BREAKS A CONTRACT WITH MR. FONTAINE

Harbor Board Will Also Refund $4,270.50 Which is Holds as Security.

94—Dept. of Agriculture Archives Branch 31 Dec. '02

MR. ST. LAURENT REPORT. SHORE WHARF COMPL.

Mr. Kennedy Submits Statemen Showing What is Needed the Coming Year On the River Front.

The Harbor Board at the regular meeting to-day decided to allow Mr. R. Fontaine, stone contractor, to break his contract with the Board for supplying various kinds of stone and to refund him $4,270.50, which it still holds of his deposit.

Before deciding to give him such a right there was a lengthy discussion on the advisability of doing so. Mr. McPhee was of the opinion that it was creating a bad precedent.

The Mayor pointed out that Mr. Fontaine had tried hard to carry out his contract but that the conditions that were realized after he had accepted the contract had been such that it had been impossible for him to do so. He had lost money by trying to carry out his contract and the Board should not withhold his deposit from him.

Mr. Reford said that while he was sorry for Mr. Fontaine he could not support the proposal.

The motion to allow Mr. Fontaine to break the contract was carried, Messrs. McPhee, Crathern and Reford dissenting.

Shore Wharf Completed.

A report received from Mr. A. St. Laurent, Government engineer, reported that work on the shore wharf had been completed and that it was now ready for inspection.

It was decided to accept the report and not inspect the wharf in order that the engineers may be held responsible for the work. The wharf cost in all $95,000.

Another report from Mr. St. Laurent stated that he considered the price of $2,025, asked by the Steel Storage and Construction Company for the change in the system of lighting wire in the elevator, was too high.

Mr. Kennedy said that he had had a conversation with Mr. St. Laurent and that the latter had expressed the opinion that it was not necessary to change the system in the building.

Mr. Kennedy submitted a report showing the purposes for which lumber will be needed during the coming year. These included the construction of new wharfs and different extensions. No estimate was given of the amount that would be necessary.

Report by Mr. Kennedy.

Another report from Mr. Kennedy showed that for the approaching year 17,500 tons of macadamizing stone and 5,000 tons of concrete would be required.

Mr. Bickerdike thought it would be better policy not to call for tenders, but to make purchases when the material was needed. The system of tenders showed that when price advanced the companies broke their contracts and the Board did not get anything, while when prices went down the Board had to look on and see themselves sustaining an additional loss.

A letter was received from the agents of the steamer Hektos stating that a report of the collision of the Hektos and Sophia had been sent to the department of Marine and Fisheries and an investigation requested.

QUESTION OF INSURING ELEVATOR IS DISCUSSED

Chief Engineer Kennedy Brings Up the Matter at Meeting of the Harbor Board.

The question of insuring the steel elevator on the water front was discussed at the meeting of the Harbor Board to-day.

The discussion was started in a statement by Mr. John Kennedy, Chief Engineer, who said he did not consider there was any necessity of paying any insurance on it. Similar elevators were not insured in the States.

Mr. Reford wanted to know if no insurance whatever had been placed on the building up to the present time. He thought there should be some insurance on it.

Nobody knew whether the contractors had secured insurance on it, and the chairman remarked that the proper time to take the matter up would be when the building was handed over to the Board by the contractors.

Mr. Doran wanted the secretary to ascertain the rules of the Underwriters' Association with regard to the insuring of the building.

Mr. Crathern wanted to have the contractors transfer all insurance policies they might have to the Harbor Board.

Pending the action of the secretary no further action was taken.

FRAPPIER HELD FOR ENQUETE.

Frank Frappier, a former foreman in the C.P.R., alleged to have falsified pay rolls and defrauded the company out of $150, has return to Montreal. He was arrested in September by Detective O. Malo, of the Mercantile Agency, and when brought up pleaded not guilty and was allowed bail. He jumped the bond and went to New York where he was located by C. P. R. Detective Crowe, and decided not to fight extradition. He was brought before Judge Lefontaine and remanded for enquete. Bail was refused.

HALF-MINUTE INTERVIEWS

Ald. Rumbray—I shall move for a reduction in the number of police stations. This will do away with a large number of officers.

Mr. Robert Rickerdike—The present season will prove the heaviest on record for insurance losses sustained on cattle shipped from this port.

Ald. Laporte—The military training school delegation will endeavor to effect an arrangement, while in Ottawa, for the policing of the harbor front. The responsibility must be definitely fixed for the future.

Mr. G. H. Mathewson, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce—As yet Canada has not in any way felt the financial depression existing in the States. No difficulty apparently is being experienced by the different firms in meeting all notes.

MME. ADELINA PATTI REACHES MONTREAL ON FAREWELL TOUR

Diva Says She is Pleased to Return to This City After Her Long Absence and Chats Pleasantly of Former Visits.

Mme. Adelina Patti, the Baroness Cederstrom, arrived in Montreal this morning at 9 o'clock over the Grand Trunk, Delaware & Hudson and West Shore roads from Philadelphia. The diva came as a princess might come, companied by a retinue of servants, a companion, two maids, several cooks and body servants, and her husband, Baron Cederstrom, and a valet.

Albeit she travels in her own private car, the "Craig-y-Nos," named after her castle in Wales, which, by the way, Mme. Patti pronounces with a striking accent as "Krayg-e-no."

This is Madame Patti's fifth visit to Montreal, and it may be interesting to note how a representative of The Herald saw her this morning and how she appears after almost half a century's efforts in pleasing the public.

The Herald representative saw Patti without her make-up—beyond the calcium, the music, the lights and the surroundings that combine with her marvellous art to make her the most famous figure before the amusement-loving public.

Madame Patti Is Active.

Patti was seen in her private car, accompanied by her companion, Mrs. Beard, of London, Eng., and when the press representatives were introduced they found her at work crocheting a pattern on a background of pink flannel—a simple drop-stitch pattern that a girl could possibly emulate successfully.

The famous diva received them cordially, and at the outset expressed her pleasure at being again in Canada, again in Montreal, a city of which she treasures the kindest memories.

Though rumor has it that Mme. Patti is sixty years of age, she certainly carries her years lightly, but her figure, the exquisite figure which was always a wonder, retains its youth, and in movement, verve and spirit Patti is still a young woman in the first bloom of youth.

Animation sparkles and radiates from every feature, and she retains all the charm of manner that in years gone by pleased wherever shown.

Madame Patti was exceptionally gracious to the Montreal newspapermen and, in a manner that was at once characteristic of her gentle, whole-souled self, she proceeded to put them at their ease.

Pleased to See Canadians.

"I am glad to see you," she said, "first, because you are the first representative Canadians I have seen."

Madame shuddered and shrugged her shoulders in a manner that spoke of her displeasure in her experience with the New York and Philadelphia press representatives.

"I am glad to be in America again, because, you know, I first appeared here, and I have a warm feeling for this country ever since. Some of the happiest days have been spent here, and I am honestly glad to be back."

"Have you any message for the people of Montreal, for the people of Canada?"

"Tell them for me that I am glad to be with them again," said Madame Patti, "and that this time I say good-bye you know."

And the famous cantatrice accompanied her remark with a delightfully cordial farewell handshake.

En passant Mme. Patti had some kind words to saye of Mme. Albani the Canadian prima donna, whom Patti summed up as "a beautiful artist and a charming companion."

Will Wear Famous Jewels.

Mrs. Beard, who accompanies Patti went into ecstacies over the singer's jewels.

"At her concert to-morrow night" said Mrs. Beard "Mme. Patti will wear some of her decorations. These will include the diamond crown presented to her by the King of Sweden and pinned upon madame's breast by Her Majesty the Queen of Sweden; the Russian diamond studded gold medal, presented to her by Alexander II. of Russia, in person and which is unique because Mme. Patti is the only artiste who wears it, and the ribbon of St. Andre, which, with the medal constitutes the highest recognition in the gift of Russia; the famous French trophy 'Les Palmes,' the invaluable jewel given her by the King of the Sandwich Islands; the 'ville de prusselle' a personal honor from the King of Belgium; and last but most dearly prized, the jewelled initials 'V.R.I.' presented by Queen Victoria.

Fearful of Woolly West.

"But we did not bring them all. Oh, dear no!" naively continued Mrs. Beard "You see our tour includes Chicago, Kansas City, Butte City and other places in the wild west and we might be held up. Who knows what might happen?" added Mrs. Beard, as nervous as a school girl over the possibility of Patti being forcibly relieved of any of her gems.

Mme. Patti will sing in the Arena to-morrow evening and will remain in Montreal until Saturday. Her American tour includes 60 concerts and will last until April.

"After that" said Mrs. Beard, "she will return to Craig-y-Nos, and go into absolute retirement."

When The Herald man left the car the press agent outside solemnly informed him that this was "really and truly Patti's farewell tour."

CANADA HOSTILE TO GREAT BRITAIN

Chronicle Thinks There is Passive Hostility and Discusses Annexation.

(Canadian Associated Press.)

London, November 11.—The Chronicle asks: Is there a Separatist party growing up in Canada? The question is suggested by the frequency with which sentiments of "Passive hostility" to British rule find expression directly or covertly—in certain sections of the Canadian press in the propaganda of some Canadian organizations and in the utterances of some public men in the Dominion.

The Chronicle also publishes a communication from the president of the Canadian National League extolling the rebels of 1837, but the Chronicle does not believe the extreme opinions of the league would receive endorsement from any large number of Canadians, especially if Mr. Chamberlain's policy was carried through.

AN ANGLICAN HERESY

Archdeacon Madden Expresses Some Interesting Opinions.

(Canadian Associated Press.)

London, Nov. 11. Archdeacon Madden, who has just returned from Canada, says he thinks that, politically, the Dominion is strongly loyalist, leading citizens realized that the British Government, as represented by Lord Alverstone, would not sacrifice the interests of any British colony for the sake of gaining popularity in the United States; few newspapers talked about independence though some did about annexation; but the annexation cry is dead, and no sensible statesman thought independence within the sphere of practical politics.

The educational system impressed him with its thoroughness. One complaint he heard on every side was that of there being no religious teaching. One minister of education had informed him that the Bible was not practically unrecognized in the schools but it was an unknown book in the houses of the present generation.

Regarding the religious aspect Canadians, he thought, were the most religiously earnest of all British subjects. The Presbyterian clergy were well paid and housed comfortably. Methodists come next, and the Anglican Church only third. Archdeacon Madden urges young men to emigrate to the North-west farm lands.

MR. AMES OFFERS $87,000.

But the Liquidators of the Atlas Co. Think It Is Not Enough.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 11.—There was no continuation before the Master of the examination of Mr. A. E. Ames in the proceedings to wind up the Atlas Loan Co. It is understood that negotiations are going on towards a settlement of the claim against Ames. The liquidator put in a claim for $406,000. Ames admitted $50,603. There was also a dispute against the transfer of $203,000 from three accounts—A. E. Wallace, No. 1; J. W. Eddy, No. 2, and the Atlas Loan trustees' account to the savings account of the Atlas Loan Company. It is understood that Mr. Ames' offer is less than $100,000—$87,000 is mentioned—but the liquidator thinks it is not enough. The case comes up again to-day.

FATHER IS TURNED AWAY FROM COURT

Mr. Kert Not Allowed to Attend Hearing in the Murder Case.

LOUIS BOURET IS AGAIN UNDER HOT CROSS FIRE

Chief Witness at Murder Trial Unable to Remember Things and Persons After the Shooting.

All witnesses, including Isaac Kert, father of the accused, who has been a regular attendant from the beginning of the case, were excluded from the court room at the Kert murder trial this morning.

This step was taken in the middle of the morning, when Louis Bouret, the chief witness, was under cross-examination by Mr. J. N. Greenshields.

Crown Prosecutor Cooke called the attention of the court to the fact that certain witnesses for the defence were present, and asked that they be excluded.

After hearing both sides, Judge Hall ordered the witnesses to be brought to the floor and after the roll had been called they were told to withdraw. The judge remarked that it was hard to ask the father of the accused to leave, but it was necessary because evidence was being given that might affect his testimony.

Mr. Greenshields said it was the first time in Canada that a father had been excluded when his son was being tried for his life.

Louis Bouret on Stand.

Louis Bouret was in the box all day yesterday and in his evidence at the afternoon session he told about calling at local detective headquarters and seeing Detective McLaughlin. Witness could not say where he talked with Mr. McLaughlin, or what he talked about.

When the Court of King's Bench resumed this morning, Bouret was again placed in the box and Mr. Greenshields continued his cross-examination.

Questioned by counsel for the defence, Bouret declared he did not remember anything Mr. Jacobs said at his office when witness called on day of inquest.

Later he remarked that Mr. Jacobs had given him a paper and said "Come there at 7 o'clock."

Witness could not read and did not know that word "college" in the paper was wrongly spelled, and denied that he had manufactured the paper since.

Bouret told the court that he did not know why he was asked to go to Mr. Jacobs' house. Later he said that he had been told by both Mr. Jacobs and the accused that he would be given some money there.

The evidence given by Bouret in the police court was produced, showing him to have sworn that accused was not present.

Cannot Remember Things.

Cross-examined by Mr. Greenshields, witness remarked that he did not know which was the accused, father or son.

Bouret told how he had gone with his brother-in-law to Mr. Jacobs' house at the hour appointed. He presented the slip of paper and received $5.

Asked if he had said anything to Mr. Jacobs, he replied he might have said good-night.

Witness did not look at money until he went outdoors, and he remarked to his brother-in-law that it was worth $5 to walk up there.

Witness did not know why he received the money, or whether it was a bribe to keep quiet.

The court then adjourned until this afternoon.

J. H. S. M'CLURE ABOUT TO LEAVE BRITANNIA F.C.

He Believes that the Montreal Club Will Do More for the English Game.

The Montreal Football Club, in their match with the Argonauts at Toronto on Saturday, may experience some difficulty in getting all their men to make the journey, in which case J. H. S. McClure, of the Britannias, may be one of the players to assist them. McClure intends to join the Montreal club, and gave as his reason that there seemed more disposition on the part of their members to further the English game than was the case with the Britannias.

If, after meeting this evening, it is decided to commence the competition for the Dunville Trophy under English rules on Saturday first, McClure will stay in Montreal and captain his side in the match with Westmount.

The old Greenock Wanderer player, who took the Canadian team to the old country last year, will be a valuable addition to the ranks of the Montreal club. He is one of the most useful men in the city.

GIVES MUCH WATER TO POOR.

Treasurer Robb Says City's Gifts Amount to $50,000 a Year.

"The city gives free to the poorer people of Montreal $50,000 of water every year," said City Treasurer Robb to-day, in commenting upon a local paper's regrets that water taxes existed.

"The tax cannot be such a burden, when the average cost to the people referred to is scarcely 1 1-2 cents a day."

The water tax department has been overrun for the last three days with people anxious to pay their rates, and prevent their supply from being cut off. Eleven men are now making the rounds, shutting off the water of those in arrears, and the absence of the daily necessary is having a marked influence in making people pay up.

NOTARIES CANNOT CHARGE THE LEGAL TARIFF IN CERTAIN CASES

Justice Lynch Reduced a Bill of $1,900 to $342 Because Notary Had Not Confirmed Cadastral Numbers.

Sweetsburg, Que., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—A judgment of more than ordinary interest to the members of the notarial profession in this province was delivered yesterday by Mr. Justice Lynch, presiding over the Superior Court for the district of Bedford.

Last spring negotiations were opened by a syndicate composed of Quebec and Nova Scotia capitalists, for the purpose of acquiring the whole of the Magdalen Islands situated in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, with a view to exploiting the valuable mineral properties situated on the islands.

The Magdalen Islands were originally in 1790 granted letters patent of King George III. to the late Sir Isaac Coffin, an admiral of the British Navy, in recognition of his services, in whose family the property remained until last spring. The great grandchildren of Sir Isaac Coffin were the substitutes under his will, and by deed of sale transferred their rights in the islands to the syndicate for the sum of $102,000, taking a mortgage back for $70,000, the difference being paid in cash.

It was in connection with the passing of these deeds that the plaintiff, Mr. C. U. R. Tartre, N.P., of Sutton, Que., was retained by the defendants' members of the syndicate to receive the signatures of the Coffin heirs. The original drafts of the documents were prepared by Messrs. Larue and Larue, the leading notarial firm of Quebec city, and sent to the plaintiff to be executed at Sutton, where the Coffins now reside. The plaintiff claimed by his action the sum of about $1,900 as fees under the notarial tarif now in force for his services, in receiving the signatures of the vendors, which occupied in all from a Saturday afternoon until the following Wednesday.

The two main items of the account were for some seven or eight hundred dollars each, being fifty cents per each cadastral number contained in the deeds of sale and obligation, which numbered over 1,400 lots in each.

The plaintiff contended that item 28 of the notarial tariff of the province justified his account in respect to the extra charge for the cadastral numbers.

The defendants tendered the sum of $300 before the institution of the action and renewed the tender with their plea, in which they alleged that the prevailing customs among the notaries of the province is not to charge the tariff rates and that if the plaintiff had intended basing his account against them upon the strict reading of the different items of the tariff he should have notified them beforehand.

The learned judge, in delivering his judgment, drew attention to the open door left by the notarial tariff for exorbitant charges by notaries, and ruled that unless the notary had himself ascertained and verified the correctness of the cadastral numbers contained in the deeds he could not recover the 50 cents per number claimed by him.

Defendants' tender of $300 was, however, declared insufficient, the other items of the plaintiff's bill being allowed up to the sum of $342.

It is understood that a number of the notaries of the province are interested in this case and will carry it to the higher courts.

WINSTON CHURCHILL has gone to board Joe Chamberlain in his den. Sic 'im Winse. Sic 'im Joe.

Our Man With the Cons.

Close onto 136,600 people crowded into the Monument Nationale last night to hear the glorious principles of the Con. party as laid down by Mr. Tarte.

Mr. Borden and Mr. Monk also spoke.

The vast audience broke into mighty cheers as Mr. Monk and Mr. Tarte fell upon each other's necks and wept.

In a masterly and scathing expose of the Liberal party, Mr. Tarte, with honeyed breath, pointed out that when he was in the Government the total trade of Canada amounted to $165,412,602,701,944. Since he left it has DECREASED until it is a paltry 46 cents. (Mighty cheers.)

