FIN.—The famous troupe of Duprez Minstrels open here on Monday. Almost as crowded an audience as greeted the Japs upon their first appearance was gathered at the Montreal Theatre on Thursday evening to witness the "squibs and cranks" of the troupe. The Nez says the programme was varied and its performance throughout admirable.

SNOW.—Snow, sleet and rain fell heavily together for an hour or so about noon to-day, covering the ground with a white slush, which, however, soon melted.

We find in the Book of the Poets the following unmistakable testimony to F. O. Valleraud's coal oil and lamps, procurable at No. 6 Mountain Hill:—

THE SHED. Awake! awake! and music bring, The sunbeams now are beaming; Awake! awake! arise and sing, The sun is over us gleaming. THE FAIRIES. Lie still, lie still, you silly birds, The time is not yet morning; Why should you sing such silly words? 'Tis but a lamp that's burning. THE SHEDS. A lamp, a lamp, the Fairies say, What silly words are they saying; What lamp o'er shone as bright as day, Its rays o'er us now blinding? CHORUS—ALL. What lamp, what lamp so brightly shines For sunlight, birds mistake it; 'Tis one that's worth rich golden mines; Valleraud's the name who makes it.

SECRETARY OF STATE.

The Honorable Mr. Langevin is expected to arrive in town from Ottawa to-morrow.

QUEBEC COUNCIL.

The Hon. Messrs. Chauveau, Guimet, and Dunkin left Ottawa yesterday for Montreal, and may be looked for in Quebec on Tuesday.

FROM OTTAWA.

Hon. Messrs. Archibald and Tupper, Dr. Parker, Dr. DeWolfe, and Mr. Grant, of Nova Scotia, arrived at Ottawa on Thursday. A meeting of the Privy Council was held that afternoon. Nothing has transpired of the proceedings. The apartments now used by the Registrar's Department are to be added to those occupied by the Customs Department.

CIVIL SERVICE.

The London's Ottawa correspondent says it is understood that the Government is taking up the question of reorganization of departments. A number of employees hitherto attached to the Government of Canada will have to be assigned to the Local Governments, and upon the other hand, some new appointments, particularly from the Lower Provinces, will have to be made—at least such appears to be the understanding at present.

SIR FREDERICK BRUCE.

We print below the London Times' remarks on the death of Sir Frederick Bruce. Our readers will observe with interest the statement, that it was at Sir Frederick's instance that the British government made the overture towards a settlement of which it had previously refused to receive any suggestion.

THE LATE SIR FREDERICK BRUCE.

RELATIONS BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES—THE LOSS SUSTAINED BY THE DEATH OF THE LATE MINISTER.

(From the London Times, September 21.) The country would have had much reason to deplore the death of Sir Frederick Bruce whenever it had happened; but his loss is an especial misfortune at a time when negotiations of the utmost intricacy and delicacy are pending with a government which is not always disposed to approach Great Britain in a spirit of generosity and forbearance. His post was most onerous and perplexing, and each occupant finds his labors more exacting than those of his predecessors. The Governor Eyre controversy has assumed a new phase. Captain Edenborough, an American officer, deposes that Gordon entered into negotiations with him to purchase an armed ship and munitions of war.

The papers still contain paragraphs to the effect that the dramatic critics of New York are to give a dinner to John Oxenford, the veteran critic of the London Times. Mr. Oxenford sailed for England last Wednesday. In view of this fact, it certainly is very bad taste to keep this matter before the public. Mr. Oxenford may be looked upon as the father of modern dramatic criticism, and it doubtless would have been a delicate compliment on the part of his American children to have offered him some entertainment of this sort,—but, like a contemporary's repeated reports of a ball to the Jeuneurs officers in Quebec, they took it all out in intention. In regard to this dinner question, then, as Capt. Hartree says, let us "cut it."

MEDICAL CONVENTION.

