SUBWAY END

Subway construction on Western avenue in Westmount is well ahead of schedule and is due to be completed late this Fall, according to recent reports. Crews using the cut and fill method have almost reached Greene avenue, the end of the line, as shown above.

UNESCO man is speaker

Edwin K. Ford, Third Vice-President of Rotary International, journalist, author and educator addressed members of the Westmount Rotary Club Wednesday at a luncheon meeting at Victoria Hall — outlining five reasons why he believed that the foundation of Rotary could have taken place only when, where and how it did.

A native of Milltown, Nova Scotia, and a graduate of Rutgers, Harvard and Columbia Universities, Mr. Ford is director of vocational education for the Nova Scotia provincial department of education and the author of the standard work on Iraq (for UNESCO).

First on his list of five reasons for the time and circumstance of Rotary's birth, he listed as "the concept of work" and traced this development from the Biblical 'sweat of thy brow' and the hymnal version 'work for the night is coming.'

To many, before the birth of Rotary, he said, heaven was a place of idleness, where one lounged on the golden street and played a harp — today, he added, "we do less and less for more and more and hope for the day when we'll do nothing and have everything."

Urbanization was his second situation in the background of the birth of Rotary, which, he said, could have only taken place in the western hemisphere and probably only in the United States.

Other factors included were: (Continued on page 7)

Smoking sofa breaks fire-prevention record

Westmount's hope for a clean slate on fire prevention week October 5 to 10 were broken Sunday by a smoking chesterfield and a burning roast.

Both fires were quickly extinguished by members of the department using extinguishers. The rest of the week has been quiet, firemen reported.

Local officers urged that fire-prevention week be observed "every week." "Educational efforts are focused on the week of Oct. 4 to 10 but to be effective, a continuous fire prevention drive is a must."

"We can only do so much," the officer added. "Fire prevention is also the responsibility of every man, woman and child in the community."

WMA meets Tuesday

The executive committee of the Westmount Municipal Association meets Tuesday for its monthly discussion of city problems.

No agenda has been released but it is expected that dates and the format of the November open meeting will be discussed.

Ratepayers to consider city $3 million loan

City Council approved two loan by-laws Monday night, totalling more than $3,000,000 and representing the maximum that can be borrowed during the next year.

Elector-proprietors can approve or veto the motion at a public meeting to be held at City Hall on Oct. 17 from 7 to 9 p.m.

Third and final reading was given to a by-law of $2,984,400 for "sewers, improvements to municipal buildings and parks, purchase of equipment and property, purchase of land and buildings and for the disposal of previous loan funds."

A second by-law of $365,000 will provide funds for street lighting and improvements to the city power system.

23 protests are approved

Appeals from local property owners regarding changes in the 1964-65 assessment roll were also considered at the meeting. The roll was homologated with 23 reductions, changes, or corrections based on protests submitted by residents late in August. Sixty-one had appealed.

About 400 residents are affected by the changes which, for the most part, follow increases or decreases in the actual value of properties.

No major change was undertaken this year, it was noted, because of 1963 increases for most of the 4,500 local property owners who received an average 20% increase to conform to the desires of the Montreal Metropolitan Corporation and equalize rates with other municipalities.

The new rolls are available for the Light and Power Department at City Hall.

In other business, Council agreed to rebuild and relight the adult tennis courts in Westmount Park. Cost is $13,000.

The building boom in lower Westmount brings extra taxes, but necessitates additional expenses on the city's part, Council noted. To allow for increased power requirements in this section, a commitment of $12,875 for six distribution transformers was approved.

Also approved was a new sidewalk for the east side of Belvedere road at a cost of $800.

Holiday closings announced

Westmount City Hall and the Public Library will be closed all day Monday, October 12, for the Thanksgiving holiday.

The Atwater Library, 1200 Atwater avenue will close both Saturday, Oct. 10 and Monday, Oct. 12.

There will be no collection of garbage in the city on Monday. Collections normally scheduled for that day will be made Tuesday.

The Westmount Examiner office will be closed all day Monday.

84.5% of objective is raised

The Westmount Division of the Red Feather campaign is still well short of its objective, campaign headquarters reported Thursday. A total of $68,936 has been received here — 84.5% of the local objective.

Although the campaign is officially over, about 400 canvassers are still at work in Westmount. Every home will be covered.

As of Thursday headquarters reported that they had received 75.8% or $1,875,638 from the overall area. The full objective is $2,475,000.

