Mystery Stripped From Red Brain - Washing By Experts

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
Washington. — (AP) — Some of the mystery has been stripped from "brain-washing," the process by which Communists make men confess in detail and with an appearance of willingness to things they never did.

Three men in a position to know have publicly given details that fit into a manual of brain-washing. They are Marine Col. Frank H. Schwabe, Maj. Gen. William Dean and Dr. Joost A. M. Meerloo of New York.

All testified last week before the court of inquiry which is trying to determine whether Schwabe should be put on military trial for signing a false anti-war confession after seven months in Chinese Communist captivity.

Dean also was taken prisoner in Korea. Meerloo is a psychiatrist who was captured by the Nazis and served in the Dutch underground.

Here, from their testimony, is the technique of "mind murder"—menticide, or brain-washing:

1. Take away all the needs of the human mind and body. Make your victim feel, "I am nothing." Do this by locking him in foul, cramped quarters. Deny him adequate food, clothing, baths, trips to the latrine, medical care, relief from monotony, a kind word.
2. While he is ripening into "a mechanical imitator of his tormentors," tell him what you want him to "confess." Teach him futility. Make it clear you have all the time in the world and his misery will end only when he complies.
3. Interrogate him for as long as it takes—three hours or three weeks—until he is willing to agree, and perhaps believe, that black is white.
4. Use no drugs, except to keep him from temporary escape into unconsciousness. Use no physical torture, such as breaking his arm. That way you can say, "We never laid a hand on him."

Continental Defence Concept Deplored By Hon. L. Pearson

Tells United States North Atlantic Pact Set-Up Essential In Battling Communism.

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Washington. — (CP) — Canada's L. B. Pearson appealed to the United States today to reject "entrenched continentalism" as a concept of defence against world communism.

The External Affairs Minister warned that Canadian-American relations will be threatened if the U.S. reverts to a policy of defence narrower than that of the North Atlantic pact.

"The stakes now are higher than ever, and the necessity for co-operation and consultation greater than ever," he said in a speech prepared for the National Press Club.

"It is essential that we work together in any new defence policy—as we have already been working together—if the great coalition which we have formed for peace is not to be replaced by an entrenched continentalism."

This narrow defence concept, under which presumably the U.S. would choose its own time, place and means of retaliating against a Red attack, "makes no great appeal to your northern neighbor as the best way to prevent war or defeat aggression," Pearson said.

He made his appeal for continued support of a strong, unified North Atlantic community as the basic bulwark against communism in referring to the Jan. 12 defence speech of U.S. State Secretary Dulles.

Dulles' address—described by Pearson as "one which may turn out to be one of the most important of our times"—outlined a new U.S. defence policy based on a Washington decision "to depend principally upon a great capacity to retaliate, instantly by means, and at places of our own choosing."

The key words in this sentence are "instantly," "means" and "ours," Pearson said.

From our point of view, it is important that the "ours" in the sentence I have quoted, means those who have agreed together, particularly in NATO, to work together and by collective action to prevent war or, if that should fail, to win it.

"But what effect will that have on the other words 'instantly' and 'means'?"
Collective action means collective consultation, but that must be reconciled with the necessity for swift and effective action. This reconciliation is not easy, within a single government. It is even less easy between governments."

The new American defence policy, Pearson continued, makes diplomacy not less but even more important, especially when nations contemplate the "means, including atomic," that may have to be used, the occasions when they should be used, and their effect—explosive possibly in more respects than one.

Pearson said he believes the Western allies now have obtained a basis of a common devotion to freedom, law and justice, a common fear of totalitarian tyranny and "of subversive doctrines harnessed to the might of a great and aggressive Communist empire which threatens those things in which we believe."

On that basis, I hope we can erect and maintain a solid structure of friendship and even closer co-operation. If our two countries, so close together in so many ways, cannot do this, there is indeed little hope for peace and progress in the troubled world of today."

Canadians fear that the U.S. government may be preparing to embark on a major food giveaway program which might drastically reduce the world market for Canadian surpluses, particularly in wheat.

Still Seek Identity Of 14 Victims

Singapore. — (AP) — Efforts were still being made today to identify some of the charred bodies recovered from the wreckage of the British Constellation airliner which crashed Saturday at Singapore airport, killing 33 persons.

The plane, owned by the British Overseas Airways Corporation, burned fiercely for some time after it struck the Kallang airport runway and somersaulted. Seven of the crew aboard escaped.

Air officials flew from London and Sydney to investigate the crash.

President Will Press Tariff Cut

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Washington. — (CP) — Despite opposition in some Republican quarters, President Eisenhower has decided on a program of tariff cuts and his proposals will be placed before Congress within the next two weeks, diplomatic officials disclosed today.

At the same time he will ask Congress to extend the U.S. Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, which expires next June, for another three years, thus paving the way for a possible fourth post-war round of tariff bargaining early next year.

Parts of the still-secret program will be unveiled for a confidential preview at Tuesday's historic meeting of senior Canadian and American cabinet ministers.

The eight ministers, including U.S. State Secretary Dulles and Canada's External Affairs Minister L. B. Pearson and Trade Minister C. D. Howe, will meet at the first formal conference of the Canada-U.S. economic and trade committee.

Other members will be Agriculture Minister J. G. Gardiner and Finance Minister Douglas Abbott of Canada, U.S. Treasury Secretary Humphrey, Commerce Secretary Weeks and Agriculture Secretary Benson.

The committee was set up to iron out troublesome Canada-U.S. trade and economic differences before they explode into embarrassing public issues.

The big issues at the moment are American tariffs and U.S. programs to dispose of a portion of huge stockpiles of food which threaten to clog world markets and reduce established prices.

Canadian ministers are preparing to ask the U.S. for an "understanding" that American food disposal programs will not be applied in such a way that they wreck world markets and prices for Canadian products.

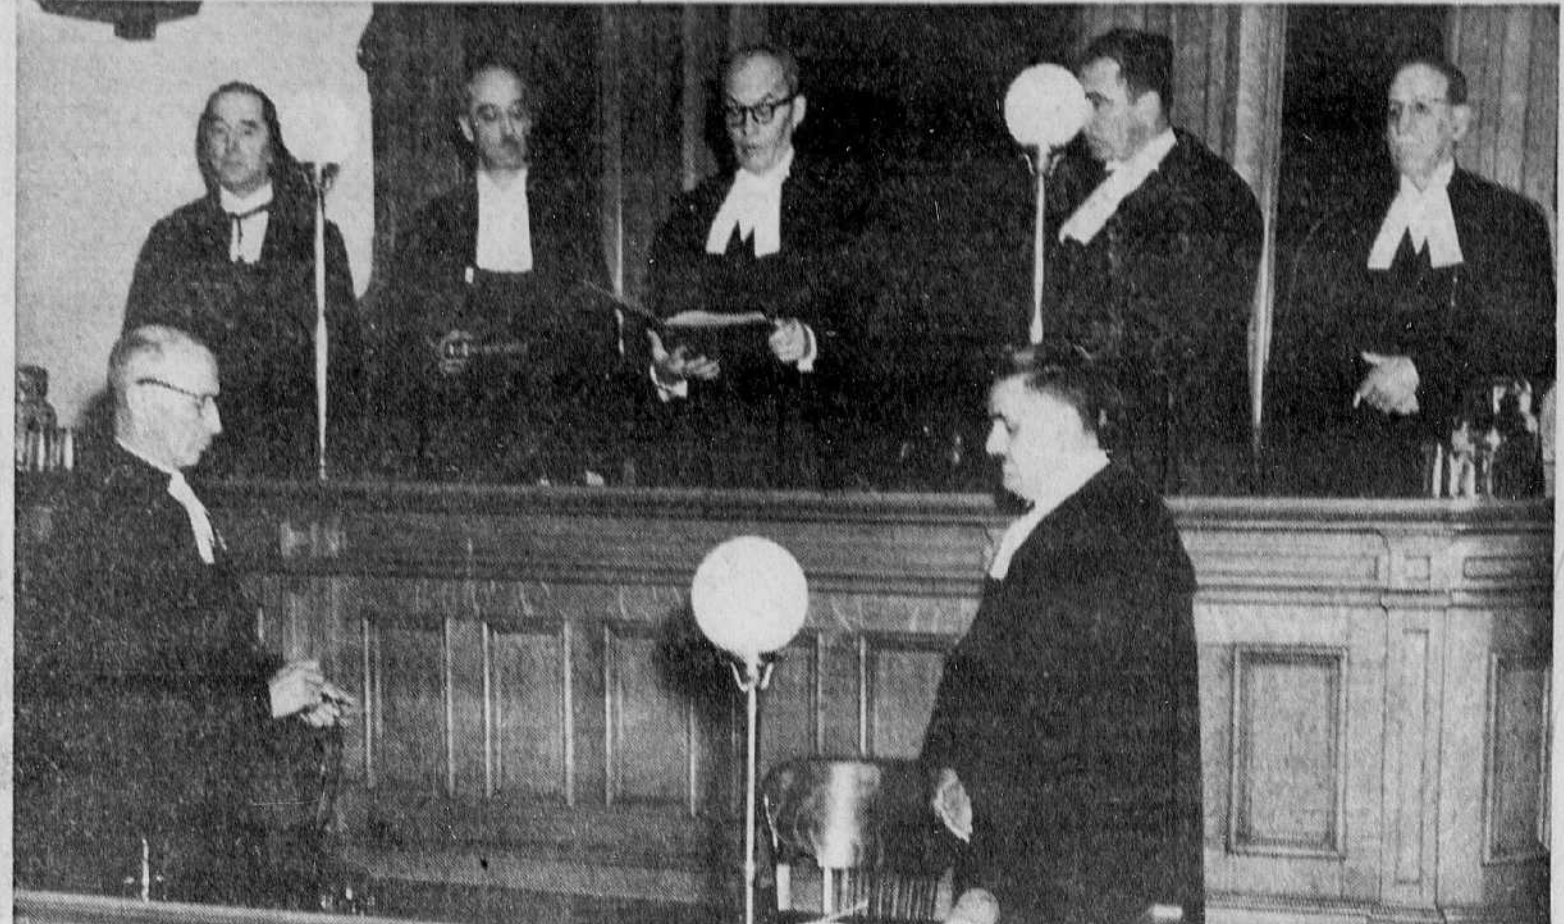

The Canadians have a mind particularly Eisenhower's Jan. 20 recommendation to Congress that $1,000,000,000 worth of commodities held by the government be used over a period of three years to "strengthen the economies of friendly countries and otherwise to contribute to the accomplishment of our foreign policy and objectives."

