DISASTERS HIT BELGIUM, COLOMBIA

All Hope Abandoned For Some 270 Men Trapped In Coal Mine

MARCINELLE, Belgium — (AP) — Hope was virtually abandoned this afternoon for almost 270 coal miners trapped 2,485 feet down in a burning coal pit here.

A mine official said "it will be a miracle if anyone comes back."

Hopes had been raised earlier when seven of the 274 men known to be in the fire-swept level made their way to safety through a maze of underground galleries. But then the fire became worse, and those still below were cut off from the surface by flames and choking fumes.

Stockholm, Doria Sue Each Other

NEW YORK — (AP) — Owners of the Swedish motorship Stockholm and the Italian liner Andrea Doria are in dispute over blame for the disastrous collision of the two vessels.

The Swedish American Line claimed Tuesday that the Doria without warning made a reckless left turn in front of the oncoming Stockholm.

The Italian line replied that, on the contrary, a swift, unsignalled right turn by the Stockholm caused the fatal crash.

The opposing statements came as preliminary court actions which will argue blame for the collision. Millions of dollars in damage claims are at stake.

Fifty-two persons are dead or unaccounted for in the July 25 collision south of Nantucket Island, Mass. The Doria sank, but more than 1,600 of those aboard were rescued. The Stockholm suffered a crushed bow, but crept back to port here for repairs.

Police Seek Alcoholics In Cop Slaying

STE. AGATHE, Que. — (AP) — Police today are seeking "two mentally deranged alcoholics" in connection with the fatal wounding of Ste. Agathe police captain Ernest Chalifoux early Tuesday.

Police said the two men were reported missing from a Laurentian "rest home" only a few hours before Chalifoux, 51-year-old father of two Montreal police through the back with a .32 calibre revolver.

A 15-mile area around this town 60 miles north of Montreal was cordoned off and police said they believe the two men are within this cordon.

The suspects are believed to be between 20 and 30 years of age. No other details were available.

Police Chief Ovide Tasse of Ste. Agathe said Capt. Chalifoux apparently surprised the two men while they were attempting to loot a station wagon loaded with liquor about four blocks from the police station.

World News In Brief

ALGIERS — (AP) — Algerian nationalist rebels shot up a truckload of French soldiers in an ambush, killing nine of them, French sources reported today.

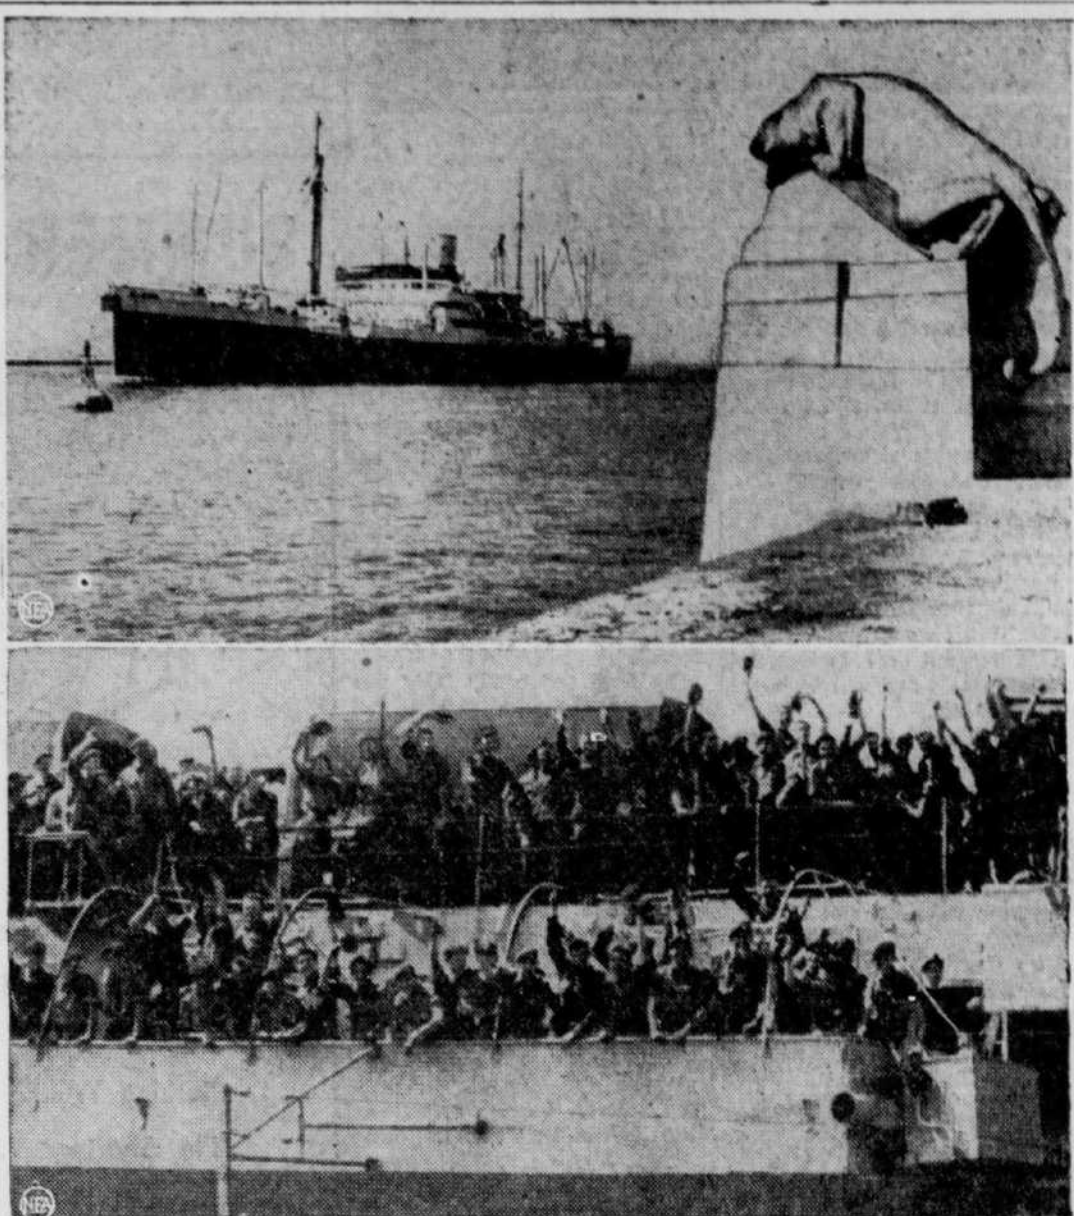

The attack took place Tuesday near Camp-des-Chenes, 25 miles southwest of Algiers. The rebels also wounded four of the troops. Only five in the military truck escaped without injury.

HALIFAX — (CP) — The fishing boat Sister M. Antonio and most of her swordfish cargo lay at the bottom of Halifax harbor today but her eight crew members were safe.

The 57-foot Lockport, N.S., boat slid off a ledge and sank late Tuesday, about 14 hours after she grounded while entering the harbor in dense fog.

LAPRAIRIE, Que. — (CP) — Seven persons were taken to hospital — two of them in critical condition — after two cars collided Tuesday night at the St. Edouard de Laprairie, 10 miles south of here.

Critically injured in hospital are Mrs. Jacob Basnaji, 42, of Sorel, Que., and her four-year-old son Joseph Raphael.

Business As Usual — Under the granite gaze of a World War I memorial, shipping still passes peacefully along the waters of the Suez Canal after seizure of the company by the Egyptian Government. But it wasn't business as usual for British troops, lower picture, who are shown as they left Portsmouth and headed for the eastern Mediterranean aboard the converted aircraft carrier, Theseus.

India Accepts Invitation, But Egypt Still Silent

LONDON — (AP) — Britain today announced her intention to seek a peaceful settlement of the Suez Canal crisis rather than resorting to force.

The announcement from the foreign office followed shortly after India's Prime Minister Nehru called upon both Britain and France to refrain from military measures in the Suez.

At the same time, Nehru announced India's acceptance of an invitation to the 24-power Suez Conference here next week. A foreign office spokesman said Britain has felt and still feels that the dispute caused by Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal "should be peacefully settled."

Greece today asked Britain to postpone the Suez Conference and agree to holding it at another site. The foreign office spokesman declined comment on the request, but official quarters said there is little chance of delaying the conference, scheduled to start August 16.

The emphasis placed on Britain's desire for a peaceful settlement underlined persistent reports here in the last 48 hours that the Eden government no longer feels itself free to use military measures unilaterally to enforce the internationalization of the canal.

Government spokesmen, however, have been taking pains to private talks with reporters to emphasize that there is no weakening of the British position.

Prime Minister Eden himself, in a radio and television broadcast tonight, is expected to emphasize Britain's determination to create some form of international control of the canal.

Three days ago Iraq, Britain's staunchest ally in the Arab world, announced her support of Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal and added that the dispute was "being exploited by Israel for her benefit."

The foreign office announcement followed by several hours India's acceptance of an invitation to the London conference and authoritative Indian reports that Egypt would boycott the talks.

Britain has steadily asserted that she will go ahead with the talks, aimed at setting up international control of the vital waterway, even though Egypt stays away.

Even as the foreign office statement was being made, a vast air armada was being assembled throughout Britain to bolster her Mediterranean forces.

