BONN GROUPS HIT AT MOLOTOV PLAN

Supporters Of Adenauer Coalition See Move As Effort To Prevent Acceptance Of German Rearmament.

By TOM REEDY

Bonn — (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's West German government coalition closed ranks today against opposition Socialist support of Foreign Minister Molotov's Russian bid in Berlin for new four-power talks on German reunification.

Thomas Dehler, chairman of the Adenauer-Allied Free Democrats, criticized Socialist demands that the West take some active step to meet with the Russians on the unity question. Dehler, whose party is the No. 2 group in the coalition, previously had also urged a new approach to the Russians.

Defending Adenauer from Socialist criticisms over the recent London agreement to rearm West Germany, Dehler said:

"I have sat with the chancellor for four years and I have never seen him illustrate less desire for unity than the next man."

He added that West German ratification of the London accord would not interfere with German unity efforts.

The Socialists, following up the offer made by Molotov in an East Berlin speech Wednesday night, also urged formation of a European security pact within the framework of the United Nations.

The Soviet foreign minister said in his speech that the Russians are willing to discuss any proposal on free German elections, a stumbling block in previous unity talks. He also called for the immediate withdrawal of all occupation troops from Germany.

Western observers view Molotov's proposal as the opening blast in the Kremlin drive to torpedo West German ratification of the recent London rearmament agreement. The first West German reaction indicated the Soviet move might give Adenauer trouble in his campaign to win approval at home for the London defence alliance with the West.

The Socialist position was outlined to Parliament by party chairman Erich Ollenhauer. He told Parliament that without a new effort to reach agreement with the Soviet Union on German unity, the London agreement is a "useless" approach to a solution of Europe's problems.

Ollenhauer's demands differed little from Molotov's proposal, made at an East Berlin rally Wednesday night on the eve of the fifth birthday anniversary of the Communist-ruled East German republic.

Calling for immediate withdrawal of occupation troops from Germany and new talks on German reunification, the Soviet foreign minister said:

"The Soviet government express their readiness to discuss proposals made by the participants in the Berlin conference as well as any new proposals on free German elections."

Though Molotov did not specifically commit his government to free all-German elections, in effect he offered the Germans the hope that they could reunify their country on that basis if they give up rearming and alliance with the West.

In contrast to that, Molotov repeatedly warned the West Germans that acceptance of the London agreement to give them sovereignty and arms within the NATO alliance would end all possibility of reuniting their divided country.

Jail Strike In Indiana Fizzles Out

Michigan City, Ind.— (AP) —A walkout of guards at the Indiana state prison apparently has failed to affect the smooth operation of the big penitentiary and a state official said this morning: "The whole strike is a flop."

The opinion came from Hugh P. O'Brien, chairman of the state correction department, who added that the walkout "had fizzled out."

However, pickets paraded for the second day at the prison's two main gates, and Merlin Griffith, vice-president of the International Guards Union, said, "We'll whip O'Brien one way or another."

An undisclosed number of guards assigned to the midnight-to-8 a.m. shift entered the prison on schedule Wednesday night by some entrance other than the picketed gates. They could be seen from the gates as they entered the administration building inside the wall, but they did not pass the pickets.

Prison officials had said a full shift of guards wen on duty on schedule at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

The guards at the big prison, which houses 2,274 convicts, are seeking a 40-hour work week, improvement of working conditions, and reinstatement of four guards fired last week. State officials, however, have refused to meet with the union, citing a state policy against official recognition of a union at a state institution.

Forty-six guards who refused to sign pledges of loyalty to the state or failed to show up for work on the day shift Wednesday were suspended or fired. However, O'Brien said five were reinstated after they telephoned to say they were absent because they were afraid to cross the picket lines.

O'Brien said 16 applicants for guard jobs are being processed as rapidly as possible to fill vacancies. The penal chief said the prison functioned better Wednesday than it had in a long time, explaining, "We got rid of the dead wood."

O'Brien declared that the pickets would be dispersed if they did anything "detrimental to the operation of the prison." He said this action could be taken by either the National Guard or state police.

Alberta Is Opposed To Rate Set-Up

Edmonton — (CP) — The Alberta government said today in a brief to the royal commission on agreed charges that the railways' technique of agreed freight rates is "completely unjustifiable" to Alberta unless subjected to the "One and One-Third Rule."

The brief said "there is real fear in some quarters that the continued and increased use of the agreed charge technique . . . may eliminate and destroy truck competition."

The commission, headed by Mr Justice W. F. A. Turgeon, opened a one-day hearing in Edmonton to hear Alberta arguments against agreements between railways and manufacturers which result in the railways charging more to ship commodities from Ontario to Alberta than from Ontario to British Columbia, even though the haul to Alberta is 700 miles shorter.

The one and one-third rule, incorporated into the Railways Act late in 1951 following the recommendations of the 1949 royal commission on transportation, lowered Alberta freight rates to 133 1-3 per cent from 200 per cent of those to the west coast.

The Alberta government brief, signed by Premier Manning and presented by J. J. Frawley, manager of the Alberta Freight Rates Bureau, said agreed charges have resulted in rates 209 per cent of those to Vancouver.

The one and one-third rule, the brief contended, will be "ignored" whenever the agreed charges are used.

The agreed charges, or contract rates, differ from "competitive" rates in that they must be approved under the Transport Act rather than the Railways Act.

Under the procedure, the railways and shippers enter into contracts providing special rates on commodities carried to the west coast. In return, the shipper must guarantee the railway a certain percentage of his business, usually between 75 per cent and all of it.

There was an indication, said the brief, that "the railways in-

Mendes-France To Make Rearmament Plan Approval Confidence Issue

By HAROLD KING

Paris. — (Reuters) — Premier Pierre Mendes-France placed his plan to rearm West Germany before the National Assembly today, virtually certain of approval.

The foreign affairs debate which opened today will end in a vote on which the premier will stake his job of he sees any likelihood of a "no" verdict like the one that killed the European Defence Community six weeks ago.

The prime minister made it clear to the foreign affairs committee Wednesday that the vote —which may come Friday night —is to endorse the principles of the London agreement. Ratification of the final agreement, to be signed before the end of October, would be submitted to the assembly during November.

Slowly but surely an important number of the prime minister's adversaries have prepared to move towards supporting him, observers say.

The general impression today was that Mendes-France was more master of the political situation at home and in Europe than he had ever been since he took office nearly four months ago.

The tense atmosphere of the debate, in which passionate opponents of German rearmament and reluctant partisans of it faced one another, was heightened by Wednesday night's speech by Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov, which is seen here as an attempt to influence the French deputies against backing up their government's policy.

The speech in East Berlin is bound to serve as ammunition for those who think further negotiations with the Russians should take place before any attempt is made to rearm West Germany.

Eden Spurns Latest Red Proposals

Blackpool, Eng. — (AP) — Foreign Secretary Eden today spurned a new Russian proposal for Big Four talks on German reunification, and said the Kremlin still aims at Communist domination of Germany.

Eden made the declaration at the opening of the Conservative party conference during a detailed review of the recent nine-power London conference's decision to rearm West Germany.

"They (the Russians) have made every effort to draw Germany to their side and to prevent us from drawing Germany to ours."

"They have created German armed forces in their sector long ago. They have consistently refused to agree to Germany being reunited, except on terms which would result in the Communist minority being given the power to subvert the whole state."

Then Eden made this interpolation in the prepared text of his speech:

"This is the Communist plan and it is still their plan which you can read in your papers this morning."

His reference was to proposals made in Berlin Wednesday night by Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov.

Molotov said Russia was prepared to discuss with the Western powers any method for reunifying Germany and to withdraw from the country as long as all other powers do the same.

Eden, in his speech, made it clear that Germany is the main issue in the relations between East and West. He said he expected the conference decision reached in London last week on the rearming of Western Germany to be ratified by the various parliaments because the consequences of rejection are "so fearful to contemplate."

Life Term Imposed On Racket Czar

Phenix City, Ala. — (AP) — An avenging jury struck a blow at Phenix City's tottering empire of crime Wednesday night with a life sentence against the first gambler brought to trial during the wholesale vice cleanup here.

Night club owner E. L. Cook, who readily admitted killing one man and wounding two others in a wild outburst of gunplay at his honky-tonk four years ago, was convicted of murder.

Cook, denounced by state attorneys as a "czar of vice and crime," had gone unprosecuted until the crackdown by Alabama states authorities on racketeering began 15 weeks ago.

The 40-year-old Cook, whose notorious 601 club on Phenix City's once-roaring Dillingham street featured unrestrained gambling 24 hours a day, seven days a week, took the verdict quietly, but his attractive brunette wife screamed "Oh, no," and sobbed hysterically that "God will punish them for this."

Cook claimed self-defence in the killing, and other witnesses — most of them former employees of the night club — told similar stories. However, state attorneys, under withering cross-examination, identified three of them as ex-convicts and another as a member of the grand jury which once before had refused to indict Cook.

Tax Offers Problem To Deibel Pair

Mount Pleasant, Mich. — (AP) — It's been nearly four weeks now since television fans started sending nickels to Charles and Margaret Deibel in a campaign set off by Quizmaster Garry Moore to make them rich.

The 26-year-old Deibels still don't dine on caviar or drive a goldplate limousine. But since Sept. 11, the night Moore asked his TV audience to send Mrs. Deibel a nickel apiece, the family bank account has grown by $8,130 — the equivalent of 162,600 nickels.

The flood of letters which one poured in on the Deibels' modest home at the rate of 25,000 a day has receded to 75 to 100 a day, and daily receipts have dropped from more than $1,000 to about $5 or $10.

Now the Deibels are chiefly concerned with their potential income tax and the letters and calls from people all over the country who want to share their nickel bonanza.