After proving to the satisfaction of all that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was responsible for the poor condition of the drinking water, Mr. Tarte aroused grand enthusiasm by advocating a tariff that will afford the doughnut manufacturers ample protection.

He pointed out that under the British preference $6,000,000 worth of English cheap labor doughnuts are imported into Canada, whereas this trade (great cheers) should (great cheers) be protected. (Great cheers.) Doughnuts for the Canadians was his motto. (Great cheers.)

A magnificent speech was made by Mr. Borden, who spoke in English, French and Chinese.

Calling upon his stock of reserve force, which accompanied him from Halifax in 6 special trains, he roused the grand audience to a tremendous pitch of enthusiasm, and cheer after cheer rent the air as he predicted a sweeping victory at the next election for himself, Gourley and Gamey.

STEEL COMPANY DISCHARGES MEN

One Hundred and Fifty Carpenters Were Laid Off Yesterday.

THIS MAKES TOTAL OF 250 IN THE WEEK

Said that This is Merely a Question of Retrenchment and that These Were Construction Men.

Sydney, N.S., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Over one hundred and fifty men were notified yesterday that their services would not be required after Monday next by the Dominion Iron & Steel Co. The discharged men include blacksmiths, carpenters, laborers and machinists.

To-day the blooming mill will be put on single shift and that will mean the discharge of a large force of men, bringing the total for the week to about two hundred and fifty.

General Manager Baker says that the discharging of those men will not affect the output, as they are principally men who were employed in construction work which is now complete.

Work is being pushed on the rod and finishing mills, and it is expected that they will be completed early in the spring.

The men laid off are all single.

People here who are in touch with matters concerning the internal economy of the steel company say that the discharge of such a large force of men is a good sign of retrenchment, and that the policy should have been inaugurated long ago. It is freely stated that over a million dollars was wasted in the early days of the company's existence by the employment of many more men than labor could be provided for.

MEDICAL STUDENTS BOW TO WISHES OF FACULTY

Decision is Reached at To-day's Meeting to Hold Dance Instead of Annual Dinner.

The McGill medical students will not have their annual dinner this year. The faculty has frowned upon it and the result is that a dance will be held instead. A meeting was held in lecture room No. 3 Medical Building, this morning. The following fourth year students were appointed as delegates to the annual dinners to be held in the various universities:

Nagle, for Toronto; Dunn, for Queen's; Beatley, for Dalhousie; C. Miller, for Bishop's; Rogers, for Laval, Quebec, and Bollin for Laval, Montreal. Korkston was appointed delegate to the Law dinner, Robinson to the Science and Murphy to the Arts dinner.

It was at this meeting that the students came to their decision to hold a dance this year instead of a dinner. They were told that they could hold a dinner if they so wished, but that the Faculty, individually and colectively, would refuse to attend it. A dance was the only thing left, and this will be held some time in December.

The opinion prevails among the students that the last annual dinner has been held, so far, at least, as Medicine is concerned.

A large piece of talc fell from the roof of the mine, striking Bean and pinning him to the floor. It required the united efforts of six men to remove the mass from his body. Bean will die. Several persons have met death in this mine during the past year.

Government to Erect $30,000 Post Office Structure in St. Louis.

At last night's meeting of the St. Louis Council, Mayor Gelinas presiding, it was announced that the request of the citizens for a new post-office had been granted by the Government, and that the representative in Parliament, Hon. R. Prefontaine, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, representing the Minister of Public Works, had informed the Council that the department was now engaged in choosing a proper site, and that building would begin immediately. The official correspondence was submitted. The new post-office will be erected in St. Lawrence Street, opposite the church. The architecture will be in the style of the Renaissance, and the building of sufficient dimensions to meet the requirements of a town which already has a population of 25,000. The cost will be about $20,000 for the building and $7,000 for the ground.

A letter from Mr. Bisaillon, K.C., informed the Council that Madame Leonard has won her case against the town. This was a contestation of a judgment by Mr. Recorder Pelletier, condemning the contestant to a fine of $2 for making a noise in the street. The town lost the case on a technicality, the judge in the Superior Court holding that costs should not have been mentioned in the Recorder's judgment, but only the fine imposed.

Several councillors wanted to know if the Council would accept this decision as final or go to appeal, and the Mayor replied that there was no appeal from this decision.

On a motion to adopt the report of the general committee, granting a thirty years' exemption of taxes to the copper wire factory, Councillor Jubinville said he wished to explain that he was opposed to the granting of a tax exemption for so long a period. The report was then adopted.

The question of a modern fire department, and others having reference to the reorganization of the department, will have to be solved by the general committee now considering the chief's report. Several of the councillors who have set their hearts on building a new city hall are inclined to parsimony when dealing with the question of fire protection, but there is a strong disposition on the part of the citizens to awaken them to a realization of the danger of the present situation.

A conflict between the Federal and State authorities is exciting Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., regarding the disposition of fish taken for the United States hatcheries at Northville and Duluth. The fishermen seeking to supply the wants of the U. S. fishery commission have used nets which the State law says are illegal.

On Dec. 14, 1901, H.M.S. Condor sailed from Victoria, B.C., and no human being on board of her has been heard of since. The hull of the vessel has just been discovered in 25 fathoms of water in the Barkley Sound, no great distance from Victoria. There were 114 souls on board, and a great storm sprang up soon after her departure.

The United States assay office at Seattle was established in July, 1898. The result of its work in the five years ending 1903 affords an interesting tribute to the wealth of the Yukon as compared with Alaska. The receipts from the former were $13,940,003; from British Columbia, $3,428,780; and from the British Yukon, $54,842,144.

DR. PETERSON CONSIDERS ALVERSTONE WAS RIGHT

Says He Gave His Decision Impartially and Every Canadian Should Accept It.

New York, Nov. 11.—Dr. Peterson, who responded to the toast, "The Empire," at the British Schools banquet, said Canada stands to-day where this country stood fifty years ago, and prosperity is coming to it as it has to this country."

Referring to the recent Alaskan decision, Dr. Peterson said that no sensible Canadian needed to be told that he ought to have implicit confidence in the Lord Chief Justice of England. They had speedily realized the fact that the constitution of the tribunal was such that it was practically a hearing before a judge (Lord Alverstone), and it was his judgment that had gone against them.

"Lord Alverstone," said the speaker, "did all his work and rendered his judgment in his true spirit of an impartial jurist, and with the most perfect fairness."

FAST ATLANTIC SERVICE MAY USE TURBINE ENGINE

Dominion Government Will Wait Until the New System is Given Fair Trial.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—It was learned to-day at the Trade and Commerce Department that the fast Atlantic line will not likely be consummated until the trial of the new turbines at present being installed in some of the large steamers. In case of the new engines proving successful, they will, it is thought, completely revolutionize the ocean service, and until all is known about them, it is not thought advisable that new vessels should be fitted out at great expense.

DE LESSEPS IS PLEASED

U.S. Will Derive Profit and Glory from the Panama Canal.

Paris, Nov. 11.—In an interview published in the Gaulois, Charles De Lesseps expresses satisfaction with events on the Isthmus of Panama and says the purchase of the canal rights by the United States will save French interests at least to a small extent.

In accordance with the provisions of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, the Panama Canal can be operated in the interests of all nations. Nevertheless, says M. De Lesseps, the securing of control of the canal will be a splendid stroke of business for the United States Government, which eventually will derive profit and glory from a work conceived by a French brain. M. De Lesseps is convinced that the commercial importance of the future canal will at least equal that of the Suez Canal.

THE MARTINEAU FRAUDS.

Government Takes Action to Recover Money from Bank.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—The Martineau frauds against his Majesty the King are made the subject of a lawsuit filed yesterday by Barwick, Aylesworth, Wright & Moss against the Bank of Montreal, which honored Martineau's forged cheques for in all $75,705.

Four years in Kingston was the punishment the court gave Martineau.

All the writ says is "to recover from the Bank of Montreal the following amounts wrongfully charged against the account kept with the bank for his Majesty's Department of Militia and Defence.

"The amounts have been wrongfully charged against the said account on the following dates without proper authority.

"From 1901, Dec. 18, $363, the amounts extend to July 22, when they total $16,000, followed by one of Oct. 14, $13,000, and Oct. 17, $12,000.

"The total is $75,705."

Interest is also claimed.

THREE RIVERS NEWS

Three Rivers, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Mr. Henry Ogden, a brother of the late Postmaster Ogden, who lives on the outskirts of the city, had a close call on Saturday. Mr. Ogden, who is over eighty years of age, was crossing the C.P.R. iron bridge which spans the St. Maurice, and which is not intended for pedestrians, when he was overtaken by the evening express. He took refuge in a small recess in the side of the bridge, and sat down for greater safety. He was, however, too near the track, and was struck by the steps of one of the passing cars. The result was a fractured arm. The old gentleman did not sustain any other serious injury.

The young man who was arrested last week in connection with the burglary at Chamberland's restaurant, has been discharged, there being no evidence against him. He was able to give a straight account of himself for the night and prove an alibi. Mr. Chamberland found his wallet in the coal yard by the river side, but, of course, no money.

SHERBROOKE NOTES.

Sherbrooke, Nov. 11. — (Special.) — A section foreman on the Beauce section of the Q.C.R. was killed a few days ago. He was in the act of removing a hand car from the track when struck by a passing train. He had an arm and both legs cut off, and died a few hours afterwards.

The water is still low in the Magog river, and the mills are only running part time.

Rev. Hugh Pedley, of Emmanuel Church, Montreal, preached in the Congregational Church on Sunday, and this evening delivered a lecture on "Sandy McCrae in Winnipeg," to a large audience in the church hall.

NEWS NOTES.

Followers of John Alexander Dowie, finding no support for their mission in London, have gone to Paris.

Governor Toole has called an extra session of the Montana Legislature to consider the Montana industrial situation.

Dr. Ed. L. Mooney, school commissioner of Syracuse, is accused of accepting $300 from a teacher to get a position.

A man giving the name of Frank Tolman has been arrested in Orangeville on a charge of murdering Policeman Barron, of Hamilton.

The Czechs have demanded from Austria the use of their language in the army, and refuse efforts to include Bohemia in the German Empire.

The Winnipeg City Council has decided to submit $1,000,000 by-law to the ratepayers to develop Assiniboine water power and to start a municipal gas plant.

TO CLEAR ITS MISSION FUND.

Executive of the Diocesan Synod Names a Special Committee.

The quarterly meeting of the executive committee of the diocesan synod was held yesterday afternoon in Synod Hall. The principal business, the consideration of the report of the committee appointed to raise money to wipe out the Mission Fund debt which indicated there was reason to hope the amount would be raised.

The report was adopted and a special committee appointed to draft a resolution indicating the time at which the increase payable to priests over that to deacons should take effect.

The Archbishop named as a committee the Dean, Rural Dean Dart and Dr. L. H. Davidson.

Two gifts, one from Mr. John Bradford, of $5,000, and one from Miss Whitley, of $1,000, to the capital of the Mission Fund account, were reported. The conditions are that they receive 6 per cent. of the amount during the life of the donors, the capital sum then being the property of the Synod.

The amount voted to All Saints' parish was ordered to be paid for this year.

WANTS TARIFF REVISED.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—The Liberals of South Wellington have nominated Mr. Hugh Guthrie, M.P., as their candidate at the next Parliamentary election.

Mr. Guthrie, in his acceptance speech, declared himself in favor of a revision of the tariff after a thorough investigation had been made into present-day industrial conditions.

He regretted the unfavorable trade arrangements now existing between Canada and the United States. It seemed to be the settled determination of both political parties in the United States not to yield to Canada a single point in the way of freer access for Canadian products.

"Let us make in Canada all the goods which our skill, our industry and our natural advantages enable us to make, and such as we cannot produce satisfactorily in Canada let us purchase in England rather than in the United States."

AMERICAN SCHOONER LOST.

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 11. A fierce gale has been raging along the entire seaboard for two days, and several vessels have been driven ashore. The American schooner Edith Emory has been lost at Port au Basque, and the Canadian schooner Florence is ashore at Forteau. The schooners Trefoil, Janet, Arethusa and a number of other Newfoundland vessels also have been wrecked. Two boats were driven to sea from Lawaline. A tug was sent after them, but it is feared that their occupants perished.

THE FEAR OF HUMBUG

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical, permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles, because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taken after meals, digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison, as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite, and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

CANADIAN STUDENT FREE FROM GUILT

Autopsy Shows Loew Did Not Die From Effects of College Initiation.

Baltimore, Nov. 11.—"Martin Loew came to his death from congestion of the lungs caused by the inhaling of gas or the use of some drug or drugs unknown to the jury."

This was the verdict on the case of the student in the dental department of the University of Maryland, who was found dead in bed on Sunday morning after a night of agony following his participating in initiatory exercises at the university chapter of the Chi Phi Psi Fraternity.

After rendering the verdict Coroner Wiltshire, who conducted the investigation, dismissed Stanley B. Smith, of St. John, N.B., the president of the fraternity, who had been arrested, and declared that all of the students were exonerated.

Dr. N. G. Keirle, the city post mortem physician, who made the autopsy, testified that Loew had died from congestion of the lungs. He declared that the man had tuberculosis and his left lung was in bad shape. He had found no contusions to amount to anything and no internal evidence of violence. His evidence was to the effect that the initiative horse play could not have caused his death.

As to what originated the congestion that caused death, he could not say. When asked whether gas from the stove in the room could have caused it, he said it might. All of those who went into Loew's room, in response to the calls for help, testified that they noticed no odor of gas whatever.

Ephraim Stone, the roommate of the dead man, seemed dazed while testifying. His testimony was given in a low tone and with some hesitancy.

He said that early Saturday night, Loew and himself were at college working.

He stated that he was only initiated and that Loew took the obligation. He said that he was not handled roughly, and only received a bruise on the left elbow. Upon their return home both were in good health and spirits and both retired shortly after midnight.

About 3 o'clock he awoke and felt as though his head was swelling. He called to Loew, who said he had the same sensation. He said that neither one had taken any drug before retiring and that there was no gas in the room.

POLICE COMMITTEE TO VISIT LOCAL STATIONS

Ald. Bumbray Believes There are Too Many in Montreal, and Wants Several Abolished.

The Police Committee will make a tour of inspection of the east end stations this afternoon with a view to ascertaining how the appropriations for next year shall be made.

Ald. Bumbray will at the same time draw the committee's attention to what he considers to be the unnecessarily large number of police stations. He intends to agitate in the Police Committee for a reduction in the number.

"We have fifteen police stations at the present time, and thirteen would be enough for the force employed," he said to-day. "There are altogether too many officers, lieutenants and corporals. Their number lessens those available for regular police duty, while their work by no means compensates for this loss."

CARLETON FARMERS TO GATHER.

Annual Winter Meeting To Be Held Nov. 28 and Dec. 3.

There will be two sessions daily at 2 o'clock and at 7.30 o'clock in the evening. Arrangements are in charge of Mr. J. G. Clark, president, and Mr. R. H. Grant, secretary. The programme of addresses that has been provided is of an interesting character as will be seen from the problems that the speakers purposes dealing with. Mr. W. F. Kidd will give addresses on: "Are you raising the most profitable horse?"; "Care of the Horse from the Foal to the Finished Article"; "Small Fruits and Care of the Orchard"; "The Dairy Cow in Summer and Winter."

Mr. R. C. Fowler's subjects are "The care of milk from the cow to the factory"; "Stop the Leaks"; Canadian dairying, its past, present and future."

MR. PHILIAS MAINVILLE DEAD.

Aged Notary Passes Away Here After a Lingering Illness.

Mr. Philias Mainville, notary, died last night, after a lingering illness, which he bore with exceptional resignation. He was sixty years of age and was one of the oldest notaries in Montreal.

Born at St. Jacques l'Achigan, he begun his studies at the Collège de l'Assomption, and then studied law in the office of Hon. Mr. Archambault, finishing his legal course with Mr. Bell, notary, of Montreal. Mr. Mainville was notary for a number of large corporations.

Up to last May he preserved his usual activity, but during that month was attacked by an illness which last night proved fatal.

His wife was Miss Hedwidge Pepin, and two sons survive him—Mr. J. R. Mainville, notary, and Mr. Philias Mainville, a civic employe.

WORK IS NEARLY COMPLETED.

Improvements at Bonsecours Market Will Cost City $18,000.

The improvements to Bonsecours Market will be completed in a week's time. They cost the city $18,000.

Ald. L. A. Lapointe does not believe Mr. J. X. Perreault's plan for a covered platform at the market to increase accommodation for farmers is practicable. Mr. Perreault laid his scheme before the Markets Committee recently and Ald. Chausse promised that estimates would be made.

"I don't think anything will come of the project," said Ald. Lapointe.

SANTO DOMINGO IN THE THROES OF REVOLUTION

Insurgents Have Been Attacking the City Since Friday With Small Arms and Heavy Guns.

New York, Nov. 11.—Santo Domingo cablegrams, dated Nov. 9, in the Sun, give some details of the fighting about the city. The insurgents were continuing their attack as the despatch was filed, and the firing was heavy. The attack began Friday. The despatch continues:

"During all of Saturday night the insurgents attacked the city with small arms and also delivered a rather heavy shell fire. The Government, however, succeeded in repelling the rebels, though with considerable loss. The losses of the revolutionists were slight. Some foreign non-combatants were killed.

During an attack on Sunday afternoon an insurgent shell passed within three feet of Mr. Powell, the American Minister at the legation.

A sortie was made by 140 Government troops, but they were ambushed and compelled to retire within the walls, leaving their dead and wounded on the field.

Early on Sunday night there was another heavy attack but the rebels were again repulsed. The losses are unknown.

Several shells exploded in the city Monday.

The German cruiser Gazelle arrived to-day and is landing marines. The German cruiser Panther arrived here Sunday. No other foreign war vessels are here.

The Dominican cruiser Presidente has arrived here, leaving the so-called blockaded ports open to navigation.

The anti-American feeling is intense.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The State Department to-day received the following cablegram from Minister Powell, dated San Domingo, Nov. 6, 11 p.m.: "Insurgents have reached the city. Attacked last night on three sides. City being shelled. No damage."