Prime Minister Nehru of India this morning agreed to attend the conference, but said he understood Egypt "could not and would not" join in.

1,000 Dead In Colombia Explosion, President Blames Political Sabotage

CALI, Colombia — (AP) — The death count climbed today toward 1,000 from an explosion of seven dynamite-laden trucks that ripped through the heart of this South American city.

Latest unofficial estimates put the total dead at about 700. But many others among the hundreds of injured were not expected to live, and rescue workers digging through the shattered blast area continued to uncover additional victims.

President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla blamed political sabotage for the explosion early Tuesday, which virtually levelled an eight-block area and was felt for 20 miles.

The seven trucks had parked for the night in a densely populated area of slums, warehouses, hotels, stores and factories in the centre of this city of about 285,000 persons. They were part of a 10-vehicle convoy which had left the port of Buenaventura Monday with explosives to be delivered to the public works ministry in Bogota, the capital. The drivers of the seven vehicles decided to spend the night here, sleeping in the cabs of the trucks.

The spot where the trucks were parked was scooped into a large crater by the force of the explosion. Buildings as far as 12 blocks from the blast centre were damaged extensively.

Large-scale relief operations were in full swing today. Doctors, nurses, medical supplies and food streamed in from Bogota and other cities. The American Red Cross in Panama dispatched two tons of medical supplies, including blood plasma, by United States Air Force transport.

Bulldozers and other earth-moving machinery worked around the clock, moving huge piles of debris from the explosion area in a search for additional bodies. Grief-stricken citizens from all walks of life combed the wreckage and debris for the injured and the dead.

Burial of the victims, hampered by an acute shortage of coffins, was an urgent task in this tropical climate. Military authorities announced plans to bury unidentified dead in a common grave.

Dump carts piled high with mutilated and burned bodies formed a grisly parade through the city.

The explosion touched off general panic among residents, but troops and police were quickly on the scene seeking to restore order and prevent looting.

The government decreed a three-day period of mourning. Rojas Pinilla, in a radio broadcast, implied that the explosion was the result of a joint statement, signed in Spain July 24 by ex-presidents Alberto Lleras Camargo and Laureano Gomez, appealing to their rival opposition parties to unite in overthrowing the government.

On the Indian legislation, the most controversial revolved around the government proposal to let Indians be customers at government liquor stores and the government's non-inclusion in the bill of specific authorization for Indians to appeal to the courts against government orders affecting their rights.

On the right-of-appeal issue, Mr. Piskersgill said he knows of no instances where the Indians do not have this and considers it does not have to be specified in legislation. The House defeated an opposition move to have this written into the bill. On the liquor-for-Indians question, Conservative and CCF spokesmen accused the federal government of abdicating its responsibility by leaving to the provinces the final say on whether Indians would be admitted to their stores as purchasers.

Capital Hill Roundup

More Immigration Urged By Opposition

OTTAWA — (AP) — Commons opposition members are urging that Canada let in more immigrants.

Several called Tuesday for a greater inflow of new Canadians as the House debated immigration policy in dealing with the annual spending estimates of Immigration Minister Pickersgill's department.

A contentious government measure dealing with Indians — and paving the way to let them buy liquor in government stores — advanced to the last stage before third and final reading in the Commons.

A major bill providing for important changes in unemployment insurance got all-party acceptance in the Commons industrial relations committee, indicating smooth sailing on the rest of its voyage through Parliament.

In the immigration discussion, Progressive Conservative Davie Fulton of Kamloops said Canada is not getting as many immigrants as it should because the immigration department is not aggressive and realistic enough.

To this, Mr. Pickersgill retorted that opposition speeches about unemployment in Canada a few years ago did more to set back immigration than anything else.

Until there is a change of government, Mr. Fulton said, "we are not going to get a satisfactory immigration policy."

On the Indian legislation, the most controversial revolved around the government proposal to let Indians be customers at government liquor stores and the government's non-inclusion in the bill of specific authorization for Indians to appeal to the courts against government orders affecting their rights.

Ecuador Rebellion Reported

QUITO, Ecuador — (AP) — Government army, navy and air force units were reported closing in today on a rebellion in this South American republic's western Manabí province.

Ecuador's military high command said the revolt would be put down "once and for all by whatever means necessary."

The outgoing government of President Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra charged that the uprising was led by defeated political leaders and a military garrison at Portoviejo, Manabí provincial capital. The government denied rebel reports that other garrisons were joining in the revolt. Activities in this capital were normal today.

Censorship was imposed on newspapers and dispatches from Ecuador. Guards were stationed at the offices of news agencies.

Calcutta Crowd In Demonstration On Egypt's Behalf

CALCUTTA, India, — (Reuters) — A crowd of 4,000 persons shouting "Suez belongs to Egypt" demonstrated outside the British deputy high commission office and the French consulate here Tuesday protesting measures the two countries have taken following Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal.

Priests Rap Quebec Politics

QUEBEC — (AP) — Two prominent Laval University professors, both Roman Catholic priests, have published a sweeping attack on election practices in Quebec.

In a 4,000-word article appearing last month in a mimeographed monthly publication intended exclusively for Roman Catholic clergymen, the two priests accused Quebec political parties of:

Using communism as a scarecrow;

Buying votes, corrupting election officers and resorting to violence;

Using modern publicity methods to spread myths and lies systematically.

They did not aim their attack at any one Quebec political party in particular but they laid the blame for spread of practices, as employed in the provincial election last June 20, on clergymen and citizens who condoned the abuses.

They recommended formation of a "public morality league independent of all existing or future political parties" to educate the people of Quebec in civic morality.

Their startling article was never intended for general circulation and for that reason the two priests' superiors Tuesday ruled that the authors' names be withheld from general publication.

The Montreal Star reported the authors were Rev. Gerard Dion, widely-known Laval professor who heads the university's industrial relations department, and Rev. Louis O'Neill, chaplain of the Catholic Action movement at the University.

The two priests wrote that present Quebec election campaign methods were laying the groundwork for a "socialist" mentality in Quebec which would lead to acceptance of the idea that the state must figure in all social activities.

They said their reason for publishing their study of the June 20 Quebec election was that the need for a program of moral and civic education among the Roman Catholic population of Quebec had become "urgent."

"Work must get under way," they wrote, "before demagogues and Fascist apprentices bestialize the masses to the point that any improvement will become impossible."

Discussing the clergy's blame for the situation, the two priests said:

"We are reaping what we have sown. Our sermons about morality, our morality campaigns have been aimed principally at sexual immorality, intemperance and blasphemy."

At the Quebec archbishop's house, a spokesman for Archbishop Maurice Roy was asked to comment on the article and replied:

"We do not believe there is any reason to comment."

There was silence in political circles though officials appeared stunned by publication of the article.

Windsor Institute Donates Aprons To Fair Booth

WINDSOR — The August meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of the president, Mrs. J. Watson, with Mrs. O. Sunborg and Miss Gertrude Vigneault as assisting hostesses.

The reply to the roll call from each member was an apron for the September fair. These aprons were judged by Mrs. Lawrence Wheeler and Mrs. G. Robb and the prize awarded to Miss Ellen Wheeler.

Thank you letters were read from the students of Grade 8 for financial aid given by the Institute towards the educational tour to Montreal and for the donation to gift books to graduating students. Mrs. M. Setterlund also wrote thanking members for gifts received prior to her departure to Donnacona.

Mrs. J. Allan, sunshine convener, reported a card of sympathy and a get-well card sent to two members.

Mrs. Watson, delegate to Macdonald College, gave a report on suggestions and resolutions taken up at the convention.

Plans were discussed for the pageantry booth sponsored by the Richmond Fair Association. This is the 100th anniversary of the fair, and all county branches of the Institute have been invited to send representatives wearing costumes depicting styles worn between 1856-1956. Windsor will portray the styles of 1906 and 1956.

September is education month and the convener of education, Mrs. A. Sundborg, reported that the teachers of the new Windsor-Brompton Consolidated school

On Pipe-Smoking

Notwithstanding Freud's veiled allegations, and sinister allusions to sexual symbolism, pipe-smoking still remains a noble and comfortable habit. It is a habit steeped in tradition, although the common cigarette has made huge inroads on the domain of tobacco smoking; yet, for the refined and the thoughtful, and those who cannot afford cigarettes, a pipe remains next to the dog as man's best friend.

Pipe-smoking is relaxing. It requires a pause in the pell-mell rush of daily working and living. The tobacco pouch must be got out; the tobacco must be lovingly rubbed and curled, and then tamped judiciously into the bowl of the pipe. The tobacco must be carefully lit, so as to ensure an even burning, and then, should be puffed slowly and with contentment. A great checker of head-long paces, this pipe-smoking habit.

And one, of course, conducive to deep, creative thought, for what profound musings, what marvellous plans and momentous structures can be seen so clearly in the blue curls and swirls of the smoke about one's head. In a mere bowl of good pipe tobacco repose those "enterprises of great pith and moment" so beloved by Shakespeare. He was probably a pipe-smoker.

The true pipe-smoker is a philosophical, male creature. Through his protective haze, he views those who would turn the noble habit into a feminine fad with slight regret, but with no fear. He surveys with jaded eyes the delicate jewelled instruments that serve as pitiful excuses for pipes, but he is not disturbed. He knows that when the brief clatter has died down, the good substantial pipe will retain its traditional, solid position, whether it be straight and pugnacious, or curved and contented.

