Negro Clergyman Preaches Sermon In Jewish Pulpit

Rev. Charles Este's Appearance in Temple Emanu-El is Historic Event

Temple Emanu-El was the scene last Friday of what may prove to be an important link in Canada's development towards Democracy, when a leading Negro minister occupied a Jewish pulpit for probably the first time in the history of the Dominion.

The occasion was a service held in observance of Lincoln's birthday and the Rev. Charles Este, of the Union United Church, was the preacher.

The subject of his sermon was "Tolerance" and in an eloquent address he cited examples of discrimination against coloured people in the metropolis of Montreal and urged that Jews, also regarded as a minority group, should make every effort to assist in eradicating such prejudice.

Tomorrow evening Rabbi Harry J. Stern will speak on "The Perpetual Light" at the regular service at 8.15 at which, Temple Scouts and Cubs will attend in observance of "Scout Week", and on Saturday morning at 11.30 a sermonette entitled "The Altar" will be given, based on Torah portion.

Next Wednesday, February 24, the 116th annual Fellowship dinner will be held at 7 p.m. in the Temple Community House, when an interesting address will be given by Dr. John Mills, President of the University of Vermont, entitled "Education at the Crossroads".

The meeting, which is sponsored by the Men's Club, will be attended by Catholics, Jews, and Protestants, and members of the brotherhood are requested to invite non-Jewish friends as their guests.

The dinner arrangements will be in charge of the Sisterhood committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Hollinger and Mrs. Richard Kramer, and Martin Arnovitz, president, and Lawrence Marks, vice-president, will preside at the dinner and meeting.

A special musical program will be given during the evening.

Westmount Park Young People Meet for Study

Frank McPhee Named Acting-President for Balance of Season

An Evening Fireside Hour will again be held by the Westmount Park Young People after the evening service next Sunday. The speaker will be Dr. W. O. Rooney of St. George's Williams College. All young people and their friends are invited to this hour of fellowship and song and interesting discussions.

At the regular Tuesday evening meeting of the Young People a series of talks on various aspects of religion was introduced by the minister, Rev. G. W. Goth. The first topic "Does morality need Religion?" was discussed by the young people with the leader. This series will be continued for the next four weeks and all young people are invited to join in Tuesday evenings at 8 p.m.

The worship service was led by Claude Brubacher with the theme "Making a Choice".

At the last executive meeting, the resignation was accepted with regret of the president, Gordon Young, owing to his transfer to another city. Frank McPhee, who was on the executive as worship leader, was named acting-president for the balance of the season.

The Province of Quebec Gladiolus Society have announced that Cleveland Morgan will lecture on "Rock Garden Flowers" on Tuesday evening, at the Budge Hall in the Central Y.M.C.A., Drummond Street.

Mr. Morgan, who is an eminent authority on the subject, will illustrate his lecture with many coloured slides of rare and beautiful floral species. The lecture is scheduled to start at eight o'clock.

Luncheon Quiz Helps Rotarians Re-learn Rotary

Amusing and Informative Questions Asked in Jack Colton's Program

Rotarians had to do a bit of hard thinking and incidentally improve their knowledge of the inside workings of Rotary at the weekly luncheon at Victoria Hall on Tuesday when they were entertained by a quiz program arranged by Jack Colton.

Nearly every second question dealt with important facts about Rotary membership rules, about the history, and also about important geographical points of International Rotary.

The proceedings opened with two five-minute talks given by Cecil Medler and the Rev. R. G. Burgoyne.

Cecil Medler spoke on "Why Fellowship is Important to Rotary and how it may be developed" and described the spirit of Rotary as something almost "intangible"—an "atmosphere" which could be felt but not described. "Perhaps we might call it the cement," he remarked "that binds all the members together." He reviewed the beginnings of Rotary when Paul Harris formed a little group of friends in Chicago and told how the members of that group rotated around each other's houses discussing world events and eventually developing a fellowship from which sprang the present world organization. The strength of Rotary, he declared, was shown by a statement in a branch magazine which said "If necessary Sandwiches and Overcoats"—meaning of course, should war demands make further restrictions on food and fuel necessary—Rotarians would still eat and meet together.

The Rev. R. G. Burgoyne spoke on the opportunity for Rotarians to start a post war problem committee which would be for members of all clubs as well as for International Rotary. "The hope of the world," he said, "lies with those who can think, led by the few who can see." It was vision directing thought. In conclusion of an inspiring talk crowded into the few minutes at his disposal, he quoted Browning's lines "The best is yet to be"—and added "And we are not afraid to face it."

Two boys of West Hill High School were among the club's guests and Jim Pullen, director of sports at No. 13 E.F.T.S. St. Eugene, also a guest, spoke of the great use that was being made of the gifts presented to the headquarters by the Westmount Rotarians.

George Hunter, Jack McKee and Stan Cayford, who were members of the Heather Curling Club which won the Governor-General's Curling Cup were cheered. The curling meet which was to have taken place last Saturday and was postponed on account of the Ottawa event, will be held next Saturday. Members were urged to put in a good appearance.

All air cadets will wear uniform and members of other units and guests who may attend will have the same privilege.

STUDY IN BLACK AND WHITE

This attractive small person takes the business of eating seriously as he tucks into his supper of cereal and milk. Canada's Nutrition Program is vitally concerned with building a strong Canada by improving the health of all its citizens through better nutrition. Milk and cereals should play an important role in the diets of both young and old.

George Adam Is Re-elected President By Bible Society

Annual Report of Montreal Auxiliary Shows 10,000 Bibles Distributed in Thirty Different Languages

Three well known Westmount men were elected as officers for the coming year at the 122nd annual business meeting of the Montreal Auxiliary Bible Society which was held last week in the board room on Union avenue.

George Adam was re-elected president and also convener of the anniversary committee, and W. D. and W. S. Lighthall were named honorary solicitors.

Professor Henry F. Armstrong, in reading the report of the general committee spoke of the fine leadership given by the president and splendid work of the two secretaries, Rev. James Adams and George M. Franck.

The report showed that more than 10,000 copies of the Bible, printed in thirty different languages, had been distributed in the Montreal area in the last year and that the Dominion headquarters had given out 453,000 copies of the New Testament to the men and women of the armed forces. Prison and internment camps had also been supplied with 18,537 Bibles and Testaments, $17,000 sent to Dominion Headquarters. He also mentioned that last year Canada had sent the largest contribution to England in a number of years.

A. H. Ransom, convener of colportage, told of the work of the two colporteurs, and the Rev. James Adams and George Franck described the work as it is carried on in city and country.

Child Management Subject of Talk By Dr. J. S. Astbury

Interesting Address Given at King's School Last Tuesday

"Punishment in private and praise in public" was one of the many useful suggestions made by Dr. J. S. Astbury, Principal of Baron Byng High School when he discussed the management of children at the monthly meeting of the King's Home and School association on Tuesday evening.

"Understanding the Child" was the subject of his address and after analysing the foundations of Spinoza's theory of springs of action, Dr. Astbury gave as his own findings that "An instinct is self-affirmation and anything that can be done to develop this feeling of affirmation in children is all to the good."

Children are really older than they appear and he recommended giving them books and toys one stage ahead of their actual years so that they had something to which they could reach forward. "Affirmation makes for pleasure, and negation for pain" he asserted.

Dr. Astbury was introduced by G. D. Lessard, principal of King's School, and the meeting was under the chairmanship of E. B. McKenzie. The minutes were read by Mrs. J. D. McKee and H. C. Nourse moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Olive Gregor Pierce for her production of the concert last Christmas.

The prize which is given every month to that class whose parents turn up at the monthly meeting in the greatest number, went to Grade 1 (Boys). Last month's prize was a tie and was won by Grade 6 (Boys) and Grade 5 (Girls). It was announced that this prize money had been given to the "Aid to Russia" fund.

ivities Mr. Kennedy stated that the executive continued to deal directly with the special affairs in the association which concerned all members. Members were asked to submit suggestions and complaints whenever they felt they would be useful.

A lengthy discussion took place as to whether there should be an election of new officers for the coming year, as most of the members of the executive wished to resign, but after opinion on the subject had been received from all quarters it was decided that it was in the best interests of the Association that the present executive should remain in office for 1943, with Eric Ohman as president.

District Endures Arctic Weather

Little Dislocation Follows Drop in Temperature

Nearly eight inches of snow fell over this and other sections of the city and district during the week-end, according to the McGill weather authorities, but police and transportation companies report the weather did not cause any serious accidents or interference in public services.

The full force of the snow-removal equipment and staffs were put to work, and they were assisted in many cases by students and volunteers.

The main thoroughfares, and particularly those streets where street cars are operated, were rapidly cleared of the accumulation of snow, and in only a few cases, where automobiles stalled on the tracks, was the service temporarily interrupted.

An icy under-surface made motorists proceed with the utmost caution and only minor collisions, without any serious damage or injury to persons, were reported.

While skiers and other winter sports enthusiasts welcomed the snowfall, transportation officials suffered the usual headaches that accompany a sudden and unexpected change in the weather.

Thermometer readings varied in various parts of the district anywhere from 17 to 30 below zero, particularly during the night between Sunday and Monday.

The Club held a Red Cross Auction last week that raised a sum of over nineteen dollars, R. H. M. Falls was the auctioneer.

Nothing special is on tap for next week's get-together with general trading being predominant.

Tonight's meeting will as usual get underway at eight-fifteen.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1943

AN OLD AXIS TRICK

SEVERAL PHONY BANK NOTES have recently been detected by bank tellers and merchants in various parts of the city and district, including Verdun, where the first counterfeit was discovered, N.D.G. and Westmount.

It is believed that the fake currency is being spread by some underground agencies operated by the Axis powers.

It has long been established that Italian flyers dropped Germany depressed Czech currency before Munich, counterfeit money on Albania. Worthless paper money, printed in Japan, paved the way for the conquest of Singapore. English bank notes were counterfeited by Italy even before Mussolini entered the World conflict. Early in 1942 counterfeit U. S. paper money was manufactured in Barcelona and smuggled into Portugal to be sent overseas.