"Some people have asked us to send them up to $5,000," Mrs. Deibel said. "We were told we'd get all sorts of strange requests and were advised to ignore them. So that's what we've done."

The problem of tax collectors is not as easily solved. Mrs. Deibel says Moore has advised them they may not be taxed at all, since each coin they received was a small personal gift.

But internal revenue service officials in nearby Detroit say they will have to study all angles of the case before they decided whether the government will demand a share of the Deibel nickels.

India Sees Solution Near For Disarmament Impasse

United Nations, N.Y. — (CP) — India told the United Nations Wednesday that a solution may be in sight on the problem of world disarmament.

V. K. Krishna Menon, winding up the UN assembly's general debate on world affairs, said that "in spite of suspicion in people's minds, there is a general feeling from many delegations that we seem to be in front of a situation where the common ground may lead us to the path of solution."

A top-priority item to be considered by the assembly's political committee is the Soviet resolution for a treaty on world disarmament and prohibition of atomic and hydrogen weapons.

Based on Anglo-French disarmoment proposals, to many Western delegates it represents a definite change in previous Russian policy.

In a two-hour speech that touched on most matters of world concern, Menon said also that Communist China must be admitted to UN membership if a lasting settlement is to be obtained on many world problems.

He also proposed that German unification might be speeded up if East and West German governments held direct talks "on the beginning of ways to unify their own country."

His proposal came as Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov was suggesting in Berlin that another Big Four conference be called on the German problem.

Menon hoped the Geneva conference and the previous Berlin conference marked the beginning of a new era "and the unfreezing of the cold war."

Although he found the Korean question still unsolved, "we have not reached a situation where there has been a renewal of fighting and there is no situation where the opening of negotiations is barred or extremely difficult."

On the disarmament question, Menon said India will examine the possibilities of presenting to the assembly Prime Minister Nehru's proposal for a standstill agreement on the use of nuclear bombs.

Nehru said this standstill arrangement could be used pending development of a disarmament treaty.

Menon also expressed the hope that a peace treaty will be concluded without delay between Russia and Japan so that Japan may take its place in the UN.

Turning to the recent Colombo conference of Asian leaders, Menon said it was of considerable assistance to the Geneva conference. Points raised at Colombo for solution of the Indochina war became central topics of the discussion at Geneva, on which a solution finally was found.

He said the solution of the Indo China war probably was the most important event that had happened in recent years.

Menon called the Indochina solution "a very useful explanation of what a negotiated settlement should be."

He criticized the recent Southeast Asia treaty signed at Manila as bringing into Asia the menace of the cold war. It was contrary to the sovereignty of the Asian peoples and prevented them from ironing out their own differences.

Improved Living Standards Prime Hope For General Expansion Of International Trade

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Halifax — (CP) — Better standards of living for the world's masses should increase international trade in the coming years, Mitchell Sharp, Associate Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce, said today.

Improved standard could not be achieved, he said in an address to the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, unless surpluses were exchanged among nations on a greater scale than heretofore.

Mr. Sharp's remarks were included in a prepared speech issued to the press before delivery.

The one great uncertainty in the trading world was the course of United States trading policy and the possibility the United States would restrict imports of Canadian goods. The one great defect was the structure of foreign tariffs, particularly that of the United States, which favored raw materials but imposed a scale of duties rising with the degree of manufacture.

Post-war trends in the world at large had been to reduce tariff barriers but, because of dollar shortages, to frustrate the result through quantitative restrictions.

Recently trends had been reversing themselves. Discriminatory quantitative restrictions were being dismantled, and the tendency was to restore tariffs as the main instrument of trade policy.

For the time being, however, there were fewer and lower trade restrictions than since the war's end. The desire of all nations to raise standards of living would put a brake on backsliding trade practices.

One explanation for recent efforts by Communist countries to increase trade with non-Communist countries was that they needed more goods from abroad to achieve their goals and to keep their peoples content.

He felt it was in Canada's interests to promote trade policies that would enable other countries, as well as Canada, to produce more and to raise their standards of living.

This did not mean Canada should be satisfied with trading relationships now prevailing or even those embodied in the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

"Canada is far from getting a fair chance to compete in world markets, and particularly in the United States. In many respects the cards are stacked against us and we must exert every effort to get a better break not only for raw material and food producers, but also for manufacturers, many of whom, I am convinced, could compete effectively if they were not restricted by foreign tariffs to production for the Canadian market alone."

He did not know any sure way for improving commercial relations except to keep pegging away at the problem across the bargaining table.

He predicted, however, that over a period of years and subject to fluctuations there would likely be growing demand for Canada's raw and semi-processed materials and foodstuffs.

Mr. Sharp was a member of panel discussion on "The Future of Trade."

Other members were F. M. Covert, Q.C., Halifax; Dr. D. A. Keys, vice-president scientific National Research Council, Chalk River, Ont., an Brig. James A. Roberts, marketing consultant, Toronto. A. M. Henderson, Montreal, was chairman.

Donor Powers Decline To Jump Colombo Plan Help

Ottawa. —(CP)— Harold Stassen, United States foreign aid chief, today joins Colombo plan conferences amid growing signs of East West differences of opinion on the amount of aid to be given Asian members.

Mr. Stassen, who directs all U. S. economic aid abroad, arrived Wednesday night and promptly went into conference with the American delegation.

He was expected to make a statement today as the closed conference meetings turn to a general discussion of the plan's operations in strengthening the economies of 10 Asian countries stretching from Pakistan to Indochina. There are six donor countries, including Japan which was admitted two days ago.

Following Wednesday's meetings, informants said that both donor and recipient countries have completed their reports on how the plan has been working and what they expect of it in the future.

General indications were that donor countries feel they can not enlarge their present scale of contributions, although Asian members have stated repeatedly that the rate of assistance must be speeded up in the six-year, $5,000,000,000 program.

Reporting Wednesday, Canada said she plans no increase in her annual budget expropriation of $25,400,000. However, she has $8,000,000 in unspent Colombo plan funds held over from previous years, making a total of $33,400,000 available for the next 12 months.

She also said she will consider granting technical assistance to the Indochina states of Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

Informants said the United States, in announcing its plans, stressed the advantages of President Eisenhower's $1,000,000,000 program for disposing of surplus food stocks. The plan permits purchases of American food with local currencies, which in turn are used to invest in local projects to develop the country's economy. For every purchase, the U. S. gives free an amount of food one-third of the purchase.

Canada and Australia are not too pleased with the program, fearing it will disrupt normal exports, but the chief U. S. delegate, Samuel Waugh, emphasized the U. S. has no intention of disrupting normal marketing.

Donor countries, besides Canada and the U. S., are the United Kingdom, Australia and New Zealand. As a new member, Japan has not yet started contributing and is expected to concentrate most of her aid in the form of technical assistance rather than investments.

The U. S. has no specific Colombo plan allocation, but has pledged some $240,000,000 to the area since the plan began.

Boundary Church Will Show First In Film Series

Rock Island, Oct. 7. — On Sunday, October 10, the first in a film showing series will take place at 7 p.m. in Stanstead South United Church in Rock Island. The film for this Sunday is the first in the series of "Science Sermons," by the Moody Bible Institute, of which "God and Creation" has already been seen.

This film, entitled "Dust on Destiny," is described by the publishers as amazing, thrilling and awe-inspiring, "A dramatic presentation of inexplicable miracles of nature." This film depicts wonders of the human ear, which hears both the blast of a cannon and the soft foot fall of a cat, the wonderful mechanism of the heart with its more than 2,000,000,000 beats during the average lifetime without shutdown or repairs.

In the animal realm, "Dust or Destiny" shows the remarkable homing instinct of the pigeon, the flight of the bat, guided by its own radar and the incredible spawning habits of the grunion, a fish laying its eggs on dry land.

"Dust or Destiny" points out that these scientific marvels show unmistakable evidence of a Creator.

Rev. Mr. Tenneson, pastor of Stanstead South, extends a cordial invitation to all persons to attend this service. The film services of last year were very well attended and much appreciated. A similar program is being planned for this winter. It is an unusual form of worship, but sometimes its very novelty helps.

Magog Worker Loses Life In Heroic Effort To Save Life Of His Foreman

Magog, Oct. 7 — A 36-year-old Cherry River man was drowned here yesterday in what witnesses described as a "heroic attempt to save the life of his foreman," whom he apparently thought in difficulties during an underwater pipe inspection in the Magog river. At press time today workers were still searching in a swift current for the body.

Leon Royer, father of three children and an employee of Bosco Construction company was one of two men working with their diver-foreman Harold Patterson when he was inspecting a pipe in the Magog river, near the Bank of Montreal.

A company spokesman said Patterson "was underwater when he signalled for his co-workers to haul him in." Apparently Royer was unable to pull in the diver and "didn't know how much oxygen was left." A witness said "Royer was straining at the rope with his feet wedged against some timber."

After several attempts to retrieve the diver, Royer desperately "plunged into the current and grabbed Patterson." Said Patterson later, "I felt him holding me but I had caught a rock to keep my balance. I shook him off because the weight was dragging us down. I guess the current swept him away." Patterson had over 30 pounds of weights attached to his body. His own weight alone is 212 pounds.

Water current in that vicinity is estimated to be between 20 and 25 mph. Dragging crews worked all day yesterday under the direction of Police Chief Lavoie and resumed operations in the early hours of this morning.

Kiwanians Study Final Details For Horse Show

Last-minute details for the Provincial Horse Show were the centre of discussion at last night's regular Kiwanis Club meeting held under the chairmanship of President Jack Dunfield.

At last report eighty-two entries had been made for the show being held at the Sherbrooke Arena October 13-14-15-16 in connection with the Sherbrooke Winter Fair.