He will disdain pipe-smoking competitions, like one recently held in West Germany. There, a Dutchman kept a pipe alight for sixty-eight minutes to win the first European competition for slow smoking, even though it was filled with only a tenth of an ounce of tobacco.

Such continuity is contrary to the pipe-smoking tradition, too. With each re-lighting of the pipe comes new opportunities for contemplation, for discussion on an exalted plane, for new castles to be built in the smoke. With each pause for re-lighting comes again that restful slowing-down of the head-long pace—a brief motionless instant snatched from the everflowing stream of time.

A Ticklish Business

The exciting art of trout tickling is one that has all but disappeared in this country—largely because it is illegal, but also because your modern fishermen prefer the gadgets and inventions of our streamlined age to the primitive pitting of animal skill against animal (or fish) skill.

However, there are still good numbers of daring ticklers pursuing their sport in England, apparently. In fact, a news report from Trent indicates that there, trout ticklers have been carrying out their illegal practices to such an extent that the Trent River Board has been forced to take action. There are more than 100,000 anglers in the area (the number of ticklers, of course, is not known) and official warnings have been issued that anyone caught tickling will be prosecuted without fail.

Those men against whom the warning is issued are a hardy breed. Many of them, of course, are not men at all, but boys, and boys always love to do things the hard way.

For, as many know, trout tickling is a ticklish business. One must lie down flat on the bank of the river, close enough to a fat fish to put one's hand underneath it, and tickle gently. A fish thus mesmerized is easily lifted out of the water.

Now, however, that tickling trout is obviously passe, it might not be a bad idea to turn the art to other uses. So far as we know, for example, there is no law against tickling deer, or foxes, or rabbits, or even bears. An artful tickler could well turn his talents to these unexplored fields with great profit. Equipped with a few long feathers, what sport might not be had?

We even venture to suggest that a game tickler would soon come to enjoy great social prestige as a "character" and an adventurer. Besides having the fun of tickling, he could very well end up a millionaire, endorsing those ads of a sporting type that begin: "Tickling Snakes In The Belgian Congo."

Technicolor Torsos

Honest, we'll never again say another nasty thing about the crazes of Canadian women—on one condition.

They absolutely must not go in for tattooing. To our horror we have read that this is the latest fad among women in Great Britain.

From teen-agers to typists to housewives to debutantes, English ladies are imprinting indelible colored designs on various parts of their anatomy. The gals are proudly displaying tigers, peacocks and movie stars on arms, legs, backs and bosoms.

Now that just wouldn't do here in Canada would it ladies? Maybe it's a risk even to mention the idea, but we're confident you would never dream of doing such an awful thing. Or would you?

Feather-Bedding And The Power Mower

The sales of power lawn-mowers, according to The Wall Street Journal, are zooming.

The reason behind the soaring sales of lawn-mowers is understandable. Most people figure it is a lot less expensive to automate grass-cutting than to pay the high wages demanded by hired help.

Fortunately, there does not seem to be any grass-cutters' union. If there were, the chances are that union leaders would be just as determined to force people to hire grass-cutters, even though they had bought power-mowers, just as union leaders in industry seek to maintain "feather-bedding" practices merely to satisfy their own sense of power and authority.

This And That...

Don't give up hope. Maybe summer will concentrate its full force on August and September; perhaps even October if we're really lucky. Nice weather for the next few weeks could mean a lot to the success of the many fairs that are up-coming.

This distance swimming craze certainly is nothing new. It was 30 years ago yesterday that Gertrude Ederle set a record for the Channel crossing and became the first woman to make it. And 30 years from today there'll almost certainly be a new set of strong young swimmers to challenge the elements.

Press Comment

DEMAND RESPECT FOR PASSPORTS

Toronto Globe and Mail

It is not difficult to imagine the reaction in the United States if a fully documented American citizen en route to his home were detained in custody for twenty-four hours after disembarking from a ship at Quebec; there to be arrogantly grilling, searched and released only after taking an oath denying all Communist affiliations. The hue and cry about police state methods, invasion of sovereignty and personal freedom would have overwhelmed a blast from the ship's foghorn.

The case of Mr. Milan Babic, a Canadian survivor of the Andrea Doria, differs not a whit. Although carrying his Canadian passport and able to prove he was in transit, Mr. Babic was humiliated and incarcerated without reason after his rescue ship docked in New York.

The incident is offensive not only to Mr. Babic but to his country. Who and what Mr. Babic is does not concern the U.S. Immigration Service. Their only interest should have been that he had a valid Canadian passport and was in transit. Any questions are for his own Government to ask; the fact he was granted a passport suggests they had been answered satisfactorily.

External Affairs Minister Pearson has most properly decided to lodge a complaint with the United States Government. He should mince no words with Washington. The validity of Canadian passports—and by implication the integrity of the Government which issues them—have been questioned. The answer should be short, sharp and shorn of diplomatic fripperies.

THE REDS TELL A FIB

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

Nearly a year ago Egypt made a contract by which Czechoslovakia was to supply military equipment to the value, it is believed of $250,000,000. Western countries believed, and stated that although the material was shipped from Czechoslovakia, the real salesman was Russia. Praxda, the official newspaper of the Russian government, took notice of the charge by stating that it was groundless, and that the arms deal was a straight business proposition between Egypt and Czechoslovakia. Premier Nasser gave the show away in his big speech last Thursday when he stated that, although the arms went to Egypt direct from Czechoslovakia, the deal was made with Russia.

PEER TO THE RESCUE

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

Owners of extensive areas of land in the Old Country are sometimes criticized for their possessiveness and not allowing the public to trespass. But recently a Scottish landowner was walking around his estate at Brechin and saw a number of boys cavorting in the River Esk which runs through it. Instead of taking steps to stop them he gave orders for a real swimming pool, with diving platform, to be built for the use of local children at any time.

The owner was the Earl of Dalhousie, who has five young children himself.

PLAY OF CLUBS KEY TO GAME

How should you play the South hand at four hearts? West opens the deuce of spades, and East puts up the king. Make your plan at this stage.

The actual declarer took the first trick with the ace of spades and ran dummy's three top clubs, discarding spades from his hand. East ruffed the third club and continued with the ace and nine of trumps.

South now had poor prospects. With the queen of diamonds in the East hand, South had to lose two diamond tricks. With these two tricks went the game and rubber.

South was in too much of a hurry to get his club tricks. The best plan is to let East hold the first trick with the king of spades.

East cannot lead a diamond without giving up the contract. If East, instead, returns a spade, you can take the ace and ruff a spade. Even now you should not try to run the clubs; it is still correct to leave the clubs alone. Lead trumps in the hope that East has the ace, since East cannot safely lead diamonds. Even if it turns out that West has the ace of trumps, he can beat you only by leading diamonds at once and then only if you misguess the winning diamond play.

It is true that the defenders can lead clubs early to force you to cash your tricks at once. In that case, you are no worse off than if you voluntarily ran the top clubs. An even stronger answer is that only very expert defenders have the wit and the courage to lead clubs in this sort of position. Don't credit your opponents with clairvoyance or genius when they're only fallible human beings like yourself.

CAPITALISTIC BIKINIS

(Brandon Sun)

The Communist press in East Germany, which used to praise demure dress, has come out for women's swimming suits that are "daring" or "saucy." It's one more illustration of how popular "capitalistic degradation" has become with the Communists since the de-Stalinization campaign said that it's time for a change—in this case into Bikinis.

BYGONE DAYS

TWENTY YEARS AGO
From the Record of Saturday, Aug. 8th, 1936.

Great Britain has ordered the evacuation of all its nationals from war-torn Spain, being convinced that the war which is now in its 22nd. day will be long extended. Germany demands that Russian non-intervention be assured before she gives any pledge of neutrality.

The Edmonton Chamber of Commerce has petitioned the Dominion Government to prevent the further issuance of prosperity certificates by the Alberta Social Credit administration, claiming that the scrip is causing "intolerable confusion" in trading circles.

Although the yield in some areas is above expectations, the current Canadian wheat crop is expected to be the lowest since 1919 drought conditions causing the farmers in many areas to plough under their entire acreage.

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Record of Thursday, Aug. 8th, 1946.

The Paris Peace Conference, stalled for nine days by a series of bitter arguments concerning rules of procedure, got down to business today with the indication that treaty talks might begin within 48 hours with five former enemy states.

Some important Liberals

today expressed their growing concern of the party's future under new leadership as they saw signs of a parallel of the 1911 situation when Henri Bourassa's Quebec nationalists contributed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's defeat. Quebec's Prime Minister Duplessis has been showing gains in strength in by-elections and it is feared that he might enter the federal field under the slogan of autonomy for Quebec. A strong possibility to succeed Mackenzie King should he retire as he has indicated, is Health Minister Brooke Claxton, who accompanied the Prime Minister to the Paris Peace Conference.

Gaston Blais and Laurent Turmel became the new city doubles champions yesterday when they defeated Dr. Johnny Hibbard and Roger Roy 7-5, 2-6, 6-2, 6-3 in the City Championship Tournament at Mount Pleasant Club.

ABOUT DEFENCE

(Vancouver Province)

From the Government's standpoint, from the taxpayer's standpoint, from the nation's standpoint it is necessary that this country have more facts and a better understanding of its defence effort and its defence spending.

