident occurred as he was turning onto Lorraine avenue from south on Claremont.

SNOWSHOE CLUB IS HOST TO 10 ORGANIZATIONS

Representatives of Service Groups Are Entertained at Seventh Annual Event

The seventh annual reception and luncheon to presidents of district service clubs or their representatives was held by the St. George Snowshoe Club, The Boulevard, on Saturday. Ten clubs were represented at the gathering.

G. M. Almond, president of St. George Club, extended a welcome to the visitors and then turned the chair over to Paul Borup, a past president of the club, and a Rotarian, who has presided at each of the seven annual functions of this nature held at the clubhouse on the Westmount mountainside.

Col. I. P. Rexford, representing Mayor Walter Merrill, extended a civil welcome to the visitors. Merlin Davies sang, accompanied by Fred Whiteley, at the piano.

Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon, D.D., minister of Erskine and American Church, was the guest speaker, his topic being "The World's Growing Pains." He pictured the present and previous war as "the unity of the world struggling for habitation." Confidence was expressed that a peaceful world would be attained, with victory for the democratic cause, and then intensive study would be given to righting the erroneous thinking that had brought repetition of wars, humanity being educated to seek remedial conditions in a more rational way.

Representatives were: Kiwanis, H. R. Mulvena; Rotary of Montreal, G. H. Harris; Progress, Horace Mason; Kinsmen, J. D. Young; Rotary of Westmount, Ewart Everson; Scottish Schools, Alex Watt; Lions, Dayton Grabbill; Westward Rotary, J. L. Pickering; St. Lawrence Kiwanis, Romuald Bourque; Optimist, Leo O. Lawkin.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1942

GRASS BURNS AGAIN

Although the snow is hardly off the ground, the annual problem of grass fires is with us again. Sunday's warm sun dried out the fields to such an extent that the grass made good fuel for the fires started by small boys, and the Fire Department began its Spring chore of getting these fires under control. Every year the police endeavour to prevent the epidemic, but without success. So long as there are matches within reach, and so long as the grass is abundant and dry, the boys will start fires. And, once started, they are soon out of control, especially if a wind is blowing. Then the youngsters run to the nearest fire alarm box, put in the alarm, and make themselves scarce. These fires are dangerous. There is always the possibility that the youngsters will be burned seriously, while fences and wooden buildings are frequently damaged. Only the prompt action of the firemen has, on more than one occasion, prevented substantial loss. The problem is one that obviously will have to be solved in the home, for it is almost impossible for the firemen and difficult for the police to apprehend the young culprits.

HINTS TO VOTERS

On April thirteenth, an army of enumerators will commence a house to house visitation throughout this district for the purpose of compiling a list of qualified voters who will determine, as far as this district is concerned, whether the government is to be released or not from its no-conscription pledge. Only one enumerator will work in each polling division this time, instead of the two who work together making the election lists. The work will be difficult for them, and they will need the co-operation of everyone to make it successful. The work will be in progress for a week, and the list compiled will be used by the deputy returning officers in taking the vote. Written acknowledgments will be given all qualified voters when the enumerators take the names, and these acknowledgments will also contain the location of the polling station where the elector is to cast his vote. It is important, therefore, that electors not only make sure that the enumerator puts the names of every voter in the house on his list when he calls but that he also lists the location of the booth at which they are to vote.

"YES"

As the date for the vote on the plebiscite approaches, there is evidence that the overwhelming "yes" vote that all patriotic Canadians want, might not be forthcoming. There are organizations assembling in many large centres to actively campaign for a "no" vote. If they are successful, the result will be a black eye that this nation will not recover from for a generation or more. A "no" answer will be interpreted in the U.S.A. as voting us out of the war, of telling our other Allies we are not whole-heartedly with them, of showing sympathy to the stand of the Petains, Franco, and De Valera. We mustn't let it happen. We can't let it happen. This vote will be taken just as Hitler's new army is getting into its stride in the Spring offensive against Russia. What encouragement for our ally a "no" vote would be! Lord Beaverbrook, the other day, told us that the hope of humanity hangs in the balance on the Russian front. If Russia goes, we go. Then our anti-imperialists, who seem to find the British connection so obnoxious, will get a taste of imperialism—Nazi imperialism—that they won't like. And if Russia falls, our anti-imperialists will never again get a chance to vote "no" or "yes" on any subject. Nor will their children. Vote "yes." Make it emphatic and overwhelming.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Recently the London Times, on its authoritative leader page carried an article by Sir William Beveridge, Master of University College, Oxford, and chairman of numerous economic bodies of empire importance. Sir William stated that "individual capitalism with its accompanying machinery of wage bargaining" left "vital production in the hands of individuals whose duty it is to consider not solely the needs of the nation but the interests of stockholders. Bribery by price or wage is often an ineffective spur to output. The time calls for two changes—first, for the state to take direct responsibility for the control of vital industries and for the distribution of income and, second, for the assertion of the principle that service rather than personal gain should be the main-spring of the war effort in industry as in fighting. To treat private gain as a dominant motive in the war effort is to slander our people. In war, the most effective spur to heroic efforts is an idea, not hope of personal gain."

"The Soviet Union is no Utopia, but neither is it a dismal hole of rags and hunger. The country is within hailing distance of what it intended being, or at any rate it is the closest approach to a state of socialism and communism this side of abstract theory. In any discussion of the Soviet Union all arguments in the last analysis narrow down to the question of whether a person wants socialism, security, and restricted existence, or whether he desires capitalism, insecurity, and freedom of action and speech."—Erskine Caldwell in "All Out On The Road To Smolensk." Collins publishers.

During these war days, the university has been learning many things. An Andean heart, larger, doing 20 per cent more work with lower pulse rate and blood with much higher capacity for oxygen is most likely to be the result of a race of aviators, said Dr. Carlos Monge of the University of San Marcos of Lima, Peru. Sulfanilamide has produced amazing changes in onion bulbs of major importance to botanists, said Dr. John M. Beal of the University of Chicago in a symposium on the growth differentiation in plants. The girl of today whose admiration and emulation no longer follows the best housewife of the community but the latest Hollywood star is producing major social changes of far reaching significance, Ernest Burgess of the University of Chicago reported to the clinic on education and environment. Franz Alexander declared in the same symposium that American scientists have led the world in freeing the social sciences from the domination of biology and heredity. Sigmund Freud was "too much of a biologist" and "not enough of a social scientist," he declared.

Robert Bridges, former editor of Scribner's Magazine and a well-known literary figure for many years, died September 2nd at the age of eighty-three. A widely published remark of his, not long ago, was that the last fifty years had been so interesting he wished he might live another fifty to see what would happen. This inspired someone to ask him who in the last fifty years had had the greatest influence on the times. Mr. Bridges' selections were Alexander Graham Bell, Thomas A. Edison,

Henry Ford, the Wright brothers and Guglielmo Marconi.

John M. Clark of Columbia University told the economists that we now have a "grab bag" economy in which the government grants special interests what they clamor for. Raleigh W. Stone of the University of Chicago said that the sum total of these demands soon would add up to more than the total national income can meet.

