VOL. XXVII, No. 15 WESTMOUNT, FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1946 PRICE—THREE CENTS

Byford Named Police Chief

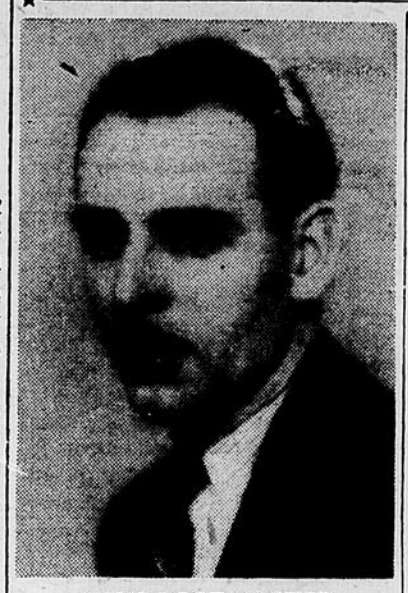
Wm. Cobb Appointed Head Of Fire Dept.

Deputy Chief Robert Byford has been promoted Police Chief of The Westmount Police Department, according to a release made by Tom Hughes, Assistant City Manager, at the Westmount City Hall yesterday. Fire Chief William Charles Cobb was also included in the release, and will take over the fire department, which will now resume as a separate department. These posts became effective April 1, 1946.

Owing to the lack of man power during the war years, the City of Westmount absorbed the Fire Department under the command of the Police Department in an effort to relieve the shortage of men. Firemen and policemen served alternately in the Police and Fire Department on occasion. Now that the veterans are returning from the wars, and many members of the Westmount Force have returned and applied for reinstatement in their former occupation, the City Council feels that there is no longer need for the combined departments.

Replacing Chief Walter Gough, who recently passed away, Chief Byford has been with the Westmount Police Force since 1924. He came to Canada at an early age in 1913. His first promotion was to the rank of Acting-Sergeant. In 1936 he was promoted Acting-Lieutenant, and elevated to a full Lieutenant the same year, subsequently he was made a captain in 1940.

Fire Chief Cobb also has a brilliant record, having joined the Police Department in 1923, and attaining the rank of sergeant in 1931. Transferring to the Fire Department in 1933, he quickly climbed the ladder in that department, and was elevated to the rank of Deputy Fire Chief in April, 1940.



NEW POSTMASTER

John J. Lucey, whose appointment as postmaster of the Westmount Post Office has been announced. He was former postmaster at the Notre Dame de Grace office from December 1944 and with the postal service for the past 29 years.

Roslyn School Has Good Year

A record attendance of parents and teachers marked the Annual Meeting of the Roslyn Home and School Association held in the school gymnasium. The following slate of officers for the Association for 1946-47 was elected at the meeting: J. Gordon Hutchison, president; B. H. Steeves, past president; J. Donald Smith, Miss

Abbe Maheux Tells Youth To Know Political Party

Addressing the final meeting of the newly formed Westmount Young Liberals' Association, Captain Abbe Arthur Maheux, wearing his military attire, emphasized the supreme importance of "studying" the problems of the day. "You must know the history of your party. Even your party has made mistakes, and to know them is to correct them," he claimed.

Captain Maheux, well-known lecturer on Canadian unity, and who has himself gone on nation-wide tours to speak on this subject, pointed out that he was the only person doing such work. He went on to say that English-born Canadian should visit Quebec and address the French-Canadians in their own language about this important subject, even as he was doing himself.

Chairman of the committee investigating the possibility of a single Canadian history text, he said that the subject was fraught with difficulties. "Even those who are agreed as to the necessity of a single text, are unable to agree on the suitable text. Even when this is done, it will be up to the provincial governments to accept it." He also noted that many teachers do not like to be confined to a single text, an attitude which he described as "reasonable."

Following the regular address, there was dancing, while other members discussed the problem of Canadian Unity further personally with Capt. Maheux. After the meeting, he revealed that he hoped to be able to have the "editorials" which he writes in English and French for the Montreal Star each week, appearing soon in papers in the different major cities of the Dominion and then collected and published in book form.

He is also trying to arrange for an exchange of students from Ontario and Quebec, for he feels that much of the disunity is not caused by intolerance, but by ignorance ,and the lack of understanding of the different prob-

Presentation By Solar Club To Old Member

Presentation of a Chippendale silver tray, suitably engraved, by A. Ross Grafton, president, Solar Club Incorporated of the Homoeopathic Hospital, was made to William A. Blackwell, one of the club's oldest members, at a farewell dinner held in his honour last Thursday. Mr. Blackwell was not only a Charter member of the club, but held the distinction of perfect attendance for a ten-year period.

As Mr. Blackwell was feted, the president announced the club's regrets that Mr. Blackwell had been transferred by his firm to head office in Toronto, and, in his remarks, stated how the club would greatly miss the presenc of such an esteemed member.

Donald Budge, another Charter member, reviewed the ten years of club activities in which Mr. Blackwell had rendered an inestimable value of service.

WESTMOUNT TO ACCEPT PUPILS

Due to overcrowding in the Montreal Schools the Westmount Board has agreed to accept a limited number of outside pupils into its schools. These pupils will be allowed to remain in the Westmount Schools until they have finished their schooling.

Application forms may be obtained from the Montreal Schools or directly from the Westmount Board Office, 20 Academy Road, Phone FI. 4886. All applications should be in by May 1.

Legion Memorial Fund Nears Total Objective

Stressing the vital need for a veterans' centre which will greatly assist in the rehabilitation of servicemen and women of this city, officials of the Canadian Legion War Memorial Building Fund have extended their present campaign for $375,000 till April 15, in order that the objective may be obtained.

The campaign committee under Maj.-Gen. C. B. Price, C.B., D.S.O., D.C.M., expressed the utmost confidence that the drive would finish well over the top, as returns from the whole city took on an increasing tempo at the end of last week.

Present indications are that their expectations will be fulfilled as the drive now stands less than $100,000 from the amount required. On the basis of returns yesterday Campaign Committee Director, Lionel Brittle, announced that canvassers had reached a total of $290,000.

At campaign headquarters, 382 Olivier avenue, Westmount, many subscriptions have been received by mail from persons who were not canvassed by volunteer workers. It was pointed out that the campaign is a non-repeating one, and that the organization is new. Because of these facts many districts have not been covered thoroughly and those wishing to contribute but not contacted may have their subscriptions delivered to headquarters from where they will receive their receipts by mail.

Many factors governing the necessity for the building, which will house offices of the Quebec Legion Command as well as provide recreation, sports and club facilities for all veterans, have been outlined by Capt. H. G. Gonthier, president of the provincial command.

Activities Numerous

Legion activities in this province, where the association's membership is growing daily, have become too numerous to be handled in the scattered downtown buildings which now serve. Grouping of all these offices under one roof will allow them to serve more efficiently the hundreds of veterans and dependents who call each day.

France Needs Help And Sympathy J. Darbelinet Tells Local Rotarians

By Vic Morris, Jr.

Dealing with the present situation in France, J. Darbelnet, chairman of the department of Romance, Languages and Humanities Group at McGill University, told Westmount Rotarians at the club's weekly luncheon at Victoria Hall, that France in its present plight needs the material help of more fortunate nations.

A graduate of the Sorbonne and an agrégé of the University of Paris, Mr. Darbelnet has had a distinguished career and has been a member of the faculties of the Universities of Wales, Edinburgh and Manchester, and of Bowdoin College, Maine, and Harvard University.

Continuing he said, France also needs understanding and sympathy.

Discussing the fall of France, the speaker said, "The military defeat of 1940 appears easy to explain. We had neither the manpower nor the equipment to stand up to the Germans. Nor did we have the conception of warfare that would have allowed us to make better use of our inadequate military resources, and thus prolong our resistance. Let us remember that from June 1941 to February 1943, Russia, with an infinitely larger reserve of manpower and a more highly mechanized army, suffered defeat after defeat until the capitulation at Stalingrad."

"When France fell in 1940 we were stunned and it was an easy temptation to blame such a collapse on a small group of scheming traitors. Such an explanation appeals to the popular mind," he pointed out.

Mr. Darbelnet appealed for tools for industry and livestock for agriculture to help ease the reconstruction demands.

France's military casualties were much smaller in the past war than in World War 1. Approximately 135,000 were killed in the 1939-40 campaign while 50,000 were casualties in the liberation. Over 150,000 civilian Frenchmen died in German concentration camps and from German bullets, however.

Concluding, he said, "France, by her geographical position and her civilization, belongs to the Western community of nations. General De Gaulle, whom certain of his opponents accused of being in British pay, had many differences of opinions with the British, and possibly more with the Americans. The fact remains that for better or for worse, the nations of the Atlantic community have a common fate if we judge by two bitter experiences in twenty-five years. The French need the understanding and the help of Canada, England and the United States for their economic recovery, which in itself has become a factor of political stability not only in France, but also in Europe."

Alpha Omegans Plan On Musical Program

Alpha Omegans staged a successful "Mock Parliament" on Sunday night under leadership of Group A, with Group Leaders Ian Fraser, Jane Bird, Carol Horsburgh and Walter Mingie. The motion on the floor for the program was that "Canada Should Have a Flag of its Own Design". A vigorous discussion was carried on among the members of both parties and the vote, taken after many heated arguments, proved a tie.