Yesterday's Montreal Gazette contains a report of the meeting of the faculty at Sweet'sburgh and the formation of the "Bedford District Medical Society." Ten doctors were elected delegates to the Quebec Convention: Drs. Chevalier, Meigs, McGowan, Hamilton, Gibson, Brigham, Chamberlain, Erskine, Battersby, and Whitwell.

WINDING UP OF THE FIRE RELIEF COMMITTEE'S DUTIES.

A meeting was held yesterday afternoon. The Treasurer's report showed—received to date, $393,395; expended, $375,801; cash in hand, $17,594.28. Remaining with Building Aid Committee, $6,098; total, $23,692 at disposal of General Relief Committee. The Distribution Committee's report recommended the following disposal of the balance in hand to indigent victims of the fire: To 100 proprietors of class C, $50 each; to 340 of class B, $25 each; making a total of $13,800. The balance thus: To the indigent poor, to be distributed by St. Vincent de Paul Society, $3,000; to the poor of St. Patrick's Church, $1,500; to the Protestant poor, $2,000; to indigent sufferers who have not received any relief to date $187.50—making a total of $20,787.50.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The usual weekly meeting of this body took place last night. The following members were present: Aldermen—Hall, Hosack, Kirwin, Leger, Rinfret; Councillors—Bouldue, Desautel, Hamel, Henry, Langlois, Laroie, Mailoux, Roy, Scott, and St. Michel. The following is the return of the market revenue of September.—Champlain, $695.34; St. Paul, $206.62; Upper Town $316.28; Jacques Cartier, $254.45; Finlay, $779.12; Berthelot, $66.95. The by-law for the widening of St. Ours street was read a second time. The Finance Committee's report, presented last week, unfavorable to a number of petitions for reduction of Corporation demands respecting assessments, etc., was adopted. The adoption of the 705th report having been moved, a conversation arose respecting the recommendation to discharge the bailiffs of the Recorder's Court. The Mayor and Alderman Hall stated all except the two named—Messrs. Taylor and Thiabudeau—had positively refused to render an account of the Corporation moneys collected by them. No one knew how much they held of it. When a judgment was obtained against any of them, they procured a writ arresting its execution, and then appealed, retaining the city's money, and going collecting more. The city was thus at the mercy of these people, who must have a large amount in hand. The report was adopted. The Council then adjourned till next Friday.

ceived nor disappointed his government, and was never to the smallest act of his life unworthy of the great nation which it was his pride to serve. It is impossible to over-estimate the mischief an incautious or unguarded man acting in his capacity might occasion, and, therefore, in choosing his successor every consideration ought to be set aside, except the single one of personal fitness for the office.

The old sources of irritation which Sir Frederick Bruce endeavored to clear away may easily be renewed, and we shall anticipate more good fortune than ordinarily falls to the lot of nations or individuals if we dared to hope that no new cause of umbrage on either side would arise, England and America are too nearly related not to disagree on minor topics. A man of quick observation, of a tolerant and elastic mind, and of large compass of thought will know how to deal with these emergencies when they present themselves, and such a man it is now incumbent upon the government to send to Washington. The American people need no assurance from us that the good relations which the late Minister made it his daily study to promote will be taken up in the same spirit by his successor. There must come a day when small national vexations will be abandoned by common agreement, and till it arrives the only course England can pursue is to give evidence of her friendliness towards a people of her own race and her own nature by sending to them as her Ministers men like him whose loss she now laments.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The steamship Scotia brings European dates of the 22nd ultimo. The Times says the death of Sir Frederick Bruce is an especial misfortune at a time when negotiations of the utmost intricacy and delicacy are pending with a government which is not always disposed to approach Great Britain in a spirit of generosity and forbearance. His post was most onerous and perplexing, and each occupant finds his labors more exacting than those of his predecessors. The Governor Eyre controversy has assumed a new phase. DEBILING THE FENIANS.—The London (C.W.) Free Press says:—A number of the men belonging to the Grey Battery, Toronto, who deserted some time since, are now engaged drilling the Fenians in the neighborhood of Buffalo.