"This is a great deal of money and is evidence of great goodwill from the people of Montreal and of hard work having been done by our canvassers," said E. H. Heaney, general campaign chairman, "but it is just not enough. The Board of Directors of Red Feather has stated that any shortfall in the campaign this year will be matched by a reduction in agency services. This means that some people in need of help will have to go without. This must not happen!"

In surveying the work of the divisions as they go into the clean-up period before the final results of the drive are announced on October 27th Mr. Heaney said that "the corporation phase of our campaign has been very successful in terms of money raised in other years. Our general objective, however, is 15% higher than the money raised last year and it would appear that our Advance Gifts division which has an objective of $1, (Continued on page 6)

School census underway here

Westmounters might well count their children tonight as census takers are currently at work in Westmount, surveying the total school population.

The door-to-door survey started last week and is expected to continue for another two weeks or until all homes have been covered. It is undertaken jointly by the Protestant and Catholic School Boards in Westmount.

Each year officials are faced with the task of surveying the total school population of all faiths and creeds. They point out that the census is required by law and that all householders must answer all questions on the form whether there are any children in the house or not.

The door-to-door method of gathering information is now being used because in recent years five to seven per cent of Westmount householders failed to return forms which were mailed out. Complete coverage of the city will take about three weeks.

Questions to be asked of householders include the name of children, religion, details of school attendance, including night courses. Census takers have instructions to obtain the necessary information from neighbors if, after three visits they still find no one at home in any particular house.

The Montreal Photographic Club will hold its first general meeting Tuesday, Oct. 13, in Room 201 of Westmount Park School on Academy road.

Salon type sines will be shown with commentary. Succeeding programs, held each Tuesday evening, will include lectures, technical instruction, slide competitions and outings. Visitors are welcome.

WE SAY Mr. Levesque's argument

HON. René Lévesque spoils a good argument with both confusion and anger, neither of which are qualities for a cabinet minister.

His outburst at St. Anselme suggested he was against:

- (1) Anglo-Saxons;
- (2) Good housing;
- (3) Well-run municipalities.

Anglo-Saxons — meaning, we presume, English-speaking citizens of Quebec — have long since learned to regard Mr. Lévesque far from representative of the moderate and progressive Government of which he inexplicably continues to be a member.

Chateaux? Outremont, notably, and many another Gallic bastion boasts fine, proud, well-kept and sometimes vulgar mansions, too.

Local government would be less of a headache with more cities and towns throughout the Province as efficiently and honestly administered as Westmount and Hampstead.

PAPT meets at pupils' expense

WE wish the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers success in their annual deliberations this week.

And we wish they would deliberate over holding their annual meeting at this time — or at any other time during the scholastic year.

Few callings are so privileged in holidays from the main task of their employment — long summers, Christmas and Easter — and a long-standing five-day week.

YOU SAY More views on Royal Visit

Sir: Despite the fears in some quarters that the Queen's life might be in danger during her visit here, willy-nilly, she is on her way to Quebec.

Prime Minister Pearson could have recommended that the visit be cancelled and perhaps if her and he were to receive information indicating that a serious threat exists he might still ask her not to land at Quebec City.

One view is that as long as there is even an outside chance that some will try to harm the Queen, the trip should be called off. The suggestion is that the Prime Minister would not be giving in to blackmail, but would merely be showing he has the strength to make a difficult decision.

Some in Quebec have raised the point too, that it would be an insult to the province if the tour were called off. A few have gone further, suggesting that there are people who are deliberately exaggerating the danger with the idea of damaging Quebec's reputation.

Whatever threat does exist is supposed to come from those who want to see Quebec break away from Confederation and become an independent nation.

But surely the separatists recognize that trying to harm the Queen would be the last way to help their own cause. The reaction might well eliminate for many years, if not for all time, any hope of the separatists might have of winning enough converts to succeed in their campaign.

Westmounter

This is not said begrudgingly.

Low and scandalous salaries long since have given way to teachers now generally being among the more privileged of the community.

Why, then, must the meetings of their private professional body be held in school term time, at the taxpayers', the pupils' and the parents' expense?

Few trade unions meet on company time.

SELECTIONS MADE PUBLIC: The Syllabus for the 1965 Quebec Music Festivals, Inc., reached us last week with complete details, and one thing is certain — this festival is trying to attract serious students by giving a sight-reading test before hearing the competitive selections. The pupil must also learn more than one number to enter.

Following a page of welcome by Director General Claude Deschamps, there are nine pictures of Quebec Festival winners who have gone on to win more laurels. A nice gesture with "Congratulations to" and "Felicitations à" in bold print atop each page.