The meeting this week has been entitled "The Negro and His Song" and will include a sing song of the music of the Negro, recordings by both Marian Anderson and some of the work of Dvorak.

All young people between the ages of 18 and 24 are at libertty to atfend the meettings of the Alpha Omega Society at St. Andrew's church. The meetings commence at 8.30 p.m., directly following the church service, and are held in the Alpha Omega clubroom at the rear of the church.

History Of Man's Attempt To Fly Revealed By Stamps

From this period onwards much interest was shown in balloons, experiments and improvements became so keen that much advance was made in the science.

Among the more prominent of experimenters the names of Blanchard, Benson, Cayley and Alder are to the fore; France honours Clement Ader with a stamp which portrays the inventor and his "Avion," which crashed in 1897.

Startling tidings came from Germany about this time. Otto Lilienthal was reported to be making flights from natural hills and artificial towers in an odd bat-like creation of the glider type.

He was eventually killed while operating one of his later craft, but not until he had completed nearly 2000 flights, which contributed greatly to the science of aviation. Germany pays homage to the pioneering efforts of Lilienthal with an air mail stamp.

Octave Chanute in the United States followed with interest Lilienthal's experiments and made nearly 1000 flights himself with gliders. An engineering student, he made each flight with a definite purpose; the collection of data on the science of flying, with the result that he left a wealth of valuable information for future observers.

The success of these glider flights sent a wave of enthusiastic interest in aeronautics all over Europe and the American continent.

October the 19th, 1898, will ever be remembered as a red letter day in the annals of aerial navigation.

Since the far off days when Montgolfier first discovered that a balloon could be made to rise into cloudland by means of heated air, it is doubtful if there ever was such a sensation as that occasioned by the efforts of the young wealthy Brazilian, Santos-Dumont, when he steered a balloon from the grounds of the Aero Club in Paris, round the Eiffel Tower and back to the place of starting in thirty minutes, an aerial journey of over seven miles.

This famous aviator is honoured by commemorative air mail stamps of Brazil and Spain.

Around 1900 Count Zeppelin of Germany developed the rigid-frame airship, which led to outstanding events in later years by the development of that type of dirigible termed the "Zeppelin". He is portrayed on two issues of German air stamps.

Quite a number of countries apart from Germany made special issues of "Zepp" stamps to commemorate various flights. The U.S.A. issued a particularly interesting set of air stamps on April 19th, 1930, when the "Graf Zeppelin" was scheduled to stop at Lakehurst, N.J., during its European-Pan American tour in May, 1930.

The many and varied experiments in aviation around the period of 1900 no doubt had a great influence on the Wright Brothers when they took to making gliders for a hobby, which was followed by the first successful flight in world's history in a power driven heavier-than-air flying machine on December 17th, 1903. Their first experiments were made whilst they conducted a bicycle repair shop in Dayton, Ohio.

From this work they gained a practical knowledge that was of much value and soon evolved two new features. The first was a horizontal rudder bar in front for steering in the vertical plane, and the other was for flexing of the main supporting planes or wings as a means of maintaining the machine in proper balance.

Finally, they added a gasoline engine to their glider and on December 17th, 1903, Orville Wright pulled the starting lever on the engined-glider and made a flight of twelve seconds over the sand dunes of Kitty Hawk, N.C., thereby gaining the coveted honour of being the first human in history to fly an aeroplane.

Their machine is portrayed on two U.S.A. stamps. Latvia also honours the Wright Brothers with a stamp showing the machine.

lems facing the two groups.

Lorne Hellyer introduced Captain Maheux, pointing out the great work he has done for the cause of national unity, and the treasurer of the organization, Bob Sproule, thanked the speaker in French.

President Bill Macdonald presided, and also at the head table was the wife of the Honorary President of the organization, Mrs. D. C. Abbott. The Minister of National Defence, the Honorable D. C. Abbott arrived in time for the latter half of the meeting, having flown down from Ottawa for the occasion.

Westmount Highlights

By GEORGE COCHRANE

You'll find a review of the première performance of the Purple and White Revue '46 somewhere in the columns of this illustrious journal, provided that the make-up man and the gremlins which infest the Examiner composing room haven't been misbehaving. That being the case, there isn't much sense in our penning another review here.

But we would like to give some praise to some characters who have been working as hard as anyone since plans for this year's edition of the P & W Revue started being carried out, without receiving half the amount of publicity to which they have been entitled.

At the top of the list is Tom Armstrong, dimunitive set construction and stage manager, and aides who have spent many hours in the Junior High woodwork room making the well-built sets that will be on view at Victoria Hall once more tonight. Tom and his helpers, Ronny Baxter, Peter Trueland, Frank Read, Willard Morrison, Dave Binmore, not to forget Joan Brown and Patty Pierce, deserves a lot of credit. They turned up at 7.00 a.m. one Saturday morning to begin their labors and it's been that way all along.

Take a bow, Thomas. You deserve it.

A young lady who has begun sprouting a few grey hairs since commencing her Purple and White Revue duties is Elsie Nielson, the gal who has been working on costumes these past many months. P & W audiences and cast will testify that she knows what she has been doing.

Then, of course, it would be nothing short of criminal to overlook Fred Boney Roney, the electrically minded young man in charge of lighting and whose duty it is to see that the microphones, and all those new-fangled things attached to them ,function as they should. The boney lad has done a good job.

The work of the show's three advisors, the Msers. Parker L. Wearing and Gifford Mitchell and Miss Lydia Davison, has been largely overlooked. And yet without the work of these three, it's very doubtful if there would ha e ever been a Purple and White Revue this year.

HI-Y

With the Boys' Hi-Y Club, that noble organization headed by Wolfgang Peter Siemers, currently enjoying a layoff until Thursday, May 2, it's President Audrey Campbell's gals' club that is in the news this week.

Despite the P & W Revue hustle and bustle that has characterized Westmount High School life the past week, the femmes found time to meet at the school at noon on Tuesday and elected their executive for the 1946-47 school year.

On it—President, Anne Griffith; vice-president, Ruth Steeves; secretary, Daphne Stethem; treasurer, Daphne Hodge.

The treasurer, L. H. Burpee, reported a balance in the bank of $268.48. During the course of the year, the Home and School Association purchased basketball sweaters and crests for the use of the class and school teams and engaged the services of Tommy Earle as boys' sports supervisor, to augment the supervision provided by the Westmount School board.

Mrs. H. G. Ross, recording secretary, stated in her report that the membership in the Association had increased to 230, a substantial rise over last year. Four general meetings and three executive meetings had been held in the past year.

Prof. Ivan Crowell of the Department of Handicrafts, MacDonald College, who was to have been the speaker present at the meeting, but was unable to attend, was replaced by his assistant, Miss Alice Winslow-Spragge who gave an interesting and comprehensive talk on the part played by handicrafts in the elementary schools. Demonstrators in all branches of handicrafts are being trained at MacDonald College where the government has organized an eleven month course for veterans.

A few schools have tried a number of handicraft projects including weaving, woodwork, metal craft and plastics. Both school boards and children have been enthusiastic about them as they require little equipment and entail little expense. It has been found that the introduction of handicrafts in school curriculum has fostered a spirit of mutual helpfulness among the children. Miss Winslow-Spragge displayed samples of various handicraft work.

The suggestion that a handicraft project be introduced into the school next fall was received and discussed with great enthusiasm. The speaker was introduced by the president-elect, J. Gordon Hutchison and thanked by J. Donald Smith.

Following the meeting, the classrooms were opened where Easter decorations and the work of the children were on display.

Purple & White Revue Scores Smashing Hit

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Filled almost to overflowing with a variety of dancing, singing and comedy acts, the Purple and White Revue '46 opened a two-night stand at Victoria Hall last night, and was greeted by wave after wave of applause by a sell-out and enthusiastic audience. There'll be another sell-out throng on hand this evening, when the show goes before the footlights for a second time.

Presented by the students of Westmount High School, and jointly produced and directed by John Dickins and Art Voronka, this entirely new type of high school production, that was originated by W.H.S. students last year, defies selection of a single star. There's something to suit everyone's taste—and it's all top-rate entertainment, backgrounded by superb sets, lushly costumed and with lighting that is much better than that usually in evidence at high school productions, a seemingly endless parade of talent struts its stuff.

Glee Club

The musical highlight of the entire revue comes toward the conclusion of the second act when the Westmount High Glee Club, whose 60 well-trained voices, together with an imported union orchestra, musically background the show, take to the stage and, to the matchless music of Gilbert and Sullivan, present a Students Council number. This features the solo work of Bill Hannington, Mary Campbell, Bob Smith, Norris Masterman and Joan Brown.

Acting honors are divided by John Dickins and Allan "Moe" Kirsch, two young thespians who both excel at comedy work. The duo make their first appearance in a number which pictures the classroom of today. Kirsch plays the part of a teacher, Dickins that of a wordly new student who, wearing a zoot suit that is the loudest seen in this suburb for some time, knows all the answers.

The two also do some emcee work and Dickins appears also as the son in a skit which reveals the troubles of a Westmount family with a couple of billion dollars to worry about and in his true-to-life role of a director in the amusing rehearsal number which pictures the goings-on at a typical Purple and White Revue rehearsal.

'St. Saveur Special"

Kirsch also appears as the French-Canadian vendor in "St. Saveur Special," a music-filled production which features Jacqueline Mickles and Pete Farrell, and as the principal in "Lo Spirit," a delightful bit of fun that precedes the finale.

