Lower Westmount re-zoned; part of master plan

Westmount City Council gave first reading Monday to a by-law re-zoning the lower section of Westmount. An elector-proprietor meeting will be held on February 26 to study the revisions.

Based on the "master plan for the city of Westmount" submitted in 1960 by the architectural firm of Bland, Le Moyne and Edwards, the new by-law establishes requirements "controlling and limiting the form of buildings."

Professor Bland, who did much of the work on the report noted that "as a city grows, it needs re-organization." He stated that Westmount "had grown to the extent that parts have become old and outmoded and demands have been made to replace them. Obsolescence has led to conversion and redevelopment and the face of the community has begun to change."

"In general zoning regulations have been adequate up to the period where replacement of existing uses and structures begins. Regulations governing the use of districts and dimensional requirements of buildings must be modified by social and economic conditions that will effect the next period of growth of the City."

In order to preserve the "open character of the area near Westmount Park no building over six stories is permitted. Most of the present dwellings in the area are three or four stories, with a few apartment buildings exceeding the limit. Existing buildings are not affected.

The City Planners felt that tall buildings might be permitted in areas "where they would not drastically change the local character." Professor Bland's report stated: "It means little difference how high they are, provided there is space about them, and they are not too massive at ground level." Accordingly, high-rise developments are encouraged along the southwestern perimeter of the city where many existing buildings rise to six or seven stories.

Buildings of twelve stories are permitted along most of St. Catherine street, maintaining a balance with the low buildings on Sherbrooke street.

Due to the value of the land and the undesirability of mixing single family dwellings with industrial plants, only apartment buildings or industrial developments are permitted in areas below the CPR tracks.

Only residential buildings will be allowed on Sherbrooke street, in order that the character of the street along with the "architectural interest of the region" may not be affected.

Clarence Campbell NHL President to address RCAF

The Number 306 Maple Leaf Wing of the Royal Canadian Air Force Association will hold its annual buffet dinner at the 401 Squadron Mess at 4450 Sherbrooke street, west, on Wednesday, February 13.

Guest speaker of the evening will be Clarence Campbell, President of the National Hockey League.

All members are requested to attend the dinner, beginning at 6 p.m.

On the north side of Sherbrooke street only one or two family dwellings may be built between Lansdowne and Clark.

The minimum dwelling unit in an apartment building in most areas shall consist of three separate rooms, the by-law states.

No additional rooming and boarding houses will be permitted.

Liberal rally Friday Drury, Hyde, Turner to speak

The St. Antoine-Westmount Liberals will be one of the first to hold a party rally this year for the forthcoming Federal elections as the annual meeting of the St. Antoine-Westmount Liberals is scheduled for 8:00 p.m. Friday. Speakers will be Bud Drury, member of Parliament for St. Antoine-Westmount, Richard Hyde, member of the Quebec Legislature for Westmount-St. George, and John Turner, Liberal member of Parliament for St. Lawrence-St. George.

The meeting was planned months ago merely to present the annual report and elect a new executive, but "it is now time to get the political pot boiling," John Pepper, President of the local Liberal Association stated.

The meeting will be held at Victoria Hall.

Alert constable nabs jewel thief

An alert Westmount Police Constable apprehended a local youth Friday, catching him robbing a Sherbrooke street jewelry store. Arraigned before Criminal Court Wednesday was Frank Valentino, resident of a boarding house at the corner of Prince Albert and Western avenues. He pleaded guilty to charges of breaking and entering, theft, and being in possession of a weapon. He will be sentenced by Judge Staker in Westmount Court today.

Constable Terry Stec, while making his rounds Friday noticed a light burning in the window of a jewelry store belonging to J. G. Norwell, 4928 Sherbrooke street west. He found two panes of glass broken and the door ajar in the rear of the building. Drawing his gun he entered, saw Valentino, and fired a warning shot as the youth began to flee. Quickly handcuffed and searched, the youth was found to have a number of watches and rings in his pockets as well as valuable reported stolen from automobiles on Winchester avenue earlier in the evening. He was carrying a loaded automatic pistol.

Police stated that Valentino would not give his name and address or "even open his mouth." They learned that he had tried, unsuccessfully to force his way into the Hans Barber shop a few doors away after taking a number of purses and other valuables from five cars parked on Winchester avenue.