MILITARY.—The four batteries of the 2nd Brigade Royal Artillery, which landed from the Simoon on Thursday and took up their quarters in the Jersey Barracks, left by this afternoon's steamer for Montreal. Two of the batteries will proceed thence to Kingston.

Two companies of the Rifle Brigade, 1st Battalion, will leave the camp at Levis on Monday for Montreal, en route for Ottawa. They will be followed in about a month by the remainder of the Battalion, the principal part of which will be stationed at Ottawa, and the remainder at western lake ports.

KEIR vs. LOWE & CO.—In this action at Montreal, of $10,000 damages, for an alleged defamation of character by an article on the Royal Insurance bonds robbery, which some time since appeared in the Evening Telegraph, the jury has been struck, and the trial fixed for Monday, the 14th instant.

THE ABYSSINIAN EXPEDITION.

The Horse Guards have issued minute instructions for British troops passing through Egypt.

An order has been received at Fort Pitt, Chatham, directing a party of the army hospital corps to proceed to Netley, for the purpose of embarking for service with the Abyssinian expedition. Mr. H. Dalton, of Streatham, who believes he is the only Englishman who has traversed in all its lengths the road from Massowah direct to Debra-Tabor, King Theodore's capital, and having done so late as the year 1863, describes the main features of that road and the difficulties an army would have to encounter in a march over it. Notwithstanding its advantages on the ground of healthiness, abundance of water, &c., he does not think the road a practicable one for the march of an army. The whole distance, allowing for sinuosities, is about 400 miles. The ruggedness of the route makes the use of the camel totally impossible; and the narrowness of the path over a great portion of it necessitates the army marching single file.

Mr. Percival, who had a commercial depot on the island of Massowah in 1853, 1859, and 1860, and who states that he made himself thoroughly acquainted with the different routes from the shores of the Red Sea to the interior of Abyssinia, gives a striking account of the difficulties the expedition would encounter did it proceed further towards Magdala than the plains of Cooftoolanee. In some parts of the Abyssinian woods, he says, he could after the rains destroy a whole army with a box of matches. He fears it will be too late to march into the interior when all the preparations now on hand are completed. The smaller the army the more certain we are of being successful; the severity of provisions and water being more difficult to contend against than the sharpshooters of the Tigris. Mr. Percival strongly urges an alliance with the Tigraians and other tribes now willing to join and aid us.

The chaplain to Bishop Gobat explains the circumstances under which the German artisans now in Abyssinia first visited the country. It appears that several years ago the Anglican Bishop in Jerusalem received a communication from Theodore, whom he knew as a boy when he lived in Abyssinia, informing him of his succession to the throne and of his desire to improve the condition of his country and people by instructing them in various handicrafts, and asking the bishop to supply him with workmen for this purpose. The bishop consented on the condition that the men sent should be allowed to distribute the Scriptures, and, as opportunity occurred, instruct the people. This was accepted, and six men trained in the Missionary College at Crisheona were sent. Mr. Elad being one of them. These men have been in the country seven or eight years, and have always been, and still are, in high favour with the King. One of them only is a gunmaker; the others are employed in other ways—carpentering, engineering, road-making, &c. It is to these men that the captives, as Mr. Stern has acknowledged, owe much of the alleviation of their sufferings, and, in one instance their lives. They have made use of their favourable position with the King by several efforts to induce him to liberate the captives, but without avail. It is evidently to the interest of our unfortunate fellow-countrymen that these men should not, by refusal to set under Theodore's commands, forfeit his favour. Bishop Gobat has been summoned to the India Office and contributed some little information regarding Abyssinia, where he was resident upwards of five years.