In thet realm of song it would be absolutely criminal to overlook the work of Bob Smith, his guitar, and the girls' trio, Sue Haire, Taj Forman and Dolly Morrison, who do full justice to the "Tumbling Tumbleweed". Also worth noting is the rendition of "Water" by Harriet Brown, (the same girl who sings "Daddy" in the first act with four stooges carrying on in hilarious fashion behind her back), and the male warblers, Bill Hannington, George Johnson, Bob Smith and Charles Burgess.

But it's impossible to include everything in a review as brief as this one has to be so we'll close here—but not without a word of praise for choerographer Sue Haire's nattily attired chorus line, the modern ballet and waltz numbers, the Three Russian Singers, the tumbling of David Wood and Harry Mandigo, and the work of the stage and make-up crews as well as the costume department.

Westmount High School students have again presented a reveu that ranks with the best ever presented by any high school group on this island.

Cancer Takes More Lives Than War Records Reveal

Citizens throughout Canada began active co-operation with medical authorities in a nation-wide drive this week to vitally impress on the general public the all-important, life-giving fact that cancer can be cured and that death from its ravages is unnecessary if treatments are started at an early date.

Dr. Groulx, City of Montreal health officer stated today that 134.7 of 100,000 population die of cancer every year. He also said that the disease was neither contagious nor hereditary although it has been known to persist in certain families.

The Canadian Cancer Society has joined hands across the border, where the anti-cancer drive is well under way.

Cancer takes more lives than war, and is a more malignant foe, medical experts declare, but there is nothing shameful about the disease. It assails any one adults or children. Medical authorities state the shameful part is the fact thousands of persons, so afflicted, hide the complaint, and will not even acknowledge the idea to themselves. They hide it until the doctors' only known remedies, surgery, X-ray and radium, are of no avail.

"Nothing will be spared to spread knowledge which will bring hope and comfort to cancer sufferers and warning to potential sufferers," declared Dr C. B. Pierce, of the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Usual Symptoms

The population of Montreal are being advised through the media of the press, radio, magazines, newspapers, billboards and films, that the six generally accepted symptoms which may mean cancer, are:—

(1) Any unusual lump or thickening; (2) any irregular or unexplained bleeding; (3) any sore which doesn't heal, particularly around the tongue or lips; (4) loss of appetite, difficulty in swallowing food or persistent unexplained indigestion; (5) noticeable changes in form, size or color of mole or wart; (6) hoarseness which persists past the duration of a common cold.

The only man who can decide what these symptoms indicate is the doctor, it is stressed. Not relatives, not one self—only one man—the doctor. And if it so happens that a symptom or symptoms are early cancer, chances of perfect recovery are extraordinarily high. It is the putting off medical advice, wishful thinking, feeling of shame, the fear, that must be eradicated and the society's campaign is aimed at doing precisely this.

Dr. Pierce called for volunteers to transport needy cancer

Putters Plan Social Night

The Westmount Putters Social Club, nearing the end of its winter season, has planned another "refreshment" night for this Monday at Victoria Hall. As soon as fine weather comes along the members will be out on Westmount Park lining up putts.

Last week's session was quite successful with Miss Martha Kent taking the ladies' prize and Roger Lamb copping the men's honours.

The group is talking about ending up the year in a "slam-bang" manner but plans are still in the tentative stage.

Home & School Assoc. Plan Annual Meeting

Members of the Westmount High School's Home and School Association will have an opportunity of visiting the Senior High School at the Annual Meeting which is scheduled to take place Tuesday, April 16 at 8.15 p.m.

A. M. Patience, president of the Quebec Federation of Home and School Association will speak briefly on the work of the Federation. Gordon Anderson, chairman of the Westmount School Commissioners will also address the meeting.

The Junior High School Choir will sing several selections. After the meeting and elections of officers for the 1946-47 year, those attending will tour the classrooms and buildings.

ADVENTURE IN RADIO
By Margaret Cuthbert

This is a book of radio scripts taken from actual programs, such as "Information Please," "Charley McCarthy," and on the scene reporting of news and sporting events. There are also several chapters on radio announcing as a career.

NEW CHUM
By John Masefield

"Shall I ever go to the very top of the mast?" asked the youngest hand on the training ship, H.M.S. Conway. This and many other adventures were in store for the young John Masefield, whose naval training was complicated by the many pranks which the older boys played on the "New Chum."

These books may be borrowed from the Young People's Section of the Westmount Public Library.

Westmount Y.M.C.A.

Mr. J. Alex Edminson, K.C., stressed the need for tolerance and education in his address at the opening banquet of the Y.M.C.A. Young People's Conference held Saturday evening in Central Y, with 125 delegates present from all branches in Montreal.

Mr. Edmison was legal advisor at Canadian Army Headquarters in London, and later at SHAEF H.Q. He was then appointed to the UNRRA, and for them visited all the concentration camps in every country in Central Europe. He told of the "horrors" of these places ,and pointed out how successfully the Nazi propaganda had influenced the thinking of all young people in Germany. Returning to Canada, he said he felt our greatest sin was one of omission, rather than commission. In our work and preoccupation with personal and local problems, we tend to forget to help one another.

Mr. Edmison ended his address with a plea for tolerance, and an urge that young people take advantage of their opportunity to meet together in discussion, and accept their responsibilities as citizens in a free community.

Sunday conferences sessions were held at Westmount. It started at 9.45 with devotions led by Gordon Clarke. The panel presentations were made to the whole conference on the subjects of: (1) Recreation — Physical and Social; (2) Leadership; (3) Informal Education.

Conference delegates then divided up into three groups to discuss these subjects more intensely. The findings were presented to the whole conference at a late afternoon session. The Recreation group stressed more co-ed activities, and especially more outdoor program.

The Leadership group recognized the fact that our Y program can only be as large and as good as our lay leaders, and recommended more attention be given to finding program leaders.

The group on informal education emphasized the need for citizenship education to train our young people to understand the problems of today ,and to accept responsibilities in local, national and international organizations.

Much of the success of the conference goes to Art Gordon, who, as chairman of the Planning Committee, worked hard and long. Cliff Junks did a splendid job as chairman of the Program Committee.

The discussion groups were led by Harold Scott, Elspeth Jewett and Al Logan on Recreation; Herb Pass, Marion Locke and Roy Locke on Leadership; Lennie Hill, Pat Pickerel and Al Davis on informal education.

Mr. Ernie Stabler, of Sir George Williams College, acted as conference chairman, and did a splendid job. Dr. K. E. Morris, principal of Sir George Williams College, summarized the conference, pointing out the value of such a gathering, its accomplishments in deliberations, and the relationship of these findings to the future of Young People's program in the Montreal Y.M.C.A.'s.

Westmount delegation to the conference numbered sixteen. A meeting of the delegates is being held tonight to discuss the implimentation of conference findings for program in our local branch.

Catholic High School Juveniles defeated Westmount Y 32-39 on Monday night to win the M.B.L. Juvenile Championship. Each team won their home game in this best of three playoff series, and Monday's game, played at Y.M.H.A. — a neutral floor, gave the Catholic boys their second game, and the championship.

The game started out with a dash of speed when Putman of Westmount flipped in his first basket in the first 20 seconds of play. Catholic High monopolized the play for the balance of the first quarter which ended 10-2 in their favour. In the second quarter, Westmount switched from a zone defence to a man-to-man defence. Seimers scored on pass from Dudley, but C.H.S. quickly rallied with three more baskets to end the first half 16-4.

Starting from the whistle in the second half, the Westmount team controlled the play. Led by Dudley and Siemers, the locals scored constantly and by three-quarter time had reduced the lead to 24-15. In the last quarter, the Westmount basket shooters were really "hot", and with a minute left to play, the score stood at 30-29 for C.H.S. Westmount were using their power play, and had the Catholic boys hemmed in their own end of the floor, when a loose ball picked up by C.H.S. was passed to Tremblay who scored a long shot to make their lead 32-29. In the remaining minute the School boys succeeded in holding onto the ball, and won not only a close game, but a hard-fought series for the Montreal Championship.

cases back and forth from daily treatments at hospital clinics. He pointed out that many of the victims of the dreadful disease are too poor to pay the taxis expenses and are too weak to travel via the tramways, and that any offers of automobile rides would be welcomed by these people. He also called for blood donors and women's clubs to make dressings to help the needy persons by cutting down on expenses.

Cancer kills about 33 Canadians every day, young and old are the victims. One out of eight persons over 40 die of cancer, and as many as 6,000 lives could be saved by early detection and treatment.

Thousands who would otherwise die, are cured regularly where proper knowledge and treatment are had. Cancer caught in the early stages is the most curable of all major causes of death, yet it is the second greatest killer of our time.

"Normal weather" is only a man-made standard, usually an average over arbitrary periods of about 35 years.

Stanley Engel Wins Hersey Gold Medal In Contest

Stanley Engel, representing the Spoke Club of Montreal, won the Montreal Debating League's annual Oratorical Contest held Sunday afternoon at the Windsor Hotel. There were nine contestants representing the outstanding public speaking and debating clubs in the city.

Mr. Engel's address was on "Advertising That Pays". He treated his subject in a very effective but humorous manner and drew to the attention of the large audience present the importance of presenting one's services or products in a pleasing, appealing and original manner, yet keeping it simple and to the point.