Dr. Hu Shih, Chinese ambassador to the United States, said that the reason Japan had become medieval and China modern in mind and spirit under the same process of westernization was because the process was carried on in Japan under direction and dictation while in China it took place in an atmosphere of freedom. This observation should explode forever the "ax-handle" or instrumental theory that social development comes through the invention of new utensils. Alfred E. Emmons, University of Chicago zoologist, said that the human race should study the insect world where social integration has progressed far enough for mutual independence but not far enough for a destructive competition. Social wars within the same species of insect society are virtually nonexistent.

President Hutchins told the symposium on ethics, politics and education that the sciences at best might help us to attain our ends if we know what those ends were. To discern and clarify those ends, he held to be the chief end of the university in our day and our main educational problem. Professor Taw-allow of London summarized the agreements of this symposium by saying that "social science tends to make man the victim of history." With that he ventured to affirm that they were agreed to disagree.

Runways of Canadian airports built in the past two years are the equivalent of 1,000 miles of 20-foot hard-surfaced roadway.

It is 520 feet from the massive west doors of New York's Cathedral of St. John the Divine to the altar. It will be the longest cathedral in America and the largest gothic cathedral in the world when completed. "It will have a seating capacity of from 15,000 to 20,000 and when the seats are removed there will be room for 40,000 standing worshippers. Twenty million dollars has been expended on the construction and it will take from ten to twelve million more to complete it."

WAR OUTPUT UP 2,000 PER CENT

British Munitions Factory Makes 20 Times More Shell Fuse Cases

Output of shell fuse cases in British munitions factory has been increased twentyfold after industrial psychologists had suggested improvements in methods of working. The job required careful hand-soldering of seams, and as the factory had lost most of its experienced soldiers, the weekly output was only 1,000 good cases, with several thousands rejects. But after various changes, of which the most important was a systematic training scheme based on careful study of hand and body movements, the output was raised to 20,000 cases a week, passed by the inspectors.

This is only one example of how trained psychologists from Britain's National Institute of Industrial Psychology have helped to speed up production in the war factories. Although the results are sometimes startling there is no particular magic about their job. It is based rather on a careful study of the physical movements entailed, on proper methods of instruction, and above all on interesting the trainees in their work.

Hours of wasted time have been saved merely by getting the trainees into the habit of arranging their tools around them in an orderly way and replacing them after use. Training is made interesting by interspersing hand work with general instruction so that trainees understand how their work fits into the general scheme. In tank factories, for example, they not only see their particular part assembled into the completed job, but are shown the tank in action.

Coil winding operatives trained by these methods were found to reach a standard of proficiency in good pieces was obtained, while only five days which previously had taken five weeks. Moreover, this was not achieved at the expense of output, for a 65 per cent increase in the average output of the scrap rate fell from 5-2 per cent.

Paris, wrote upon "The Revelation of Russia." He stressed the opposition in the Russian mind to all separation, division, differentiation of life into categories and spheres. Hence comes the capacity for radical experiments. "The Russian spirit is marked by universalism. Is not Russia's present war against Germany a symbol of her identification with the sacrifice for Europe?"

The SNAPSHOT GUILD BACKLIGHTING

Backlighting gives the very pleasing halo about this little girl's head. You can get similar effects in your pictures if you watch the light.

Lighting is, and always has been, of the greatest importance in picture-making—so today let's consider the subject of backlighting. There are several reasons why every photographer should frequently use backlighting in his picture-making. First, it's an excellent means of dramatizing any subject. Second, it's one of the primary methods of adding variety and extra interest to any snapshot collection. And, on the third count, it's one of the most effective tricks I know in producing out-of-the-ordinary pictures. All right, now what are the practical aspects of backlighting? In other words, how can it be made to work for you in your picture-making, rather than against you? Well, remember this: composing

Shaar Hashomayim Pupils Featured In Model Seder

Pupils of the Shaar Hashomayim religious schools anticipated the celebration of Passover with a colorful, melodious "Model Seder" last week under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association. The entire Seder ritual was portrayed and the beautiful Passover melodies were sung. The many parents, teachers and friends present were greeted by L. J. Shine, president of the association. Interesting and informative comments on the various ceremonial and symbols of the Passover table were given by Dr. Abramowitz. The committee in charge of arrangements consisted of Mrs. Herbert Vineberg, chairman; Mrs. M. A. Brown, Mrs. J. J. Block, Mrs. M. N. Fineberg and Mrs. H. Kirsch. Barril Fine presided at the Seder table assisted by Louisa Kirk and the following pupils: Stanley Abbey, Lella Auerbach, Stanley Berovitch, Jules Blond, David Cohen, Boris Denbow, Roslyn Faber, Trevor Fineberg, Alan Friendman, Trilixie Hudaly, Ruth Hyams, Ruth Janner, Bacla Kramler, Herbert Marks, Eric May, Derek Miller, Eleanor Zablitzky, Lois Pearson, Marianne Roos, Connie Rosenhek, Deborah Schwartz, Barbara Sebat, Jack Silver, Herbert Streen, Gloria Victor and Trina Vineberg. FIELD COMPANY OF ENGINEERS SEEKS RECRUITS

Unit Has Been Ordered to Supply Personnel for New Reserve Army Brigade

The 16th Field Company, Royal Canadian Engineers, have been ordered to supply the engineer personnel for the new Reserve Army Brigade in Military District No. 4.

The formation of this brigade brings the opportunity for more active service in the war to those men over the age of thirty-five. There seems to be little doubt that the brigade units are to see intensified training in the coming months. Much of this will be along the lines of modern warfare and with the issue of additional equipment, of the types now in use, the home army will see training similar to that of the active force. Well-learned manoeuvres will add new interest to the annual training period. These trainings will be conducted under conditions resembling as closely as possible those of active service. A quick dash in modern army vehicles to a supposedly threatened locality; meals cooked and eaten in the open, night manoeuvres and then bivouac under the stars followed by another day of training. The field company of Engineers will play a full part in any such activity.

Instruction in the use of the Bren Gun is now being given the unit by QMS Parker. This instruction will continue until each man is capable of using this modern weapon to its full capacity.

As the unit is now being brought up to full strength, men who have a desire to serve their country are being asked to offer themselves for interesting and valuable training in this specialist branch of the service.

Parades are held each Monday and Thursday at the Verdun Auditorium, 4119 Lasalle Blvd.

