Conferences Now Being Held To Decide Issue

Premier Baldwin Met Miners' Representatives This Morning—Later Will Attend Joint Mine Owners' Conference—Asks All Cabinet Ministers to Be Within Call—Strong Effort to Find Solution—Miners Standing Firm and Expect International Aid—Some Slight Hope of Averting Disaster.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 29.—Whether the coal mining industry of the nation is to cease operations Friday night entailing unemployment for more than a million miners, or whether the men will continue their efforts to devise new working arrangements is to be decided at a joint conference between the miners and mine owners today.

The Premier is to meet the miners' representatives this morning to discuss with them the proposition he laid before the owners yesterday. Later he will attend the joint miners'-owners' conference. This will be presided over by W. C. Bridgeman, who has acted as intermediary in the prolonged efforts to bring the two sides together for the drawing up of a new working agreement to supersede the one expiring on Friday night.

The report of the Government committee of inquiry into the mining situation, does not, as had been rumored, suggest a subsidy for the mines. It upholds the miners in their demands for a minimum wage agreement, but the committee believes that the wage should be determined by negotiations.

Although the report, reading between the lines, shows sympathy with the miners, it describes the crisis as a "common calamity not primarily due to the fault of either party."

With regard to this report, the London Times says that it makes it impossible for the owners to maintain the ground on which they hitherto have taken a stand, and that if they are wise they will withdraw the present proposals with good will. This view has the support of other quarters which are not committed to exclusive upholding of the miners' side.

Notwithstanding the hopeful indications, Premier Baldwin regards the position as still so uncertain that he has asked all the ministers to cancel out of town engagements and hold themselves ready to attend a cabinet meeting at any hour. Even if an immediate stoppage of work is averted by the decisions of today's conference, it is in no wise certain that an agreement will come out of the negotiations which are to follow.

A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation, when leaving Paris yesterday after attending the Council of the Miners' International, declared that a stoppage in the British coal mines seemed inevitable and if it did not come this week it would come a week or fortnight later.

British miners are greatly heartened by the decision of the miners' international "to undertake international action" in the event of the British mine owners "putting their menaces against the miners into execution on August 1st." They interpret this as a decision to restrict production so as to prevent interference with action by the British miners in their fight against the owners.

PRES. COOLIDGE HAS HOPES FOR DISARMAMENT

Must Wait, However, for Some European Security Pact.

(Associated Press Despatch)
SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., July 29.—President Coolidge hopes that once a security pact among the more powerful European nations becomes a reality the way will be clear for another disarmament conference. A security agreement, in his opinion, would lay a broad foundation for further disarmament by stabilizing in a measure at least, conditions abroad.

The president's view was disclosed yesterday at White Court, with a reiteration that he is anxious to initiate another conference but feels that any more to that end should be withheld till the situation in Europe is such as to offer some promise of success.

While Mr. Coolidge is convinced conditions abroad never will be perfect for the calling of a conference, he is hopeful that a tremendous stride forward will be taken by an agreement on security.

Until complete agreement is reached on security the president believes nothing could be gained and perhaps harm done by bringing the disarmament question to the fore.

SCOTT CASE IN CHICAGO STILL GOING STRONG

Unidentified Suicide at First Thought to Be Brother of Murderer—Meanwhile Defence Is at Work.

(Associated Press Despatch)
CHICAGO, July 29.—Scant hope is held by the police that an unidentified man who shot and killed himself in a Reading, Penn., hotel yesterday is Robert Scott, brother of Russell Scott, under sentence of death for killing a drug clerk in a hold-up. Robert has been sought since the killing, which Russell says his brother did.

The description of the suicide, who cut all labels from his clothing and left a note: "I am nobody from nowhere," tallies only slightly with that of the missing Scott. Since Russell's two escapes of the gallows a few hours before the time set for his hanging, attracted national attention, Robert has been reported found in various parts of the country.