Municipal commissioners appointed

Appointed commissioners at the Westmount Council meeting Monday were: Alderman McEntyre, Finance; P. A. Ouimet, Public Works; M. L. Tucker, Public Safety; D. N. Byers, Public Health and Welfare; F. W. Gross, Parks and Recreation; and I. S. Backler, Light and Power.

Alderman P. M. McEntyre was appointed Acting Mayor of Westmount. He will hold this post for the months of February, March and April. It involves no special duties, other

Public speaking course

'Be brief, be bright, be gone'

Twenty-three Westmount students last week graduated from the Rotary Club's seventh annual public speaking course, determined to overthrow all windy after-dinner speakers with such maxims as: "Be brief, be bright, and be gone."

The students received diplomas from Rotary president Bill Clark at a dinner ceremony Friday at the Unity Boys Club. Graduating speeches were delivered before an audience of Rotary members, high school principals, and parents of the students.

Graduates

Successful graduates are: Peter Adeland, Andras Boronkay, Robert Bourne, Patrick Cavanagh, Peter DeBelle, Douglas Gamaroff, Bruce Garland, Ed Harper, Katherine Hinds, David Isenman, Donald Johanson, Joyce and Peter Kittredge, Andrew Kozlowski, John Meuris, Jim McMahon, Peter Shaperio, Robert Simco, Jenny Spire, Steve Lebovitz, Herwig Jansen, and Bob Zauchner.

The courses began in October and offered two hours of instruction each week. Ted Harrison, director of the course, noted that attendance was high, an average of 84%. "This is better than we get at our regular Rotary Luncheons with a compulsory attendance," he said.

Each week, students learned the "rules and formats" of effective public speaking, each delivering two seven minute talks on varied subjects. They were urged to always use "telling words" and to remember the formula "T.I.S." in introducing speakers. (Topic, interests, and speakers name.)

Mr. Harrison said that he believed the courses were highly successful in overcoming some of the student's natural fears in standing up before a large group. "It also helped," he said, "by developing the student's ability to express themselves clearly."

Mr. Harrison noted that one boy who spoke very effectively for seven minutes at the last meeting could not, four months ago, "speak before an audience for seven seconds."

Next week's weather

By ERIC NEAL

February 9 to 16

Very changeable conditions this week, nights cold, sunny and relatively mild afternoons. Some years we have had only 3" of snow, and at other times 10 to 12". Temperature range 0-35°F in the south, some nights down to 20 below in the mountains and 25 below in the north and east.

Sunny period into the middle of the week, then wind, snow and freezing drizzle in the south, 2 to 4" of soft snow in the mountains, with some ice, and up to 4" of powder snow in the north, then clearing and cold everywhere.

Flurries and sunny periods to end the week. Icy roads and deep drifts could upset traffic.

Local doctors honored by U.S.

Three Westmount doctors were honored this week by the American College of Physicians, an international organization specializing in internal medicine. Designated as Fellows of the College are: Dr. Douglas G. Kinneer, 461 Mt. Pleasant avenue, and Dr. deGuise Vaillancourt, 4951 Western avenue. Dr. Bernard A. Cooper, 126 Arlington avenue was elected an Associate of the American College.

The honor is bestowed only on physicians who have satisfactorily completed training in internal medicine or related fields.

The American College of Physicians was founded by specialists 47 years ago to maintain and advance standards in medical education, medical practice, and research. It has over 11,500 members in Canada, the United States, Mexico, and Latin American Countries.

The fellowship honors will be formally bestowed on April 4, in Denver, Colorado at convocation ceremonies.

YMCA Outing Club tours city

The Westmount YMCA operates a Saturday afternoon program for boys and girls with emphasis on informal education and appreciation of their city. Each week the group (appropriately named the "Outing Club") visits places of interest in Montreal. All aspects of culture, recreation, history and education are examined. In previous years the youngsters have visited museums, art galleries, railroad yard, landmarks, factories, universities, the Place Ville Marie, Ice Capades, etc.

The program between now and the end of March has been planned and a schedule printed. Some of the highlights are: a trip to Belmont Park, a combination supper and NHL hockey game, Sportsman Show, and a package tour of Dorval Airport tower, 1½ hour airplane ride and a tour of the TCA hangars.

This Saturday (February 9) youngsters wishing to go to the Ice Follies should be at the 'Y' at 1 p.m. The cost is $1.75 plus bus fare. For complete information on all other activities, call the Youth Department (WE. 7-3916).