Children To Give Eastertide Show

A talented group of West End children have given up much of their spare time to aid important causes. In the Christmas holidays they put on a little show entitled "New Year Revue" for the Queen's Canadian Fund. In February they played again for the V Bandages of Montreal; the performance then was called "Valentine Revue". Next Saturday, April 4th, they will put on a revised and enlarged edition of the show at Tudor Hall, "Easter Revue" in aid of the Canadian Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The entertainment consists of songs, dances, and recitations; and two short plays, "The Robin Family" and "All About Squirrels". It is written and produced by Elizabeth Douglas (Mrs. Kennedy G. Mappin), whose name is known as the author of the new song hit, "Wings for Britain" and also a more recent marching song, "The Swing of the Kilt" which has its premises on The Grenadier Guards Band CBM hook-up, March 25th. The children in the cast include: Willa Benson, George Benson,

Rover Sea Scout Routine Keeps British Tradition

(The third in a series of articles in which Rover Sea Scout activities are being outlined.) Generations of British seafaring men have passed down to the Rover Sea Scouts certain codes of conduct and etiquette to be observed on shipboard. No part of the Rover Sea Scout program follows them more closely than does the Ship's Ceremonies conducted at every meeting.

The moment before a Sea Scout Landship is manned is a tense, exciting one. The Officer of the Deck has seen that all is in readiness, the quarter-deck set up and the flags bent on the halyards for "Making Bunting."

"Bos'n Mates, muster your crews." The call is piped shrilly, watches quickly fall in as the crew tumbles on deck. The Sea Scout opening Ceremony is under way. Side Boys and Color Parties are detailed. The Colors are made. All hands know their jobs. Nothing is slouched, nothing fumbled. A deep sense of pride and satisfaction is everywhere.

Side boys are piped to their stations, the Ship's Company comes smartly to the "alert" and then the Skipper appears at the gangway and is piped aboard by the Bos'n. The "Blue Peter," signal that the ship is about to sail, is lowered and the ship is then considered to be under way.

After inspection of the Ship's Company by the Skipper, the Landship really goes into action, with the strict discipline of the parade being relaxed and the good fellowship of Rover Sea Scouting prevailing.

Now begins an interesting evening of instruction and fun. The first period of instruction is usually that pertaining to the tests which the boy must pass to achieve higher rating in Rover Sea Scouting. Walking the deck, one sees busily engaged at the subjects, of the requirements for passing their "Ordinary Rover Sea Scout" rating badge tests. Such as Sea Lore, Points of the Compass, Purposes and advantages of various types of vessels, Morse Signalling, Elementary navigation, and many other things both useful and interesting.

On the foredeck a group of boys who have already passed their "Ordinary" tests are working on the succeeding ones for "Able Rover Sea Scout" and learning such subjects as chart-work, Evolution of Ships, Splicing, Advanced First Aid and the safety precautions which should be observed aboard Ships of all kinds.

A period of general instruction for the whole Ship's Company follows after this one of Rating Test Instruction. To-night Morse Signalling is being taken up and the sound of the buzzer rises above all others. This is a subject of importance these days, when the knowledge of transmitting messages by sound or light is so useful in all branches of our country's war effort.

To acquaint and train the Crew for work aloft in the rigging, a few minutes is next spent on instruction and the practice in rope-climbing. Boys who may be at climbing above the deck are taught how to remain and work safely up the masts.

Suddenly a clanging of the Ship's bell warns us that a Fire Drill is about to take place. Without further orders the machinery of an efficient organization is set into play as every man aboard the Landship promptly leaves his work and doubles off to his assigned duty. Crews are soon at the hoses, signalmen stand by to relay orders to the balance of the fleet, and a first-aid station is set up at the break of the poop deck. At the order "secure" the Fire Drill equipment is replaced and the Sea Scouts double off to the classroom for First-Aid instruction. The Rover Sea Scout program provides a course of First-Aid that enables the boy to be ready for expert service to his family or community at any time.

As all work and no play would make a very dull Sea Scout, the evening is ended with a lively game or the singing of the traditional Sea Shanties handed down from the days of the mighty sailing ships.

Our evening of Sea Scouting is coming to a close, we enter port and come to anchor once more. It is time for the Skipper to go ashore and he is piped overboard by the Bos'n in the same manner as when he came aboard. The Ship's colors are then struck and the Ship's Company dismissed. Another week's cruise has come to a happy end.

(To be continued next week: Summer Activities)

Note: There are still a few vacancies in the Royal St. Lawrence Rover Sea Scouts. Meetings as described above are held weekly on Thursday evenings at 8:00 p.m. in the gymnasium of the Roslyn School, Westmount. Further information can be had from the skipper F. A. Gnaedinger at WE. 6978 or the Mate R. A. Stikeman at FI. 4043.

Turbans Loom Tall On Spring Horizon

War or no war, spring bonnets will play their annual role as one of the most welcome signs that winter is behind us and sunny days ahead. Prominent among the spring hats looming upon the fashion horizon are turbans. Some are snug, some tower high, some are plain, some befowered and beribboned. There are wrap-around, hand-crochets and others built up of woven materials. A trio of outstanding models is pictured here. At left, above, is a turban showing distinct Russian influence. It's hand-woven of straw fabric yarn in which a metallic thread has been woven. Joseph designed the high, draped turbans at right. It's of straw fab-

Scrub orange, cut in quarters, remove seeds and all coarse membranes. Cut, crosswise, in very thin slices. The WOMAN'S Page

EVERYTHING CONSIDERED

BY GERALDINE BRIETZKE

Couldn't something be done about the stories in women's magazines? The sound and solid ones seem so few and far between, these days. And those adorable, lively and lovely illustrations that embroider the pages of these journals for females—too often they're an insult to the artist. Because it is an insult, to ask him to waste his time and talent dressing up ridiculous yarns to make them palatable for the feminine public. Artists must live, however, and the merry round goes on.

We have no quarrel with the cleverness and vitality of real women novelists and their works, of course. But once the magazine question comes into a writer's life, he or she (mostly she) seems to take the attitude that, "If they're dumb enough to go for this sort of thing, let them have it." Technically, that's known as slanting. So the authors get their cheques, we women get the magazines, and there we are with another month's subscription moved through our letter box.

But how often have you put down a magazine after reading about some joyful little tidbit called Janey May, who twists her father around her finger and deceives everyone in the cutest way—plus a long bob and beautiful clothes—and said to yourself, "Oh me. Here's another."

The tense cockeyed-ness of the heroines in the long "serious" serials is also too bad. The dramatic but slightly out of focus way in which the writer portrays the feelings of her puppets is irritating and funny at the same time. "She looked at him through a mist of joy, and felt her heart pounding frantically to match the beat of her surging spirit." You know.

We're not being kind, at all. But we can't help wondering what happens to sixteen-year-olds who take those stories for true pictures of life. Do they try to look at people through a mist of joy, or do they just content themselves with being like Janey May?

Hints for the Horse: Next time you go riding, don't fill your pockets with sugar for the horse. People are very polite and don't like to snub you when you start stuffing their animals with sweet things in the stable, but there's nothing like the cupboard love of a horse once it gets a good start. There comes a time when it's a case of "gimme some sugar or else!" and all sorts of strange and unhealthy habits take hold of the horse in consequence.

Apples or carrots are all right as a reward, and should be given

LISLESS FEELING IS ATTRIBUTED TO LACK OF VITAMIN C

It is springtime, but in spite of it many people are feeling listless and run-down. Nutrition Services of the Department of Pension and National Health can give a sound reason for the spring tiredness. They say that at this time of year and for some weeks past there has been less Vitamin C in daily menus, because the variety of garden-fresh fruits and vegetables is much reduced and those that survived winter storage have inevitably lost some of their vitamin content.