The dead man was described as about 25 years old, 154 pounds, gray eyes, light brown hair, five feet nine inches tall, gold tooth in upper jaw, small scar on temple.

The Chicago police description of Robert said he was 25 years old, five feet eleven inches tall, 160 pounds, blue eyes, medium complexion, heavy brown hair and slim nose, no scars.

Meanwhile alienists continue to examine Russell in murderers' row in the county jail pending a hearing Monday to decide whether he has become insane since his confinement. The state determined to send him again to the death cell and the defence determined to save him, will each submit testimony of specialists.

FISHING BOAT WENT DOWN
ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., July 29.—The auxiliary fishing boat Nonia, owned by the Monroe Export Company, and laden with 1,200 quintals of fish from Burin, struck the rocks at St. John's yesterday morning and went to the bottom. The crew escaped in a small boat.

NEWTON-DAKIN CASE IS BEFORE COURT TODAY

Bail Fixed in Complaint of Newton Against Dakins—Dakin Action Against Newton et Al. Adjourned Till Afternoon.

Both the Dakin vs. Newton, Newton, Sangster and Blakely case, and the Newton vs. Dakin, Dakin and Stewart case came up in the Magistrates Court this morning for preliminary hearing to ascertain whether or not there was enough evidence to send them to a higher court, but in neither instance did evidence commence. Judge F. X. Lacoursiere, district magistrate of Three Rivers, presided.

In the first case, Dakin vs. Newton, etc., counsel explained that N. K. Laflamme, K.C., M.P., for the defence, was unable to be present owing to attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Walter Mitchell in Richmond. Adjournment was then asked and granted until two o'clock this afternoon.

After disposal of a number of minor cases, the second big case, Newton vs. Dakin, etc., came up. R. L. Calder, K.C., for the defence, asked that bail be granted, this being the first arraignment of accused. After brief argument concerning the amount of the bail, Judge Lacoursiere fixed the amount at two thousand dollars personal bail for Mrs. Dakin and two thousand dollars additional bail for F. W. Dakin, J. A. Dakin and R. E. Stewart. The case was then adjourned.

Additional counsel called in for the Newton side of the two cases in the person of G. Gordon Hyde, K.C., of the firm of Markey, Hyde and Ahern, Montreal.

The complete array of counsel was present this morning with the exception of Mr. Laflamme. The lawyers present were R. L. Calder, K.C., Col. Emile Rioux, K.C., and William C. Nicholson, for the Dakins, and with Frederick S. Rugg, G. Gordon Hyde, K.C., and W. Lazure for the Newtons.

DARROW GIVES ANSWER TO W. J. BRYAN

Finds His Statement on Evolution Merely Argument of Lawyer.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 29.—Clarence Darrow, Chicago lawyer, who upheld the theory of evolution at the John T. Scopes trial at Dayton, Tenn., has answered, very briefly, the final message of William Jennings Bryan, fundamentalist champion and his chief opponent at the Dayton trial.

Like the message of Mr. Bryan, given out through the press yesterday by Mrs. Bryan on account of the commoner's death, Mr. Darrow also issued his answer through the press and not in an address. "Mr. Bryan's speech impresses me as only the argumentative statement of a lawyer," Mr. Darrow said. "He referred again to the Loeb and Leopold case, and the Philosophy of Nietzsche. He indicates that, in his belief, such philosophy may have been responsible for their act," the Chicago attorney continued.

"Loeb knew nothing of evolution of Nietzsche, Leopold did, it is true. But because Leopold had read Nietzsche, does not prove that this philosophy or education was responsible for the act of two crazy boys."

"Isn't it peculiar that of the millions of young men and women who have attended universities and colleges of the country and studied evolution and perhaps Nietzsche, only one of them should commit such a crime as Leopold did?"

"The trial at Dayton has done several things which are significant. Of the jurors who heard the case at Dayton, only one of them had ever heard of evolution. Today in Dayton they are selling more books on evolution than at any other kind. The trial has at least started people to thinking."