Canadians fear that the U.S. government may be preparing to embark on a major food giveaway program which might drastically reduce the world market for Canadian surpluses, particularly in wheat.

The French high command in Saigon said the French Union forces had the "situation well in hand" and were holding "solidly" against the "very violent" rebel attacks.

A French spokesman predicted the fighting would last several days.

A three-hour cease-fire interrupted the fighting Sunday morning while both rebels and French carried their dead and wounded from the battlefield. The French claimed at least 1,000 rebels killed in the initial assault Saturday night and early Sunday, and ad-

Defence New Look

Wilson Gives Details Of Re-Organization

By ELTON C. FAY

Washington. — (AP) — Defence Secretary Wilson gave Congress today some details of the military "new look"—continued "rapid buildup of air strength" and an army slimmed down by three of its present 20 divisions.

Wilson outlined these plans for the year starting next July 1 in testimony prepared for the armed services sub-committee of the Senate appropriations committee, considering the military budget.

He said the new military plans, evolving from "the crash emergency program adopted the beginning of hostilities in Korea" are "geared to improving our state of preparedness over an extended period of time."

At another point he said: "Various new weapons have become available in increasing quantity and still newer ones are in the offing."

His comment could have referred to both new applications of atomic weapons, and to various types of guided missiles, in use or still in test.

Saturday, a high government source who would not be quoted by name indicated that U.S. nuclear specialists set off a few days ago at the Eniwetok test area the biggest hydrogen blast they have attempted.

Wilson projected the air buildup ahead to July 1, 1957, when he said the air force will have 137 wings, plus air national guard and reserve units; the navy 16 carrier air groups and 15 carrier aircraft squadrons; the marine corps three air wings, with naval and marine air reserves in a "high state of readiness." Turning to ground forces, Wilson said:

"Army forces at the end of June will be organized into 17 divisions, 18 regiments and regimental combat teams, and 122 anti-aircraft battalions, together with appropriate supporting elements. This is a reduction of three divisions from the high level achieved during the Korean war. It is the same number of regiments and regimental combat teams and is an increase of five in the anti-aircraft battalions."

Wilson said, "Great progress will continue to be made in expanding the number of anti-aircraft battalions with Nike guided missiles."

The Nike missile is of super-sonic speed and, the army claims, capable of tracking down and hitting any aircraft in use.

A year from next June, Wilson said, the navy's active fleet will consist of 1,080 ships, 404 of them major combatant types such as carriers, cruisers, destroyers and submarines. This will be a reduction of 49 ships from present average strength, with only four major combatant types dropped from the active list.

The marine corps will continue at the present three-division level.

The fighting resumed at noon Sunday with a heavy rebel bombardment of the strongly fortified, French-held plain in the heart of the Thai tribal country.

Then, as they had on Saturday, wave on wave of screaming, bugle-blowing rebel troops surged forward against the bristling barbed wire barricades ringing the French positions.

French mobile artillery, tanks, mortars and heavy machine-gun and rifle fire cut down Vietnamese by the score. Fighters and bombers cut a wide swath in the charging ranks.

The fighting was described as the most savage in the seven-year-old Indo-China war.

The screaming Vietnamese infantry fired rifles, pistols, sub-machine-guns and hurled bamboo spears as they closed in for hand-to-hand fighting.

Two French outposts were overpowered. The defending forces, under French officers, was made up of French paratroopers, Foreign Legionnaires, North Africans and Viet Namese.

In south Indo-China, the French captured the important Vietnamese port of Quihon, 250 miles north-east of Saigon, a communique announced Sunday.

Protests On Handling Of Royal Visit

MacKay, Australia. — (CP) — Town councillor J. A. McColl refused to be presented to Queen Elizabeth when she came ashore here today, because there would be no band on the wharf to play the National Anthem.

Civic authorities of this sugar-growing town, decided to fire a royal salute when the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh arrived on board the destroyer Anzac after a weekend cruise along the Great Barrier reef.

The national anthem, they said, should be reserved for a later ceremony.

Councillor McColl boycotted the wharf ceremony, and stationed his own band—a life and drums corps—just down the road.

When told his band must not play "God Save the Queen," he had it play "Long Live Elizabeth."

McColl's was not the only protest brought on by the royal visit to MacKay.

Mayor J. Binnington selected his seven-year-old granddaughter, Daphne Newman, to present a bouquet of orchids to the Queen. But Daphne comes from another town. The townsfolk of MacKay objected to the intrusion.

Mayor Binnington received several abusive letters, among them an anonymous note which read: "Witch's curse. I hope all your brood hath polio."

The curse, instead, seemed to hit an open-air school concert organized for the royal visit. Youthful tulle-gowned "fairies" wilted and fainted in the heat. The microphone went dead. Dancers got out of step, or stood rooted to the stage, staring in amazement at the Queen.

Sunday the Queen and the Duke spent hours cruising among the

Premier To Intervene In "Fag" War

Montreal. — (CP) — Premier Duplessis told members of the Retail Tobacco Dealers' Association during the weekend he will do what he can to put an end to the practice of price-cutting cigarettes by chain stores.

"Send me all the facts and figures you have on the situation and I will have the problems studied by the officers of the legal department and then I will bring the matter to the attention of the federal Minister of Justice to see if there is anything he can do," the Premier told the delegation representing 27,000 dealers.

"These big stores sell cigarettes and cigars at reduced prices as a 'come-on' to lure customers into their places of business," Mr. Duplessis said. "They sell only the most popular brand and if the customer wants a particular sort of cigarette or cigar, he still has to go to the small corner store."

"The small corner store—whether it is a grocer or a tobacconist—is an institution in Quebec and we want to do all we can to keep the institutions we have here."

He noted that the federal government collected $8.86 excise tax on every 1,000 cigarettes sold, compared with $2 levied by Quebec.

Showdown Seen Essential In McCarthy - Army War

By G. MILTON KELLY

Washington. — (AP) — Republican party leaders faced critical decisions today on strategy for ending the war between Senator Joseph McCarthy and the army and avoiding an outright break between the Wisconsin Republican and the Eisenhower administration.

McCarthy and Republican leaders seemed agreed that a showdown, at which he and top army officials would testify under oath, is needed to get at the truth in the welter of charges and counter-charges.

But where and when to stage it—and whether publicly or behind closed doors—remained undecided.

After Vice-President Nixon's speech Saturday night, with its passages obviously directed at McCarthy, the feeling spread that a showdown must come soon.

Nixon said "reckless talk and questionable methods" in fighting communism played into the hands of administration opponents and that the administration insists procedures used both in the executive and legislative branches must be fair and proper.

The feud flared anew last week with publication of an official army report alleging that McCarthy and an aide on his Senate investigations sub-committee had put pressure on the army to get special favors for Pte. G. David Schine, a former member of the sub-committee's staff. The report specifically accused the sub-committee's chief counsel, Roy Cohn, a pal of Schine, of backing such demands with threats.

"Blackmail," McCarthy retorted. He accused Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens and John G. Adams, army general counsel, of trying to use the drafting of Schine as "a club" against further sub-committee probing into McCarthy's charges of Reds in the army. McCarthy made public a batch of "office memos" from his files, mostly signed by Cohn and sub-committee staff chief Frank P. Carr, to back up the blackmail accusation, which Stevens denounced as false and fantastic. McCarthy has offered to repeat his charges against the army under oath before his own sub-committee. Returning Sunday night from a speaking trip to Wisconsin, he told reporters "we will insist on our committee taking care of its own affairs."

That seemed to be pretty close to how front rank Senate Republican leaders thought it should be handled, but Senator Karl Mundt (Rep. S.D.), next senior Republican member of the sub-committee, insisted "the public interest would be better served and the country would be better satisfied if the matter is turned over to a different committee."

The senate Republican policy committee scheduled a meeting for Tuesday, and its leaders said the controversy and possible methods of investigating it will be considered.

What You Say, How You Say It, Can Make You More Popular

A publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique of everyday conversation which can pay you real dividends in both social and business advancement and works like magic to give you added poise, self confidence and greater popularity. The details of this method are described in a fascinating booklet, "Adventures in Conversation," sent free on request.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by what they say and how they say it. Whether in business, at social functions, or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can make a good impression every time you talk. To acquaint more readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in everyday conversation, the publishers have printed full details of their interesting self-training method in a 24-page booklet which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. Snow Chases Rain Rats Win Fight Weather Man Finds For Control Of Variety Unpopular Magog City Dump

The ears of the Weather Man were burning over the weekend. The old fellow is used to abuse and has developed a thick skin but he still has some feelings and they were hurt by what he heard. He had given people a long rest, why not a little variety, he argued to himself, and proceeded to enliven the weather picture.

Few people will deny that variety was provided. Saturday and again Sunday saw thin rains which turned roads and sidewalks into treacherous surfaces. Walkers were slipping and cars, even the broad-tracked buses, were having a hard time on the hills. Then softness turned the glass into slush.

Most home-coming curlers and other week-end sportsmen used the trains. Those of the more adventurous who drove found the homecoming tough. One man left Montreal at six on Saturday night and arrived in Sherbrooke six hours later after a drive which he will long remember. A fair number of accidents were reported along the way.

Rainfall for the two days, said Wentworth S. Richardson, of the Dominion Experimental Farm, was only .04 of an inch yesterday saw an inch of snow and this morning's reading was 2.3 inches. It was the second worth-while fall of the last few weeks.

This morning's driving was easier and people were getting used to the return of the wintry scene. Comments were more muted and it was agreed that Old Man Weather had a right to a final fling. The more he acts up now, seemed to be the feeling, the sooner we'll have spring.

News of the "epidemic" was first reported in 1949, when it was told that two children had been bitten by the rats. Municipal authorities, at that time denied that the rats were a menace to Magog residents. One outspoken critic of the report was immediately silenced when he found a crate of dead rats on his doorstep one morning. All had been shot at the dump on the previous evening.

Last summer, rodents again caused damage when they undermined railroad ties on the C.P.R. line bordering the dump. The new dump will be strictly for city use. This was not the case at the old site where anyone could leave anything.

Death Claims C. E. Sterling, Of Lennoxville

For many years a prominent Lennoxville merchant, Calvin E. Sterling passed away at the Sherbrooke Hospital yesterday in his seventy-fourth year.

Mr. Sterling was born at South Durham in 1880 but spent the greater part of his life in Lennoxville where he was a well-known and popular citizen.

He was employed for many years by the Canadian Ingersoll Rand, the MacKinnon Steel Company and the Jencks Machinery Co. in Sherbrooke. In the mid-thirties, he opened a grocery store at the corner of Church and Queen Streets in Lennoxville from which he retired five years ago. The store is now occupied by Lennoxville Building Supplies, which is operated by his son, Rod, and Howard Leslie.