They are pianists Claude Savard (Prix d'Europe 1964) and Anne Marie Gendron ($1,000 on CFTM-TV) soprano Sylvia Saurette, (Jeunesses Musicales, 3rd Prize 1963) — Boris Brott (Associate conductor Toronto Symphony Orchestra) — mezzo-soprano Gloria Richard, (2nd Prize Jeunesses Musicales 1963) composer Jacques Hetu who wrote a work for the Montreal Symphony Orchestra — Diane Mauger (1st Prize Conservatoire National de Paris, 1964) — Roland Richard and Caroline Guay who sang in the Stratford Festival 1964 and pianist Norair Artinian (winner of $1,000 on CFTM-TV). These serious young artists are all beginning musical careers that show promise for the future.

The choice of selections in this year's syllabus in each category and age group is varied and no pupils practicing 30 or 45 minutes a day can enter this festival. The cover of the booklet is a gay shade of mottled red with the insignia of the Quebec Music Festivals done in black and white by gifted artist Normand Hudon.

Closing date for the Montreal Section of the 10 centre Quebec Music Festival is December 19.

ENSEMBLE — MUSIC AND FLOWERS . . . Have you ever noticed where the organist's name is placed when a description of a wedding is announced in the newspaper? Melody and blossoms! Here is a typical sentence — "Mr. X . . . Y . . . played the wedding music and standards of autumn colors and candles in candelabra decorated the church." Another: "Mrs. L . . . M . . . was at the organ and Mr. S. N. sang during the signing of the register and white gladioli were used to decorate the church." Is the music part of the decoration? Why should it be coupled with the floral arrangements. It happens frequently.

HOW DID IT HAPPEN? Among the books given me at Mills in New York are a set of three volumes by Goddard Lieberman, president of Columbia Records. The title speaks for itself . . . "Piano Pieces For Advanced Children or Retarded Adults". In my opinion it should read "retarded children" also. This new publication (1964) shows what a sorry state we are in if this is the kind of music we introduce to our students. How anyone can listen to such discordant dribble and call it music is beyond my comprehension. (Everyone is entitled to his or her opinion). That fine pianist Andre Previn has recorded them — maybe to please the president!

I have not heard the recording. The titles will intrigue you — Volume I. Five Songs Without Mendelssohn (1) Whistling Boy on Horseback. (2) The Same Boy Five Years Later, In Paris (3) My Neighbor Studies Voice (4) My Father Plays Pizzicato (5) An Aimless Walk In The Woods.

Melodious Mendelssohn — how true to say "Without Mendelssohn" — There is no melody here.

Volume II. Six Technical Studies Which Will Teach You Nothing. No comment is necessary — but why study something from which you learn nothing? Volume III. Eight Studies in Musicology Which Will Teach You a Great Deal. This reviewer disagrees. Do they carry a melody? Nay-nay-nay.

Students are UN bound

By KATHI KRISTOF

It seems like just yesterday that Westmount High School first opened its doors for the 1964-65 season, but mid-term exams are already approaching — "fast and furious." If students fail in more than two subjects, letters are to be sent home informing their parents of this.

The heavy schedules, however, are not keeping the students entirely away from their other activities. The Current Events Club is having a trip to New York over the coming weekend.

The annual trip is to acquaint the Grade Elevens with the world's largest city in general and the United Nations in particular. To supply advance information, the Club held a meeting on October 1; attendance was encouraging and the Club looks forward to a good year.

Some of the Westmounters, who will be descending upon the fair city of New York are: Louise Brott, Judy Roston, Barbara Ingram, Rosamund Lines, Marcia Weldon, Paul Astroff, Carol Cohen, Richard Bourne, Suzanne Levine, Mike Fenster, Erica Shaecter, Joel Shaecter, Ruth Rabinovitch, Dwight Druick, Louise Cooper, Billy Brownstein, Kathy Addleman, Bobby Isseman, Nancy Kirsh, Robbie Leggat, Barbara Lang, David Sheddack, Sherry-Lynn Simon, Ricky Rubin, Karen Daniels, Peter Herbert, Beverly Murray, Paul Barber, Carol-Anne Kerner, Robert Leopold, Judy Marmerstein, Elizabeth Lewis, Stephen Block, Jimmy Spielman, Cathy Ham-bidge, and Richard Caplan.

Westmount High is proud to have some of its students participating in the choir singing concerts at Place des Arts. They include: Lynn Buckmaster, Deirdre Vogan, Janet Ross, Anne van Bommel, Bonita Benson, Sheila Sheldon, Jane Day, Vivia Stewart, Ruth Swan, Carolyn Lloyd-Smith, and Huntley Duff.

