BIG CROWDS GREET PRINCESS

The R.C.N. Of Tomorrow On Parades In Westmount

The local Sea Cadets are seen marching through Westmount on their way to attend church service at Stanley Presbyterian Church and the Church of the Ascension last Sunday. The naval lads presented a smart turnout and many expressions of admiration were heard from onlookers.

Early Darkness Spoiled The Show For Many People

Sherbrooke Street in Westmount was thickly lined by thousands of residents and visitors who stood for two hours or more in the bitter cold wind on Monday afternoon waiting for the royal cavalcade to pass. Many more viewed the procession of cars and motorcycle escort from windows along the beflagged route. The darkness of the night prevented many from getting a good view of the Royal couple.

School children were stationed at vantage points in the vicinity of their schools, Roslyn school being one of these and St. Paul Academy another, while many more were accommodated at special sections in Westmount Park each school being allocated a certain area. The children seemed to have cheered themselves hoarse before the cavalcade reached Westmount.

Aldermen and their wives also heads of civic departments and their wives occupied a stand erected in front of the City Hall. City General Manager T. J. Hughes had established a two way system of communication from the time the cavalcade left the airport until they arrived in Westmount and kept the guests on the platform informed of the progress of the parade.

The Pipe Band of No. 401 City of Westmount Fighter Squadron, RCAF were stationed at the City Hall and their playing did much to make the long wait more interesting for those in the vicinity.

The R.M.R. band played lively tunes near Victoria Hall and here again the music was much appreciated by those who lined the route.

It was unfortunate that darkness had fallen before the Princess and the Duke of Edinburgh reached Westmount as there were many who got just a fleeting glimpse of the royal couple in the special glass topped auto which however had a light burning inside. This was in sharp contrast to the excellent view which the 1939 tour of the King and Queen afforded local residents when an almost complete tour of the city in daylight was included in the itinerary.

The school children were strangely silent when the car bearing the distinguished visitors approached although just prior to its arrival they had been cheering lustily. Whether they were stunned by the presence of royalty or whether they were numb with the cold is rather hard to determine. They did however wave the small flags they had in their hands which was probably just as eloquent a greeting as a vociferous cheer would have been.

The car in which Mayor Cameron rode joined the cavalcade at the intersection of Claremont and Notre Dame de Grace Avenues and appeared to be almost right behind the car in which the royal couple were riding.

The Canadian Provost Corps in their white crash helmets mounted on motorcycles added an impressive look to the long line of vehicles. The crowd was particularly well behaved and the police had no trouble in handling the many thousands of onlookers, who were kept back on the curb.

Queen's H-S Ass'n Hear Brigadier System Explained

The general meeting of the Queen's, Home and School Association was devoted to Traffic Safety, as part of the campaign organized by the Traffic Safety Committee of the Quebec Federation of Home and School Associations.

The guest speaker, Mr. K. Van Geun, showed some pictures of accidents to pedestrians and school children. These films were made with the aid of the Los Angeles police.

M. Van Geun gave a very interesting speech on the subject of "Traffic Safety". He spoke of training children of certain ages to act as police, that is traffic police and they would in time elect their own officers, etc. But the main thing was to get the permission of the parents if the Brigadier System is desired in the schools.

Chief of Police Byford of the Westmount Police spoke a few words on the subject of safety and also promised the aid of the police force in safety endeavours.

Mr. Borden, chairman of the Traffic Safety Committee of the Quebec Federation of Home and School Associations, spoke a few words on safety and the training of children in "Brigadier System" they use in all schools in the United States. He thinks it should work in Westmount.

St. Andrew's Parents To Hear Miss Young

Mary Jane Young, religious educational directress of St. Andrew and St. Paul Church will address the parents of pupils of St. Andrew's United Church Sunday School at 8.00 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 7.

Miss Young's subject will deal with the part played by everyone in the successful operation of the Sunday School.

The meeting, which will be held in the form of a "desert party" will take place in the Hutchison Hall of the church, and will feature display tables of cards and books dealing with Sunday schools which will be on sale to the parents.

Father And Son Banquet Tonight

The highlight of the month of November, at Westmount Y.M.C.A., will be the Father-and-Son Banquet on Friday evening, November 9. The banquet will begin at 6.00 p.m. A varied program will take place during the evening, including selected movies and a "Father-and-Son Swim."

All members of the Westmount "Y" are reminded to invite their Dad to this event, if you have not already done so. Tickets for this event are available now at the Westmount Y.M.C.A.

All members are asked to reserve their places by Thursday, November 8.

Elderly Driver In Two Accidents

The same man was involved in two accidents in Westmount Monday. He was 88-year-old Herbert Layton, of 4053 Dorchester Street.

He was involved in a collision with another car at Gladstone Avenue and knocked two women down on Greene Avenue.

They were Mrs. W. Stewart and Mrs. K. Champagne, of 4280 Dorchester Street. They were treated for minor injuries at the General Hospital.

In the other mishap his car collided with another driven by George Brassier, of 941 St. Marguerite Street.

Auto Rolls Down Hill Crashes Into Other Car

D. Penton, of 4545 Coolbrook Avenue, parked his car at 652 Roslyn Avenue Saturday and started to walk away when he was stopped by a loud crash.

He turned around to find that his auto had rolled down the hill into another owned by Claude Goyette, of Lachine.

U.N. Day Observed By Current Events Club

The United Nations, its various organs, and its achievements was the theme of a panel discussion by six members of Westmount Senior High School's Current Events Club at the Club's last meeting Wednesday, October 24.

John Briery described the General Assembly. He mentioned that it had first met in January, 1946, and that it was a forum for expressing the views and opinions of various member nations. Its main functions, he informed his audience, are to discuss and advise and to suggest measures which it might consider necessary for the peaceful settlement of any situation. He also drew attention to the fact that the General Assembly, which is composed of sixty representatives, is the focal point and centre of all the United Nations organs and as such commands the world's attention.

Natalia Friedman then dwelt on the workings of the Trusteeship Council. She emphasized that, as a council composed of members who administer trusteeship territories, its objective is to safeguard the interests and welfare of the non-self-governing people who comprise these territories.

Richard Bourke was then called upon to discuss the Security Council. He said, in effect, that the Security Council is composed of eleven members, of whom five — the United States, the United Kingdom, France, Russia and China — are permanent, whereas the other six members are elected for two-year terms only. The Security Council is charged with the responsibility of maintaining peace and security, and, to enforce its mandates, it has the power to call on member nations for armed forces and other assistance. It was also mentioned by him that the Security Council is in permanent session in New York City.

Don Murphy, the fourth speaker, gave members an account of the Secretariat. This he described as a body constituting the Secretary-General and a large international staff of permanent officials. It is one of the six main organs of the United Nations and its purpose is to carry out the administrative responsibilities of these organs. In this capacity it

Effective Speech Class Planned

The Westmount Recreation Department has received several enquiries regarding the possibility of forming an effective speech class.

Director of the department Lionel Fournier informed The Examiner that if sufficient persons enroll that such a class will be formed. A competent instructor will be engaged to conduct the public speaking group if the number interested is large enough Mr. Fournier said.

Anyone who would like to take part in an effective speech class is asked to phone the Recreation Department at FI. 6975 for further information.

Local Youth Injured In Car Collision

Robert Seguin, 16, of 6 Werdale Park, was taken to the Western Hospital Monday after being involved in a collision with an auto at Atwater Avenue and Dorchester Street.

He was treated for minor injuries. The driver of the car was Leopold Faubert, of 3994 Claude Street.