We should not be forever blindfolded.

Real Tiny Orchestra —

For many years, one of the favorite phrases used in the billing of many small jazz combos has been the "biggest little band in the world." Pictured above is one orchestra that can truly claim this award, for they are the only organized group of midgets in the world to appear as a full orchestra.

These diminutive musicians form the band of the Royal Lilliputian Revue on the biggest midway ever to appear at the Sherbrooke Fair, The World's Finest Shows.

Although none of these "little people" are over thirty inches tall, they present a full hilarious musical comedy revue that would be a delight to any Broadway stage. As a matter of fact, they have just completed an engagement with Danny Kaye, Glynis Johns and other top flight movie celebrities in the Paramount picture, "The Court Jester," and are spending the summer season with the World's Finest Shows to gather atmosphere and experience in the tented world before their return to Hollywood and future contracts.

Historic Church Open To Visitors

CHRIST CHURCH AT FROST VILLAGE

Erected At Frost Village In 1852

On the 11th of August, Christ Church in Frost Village, near Waterloo, Que., will be open from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 7 in the evening, when a short service of worship will be held for those who may be present. A great many people have expressed a desire to see this historic old church and it is hoped that they will take advantage of this opportunity.

The present structure was built in 1852 in what was then the thriving town of Frost Village. Many factors have contributed to its decline and the exodus of most of the parishioners. Frost Village is now a very small rural community with most of the inhabitants communicants at other churches. Christ Church Anglican, supported now by only three families, recently has been repaired and redecorated. Services are held there in the summer.

The Venerable Archdeacon D. Lindsay was rector of Christ Church during its building and for many years after. The most beautiful wrought iron chandelier and candle sconces were sent from England as a gift by the Archdeacon's brothers. The memorial window above the altar is also very fine.

The beautiful simplicity of this old church makes it well worth a visit. Members of the families who have kept it through the years are most anxious to share it with all who will come. Reverend Paul F. W. Busing of St. Luke's, Waterloo, is also rector of Christ Church.

Spooner Pond W. I. Plans Pageant At Fall Fair

SPOONER POND — The regular monthly meeting of the Spooner Pond branch of the W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. C. Johnson, Melbourne, with Mrs. G. Brock, Mrs. C. Brock and Mrs. R. Davidson as assisting hostesses. Mrs. W. Coles, past president, opened the meeting in the usual manner.

Twenty-three members answered the roll call by bringing an article made from 1 yard of cotton or paying a fine. These articles were later auctioned. A Chinese auction was held on the last apron and won by Mrs. H. Vigneault. This apron brought the sum of $1.50.

Minutes and correspondence were read by the secretary. The financial report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. F. Wintle. Mrs. W. Parkes reported that by turning in 30 pounds of old woollens they got a blanket for $4.20. This blanket is to be drawn for at the September meeting within our own branch.

Mrs. Simpson read an article on agriculture in the absence of the agriculture convener. The citizenship convener, Mrs. A. Coddington read an article on immigrants.

A report on the County meeting was given by Mrs. C. Johnson. Mrs. J. Gervais reported on the committees' progress of the pageant to be held on the evening of August 18, at the Richmond Fair Grounds. 15 members are to make a tour of the Sherbrooke Hospital on September 26.

It was decided to ask Mrs. F. Mastine to make dollies as gifts for Mrs. Harvey to take to Ceylon. The meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. Goodfellow, Trenholm, on Sept. 6 at 2 p.m.

Marriage

SUITOR—MCBAIN

The marriage of Beverly Faith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McBain to Mr. Robert Nelson Sutor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sutor, of Huntingville, took place on Saturday afternoon, August 4, at half past two o'clock in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Rev. Sidney Garland officiating. The wedding music was played softly throughout the ceremony by the organist, Mr. L. F. Jenne. "O Promise Me" and "I'll Walk Beside You" were sung by the soloist, Mrs. Wright Gibson. The church was decorated with baskets of summer flowers and the pews reserved for the guests were marked with white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gown in a white ballerina length dress of Chantilly lace over nylon taffeta fashioned with a full skirt, a fitted bodice with a low V neckline and matching lace bolero having a small Peter Pan collar and three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held by a lace bandeau encrusted with seed pearls, and edged with lace and she wore matching mitts and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and white feathered carnations. Her ornaments were a pearl brooch and matching earrings.

Mrs. Angus McElrea, as matron of honor for her sister, was in a ballerina length frock of pink crystaletta having a full skirt and small Peter Pan collar and she wore a matching pleated coronet headdress of the same material, encrusted with seed pearls and carried a nosegay of white baby mums.

Miss Ivy Arberry, cousin of the bride and Miss Jean Goodhue as bridesmaids, wore frocks of identical style to that of the matron of honour in ice blue crystaletta. They wore pleated coronets of matching material encrusted with seed pearls, and carried cascade bouquets of white baby mums.

Mr. Russell Sutor, of Ste. Anne de Bellevue, acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Angus McElrea, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. Allan Sutor, brother of the groom.

Mrs. McBain, mother of the bride, wore a dress of Elizabeth blue orlon with a matching straw hat, white accessories and a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Sutor, mother of the groom, wore a dress of navy blue lace, a matching picture hat, white accessories and a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses.

The reception was held in St. Andrew's Church Hall where the bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake encircled with roses and white satin ribbon. Pink and white tapers in crystal holders completed the arrangements.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Sutor left by motor for a trip to the New England States and Ontario, the bride wearing a two piece dress of turquoise crystaletta with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Out of town guests were from Cookshire, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Montreal, Hamilton, Ont., St. Eli d'Orford, Brompton, North Hatley, Sweetburg, Bulwer, Sutton, Huntingville, Lennoxville and Rock Forest.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Sutor will take up residence at 18 Maple Ave., Lennoxville, Que.

Women's Groups

BROMPTON ROAD W.I.

The regular meeting of the Brompton Road Women's Institute met on August 4, at the home of Mrs. D. Cullen in Bromptonville. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. L. Clark and Mrs. E. Berwick.

The president, Mrs. Stuart Billing, extended a welcome to the several visitors present. Correspondence consisted of several "thank-you" notes and pamphlets were received on each convener's work.

Reports were given as follows: Agriculture—In the absence of Miss Elsie Winget, Mrs. L. Clark read an article on the preparation of soil for roses. She also announced a Flower Show to be held on September 4 and distributed the prize list for same. Citizenship—Mrs. D. Cullen read an instructive paper entitled, "You and Your Family under Quebec Law".

Welfare and Health—Mrs. E. Decoteau asked for volunteers to work at the Cancer Clinic on August 23.

Home Economics—Mrs. H. McLeod reminded the members once again of The Tweedsmuir Contest which closes on February 1, 1957.

Ways and Means—Several hand-made articles were handed in for the Fair Booth.

Sunshine—Mrs. R. Truax reported that gifts and cards had been sent to the sick. A war veteran was also remembered with a "sunshine parcel".

Mrs. E. Buck gave an interesting and detailed report on the Provincial Convention held at Macdonald College in June.

Mrs. Taylor, Provincial secretary, requested a copy of Mrs. Buck's radio broadcast which she gave over C.K.T.S. in June. This is to be used in connection with publicity work.

It was decided to send five hand-made articles to Mrs. G. D. Harvey, Provincial president, who is attending the A.C.W.W. Convention to be held in Ceylon. These articles which are being sent in by all branches are to be used by Mrs. Harvey as "souvenir gifts".

Mrs. W. F. Goodfellow and Mrs. M. McDonald were appointed delegates to the Quarterly meeting to be held in Lennoxville.

Ten dollars was voted for the School Fair. Mrs. W. F. Goodfellow displayed a W.I. Cook Book which was made by Valcar-tier Branch.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. M. Brown on September 12.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses who were assisted by Mrs. A. Clark and Mrs. G. Decoteau.

HUNTINGVILLE W.C.T.U.

The Huntingville Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Henderson, Prospect St., Lennoxville, Mrs. A. Fairbrother, president, had charge of the meeting and Mrs. Wallace Winget conducted the devotional period. The clip sheet on "Alcohol in Industry" was used.

Mrs. Henderson reported on the successful strawberry supper held and thanked the members and friends who so generously assisted in serving and those who sent donations. Mrs. Dawson Savage extended a vote of thanks to Mrs. Henderson who so ably convened the event.

The sum of $5.00 was voted to the Quebec Temperance League and it was decided to complete a quilt for welfare work. Plans were discussed for the showing of films in the Community Hall and samples of temperance papers were ordered to be distributed to leaders, to try and secure more interest in this work. The ill in hospital were also to be remembered.

Among the visitors welcomed was Mrs. E. Chapman, of Detroit. Following the Mizpah, the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Elmer Douglas and Mrs. E. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Harris, who were guests, for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Farrelly, Maple Ave., left today for their home in Queens Village, New York.

Mrs. Emma Cox, Moore St., and her grandson, Master Jimmy Wark, have returned from a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Gilker, at New Carlisle, and Mrs. T. J. Smith, in Quebec City.

Miss Susan Magwood, of Bloomfield, N.J., and Mrs. George Beattie and her daughter, Miss Faith Beattie, of The Bronx, New York, are vacationing with relatives and friends in the city and in Thetford Mines.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean-Marie Cote, with their young daughter, Danielle, were recent guests of relatives and friends in the city.

