AN INDUSTRIAL MISSION IN AFRICA.

We learn from an article in The Home and Foreign Mission Record that steps are now being taken for a fresh missionary enterprise in the wild territories of the British East Africa Company. The following extracts will be of interest to all.—This is a missionary enterprise of a singularly interesting character. It is a mission promoted by Sir William Mackinnon, who has long resided in it, and who has been the chief factor in the development of East Africa, to the territories of the Imperial British East African Company. The committee in charge of the mission are: Mr. W. L. Bruce, Edinburgh, who acts as hon. treasurer and secretary; Mr. James M. Hall, of Kilimanjaro; Mr. Peter Mackinnon of the same place; Mr. Bell, of the same place; and Mr. Bell, of the same place.

$10,000 to be subscribed and contributed by the promoters of the mission, and to secure the establishment of the mission and to secure its funds financially, and that Rev. Dr. James Stewart, of Lovedale, be the leader of the mission till he be effectually settled. The locality proposed was a tract of land of about 100 miles north-west of Mombasa. Already about £8,000 have been subscribed by the promoters—Sir Thomas Fowell Buxton, Bart., Mr. May, Mr. Keble, Mr. John Hodgkin, and Mr. John Usher, being the principal donors. The members of the missionary expedition are as follows:—Rev. Dr. Stewart; Dr. J. Usher, medical officer; Mr. T. Watson, assistant teacher; Mr. John Graham, industrial superintendent; and Mr. John Linton, carpenter. An industrial school for the natives of the district is linked to Livingstonia by the fact that Dr. Stewart was with the great explorer in Nyasaland, and to Moffat by the presence of Dr. Usher, who was with Moffat in the expedition. Another link between the mission is that it is to be mainly industrial, on the lines of the highly successful mission of the Free Church at Lovedale, the mission of Dr. Usher, who was with Moffat for so long the honored founder and head. The educational and evangelistic elements will, however, in this mission, no doubt, as in Lovedale, be supplied by the aid with the industrial.—The Christian every night. With undisguised surprise the Pope asked, "What provisions?" and the Swiss guard, with much ceremony, laid out the finest oil, eggs, game and vegetables had been sent to the Vatican kitchen. The Pope instructed Monsignor Agnelli to investigate the provisions, but he was told that these provisions did actually arrive, but that the servants stole them again, retaining the money. The Swiss guard, with their medical officer, went to the Vatican pharmacy, where provisions were regularly sold to food-eaters in the neighborhood, who never failed to make his monthly calls.

He was welcomed enthusiastically by thousands of our people. The Mayor of Ferrero, the chief police of the Valley of San Martino, was created a knight of the Kingdom of Italy, and felt by his Majesty. Coming back from Ferrero, quite close by Pinerolo, in the Plain of Piedmont, at San Germano Usone, I had the great privilege to welcome the King with my wife and daughter. The King, with the schools, with banners, the workmen, the peasants, different societies, all the workmen employed in a large mill, the band, the municipal council, the press and myself, were there cheering the monarch, who is following the steps of his fathers, keeping faithfully the liberty of all his subjects. In answer to my speech, very short, he said: "I am very pleased to be in your country. I am very glad to learn mountains and your dear people. I know your history, your past, and how you are faithful and loyal to my house; and I took a great interest in your country, your people, your life." Humbert the First is very simple; talking very kindly and having a great memory, remembering the smallest facts. The Waldenses have always been loyal, even when they were warned by this, which will not be forgotten.

READABLE PARAGRAPHS.