● That Westmount and other suburban municipalities will likely lose revenue previously collected from the Montreal Tramways Company for the use of streets and other properties. Seems the newly created Montreal Tramways Commission does not intend to pay taxes to municipalities and will demand payment for snow removal on car tracks.

● That John Robb, Organist and Choir Director of Dominion-Douglas Church agrees with the Bishop of Wellington, New Zealand. The Bishop is quoted as saying that hymn tunes are pitched too high for the average male. Mr. Robb agrees.

● That the gale proportion wind which struck Westmount around noon on Wednesday blew down the big flag which decorated the front of May's Ladies Wear on Greene Avenue. The bracket which held the pole on which the flag was hung became dislodged and the whole thing fell to the sidewalk narrowly missing a lady who was passing. The bracket, pole and flag weighed approximately 25 lbs.

● That the annual civic commemoration service at the Westmount War Memorial will be held on Sunday afternoon, November 11. The Royal Montreal Regiment and local Canadian Legion branches together with other organizations will again take part in the service.

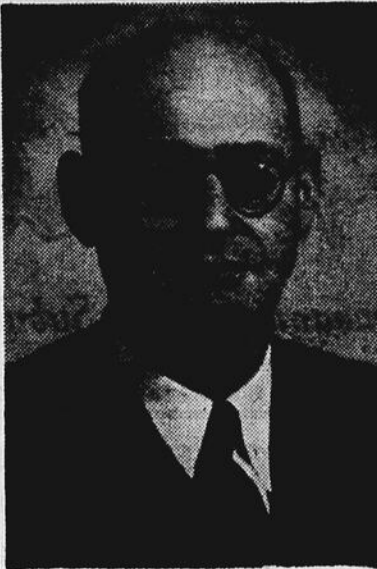

● That the civic officials who occupied places on the big stand in front of the City Hall had a very poor view of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh. It was too far back and the lighting was also very bad.

● That several surrounding municipalities and organizations are expressing great interest in the work of the Westmount Recreation Department. The varied programs for the education and entertainment of young and old is drawing favourable comment and it is understood that some of the ideas have been copied in other places.

● That Walter Smail, president of Westmount Warriors Football Club, would very much like to get the subscription lists returned as the drawing for the lucky names will take place soon. Westmount will play Lakeshore Flyers at the W.A.G. tomorrow afternoon with the 70 piece band from the Town of Mount Royal High School in attendance.

● That two Westmount twins Ann and Barbara Corbett of Prince Albert Avenue, who graduated from Westmount High School in 1950 are both teaching in local schools. Ann is at Queens while Barbara is on the staff of Roslyn School. After graduating from Westmount High the two sisters took the teaching course at Macdonald College.

● That Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Duckworth of 717 Roslyn Avenue, are planning a trip to England early next year. Mr. Duckworth until his retirement was comptroller of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada. His home county is Lancashire. It is not likely that the trip will take place before the end of the curling season at the Royal Montreal. Mr. Duckworth is one of the better skips in the R.M.C.C.

Karl Steiner, above, well known Somerled Avenue pianist and teacher, will be accompanist for character dancer Max Mikser when he opens at the Gesu Theatre on Sunday evening, November 11. Mr. Mikser's appearance will mark his debut on the Canadian stage, while Mr. Steiner has often accompanied famous stage personalities.

● That our publisher H. E. McCormick, flew from Dorval on Wednesday to Washington, D.C., to cover the Royal Tour in the U.S. Capital for the Canadian Weekly Newspapers' Association. Mr. McCormick has covered the tour since the Princess and the Duke of Edinburgh arrived in Canada and had the honour of being presented to their Royal Highnesses at a reception in Ottawa.

● That many people in Westmount are not very well pleased over the rather poor attention paid to the city by the planners of the royal tour. One man writes to express the opinion that Westmount would probably have been entirely ignored except for the fact that in order to get to the Windsor Hotel it was necessary to pass through Westmount.

● That Mayor Houde is interested in the article by Mrs. T. W. Deachman, of 484 Victoria Avenue which appeared in The Examiner of August 24. Mrs. Deachman's article dealt with the royal significance of street names in Westmount, and the French connection to the Royal Family. A copy of the August 24 issue has been forwarded to Mrs. Deachman for presentation to Mayor Houde.

● That residents are wondering whether the City Authorities will issue medallions to commemorate the royal visit similar to those issued when the King and Queen visited Westmount in 1939.

● That the Westmount Public Library is departing from long established practice in offering memberships ($5 per annum) to citizens residing outside the boundaries of Westmount.

● That the Montreal Transportation Commission will shortly begin digging test holes at Western Square in front of the Forum on St. Catherine Street, West. This gives hope to Westmounters that may be there will be a subway service to the west end sooner than expected.

● That Allan Sandzelius pulled the trigger of the starting gun a little too soon at the Westmount High-Loyola game at the W.A.G. on Wednesday and suffered a nasty first degree burn to his hand which necessitated four stitches at the Homoeopathic Hospital to close. Allan is official timekeeper for all school football games at the Westmount ground.

● That for those who want to sell or buy something The Examiner offers the best facilities in Westmount. Experience has shown that it is seldom necessary to repeat in the Classified Ad columns of The Examiner. To place an advertisement phone WA. 2771 and ask for Miss Adtaker.

Unity Boys' Club News

Constructive Recreation. — What is the meaning of this high sounding term? Well it is the keynote of every boys and girls club programme today. The meaning of the words — though you may not know — is the basis on which all games, sports, hobbies and entertainment are planned for you by the Unity Boys Club programme committees. Even dancing, movies and parties come under this impressive heading.

It means learning to work and play with all kinds of different boys and girls, learning how to get along with them, respecting their different habits and ways and learning that there are all kinds of people that make up a world. That is why it is important for every member of the Unity Boys Club to join as many groups and sports as they possibly can fit in, makes as many friends as possible — and find out how the other guy thinks and lives.

Volunteers

The staff of the Unity Boys Club are still in need of volunteers to help them out with their large and varied number of activities. If you can spare even an hour a week, here is an opportunity not only of sharing your favorite sport or hobby with enthusiastic youngsters, but also of being taught group work under the guidance of a well trained staff. Contact Mr. Allenby Moss at the Unity Boys Clubhouse on Greene Avenue as soon as possible, he will be very grateful for any help you can give.

Coming Events

Members Council Meeting. Saturday, November 3, 5 p.m. This important committee will hold a supper meeting at this time when officers will be elected and later during the movie session which starts at 7 p.m. the elected slate will be announced to club members.

Woodwork Class. Mr. H. Riley, the instructor of this group, has announced that there are still a few vacancies for members of the club of 11 years and over, for the Wednesday working group. This is a fascinating hobby and well taught.

First Aid. According to Doug Woodham the Girls Wednesday and Boys Thursday Classes are doing exceptionally well. First Aid is a very valuable thing to know and some day may come in very useful in saving a life. Here is another case of signing up as soon as possible.

Music. Music has become an important item in the clubhouse activities this year. Mr. W. Hislop is discovering a lot of talent and good voices in his newly organized Bantam Singing Group and Miss Daisy Peterson who devotes her Saturday morning to teaching piano, is very impressed with the progress her pupils are making. You can still join either group by interviewing Mr. Hislop and Miss Peterson.

Parties

Westmount Rotary Club Ladies Night. On Wednesday night, November 7, the games room will be turned over to the wives of the Westmount Rotarians, who will be entertained with a special programme. Therefore there will be no meeting of the Teen-Age Club on this evening.