The trick is not a new one. It was practiced by Japan at the time of its war with Russia in 1904.

It is stated that the threat of the counterfeit money is considered so serious in the U.S.A. that one-fifth of the secret service personnel of the U.S.A. is now engaged in teaching the people how to detect the phony currency.

Warning has been issued in Canada by the R.C.M.P., and repeated attempts to pass the counterfeits may make an innocent holder of the money, a criminal in the eyes of the law.

Any person having in his possession any bills that may look suspicious—and it is claimed the counterfeits are poor imitations of the genuine—should at once submit them for examination to a bank before attempting to put them into circulation.

The spread and distribution of the phony money is an attempt to weaken the credit of the Allied Nations.

It is believed that Germany has paid for oil and other supplies obtained from South American countries in the early days of the war, when most of those countries were still neutral, with counterfeit U. S. A. bank notes.

Financial panic might very well follow a large circulation of phony currency, since business people, storekeepers and others, might well hesitate to accept any kind of paper money, for fear it might prove worthless.

WOMEN MORE COURAGEOUS

"IN INGENUITY AND CAPACITY for sustained effort in the management of the little affairs of life, women are superior to men," writes William Feather, noted U.S. publisher and columnist. "If this were not so, a great many families could not survive."

"Recently I saw a cook book to which a wartime appendix had been added. The title of the appendix was 'How to Feed a Family of Five on $15 a Week'."

"Millions of women in this country have never had more than $15 a week for food for a family of five. And lots of women today feed families of five on much less than $15. The families thrive, and the children are sturdy. It is in getting the most out of a limited and inadequate income that women demonstrate their ingenuity. When they must stretch a dollar, they do tricks of which no man ever dreamed."

"In courage, too, I have never doubted that women are men's superior. In crises, it can truthfully be said that most women are fearless. They can take punishment that would drive men to drink, suicide or insanity."

Mr. Feather might have added that Russian generals who have been quoted on the subject, are unanimous in giving their nurses, women doctors, and women soldiers credit for even more courage and resourcefulness, under fire, than their men have shown. And that is really saying something.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH NOTES

Baden-Powell Day will be observed Sunday morning in St. Andrew's Church, when Rev. Dr. P. W. Kerr will preach on "Youth Matched for God's Hour."

Scouts, Guides and Cubs are on church parade and will deposit the colors at the altar. Mr. E. Russell Paterson and Mr. Dudley Lloyd will be in charge of the Scouts. The sermon will stress the inspiration that is coming to the younger generation today by the imperishable records of daring and gallantry of their older brothers in the present conflict. Moreover, those of Scout age today, are the ones who will bring to fulfillment the higher ideals born out of the sacrifices of war.

Mr. A. Leonard Griffith will preach at the evening service, choosing as his theme, "Noblesse Oblige."

Following the evening service, the Alpha Omega Society will hold a panel discussion on the topic, "Resolved, that strikers in war-time industries should be regarded as saboteurs." The debate will be arranged by Mr. Harvey Houston, and will be open to all the young people of the congregation.

The Sunday Calendar at St. Andrew's will contain a letter from P/O Robert Harvie, who has been officially reported "missing, believed killed," in enemy action over Berlin.

This young man was closely identified with the work of the church and Sunday School, and the last letter he wrote, so far as is known, is the one written to his minister, and which will appear in the Calendar. It was dated Jan. 18. The whole-hearted response of the youth of the church to the challenge of today is indicated by the fact that 246 young men and women from this one congregation are enlisted in active service.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Pan American World Airways System has gone in for super-advertising. It displayed in double-page advertisements inserted in leading magazines, the social aims sought by the Archbishop of Canterbury, who believes the purpose of the industrial process ought to be to treat the consumer as the controlling end, rather than as a means to profit. Of this unusual alliance a well-known journal wrote: "Brief, simply phrased, directly pointed as advertising copy is expected to be, a thousand ordinary Americans will read these words for every one who has so much as heard of the Malvern Conference at which Dr. Temple gave the keynote address."

HOUSEWIVES' CHORUS

We housewives have to cook about a thousand meals a year. And set and serve and clear them, every one. Over dishes we must toil after every bake and boil—It's truly said our work is never done. A lot of us would like to shed monotonous routine, And dash away to follow glory's star. Which is really quite taboo, for the thing we've got to do Is our duty in the places where we are.

Each day brings countless labors that we did the day before, And tomorrow we will do them all again. The clock ticks off the lives of the mothers and the wives, And we do get discontented now and then. But mostly we just forge ahead with jobs that come to hand—We sew and knit and garden, cook and char, While we try to plot and plan just to do the best we can With our duty in the places where we are.

The women with no fetters of the kind that can't be cut May fold their tents—or leave them!—and make tracks To seek in wider fields all the thrills far service yields, Thrills that all too often home-front service lacks. But we've got to keep them burning—these home-fires through the land— And if children gates to travel stoutly bar, We can count it well worth while, though at present out of style, Our duty in the places where we are.

TVA will ask no subvention from the federal government this year. It will also be able, out of its own income of $40,000,000, to pay for additional construction. The cost of its current to the consumer is now the lowest, with the single exception of the municipal plant in Tacoma, Wash., of any in the United States. Three-fourths of its power is going directly to war purposes. Sixteen dams have been completed and six others are under construction, including the great Kenney dam at the mouth of the Tennessee river. David Lillenthal, chairman of the commission, pays tribute to the 40,000 workers. There has been no stoppage of work, and the workers' co-operation has been worth as much to the TVA as any of its great dams. The War Labor Board has stipulated that they can settle all their own labor problems.

Dr. George Carver's funeral, simply conducted, was attended by a great crowd of people of both races. Floral offerings and condolences came from far and wide. The Ohio legislature stood silent for two minutes as a memorial. He was laid beside Booker T. Washington, who challenged him more than three decades ago to leave his laboratory equipment and a good teaching position at Iowa Agricultural College to work "among his own people." His greatest monument will be the Carver Museum at Tuskegee with its exhibition of hundreds of things he evolved.

The "net revenue" from the sale of liquor by our provinces during 1941 was as follows: Nova Scotia $3,358,235; New Brunswick $2,220,308; Quebec, $7,270,810; Ontario $12,294,175; Manitoba $1,874,954; Saskatchewan $1,941,185; Alberta $3,207,627; British Columbia $4,841,482.

The total liquor revenue received by the Dominion Government during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1941, was $48,359,908.

Durban, South Africa, has set aside 1,000 building sites for the men of Durban who are away on military service. The sites can be purchased on the installment plan.

That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine... But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ.—Eph. 4: 14.

CALVARY CHURCH NOTES

The services in Calvary United Church, on Sunday next, will be held at the usual hours, the Church School in all departments, including organized groups for young men and women, at 10 a.m.

The morning service at 11 o'clock will have a twofold significance. In the first place at the annual college service through which the link binding the churches to the college where young ministers are trained is strengthened by the presence of students who are in training conducting the worship service and delivering the sermon. The college representative at this service will be Angus J. MacDonald, B.A., who will preach on the theme, "Laying Foundations." The second feature of public interest in this service will be the attendance of the Boy Scout Troop of Calvary and other visiting Scouts participating in the world-wide Scout celebrations which commence on Sunday and continue throughout the following week.

The evening service at 7.30 p.m. will be conducted by the Minister of Calvary Church, Capt. Rev. T. W. Jones, M.A., D.D., who will be assisted by members of the Christian Youth War Services Council, which body will attend the service and following the preaching will participate in a Fireside Hour conference of discussion and fellowship in the parlours of the Church. All young people are most cordially invited to attend the service and also to participate in the Fireside Hour. Capt. Jones will preach the sermon on the theme, lessons from the great moving picture film "In Which We Serve," by Noel Coward, which portrays the thrilling story of the British Navy and the British people engaged in this titanic struggle for freedom. By many competent authorities, this film is regarded as one of the finest ever made and the most realistic film yet produced portraying the challenging features of the present world-wide struggle.

On Monday at 8.15 p.m., under the auspices of the Good Citizenship Committee of the Calvary Young People's Union, Miss Verda Ullman, of the United Church Headquarters in Toronto, who is serving as a representative of the W.M.S. on War Production Communities Committee, will give an address on this most important piece of social ministry. It is hoped that a large representative group will be present at the meeting, which will be held in the Macaulay Hall, entrance by Greene Avenue.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1943

AN OLD AXIS TRICK

SEVERAL PHONY BANK NOTES have recently been detected by bank tellers and merchants in various parts of the city and district, including Verdun, where the first counterfeit was discovered, N.D.G. and Westmount.

It is believed that the fake currency is being spread by some underground agencies operated by the Axis powers.

It has long been established that Italian flyers dropped Germany depressed Czech currency before Munich, counterfeit money on Albania. Worthless paper money, printed in Japan, paved the way for the conquest of Singapore. English bank notes were counterfeited by Italy even before Mussolini entered the World conflict. Early in 1942 counterfeit U. S. paper money was manufactured in Barcelona and smuggled into Portugal to be sent overseas.

The trick is not a new one. It was practiced by Japan at the time of its war with Russia in 1904.

It is stated that the threat of the counterfeit money is considered so serious in the U.S.A. that one-fifth of the secret service personnel of the U.S.A. is now engaged in teaching the people how to detect the phony currency.

Warning has been issued in Canada by the R.C.M.P., and repeated attempts to pass the counterfeits may make an innocent holder of the money, a criminal in the eyes of the law.

Any person having in his possession any bills that may look suspicious—and it is claimed the counterfeits are poor imitations of the genuine—should at once submit them for examination to a bank before attempting to put them into circulation.

The spread and distribution of the phony money is an attempt to weaken the credit of the Allied Nations.

It is believed that Germany has paid for oil and other supplies obtained from South American countries in the early days of the war, when most of those countries were still neutral, with counterfeit U. S. A. bank notes.

Financial panic might very well follow a large circulation of phony currency, since business people, storekeepers and others, might well hesitate to accept any kind of paper money, for fear it might prove worthless.