Drama Club

The Drama Club has not yet made any definite plans, except that this year's production will consist of excerpts from Shakespeare.

A professional adviser will be brought in to assist in this year's presentation. The Club is also planning on attending the plays in French and English which are playing in Montreal. A French play entitled "Tartuffe" was presented at the school on September 28, and surprisingly the play was understood fairly well by the audience of English speaking students.

Sports, as always, are high on the list of activities at Westmount. The girls, at present, are trying out for the tennis team and winter will bring other sports.

A rally, the likes of which has never before been seen in the "Hallowed Halls of Westmount," was held this past week to encourage Football supporters to go cheer the Senior team, at Dunton High School.

The Duntoners were taken by storm as more than a hundred Westmounters piled out of two buses. The shouts rose to their peak as Westmount downed Dunton 7-0 with a touchdown by the day's hero, John Wood. The Juniors were not so lucky as they lost to Lower Canada College, 13-10.

There are many forthcoming games: a Senior one on October 15 with Rosemount, and a Junior one on October 13 with Northmount; both to be held at Westmount, at 4 p.m. On October 14, there will be a Junior Soccer game against Loyola at Westmount Park.

Although it is still early in the year, some aspects of graduation are already being considered. The Students' Council is already sending out the orders for graduation rings, and the Vox Dicum (the Year Book) has taken the graduation pictures.

Unity Club seeks volunteer leaders

By MAURICE MARIASINE

The Unity Boys' Club of Westmount, a project founded by the Rotary Club of Westmount and operated by the Montreal Boys' Association, a Red Feather United Service, is now concentrating on the Fall and Winter schedules.

Increased interest is being shown in the arts, crafts and hobby workshops which are offering unlimited constructive activities and services to meet the needs of individual boys and girls. Victoria Schrammel, Peter Dawson and Nancy Turley plus a large group of volunteer workers are prepared to provide activities that will suit the inclination of any boy or girl.

The activities include: Art Work, leathercraft, woodwork, fretwork, creative crafts, jewellery making, photography, knitting, embroidery, T.V. theatre, dramatic groups, talent club, dance instruction, lending library, group clubs and first aid and home nursing.

For boys and girls interested in the physical program of activities, the Club has prepared a schedule of sports and sporting events. The following will be in vogue this year: basketball, broom ball, indoor soccer, group games, general gymnasium activities, volleyball, badminton, gymnastics and curling. In addition to entering teams in Montreal Basketball Leagues, the Club will sponsor two house leagues this Fall — one in broom ball and one in basketball.

Sports Supervisor Allan Bechard is being assisted by Bill Bain and a group of volunteer coaches and managers. Veteran club member Keith Gavin is one of the basketball coaches.

Volunteer Leaders Needed
Despite the fact that 28 volunteer leaders have returned for another year of service at the Club, and eight new leaders have joined the volunteer staff since the beginning of the fall season, the Club is still short of workers and will require additional ones

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM PRES.
BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY
CHICAGO 25, ILLINOIS

Have you read about the clear law against smoking cigarettes in the state laws of Illinois? It's been on the books since 1907 and here is what it says:

"Every person who shall manufacture, sell or give away any cigarette containing any substance deleterious to health, including tobacco, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed 30 days."

This law has been on the Illinois state law books for 57 years, but in late years, certainly, it hasn't been enforced and most Illinoisians don't even know it's there. The reason is that so many people smoke cigarettes that the authorities don't even try to enforce it.

The prohibition era demonstrated the fact that human behavior cannot be legislated. This is even so with the law of God. Some people think that the ten commandments were given to help us to be good, but this is not so, for the Scriptures themselves state clearly that it was given to show us that we are bad and need a Savior.

Rom. 3:19 declares that the law was given "that every mouth might be stopped, and that all the world might be brought in guilty before God."

Rom. 3:27 says: "By the law is the knowledge of sin." This is why we read in Rom. 8:3 that "what the law could not do, in that it was weak, on account of the flesh," God sent His Son to accomplish. Also in Heb. 7:19 we read that "the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did." This is the "better hope" that we proclaim: that through Christ we may have "the forgiveness of sins" and "by Him all who believe are justified from all things, from which we could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts 13:38,39).

294,300 may end up some $50,000 short."