Newman Hunter, chairman of the attendance committee, gave an attendance report from January '54. Eleven members have a one-hundred per cent attendance so far this year. The question of Monday meetings has been brought up again and is to receive further consideration.

Gail Griffiths and Gordon Echenberg, of the Sherbrooke High School, are the winners of the Kiwanis public speaking contest, it was announced.

Seek To Retain Operations Of Sher-Lenn Group

At a meeting of the Sher-Lenn Operatic and Choral Society, it was decided to dispense with the operatic performances this year and continue on as a choral society for the time being. This decision came, after the near-complete disbanding of the organization, when Morris Austin, well-known among music circles in Sherbrooke, offered to take over the directing if it was only on a choral basis.

Since only half the members were in attendance at this meeting, final arrangements could not be made. Because of this, a second meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, October 13, at 7:30 in the Lennoxville High School Gymnasium. If a sufficient number of people turn up on that night, the Society will be able to continue as planned, but if there is no apparent interest, the group will have to be disbanded.

A new arrangement has been made this year whereby the rehearsals will be held only once a week and at the early hour of 7:30, so that the two-hour-long rehearsals will not end too late.

R. Gittel, president of Sher-Lenn, stresses that it is imperative all interested members, old and new, be on hand at the meeting next Wednesday. At this time, if there is a sufficient number of participants the year's program will be arranged and the first rehearsal will be held. It will depend upon the turnout at this meeting on October 13, whether or not there will be a Sher-Lenn this year, and the executive is counting on all interested people to turn out so that they may know exactly where they stand.

Forestry Farm Certificates Awarded At Association Rally At Thetford

(By LARRY MOORE)

Thetford Mines, Oct. 7. — During the past year, the Eastern Township Forestry Association awarded six certificates of "Forestry Farms." At the 11th congress of the E.T.F.A. in this asbestos mining town yesterday eight more groups, including the City of Thetford Mines, were recipients of these awards for efforts towards conservation and reforestration in their respective counties.

The presentations were made at the closing banquet at the Manoir Hebert, where the winners of forestry farms awards, were presented with framed certificates from provincial and municipal leaders and other head-table guests. Because the Association had received more than 80 applications for tree farm certificates it was necessary to choose eight names at random, each representing a county.

J. L. Morin, vice-president of the forestry farm movement, acting in the absence of J. A. St. Marie the president, called upon Paul E. Cliche, president of the E.T.F.A. who congratulated and then presented Armand Marceau, mayor of Thetford Mines, with a certificate.

The City of Thetford Mines owns a forestry farm of some 1,500 acres. Since 1950, the city planted more than 88,800 spruce trees on this territory in Megantic County. To date, this tree farm has given the City of Thetford Mines a revenue of $12,000.00 through the sale of mill wood, $1,000.00 through the sale of fence posts, and another $1,000.00 obtained through the sale of telephone posts.

Amedee Cote, Martinville, county of Compton, received his certificate from the president of the Quebec Forestry Association, Henri Magna. Although his forestry farm covers only six acres, since 1947 he has cultivated, 5,900 red pine trees, today reaching a height of 12 feet and with a diameter of 2 inches.

Rene Carbonneau, Coaticook, county of Stanstead, accepted his certificate from the hands of Mgr. Jean Belleau, of Thetford Mines, who congratulated him on his 50 acre farm, including a maple plantation. He had planted 75 pine trees and 500 spruce trees in addition to his maple grove.

Jos Dube, Rock Forest, Sherbrooke County, has a 42-acre forestry farm containing a maple tree plantation which has been fenced off to prevent any animals to penetrate. Since 1950, Mr. Dube has planted 500 white spruce trees, 500 maple trees and an equal number of pine trees. In 1953 he retrieved $1,500 from his tree farm. Alfred Savoie made the presentation to Jos. Dube.

George Morisette, St. George de Windsor, Richmond County, received his certificate from the Honorable Tancrede Labbe, M.L.A. Mr. Morisette has a farm of 11.4 acres. During the past three years, he has planted more than 6,000 white spruce trees. His maple tree grove has netted him $400 annually, and every year the sale of timber gives him an additional revenue of $250 to $300.

Oscar Corbeil, Wotton, County of Wolfe, has a forestry farm of 19.4 acres. Over a period of 10 years he has planted 300 spruce trees. His maple tree plantation earns him an approximate $300 a year. This presentation was made by a representative of the Minister of Lands and Forests, Hon. J. S. Bourque.

Henri-Louis Belanger, Courcelles, Frontenac County, with a tree farm of 45 acres where draining works have been undertaken, was handed his certificate from Armand Fafard of the Forestry Information Bureau. More than 2,600 pine trees, and 200 spruce trees have been cultivated on his tree farm. Throughout the past year, his tree lot brought him $2,000 through timber, $1,000 for stove wood, and $1,000 in post sales.

Romeo Lessard, St. Benjamin, Dorchester County, whose 60 acre tree farm which he has owned for half a century, earned him a "forestry farm" certificate, presented to Napoleon Veilleux by Lucien Lavigne.

Rosaire Fecteau, St. Benoit-Labre, Beauce County, also merited a tree farm certificate for reforestation on 37 acre farm. Andrien Dussault made the presentation.

Paul E. Cliche, president of the Eastern Townships Forestry Association, addressed the 250 delegates following the supper and he said: "I have noticed during the day that interest towards forestry education is growing." The day-long program, attended by mayors and prefects and forestry farmers from all points in the province, commenced in the morning with registration and a welcome by Mayor A. Marceau and a speech by Paul A. Cliche and lectures and annual reports.

"A million trees were planted last spring by individuals without taking into consideration trees planted by wood-working companies," Mr. Cliche told them. The 4-H Club have planted 47,000 trees. "We feel very pleased with the results, but if you take into consideration the fact that a million trees is very little in an area of 11,411 square miles

Few Hints Given To Lucky-$ Searchers

It's been a whole week now since we have had a winner . . . the first week of rest we have had for a great while. Just for this we will give you hunters a couple of clues.

The bill we put into circulation two weeks ago today was spent while buying groceries in the new Thrift Store in Sherbrooke. No telling where it is now, but it's not here. That's for sure. Then there is the one, N/N 2847358 we left in Belval Restaurant in Granby. Too bad someone doesn't find that one. We have never had a winner from that district.

A week ago today we spent a Lucky Dollar in Turcotte's Store in Thetford Mines. No one seems to notice the Lucky Bills in that section of the Eastern Townships either. One more hint — does anyone check the bills in Waterville? It might be well worth your while.

That's all the help we'll give you for now and we think that's really too much, for you people have been exceptionally observant and don't need any help anyway.

The bills whose numbers have been selected will have been put in circulation throughout the Eastern Townships immediately before the serial numbers are published.

Winners must produce the "Lucky Dollars" within two weeks of the first publication date of the serial number, and the winning bill or bills must be accompanied by the regular weekly Record Crossword puzzle (or reasonable facsimile) at least 50% correctly completed.

If you have in your possession a dollar bill bearing a serial number published in the RECORD, telephone "Lucky Dollars," the Sherbrooke Daily Record, LO 9-3636 and arrange an appointment to exchange it for your reward.

The Record will not be responsible for "Lucky Dollars" delayed or lost in the mail.

All serial numbers not matched by the deadline automatically become inactive, and no payoff will be made on them. All "Lucky Dollars" and all other dollar bills submitted by persons who do not qualify for the reward will be returned to the owners after the serial numbers become inactive.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1954

The RCAF For Mr. Puny

Mr. Tim. Puny dropped into the office this morning. We had glimpsed him on the street several times in the last few days; he had not seemed happy. Now, he appeared to have lost his gloom. He looked like a man who had found himself; there was even a gleam in his eye.

Mr. Puny perched on the edge of our desk — (he has known us for a long time) — and after glancing cautiously at Mr. Sports and Miss Social and Personal to make sure they were busily engaged he said in little better than a whisper:

"Well, I've got quite an idea. It came to me last night."

"Did you dream the number of a winning sweepstake ticket?" we answered facetiously.

"No," he replied, "it's better than that. It's an inspiration. Funny thing, it came just after I was reading The Record."

We were interested. Mr. Puny glanced around nervously again. He acted like an inventor afraid that the world was all ears.

"I've decided to have my hair dyed," he confided, "and have my face lifted. There may be a little trouble about the birth certificate but I think I can get around that. Before long I hope to join the RCAF."

This was decidedly a surprise. Tim. Puny, as readers may already have gleaned, is not a brave soul nor given to heroics.

"Yes," our visitor went on, "I've got it all figured out. Seems to me the RCAF will be the safest place. I mean when those newest bombs begin to drop. I wouldn't care to be on the ground."

"But the radioactive particles must fly pretty high," we hazarded, "and, after all, you can't stay up all the time, even in the air force."

"Well, I still think the air will be a lot safer," Tim insisted, "the particles will be more distributed up there and a plane these days is pretty good protection. As for coming down you may be sure the hangars will be well safeguarded. Those scientists won't take chances on the air force boys."

Mr. Puny's face was aglow. He had an idea and thought it a good one. It didn't seem wise to try to puncture it, came the second-thought, even if we could — and we weren't so sure.

Not Fair To Children

Horror comics are blamed by Miss Alice Cullen, Labor member of parliament for a slum district of Glasgow, for the "vampire hunt" and near-hysteria which gripped hundreds of Glasgow children recently and caused them to invade a cemetery in search of a "vampire with iron teeth."

The children, says a Reuters despatch, returned from the cemetery weeping with terror. City authorities blame not only the comics but a horror movie shown in Glasgow.

If comics, so called — (the name, of course, is often a perversion) — and a single horror film can bring Scottish children, considered traditionally among the least impressionable in the world, to such a pitch of excitement it is obvious more than ever that comics, and certain films, need drastic overhauling.