POLITICS IN NEW BRUNSWICK

ST. JOHN, N.B., July 29.—A bitter attack on Angus McLean and Donald Fraser, prominent lumber operators in the province, for their opposition to the Veniot hydro policy; attacks on Hon. Dr. Baxter, leader of the opposition; insinuations that the party mixed up with white hoods and burning crosses, and a hearty and complete support of Grand Falls as development as planned by the Liberal Government, marked the address delivered last evening by Hon. Ivan C. Rand, attorney-general for the province before an audience of about 1,500 people here.

PRINCE BRINGS SOUTH AFRICAN VISIT TO CLOSE

H. M. S. Repulse Will Sail from Cape Town Today With Heir to British Throne, En Route to South Africa.

(Associated Press Despatch)
CAPETOWN, S. A., July 29.—The Prince of Wales and his party departed today for South America aboard H.M.S. Repulse.

(Associated Press Despatch)
CAPETOWN, July 29.—H.M.S. Repulse is ready in the harbor of Simons Town, the Cape Colony naval station, twenty miles south of Capetown, to take the Prince of Wales on his long voyage to South America, on which he is to start this afternoon.

Ideal weather prevailed today and the Prince spent a restful morning. He had luncheon with the Governor-General, the Earl of Athlone, and the Countess of Athlone, after which he motored to Simon's Town to board the Repulse.

Yesterday, in glorious sunshine, Wales ascended Table Mountain, overlooking Capetown and Table Bay. From its highest point he had a last glimpse across the peninsula and hinterland into the vast distances he has left behind in his journeyings on the African continent.

The Repulse will call at St. Helena on August 3, leaving two days later for Montevideo, Uruguay. It is expected that the battleship will drop anchor in the outer roads of Montevideo, August 14th.

The last ceremonial act of the Prince of Wales before he left Capetown was to dedicate a memorial to nurses who were killed during the world war.

Simon's Town was gaily decorated when the Prince arrived. The British African squadron was assembled to escort the Repulse out of the harbor. The blue waters of the bay, the assemblage of ships with fluttering flags and the background of hillsides and mountains covered with wild flowers formed a beautiful picture as the Prince boarded the ship upon which he will go to South America.

U.S. OPERATORS CLAIM LOSS ON SALES OF COAL

Say Public Will No Longer Pay Advanced Price for Anthracite.

(Associated Press Despatch)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 29.—The anthracite operators conference disclosed today that 18,000,000 tons of hard coal, twenty per cent of the entire annual production, had been sold at a loss of 50 to 55 cents a ton since the price drop in April. Operators quoted the figures to substantiate a claim being made to the miners that they cannot afford to grant a ten per cent wage increase this year.

When Governor of Pennsylvania, Pinchot, negotiated settlement of the 1923 controversy he increased the price of coal ninety cents to $1 a ton, operators said. Up to the end of 1924, it was said today, operators had been able to get this advance out of the coal; in other words, by advancing the price to the public. Now, however, the public has turned, they said. The ninety cents to $1 is coming out of the operators own pockets, because, they said, the public is not paying higher prices and to a certain degree, is not even taking some of the coal.

RIFF LEADER SEEMS READY TO RENEW HIS DRIVE AGAINST FRENCH FORCES IN MOROCCO

Period of Calm Believed to Be Ended—Some Other Tribes Join Abd-El-Krim—Marshal Petain on Way to France to Report on Situation—French Premier Denies that Riff Leader Has Made Any Peace Proposals.

(Associated Press Despatch)

FEZ, July 29.—The period of relative calm which has existed the last few days along the Franco-Riffian battle front is showing signs of coming to an end. The enemy now appears to have completed regrouping of his forces and is beginning to renew his activities. Thus far these have only taken the shape of raids on the villages of tribes friendly to the Sultan of Morocco and the French, which have been burned, and attacks on French convoys.