He is survived by his wife, the former Gertrude Evelyn McClintock, and two sons, Rod and Doug-

Magog, March 15.—Rats have won a 16-year battle for possession of Magog's community garbage dump, the City Council conceded yesterday.

Ever since Magog started dumping refuse in a bog on the western outskirts of the city in 1938 it has been a battle between residents and the rats infesting the dump.

Unable to drive the rats away or keep them down to a reasonable number, the City Council has decided to move the dump away from the city to a new site more than three miles distant on an abandoned farm.

Rental of the new dump will cost Magog $400 a year, less than half it has been paying a veterinarian for his efforts to keep the rats under something resembling control.

But, the rats' victory, according to city officials, will be short-lived. Planning to build a huge lakeside motel near the dump, a prominent contractor is also bargaining with the Council for the old site.

Richmond Irish Gather To Fete St. Patrick's Day

Richmond, March 15.—That "little bit of Heaven" which "fell out the sky one day" and turned out to be Ireland sent many of its sons to all parts of the world. They brought with them, wit, intelligence, poetry, piety and, of course... blarney.

Last night the blarney was quite evident as over two hundred Irish men and their colleens gathered in Richmond at the 77th annual dinner sponsored by the Richmond St. Patrick's Society in honor of the Irish Patron Saint.

The celebration which followed the traditional St. Patrick's Day parade, was a great success.

During the dinner, music and songs were supplied by Francoise Proulx, Joe Doyle, Mrs. Irene Rat-trey and Miss Ruth Lindell. The accompanist on the piano was Mrs. J. Fortin.

The Irish love of oratory was intermingled with the aforementioned blarney and several speakers beginning with the chairman, Raymond Johnson's introduction, congratulated the Society and Judge Redmond Hayes who was present as one of the guests of honor. Among the speakers were, Clayton Lee, Armand Girard, of the St. Jean Baptiste Society, and a congratulatory message from the St. Andrew's Society was read by Toastmaster Philip McLaughlin in the absence of the representation of the group.

His Worship H. P. Stone, mayor of Richmond, was among the principal speakers there. He spoke briefly and interestingly on the role in society that the Irish have played in the community. He expressed his gratitude towards the St. Patrick's Society for so doing.

The Rev. Paul G. Fisher, C.S.S.R. was the guest speaker and his talk was entitled "Ireland As It Is Today and Ireland As It Is Remembered."

He compared the Ireland of poetry and song and the two Irelands of today who exist side by side, the struggling young Republic, modern and up-to-date, striving to gain in efficiency and strength.

"This new republic is steadily progressing abreast of the nations that surround it, gaining the intelligent attention of its neighbors," he said. "He spoke of the great difficulties of the last century which forced its people through 'practical starvation' to migrate to other parts of the world. A strong bond has remained between the Irish everywhere and their homeland. However this did not stop them from becoming an integral part of the new country, they had adopted and neither did it stop them from leaving profound impressions of themselves in these new countries."

"Irishmen everywhere have kept a balance which has permitted them to keep God in their daily lives," said Father Fisher.

Michael O'Donnell, who congratulated Judge Redmond Hayes on his recent appointment as District Judge on the behalf of the Society.

Judge Hayes in his customary eloquence replied thanking everyone for their kindness and thoughtfulness saying, "It is my good fortune to have been appointed and to have taken oath in a democratic country which still respects justice." He also stated that a desire for justice has always been the desire of the Irish.

Impressive Ceremonies Feature Swearing In Of Judge R. Hayes

Representatives of both the religious and civic life, relatives, friends and well-wishers assembled at the local court house Saturday afternoon to witness Judge Auguste Boyer, Associate Chief Justice of the Court of Appeal, administer the oath of office to Judge Redmond Hayes.

The brief ceremony, itself was followed by several speakers beginning with Jean Marie Gregoire, clerk of the court, who read the Salutation.

Seated on the bench were Judge Joseph Marier of the Court of Sessions of the Peace, Chief Judge

Auguste Boyer, Mr. Justice William Mitchell of the Superior Court, and District Judge Edouard Boisvert.

Judge Boyer gave a short address welcoming the newly appointed Judge to the Bench and gave a brief outline of his career.

Born in Richmond, Judge Hayes died at St. Charles Seminary in Sherbrooke and later at the University of Montreal. While in University he was elected President of the Law Students Association and after he graduated practiced for some years in Montreal. Later he practiced in Richmond and Sherbrooke. He ran in the 1949 elections as Progressive Conservative candidate for Sherbrooke county but was defeated by the Liberal member, Maurice Giquere, served as joint Crown Prosecutor and for some years was Municipal Judge prior to his appointment to his present position last month succeeding the late Judge Dorais Panneton.

"In assuming your great new function," Judge Boyer went on, "you will find few compensations in rendering justice, since these

- TERSE is best. To be TERSE, in the sense suggested by the clue, is DEFINITELY to be under some form of emotional stress. There is no question of it being "perhaps more likely". It is definite that you are; "perhaps more likely" when under emotional stress; therefore there is a preference for TERSE.

EXPLANATION OF MORE DIFFICULT CLUES:

ACROSS:

7. GET is best because the way the clue is worded it implies that MOST husbands reveal this information to their wives, whilst only SOME prefer not to. This favors GET because we cannot assume that husbands in general DO NOT.
9. RAZOR is best. Certainly the RAZOR was used everywhere in the last war. RAZOR, however, was not universally used but confined to only certain branches of the service.
11. TOUCH is best because if you have a lighted torch you are not, strictly speaking, in the dark.
12. WIFE is best particularly because the clue specifies a "man". Only a man has a WIFE, whereas a woman also might offer a guest WINE.
13. MAP is a sound answer. There is no reason to favor JAP, which is not an officially accepted term but only an abbreviation for Japanese. GAP or SAP is not favored.
16. NOTICE is best. It is always true of a NOTICE, the only way you would spot a NOVICE would be when he makes a stroke.
31. RENT is stronger, since this does not mean that a payment is legally due and therefore a refusal might well cause trouble. In some cases a woman would be justifiably refuse to pay a CENT.
32. LIVELY is best because of variations in taste, it is difficult to say just what IS LOVELY music. What is considered LOVELY by some is "perhaps more likely" when under emotional stress; therefore there is a preference for TERSE.

DOWN:

1. DETAIN is best. His being busy does explain why may be better not to DETAIN him. On the other hand a busy lawyer is probably a good one, so if he can handle your case why NOT DETAIN him?

Two Basketball Teams

When two teams centred a ball on the floor of the Sherbrooke High School gym one night last week they met in a game which demands as high a degree of initiative, self-control and accuracy as any sport. Why? Because basketball is one of the few games which was invented, rather than developed from a simpler form, like most.

In the days before hockey was popularized in the States there was a search for an indoor winter game. There was baseball in the summer; football in the fall. So a certain man sat down and thought. He happened to be James Naismith, instructor at the Y.M.C.A. College at Springfield, Massachusetts.

Naismith invented a swift-moving contest which, originally, saw the use of ordinary fruit baskets as goals. He wrote a set of iron-clad rules. There was to be no tackling, body interference or holding; there were strict limitations as to bounds. These rules still stand. Result: one of the cleanest productions in the field of sports.

If you want to have the opinion of a celebrated coach on basketball, here it is. It was written recently by Ken Loeffler in the Saturday Evening Post:

"I've handled baseball teams and football games, too. I've boxed and wrestled. I've taught tennis and coached lacrosse. The other sports can be fun but the truth is that most of them are elementary compared to basketball. None involves such speed and intricacy of tactics. None demands such fast moving, fast thinking and all-round athletic skill."

It may be that the carefully devised rules which have made basketball what it is have had something to do with the fact that it is one of the sports which, at least on our side of the border, preserves a genuinely amateur status today. The Sherbrooke Independents and the Lennoxville Grads, for instance, are not only not paid — they are considerably out of pocket as they buy their own uniforms and defray other expenses. Were it not for outside assistance they couldn't afford to be in the game at all.

Cause And Effect

The General Motors Corporation spent more than fifty million dollars in 1952 in newspaper advertising alone. Many probably felt that this huge appropriation would see customers paying more for their cars.

What happened? Dealers reported an unusual volume of enquiries early in 1953. The number of cars turned out to meet this prospective demand put the corporation in a strong competitive price position. Aggressive management enabled this largest of all American companies to achieve a volume which meant an eventual saving for customers.

Another Sign Of Decadence

At last it is inescapable that ours is a decadent age. Time was when a plentiful hirsute growth was considered a mark of masculinity. Vigorous specimens once expanded hairy chests in gymnasium dressing rooms and their less furry brethren envied and quickly looked away. In those days hair meant strength and strength meant hair. But times have changed. A man in Quebec recently sued a woman-practitioner who had, he claimed, promised to remove the hair from his chest by a course of six treatments. He went through the treatments but the hair, he was willing to demonstrate in court, had been obstinate enough to remain.

The judge dismissed the case: there had been no written contract. But he added the consoling opinion that the suit-bringer, he thought, was entitled to further treatments without charge.

TWELVE-MONTH COUNTRY

The Brandon Sun
There was once a phrase which was often heard. It was, "Canada is an eight-month country." It referred, of course, to the closing down of many business activities during the winter months and the consequent high incidence of unemployment at those times.

The phrase is rarely heard these days, but, to anyone who has occasion to follow the rise and fall of employment figures, that is clearly not because the problem of seasonal unemployment has been solved. Admittedly, only a portion of Canada's winter unemployment is seasonal. For example, neither the textile industry nor that of agricultural implements would claim that all their unemployment is due to seasonal influences.

But the problem of unemployment is a general one says Industry, publication of the C.M.A. Every man who becomes unemployed, ceases to employ some others. He no longer buys some things from shopkeepers, who buy from wholesalers, who buy from manufac-

The Independents, coached this season by the able Ray Brown, long known in basketball and on the diamond, have played together several years. They started in the juniors; worked up to the Intermediates; have played under different team names and on different practice floors. Captain Jim Petts and Norm Spafford, assistant captain, have sparked the organization. After their defeat of the Grads in the contest for the J. S. Mitchell Company Eastern Townships Trophy here a few days ago, the Independents now go on to the provincial playdowns at Shawinigan Falls this week-end.

They will face stiff competition at The Falls. A Quebec team, two from Montreal and an outfit representing the Shawinigan Falls-Grand'Mere district, are in the running.

The Independents have had to pay for the use of a gymnasium and were it not for support from such men as Ivan Dugre, Forst Keene and Charlie Connors, they would have had a much harder time.