FROM TORONTO.—Rumors are in circulation at Toronto that, owing to the failure of Buchanan of Glasgow, a large corporate institution there is thrown into great financial difficulties; also, that a large dry goods house there is about to suspend payment.

A school for the instruction of volunteers in cavalry drill was opened there on Wednesday. The institution is organized in connection with the 13th Hussars under the supervision of Colonel Jennings, with one of the officers as adjutant. The number in the school at present is limited to twelve, but three additional will be admitted at each fortnightly preliminary examination.

A despatch from Woodstock says that Mrs. Forbes, wife of the gaoler there, dropped dead at the goal door on Wednesday afternoon.

FIRE AT ST. JOHN'S.—About 6.45 on Thursday evening the coal sheds of Messrs. Laugler & Doelles, and adjoining sheds in rear of Messrs. Pailer & Lefebvre's grocery stores, on Front street, were discovered to be on fire. In less than half an hour the stores of Pailer & Lefebvre, and Miss Poutre's military shop, were in flames, but owing to the exertions of the Royal Canadian Rifles and St. John's Fire Companies, and citizens generally, the fire was prevented from spreading further. The estimate of loss is $15,000.

PROFITABLE HORSE TRADING.—A correspondent of the Toronto Globe informs that a horse dealer from Canada named Blackstock, purchased a horse last week at Niagara for $170 and sold him a few days afterwards at the Rochester fair for $1,100 in greenbacks. The animal, which was found capable of trotting a mile in 2:37, was sold the next day for the sum of $2,300.

PARLIAMENT.—A supplement of the Canada Gazette, issued on Monday, confirms the announcement we were enabled to make on Saturday that the first House of Commons will meet for the despatch of business on November 6th.

DEBILING THE FENIANS.—The London (C.W.) Free Press says:—A number of the men belonging to the Grey Battery, Toronto, who deserted some time since, are now engaged drilling the Fenians in the neighborhood of Buffalo.

THE CHURCH COUNCIL AT LAMBETH.

The English journals grumble at the privacy which marks the preliminary proceedings of this body, and do not hesitate to pronounce that privacy very un-English, if not (under the circumstances) very un-Christian, also. And not only the journals, but some very sound Churchmen, also, are indulging in the same kind of criticism.

The Dean of Ripon among the rest has published a pamphlet disparaging of the proceedings, and he thinks that the ostensible purpose of this measure, and also because he thinks that an attempt will be made by some of the seventy-five bishops, especially those not accustomed to State control, to raise important questions. So that the Dean condemns the Synod for privacy if it sticks to its programme, and by anticipation condemns it for exceeding that programme. He says that it is well understood that when the bishops were first summoned it was intended to have discussed several questions of the highest moment, which he has indicated upon in this country in a manner unfavourable to the promoters of the Synod. It was only on the discovery that such discussions would be unlawful that the present condensed list of topics were drawn up. The "Joint Bull," however, with some other journals of the same school, speaks more kindly of the Council. It asks, Is any real purpose served by the gathering of Anglican Bishops, commonly called the Pan-Anglican Synod? Then answering its own question it proceeds:—

"Assuredly a very grave and a very practical purpose. The moral effect of such a demonstration of fraternity will be large, both at home and beyond the Atlantic waters. The more friendly gathering of some eighty Anglican prelates from all quarters of the world is an event not to be despised. It is an earnest of essential unity of heart and soul amidst manifold divergencies of thought. If an attempt were made to convert a meeting for the solution of pressing practical difficulties into a gladiatorial arena for warring theologians, the consequences would be probably injurious, but such a course and good feeling are pretty sure to preserve us from such a catastrophe. Certain essential virtues being acknowledged on all hands, and the creeds of the Catholic Church being received unfeignedly, our most pressing need is not to cut the knot of Gordian problems, but to learn how we can work together cordially and lovingly for the good of all. And it is in this point of view that we can welcome the holding of this great Anglican Synod, and rejoice in our knowledge of the sound sense, large knowledge, and Christian charity of those who are likely to prove its most influential members. Our bishops, like our clergy, are apt to lack practical concern in their movements. The Synod does not seem unlikely to confer on them at least this one thing, of which they must stand in need at the present moment. For ourselves, entertaining an honest hope that the Anglican Church is destined by the good providence of God, in the fulness of time, to prove nothing more or less than the repairer of the breach and the restorer of paths to dwell in for Christ's Christianendom, we cannot but rejoice in this clear and vigorous manifestation of essential unity within the walls of our spiritual Zion, and we feel that the very meeting of the Synod will consolidate her strong foundations whatever be its final issues."