CITY HAPPENINGS IN BRIEF

Mr. Abraham Gold, on behalf of Hyram Gold, a minor, has entered an action in the Superior Court against the Montreal Street Railway Company for $5,000 damages.

A meeting of notaries will be held at the office of Hon. N. Perodeau, 7 Place d'Armes, to-morrow, at 12 o'clock to pass resolutions of condolence regarding the death of their regretted colleague, Mr. P. Mainville.

There was no change in the situation between the engineers and the C.P.R. representatives this morning. It is expected that an agreement will be reached shortly that will be mutually satisfactory.

The council of the Board of Trade will place a number of roller maps throughout the Board room. An order has already been given for the maps, which will include those of all the different provinces of the Dominion, and special ones of the wheat belt in the West.

The new election, ordered by Judge Champagne, for Nov. 10, in the case of Watt vs. Dowker, in which the latter's election, last July, as trustee of the Dissentient School Board, of St. Anne de Bellevue, was declared to be illegal, resulted in Mr. Watt's return unopposed.

At Foresters' Hall, Seigneurs and Notre Dame Streets, last evening, there was a gathering of members of Court National, I.O.F., for the purpose of presenting Dr. Harel, provincial chief medical adviser with a gold watch and chain as a mark of esteem.

A Syrian named Ramiah figured in the Police Court to-day on a charge of fighting with a fellow countryman in St. Peter Street last evening. He was allowed out on bail, and the case may be dropped, as neither participant was seriously injured.

The Prisoners' Aid Association of Montreal, is in need of cast off clothing, especially boots and warm underwear, for the use of those who leave the prison during the winter months, and who are often insufficiently clad. Parcels sent to the vice-president, Mr. Jas. Elliott, 26 Kent Street, will be acknowledged.

Joseph Hamelin, a trader of 257 St. Dominique Street, tried to make a sale of apples yesterday to Mrs. Mary Miller at 47 St. Dominique Street. She claimed they were bad when he brought them to her and that he took a couple of castors from a cruet as a quid pro quo for the value of the apples. Constable Dandenault arrested him and today he appeared before Mr. Recorder Weir on charges of assault and peddling without a license. The case was remanded for trial.

Alfred Crevier, a carter, is in Notre Dame Hospital as the result of a sanguinary conflict with another carter on the corner of Lagauchetiere and St. Timothee Streets, about 10 o'clock. Crevier was worsted, hence the hospital.

The executive of the Canadian Bankers' Association held a private meeting in the chambers of the Merchants Bank of Canada at 11 o'clock to-day, nearly all the general managers of the companies being present. Arrangements were made for the programme to be taken up at the annual meeting of the association to be held to-morrow.

Henry Quinn, of Pittsburg, Pa., was arrested on a tug in Wellington Basin last night by Constables Hunter and Cochrane. He is accused of the theft of a set of dies and taps worth $125, the property of the Canadian Tubular Steamship Company. He appeared before Judge Lafontaine this morning and was remanded until Monday.

James Farmer, a clerk, was brought before Judge Lafontaine today on the charge of stealing an overcoat from in front of J. H. Blumenthal & Co.'s store in Craig Street yesterday. He and two others had stolen one coat and found it such easy work that he came back, but Mr. Blumenthal captured him and handed him over to Constable Fisher. He pleaded guilty today before Judge Lafontaine and was remanded until to-morrow.

LAFFERTY—PACAUD.

Quebec, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Major Lafferty, D.S.A., of Montreal, married to-day Miss Cecile Pacaud, eldest daughter of Mr. Ernest Pacaud, proprietor and editor-in-chief of Le Soleil. Owing to the illness of Mr. Pacaud, the marriage ceremony was performed in private at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Father Taschereau, vicar of the Church of St. Jean Baptiste, cousin of the bride, and son of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, officiating. The bride was given away by her father, and the groom was attended by Captain Thacker, R.C.R.

BRITT DEFEATS SIEGER.

San Francisco, Nov. 11. — Jimmy Britt, the California lightweight, easily secured the decision last night over Charlie Sieger, of New York. There was no stage of the contest the issue of which was in doubt. In all but the 14th round Britt had a clear lead. He outpointed, outboxed and outgeneraled Sieger at every stage of the game.

Britt employed his left almost continuously throughout the fight, but when an opening presented he used his right to great advantage. Sieger put up a game fight, and his ability to take punishment was marvelous. Britt left the ring without a mark, while Sieger presented a pitiable aspect as he tottered from the ring.

DINED SIR LOUIS JETTE.

Paris, Nov. 11.—Mr. Menier, proprietor of the Isle of Anticosti, entertained Sir Louis Jette on his arrival here. Among those present were Madame Berthiaume, Madame Accarias, Madame Charton. Mlles. RESENTS CHARGE ON THE FINANCE BOARD

Ald. Laporte Denies it is Retarding Government Scheme to Open Military School.

Ald. Laporte resents charges made by a morning paper against the Finance Committee of endeavoring to retard the project of the Government in the establishment of a military training school in Montreal, by imposing restrictions on the city's grant of $25,000.

"Our only reason for making the grant conditional was to ensure the school being built in Montreal, instead of in some neighboring municipality," said Ald. Laporte. "I was the first to move that the money be given, and the committee was favorable.

"We will send a deputation to Ottawa to confer with the Minister of Militia as soon as he returns to the capital."

"While there," continued the leader of the Council, "we will endeavor to come to some arrangement for the policing of the harbor front. The dispute over the pay of the militia during the 'longshoremen's strike leaves the question of responsibility still unsolved, and we want the matter definitely settled, in order that there may be no such uncertainty in the future."

MASONIC REGALIA SEIZED.

Was Brought in From the United States Without Duty.

St. John, N.B., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—David Dearness, customs officer, was a visitor last night at Hibernian Masonic Lodge. A brand new set of regalia was presented at the meeting. It had been procured in the United States and had been brought in by one of the members who neglected to make a customs entry. This announcement left Officer Dearness no course but to seize the regalia, and it is now at the Customs House. The facts will be communicated to Ottawa for a decision.

LUIGI MOZALLE NOT GRATEFUL.

Attempts to Shoot Persons Who Gave Him Food When Hungry.

Luigi Mazalle was arrested yesterday by constables Wilson and De Konnick, of No. 6 district, on the charge of attempting to shoot James Cordasco, of 197 St. Antoine Street.

Cordasco says that yesterday morning Mazalle entered the kitchen at his house and asked for food. He received the food and then became ugly and declared he would shoot some one. Cordasco, his wife and a boarder put him out of the place.

He attemtped to get back into the house, and when he found he could not do so he drew a revolver and fired it at the door, but fortunately the ball was deflected and no person was hurt.

He came before Judge Lafontaine this morning and was remanded until Friday.

THE FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Many Protests Against the Alleged Assumption of Jurisdiction.

Boston, Nov. 11.—The session of the convention of the American Federation of Labor was resumed to-day with almost all the delegates in attendance. Many protests against alleged unlawful assumption of jurisdiction by stated affiliated unions have been filed, but most of them are intended to commit the federation to some determined policy in connection with the great questions of the day.

At yesterday afternoon's session it was decided to make the hours of the convention 9 to 12 and 2 to 5.30, except Sunday, were adopted.

James Duncan, of Washington, first vice-president of the federation, then read the annual report of the executive council of the organization. The report was emphatic in disapproval of the internal troubles of the federation arising from different conceptions as to what trades came within the jurisdiction of the various unions.

The report contained all the correspondence in the Miller case at Washington, arising from the question of employing no-union labor at the Government printing office. It has been understood that this case will be brought up later before the convention.

C. E. Jones, representing the Central Labor Union, of Burlington, Vt., was not seated, since his election was irregular.

Canadian Delegates.

Mr. P. M. Draper, president of the Ottawa Allied Trades Association and secretary of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, left yesterday for Boston. Mr. Draper's chief business is to confer with Delegates William O'Grady and James Mullen, from the British congress on the importation of skilled labor to replace Canadian workmen on strike. It is said that an official is kept at the Canadian Labor Bureau, 13 Charing Cross, London, for the purpose of breaking strikes. The Canadian delegates to the federation are James Simpson, Toronto, fraternal delegate from the Trades and Labor Congress, and D. A. Carey, Toronto; Joseph Ainey, Montreal, and James Sangster, Montreal.

THREE RIVERS NOTES

Three Rivers, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Mr. John Baptist, a son of the late Mr. John Baptist, of this city, arrived yesterday from Dawson City, Yukon. Mr. Baptist left Dawson on Oct. 14, and lost a few days owing to floating ice and failure to make connections. He has spent most of the time since the spring of 1898 in the gold region, and may return again in mid-winter or next spring.

Two hundred lumbermen left here this week for the lumber woods on the St. Maurice and some of its tributaries. This large number was available because all the mills here except one have finished the season's cut.

The harbor has quite a busy aspect these days, steamers discharging pig iron and coal from the Lower Province ports and others taking on cargoes of lumber and pulp. The harbor commissioners report the tonnage of this year as greatly in excess of last year. The number of vessels, too, is larger, and they are hopeful of still better things next year.

FOREIGNERS CAN'T GET WORK.

New York, Nov. 11—Figures obtained of the number of laborers who are returning to Europe show that, while from all ports of the United States 13,000 steerage passengers were carried from Oct. 1 to Nov. 10, a year ago, more than 27,000 have left the shores of America this year during the corresponding period. Of this number about ninety per cent. sailed from New York. Inability to obtain employment is given as the reason for the emigration.

FOUL STRIKE IN BASEBALL.

Cleveland, Nov. 11. — Ban Johnson, president of the American Baseball League, was here last night to learn the views of the Cleveland Club owners as to whether the foul strike should be abolished or not. The Cleveland owners are opposed to the rule. Johnson said that the majority of the American League club owners were also opposed to it, and at a meeting of the American League in Chicago next month a committee will be appointed to confer with a National League committee with a view to its elimination from next year's games.

YOUNG ROWELL SLASHES HIMSELF WITH RAZOR

Crazed by Drink and Drugs, He Attempts Suicide in His Boarding House.

With his arm gashed and bleeding freely from the effects of an ugly wound, Jedediah Rowell, a young man, was taken to Notre Dame Hospital this afternoon. Rowell, it is said, spent the better part of the morning in several saloons on St. Lawrence Street. At 1 o'clock he was in his boarding house at 54 St. Lawrence Street, when he produced a razor and slashed his arm.

It is also understood he took a large dose of a corrosive sublimate. The ambulance was summoned and the young man taken to Notre Dame Hospital.

JEWELS FOR NINE VETERANS.

Beaver Lodge, No. 6, I.O.O.F., had a unique gathering in Unity Hall, Point St. Charles, last evening. Up to the present time the subordinate lodges in the province had awarded forty veterans' jewels for twenty-five years' continuous membership, but Beaver Lodge has now at one stroke added nine names to this roll of honor. The gathering last night was made the occasion of the formal presentation of the jewels to these brethren. Past Grand Master D. J. Dickson presided, and the visitors included the Deputy Grand Master, Mr. C. J. Williams. The jewels were presented by Messrs. J. E. Hayden, A. W. Hayden, D. M. Johnston, A. W. Staveley, P.G.M., and James Biggs to George M. Stone, Fred. B. Lytle, R. J. Livingstone, W.H. Scott and J. A. Currie. Messrs. Henry Hadley and D. Anderson, Montreal, were unable to be present, and Dr. C. A. Woods and Mr. L. A. Lavers are in Chicago.

Jewels will be forwarded to them. Of the sixteen members intiated twenty-five years ago nine are live and active members of the lodge.

JUSTICE LANGELIER FOR QUEBEC

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—It is said Justice Langelier will be transferred from Montreal to Quebec to fill the vacancy caused by Judge Caron's retirement.

Court House officials expressed no surprise when shown the above despatch. Justice Langelier was temporarily transferred to Quebec in September to take the place occupied by Sir L. N. Cassault, Chief Justice, who is Acting Lieutenant-Governor in the absence of Sir Louis Jette. It was understood at the time that Justice Langelier was marked for higher honors. His Lordship was connected with the Superior Court Bench of Montreal for a number of years.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

New York.—At the office of J. P. Morgan & Company, it was said to-day that Mr. Morgan had no intention whatever of retiring from active business.

Ottawa.—Hon. James Sutherland this morning purchased the Stewart property at the end of Metcalfe Street for the sum of $72,000, as a site for the new geological museum.

Toronto, Ont.—Chancellor Boyd yesterday decided that the City Council, in calling for tenders for firemen's clothing, could not include in the specifications the use of any particular union label.

Toronto, Ont.—"Don't wear trailing skirts as they are an element in spreading disease," said Mrs. Jas. L. Hughes to the members of the Household Economic Association at their annual meeting yesterday in the Normal School.

Ottawa, Ont.—It is understood that Major-General Lord Dundonald will recommend the purchase of the property at Kazubazua for a military training camp and artillery range. The property is about five miles by eight in extent.

Ottawa, Ont.—Mr. Wm. Mackenzie, of Mackenzie & Mann, says that the surveys for the James Bay Railway were now almost all completed and it was likely that the work of construction would be commenced early next year. The road will first be constructed as far as Sudbury.

Winnipeg, Man.—George Brent, tailor, had an accident yesterday which might have proved fatal. He cleaned his coat and vest with gasoline, and put them on while they were wet. The he lit a match, and instantly was in flames. It was only at the expense of a handsome fur-lined coat, which was thrown over him, that he escaped. As it was, he was burned painfully.

Ottawa. — The establishment of a temporary school of equitation in connection with Major Ashmeed's riding school in the city of Quebec is authorized. The school will be maintained for a period of four weeks. The following officers are authorized to be attached for instruction: Major H. G. Pageau, 87th Regiment; Capt. W. H. Davidson, 8th Regiment; Capt. L. G. Chabot, 9th Regiment; Capt. A. Roy, 17th Regiment; Capt. B. M. R. Guay, 89th Regiment; Lieut. I. Blouin, 9th Regiment.

GIRLS AS ATHLETES.

American Women Who Enter the Field of Sport and Break Records of Rivals.

It would seem as if girls had in the United States now organized like men a system of athletic records, for we are told that during the past season several records were broken. For instance, the spring season had not been far advanced when Miss Lydia Carpenter, of the State Normal School at Plattsburg, jumped a height of 4 feet 2½ inches, and it was afterward equalled, on May 16, by a Vassar girl, Miss Helen Wood.

But Miss Carpenter was a bit jealous of her reputation, and in June she cleared 4 feet 3 3-10 inches, putting the question of supremacy beyond all doubt for the time being.

At the Vassar field day, besides the high jump record of Miss Wood, Miss Gardner cleared 14 feet 6½ inches in the running broad jump and 7 feet 7 inches in the standing broad jump. Other records made at Vassar were: 220-yard run, 30 3-5 seconds, Miss Agnes Wood; 100-yard run, 13 1-5 seconds, Miss Fannie James; 50-yard run, 6 3-5 seconds, Miss Agnes Wood.

MISS ADAIR'S VISIT.

Talking of Miss Adair's visit to the United States, Golf has this to say of the young Irish lady: Miss Adair's visit should have an inspiriting effect upon our women golfers. It is true that her victory over a field of the highest class players in the country (the present champion excepted) was complete, but our representatives were by no means outclassed.

The British champion won through her more thorough mastery of golfing principles, and the same lesson was enforced upon our masculine golfers by the Oxford and Cambridge men. To be able to cope, at a glance, with the innumerable problems in which lie, wind, and other agents are the all-important factors; to always know what clubs to use; and, above all, to be informed of one's strength and weaknesses—this it is to be a golfer.

Mr. James Ross, president of the Dominion Coal Company, who has been in Sydney arranging for the opening of additional mines, returned to the city to-day.

MORGAN SHIPS TO FIGHT THE C.P.R.

Claims That the Canadian Road is Making a Rate That is Hurting New York Traffic.

New York, Nov. 11.—A matter that is causing much anxiety among all of the transatlantic steamship lines is the fact that the Canadian Pacific has started in on a colonization plan on an extensive scale, and is making through rates to the Northwest by means of its own steamers at rates that cannot be approached via New York or Boston, says the Journal of Commerce.

The Canadian Pacific, or interests supposed to be very close to the Canadian Pacific, are quoting the low rates via Portland and Halifax, and it is understood that the Morgan combination directors have instructed the Dominion Line to withdraw from all agreements that it may be in a position to meet the Canadian Pacific's rates.

This applies only to the Dominion Line's Portland and Montreal services, as its Boston services have been combined with the White Star line.

300 OFFER EARS AT $5,000 EACH

Two Others, With Good Specimens, Ask $8,000 and $10,000

New York, Nov. 11.—Of the hundreds that answered Dr. A. L. Nelden's advertisement for an ear in return for $5,000, only two were found to have ears that would suit.

In all Dr. Nelden examined more than three hundred persons.

All sorts and conditions of men presented themselves, and not a few came from the Bowery. Most of these were dismissed summarily. One condition of the offer was that the subject must have a perfectly healthful body.

Four Women Make Offers.

Among Dr. Nelden's callers were four women. One was a pretty blond Swedish girl, who came to this country several years ago to seek her fortune. She met disappointment, and yesterday was willing to sacrifice her right ear for the consideration named. But it was not the right size.

Another woman called whose appearance denoted that she had seen much better days when a member of a theatrical chorus. Having lost her ear for music, she was willing to sacrifice her ornamental ear. "She had," said Dr. Nelden, "really a good shaped right ear, but measurements showed it to be too large, and she was positively disappointed when I dismissed her."

One woman, who appeared refined, declined to give her name, and she had just the ear the doctor was looking for—a perfect ear for business purposes. She was detained by the doctor, who explained what would be required of the person submitting to the operation. Before the details were all explained the woman backed out.

One man had a story of a fortune lost in Wall Street and a family suffering for the necessities of life. The lobe of this applicant's right ear was decidedly out of proportion. Another wished to open a laundry up town and was willing to part with his right ear to obtain the capital to start in business. Age barred him.

Next came a man who was deaf in his right ear and explained that he did not care if his personal appearance should be ruined by the loss of an ear. The ear, useless to him for hearing purposes, was altogether too large to match the left ear of Dr. Nelden's patient. There were any number of men deaf in both ears who were willing to part with their auricular appendages, but blemishes of one form or another barred them.

Market for Ears Rises.