Halloween. Did you have a good time. I hear that the parties were lots of fun, the costumes, amazing, and, the donations of cakes, candies fruit and drinks, for which club members and staff are very grateful, luscious!

Local Artist To Exhibit Landscapes, Portraits

An exhibition of landscapes of St. Adolphe de Howard and portraits painted by Stanley B. Wilson during 1951 has been arranged to be held every afternoon and evening from November 3 to 17 at 231 Elm Avenue, Westmount.

The exhibition is open to the public and should prove interesting to art lovers and critics as well as collectors.

Mr. Wilson's paintings always command attention and his works this year include some of the most beautiful scenes to be found in the Laurentians.

The hours of the exhibition is from 2.30 to 10 p.m. daily.

may be thought of as "the man behind the man."

Paula Mendelsohn then dwelt on the Economic and Social Council made a permanent organ of the United Nations in 1945. It is charged with effecting under the General Assembly, the functions of the United Nations in endeavouring to promote economic, cultural, social, educational, health and related conditions.

Some of the Council's commissions referred to by Paula are: the Commission on Human Rights, the Commission on Status of Women, the Economic and Employment Commission, the Social Commission and the Commission on Narcotic Drugs. She also drew attention to the fact that the Council is composed of eighteen members elected by the General Assembly and holds at least two regular sessions a year.

Carol Fischel, in summing up the objectives and achievements of the United Nations, observed that since its founding in 1945, this organization has helped solve political issues, has acted against breaches of peace such as in Palestine and Korea, has achieved social progress and has contributed to world health.

Mike Sundell, the Current Events Club's president, in adjourning the proceedings, said that the next meeting, to be held on Wednesday, November 7, would be devoted to the debate: Resolved that Fraternities and Sororities Should be Abolished.

Lost Kingdom Described To Westmount Rotarians

A first-hand witness of what was described as the eighth wonder of the world was given to members of the Westmount Rotary Club Wednesday at the weekly meeting.

The speaker, E. F. Thompson, assistant steamship general passenger agent, C.P.R., said this wonder was "The Lost Kingdom of Angkor."

Located near a remote jungle-bound village in French Indo-China, it was thought to have been a civilization centuries older than that of Egypt.

Mr. Thompson said it was first seen by a Westerner in the 16th century but not until 1861 was it brought before the French Government as a source of historical knowledge.

Although the actual city of Angkor was of comparatively small dimensions, buildings belonging to the Kingdom could be found within a radius of 100 miles.

Mr. Thompson stated that the city was a feat of engineering. It was laid out in a precise square with two main boulevards and with the palace and administrative buildings located at the centre.

The speaker continued that it was surrounded by a wall pierced by four gateways. Around this was a moat 325 feet wide.

One of the most magnificent edifices in the city was a pyramidal temple 145 feet high, built on three levels and crowned with 50 turrets.

History Of People

The miles of corridors in the temple were covered with hieroglyphics revealing the history of its inhabitants.

Khmers was the name of the people and their great leader was Khambu.

Mr. Thompson told of another temple in the city, greater than the first. This one was constructed similarly but was surrounded by a moat 650 feet wide crossed by only one causeway.

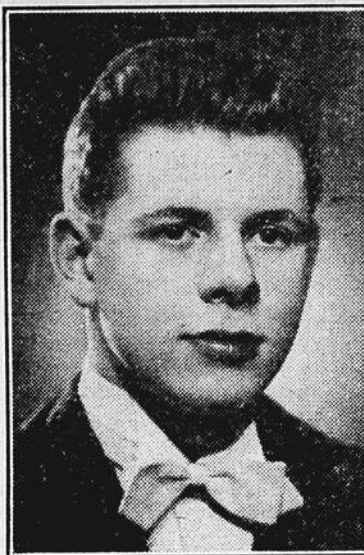

This temple, he stated, was five times larger than Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris. Hieroglyphics recorded that its citizens grew rice, tamed elephants, rode them to war and brought back slaves with which to build their city.

Mr. Thompson said this Kingdom occupied five centuries of prominence, set out to conquer the world and establish a marine empire. Suddenly, for no rhyme or reason, its people disappeared, leaving no trace.

He claimed there was a possibility that these people migrated to Egypt. The hieroglyphics to be found on the ancient monuments of that land were similar to "The Lost Kingdom of Angkor."

Canada has 42,335 miles of single railroad track, a mileage total only exceeded by Soviet Russia and the United States.

Junior Stamp Club Meets Thursdays

The Junior Stamp Club attendance has not been very large since the fall opening. This is probably due to the fact that some of the boys and girls were not notified that everything was in full swing again.

These meetings are held in the Oak Room of Victoria Hall every Thursday from 7.00 to 9.00 p.m. New members are welcome, so come along and meet some friend philatelist.

Old members would be doing a club service if they were to introduce a new member or two.

For information call the Westmount Recreation Department at FI. 6975.

Westmount 'Y' Swim Club Will Defend City Title

The Physical Department of the Westmount Y.M.C.A. has announced the reappointment of Gilbert Young as coach for the "Y's" Swim Team for the coming 1951-52 season. The Westmount boys will be defending City Champions this year as they head into their City-Wide meets against the other Y.M.C.A. Branches in the Greater Montreal area, and Young has stated that most of the regulars of last year will be turning out again this season trying for a place on the team. Promising swimmers such as Don Seller, Hugh Barclay, Lloyd Kishino and Ronnie Taylor are expected to be high point getters for the Westmount team.

Gilbert Young is no new comer to the swimming scene and is a championship product of Westmount, getting his start in the Westmount "Y". He is the former Quebec and Ontario Junior 100 yd. free style champion; former Provincial mile champion; was a member of the Provincial and Ontario Junior Relay Championship team; still holds the Junior 220 yd. free style record; was a member of that famed "Y" relay team which broke the 300 yard medley relay record at Watertown, N.Y. a few months ago, by seven seconds (swimming against teams from Detroit, Brooklyn, Florida and Colgate University).

At present he is a member of the Montreal Y.M.C.A. Senior Swimming team, which just recently won the Provincial 400 yd. relay championship.

The likeable coach has called for all those interested in turning out for the "Y" team to be on hand at the Westmount "Y" Saturday, Nov. 3 at 12:00 o'clock noon.

St. Leon, St. Paul Parents To Meet

The first meeting of the Association des Parents of St. Leon and St. Paul Academies for the year 1951-52 will be held at St. Leon's Hall, 358 Clarke Ave., on Monday, November 5th, at 8.15 p.m.

As in former years this meeting is called to enable the parents to get acquainted and also to meet the teachers of their children.

It is hoped, at some future date, to hold a meeting at St. Paul's Academy so that the parents of the young girls may have the same opportunity.

Several meetings of the Council have been held since last June, and various questions have been discussed which, doubtless, it will interest the members to hear about.

The annual contribution remains at $1.00 per year per family; this for the expenses of the Association, stationery, printing, stamps, etc. Anything more that the parents care to contribute is used exclusively for the benefit of the children.

CARE FOR THE CARIES

Dental caries should never be neglected and prompt repairs should be made at first sign of tooth decay to prevent it from spreading. Such early treatment may save the whole tooth. The teeth of children and adults should be inspected by the dentist at least twice a year, so that repairs may be made while any troubles are still minor. Such action may save the teeth and the cost of major dental operations later on.

DID YOU KNOW that the tomato was once considered poisonous? Native to Central and South America, it was brought to Europe by the Spaniards. I Remember

By G. P. SMITH

A series of articles by a retired coach and physical director recalling great athletes and great teams. Mr. Smith was 32 years at Westmount High as director of physical education (boys), and concurrently 28 years at McGill as wrestling coach.

