Carbon Monoxide Poisons Four

The Chief Pathologist of Quebec has stated today that it was carbon monoxide poisoning.

The tragedy occurred at Glen Saunders' Half Way Motel in Bryson.

At about two a.m. Monday night, Glen rented Cabin No. 2 to Lucien Racine, 24, for $3.00 the night, single occupancy, and lit the propane gas heater, turning it on low. Racine said he would register next morning.

Twelve hours later Saunders became concerned because the cabin was still occupied, the car still outside, and it should have been vacated by noon.

It was about two o'clock in the afternoon Tuesday when he unlocked the cabin with his pass key, after first receiving no answer to his knock. Lucien Racine, his brother Gilbert, 22 and Marie Ange Lemay, a 16-year old waitress at the Motel dining room, were lying on the beds, dead. Gerard Dubeau, 23, was unconscious in the lavatory. He had been sick.

Mr. Saunders found the room extremely hot and turned off the gas stove, opened the windows and door, and then called police at Campbell's Bay. Constable Earl Bennett arrived in a few minutes and Detective Andre Audet followed.

Dr. Gasman was called and accompanied Dubeau to Pontiac Community Hospital by Ringrose Ambulance. Efforts to save the unconscious youth proved to no avail and Dubeau passed away shortly after midnight in the hospital.

Various bottles of wine, beer and soft drinks were collected from the motel room with a view to analysis as a possible contributory factor to the multiple deaths.

Marie Ange Lemay, whose seventeenth birthday would have been next month, will be buried from her home at Bryson, Father Aait officiating, tomorrow morning.

She is survived by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lemay, five brothers, Frank, Robert, Lenord, Fernand, Ronald, three sisters, Mrs. Rodolphe Bertrand Mrs. Nelson Lindy and Mrs. Frank Curry.

Gerard Dubeau, Gilbert Racine and Lucien Racine will be buried Saturday morning from Otter Lake Church Hall with Father Gravelle officiating. Dubeau was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Dubeau of Otter Lake. He had been helping on his father's farm. Surviving besides his parents are three brothers, John, Charles and Gerald and seven sisters, Laura, Jacqueline, Jeannine, Marie, Mrs. Vernon Pepin Mrs. Pat Young and Mrs. Leonard Hardy.

Gilbert and Lucien were the sons of Mr. Emilien Racine and the late Mrs. Racine of Otter Lake. They had been living with an aunt, Mrs. Charles Lafleur and working as a lumberjack and carpenter respectively in Grove Creek. Surviving the Racine boys are a brother, Albert, and eight sisters, Lucienne, Emilienne, Annette, Georgette, Mrs. Benoit Martin, Mrs. Pierre Phillippe, Mrs. Gerald Melgour and Mrs. Ernest Clement.

A jury has been picked for an inquest at Campbell's Bay. The jury has been sworn in and viewed ed the bodies of the deceased. No date has been set for the inquest. Meanwhile the Provincial Police have seized the tanks which fed gas to the heating stove in the motel.

The blood is to be taken at the Civic Hospital and stored in their clinic. This system has proven to be very successful by other hospitals similar to ours. By maintaining a blood bank any patient in the Pontiac Community Hospital may receive blood, at the time of their hospitalization or during their convalescence and not have to worry about replacing this blood until suitable arrangements can be made.

Donors are needed to start this project. Anyone between the ages of 17 to 60 normally healthy, who have never had malaria or jaundice are eligible donors.

Those wishing to donate their blood may do so by contacting anyone of these Lions, Dale Thomson, Martin Black or Al Merritt. Transportation will be arranged by the Lions Club.

The members of the club along with the doctors in this area feel this is badly needed and are hoping to get your support.

W. A.'s Open New Hardware Department

Edgar Hodgins and Art Hodgins have recently completed renovations on their new Crest Hardware store.

Nothing has been overlooked, new counters display merchandise, in the open for easy viewing and examination. Every item is priced for convenience.

New fluorescent lighting throughout the store gives a cheery bright atmosphere.

The Crest organization is a group of independently owned hardware stores working together to bring to their customers merchandise at lower prices.

The Hodgins invite everyone to come join in their grand opening celebration and participate in many free gifts.

Snow Flurries To Mosquitoes

Fort Coulonge—Outstanding and very acceptable is the run of enjoyable weather we in this area have had during the past three weeks. Streets and walks that were a mess, around the first part of March, are nicely dried up, snow practically all disappeared and "no flooding".