Swim meet

On Saturday, the Westmount YMCA Swim Team will be joining forces with the N.D.G. 'Y' Swim Team to represent the Montreal YMCA at a national swim competition. The annual Canadian YMCA Telegraphic Swim Meet is being held this year at the N.D.G. 'Y' as well as at other centres, from coast to coast, across Canada.

Bowling Pins

Moss Dudgeon, Physical Secretary, is asking for donations of the small plastic bowling pins — the type found in children's bowling games. They are needed for the annual Gymnastic Revue for which the children have already started practices. If anyone can assist the 'Y' in obtaining these bowling pins, their help would be appreciated.

Gigantic Grass

World's largest known grass is the giant bamboo, Dendrocalamus giganteus, which attains a height of 120 feet and a diameter of 8 to 12 inch.

Two public schools offered for sale

The Westmount Board of School Commissioners announced Monday that Kings and Queens Schools have been offered for sale. Sealed bids will be received up to Noon March 31.

Dr. A. R. M. MacLean, Secretary-Treasurer of the Board said that renovations on the old Westmount Junior High School are almost completed. Several classrooms were converted into kindergartens, a new stairway added, and in general "everything is being done to assure the pupils a modern, up-to-date elementary school." The building will be renamed "Westmount Park School."

Dr. MacLean noted that Kings School is located in a purely residential area and could not be used as an office building. "It is highly likely that it will be demolished," he said. "Queens School, on the other hand might be taken over by some institution." Kings school was built in 1896, an addition containing a gymnasium constructed in 1927. The main building of Queens school was erected in 1895, extra classrooms and a gymnasium added in 1932.

WE SAY

Hard-pressed roads
Department performs superlatively

EVERY resident of Westmount owes a vote of thanks to the hard-pressed employees of the Roads Department. City Hall reports that approximately 75 inches of snow has fallen to date. Many of the storms occurred on Saturdays and Sundays, and city forces have worked on every successive weekend since December 15.

Men and equipment were also on the job on New Year's Eve and New Year's day. Additional overtime has been required on many nights during the week.

The extra work has naturally resulted in a great strain being placed on both men and equipment and of course cuts very deeply into the funds budgeted for snow removal operations.

In spite of the heavy burdens, the Roads Department has continued to do a superlative job in clearing the streets.

Such fine work can only be done with the full cooperation of local residents. Citizens have always been most understanding of the departments problems.

Once again, Westmount maintains its reputation as the city with the best kept streets on the Island of Montreal.

By the way

True or false?

"Is it real snow?" asked a child the other day during a snowstorm. The poor little lad, brought up in a world where so much is synthetic, had possibly heard of the Swiss plan to import plastic snow for skiers in resorts where genuine snow is too scarce.

Snibbo is trying to obtain permission to scatter Snibso from planes. Another little fellow, who found an empty tin of powdered milk, cried: "Mother, I've found a cow's nest!"

THEY SAY

The present has a right to govern itself.
Oliver Wendell Holmes

YOU SAY

Reveal the facts

Sir: In your editorial of January 25, you stated: "The citizens (of Westmount) are genuinely interested in knowing of civic problems and how they may be worked out." This is quite true.

One civic problem is the so-called "rash" of robberies in Upper Westmount. Now these are armed robberies, with violence — not the ordinary cup of tea. Apparently another was committed this week and the home owner refused to allow the police to release information about it. Instead, I read of a police road block set up because, "it was good police practice to establish road blocks."

Westmount is in a peculiar position, of course. Perhaps a third of its citizens are what you might call "prominent," or "influential."

Many of my friends and neighbors are worried. Not knowing exactly what is going on, they magnify the crimes in their imaginations until every noise outside is a robber, every creak in the stairs a villain out to get them. If there truly has been no "rash" of crimes in the city tell us so; if there really is something serious going on, reveal the facts so that we may take extra precautions.

DUPLESSIS MEETS

English and French speaking electors of the Westmount Division joined Monday in a spontaneous tribute to the Honorable Maurice Duplessis, Premier of Quebec and William Ross Bulloch, Member of the Legislative Assembly for Westmount.

Mr. Bulloch said that no honest business need have any fear of socialization "if it conducts itself honorably to its employees, the public and its shareholders."