The season of 1934-35 was one of our good years in all sports, we were able to win championships in football, basketball and hockey and from the teams a number of the players later became outstanding stars on the big city teams and at McGill, in football and hockey.

The senior football team had in its lineup the following players: The one and only Russ McConnell, playing on the halfline, ably supported by Doug Smail, the best triple threat player ever developed at the school; Jimmy Riddell, handling the team from the quarterback slot and doing the kicking as well. He was assisted by Alex Hamilton, in the kicking department. Big Joe Nye filled in capably as the other half. At snap, tall John Heward, at inside, R. Litz and P. Dixon at middle, tough Colin Ross and Howie Bartram, the latter playing a great game for McGill on the big team.

In Norm Rettie and Johnney Hanson at outside we had two men that opponents found difficult to get around. Our alternates, were all good and did not weaken the team when they were sent in. Pat Christie (B of B Ace), Stan Morgan, big raw-boned Kirkpatrick, Jack Mitchell, Joie Jacobson, W. Hoover, a tough little American kid that came to the school, and tall Geo. Hand. The latter later became quite handy with the boxing gloves at McGill. (George's father, Dr. W. Hand, attended every game and looked after injured players for both teams in an honorary capacity). He certainly was a fine man to have around and all the coaches appreciated having him there in the event of serious injury.

The senior team was crowded all during the season by a powerful L.C.C. team, who lost the first game to us and then came back and won the second game. Both games were close and hard fought. Against M.H.S. we won the first and drew the second game while L.C.C. won one and lost one to Strathcona, who we had beaten twice, thus giving us the title and right to meet the winners of the other league for the city championship. They proved to be the big W.H.S. team and after playing the game on the Westmount Athletic grounds the final score on the board showed W.H.S. 14-W.H.S. 1, thus giving us another consecutive right to the Wilf. Wallace Memorial Cup. West Hill had a very good senior B team that won all their games and the City title. Likewise L.C.C. juniors won their series without a loss, while W.H.S. were second.

Basketball

In basketball while we did not win the senior title, we were successful in winning the junior and senior B league championships, the latter going on to win the city as well.

The senior team had in their lineup some outstanding players such as Russ McConnell, Doug Smail, Joie Jacobson, Alex Hamilton, B. Engel, Randall and a few others who filled in when required.

In hockey we were successful in winning the championship in the three series, Senior A, Senior B, and Junior. The games were played in five different rinks, the Forum, Verdun, Lachine, Loyola and the St. Laurent Arena. I remember a funny incident happening following a Senior B game at the Forum, wherein my goaler had real, and Mrs. Robert Werblow, of New York.

The funeral service was held on Monday in Temple Emanu-El. Burial took place in the family plot in Temple Emanu-El section of Mount Royal Cemetery.

PAUL EARL, M.L.A.

St. Luke's Bazaar To Be Officially Opened By M.L.A.

On Friday and Saturday, Nov. 2 and 3, St. Luke's United Church, 3480 Decarie Boulevard, will hold a Congregational Bazaar at which Paul Earl, M.L.A. for Notre Dame de Grace, and Mrs. Earl, will be guests of honor.

Mr. Earl will officiate at the opening ceremonies to be held on Friday evening at 8.30 p.m. in the Church Hall.

Immediate objective of this first Bazaar in the life of the present church is to replace the outdated chairs in the church hall. All organizations have been co-operating with the executive to make this a memorable success. Featured will be home sewing — knitting — cooking — a country store and other interesting booths. For the young folk a fish pond, bean bag games and dart boards will provide interesting diversions.

On Friday evening ladies of the home group will serve light refreshments and on Saturday they are preparing to serve a supper. With all branches of the church directly involved interest is running high and competition is keen for the most attractive booth.

CAMERON CHIEF DEAD

Colonel Sir Donald W. Cameron of Lochiel, Lord Lieutenant of Inverness-shire and chief of the Clan Cameron, has died in hospital at the age of 75. Heir to the clan chieftanship is his son, Mr. Donald Hamish Cameron, 41.

SCHEME ANNOUNCED

A $24 million coking plant, most up-to-date and comprehensive in Europe, is to be built at Wingerworth, near Chesterfield. It will carbonize more than 3/4 million tons of coal a year and produce 1/2 million tons of coke.

a shutout and I was waiting to take him out to the Loyola rink to take the place of my Senior A goaler who was sick and unable to play. As I came into the room I overheard a prominent big time coach who was in the room tell the lad he was in the wrong position, he should be playing out. I guess I got pretty sore and near threw him out for telling him that with a game to follow in a few minutes. Nevertheless the boy went out and played a standout game, which we won.

The team were a well-balanced lot of players with Frank Collis playing a smart game in the nets while in front of him were Alex. Hamilton and Doug Smail, a very strong defence. The forward line had Johnny Phillips at centre with Russ McConnell at left, and little Doug Merrick at right. Second line, Joie Jacobson and Brown on the wings, centred by the well-known tennis player of today, George Robinson, a slow skater but a good feeder to his wings. Other alternates on the team were R. Anderson, Ralph Morgan and J. Mitchell. Little Bill Cairns proved a very capable manager, well liked by the team.

Westmount Fire Chief Stresses Common Hazards

Chief W. Cobb of the Westmount Fire Department as is his custom at this time of the year is stressing the need for precaution against fires and common fire hazards. The chief draws attention to the story which recently came over the press wires from Cleveland about a man whose mattress burst into flames one night after he fell asleep smoking. He got up, put out the fire, and went back to bed. In the morning he was found suffocated, killed by accumulated gases which had been released in the fire.

A booklet circulated by the Dominion Fire Prevention Association in Ottawa entitled "The Deadly Top Floor" has in it many stories of people who were killed in just the same way. Far more tragic are the stories of people who put out small fires on the ground floor of their homes, only to find later that children lying asleep on the upper storeys have been asphyxiated by gases generated in the fire which rise through the house.

Major Cause

One of the major causes of fires here is that heating units are not properly cleaned before use. An accumulation of soot in a chimney or furnace flue can be the cause of a fire which might wipe out a block of homes. Improper disposal of hot ashes may be responsible for the fire which may kill your children.

The use of care in all trouble spots, and common sense in handling and disposing of combustible materials, can do a great deal towards eliminating those 90 out of 100 fires which are preventable. Read the simple rules, and see how many potential causes of fire you can eliminate in your own home.

THINGS TO WATCH

Smoking—Do not smoke in bed, in the attic, closets and garage.

Matches—Keep out of the children's hands. Place used matches in incombustible trays. Keep "strike anywhere" matches in closed metal boxes. "Safety" matches are safest.

Extinguish smokes and matches before discarding. Be sure they are cold.

Trash and rubbish—Keep cleaned out, especially in basement, attic and closets. Burn safely and never on windy days. Use rubbish burners in built-up areas. Watch fires till out.

Flues and heating plants—Have them cleaned, examined and repaired if necessary once a year. Protect exposed woodwork with incombustible shields or mats. Do not pass stovepipes through ceilings, roofs or wooden partitions. Never overheat.

Flue stops — Use metal kind. Do not paper over flue holes or stuff with rags.

Ashes—Use only metal receptacles. Do not dump hot ashes against anything that can burn.

Gasoline, benzine, naphtha — Do not store or use on home premises. It's dynamite.

Kerosene — Do not use to start a fire. Flashbacks and explosions will and maim scores yearly.

Electricity — Have an expert do all electrical work and repairs. Do not use lamp cord for circuit extensions or hang it over nails.