Now the elections are over we might stop to consider how fortunate we have been (in relation to weather) and lets arrange for an early clean up.

We can get busy on our back yards, lawns and gardens. Our town fathers will follow later with general street clean up.

It may be that spring is here and gone, and summer just around the corner.

Our "Chenais" and Ottawa River are open and running streams. Familiar "put-put" of outboard

Easter Services At Coulonge

Fort Coulonge — Easter Services were observed in Fort Coulonge United Church and St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. Easter Sunday and despite the blustering and stormy elements, there was a very good attendance at both Churches.

In the evening Rev. W. N. Higham the pastor in charge at United Church in, charge of service with Mrs. Arne Fumerton at the Organ in charge of music and singing. Mrs. Ira Whelan and Mrs. Fumerton's special Easter renditions as Duets on Piano were very much enjoyed at St Andrews Presbyterian at the morning service the minister Rev. E. G. MacDonald was in the pulpit and Wm. Kenny Jr in charge of organ and music.

At the close of services in both Churches The Sacrament of The Lords Supper was observed.

If a motorist sees another car approaching at an intersection that looks as though it is not going to yield the right-of-way as it should, there is only one "right way" for the first man. Slow down and be prepared to yield to the oncoming car if it becomes necessary to prevent a collision.

"What, and let the so-and-so get away with it! Am I supposed to back up every time a road-hog feels like cutting in on me?" is the typical, and understandable reaction.

Yes, let him "get away" with it . . . for your own sake, if nothing else. He may be a new driver, not knowing any better. He may be sick, or in love, or drunk, or deranged, or half-blind with anger or humiliation. Whatever the reason, you have nothing to gain by bluffing it out with him, still less by crashing it out.

Nothing to gain . . . but plenty to lose if there is a collision, however slight. Like temper. And time — for certain. Money too, if his insurance isn't good. Perhaps some blood. And finally you could easily lose a big piece of self-respect if you come to realize that, by holding recklessly to your right-of-way you have forced injury or financial disaster on some fool-kid (of any age), or a drunk bread-winner with a nice family.

Should they always be allowed to "get away with it"? Yes — by other drivers. No — by Society. But that is a job for the police, and the licencing authorities.

motor enthusiasts; Maple sap is running and new syrup available, and just a few weeks ago, winter.

The month of April is an unpredictable month as far as the weather is concerned. We can jump from snow flurries, to mosquitoes.

Head On Crash At Beechgrove Injures Four Adults One Child

Two cars collided head on at Beechgrove about 1:15 Sunday afternoon.

One car driven by Ontario Provincial Police Corporal James H. Aldred, 59 of Morrisburg carried Mrs. Alma Aldred, 59 and their grandchild Janette E. Lewis 6. It was going westward up the Pontiac highway.

The second car driven by Robert H. Taylor 37, of Cornwall carried his wife Mrs. Anita Taylor 31 and apparently went out of control going East on the sharp Beechgrove turn ramming the Aldred car.

Quyon's Dr. Hudson treated the injured at Pontiac Community Hospital. Cpl Aldred had, cuts abrasions and shock. Mrs. Aldred had a broken right leg and forehead cuts. Janette had severe forehead cuts. Taylor had a broken nose and cuts on the head and face. Mrs. Taylor had broken ribs and possible internal injuries. Constable Linden Young investigated.

Campbell's Bay WMS Discuss Future Role

The Womens Missionary Society of St. Andrews United Church held their April meeting Wednesday, April 2nd at the home of Mrs. E. B. Lunam.

The President, Mrs. Emard was in charge, opened with hymn 31, "Praise The Lord, Ye Heavens Adore Him". Scripture reading by Mrs. E. B. Lunam was from 1 Corinthians 12. The president led in Prayer.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. There were 9 members present. Thank offering was $14.40. Treasurer reported $23.00 sent for first quarter.

Motion Mrs. Moodie and Mrs. Moorhead that Mrs. E. B. Lunam purchase girl's sweater and forward with $100 for expense to Supply Sec. in Ottawa. This expense to be taken out of our petty cash fund.

Hits and Misc's — Today's Definition. A Bachelor. A man who can get into bed from either side. If you do not think much of this definition of the Bachelor breed of 'Homo Sapiens' how about this one. A person who may not have all his buttons, but still has all his marbles. Oh well back to work.