When the ban on the movie attendance of children was first introduced in the Province of Quebec in the wake of Montreal's disastrous theatre fire there were many who considered it another evidence of "narrowness," or something of the kind. By now a considerable proportion of such critics have probably been led to revise their opinion.

The comics and the films are not alone to blame. Television must bear its share of responsibility. The thought comes of two American children who watched their set the better part of one Saturday. One lad reported gleefully that he had seen five murders on the TV screen; the other, who stayed a little longer, boasted that his score was six.

This lack of responsibility on the part of some comic strip, film and television-scene creators is not fair to the plastic, impressionable minds of children. More, it represents a serious distortion of life.

How often in everyday life, for instance, does one see a man, or a woman, with a revolver in hand? How many persons can claim to have witnessed a real-life murder? Very few. And yet many youngsters must be given the idea, despite parental disclaimers, that shootings are commonplace, everyday happenings.

Such distortions are not fair to children, imitators since the human race began. Nor are they elevating for adults.

A Labor Man's Caution.

Mr. A. R. Mosher, the 73-year-old president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, is a leader with experience perhaps second to none in his handling of labor problems. Few men have fought more consistently for the rights of the workers.

In addressing the CCL annual convention in Toronto the other day, Mr. Mosher warned employees against making wage demands that are beyond the capacity of companies to meet. He cautioned unions to "watch the economic soundness of your claims."

This kind of stand may not be a popular one with many union members though probably the majority realize its inherent common-sense. Mr. Mosher has made the point often before and his leadership has survived. It is a truism that you cannot get water from a stone or more money in the form of wages that a concern can pay and still do business.

The veteran CCL leader has, at the same time, often underlined the fact that the main trouble in the labor picture today is the great inequality of pay between different industries and occupations. The average wages of workers in some factories is little more than half of those in some others. Compare automobile workers and textile workers, for instance. It is not that the textile factories of today choose to pay less; it is, rather, that their earnings over the last few years have been a great deal smaller in proportion than those of the car manufacturing companies.

Probably the greatest inequality occurs in the compensation received by white-collar workers many of whom are non-unionized.

The wages of many workers, railwaymen, for instance, have for a long time been relatively high. And the economic positon of the Canadian railways has, of late, become progressively worse.

The conclusion must be that all branches of labor are not under-paid. Some sections are, relatively, badly off. Labor's efforts, as Mr. Mosher has suggested more than once, might suitably be directed to the removal of inequalities rather than to the general raising of wages. In achieving this goal government co-operation will be necessary, in many cases, in order to ameliorate the economic disabilities of certain industries.

CONFESSIONS MADE IN CHINA

Toronto Telegram

Two American newspapermen and a ship's captain have just been released by the Chinese after 18 months of isolation in dark and filthy cells. Their conclusions concerning the Chinese confirm what the British Labor delegation saw from a different level. The new Communist regime has succeeded in eliminating, to a considerable degree, graft, corruption and drug-taking, but this has been accomplished at the expense of sacrificing all individual liberty to state domination.

State domination demands justification for what it it does, and one of its strange manifestations is the process known as brain washing. "Confessions" are extorted by means of prolonged physical and psychological treatment. One of the newspapermen was made to sign 17 pages of lies, including such statements as that the wind from Hong Kong was purposefully polluted with germs, while the ship's captain was unable even to read the Chinese document to which he gave his signature.

While such "confessions" appear ridiculous to the western world, they probably serve the aims of interior propaganda in China in the same way as the interests of Russia were served by confessions heard at notorious spy trials held in Moscow and in satellite capitals. They bring once more into focus the impenetrability of the Iron Curtain, for matters which appear ridiculous on one side are seriously, and dangerously, presented on the other.

They also show how far the police methods of Communist Russia are being exported to and practised by Red China.

JACOBY On Bridge

BEWARE OF ARTISTRY, IT CAN BACKFIRE

Most bridge players would rather win a trick that doesn't "belong" to them than one that does. "After all," they would explain, if anybody asked them, "it doesn't take much brains to collect the tricks that are just lying around and begging to be taken, but it takes real artistry to talk the enemy out of a trick that is really his.'

This may be very true, but you sometimes see a player working so hard at this kind of "artistry" that he forgets to make the simple play that will assure his contract. That's what happened to South in today's hand.

West opened the jack of clubs, declarer hopefully put up dummy's queen, but East covered with king, and south had to win with the ace. It now looked as though South might lose two trumps, a heart, and a club. Hence declarer had to find a way to eliminate one of these losers.

South decided that his best chance was to make the two top trumps clank together. Hence he led the queen of spades from his hand and tried to look like a player who had the ace—whatever that may look like.

West looked doubtfully at the queen of spades and thought for one panicky instant of playing his king, for fear of losing it. But then he asked himself why South would lead the queen of spades if he really had the ace. Surely South would get to dummy and take a trump finesse; or, at worst, he would lay down the ace of spades in the hope of dropping the king.

Hence West came to the proper conclusion — that South didn't have the ace of spades. And West played his low trump. East took the ace of spades and led a club. West thereupon took a club, the king of spades, and the ace of hearts to set the contract.

As you can see, South's attempt to steal a trick failed, but he could have accomplished by direct play what he couldn't get by stealth. After winning the first trick with the ace of clubs, South should lead out his four high diamonds, discarding clubs from the dummy. The contract is safe if the diamonds break normally and if the top trumps are divided.

With the normal diamond break, South gets by with three rounds of diamonds. When the fourth diamond is led, South doesn't care which opponent ruffs. If a defender can ruff with the small trump (as in this case), the top trumps will then drop together; and if a defender has to ruff with a top trump, so much the better. Either way, South loses two trumps and a heart but no club trick.

CARD SENSE

Q—With neither side vulnerable, the bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1 Spade	2 Clubs	Pass	Pass
Double	Pass	?

You, South, hold: Spades 8-2, Hearts Q-J-9-7-6-5-3, Diamonds K-7-2, Club 3. What do you do?

A—Bid four hearts. Many experts would have bid four hearts right over two clubs. There can be no excuse for failing to bid game now, when your partner shows a good hand and some sort of fit for any suit that you care to name.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades 8-2, Hearts 9-7-3, Diamonds K-9-7-2, Clubs Q-10-5-3. What do you do?

WATCH ON THE ARCTIC

(Toronto Telegram)

A joint communique issued in Ottawa and Washington tells of a new radar chain to be established well within the Arctic Circle. It will give earlier warning of Soviet air attack than is at present possible.

A network of Soviet long-distance bomber bases has already been built in the far north from which aircraft with a speed of 300 mph can be despatched to this country. The present early warning system might give Toronto a four-hour warning of attack and Chicago some six hours. But the speed of aircraft does not remain static. Bombers with double this speed may shortly be available to Russia and the above period of warning will thus be halved. Dr. Gordon Schrum, director of the British Columbia Research Council, has warned that even the jet bomber may be outmoded in five years' time and replaced by guided missiles with speeds far in excess of those now reckoned upon.

The future may be frightening one, but any lag in either offensive or defensive means of combat will leave this continent open to devastating Soviet attack. Early warning is vital to bring into quick operation the country's air defense measures and other military preparations to meet the threat involved. But it will be useless to the civilian population unless civil defense measures of major cities such as Toronto are given the same air of urgency.

Marilyn To Return To Work Today

By JAMES BACON

Hollywood—(AP)—It's back to the "Seven Year Itch" today for Marilyn Munroe, with no Joe DiMaggio to scratch her back.

And there is no joy on San Francisco's Fisherman's Wharf, even though the mighty DiMaggio has struck out for there.

Barring complications, the blonde blockbuster was scheduled to go back to work today on her picture which has been shooting around her during the recent unpleasantness.

She slept alone Wednesday night in the $1,000-a-month Beverly Hills home that she and Joe rented.

DiMaggio left her Wednesday in about as final a departure as Hollywood ever has seen. When Joe came out of the house with his bags packed and a grim smile on his face, he seemed to write period for all time on filmland's most publicized marriage.

About 100 reporters and photographers chronicled this little bit of movieland history—many more than greeted President Eisenhower's visit here last month.

Marilyn, for the first time, lost her composure before the press and had nothing to say. She sobbed almost to the point of collapse. Some cynics called them phony tears but Marilyn would be the first to admit that she isn't a good enough actress to play the scene the way it was played.

Her departure from the house was billed as a return to work, but actually it never was intended to be. She wasn't in the mood to play comedy, and after a five-minute drive to lawyer Jerry Giesler's office, she returned home.

The exit had accomplished its purpose—a general clearing of the small army of newspaper men who had staked out for days on her front lawn.

Brookline, Mass.— (AP) — Cantor Alfred Rosbash, 41, dropped dead of a heart attack Wednesday night as he chanted the Kol Nidre —the ancient Jewish appeal for divine mercy—at the Yom Kippur service at temple Ohabei Shalom. Nearly 2,000 worshippers saw him collapse. Rabbi Dudley Weinberg asked the congregation to join him in prayers for the cantor.

Planning Employee Benefits

The views of different groups of employees can differ widely when it comes to choosing a Benefit Plan best suited to their needs.

Some prefer a Retirement Pension Plan, some a Profit-sharing Plan, while others may want a straight Savings Plan. One group may wish to contribute, while another may favour a non-contributory Plan.

These and many other points will arise when you get to grips with the problem of setting up a Benefit Plan for your employees.

Our knowledge, experience and facilities as Pension Consultants, and Custodian or Trustee for Pension and Savings Plans, are available, and could be of considerable value to you in dealing with this important problem.