Mrs. A. J. Ross and Mrs. William Lavallee entertained on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Ross, Frontenac St., in honor of Miss Joan Billing, a September bride-to-be. The living room decorated with snapdragons, roses and other garden flowers, provided an attractive scene for the party.

As the evening progressed the presentation was made to the guest of honor of a white bedspread and sheets, artistically wrapped in blue and white shower paper.

Later refreshments were served by the hostesses, the tea table in the dining-room being covered with a lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl of varied shades of blue delphinium mixed with small white flowers and blue and white candles in crystal holders.

Mrs. C. S. Billing, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Wesley Billing, her aunt, poured. Assisting in serving were, Mrs. Arthur Wright, Miss Sally Billing, Miss Evelyn Bradley and Miss Hazel Crosby.

Miss Muriel Hall, Mrs. Leslie Choyce, and Mrs. W. E. Bown, were recently joined, in Montreal, by Miss Vera Hall, Bowen Ave., South, on a motor trip to Kennebunkport, Me., where they spent a week's holiday. They also visited at Portland, Me., and Boston, Mass., and returned by the Mohawk Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brent, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Sweeney, and Master Jimmie Brent, of Andover, Mass., are the guests of Mr. Thomas Southwood, of Richmond, at his summer cottage, Brompton Lake.

Friends of Miss Muriel Parkes, of St. Petersburg, Fla., will regret to learn of the death of her sister, (Phyllis) Mrs. Lawrence Elmendorf, of St. Petersburg, Fla., daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parkes.

Mrs. N. W. Robins, Quebec St., spent the week-end in Drummondville, as the guest of her aunt, Miss Edith Houston.

Mrs. H. Walton, who spent a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eric Sutherland, Peel St., Lennoxville, has returned to Montreal.

Friends of Mr. Reid Moe will be glad to know that he has returned to his home on High St., after having been a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital, for the past three weeks.

Three-Day Wolfe County Exhibition Opens Friday

New Midway, Racing At Marbleton Fair

MARBLETON — The Wolfe County Agricultural Society annual exhibition gets underway here Friday for three days of the "Biggest Little Fair in the Eastern Townships."

This fair, taking in part of the County of Wolfe, is designed to interest farmers and exhibitors in the immediate area around Marbleton and Weedon, although year by year, it has grown to include a larger part of the county.

This year, the fair is planned to be even bigger. Many new exhibitors have been added to the list of entries which are nearing a record high. The newly-appointed secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Bertha Turmel, has been working several weeks preparing the large entry lists, which show promise of a successful fair.

Taking on new importance are the women's section, and the flower department which have already brought in many more entries than in former years. Farm products and stock exhibits are also expected to be large.

Engaged for the fair is the All-Canadian Show midway to be operating the entire three days. The attraction-filled shows will include several rides, a kiddies' section, side-shows and amusement booths.

As in other years, horse racing will be a highlight of the second and third days of the fair. Many classes are planned for both Saturday and Sunday afternoons on the track in front of the grandstand. Some of the best horses in the district will be in the running for the many prize-winning heats.

President of this year's fair is Gerard Labbe, of St. Adolphe, who has held this post for several years and is an active member of the fair committee as well.

Minton Couple "At Home" On Golden Wedding Day

MINTON—On the occasion of their golden wedding, Mayor and Mrs. John Jenkin were "At Home" to their friends and relatives at "Minton Meadows", home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Conner.

IRON HILL—

Mr. William Blaney has entered the B.M.P. Hospital in Sweetsburg for treatment.

Mr. Milton Moffatt has returned from B.M.P. Hospital in Sweetsburg much improved in health.

Mr. Clark Baird has left for St. Hyacinthe to attend the local fair there.

During the afternoon, many friends were welcomed by the happy couple. The bride was gowned in a blue and white print dress, trimmed with velvet, and wore a corsage of yellow baby mums and fern.

The rooms were bedecked with an array of beautiful flowers and Mrs. Garland Conner poured tea at a table covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tier cake, skillfully decorated by Miss Gwen Conner, granddaughter of the bride and groom.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Jenkin again welcomed a large number of friends, their daughter, Mrs. Conner, and Mr. Conner assisting them in receiving.

After congratulations had been extended, Mr. Charles Styan, on behalf of the gathering, presented a purse of money to Mr. and Mrs. Jenkin, requesting that they purchase a gift of their own choice to commemorate the occasion.

The speaker referred to the love in which the couple were held in the community, where they have always lived. The fact that Mr. Jenkin has been mayor of the Township of Hatley for 24 years is a distinction that proclaims him a devoted and esteemed citizen.

Mr. Styan then called on Councillor Kenneth Dean to make a few remarks as a friend and neighbor of long standing. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Roy Bean told her story of the wedding day 50 years ago and showed a set of little gold pins, a gift from the groom.

Mr. William Jenkin, who was best man at the wedding, said he was proud to call the bride and groom sister and brother. Dr. J. E. Boucher emphasized the contribution that the mayor and his wife have made to the community in every way.

"On Your Golden Wedding Day" was sung by all present and Mr. Jenkin, on behalf of Mrs. Jenkin and himself, thanked everyone for the gift. He expressed appreciation to his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Reg Conner, and grandchildren, Gwendolyn and Wendell, for making the joyous event possible and said they hoped to spend many more years among their friends.

Mrs. Boucher played the hymn, "Till We Meet Again," all joining in the singing, and Dr. Boucher pronounced the benediction.