MIN LIGHT.—Punch.
OUTRAGED DIGNITY.—Squire Timothy (fourishing newspaper in New York office)—"See 'ee, landlord, I think this is a low-down swindle! You haven't put my name in this paper as an arrival." Clerk—"Why should I?" Squire Timothy—"Well, when I go to the syndicate hall as you say on every five cents, I'm mentioned as a leading citizen, as here I've paid you three dollars for nothing."
FOR MANY YEARS.—We have used Dr. Fowler's Euc. tract of Wild Strawberry for many years in our family, and find it an excellent medicine for all forms of summer complaint. John A. Valen, Valen, Osh. Fowler's Wild Strawberry, Price 50c, sold by all dealers.
EXTERMINATE DIRT.—I've got $10,000, I want to build a house. "You can't do it." "Why not?" "It takes $20,000 to build a house for $10,000."—Punch.
TRYING A GOOD DEAL OF GUARANTEE BUSINESS IN THE STOREKEEPING OF TODAY. It's too expensive. Or too reluctant. Half the time it means nothing. Words—only words. This offer to refund the money to pay a reward, is made under the hope that you want want your money back, and that you won't claim the reward. Of course, no, whoever is honest in making it, and sticks—not on his own reputation alone, but through the honest dealer, whom you know, must have something he has faith in back of the guarantee. The business wouldn't stand a year without it. What is lacking is confidence. Back of that, which is lacking is that our honesty which is above the "average practice." Dr. Pierce's medicines are guaranteed to accomplish what they are intended to do, and their makers give the money back if the result isn't apparent. Doesn't it strike you that a medicine, which the makers have so much confidence in, is the medicine for you?
AS THE TOURNAMENT.—I received a compliment for you this morning, Mr. Hicky. "Indeed?" "Yes, somebody said if you could only draw a few boys, you might get into the finals. Why don't you improve your by-play and win?"—Harper's Bazar.
UNREMARKABLE PAIN.—Dear Sir, I suffered for three days very severely from summer complaint, and could get no relief, but kept getting worse till the pain was almost unbearable, and I was very weak. After everything else had failed I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. The first dose gave relief, and it did not fail to cure me. Wm. G. Glyn, Wilfrid, Ont.
JOHNSON & COMPANY, successors to J. A. Bishop Stewart. 713 Craig street, next of Y.M.C.A. building. We are maintaining the best reputation of the place, for good work done, and continue to have on hand a fine assortment of high class American and European, English, French, and German; and all the latest novelties in furnishings as they are brought out. If you want good framing, call and see us; and if you want cheap framing we can sell you.
HIS GREAT WORK.—Fenelope Adams—"Are you an admirer of Addison, Mrs. Noddy?" Mrs. Noddy—"Oh, no, no." Fenelope Adams—"And what think you of his best effort?" Mrs. Noddy—"The photograph, by all odds."—Harper's Bazar.
HAVE YOU SEEN THE STONE of pictures at 713 Craig street, and those lovely pink and gold, and silver and blue and silver frames, that they make there, and such fine pictures, so different from what you see elsewhere I look, go at once and see for yourself, before you buy, at the late E. Ebbingsham and Co. old stand.
WHEN EVERYBODY FEELS HAS FAILED try Dyer's Improved Food for Infants and Invalids. It never fails. Sold everywhere, 75 cents per package. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.
NERVOUS GRIEF (on which door of summer hotel).—"Ah, porter, in case of fire, is it easy for me to get out?" Porter—"Oh, yes, yes." Fenelope Adams—"And what think you of his best effort?" Mrs. Noddy—"The photograph, by all odds."—Harper's Bazar.
SHILLING KNIFE. made miserably by that terrible cure, Shillings Cure is the remedy for you. Sold by R. McFarlane, 2123 Notre-Dame street, and all druggists.
TRIAL HARRISON CURE can be so quickly cured by Shillings Cure. We guarantee it. Sold by R. McFarlane, 2123 Notre-Dame street, and all druggists.
FORGET TO IT—Reporter.—You know Miss Miller, who writes poetry for the newspapers? I tried to interview her the other day, but she wouldn't let me; she said I could get a letterhead from her from her work. Editor—"Was it due to short it?" Reporter—"What could I do? I had to read her poetry."—Punch.
CADRE, WOODFIN CORDON and Bronchitis immediately relieved by Shillings Cure. Sold by R. McFarlane, 2123 Notre-Dame street, and all druggists.
SHILLING'S CORDON and Consumptive Cure is sold by us on a guarantee. It cures consumption. Sold by R. McFarlane, 2123 Notre-Dame street, and all druggists.
BETTER THAN MEDICINE.—Sympathetic friend—"Your health appears to have improved greatly of late." Convallescent—"Yes, I've been off from—Straw York doesn't do it."—Punch.
MR. JAMES of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Rheumatism, Gout, and Typhoid, severe stomach and bone laceration; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent cure was effected. I have not heard of me and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."
MOTHER GRAVES' WORK EXERTATION is pleasant to take; pure and effective in destroying worms. May have tried it with best results.
DR. WICKHAM.—"No, Miss Tomkins, I am afraid you work too much of me, because, you see, my son is going to work in a week." Miss Tomkins—"Oh, I am sure we can still see a great deal of you then."—Lafayette.
WHY WOULD YOU ALLOW A COW to locate your throat or lungs and run the risk of filling a consumptive grave, when by the timely use of Shillings Anti-Consumptive Syrup the pain can be allayed and the danger avoided. This Syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing all affections of the throat and lungs, coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc., etc.
THE GREAT LUNG HEALER is found in that excellent medicine sold as Shillings Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membranes of the throat and air passages, and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, bronchitis, and a sovereign cure in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.
MR. JAMES.—"Now, Son, I have made my will, and I'm everything I have to say." "Easiest," "Yes, father." "My heirs—Yes, and you get all the benefits." "I'll keep the cost of making the will out of your year's salary."—Brooklyn Life.
THE LITTLE LIVES, KIDNEY, BOWEL, etc., act as a very waste gate for the escape of effluvia matter and gases from the body. The use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery brings a new man to discharge their duty. Mr. W. H. Lamb, of St. M. Customs, Toronto, writes: "I have personally tested the health-giving properties of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and can testify as to its great value."
A BROTHER'S.—Je Van Scholten a great writer?
HE MUST BE. His publishers are getting on as expeditious edition of his works. —Punch.