WOMEN MORE COURAGEOUS

"IN INGENUITY AND CAPACITY for sustained effort in the management of the little affairs of life, women are superior to men," writes William Feather, noted U.S. publisher and columnist. "If this were not so, a great many families could not survive."

"Recently I saw a cook book to which a wartime appendix had been added. The title of the appendix was 'How to Feed a Family of Five on $15 a Week'."

"Millions of women in this country have never had more than $15 a week for food for a family of five. And lots of women today feed families of five on much less than $15. The families thrive, and the children are sturdy. It is in getting the most out of a limited and inadequate income that women demonstrate their ingenuity. When they must stretch a dollar, they do tricks of which no man ever dreamed."

"In courage, too, I have never doubted that women are men's superior. In crises, it can truthfully be said that most women are fearless. They can take punishment that would drive men to drink, suicide or insanity."

Mr. Feather might have added that Russian generals who have been quoted on the subject, are unanimous in giving their nurses, women doctors, and women soldiers credit for even more courage and resourcefulness, under fire, than their men have shown. And that is really saying something.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH NOTES

Baden-Powell Day will be observed Sunday morning in St. Andrew's Church, when Rev. Dr. P. W. Kerr will preach on "Youth Matched for God's Hour."

Scouts, Guides and Cubs are on church parade and will deposit the colors at the altar. Mr. E. Russell Paterson and Mr. Dudley Lloyd will be in charge of the Scouts. The sermon will stress the inspiration that is coming to the younger generation today by the imperishable records of daring and gallantry of their older brothers in the present conflict. Moreover, those of Scout age today, are the ones who will bring to fulfillment the higher ideals born out of the sacrifices of war.

Mr. A. Leonard Griffith will preach at the evening service, choosing as his theme, "Noblesse Oblige."

Following the evening service, the Alpha Omega Society will hold a panel discussion on the topic, "Resolved, that strikers in war-time industries should be regarded as saboteurs." The debate will be arranged by Mr. Harvey Houston, and will be open to all the young people of the congregation.

The Sunday Calendar at St. Andrew's will contain a letter from P/O Robert Harvie, who has been officially reported "missing, believed killed," in enemy action over Berlin.

This young man was closely identified with the work of the church and Sunday School, and the last letter he wrote, so far as is known, is the one written to his minister, and which will appear in the Calendar. It was dated Jan. 18. The whole-hearted response of the youth of the church to the challenge of today is indicated by the fact that 246 young men and women from this one congregation are enlisted in active service.

THE EXAMINER'S HIDDEN TITLES CONTEST

The Westmount Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest is run with the kind co-operation of Mr. Godel, manager of the Westmount Theatre. Each week twelve passes are given to the six lucky winners who comply with the following requirements:

Simply find the two "ads." in the current issue of The Westmount Examiner in which the names of the two feature pictures being shown at the Westmount Theatre during the first half of next week are hidden. Submit all answers to The Contest Editor, The Westmount Examiner, 2191 Hampton Avenue, using the special coupon provided in each issue for the purpose.

Contestants must be over 16 years of age. Residents of Westmount, only, are eligible. All answers must be in this office not later than Wednesday, and the names of the winners will be published in Thursday's paper.

The winners are drawn from among those who submit the correct answers, as, unfortunately, it would be impossible to give passes to every one submitting the right answers.

The winners of last week's contest are as follows and their passes will be received in Monday's mail: Beverly Mac, 83 Chesterfield Ave.; Mrs. M. H. Petry, 371 Grosvenor Ave.; James P. Jensen, 378 Victoria Ave.; Miss Isabella Malle, 1 Winchester Ave.; Mrs. H. Schambler, 4556 St. Catherine West, Apt. 1; Miss Doris Daniels, 4606 St. Catherine West.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

HOUSEWIVES' CHORUS

We housewives have to cook about a thousand meals a year. And set and serve and clear them, every one. Over dishes we must toil after every bake and boil—It's truly said our work is never done. A lot of us would like to shed monotonous routine, And dash away to follow glory's star. Which is really quite taboo, for the thing we've got to do Is our duty in the places where we are.

Each day brings countless labors that we did the day before, And tomorrow we will do them all again. The clock ticks off the lives of the mothers and the wives, And we do get discontented now and then. But mostly we just forge ahead with jobs that come to hand—We sew and knit and garden, cook and char, While we try to plot and plan just to do the best we can With our duty in the places where we are.

The women with no fetters of the kind that can't be cut May fold their tents—or leave them!—and make tracks To seek in wider fields all the thrills far service yields, Thrills that all too often home-front service lacks. But we've got to keep them burning—these home-fires through the land— And if children gates to travel stoutly bar, We can count it well worth while, though at present out of style, Our duty in the places where we are.

—In Western Farm Leader of Calgary

TVA will ask no subvention from the federal government this year. It will also be able, out of its own income of $40,000,000, to pay for additional construction. The cost of its current to the consumer is now the lowest, with the single exception of the municipal plant in Tacoma, Wash., of any in the United States. Three-fourths of its power is going directly to war purposes. Sixteen dams have been completed and six others are under construction, including the great Kenney dam at the mouth of the Tennessee river. David Lillenthal, chairman of the commission, pays tribute to the 40,000 workers. There has been no stoppage of work, and the workers' co-operation has been worth as much to the TVA as any of its great dams. The War Labor Board has stipulated that they can settle all their own labor problems.

Dr. George Carver's funeral, simply conducted, was attended by a great crowd of people of both races. Floral offerings and condolences came from far and wide. The Ohio legislature stood silent for two minutes as a memorial. He was laid beside Booker T. Washington, who challenged him more than three decades ago to leave his laboratory equipment and a good teaching position at Iowa Agricultural College to work "among his own people." His greatest monument will be the Carver Museum at Tuskegee with its exhibition of hundreds of things he evolved.

The "net revenue" from the sale of liquor by our provinces during 1941 was as follows: Nova Scotia $3,358,235; New Brunswick $2,220,308; Quebec, $7,270,810; Ontario $12,294,175; Manitoba $1,874,954; Saskatchewan $1,941,185; Alberta $3,207,627; British Columbia $4,841,482.

The total liquor revenue received by the Dominion Government during the fiscal year ended March 31, 1941, was $48,359,908.

Durban, South Africa, has set aside 1,000 building sites for the men of Durban who are away on military service. The sites can be purchased on the installment plan.

That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine... But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ.—Eph. 4: 14.

Birthday Program Planned to Honor Charles Dickens

Dickens Fellowship Holding Members' Night Feb. 23 in Victoria Hall

Tuesday evening of next week will be the Dickens Fellowship in Victoria Hall. For the occasion, a lengthy and varied program has been arranged by Miss Winnifred Parker, convener, for the entertainment of the members and friends of the Fellowship, who are specially welcome on this occasion.

Basil Donn, popular dramatic director, will be seen in his inimitable impersonations. Ruth Roberts will be heard in soprano numbers, with Phyllis Whips as accompanist. Cissie Gorman and Walter Whitaker, prominent members of the Fellowship Players, will present a humorous novelty sketch. In keeping with the fact that Dickens' birthday fell this month, Dr. N. N. Evans, former president, will give a short address on the great Victorian novelist. Rounding off the program will be games and old-time dances in which everyone is invited to take part; the dances being arranged and directed by Renee Almond, with Phyllis Rowell providing the music.

The Fellowship also announce that arrangements are now well advanced for the presentation of the modern English comedy, "The Mollusc," on March 15 and 16 of next month, under the direction of Maude Aston. The Kinsmen Club of Montreal, sponsors of the Milk Fund for children in bombed areas in Britain, have kindly extended their patronage to this play, which means that the Tiny Tins, the Oliver Twists and the Little David Copperfields, who have suffered in the air raids, will benefit by this latest Dickens Fellowship production.

ICICLE DANGER CITED

Be on the alert and on guard against overhanging icicles, was the advice offered by W. R. Bulloch, former M.L.A. for this district, London Guarantee & Accident Insurance Co., Limited, before a meeting of the Province of Quebec Safety League held last week in the Mount Royal Hotel under the chairmanship of Col. Thomas Guerin, president.

Cockroaches can swallow phenothiazine—the drug which is used in the control of parasitic worms in live stock—without harm, but if any of the phenothiazine touches the outside of the roaches, they die.

Westmount Baptist Church Notes

On Sunday evening at 8.45, an inspiring recital of sacred music will be presented by the Montreal Men's Choir, under the direction of John Robb, and the Westmount Baptist Choir, under the direction of Hibbert Troop.

The Men's Choir, which won high distinction at the last Quebec Musical Festival, will sing three numbers. The Westmount Choir will sing "The Three Kings" by Healey Willan. The combined choirs will sing "The Spacious Firmament on High." Visitors will be most cordially welcomed to this fine Choral Service.

At the morning service Dr. Johnston's sermon theme will be, "The Heavens and Man," while that of the evening sermon will be, "The Faith of Our Fathers in the Lives of Their Sons."

About Scouts

A message to all scouts and cubs of the western areas:

Throughout Canada Boy Scout Week will be observed in the week of February 21-27. In the course of the week a lot will be written and said about the Boy Scout Movement. Speakers will commend Scouting over the radio, in the pulpit, and before service club audiences. Newspapers will carry editorials and news stories about Scouting and what its program is.

Scouting will get a lot of publicity during Boy Scout Week, but publicity is really a very secondary matter in the observance of Boy Scout Week. With due gratitude for what the newspapers, and the radio, and service club speakers and clergymen will say of the Scout movement, the best publicity Scouting can get is that which comes from Scouting well and truly practised.

The newspapers, and the radio, and the public speakers can say all the nice things they like about us, but it means just nothing unless, to use a rather hackneyed phrase, we can deliver the goods. The essence of good Scouting is character building, or as B.P. put it "The aim of Scout Training is to replace Self with Service, to make lads individually efficient, morally and physically, with the object of using that efficiency for the service of the community."

We of the western area will open the week with a united rally of all Scouts and Cubs at a memorial service on Sunday in the Notre Dame de Grace Y.M.C.A. at 2 p.m. The speaker on that occasion will be Rev. T. W.