Demands National Development Plan

Saskatoon— (CP) —George Hees, national president of the Progressive Conservative party, has called for a national development policy in the interests of Canada as a whole.

"Canada is one country, and the prosperity of one part reflects on the economy of the whole," he said Wednesday in an address at a public meeting.

Mr. Hees said the Liberal government was not interested in developing the country as a whole, but was content to concentrate industrial power in Ontario and Quebec.

Mr. Hees also said it is the responsibility of the federal government to extend credit to farmers on farm-stored grain. Canada's large unsold wheat surplus "has accumulated due to the government's refusal to sit down with our former customers and work out a mutually satisfactory agreement."

Escapee Yields Self To Police

Dartmouth, N. S.— (CP) —Alex Sutherland, 23, walked into the police station here and gave himself up Wednesday night several hours after he escaped from the Nova Scotia mental hospital.

"I believe you were looking for me," he said.

Police said he gave them a key but neither they nor hospital authorities knew how Sutherland escaped. It was not his first break, however. Police said he seemed able to leave the institution "whenever he felt like it."

Hospital authorities said Sutherland, a native of Glace Bay, was not dangerous.

Last month another inmate, Hugh James Gillis, slid to freedom down knotted bed sheets and remained at large 17 days despite an extensive search in the surrounding woods.

Another patient was found beaten to death in Gillis' ward the day he escaped.

Santa Monica, Calif. — (AP)—Guy Madison, the cowboy actor, had to spend too much time home on the range, he complained in winning a divorce Wednesday from actress Gail Russell. Madison testified it was often necessary for him to cook meals and clean the house because his wife "had no interest in keeping up the home, wouldn't allow servants and showed no interest in my work."

with a population of 613,181 inhabitants," he added.

Mr. Cliche told them they should intensify their program towards reforestration and that they should have at least one tree nursery and one forester per county. "We have only three forestry engineers for 17 counties," Mr. Cliche informed them. He told reforestration "should be your cause." In concluding he urged them to help the E.T.F.A. to make the Eastern Townships the most prosperous district of our province industrially, commercially, and economically.

During the lecture and the adoption of the annual report of activities, given by Lucien Bedard, secretary of the E.T.F.A., there was mention of the beautifying of 147 school surroundings, where they have planted 4,500 trees furnished by the Southern Canada Power Company and the provincial nursery at Sherbrooke. Among the many places where they were cultivated were: Milan, Springhill, St. Agnes, Woburn, St. Samuel, Bellarmin, St. Hyacinthe de Ditchfield, Winslow South, St. Evariste, etc.

Concerning reforestation by the municipalities, in the spring of 1954 a circular letter inviting the municipalities of the counties of Stanstead, Richmond, Compton and Sherbrooke to plant 500 trees, was sent. These counties, Mr. Bedard said, represented around 55 municipalities of which only seven have replied that they were interested. He added, however, that though the replies were not numerous, a first step is made and in a few years many places will follow like the Town of Thetford which has already nearly 80,000 spruces planted.

Certain municipalities have asked the E.T.F.A. for trees to be planted on individual lots, when the offer was for the plantation of lots belonging to the municipalities. Mr. Bedard continued "we have had inquiries for more than 24,000 trees, and we have furnished only 2,000 to the municipalities of Beebe, Windsor Mills, and Hatley.

"Our 4-H clubs have helped very much the reforestration cause, either by propaganda or by the plantation itself," he said. Breaking down the reforestration figures he listed it as follows; Nicolet, 1,000 spruce; Scotstown, 11,000 spruce; Lake Megantic, 9,000; West Shefford, 300 spruce; Sawyerville, 3,000 spruce; Napierville, 200 spruce; Windsor Mills, 1,500 spruce; and St. Anselme, 1,000 red pine. Forming a total of 27,000 trees planted by the 4-H Clubs in the region.

In addition to the reforestration work executed by certain companies of the region, Mr. Bedard mentioned the reforestration work of the "Yamaska Conservation Association" to an amount of 3,000 spruce trees. In the distribution of trees, 14,500 have been accorded to the individuals

A forum was conducted at 10.30 in the morning by Louis Roch Seguin, who spoke on "The Cleaning of lakes for trout." At noon there was receptoin for all the mayors at the Manoir Hebert.

After a forum on "The valuation and taxation of wood lots by municipalities" with Omer Lussier as the animator, the ladies left by bus for a tour of the city.

"Cultivation of wood lots and sugar bushes for better results" was topic developed by Armand Fafard at an afternoon forum. At 5.00 o'clock, delegates heard the report of the constitution committee, report of the resolution committee and the report of the election committee.

The officers of the E.T.F.A. for 1954-55 are: President, Paul Cliche; Past president, Alfred Savoie, Nicolet; 1st Vice-president, A. J. Philip, Windsor Mills; 2nd Vice-president, F. E. Alain, Victoriaville; Secretary, Lucien Bedard, Sherbrooke; Treasurer, Georges Sylvestre, notary Sherbrooke. The executive council includes: Alfred Savoie, Nicolet; G. M. Stearns, Lake Megantic; Ernest Dupuis, East Angus; F. E. Alain, Victoriaville; Georges Lemire, Sherbrooke, and J. L. Morin, Drummondville, who was formerly a director.

Decline Noted In Receipts At Revenue Office

Total collections for the port of Sherbrooke, Department of National Revenue, customs and excise division, during September 1954 showed a decline of $18,941.95 as compared with the corresponding month of last year according to figures issued by L. W. Greenland, collector in charge.

The receipts for the past month amounted to $288,912.52 as compared with $407,854.47 in September 1953. The detailed collections for September 1954, with the 1953 figures in brackets, were: Customs import duties, $67,532.21 ($86,208.93); excise taxes, $221,303.21 ($221,522.79), and sundry collections, $77.10 ($122.75).

For the first six months of the fiscal year ending September 30, the collections were $1,703,096.04, a decline of $156,366.78 from the receipts of $1,859,462.82 in the first six months of the previous year.

this year, the West proposed free all-German elections as the first step toward unification. Under this plan negotiations for a peace treaty would follow the formation of an all-German government.

Molotov turned the idea down then. He insisted instead on the immediate conclusion of a peace treaty which Western diplomats said would leave a unified Germany virtually defenceless on the Red arm's doorstep and with East German Communists in key government posts.

Speaking to an audience that included ranking East German officials and representatives of a dozen Communist countries, Molotov also asserted:

1. Russia is prepared to discuss with the Western powers at any time any method for reunifying Germany.

2. Whatever the West does, the Germans eventually will unify themselves.

3. To ease the tense situation the Russians are prepared to withdraw from Germany as long as other powers do the same.

Shrewdly timed, the new Moscow attack came just before the West German Parliament opened debate on the London agreement and as the French National Assembly gathered to hear Premier Pierre Mendes-France's report on the nine-power talks.

Cards Of Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to all my kind friends and neighbours for the many kindnesses shown to myself as well as my family, while I was a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital and during my convalescence at home. Especially do I wish to thank the officers and members of Colfax Rebekah Lodge; and the Women's Association of the United Church, for flowers, gifts and cards and to the many friends for their lovely cards as well as for the visits paid me since my return home. Such kindness is much appreciated and will ever be remembered.

MARRIAGES

OSLER—MACDONALD

Milan, Que., Oct. 7. — Baskets of white gladioli were used to decorate the altar and early autumn flowers adorned the sanctuary of Bethany Presbyterian Church, Milan, Que., for the three o'clock wedding on Saturday afternoon, August twenty-eighth, of Anna Catherine Macdonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Macdonald of Milan, Que., and Robert Erwin Osler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin R. Osler of Brighton, Ont. The Rev. Norman MacKay, of Ottawa, Ont., uncle of the bride, and Rev. Ivor MacIver, of Scotstown, officiated at the marriage ceremony. The guest pews were marked by sprigs of purple heather tied with white satin bows. The heather was sent by the bride's aunt from Scotland, especially for the occasion. Miss Lois MacKenzie rendered appropriate wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Henry Mouland, who sang, "O Perfect Love," while the guests were being seated and "Eternally," during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a floor-length gown of white organdy fashioned with a tight bodice featuring a portrait neckline with a yoke of organdy medallions, the very full skirt terminating in a chapel-length train of tiered organdy medallions over organdy net. Her chapel length veil of tulle worn over the face was held by a headdress of white organdy. Her only jewelry was pearl earrings, the gift of the groom and she carried an arm bouquet of Better Times roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Herbert K. Mayhew as matron of honor for her cousin, and Miss Catherine MacKay, also a cousin of the bride, wore identical floor-length frocks of tulle over taffeta fashioned with fitted strapless bodices and full tiered skirts, Mrs. Mayhew being in peacock blue and Miss MacKay wearing winter pink. They wore jackets and headdresses to match their gowns and carried Colonial bouquets of pink gladioli.

Little Miss Martha Macdonald, and Miss Andrea MacLean, niece of the bride, were flower girls. They wore very short yellow organdy dresses with full skirts over crinolines and matching coronets and carried baskets of mixed sweet peas and baby's breath.

Mr. Neil Osler, of Hamilton, Ont., acted as best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Ian Macdonald, Toronto, Ont., brother of the bride, and Mr. Iain MacKay of Toronto, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Macdonald, mother of the bride, was in an afternoon gown of navy triple sheer trimmed in pink. She wore a small original model hat of navy velvet, navy accessories and a corsage bouquet of pink tea roses.

Mrs. Osler, the bridegroom's mother, was in a street-length ensemble of olive green wool with which she wore a small white feather hat, black accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

The reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents where multi-colored gladioli were used in decoration. The bride's table, centered with the three-tier wedding cake, was adorned with low bowls of white sweet peas and sprigs of purple heather.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Osler left for a short wedding trip, the bride wearing a beige lightweight wool dress trimmed with mink, a cinnamon tan French velour cloche hat with cinnamon tan accessories and a corsage of Better Times roses with heather.