Second prize was won by Arthur Pond from Sir George Williams College, and his subject was "Socialism's Indictment of Capitalism." J. A. Strain, from the Young Men's Section of the Montreal Board of Trade, was third. Mr. Strain spoke on "Hope". The three finalists will receive gold, silver and bronze medals, donated by Dr. Milton Hersey.

Following the contest, Lyle Benson, chairman of yesterday's contest, and President of the Montreal Debating League, presented the E. W. Beatty trophy to John A. Murray, chairman of the Public Speaking Club of the Young Men's Section, Montreal Board of Trade, for successfully defending the club debating championship for the 1945-46 season.

Judges for the oratorical contest were W. John Sheridan, B.A., Capt. W. Maxwell Ford and William Fraser. W. G. L. Buck, secretary of the Montreal Debating League, thanked the judges.

The National Film Board has made several display productions which present information on programmes of vital national concern. The aim is service to the community.

BULLETINS FROM BIRDLAND

BY WINIFRED E. WILSON

The Crow

Few birds are in turn detested and welcomed as are the Crows. When awakened by a colony of them at 4 or 5 o'clock on a July morning we find their raucous voices anything but attractive; yet, in early spring their "cawing" is music to our ears because it is the herald of bird songs. Robins, Bluebirds and Meadowlarks will arrive any day now, followed by Swallows, Song Sparrows and all the rest of our ever-welcome migrants.

The Crow problem gives food for thought. Preferring cleared land to forests, Crows have increased with the advance of civilization in North America, and only one good mark can be awarded them. In August and September they eat many insects, and, being particularly fond of grasshoppers, actually keep down plagues in some districts. Otherwise their habits may be painted as black as their plumage.

Especially partial to young corn, they often destroy a whole crop while the farmer rages but remains helpless; and in breeding time they and their young live almost entirely on the eggs and the nestlings of our most important game birds and our most useful insectivorous birds. Mr. Taverner, noted Canadian ornithologist, suggested that our sportsmen "take up the burden of controlling one of our worst game destroyers."

In addition to their natural wariness and intelligence, their size makes them a special menace to smaller birds, none of which is sufficiently powerful to harm this 17 inch enemy. A few brave hearts attempt to protect their nests. The tiny Hummingbird flies at the intruder, jabbing it with a needle-like bill; whereas the Kingbird chases it for a mile or more, dashing at the Crow's head and back, so that the big, black coward flies off shrieking, its wings flapping this way and that, looking more than ever like a pair of hands with spread-out fingers.

If the expedition has been successful, the robber returns with the prey to its nest of sticks 30 feet up in a tree. Crows generally live in colonies. Early in the season each nest contains from 4 to 6 green eggs thickly marked with brown. Then food for only two adults is required. But once the eggs are replaced by a hungry brood no family of song birds within half a mile is safe from an aerial attack.

To what family does the Pewee belong?

During the Sunday morning sermon a baby began to cry at the top of his voice, and its mother carried it toward the door.

"Stop!" said the minister. "Your baby is not disturbing me."

The mother turned toward the pulpit and addressed the preacher: "Oh, he ain't, ain't he? Well, you are disturbin' him!"

Folks who keep their ears to the ground pick up a lot of dirt.

HELP FIGHT CANCER !

With a view to counteracting the many dangerous rumours and fallacious beliefs which are prevalent concerning cancer, the Quebec Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society is conducting a campaign to educate the people of this province in the nature of this scourge and its symptoms in an effort to cut down the tremendous toll of lives this affliction takes every year. It is stated that if people could recognize the early symptoms of the disease, and act quickly, half the deaths could be prevented. Taken early enough cancer can be cured.

Cancer reveals itself in the following signs: Persistent hoarseness. Persistent indigestion, heartburn, gas on the stomach. Persistent constipation. Difficulty in swallowing. A change in the size or colour of a mole or birthmark. Any sore which does not heal, particularly on the tongue, lips, or mouth. A painless lump or thickening, especially in the breast or on the lip and the tongue. Irregular bleeding or discharge from a natural body opening or from the nipple of a breast.

These signs might not be cancer. They might be caused by some other physical ailment. But they are also the first signs of cancer.

Take no chances. See your doctor early. If a competent doctor is consulted early enough, cancer can be cured. And remember, your doctor is the only person capable of deciding. Thousands of cases have been allowed to get past the stage when they might have been cured because the advice of well-meaning but ignorant friends was taken instead of a doctor's.

MAINTAIN THE RENT CONTROLS

Good news for the rank and file citizen of Canada came from Ottawa last week when Hon. J. L. Ilsley declared that while some controls were to be eased, there would be no wholesale lifting of the measures that have been so successful in fighting inflation and in keeping the cost of living within reach of the average householder.

Tremendous pressure has been, and is being, exerted at Ottawa to do away with the controls entirely, to let our economy find its own level. That means, to the men who are exercising the pressure, the right to nick the consumer for everything the traffic will bear anl the devil take the hindmost.

Take the case of rents, and houses. The men who are complaining that the controls are a contraction of the spirit of free enterprise to which we are committed would like to see them lifted so that rents could be boosted twenty, thirty, or forty per cent. One has only to look at the rents asked for some of the new flats and houses going up to realize what would happen if the controls were lifted.

Similarly, we haven't as many new houses as we might have had, if the municipalities hadn't been so concerned with a possible surplus of dwellings and consequent adverse effect on future rents. Also, the municipalities have been extra careful to keep low cost housing down to a point, and removed to a sufficiently out-of-the-way locality, so as to do as little harm as possible to property values.

Mr. Howe knew what he was talking about when he declared that control over the type of building, their cost, and location, was up to the municipalities. The municipalities control the land, the roads, sidewalks, sewers, valuations, and restrictions.

SAVE SCRAP METAL

Canada is faced with a possible shortage of metal which is vital to the country's reconversion program. Canada's normal imports from the United States have been cut to a quarter their volume by the strikes and the constantly increasing demands of American factories. There is not enough metal in Canada today to come even close to meeting the country's demands, but if Canadians will save their scrap with the same thoroughness as during the war, much of this deficiency will be made good. While the patriotic organizations that collected scrap during the war years have largely ceased operations and are no longer available for the present drive, the scrap can be put into the necessary channels simply by turning it over to scrap metal dealers.

Know Your Westmount

Biography And History --In Streets--

(Contributed by Westmount Historical Association)

CARLETON AND SYDENHAM AVENUES AND DORCHESTER ST.

At first sight this may seem a strange grouping of streets. However there is an explanation! Carleton and Sydenham Avenues were opened at the same time. Carleton Avenue, a short, modern residential street in Westmount, and Dorchester St. a very long, old street in Montreal and Westmount, were named for the same man:— Sir Guy Carleton, Lord Dorchester, who was Governor-General of Canada, 1768-1778. Sydenham Avenue was named for another Governor-General, Lord Sydenham.

LORD SYDENHAM

Charles Edward Poulett-Thomson, first Baron Sydenham (1799-1841) born at Wimbledon, England, was privately educated. He entered the House of Commons in 1826, during Earl Grey's ministry. He was made Treasurer of the Navy, and occupied himself with International affairs. He succeeded Lord Durham as Governor-General of Canada in 1839, and carried out many of his recommendations. He was instrumental in having the Act of Union passed in 1840, uniting Upper and Lower Canada, which had been separated by the Constitutional Act in 1791, and he set up the machinery for Responsible Government. His régime was admirably suited for bridging over the period of transition to Responsible Government. As a reward for his services he was created Baron Sydenham, of Kent, England, and Toronto, Canada, in 1840, and in 1841 he was made a K.C.B. He did not live long to enjoy his honours. He died as the result of a fall from his horse, and as he was unmarried the title became extinct.

Sydenham Avenue runs from 4353 Westmount Avenue, north, to 3705 Westmount Boulevard.

Carleton Avenue runs north from 4360 Westmount Avenue to 3733 Westmount Boulevard.

The following extracts were taken from Westmount Council Minutes, 10th November 1908:

"Execution of Deed, whereby Dame Elizabeth Bowman, widow of Captain Robert Taylor Raynes, on her own behalf, and as Institute with her children, under the last Will and Testament of the late Charles Bowman, did cede unto the City of Westmount two emplacements of land, running from the Boulevard to Westmount Avenue, on certain conditions:—

(a) That the said emplacement shall be used as, and for public Streets in the City of Westmount.

(b) That the first described emplacement be known as Carleton Avenue, and the second as Sydenham Avenue.

(c) That the City will grade these Streets as soon as possible.

(d) That the Streets will be furnished with drains and Macadamized roads early in 1909. Water and Gas Mains laid, and side-walks constructed.

(e) That the City will make every endeavour to keep Westmount Avenue open for use by vehicle during the coming Winter.

These conditions were all complied with by May 1912.

Dorchester Street

U In the early part of the last Century Montreal was a comparatively small City. The Churches, Schools, Banks, Shops and private residences were nearly all below Beaver Hall Hill. About 1841-1842 some far-sighted men, building for the future, planned the development of Parks and Streets:—among them, Dorchester Street. The City Surveyor, Mr. Ostell, employed the celebrated Geographer and Astronomer, David Thompson, to help him make plans for the extension of the City. The trend was up Beaver Hall Hill and out into the suburbs, and towards the end of the Century, Dorchester St. was a very fine residential Street, but very soon the population began to push still further North and West. Of the five large Protestant Churches then on the Street,— St. Paul's Presbyterian, Knox Presbyterian, Dominion Square Methodist, American Presbyterian, and Crescent St. Presbyterian Church, only one stands today, at the N.E. corner of Crescent and Dorchester Streets,—Knox-Crescent Presbyterian Church. The others have all been demolished and the congregations have built Churches further North and West. An old land-mark, Windsor Hotel, still stands on Dominion Square, but the fine old houses which extended right out to Westmount have changed their character completely. What were beautiful and prosperous private homes are now, alas, Tourist Camps, Boarding-houses and small shops, many of which are built in front of old houses.