"I feel that the state of cooperation with industries to settle any differences which may arise, is much preferable to confiscation of industry by the state, which is only a step from socialism or communism. We may provide many benefits for our workers, but if there is no work benefits mean little. I, therefore feel that capital and labor working together, respecting the rights of each other, will have the full support of our Government and will bring prosperity to our province."

NHL rookies

An unprecedented number of rookies have been successful in the National Hockey League this year. Milt Schmidt, who joined the Boston Bruins in the Fall is, according to most hockey experts "playing sensational hockey." Rookie Ray Getliffe, a left-winger, has with centre Bill Cowley "become one of the Boston Emergency Men."

Canadiens finally put George Brown into action and "this heavily-muscled youngster has done well." He lost a toe through an accident in the pre-season, but when he swung into action, he did so with a rush, scoring three goals in four games.

Weredale House

V. F. McAdam at the annual meeting of the Weredale Association reported that the home had exceeded its budget of $49,000 by only $17.44. The average daily member of boys in attendance was 144.

"CAREER NIGHT" at Westmount High was varied and interesting, but a poll of students the next day revealed many terms which left them confused. Most often expressed were the following: What personality characteristics are required to go into architecture, engineering, law, advertising? What kind of actual work is done in the various fields connected with these professions?

Most students agreed that many expressions were beyond them, were unable to follow the meaning of the speaker all the time. Some expressed the wish that an architect or engineer might bring along a visual part of his work, such as a model building, or plans, etc.

A school in Boston, Mass. is turning out what they call on the graduating certificate a "Medical Secretary," who has met all the requirements in secretarial training, but who has also been drilled in a special course covering medical terms used daily in hospitals and doctor's offices. These girls are usually highly paid, and much in demand. Courses of this kind are given which cover terminology used in other professions also.

Musical Sharps, Flats & Naturals

By FRANCES GOLTMAN

QUESTIONS FROM PARENTS. Part I. Mount Carmel Chapter of Hadassah. Westminster Home and School Association. Balya Nigoren Artery. Quebec Heart Foundation.

Questions following an address or talk are of particular interest because the audience has attended to gain knowledge of that special subject. Members of every profession, when asked questions relating to their sphere after a talk, receive many identical questions because different people ask them.

Recently I was invited to speak to several associations. Sometimes you are asked to talk on a selected topic, otherwise you can choose your own.

Naturally, the subject matter for most speakers is closely related to his profession or particular kind of work. Of course, as you could guess, mine is music.

Some years ago I was asked to participate on a panel of the Arts at a luncheon given by the Jewish Junior Welfare League in the Sheraton Mount Royal. Following short talks by the late Elizabeth Leese on dancing; Dr. Arthur Lismer on Art and your columnist on music, there were questions from the audience.

A very large attendance with a number of prominent guests was present. Mr. Penrose, retired principal of Roslyn School, sat beside me at the head table. I certainly enjoyed talking to this learned man, who mentioned several things to me I have never forgotten.

More questions were directed to the music than art or dancing and I will tell you that the same queries are asked by different parents every year. This is natural since the majority of parents want to do what is right for their children.

The three recent meetings where questions followed the talks were: The Mount Carmel Chapter of Hadassah . . . The Westminster Home and School Association and the The Balya Nigoren Artery of The Quebec Heart Foundation.

Only the School had mention having a question period. Both the others asked if I would mind answering a few questions when I had finished my talk? I said I would be very glad to. (I enjoy this type of session.)

Many things dealing with education have changed considerably during the past decade—nay, even the last five years. Our way of living has had an effect on education, and patterns in music certainly alter with the pattern of living. It is amazing how many people go away for weekends . . . thus some children only practise four or five days instead of seven.

The school work suffers too, because more pupils have coaching than in former years. Television has had an impact on studies . . . business . . . and live entertainment. Pupils watch it far too much and the live events have lost much patronage since it is easier to sit at home and watch than have to pay big prices for plays, movies, concerts and sports events. (Live is still the best.) TO BE CONTINUED.

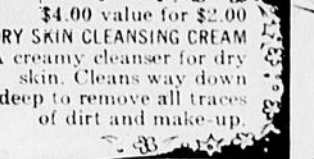

NEXT WEEK: QUESTIONS FROM PARENTS. Part II.