Mr. and Mrs. Osler sailed on September 2 for London, England, where they will reside while Mr. Osler continues his studies in architecture. Mrs. Osler is a graduate of the Montreal General Hospital School of Nursing, class of '52.

Out of town guests were from Brighton, Hamilton, Toronto and Ottawa, Ont.; Lebanon and Hanover, N.H.; Windsor, Vt.; Rumford, Me.; Detroit, Mich.; Montreal, Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, Asbestos, Bury, Scotstown, Lake Megantic and Woburn.

School Fair Held In Island Brook Sponsored By Colonization Society

Island Brook, Oct. 7 — A successful school fair, sponsored by the Eastern Townships Protestant Colonization Society, was held in the Island Brook school on Thursday, September 16.

Rev. Canon Dunn, president of the Colonization, ably assisted by Rev. Secord, of Bury, judged the handicraft, plasticene modelling and the various primary sections. The cooking and sewing departments were capably judged by Miss W. Hodge, with Mrs. R. Elliott as assistant.

Mr. D. MacMillan, agronome of Cookshire, had charge of the vegetable and flower exhibits. The seeds, distributed by him in the spring, were supplied by the Department of Agriculture.

To Mr. C. Soles and the Colonization much credit is due for the fifty dollars donated as prize money and the treat of ice-cream at the lunch hour. The Colonization Society supplies C.L.O. capsules for the pupils and provides soups, cocoa, sugar and milk for hot lunches throughout the winter months.

In spite of threatening rain, the school children eagerly participated in sports during the afternoon. Later Canon Dunn acted as chairman and each of the judges in turn gave a few helpful criticisms on the exhibits they judged. Mr. Soles distributed the prize money. Mr. Thomas Burns, mayor of Newport, was present and spoke of the interest shown in the fair and the quality of the exhibits. Before the gathering dispersed, Mr. Burns treated each one present to a chocolate bar.

Mrs. Hazel Kerr, on behalf of Mrs. Morrow and the pupils, thanked all who had helped to make this fair possible. Mrs. Kerr also thanked the Colonization through Mr. Soles for the C.L.O. capsules and hot lunch supplies which are much appreciated by the school. The day was brought to a close by the singing of God save the Queen.

SCOTSTOWN—

St. Paul's Church Elders Ordained

Scotstown, Oct. 7 — At an impressive service in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, on Sunday evening, September 26, Dan D. MacLeod, Russell M. Morrison and Dan Paul Murray were ordained to the office of eldership, to which they had been elected by the congregation.

The solemn and impressive service of Ordination was conducted by the minister, Rev. I. D. MacIver, in the presence of a large congregation. In his address, the subject of which was "The Office of the Presbyter," he discussed the office in the religion of ancient Israel and traced the continuity of that office through the New Testament Church.

Speaking of the relationship between the elders and the congregation, Mr. MacIver said, "The elders are your elected representatives, but any democratic government works effectively only when there is interest and action on the part of those who elect."

Addressing the newly ordained elders, he reminded them that a great honor had been bestowed on them, and also a great responsibility: "You have been called out to be God's good men in this congregation and in this community." The choir, under the direction of Mrs. I. D. MacIver, with Miss Lillian MacIver at the organ, sang the anthem, "A Name Which Is Above Every Name," by W. J. Kirkpatrick.

RALLY DAY

Rally Day was observed in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church when the pupils, teachers, and officers of the Sunday School attended the regular morning service, while a Junior Choir led the service of praise. The service was conducted by the minister, Rev. I. D. MacIver, assisted by three young people of the congregation, Fay MacDonald, Roderick MacIver, and Earl Murray, who read the Scripture lessons. Mr. MacIver preached on the subject, "So Shall Ye Be My Disciples," and the junior choir sang the selection, "Resting on the Promises."

Plenty Of Questions Still Unanswered As NHL Opens

Experts Figure Red Wings Still Class Of Circuit Although Leafs And Canadiens Provide Many Answers

Are Detroit Red Wings as strong as last year when they waltzed to the league championship and then took the Stanley Cup? Have they lost some of the class that carried them to league titles for the last six years? Will they roll to seven this year?

These are some of the question marks that drip from the National Hockey League marquee which makes its seasonal debut tonight.

But the general feeling around the six-team circuit is that the Detroiters have lost none of their polish. And some of the questions may be answered tonight when the Toronto Maple Leafs, third place finishers last season, meet the Wings in Detroit and Canadiens go against the new look Chicago Black Hawks in Montreal.

The experts say that the Leafs and the Canadiens could provide many of the answers to the Red Wing questions. Both clubs are considerably stronger and may make it rough for the Detroit club.

Same Club

The Red Wings hit this season with just about the same club as last year. Only Jimmy Peters valuable utility man, is missing. And the Wings may show the strongest attacking line in the business — Alex Delvecchio, Gordie Howe and team captain Ted Lindsay. Delvecchio has been showing well between the two hot-shot wingers in pre-season training.

Coach Jimmy Skinner, who took over the Detroit coaching duties from Tommy Ivan, thinks his club is a bit stronger, but adds: "The whole league is stronger."

Most of the competition, the experts say, will come from coach Dick Irvin's Canadiens and coach King Clancy's Leafs. Irvin is pleased with his club and figures his line of Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, Jean Beliveau and Dickie Moore may be the hottest in the league.

Clancy rates the Leafs 20 per cent stronger than last season. And predicts that his rookies of two years ago are ready to burst out with big years.

The Hawks sport the new look through off season deals that had them trading left and right. With Ivan at the helm the accent is on youth. Defenceman Gus Mortson, in his ninth season in the big time, is the oldest man on the club at 29.

The four clubs provide the curtain raisers for the 70-game schedule that will end March 20. Saturday night all clubs get into action. Boston Bruins at Montreal, Black Hawks at Toronto, and New York Rangers at Detroit.

Passing Years Are Taking Some Of Fire Out Of Leo Durocher; Still Tough Winner Than Loser, Says Lip

By JOE REICHLER

New York — (AP) — The passing years are taking some of the fire out of Leo Durocher

There was a time when the New York Giants' manager cooked many a guy in flames of emotion without any sense of regret or sorrow. The opposition was a mortal enemy, the umpire an unnecessary evil, even his teammates felt his wrath at times.

The Durocher of today has learned to button his lip or, at least, not to fly off the handle in unrestrained fury, with or without justifiable cause.

People, attributed the reformation to the influence of his wife, the lovely movie and television star, Laraine Day. She, however, repeatedly has denied there has been a reformation, maintaining Leo is no different than he has always been.

Attracted By Manner

"I was attracted by Leo's kind, courteous and thoughtful manner the day I met him and he's been the same every since," she said.

Miss Day also feels that many of Leo's statements have been misinterpreted, particularly the famous "nice-guys-finish-last" remark he made several years ago.

"Leo didn't mean that an intrinsically nice guy can't win," she said. "What he meant was there isn't time to be nice when you're playing to win, and Leo never plays except to win. Leo's 'nice guy' is someone who does not care whether he wins or loses, and that's what he meant when he said: 'Nice guys finish last.'"

Leo is inclined to agree with Laraine's appraisal of him.

Wants Winners

"I'm still a tougher winner than loser," he said. "If I've got a losing team and nothing I do seems to help, I usually say very little to the players. I certainly don't bawl them out because they feel just as badly as I do about losing.

"But if we have a winning ball club and I believe we've got a fighting chance to take it all, then I keep after my players. I don't tolerate careless play and mental lapses that contribute to losing games. I've always said just liking to win is not enough. I want players who must win."

Scott Frost Races Two Minute Mile

Lexington, Ky. —(AP)— Scott Frost Tuesday became the first two-year-old of either harness-racing gait to race a mile in two minutes when he trotted the second heat of the $9,605 Cimarron Ranch trot in two minutes flat.

The bay son of Hoot Mon, owned by Sol Camp of Shafter, Calif., and driven by Joe O'Brien of New Glasgow, N. S., came off a blistering early pace set by Galophone to lower the race record of 2:01 3-5 set last year by Newport Dream.

Titan Hanover, a trotter, did a two-minute mile in a time trial in 1944. The world's race record for two-year-old pacers is 2:05⅕.

Maple Leafs Edge Pittsburgh 3-2

Toronto—(CP)—Bob Bailey scored the only goal of the third period Wednesday night to give Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League a 3-2 victory over their farmhand Pittsburgh Hornets.

A near-capacity crowd of 11,799 watched the first appearance on Leaf's home ice this season. All proceeds of the game, $6,761.50, went to the Community Chest of greater Toronto.

Leftwinger Harry Watson and Eric Nesterenko scored the other Leaf goals. Bob Sabourin and Willie Marshall scored for the American League Hornets in the second period.

The Leafs open the 1954-55 season against the Red Wings in Detroit tonight.

Lopez Feted By Hometown Fans

Tampa, Fla. — (AP) — Home town folks hollering "We'll get them next year" put on a big hero's welcome party Wednesday for Al Lopez, the Tampa sandlotter who went on in baseball to manage Cleveland Indians.

You'd have thought Lopez had managed the winner of the world series instead of the club that lost to the New York Giants in four straight games.

Tampa friends honored him at a ceremony at the city's new big baseball park named Al Lopez Field. Then they paraded him through the business district and through the Latin quarters and topped it off with a street dance.

At the baseball park, modest Al was visibly overcome.

"This is my 30th year of baseball and I've seen nearly 15 world series. In all that time I've never seen a team play better ball than the Giants did against us. They could have beaten any club they played. They deserve a lot of credit, but let me tell you, the American League is great too."