As the day wore on the market rose in the price of ears. A man presented himself who possesssed a right ear which he was willing to part with, but he wanted $8,000 for it, considering his personal beauty worth about that figure.

A German, who had quarreled with his sweetheart, was a schemer. He was willing to have himself disfigured to the extent of an ear in the hope that his Gretchen would have sympathy.

About five o'clock the market for perfect ears went to $10,000, being bulled to that point by a dapper looking chap in a high hat. His plan was to allow Dr. Nelden to chop off his right ear then and there, accept $10,000 for it and take a trip to Europe. He had even gone so far as to engage the services of an expert to make him a papier-mache ear and produced a plaster model of the ear he was willing to part with.

Next Friday Dr. Nelden will begin the operation on one of the two men selected yesterday. The head of the purchaser will be closely bound to the head of the seller of the right ear. One-half the ear will first be separated from the seller and knit to proper place on the head of the buyer—after a few days the other half will be treated in like manner. The two men involved in the operation will have to lie on a specially constructed cot about two weeks.

ALACRITA HAS A MISHAP.

Sydney, C.B., Nov. 11.—The Norwegian ship Alacrita, Captain Gjertzen, from the Saguenay, via Quebec, for Ardrossan, with a cargo of pulpwood, encountered a severe gale in the Gulf of St. Lawrence Nov. 7, during which she shifted her cargo. The ship then bore up for Sydney, but the continuation of the boisterous weather made it impossible to carry sufficient sail to reach port until Monday. The ship sustained no injury, but part of her cargo will have to be discharged. The Alacrita is a four-masted iron sailing ship. She has been particularly unfortunate this season. Some weeks ago she went aground in the Lower St. Lawrence, but was got off without having sustained any serious damage.

Another Clause in the Lighting Contracts of Montreal Power Co

In local insurance circles there is much present interest in a clause recently added by the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company to the contracts its customers for electric lighting are required to sign. It seems that from time to time accidents happen to the best regulated transformer, which is a big body of iron attached to a pole outside, and that as a result there sometimes enters a dwelling a current many times more powerful than the wiring system is designed to bear.

Lightning is the cause sometimes, improper handling at other times. On one occasion, at the Sherbrooke residence of a prominent citizen, fire broke out at the same moment in every room in the house, and it was not the easiest thing in the world for the man and his wife to escape. They did, however, and in due course collected the insurance. In that, as in many other cases, the insurance companies promptly sent in the bill to the Power Company, and collected it, too.

Naturally the Power Company prefer not to pay if they can avoid it, so they are asking consumers to sign contracts holding the company blameless for fires originating from defective wiring, and now this is causing the present agitation in the breasts of insurance men—for equal indemnity in the case of fires originating from outside.

Th consumer is, in the estimation of some people, taking a big risk when he signs such a contract. Much depends, of course, on the contract he has with the insurance company.

If he pays no attention to this, the probability of his losing the assurance in case of a loss is rather high, as the insurance company could say that, having absolved those whom the law has hitherto held financially responsible, he cannot expect other people to assume that responsibility.

Meantime the insurance men claim, and are advised, that the contract will be found not wholly to absolve the Power Company if anyone chooses to test the matter in the courts.

SENATOR TEMPLEMAN TALKS OF EAST AND WEST

Quebec Going Ahead Slowly, but Victoria By Leaps and Bounds.

Quebec, Nov. 11.—Senator Templeman is paying his third visit here. While reverencing the historical memories which lend a dignity to the quaint streets of the older city, he diplomatically awarded the palm to his own "pretty" Victoria in the west, which has increased in population and commercial value with such marvellous strides. Alluding to the proposed Grand Trunk Pacific line, the visiting Senator said:

"We consider that the country to be opened up in British Columbia by the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific to be the very best of the province. It will be four or five hundred miles north of the Canadian Pacific, and right through the centre of the rich mining and agricultural land. The new line will likely handle the greater part of the Yukon trade as well.

"The Pacific terminal port for the new line? Ah, there is one of the finest ports in the world. What a grand harbor Port Simpson has! No, it will not hurt Vancouver or Victoria. These cities have sprung up wonderfully during the past twenty years. Port Simpson will also go rapidly ahead and will create a trade of its own, as Victoria and Vancouver have done, by the opening up of the new country. The western people are enthusiastic over the new railway to be constructed."

CATHOLICS DIVIDED

But Pope Pius Refused to Recognize One Party.

Rome, Nov. 11.—General attention was attracted to the annual meeting of the association of the Catholic Congress of Italy, held at Bologna yesterday, because of the direct effort of the Pope to prevent a division of Catholics. The most progressive elements of the gathering threatened to abandon the more conservative elements, and to form an association of their own, in which should be included the Social Democrats. The Pontiff promptly suppressed the movement, and announced through Cardinal Merry Del Val, Secretary of State, that he would not recognize any party outside of the association of congresses.

HARD ON THE KAISER.

Berlin, Nov. 11.—The Emperor will have to abstain from much public speaking in the future. The growth on the vocal cord appears to have been caused by straining the voice.

SHOT TWO MEN IN MISTAKE FOR DEER.

Parry Sound, Ont., Nov. 11.—A double and fatal shooting accident occurred yesterday near Edgington, fifteen miles from here.

Three men, James McComb, Dan Quinlan and another, while engaged working on a camp road, were fired on by Thomas Stanley, who was out deer hunting. The first shot struck McComb in the chest.

He threw up his spade, at the same time exclaiming: "Oh, my God, I'm shot."

A second shot quickly followed, hitting Quinlan in the thigh.

Stanley then appeared from the woods, and the awful spectacle of his performance was presented to his eyes. McComb died in five minutes.

Stanley is the son of a settler who lives in the township of Christie, and has been brought up in the bush.

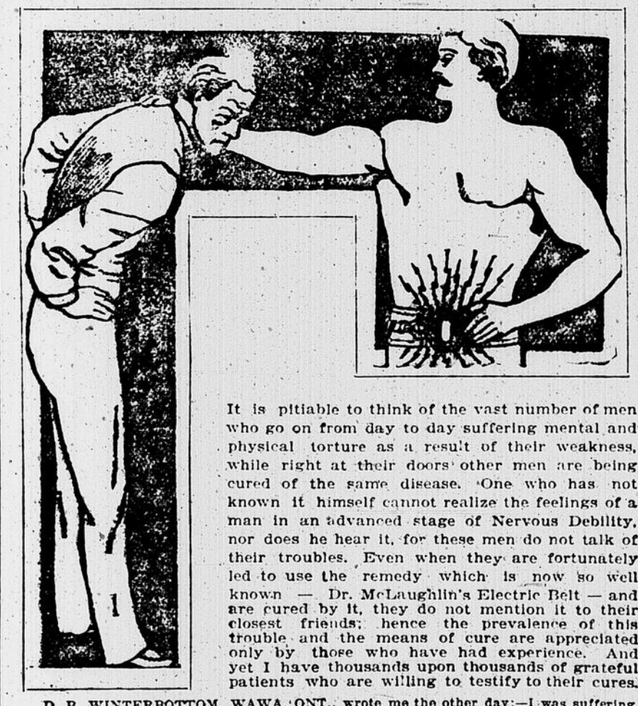
James McComb, who was killed, was a well-known resident of this district. He was married and had a large family. Quinlan has been taken to the hospital here. It is thought he will recover.

The third man, whose name is not ascertained, owes his escape to the fact that he fell flat on the ground before the second shot was fired.

Stanley was only about a hundred yards from the men when he fired, and it seems almost incredible that he should have mistaken them for a deer, seeing that they were working in an open space. An inquest will be held.

TAKE MY ADVICE.

You can have freedom from pain and again be given life, energy and the vigor of youth if you wear Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt, with free Electric Suspensory for weak men.



It is pitiable to think of the vast number of men who go on from day to day suffering mental and physical torture as a result of their weakness, while right at their doors other men are being cured of the same disease. One who has not known it himself cannot realize the feelings of a man in an advanced stage of Nervous Debility, nor does he hear it, for these men do not talk of their troubles. Even when they are fortunately led to use the remedy which is now so well known — Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt — and are cured by it, they do not mention it to their closest friends; hence the prevalence of this trouble and the means of cure are appreciated only by those who have had experience. And yet I have thousands upon thousands of grateful patients who are willing to testify to their cures.

D. B. WINTERBOTTOM, WAWA, ONT., wrote me the other day:—I was suffering from varicocele. The parts have now regained their natural firmness and vigor. I am also entirely cured of dyspepsia. Thanking you for past favors.

A man who is nervous, whose brain and body are weak, who sleeps badly, awakes more tired than when he went to bed, who is easily discouraged, inclined to brood over imaginary troubles, who has lost ambition and energy to tackle hard problems, lacks the animal electricity which the Dr. McLaughlin Electric Belt supplies.

The whole force of vitality in your body is dependent upon your animal electricity. When you lose that by draining the system in any manner my Belt will replace it, and will cure you.

E. M. CLARK, ATTERCLIFFE, ONT., writes me:—I got one of your Belts, and I have never been sorry for doing so. As to its merits, I cannot speak too highly for the cure of all forms of weakness.

My plan is to restore youthful vigor, make men and women feel as they did in early days. I am doing it for thousands. Electricity is vital force, and I know how to apply it. You wear my appliance while you sleep. In the morning you feel a new lease of life.

Pains in your back, Rheumatism, Kidney, Liver and Stomach weaknesses, and debility or organic trouble, Varicocele, Lost Vitality, Female Weakness—all can be cured by this method. No drugs.

WM. HUGHES, 32 BOLTON AVENUE, TORONTO, says:—I have been wearing one of your Belts for kidney trouble and rheumatism. The pain in the back is entirely gone. I am not troubled in this way at all now, and my general health is greatly improved.

NO PAY UNLESS CURED.

You run no risk, as I guarantee every case I undertake. Failure to cure costs nothing, as I take all the chances. The Dr. McLaughlin Electric Belt is the best electric body appliance that has ever been invented. It is warranted on a bond of $5,000 to give a stronger current, last longer and cure quicker than any other electric body appliance. It never burns nor blisters.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Lok out for those old-style Belts that are offering you a cheap imitation of my cushion electrodes. They are a very poor imitation; they quickly dry and leave them without any current. Their only merit (if they possess any) is to burn and scorch the flesh. My office contains hundreds of these old-style Belts.

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt is the only electric appliance that is sold where the patient is under the care of a physician until he is cured. The success of any electric appliance depends upon its intelligent application.

I have a nicely illustrated book which every man should read. I will send it, closely sealed, free.

A FASHIONABLE NAVAL WEDDING

Daughter of Vice-Admiral Douglas Married to Major Sloman at Halifax.

Halifax, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The marriage took place this afternoon at St. Luke's Cathedral, of Miss Mary Charlotte Douglass, daughter of Vice-Admiral Sir Archibald and Lady Douglas to Major H. Stanhope Sloman, D.S.O., of the East Surrey Regiment, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General at Bermuda. The wedding was a brilliant one, the uniforms of the naval and military officers present, and dainty costumes of the ladies, making a pretty picture.

The chancel was decorated with ferns, and chrysanthemums, and the service was full choral. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Crawford, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hogan, naval chaplain and Rev. Mr. Murphy, military chaplain. Flag Lieutenant Prince Hayhurst, Mr. David Douglas, Captain Slayter and Mr. Watson, R. N., acted as ushers. Colonel Connor, commanding the Royal Engineers, on this station, acted as best man, and the bridesmaids were, Miss Haws, of England, niece of Lady Douglas, Miss Isabel and Lillis Douglas, sisters of the bride; Miss Chamberlain, niece of Lady Parsons, and Miss Eileen Bigge, daughter of Major Bigge, military secretary at Bermuda. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin, with court train, the skirt trimmed with chiffon, and the bodice pearl trimmed.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents. Among the invited guests were: The Governor-General and Lady Minto, Major and Mrs. Maude, Sir Charles and Lady Parsons, Miss Chamberlain, the Lieut.-Governor, Mrs. and Miss Jones, Sir M. B., Lady and Miss Daly, the Archbishop and Miss O'Brien, Sir Robert and Lady Boak, the Bishop and Miss Courtney.

Major and Mrs. Sloman left by the 5 o'clock train for the Upper Provinces. After a trip through Upper Canada and the Eastern States they will take the steamer at New York for Bermuda.

UNITED STATES MILITIA CANNOT BE DEPENDED ON

Adjutant-General Hall Says It Does Not Respond to Call—Army Strength is 58,581 Men.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The annual report of Acting-Adjutant-General Hall, of the U. S. army, was made today. It deals with every phase of the military establishment. The actual strength of the army on Oct. 15, 1903, was 3,081 officers and 55,500 enlisted men.

There were lost to the army during the year ended June 30, 1903, 29,279 men, as follows: 138 officers, of whom 25 were killed in action and died of wounds or disease; 28,141 enlisted men, of whom 837 were killed in action or died of wounds or disease, the remainder representing men discharged for expiration of term of service, for disability, by sentence of court-martial, desertions and retirements.

Over one-half of the report is devoted to the militia, and it gives a detailed account of the workings of the act to promote the efficiency of the militia, passed at the last session of Congress. The total number of the organized militia, including officers of every rank and grade, was asserted to be 116,542.

Regarding the dependable strength of the militia in time of national peril, the adjutant-general states that "although the obligation of officers and men of the militia to respond promptly to a sudden call of the President has been on the statute books more than a hundred years, and of the organized militia or national guard for nearly forty, and the neglect to so respond is punishable by such penalties as a court-martial may direct, experience has shown that this obligation is a theory rather than a fact. Without going farther back than the late war with Spain, the proportion of membership of the militia organizations who have actually responded to such calls of the President has borne a very small proportion to those actually borne on the company rolls."

Eliminating the men unfit for military service, and those unable to go to the front for logical reasons, the report says that only about thirty of the original company is a fair estimate of the number of men in each company that were finally received into the service of the United States.

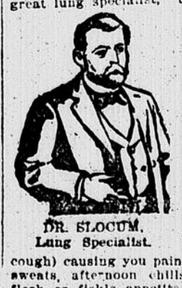
EVERY BREATH OCCASIONS PAIN

THROAT AND LUNGS DISEASED

How many persons there are who read in these words a description in brief of their own state of health, being struck with the similarity between this—the utterance of one of Dr. Slocum's one-time hopeless patients—and that of their own case, although they may have hesitated to express or acknowledge the same in so many words.

"I venture to say," says Dr. Slocum, the great lung specialist, "that five out of every ten persons in this fair Canada of ours are in just such a condition," as so aptly expressed by this enquiring sufferer of Dr. Slocum, who was afterwards permanently cured of consumption by Dr. Slocum's System of Treatment as embodied in "Psychine," as shown in the following testimonial. If your lungs are weak and delicate, every breath (or cough) causing you pain, or if you have night sweats, afternoon chills and fever, loss of flesh or fickle appetite, it is advisable that you procure Psychine at once.



DR. SLOCUM, Lung Specialist.

A scientific preparation, used with wonderful success by Dr. Slocum, the eminent specialist, in his private practice for over forty years.

Not a druggist in the city who will not advise you to use "Psychine," especially at this time of the year, when colds, coughs, and bronchial troubles are prevalent. It is perhaps the only method of baffling consumption. You can get "Psychine" at all drug stores.

Prominent Grain Merchant Promptly Cured of La Grippe and Bronchitis.

Mr. T. A. Weltzel, Board of Trade, Toronto, says: "I had a very serious attack of La Grippe for several weeks, which developed into bronchial trouble. My throat and lungs were severely affected and every breath I took caused me pain. My physician was unable to cope with the disease, and determined to consult with some leading medical men. His own skill had been exhausted in my case. I was unable to leave my bed and gradually growing weaker, I determined to try 'Psychine,' and got a bottle as a last resort. Inside of two days my cough had subsided—the bronchial tubes became free of phlegm and strength increased so quickly that I was able to sit up and in a week was able to attend to business. I have not been as well for many years as I am at present, and I heartily recommend Psychine to any sufferer."

PSYCHINE (is pronounced) SI-KEEN.

For sale at all drug stores in two sizes.

If your druggist hasn't it in stock you can obtain a sample bottle, free of charge, at Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, 179 King Street West, Toronto. Write for it.

CATARRH COMMON SENSE

Common sense applies to medicine as elsewhere. Any one having a sore on any part of the body applies a good healing salve. Anyone suffering from Catarrh, which is a disease causing inflammation and ulceration of the mucous membrane, should apply a good healing, antiseptic, germ killing salve to the sore and inflamed parts. That's why JAPANESE CATARRH CURE is the best Catarrh Cure. It penetrates to every diseased part, heals the sores and stops the dropping in the throat. 50 cents, at all druggists.

FORMING PUBLIC OPINION.

In the course of his speech at Manchester, Mr. Morley pointed out that the first effect of the present protectionist campaign in England has been to discourage the free trade minorities in all other countries. In Great Britain this criticism is of interest because the ostensible object of the Balfour wing, at all events, is to bring other nations to a more favorable view of the advantages of free trading. In Canada we must also take a good deal of interest in Mr. Morley's diagnosis, first because the diagnosis as it applies to the Canadian case has the merit of being correct, and second because any diminished effectiveness of the low tariff forces must have far reaching consequences upon our Canadian political conditions. It stands to reason that if the people generally have become, for any reason, less favorable to the idea of a low tariff than they were before 1900, the ultimate upshot must be the alteration of the existing tariff in the direction of higher protection. Even if all the members of the present cabinet were as aggressive as Mr. Tarte claims one or two of them are, they could not keep the tariff down in face of an overwhelmingly contrary opinion out of doors. And in any contest for the favor of a people rampantly protectionist at a given moment, the probabilities are all against the power to revise the tariff being left in the hands of Liberal ministers.

As to whether Mr. Morley is right on the question of fact everyone is in position to judge for himself. It is fairly obvious, however, that since Mr. Chamberlain began his "big fight," Canadian protectionists have plucked up new courage. It was they who gave the note to the proceedings of the Congress of Chambers of Commerce. One would not have expected, after six years under a lowered tariff, six years of abounding prosperity for these very men, to find them so militant. Instead of reflecting that they had done pretty well under the revised tariff, instead of being satisfied to let well alone, it looked as though the very increase of their material resources which had come to them under the new conditions had emboldened them to employ their new found strength to secure a return to the old system of high and confusing tariffs. They bossed the Congress, and they did it in the spirit of the Moslem of old, sword in hand, proclaiming the gospel of protection, in the name of Chamberlain, its prophet.