George Garard, the Grads' coach, has been the organizer and chief spirit of the squad. He has been seconded by Manager Gerry McKenzie and by Captain Neil Bennett. Before his service in the R.C.A.F., Garard played on the Westmount High team; later, as one of that school's graduates. He has given much time to the Grads who, in their first season of play, have been beaten by Sherbrooke alone and that only in the second game of the point-series.

The Grads are all Lennoxvillians. They have had the co-operation of the Lennoxville Protestant School Board whose members have placed the High gymnasium at the Grads' disposal free of charge. Still, these young men, too, have had to dig into their own pockets.

All the players of both teams, some of them brilliant scorers, might suitably be mentioned but basketball is a co-operative effort in which few don't pull their own weight.

With nary a dull moment from beginning to finish the game appears to be increasing in spectator appeal in the Eastern Townships.

tomers.

Now, the annual statement has reported that General Motors sold more than ten billion dollars' worth of its products during 1953, a record for any private corporation. And it had the third highest net earnings of its history.

This was at a time when word had gone around that the market for cars had already reached its saturation point.

It would be interesting to check how often percentages of sales follow those of advertising.

Now what becomes of Father's oldtime promise, sometimes bellowed, sometimes whispered, when Junior at the table looked askance at food: "Eat that and it will put hair on your chest?"

Imagine the chorus of horror from mother and child: "What, and have to take treatments!"

The Quebec man may have done more harm than he knew. And we fear he may be no exception.

It is likely that a woman was behind the case. Their lamentable views on this subject have long been known. They are even said to favor smooth, unprickly faces.

Yes, gone are the days of long-growthed facial dignity and gone the days of chesty jungles. And yet we know a reckless throwback who is setting out, regardless, to develop a luxuriant diplomat's beard.

turers, all of whom employ other men. He spends less on food which affects employment in industries from farming and packing. The various causes for unemployment may be individual, but their effects are cumulative.

Employers are not unaware of the evils of seasonal unemployment nor that, if it could be eradicated, an additional boost would be given to employment generally. Nor have they been idle in attempting to solve the problem. Both the oil industry and the packing industry are good examples in this regard.

However, recognition of improvement is one thing; complete solution is another. As we have noted, the effects of unemployment are cumulative. Conversely, so are the benefits of increased employment.

Employers, striving to level-off seasonal variations of employment in their own industries, should still give thought to any means by which they can assist others. One such, which comes readily to mind, concerns any contemplated construction. If this can be scheduled during the slack employment season, a great step forward is achieved.

PUSH FOR HARD: WIN MANY GAMES

"How on earth did you get so high?" I asked my friend, Dave Ostreich, one of Baton Rouge's best-known experts. We were talking about the Regional Tournament that begins in New Orleans this week and we got sidetracked onto bridge hands, as all bridge conversations eventually do.

"That was easy," Dr. Ostreich pointed out. "We needed an unusually good score, so I pushed unusually hard. Also, I thought the opponents might sacrifice at five hearts, and I was willing to do business with them if they did so."

The story is a familiar one. You find yourself in a very ambitious contract, and you must dream up a line of play that has some chance to succeed. How do you go about it?

When Dr. Ostreich actually played this hand, East won the first trick with the ace of hearts and returned the seven of diamonds. Declarer played low, and West won with the jack. West promptly returned the king of diamonds, and South won with the ace.

After much anxious thought, Dr. Ostreich cashed the king and ace of spades, noting the fall of the queen and the jack with great relief. This was a good beginning, but there was still the problem of avoiding the loss of a club trick. In order to solve this problem he next ruffed dummy's remaining heart in his own hand, cashed the two top clubs, and threw West in with a diamond.

This line of play caught West in an end play. He was obliged to return a heart, permitting dummy to ruff while South discarded his losing club. South could next get to his hand by ruffing a club to draw East's last trump. Declarer's

Skeeter Fly High

By LEALON MARTIN JR.

McClure Newspaper Syndicate
Released by WNU

The last tinge of red had faded from the far edge of Lake Paloude. Eddie LeBlanc sat alone upon the levee bench and watched the dusk thicken. He thought, it'll soon be dark; wonder why Cicely and Jim aren't back. He tried again to put the bitterness out of his mind, but it was of no use. His best friend at home—whom he'd brought home here to Timbalier on their week-end leave from Camp Shelley—and his girl! His girl!

With the twilight the mosquitoes came out of the marshes. Their humming was the high-pitched whine of fighting planes moving to attack—and they came in numbers—less legends to settle on everything that was man's in Timbalier.

Eddie slapped lightly at them. Skeeters didn't hurt a Cajun, but the sight of so many made him think of the old song. Softly he sang:

"Oh, skeeter, he fly high, oh,
Skeeter he fly low, oh,
Who he bite or why, oh!"

But the song only brought back to his trouble a greater degree. "Cicely, I guess, is like the skeeter," he said half-aloud. "She don't care no more. It was the first time he'd really faced back—and now his mind raced back over them."

"Me, I would like for you to make the visit with me in Timbalier on the week-end leave," he'd invited Jim Blake back in Camp Shelley. Ever since they'd entered camp together as rookies the shy Cajun had looked up to Jim and his assurance, admiring his air of knowing his way around. Jim had taken him up on the invitation—and Eddie's was had begun.

Before they'd been in Timbalier an hour Jim was bored to exasperation. "For Pete's sake, Eddie," he'd said soon after they stepped from the puffing little lugger that brought the daily mail, "is this all there is to it?"

Eddie had looked at the fifteen, twenty houses, the three stores, the schoolhouse and church. He hadn't ever thought of it that way, but he supposed it was not much to an outsider, particularly a man like Jim. "Oui, yes, I'm afraid so," he said apologetically.

And what do we do to kill time?" Eddie shrugged. "Me, I had thought tonight, Friday, de'd visit my girl, Cicely. But she's gone to visit Aunt Marie till tomorrow. Saturday night there is the dance."

"Yeah," said Jim, "but can't we step out tonight? Get a couple dates?"

"But Cicely, she is my girl," protested Eddie. "We have an understanding."

Jim, looking disgusted, changed the subject. They went frogging that night, and it passed off all right. The next day Jim was bored despite all Eddie's efforts at entertainment.

By Saturday evening Jim was in a mood that Eddie recognized. He'd ended in the guardhouse when he'd started a night out feeling like that at camp.

Jim cut in three times on Jules Lemaire and Elise Gautreaux who, next to Cicely, was the prettiest girl on the floor. When he started back a fourth time Eddie saw Jules reach back to his hip pocket, patting his knife. "Come, Cicely," Eddie told her, "I want you to dance with Jim."

He stopped Jim just in time.

Canada's naval strength reached a new peacetime high in 1953 and at the end of the year, the Royal Canadian Navy had more ships and more men than at any time since the wartime forces were demobilized, and the expansion will continue.

Ships currently in commission of the R.C.N. include an aircraft carrier, two cruisers, eight destroyers, one destroyer escort, five frigates, four minesweepers, five coastal escorts and 16 miscellaneous craft. The minesweepers are the first of 14 new construction sweepers due to be completed next summer.

By the end of 1953, there were 13,887 officers, men and Wrens on full-time naval duty a total of two-and-a-half times the personnel strength of the R.C.N. in December 1947.

It was an active year for the Canadian navy with its units, prior to the Korean truce, engaged in patrol, blockade, bombardment and carrier screening duties on both coasts of Korea.

Naval aviation also had an active year. Every opportunity was taken to carry out flying training from HMCS Magnificent and Exercise Mariner, despite recent unfavorable weather conditions, the ship's fighter and anti-submarine squadrons flew on 15 of the 18 days and logged 833 hours in the air. A forecast of things to come was contained in the announcement that Banshee all-weather jet fighters should be purchased from the United States to replace the Sea Fury which is considered one of the fastest single engine propeller driven aircraft in the world. Anti-submarine squadrons will also be re-armed with S2 aircraft, a twin-engine high wing monoplane designed specifically for the job.

Coincident with the expansion in size of the R.C.N. was an evident increase in experience and efficiency, achieved largely through an intensive program of training carried out both at sea and ashore. Many intensive courses in various phases of naval education are offered to recruits as well as the experienced members of the force.

With the expansion continuing, young Canadians are offered a career under the "Go Places — Go Navy" program. A mobile recruiting unit, touring Canada at the present time, will visit Brandon from March 13 to March 20 and the advantage of a career in the navy can be outlined by officers and men in the unit.

His friend had taken this as meaning he didn't mind how much of Cicely's time he appropriated. Cicely hadn't seemed to object, but Jim had stuck with them even when Eddie walked her home.

"See you tomorrow, Babe," Jim called as she went in.