Grandmama, in her time dosed her family with sulphur and molasses in the spring, but nutritionists today advise housewives to deal with the situation by preparing meals to include as much Vitamin C as possible.

Cooking potatoes in their skins is one way to do this. Baked in the oven, split and buttered, they are always a favourite. If boiled, the skins should be removed before serving either whole or mashed seasoning and a parsley garnish.

Canned tomatoes are a good economical source of Vitamin C. If served hot, they should be brought just to the boil and then removed from the stove. Do not leave to simmer or the Vitamin will be destroyed.

One more tip. Try raw rhubarb in a cottage cheese or cabbage salad. It should be thinly sliced across the stalk and soaked for a short time in French dressing, before being added to the other ingredients. It tastes good, and the Vitamin C it contains will act as a pleasant spring tonic.

POINTS FOR ACTION BY UNITED NATIONS OUTLINED IN TALK

Several definitive points as a nucleus for action by the United Nations following the cessation of hostilities, were outlined by J. Wilfred Shaw, in an address entitled "The Next Beginning," at the monthly meeting of the West End Study Group of the League of Nations Society in Canada, held on Friday at the home of Mrs. Gordon Snell, 3769 Marlowe avenue, under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. Wilfred Shaw. There was a large attendance of members, including representatives from most of the women's clubs in the district.

The group approved of the donation of $10 dollars to the League Society, and it was announced that the annual meeting of the Montreal branch of the Society will be held in the Ritz-Carlton hotel at Caswyde ETAOIN NNN April 10, when the principal speaker will be the Ven. Archdeacon Gower-Rees.

The next monthly meeting of the group will be held on April 20, when the first of four talks on first aid and ARP work will be given. Arrangements for this course are under the direction of Mrs. Leslie H. Boyd, of the St. John's Ambulance Brigade (Nursing Division).

More extensive housewife-cooperation with the Wartime Prices and Trade Board with regard to the price ceiling laws was urged by Mrs. G. F. W. Kuhring, who distributed cost-record books for this purpose.

Mrs. Archibald R. Stalker thanked the speaker.

Tea hostesses were Mesdames Robert Ramsay, Victor Fuller and J. Narsted.

Your Child And You

By DR. FRANCES S. ALEXANDER

Dr. Alexander is associated as consulting psychologist with the Psychological Institute of Montreal and directs its Child Guidance Division.

SKIPPING GRADES AT SCHOOL

Edward was an eight-year-old boy in the third grade at school. He did his lessons well and brought home a report card with all subjects excellent. His teacher was not only satisfied with his school progress, but also considered Edward perfect in deportment. He always did as he was told. She frequently called upon him to be monitor, and at all times he was willing to stay after school and do little chores for her. The teacher considered him a perfect pupil and recommended to his parents that he skip a grade. What the teacher failed to notice was that Edward had no friends, that the other children in the class ignored or ridiculed him, calling him "teacher's pet" and a baby. He never included in their fun. His parents were exceptionally proud when his teacher telephoned to say that Edward had been given a mental test and that his IQ had been found to be very superior.

This is an example of a very bright child, who is doing school work consistent with his intellectual capacity, but who is definitely retarded in social adjustment. His mother had noticed that he had never formed any close attachments to other children. He had to be forced to go out of doors and much preferred to stay around the house and read. In caring for himself physically, he was very childish, requiring help in dressing and bathing. He seemed to have no interests except school and books.

His parents, desirous of doing the best they could for their child, went to the school principal to discuss the advisability of Edward skipping a grade. The principal asked many questions concerning how Edward spent his time after school. He pointed out that Edward was one of the youngest children in the third grade and that he would be fully a year younger than any child in Grade IV, if he was put ahead a year. Other than in school work and intelligence, he was much less mature than the Grade IV pupils. The principal seemed concerned when Edward's mother reported that Edward had no friends and spent most of his time reading. To the mother's surprise, he disagreed with Edward's teacher about skipping the child in the middle of the term. He pointed out that although Edward showed every promise of being a scholar, he was not developing as a person. He suggested that the mother do everything to foster independence in the child's habits, that she invite children in to play with him and recommended that the child be sent to a summer camp in order to interest Edward in outdoor activities.

The principal's decisions proved to be very wise. Edward was fortunate in having a counselor at the camp who took the trouble to give special attention to him. He came home a different child, interested in swimming and baseball and very thrilled with his success in dramatics. The following school year he did well in his studies, but he also had time and interest for play and making friends.

The brilliant scholar who is shy, withdrawn into himself, who has no outside interests is known as a "bookworm." It is not surprising that Edward's mother reported that Edward had no friends and spent most of his time reading. To the mother's surprise, he disagreed with Edward's teacher about skipping the child in the middle of the term. He pointed out that although Edward showed every promise of being a scholar, he was not developing as a person. Easter Song

By Elizabeth Douglas

Wake up, wake up, it's Eastertide; the world is all alight
With lovely promise of new life, The winter's long dark night
Is over. Once again we know the beauty of the Spring,
And our hearts, with all creation, want to sing, "Wake up!"
Wake up, the miracle of love has happened once again.
Instead of winter's sad grey frown, the gentle sun and rain.
The buds, the newborn lambs and foals, the rabbits and the birds.
Each, in their own way seem to sing the words, "Wake up."
So all the little furry creatures, all the great ones too,
The tinkling brooks. . . the birds awing, feel just like me and you!
The Lord is risen, we feel his love, each creature he has made.
Lift up your hearts, dear ones, be not afraid; wake up!

ROAST LOIN OF PORK

Loin of pork, salt and pepper. Season pork loin with salt and pepper and place fat side up in open roasting pan. Loin roast needs no rack. Place in moderate oven (350° F.). Do not cover pan.

Basting is not necessary. The fat will melt and run over and into the roast. A meat thermometer is best way of telling when roast is done. Insert in the center of thickest part of roast. Roast will be done when thermometer reads 185° F., or allow 30 to 35 minutes per pound.

Nelson Eddy, Rise Stevens A Brilliant Singing Team

Music lovers, regardless of their tastes, have a treat in store for them at the Monkland United theatre, where "The Chocolate Soldier," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new musical comedy, starring Nelson Eddy and Rise Stevens, opened yesterday.

M-G-M has drawn from the popular Oscar Straus numbers, from opera and from classics, embellished with new and modern arrangements, to round out a musical repertoire for Eddy and Miss Stevens that is all-embracing.

A brilliant production, musically and dramatically, it serves as an excellent vehicle with which to introduce Miss Stevens, Hollywood's newest singing star, who comes to the screen from the Metropolitan opera.

A well-rounded cast is seen in support of the stars, with prominent roles played by Nigel Bruce, Florence Bates, remembered for her mother-in-law portrayal in "Love Crazy," Dorothy Gilmore, Nydia Westman, Max Barwyn and Charles Judels.

