Roger Taillibert a man of influence

Roger Taillibert

Actor of importance in the Olympic history of Montreal, Roger Taillibert was also a significant player in the rescue of the Championships FINA 2005. The man have provided his support during the negotiations to bring back the championship of swimming to Montreal. Taillibert believes that it is now possible to consider the Olympic of 2016 in Montreal. The architect of the Olympic Stadium of Montreal defends its realization. "They massacred my work literally, said Taillibert. They did everything in order not to respect the integrality of my work and the reasons for which this great complex had been built. The management was put between the hands of people, among who there is no sportsman or athlete. They tried to convert the Stadium into a building for every one. " Taillibert sees in the project to obtain the Games of 2016 an occasion to give back the Olympic complex to the athletes. He affirms that Montreal has significant supports within the members of the CIO and still today, the success of the Montreal's Games is always quoted in example by the Olympic Committee. Roger Taillibert has as an immediate project to present an exhibition of his painting. www.agencetaillibert.com

Leonard Cohen

Leonard Cohen (Photo by Lorca Cohen and drawing by Léonard)

The great Canadian poet, Leonard Cohen, would be financially broke. The author and singer, who will be 71 years old on next September 21, had a personal fortune of 5 million $ and it is now reduced to less 150,000$. Cohen always kept a bond with his birthplace and he often referred to Montreal in its writings, in particular in the famous song SUZANNE. Leonard Cohen sold beyond 11 million CDs. He is follower of religion in particular Boudhisme and certain Jewish traditions and he admires Kateri Tekakwitha, the Indien Virgin. He likes to write and to draw but he is not a fast creator. It often takes him a few years to finish a text which he alters constantly. He is a amateur of the Internet and he draws on computer. A new book of poetry, BOOK OF LONGING, should be published in March and a new disc is awaited for this Fall. Although there are tens of Websites about him, he collaborates with only one at the following address.

The industry of the magazines

Jacques Robert

The Associate Editor and Artistic Director at the French edition of Châteline Magazine during 23 years, Jacques Robert, who left his functions in 2003 to found his own company, notice a continual increase in the interactive communication between the magazine and the reader, because of the Internet. He also see a prevalence of the image over the text.

"The power of the images currently sublimates that of the words. The expansion of the amount of titles offered in kiosk is also surprising, whereas the reading time decreased "

Jacques Robert, who is also a photographer of formation, currently shares his time between Montreal, Europe, Dubai in the Middle East and Shanghai in China. Consulting for various magazines, he also works on several projects of books of photographs in particular in the field of the new hotels. Books emphasizing various aspects of the establishments and which reflect the beauty and the spirit of the places. He prepares a project with the Hotel Emirates Palace in Abu Dhabi with the Plain Emirates Arab, the most expensive hotel ever built, (three billion dollars US.) and another project with the Hotel Four Seasons George V in Paris.

The Editor Claude J. Charron

Claude J. Charron

The creator of the popular magazines in Quebec, Claude J. Charron, does not feel concerned by the mass of the magazines in kiosks and he launched a new tele schedule. TELE SEMAINE will be the complement of the chronicles published in his magazine LA SEMAINE whose circulation is 275,000. The particularity of the magazines published by Charron is that they are especially sold in groceries and placed close to the cash register. The specific use of this space of distribution for a magazine was so to speak invented by Charron. He had created the concept with the magazine LE LUNDI in 1976. In spite of the tendency at all the large magazines, and the fact that Charron is very innovator, his magazines is not accessible by Internet....

The Game SODOKU

After RUBIK Cube and the game TRIVIAL POURSUIT, here is that the world is invaded by another fury: the play of mathematical ability SUDOKU. This game consists in placing the figures from 1 to 9 in a series of 9 squares. There are tens of references on the sites like Googles or Yahoo and several newspapers or magazines regularly publish their version . It does not seem to have particular classes of people who play SODOKU. The game is played especially on paper with a pencil but there are also versions for computer. www.sudoku.com