Electric fuses — Use 15 ampere fuses for ordinary circuits. Never plug blown fuses with pennies nor replace with oversize fuses.

Electric irons — Always disconnect current before leaving them.

Gas tubing — Replace with rigid pipe.

Gas plates — Protect underneath with asbestos covered with metal.

Open lights, lamps — Do not have near curtains or combustible material.

Decorations — Do not place flimsy or combustible decorations over electric light globes or near open lights or heaters.

Oil mops, oily rags — Keep mop in closed metal can. Destroy rags. They ignite spontaneously.

Remember — A careful person seldom has a fire; a clean, orderly place seldom burns.

way from Montreal West to Dominion Square. It was a grand turn-out, and an eloquent tribute both to the young couple personally and to the institution they represent.

Canada will shortly be saying au revoir to our royal visitors. The welcome given them everywhere they went has demonstrated for all the world to see that the many and diverse elements of our country were of one heart and one mind on the relationship between Canada and the Crown. The constitutional ties which bind our commonwealth together are slight, but the ties of loyalty are perhaps stronger today than they have ever been.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier once said: "Canada is loyal—loyal because she is free. Oppression was always the mother of rebellion." In that there is a lesson for a world in which the lights of freedom burn considerably less brightly today than they did a hundred years ago. And that is why millions of Canadians will stand for an hour in the cold for one fleeting glimpse of the young couple who some day will head the greatest association of free peoples the world has ever seen.

sume activities on Sunday week, following the evening service. An interesting program for the season has been outlined by the committee in charge.

Christian Science

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The Golden Text is from Lamentations 3: "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall be also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting."

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Does evil proceed from good? Does divine Love commit a fraud on humanity by making man inclined to sin, and then punishing him for it? Would any one call it wise and good to create the primitive, and then punish its derivative? A knowledge of evil was never the essence of divinity or manhood. In the first chapter of Genesis, evil has no local habitation nor name. Creation is there represented as spiritual, entire and good."

MUSIC IN SCHOOL? WHY, OF COURSE!

This very brief essay is not an "apologia pro musica" in schools. Accepting the established position of music in the curriculum, your attention is drawn to a few of the functions of school music as they affect every student. If the Music Program is a vital one, and the teacher dedicated to his calling, the following types of activities, among others, will most certainly be provided:

Singing and Playing
Until recently there was a species of young human called a monotone. These were outcasts from the musical world, unsaved and unsaveable. Today, potential non-singers are scanned most carefully in the early grades and by a process of patient "echoing", brought into the singing fold of class and school choirs. No longer is the boy whose voice is changing ousted from the Glee Clubs. As his voice changes, he is assigned to the part of alto-tenor for which much music is now being written to fill his special needs. Normality is the watchword. Provision at all levels is made for instrumental as well as vocal instruction, since instrumental playing is now considered as vital an activity as singing.

Beginning with rhythm band, followed by tonettes and recorders, and finally the real instruments, every age has its opportunity. Many schools provide instructors, free tuition and even free instruments for student use. Experience in group playing is provided by the school band or orchestra. Matriculation standing in either general or instrumental music can be attained if the student so desires.

Outlets For Individual Talents
What of the less musical and the very musical students in our schools? The former need special attention in early years so that they will be capable of group participation in music. The latter need outlets for their special gifts. A Student Artist Series, preceded by auditioning and counsel, provides opportunity to perform, a spur to greater effort in any artistic field. In this field the music educator cannot work too closely with parents and private teachers, not to create "stars" but to enable talent to flower to its full.

Musicology in General
A school graduate today should be able to speak of composers, conductors and players from first-hand knowledge of their musical contributions gained through school music. Through recordings, radio, concerts and recitals he should have been in touch with vocal and instrumental compositions of the past and present. By visits he should be familiar with the making of recordings and the printing of music. Some experience should have been gained in staging or producing a musical show. Indeed, almost any talent can be absorbed in the vast area of the Music Program.

Audience Training
Since, by their very nature, School Music experiences will foster listeners as well as performers, it is here that the conscious and serious training of audiences is begun. Audience etiquette must be taught just as table manners are. If it is well taught, performers of the future are assured of sensitive and appreciative hearers. What a vital but soft-neglected function of the Music Program!

Hence, Music in Schools? Why, of course!

Fashion Hints

The fitted coat is gaining in popularity since its lines look so different, so new, after seasons of wrappy or flaring or pyramid silhouettes. Nicely fitted is this coat of brown woolen with six shining brown buttons to mark the double-breasted closing. Black velveteen is used for the cuffs and for a collar that drapes up or down. The skirt flares below the snug waist and there are slit pockets.

To the birds, the berries glowing on the wayside hedges present more than an attractive picture — they represent the food which is necessary for their sustenance during the winter months. Among the brambles finches peck the ripe blackberries and starlings will quarrel noisily over the black elderberries. Hips and haws will disappear in vast numbers down the throats of the thrush and blackbird raiders, while pigeons and pheasants visit the oak-trees in search of the ripened acorns.

Vibrant Mood Spreads Quickly For Royal Visit

Without detracting in the slightest from the interest centred about the Royal Couple themselves, there were nevertheless several sidelights of the Montreal visit this week which caught the eye and added extra excitement to the occasion.

On the way to the Windsor Hotel Monday afternoon, we noticed many school children who had solved the problem of how to carry a flag and yet have their hands free to applaud, carry books and lunches, etc. With youth's direct approach to the obvious, they had tacked the banners to the backs of their coats or jackets.

The horses of the mounted division of the Montreal Police Force, glistened from their recent contact with grooming brushes, and more startling, from paint brushes, dipped in silver and applied to their hooves.

In a Hampton Avenue garden, a single English rose bloomed in the bitter cold, with staunch British loyalty.

Having a cup of coffee in the waiting room at Dorval airport, to while away the long hour before the plane's arrival, we rubbed shoulders with a dozen different uniforms, including the red costume and leopard skins of Van Doos' drummers.

As a matter of fact, the only person at the busy, crowded airport who didn't look as if she had an important and happy task to perform, was an elderly D.P. woman in faded, makeshift clothing, and carrying a carefully covered basket which seemed to contain just about all she owned. She was confused and a bit frightened by the noise about her, and frequently plucked at the sleeves of airport personnel, who were having difficulty attending to her in

Mrs. Vance Maxwell the president states that the object of this exhibition is, first, to support our Canadian artists, second, to show to members and public, articles which they might learn to make, and the third reason is a very important one, that the public may become acquainted with Canadian Artistic efforts, especially in view of the report submitted a short time ago by the Hon. Vincent Massey in his report of the findings of the Royal Commission on Arts, Letters and Sciences, in which he stressed the fact that there is a need of a definite program and interest in the cultural development of the Dominion.

The response from artists and craftsmen has been very generous. Among those who will be represented is Canadian Handicraft School, which will show pottery, weaving, lampshades, the making of jewellery, gloves, leatherwork and metalwork, etc. Miss Svenningson, the director, will explain the work of the School. There will also be a Laurentian collection of woodcarving, weaving, etc.

The Centre d'Art de Ste. Adele under the direction of Mlle Pauline Rochon will display a very fine selection of handmade sport clothes and knitted articles for all ages.

Donations of used books for the fair will be much appreciated and the sale of these will enable the subdivision to carry on its charitable work for the season.

For further information call the convener, Mrs. J. D. King, WA. 6425, Mrs. Vance Maxwell, WE. 4118, Mrs. M. P. Malone, GL. 1589.