There seems to be no doubt that the Riffian leader intends to try to make up for the non-success of his drive towards Fez, which was broken at Ain Aicha and Ain Matouf, by an attack on even a larger scale against Ouezzan before the arrival of all the French reinforcements. At the same time the Riffians are strengthening certain points along the centre, notably at Djebel and Amergou, in the Fez El Bali region.

The Tsouls and Branes tribes which recently displayed an inclination to throw in their lot with the French seem to have been won over by the skilful propaganda of Abd El Krim.

Marshal Petain, who for more than a week has been investigating the position of the French army in Morocco, is now in Tetuan, Spanish Morocco, where before his return to France he will engage in discussion with General Primo De Rivera, head of the Spanish military directorate, concerning Franco-Spanish collaboration in Morocco.

FRANCE SAYS NO PEACE MOVE FROM RIFF LEADER

(Associated Press Despatch)

PARIS, July 29.—The French Government insisted last night that it had received no communication, either official or semi-official, from Abd El Krim, leader of the warring Moroccans in answer to France's outline of peace terms.

Earlier in the day Premier Painleve had informed the cabinet that no peace proposals had been received from Abd El Krim, either by France or Spain. These denials were considered necessary because of the reports emanating from London that Abd El Krim had informed the French Government of the conditions he was prepared to submit as a basis of negotiations.

MUCH INTEREST IN MARSHAL PETAIN'S CONFERENCE WITH GENERAL RIVERA

(Associated Press Despatch)

CASABLANCA, Morocco, July 29.—Marshal Petain's meeting with General Primo De Rivera, president of the Spanish military directorate, at Ceuta, in the absence of important military developments along the front is attracting attention in all military and political circles in Morocco. Primo De Rivera will go aboard the Marshal's cruiser Strasbourg at Ceuta tomorrow and the two will proceed to Tetuan, where they will study Franco-Spanish collaboration in future military operations.

In the meantime Abd E. Krim's troops are moving to the north and west and concentrating on the Quezzan sector along the Spanish front, where the rebel chieftain's brother Mohammed is exerting his utmost influence to attract all available tribes to his cause.

Abd El Krim has ordered the Djehaba tribesmen, who have finished the harvest and are able to muster twenty thousand rifles to concentrate on the western sector because of the contemplated attack on Ouezzan or El Arish. The eastern sector is quiet.

MORE SOFT COAL BUT LESS ANTHRACITE

Reports of Coal Exports Issued from Washington

(Associated Press Despatch)

WASHINGTON, July 29.—A large increase in soft coal exports in June with a decrease in anthracite exports and a falling off in coke shipments, is shown by official figures of the Department of Commerce.

Exports of soft coal to Canada amounted to 1,038,464 tons in June, and 1,090,799 tons in May, and were the heaviest shipments to Canada this calendar.

Anthracite and coke of ports to Canada in June declined.

Anthracite exported to the Dominion in June was 303,000 tons against 320,219 in May, while coke declined about 8,000 tons compared with May.

BIG APPLE CROP FOR N.S.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 29.—This year's apple crop in the Annapolis Valley will be about two million barrels, or from fifteen to twenty per cent greater than last year, according to a statement made here last night by George E. Graham, of Kentville, N. S., general manager of the Dominion Atlantic Railway.

BRITISH READY TO ASSIST IN IMMIGRATION

Would Pay Half Expense of Any Reasonable Canadian Settlement Scheme.

(Associated Press Despatch)

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 29.—(Canadian Press).—Any workable scheme of immigration to colonize Canada with people from the British countries will be supported by the British Government to the extent of half the expense, Lord Burnham announced in his address to the joint luncheon of the Canadian Club and Women's Canadian Club today.

"While I have no right to speak for the government, I have some authority to say to you there is no considered scheme for settlement which may be agreed to which the government will not contribute half the money which may be required. The British Government will, as the saying is, go fifty-fifty with you. The government has spent but a small part of what it has set aside for colonization purposes," said Lord Burnham.