SNOWDON PRESENTS 'ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN'

'Spy in the Pantry' Is Kent Feature

"One Foot In Heaven" the Frederic March-Martha Scott co-starring film which goes into the Snowdon Theatre Friday has something brand new to offer in the way of screen entertainment. Based on the best-selling novel by Hartsell Spence it tells the story of a practical parson and his family in the first part of the present century. Spence's own family are the characters in the real-life story, and they have been brought to life delightfully by an able cast of players.

A pistol shot in the night... a love note from a girl he never knew... a dynamite-laden holocaust on wheels... together they spell "Spy in the Pantry," hailed as a thrill-filled spell of intriguing drama! The new Columbia film, starting Saturday at the Kent Theatre, was directed by Tim Whelan and stars Rex Harrison, the young Englishman who appeared with Merle Oberon in "Over the Moon" and in "Sidewalks of London," with Vivien Leigh and Charles Laughton.

There is humor, warmth and the spirit of abiding faith in the story of the man who served God nobly, with one foot in heaven and the other very solidly on the ground. His was no Sunday job, but an all week job of solving the problems, easing the sorrows and sharing the joys of his congregation. In his tasks he is ably assisted by his wife who stands by him in all times of stress and subtly engineers him into the right decision in many of his problems. To their very human youngsters falls the task of serving as models for the other children of the congregation and the job isn't always an easy one. Romance and drama and rich "homey" humor are integral parts of the Spence family and they are integral parts of the picture. Besides Frederic March and Martha Scott the talented cast includes Harry Davenport, Beulah Bondi, Moroni Olsen, Jerome Cowan, Ernest Cossart and Roscoe Ates.

Harrison is seen as a young member of the British peerage who recovers consciousness in a Paris nursing home ten days after an airplane crash, to find that he has been hospitalized for a bullet wound! An obvious amnesia victim, he attempts to retrace his steps for the ten days in which his mind had been blank, to discover who shot him and why. He learns that he is employed as a chauffeur in the home of a French military officer, that his employer's grand-daughter is a very attractive young woman indeed, and that he himself is an accredited member of an enemy spy ring.

The added attractions on this splendid programme are "The Carter Case" adapted from the popular radio-serial and featuring James Ellison and Frances Gifford and "The Red Army" the splendid two-reel subject produced by the Soviet government. Highlights from the combined world-coverage newsreels of Paramount, Fox and British Empire News will also be seen.

Harrisons flair for debonair comedy is especially marked in "Spy in the Pantry" which offers him his strongest screen role to date. Opposite him is lovely Karen Verne, who makes her motion picture debut, and others in the cast include C. V. France, John Abbott, Joan Marion, Leo Genn and Anthony Holles. Irving Asher, the maker of "Clouds Over Europe," "U-Boat 29" and other fine films, produced "Spy in the Pantry," which is based upon a Bruce Graeme best-seller.

THREE STARS SHINE IN H.M. PULHAM, ESQ.

The eagerly-awaited filming of John P. Marquand's novel, "H. M. Pulham, Esq.," which topped the country's best-seller lists for many months, came to the Westmount United screen last night, with Hedy Lamarr, Robert Young and Ruth Hussey in the major roles, and proved absorbing film entertainment.

York Film Shows March As Parson

Martha Scott sat alone and Frederic March strode over to her. He wore a frock coat, proper costume, in 1904, for the minister he portrays. Miss Scott was his wife. They had just moved into their first parsonage, a sorry enough looking building in a small Iowa town. The good ladies of the congregation had taken over the job of cleaning the parsonage, and she had taken refuge in the attic.

Hedy Lamarr's portrayal of Marvin Myles, the young advertising copy writer who scorns the placidity of a conservative Boston existence, is undoubtedly the finest role of her film career. She looks and acts the part of a typical American business girl, even to forsaking her glamour bob, and wearing glasses. Young is perfectly cast as Harry Pulham, and takes every opportunity of a role which has him in almost every scene of the picture, and which covers a span of more than twenty years. Ruth Hussey, also, is an excellent choice for the role of the typically Bostonian, Kay Motford, who makes Pulham a good if unexciting wife.

It was a scene from "One foot in Heaven," which is now playing at the York United Theatre. "What on earth are you doing up here?" March asked. "They wouldn't let me touch a thing," Miss Scott answered between suppressed snuffles. March dropped down beside her on the dusty floor. "Lesson one," he said understandingly, "the parsonage belongs to the ladies of the congregation... But they're good folk, Hope—look at the gifts they brought—a table full of pies and cakes... kindly, and friendly—and sometimes as thoughtless as children. Of such is the kingdom of heaven." Miss Scott smiled through her tears, snuggled her head to the refuge of his shoulder. Seated there on the dusty floor, leaning against a battered trunk, the two stars played their first love scene for the picture.

It's all very well to say "Turn the other cheek," but Rex Harrison obviously doesn't think so much of that as a solution! City To Vie For Provincial Crown Saturday

GOLDEN EAGLES WILL MEET QUEBEC CITY AGGREGATION IN SUDDEN-DEATH ENCOUNTER

Saturday afternoon is the big day for Dougie Alexander's Golden Eagles hockey team, for this is the day the Golden Eagles meet the Quebec City team for Q.A.H.A. juvenile championship of the Province of Quebec. The Golden Eagles, winners of the title in the Westmount Municipal Hockey League are carrying the banner of the Island of Montreal in this series. The local team eliminated the Sherbrooke entrants in the semi-finals two weeks ago when they defeated the Eastern Townships team at Sherbrooke 3-1 in a sudden-death affair.

The final game will be part of a twin-bill which will see the Quebec City midgets play the Verdun Maroons in the first game with the juvenile fixture as the night-cap. The double-header will be staged at the Forum with the first game scheduled to start at one forty-five.

While the Golden Eagles have no worries financially in the series they would like to see a large crowd of Westmounters at the game as every supporter is a great help in an affair of this sort. This marks the first time a Westmount team has progressed this far in the provincial play-downs, so how about getting behind them and cheering them on.

The Golden Eagles have a remarkable record for the year, not including the seven or eight exhibition wins, the local champions have marked up fourteen straight victories in league and play-off competition. The first eight wins came in the Westmount Municipal League, then two victories over the Stoyner Hawks in the league play-offs. Three more victories came in the Q.A.H.A. play-downs for Montreal teams when the Golden Eagles defeated the Park Extension, Lachine and N.D.G. representatives in that order. Only one of these games was closely contested, the final fixture with the N.D.G. squad which went into overtime before Sonny Provost broke it up with a goal which gave the Golden Eagles a 2-1 win. The Westmounters then eliminated Sherbrooke 3-1 at Sherbrooke in the provincial semi-final.

During this fourteen game win streak the Golden Eagles have scored 73 goals and have been scored on only fourteen times.