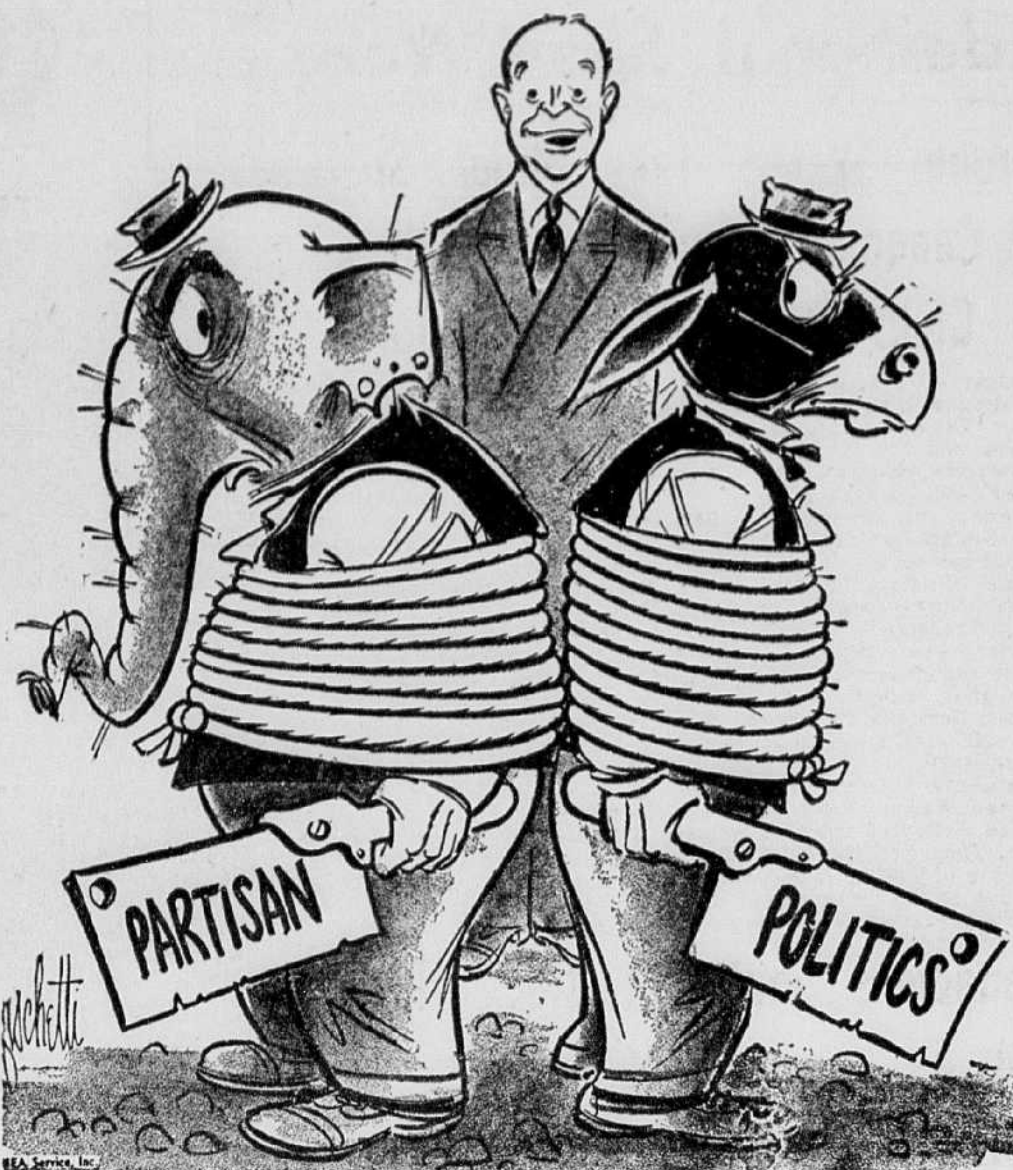

All the next day, their last twenty-four hours, it had been a threesome, with Jim doing most of the talking. Cicely was smiling and attentive. So, when Jim suggested, just before dusk on Sunday evening, that they walk to the store for a coke, Eddie sulked behind.

It seemed as if Cicely was lost to him.

Now the thought returned: Wonder why they aren't back—and suddenly he heard them coming. He sat up and the mosquitoes rose and then swarmed down again.

"Look, Babe," said Jim, leaning close to her when all three were seated upon the bench, "will you write to me?" He took her hand, and dropped it. "Darn!" he exclaimed,

Reporter Finds Physical Culture Clinic In Soviet

Editor's note: In this story Bill Boss tells about a Moscow polyclinic. His visit was arranged by the Soviet foreign office and he was accompanied by an official who acted as interpreter. All news reports from Russia are subject to strict Soviet censorship.

Moscow.—When Peter Sergevitch falls ill he is treated by doctors from something like a medium-sized Canadian medical arts centre.

The difference is that the whole of the centre's collective experience is available to any patient at a moment's notice.

I visited one polyclinic serving a Moscow suburb and saw it at work. Patients leafed through magazines in the waiting rooms with the same preoccupied lack of interest to be found in any doctor's office back home.

Ordinary leather-cushioned straight-back chairs line the buff-colored walls, and the political and cultural reading matter is on a large table in the centre of the room. There were probably 18 patients in each room at 11:30 that morning.

A doctor's office is a one-roomed affair with the usual desk, chairs, examination couch, instrument cabinet and book case. It is bright, and the doctor wears a white clinical smock over civilian clothes.

The clinic's 37-year-old doctor, Dr. Paulina E. Petrouschek, said her 12 general practitioners serve a registered population of more than 10,000. Individual practices vary from 800 to 1,000 persons resident in the area each is allotted.

All the sector doctors are women. Most are married, with children. They work a six-hour day. They do most of their work in the home, to which they are summoned by telephone or a message delivered to the call office.

In the same building are the clinic's specialists. Also there are laboratories for the usual clinical analyses with X-ray and electrocardiograph equipment. There is an operating theatre for minor operations.

I entered the examining rooms of the ear, nose and throat specialist, the new man, the dermatologist, the ophthalmologist, and the physical culture specialist. All the specialists had the standard equipment of their fields, and radiated competence and enthusiasm.

The physical culture man was the only one with an unfamiliar role.

He was a bubbling 60, and was all set to head for Canada when told his would be a new field there. He appreciated the joke when told he'd be welcome—under certain conditions!

Every school in his area, every enterprise, ministry or other organization having organized sports teams in league or other competition must have its players examined by him.

Besides routine clinical work the scratching furiously, "these 'thing bite like hornets!'"

"They don't worry me," Cicely said. "Do they you, Eddie?"

"No, me, I don't mind skeeters," Eddie replied, "they don't hurt Cajuns."

But Jim was busy now with his ankles. Then the black cloud alighted on his unprotected neck. For a moment longer he fought the battle. "Say," he exclaimed, jumping up abruptly, "I can't stand these any more! Going to the house." He went away and Eddie saw happily that he was on the run. He looked at Cicely and the light in her eyes made his heart leap. Softly he began to sing:

"Oh, skeeter, he fly high, oh,
Skeeter he fly low, oh,
Skeeter he no care, oh,
Who he bite or why, oh!"

Girls Buy Black False Teeth To Get Husbands

Hanoi, Indo-China.—(Reuters)—Dentists in this capital city of northern Viet Nam are offering black false teeth for sale—as the peasants here believe black teeth are much more beautiful than white.

A girl with a brilliant white smile has little chance of finding a husband. So most peasants go to great pains to stain their teeth black. The process takes several weeks and involves sleeping with dyes in the mouth.

Chewing betel nuts helps keep the gums a dark color.

For rich clients, dentists offer black dentures with gold fillings.

clinic operates a motherhood school and public health lectures for citizens in the area.

Pregnant women attend the motherhood courses once weekly. Women unable to attend must follow correspondence courses. All Moscow women go to a clinic for their babies. Should a birth occur at home an ambulance is sent to fetch mother and child to the clinic.

A mother leaves the clinic after the 10th or 11th day. The next day her polyclinic's pediatrician calls on the new mother with a medical attendant. For the next week or so the attendant gives the mother a hand in getting onto her new duties. The mother has two months paid leave from her job after delivery.

Pediatricians control the child's health from the day of its return home—administer vaccines, prescribe diet filled inexpensively to specific prescription at the district milk kitchen daily and keep track of its development.

Mothers are encouraged to continue breast-feeding throughout the first year. If a breast-fed baby falls ill or is removed to hospital, the mother goes onto the paid sick-list too to feed it.

The clinic's dental staff numbers four—one male dental surgeon who does extractions only, and three women dentists in a three-chair clinic who do fillings, general prophylaxis and take impressions for dentures. False teeth are free.

Of the clinic's 150 doctors, technicians, assistants and cleaners, only five—all doctors—were men. It is open for consultations from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., operates a round-the-clock call service and each doctor has a car and driver for calls.

The GPs make their rounds in the mornings, usually, prescribe immediately and if necessary put the patient on the sick list so that his pay continues.

All treatment is free. Prescriptions filled at the state drug store or "apleka" are paid for. Two days a month are set aside by each practitioner for thorough examination of selected patients excused from work to go through the white mill. Each examines 10 from her own practice.

Occasionally these checks find individuals improperly employed, besides detecting unsuspected ailments. For those in the wrong jobs the clinic's medical control and consultation commission makes recommendations binding on government or industry.

Toronto Skaters Take Major Share Of Canadian Figure Skating Titles; 16 Clubs Represented In Fixture

Calgary.—Five Canadian figure skating titles went to Toronto, two to Vancouver and one each to Ottawa and Schumacher, Ont., at the two-day championships which ended Saturday night.

Toronto title winners were: Barbara Gratton, who successfully defended her senior women's singles crown; Charles Shelling, senior men's singles; world's champion pairs, Frances Dafoe and Norris Bowden, who repeated last year's senior pairs victory; Barbara Wagner and Robert Paul, junior dances; Geraldine Fenton and William McLachlan, waiting 10-step competitions.

Vancouver's Doreen Leech and Norman Walker scored the only double victory of the 43rd annual meet. They won the dance championship of Canada and scored top position in the junior pairs.

Fifteen-year-old Jean Shippam of Schumacher, Ont., who does her winter training here, won the junior women's title while Richard Rimmer took the junior men's.

The keenest competition of the 10 events was seen in Saturday's senior women's title race where Sonja Currie of Calgary, last year's junior champion, came within a breath of snatching the title from Miss Gratton.

The Toronto champion took a narrow lead in the five school figures, but Miss Currie gained marks in the free skating event.

Both girls are 17 and took part in the world's championships at Oslo this year where the Canadian champion placed fourth and Miss Currie 10th.

Representatives from 16 clubs took part in the competitions, which attracted a crowd of 2,000 for the final senior events, Saturday night.

Canadiens Shut Out Black Hawks 4-0 As Jacques Plante Stars In Nets; 4th Goose Egg In 14 Games

Montreal, March 14.—The Montreal Canadiens bounced back as contenders for a second-place finish in the National Hockey League by blanking the tall-end Chicago Black Hawks, 4-0 Saturday night.

With fine support by relief goalie Jacques Plante, who turned in his fourth shutout in 14 games, the Montrealers were never in serious trouble. Maurice (Rocket) Richard bagged his 36th goal of the season and the others went to Lorne Davis, Jean Beliveau and Bert Olmstead.

The teams moved on to Chicago for a Sunday game, Canadiens only one point behind the second-place Toronto Maple Leafs, who dropped a decision to the Boston Bruins and faced the Bostonians again tonight.

Richard, a standout on the Montreal offence, missed several other scoring chances by narrow margins, but contributed an assist on Olmstead's tally. Lou Jankowski, George Gee and Jack McIntyre gave Plante trouble, the goalie making his most spectacular save three seconds from the end when Gee came zooming in on him.

Canadiens might have won further away but for the smart work of goalie Al Rollins, who had 40 shots in all tossed at him. Plante handled 30 shots faultlessly.

The Canadiens counted twice in each of the first and second periods and played confidently in the third, during which Richard's linemates tried repeatedly to set him up.

Davis opened the scoring with a slow shot, the puck sliding under Rollins' leg to the far side of the net. Less than two minutes later Richard thrilled the crowd of 14,136 by going all the way from centre ice, picking up Elmer Lach's pass, the Rocket stickhandling through the Chicago defence of Lee Fogolin and Bill Gadsby and blasted a shot past Rollins.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

decisions are often difficult. Judge Boyer remarked on the wisdom of choice in selecting Judge Hayes for the position by saying, "My warmest congratulations to you, and the Provincial authorities for the wisdom in their choice."