(To be concluded next week)

He: "Now that we are married perhaps I can point out a few of your defects."

She: "Don't bother, dear, I know all about them. It's those defects that kept me from getting a better man than you."

THE FORUM

Conducted by Howard S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

The members of our Dominion Parliament received $1,000 a session from Confederation until 1902, when it was raised to $1,500. In 1905 it was fixed at $2,500. In 1918 it was raised to $4,000 and is now $6,000. Premier King receives $23,000 a year and each minister of the Crown $18,000. The opposition leader draws the same salary as a Cabinet Minister.

In a recent sermon at Euclid Avenue Baptist Church, Cleveland, (the church home for many years of John D. Rockefeller Sr.) my friend Dr. Bernard C. Clausen, the minister, praised the work General MacArthur has done in Japan and suggested that the policies carried out there might well be applied in the United States.

Britain's biggest battleship, the 60,000-ton H.M.S. Vanguard, is scheduled to leave John Brown's fitting-out basin at Clydebank. The 5,000 men and women engaged in fitting her out have made another shipbuilding record by performing in one year what would normally have been accomplished in two and a half years.

Almost every district in Britain manufactured a part for the mighty warship. On Saturday the finishing touches were being put to her 600 miles of electric cables, 1,016 telephones, 1,000 loud speakers, and radar equipment.

The amenities include a school, a cinema, a church, a brewery, a newspaper office and a shop. Facilities will be available for the manufacture of about one ton of ice cream daily for the crew.

There is work for many months ahead in the construction of new tonnage at Clydebank. The keel of a 12,000 Cunarder was laid down recently.

As soon as space is available a new 30,000-ton Cunarder will be started next year.

Adrian Shuford, an industrialist of Newton, N.C., believes in and practices the Golden Rule.

On December 27 he distributed bonus cheques for more than $82,000 to 600 employes of his three mills. He had printed on each cheque: "As ye would that others should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. Luke 6: 31."

Lord Beaverbrook is an adaptable person. A British journal stated that one of his printing companies is printing the Daily Herald, the organ of the Labor Party, and that soon Lord Beaverbrook is to publish an evening journal devoted to the interests of Socialism.

The Higashi Hong Wanji (in Japan) the great temple was built by the common people. No rich person was allowed to contribute either effort or material towards its construction. No nails, wire or fibre were used in building it. Thousands of pious women sacrificed their hair to make the huge ropes to raise the gigantic beams of the temple. There are 29 great rope coils of human hair, weighing several thousand pounds.

London, G.B., bans skyscrapers, the principal objections being that they increase fog and prevent sunshine entering adjoining buildings. One member of the House of Commons who objected is Alfred Blossom, an English architect who spent many years in the USA and up to 15 years ago designed some of the biggest skyscrapers in that country.

Farmers in the Maritimes have been paying higher prices than necessasy for fertilizer owing to cartel operations, according to an investigator's report now before the Government.

Nothing will be gained by blaming those clever enough to operate a cartel and thus get as large a price as possible from farmers (their fellow-Canadians) or from anyone else. Under our profit system human welfare comes second as a rule. Fortunately a considerable amount of money made through monopolies of different kinds is returned by rich men who are normal and have discovered the satisfaction there is in contributing to worthy causes. We have our share of such men in our city. But how much better it would be if our economic system was (by agreement and because it would pay well) changed so that it would be based on abundance for all without exploit (which is inevitable under our present system) and which would abolish artificial scarcity and make it as easy for one as for another to share in the bounty of nature.

STATUE TO DUTCH SCOUT

At one end of an important bridge in Nijmegen, Holland, will shortly be erected a statue honouring a Boy Scout. It will recall the heroic efforts of a Dutch Boy Scout who was entrusted by the British with a message to be carried through the enemy lines. In making delivery it was necessary for this Scout to cross a heavily guarded bridge. As he was creeping across, removing as he went the fuses from the explosives prepared by the Germans, he was seen, captured and shortly after shot. The message got through by another route, but the courage of Jan Van Hoof, the Dutch Scout who gave his life, will be kept green by the erection of this monument.

VARY STEW FLAVOR TO TEMPT PALATES

A good stew is a culinary triumph. Stews may be made from a wide choice of meats, and variety may be achieved by combining different meats. Whatever the ingredients or method, all stews should be good.

If the meat is dredged with flour, it develops flavour, thickens the gravy and gives it a more attractive colour.

Variety may also be obtained by the use of different vegetables which vary in flavour, colour and texture. Onions always add interest in flavour but use only one other strong-flavoured vegetable such as turnip or cabbage. Add the vegetables just in time to cook tender. Many a stew has been spoiled by over-cooking the vegetables. Additional salt will be required when the vegetables are added.

Stews afford the ingenious homemaker a wide scope for her imagination. Try a cup of sour cream, or a little curry powder in a lamb stew. Marjoram and thyme or a little bay leaf are good seasonings. Experiment cautiously and taste carefully. The flavour should be subtle.

Attractiveness in serving is important to the success of any stew. If the meat and vegetables are arranged on a platter, and the gravy served from a separate dish, it may have more eye-appeal. Omit potatoes from the stew when dumplings, baking powder biscuits or noodles are served as accompaniments.

To Make a Good Stew

Cut meat in uniform small pieces.

Season well and dredge with flour, if desired.

Brown meat in hot fat.

Add only enough liquid to cover.

Cover closely and cook slowly at simmering temperature until tender—about 1½ to 2 hours.

Never allow a stew to boil hard.

Add vegetables just in time to cook tender—about ½ hour before serving.

Remove meat and vegetables before thickening the liquid for gravy.

Spanish Stew

1½ lbs. veal (breast, shank, flank, neck or shoulder.)
2 onions
1 cup diced celery
1 cup uncooked spaghetti (broken into pieces)
2 cups water
2 cups tomato juice
Seasonings

Wipe veal. Remove fat. Cut veal into 1½-inch cubes. Roll meat in flour, brown meat and onion in fat, taken from meat. Add water. Bring to boiling point and simmer ½ hour. Add remaining ingredients, season and simmer 1 hour longer. Thicken with a paste made of flour and water. Six servings.

Mrs. L. Wilson Is Elected By Ex-Servicewomen

Some twenty-five young women met on Wednesday night last week in the Great War Memorial Hall in Verdun, and through the election of officers and executive members, placed the second branch of ex-service women in the Province of Quebec, on a solid footing.

The new branch is to be known as "Dunver Women's Branch" of the Canadian Legion of the British Service League.

Officers Elected

The following officers and members of the executive were elected:

President: Comrade Mrs. L. Wilson; First Vice-President, Comrade Mrs. B. Provost; Second Vice-President, Comrade Mrs. L. Barker; Secretary, Comrade Mrs. I. Bogle; Treasurer, Comrade Mrs. L. McCrea; Sergeant-at-Arms, Comrade Mrs. R. St. Onge.

Executive Committee: Comrades Mrs. M. Jennings, Mrs. L. Killeen, Miss E. Burns, Miss D. Fairbairn.

Delegates to the Montreal District Council: Comrade Mrs. L. Wilson, President, and Comrade Mrs. B. Provost, First Vice-President.

Auditors: Comrades Miss M. McLaughlin, Miss N. Robbins and Miss M. McCormick.

The charter meeting, with the introduction of officers will be held during the first week in May.

Discrimination Charged

Before the actual election of officers took place, a resolution was moved and unanimously adopted, protesting against the discrimination shown regarding ex-service women with respect to positions under the control of the Civil Service Commission. It was held by the women present that all ex-service women, whether they had seen service overseas or at home should get the preference over civilians when equally qualified for the vacant positions.

Springlike Touch Adds Zest To Special Easter Dinner

Easter dinner, 1946 style, may not include the traditional ham we associate with this occasion, but this needn't prevent it from being festive.. Easter and spring go hand in hand, so springlike touches in the food should predominate.

The following menus suggested by the home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture, has a springlike touch wit hrhubarb juice as a starter, and roast stuffed veal as the piece de resistance. A new twist is given to the old stand-by, parsnips, and scalloped corn adds a pleasant colour and flavour contrast. Topped off with warm gingerbread with honey meringue, this meal is one your family should long remember.

DINNER MENU

Rhubarb Juice or Fruit Cup
Roast stuffed veal
Browned potatoes
Parsnips Mexicana
Scalloped Corn
Gingerbread witr Honey Meringue

ROAST STUFFED VEAL

Use boned leg or shoulder. Stuff with favourite dressing. Roast, uncovered, in moderate oven, 325-350°F, for entire cooking time, allowing 35 to 40 minutes per pound. Do not add water to pan. Baste occasionally during roasting.

Since veal is rather bland and has comparatively little fat, the meat will be more moist and will have better flavour if a small amount of pork fat is spread over the top of the meat before roasting.