Scouts to Observe Birthday of "B.P."

Rev. T. W. Jones to Address Sunday Service

During the life of Chief Scout Lord Baden-Powell it was customary among Boy Scouts all over the world to celebrate his birthday on Sunday in some special way.

In the United States the celebration was combined with that of Washington's birthday and it was felt that there was a peculiar fitness in remembering these two great men together.

Baden-Powell is no longer with us and the Scouts have been disbanded in almost every country in Europe, but "B-P" is still remembered with gratitude and affection, and in democratic countries—especially in Britain, in the Dominions, and in the United States—his life and work and example this year will be accorded especially warm recognition.

Services will be held for individual Scout groups in many churches on Sunday.

The Scouts, Cubs, Sea Scouts and Rover Sea Scouts of Montreal Western district will hold a "Scouts Own" Memorial service in the Y.M.C.A., Hampton avenue, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon on that date.

The Local 'Y' which is the centre of youth activity in this district is the ideal place for a joint service which will include Roman Catholics, Protestant and Jewish Boy Scouts.

Mr. Jack Duckworth of the 'Y' in extending the invitation to the scouts of the district expressed the hope of a successful rally, radiating fellowship and friendship looking forward to the day when all boys of Christian character will work together to build a Christian Society.

Captain T. W. Jones, recently returned from service in England with the Y.M.C.A., will be the speaker.

The arrangements for the service are in the hands of Area Commissioner V. O. West and Skipper L. B. Morris of St. Matthew's Rover Crew.

A VERSE FOR TODAY

How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. — Dan. 4: 3.

Jones and it is hoped that every Scout and Cub will make a special effort to attend. We would also extend a special invitation to all former Scouts to be present.

Xavier Apostolate Guild Sports Night Tomorrow

An excellent program has been prepared for the annual sports night, Friday at the Forum. Three short bantam hockey matches are scheduled, and include a contest between Catholic High and St. Leo's for possession of the Thos. F. Canon Heffernan Memorial Trophy.

Considerable interest is aroused over the game when Royals met the all-French-Canadian team. The latter has a good lineup and will give Royals a real competition.

Other features will be six figure skating acts by champions; the three clowns, and the awarding of the door prizes. The interest of the school boys in the door prizes centres in the twelve hockey sticks which have been autographed by well known amateur and professional players.

Leo Heffernan will referee the games and he will have available to help him during the evening, Marty Barry, Paul Haynes and Frank Carlin.

HOME EDUCATION

INFLUENCE OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Mabel-Ruth Jackson

I had just finished washing the dinner dishes one evening. On my way through the dining room to attack the basket of mending awaiting me, I saw my small son, Richard, sitting at the table. His arithmetic book and tablet were open in front of him and there was a pencil in his hand, but he wasn't putting down any figures. He looked discouraged, I thought. He probably didn't like arithmetic any better than I did at his age. I bent over and pressed a light kiss on the nape of his neck. Saying nothing, I went on to my mending.

Several weeks later I was surprised and touched to have Richard say to me, "Mother, you remember that night I was trying to study my arithmetic and you came by and stopped and kissed me on the back of my neck? You didn't say a word, but after that, I just started in on those examples and finished without stopping. And before, they had seemed so hard, I got 'perfect' on them, too."

It had been such a little, natural thing for me to do and I had forgotten it. Now his words made me feel humble and gave me food for thought. It made me resolve to watch for occasions when an encouraging word, a smile or touch was needed.

How quickly words of reproach come to our lips! Do we ever let slip an opportunity to reprove? It is, of course, because we want our children to be pretty nearly perfect and feel that if we do not call to their attention every lapse from the standard of behavior we have set for them, they will take advantage of it. But this reiterated faultfinding is apt to degenerate into nagging and is sure to be either resented or ignored.

Let us try to substitute a positive attitude toward our children in this respect. Let us be on the watch for times when we can commend actions and not take the performance of duties so much for granted. "I like the way you did that, Agnes," or, "The room looks so nice since you have dusted it," will leave behind a little glow of pleasure. And isn't it reasonable to suppose that the work will seem easier to the child when she knows that her efforts are going to be noticed? She will feel like singing, as did Disney's dwarfs, while she performs her tasks.

If even adults need a pat on the back once in a while, how much more the often bewildered adolescent needs encouragement. Let us bestow such attention in all judicious but never in a naggingly spirit.

SIMPLE EXAMPLE

When General Lincoln went to make peace with the Creek Indians, one of the chiefs asked him to sit down with him on a log. He then requested the general to move toward the right end of the log, pressing close beside him as he did. A few minutes later came another request to move. The request was repeated until the general came to the end of the log.

"Move further," again requested the Indian.

To which General Lincoln replied, "I can move no further." "Just so it is with us," said the chief; "you have moved us toward the water, and now you ask us to move farther. It is impossible!"

THE MARCHING DRUMS

'Tis the throb of the marching drum I hear. And there swing to its beat the ranks of youth. Its music in their stride, if all uncouth. But yesterday, now with firm step and clear. And fronted eyes they march without a fear— Erect, tough-sinewed, groomed, in very truth. The flower of our young manhood, and, forsooth, The glory and the pride of lovers near.

What heart swells not to choking as they sing; They pledge their all that we may live in peace. That right may reign while brutish wars must cease. That in our hearts and homes the bells may ring With joy in honor of great loves release. To live and face the fortunes years may bring.

Catholic Welfare Bureau Seeking Foster Homes

War has made many men and women realize more fully than ever before the meaning of their home and family ties. In these changing and difficult times the security of a loving home means more to a child than ever before.

There are many children in our community whose own home is temporarily broken up or has completely failed them. Their parents may have died, are ill, or are separated. Such homes might be able to offer to one of these children the love and security that he or she needs to grow up to be a good citizen.

If you are a Catholic and you could welcome a child into your home and have the patience to help him adjust in your family circle, telephone the Catholic Welfare Bureau, PL. 9711. They will pay board for the child, provide clothing and medical care, and help with any problems that arise in the child's adjustment. They are urgently in need of homes for infants under one year, but are anxious to know of homes that would accept children of any age up to sixteen.

Christian Science Services

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 21st.

The Golden Text is from Isaiah 14:24. "The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more." (Isaiah 2:4.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When the divine precepts are understood, they unfold the foundation of fellowship, in which one mind is not at war with another, but all have one Spirit, God, one intelligent source, in accordance with the Scriptural command: 'Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.'" (Page 276.)

Reservists Granted Use of Canada Badge

Members of the reserve army have been authorized to wear the "Canada" badge—hitherto worn only by members of the active army—on the shoulders of their uniforms. Maj.-Gen. B. W. Browne, director-general of the reserve army, said recently.

Issue of the badges is expected to start shortly. Until recently the wearing of the badges was restricted to members of the active army voluntarily enlisted for general service anywhere in the world. It was not issued to "B" recruits, men called up compulsorily who did not volunteer for overseas service.

Some weeks ago its use by "B" recruits was authorized and the volunteers for overseas service were given an additional badge bearing the letters "G.S." (General Service) to distinguish them from home service troops. Now the "Canada" badge, by its extension to the reserve force, becomes practically a part of the army uniform.

Swimming Episode Brings Chuckle

When Air Vice-Marshal J. A. Sully of Winnipeg visited R.C. A.F. fighter squadrons at a western station recently, he showed deep interest in all phases of activity—flying, ground entertainment and athletic diversion.

To one group of pilots he was stressing the value of athletics in keeping airmen in shape during bad weather periods, when there was little flying and more than enough leisure time.

Suddenly he turned to Sgt. W. F. Aldcorn of Gouveneur, Sask., a member of Sqdn. Ldr. J. C. (Knobby) Fee's Engine-Busters, and said: "How long is it since you have been swimming?" Aldcorn thought deeply, calculating: "About three months, sir," he said.

"Where?" Air Vice-Marshal Sully asked. Aldcorn paused. The men around him were laughing. "It was in the English Channel, sir," he said. "Just a short distance off Dieppe."

Then the Vice-Marshal laughed with the men. Aldcorn had been fished from the water off Dieppe, Aug. 19, after his Spitfire was shot down in combat with German fighters while his squadron formed part of the air umbrella for Canadian troops in that raid.

At Sea!

Two men, obviously from the rural areas, boarded a tramcar. There was a naval officer behind them. Tom went upstairs, leaving Bill to get the tickets. Bill turned around to the officer and asked for two.

"My good man," said the scandalized officer, "I'm a naval officer, not a conductor."

"Lummie!" said Bill, collecting his wits. "Hey, Tom!" he shouted, "come on down. We're on a bloomin' battleship."—Exchange.

Trinity Memorial Will Hold Parade Of Sea Scouts

"Baden-Powell" Sunday Will be Celebrated

The Sea Scouts of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club Troop will observe the first day of Boy Scout Week by attending Trinity Memorial Church on Sunday morning when the Rev. Hugh Mortimer will be the preacher. This Sunday has been designated "Baden-Powell" Sunday and will be so celebrated throughout the Dominion.

Both the "Port" and "Starboard" divisions of this Sea Scout Troop will attend, the troop having been expanded recently when the "Port" division was formed to meet in Herbert Symonds School on Friday evenings because the "Starboard" division which meets in Roslyn School on Tuesday evenings had a waiting list of boys who desired to receive the Sea Scout training.

The memory of Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell will be honoured in numerous churches as the founder of the Scout Movement planned the Scout training to link it closely with religion.

Norma Shearer's Cousin Buried At Mount Royal

The funeral of Mrs. James Gilman Shearer, a cousin by marriage to Norma Shearer, took place last Friday afternoon at Mount Royal Cemetery with the Rev. F. W. Korr of St. Andrew's United Church officiating in the chapel.

Mrs. Shearer, who died at her home, 636 Roslyn avenue, after a long illness, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brodie of Montreal. She married James Gilman Shearer in 1909. Mr. Shearer died in 1921. One son, James Brodie Shearer and one daughter, Mrs. Audrey MacKenzie, survive their mother, and three grandchildren, Jimmy and Martha Shearer and Grant MacKenzie, all of Montreal.