Heard in a local hotel, this telephone conversation between a patron and the desk clerk.

"Hello, is that the desk?" snaps the patron.

"Yeah", snarls the desk clerk, "What's eating ya".

"That is precisely what I am trying to — find out," roars back the patron.

TEENAGERS BEWARE

The fine for driving a car without a license is seventy five dollars. That is, we repeat, $75. This is a lot of money for anyone under 17 to come by and the last thing the Provincial Police want to do is to collect this particular fine.

But the awful truth is that they now have to. They've been looking politely the other way for a long time now and just not seeing the teenagers driving cars — particularly when the fathers were with their children. But now they have been given specific instructions that no matter who the person is, if he is under 17 he must not drive a car—not even around from the garage to the front door.

This is very tough on a lot of youngsters but after all it isn't worth paying $75 for the privilege of looking important behind the wheel. So be warned.

PRINTSHOP NOTES

New residents at the old Shore house on Victoria Avenue will be Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Crouse and Mrs. Crouse's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Best. Mr. Crouse is taking a position at Pontiac Printshop.

Brent Horner of the Printshop staff, who has for some years been advertising manager and chief newspaper compositor has this week has been appointed production chief as well.

Miss Georgina Legge has returned to Halifax where she will be married next week. This leaves the Printshop office without a girl again which seems to be a recurrently dreadful situation. With Ina gone and Gordon Crouse coming in the staff now stands at eight: Chief Operator Carson Hodgins, Production Chief Brent Horner, assistants Laird Murray, Barry Murray and Neil Sharpe, Commercial Printer Gordon Crouse, and David Dickson and Mrs. Dickson.

Those who have thought that the Hydro people were working for the Printshop (tearing down political posters on the sly so more would be ordered up the next day) should know the reasons for removing signs from hydro poles. Here they are: If the signs are stapled these staples rust off on top leaving invisible tiny spikes which rip tiny holes in the rubber safety gloves. Holes in the gloves can cause death by shock when the men rely on the gloves to protect them from high voltage wires. If the signs are nailed on, the nails tear through the pants of men who have to climb the poles. If the signs are attached by glue or paste they stay on forever and form slippery surface which impedes the boys climbing up and makes climbing down dangerous. The poles are made of wood and not papered for a reason—the wood pole provides the ideal means of getting up to the wires to keep power coming to consumers. Political leaders all know this and are never seen putting signs on hydro poles for these reasons—it is just the well wishing though ignorant hangers onners who don't seem to understand that there is a place for everything and hydro poles are not the place for signs.

Some Buckets Being Replaced By Tubes

A revolution has come to the sugar bush which is taking most of the picturesque out of the collecting of maple sap while increasing the quantity and quality of sugar and syrup.

No local producers have reported use of the new system.

Secret of the success of the revolution lies in running polythene tubing directly from the taps in the trees to the sugar house. The pressure of the flowing sap is enough to draw it along a polythene pipe if the line is sealed. Gravity helps when the lines run downhill.

Farmers claim sap production is increased as much as 75 per cent and labor costs are cut more than 50 percent with this method of collection. When oil burners replace wood burners to boil the sap, back-breaking labor is cut even further.

Some plastic companies are producing complete kits for tapping trees but many farmers are making their own, buying the polythene tubing from local cooperatives, building-supply dealers or plastic companies. Some prefer the virgin white material. Others like it brightly colored so that it is easily seen against a snow background.

Really big operations run something like this:

Sap from individual taps drains into 1/4-inch polythene lines. These pipes are coupled to 3/8 inch branch lines connecting groups of trees and these in turn feed into one-inch mains that run to a collecting tank at the sugar house. The mains carry the flow from 750 to 1000 taps at full production.

In smaller operations, a single-sized line could run directly from the tree to the sugar house, a "T" connection at the taps being sufficient to put the sap into the main line.

The polythene lines are usually run high enough to keep them above the snow. If trees are far apart the lines may be supported on taut-strung wires. Plugged "T"s are inserted along the line to bleed off air bubbles that might slow down the flow of sap.

Big savings, according to farmers who have used the polythene pipe system, is in cutting labor costs. Spilling is avoided and sap remains clean from tree to sugar house.

In addition, the first run sap that produces high quality, high priced syrup, is not lost as it ordinarily is while buckets are being hung. The pipe system is set up temporarily before the sap season, using the previous years' tap holes. Spouts are pushed in new holes just before the sap starts flowing.