Nowadays it is as much as a man's credit is worth to avow that he still holds to the principles advocated by the Liberal party up to 1896, and translated into practice by Mr. Fielding as Finance Minister since 1897. How, he will be asked, can he believe any longer in the efficacy of free trade doctrines, when he sees that England is throwing those doctrines over, and England's only practical statesman forced by the logic of conditions to turn protectionist? There is but one politico-economic gospel, and Chamberlain is its prophet! Who dare stand against it? It is very much easier not to dare, very much easier to shout with the crowd. The present, indeed, is a time to try men's souls, and one needs to have acquired in early life a set of principles that will stand rough usage if he expects to bear up against the pressure. It is not necessary to cite instances of giving way in men of whom better things should be expected. There are too many such.

Our Conservative friends, it must be said, are making the most of their opportunity. At last night's meeting, for example, they played for hours together on the instrument thus fashioned to their hand. They said little of Mr. Chamberlain, it is true, but they made much of the protectionist ferment he has set a-going. In the other provinces they talk of Chamberlain plus protection; in Quebec it is straight protection. At Ottawa, if they ever get to power, it will be protection tinctured with just as little of what Mr. Chamberlain wants as suits the interested advocates of high tariffs. Meantime, thanks very largely to Mr. Chamberlain, that generation of Canadians whose political views are now being formed are being rapidly stampeded into the protectionist fold. Such is the Canadian application of the moral Mr. Morley pointed at Manchester.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

In politics as in war the side holding the positions have to defend. This is more true of the campaign of ballots than that of bullets, for in war the invaders are occasionally removed from the face of the earth, but no one ever heard of a political party being absolutely suppressed. Probably in Canada in 1896 and 1900 this was most nearly accomplished, but the Conservatives did not actually become extinct. The meeting in the Monument National is the latest manifestation that the Conservatives are not dead, but have been merely dormant. In politics the attack is directed by the ins. The party in power has to defend any gate before which the invaders choose to mass their attacks. Last night's meeting was chiefly interesting for the indications it gives of the plan of campaign the Conservatives have decided upon in anticipation of the election which they seem to consider imminent.

If the speeches of last night can be taken as an indication of what is to come it is clear the Conservative party is going to consecrate its energies to the advancement of the doctrines propounded by the Manufacturers' Association. Every speaker appeared to be an applicant for the position of nurse to the infant industries of the country. Each of them painted a dreary picture of coming industrial depression, which can only be prevented by returning the Conservatives to the high places of power and the removal of Liberal rulers.

It may seem a little strange to the man who is the fortunate possessor of an open mind that clamor should be now raised over the future of Canada's industries. Surely they never enjoyed greater prosperity than at present. All over Canada factories are being rushed to completion, and the only limit placed upon the number is that set by lack of men and materials to raise the tall chimneys and the big buildings. Despite the lower tariff, factories are being opened in Canada almost as fast as they are being closed in the United States. With one or two notable exceptions, every industry in Canada is running full capacity, and many of them overtime. Manufacturers have been so flooded with orders that they have been unable to meet the demand, and scores of travellers have been called in, not because they could not get more orders, but because the firms were unable to fill the orders already taken. Purchasers have been compelled to turn to foreign producers for goods they have been unable to get at home.

There is nothing in this state of affairs to warrant expectation of an immediate change. The Canadian consumer is filling his pockets with the money he receives for his wheat, his cattle, his apples, his butter and his cheese, and he is spending his gold as freely for all the Canadian factories are able to produce. The factories are making as handsome a profit as they ever did, and there is nothing to show that the farmers are going to abandon either their practice of farming or of buying from Canadian manufacturers. To raise the cry of hard times to come seems most inopportune just now, and it will be very difficult for the Conservative party, backed by the Manufacturers' Association, to get Canadians, east, west, north and south, to raise the tariff for the benefit of the manufacturers, who already constitute the most prosperous interest of the country.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Forward Canada!

No fifty-year franchises.

Two countries have recognized the new Panama republic. They are the United States, which proposes to build a canal, and France, which wants to see its canal rights acquire some cash value.

The United States seems to have full charge of the Panama revolution. The Colombian troops are not to be allowed to land to get at the revolutionists.

An Englishman may love a lord but we have not heard of an English lady crawling through a coal hole to see one married. The performance is too democratic.

Hon. Mr. Tarte declared he knew the organization to which the men belonged who showed displeasure at last night's meeting. Could he have referred to the old Tarte club which expelled him from membership and then changed its name?

Mr. Tarte declared he was on a Conservative platform because this is a free country. When half the audience hissed he vigorously objected to any one taking liberties with him.

What has become of the Borden beg, borrow, buy and build transcontinental railway scheme he proposed instead of the Grand Trunk Pacific? It was not heard of at the Conservative meeting last night.

Deer-stalkers who shoot men instead of deer, should not be allowed to escape punishment on the plea of the small child, that "it was just an accident." The list of fatalities due to grossest carelessness on the part of hunters is growing daily more gruesome. It appears to be the rule of many of the hunters to shoot at any moving object, trusting to luck that the target is a deer. One man, as reported in this morning's despatches, succeeded in killing one roadmaker, and in dangerously wounding another, before he ceased firing at what he imagined was big game. If men similarly predisposed to shooting first and looking afterwards were taught that manslaughter is a crime that implies long imprisonment, they would probably do more looking and less shooting.

ARE MARRIAGES LEGAL?

A Curious Case Before Methodist Church Conference.

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 11.—What promises to be one of the most interesting discussions ever held before the London conferences of the Ontario Methodist Episcopal Church will occupy its attention at the next annual session, when the Executive Committee will decide whether or not marriages performed by Rev. O. Chittick, an ordained minister of the Gesto Circuit of this county, are legal.

Mr. Chittick, who was ordained while in service in the United States, maintains, and he is supported in his contention by some of the best legal authorities of the country, that since he has been recognized and ordained by the London Conference, he has as much right to administer the conjugal vows as to give a sacrament. His predecessor, Rev. W. E. Milson, of Berlin, but until recently of the Gesto Circuit, has set up an argument that as Rev. Mr. Chittick was not actually ordained by the London Conference all marriages performed by him are illegal and in this view he is supported by the President of the Conference, Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Ridgetown.

A GREAT FUEL SAVER.

The greatest fuel-saving device on the market is the "WONDERFUL RADIATOR." It is sold for the extremely moderate price of $2.00, can be attached to any stove-pipe, and saves fully 50 per cent. in either coal or wood. The E. Cavanagh Co., corner Notre Dame and Seigneurs Street, have the sole agency for the city, and issue a cordial invitation to everyone interested in the heat problem to call and inspect it. Adv.

Glimpse at Some Striking Pictures in the Colonial House Exhibition

The exhibition of water colors now being held at the Colonial House contains numerous striking examples of the Dutch school. George Chavignand, Jacob Smits and Alexander Robinson are the painters represented. Chavignand is much more in evidence than the other artists, he being represented by no less than 100 pictures. Chavignand is acknowledged to be much better at landscapes than at portrait painting, and his works on view would seem to bear out this assertion. Eighty of his paintings are landscapes.

What is reckoned by many to be the gem of the collection is No. 19, "The Windmill," a Dutch scene, showing a windmill on the bank of a canal, with another windmill in the distance. The water is remarkably well done, and the approaching storm is shown in a most realistic manner. Another work worthy of note is No. 28, a small water color, "St. Anna." This picture has been exhibited at Bruges. The glint of the sun on the haystack in the field, turning them to a beautiful golden color, the trees in the distance bending slightly in the breeze, all give an idea of a perfect summer's day. Another example of this artist's work can be seen in No. 98, "The Old Canal Sluis." Many regard this picture as being superior to "The Windmill." The distance is perfect, lumbering barges swinging lazily at their moorings. One of the best interiors by Chavignand is undoubtedly No. 28, "Mending the Nets." A Dutch woman is seated near a window, mending a net. Through the open door of a cupboard one gets a peep at spotless dishes. The white curtains on the window do not altogether shut out the view from the outside, and the whole has an air of quiet and repose.

If there are not many portraits by Chavignand on view, lack of quantity is at least made up by the quality of these exhibits. Without doubt the best example of his portrait painting is No. 61, "The Little Violinist," a picture that seems to grow on one. The coloring is most delicate, and the figure is natural. There is an undefined something, a pathos, a longing depicted in the young player's face that holds one.

Jacob Smits is represented by five water colors. He excels in portraits. A good deal of discussion has arisen as to which is really the best example of his work now on view. "Waving Light," No. 102, holds first place in the opinion of not a few, while No. 105, "Brother and Sister," is thought by many to be even superior to the first named. There can be no doubt, however, as to the merit of both pictures, the figures in which are more natural.

Alexander Robinson has three water colors on view, the scene of each being laid around the markets of Bruges. The figures of the Dutch market women, as well as the contents of the stalls, are treated in a finished manner.

A work that is also attracting no little attention in Messrs. Morgan & Co.'s gallery is a model for the Strathcona memorial by Hebert, the Canadian sculptor. It takes the form of a column, at the bottom of which is Lord Strathcona, in his robes as a peer, presenting the Strathcona Horse flag to Col. Steele, who is mounted on horseback. Among some of the other figures is that of a nurse ministering to the wants of a dying soldier, and an allegorical figure carving the word "Vancouver" on what is supposedly a map of the C.P.R. The reason this model was not accepted was on account of the high price it commanded, the committee entrusted with the choosing of the memorial being limited to a certain figure.

CREEPER AND OVERSHOE

Some Novel Features Which Make Wearing Them a Comfort.

The disadvantage about the wearing of creepers in winter weather, when the ice is on the ground, is the disagreeable jar resulting from the hard metal parts coming in contact with the ground, and this repeated action is said by some to have a very injurious effect on the spinal column and thereby affecting the nerves. A combination creeper and overshoe which is said to act as a cushion and take up the effect of this constant hammering has been recently brought out, and its ingenious construction is shown in the accompanying cuts. The essential feature of this shoe is the cushion of rubber which extends along the outer edge of the sole, and just inside this are metal plates bearing teeth adapted to take hold of the icy surfaces. By consulting the illustration it will be seen that the rubber cushion extends beyond the metal plates just sufficiently to take up the blow of the foot coming in contact with the ground. This arrangement is said not only to prevent injury to the wearer, but also prevents the disagreeable clatter attendant on the use of creepers generally.

A CUSHIONED CREEPER.

U.S. WILL NOT ALLOW COLOMBIANS TO LAND

Cruiser Sent Along the Coast to Turn Back Any Troopships from Buena Ventura.

Washington, D.C., Nov. 11.—Upon receipt of a report of the American State Department that several British vessels were to be chartered by the Colombian Government to take troops from Buena Ventura to the Isthmus, the United States Navy Department today ordered the Boston to proceed off Buena Ventura, and in the event that the troops start for the Isthmus their commanders will be informed that they cannot land. The Navy Department announces that no attempt will be made to interfere with British vessels on the high seas.

Not a Shot Fired.

Colon, Nov. 11.—The steam launch sent to Bocas del Toro Tuursday last to capture that place in the name of the new republic of Panama, has returned here, and the officers report that the place was captured, and the flag hoisted without a shot being fired. No difficulties whatever were encountered.

A Canal Treaty.

Panama, November 11.—Dr. Manuel Amador, Frederico Boyd and Carlos Constantin Arosemana laft yesterday for Washington with instructions from the provisional Government to negotiate a canal treaty with the Government of the United States.

CAPT. STUART CHOSEN.

Bisley Man Will Contest British Columbia Seat.

Vancouver, Nov. 11.—Captain J. Duff Stuart was last evening selected by the Liberals to oppose Attorney-General Wilson in the bye-election on Wednesday, Nov. 18, in Vancouver. Joseph Martin declined the nomination on account of dissensions in the party. Ex-Lieutenant-Governor McInnes and Jas. McGee were also proposed as candidates, but defeated on a ballot. Mr. Stuart was a member of this year's Bisley team.

MISCAMPBELL WILL FIGHT.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 11.—Andrew Miscampbell was the chief speaker at Ward 1 Conservative Association's meeting last night. Referring to the "Soo" elections, he said he had recently come through a threshing machine, and told the story of the steamer Minnie M. and the steamer Ruth. That was the way the Soo had been won for the party that preached "righteousness exalteth a nation." The present Liberal administration had brought discredit upon such names as MacKenzie, Blake and Mowat. If he had been beaten by fair play he would not have minded it, but as it was he would fight them from the drop of the hat.

NOTES OF LABOR UNIONS

The executive of the Bookbinders' Union will meet to-morrow evening to consider a letter received by the secretary.

The Furriers held a meeting last night and adjourned to Monday, when a large number of members will be enrolled.

The Moulders will meet to-night, St. James Street, when a report on the recent successful smoker will be presented by the committee.

Mr. John A. Flett, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, is expected in Montreal shortly. He will interview the Quebec executive on matters of importance.

The Building Laborers will meet Saturday evening. A letter from a Montreal firm bearing on the scale of wages will be considered. It is expected that a general understanding will be reached shortly, whereby the men will work at the new scale of wages.

Views of French Press

La Patrie opposes the project to construct a railway to the Yukon through Canadian territory as proposed by Hon. Mr. Sifton.

Le Journal, referring to the meeting in the Monument National last night, says that the Conservative party is on the eve of a victory.

La Patrie says that the decision in the boundary question is final and was rendered by a commission of politicians and jurists that had the weakness to accept.

Le Canada expresses the opinion that Mr. Haultain, in agitating for the erection of the territories into a province, is only trying to further the interests of his party and secure political capital.

POINTED QUESTIONS FOR ELECTORATE TO ANSWER

Mr. J. Hoolahan Issues a Circular Asking for Information in St. Mary's Ward.

Several pointed questions are asked in a circular by Mr. J. Hoolahan, copies of which are being distributed to-day in St. Mary's Ward. Mr. Hoolahan says among other things:

"As an elector of St. James division I have the right to discuss the vote of your aldermen with you. If your alderman gives a bad vote and gets the city of Montreal to spend millions of dollars, will St. Mary's division alone, or the whole city, be called upon to pay the loss?

"Why is Ald. Lariviere afraid to allow the citizens to discuss his vote?

"Are you satisfied with the present police administration?

"Why are you paying 25 per cent. more for water than other cities?

"Why are you paying $1.25 for gas, when Toronto pays only 75 cents?

"Is your representative responsible for this?

"Mr. Lariviere likes to talk in public, but does not like others to discuss his vote before the electors.

"Is an Irishman an elector in the city of Montreal?"

BEGINS ITS WINTER SERVICE.

The Canadian Pacific Atlantic line steamer Lake Champlain, sailed from Liverpool at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon with 17 first, 50 second and 390 third class passengers and 1,200 tons of general cargo for St. John, N.B. This steamer opens the season between Liverpool and the Canadian winter ports. She will sail from St. John, N.B., November 28, for Liverpool.

DRIED UP.

Coffee Was Drying Up Her Blood.

"Coffee had the peculiar effect on me of thickening the blood and lessening it in quality, in other words drying it up," says a young lady of Shelton, Neb., "and so long as I used the drug, coffee, I had terrific headaches, frequently accompanied by sour stomach and a very bad breath.

"My condition was serious, and I knew something had to be done, so I decided to quit coffee and drink Postum.

"A few days after I quit drinking coffee and shifted to Postum I felt much better, and continued to improve on the Postum until I am now entirely free from headaches and stomach trouble, and steadily gaining in flesh and health and feel happy and full of rich, pure blood.

"My parents were ailing as long as they were coffee drinkers. They were certainly great coffee fiends and claimed that they could not get coffee strong enough for them, and my father in particular was a regular slave to coffee, drinking many cups of it daily, although he had terrific headaches about once a week, while my mother complained of her liver and took different liver remedies, but all to no avail.

"Then I persuaded them to quit coffee and drink Postum Food Coffee, and the result was all that I had hoped for, and both are now hearty eaters and are strong and well. I know of many other cases where leaving off coffee and drinking Postum has resulted in wonderful changes in health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

RIOTS FEARED AT TO-NIGHT'S MEETING

Birmingham Prepares to Give Chamberlain's Opponents a Warm Reception.

(Canadian Associated Press.)

London, Nov. 11.—Birmingham is in a ferment over to-day's attack by Lord Cecil and Winston Churchill upon Mr. Chamberlain's tariff policy. Hundreds of sandwich men are parading the streets carrying inscriptions "Shall the Radicals be allowed to oppose our Joe? Let thousands come to the square of the town hall." The stands will be barricaded, and a large cordon of police will be held in readiness to prevent a riot. Moore Bayley, who will preside, adds to the irritation owing to the fact that he, a Conservative, has recourse to the Free Trade Union to ensure a safe audience for his anti-Chamberlain views. The Duke of Devonshire has appealed for fair play in the city represented for so many years by John Bright.

Gilbert Parker's Views.

Sir Gilbert Parker, M.P., speaking at Gravesend last night, said that Lord Rosebery's statement that Canada was more interested in the Alaskan award than the preferential tariff, was a catchpenny statement. The Alaskan boundary question was a nine days' excitement, the preferential tariff was Canada's permanent desire. Lord Rosebery feared American immigration into Canada would destroy loyalty to the flag, but he forgot the history of the French-Canadians, and that seventy-five per cent. of American immigration into Canada was either Canadians repatriating themselves, or Scandinavians and Germans, not native-born Americans. Lord Rosebery also forgot that a settler becoming identified with a country was jealous of its autonomy.

Agriculture Decreases.

The Home Secretary, speaking at an agricultural meeting at Dover, last night, dwelt on the deplorable condition of agriculture and said that during the past twenty-five years the number of laborers employed on the land had decreased 250,000. He entirely supported Mr. Balfour's fiscal policy. He hoped that further dealings with Colonial statesmen would enable the British Government to go further than it was proposed to do at present.

Endorsed by Miners.

An interesting indication of the feeling of the miners towards Mr. Chamberlain's proposals comes from the Belstule district, where the miners, by an unanimous vote, endorsed Mr. Chamberlain's proposals.