Montreal Royals Sell Three Men

Montreal — (CP) — The Montreal baseball club has announced sale of three players to the parent Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League — the transaction intended to protect the men from the baseball draft.

The players are shortstop Chico Fernandez, pitcher Charlie Templeton and second baseman Charlie Neal. Neal, though property of the International League Royals, played the 1954 season with St. Paul of the American Association.

The Royals also announced purchase of catcher Ken Staples from Pueblo of the Southern League and outfielder Vic Marasco, with both Oakland and Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League in 1954.

The club also bought the contract of hurler Glenn Mickens, who played here this past season on option.

Richards Makes First Trade

Baltimore. —(AP)— Paul Richards pulled off his first player deal Wednesday since becoming general manager of the American League's Baltimore Orioles Sept. 15.

Richards said the Orioles had traded pitcher Jehosie Heard and an undisclosed amount of cash to Portland of the Pacific Coast League for pitcher Robert S. Alexander.

Alexander, a right hander, pitched 13 complete games and had a record of 10 victories and 12 defeats last season. He had a 3.24 earned-run average.

Record Steelhead Taken In B.C.

Hazelton, B. C. — (CP) — A world-record 36-pound steelhead trout was caught Wednesday in the rocky little Kispiox river near this northern British Columbia town. It was the third record steel-head pulled from the stream this season.

Charles Ewart of Prince George, B. C., caught the 36-pounder on a 10-pound leader and 15-pound monofilament line, using a spinning reel.

The British Columbia game commission and fishing experts of the Vancouver Province and Sun said it is the largest steelhead ever taken.

San Francisco — Charley Norkus, 193, Port Washington, N.Y., stopped Charlie Powell, 212, San Diego, 7.

Armand Savoie Must Get Down To Serious Training Or He Won't Enter Ring, Says Manager Sowery

Montreal — (CP) — Cliff Sowery, manager of Armand Savoie, said Wednesday night he won't permit his fighter to enter a ring again unless he takes his training seriously.

Savoie, victim of a long losing streak, recently lost a split decision in Halifax to Kid Howard for the Canadian lightweight boxing crown.

Sowery blamed the losses on the Montreal fighter's failure to get in condition.

There has been talk of a return bout in Halifax Oct. 15, but Sowery said Savoie will definitely not be in shape by them. "In fact, there won't be a rematch unless the boy gets down to hard training."

Charges Let-down

Sowery added:

"There is no sense in losing matches down the line when he shouldn't be. He knocked out Howard once and he should have beaten the Maritimer the last time. He's only letting down his supporters and himself."

Sowery said Savoie is suffering from a slight cold, but he should get over it in short time.

He said there is a possibility of a rematch in about a month if Savoie decides to return to the condition that earned him a crack at Jimmy Carter's world crown last year. Carter knocked out Savoie.

Sowery said it would take his fighter three weeks to get into condition.

Alouettes Only Team In Big Four To Show Increase In Attendance; Ottawa Shows Biggest Decline

Toronto. — (CP)— Montreal Alouettes are solid proof that everybody loves a winner. The crowd-pleasing Larks provide the only bright picture in a season of declining crowd figures at Big Four football parks.

They've drawn 56,130 customers at Molson Stadium, their new park, for the first three home games, an increase of about 11,000 over the same period last year. And it is little wonder because Peahead Walker's flashy squad has lost only one game in seven.

Things aren't so rosy with the other three clubs. At the halfway mark of the 28-game schedule last week-end, attendance totalled 205,239, a drop of 11,499 from the 216,738 total for the comparable 1953 period.

The lowly Ottawa Rough Riders show the biggest decline. Crowd figures at 17,000-seat Landsdowne Park have slumped to 33,700 for three home games to date, compared with 42,317 for the same number in 1953.

Hamilton Tiger-Cats have attracted 49,300 for four home games, 6,000 less than its 1953 figures, and Toronto Argonauts show a drop of 8,012 from its 66,109 mark for four home games last year.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

New York — (AP) — In all the thousands of sports page symphonies which have been composed in recent days to immortalize the feats of New York Giants, not one we have seen mentioned the man who probably had more to do with fashioning the four-game victory over Cleveland than any other. Fellow name of Carl Hubbell.

The great southpaw who 20 years ago this summer struck out Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Jimmy Foxx, Al Simmons and Joe Cronin in succession in an All-Star game has since 1944 been the quiet director of the Giants' farm system. With scarce exceptions, it was a Hubbell-built team that scored one of the astonishing triumphs of world series history.

Of the nine players—excepting pitchers—who struck down the Tribe, only one, shortstop Alvin Dark, was not a product of the old "meal ticket's" assembly line that stretches down through the minors.

The six pitchers who combined to nail down the world championship did not bear quite the same Hubbell stamp.

Provided Bait

Johnny Antonelli and Don Liddle, winners of the second and fourth games, never met Hubbell until this season. But it was one of Hub's prize pupils, Bobby Thomson, who provided the bait that caused Milwaukee Braves to go for one of the most lopsided trades on record.

Ruben Gomez, the third-game winner, was available because the head Giants scout, Tom Sheehan, flew down to Puerto Rico two winters ago to watch him pitch and came back babbling that he had seen a screwball as good as Hubbell's used to be.

Both Sal Maglie, who won the opener, and Hoyt Wilhelm, who nailed down Gomez's victory in relief, came up through the Giants chain. Even Marv Grissom, the veteran whose brilliant relief work stood out in the first game, was a member of Hubbell's farm clubs at Jersey City and Minneapolis back in '46-'47 before he got away to the American League.

Look For Change

"It is true," said a Giants spokesman, "that Carl hasn't produced too many of our front line pitchers. Both Larry Jansen and Jim Hearn of our 1951 pennant winners were purchases. Several boys he had high hopes for have proved big disappointments the past few years, but we're looking for that to change any time now."

A National League scout with whom we talked during the world series said that, so far as he had seen in his wanderings, the only teams in the league that have prospects of important help from their farm systems within the next year or two are the Giants and Milwaukee. He said that Brooklyn, trying to find replacements for several fading veterans, already had stripped its minor affiliates of everything of potential value without uncovering anything much except Karl Spooner, the strikeout artist from Fort Worth.

Norkus KO's Charlie Powell

San Francisco —(AP)—Charlie Norkus, baldish heavyweight slugger from Port Washington, N.Y., dimmed the fistic hopes of Charlie Powell when he knocked out the San Diego bomber Wednesday night in the seventh round of their scheduled 10-round fight at Pacific Auditorium.

Norkus weighed 193 and Powell 212.

Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, had said before the nationally-televised bout that he would regard the winner as among top contenders for Marciano's crown.

Norkus dropped Powell with rights and lefts to the jaw for an eight-count. Powell staggered to his feet and then went down from another barrage of smashing lefts and rights to the chin for the full count.

Campbellton And Frontenacs Tie

Campbellton, N.B. —(CP)— Quebec Frontenacs of the Quebec Junior Hockey League and Campbellton Tigers of the North Shore intermediate League played an 8-8 tie in an exhibition here Wednesday night.

Centre Guy Rousseau paced the Quebec team with four goals, including the knotter at 17.01 in the third period. Bob Mabie of Federicton, Walter Bradley, Gaston Trudeau and Jean Rousseau were the other Frontenac scorers.

Left winger Norm Bellavance and right winger Roly Corriveau fired two each for Campbellton. Jack Cyr, Robinson, Alphonse Leblanc and Lou Desrosiers had singles for Tigers.

Dave Allingham and Jim Melanson, both of Campbellton, played for Frontenacs but failed to score. They were with Campbellton Cubs in juvenile competition last year.

Willie O'Ree of Fredericton is expected to join Frontenacs when they play at Newcastle tonight against Miramichi Beavers.

Kitchener Down Balmy Beach 38-25

Kitchener, Ont. — (CP) — Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen put on a sensational 21-point scoring splurge in the last 10-minutes to defeat Balmy Beach 38-25 in a Senior Ontario Rugby Union football game here Wednesday night.

Dutchies ran over three converted majors and a field goal to win going away after trailing most of the game.

It was the seventh straight loss for the luckless Beaches who looked bound for their first win for most of the tussle.

Weill To Meet James Norris

San Francisco. — (AP) — Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, said Tuesday he would meet James Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, in Miami Oct. 14 to discuss plans for a title defence early next year.

Weill said no opponent had yet developed. He named as three contenders: Don Cockell of England, Nino Valdez of Cuba and the winner of tonight's nationally-televised fight here between Charley Norkus of Port Washington, N. Y., and Charlie Powell of San Diego. Marciano will referee a preliminary bout.

Weill disclosed that he and Marciano would leave next month for an appearance tour throughout the South Pacific.

College Football Faces TV Bugaboo In Season Opener Saturday With Two Games On Tap; Queen's At McGill

Toronto — (CP) — College football lost some of its fans through television last year. It could happen again this season, which opens Saturday.

The collegians won't be seen on living-room screens in the six-game schedule but fans could leave stadium seats empty and stay at home to watch Canadian professional football on TV.

The experts will get an idea about the senior intercollegiate league's drawing power when the 1954 season starts in two cities. Queen's University Golden Gaels meet McGill Redmen at Montreal and the University of Western Ontario Mustangs play University of Toronto Blues at Toronto.

The Western-Varsity game is the big test. The traditional rivals, who never had to worry about counting customers until last year, will be bucking CBC television of the Big Four game between Montreal Alouettes and Ottawa Rough Riders.

Revenue Away Down

Warren Stevens, athletic director at Varsity, says TV was partly to blame for Toronto's $25,000 drop in total revenue last year. Other reasons: Old grads' beefs, competition from the Big Four and an unbalanced five-team college schedule.

There is no five-team problem now. McMaster University Marauders were kicked out when they failed to win a game last season. They were in for a one-year trial.