LONGLEGS LOS ES HIS TEMPER

By Thornton W. Burgess. A temper lost is sense mislaid, And seldom has it ever paid. —Old Mother Nature.

Longlegs, the Great Blue Heron, had for some time been getting an excellent living at the Smiling Pool and along the Laughing Brook near it. He couldn't recall when fishing had been better. So he had spent more and more time up there. The fishing of Rattles the Kingfisher and Mrs. Kingfisher hadn't disturbed him. There were fish enough for all, and so long as enough of them went down that long neck of his he felt good-natured.

But with the coming of the six young Kingfishers everything was changed. It wasn't that the six young Kingfishers required so many more fish. It wasn't that at all. It was the fact that in learning to catch them, the young Kingfishers were so awkward and so clumsy that they frightened many times as many as they caught.

Time and again Longlegs, standing motionless in the water, would see a school of little fish swimming straight toward him. He would stand motionless with his head drawn back between his shoulders ready to be shot forward the instant those fish came within reach. Then, without warning, there would be a clattering rattle behind him, and splash in amongst those little fish would go one of the Kingfisher youngsters. Then up he would come, sometimes with a fish and sometimes without, while that school of little fish would be scattered in every direction.

Day after day this happened and Longlegs said nothing. But at last he lost his temper. One of those young Kingfishers caught a little fish almost under Longlegs' very bill. It was more than he could stand. Like lightning his long, sharp bill shot forward and down. It was fortunate for that young Kingfisher that he was dropped the fish he had just caught, and with a scream of fright flew to a tree on the bank. Rattles and Mrs. Kingfisher came hurrying up to find out what the trouble was about. When the frightened young Kingfisher had told them, they flew over to where Longlegs the Heron was once more patiently waiting. Such a racket as they made as they darted down at him, and threatened to peck his eyes out. At first Longlegs ignored them. But pretty soon he lost his temper again and struck angrily at them whenever they came near.

"Why don't you teach your youngsters not to spoil the fishing of an honest fisherman?" he screamed. "If one ever comes within my reach he'll never fish again!"

"If you don't like the fishing here why don't you go somewhere else?" retorted Rattles. "This fishing is free to everybody. Our children have just as much right to fish here as you have, you great big robber!"

Poor Longlegs. He was quite helpless. He knew he had been very foolish to lose his temper, for he knew that when he lost his temper he had lost his dignity, and a Heron

STANSTEAD MEN SENTENCED TO JAIL TERMS One Month and Costs for Four - Stanhope Man Fined $1,000 - Local Cases Disposed Of.

Seven sentences were handed out by Judge F. X. Lacoursiere in the Magistrate's Court this morning, all dealing with liquor in one form or another. Five of those appearing were men arrested in the raids carried out by the Liquor Commission police in Stanstead County over the week-end, while the remaining two were local men. The local men sentenced were Joseph Masson, a taxi driver, who was arrested by the police for driving while under the influence of liquor, and George Lapierre, arrested for the illicit sale of liquor. Masson was given a fine of one hundred dollars and costs or one month, and his driver's license was cancelled for a year. Lapierre's sentence was one month and costs or, failing payment of costs, three additional months. Five men arrested in the Stanstead raids who appeared today were A. Houle and John Kehoe, of Stanhope, Joseph Bilodeau, of Stanstead, Harry Filimire, of Capelton, and John Graves, of Beebe. Kehoe's charge was the illegal possession of liquor, for which he was fined $1,000 and costs or one month in prison. The other four were charged with the sale of liquor without license, and they received one month and costs or three additional months.

GOT WOLF BOUNTIES BY MAKING "EARS" FROM SKIN BRANDON, Man., July 29. - Indians, like many others, practice "get rich quick" schemes. A case in point was brought to light here at the Indian reserve at Griswold, Man. Collecting bounty returns on wolf ears, manufactured from skins of young cubs, was the ingenious method employed. The ears were turned in to secure the wolf bounty to the municipality. The Redskins figured it was much easier to make ears than to catch wolves. So well did they make the artificial ears that municipal officers were fooled for some time. Finally the authorities discovered the ruse and provincial police started an investigation. Three men and a squaw were apprehended. They pleaded guilty to the charge and were warned with a year's suspended sentence.