Judge Mitchell next addressed the new Judge, congratulating him. He expressed regret on the passing away of his former colleague, Judge Panmure. He pointed out that his successor was a man with an equally profound knowledge of the Eastern Townships and the people in them, stating, "there is no finer basis for rendering Justice than a knowledge of people. He wished him success in his new career."

In the absence of the Batonnier of the Bar of St. Francis, Albert Rivard, Q.C., gave his congratulations on behalf of the members of the St. Francis Bar Association.

Judge Hayes, too, expressed regret at the passing away of his confrere, the man he is succeeding, as he addressed the members of the Court and visitors in flawless French and English, he extended his gratitude to them and to the authorities who appointed him, and also gratitude at being able to serve as Judge in his native Eastern Townships. He also took occasion to congratulate his "fellow-citizen," Judge Gaston Desmarais on his recent appointment to the Bench of the Superior Court.

He thanked the former speakers for their ovations and stated "it is my firm conviction that in no other professional group is there more mutual confidence or cordial relations or is there a more firmly developed spirit of camaraderie than in the legal profession."

He thanked all those who had helped him in the past to achieve his present position, among them Roland Dugre, Q.C., Crown prosecutor, who was his associate for the past ten years.

In speaking of his duties to come Judge Hayes stated that he would do his utmost to be fair and to render justice in all cases.

In regards to his ideas on obedience of the law he said, "Obedience to civil law is an indirect homage to the Supernatural Power."

The ceremony ended on this note and the guests retired to the library for refreshments.

Among the guests present were, His Excellency Mgr. Georges Cabana Archbishop of Sherbrooke, Rev. A. V. Ottwell, representing the Protestant Ministerial Association, His Honor J. E. Levesque Mayor of Sherbrooke, Senator C. B. Howard, Maurice Gingues, M.P., Bernard Drapeau, representing Hon. J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests and Hydraulic Resources; Honourable Judges L. P. Cliche and G. Desmarais of the Superior Court, District Judge Patrick Delaney, Judge J. C. Samson, of the Social Welfare Court and Georges Sylvestre, president of the Board of Notaries.

Fire Destroys Railway Station At Bishopton

Bishopton, March 15.—The Quebec Central railway station at Bishopton was completely destroyed by fire at noon on Friday.

It is believed the fire started from an overheated stovepipe and although all available help was on hand, it was impossible to control the blaze, due to lack of water.

The station is one of the older buildings of this village. It had just been completely renovated, a special crew of men having worked on it for the past several weeks.

Bernard Chasse, the Quebec Central agent, and his wife were to have moved in over the weekend. Some of Mr. Chasse's furniture had already arrived but was saved, as well as the contents of the freight shed.

Levy Court Costs On Two Creditists

Two Social Credit movement supporters who were arrested over a week ago for failing to circulate after being warned by police appeared in Municipal Court this morning before Judge Richard Crepeau and were ordered to pay costs of the case after pleading guilty.

A delegation of over thirty Social Credit supporters were present at the hearing.

Last week, the City Council turned down an application by the group for special permission to distribute their pamphlets on the city streets. The Council said that it would not change the law forbidding the distribution of pamphlets, etc. in public places.

OBITUARIES

J. NORMAN SNOGRASS,
OF WEST SHEFFORD

West Shefford, March 15 — With the death of J. Norman Snodgrass at his home, "Birdhaven", West Shefford, on February 15th last, there passed from the Eastern Township scene one who will be long remembered as a successful farmer, a capable agent as well as a useful, friendly neighbor and a loyal friend to many.

Born in Waterloo, Que., in 1875, Joseph Norman Snodgrass, son of James Snodgrass and his wife Susanna Aston, early decided to make farming his career and, after his marriage to Miss Ellen G. Rutter of Foster in September 1902 he settled down in West Bolton where he spent nearly his whole life.

A loyal Anglican, a member of the I.O.O.F. and a staunch Liberal, Mr. Snodgrass served his community, giving over 20 years' service as a member of the village council. There, today, his name stands for helpful public-spirited citizenship. In Cowansville and West Shefford, where he later resided, he maintained this interest.

At church services, lodge and other meetings, county fairs, etc., people will miss seeing this man who was every inch a gentleman but they will remember Norman Snodgrass as one who "blessed the earth and he is blessed of God and man, for ever".

With his family in the home, Mr. Snodgrass was at his best and there, with Mrs. Snodgrass, he delighted to have his friends from far and near visit them. A memorable occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass was their golden wedding anniversary in September 1952, when they spent the day quietly with their family reminiscing. Their wide circle of friends, however, seized the opportunity to make it clear how they rated them as friends.

And now, full of years, honoured and respected in death as in life, his body, borne by Messrs. Byron Mizner, Carl Peters, Leonard Wright, Maurice Williams, Leslie Durrell and Claude Whit-cher was carried into St. Luke's Anglican Church, Waterloo, on February 18th where Rural Dean Harry Andrews, M.B.E., conducted the funeral rites.

Two of his favorite hymns were sung, one "Forever with the Lord" by both the choir and the congregation; the other, "Where the Saviour leads Me", Mrs. Clarence Allen of Foster rendered as a solo. Interment followed in the family plot in the Waterloo cemetery.

His two brothers, William and Fredrick Snodgrass, and one sister, Margaret, Mrs. George Patterson, predeceased him.

His widow, their four children, Aleda, Mrs. Stanley Wooley, of Conway N.H.; Arthur, of Boston, Mass.; Irving, at home; Lynford at Ottawa, with other relatives, have the sympathy of their many friends throughout the Eastern Townships and beyond.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. George Rutter, Mrs. Florence Snodgrass, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Boright, Mrs. M. Ashton, Mrs. Mabel Snodgrass, Granby; Mr. and Mrs. J. Brandrick, North Shefford; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolley, Cookshire; Mr. and Mrs. Byron Mizner, Roscoe Mizner, Arthur Mizner, Curt Peters, Mrs. A. Stanstead County Fish And Game Club Hears Reports On Restocking Program

Ayer's Cliff, March 15—The annual meeting of the Stanstead County Fish and Game Club, at St. George's hall, Ayer's Cliff on Tuesday evening, March 9, was attended by a good number of members. The president, Paul Brunet, was in the chair.

Reports were given by the secretary and treasurer and bills presented and voted paid. Letters were read from Gustave Prevost, of the University of Montreal, Mr. Fremont, general superintendent of Clubs, and the Derby Fish and Game Club.

The letter from Mr. Prevost was in regard to the pond on the Seth Blake property at Baldwin's Mills, recommending it for a rearing pool and stating the Department of Fish and Game could not help financially in this project. However they would provide the fish and any advice. Considerable discussion took place regarding this pond, but the majority of the members felt it was not a feasible plan at this time.

This completed the old business and the president's chair was taken by Albert Young, chairman of the nominating committee for the slate of officers for this year.

Paul Brunet was re-elected as president, Winfield Hunter, of Lennoxville, elected vice-president Stanley Cromwell, re-elected as secretary and Harold Hall as treasurer.

Rosario Lemieux was elected as director for Coaticook district, replacing J. G. Lessard, Charles Brewer of Beebe was elected to take the place of C. Wing, Raoul Belanger elected to replace Arthur Goselin in the Boundary District and Norman Haddon to replace Winfield Hunter in the Lennoxville district. All other directors in the four districts were re-elected by acclamation.

Mr. Brunet resumed the president's chair and gave an account of the meeting of the newly formed Eastern Townships Federation of Fish and Game Clubs held in Sherbrooke on February 21. Nineteen Clubs out of some 20 were represented at this general meeting. C. B. Houard, of the Sherbrooke Tribune, was at this meeting elected as president, stated Mr. Brunet, and Charles Crawford of Stanstead elected as 2nd vice-president.

The fees to join this Township Federation is $5 a year. Directors are the presidents of all joining clubs. Any member of the clubs may attend the meetings but only two from each, the representatives have the right to vote. Two general meetings and several directors' meetings are held during the 12 month period.

Mr. Brunet continued on business discussed at the February meeting, which included a study of the "buck" law. Mr. Brunet asked if Stanstead County Club wished to join the Townships Federation with an unanimous vote being given in favor of this club becoming a member.

A motion was made that the club ask the provincial government to have all lakes stocked by this club open on May 22 this year, instead of the usual date of May 24.

so that sportsmen may have the week-end of fishing. It was also agreed that the road to the ice house at Stanstead must be kept free of congested traffic and parking.

It was decided to have the Lakefield boat, Mercury motor, Sunbeam toaster and food mixer on display at Coaticook, Lennoxville, the Boundary Villages of Rock Island, Stanstead and Beebe, Magog and Ayer's Cliff. These are to be raffled at the annual dinner on the tentative date of June 8. Tickets are now on sale. Albert Young was named to make the banquet arrangements for the set date.

The letter from the Derby Fish and Game Club regarding a limit on perch fishing in Lake Memphremagog came in for considerable discussion. The members felt this club was not in a position to do much about this until more game wardens could be put into service. The motion was made that the secretary write to Mr. Bouchard at Sherbrooke for a paid game warden to patrol the International Boundary on the Lake for the remainder of the ice fishing season.

Winfield Hunter was named to look into the matter of building a dam for a fish pond at Hatley.

The next regular meeting will be held at Ayer's Cliff on May 4. During 1953 the Stanstead County Fish and Game club held six regular meetings and three directors' meetings. The annual dinner was held at Ayer's Cliff on June 16 and was a grand success. The annual chicken shoot took place

Accomplishments of the club for the good of the County were a right of way built in to the O'Malley Pond and the repairing of the dams at Lake Walls, Lippe and Baldwin's Pond. Chalk Up 11th Consecutive Victory In Defending Famous Cup; Register 34-16 Combined Score In Fixture

The Lennoxville Curling Club successfully defended the Quebec Curling Club Challenge Cup for the eleventh consecutive time Saturday by downing two rinks from Pointe Claire Curling Club by scores of 16-8 and 16-8 to give them a plus eighteen in the two games combined score event.

The suburban curlers were skipped by Stan Hamilton and Darcy Bennett and were up against Lakeshore teams led by W. M. Miller and Don Wier. The Pointe Claire challenge was expected to be a tough battle but the Lennoxville boys won both games easily.

Hamilton's rink, playing on sheet number one, took two points on the first end, and Pointe Claire two on the second, from there, Hamilton pulled ahead with two more on the third and maintained his lead for the rest of the game.