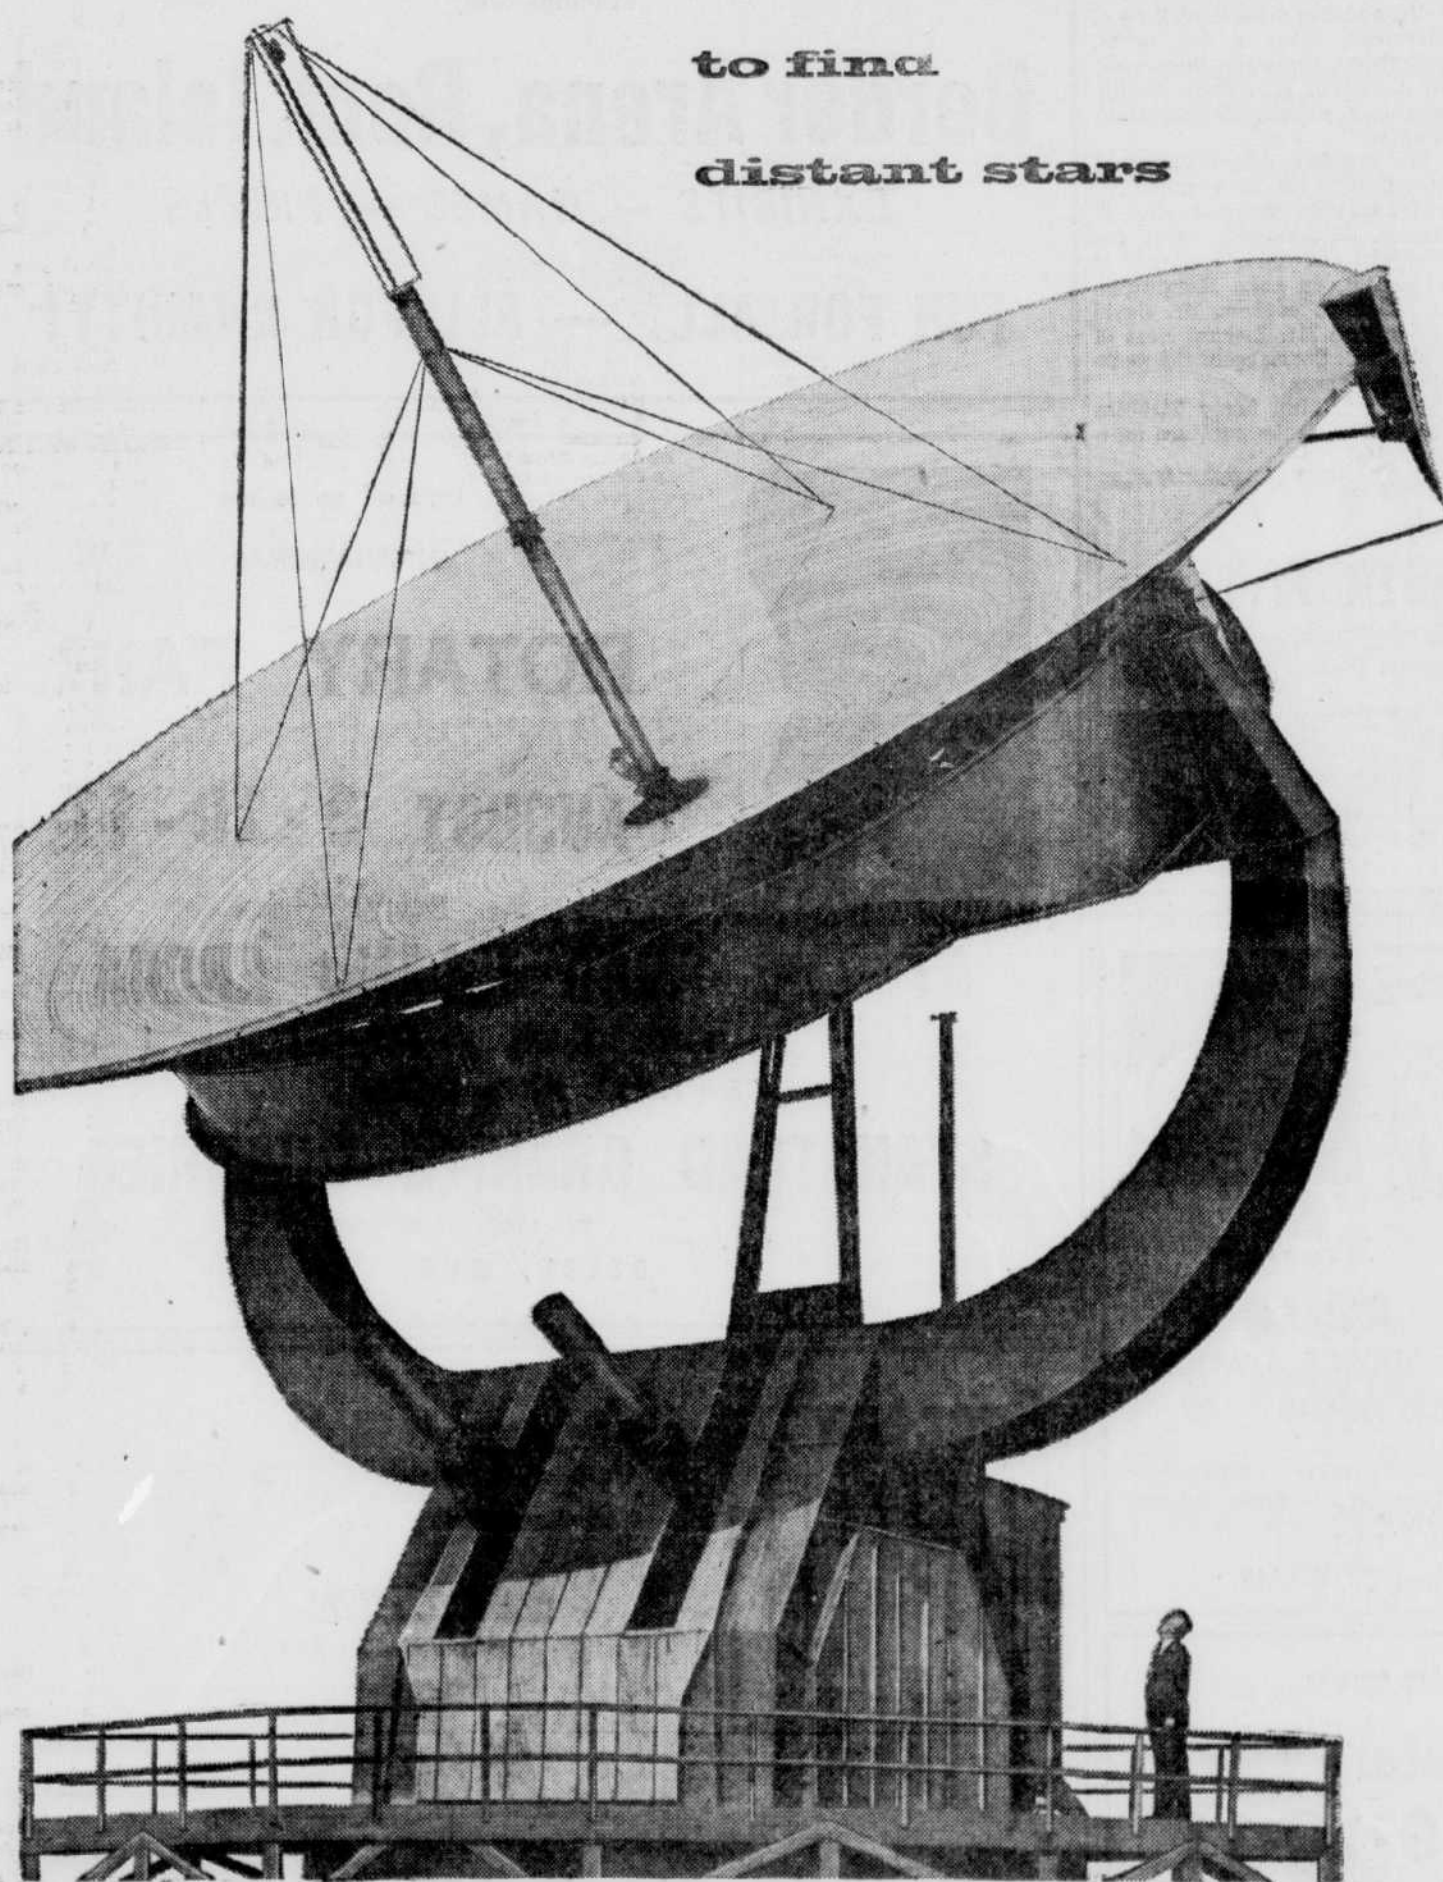

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkin were married in Minton on July 25, 1906, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Greeley Chapman performing the ceremony. This is the third time members of Mrs. Jenkin's immediate family have celebrated a golden wedding anniversary.

Light 600-inch radio telescope at Naval Observatory combs the heavens for signals from sun, moon and stars.

Out of millions of stars, the radio telescope can pick out the electronic whisper of even the most distant stars. In like manner the newspaper seeks out your nearby and distant customers; for the newspaper is also a giant—a giant who lives in every town.

With newspaper circulation hitting an all-time high, almost every person in this community is exposed to your advertising message—when you speak through the daily newspaper.

If you are a retailer, wholesaler or distributor, you can get more local action from your customers by using the most effective local advertising medium—your daily newspaper. Your ad, side by side with that of the company whose products you sell, attracts with magnetic certainty throughout town and countryside.

The newspaper is a giant who lives in your town and every town. Put it to work seeking out prospects and customers NOW!

Boundary Rotary Fair Proceeds Are Used To Assist The Needy

The number of calls for assistance of one kind or another that come to the Rotary Club of the Boundary during the course of a year are quite surprising, and it is the profits of the annual Boundary Fair that makes it possible to answer these calls.

Some of the requests are for milk or groceries, and some for aid to children, and some for assistance in medicine and medical expenses. So far as it is possible, every worthy request is answered, but the number that can be taken care of depends upon the results of the big yearly event, the Boundary Rotary Fair.

The 12th Annual Fair will be held at the Border Arena, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, August 9th, 10th and 11th, and every effort is being made to make the fair one of the most interesting and worth while of the club's history. All of the best features of past years will be present again in 1956, and there will be some new games and exhibits to add interest and excitement to the event.

Once again, it's "Fun for all — All for charity," at the Border Arena, and it is hoped that there will be even larger crowds present than last year.

The whole project depends upon the patronage of the public for its success. The Rotary Club of the Boundary is making every effort to make it attractive and worth attending, and there will be a vast quantity of prizes that everyone will want to take home with them.

During the years the Fair has been held, the plan has been to return just about one-half of the proceeds to the public in the form of prizes and awards, and to use the remaining half for the many charitable efforts of the local club.

Rotary Fair Will Open August 9th

The corny old game will be there. The big wheel will spin, and every time it spins someone will win a grand prize. There'll be cash to take home, hams and chickens for good eating, and all kinds of novelties, kitchenware, china and blankets.

Where? Why, at the 12th Annual Boundary Rotary Fair, of course! It will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, August 9th, 10th and 11th, at the Border Arena, Rock Island.

Once again the Arena will be ablaze with lights and color; there'll be the barker's calls at the booths, and there'll be your friends and neighbors walking around carrying the prizes and awards they have won at this big local event.

Some lucky person will have their choice of a 21 inch television set, a deep freeze, an automatic washer or dryer, or a high fidelity radio combination set. And there will be 22 cash awards as well.

It'll be "Fun for all—All for charity," at the Border Arena, August 9th, 10th and 11th, while the 12th Annual Boundary Rotary Fair is operating.

Hope to see you there!

Rotary Reading Room Is Still Popular

Just about the most popular room in the Boundary Communities is the Rotary Children's Room at the Haskell Free Library.

Fully equipped with chairs, tables and good lighting, the room features a wide selection of magazines for boys and girls, books, new and old, all carefully chosen for their quality and interest, as well as a plentiful supply of reference volumes to aid the young people in researches for their school work.

The circulation of books for young people has greatly increased since this room was started by the Rotary Club of the Boundary, and it has proved to be one of the most worthwhile ventures of the Club.

For five years, students from Ayer's Cliff Academy, Derby Academy and Stanstead College have been attending Model United Nations Assemblies at Plymouth

Teachers College, Plymouth, N.H. Each spring three-day sessions are held where the young people from New Hampshire, Vermont and Southern Quebec act as the actual delegates of the countries they have been assigned to represent. As a result of this effort, a much greater knowledge of the workings of the United Nations and of the difficulties of achieving a just and lasting peace have been imparted to several hundred high school students.

Aid to the Crippled Children's Camp at Ayer's Cliff has been given several times by the Rotary Club of the Boundary. This aid has been in cash for needed items at the camp and also to pay the expenses of children who might otherwise be unable to secure this important and valuable outing on Lake Massawippi.

The Boundary Swimming Project, which has been teaching boys and girls water safety for several years, is not a Rotary Club project, but assistance from the club has been given each year since the effort was started. It is more than possible that the project has saved the lives of several young people by teaching them to swim, to overcome their fear of water, and the value of water safety. The club is delighted to have been able to assist in this local project.