Ski trip goes amiss

by Judi Rothman and Elizabeth Campbell

Last week-end the Ski Club sponsored a trip to Jay Peak and fifty avid skiers showed up for the event. All did not go too smoothly. A bus that could only seat 45 people was sent to the school, but there is a rule that, when crossing the border, all must be seated. Because of this, we were delayed for forty minutes in finding a "fifty seater".

Arriving at the ski hill, the group found that, due to the strong wind, the chair lift was closed. On the way home, the bus became stuck in the snow bank — three hours later with the aid of a snow plow and tow truck, the group once again, was bound for Montreal. To soothe worried parents, this mishap was announced on the radio — but Rosemount, instead of Westmount, was reported. At 11:30 p.m. the bus finally reached home, carrying the tired and hungry skiers.

Mothers help

Last week, we mentioned that, on January 23, parents, with problems to discuss with teachers, were invited to the school. We forgot to say, that the school had the assistance of 41 mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. D. Falkner. With their help, 570 interviews were held. The mothers introduced the parents to the teachers and budgeted the time of the interviews. Those assisting included: Mrs. L. J. Adams, Mrs. C. K. Anderson, Mrs. C. Aspler, Mrs. A. A. Astroff, Mrs. H. D. Barry, Mrs. N. P. Boylis, Mrs. G. W. Bowright, Mrs. F. M. Bourne, Mrs. A. G. Buckmaster, Mrs. H. C. Burritt, Mrs. E. Bute, Mrs. F. B. Clift, Mrs. B. Cummings, Mrs. G. T. Dawson, Mrs. S. Elkin, Mrs. D. Y. Ferguson, Mrs. A. M. Flanagan, Mrs. G. P. Forbes, Mrs. G. W. Hand, Mrs. H. Harper, Mrs. F. Harrison, Mrs. G. Harrison, Mrs. J. Heward, Mrs. B. Isсенman, Mrs. W. C. Leggett, Mrs. T. Lerner, Mrs. J. Macaullay, Mrs. T. McLearn, Mrs. E. Miller, Mrs. S. Miller, Mrs. J. H. Patrick, Mrs. M. Robertson, Mrs. B. S. Russell, Mrs. W. M. Scott, Mrs. J. M. Sharpe, Mrs. Sinclair, Mrs. B. W. Stevens, Mrs. V. Turley, Mrs. H. Walker, Mrs. H. Wisenthal, Mrs. A. Wright.

The Red Cross sponsored the movie "A Tale of Two Cities", on February 6. This film was especially helpful to the grade ten students as the book is a requirement for their English Literature Course.

Students Council

The Students' Council will soon start writing their new constitution. They are planning to have a central committee, comprised of seven students, who will meet three times a week at noon. Each member of this committee will be in charge of a sub-committee, which in turn will be responsible for a particular section of the constitution. These sub-committees will meet twice weekly. Consequently, the members of the central committee will have to devote every noon hour for approximately three weeks to this important task. The present delay unfortunately, due to the fact that the President, Doug McDougall, is in hospital.

CURRENT EVENTS

Mr. Phil Isсенman, Westmount graduate who is now attending Harvard University, gave an excellent lecture on his trip behind the iron curtain at the last Current Events Club Meeting. He was accompanied by Herbie Aronoff who showed slides. Phil received a grant from Harvard for travel on Russia last summer. Able to speak the language fluently, he conversed easily with the Russian people.

Sports

On January 30th the girls'

Senior Basketball Team played its fourth game against John Grant High School. The final score was 42 to 3 for Westmount. Susan Gurd was top scorer.

The boys, too, played an important basketball game last week against Montreal West High. The game was neck and neck all the way, but Westmount finally came out on top with a score of 82 to 75. The boys' team is now tied for first place for the City Championship.

The Junior Orchestra, revived under Mr. Stolow, had its first practice last week. Mr. Stolow is a member of The Montreal Symphony Orchestra, and plays both violin and viola. Apart from his musical abilities, he is proving to be a most capable teacher.

HOW MANY ARE BANK CUSTOMERS?

A safe guess would be every one of them / That's because, in Canada, practically everybody has regular dealings with a chartered bank / Deposit accounts number more than 12½ million — or better than one for every adult. And on the books of the banks at any one time are 1,800,000 loans for just about every personal and commercial purpose / Through 5,000 branches, from one end of the country to the other, the chartered banks bring a full banking service within the reach of everyone.