Dougie Alexander has a well balanced aggregation with two high scoring forward lines who also backcheck. Four reliable defencemen and a good goalkeeper make up the balance of the team. With no weaknesses of

Fitzsimmons Expects To Win Dozen Or More Games At 41

VETERAN HAS CAPTURED 22 OF LAST 25

In This Corner

BY HARRY GRAYSON
DAYTONA BEACH—Watching Fred Landis Fitzsimmons hop around here in his triple capacity of pitcher, coach and fungo hitter, you wouldn't suspect the Round Man will be 41 come July 28.

He's a wonder is Fat Freddie... talking of winning a dozen or more games for the Brooklynns at an age when most guys consider watering the lawn strenuous exercise.

Fitzsimmons represents one of the best trades ever engineered by a ball club. Bill Terry traded the old Giant standby for Tom Baker, a nondescript recruit right-hander, in mid-term, 1937. Baker has disappeared from the big league scene.

In four years, Fitz has bagged no fewer than 40 games for the Dodgers. He has become an institution in Flatbush.

The old bloke with the pretzel windup and fluttery knuckle ball actually improves with age.

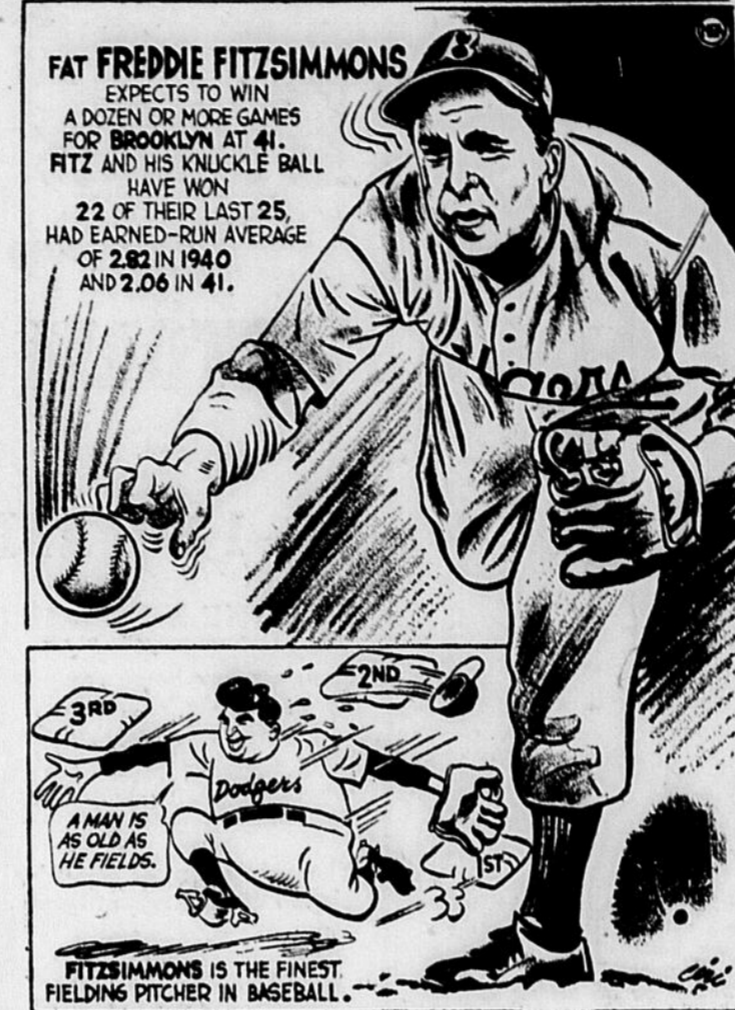

FREAK ACCIDENT KEEPS FITZ OUT FOR WEEKS

He topped the National League in winning percentage in 1940 with 16 victories as against only two reverses. He won six straight last season, and the one he dropped was booted away. He has topped 22 of his last 25.

He might have pinned back the ears of the Yankees in the world series had not Marius Russo actually knocked him from the box with a line drive to the knee. He sported an earned-run average of 2.82 in 1940, 2.06 last trip.

His record as a Superba would be even more impressive had he not been the victim of a freak accident a year ago.

Fitz was standing in the third base coach's box with Cookie Lavagetto's glove dangling from the fingers of his throwing hand. Slipping up behind him, Muscles Medwick playfully yanked the glove. Fitz tightened his grip instinctively, and something snapped in his arm. It was weeks before he could throw the ball.

OTT OFFERS FITZ A POST, BUT HE'S SET IN BROOKLYN

Fitz, the best fielding pitcher in the business, can't pitch as often as he formerly did, but he's still a deceptive gent at spot pitching and in a particularly important assignment. His effectiveness increases with the toughness of the job.

Mel Ott showed what he thought of Fitz being shipped after spending 12 years with the Giants. Ott's first move when he was picked to head the Polo Grounds was to seek his longtime teammate as a coach and right hand man.

But Fitz is a 100 per cent Dodger now, and then Beautiful Bums have long since taken the play away from the Giants. If Larry MacPhail decided to change managers, it would surprise practically no one to see him name Fitz. The Chubby One has a post in the Brooklyn organization as long as the Red Rooster runs the works. He opened bowling alleys in the borough during the winter.

The Giants kicked Fitzsimmons upstairs and have been kicking themselves ever since.

Pen-Picture Is Given Of Players On Golden Eagles

The following is a brief pen-picture of the players on the Golden Eagles roster who are determined to bring the Q.A.H.A. Provincial juvenile hockey championship to Westmount on Saturday when they meet the Quebec City team in a sudden-death encounter at the Forum:

Kevin Kennedy—Goal-keeper. Age, 17 years; height, 5'7"; weight, 123 lbs. Kennedy played for the Argos juveniles last year when he was judged the league's most valuable player. Kennedy scored four shut-outs this year and has only had fourteen goals scored on him in fourteen games. The slim net-minder has been a standout throughout the season, playing a whale of a game against the N.D.G. team in the city finals. Kennedy has one more year of juvenile hockey, he also plays softball, hardball and rugby. Made this year's all-star team.

Sonny Provost—Right defence. Age, 18 years; height, 5'10"; weight, 140 lbs. Provost played very little hockey last year with the exception of some school hockey at St. Leo's Academy. Provost has been a valuable asset in the play-offs, scoring goals when they were needed, sinking the winning tally against N.D.G. in overtime. Provost scored eight goals and accounted for three assists in the twelve games he has played this year. This is Provost's last year in juvenile company. He also plays softball for the champion Royals.

Hugh Brodie—Left defence. Age, 17; height, 5'7"; weight, 132 lbs. Brodie played defence on last year's Golden Eagles team and although short on weight and size is a steady defenceman who receives very few penalties. Does very little offensive work and has only scored one goal and three assists this year in twelve games. Brodie is top ranking junior tennis player as well as a member of the Dodgers softball team. This is his last year in the juveniles, he was chosen on this year's all-star team.

Adrian Lunny—Right defence. Age, 17; height, 5'10"; weight, 168 lbs. Lunny played for the Argos in the Westmount Municipal League last year, and for St. Leo's Academy. Lunny is another high scoring defenceman and accounted for six goals and three assists in the fourteen games schedule. This is Lunny's last year as a juvenile.