The funeral arrangements were in charge of William Wray.

Giving Wings to Words

Complete Utilization of Canada's Manpower and Womanpower is Essential to Victory

National Selective Service Civilian Regulations aim at complete utilization of manpower and womanpower. Workers and employers are urged to assist the war effort by carrying them out. All civilian regulations have been consolidated and revised, main features now being as follows:—

COVERAGE

Employees: Regulations cover persons of either sex from 16 to 64 years old, except—provincial employees; armed services; and those in fishing, fish processing, hunting, trapping; clergymen; nurses; school teachers; domestic servants; students working after school; employees in respect of part-time employment; and any one employed for 3 days or less in a calendar week. Agricultural workers are covered by special provisions, not by the general provisions as also are "technical personnel."

Employers: Any person, firm or other employer, with one or more "covered" employees.

EMPLOYERS MUST—

(a) Refrain from discussing employment with a prospective employee unless under permit; (b) notify the nearest employment office of additional employees needed; (c) secure permission from an employment office to advertise for workers; (d) notify the employment office of intention to discharge or lay off employees, or to retain employees when not required; (e) give employees 7 days' notice unless a Selective Service Officer permits a reduction, or unless in the building construction industry; (7 days' notice is not required unless an employee has already been employed for one month, or after fire, explosion or other calamity, or on termination of work by weather. Whether preceded by 7 days' notice or not, separation from employment requires written notice).

EMPLOYEES MUST—

(a) Register for work at the nearest employment office if out of work 7 days (full-time students, housewives and clergy are not included); (b) secure permit from a Selective Service Officer if going to look for work; (c) refrain from advertising for a job unless Selective Service Officer approves; (d) give 7 days' notice if wishing to quit a job, unless authorized by Selective Service Officer to give less notice

(separation form, but not 7 days' notice required if in building construction or joining the forces).

AGRICULTURAL WORKERS

are covered by special provisions. Persons regarded as "workers in agriculture" may accept employment outside that industry to a maximum of 60 days within a calendar year without permit, but only outside urban municipalities of over 5,000 population; otherwise, agricultural workers must secure a Selective Service Permit.

TECHNICAL PERSONNEL

may only accept employment under special permit.

LABOUR EXIT PERMITS

are required to work outside Canada.

PENALTIES AND APPEALS

Penalties are provided for non-compliance with Regulations or orders issued thereunder. Appeals against directions may be made to a Court of Referees.

NATIONAL SELECTIVE SERVICE OFFICERS ARE AUTHORIZED TO—

(a) Give persons unemployed for 7 days, or on part-time for 14 days, direction to accept work; (b) exercise discretion in issuing permits to seek work; (c) authorize employed persons to transfer to more essential work, and subsequently to be re-instated in original employment; (d) reduce the 7 days' notice period consistent with Regulations.

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR IS AUTHORIZED TO—

(a) require a person in an age class subject to military call-up to accept employment; (b) require employers to release male persons failing to furnish evidence of not contravening military call-up; (c) authorize payment of transportation and special allowances in some cases; (d) authorize anyone to leave employment to take more essential work.

The foregoing is not an exact or complete reproduction of National Selective Service Civilian Regulations. For information or rulings apply to nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

Family Welfare Reports On Work Done in 1942

"The care of children in their own homes, the easing of personal strains and the development of family strengths are the chief objectives of a Family Welfare agency," stated G. B. Clarke, General Secretary, of the Family Welfare Association at their annual meeting held this past week. During 1942 this association rendered some kind of service to 3,940 Montreal families or individuals many of them with children below working age and many others who were too old or for some other reason unable to work. Soldiers' families comprised 23 per cent of the total number of those helped.

The Family Welfare Association had perhaps been most widely known as a relief agency because of the lack of civic resources and the inadequacy of mothers' allowances and old age pensions though it had never shouldered the responsibility for unemployment. Total cost of operation was $305,600 approximately. Mr. Clarke pointed out: "Relief or financial assistance is just one of the many services which is given to those who apply. It is extremely important and essential that people's bread and butter needs should be met. The association would prefer to have the state assume this responsibility but until it can be persuaded to do so, the association must continue to meet these financial needs."

Statistics showed services rendered during the year to 516 families of enlisted men, 416 families with no able bodied bread winner, 416 families with low income, 98 families with inadequate government allowances, 117 families and individuals cut off city relief in 1940, 364 aged couples and women 60 years of age, 107 unattached sick women under 60 years of age, 44 investigations for other cities and 156 in the single men's department.

The Family Welfare Association maintains an office in Notre Dame de Grace, at 2195 Addition avenue, through which the various services of the association were made available to Notre Dame de Grace residents.

Westm't. Catholic Women

A general meeting of the Westmount Subdivision of the Catholic Women's League will be held in St. Leo's School hall on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Following the business meeting, Mrs. M. G. Marshall, convener of the Sisters of Service will preside. A one-act play "Little Glass Houses" will be presented. Members are requested to bring their friends.

Westmount Club Presents 3 Plays on Members' Day

Versatility and talent were displayed in the Members' Day program of the Westmount Women's Club presented in Victoria Hall on Friday afternoon, when three short plays were staged. The first of these, "Little Glass Houses", centred around the emotion created by the return of a former nurse-maid to the scene of her earlier days, this time as Madame Rossignol, the greatest singer of the day. A well-arranged Victorian setting formed the background for the colorful costumes worn by the ladies of that period. The players who so excellently portrayed their roles were, in order of their appearance, Mrs. J. T. Rogers, Miss Muriel Melkie, Mrs. E. T. Reynolds, Mrs. Macklin Marshall and Mrs. J. W. Wright. Mrs. Robert Whitmore contributed her share in no small measure with her singing both at the opening and the close of this offering.

During a short intermission, a reading "A Lesson with a Fan" was given in all its Victorian charm by Mrs. J. W. Wright.

In "The Bride", by Gertrude Jennings, much comedy was created by the disappearance of the bride's dress on her wedding day. All of the characters made the most of their roles. Mrs. Norman Pitt making a very dainty bride and Mrs. C. B. Powter bringing much humor to the part of the agitated mother. Special mention might be made of the lovely bedroom setting, perfect in detail. Fitting musical accompaniment from the organ made an appropriate finale to the tableau of the bridal group. Others taking part were Mrs. J. C. McKean, Mrs. Lorne Eaton, Mrs. B. Climo and Miss Rose Greenway.

Perhaps the novelty of the afternoon was the presentation of "The Miracle of the Danube", a broadcast written by the well-known playwright, Maxwell Anderson. A spot caught a radio on centre stage, and Mrs. E. T. Reynolds introduced this feature with a few remarks asking the audience to imagine for the next half-hour that they were in their own living-room listening to their own radio. It was then presented in the form of a broadcast, covering the trial for treason of a young German officer, and showed how conscience eventually brought peace to a tortured mind. The final words of the announcer, quoted from Lincoln's Gettysburg address, were most opportune, coming as they did on the anniversary of his birth. Mrs. E. T. Reynolds, Mrs. B. Climo, Mrs. J. W. Wright, Mrs. J. C. McKean, Mrs. Norman Pitt and Mrs. J. A. Gillespie delivered their lines exceedingly well.

As a climax to a very interesting and entertaining afternoon, Mrs. Robert Whitmore sang "Land of Hope and Glory", with a tableau of all the players grouped around the Union Jack.

This program reflected great credit on the capable direction of Mrs. Louis de Savore, drama coach of the club, and showed the result of many weeks strenuous rehearsals. Mrs. C. W. Clark as stage manager did a thorough and most decorative piece of work. Others worthy of mention were Mrs. Lorne H. Eaton, wardrobe mistress and Mr. John Cook, who directed the singing. Mrs. R. M. Macaulay, president, introduced Mrs. H. Cloutier, convener of the day's program.

The executive for the year 1943 are: President, Mrs. A. A. Pare; first vice-president, Mrs. Edgar Reynolds; second vice-president, Mrs. John Colford; treasurer, Mrs. Martin Milloy; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Dan Donnelly; recording secretary, Mrs. A. de la Macdonald; councillors, Mrs. P. J. Melvin, Mrs. J. T. Rogers, Mrs. C. J. Shaw, Mrs. G. M. Marshall, Mrs. C. Rowlands and Mrs. A. Laplante.

MAKE THE MOST OF PROTEIN FOODS AS MEAT SUBSTITUTE

Eggs Valued Very Highly As a Meat Alternative

Eggs are not only a Lenten food, but also belong in the first rank of foods important in wartime, because of their values as a meat alternative. They are especially valuable for their high protein content. In minerals, too, they are rich mines of phosphorus, calcium, copper and iron. Neither are they lacking in vitamins important to all-around health, particularly Vitamins A, B and D.

Take care when you cook eggs. Due to the protein content in the egg white, it is necessary to cook eggs at a moderate even temperature. High temperatures break down the albumin, the most important protein and cause eggs to become tough and leathery. When cooking either soft or hard cooked eggs, be careful not to let the water boil... keep it simmering. When baking egg dishes, either set them in a pan of water or keep a low even temperature.

Eggs have been considered a traditional food for breakfast for longer than fruit juices and one of the more important breakfast dishes is poached eggs on toast. Here, again, be sure to remember that eggs should not be boiled... remove the pan from the stove as soon as the water simmers, and let the eggs stand until they are the desired consistency. Then, there are scrambled eggs, eggs "sunny side up" or omelets with the many variations, or baked eggs.

Breakfast isn't the only meal that features eggs... with the use of foods in place of meat, attention is turned to preparing eggs for main dishes... and here's where eggs excel. Fondue and souffles are two of the old standbys for main dishes. The secret of making a good souffle is long slow cooking... rapid cooking, at high temperatures will make it fall like a balloon as soon as it is taken out of the oven.