IRON LAMP POSTS BEING ERECTED The appearance of Queen Street North, which was included in the 1924 paving schedule, being turned from one of the worst streets in the city into a magnificent boulevard, is being greatly improved by the erection of modern iron lamp posts the entire length of the paved section. The cement bases which the posts are set on were put in a short time ago, the wiring being done underground at the time of the paving operations. Following the erection of these posts, the lawns of the boulevard will be levelled over, and it is the expressed hope of a number of Queen Street residents that the city will take further steps towards making the street one of the most picturesque in the city by the planting of shrubs, trees, etc. CUPS FOR REGATTA. ## THE LATE L. A. BELANGER.

In the death of L. A. Belanger Sherbrooke has lost a worthy citizen and Canada one of its veteran editors and printers. As noted in the biographical sketch published in the Record, it was back in 1866 that the late Mr. Belanger was associated with the printing of "Le Pionnier de Sherbrooke," the first French paper in this part of the country. In 1873, in association with his brother, the late L. C. Belanger, he was publishing the Sherbrooke News. For a few years, about 1881, we find him in Worcester, Mass., also publishing a paper, and again in Sherbrooke in 1884 as publisher of the Progress de L'Est which he continued for many years. Mr. Belanger was devoted to his calling and spared not himself in carrying on his work. There was no eight hour day for him, his labor often extending far into the night.

The late Mr. Belanger was a broad-minded citizen, fair in his dealings with his fellow men, reasonable in his views, and in every way deserving of the good will of the public which he enjoyed for many years.

He was undoubtedly the dean of printers in the Eastern Townships and perhaps of the Province. His familiar figure will be seen no more. After a long and honorable life he has passed to his reward, well remembered by his fellow men.

ELECTRICAL STORMS.

Electrical storms are more or less disturbing, though not very dangerous, particularly in this part of the country where they are less severe than in some regions of the earth.

Discussing electrical storms, the Montreal Gazette, in an editorial says:

Seldom does an electrical storm produce such havoc as that recently reported from France. In most instances the benefits of the downpour far exceed the inconvenience or damage wrought by lightning tempests. Modern science has given us another name for thunderstorm. We know it is of electrical origin. Whether the impulse leading to this discharge starts from underground or from the air has not been definitely ascertained, and the electrical display has been attributed severally to solar and subterranean causes. Certain it is that they are far more frequent in tropical climates than in temperate zones, in summer than in winter and in certain localities than elsewhere. Thus South Africa and the Himalayan Mountains, Japan and the American Rockies, Borneo and the Amazonian Valley are notoriously thunderous regions. Few parts of the surface of the earth are exempt from these visitations except the big deserts. Most gusts are a sort of atmospheric hysteria, and are soon over, too violent to last. Yet sometimes a furious storm will carry on for six hours or even through the greater part of a day.

We know how animals behave under such circumstances. They cringe and whine and show distress. It is not to be wondered at, therefore, that many human folk are nervous while the awful racket is going on. Ajax defied the lightning, but few feel like emulating his bravado. Moreover, the fiery sword from the clouds smote him down. The ancients had many superstitions connected with electrical storms. Trees, houses or grounds struck by Jupiter in wrath were reckoned accursed. Within modern times it was customary in Malta to ring church bells to subdue the tumult. Romans took shelter in underground grottoes, as they did not believe lightning could penetrate the rocks. Tartars put on thick woollens and huddled down in the dark. Sealskins and elkskins have been adopted for protection. In China peach-trees and mulberry-trees were once counted immune. A more understandable safety belief is the wearing of silk, which, in fact, is a non-conducting fabric. The old superstition about being perfectly safe in a feather bed hardly deserves its repute.