A five-ender on the fourth and a four on the sixth assured him of enough margin for victory. At the halfway mark Skip Hamilton led 13-3 and his final score was 16-8. Darcy Bennett's crew dropped a point to the Sailors on the first end but took four points on the second and kept ahead throughout the game. A five-ender on the eighth gave the Lennoxville curlers assurance that the famous Challenge Cup will be in Lennoxville at least for the rest of the season.

Darcy's rink was leading by 10-2 at the halfway mark and the Pointe Claire team conceded the game at the end of the 11th with the score reading 16-8.

The Quebec Challenge Cup is believed to be the oldest curling trophy in Canada. It was placed in competition in 1874 by the Quebec Curling Club when they played and won against Caledonia by a score of 56-37. Since that date Quebec has won and lost the cup six times. The last time they held it in their possession was on Jan. 23, 1923.

The Lennoxville curlers entered the competition for the first time in 1945 losing to Perth. In February 1952 they won the cup from Sherbrooke after Sherbrooke had brought it home from Howick the previous month. Sherbrooke curlers competed for the coveted trophy as early as 1885 but were only successful in winning it twice, in 1888 from Ottawa and 1952 from Howick.

The competition was originally 18 ends and was comprised of four rinks from each club competing. In 1905 it was reduced to two teams and twelve ends. Since 1922 it has been played in granite only, the first game being between Sherbrooke and Howick. Thus since the cup found its way to the Townships it has ceased to be an iron event. The holder of the cup may be challenged every fifteen days till March 30th. Saturday's game marked number 403 in eighty years of curling for the famous silverware. It was the 4th time rinks from Pointe Claire have competed without success since they made their first challenge on January 30th, 1926.

Lennoxville's record shows that they have defended it successfully eleven times, winning six, drawing one and taking four by default. This has been the best record since 1940 when Buckingham lost to Shawinigan Falls after defending it fourteen times. The all-time record of successive wins is held by Heather with twenty between the years 1908 and 1912 when they lost to Rideau by one point.

Lennoxville curlers can rest on their brooms once again while awaiting game number 404.

Injuries Take Toll In Ball Training

Bradenton, Fla. — (AP)—In one week-end week-end, Old Man Injury hurled two quick strikes past the stunned Milwaukee Braves and put a deep chill on their pennant hopes.

Saturday, Bobby Thomson, star left fielder obtained from the New York Giants, broke his right ankle. Sunday, third baseman Eddie Mathews, home run king of the majors, suffered a painful back sprain.

Thomson fractured the ankle in three places attempting to break up a double play during an exhibition game against New York Yankees and will not see action again until about May 15. That means he will miss the first four weeks of the season.

Mathews' injury is expected to sideline him only for about two or three days. Milwaukee officials are greatly concerned, however, because this is the third time Mathews' back has acted up this spring and they fear that the young slugger may not get off so easily next time.

Manoir Orford and Mt. Orford.

The Lyndonville Vt. Clubs and the Theford Mines Club and the Laurentian clubs did not participate due to a conflicting schedule since the Lyndonville Vt. meet was held on the same day.

The Dr. M. E. Adams Memorial Trophy was awarded to Rolland Lessard at the banquet held following the meet in the New Magog Hotel. This is the second consecutive year that Rolland Lessard has won the Adams Trophy. Other prizes and trophies were presented at the banquet which was presided over by Marcel Langlois, the president of the Magog Mt. Orford Ski Club. Ovia Bergeron, the Mayor of Magog, was among the guests of honor.

The Mt. Orford classic is the last officially scheduled meet to be held in the Eastern Townships this season.

CLOSE GAMES IN LOCAL JUNIOR BONSPIEL

Gregoire's Rink Cops Howard Trophy While Leslie's Lennoxville Foursome Wins Armstrong In Junior Fixture

Donat Gregoire of Sherbrooke guided his foursome to victory in the main event of the Sherbrooke Curling Club Junior Bonspiel on Saturday afternoon to win the Senator C. B. Howard trophy while Howard Leslie of Lennoxville copped the Armstrong trophy in the other section of the annual fixture.

Immediately following the finals the presentation of the trophies and prizes took place. Dr. J. Hibbard, vice-president of the club, officiated and thanked all the contestants for their fine play and also for helping to make the event such a fine success. He was assisted by Mr. Johnston. Dr. Hibbard called on Senator Howard who presented his trophy and congratulated the winners while Hubert Armstrong presented the Armstrong trophy.

Gregoire's rink had a close battle with R. Deblais' quartet from Lennoxville and the match was only decided with the final stone of the game. At the end of the fifth the match was tied 5-5. Lennoxville picked up two to move to the fore but Gregoire's rink rallied with a four-ender to jump into the lead 9-7 coming home. Deblais had the outcome in his hand with his final stone but the best he could do was pick up one and the match finished 9-8 for the local foursome in a closely contested game.

In the other half of the event for the Armstrong trophy Leslie's Lennoxville quartet held on to an early lead to emerge the winner over Len O'Donnell's rink 12-9. The local crew chalked up a two-ender to open the match but in the next end Leslie's crew snared two, however O'Donnell's rink posted another two-ender but the Lennoxville quartet registered a four-ender and duplicated it in the following end to lead 10-4.

In the next end the Sherbrooke rink snared a five-ender on the Leslie foursome to cut down the lead to 10-9. Lennoxville posted a singleton for a 11-9 advantage coming home. In the final end they came through with another counter to finish 12-9 after a hard battle.

The finalists follow:

Baldwin's Rink Cops Car 'Spiel
Edmonton — (CP)—Matt Baldwin, 27-year-old Edmonton curling wizard, won the fourth annual Edmonton car bonspiel Saturday night with a 14-4 victory in 10 ends over Truman Bailey of Tugaska, Sask., to take the best-of-three final in straight games. Baldwin won the first game 10-6. The victory gave Baldwin curling's first grand slam. He won the Edmonton bonspiel two months ago, followed that by taking the Alberta championship and then swept the 1954 Canadian curling championships here early this month.

Following Baldwin's victory, the keys to four 1954 model cars were presented to the rink by Ald. Fred Miller, acting on behalf of Mayor Hawrelak of Edmonton.

Martineau Cops Eastern Jumping Ski Championship

Valcartier, Que. — (CP)—Raymond Martineau, 18-year-old class "B" ski jumper from Rumford, Me., captured the eastern Canada ski jumping championship Sunday.

The high flyer out-pointed higher rated opponents before a crowd of 2,000 in leaps of 184 feet and 182.6 feet. His jumps plus style earned him a winning 208.6 points.

Second and third places respectively went to Frank Latour and Jacques Charland, both of Trois-Rivieres, Que., entered in the class "A" division. Latour had jumps of 176 and 174 feet for 203.5 points.

Charland's leaps of 188 and 195 feet were the longest of the field, but a bad fall on the second, in which he is believed to have pulled a muscle in his shoulder, knocked his point total down to 199.5.

Class "B" jumpers took fourth and fifth places. Leo Paul Levesque of Bagotville, Que., made 195.8 points on two jumps of 161 feet each while 15-year-old Yves Doucet of Trois-Rivieres, youngest among the 19 who finished, had 193.45 points after leaps of 162 and 170 feet.

Real Seguin of Ottawa captured sixth spot in the field and third in class "A". He had jumps of 166 and 165 feet for 180.8 points.

Saints Stop Royals 5-3 In Final Meeting Saturday

Chick Johnson Leads Pace With Two Goals As Locals Cop Series; Roger Roberge Night Thursday

Outplaying the Montreal Royals in all departments the Sherbrooke Saints Saturday evening posted a 5-3 verdict to hold the upper hand for the present season. The Dugre-coached squad came through with a fine two-way performance and at no time were the Royals in a threatening position.

The Saints have only one home fixture left and this will be played Thursday evening with the Braves of Valleyfield. It will be known as the "Roger Roberge Night" and all proceeds from the tilt will be turned over to the ex-defenseman now in the hospital.

Roberge was struck down during the season and the executive decided to help him out financially by having a special night for him. All the fans are asked to get behind the movement in order that the event will be a huge success.

Saturday's win moved the Saints up one notch into fifth spot in the standing over the Braves but the outcome of the battle may decide this week when the locals and Blake men clash in a two-game series on Wednesday and Thursday. Both teams have the same number of games left but the schedule favors the Saints a little.

Chick Johnson was the pace-setter for the Saints Saturday when he notched two goals while Ed Staniewicz, Ed Palamar and Mott McLean accounted for the others. Dick Wray potted two for the Royals while Gerry Desaulniers registered the other.

Sherbrooke jumped to the fore right in the opening frame when Johnson was put in the clear on a long relay pass from deep in the Saints' zone. McLean shot it up to Moe Irving and husky pivot man tipped it to Johnson and he walked in on Bob Perreault to make the red light flash.

Bowness got the nod for charging but nothing happened during his enforced rest although Glen Harmon was very close on a long drive. Ed Litzemberger followed him off but his mates held the fort until he returned.

Bowness got his second nod from referee Whitehead and during his absence Ray Laplante walked in on Gatherrum but he was outguessed and Gilles Dube cleared the rebound to ease the situation. Ed Staniewicz got the draw in the Royals' end and battled the disc by the bewildered Perreault from close range. The Montreal defense was caught flat-footed on the play.

The Saints broke away a minute later with Ed Palamar leading the attack. Dube put him in the clear and when Bruneteau cut in behind the defence Palamar lifted one and Perreault figuring the right winger was going to play it followed him. When he shifted the disc rolled in between his legs to register the Saints' third tally.

The locals opened up with another drive in the middle session. They drove the rubber at Perreault from all angles but failed to tally. The Montrealers just couldn't get organized. Just before the half-way mark Dick Wray, who was playing a strong game for the Royals, finally was rewarded with a goal when he batted the disc in from a scramble and it deflected into the net.

Chick Johnson put Moe Irving in the clear with McLean and only one defenseman back. He pulled the rearguard over and put a perfect pass on McLean's stick and the red light flashed.

Desaulniers was in alone but Gatherrum came up with the save. Johnson registered his second goal when he fired through the legs of Hollingworth and Perreault failed to move as his sight was screened.

Following this the Royal rearguard and Johnson staged a bout and then continued in the box with the rest of the team joining in. The tempers were high and the result of the game didn't help matters as the fans were having a field day in the razing department.

Desaulniers notched the Royals' second tally just after the opening of the final period. Dube and Johnson were in close and then Wray came back but he was stopped. Wray notched his second tally when the slide disc along the ice after taking a pass from Gamble just before the game ended.

Dartmouth Blanks Bishop's 11-0

Hanover, N.H. — Dartmouth College Friday night pinned an 11-0 whitewash on the visiting Bishop's University Gators in the eighth game of a 46-year-old series played at the Davis Rink here. It was the highest score registered by either team in the history of the series.