PARSNIPS MEXICANA

2½ cups cubed parsnips (2 medium)
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon fat
1 cup diced celery
¾ cup tomato juice

Cook parsnips covered, for five minutes, in boiling salted water. Drain. Simmer in a covered frying pan with the celery and tomatoes until tender—about 25 minutes. Six servings.

HOT WATER GINGERBREAD

½ cup shortening (any mild-flavoured fat)
½ cup sugar
1 egg
¾ cup molasses
2½ cups sifted pastry flour OR
2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1½ teaspoons baking soda
½ teaspoon cloves
1½ teaspoons cinnamon
2 teaspoons ginger
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup hot water

Cream fat until fluffy, gradually cream in sugar. Add beaten egg and molasses and beat well. add alternately with the water, combining lightly. Bake in a greased cake tin in a moderately slow oven, 325°F, for 50 to 55 minutes. Makes a gingerbread 8 x 8 x 2½ inches. Serve warm with Honey Meringue.

Progress Club Plans To Build Large New Hut

The regular meeting of the Calvary Progress Club met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Malkin, 5550 McLynn Avenue, when a special project designed to take the place of the British Minesweeper Auxiliary was discussed, namely to raise funds to build a "hut" at Macaulay Camp for the use of camp leaders.

This camp is a great boon to underprivileged mothers and children who receive a wonderful holiday there at little or no cost to themselves.

A large, well built hut is greatly needed to house the leaders, hold special meetings, etc.

The Calvary Progress Club has undertaken to finance the building of this hut within the next year.

Special speakers at the meeting were Mr. C. James and Mr. Webster, of the Macaulay Camp Committee. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Curtis, 4606 Oxford Avenue this evening.

Junior Red Cross Is Vital Unit In Organization Campaign Plans

Many physically handicapped children have received help and, in many cases, permanent cures through the medical assistance made possible by the Junior Red Cross. This important Department of the Quebec Provincial Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society is one of the vital parts of the peacetime plans of the Red Cross in this province. An enrolment campaign was launched on Monday to cover every city, town and rural community throughout Quebec.

The purpose of this important Junior Red Cross work is to provide a source of financial assistance to facilitate the care of children suffering from illness, accident or some physical defect, which may be corrected or improved by medical treatment. Both the raising and expending of this fund are primarily educational projects in good citizenship for Junior Red Cross members.

Any Child Eligible

Any child is eligible for treatment, who while not 18 years, and in the opinion of a physician or surgeon will benefit by medical treatment, and whose treatment has not already been assured by the Government, or any other organization. When the treatment of the handicapped child has been decided upon by the physician and the Junior Red Cross Committee, hospitalization, medical and surgical care is provided as well as transportation to and from the hospital.

Foster hom care is also supplied, and even the cost of nursing, in emergency cases. Other treatments, as ordered by the physician in charge of the case, are also provided which often include physiotherapy, massage and orthopaedic appliances.

Make Application First

Application for financial assistance to the Junior Red Cross Crippled Children's Fund should be made before any care or treatment on a child is commenced, except in the case of emergencies. Application forms, completed by the local doctor, are forwarded to the Provincial Director of the Junior Red Cross in Montreal. Local doctors, school inspectors, Junior Red Cross branches and other groups are encouraged to report all cases of handicapped children apparently in need of medical care.

When a child returns to his family, after treatment, the person responsible for the original

Over-the-counter enquiries at Legion enquiry bureaus each month number well above 4,000, with requests for assistance running all the way from locating doctors and hospital care for the sick, to finding legal assistance to solve entanglements in which veterans find themselves.

Visits to hospitalized veterans by Legionaires in this city last year amounted to 400,000. The Legion maintains a blood bank for the use at any time by veterans or dependents. It also has organized a mutual benefit society by which ex-servicemen may get low cost life insurance. It plans for the immediate future the establishing of co-operatives through which disabled men may sell handicraft products and augment their pensions, or through which they may establish funds to take care of their children's educations.

Shrine Room

A shrine room wherein will be kept the names of all those from this province who fell in both wars will be the central feature of the memorial building. The remaining floors will provide lounges, billiard rooms, bowling alleys, indoor sport facilities, and a large swimming pool, for the use of members. Here too will be the headquarters for organized sport leagues which the Legion plans to start in the city for the benefit of those back from the services.

Legion officials have found the opportunity to obtain facilities where all these activities can be carried on, at a cost far below that necessary to construct such a building.

They point out that this is the first time the Legion has come forward with such a campaign for donations from the public. The largest part of their work is carried on through funds raised within the association itself. They plan to make the building self-sustaining once it is established.

CAGERS SEE REVUE

As reward for winning the junior and senior basketball championships this season, Coach George Cochrane arranged to have members of both his senior and junior Roslyn teams see the second dress rehearsal of the Purple and White Revue '46 at Victoria Hall Wednesday night. The elementary school hoopsters enjoyed the performance.

New Era Coming In Photography

Now that the war is over, we shall see some wonderful changes in photography.

Not the least of these will be the new films, so fast and sensitive that it will be possible to take fully-exposed snapshots with the cheapest cameras even in dull weather. Films and plates can be made today a thousand times faster than they were in the days before the two great wars. This has been done by using excessively small quantities of newly- discovered "sensitizers" which are added to the material with which films are coated.

Another invention for speeding-up the camera is the coating of the lens with a transparent medium which prevents reflection. when light falls upon a glass surface, not all of it passed through the glass, but a great deal is overcome by the coated lenses, which are not only made twice as fast but give immensely improved images.

A novelty which will probably be common in the most costly cameras is an electric shutter which operates by itself. A photocell or electric eye, fitted in the camera, measures the strength of the light, opens or closes the iris of the lens and times the exposure. Thus all pictures are automatically correctly exposed.

All modern lenses are made of combinations of two kinds of glass —crown and flint; but to-day plastic materials can be made of synthetic resin which have the same refractive power as the glasses. Lenses which bend rays of all colors so as to come to the same focus—known as achromatic —have thus been made by combining two kinds of plastic lens, and this possibility may make it possible for inexpensive cameras to give finer performance.

Gifts of special equipment for the more adequate treatment of handicapped children are also made through the Junior Red Cross Committee. Since 1919, the Junior Red Cross throughout Canada has financed hospitalization for 25,000 children, exclusive of dental cases.

StarsRiseToNew Heights In True-To-Life Drama

One of the most gripping pictures of the year, with a superb cast headed by Margaret O'Brien, is now playing at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday night. It is "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes", which also features Edward G. Robinson, James Craig, Frances Gifford and Jackie "Butch" Jenkins.

Edward G. Robinson has a completely new type of characterization; sympathetic, warm and understanding, as he plays the part of Margaret O'Brien's father. Although his recent roles have taken him out of gangster melodramas, this is his initial part without either comedy or murder. As a farmer of Norwegian-descent, living in Wisconsin, his heart-warming relationship with his small daughter is the mainspring of the tender story.

James Craig, who teamed so successfully with Margaret O'Brien in "Lost Angel", has a similar assignment with the child star in "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes". His role is the romantic lead, as the editor of a small-town Wisconsin newspaper, who is Margaret's good friend and confidant. His romantic interest i Frances Gifford, who has the part of a rural school teacher.

Jackie "Butch" Jenkins, he of the tousled hair and freckled face, is seen as Margaret's cousin and constant companion.

Others in the cast are Agnes Moorehead, as Margaret's mother, Dorothy Morris, Sara Haden, Morris Carnovsky, Connie Gilchrist, and Arthur Space.

NEW CO-STARS! Van Johnson and Lana Turner are one of the two new teams in "Week-End" At The Waldorf", which starts at the Westmount United Theatre, on Sunday. The other fine, new team is Ginger Rogers and Walter Pidgeon.

"State Fair" In Technicolor Brings Award-Winning Song To Screen

Ringing with a score of wonderful r songs by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II, the team who gave Broadway "Oklahoma" and "Carousel," thrilling with the rich human adventures of Phil Stong's best-loved novel and star-brilliant with a ast headed by Dana Andrews, Jeanne Crain, Dick Haymes and Vivian Blaine, the Tech color hit, "State Fair," is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Friday night.

Set against a gloriously gay, colorful background of one of America's best-loved institutions, "State Fair" tells a story filled with joyous romance and robust humor of the adventure of a mid-West farm family who spent a hectic week at the fair in search of the one thing they desired most of all. Pa Frake (Charles Winninger) yearns for the blue-ribbon prize for his hog, while Ma (Fay Bainter) is out for the mincemeat honors. But love and romance are the dream of their son and daughter (Dick Haymes and Jeanne Crain). Their adventures at the fair make for one of the most delightfully enthralling romantic musicals the screen has ever shown. The film boasts not one but two romances involving Jeanne Crain with Dana Andrews, a reporter sent to cover the fair; and Dick Haymes with Vivian Blaine, a singer at the dance pavilion.

Rodgers and Hammerstein are being hailed for a musical score that equals in every way anything that they have ever produced, and that includes the mighty "Oklahoma" tunes. The romantic "It Might As Well Be Spring" was considered the best song in 1945 and won the Academy Award for the writers. The rollocking "It's A Grand Night For Singing," the tender "That's For Me" and the comedy number "All I Owe Iowa" are all in line for top hit-parade honors.

Featured in the supporting cast of this fine picture are Donald Meek, Frank McHugh, Percy Kilbride and Henry Morgan.