Friendship Club well attended

Despite the very trying winter weather the members of the Westmount Friendship Clubs are putting in a good attendance at the weekly meeting in Westmount Park Emmanuel Church.

On February 6 a visit to the new Bank of Commerce building on Dorchester blvd. took the place of the usual indoor meeting.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, February 13, when members with February birthdays will be feted. The program for this day will be games and entertainment organised by the members who will contribute their vocal talents. These programs are always good fun and it is hoped that all members will attend, whatever the weather.

Cosmetic Hints

by Vera F. Seiffert

Rough and wrinkled elbows: A very well known way of judging the age of a woman is by her elbows. Many women use common remedies like glycerine, lemon or oil but still do not have satisfactory results. This is understandable, because glycerine is of course smoothening the skin temporarily, but on the other hand it draws the essential water out of the skin so that it will wrinkle. The same will happen with lemon.

But there is help for rough and wrinkled elbows. Make yourself a soapbath and soak your elbows in it until they are soft. Then put a teaspoon full of Seasand-Almond-Powder in the palm of your hand, mix it with a little water and rub your elbows with it for a while. After you have washed and dried them carefully you massage an oily cream or skin oil into the skin. If you repeat this daily, you will find that you soon will have smooth and young looking elbows.

Wrinkles in the morning: Perhaps you are one of the women who first look into the mirror detect deep wrinkles despite a healthy beauty sleep. Usually found between the eyebrows above the nose, these wrinkles can be eliminated very easily if you warm a little bees-wax and apply directly on the wrinkles before you retire. (This does not include the area immediately surrounding the eye, which only a rich nourishing cream will correct.) The wax will set within a few minutes and will definitely keep the skin from forming wrinkles. In the morning simply lift off the wax and apply a good nourishing cream into the skin by patting and circular massage movements.

Fraud ring cracked

A relatively new racket was believed smashed in N.D.G. last week when police arrested four confidence men, part of a cross-Canada gang specialising in fleecing bank depositors. They were picked up here after police had been tipped off by two sisters living on Madison avenue who said they were suspicious of calls they had received. Their modus operandi was described by police:

One man calls the victim, stating he is a bank manager checking on the honesty of a teller, and asks the depositors to withdraw money as a "check" on the employee.

Then the "manager" calls at the victim's home and states the money is to be redeposited.

Police claim the whole operation is false.

The men were caught here when three parked in a car outside the Madison avenue house. They were detained for questioning, as was a fourth man who drove up in a new car with Ontario licence plates.

Police said the gang is suspected of taking money from a number of depositors in Montreal and Westmount.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

REACTION TO SOLID FOODS

By Kenneth S. Shepard, M.D. Director, Well Baby Clinics Northwestern University School of Medicine

Solid foods are added to the infant's diet slowly and with discrimination, since any one food-stuff may produce adverse reaction in any given infant.

Reactions which may be manifested in the presence of a poorly tolerated food include: Symptoms of colic, excessive regurgitation, loose stools and skin rashes.

Symptoms may appear within a few hours after the introduction of a teaspoonful or less of the offending food. However, the infant may take a small amount without adverse reaction and have symptoms only after he has consumed several feedings of the food over a period of three to five days. In some infants, reaction occurs only when a large amount is taken at one feeding.

In general, it is advisable to offer one new food at a time, and each new food at intervals of not less than one week.

Of the cereal group, pure grain precooked cereals are used: rice, barley, oatmeal and corn. Mixed cereal is offered last, since an offending allergen cannot be identified readily.

When vegetables are introduced, it is advisable to offer one from each family of vegetables in order to learn the infant's general reaction as well as his preference. For example, one can offer peas from the flower, fruit and seed family; spinach from the leaf and stem family; and beets from the root and tuber family.

Fruits also are introduced with care. The first fruits are usually applesauce, ripe banana, strained apricot, peach, plum, pear or prune. Citrus fruits usually are introduced later because of the relatively frequent occurrence of adverse reactions in early infancy.

Lamb is usually the first meat offered. There is a strong tendency to start meats early at the present time. They are an excellent source of iron as well as protein. Meat or egg yolk should be started when possible between the fourth and sixth months of life, at the latest, to provide an adequate iron intake.

Blade of a power lawn mower rotates at the rate of about 314 feet per second, which is close to the muzzle velocity of a .32 caliber revolver.