Ernest L. Maag Heads Association

At the 5th Annual Convention held recently at the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec City, which was attended by some 200 delegates from all parts of Canada, Ernest L. Maag, 4827 Western Avenue, Westmount, was re-elected national President of the Canadian Office Machine Dealers Association.

Other directors for the ensuing year are Campbell Hood, Toronto, Eduard Lacouline, Quebec, John Brownlee, Vancouver, and Howard Soulis, Halifax.

Mr. Maag has been a resident of Westmount since 1940, and is a member of the Executive Committee of the Westmount Municipal Association. He is president of an importing firm of Swiss and Swedish office machines in Montreal, having come to Canada from Switzerland 25 years ago.

Dr. G. A. Copping
Issues Warning
Re Lung Diseases

Dr. Gordon A. Copping, of 4485 Sherbrooke Street, well known Westmount physician, told a meeting of the Montreal Medico-Chirurgical Society at a recent meeting that patients who have had pneumonia should have X-ray examination some time after recovery from the illness to be sure that there is no evidence of more serious disease such as cancer.

The meeting elected Dr. Archibald D. Campbell, F.R.C.S., F.R.-C.Q.G., F.A.C.S., of 54 Forden Crescent, Westmount, vice-president of the Society. He is emeritus professor of obstetrics and gynecology at McGill University.

Dr. Copping, assistant professor of medicine at McGill, and associate professor at Montreal General Hospital, dealt with common pitfalls in medical practice.

When a cough persists over a long period it may be an indication of virus pneumonia although it is often thought to be bronchitis, he said.

Early tuberculosis may not show the usual symptoms such as cough and the symptoms may be largely abdominal. Sometimes the only symptoms of early onset of the disease may be merely unusual fatigue.

The general practitioner can often help a neurotic patient complaining of nervous indigestion, insomnia or other physical symptoms but the patients with a serious depression should be referred to a psychiatrist, Dr. Copping added.

In his concluding remarks Dr. Copping reminded doctors that patients are human beings with hopes and fears which need sympathetic understanding.

Danny Kaye, Gene Tierney In Feature At Westmount Theatre

Danny Kaye comes singing, dancing and double-talking his way into the Westmount Theatre on Sunday, in "On The Riviera," a technicolored entertainment gem from Twentieth Century-Fox, the studio that has proved more than once that it has the magic formula for producing fine musical motion pictures. With Danny were Gene Tierney, chic and beguiling as a wealthy, sophisticated French woman, and Corinne Calvet, provocative and sultry in the role of a French music hall entertainer. Such a stellar combination insured glamour, beauty, romance and song with plenty of hilarity for all. "On The Riviera" is just that—a happy combination of ingredients that will send you home from the theatre with a big smile of satisfaction and a song in your heart.

Never more captivating, Kaye, in his dual role of handsome, dashing Capitaine Henri Duran, a flier of international reputation, and Jack Martin, an American entertainer appearing at the Cote d'Azur, proved that Jack Benny's characterization of him as the funniest man in captivity was not an overstatement. It is not necessary to detail the plot of this utterly charming musical except to say that Kaye fits both roles to perfection and his look-alike character gives him ample opportunity to make love to lovely Miss Tierney and to voluptuous Corinne Calvet intermixed with highly exciting complications.

"The Guy Who Came Back," the companion feature, is human comedy with the heart of drama, and a film of earthy, downright appeal as it traces the career of an aging football star all the way down the hill and then up again to one powerful, climatic comeback. In any league "The Guy Who Came Back" is as professional as they come, crossing the scoring line on every count and making every extra point it aims for.

Paul Douglas, just recently triumphant in a winning role in "Fourteen Hours," is at his most persuasive here, enacting with warmth and humor the drama of a professional football star who won't admit he's ready for the bench and comes back from the bottom to prove his class. The escapades between glory range from an hilarious sequence in a night club to another in the wrestling ring, but underlying even the funniest moments in "The Guy Who Came Back" is a genuinely sympathetic compassion for a man who finds it more difficult to accept reality than to make a fool of himself by pretending in public to be what he is not.

At The Monkland Saturday

Loretta Young, ultra glamorous in a breezy, vivacious, care-free way, switches to an out-and-out man trapper in "Half Angel," her latest co-starring Technicolor comedy for Twentieth Century-Fox with Joseph Cotten, starting Saturday till Tuesday at the Monkland Theatre. Added feature: The raw, rough and reckless romance, "Rawhide," starring Tyrone Power and Susan Hayward.

Loretta Young and Joseph Cotten In Feature At Monkland Theatre

Loretta Young and Joseph Cotten are re-united as a sophisticated comedy team in "Half Angel," the Twentieth Century-Fox comedy romance in Technicolor, which will be the next attraction at the Monkland Theatre on Saturday till Tuesday. They last appeared together in "The Farmer's Daughter," which won for Miss Young an Academy Oscar.

"Half Angel" deals hilariously with the psychiatrically common split personality. Everyone, according to medical science, has a conscious and a subconscious mind and as the young lady who loves a man one day and doesn't know him the next, Miss Young keeps the story moving at a swift pace. The story gets both Young and Cotten into a lot of funny hot water.

The stars are supported by a particularly competent cast including Cecil Kellaway, Basil Ruysdael, Jim Backus, Irene Ryan and John Ridgely and they were guided in their comedy antics by Richard Sale, who, with his wife Anita Loos, has written a long string of successes, including "Mother Is a Freshman," and "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College," and who directed "Ticket to Tomahawk" and "I'll Get By." Julian Blaustein, who produced "Broken Arrow" and "Mr. 880" had charge of the production which was photographed in color by ace cinematographer Milton Krasner.

In the glamorous part of her dual personality, Miss Young's wardrobe, designed by Travilla, would do credit to a Paris couturier's best efforts. Her evening gowns, negligees and street dresses are in the most modern style and, as set off by the Technicolor cameras, they will delight women and will be particularly intriguing to the men, especially the V neckline.

Robert Riskin wrote the screen play for "Half Angel" from a story by George Carlton Brown.

Two Outstanding Stars On Bill At The Seville

Kitty Kallen, Mercury's sensational new singing star, and Carmen Cavallaro, the poet of the piano, are the co-stars of the sensational new show opening at the Seville Theatre on Tuesday.

As a result of the booking Montreal will see the two "hottest" personalities to be linked together in one theatre show in Montreal in years, in a program with heavy emphasis on excellent music, and fine popular songs.

Kitty Kallen, the girl who was a South Philadelphia "ugly duckling", is now one of the most glamorous stars of the show world "Pretty Kitty" as she is called has sold over twelve million Mercury discs in seven years, starred in "Finan's Rainbow", has scored a great success in every theatre, and every hotel including New York's Waldorf Astoria in which she has appeared.

She was with Tommy Dorsey, Harry James, and Alex Templeton in that order. Played with Danny Kaye in his radio show, then scored a tremendous hit at the Copacabana which has led to her present "personal appearance" tour which winds up before the movie cameras in March.

Equally important is Camen Cavallaro, the young man who scored a spectacular success in a recent night club appearance in Montreal. He played to "sold right out" audiences, but preferred to return to Montreal a second time before the larger crowds available in a theatre.

Cavallaro's piano mastery has yet to fail to pack in crowds wherever he has played. He is the amazing maestro who can please every taste. The lovers of classical enjoy his popular tunes, and the followers of "pops" go into ecstasy when he plays the classics. It is the first time that Montreal's have had a chance to see the famed Carmen Cavallaro at theatre prices and it is sure that the record set this season by Dick Haymes is going to be topped by the show starring Kallen-Cavallaro which opens on Thursday.