The chairman made special mention of the two major geographical divisions. "The Women's division has had a campaign within a campaign to collect 'a dollar more from every door'. Mrs. J. S. Nixon, divisional chairman, has claimed that if they received this 'dollar more from every door' her canvassers called on the division would make its objective of over $421,000," said Mr. Heeney. The better givers in this division have been giving this dollar more and in many cases $5 and $10 more. "Unfortunately the rank and file givers have not been meeting this urgent appeal for additional help and the Women's division could well have a struggle on their hands," continued Mr. Heeney.

The other geographical canvass is conducted by the Metropolitan division which covers the smaller business firms in the central area of the city. Here results have been somewhat spotty; some areas very good but with canvassing in other areas rather slow. "However, there is evidence in the last few days that both the Women's and Metropolitan divisions are beginning to pick up and have a fighting chance of meeting their objectives," said Mr. Heeney.

In other divisional results there has been mixed results with good canvassing and some not so good but on the whole they have a good chance of reaching their objectives. Mr. Heeney said that there was one exception in that "the Employee Funds division would not get any more money than it did last year and indeed might receive up to $30,000 less which is not at all encouraging."

'Campaign', Sabbath scheduled

The Board of Jewish Ministers and the Synagogue Council of Greater Montreal have proclaimed the Sabbath of October 16-17 as Campaign Sabbath in support of the 1964 Joint Campaign for Combined Jewish Appeal and United Israel Appeal.

Sermons and special messages on the needs of the campaign will be part of the services in all synagogues either Friday evening, October 16 or Saturday morning, October 17.

On proclaiming the Campaign Sabbath, Rabbi Isaac J. Teicher, president, and Rabbi Allan M. Langner, secretary of the Board of Jewish Ministers, stated:

"The needs, both for our brethren overseas and in our own community, have been growing and mounting steadily. The Board of Jewish Ministers has always deemed in the sacred task of every Jew to respond, and respond generously to aid and assist our unfortunate co-religionists, as well as to maintain and support vitally needed institutions in our community."

The rabbis' proclamation also point out: "We must realize that we are not contributing for one single purpose. Consequently, our donations must reflect the multiple cause and institutions which look to the Combined Jewish Appeal and United Israel Appeal for support."

Special service is scheduled

Gratitude to God as an avenue of approach to Him, no less direct than prayers of supplication, will be the theme of the religious observance on Monday morning in all churches of the Christian Science denomination. A feature of Thanksgiving Day services in these churches is the opportunity provided for individuals to voice briefly their gratitude for divine providence. No offering is collected. The special Bible lesson on the subject "Thanksgiving" will emphasize the importance of preserving the religious character of this festival.

PALETTE PATTERN

by VALENTINA RAHR

About 35 oil paintings are on view at "Coin des Arts", CNR Station, East Area, by John Davies, for the month of October, under the title "Vieux Montréal". Mr. Davies has been interpreting Mexican life and themes for years, and has now turned to painting Montreal historic sites.

A View from Dorchester boulevard of Montreal City Hall; Café Champs de Mars, one of Old Montreal's well-known landmarks; The Old Theatre; Bonsecours Market showing columns at the entrance to the building; Notre Dame de Montréal; and Jacques Cartier Monument, are all executed with the vivid colours and highlights so well portrayed in this artist's works on Mexico, but are not essentially expressing the atmosphere of Montreal.

Born in Saskatchewan, Davies has studied art at the Ontario College of Art, and worked under Fred Varley, Frank Carmichael, Allan Beddoe. He has exhibited several times in Montreal art galleries, and has successfully completed mural commissions and portraits for individuals and commercial edifices.

"Trinity Church, Windermere, England" is an architectural view of the well-known building; "The Farm" is a hay scene showing activity at the entrance of the hay loft; "On Mount Royal" shows a calèche with horse and driver; "Poinsettias" is a flower study.

Armstrong is a Canadian who came to live here from England in 1922. He has exhibited at several art galleries in Toronto and Montreal, and has had one of his works exhibited in a Royal Canadian Academy show. He studied art at Sir George Williams University, under the late W. Barnes, RCA. His works are in private collections in England, Canada and Jamaica.

Hospital campaign is open

The Queen Elizabeth Hospital launched its annual campaign for funds Monday with an objective of $150,000.

In opening the drive, A. H. Marden, hospital president, said financial support of hospitals by the public is urgently needed despite increased aid by the Quebec Hospital Insurance Service.

He stated that the Queen Elizabeth Hospital depends on the campaign to continue the work of its out-patient clinics and emergency services not covered by the Quebec plan.

"Last year, these services plus other non-issued services cost the hospital nearly $150,000. They are not covered by hospital insurance and must be maintained by the generosity of our benefactors," he said.