DIRECTIVE TO EASE SHIRT SHORTAGE

Steps to alleviate the shortage of men's and boys' shirts in Canada were announced by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. But it will take several weeks before there are more shirts in retail stores.

Previous directives to shirt manufacturers have been tightened. Directives issued today state that no shirt manufacturer will be permitted to use shirting material for the manufacture of any products other than men's and boys' shirts unless his production of these shirts is up to the level directed by the Board.

Increased supplies of fabrics are being made to shirt manufacturers out of the Canadian quota from the United States. All imports of cotton fabrics from the United States are under allocation from that country, but within the total allocation it has been possible to arrange for a larger share to go to shirt manufacturers.

Rogers, Pidgeon, Turner, Johnson In "Week-End At The Waldorf"

Thrills, romance and intrigue have been deftly blended in "Week-end At The Waldorf", to bring to the screen one of the year's outstanding movies. No talent has been spared to make the new picture, now playing at the Snowdon United Theatre until Friday night, an undeniable hit.

A glance at the cast is sufficient to underscore what is meant. There are Ginger Rogers, Lana Turner, Van Johnson, Walter Pidgeon, Edward Arnold, Robert Benchley, Keenan Wynn, Phyllis Thaxter, Lina Romay, Xavier Cugat and his orchestra.

All of these are at their best in an enchanting and clever story of 48 hours at the world's most famous luxury hotel in New York. Miss Rogers, as a glamorous but lonely movie star, has checked in to attend the premiere of her new picture. Miss Turner, as the public stenographer, has very private ideas about love; she is desperately seeking to escape from the Tenth Avenue, where she was born, in favor of a penthouse on Park Avenue.

Pidgeon is a weary war correspondent, fresh from the battlefields, and about to go overseas again. All he wants to do is sleep, but the ingenious plot brings him to the suite occupied by Miss Rogers and — well, you'll have to see for yourself what happens. Van Johnson plays an Army flier with a shrapnel wound near his heart which necessitates a major operation he may not survive. This week-end may be his last and he is all set for a last fling—until he meets Lana.

These two romances provide the main plots of the picture. There is also Edward Arnold, as a shady oil operator, who is attempting to talk his way into a million-dollar deal involving a visiting potentate from the Near East.

You'll surely enjoy "Week-end at The Waldorf"—so put it on your "must see" list.

Ray Milland Stars In "Lost Weekend"

One of the prize acting roles of this, or any other season was given to Ray Milland when he was chosen by Paramount to portray the bedevilled hero of "The Lost Weekend", in the film version of Charles Jackson's best-seller.

Milland, who rose to the top of the screen ladder by playing sophisticated, romantic young men in fast-moving comedies, and who has since made a name for himself in other types of films, has never previously had the opportunity to show himself the great actor that he is. In "The Lost Weekend", which is now playing at the York United Theatre until Friday night, such an opportunity was given him, and he took advantage of it to such an extent, that he was given the Academy Award for the best acting of the year.

"The Lost Weekend" tells the unusual and unforgettable story of five days out of a young man's life—five days of horror and such intensely dramatic events as to make their reproduction of the screen a rare achievement.

R Milland, a: Don Birnam, whose weakness for liquor drives him to the depths of human degradation, is absolutely superb in the role. Jane Wyman is seen in the role of his devoted sweetheart, who will not give up fighting for the man she loves, and Phillip Terry plays Milland's long-suffering brother. Others in the film are Howard Da Silva, Frank Faylen and Doris Dowling, a newcomer from Broadway, who is making her debut in this picture.

Not only did Milland win the award as the best actor of the year, but the picture took several other awards. It was judged the best film of the year, the best-written screenplay and the best directed picture. All of these awards add up to making "The Lost Weekend", the greatest picture of the year, and one that no one should miss.

Roslyn School Wins Cage Titles

Seniors, Juniors Crowned Champs

"Champions" is the awe-inspiring title which both Roslyn School's senior and junior cagers have earned for themselves this season. The Westmount avenue lads clinched the Westmount Protestant Elementary Schools Basketball League's senior and junior championships in their own gym last Thursday when they pulled off a pair of victories over Queen's, the seniors winning 12-0, the juniors 10-9.

The elementary schools' cage schedule wound up at King's School yesterday when Roslyn's two teams visited the Western avenue institution for a double bill that was originally scheduled to be played on Monday of this week. Results of these two games were not available at press time.

The Roslyn senior team had a fairly easy time racking up their 12-0 win over Queen's last week. The winners had too much height and all round power for Coach Richard Lord's hard-fighting squad from Olivier avenue.

There wasn't much to choose between the two teams in the first half, however. When the halftime whistle blew the Roslynites were leading 1-0 on Gilbert Young all scored three points to pace the winners' scorers.

The Orange and Brown crew were also strong defensively, their man-to-man defence keeping Queen's tied up in knots.

JUNIOR TILT CLOSE

The junior game was a hard fought, nip and tuck battle all the way. The Queen's boys never gave up and kept the Roslynites, who had beaten them 15-6 on opening day on their toes all the way.

Roslyn scorers in the first half were Charlie Laidley and John Swaine, with a field goal apiece, and Dave McDougall, who sank a free throw while N. Marshall and D. Marshall each scored a field goal for Queen's in the first half to make the half-time score 5-4 in favor of Roslyn.

The second half of the tilt was just as thrilling as the first but when the Westmount avenue aggregation slipped into an 8-5 lead early in the last quarter it began to look as if they had the game, and the junior championship, in the bag.

But Queen's never gave up and two quick baskets gave them an 9-8 lead with a minute left to play.

Then it was that Dave "Dougie" McDougall, 79-pound, sharp-shooting Roslyn forward, played the hero role. The Roslynites worked the ball up the floor and then fed McDougall a lovely pass. The short, pint-sized forward pivotted and shot. The ball swished through the hoop without even touching the rim.

That gave Coach George Cochrane's squad the game but Queen's muffed a chance to tie things up. N. Marshall was awarded a free shot with only seconds left to play—but, as the spectators that jammed the Roslyn gym held their

Senior League Plans Meeting Monday Night

The senior section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League will hold an organization meeting this Monday night, April 15, at Victoria Hall. All clubs intending to enter the league this season are requested to have at least one representative at this meeting. The session will get underway at eight o'clock. Further information may be obtained by contacting Recreation Supervisor Jim McCormick, FI. 1929.

The league will go into its first peacetime season in seven years and many changes will be evidenced over the past few years. Local fans have been used to seeing service teams play at Westmount Park so much during the past few years that it will be strange this season to see civilians back in action.

Just what can be expected in the way of teams this year is still unknown but it is expected that at least six teams will answer the call. Certainties are the Royals or they may be called the Legion, Swans and a team composed of former Dodger players whether they line up with the Dodgers or not. There still seems to be some uncertainty as to whether the Dodgers will operate. Manager Artie Mann is just getting back into civvy life and may not have the time to run the club on the other hand rumour has it that Bert Read will place a team in the league with most of the Dodger players signing up. Another possibility sees Dougie Alexander entering a team, composed for the most part of younger players. Another probable team is Eddie Baylis' Staynor club. Baylis sponsored a junior club in the Staynor district for a couple of years and in all probability will be back with a senior outfit this year. Another possibility is the Westmount Police. The cops have made inquiries as to the make up of the loop and may field a club. It seems quite certain that no service teams will be accepted this year.

Give your work the best you have and it will never get the best of you.

Pee Wee Ball League Receives Ten Entries

Ten clubs have entered the pee wee section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League. The section will be divided into two divisions with Dave Smith's Spitfires, Pete Holland's Reds, Lewis Abbott's Rovers, John Abbott's Royals and Andy Cote's Aces in one group. The other group will be composed of Art Chesmer's Eagles, Dave McDougall's Boulevards, Dave Seeley's Hawks, Eddie Kalil's Flyers and John Sharman's Bombers.

The schedule will commence on Tuesday, April 30, and will end around the third week of May. As there is a large number of teams, they will only meet each other once during the schedule but four out of five clubs in each group will participate in the playoffs. The group champions will meet at the end of the season for the championship. The schedule for both groups will be published in the Examiner soon.

The Aces, managed by Andy Cote have signed up the following players: Jack Cote, Doug Patterson, Mike Harling, Brian McKeown, Barry Martin, Dickie McLean, Bob Cote, Ian Beckett, Graham Nelson and Glen Fisher. John Sharman's Bombers have signed up Dave Lafontaine, Grant Dixon, John Higgins, Andrew Beckett, John Lauzier, Fred Campbell and Marvin Hirsch. Art Chesmer's Eagles have lined up Lloyd Kishino, E. Jones, E. Winston, R. Carruthers, Nigel Frawley and A. Butler. David Seeley's Hawks will be composed of Barry Carrique, Bill McKeown, Bruce McBean, Frank Eartly, Peter Cowie, Bob Cote, Blair Carrique, John Seeley, John Foote, Andy Reid, Colin Hammond, Tom Hashimoto and B. McLean. The Spitfires captained by Dave Smith will be made up of Jim Pickford, Bill Kavanagh, Peter Deane, David Rogers, Joe Williams, Dick Lyons and Gordie Smith.