Westmount Smashes Loyola 27-11

Win At Proctor 49-5 To Take Small Trophy

With the last Senior "A" football game behind them for another season, this year's version of the Westmount High team can surely say they have given a fair account of themselves, winning three out of six to end up, for the first time in five years, in third place behind West Hill and McGee. Add to that their 49-5 victory over Proctor Academy and the amazing lack of serious injuries on the team, and you have what is, for Westmount, a very good season due, for the most part, to the fine ability as a coach and a leader of Ron Sharp who led this team to its success.

Charlie Baillie, team captain, was decidedly the individual star of last Wednesday's game versus Loyola as he rolled to four big touchdowns on behalf of his teammates plus converting two. Here is how it happened — after about four minutes of play, Loyola fumbled the ball on their own ten yard line and Westmount recovered to drive over the line from eight yards out, Baillie carrying, in three plays.

It was Dave MacAulay's turn in the beginning stages of the second quarter when he took the pigskin around end for an unconverted major. Ricky Austin of the Green and Maroon put his team into the scoring column toward the end of the half by gathering in a Gagnon pass in the end zone and then doing the same to convert the T.D.

The second half opened slowly with the Westies doing most of the ball-carrying and ground gaining, Big Baillie, MacAulay, Hank Matthews and Gerry Apostolatos in the fore and Charlie finally going over from the two. In the middle of this period Baillie intercepted a long Loyola pass and galloped 55 yards for the score. He converted both this and his first effort.

Then with the ball in Westmount's possession, second down five yards to go, Baillie took the hand-off and thrust through the line from twenty yards out. On fourth down with about a foot to go, Austin of Loyola plunged through off tackle and raced eighty yards for a touchdown! That ended the scoring at a total of 27-11 for Westmount High.

Westmount Crush Proctor

Too much weight on the line and a lot of speed in the backfield told the story last Saturday in Andover, New Hampshire, as Westmount High crushed a lighter Proctor team 49-5 before a crowd of approximately two hundred persons. The scoring started almost immediately as on the third play of the match, former Dominion sprint champion Matthews scooted around end for a total of seventy yards and a t.d. which was converted by Baillie. The latter tallied no less than sixteen points for the locals on that occasion, two t.d.s and five converts (one major for six points during the American regulations).

After another touchdown by Matthews and one each by Baillie and Apostolatos in the first half and more majors by Gerry, Charlie, MacAulay and Eddie Kahlil in the second session, Tip Gilbert heaved a long and difficult pass almost thirty yards to Dave Steel who shook off four Westmount tacklers to run another twenty yards for Proctor's only touchdown. Only a minute remained in the game at the time.

At this point it would be well to mention that at no time what-

Westmount High Promotes International Goodwill

Seen in the above picture is Sherman Adams, governor of New Hampshire, addressing players from Westmount High School and Proctor Academy, at Andover, N.H., prior to the start of the annual football game last Saturday. Westmount defeated Proctor to take the Doug. Small, Memorial Trophy in this, the first year of an-annual competition. Included in the picture is R. O. Bartlett, principal of W.H.S., John Anderson, Westmount Old Boys' Ass'n, and Walter Small, of Westmount, donor of the trophy, which was given in memory of his son who was killed while serving with the Black Watch in World War II.

Fall Bonspiel On At St. George

St. George Curling Club will stage the first major curling event of the current season when the Fall Bonspiel will be held in the rink on The Boulevard from October 29 to November 10.

The annual bonspiel got underway on Monday night with 64 rinks from Montreal and Quebec Province participating.

Finals will be contested Saturday November 10.

The curling season at St. George was officially opened on Saturday when Mrs. G. K. Hodges threw the first stone. Mrs. Hodges was later presented with a bouquet of flowers by club president John M. Pritchard. G. W. Cross proceeded to win the initial club competition, the cut glass event, at the conclusion of the opening ceremonies.

The four lawn bowling champions of St. George's, S. W. McElroy, W. J. Spading, Dudley Page and Alex Falle, were honoured at a dinner held in the club quarters which was well attended by members.

Westmount Rugger Club Lend Players, Lose Game

Westmount English Rugby Club lost out to McGill on Saturday morning at Westmount Park by the score of 18-3. Both teams were handicapped by the absence of star players and Westmount even had to loan four players to McGill to make up a full squad.

The McGill coach insisted that in view of this that the game must be regarded as an exhibition. Westmount are particularly peeved because when the result of the match was announced over the P.A. system at the McGill-Queens match at the stadium on Saturday afternoon no mention was made of the game being merely an exhibition. Westmount hardly consider this cricket as they might have put a little more effort into the league game gone on.

Three factors were mainly responsible for McGill's win; first the superb display of Alastair Ramsay, their Australian centre three-quarter, whose dash and quickness of thought and action capitalized on defensive blunders by Westmount and resulted in three tries all converted by steady kicking by Kelliher, who also got an easy penalty goal.

Secondly, the intensive "spoiling" of Basil Smith, one of the four forward lent to McGill by Westmount. So close was Smith's attentions that neither of the Westmount halfbacks ever hit their usual stride and their superiority of securing the ball from tight and loose scrums was largely wasted.

Thirdly, the better conditioning and "sharpness" of McGill who practice daily, stood out sharply in contrast to that of Westmount whose re-shuffled back division was a scratch affair playing together for the first time and who were plainly out of condition.

The game had hardly got underway when a loose ball from the Westmount 25 bounced high on the goal line and Ramsay, following up like a flash, beat the fullback to score a try.

A few minutes later Ramsay capitalized on a fozzled pass from the Westmount centre to knife his way across the goal line for another major.

The Westmount halfbacks smartened up just before half-time and combined play between the backs and forwards had the McGill team in difficulty, but they were unable to get through for a score.

The second half started off at a faster clip and inside pass from the standoff to a back row forward resulted in a 50 yard gain

St. Leo Grid Title Win By Argos

In a sudden death game for St. Leo's Pee Wee Football Championship, Argos blasted Rough Riders 30 to 8 at the Westmount Athletic Grounds last Saturday morning.

The newly crowned champions had too much speed for the ambitious Rough Riders who seemed listless before the speedy thrusts of Kevin Dunnigan. Kevin skirted the ends almost at will on his numerous triumphal marches across his opponents goal line.

A few of the Rough Riders like Joe Froip, Pete Downing and Paul Ricardo played way below form and the only member of Dodman's Dandies that played up to expectation was Larry Cullinan. Larry showed a lot of hustle and spirit throughout the contest. In addition to Dunnigan who was the Argos big gun, Chuck Casey at Quarterback played a sound and useful game.

Co-Coaches Pete Grant and Paul Ramsey, are to be congratulated for moulding a championship squad out of their material. Mike Dodman, Rough Riders mentor also did a bang up job with his young crew.

With the playing of this championship game, the curtain has been drawn across the local rugby scene for 1951 and on reflection no one can deny that it was a highly successful venture that provided an outlet of enjoyment and enthusiasm for over fifty youngsters.

Tomorrow morning at Lachine Arena, St. Leo's Senior and Bantam hockey squads will make their initial appearance on the frozen surface and a big turnout is anticipated.

Army Heads Loop Westmount Drops To Third Place

Royal Montreal Regiment's football team which had gone three games without a win turned the tables on Westmount Warriors at the W.A.G. on Saturday afternoon to whitewash the Warriors 11-0 and avenge the 14-6 setback handed to them by the losers the previous week.

The loss was a serious blow to Westmount's hopes of making the playoff but it put Army right back on top of the heap, even with Lakeshore Flyers, but with one game in hand over the Valois club.