The old grads, used to a four-team circuit, had complained they were not seeing enough of their old college clubs.

The Toronto game should be a hot one. The Mustangs and Blues are rated the top two. Both have been working hard on aerial attacks.

New Formation

Coach Johnny Metras of Western has come up with what he calls a diamond-T formation, which has a deep tailback behind the quarter-back. This is supposed to give the Mustangs a more wide-open attack with emphasis on passing.

In an exhibition game against Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen of the Ontario Rugby Football Union last week, Western completed 20 of 32 passes, although losing 18-11.

Coach Bob Masterson of Toronto will show two newcomers in the quarterback slot — Bill Stevenson and Harry Wilson. Elsewhere in the backfield, both teams are strong.

The Redmen are darkhorses for new coach Larry Sullivan, 34-year-old former Notre Dame lineman who took over from Vic Obeck.

The Gaels lack depth and are a question mark, too. They finished in a third-place tie with McGill with a 3-3 won-lost record last season. Coach Frank Tindall is hopeful, though.

Arnold Johnson, Wealthy Chicago Business Man, Says Time Is Running Out On His Bid To Buy Athletics

Chicago —(AP)— Arnold Johnson, wealthy Chicago business executive, says time is running out on his offer to buy the Philadelphia Athletics and indicates his patience is doing likewise.

Johnson has offered to buy the Athletics for a reported $3,375,000. He wants to move the franchise to Kansas City.

"I am getting together a report from my architect, engineers and even iron and steel contractors to determine how long it will take to make the Kansas City park into a big league stadium," said Johnson.

"I will have their latest report by this week-end. If they tell me there is not enough time, I'll withdraw my offer."

Will Harridge, American League president, has asked Johnson to hold up his offer and has scheduled a meeting of club owners Tuesday in Chicago to determine the Athletics' future status.

The meeting comes two weeks after a New York session of club owners resulted in granting Roy Mack 14 days to raise $750,000 to buy control of the Athletics. He has bitterly opposed the wishes of his father, Connie, and his brother, Earle, to sell the debt-ridden club to the highest bidder.

Thomas Richardson, a director of the A's and president of the Eastern League, also reportedly made an offer for the club matching that of Johnson's. He says he is backed by a small group of wealthy friends and will keep the A's in Philadelphia next year.

LIGHTWEIGHT GUNS INCREASE RECOIL

IT MAY SURPRISE SOME HUNTERS TO LEARN THAT LIGHT-WEIGHT GUNS PACK MORE RECOIL THAN HEAVIER GUNS DO. FEATHER-WEIGHTS ARE PLEASANT TO CARRY, BUT THEY LACK WEIGHT TO COUNTERACT RECOIL.

ALTHOUGH IT IS MORE TIRING TO CARRY, AN EXTRA POUND OR TWO OF GUN-WEIGHT IS NICER TO SHOOT, AND MORE POWERFUL GUNS MAY BE USED. FOR EXAMPLE, MANY STANDARD-WEIGHT, 12-GA. DOUBLES OR PUMP SHOTGUNS KICK LESS THAN 16-GA. SINGLES DO!

Quebec President Visits Border B. And P. W. Club

Stanstead, Oct. 7 — Miss Elsie McFadzen, newly elected president of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of the Province of Quebec, was the speaker at the meeting of the Border Club at Ingleside on September 20.

Miss McFadzen presented her report and impressions of the fourteenth biennial convention of the Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs held at Toronto in July.

Miss McFadzen was introduced by Miss Mae Bean, vice-president of the Border Club, who conducted the business meeting. The secretary, Mrs. Alice Merriman, read letters from Three Rivers and Sherbrooke clubs, congratulating Miss McFadzen and extending to her support and best wishes during her term as provincial president.

Miss Margaret Masten expressed the thanks of the club to Miss McFadzen for her very interesting talk. Supper was served with the assistance of Miss Ruth Wing, treasurer of the Border Club.

Members of the club and several supper guests, teachers of Stanstead College and Sunnyside School, joined in a contest naming pictures of thirty-three prominent women. Mrs. Marilla Farman won first prize and Mrs. Fleming, home economics teacher, received second prize.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Ann Aldrich, Derby Line, on October 18.

Bringing Up Baby

Hints Collected by Mrs Dan Gerber (Mother of 5)

An enterprising mother we've heard of tried this simple trick to get baby used to spoon feeding. She placed a bit of food on the spoon and turned it upside down before putting it in baby's mouth. Since the food touched the tongue instead of the roof of the mouth, baby soon learned to swallow without difficulty.

* * *

Spoon feeding is often made simpler if you start baby off on solid foods with tastes and textures designed just to please his tender tongue. Like Gerber's Cereals. Little beginners will go for their smooth, good-feeling texture and bland flavors. Important, too—Gerber's Cereals are enriched with vitamins and minerals so essential to growing tots. For taste variety, rotate all five: Mixed, Rice, Barley, Oatmeal and Wheat Cereals.

P.S. Gerber's Cereals are easy for mother, too—all are precooked and ready-to-serve. Just add milk or formula.

* * *

Reflected glory. A mirror hung behind baby's dressing table works wonders in cutting down the wiggles. Baby will glory in studying his reflection and yours, probably kick up far less fuss during diapering.

* * *

Love at first sip. Baby's first food after milk may well be orange juice! And wee ones almost always love Gerber's Strained Orange Juice from the first sip on. Made from tree-ripened oranges, it has the nice natural color, the mild natural flavor that appeals to babies. Carefully pasteurized for baby's protection and uniformly high in the Vitamin C so necessary to all infants.

These chilly days may indicate that overalls are the best all-round costume even for a small baby. You can make awfully cute ones for a tiny girl or boy out of striped mattress ticking.

Full Agenda At Sectional Meeting Of Missionary Society In Waterloo

Waterloo, Oct. 7 — The sectional meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbyterial was held in St. Paul's United Church. Mrs. Grey, of Knowlton, who is the president of the section W. M.S., and Miss Fuller, president of the Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbytery W.M.S., presided.

Morning devotions were led by Mrs. C. C. Bradford, of Waterloo, and following this Miss Lucia Knowlton, the treasurer, asked that all allocations be sent in on time. The sum of $9200 is allocated for this Presbytery of Sherbrooke. Mrs. Keith Edwards, of Sherbrooke, of the literature department, gave a very interesting talk on the literature she had on display and for sale.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Miss Robinson of Cowansville. Mrs. Fuller made the announcement that Mrs. K. Masih, a third generation native Christian from England and India, is to speak at Trinity United Church, Sherbrooke, on October 21, in the evening.

An open question box was then held under the direction of Mrs. Fuller concerning the sectional meetings. Lunch was served by the Warden Women's Association.

The afternoon session opened at 1:30, when Mrs. Grey introduced Mrs. Cousens, of Cowansville, who led in the devotions. Mrs. Nickerson of St. John's Hall, Quebec City, who operates a boarding school for Protestant children attending Quebec High School, told of her work in connection with this.

Mrs. Smith, of Lennoxville, gave a most interesting talk on Christian citizenship. Miss Knowlton and Mrs. Grey presented a short skit on the "Miss Envelope Speaking" theme. Mrs. Fuller conducted the business meeting during which she made the statement that all churches are studying India Missions and she urged that all denominations get together at least once for a general discussion on the subject.

Mrs. Fuller gave a closing message to the forty-five delegates present, in which she urged that each group have an ecumenical meeting a year and at the same time urged that one congregational meeting be held on missionary work and all groups to study the books "Missionaries Reporting" and "Facts and Figures."

Dr. Grey brought the meeting to a successful close and Mrs. Edwards again presented her books and tea was served by the Waterloo W.M.S.

KIWANIS CLUB MEETING

At the regular meeting of the Waterloo Kiwanis Club on Tuesday, September 28, a good turn out of members were on hand to witness a fine film on Newfoundland supplied by Kiwanian Wally Jenks.

During the course of the meeting, a short business session was held in which a report on the chicken shoot held at the Arena was given by the chairman, Kiwanian Mike Cardinal. While the net results were not large, it was generally agreed that the undertaking was well worth while and it was a satisfactory project.

Kiwanian Wally Jenks gave a report on National Kids' Day celebrations, during which time approximately eight hundred children were entertained at two showings of "Treasure Island" at the local theatre and apparently much enjoyed by all.

Other business included a short report by the president on the O.Q.M. district convention held in Montreal, to which he was an official delegate. He announced that the next lieutenant-governor of district No. 8, will be Kiwanian Leslie Memory, of Sherbrooke, a well known resident of that city and a hard working and zealous Kiwanian.

The second annual dance of the Kiwanis Club was held on Friday evening at the High School with music supplied by Richard's Orchestra from Farnham. The main attraction at this dance was the election of officers for the Booster Club of Cowansville, who operate a fund in benefit of the new Sweetsburg Hospital. This election resulted as follows: President, J. L. Robert of Farnham; first vice-president, H. H. Reid of Cowansville; second vice-president, G. E. Leduc, of Cowansville; third vice-president, Sydney Bockus of Farnham; manager, Margaret Sanborn of Farnham, and secretary, George H. Ingalls, of Abercorn. Only one clerk was elected from Waterloo, Mr. Cecil Willey. The door prize was won by C. Buchanan of Cowansville. The crowd was small and the undertaking was not a financial success but all those who were present apparently had a most enjoyable evening.

The next project will be the concert presented by the Lakeshore Choir from Ste. Anne de Bellevue and surrounding towns on Saturday, November 27, in the High School. This concert will be one well worth hearing and it is hoped it will be very well patronized by all music lovers.

With the sale of Christmas Seals during the first week in December this will conclude the Kiwanis Club projects for 1954.