CHEESE FONDUE

6 eggs
2 cups hot milk
2 cups soft bread crumbs
1 cup cheese sliced very thin
1 tsp. fat
Salt to taste

Beat the eggs well. Mix the milk, bread crumbs, cheese, fat and salt. Stir this mixture into the beaten eggs. Pour into a well-greased shallow pan, and bake in a moderate oven for about 25 minutes, or until set and lightly browned on top. Serve at once. Equally well, eggs can be baked in tomato cups or green pepper rings, or scalloped with peas, macaroni or fish. Here's a baked dish, both palatable and high in food value, which will serve as a basic dish for luncheon or dinner.

BAKED EGGS AND RICE IN TOMATO SAUCE

1½ cups uncooked rice
1 pint canned tomatoes
¼ tsp. salt
1 bay leaf
1 onion
4 cloves
2 tbsp. melted butter or other fat
2 tbsp. flour
5 eggs
2 tbsp. grated cheese
1 cup buttered bread crumbs

Cook the rice in a large quantity of boiling salted water for 20 minutes, or until tender, wash in cold water, drain, and let steam and swell over hot water. Prepare a sauce by cooking the tomatoes and seasonings for 10 minutes, strain, and thicken with the blended fat and flour. Make a layer of the rice in a shallow greased baking dish, drop the raw eggs carefully on the rice, pour on the sauce, and sprinkle over the top the grated cheese mixed with the buttered bread crumbs. Bake in a slow oven (about 275 degrees F.) until the eggs are set. Serve in the baking dish.

KNOW YOUR VITAMINS AND ENJOY HEALTH

The things that everyone can believe about vitamins, and should know about them are these:

(1) Vitamins are real things. In fact some of them have been prepared in pure and crystalline form, just like salt or sugar. In that state, however, they are chiefly for the doctor to use and prescribe.

(2) Some foods contain several vitamins, others contain only one and many things we eat contain so little that they are not worth considering. Because of this it is important to know whether vitamins are present in sufficient quantities in food to be worthwhile.

(3) A lack of vitamins may result in misery and ill-health, a condition that may develop so slowly that the individual does not realize how much better he would feel were he eating the right foods. A lack may also

GRANDMA'S METHOD FOR THE SOUP POT SHOULD BE REVIVED

A large soup pot will see the family through several meals, provide needed vitamins, substitute adequately for a meat course, and be easy on the budget. Keeping the soup pot simmering on the back of the stove was one of Grandma's old tricks that we will do well to revive today.

Philadelphia Pepper Pot
1 large soup bone
1 onion, chopped
1 bay leaf
1 stalk celery, chopped
¼ tsp. savory seasoning
¼ pod red pepper
2 raw potatoes diced
¼ lb. cooked tripe, ground or finely diced
Salt
Pepper
Chopped parsley, if desired.

Simmer a beef knuckle or knuckle of veal in water to cover for 3 or 4 hours. Pour off the broth, skim the fat from it, and strain through cheesecloth. This should make about 3 pints of well-flavored broth. To the broth add the onion, bay leaf, celery, savory, and red pepper and simmer for about an hour. Then add the potatoes and cook until tender. Add the tripe, and season with salt and pepper. Serve hot with chopped parsley on top.

OXTAIL SOUP

3 or 4 oxtails
Fat
Bay leaf
1 quart diced vegetables
Salt and pepper to taste

Wash the tails and cut into short lengths. Brown the pieces in fat, put them into a large kettle, cover with water, add a bay leaf, and simmer until the meat is tender enough to fall off the bones. Strain off the broth, and add to it the diced vegetables, such as a mixture of onions, carrots, turnips, and potatoes, and cook slowly until the vegetables are tender but not broken. Chop up the meat and serve in the soup. Season to taste. Many people like a half-slice of lemon and some chopped parsley added at serving time.

HAM AND VEGETABLE CHOWDER

2 cups diced raw potatoes
1 cup chopped cabbage
1 onion, chopped
1 green pepper, chopped
2 cups ham liquor
1 pint milk
1 cup chopped cooked ham
Salt and pepper

Boil the vegetables in the ham liquor until they are tender. Then add the milk and the ham. When heated, season to taste with salt and pepper.

Or follow the recipe above but instead of the vegetables listed use 2 cups of cracked or whole-grained wheat, cooked, 2 cups of diced raw carrots, and a slice of onion. Add more milk or ham liquor if needed.

lead to serious diseases like scurvy, rickets or pellagra.

(4) By frequent use of certain special foods, when possible Canadians can get the vitamins they need although war restrictions may make this more difficult. These foods include: milk, cheese, leafy green vegetables, like spinach; yellow root vegetables, like carrots; potatoes cooked in their skins, eggs, liver, tomatoes, citrus fruits and Canada Approved bread, brown or white.

A recent booklet on "Vitamins" may be obtained free from the Publicity Division, Department of Pensions and National Health, Ottawa.

FOUR WAYS TO GIVE A LIFT TO POTATOES

Does your family ever get tired of plain boiled potatoes... mashed potatoes... baked... or French fries? Then how about giving them potatoes in a few different ways? Stuffed baked; potato puff; potato scallop; or ried, country style Here are recipes in case you need them.

STUFFED BAKED POTATOES

Cut large baked potatoes in half lengthwise, scoop out the soft part, mash, and season with fat, hot milk and salt. Stuff back into the potato shells, brush the top with fat, and brown in the oven.

POTATO PUFF

To 3 cups mashed potato, add 2 beaten egg yolks, hot milk to moisten, 2 tablespoons melted fat, salt and any other seasoning you like. Beat well. Then fold in the 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten. Pile the mixture lightly in a greased baking dish. Bake in a medium-hot oven about 30 minutes—or until the "puff" is puffy and brown.

FRIED POTATOES—COUNTRY STYLE

Peel enough raw potatoes to make a quart when sliced thin or chopped fine. Put in a frying pan with 2 tablespoons of fat or meat drippings. Brown a little chopped onion in the fat if you like. Cover the frying pan closely. Cook the potatoes over medium heat 10 to 15 minutes. When browned on the bottom, turn and brown the other side.

POTATO SCALLOP

Wash, peel and slice 6 medium-sized potatoes. Grease a shallow baking dish or pan. Put a layer of potatoes in the dish. Sprinkle the potatoes with flour, salt and pepper. Dot with fat. Repeat until all the potatoes are in the dish. Pour in 1½ cups hot milk. Bake in a slow oven until the potatoes are brown on top and soft all through. Usually this takes about an hour. Add more milk if needed. Use very fresh milk and keep the oven heat low to prevent curdling.

Captain Fryatt Chapter Reports Annual Meeting

The 26th annual meeting of the Captain Fryatt Chapter I.O.D.E. was held recently at the home of Mrs. G. H. Tomlinson. Mrs. A. T. Stikeman, Municipal Regent, presented the retiring Regent, Mrs. J. S. Cameron with a life membership in the Municipal Chapter. Other guests were Mrs. Norman Holland and Mrs. W. C. Hodgson.

War work was the chief consideration. The convener, Mrs. E. M. Hulbert reported that 337 knitted articles had been returned to headquarters and 32 given to men in the services, 156 pieces of clothing made for civilians, 16 ditty bags provided for the Navy League and members gave 7 fur coats to make seamen's vests.

An entertainment provided by the Betty Speirs School of Dancing was arranged for the men at St. Ann's Military Hospital and many magazines, packs of playing cards, games, candy and cigarettes were taken to them throughout the year.

Fees are being paid for three pupils in High School. Cod liver oil was provided in one of the schools and clothing for needy families. Members worked at the municipal work rooms, at Hospital House, at the Merchant Navy Officers Club, while several did sewing at home. Contributions were made to several patriotic, educational and relief funds sponsored by the Order Endowment Fund, Navy League,

DEPENDABILITY

"Welcome to Montreal, Elsie, you and Beulah are doing a grand job!"

"I'm glad to be here, too, Mr. Kinsman!" moored Elsie the Cow enthusiastically. "I jumped at your invitation to come to Montreal and help the Kinsmen Clubs' Milk-for-Britain Fund."

"And how about you, young lady?" the genial Chairman inquired, patting little Beulah.

"I'm having a simply marvelous time!" chorled Beulah. "Specially when I know we're helping to buy milk for the children in Britain."

"That's right, dear!" agreed Elsie. "We couldn't possibly have chosen a finer cause to work for than the Kinsmen Clubs' splendid purpose of supplying the kiddies in Britain with the good Canadian milk they need so much! Do you realize, Beulah, that the Kinsmen Clubs have sent more than six million quarts to Britain in the past 12 months?"

"Why, mummy, that's amazing!" murmured Beulah.

"And another thing, my dear," Elsie reminded her offspring, "we couldn't have a finer, more appropriate setting for the Milk-for-Britain Fund Campaign than right here in Eaton's thrilling and colourful 'Food for Fitness' Exhibition!"

"You're really doing two jobs, you know," said the Chairman, "you're also helping Eaton's Exhibition to popularize the need of eating the correct foods. You and Beulah are making folks better acquainted with Canada's Nutrition Program."

"What does 'proper nutrition' mean, mummy?" asked Beulah.

"It means knowing the right foods and eating them every day to keep fit," replied Elsie, "and I think all Canadians should be grateful to Eaton's for promoting that idea by putting on this fascinating 'Food for Fitness' Exhibition."

"We were so glad you accepted our invitation to come," said the Chairman. "We all remembered how you boosted the British War Victims' Fund at the Canadian National Exhibition."

"And there's one great big reason why we want every mother and child in Montreal to come down and see us—"

"Bravo!" said the Chairman. "What is that great big reason?"

"Because," said Elsie very seriously, "if we're helping the children of Britain, and Canada's war effort too, the result of our work's just GOT to be good!"

AT WESTMOUNT THEATRE

Rita Hayworth, Fred Astaire and Jerome Kern combine their brilliant talents in a motion picture so fascinating, so delightful, as to merit its enthusiastic Hollywood appraisal as "the greatest picture of their lives!" It opened yesterday at the Westmount United Theatre playing until Saturday night.