STINGING HISSES FOR MR. TARTE AT RALLY IN MONUMENT NATIONAL

Former Minister Openly Defies Throng at the Conservative's Love-Feast, at Which Messrs Borden and Monk Discuss the Party's Issues.

Oratory by Messrs. Borden, Monk and Tarte proved a sufficiently strong attraction to fill the Monument National last evening with an enthusiastic audience. The occasion was a political rally under the auspices of the East End Conservative Club. It was the first time Mr. R. L. Borden, leader of the Conservative forces, had addressed a public meeting in Montreal since he became a figure in Dominion politics.

Incidentally it was the first opportunity for Conservatives to see and hear Mr. F. D. Monk and Hon. J. Israel Tarte on the same platform. And they looked all right, too, although the former Minister of Public Works did seem ill at ease on more than one occasion. It appeared he was not quite sure of the manner in which he would be received. When he arose to speak, however, this doubt was dispelled, and Mr. Tarte's mind should never again be haunted with it. He certainly did get his share, and it was handed to him with spontaneous generosity by almost the entire house.

Chance for Lively Doings.

The announcement that Mr. Tarte and Mr. Monk would speak on the same questions from the same point of view was pregnant with possibilities. If both appeared the meeting might be a lively one. There might even be some doings, and not a few did hint that this had much to do with the large attendance. That the greater portion of the audience did not go to the Monument National to hear the issues of the day discussed was apparent. The attraction was really the possibility that Mr. Monk and Mr. Tarte would do things to each other, and in this they were disappointed.

The rivals for leadership in the Province of Quebec showed no desire to get at close quarters. Several policemen were stationed in the building—for what purpose is not definitely known—but at any rate their services were not called into requisition.

Mr. Monk's time was wholly occupied in doing his best to make a good speech. Mr. Tarte had all he could do to attend to his audience, and the oratorical arrows remained in the quiver.

Applause for Mr. Monk.

A Herald representative went to the meeting armed with a stop watch. He wanted to time the applause given to Mr. Monk and Mr. Tarte, and by this means obtain an idea of their relative popularity. The plan worked well with Mr. Monk. When the "undisputed leader of the Conservatives of Quebec" arose to speak he was greeted with much enthusiasm and noise. Before it ceased the watch had registered 48½ seconds.

Mr. Monk was doing very well indeed. Five times during his speech Mr. Monk was interrupted with applause, and the watch showed the duration of these periods as 12, 9, 13, 14½ and 6½ seconds respectively. When he came under the wire with a final burst of speed the watch registered 29½ seconds more. In all, Mr. Monk had received the "glad hand" from the audience for two minutes and thirteen seconds. When he sat down he threw one look at Mr. Tarte which seemed to say, "Well, what do you think of that? Now it's up to you."

But it was not; it was up to Mr. Borden, and as he really made a good speech and was well received, the watch had a rest.

Mr. Tarte is Determined.

Then Mr. Tarte arose and walked to the front of the stage with a look of grim determination on his face. Such a look as Horatio might have worn the morning that he and his chums went out to do stunts on the bridge. Mr. Tarte smiled and bowed. Some one started to applaud, others hissed; the stop watch began to click off the seconds. From the gallery came a mingled chorus of hisses and "boos." From another corner came voluble expressions in French and English, some of which sounded considerably like uncomplimentary remarks. Mr. Tarte smiled again and bowed. The noise increased, but the hissing seemed to outweigh the applause. Mr. Tarte was visibly nervous. Mr. Monk gazed into space as if he heard nothing, saw nothing. The noise increased. Finally Mr. Tarte shook his fist at the gallery and shouted:

"I know that organization. I have met it before.

There was more laughter and more cries of "boo."

From that time until the close of his address Mr. Tarte was a busy man. The audience kept after him throughout, and more than half of his time was occupied in replying to questions from the gallery and the lower floor. Before he had half finished it became apparent that Mr. Monk would receive no attention from his hands.

Audience Starts to Leave.

Then the audience started to leave. Why should they stay? They were not interested in Mr. Tarte's opinion on the fiscal question nor his transcontinental railway project, but they would have liked mightily to hear him express in plain ungarnished talk his opinion of Mr. Monk, or vice-versa. But he didn't, and so lost his opportunity.

Other speakers following Mr. Tarte were Hon. L. P. Pelletier, Hon. P. E. Leblanc, Hon. L. O. Taillon and Mr. Charles Chaput, the chairman.

Mr. Borden opened his address with a few greetings in French. After a brief but sympathetic reference in English to the death of Hon. L. F. R. Masson and the daughter of Hon. Rufus Pope, Mr. Borden proceeded to discuss the questions that occupied the attention of Parliament during the session, which he characterized as "a weary one." He blamed Sir Wilfrid Laurier for the decision in the Alaska boundary case, and enlarged upon the beauties of his own scheme for a transcontinental railway, and eulogized the Conservative policy on the tariff question.

Promises by Mr. Borden.

Mr. Borden promised that if the Conservatives should come into power they would bend their energies toward making Montreal and Quebec free ports, and in conclusion he jollied his hearers on their ability as vocalists, and congratulated them on their singing of "O Canada, mon pays, mes amour," intimating that when it came to vocal expression they had the Metropolitan Opera Company and the festival choruses beaten to a finish.

Mr. Monk, speaking in French, covered practically the same ground as Mr. Borden; in fact, both speeches might have been cast in the same mould.

Mr. Tarte devoted his time to excusing himself for being found in the company of Messrs. Borden and Monk, and explained his attitude by the remarkable statement that "Canada is a free country." That was about all, the remainder of his time being occupied in fighting back at the audience.

The other speakers eulogized themselves and each other, said they had had "a real nice time," and were glad they came. Then "God Save the King" was sung, the audience streamed out and the stenographers retained to collect campaign material breathed a sigh of relief. The rally had passed into history.

FREE TRADE IN NATURAL PRODUCTS IS DESIRABLE

John Charlton Tells Chicago People It Would Be Good for the United States.

Chicago, November 11.—At the banquet of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association last night, John Charlton, M.P., of North Norfolk, Ont., made the principal address, dealing with relations between Canada and the United States.

After referring to the "Drastic Tariff" of the United States, Mr. Charlton said—"The substantial continuance of present Canadian tariff conditions can be secured by important tariff concessions on the part of the United States, and the question of adopting reciprocal free trade in natural products is one that will claim the attention of Americans, as upon this basis satisfactory conditions for the present may be obtained.

"Formerly the American farmer and lumberman opposed the policy of the free admission of Canadian natural products into the markets of the United States, believing that the effect would be to depress prices in their home market. That this is a mere bugbear, when a careful comparison of the relative volume of American productions and Canadian exports for consumption in the United States is made, it will be found that the volume of exported quantities is so small compared with the volume of domestic production in the United States that it would be absurd to expect that imports from Canada for consumption in the United States could do more than produce an infinitesimal influence upon prices.

"Free trade in natural products is beyond question fully earned by Canadian tariff conditions. The sooner it is arranged the better for the interests of both countries. Now if the Canadian buys heavily, he asks the privilege of making proportionate sales in return. The present state of trade relations is absurd. The time is now ripe for the display of a liberal spirit on the part of the United States. If that country has the wisdom to display this spirit towards its northern neighbor, the result will be vastly more satisfactory than the continuance of present conditions."

JUDGES RETIRED.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—(Special)—The Government has made provision for the superannuation of Judges Walkem, in British Columbia; Judge Richardson, in the Northwest Territories, and Judge Caron, of Quebec. All of them come under the age limit clause of the act respecting Superior Court judges passed at the last session.

WOMEN FOUGHT TO SEE THE BRIDE

Crawled Into Coal Holes and Broke Police Lines to See New Duchess.

New York, Nov. 11.—The excitement and disorder at the wedding of the Duke of Roxburghe and Miss May Goelet were unparalleled in the history of New York.

From St. Thomas Church to the Goelet residence, five blocks, Fifth Avenue was a surging mob, fully 10,000 persons, mostly women, which a force of 200 policemen was powerless to hold in check.

Before the service, several hundred women gained entrance to the church and seated themselves in the galleries from which they were forcibly dislodged by a squad of police.

When the carriage containing the bride to be, and her brother, Robert Goelet, neared the church it was surrounded by women, who stopped the horses and in their efforts to see the bride, clung to the carriage, some of them getting on the steps and thrusting their heads into the open windows. Half a dozen policemen rushed to the rescue, but it was some minutes before they could drive the women away.

Strenuous Curiosity.

When the carriage of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, which was just ahead of that of the bride, reached the church, the crowd of women rushed frantically forward carrying the solid line of policemen with them. They were forced back only to again rush forward when the bride's carriage drew up. Additional policemen were summoned, but the women crawled under the canopy, leading from the curb to the church, and clung there until the bride had passed, in spite of the police. A patrolman caught one very well dressed woman by one of her ankles and dragged her along the walk, until she was forced to loosa her hold, but she had seen the bride and was satisfied. On 53rd street side of the church fifteen well dressed women crawled into a coal hole, leading underneath the chancel. Policemen drove them out.

Despoiled the Church.

Four hours after the ceremonies Fifth Avenue was still crowded with curious women, many of whom were laden with spoils from the church decorations, after the invited guests had left, the mob crowded into the church and proceeded at once to tear the chrysanthemums and lilies down. Before they could be stopped the church was despoiled of many of its decorations.

MR. BENJAMIN HUTCHINS DEAD.

Veteran Liberal Passes Away at Home of His Son-in-Law.

The death of Mr. Benjamin Hutchins removes one of the oldest residents and oldest Liberals Montreal possessed. Mr. Hutchins was in his eighty-sixth year, and came to Montreal from Argenteuil, where he was born, at an early age. For years he carried on a wholesale grocery business at St. Paul and McGill Streets, but finally wound it up to go to the Western States. Mr. Hutchins lived in Kansas City for years, engaging in mining and real estate business. Later he returned to Montreal and for a score of years he lived retired.

Always an active Liberal, one of the old school, Mr. Hutchins was put up to contest the county of Argenteuil in 1867 against Sir John C. Abbott, but was unsuccessful by a small majority.

Mr. Hutchins' first wife was Miss Filton, of Sherbrooke, and subsequently he married a daughter of Sheriff Sherwood, of Brockville, whose family were well known U. E. Loyalists. Five children survive him—Mrs. R. R. Stevenson, with whom he had recently made his home; Mrs. A. Matthews, also of Montreal; Mrs. Marsh, of London, Ont.; Mrs. Baillie, of Buffalo, N.Y.; and Mr. Charles Hutchins, of the Northwest Mounted Police. Mrs. Lemuel Cushing and Mrs. Geo. A. Holland, of Pine Avenue, are sisters.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from St. George's Church to the Mount Royal Cemetery. His Lordship Bishop Carmichael officiated at the service. The chief mourners were Messrs. R. R. Stevenson, S. W. Stevenson, R. C. Stevenson and Thomas Cushing.

DIPHTHERIA EPIDEMIC.

Fifty Malignant Cases in N.Y. State Reformatory.

Elmira, N.Y., Nov. 11.—The epidemic of diphtheria at the New York State Reformatory now numbers 50 inmates among its victims, and Dr. Van Dersee, the assistant physician, is also stricken with the disease. Twenty-five of the cases are of the most malignant type. Seven hundred of the 1,500 inmates were inoculated with anti-toxine serum yesterday and are regarded as immune. There have been two deaths from the disease to date, and two more are expected to die within the next 24 hours. The authorities profess a belief that they have the epidemic under control.

IMPORT FACTORY GIRLS.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Walter Stark, agent of the Labor Bureau in London, Eng., who proposes to send factory girls to Canada to work in the big factories of Canada, met a number of manufacturers yesterday and explained his ideas. He proposes to take girls from the factories of England and other girls who desire to work in factories, and ship them to this country, where through co-operation with the manufacturers he expects to place them in immediate employment. The scheme contemplates making only the most careful selection from the factories of England.

MUST GO BACK TO ENGLAND.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—Judge Britton dismissed the application made on behalf of Anthony Stanley Rowe, the English embezzler, for his release. Rowe's extradition was ordered by the Police Magistrate, and the appeal was taken on the ground that he had not committed an extraditable offence in converting cheques of the Great Fingal Company. Judge Britton decided on all points against the prisoner. He has sixty days for appeal, but it is understood no appeal will be taken. Inspector Sager, of Scotland Yard, is here to take him back.

Halifax, Nov. 11.—At a conference held in Premier Murray's office yesterday it was practically decided to proceed at once to secure the legislation necessary for the separation of the Dominion Coal Company and the Dominion Iron and Steel Company. Those present at the conference were Premier Murray, James Ross, president of the Dominion Coal Company; J. H. Plummer, chairman of the managing committee of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company; W. B. Ross, Alex. Johnson, M.P., Arthur Kendall, M.P., D. D. McKenzie, M.L.A., and A. C. Ross, of Sydney.

MRS. WALTER MANTHORNE, BROOKLYN, N.S.

She says: "I suffered for three years with terrible headaches and rushing of blood to my head. I lost my appetite and became very thin and weak. I tried many different remedies and consulted doctors, but all in vain until I started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I had not taken more than two bottles when I began to feel better, my appetite improved wonderfully and I increased rapidly in weight. I took altogether four bottles and am now as well as can be, for which I owe my thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters. I can recommend it to all those suffering as I did."

Woman and Her Work.

Too Wise.

The dear little fellow was waiting at the door when his father came home from business.

"Pop," began the child, "what did you tell me about wise men?"

"They are always honored and respected, my son."

"If a man is wise, will he go to jail?" pursued the infant.

"What an idea! Only those convicted of follies go to jail."

"Socrates was a wise man, wasn't he, pop?"

"He was one of the wisest—er—run along, now."

"Why did he go to j—"

"Run along—do."

"But, pop, why did Socrates get killed?"

"Do you hear? Papa wants to read the paper."

"Why did you tell me to be wise, pop? Will I get killed like Socrates if I am wise?"

"Enough! That will do! Drat the young one!"

"Do you want me to go to jail?"

"Shut up!"

"But I don't want to go to jail, pop. I'd rather be foolish than get k—ouch! I'll be still, pop! Wough! What did you tell me to be wise for, anyhow? Boo hoo!"

The education of the young is arduous and difficult.

POT-POURRI.

USES OF UGLINESS.

"The pretty woman hasn't all the good things in life," said the plain woman.

"She misses one thing certainly—the comfort of ugliness.

"To be sure, she has to be old enough to have philosophized a bit about life before she finds this out.

"And before that time she is certain to have lain awake nights crying because the skin-deep gift of the gods has been denied her.

"But by and by she begins to see that her plain features, if they haven't brought her joy, have spared her pain.

"In the first place, she hasn't expected much of the world, and so she has not been disappointed. Then she has had leisure from her mirror and her admirers, and, next of all, from herself, to think some thoughts worth thinking and to do a little something of solid worth.

"The worst slave I ever knew was a remarkably pretty girl who was always in terror lest she was not at her beauty's best, and whose whole life was a round of severe self-exactions that she might keep her beauty unimpaired.

"The poor child actually found time for nothing else in life than the office of being her own groom.

"Best of all, the plain woman is reasonably sure to escape the observation and comment that are sure to follow a pretty girl, and which is not half so pleasing to her if she is sensible and right minded as the most of mankind think.

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS.

A mother and a wife should not forget that she owes some duty to herself. In the stress of family life, in the cares of bringing up children, many women do forget this. They fancy that they must shield the poor, hard-working, bread-earning husbands from all the troubles and annoyances of the home. For him there should be slippers at the fire and a cushion on the chair.

And the children? Of course, they must be clothed just as well as the neighbors' youngsters, even though the mother goes without a new winter coat. And the daughter must go to as many dances in the week as she likes, else where will be her place in the young society? And so the mother stays at home to wash the dishes and mend the stockings. It is all very fine for the husbands and the children: and the mother, bless her! enjoys it. But isn't she a little unfair to herself, and isn't it her own fault? She takes it for granted that she should sacrifice herself and the others take it for granted, too.

But everybody has some right to a certain amount of living for his own ends. Everybody has a right to a slice of his own life to spend as he or she chooses. And the mother should take it. Not only she herself, but the whole family, would be bettered if they were not allowed forever and eternally to lean on the mother. It is not because they do not think, and in the mother's love she does not think, either, but cheerfully gives herself, when it would be better to require a little of the others.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Articles made of brass may be kept bright and free from tarnish if covered with a thin coat of varnish made of colorless shellac and alcohol, which may be procured at any drug store.

If milk is kept in a large, shallow basin, it will remain sweet for a longer time than if kept in a deep jug.

To prevent a lamp smoking take out the wick, soak it in vinegar, dry it well and cut it exacly straight. Wash the lamp in soda water, and when it is refilled with oil put in a small piece of gum camphor. It will much improve the light.

To soften kid shoes that have been hardened by getting wet, clean them thoroughly and rub well with castor oil.

To test nutmegs, prick them with a pin, and if they are in good condition the oil will instantly spread around the puncture.

To clean cut glass or glassware for table use, make a good suds of warm water and common soap. Take a brush and scrub each article. When the dirt is removed, rinse the articles well with cold water, drain and polish.

To destroy roaches, sprinkle powdered borax and sugar or insect powder in their haunts.

In cooking string beans, peas and spinach adding a little nutmeg to the water improves their flavor.

Fish may be scaled much easier by first dipping them into boiling water for a minute.

To polish copperware, tea kettles, reservoirs, etc., use one teacupful of vinegar and one tablesponful of salt; heat it, apply with a cloth, and rub till dry.

LUNCHEON GOWN WITH LACE AND HAND EMBROIDERIES.

Pastel blue sicilienne is here shown decorated with silk Cluny lace in a champagne shade, with French knots and hand embroideries in a deeper shade of blue and in black. The lace is introduced in vest and bolero effect on the corsage and in panel effect on the skirt, which is cut en traine and finished with a pastel blue binding at the hem.

FOR THE COOK.

CHICKEN MARYLAND STYLE.