We learn by the cable that the Synod has adopted and issued an address "condemning Rationalism, Popery, and Materialism, and seeking to promote unity in the Church." In which direction they are looking for that unity is indicated by the important announcement in the Moscow Gazette that upon the initiative of the Archbishop of Canterbury a council is to meet in London, in which the question relates to a rapprochement between the Anglican Church and the Orthodox Russian Church is to be the object of very serious deliberation. Respecting "Ritualism" or the "Ritualists," it does not appear that anything is to be done, one way or the other. This is a great point gained for the Ritualists who only want to be left alone. Meanwhile we see it stated that since the issue of the Ritual Commission Report thirty parish priests have begun to wear the vestments. This is owing to the Report's having convinced them of their rigidity!

THE AMERICAN BISHOPS—THE COLENSO CASE—THE RITUALISTS, ETC.

(We are indebted to the editors of the Church Journal for the following detailed report of the proceedings of the Pan-Anglican Synod at Lambeth,—a courtesy all the more appreciated from the fact that the Council have shut out the newspaper reporters.)

"On Tuesday the 14th of September, at the invitation of the Archbishop of Canterbury, a 'preliminary meeting' of the Bishops of the Anglican communion was held at the house of the S. P. G., No. 5 Park Place, St. James's street. The Archbishop himself took the chair at noon, and some thirty or forty Bishops were present, about one third of whom were American. Among these last were the Bishops of Vermont, Illinois, North Carolina, New York, Louisiana, Rhode Island, Arkansas, and the assistant Bishops of Ohio and Indiana. The meeting was altogether informal; none but Bishops were present; and no minutes were kept.

The chief discussion—the session lasting four hours in all—was in regard to opening the programme for the consideration of the Colenso case. The Metropolitan of Cape Town made a long and very able speech in favor of this course, as due to the Truth which had been so greatly outraged by Dr. Colenso; but objections were made by many on the ground that every portion of the Anglican Communion had already condemned and repudiated Colenso. Both houses of Convocation in England, the Church in Scotland, the Provincial Synods in the Colonies, and the General Convention of our own Church, had all spoken, and nearly all unanimously.—Moreover, Bishop after Bishop declared that they recognized the deposition and excommunication of Colenso as perfectly valid spiritually. The Bishop of Lincoln, for instance received the Holy Communion, he (the Bishop of Lincoln) would not minister to him; nor would he admit him to a benefice in his diocese, should any such as unwise as to present him to one. Other English Bishops said the same thing; and not one hesitated to word to the contrary. The Bishop of Huron stood up manfully for the Metropolitan of Cape Town—but thought the Ritualists should be dealt with likewise. The Bishop of London, though thinking that the Ritualists were really doing more harm in the Church [that is, we suppose, making more rapid progress] than the Colenso case, yet repudiated the idea of the Council touching that subject, which plainly belonged to each distinct Church, to settle for itself, and that branch of the subject fell dead. The Bishops of New York, Vermont, Illinois, and others of the American Bishops, were among the speakers, every one of them standing manfully by the Bishop of Cape Town. The metropolitans of Montreal and New Zealand did the same. Indeed the perfect unanimity on the subject was a delight to all. The only difficulty was as to the legal validity of Colenso's excommunication, according to the laws of England; which of course do not apply. The meeting closed in the most excellent feeling, the Archbishop of Canterbury having won golden opinions by his ungodly courtesy, dignity, gentleness and consideration.