Ian Pocock—Left defence. Age, 18; height, 6'1"; weight, 175 lbs. Pocock is the tallest man on the squad but has not played in the play-downs as he has been busy working nights. Played for Golden Eagles last season and Westmount High. Pocock appeared in seven games and registered four assists, this is his last year as a juvenile.

John Porter—Left defence. Age, 17; height, 6'; weight, 178 lbs. Porter played for Bert Daltzell's Canadiens last season and with the Westmount High team this year. Has only appeared in six of the Golden Eagles' games and has scored one goal, one assist. Porter is also a star rugby player with the Westmount High senior championship team, he has one more year of juvenile hockey.

Eduard Read—Center. Age, 16; height, 5'10"; weight, 151 lbs. Read played for the Canadiens last year and switched over to the Golden Eagles this season with team-mate Johnnie Chenier. Read has played in thirteen of the Golden Eagles games, scoring nine goals and eleven assists. Read has two more years of juvenile hockey, he also played softball with the Dodgers last year, and hardball with the Westmount juveniles.

John Chenier—Left wing. Age, 16; height, 5'7"; weight, 148 lbs. Chenier a member of the Canadiens last year is the highest scorer on Alexander's team. Chenier ended up tied with Donnie Mann as the loop's leading point getter, but Chenier has gone ahead in the play-offs and has now scored eighteen goals and six assists for twenty-four points. Twice this season Chenier has accomplished the "hat-trick" of scoring three goals. Chenier has one more year of juvenile hockey ahead of him. He is a baseball player in the intermediate league in the summertime. Chenier was picked on the all-star team this year.

John Peirson—Right wing. Age, 16; height, 5'10"; weight, 145 lbs. Peirson is a graduate from the Beavers' midget team of last year and has also played for the Westmount High seniors this season. He has played in twelve of the Golden Eagles' games and scored eight goals and thirteen assists. Peirson is the third member of the C.P.R. and has one more year of juvenile hockey, he was selected on the all-star team.

Donald Mann—Left wing. Age, 16; height, 6'; weight, 170 lbs. Mann is a veteran member of the team, playing for Alexander the past three years, he came along through the final stages of the season in a scoring spurge that brought him up with the top scorers. At the present time Mann has scored eleven goals and seven assists in the fourteen games. A deft stick-handler, Mann specializes in capitalizing on scoring opportunities around the opponent's nets. Mann also played softball for the Dodgers last Summer, he has one more year of juvenile hockey.

Noel Romney—Center. Age, 17; height, 5'11"; weight, 160 lbs. Romney played for the Golden Eagles last year and has only come into his own in the latter part of this season. Not a prolific scorer, Romney has accounted for ten assists and but three goals. Romney was picked as center man on this year's all-star team. He has one more year in the juvenile ranks. Romney played softball with the Dodgers and baseball with the Westmount juveniles.

Stuart Beaulne—Right wing. Age, 17; height, 5'8"; weight, 145 lbs. Beaulne is a hard worker and a great back-checker, has scored six goals and three assists in thirteen games, and has been playing smart hockey in the play-offs. Beaulne can also drop back to the defence. He played for The Golden Eagles last year and has one more year of juvenile hockey. Beaulne played softball for the Dodgers.

Charles Laurendeau—Left wing. Age, 18; height, 5'9"; weight, 145 lbs. Slim left winger who has not made an appearance in the play-offs, played for the Golden Eagles last year. Laurendeau picked up one assist in six games this season. He is a former St. Leo's Academy player, this is his last year as a juvenile.

Douglas Alexander—Coach and manager. Alexander has been piloting teams in the Westmount league for four or five years but this has been his best season yet. Using the nucleus of his Golden Eagles of last year to weld together a winner, Alexander has been very successful. He has kept harmony in the team and the boys go all out for him. Alexander is also softball player with the Dodgers in the Summer.

Ball-Retrieving Now Big Business

MIAMI, FLA. — The rubber crisis has boosted the retrieving of golf balls from water hazards into the realm of a big business which today received official recognition from the Professional Golfers' Association.

Fred Corcoran, tournament manager for P.G.A., entered an agreement with a trio of men who have retrieved as many as 75,000 lost balls in a single day. Their salvage operations in water holes on golf links averages them 500,000 balls a year.

They use a diver's helmet fed by a gasoline-driven air pump, and if the pickings are good, move in a dredge that lifts balls by the hundreds from their hiding places. They estimate that some golf courses have as many as 1,000,000 lost balls in water holes today, and any number have up to 500,000.

That's not potatoes," said Corcoran. "That may mean the continuation of golf as recreation for many hundreds of people who otherwise would have to quit. Retrieved balls can be used for practice or for shots where a good ball might be lost, and the new ones saved for real play."

Sweet Music May Be Taken Out Of Bowling

COLUMBUS, O. — The clatter and ring of bowling pins, sweet music to the ears of the nation's bowlers, may be on the way out.

Plastic pins and balls of some substance other than the rubber composition now in use might be necessary because of war priorities, C. O. Collier, bowling engineer for an equipment company, said today at the American Bowling Congress.

"I understand our laboratories have perfected a substance to replace the rubber shell which we use to cover the core of a bowling ball," he said. "I haven't seen it, but I know that plastic pins may be a reality in the near future."

"We've experimented with plastic pins but nothing can duplicate that hollow ring of maple-wood. The bowler won't quit the sport even though he can't get the sound, so long as he gets the action at the other end of the alley."

Physical Fitness Through Exercise And Diet

(This is another in a series of health articles by P. M. McFarlane, Physical Director at Westmount Y.M.C.A.)

This article will deal with the question, "Why is Milk To Be Included In The Diet," because this very important liquid should be recognized as being one of our most valuable foods. Its place in every diet is unquestionable.

Milk is very nearly a perfect food in itself. It contains all of the vitamins and a good percentage of many minerals, as well as protein, carbohydrate and fat. Also, it favors neutrality, is one of the most easily digested foods, is cheap in proportion to its food value, and is obtained everywhere. One of its greatest claims to consideration is that it contains much calcium, a mineral of great importance in the diet. Since it does not contain cellulose, it must be supplemented by vegetables, fruits, and the cereal grains as well. Since it contains little iron, this element must be supplied from other foods. As a rule, adults who are active will find it more agreeable and successful to obtain some of their calories from other food, rather than to take the full supply in the form of milk.

With many people, milk is included in the diet in a most incidental fashion; it is not a matter of great concern to them whether they have it or not. But many of the robust and vigorous and those who accomplish the world's best work are "milk addicts." It is reported that Colonel Lindberg upon arriving in France after his epoch-making flight across the Atlantic, first asked for a glass of milk. The feeble, conversely, often are those who say they "never could take milk."

If a person thinks he cannot take a pint of milk a day, he should find some way to make that possible. It is a question of the taste of milk, it can be flavoured in some way, or included in soup, and beverages; if it is a question of apparent indigestibility, it may be warmed or taken with a small amount of carbohydrate, such as a cracker (so that the curds formed in the stomach will be small and very easily digestible). In any case, milk should never be taken ice-cold or rapidly.