Joint a pair of tender young chickens; wash in cold water, and while damp roll in salted and peppered flour. Fry out enough fat salt pork in a hot frying pan to make an inch of gravy when the meat has been strained out. If you have not enough gravy, add a little shortening. When hissing hot lay in the floured chicken and fry to a fine brown, rather slowly, and turning often, that the meat may be thoroughly cooked. Take up the chicken when done and arrange on a platter. Have ready a cupful of hot milk, stir into it a tablespoonful of flour wet with cold milk, when you have dropped a pinch of soda into the hot milk. Add gradually the fat from the pan and return to the fire. Stir until smooth, put in a tablespoonful of minced parsley. Cook one minute and pour over the chicken. Set over hot water, covered, for five minutes before serving.

SAUSAGES

Do not limit your knowledge of pork sausages to those greasy fried ones served always at breakfast. Sausages become very dainty with a little care in their preparation. A delicious way of cooking country sausage meat is to brown a finely chopped onion in a tablespoonful of butter, in a saucepan; add the juice of half a lemon; prick six sausages in skins, and add them or six cakes of sausage meat. Let them cook five minutes. Put in a cupful of rich brown sauce. Serve the sausages at the end of this time with a little minced parsley sprinkled over them. Sausages may be cooked in the oven. Put twelve sausages in skins on a baking dish. Separate them by twelve slices of bread, cut the same length as the sausages. Add a spoonful of cherry juice. Add if desired six minced mushrooms to this sauce. When the sausages have baked twelve minutes serve them with the sauce in a separate boat. Another way of serving baked sausage is on a layer of red or white beans cooked to a puree. Spread the puree of beans on the center of a platter and arrange the baked sausages on top of it.

CHAPTER XVIII.—(Continued.)

It was a scheme to fire the street boy's soul, and I was only afraid of failure from the 'over-enthusiasm it aroused. But the injunctions which I gave them to spare the shrubs and not to trample the grass any more than was necessary were so minute and impressive that they moved away to their task in unexpected order and with a subdued cheerfulness highly promising of success.

I did not accompany them. Jinny, who has such an innocent air on the street, took my place and promenaded up and down the block, just to see that Mr. Moore did not make too much trouble. And it was well she did so, for though he was not at home,—I had chosen the hour of his afternoon ride,—his new man-servant was; and he no sooner perceived this crowd of urchins making for the opposite house than he rushed at them, and would have scattered them far and wide in a twinkling if the demure dimples of my little ally had not come into play and distracted his attention so completely as to make him forget the throng of unkempt hoodlums who seemed bound to invade his master's property. She was looking for Mr. Moore's house, she told him. Did he know Mr. Moore, and his house which was somewhere near? Not this new, great, big house, where the horrible things took place of which she had read in the papers, but his little old house, which she had heard was soon to be for rent, and which she thought would be just the right size for herself and mother. Was that it? That dear little place all smothered in vines? How lovely! and what would the rent be, did he think? and had it a back yard with garden-roof enough for her to raise pinks and nasturtiums? and so on, and so on, while he stared with delighted eyes, and tried to put in a word edgewise, and the boys—well, they went through that strip of grass in just ten minutes. My brave Jinny had just declared with her most roguish smile that she would run home and tell her mother all about this sweetest of sweet little places, when a shout rose from the other side of the street, and that collection of fifteen or twenty boys scampered away as if mad, shouting in joyous echo of the boy at their head:

"It's to be chicken, heaping plates of ice cream and sponge-cake."

By which token she knew that the ring had been found.

* * * * * * * *

When they brought this ring to me I would not have exchanged places with any man on earth. As Jinny herself was curious enough to stroll along about this time, I held it out where we both could see it and draw our conclusions.

It was a plain gold circlet set with a single small ruby. It was cut through and twisted out of shape just as I had anticipated; and as I examined it I wondered what part it had played and was yet destined to play in the drama of Veronica Jeffrey's mysterious life, and still more mysterious death. That it was a factor of some importance, arguing some early school-girl love, I could but gather from the fact that its removal fro mher finger was effected in secrecy and under circumstances of such pressing haste. How could I learn the story of that ring and the possible connection between it and Mr. Jeffrey's jealousy of his wife and the disappointing honeymoon which had followed their marriage? That this feeling on his part had antedated the ambassador's ball no one could question; but that it had started as far back as the wedding day was a new idea to me and one which suggested many possibilities. Could this idea be established, and, if so, how? But one avenue of inquiry offered itself. The waiter, who had been spirited away so curiously immediately after the wedding, might be able to give us some information on this interesting point. He had been the medium of the messages which had passed between her and Mr. Jeffrey just prior to the ceremony; afterward he had been seen talking earnestly to that gentleman and later with her. Certainly, it would add to our understanding of the situation to know what reply she had sent to the peremptory demand made upon her at so critical a time—an understanding so desirable that the very prospect of it was almost enough to warrant a journey to Tampa. Yet, say that the results were disappointing, how much time lost and what a sum of money! I felt the need of advice in this crisis, yet hesitated to ask it. My cursed pride, and my no less cursed jealousy of Durbin stood very much in my way at this time.

A week had now passed since the inquest, and, while Miss Tuttle still remained at liberty, it was a circumscribed liberty which must have been very galling to one of her temperament and habits. She rode and she walked, but she entered no house unattended nor was she allowed any communication with Mr. Jeffrey. Nevertheless she saw him, or at least gave him the opportunity of seeing her. Each day at three o'clock she rode through K St., and the detective who watched Mr. Jeffrey's house said that she never passed it without turning her face to the second-storey window, where he invariably stood. No signs passed between them; indeed, they scarcely nodded; but her face, as she lifted it to meet his eye, showed so marked a serenity and was so altogether beautiful that this same detective had a desire to see if it maintained like characteristics when she was not within reach of her brother-in-law. Accordingly, the next day he delegated his place to another and took his stand farther down the street. Alas! it was not the same woman's face he saw; but a far different and sadder one. She wore that look of courage and brave hope only in passing Mr. Jeffrey's house. Was it simply an expression of her secret devotion to him or the signal of some compact which had been entered into between them?

Whichever it was, it touched my heart, even in his description of it. After advising with Jinny I approached the superintendent, to whom, without further reserve, I opened my heart.

The next day I found myself on the train bound for Tampa, with full authority to follow Curly Jim until I found him.

CHAPTER XIX.
IN TAMPA.

When I started on this desperate search after a witness, war had been declared, but no advance as yet ordered on Cuba. But during my journey south the long expected event happened, and on my arrival in Tampa I found myself in the midst of departure and everything in confusion.

Of course, under such conditions it was difficult to find my man on the instant. Innumerable enquiries yielded no result, and in the absence of any one who would or could give me the desired information I wandered from one end of the camp to the other till I finally encountered a petty officer who gave signs of being a Rough Rider. Him I stopped, and, with some hint of my business, asked where James Calvert could be found.

His answer was a stare and a gesture toward the hospital tents.

Nothing could have astonished me more.

"Sick?" I cried.

"Dying," was his answer.

Dying! Curly Jim! Impossible. I had misled my informant as to the exact man I wanted, or else there were two James Calverts in Tampa. Curly Jim, the former cowboy, was not the fellow to succumb in camp before he had ever smelt powde.

"It is James Calvert; of the First Volunteer Corps, I am after," said I. "A sturdy fellow"—

"No doubt, no doubt. Many sturdy fellows are down. He's down to stay. Typhoid, you know. Bad case. No hope from the start. Pity, but—"

I heard no more. Dying! Curly Jim! He who was considered to be immune! He who held the secret—

"Let me see him," I demanded. "It is important—a police matter—a word from him may save a life. He is still breathing?"

"Yes, but I do not think there is any chance of his speaking. He did not recognize his nurse five minutes ago."

As bad as that! But I did not despair. I did not dare to. I had staked everything on this interview, and I was not going to lose its promised results from any lack of effort on my own part.

"Let me see him," I repeated.

I was taken in. The few persons I saw clustered about a narrow cot in one corner gave way, and I was cut to the heart to see that they did this not so much out of consideration for me or my errand there as from the consciousness that their business at the bedside of this dying man was over. He was on the point of breathing his last. I pressed forward, and after one quick scrutiny of the closed eyes and pale face I knelt at his side and whispered a name into his ear. It was that of Veronica Moore.

He started; they all saw it. On the threshold of death, some emotion—we never knew what one—drew him back for an instant, and the pale cheek showed a suspicion of color. Though the eyes did not open, the lips moved, and I caught these words:

"Kept word—told no one—she was so—"

And that was all. He died the next instant.

Well! I was woefully done up by this sudden extinction of all my hopes. They had been extravagant, no doubt, but they had sustained me through all my haps and mishaps, trials and dangers, till now, here, they ended with the one inexorable fact—death. Was I doomed to defeat, then? Must I go back to the major with my convictions unchanged but with no fresh proof, no real evidence to support them? I certainly must. With the death of this man, all means of reaching the state of Mrs. Jeffrey's mind immediately preceding her marriage was gone. I could never learn now what to know would make a man of me and possibly save Cora Tuttle.

Bending under this stroke of Providence, I passed out. A little boy was sobbing at the tent door. I stared at him curiously, and was hurrying on, when I felt myself caught by the hand.

"Take me with you," cried a choked and frightened voice in my ear. "I have no friend here, now he is gone; take me back to Washington."

Washington! I turned and looked at the lad who, kneeling in the hot sand at the door of the tent, was clutching me with imploring hands.

"Who are you?" I asked, "and how came you here? Do you belong to the army?"

Munroe a Third-Rater.

Philadelphia lovers of boxing were enabled to witness the miner champion, Jack Munroe, perform, says a writer in the Public Ledger. The man who had successfully puzzled Champion Jeffries, and who had even been accredited with a knock down over the champion, met Peter Maher before critical eyes.

Munroe is a genuine heavyweight, so far as weight and stature go, and there is where his qualifications end. Despite his avoirdupois, he rates with Carter, Hart, O'Brien and Choynski, and if he is able to hold his own with any one of the quartet he may be considered seriously in a bout with Ruhlin, Corbett, Fitzsimmons or Gardner.

Should he successfully climb these difficult rungs of the pugilistic ladder then he may justly ask for a return match with the champion. Until then Munroe must be considered as a third-rater, of not even ordinary type.

Haslip vs. Tremblay.

John Haslip, of Buffalo, and Eugene Tremblay, of Montreal, the two well-known wrestlers, will meet in the Victoria Rifles Armory on Nov. 20. The contest will be catch-as-catch-can for two falls out of three. Haslip is the cleverest wrestler of his weight, which is 135 lbs. in the United States, but when he met Tremblay before a draw was the result. Since then the Montreal man has had considerable practice with George Kennedy and other local athletes, and it is fully expected that he will be able to account for Haslip.

Gun Club Championship.

Mr. E. C. Eaton has won the Montreal Gun Club championship and spoon shot. After the shooting a meeting was held at which it was decided that Mr. Eaton should shoot in future from the 30-yard mark. The next events will be held on Nov. 21. Following are the results:

ENGLISH CRICKETERS IN THE ANTIPODES

P. F. Warner and His All-England Eleven Will Play Their First Match at Adelaide.

Coowstown, Australia, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The all-England cricket eleven, under the captaincy of P. F. Warner, of Middlesex, has arrived here from London and will play their first match against an eleven of South Australia at Adelaide.

There are five championship matches in the programme, when all-England will play all-Australia.

HOCKEY.

To Strengthen Houghton.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—Hod and Bruce Stewart, ex-members of the Ottawa Hockey Club, will play hockey in Houghton, Mich., this winter. Hod is already located in that place, and Bruce will go there before the snow flies. He is now in Ottawa, but will journey westward in the course of a few weeks. They both played in Pittsburg last winter, but on opposing teams.

Another Canadian who played in Pittsburg, Cooney Shields, well known as a hockey player with the Guelph Nationals, and as a lacrosse player with Oshawa, will go to Houghton to play with Jack Gibson's team.

Charlie Spittal left Saturday for Pittsburg, where he will play again this winter. He was accompanied by his wife and child.

Secretaryship of the O.H.A.

Mr. W. A. Hewitt, sporting editor of the Toronto Daily Star, has been nominated for the secretaryship of the Ontario Hockey Association, made vacant by the retirement of Mr. W. A. Buchanan. The election will take place at the annual meeting of the association, to be held at Toronto on Saturday, Dec. 5. Mr. Hewitt is well versed in hockey matters, and would, no doubt, prove a worthy successor to Mr. Buchanan.

His candidature has the support of a large number of clubs throughout the province, and Quebec enthusiasts will also be pleased if he secures the appointment. He is well-known in Montreal, where he was for some time sporting editor of The Montreal Herald, and it is felt that, understanding as he does so thoroughly the hockey of both provinces, he would be a strong factor in bringing the two associations closer together.

McMillan Goes to Belleville.

Smith's Falls, Ont., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Smith's Falls loses one of their best hockey players, McMillan, of Cornwall, who came here last March and played lacrosse with the Smith's Falls team all summer. McMillan was expected to stay here this winter, but he has gone to Belleville where he has received a better position.

Hockey in New York.

New York, Nov. 11.—Ice hockey, which has been steadily gaining in popular favor as a winter sport in this city, promises to be more popular than ever the coming season. The five clubs which compose the New York League—the Crescent A.C., champions for three years; the N.Y.A.C., the Brooklyn Skating Club, the St. Nicholas Skating Club and the Hockey Club of New York—have all strengthened their teams considerably, and the champions will have their work cut out to win the pennant for the fourth time.

The N.Y.A.C. will probably lose one of the best players in America in Captain Tom Howard. The Mercury Foot team, however, has secured two star players from the Canadian League, and it is probable one of these players will succeed Howard as captain.

Canada has always turned out the strongest teams, and with these two new stars on the team the N.Y.A.C. boys may be considered a strong factor in the struggle for the championship.

The Newark Baseball Club leads the Eastern League in drafting. Its list is Wrigley from New Orleans, Third Baseman Phyle from Memphis, Outfielder Marshall and First Baseman Mitchell from Troy, Second Baseman Loudenschlager from Syracuse and Catcher Lynch of Little Rock.

RUMOR OTTAWA COLLEGE TO RETIRE FROM Q.R.F.U.

But the Same Has Been Heard Before, and Not Much Faith is Placed In It.

Again a rumor that the Ottawa College authorities will insist on the Collegian footballers withdrawing from the Quebec Union is afloat. The rumor, however, has been received with some scepticism. If, however, such prove to be the case the loss to football of this old club will be severe.

The news was received in Montreal with considerable surprise. Mr. Herb Brown, secretary of the Q.R.F.U., was inclined to disbelieve the report and hoped that there was nothing in it. The cause of the stand taken by the authorities might be that it had a disturbing effect on student life.

There have been rumors in previous years of disbanding the team, for instance, three seasons ago, when the rivalry between College and Ottawa City had become uncomfortably keen. One season the team did retire, on the occasion when Morin was injured. However, it was only for the season.

THE KINGSTON DISPUTE.

Manager Ballard Surprised that the Presbyterians Had Protested Against Saturday's Game.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—Manager George Ballard, of the 'Varsity Rugby team, when informed that Queen's had protested the game played with 'Varsity in Kingston on Saturday, was very much surprised at the action of the Presbyterians.

He said that the game had started shortly after 3 o'clock, and that the first half had lasted one hour and five minutes. The second half lasted nearly an hour. Several times during the game the play was stopped in order to clear the field, as the spectators encroached on the playing ground. 'Varsity was on the aggressive, and the play was almost entirely in Queen's quarter.

With less than a minute to play, Beatty kicked behind Queen's line, and the ball was run out by a Queen's back, who was forced into touch. The ball was thrown in and secured by a 'Varsity man, who went over the line for a try, but was called back two yards out for going into touch.

It was then announced that there was two seconds to play. Beatty threw the ball well out and it rolled along the ground. Umpire MacDonald then blew his whistle, thinking the ball was dead, and that Queen's had possession. Laing had secured the ball, however, and gone over for a try.

INTERCOLLEGIATE RULES.

McGill is Willing to Adopt the Quebec Football Style as Played This Season.

There is some talk of a change in the rules governing the Intercollegiate Union, and in an interview, Walter Moisom, of McGill, said:

"We feel that it is time for a change at McGill, but we do not want the snap-back game. In the first place there is not enough variety to it. It may be all right to those who do not know or play the game, but to a player there is too much sameness.

McGill will be willing to adopt the Quebec rules as played this season; the game has been made an open one by the adopting of a rule whereby a team must gain five yards on the third down or forfeit the ball."

Queen's will also vote against the snap-back rules again this year, as several of the Kingston University representatives are of the same opinion as those from McGill, and while they are ready for a change to make a more open game, they will not accept the snap-back rule.

Montreal to Play Argonauts.

The Montreal Club have arranged to play the Argonauts at Toronto on Saturday afternoon. The team will leave on Friday evening, and the players express themselves as confident of winning. In view of the match electric light practices will be held this and to-morrow evenings.

Quebec Rules Superior.

"The Quebec rules are immeasurably superior to the Ontario rules from every standpoint," said Mr. Thompson, manager of the Argonauts, to a representative of the Toronto Star. "It's football all the time; there are no intermissions every minute or so, and then a little more football, as we have it under the snap-back rules."

McGill treated the Argonauts in royal fashion, and the Oarsmen believe the Montrealers will beat 'Varsity when they play at Toronto on the 21st. Mr. Thompson gives the Collegians full credit for their victory over the Argos.

B.C. Rugby Football.

At the annual meeting of the British Columbia Rugby Football Union, which union plays the fast English game, a number of amendments to the constitution were adopted.

Among these a clause was added providing that any team defaulting a game shall forfeit the sum of $50 to the home team. Another was the adoption of a system of points for each league match. It was decided that two points shall be allowed for each victory and one point go to each team in case of draw. This, it is contended, will do away with any possibility of a dispute at the end of the season, similar to that betwen the Vancouver and New Westminster lacrosse teams.

It has also been provided in the amended constitution that in the event of a tie affecting the championship the deciding match will be played off on neutral grounds within two weeks of the final scheduled game.

BASEBALL

PLAYERS DISSATISFIED.

Kissinger and McAllister, of Detroit, Object to Go to Buffalo to Play Minor Ball.

Detroit, Nov. 11.—The ill-fated Buffalo deal in which Detroit traded Kissinger, McAllister and Yeager or Lush for Pitcher Ferry and Outfielder McIntyre, has not yet been settled. There is a strong possibility that not only Kissinger but McAllister will buck over the traces before leaving for minor league field.