Some facts are worth attention. It has been shown that much fewer buildings are struck in cities than in rural sections. The prevalence of conductive wires and of metallic roofs may be the explanation. Again, the virtue of lightning-rods is still keenly discussed, yet it seems that where they are properly grounded in moist earth or waterways, they are of real service. We have seen it stated that no powder magazine rightly wired and fixed has ever been exploded by lightning. Once more, what is called the "bolt" can and does ascend as well as descend. It may split a tree or rip up a floor. Yet after all the nervous folk can take comfort, for the aspects of a storm, although sometimes terrifying, by no means involve such dangers as we commonly confront without a tremor. The flash which takes a thousandth part of a second is, generally speaking, far less perilous than some effluvia, germ or microbe in the air. And for that matter, what about joy-riding in motor-cars?

MRS. LAFOLLETTE NOT FOR SENATE; SON MAY RUN

(Associated Press Despatch) WASHINGTON, July 29.—Mrs. Robert M. Lafollette, formally announced yesterday that she will not seek the seat in the United States Senate made vacant by the death of her husband.

Mrs. Lafollette's statement is expected to clear the way for an early announcement by Governor Blaine of a special election to fill out the unexpired term of the leader of the Independents.

While no announcement has been made, it is rather generally believed here that Robert M. Lafollette, Jr., will offer for his father's seat.

BIG GAME HUNTRESS HAS BENEFACTRESS

(Associated Press Despatch) TAMPA, Fla., July 29.—Lady Grace Esme MacKenzie, big game huntress and international adventuress, today was seeking to solve the element of mystery which linked itself with her fortunes.

An unidentified woman, whose kindly voice was muffled beneath a heavy black veil which shrouded her face, was sought by Lady MacKenzie, as her benefactress. Four days spent in jail by the adventuress were ended by the woman in the black veil on Monday, when she refunded the amount of money alleged to have been received by Lady MacKenzie upon a worthless draft.

Charges against the woman were dismissed, and although police of other cities had been reported as seeking Lady MacKenzie, no other charges were made public.

Lady MacKenzie announced that she would file a suit for alleged false arrest against G. E. Bray, realtor, who claimed to have endorsed a worthless draft for $200 for the woman.

MARRIAGES

BOULANGER—LESSARD.

DIXVILLE, July 29.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Roman Catholic Church on Tuesday morning when Miss Juliette Lessard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Lessard, was united in marriage with Mr. Irola Boulanger, of Stanhope. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Tourigny, acting parish priest, in the absence of Rev. Boulay, who is touring the continent. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attractively gowned in jade green crepe de chene, with scarf of yellow, and hat to correspond. She carried a beautiful bouquet of American beauty roses. The attendants were Mr. Romeo Lessard, brother of the bride, and Miss Blanche Boisclair, of Barford. During the ceremony appropriate music was rendered by four sisters of the bride, Misses Lucienne, Beatrice, Rosa and Gracia Lessard, with Mrs. J. A. Sasseville presiding at the organ, and who played the wedding march as the bridal party left the church.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding luncheon was served to about forty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Boulanger left for a trip to Berlin, N.H., Springfield, Mass., and other points en route.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FORSYTH SQUARE

Editor Record.
In a late issue of the Daily Record there was an inquiry as to how "Forsyth Square" in the East Ward came by its name.
I have in my possession a deed of sale, dated 24th September, 1886, from the curator of the vacant estate and succession of the late James Bell Forsyth, in his lifetime of the City of Quebec, in favor of my father, the late Dr. E. D. Worthington.
The land transferred is described as part of the lot heretofore known as lot number 19, in the seventh range of the Township of Ascot.
Forsyth Square was formerly a part of this lot, No. 19, 7th range, Ascot, and when the survey was made and a plan of building lots laid out, the open space was designated "Forsyth Square," after the above James Bell Forsyth, so this answers the question of your correspondent.
Very truly yours,
E. B. WORTHINGTON.