Help in the form of medicine and medical care, groceries and milk, clothing and fuel, are among the many things that the Rotary Club of the Boundary has been able to do thanks to the success of the Annual Boundary Rotary Fair.

There are many other projects and many requests for assistance. How much help can be given depends upon the success of the Annual Fair.

Don Newcombe Pitches Third Consecutive Shutout; Dodgers Win 3-0

Terrible Ted Williams Fined $5,000 For Spitting Incident At Boston; Team Owner Yawkey Admits Idea His

BOSTON (P) — Slugger Ted Williams spit defiance today at his $5,000 fine for spitting at Boston fans-heaviest impost in major league history.

"I'd spit again at the same people who booed me today," the Red Sox great said Tuesday night after being informed of the levy.

The $100,000-a-year man logged a new item in his long list of records for his most recent saliva salvo which occurred after he put a fielding error and fielding gem back to back in the 11th inning against New York Tuesday.

Although the announcement was made some 90 minutes after the game by general manager Joe Cronin, club owner Tom Yawkey later revealed in New York "I instigated it" after a phone conversation with Cronin. "It's got to stop, that's all," was Yawkey's comment.

For Williams, the "splendid splinter" turned "splendid spitter," it was a severe rebuke from the South Carolina millionaire-lumberman who has given Ted a blank check and a free hand for years.

Williams indicated his spitting campaign may be at an end by saying:

"I wouldn't be at the ball park tomorrow if I could stand a fine of $5,000 a day."

Asked if this would be his last season as a player, the fuming Williams added: "probably."

Only New York's immortal Babe Ruth drew a like $5,000 fine from manager Miller Huggins in 1925 and it was repaid later to the Bambino. Ruth was penalized for not reporting to the club for two days in St. Louis and for showing up late the third day.

The temperamental, high-strung athlete-once known as "the Kid" but now only two weeks away from 38-always has revolted at criticism.

Tuesday, with two out in the Yankee half of the 11th inning, Ted misjudged Mickey Mantle's fly ball which bounced off his glove for a two base error. The stands rocked with thundering boos from most of 36,350 fans-the largest crowd since World War II.

Then Terrible Ted leaped against the scoreboard to catch Yogi Berra's drive to end the threat and keep the game a scoreless deadlock.

As he approached the dugout, Williams spat in the direction of the crowd several times.

When Ted walked with the bases loaded to force in the winning run in the Sox half of the 11th, he threw his bat high in the air in a gesture of disgust. Next to critical fans and sports writers, baseball's greatest natural hater hates bases on balls the most.

The game umpires said they were going to include the bat-throwing episode in their reports to American League president Will Harridge.

From Chicago, Harridge did not indicate whether the league would add another fine to the Williams woes.

Tempestuous Ted's performance followed similar spitting episodes July 17 when he hit his 400th major league home run and July 20 on Cronin Hall of Fame night at Fenway Park.

Leafs Top Royals In 12-Inning Duel

Toronto Maple Leafs, currently leading the International League, think nothing of making up ground in a ball game, as the Montreal Royals found out to their regret Tuesday night.

For the third time in a row the Leafs overcame a deficit against the Royals to win. The score was 5-4 in a 12-inning, 3½-hour marathon.

The Royals had a 3-2 margin going into the last of the eighth, but the Leafs tied it. In the 12th the Royals went ahead again, only to see the Leafs score twice when pinch-hitter Eddie Blake drove in the tying run with a double and Loren Babe followed with a single for the winning marker.

Miami Marlins moved up into second place, two games behind the Leafs, by downing Columbus Jets 6-2 before a charity crowd of 51,713 while Rochester Red Wings were taking a 1-0 defeat at the hands of Buffalo Bisons. Havana turned back Richmond 6-5 in the other game.

Ancient Satchel Paige recorded his ninth victory for the Marlins against three defeats, although he needed help in the eighth. He also helped his own cause with a bases-loaded double in the second.

Karl Drews shackled the Red Wings every time they got a man in scoring position—and that was plenty. He was tagged for 10 hits. Joe Caffie hit a home run off Duke Markell in the seventh to break it up.

Football Player Doubles As Stunt Man In Movies; Late For Lions' Camp

VANCOUVER — Guard Roy Jensen must be excused if he was a little late reporting to British Columbia Lions of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

He was busy buttoning the lip of a shark.

The 29-year-old sun-bleached blond is a Canadian on a technicality—he was born in Calgary but moved to the United States in 1933. Last year he played centre for Calgary Stampeders of the WFL.

Throughout his college career at UCLA—and since, he has been earning a living part time as a movie stunt man in Hollywood, specializing in under-water scenes.

That's how come he is a little tardy reporting to Lions—he was busy on location in Cuba, doubling for Victor Mature.

Every day, Roy says, he and another stunt man went into an underwater pen, caught a shark, sewed up its mouth so it could be used in scenes and then later undid the tatting.

Tougher was his doubling for movie heavy Jack Palance, when he had to fall off a cliff. There was a six-by-four net about 40 feet down. Below that was 200 feet of air.

"I was a little nervous about that one."

"But I got to see the world. After the football season I go to Australia to make a couple of pictures, one of them a science fiction job."

Why is he playing football? "M-O-N-E-Y." He spelled it out.

Giants' Big Guns Of 1951 All With Other NL Teams

CINCINNATI — (P) — With Cincinnati's acquisition of Larry Jansen, the six key players of New York Giants' "miracle pennant" drive of 1951 now are with other National League clubs.

The list reads: Jansen with Cincinnati, Sal Maglie with Brooklyn, Bobby Thomson with Milwaukee, Monte Irvin with Chicago, and Al Dark and Whitey Lockman with St. Louis. Jansen and Maglie each won 23 games in 1951 while Thomson, Irvin, Dark and Lockman provided most of the clutch hitting that enabled the Giants to overcome Brooklyn's 13½ game lead in the last six weeks of the season.

Bears Down Wings Meet Royals For Title Thursday

The Bears and the Royals will meet for the P.O.N.Y. League championship Thursday night as the result of a 17-0 whitewash given the Wings by the Bears last night in Lennoxville.

The game featured some outstanding hurling by the Bears' Wayne Nugent who allowed only two hits, striking out 15 opponents.

Big inning for the winners was the fourth when the Bears pushed across nine runs to make the score 15-0. They garnered two more in the fifth.

Graydon Stronach and George Tolhurst each got three hits and receiver Larry Dorey homered in the fifth.

Saxton Easily Whips Allison

BOSTON — (P) — Welterweight king Johnny Saxton, tuning up for a championship clash with Carmen Basilio next month, gave willing Barry Allison of Springfield, Mass., a boxing lesson Tuesday night for a unanimous decision in a non-title 10-rounder at the arena. Both fighters weighed 152.

White Sox Rally To Beat Indians In Little League

White Sox consolidated their hold on top spot in the Little League when they downed Indians 5-2 at the Parade Grounds last night. White Sox had to come from behind to take the game as the Indians had a two run lead going into the fourth inning. Tonight the Red Sox meet the Indians. Game time 6:15 p.m.

One hit and two errors paved the way for the Indians. Two runs in the first inning, then both teams went scoreless in the next two stanzas as Finlay and Gregoire, the respective pitchers, had the batters well under control. Two smart double plays in these innings over by Hamel the Indian short-stop, and the other by Ogonoski second baseman for the White Sox kept the score down.

White Sox broke into the scoring column in their part of the fourth inning and then in a big Ogonoski hit a triple in this inning sending in three runs, a single by Finlay was responsible for the other tally.

Finlay in his victory allowed only four hits while his counterpart on the mound for the Indians allowed seven scattered hits. Both teams played heads-up ball and every man was a star. Indians 200 000—2 4 1
White Sox 000 14x—5 7 1
Gregoire and Boisvert, Finlay and Fahl.

Wins 17th Game; Maglie, Lee Only Pitchers Hurling Four Shutouts; Yankees Lose 1-0 Against Boston

Big Don Newcombe is closing in on his second straight 20-victory season and now is within reach of two shutout records while helping Brooklyn's Dodgers keep the pressure on Milwaukee in the National League race.

Newk, winning his 17th of the season and eighth in a row, hung up his third consecutive shutout — stretching his scoreless-inning string to 33 — by blanking Pittsburgh 3-0 Tuesday night.

The National League record for consecutive shutouts is four and it's been accomplished by only two modern-era pitchers—Bill Lee with the Chicago Cubs in 1938 and Sal Maglie, now a Dodger, with the New York Giants in 1950.

The NL record for consecutive scoreless innings is 46 1-3 by Carl Hubbell of the Giants in 1933. Maglie, incidentally, got as far as 45 in 1950.

Newk's victory kept the world champs within 1½ games of the Braves, who belted the Chicago Cubs 6-1. Third place Cincinnati fell three games back, losing to St. Louis 8-4. Philadelphia, hottest club in the league, made it five straight and nine out of 10 by sweeping the Giants 4-3 and 3-1 in a two-night doubleheader.

American League headlines centered on Ted Williams, fined $5,000 by Boston general manager Joe Cronin for another spitting skirmish, as the Red Sox clipped the New York Yankees 1-0 in 11 innings on Ted's bases-loaded walk. The defeat, seventh in eight games, trimmed the Yankees lead to seven games over Cleveland as the Indians scored a 5-2 victory over Detroit. The Chicago White Sox defeated Kansas City 5-4 and 4-3 in a pair of 10-inning contests in the only other action scheduled.