Farm Implement Co. Changes Name

Norval R. Wilson, Massey-Harris-Ferguson local dealer at Shawville announced today that he had received notice from the Company's Headquarters that shareholders had sanctioned a by-law changing the name of the Company to Massey-Ferguson. "The new name will be helpful to the sales organization" said Mr. Wilson "as it closely relates to two outstanding products of the Company, the self-propelled combine and the Ferguson System tractor, both world-famous".

Recently the Company introduced a new brand name, a new trade mark, a new combine and a new tractor. All Company products are in two standard colours, red and grey and the striking new triple-triangle trademark incorporating the letters "M.F." now identifies the Company's products throughout the world.

Massey-Ferguson, the world's second largest farm equipment manufacturer operates 17 factories in seven countries: 6 in Canada, 5 in the United States, 1 in France, 2 in Germany and 1 in Australia. Its products ranging from tractors and combines to post-hole diggers and snow plows, are sold in 142 countries. World-wide sales in 1957 reached a record high of more than $412,000,000 and the outlook for 1958 indicates further increased volume.

LOOKING AHEAD MOVING DAY

IF you are going to move on May 1st, or plan to go to a summer cottage this year, we hope you will get in touch with our office nearest you in plenty of time, so that we will know when you want your power on.

IF you are a landlord renting a summer cottage, we'd like to know who your tenants are, so we can circularize them. Those who wait too long run the risk of being disappointed because, with more than 5,000 special connections to be made, last minute orders upset schedules and lead to delays.

Madawaska Mile To Be Run At Connaught Park On June 14

One of the greatest races in the history of the harness sport in Canada may be expected at Connaught Park on Saturday June 14th when the annual Madawaska Mile will be decided. Dr. John Findlay, of Amprior, secretary of the Ottawa Valley Racing Association announced today that no fewer than 72 nominations had been received for the Madawaska, which is for trotters and pacers in the 30 class. Fifty one different interests are represented in the official nomination list, which closed on Saturday March 1st. Trotters and pacers have been nominated from Ottawa, Hull, Pembroke, Kingston, Vankeleek Hill, Prescott, Kemptville, Spensorville, Toronto, Montreal, Hamilton and other points. At least twenty will remain in for the big final on Saturday June 14th. If necessary the Madawaska will be raced in several divisions. The second payment is due on May 1st and declarations must be made in writing five days before the night of the race. This will be the first time that the Madawaska has been raced at Connaught Park and expected that all records will be broken. The Madawaska will probably be worth $4000 as the Connaught Park Jockey Club will contribute $1000. The official nomination list is now being prepared and will be issued within a few days.

Connaught Park will open on Saturday May 17 and in addition to the Madawaska there will be many other outstanding features during the summer race meeting, which will be continued until October 18. These will include the Quebec Juvenile championship stake, which will be the largest ever offered in Canada. It will

In Memoriam

BLACK—In loving memory of my dear husband Willie John who passed away April 13, 1956.

A leaf in the book of memories, Is quietly turned today
Our thoughts of you, dear Willie
You are never far away.
Looking back to memory,
Upon the path you trod,
We bless the years we had with you,
And leave the rest to God.

—Sadly missed by Wife, Sarah. x

HENDERSON—In fond and loving memory of a dear father and grandfather Wm. Henderson who entered into eternal rest April 9, 1942 and dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Henderson who entered into peaceful rest April 5, 1952.

Today recalls the memories Of loved ones gone to rest, And those who think of them today

Are those who loved them best, The flowers we lay upon their graves

May wither and decay, But the love for those who lie beneath, Shall never pass away.

—Remembered always by daughters Mrs. Pearl Dougherty, Mrs. Mearl Woolsey; Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren. x

ROSE—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Fred W. C. Rose, who passed away April 10, 1953.

In tears we saw you sinking
We watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken
You fought so hard to stay
But when we saw you sleeping
So peacefully free from pain,
We could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

—Wife and family. x

My Window On The World

BY THE REV. E. REX TAYLOR

His first name meant that he was an uncertain sort of a fellow who was always taking up some new thing or other but never seeing it through to completion. He could not be depended upon.

His second name meant a rock, someone who was utterly steady and dependable. Simon was a man of fickle impulse. Peter was granite, steady, invincible and everlasting as the hills.