"You Were Never Lovelier" is set in South America, a locale which fits the Spanish-born Miss Hayworth like the proverbial glove, or, more appropriately, like one of the many eye-pleasing costumes she so gracefully wears. She appears as Adolphe Menjou's daughter, a girl whose seeming lack of interest in romance causes her eccentric father to invent a mysterious suitor, an unknown Galahad who deluges her with orchids and love letters. Astaire, a Broadway hoofer financially embarrassed, inadvertently assumes the identity of Rita's Galahad while hunting a job. He maintains the pose, because it insures that job, only to discover he really loves the girl... as who wouldn't?

GOLDEN EAGLES
WIN FIRST GAME
OF PLAYOFFSFormer Juvenile Champions Make Good Beginning

Douglas Alexander's Golden Eagles, juvenile champions of the province last year, took the opening playoff game for the juvenile championship of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League when they beat the Gunners 7-3 on Friday night. This was the first game in a two-out-of-three game series, the second tilt was slated to be played last night, and in the event a third is needed, it will be played tomorrow evening.

The winners won the game the hard way as they came from behind a 3-1 deficit to win out 7-3. The Golden Eagles set the pace in high scoring when "Toots" Provost banged in Buddy Lyons' pass before the initial period was five minutes old. The Gunners then took over command of the play and scored three times in a row with Bob Lord and Harold Fairhead counting the first two on long shots. The third goal was scored by John Pearson on a pass from Dave Harvie. At this point the Gunners were ahead 3-1 and looked well on to the road to victory, but Eard Read's goal brought the count down to 3-2 before the period ended.

Goals by Eard Read, Buddy Lyons and Stu Beaulieu in the middle stanza ran the count up to 5-3 for the winners by the end of that period and the third period goals by Les Smith and Jim Macken were not needed.

The two teams met last night with Pete Read's Gunners needing to win in order to prolong the series.

The local winner, either the Golden Eagles or the Gunners, will see action on Monday night when they play in the first round of the city playoffs. Just what district Westmount will be drawn against will not be known until the draw takes place on Sunday afternoon. Last year the Golden Eagles represented Westmount and went all the way through to capture the provincial title winning victories over representatives from Sherbrooke and Quebec City after defeating N.D.G. in the city finals.

At York Theatre

Hilarity hit a new high last night when Warner Bros. latest laugh hit, "George Washington Slept Here," opened at the York United Theatre. Jack Benny's antics kept the audience in a constant state of laughter, and proved, beyond all doubt, that his work before the camera becomes more polished with each successive production.

In the feminine lead is the beautiful Ann Sheridan, who proved her ability to handle comedy in "The Man Who Came To Dinner."

At The Monkland

If you want to get away from it all, lend an ear, and eye, to "The Palm Beach Story," the new Preston Sturges comedy which Paramount presented at the Monkland United Theatre last night, with Claudette Colbert and Joel McCrea in the top starring spots, and Rudy Vallee and Mary Astor featured. You'll find it a gay, witty tale of a couple in love but about to be divorced, nevertheless.

Miss Colbert has never been lovelier or more vivacious. Not since her sea-sick scene in "Sky-lark" has she had an opportunity for such hilarious slapstick-comedy work. She rises to the occasion brilliantly. McCrea does a fine job as her husband. This is his second Preston Sturges film, the first having been "Sullivan's Travels." It's something of a distinction to be cast by Sturges in more than one of his pictures. It proves you've got what he takes in the way of a comedy flair, and he takes plenty.

Rudy Vallee is a great surprise. He comes through with an extremely funny characterization, really establishing himself as a comedian. He sings an old number, but his singing is incidental. Mary Astor appears as Vallee's blonde, much-married sister and is another fun feature, rounding out a cast of stars bent on giving you hilarious movie entertainment.

At The Snowdon

Britain's Air Ministry, War Office and the Admiralty were given actual secret information by the Royal Netherlands Government to aid in the spectacular production of Michael Powell's "One of Our Aircraft is Missing" which starts Saturday at the Snowdon theatre.

The information provided by the Royal Netherlands Government was incorporated in the story of "One of Our Aircraft is Missing" and provides the film with some of its most thrilling and unforgettable sequences. These show the secret and daring workings of the Dutch underground which is daily defying the Nazi conquerors, even though hundreds of Hollanders are daily tortured and shot as hostages.

The added feature, billed as a musical fun-fest, presents the grown-up Miss Jane Withers in "Johnny Doughboy" with a cast of comedy favourites including Bobby Breen, Alfalfa Switzer, Spunky McFarland, Butch and Buddy, Cora Sue Collins, William Demarest and Ruth Donnelly.

TIPS TO SIMPLIFY
MONDAY'S WASHINGS,
TUESDAY'S IRONINGS

Consumer Information Service in Ottawa has gathered together some tips that should help Canadian housewives on Monday wash days and Tuesday ironing days.

A little care in hanging linens to dry, whether down in the cellar during the winter months or outside when it becomes milder, will save a lot of time in ironing, and in saving ironing time this will in turn save electric power needed by the war plants.

Before linens are hung on the line the corners and sides should be smoothed and straightened.

When cloths are dry, they should first be sprinkled, and then rolled firmly so that the dampness may spread evenly throughout the article.

The next step is the actual ironing. Ironing experts say that tablecloths should be folded in half lengthwise, and then pressed first on the wrong side in order to dry them smoothly and then on the right side to bring out their lustre.

Housewives should also remember that ironing should always be done with the grain of the fabric. After pressing a cloth it should

With the weather we have been having lately, it may seem rather unusual to be talking of camping, but this kind of weather makes us think of those pleasant warm summer days spent away at camp and plans are already beginning to take shape for camp this summer at Kanawana. This is the 50th year in the history of Kamp Kanawana, the Y.M.C.A. camp for boys in the mountains. The camp committee, headed by Mr. Nory Owens, is very anxious to hear from any of the fathers of the boys who have at any time in his history camped at this grand old camp. The committee is planning an old boys' reunion this spring, and any Dad or friend of the 'Y' who has camped at Kanawana is asked to phone the local Y so that communications can be made regarding this old boys' reunion.

The boys paper, the Y's Talk is published each week by the boys so that all members may be informed of all the goings on at the local branch. Some outstanding contributions have been made to the paper, two very worthy of note was the Y.M.C.A. Prayer published last week by Jack Donnelly, a really fine piece of work.

TAILORED OR FRILLY,
DRESSING TABLES ARE EASY TO MAKE

It's no feat these days for girls in the grades or high school to make their "dream" dressing table a reality from a pair of cast-off cotton draperies; and with the attachments on the modern sewing machine even an inexperienced seamstress can make a dressing table skirt in the time many persons spend in wishing for one.

It's fun, too, to carry out your own decorating ideas and to make a dressing table as glamorous as your favorite party frock or as smartly tailored as a sports suit without spending more than a few cents for trimming. If you have any doubts about the practicality of giving full leash to your imagination you can always go to a sewing center such as is to be found in most localities, where experts will give you instruction in all the shortcuts and professional finishes in home sewing.

Use Attachments
You may prefer dressing table skirts with the same fine finishes that are used on dainty lingerie. These fine details should not discourage you from achieving your dream, for ribbon-run edging may be quickly made with the hemstitcher attachment, ruffles and flounces shirred with the gathering foot, and scalloped edgings may be finished with be folded lengthwise, then across as many times as necessary. The folds should never be ironed. This weakens the cloth fibres.

CZERNY—BIOGRAPHY NO. 31

Most famous composers, whose names are destined to live on, are celebrities of the concert programme but for our thirty-first monthly biography we have chosen a composer who has done more for the foundation of the pianist's technique than almost any other educationalist before or after him. There is not an artist before the public who has not studied the "School of Velocity" by CARL CZERNY. Just to mention Opus 299 brings to mind many fundamentals so necessary to a solid pianistic technique.

Carl Czerny (pronounced chair-nee) who was also one of the foremost teachers in the world, was born February 20th, 1791 (the year Mozart died) in Vienna. His first teacher was his father, who was a clever musician, then he studied with Beethoven and became that great master's favourite pupil. He also had lessons from Clementi and Hummel. Czerny rarely played in public because he was of a timid nature, so he devoted his life to teaching and composing. Over a thousand of his works were published but only a few of these are used now and the few that are used continuously are of such importance for acquiring finger dexterity that they are considered of the highest rank.

Among his pupils were Franz Liszt, Thalberg and Theodor Leschetizky. These three names tell what kind of a teacher Czerny was. Three of the most brilliant pianists of all time who subsequently became celebrated teachers. We must call Carl Czerny one of the most noted educators in the annals of pianoforte playing because his knowledge of technical limitations caused him to write his "School of Velocity" also his 101 Exercises which serious students regard as one of the necessary tools to acquire facility in performance. Czerny died July 15th, 1857.

GOLDEN EAGLES AND ROYALS TO FIGHT FOR CHAMPIONSHIP OF MUNICIPAL MIDGET HOCKEY

Buddy Read's Golden Eagles midgets of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League advanced to the final round of the playoffs in that section when they eliminated the Staynor Black Hawks 9-7 in a two game total goals to count series. The Golden Eagles now meet the Royals for the championship of the midget section in this district. The first game was scheduled to start last night, with other games scheduled for tomorrow night and Saturday afternoon and evening if necessary.

The final series between the Golden Eagles and the Royals is booked for a two out of three game affair but with the weather acting up the way it has been of late, the teams have been warned that in the event of only one game being played, the team having won it will be declared the district representative in the city playoffs, while if only two games are played the total goals will decide the team to play in the city finals.

The Golden Eagles made a remarkable comeback to capture their semi-final playoff series from the Staynor Black Hawks. The Black Hawks won the first game which was played on Saturday afternoon by a 5-1 score and looked like a clinch to take the series but the Golden Eagles spurred on by the appearance of Jim deLalanne who had missed the first game, soon erased the losers' early lead and came on to win easily.

Jim deLalanne and Harry Cox were the main reasons for the Golden Eagles' win in the second game of the series, after the Black Hawks scored the first goal of the game to put themselves in front six goals to one in the series, deLalanne and Cox combined for the Golden Eagles' first goal and before the first period was over Geoff Messenger added another to make the round score 6-3 in favor of the Black Hawks.

Harry Cox banged in two goals and deLalanne one in the middle stanza which brought the teams on even terms, 6-4 in the series.