Bishop's won the first game of the series 3-0 in 1908, and Dartmouth won the last contest in 1932 by an identical score Friday night's win makes it five wins for Dartmouth and three for Bishop's.

Handicapped by the lack of a centre ice line and American College rules, the Gators were no match for the speedy Green and White team which this season ended up fourth in their own Pentagonal League with a 14-14 record. The home team showed amazing polish around the nets, and coupled this with a long passing attack which the Gators couldn't solve.

The smooth Dartmouthians fired four goals into the Bishop's cage in the first period, added two more in the second, and then topped it off with a five goal spurge in the third canto against a tired Bishop's aggregation.

Dartmouth's top scoring line of McCarthy-Peters-Titus, one, two, three in their league scoring race, made their last appearance in college hockey and managed to account for six of the goals. Titus and Peters each accounted for a hat trick as did Fields for the Green and White.

Chicago — The Montreal Canadiens moved into second place in the National Hockey League standing last night with a penalty-laden 6-0 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks.

Attendance was 6,071.

Chicoutimi Blanks Valleyfield 2-0 To Extend Lead Over Montreal Royals To Four Points In Race For Top Spot

Chicoutimi, Que.— Chicoutimi Saguenays stretched their first-place lead in the Quebec Hockey League to four points yesterday by turning back Valleyfield Braves, 2-0.

Chicoutimi got co-operation from Springfield Indians, who downed the runner-up Montreal Royals, 8-5, in Montreal.

Jimmy Moore gave Chicoutimi the lead on passes from Gerry Claude and Jacques Locas at 10:48 of the first period and from there to the end of the game Saguenays played tight defensive hockey to protect goalie Phil Hughes' bid for the Vezina Memorial Trophy.

Neither team could score in the second period and Locas decided the issue with less than a minute remaining to play in the final session when he rapped home a goal on a play with Georges Roy.

Springfield Indians Run Wild To Dump Ottawa Senators 6-2; Horvath Leads Merry Pace With Two Goals In Tilt

Ottawa.— Springfield Indians dumped the third-place Ottawa Senators 6-2 here Saturday night in a one-sided Quebec Hockey League game.

It was the first win for the cellar-dwelling Indians here this season. Senators took a 2-0 lead early in the first period but the Indians evened the count before the end of the period and from there on had things their own way. They rapped in three goals in the second period and another in the third.

The Ottawa defence gave goalie Hal Murphy little protection and Springfield forwards easily broke through particularly in the second period. Murphy turned aside 43 scoring attempts to 23 for Springfield's Don O'Hearn.

Bronco Horvath led the Indians with two goals. Singles came from Bill Hogg, John Bobenic, Doug McMurphy and Delphis Franche. Phil Maloney and Howard Riopelle counted for Ottawa.

Maloney put Ottawa ahead at 1:49 of the first period on a 15-foot hip-high shot and Riopelle made it 2-0 at the eight-minute mark, counting on a long relay from Dusty Blair. Hogg got the first one back at 14:26 on a short backhand drive and Bobenic evened the count at 18:06 when he picked the corner on a long drive with help from McMurphy and Franche.

In the second, Horvath scored his first at 8:30 to spark a Springfield rally. McMurphy increased the lead to 5-2.

Red Wings Win 6th Consecutive NHL Championship Although Rangers Win 5-2; Henry Tallies Four Goals

Detroit — The Detroit Red Wings backed into their sixth consecutive National League Championship Saturday night as Little Camille Henry scored four goals to give New York Rangers a 5-2 victory over the League Leaders.

Toronto Maple Leafs lost their last chance of overtaking the Wings by dropping a 2-1 decision to the fourth-place Boston Bruins.

The Wings now have extended their string of consecutive titles two years longer than any other team in NHL history. They broke the old mark shared by the Bruins and Montreal Canadiens last season.

Henry scored a goal in each of the first two periods and salted the game away with two markers within 33 seconds of last-period play while Detroit's Gordie Howe was sitting out a penalty. Howe and Rookie Bill Dineen scored for the losers and Nick Mickowski accounted for the fifth Ranger goal.

Henry, a graduate from last year's Quebec Citadelle Juniors, fired the winning goal in the second period of a fancy play in which he skated from behind the Detroit net and hooked the puck past sprawling goalie Terry Sawchuk.

Bruins Edge Maple Leafs 2-1 In Hard-Fought Tilt Before 13,021; Lumley Ties Sawchuk For Vezina

Toronto — A second-period goal by centreman Cal Gardner Saturday night gave Boston Bruins a 2-1 victory over Toronto Maple Leafs in a National Hockey League game before 13,021 fans.

Leafs, playing without their captain Ted Kennedy out with a groin injury, couldn't stop the driving Bruins.

The win left Boston in fourth place, three points ahead of New York Rangers who defeated the leading Detroit Red Wings 5-2 in Detroit. Leafs are in second place, one point ahead of Montreal Canadiens who defeated Chicago Black Hawks 4-0.

Harry Lumley, whose work in the nets saved Toronto from a much worse defeat, moved into a tie in the Vezina trophy race with Detroit's Terry Sawchuk who let in five New York goals.

Ted Smith opened the scoring at 17:33 of the first period when he took a passout from Danny Lewicki at the faceoff and beat Sugar Jim Henry dead on. Lewicki brought up from Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League, was loudly cheered for his performance.

Flemming Mackell tied the game at 10:07 of the second when he snared a pass from Bill Quackenbush during a goalmouth scramble and poked the puck in past Lumley.

A strong Bruin drive paid off at 11:57 of the third when Gardner stickhanded his way through the Toronto defence and beat Lumley from five feet out. Warren Godfrey and Joe Klukay were given assists.

Leaf coach King Clancy pulled Lumley in the final minute of play but Toronto was unable to take advantage of the extra forward.

Harry Watson's 200th goal eluded him as the Leaf leftwinger repeatedly missed the net with his long drives.

The third game was by far the best of the afternoon. The Tigercats trailing Dale Lindsay's Alleycats 4-2 with three minutes remaining, managed to score two quick goals to tie the game 4-4.

Johnson State Swamps Bishop's In Cage Fixture

Johnson, Vermont — In an exhibition women's basketball tilt played here Saturday afternoon, Johnson State Teachers' College swamped the Bishop's University women 55-33. It was the third exhibition hoopla series which the Vermont teams have taken from Bishop's this season, the Green and White men's squad having previously blanked the Bishop's men 73-55 at Johnson, and 74-37 in the return tilt at Bishop's.

Playing under the rules in the first half of the contest, as the Bishop's girls have done all season in the E. T. League, the Purple and White squad managed to hold its own, and were behind only seven points at the half-way mark. Johnson led at that time, 30-23.

However, the Bishop's girls were hardly in the game for the second half, played under American women's rules, and could only get 10 points while the Teachers were pouring 25 through the hoop.

Leading the Johnson scorers was right forward Blown, who topped players on both sides by popping in a total of 17 points. She was closely followed by linemate Burner who potted 14 points.

High scorers for the Purple and White squad was diminutive Sylvia Woodward who garnered 14 points, eight of them in the second half to register all but two of the Bishop's points in the final frame. Sylvia Burt followed her with a total of 10 points.

The contest was the final one this season for the Bishop's women.

Carnegie Cops E. T. Midget Title; B. C. S. Wins Bantam While Beebe Takes Peewee In Local "Hockey Day"

Carnegie Locknit, winners of the city midget league, have been declared E. T. champions. Yesterday afternoon in an exhibition game, they proved their right to the title by an overwhelming 6-1 victory over Rock Island.

Dussault paced the local squad with a pair of markers, while Gagnon, Gregoire, Ruel and Lemieux each singled. Ruel, incidentally, played an outstanding game, and his presence on the Carnegie blue-line, was a main factor in holding the Rock Island squad to one goal.

Ellis tallied the goal at the half-way mark of the third period. Dussault had scored for Carnegie in the initial period, and his club held this 1-0 lead till the third period. Dussault then notched his second marker and set off a series of goals that led to Carnegie winning 6-1.

In the bantam section, the Bishop's College School squad defeated Stanstead 4-0, to win the E. T. championship and the Jean-Paul Perrault Trophy for the second consecutive year.

Bassett and Coburn starred for the purple and white, Bassett tallying once and assisting on two other markers. Coburn received an assist in the first period, when Oland beat Rollins for Bishop's second goal. At 6:38, McLennan had given B.C.S. a 1-0 lead, when he scored on a play with Bassett and Oland.

Stanstead became shorthanded at 3:50 in the third period, when Rodrigue got the nod for holding. Coburn, who was in the corner battling it out with several border players, managed to pass to Bassett, who ticked it in for goal No. three.

Mitchell completed the scoring, when he scored unassisted at the 13:06 mark. Only two minor penalties were given

Members Of Three Magog Churches Join In Conducting Prayer Service

Magog, March 15 — The "World Day of Prayer" service was held at St. Paul's United Church, on Friday afternoon with members of St. Luke's Anglican Church and the Advent Christian Church joining those of St. Paul's United Church in conducting it. The service was built around the theme "They May Have Life," adapted from a service prepared by Dr. Sarah Chakko of India.

Mrs. J. Broadbent opened the service with a prayer. This was followed by the congregation, and choir, composed of C.G.I.T. members and G.A. members, singing, "Praise My Soul The King of Heaven," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. A. Swager. Mrs. Broadbent then led the responsive reading. Others taking active part in the service included Mrs. Margaret Connor, Mrs. C. Harris, C. Gustafson, Mrs. B. Shonyo, Mrs. L. Crothers, Mrs. Fred Cole and Mrs. George Phaneuf who read prayers.

Mrs. S. J. Olney gave a very interesting outline of the exemplary life of Dr. Sarah Chakko, of India, who had passed away since preparing this service. It was indeed a life of self-sacrifice and cheerful doing for the less fortunate in the Far East. Mrs.

Olney also gave a brief account of the early life of Dr. James Robinson, of India, formerly of the U.S.A., who stressed the need of Christian leadership in the Far East. A talk on the work in the mission field in India, recorded by Dr. Robinson was heard. This proved very interesting, informative and at times humorous.

The offering was received by Mrs. Charles Fields and Mrs. L. Jackson.

Mrs. Broadbent announced that at the close of the service the members of the W.M.S. were serving tea in the church hall and all those wishing to remain would be welcomed.

Mrs. Albert Cotterell, Sr., then led in responsive reading. The hymn "The Day Thou Gavest Lord is Ended," was then sung, followed by the Benediction.

Tea and cookies were served to a large number of those attending the service. The members of the W.M.S. were assisted in serving by some of the members of the C.G.I.T. and G.A.