He noted that the hospital is operating at a deficit and the working capital which has been exhausted has necessitated large borrowing. Interest on the loans is an expense borne by the hospital.

Contributions may be mailed to the hospital, 2100 Marlowe avenue.

French classes planned

Politicians, the speaker said, are much-maligned, perhaps deservedly, yet he found himself admiring their superb sense of timing. The time for the birth of Rotary, he added, had to be right otherwise the advent would not have occurred.

The speaker was introduced by William Everson and thanked by Les Stewart.

Artist opens gallery in historic district

By Millicent Hickmore

OLD MONTREAL has enticed another artist within its domain, as Joyce Teff opened her new Gallery specializing in Graphics and Drawings on Tuesday.

Mrs. Teff has renovated a room in a 150 year old building, at 173 St. Paul street west, back to its original state. The room, she says, has natural rubble walls, pine beams, wood ceiling and a black floor which has been sanded to look like new. The Gallery is named "Galleries Jason-Teff." The Gallery is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and weekends from 2 p.m. to 2.30 p.m., where Mrs. Teff will be pleased to welcome friends and visitors.

The Bonsecours district is becoming popular as many artistic people are hoping to preserve and restore the well-built old buildings, which for many years past, have been used as store-houses.

Marie-Paule Inc., was one of the first to settle in the district at 420 Bonsecours street, a building that at one time must have housed some of the elite of Montreal. Beautiful high ceilings and huge rooms highlight these old buildings, giving them a gracious appearance.

Bonsecours Church, a fascinating little building at the foot of Bonsecours street, is one of, or perhaps, the oldest church in Montreal.

This district which in time will become one of the most historic spots in Montreal, is well worth preserving.

THE EARLY BIRD SHOW presented by the Hospitality Corner at Livingston Hall at the Montreal General Hospital is taking place on Thursday, October 15 from 9.30 p.m. to 10 p.m. Anyone wishing to buy different gifts will have their choice at this show. There will be gifts for all ages — for her — for him — for teens — for children — for the house and the Christmas stocking. These gifts, too numerous to mention are made or selected by the MGH Women's Auxiliary.

ST. ANDREW'S LADIES: The Ladies Committee of St. Andrew's Society of Montreal has commenced another season of activity. Founded in 1835 St. Andrew's Society has maintained as one of its principal objectives the provision of assistance and advice to Scottish folk in need, which is administered by the Ladies Committee. Different conditions have removed the dire necessities of earlier years but the spirit of the original founder of the St. Andrew's Society still remains and today there are quite a few people in Montreal of Scottish descent who have been made happier because of this.

Three years from now Canada will stage a mammoth six-month party for 30 million people — Expo '67. A shindig of this scale, involving the care, feeding and entertainment of visitors from all over the world requires a lot of planning, and like any good hostess Canada wants everything to be perfect including the help.

Multi-lingual interpreters, policemen who guard the Exhibition grounds in Montreal, guides, attendants, and hostesses for official parties of visiting VIP's, are to appear in the most attractive, practical and distinctive uniforms that can be devised. There will be 6,000 such workers on duty, for Canada, at the fair.

The Association of Canadian Couturiers, representing our top designers, and the Canadian Textiles Institute representing all segments of Canada's billion dollar textile industry have taken on the job of outfitting the workers as a joint project. The textile industry will create special fabrics, colors and designs for garments that the couturiers will design.

All concerned are agreed that Expo workers will not wear "uniforms" in the military sense but have costumes that are both distinctive and smart. Canadian mills have already shown the fashion designers their latest, finest quality fabrics of all varieties; easy care blends, stretch fabrics, fabrics treated for crease, stain and shower resistance. The designers are conferring about colors and silhouette and the general public just might think that is all there is to the job.

However, like so many other aspects of Expo '67, the number of factors which must be taken into account is formidable. The "uniforms" must be worn

St. Mary's Hospital Auxiliary announces interesting program

The Auxiliary of St. Mary's Hospital has announced the following program for 1964-65:

Sept. 29, membership tea and fashion show in St. Mary's Hospital auditorium at 2:30 p.m. Hats will be from Holt Renfrew. Miss Barbara Whitley will be commentator, Mrs. Edgar Reynolds and Mrs. Frank O'Connor are conveners and members of the Auxiliary will act as models.

indoors and out and remain immaculate in spite of heat, rain and milling crowds. The garments must be suitable for wear through April to October, a period which can include just about every kind of weather. Obviously this means the basic uniform must be suitable for the most blistering heat, but items must be added for warmth on chilly days or protection from showers.