As the league stands at the moment R.M.R. has 12 points

Avenue Stars In St. Laurent Int. Hockey League

The Westmount Avenue Stars will be making their debut this Saturday afternoon in the St. Laurent Intermediate Hockey League when they tangle with the highly touted St. Laurent Laurels in the second game of the opening twin-bill of the popular westend hockey loop.

The Avenue Stars went through an undefeated season last year, and under Pat Lamosney and Guy Bonnier have decided to enter the wars of the St. Laurent League.

Other teams comprising the league are the N.D.G. Regents, Royal Pharmacy, also from N.D.G., and of course, the St. Laurent Laurels, whom the Stars meet in their initial encounter of the season.

Each team will be playing fifteen games through the season, with a double-header being played every Saturday afternoon at the St. Laurent Arena, situated on St. Croix Blvd., Ville St. Laurent. The first game starts at 2.00 p.m.

MALPEQUE, OYSTERS

Of the 8,000 barrels of oysters shipped each year from Prince Edward Island, about 6,000 of them are Malpeque oysters, according to figures released by the Canadian National Railways freight department. The figures also revealed that 46,000 barrels were shipped last year, chiefly to Montreal and Toronto, from the three Maritime provinces. This represented a drop of 7,000 barrels since 1949.

NATIONAL DEBT

The British National debt increased by £119 ($350) million during the financial year 1950-51 to a total of £25,922 ($77,760) million.

COAL OUTPUT

September U.K. coal production showed a big increase over 1950—17½ million tons against 17 million tons.

Junior Grid Final To Be Played At W.A.G. On Sunday

The Q.R.F.U. junior final will be played at Westmount Athletic Grounds on Sunday afternoon with the kick-off timed for 2.00 p.m.

At time of going to press the only sure starter on Sunday is N.D.G. Maple Leafs, the winner of the western section.

St. Aloysius and South Shore Combines will battle it out on Molson Stadium on Thursday night under the lights for the right to represent the eastern section against N.D.G.

Last Sunday at Maisonneuve St. Aloysius was edged out of the championship of the section by South Shore Combines by the score of 13-11. St. Aloysius contend that a touchdown was awarded in error to Combines when the referee reversed the decision of his umpire who had blown his whistle on the grounds that the Combine ball carrier had been stopped. The referee and the headlinesman maintained that for 9 games played and Lakeshore has also 12 points for 10 games played. Westmount is next in line with 8 points for nine games and Eastward brings up the rear with 6 points for 10 games played.

Army meets Lakeshore at the W.A.G. tomorrow afternoon in a game which will pretty well determine final standing while Westmount take on Eastward tomorrow at Lower Canada College ground, on Royal Avenue, N.D.G.

Army had the better of the exchanges on Saturday moving the sticks 16 times to eight first-downs for Westmount.

R.M.R. took a 3-0 lead early in the first quarter on a neat 25 yard placement by Mike Maruska and came back strongly to tally eight more in the final frame. Norrie Masterman lifted a 45 yard single and Maruska got another when his attempted placement went wide.

Smart play by Masterman set up R.M.R. for a touchdown in the dying minutes of play. He started out on what appeared to be an end run, drew pass defenders out of position and tossed a 25 yard into the end zone to Paul O'Neill.

The game was full of hard hitting and full of action. Eddie McLeod although being a power of strength on the Warrior side was not as effective as on the previous week, but in fairness to McLeod he was pretty closely watched by Coach Peebles' squad who got their lesson in the last game when McLeod scored 12 of the 14 points racked up by Westmount in their 14-6 win.

Besides Maruska, Masterman and O'Neill who scored for Army they were also well served by Ray Tremblay and Jack Patterson. For Westmount Ian "Beans" Hamilton, Al Robinson, Jim Davis and Bill Taylor played hard.

Coach Peebles of Army told The Examiner that for the game tomorrow at Lower Canada College Grounds against Eastward he will field his strongest team and is confident that R.M.R. will retain first place in the standing. In the last game against Lakeshore at the Valois grid R.M.R. played one of their worst games of the season and if for no other reason than to wipe out that defeat Army will be out to show the Lakeshore followers that they intend to represent Quebec against Ontario here for the eastern Canadian championship on November 24.

R.M.R. has had to shift its home game against Eastward tomorrow to Lower Canada College Grounds on Royal Avenue, N.D.G., owing to Westmount occupying the W.A.G. where they play Lakeshore Flyers.

Coach Roy Chesley will have out Wally Smith the well known Snowdon Fastball artist. Chesley thinks that Smith will be a useful addition to Westmount and is also confident that the Warriors will take Lakeshore.

Both games tomorrow start at 2.00 p.m. sharp and should provide excellent entertainment for football fans.

the T.D. was good and so the argument rages.

Sundays final at Westmount Grounds whether it be St. Aloysius or South shore Combines who oppose N.D.G. shapes up as the game of the year. The winners play the Ontario champions in either Windsor or Hamilton next Saturday for the Eastern Canada title. The winner will play the western Canada champions for the Dominion title.

which ended in Ray Davis scoring an unconverted try.

Only seven points down and with a strong wind behind them Westmount's chances looked good. A Westmount threequarter was brought down in front of his own goal and passed glaringly illegal off the ground—Kelleher made no mistake and the margin in favor of McGill was back to 10 points. The Westmount fullback was playing a steady game kicking and saving well. Basil Smith was always prominent and continually disrupted the Westmount attack.

The three other players loaned to McGill were outplaying the Westmount regulars which was not an easy pill for the coach to swallow. Ramsay again burst through the Westmount defence swerving from 15 yards out to fall just over the line for a really excellent try.

Ronnie Ruthven, the Westmount star threequarter, tried hard to shake himself clear of a tenacious McGill defence several times, but just couldn't make it. McGill ran out worthy though surprising winners by 18-3.

Against Ottawa on Sunday afternoon at Trenholme Park, N. D.G., Westmount with a weak team emerged winners by three points to nil. The game was rather scrappy due mainly to the inexperience of the newly formed Ottawa. One encouraging feature of the Ottawa team is the number of young Canadian players on the squad.

Some of the Canadian players showed promise of developing into useful men.

For Westmount David Salow and Jim Adams in the forward line played well. Ronnie Ruthven's well balanced and elusive running at centre threequarter was as much in evidence as usual.

At fullback Tony Beck, playing his first game this season, ran cleverly and determinedly. With a little more kicking practice Beck will be a big asset to Westmount. Charles Turner was also in good form and sated a certain try by getting back to nip off a long Ottawa breakaway.

Westmount had the better of the play but lost several scoring opportunities by weak finishing on the part of the forwards.

The only score of the game came after Ronnie Ruthven broke clear beating several men in turn to pass to David Salow for the decisive pass.

soever during he course of this game did any player on the Green and White Proctor squad show any sign of slackening their fighting spirit and it was to their evident credit that they were still giving it all they had at the end of the game even though their cause looked hopeless. Our sincere thanks to all the boys across the border for the wonderful way in which each and every Westmount lad was treated and congratulations to everyone for the great sportmanship shown.

Among the celebrities present at the ceremonies of turning the Canadian flag over to Proctor Academy was Mr. Sherman Adams, Governor of the state of New Hampshire, who mentioned, among other things, "the great reliance of the United States upon the great resources of your country and your Canadian people and as time goes on, America's ability to maintain and keep the things we have — this life we both enjoy — will depend in a greater measure on your being able to rely upon the people of Canada and their abundant flow of water. Their growing trees and their minerals — which today have only begun to be explored and exploited."