How would you feel if you knew yourself to be a Simon but heard the Master address you as Peter? Don't get any wrong ideas. That new name did not describe Simon as the man he was for he was Simon. It described the man who might be. It was not the name of a man who had arrived but of a man who was on a journey.

This is how the Master dealt with people. He concentrated on the vast untapped and to the world-unseen possibilities which stretched before them. He thought of people in terms of what they might and would be. And you know, it worked. These folk strived to achieve what Christ saw in them and left behind the shoddy husks of their old selves.

I'm sure a lot of the trouble we bring on ourselves, our friends, our church, our world, is because we fail to do this. We see people as they are — sometimes. More often we see people as less than they are. Remember the Students Mission. Some of the students were amazed at the amount of gossip that went on in these parts. Of course there will always be gossip, but wouldn't it be just wonderful if we could turn this Simon into a Peter — instead of reveling in the bad things. Only gossip about the good things, see people not as they are, or less than they are, but according to the tremendous possibilities, untapped potentialities, which can be liberated if they are brought into contact with Jesus.

And remember they can't be brought into contact with Jesus except by us. It follows therefore that it is absolutely essential for us to see people as Jesus saw them. To do anything but this is to let Christ down, our fellow human beings down and ourselves down.

The Master continually addressed people in brilliant titles. Ye are the salt of the earth. Zacchaeus — that pathetic little man went home, after being called such a son, as though he were nine feet tall. So with Simon — so with you — and so with your Good habits need constant nursing. Every exception weakens a habit. That's why a good driver stops completely at a Stop sign, on deserted roads at dead of night... he is protecting the habit that protects him; says the Ontario Safety League.

Died at the home of her brother Mr. Charles Smiley, Radford, Quebec, Wednesday, March 15, 1933, Miss Alice J. Smiley after a long and trying illness borne with patience. The late Miss Smiley was a life-long resident of the Radford community and was a member of St. Alban's Anglican Church, Parkm'n. The funeral took place at one o'clock on Friday afternoon 17th inst., to St. Paul's Church and Cemetery, Shawville, Rev. E. F. Macklin, Portage du Fort officiating. Surviving are four brothers and five sisters, Mr. Alex Smiley, North Bay, Robert Prince Albert, Sask; Edward, Shawville and Charles on the homestead; Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. J. W. Horner, Shawville, Bella and Lois at home.

The death occurred on Thursday, March 30th, in Shawville, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harold Hayes, of Matthew Thos. Major, after a lingering illness in his eighty-second year. The late Mr. Major was born in Onslow and spent the greater part of his life in that township. He is survived by his sorrowing wife, six daughters and one son, namely, Mrs. Wm. E. Hodgins Yarm; Mrs. Ed. Baker, Montreal; Mrs. Harold Ruthledge, Nipawan, Sask.; Mrs. Harold Hayes Mrs. Gordon Brownlee and Mrs. Willard Hynes, of Shawville, and the Rev. W. J. Major, of Roblin, Ontario. One sister, Mrs. Rose McPherson, Seattle, Wash., also survives. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon to Shawville United Church, service being conducted by the Pastor, Rev. A. F. Fokes, assisted by Rev. J. Trew of the Holiness Movement Church. Interment was made at Maple Grove Cemetery.

Mr. Walter Russell, son of Mr. John Russell of Bristol, has been appointed to work in Manitoba, under the Missionary society of the Presbyterian College of Montreal, for the coming summer.

Mr. James McFarlane, third year honor-man in philosophy, in McGill University, and son of Mr. John McFarlane, of Portage du Fort, has been appointed to labor under the Missionary society, in Eardley for the vacation.

The ice on the Ottawa River near Fort Coulonge is getting rather shaky. With a little risk a person may cross some of the lakes yet, but it is far from being safe. The break-up came so suddenly that it caught a good many lumber merchants, some of whom have a considerable quantity of hay, oats, pork and flour, etc., scattered along the different stopping places on Coulonge and Black Rivers. However, the present cold snap will likely be taken advantage of to get the supplies forwarded to different shanties.

Mr. Antoine Hebart, who was jobbing for Messrs. J. & G. Bryson, has got his timber all out; although I understand the Messrs. Bryson themselves have left thirty or forty pieces in the bush which they were unable to get out. They lost one horse in a mud hole while trying to get their timber out.

Mr. F. Muragh has received the contract for driving the mail between Fort Coulonge and Portage du Fort for four year commencing May 1, for the sum of $800.00.