Workers will each be supplied with at least three outfits, one to wear, one at the "wash" and one for emergencies. However, easy stain and spot removal is still essential for those who can't leave their posts every time a child bumps into them with an ice cream cone or a mustard-covered hot dog.

Besides being stylish the outfits must of course be completely comfortable and there are probably even more factors to be considered than this. Once all have been solved, the styles approved and the garments tested for performance, contracts for their manufacture will be granted Canadian garment makers.

Despite all the difficulties involved in the creation of the costumes, designers and textile mills are tackling the job with enthusiasm. Planning for a big party is always exciting.

A striking book on wildlife by a peerless story-teller

The Living Wilderness, by Rutherford G. Montgomery — Dodd, Mead & Company (Canada) Limited. — 292 pp. $10.50.

This absorbing beautifully-produced book has 48 full and half page illustrations, and each chapter has a small illustration of the animal on which the author writes.

Rutherford Montgomery has written many books on wild animals which are regarded as classics, and received several awards. For more than 30 years he has delighted millions of readers, of all ages with wildlife books.

The author's interest in wild animals began when he lived on a farm in North Dakota, when he was in fourth or fifth grade and trapped animals to earn a little pocket money. For a number of winters he trapped and spent the summers studying the habits of wild animals in their natural haunts.

He finally stopped catching and killing because he found himself killing animals he had watched during the summer months — they had become friends.

"The Living Wilderness" is written from 60 years of experience, when the author travelled near and far and studied all wild animals, watching them as they lived out their lives in their native habitat. He can distinguish animals from their tracks, even on the desert, where he describes the tracks of the kangaroo rat (a close kin of the pocket mouse), the desert tortoise, coyote, desert fox, the rabbit, bobcat, rattlers and numerous other animals.

From the traits and habits of the smaller animals, Mr. Montgomery writes in detail of the larger animals, the bear, deer, lion, the cat family (bobcat) wolf — telling how all these and the smaller animals can be seen "if you leave your rifle and twenty-two at home, and take your camera instead."

This book is a magnificent demonstration of the infinite variety of nature, a book to be read and loved and treasured by nature-lovers of all ages.

St. Matthias Church scene of Carrique-Dench wedding

The marriage of Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas William Dench, of Westmount, to Mr. Jeffrey Blair Carrique, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Gascoigne Carrique, of Westmount, took place on Friday afternoon at half-past four o'clock, in St. Matthias Church, Westmount, the Rev. John Doidge officiating. Mr. Norman Hurrie played the wedding music and the boys' choir sang during the singing of the register. Standards of pink gladioli, white chrysanthemums and greenery were used to decorate the church.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was in an empire style gown fashioned with a bodice of embroidered poul de soie having a rounded neckline and bell-shaped sleeves, and a skirt of white velvet falling into an oval-shaped train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a matching draped toque and she carried a cascade bouquet of tiny white roses intertwined with ivy.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Jane Starkey, as maid of honor, and Miss Brenda Bridgman, Miss Mary Lou McDougall and Miss Joanne Taylor, as bridesmaids, were in frocks fashioned on lines similar to that worn by the bride, the bodices being of bluish pink poul de soie and the skirts of a deeper pink ottoman silk gathered in front with a single bow. They wore matching poul de soie headdresses and carried crescent shaped bouquets of bluish pink pompons.

'Town Teas' set for CJA Campaign

Mr. John Dalglish acted as best man for Mr. Carrique, and the ushers were Mr. Stephen Molson, Mr. David Pattee, Mr. Brian Sharp, Mr. Barry Carrique, Mr. Bevan Carrique, brothers of the bridegroom, and Mr. Michael Dench, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Dench, mother of the bride, wore an ensemble of clarinet raw silk having a jewelled jacket, with a draped matching turban and had a spray of white carnations pinned to her handbag.

Mrs. Carrique, the bridegroom's mother, was in a gown of teal blue raw silk. She wore a matching velvet hat and had a spray of white carnations fastened to her purse.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Montreal Badminton and Squash Club, where pink and white chrysanthemums were used as decoration. Later Mr. and Mrs. Carrique left on their wedding trip, the bride travelling in a frock of blue wool under a matching wool high-waisted coat and wearing a breton hat of the same shade and a corsage bouquet of ivory gardenias.

$ needed for Mackay

A campaign to raise $370,000 for equipment and furnishings for the Mackay Centre for Deaf and Crippled Children on Decarie boulevard is continuing, president A. H. Marden said yesterday.

That sum, he said is needed to complete the interior of the building, now under construction.

"We need special and different equipment," he said, "and so we must pay higher for it."