CORDOVA, Alaska, July 29.—A murder mystery which was suggested by finding the body of John Newman, Dan Creek prospector, on a gravel bar in the stream with a blood stained pillow case nearby, was solved yesterday when it was learned that he had been attacked by a bear while washing dishes in the creek. Badly injured in the fight that followed, after resting for a while in his cabin bed, Newman started for civilization to seek aid and died of his wounds and exhaustion while on the trail. He had been missing for about a month.

In the fall of 1902 he was given the day air line out of Newport and for twenty-three years had driven this train as far as Plymouth, returning with the early morning Montreal express. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mabel Oakley Shepard, of Newark, N.J.; one son, Clifford, assistant superintendent of the A. & P. factory in Somerville, Mass.; a grandchild, Elizabeth Oakley Shepard, six years of age, also three brothers and one sister, Dan Oakley, of Los Angeles, Calif.; George Oakley, a prosperous farmer of Kingsbury, Que.; Henry of New Westminster, B.C., and Mary Oakley Lockwood, of Danville, Que.

NIAGARA FALLS HAS A MURDER MYSTERY NOW

(Associated Press Despatch)
NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., July 29.—What is believed to be another murder mystery came to light yesterday afternoon when the body of a well dressed man was found in the hydraulic canal basin. The man's head showed many bruises and the pockets of the clothing were empty except for a few papers of no value.

Among the papers was a ticket for a moonlight lake excursion issued by the Mutual Benefit Association of Cleveland. The ticket was for July 21st.

The body was in good condition and in the opinion of Coroner Eames had not been in the water more than two days. The location of the wounds on the head, the coroner believed, indicated that they had not been caused by the body striking against the concrete walls of the canal.

CHICAGO GAVE WASHINGTON BAD BEATING

Babe Ruth in Old Style—Cleveland Beat Red Sox—Giants Win on Western Trip.

(Associated Press Despatch) NEW YORK, July 29.—Stanley Harris and his mound veterans of the Washington Senators went down before a sizzling onslaught in the American League yesterday.

In an interview recently Harris told of his reliance in the men who had weathered season after season of baseball strife.

He was sure that they would carry Washington through to a second pennant. Possibly this interview did not reach the ears of the White Sox. Anyhow they had to be shown, for yesterday the great Walter Johnson was forced to retire in the sixth inning of the first game, and Tom Zachary left suddenly in the second, Chicago winning both, 10 to 5 and 6 to 2.

Philadelphia's youthful Athletics, though defeated by Detroit by 4 to 3, gained a half game more leeway in the leadership through the Chicago victory.

Babe Ruth was himself once again, poled out a homer but scored a run ahead and issued a single that scored another. He then closed the contest with a sensational catch of a foul fly as it entered the partition seats. Under such conditions the Browns accepted a beating from the Yankees by 6 to 2.

Cleveland treated four Red Sox pitchers unmercifully, registering twenty-four hits for a 16 to 7 victory.

McGraw's Giants made a triumphal entry into the west with two homers by Meusel and one each by Lindstrom, Gowdy and Bentley also hurled in exceptional form, allowing the Cubs only five hits, and won 19 to 3.

But Pittsburgh again downed the Braves and remained a game and a half in the van of the National League race. Bespectacle Lee Meadows gained a 5 to 1 triumph.

Brooklyn piled up eleven runs in the last four innings to overcome an early Cardinal lead, giving Grimes a conquest, 12 to 9, while the Cuban League, scored the only shut out of the day the Reds beating the Phillies by 3 to 0. He gave five hits.

Bill Johnson and Howard Kinsey Eliminated at Seabright, N.J.

(Associated Press Despatch) SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 29.—California, after four years, has lost its grip on the coveted Seabright bowl, one of tennis' greatest prizes.

Bill Johnston winner in 1921, 1922 and 1924, and Howard O. Kinsey, the champion of 1924, were eliminated yesterday in the second round.