Williams' fine, matching the record $5,000 Babe Ruth paid the Yankees in 1925 for breaking training, came when he spit at the Fenway Park fans after they booed his error on a fly ball. Tommy Byrne gave up the walk, after relieving Don Larsen.

Semi-Finals Open In Richmond League With All Six Teams Participating

RICHMOND — (Special) — A good game of softball will draw a good crowd as witness the triple treat given about 150 fans Sunday afternoon at the fair grounds when the Richmond Softball League got its semi-finals underway.

Three games were played and saw Dow, Molson and Brown Shoe coming off with the first victories of the playoffs. Dow won the first game over Bell Telephone 12-10 to take the first of a best-of-five series. Though the Telephone boys lost, they brought a thrill to the crowd and excitement when they used a thirteen year old youngster in center-field who probably stole the show. Young Jeffrey Mills, playing his first game with the Bell, made four fine catches in the outfield; he had caught pop-ups by Rollie Bissonnette, who was put out three times in a row by the youngster and Jean Marcotte went down the same way. Mills is a promising ball player and should go a long way judging by the way he played for the Bell. He was 0-for-2, having scored once and passed three times by hurler Bob Beaudet of the Dow.

Wayne Crack, a team-mate, had two-for-four and slammed a homer in the sixth inning with three on base. Dow led 12-5 at the time and Crack's homer helped his team to come from behind. They scored five runs in that inning but failed to count in the seventh to increase their margin.

Romeo Carrier, playing-coach for Dow had two-for-three with Rodrigue Cabana, Gilles Cabana and Real Marcotte two-for-four. Beaudet went six innings for Dow hurling a four-hitter, fanning seven and walking a total 15 men. Roger Desrosiers hurled the seventh facing only four men. He walked one of them. Connie Pariseau of Bell allowed 11 hits, fanned 4 and walked 6.

Molson's ran away with their first game with Duchess when they blasted Den Bouchard for eight hits in the third inning, scoring twelve runs. The shoe boys couldn't keep up to the brewery crew after that and got only seven hits off hurler Doug Gleason, losing 26-10. Errors proved costly to the Duchess squad in this game as they relinquished twenty-one hits to the brewery boys. Gleason had two strike-outs and walked six going the distance for Molson. Sylvio Viens started for Duchess but had to leave after he hurt his hand in the second inning. Bouchard then took over and finished the game. Viens allowed eight hits, fanned one and walked four while Bouchard gave up thirteen hits, fanned and walked one man.

The third game, which got underway after six p.m., had Legion dropping a close 8-6 decision to the Brown Shoe. The shoe boys led all the way and Legion couldn't break their armor. A few errors were costly and a homer proved little help to the Gregorymen. On the other hand, Bouchard's boys kept up their smart plays to hold back Legion and two homers helped their cause.

Maurice Paquette went the distance for the shoe boys, fanning nine hits, walking one and striking out three. The shoe boys won 8-6.

Run Hambletonian This Afternoon; Egyptian Princess Still Favorite

GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP)—Egyptian Princess was favored to become the tenth filly to win the Hambletonian when a "cavalry charge" field of 20 trotters battle it out today at Good Time Park in the famed three-year-old classic.

It is the third largest field in the history of the race, and the 31st Hambletonian will have a gross purse of $100,603.99, with the first horse to win two heats earning the top prize of $59,155.15.

Hanging over the scene was the future of the Corn Tassel Derby, which has been raced at Goshen since 1930. Bill Cane, who died last March, was the guiding light in the event, and his estate was to sponsor the Hambletonian in 1957.

Tracks in Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and elsewhere are bidding for the race, but the seven New York state trotting tracks will ask the Hambletonian society Wednesday to keep the race in Goshen. These tracks will offer to sponsor the race on the same contract basis as Cane had operated in the past.

Egyptian Princess is one of the fastest three-year-old fillies ever developed, and when the first one mile heat of the Hambletonian starts at 4 p.m. ADT, she is expected to be an even money choice.

Earle Avery of Woodstock, N. B. drives her from the favorable No. 3 post, as 10 horses will start in two tiers behind the mobile gate. Another heat follows an hour later, and if the Princess wins both, it will all be over.

Three other highly regarded contenders are Saboteur, from the Arden Homestead Stable of E. Roland Harriman, and Elbridge T. Gerry, Goshen; Nimble Colby, owned by Leo McNamara, Two Gaits Farm, Indianapolis; and Ego Hanover, pride of Mrs. Cecile Goosman, Mountain Lakes, N. J.

Nimble Colby is the other filly in the race, and the last miss to grab the big trot was Helicopter in 1953.

Egyptian Princess is the star of the Clearview Stable of Norman and Fred Woolworth, brothers from Winthrop, Maine.

Fire Engine To Follow Olympic Torch To Site

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—A fire engine will follow the Olympic torch on its journey across Australia in November to make sure the flame does not touch off forest fires, Olympic planners announced Tuesday.

Plans for the precautions were reported by Dick Reddy, organizer of the torch relay who has just returned from a tour of the over-land course—longest in Olympic history.

Five iron most valuable
For both accuracy and distance, the 5 iron is the most valuable club in the bag.

As with all irons, you must have confidence in its ability to do the job. Hit down on the ball and let the club do its work.

The 5 iron is used for a wide variety of shots. It is excellent against the wind. Many frequently use it from the tee on shorter holes.

Play the 5 iron from squarely between the feet. The body is erect, weight evenly distributed. The arms hang away from the body. The stance is slightly open. The clubhead is laid behind the ball.

Play the club with a firm grip, the left arm straight, the right elbow close to the side. If the right elbow is allowed to rise, it will overpower the left arm and ruin the shot.

Contrary to common impression, it is not necessary to grip the irons any tighter than woods. Some seem to have the idea that, because many iron shots are played from cuppy lies or deep grass and the club comes in contact with the ground, irons require a tighter grip. Nothing could be more harmful. (NEA).

Ont. Favored To Cop Team Trophy From BC

WINNIPEG (AP)—Ontario headed by defending open and close golf champion Marlene Stewart of Fonthill, will be favored to wrest the women's four-member interprovincial team championship from British Columbia when the 36-hole test is played over Winnipeg's Niakwa course tomorrow and Friday.

B.C. captured the 1955 championship with a total score of 679 over the tough Royal Coldwood course at Victoria, breaking Ontario's hold on the title. The interprovincial contest is played in conjunction with the 54-hole Canadian women's close championship which winds up Saturday.

Scores Friday and Saturday in the close also decide the amateur junior championship, won last year by Noreen Laing of Port Credit, Ont., who is back to defend her title. The open championship, with several entries from the United States, will be played Monday to Saturday next week.

With Miss Stewart shooting brilliant golf to capture the U.S. intercollegiate championship this summer, and playing consistently since then, Ontario has an edge over the remainder of the field—Alberta, B.C., Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

URGE SUSPENSION OF BOXING OFFICIALS

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—A special state investigating committee today urged drastic changes in control of boxing in California and recommended revoking the licenses of some of the biggest figures in what it called a gangster-ridden sport.

The special committee, appointed by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, landed its heaviest blows on matchmaker Babe McCoy and promoter Cal Eaton, both of Los Angeles, and promoter Jimmy Murray of Oakland.

The three were characterized as dictators in their areas and were accused of associating with underworld figures.

Jealousy Blamed For Poisoning Of Dog Team

HULL, Que.—(AP)—Gilles Dupont, prominent western Quebec musher, Tuesday night said some jealous persons are responsible for the death, believed by strychnine poisoning, of this team of 12 sled dogs.

The bodies of 11 dogs were found by Dupont when he went to feed them Sunday afternoon. The 12th was found writhing in pain and died Monday.

Quebec provincial police are investigating the apparent poisoning of the team valued at $2,000.

"It was jealousy," Dupont told reporters. "It was someone who knew I had a real good team coming up for the races next winter."

Police awaiting reports of a laboratory analysis said it is thought that strychnine likely was used to poison the dogs. It was believed fed to them in ground meat.

of McCoy the report said. "He is truly representative of all that is wrong with boxing today. All of us who worked on this project have had experience in law enforcement, and in the course of such employment have known and dealt with criminals. McCoy is as vicious as any of us have encountered."

The report urged both McCoy and Eaton be booted out of boxing and forbidden even to visit training camps. Eaton is the father of Robert Eaton, who is married to Gov. Knight's daughter.

In Los Angeles, McCoy and Eaton learned of the report in advance and issued denials for simultaneous release with the report.

Both indicated they would fight in court any move to revoke their licenses.

Eaton said: "The accusations are made out of whole cloth and have no basis in fact."

The report described promoter Murray as "representative of the worst element in boxing."

Sid Flaherty, manager of former middleweight champion

Carl "Bobo" Olson, heavyweight contender Eddie Machen and other fighters, was criticized, but only a fine was recommended in his case.

The committee recommended he be given a "reasonable time" to decide whether he wants to be a manager or a promoter.

Twenty-six persons were listed in the recommendations for license revocations.

Accusations ranged from fixing to cheating boxers, criminal backgrounds, and illegal combinations of managers and promoters.