Total cost of the a-building centre is $2,500,000, which was to have been raised by subscription. The provincial government paid $1 million, and the campaign has raised all but the final $370,000.

Estimate higher

Mr. Marden, reviewing the campaign, said he was pleased to note that the actual cost of construction of the building was somewhat less than the estimates made originally by the Centre's governors.

Special gift opportunities are being stressed, Mr. Marden said, pointing out that large individual contributions will be commemorated with a suitable plaque.

Some of the prices for these contributions: a classroom, $28,000; auditorium - gymnasium, $138,000; medical-dental suite, $50,000; physio, occupational and hydro therapy, $100,000; industrial arts, $50,000; home-making arts, $40,000; dining hall and kitchens, $135,000; general offices, $60,000.

Of course, he quickly pointed out, since the Centre is for one of the really worthwhile causes, any contribution would be accepted, large or small.

Les Grands Ballets

Appeal for funds

Madame Ludmilla Chiriaeff, founder and artistic director of Les Grands Ballets Canadiens, announces that Laurent Girouard will act as chairman for the subscription campaign to be held from October 15 to 30. The public appeal's objective has been set at $100,000 to help Les Grands Ballets Canadiens to present their 1964-65 season.

Even though les Grands Ballets Canadiens have received financial support once again this year from the Canada Council, the Quebec Provincial and the Greater Montreal Art Councils for a total of $110,000, Les Grands Ballets Canadiens could no longer survive without the direct support of the public and commercial enterprises.

if a complete program is to be provided for all the youth of the community. Some former leaders are yet to be heard from and this might improve the situation, however, as has been the custom over the years, the Club is appealing to the citizens of Westmount and St. Henry to offer their services. Skilled handicraft instructors are urgently required and sports coaches also fall into the same category.

Interested citizens are asked to call Mr. Mariasine at WE. 2-5506 to arrange an appointment.

Program Notes

Tom Stephens' Senior Musical Group meets every Friday evening for rehearsals in the presentation of, "HMS Pinafore". Although most roles have been casted, there are still several openings and Mr. Stephens is hopeful of completing this phase so that the actual script work can be started. Boys or girls, over 14 years of age, are needed.

Bill Bain has started organizing some tournaments in the Senior Games Room. The current tournament is Carom with checkers and chess to follow.

Peter Dawson, second year Boys' Clubs of Canada Scholarship student, has drawn the T.V. Theatre assignment, and he is expected to begin this duty in the not too distant future. Mr. Dawson is looking for a complement of workers to handle the many details of TV theatre. He needs script writers, directors, stage workers, announcers, lighting personnel, ushers, sound technicians, etc. Last year's TV series were well attended by club members and parents.

The cast of "Annie Get Your Gun" are back at work again after a brief delay. Victoria Schrammel is producer and director.

This is the month for Halo-ween parties and the Unity Boys' Club will keep up that ancient tradition with two parties in the planning stage. More details at a later date.

Sandy Staples has returned to the volunteer staff after a year's absence. Miss Staples is in charge of a girls gym, group.

Card Party

The Ladies Auxiliary will hold their Card Party on Monday, October 26th, at 8.00 p.m. Tickets are now available from members of the Auxiliary. Proceeds derived from the Card Party will be used exclusively for the use of the club and club members.

Management Meet

The Committee of Management of the Unity Boys' Club will meet at the Club on Tuesday, October 13, at 5.00 p.m.

Matters pertaining to the general operation of the Club will be discussed.

October 14, Wednesday, Town of Mount Royal Arena.

October 15, Thursday, Cedar Park School in Pointe Claire.

Yoga courses underway

Registration is continuing at the Westmount YMCA for Yoga courses under the direction of Mrs. Diane Bachley. Classes — held in the evening for mixed groups aged 16-65 — start Monday, September 28 at 8 p.m. The courses consist of 60 minute Yoga exercises, a 40 minute lecture, and 20 minutes relaxation and concentration exercises. The teacher Mrs. Diane Bachley, a University graduate was initiated in the science of Yoga at an early age when she lived in the Far East with her Dutch Colonel father. She believes in "scientific reasoning" at every stage and for every step her pupils do, instead of following the ritualistic exercises automatically, and has adapted her program to the Western way of life. The program, she says, excludes Eastern rites and cults.

For readers unacquainted with Yoga, Mrs. Bachley explains: "The aim of Yoga is not merely the superficial development of muscles, but the normalisation of the functions of the entire organism. This is achieved by placing the body in various positions while simultaneously relaxing, deep breathing and practising concentration. Age, vocation, occupation make no difference."