The winners took over a brief lead when deLalanne scored his third goal of the night but Fred DeJean erased this with a neat counter after taking a pass from Fred Lord to make the count 7-4 all on the round. Jim deLalanne registered the winning point, his fourth goal of the game when he scored on a breakaway. The last goal of the game was scored by

Y's Chats

Last Saturday afternoon saw the Westmount Y midget squad come out on top of Southwestern Y's eagles by the score of 26 to 13. The game was a fast game from the beginning, and the first period looked as if the Southwestern lads had it all over the Westmount team. The second period saw the Westmount squad come out from under and with tricky ballhandling and accurate shooting passed the score piled up by the Verdun boys. From then on it was neck and neck, but the fine scoring of Jim Van Ryswyk and Roy Howard who scored 12 and 11 respectively, and the fine support of Ron Morrow and Wolf Siemers on the line and Jack Dudley and Bryan Pearce on defence, the local team came out victorious. Slater was top man for Southwestern, scoring 8 points. This win puts Westmount at the top of the league at present, having played two and won both games.

BANTAM TITLE HUNT IS DOWN TO TWO TEAMS

The title hunt in the bantam section of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League is now down to two teams.

The final series for the championship will be played tomorrow evening, Saturday afternoon and if necessary Saturday evening. This series will be a two-out-of-three affair if the weather holds out, otherwise it may be a sudden-death or a two-game-total-goals-to-count series. It will, however, start out as the first of these possibilities.

In the preliminary series the Black Hawks eliminated the Staynor Royals and the Commandos defeated the Rangers 6-3 in a two game total goals to count series. The Commandos captured the first game last week 2-1 and then took the second game 4-2.

Campbell Scott led the victors with a pair of goals while Graham Nicholson and John Draper added the other two. Cammie McFadden notched both of the Rangers' goals.

The Vampires defeated the Thunderbolts in a playoff for sixth place but then dropped the first game of their series with the Argos. Both of these decisions were won by default.

Campbell Scott once again was the star for the Commandos in their game with the Black Hawks. Scott tallied two of the winner's goals while Graham Nicholson added the other. John Choyce kept his team in the hunt with two goals, the first and last of the game.

Tomorrow night's game will see either the Vampires or Argos hooking up against either the Commandos or Black Hawks in the municipal finals. The Westmount champions must be declared by Saturday so that they can compete in the city finals starting on Monday.

PANTHERS HEAD PEE WEE LEAGUE BY WINNING TWO CONTESTS IN LAST DAY OF HOCKEY PLAY

Ross Gillingham's Panthers turned in a pair of wins last Saturday to top first place in the final standing of the Prince Albert pee wee section of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League. The two wins gave the Panthers eight points, one more than the Hurricanes and Skeletons, the runners-up.

The Panthers claimed their first win in the morning game when they shut out the hitherto undefeated Hurricanes 2-0 at the Prince Albert rink with second period goals scored by Manley Burris and Freddie Thibaudan.

In the afternoon the Panthers shut out the last place Aces 1-0 in a postponed game which was played at Westmount Park. Clive Pearce scored the lone goal on passes from Freddie Thibaudan and Manley Burris.

Jack Lunny's Skeletons kept in the undefeated class along with the Panthers when they outscored the Aces 2-1 in the second game of the Saturday morning triple-header at Prince Albert. Palmer Strong and Ed Lafontaine counted for the winners while Ronnie George sank the Aces' point. Although Skeletons were undefeated in their five league games, they only won two, tying the rest.

Bob Lunny's Commandos made certain of a playoff berth in the loop when they swamped the Flyers 6-0 in the last game of the triple-header. Donnie McDonald and Kenzie Black led the winner's attack with two goals and one assist apiece, while Bill Leslie and Phil Martin accounted for the other two.

The playoffs were scheduled to get underway yesterday afternoon at Prince Albert rink when the first-place Panthers met the fourth-place Commandos in the first of a two-game-total-goals-to-count series. The second game on Saturday morning at ten-forty-five on the Prince Albert rink.

Donnie McDonald of the Commandos captured the individual scoring honors in the section when he made eight goals and was credited with two assists during the schedule for a total of ten points. Team-mate Ken Black was next in line with six points, while Jack Watson of the Hurricanes, was tied with five points, all goals.

The final standing of the league is as follows:

	G.	W.	L.	T.	Pts.
Panthers	5	3	0	2	8
Hurricanes	5	3	1	1	7
Skeletons	5	2	0	3	7
Commandos	5	2	1	2	6
Flyers	5	1	4	0	2
Aces	5	0	5	0	0

Tommy Thompson, ace passer of the Philadelphia Eagles, is almost blind in one eye. So are Atley Donald and Tom Sunkel, baseball pitchers.

Penn State and Cornell in playing a scoreless tie punted 51 times.

LAST GAME WILL DECIDE ISSUE FOR PLAYOFF POSITIONS IN MUNICIPAL HOCKEY BATTLE

The battle for the playoff positions in the intermediate section of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League will not be decided until the last scheduled game is played.

That much at least was settled by the results of Monday's doubleheader at the Loyola rink, when the R.C.A.F. No. 3 Training Command team punched out an 8-2 victory over the No. 4 Provost Corps. In Monday's other game the Wireless School shut out the Ordinance Corps 4-0 to take a better hold on first place. Last Thursday the Training Command and the Provost Corps battled to a 1-1 tie in a game that was postponed from earlier in the season.

The Ordinance Corps and the Command team were slated to hook up last night at Loyola rink and in the event of a loss by the Provost Corps to the Wireless School, this game would be the first of a two game total goals to count series for the right to meet the Wireless School in the finals.

But if the Provost Corps defeated the Wireless team, this game between the Command and Ordinance would be played to decide which team would advance into the playoff berths. Further playoff games will be played on Sunday, Monday and Wednesday of next week.

Proulx, Dumoulin, Corriveau and Butler were the stars of the Training Command's 8-2 victory over the Provost Corps on Monday night, with the first three named players accounting for two goals apiece, while Butler scored one and assisted in two others, Gordon tallied both of the loser's points.

Verbeke, Stinson, Tower and Gardner tallied for the Wireless School to give the "Sparks" their 4-0 win over the Ordinance crew.

In last Thursday's game, which ended in a 1-1 tie between the Provost Corps and the Training Command, Butler scored for the Airmen and Buck Tahamont for the Provost.

Effort Made to Complete Scout Schedule

Another effort will be made to complete the schedule of the inter-troop hockey league which seems to be the most hinged of all the sections in the Westmount Municipal Hockey League. The 2nd Westmount and Sea Scouts will meet tonight at King George rink in a four-point game which will start at seven o'clock.

Two more games will be played next week with the St. Matthias troop meeting the Sea Scouts on Tuesday, February 23rd, while on Thursday the St. Matthias team will play the 2nd Westmount aggregation in a four-point game. If these three games are played as scheduled, it will clear the decks for the playoffs.

Physical Fitness Through Exercise And Diet

This is another in a series of health articles by P. M. McFarlane, Physical Director at the Westmount Y.M.C.A.

Do not forget that the Quebec Physical Education Association Physical Fitness Week is going to be held in Montreal, from March 1st to March 6th. The general object of the physical fitness week is to arouse a greater public consciousness of the fact that:

1. There is an urgent need for fitness of our human resources for peace as well as war. If our man power falls, all else is of no avail.
2. The average Canadian, child, youth, adult, is under, rather than over-exercised - is soft rather than tough - and that as a nation we are physically undeveloped.

3. Organic fitness as indicated by a category of "A" does not necessarily mean that a person is physically fit. Fitness must be worked for - it entails effort.

4. Physical fitness can only be achieved when there is full cooperation by all agencies that exist for mental and physical health.

5. Individuals who are physically as well as medically fit, are able to lead fuller and richer lives, and thus meet the stresses and strains of the present day more satisfactorily.

6. Every Canadian should feel an obligation to himself and to his country to make full use of available opportunities to build and increase his own fitness and render assistance so that satisfactory facilities and programmes are available for all.

This venture is one of the most ambitious ever attempted by any physical education group in the city of Montreal. It deserves the whole hearted support of every man, woman and child. It is to be hoped that this effort is but the forerunner of what will soon develop into a nation wide physical fitness programme.

NEW Gasoline Rationing Plan Goes into Effect APRIL FIRST

ON MARCH 31 the present gasoline ration licenses and coupons will expire, and no gasoline will be sold except upon the presentation of a 1943-1944 ration book.

In his own interests, every vehicle owner is asked to apply at once for a new gasoline license and ration coupon book for each of his vehicles.

Under the new system, effective April 1, all commercial vehicles will be rationed. All non-commercial vehicles will be granted a basic "AA" gasoline license and ration coupon book, containing 40 coupons for a passenger car, or 16 for a motorcycle. Owners of non-commercial vehicles eligible for a special category, who can prove their need, will be granted an extra vocational allowance, fixed in advance for the year ending March 31, 1944.

The extra allowance for a special category car will be tailored to meet individual needs. In determining this allowance the previous category and mileage of the car will not be considered. Instead the vocational allowance will be based on two factors: (1) The gravity of the oil shortage with which Canada is faced, and (2) the importance of the vehicle to its owner in a country at war.

The extra vocational coupons will be issued in books labelled "Special", and each such book will contain not more than 60 coupons. Only one "Special" book, or portion of such book, will be issued at a time, and hence the case history of each special category applicant will be under constant review.

Under provisions of the rationing order, the Oil Controller will have the right to refuse any application for a special category, or to suspend any ration book for an infraction of the regulations.

Every motor vehicle, other than a motorcycle, must bear on its windshield a sticker indicating its category. After April 1, service station attendants will not be permitted to serve gasoline to a car which does not bear the sticker which corresponds to the ration book submitted at the time of the purchase.

To obtain a gasoline license and ration coupon book, secure an application form at your nearest Post Office. Study the form and follow the instructions contained therein.

When you receive your ration coupon book, guard it carefully. It may not be replaced if, because of your negligence, it is lost or stolen. Do not leave it in your car; keep it on your person at all times.