A correspondent calls attention to an error in our last night's edition. Bishop Polk cannot have been present at the Pan-Anglican Synod, having been killed during the late civil war in the United States. The present respected Bishop of Louisiana is Dr. Wilmer, an erudite churchman and a very pious scholar.

FURTHER FROM ITALY.

GARIBALDI MADE PRISONER AND ESCAPED.

HE IS RETAINED AND SECURELY GUARDED.

NEW PHASE OF ITALY'S OBLIGATIONS.

SIR AUGUSTUS PAGET TO BE BRITISH MINISTER AT WASHINGTON.

LONDON, Oct. 3.

The following particulars of the recent movements of Garibaldi have been received from Italy. While in prison at Alexanderia Garibaldi persistently refused to give his parole not to engage in any hostile enterprise against the Papal States. Meanwhile the Italian Government hoping to allay the popular excitement created by his arrest, gave orders for the transfer of the prisoner to his home at Caprea without insisting a parole. The General was accordingly taken to the Island, where he was apparently set at liberty. Soon after his arrival he suddenly disappeared, and succeeded in reaching the mainland, but his movements had been carefully watched and he was again arrested and sent back to Caprea, where he now remains under guard a prisoner in his own house.

The steamer Quaker City with the American excursion party has arrived at Alexandria, Egypt, all well.

It is said that Sir Augustus B. Paget, the present British Minister at Florence, will be appointed Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sir Frederick Bruce.

The Committee consisting of Jas. McHenry and others, appointed to proceed to America and investigate the affairs of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway, have returned to this country. At the meeting of the company they made their report, which was favorably received and is regarded as highly satisfactory by the stockholders of the road.

A report has reached here to-day, the authenticity of which is not fully established, that King Victor Emmanuel has made an appeal to the Great Powers of Europe against the provisions of the September Treaty, which binds the Italian Government to prevent any infringement of the temporal dominion of the Pope.

The extensive operations in grain recently made by the Government and French mercantile houses have reduced the specie balance in the Bank of France to the amount of one million pounds sterling.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.

The Zeiltes Correspondence, a semi-official journal published at this capital, in its issue of to-day makes an assertion that at the recent meeting of the Emperors Napoleon and Francis Joseph at Salzburg an understanding was come to as to the persons whom they will support for successor to Pope Pius IX.

IRISHMEN GOVERNORS.—The following list of Irishmen holding governorships in the British Colonies we find compiled in a late Canadian paper. The compiler states that the list contains only the names of those about whose nationality he had no doubt, and adds that there might be others than those enumerated. It is seen that in the list the name of Gen. Doyle, Governor of New Brunswick, an Irishman, is among those omitted:—

British America—Lord Monck. India—Sir J. L. Lawrence, G. C. B. Bombay—W. R. S. Fitzgerald. Ceylon—Sir H. G. R. Robinson.

Coughs and Colds.

Sudden changes of climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should be at once had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges. Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough, or "common cold," in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the Lungs—"Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, allay irritation which induces coughing, having a direct influence on the affected parts. As there are imitations, be sure to obtain the genuine. Sold by all dealers in Medicine, at 25 cents a box.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it: there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents. Sold everywhere. Be sure and ask for MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. All others are base and dangerous imitations. Quebec, Sept. 26, 1867. 2m-213

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

ARE the most perfect purgative we are able to produce and, as we think, has ever been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the world, and they are much more than other medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, are entirely harmless. Cures have been made that would surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted fellow-men. The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use of these medicines and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred disorders arising from a low state of the body, or obstruction of its functions. Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations on which they make more profit. Demand Ayer's and take no others. The sick want the best and there is for them, and they should have it. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. R. McLeod, Agent, Quebec. oct3-3m.