McAllister takes the veiw that he has played ball in the big leagues for the last five years, and has not yet reached his prime. He points to his successful batting of last year, and his play at shortstop as an indication of what he could do if he had the opportunity of playing regularly in one position. While not openly refusing to go to Buffalo, he strongly hints that he will have to be seen before his assent to the deal is secured.

A. Irwin Optimistic.

Manager Arthur Irwin, who will pilot the Toronto Baseball Club in the Eastern League next season, says he thinks he will have pitching material that will compensate for the loss of Bruce, who goes to the Athletics, and Briggs, who is to go to the Chicago Nationals. He will have Quinn, who got a trial with the Athletics last season, and McGeehan, of Holy Cross. He is highly pleased with Rapp and Murray, secured from the Manchester Club of the New England League. Irwin will also have Raub, the Chicago National League catcher, who will get a try-out at first base.

Toronto Club Affairs.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—The affairs of the Toronto Baseball Club took a sudden turn when Lawyer Garvey, on behalf of some of the bondholders, asked to have their debentures taken up. The bondholders who have asked for their pound of flesh are Larry Cosgrave, Widmer Hawke, Ed Mack, John O'Neil and Thomas Hobbs. No sooner was the demand made than the shareholders were there with the goods for double the amount, and now the bondholders are numbered amongst the also rans.

New York, Nov. 11.—Stamping Ground, at 12 to 5, won the Mineola Handicap at Jamaica to-day in easy fashion. Silver Dream broke the track record for 5½ furlongs by stepping the distance in 1.06⅘, three-fifths of a second faster than the best previous time.

For Breach of Discipline.

New York, November 11.—At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club Mr. L. V. Bell was fined $200 for breach of discipline in the club house of the Queen's County Jockey Club at Aqueduct, on November 2, 1903, in his treatment of the official "handicapper of the Jockey Club."

Toronto Spring Meeting.

Toronto, November 11.—At a meeting of the executive board of the Ontario Jockey Club it was decided to hold the spring meeting in 1904 from Saturday, May 21, to Saturday, June 4, both dates inclusive.

Cresceus Slightly Lame.

Kansas City, Mo., November 11.—Cresceus yesterday afternoon failed in his attempt to break the world's trotting record of 2.08 for a mile on a half mile track, making no better than 2.12¼. Conditions were unfavorable. Besides the fact that the wind was blowing hard and the track not perfect, the stallion was slightly lame.

Another Record by Dan Patch.

Birmingham, Ala., November 11.—Dan Patch paced a mile on a half mile track here this afternoon in 2.03¼, and lowered the only world's record for pacers outstanding against him. The previous record was 2.03½, held by Prince Alert. The time by quarters was .30½, 1.01, 1.32¼, 2.03¼.

HOW A DEER WAS KILLED.

Miss Kate Butterick and Her Escort Pursue Him Swimming and Drown Him.

Utica, N.Y., Nov. 11.—Miss Kate Butterick and her escort, Willard Ames, both residents of Malone and members of a house party at Indian Lake, in the Adirondacks, were standing on the shore of the lake early last Wednesday morning when they saw a large buck deer in the water, twenty yards off.

They lost no time in getting into a boat, and although they had no gun, they went after the deer with the purpose of getting him, and they succeeded. Keeping the boat between the deer and the shore, they so tired him that he made little resistance when Mr. Ames seized him by the horns and kept his head under water until he was drowned.

The buck was then towed to the dock in triumph, where the assembled guests, who were watching the struggle, warmly congratulated the occupants of the boat upon their success.

You find yourself nervous and irritable, worried over little things, unable to rest or sleep, subject to spells of indigestion and headache and losing energy and ambition, but do you ever stop to think that these symptoms indicate nervous disorders which are likely to result in

Paralysis or Locomotor Ataxia

No diseases are more dreaded than those of the nervous system, because none lead to such complete helplessness of mind and body.

You may stop a headache if you use powerful drugs, produce sleep by morphine, or whip up the action of the heart by means of stimulants, but by so doing you are merely consuming the remaining vitality at an enormous rate and physical bankruptcy must overwhelm you sooner or later.

The natural and rational way to restore the wasted and exhausted nerves is by means of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the great food cure, which actually forms new, rich blood and creates new nerve force.

There is no such thing as failure known when this great medicine is used, for it is composed of nature's most powerful nerve and blood vitalizers and is bound to do you good. The main thing is to be regular and patient in its use and you will not be disappointed in the results.

As the nerve force and vigor is again restored to the system by this treatment, you will feel again the vitality and energy which accompany health and strength, and by noting your increase in weight can prove that new, firm flesh and tissue is being added to the body.

MR. DEAL.

Mr. James A. Deal, a respected resident of Bridgewater, N.S., writes: "About a year ago I suffered a stroke of paralysis, which left me in a very bad state of health. To add to my troubles last winter I took la grippe, which completely exhausted my nervous system. I could scarcely walk or talk, my legs and arms were partially paralyzed my blood did not circulate properly, and I could not do any work. In fact I was so bad that the doctors gave me up and thought I could not live through the summer.

"I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and persevered in the treatment, until now I am at work again. The change in my condition has been most remarkable. It is a surprise to everyone to know that I am able to be around again. My nervous system has been built up wonderfully by this remedy. I am able to rest well, my circulation is normal and my general health good. My appetite is first-class, and I have gained considerably in flesh.

"The results I have obtained from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food have been most gratifying, and I have no hesitation in stating that I believe I owe my life to this preparation. I am willing that you publish this letter, with the hope that it may be the means of helping others to regain their health."

Stocks and Money

LOCAL MARKET BREAKING AWAY FROM WALL STREET

The local stock market continues to pay very little attention to New York, and several of the local leaders seem to be responding to very good buying.

One of the features is the renewed interest in Steel, and it looked this morning as if the buying is of greater proportions than many predicted it would be. The report, in fact, went around that insiders were endeavoring to pick up a block of 10,000 shares of the common as cheaply as possible, and that while the bulk of the stock is being accumulated in Boston, it can be seen that there is also something doing here. It is evident, however, that no effort is being made to put the price up, and that, as we said before, the desire is to get the stock cheap.

To-day's buying of Steel bonds, which hoisted the price to 57, or 8 points above the recent low level, also seemed to be of a good character, part of the orders, we understand, coming from Boston and Toronto. There were again rumors that Mr. Fielding would give the industry more assistance at the next session of Parliament, and this, together with the belief that the Steel Company will get a slice of the Grand Trunk Pacific business, cheered sentiment very perceptibly.

$ $ $

The strictly local stocks, like Steel and Power, are not affected just now by the uncertainty of the New York market, and it is also significant that even Twin City, which is traded in there, has branched out for itself and has shown more strength. It is true that formerly the local market has not ignored New York for any great length of time, and has seldom been able to sustain a pronounced "break away" from Wall Street sentiment, but the "Street" here is thankful for small mercies, and feels encouraged every time the market here takes the opposite course to New York's.

The market there to-day was an uncertain quantity.

The bears, in order to make matters lively, had another crack at Pennsylvania, and it went off to 113¼, affecting to some extent the rest of the market.

The Steel shares, on the other hand, were conspicuous for the reason that they failed to establish the usual daily low record.

In fact, United States Steel preferred appeared to get good support, and it went to 52, the common recovering a fraction to 10⅝.

The sales of Dominion Steel bonds here were $17,000, the price ranging between 54 and 57. Nova Scotia Steel bonds sold at 107¾ and Dominion Coal at 108.

Dominion Cotton is gathering strength gradually, and 50 shares sold at another fractional advance.

The price of raw cotton struck the record level of the season this morning, when January sold at 11.12 and March at 11.20. If these figures continue the Canadian cotton concerns will be more embarrassed than ever.

The decline in foreign exchange to the lowest rate touched in over three years was partly off-set by an advance of one halfpenny in the price of the bar gold in London. Bar gold is now selling within a fraction of the coin value. The Bank of England is now powerless to prevent gold imports from Europe.

$ $ $

Tentative engagements of two million additional gold for import were announced late yesterday. It is believed that in the event of the continuation of the outflow of currency to the interior, time money rates and low foreign exchange quotations, between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 will be shipped from Europe to this country within the next two weeks.

What percentage of this enormous amount of money being raised goes to increase the gross earnings of the property.

The unfavorable criticism aimed at Penna. and its controlled properties on recent borrowing will most likely be followed by selling of all those properties, whether it is just, does not seem to be a consideration. That bankers are willing to extend courtesies indicates that they at least are oblivious to prevailing pessimism. Robert Meredith & Co. received the following over their private wire from Zimmermann & Forshay, New York: The London market irregular. Amalgamated mines reopen to-day. This means more than appears on the surface. Governor Toole of Montana has called a special session of the Legislature to convene December 1 to pass laws to relieve the industrial condition. This is the first setback for Heinze. Purchases of United States Steel preferred on a two point loss order will, shrewd market judges say, carry the stock safely. Reports that Mr. J. P. Morgan will retire from active business on January 1 is not authentic. Traders are less bearish on industrials, but threaten to resume attack on Pennsylvania. The feeling on railroads is more or less pessimistic, and we are inclined to look for an irregular and unsettled market to-day. Campaign against United States Steel over, we think, for the present, and expect moderate rallies all day all along the line. Until money market returns to normal, however, can't expect material or maintained advance. The banks lost $427,000 to the sub-treasury yesterday, making losses since Friday $3,368,000. Same people who sold Pennsylvania are now buying Baltimore & Ohio. Sales to noon were 368,000 shares.

SLUMP IN U.S. STEEL KILLS STOCK BROKER

New York, Nov. 11.—With nerves strained to the breaking point by hours of vigil beside the ticker yesterday, watching the decline in the price of steel stocks, Leonard G. Vail staggered out of his office to catch a breath of fresh air, and fell dead at the door.

Mr. Vail was office manager for the New York Stock Exchange firm of H. K. Burras, with offices at 35 Wall Street. It was just 2.30 in the afternoon when he walked out of his office. He fell in the hall just as an elevator stopped to take him to the street.

The last wave of liquidation in Steel preferred had just begun, and was sweeping values before it at such a tremendous rate, that Mr. Vail could see ruin for many of his friends who were tied up in the stock.

Mr. Burras, of the firm, was on the floor of the exchange in the thick of the battle over Steel when word came that Mr. Vail had fallen in a fit of apoplexy. He rushed across the street with Dr. Hewitt, the Stock Exchange physician, but when they reached the stricken man they found two doctors already bending over him. He was beyond recovery.

COTTON JUMPS OVER THE 11 CENT MARK

The English cotton market to-day showed a disposition in the early trading to extend the improvement scored here yesterday, but disappointment over the poor response made by the New York market caused a loss of about half the initial gains and the close was but 6 to 7 points over yesterday. In the New York market after some hesitation at the start, support developed from a number of influential quarters, and in spite of large receipts at the ports, prices rallied sharply, the quotations by noon time having reached the highest level yet touched on this movement.

Judson & Co., 11 St. Sacrament St., have the following private telegrams from their New York house. Mr. Sully, the bull leader, is said to be very bullish on the situation and expects much higher prices. Reports from the South say that the crop estimates are bein constantly reduced. Advices from the South also state that spinners are becoming very nervous ocer their prospective supplies and that the demand for actual cotton at the interior points is better than for some days. While the receipts at the ports are very heavy, the exports are also very heavy, England and the Continent taking large amaunts.

The opening and 12.30 prices for the principal options were:

The Merger and Present Position of Cotton Industry

The amalgamation of the Merchants and Dominion Cotton Companies has not been brought to a head yet, although several meetings have already been held, the Dominion directors having had a meeting late yesterday afternoon.

It is understood that the banks are desirous of seeing the merger put through, as it would result in infinitely more satisfactory conditions in the trade.

The Canadian cotton industry forms one of the most important sections of this country's industrial constitution. "There is invested in plant about $24,000,000, and there are employed in the different factories 13,429 hands. There are 26 mills scattered from Halifax to Hamilton, making up in size what they lack in number. On the average there is nearly $1,000,000 invested and over 500 hands employed in each factory, sufficient proof that the Canadian cotton industry has been organized on a permanent basis. One company at Valleyfield, P.Q., has $4,000,000 invested in one plant, employing 3,000 hands.

The figures indicate that the industry is an important one, and many have expressed regret that it should be so seriously disturbed at present through the abnormally high price of raw cotton and the lack of harmony in the selling departments.

The companies claim that while raw has gone up tremendously their great difficulty has been in getting manufactured goods upon a proportionate basis.

There has been a small general advance over spring prices, but as compared with last year, values are not appreciably higher. Some lines of goods, such as blankets, are scarce, and famine prices are being quoted, but in the regular lines of prints only two or three of the cheaper grades are ¼c per yard higher than last year, while gray and white cotton are about ¼ to ½c higher.

C.P.R. Shows Another Satisfactory Gain

Canadian Pacific continues to show satisfactory gross increases and the $104,000 gain for the first week of November is highly encouraging in view of the fact that this time a year ago the road was doing the greatest business in its history, and consistently smashed all previous records into smithereens. The wheat movement in the West now appears to have attained something like normal proportions, although it will not come within several million bushels of last year's up to the close of navigation.

The earnings from Nov. 1 to Nov. 7 are:

1903	$1,014,000
1902	910,000
Increase	$104,000

The Canadian Pacific is now operating 8,182 miles of road.

ECHO OF GAMEY CASE.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—A citizen named Gallagher, St. Lawrence Avenue, has made an affidavit to the effect that some time ago an arrangement was agreed to that if Mr. Crossin would make the affidavit which served as the celebrated roorbach in the recent Muskoka election, the Government would put into the Crossin Piano Company $3,500, $2,000 taking out Gamey's stock and $1,500 for working capital. He says the arrangement was engineered by E. F. B. Johnston, to whom he and Mr. Crossin were referred by Hon. J. R. Stratton. Mr. Johnston denies the affair in toto.

Peter Boyle has a bad reputation and is once more in bad odor with the police. This time he is up against a charge of highway robbery. It is alleged he held up James Walsh and took $4 from him. He was remanded for enquete.

Messrs. E. G. Brown and Edgar Wallace, of Montreal, are among those who have booked passage on the White Star steamship Majestic which sailed to-day for Liverpool.

Market Reports

NEWS AND VIEWS OF THE DAIRY MARKETS

A Firmer Feeling Developing Among Cheese Men—Butter Market Holds Steady.

There was an improved feeling among cheese men this morning, due to the improved enquiry from the old country, and the market was steady. The present range of prices for fall cheese is generally looked upon as a fair one, and English buyers seem willing to accept the figures, as quite a little business has passed within the last few days. Old country stocks are still large, however, and no great volume of business is looked for just now. To-day's quotations stand: Western, 10½c to 10¾c, Townships 10¼c to 10⅜c, Quebecs, 10c to 10¼c.

Cheese Sales in the Country.

Ingersoll, Ont., November 10.—Twelve hundred colored boarded; 10 1-4c bid; no sale; salesmen asking 10 1-2c.

Campbellford, Ont., November 10.—There was 2,575 cheese boarded. McGrath bought 150; Brenton, 25; Cook, 600; Gillespie, 400; Bird, 610 at 10 1-8c. Balance refused that. Board adjourned for one week.

The Butter Market.

The steady tone still prevails in the butter market. Local jobbers are doing most of the buying on domestic account. Quotations are unchanged. Townships, 21⅛c to 21½c; Quebecs, 21c; Western dairy, 15½c to 17c, as to quality.

MONTREAL GETS W.C.T.U. BANNER.

Dominion Convention Came to a Close Yesterday.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—At the morning session of the final day of the Dominion W.C.T.U. convention, Mrs. Gordon called attention to Rev. Dr. Chown's statement that in a certain contest ladies of the W.C.T.U. had bought two votes to win the victory, and even sought to justify such tactics on the ground of necessity. It was decided to ask Dr. Chown for a further explanation.

During the afternoon the ladies presented Mrs. Rutherford, the president with a life membership in the union, and also with a gavel tied with a white ribbon and bearing the inscription, "The W.C.T.U., Ottawa, 1903," in silver.

The plan of work committee recommended a comprehensive scheme to increase the membership; any member securing 25 new members to join the union shall be sent to the provincial convention; any county union securing 100 new members shall have the expenses of its president to the provincial convention paid, and any union getting 200 new members shall have the expenses of a delegate to the Dominion convention defrayed.

The convention banners were awarded as follows: The membership banner, awarded for the largest percentage increase, held for the past two years by Nova Scotia, went to the Northwest Territories and was given into the custody of Mrs. Bradshaw, of Moose Jaw. The Y banner went to Quebec, and was presented to Miss Currie, of Montreal, and the juvenile banner went to Manitoba. Mrs. McClung has charge of it.

THE MOST CERTAIN CORN CURE Is Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor which has been used successfully for 30 years. It takes out the pain, cures the Corn, and prevents it returning.

GRAIN MARKETS HERE AND ELSEWHERE

Nothing New to Note on the Local Markets—Manitoba Prices Slowly Declining.

There is nothing new to note in the local wheat market. There is hardly any business being done, although Manitoba wheat prices have been declining steadily for some days. PIMPLES, BLOTCHES AND SKIN ERUPTIONS.

How unsightly, sometimes even disgusting, and certainly very mortifying to the sufferer. They are merely an evidence of impure, poisoned blood, and lowered vitality of the elementary organs, which can be quickly changed by taking Ferrozone after meals. Ferrozone cleanses the blood of all poisons and eruptions makes it rich in red corpuscles that manifest themselves in a healthy ruddy complexion. To have a pure, soft skin and good complexion simply use Ferrozone regularly. Price 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50, at Druggists, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

ASKS FOR OFFICIAL VISITOR.

Catholic School Board Favors Appointment as Assistant Director.

The Board of Catholic School Commissioners, at a meeting last night, received the report of the special committee which visited schools in the different cities of the States. The report recommended the appointment of an official visitor, acting as assistant director, who would watch the work of the professors and pupils. The proposal was unanimously adopted, but the appointment will not be made till the next meeting.

A proposal to allow pupils to obtain school books free of charge was referred to the finance and school committees, who will report on the proposal at the next meeting. The report also suggested that more attention be paid to the decoration of the classes, and the schools committee was asked to consider the suggestion.