Evaporated or condensed milk has the same food values as fresh milk and has the added advantage of being easily kept free from contamination until used.

Chuck Kocsis Quits Professional Golf

DETROIT—Chuck Kocsis, most famous of the golfing brothers, who turned pro two years ago, has applied for reinstatement as an amateur. Claiming that his hopes for openings in the pro field failed to develop and that his business now was such that he had little time, Chuck has asked that he be allowed to compete with the simon-pures again.

Chuck has been pro at Stonycroft but spent only the week-ends at the job.

EXODUS

Hollywood.—Reminiscent of the Israelites' flight from the land of the Pharaohs, though somewhat less hectic and streamlined in the 1942 manner, the trek of Japanese aliens and Jap Americans from Los Angeles to the new processing centre in scenic Owens Valley, is now under way. One thousand evacuees—all men—formed the first contingent, but many thousands will follow this week and next.

There's been nothing like this before in American history. Goodbyes at dawn in a smoky, seldom-used depot in the midtown from 1918 Fords to current Packards, laden with family possessions and tools with which to fashion homes for women and children who are to follow. Stores and homes boarded up; farms turned over to government supervision; empty market stalls throughout the city.

DON'T CRY

But don't let a tear spoil your makeup! These Japs go to no concentration camp. That is not the democratic way. They go first to a newborn community within sight of snow-clad Mount Whitney—a spot where today hammers rattle, saws buzz and blue smoke curls from chimneys as preparations are made to welcome the thousands of Japs still to be evacuated.

Unlike the Mormons, they will not live in a wilderness, but will be domiciled in prefabricated wooden houses, served food and drink by a huge crew of chefs and bakers who have preceded them to the Owens Valley settlement 230 miles north of here. And by autumn they will be virtually self-sustaining, tilling the ground and sowing seed provided by Uncle Sam.

When the centre is complete, it will equal an area of 49 city blocks and house 10,000 Japs—alien and citizen, alike. And its inhabitants will earn $94 a month for their labor—as compared to the $21 paid inductees into America's armed forces. Indeed, this arrangement has stirred up no little resentment, some of which presents itself in poetic form:

"For twenty-one dollars I man the guns.
Believe me, my parents were saps—
For the U.S. would pay me ninety a month,
If I had been born to Japs!"

GENTLEMAN PAT
Gentleman Pat Di Cicco—Mr. Gloria Vanderbilt—lived up to expectations this week when New York police collared him on a charge of assault. Di Cicco allegedly called a hotel clerk an Irish jerk and flattened him with a left to the jaw! . . . Nice Blue Book going-on . . . Mrs. Colin Kelly and "Corky" have taken up residence here in a small Hollywood apartment, and the wife of America first Pacific hero is "all set to look for a job."

Watch for an early ejection of Bonita Granville and Jackie Cooper—or a definite death to their much-publicized romance . . . Franz Lehár's works have been banned by several local radio stations. The composer is an ardent Nazi and one of Hitler's "Kultur Korps" . . . Fashion note: Local dancsels are wearing earrings in the form of thumbs up . . .

GERM—MAN
From the "Answers" Dept. of a local sheet:

"Question—If Frenchmen is the plural of Frenchman, why isn't German the plural of German? . . . PDQ.
"Answer—Frenchmen is a compound of French plus man. German is not a compound of Germ plus man."
Ho-hum, I'm not so sure of that!

DOTS 'N' DASHES
Doug Corrigan, who flew the Atlantic "by mistake," is now flying bombers to England on purpose, and doing a fine job of it, too. On leave from Long Beach, he dropped into Naval HQ for a chat last night. Right smart boy—and a much better filer than Lindbergh could ever hope to be . . .

Garbo is back in town—with her medico-amour, Gaylord Hauser. Give the gal credit, though—without any publicity whatsoever, she has sponsored flop-houses and kitchens for transients in midtown Los Angeles over a period of several years

HOCKEY HILARITY

Syl Apps of Toronto waves his stick jubilantly after Nick Metz accepts his pass and beats "Sugar" Henry with blissing shot with six seconds left to play. The goal gave the Toronto Leafs a 3 to 2 victory over the New York Rangers, the championship of the National Hockey League and the right to meet Detroit for the Stanley Cup.

Chiselling And Quisling Are Held Near Neighbors

"Everyone who has lived long in the Far East knows that money talks," says George West, Bishop of Rangoon, who came to this continent on a visit shortly before Pearl Harbor and now cannot get back to Burma. Only the Japanese can say how their advances through the trackless, vine-tangled forests were made possible by natives who were willing to be bribed. "Chiselling and quisling are near neighbors," observed the bishop.

Burma rivals Australia and the East Indies as front page news today. These comments by one who has lived for 21 years in the Far East throw new light on the rapid penetration by enemy forces in that part of the world. Bishop West says the Japanese invaders timed their attack perfectly with regard to weather conditions but, what is more significant, they made fullest use of dishonesty and internal divisions. These weaknesses, he points out, become issues of national concern in time of war and are tantamount to fifth column activity.

Stressing the need for national unity before it is too late to act, the Bishop of Rangoon went on to say that a year or two before the Japanese war broke out there were many evidences that a new spirit was emerging in Burma.

There were the Burma Road policemen who responded to the appeals of a new kind of patriotism and began to let the trucks roll on without their usual palm-planting tactics.

There was the lawyer who was asked to run for election. He shocked his backers and constituents by announcing that he would not pay a cent for any vote. Not only did he win their support but he was also able to persuade his opponent to run on the same basis.

Shortly before he left Rangoon, Bishop West, as a Britisher, was asked to broadcast as the chief speaker on Burma National Day. He was given complete freedom to say whatever he wanted, and was later encouraged by reports from "top country" that his speech had given listeners a new idea of the British attitude towards Burma.

It was the mark of a new spirit . . .

Quite a pleasant contrast to some of the over-inked charity for which Hollywood is famed. With Japanese evacuation now in progress, the "For Sale" sign is out in Little Tokyo, the Jap sector of Los Angeles, where 35,000 sons and daughters of the Rising Sun have cooked their Sukiyaki in the past . . . Hitherto a bright spot for those who like their entertainment after dark, the district now exudes only the impersonal loneliness of a city for sale . . .

And, in connection with the way of relieving a delinquent's failure? Adios.

Veteran Fire-Fighter Appointed Deputy
Chief William Wren, retired head of Westmount's Police and Fire Departments, brings a wealth of practical experience to the councils of the N.D.G. C.P.C. His appointment as Deputy Warden is widely hailed as a step in the right direction. Mr. Wren entered police work in Westmount in 1898, becoming Inspector in 1912 and Chief in 1922. In 1925 he was made Chief of both Police and Fire Departments holding this dual appointment until his retirement in 1938. Ex-Chief Wren has the King's Jubilee Medal and the King's Coronation Medal.