The Boulevards, Royals and Rovers all hail from Roslyn school. Dave McDougall's Boulevards includes Tony Mathew, Charlie Johnson, John Swaine, Peter Nettlefield, Leonard Cohen, Louis Batshaw, Raphael Fleming, Michael Pratt and Billy Fell. The Royals have John Abbott, Billy Waller, Sydney Rubin, Eddy Martin, Tony Skinner, Tony Reid, Gerald Ross, Michael Webb, John Swift, Murray Greenwood and John Turnbull. On Lewis Abbott's Royals are Jimmy Munro, Harry Nasmith, Richard Thompson, Ross Southward, John Lillie, Warner Timm, John Black and Edward Oser.

Eddie Kalil's Flyers hail from Queen's school and include Jimmie Craig, Chummie Carter, Jim Beasant, Pat Craig, Bud Agnew, Willis Beaton, Ian Roussac, Paul Manson, Tony Manson and others.

Pete Holland's Reds is the sole pee wee entry from St. Leo's Academy.

STAR OF THE WEEK

By Bob Lunny

KENNY BOOTH

This week Kenny Booth, known to all as "Boots", was chosen as the "Star of the Week".

Kenny, who is only 16, holds down centre position on the powerful West Hill Senior "A" squad. Besides playing for West Hill, he also plays for N.D.G. Royals, a juvenile entry. Kenny first learned and played hockey for N.D.G. Bantams four years ago and has been playing stand-out hockey ever since.

One of West Hill's top scorers, Ken rates second to Bobby Newton of Catholic High in the All-Star class. He is the smallest player in the senior group but still seems to be effective. For his age we would say that he is the smoothest skater seen around here in hockey circles for a long time.

Kenny very seldom plays a bad game and has made his name this year for himself with our local sport writers. He plays on the first line on West Hill Seniors and is highly thought of by both his coach and his teammates. Kenny is right handed and has a very powerful shot for his 115 pounds. He is a very shifty player with style somewhat like Pat Palmer's of St. Leo's Senior "B".

"Boots" has hopes of becoming a truly great hockey player. All he needs are a few pounds and a couple of inches to get somewhere near that grade. He has one more year left at West Hill, that is of course if nothing goes wrong, and with him goes our hope that he will become a pro hockey player.

GOING UP

That's what Phillies hope to do with help of first sacker Frank McCormick, purchased from Cincy Reds for reported $40,000. Phils are training at Miami Beach.

R.M.R. Holding Sports Week

This week is sports week at the R.M.R. The Inter-company Volley Ball Tournament is being run off on regular parade nights. Inter-company bowling also will be held at this time. Army movies shown are of sports in war.

The Regimental Basketball team is entering the Military District No. 4 championship tournament with high hopes pinned on a team which will include Sgt. "Long John" Schuler, once considered to be the best guard in Montreal. Remainder of the team will be picked from former Westmount High School players and others in the Unit.

The District Volley Ball championships are tentatively scheduled to take place in the Westmount Armoury in the week of 22 April 46. The R.M.R.'s entry for this tournament will be chosen largely from the players on the inter-regiment teams.

breath, he missed and the final whistle sounded.

TWO CHAMPIONSHIPS

It was a great day for Roslyn School students. For, by clinching both the junior and senior bounce ball honors, the Orange and Brown won more trophies than any other school in the elementary school's circuit this year. King's had won the football title, Queen's the hockey. The twin victories were especially welcomed by the Roslynites because they had finished last in both the football and puck loops.

Senior Game

Queens (0): Ed Gakalil, John Smith, H. Johnson, J. Stewart, F. Macdonald, D. Kerr.

Roslyn (12): Ray Baillie, Dennis Drummond (2), David Hogg, Melvyn Reece (3), Danny Usher, Charlie Whitcomb (3), Tom Williamson, Colin Irving, Gilbert Young (4).

Junior Game

Queen's (9): N. Marshall (3), D. Marshall (2), E. Graham (2), R. Todd, G. Monette (2), R. Whiteside, J. Craig, G. Cowie, P. Manson, P. Onyshkeiwich.

Roslyn (10): Charlie Baillie, Bill Fell, Charlie Johnson (1), Charlie Laidley (2), Dave McDougall (5), Tony Skinner, John Swaine (2), Ross Southward, Bill Torrey.

Five Clubs For Bantam League

Up till the present time five teams have entered the bantam section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League. It is expected that at least two more clubs will come into the fold before the schedule starts. The clubs already entered include Rene Chatelois' Panthers, Phil Martin's St. Leo's nine, Gordie Fehr's Hurricanes from Westmount Junior High, Ray Baillie's Roslyn Cardinals and Charlie Baillie's Roslyn Dodgers.

The bantam schedule will start on Monday, April 29, and will continue on until the end of May.

The Panthers will be composed of most of the same players who have played for them in other years including Bob Forrest, Billy McCoubrey, Vince Roberts and others. Phil Martin's St. Leo's nine will have many of the players who lined up with the pee wee Reds, last year's titlists in that section and Ray Baillie. Gordie Fehr's Hurricanes will include Bill Pettie, L. Speigel, Jim Quarles, B. Feldstein, G. Robertson, J. Mathewson, Keith Ham, Don Bishop, John Hairex, J. Crosen and Andy Cote.

The two Roslyn teams will be managed by twin brothers, Ray and Charlie Baillie. The Cardinals managed by Ray will have on its lineup Dennis Drummond, Page Fairchild, Colin Grimson, Laurie Burpee, Allan Warnock, Cliff Bowles, Tommy Williams and Mel Reece. Charlie Baillie's Dodgers have signed up Talbot Nelles, Bill Torrey, Doug Turner, Bruce Pfeiffer, Brian Shackleton, Peter Cresswell, Tony Acer, Roy Hango and Jack Fenwick.

Phil Martin's St. Leo's nine have quite a few players on their roster including Pete Ciceri, Jim Cotter, Neil Potter, Hugh McDonald, Ted Budzen, Ross Murray, Brian Gallery, Tom Rogers, Lonnie Holland and Martin himself.

Municipal Puck Loop Finale Planned For Victoria Hall

The Westmount Municipal Hockey League will wind up its season officially this Wednesday night, April 17, at Victoria Hall. Cups, trophies and crests won during the season will be presented, and it is expected that His Worship Mayor Adams, Alderman Jacques Senecal, Commissioner of Parks, and other civic dignitaries will be in attendance. It is also expected that some of the officials from the Q.A.H.A. minor group will be on hand for the occasion.

In addition to the presentation of awards, a programme of entertainment will be offered. For the past few years the entertainment displayed at these closing have been of a high order, and it is not expected that this year's will be any different. All boys who played in the various sections of the league this year are invited to attend along with their parents. The invitation, in fact, is extended to all local youngsters, as there is plenty of room for all.

Two new trophies will be awarded this year, the "Percy R. Adams Trophy," donated by the Mayor, will go to Bert Dalzell's Royals for winning the intermediate section title, while the "Jacques Senecal Trophy" will be presented to George Mulligan's Academites for winning the bantam "B" honours.

Hank Henson's Unity Club will receive the "Johnny Hill Memorial Trophy," emblematic of the juvenile championship; Buddy Read's Golden Eagles will get the "Russ McConnell Memorial Cup" for copping the midget "A" title, while Yves Hudon's St. Leo's Orphans will get another leg on the "George C. Marler Trophy." The "Walter A. Merrill Trophy" for bantam "A" teams, will be received by Andy McGillis' St. Leo's Academy outfit. Another St. Leo's team, Louis St. James' Greys, will receive the "Westmount Rotary Club Trophy" emblematic of the league's pee wee championship.

Championship crests will be awarded to members of the Unity juveniles, Golden Eagles midget "B", St. Leo's bantam "A", Academites bantam "B," St. Leo's Grey pee wees, Roslyn Boulevards pee wees and Queen's Corvettes pee wees.

Wednesday night's programme will start sharp at eight o'clock, with the entertainment going on before the presentation.

Three Ball Teams Enter Munc. Loop

Three teams have entered the midget "A" section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League. There are also hopes that at least a similar number of clubs will enter the midget "B" group as well. The three clubs in the "A" division are Richard Lord's Tornados, Brian Tiffin's St. Leo's nine and Mike Tucker's Tigers.

There is still room for teams in either of the "A" or "B" groups and interested clubs should get in touch with Recreation Supervisor Jim McCormick at the office in the greenhouse.

The midget schedules will commence during the Easter holidays and run through till the end of May.

City Home Ornamental Plants You Can Choose

By H. TEUSCHER,
(Curator, Montreal Botanical Garden).

Outdoor gardening in the city is usually restricted to a small plot between sidewalk and house, not more than 10 or 15 ft. wide, and perhaps 25 ft. long. Elaborate landscaping of such limited space is, of course, out of consideration and, for this reason, the possibilities for ornamentation which do exist are frequently neglected. This is regrettable since a well-considered planting in front of each house will add greatly to the friendly appearance of the whole street. The frequently voiced fear that flowers planted in such an exposed spot will be stolen or destroyed by less beauty-minded neighbors is not borne out by experience. The more carefully tended is such a planting and the more attractive its appearance, the more scrupulously will it be respected by the passer-by. One of the most important points in such a scheme of beautification is the selection of suitable plants which will be discussed in the following paragraphs.

Trees

The average property owner usually wishes to plant a tree in front of his house. If such is his desire, he should first of all give thought to the exposure. If the house is facing south, a tall and heavy-leaved tree such as elm, linden or maple will provide welcome shade and will assist in keeping the house cool. However, if the house faces north this type of tree is likely to render the house too dark and dank. In this latter case, a small tree such as the handsome European Mountain Ash or a fine-leaved tree such as the canoe birch, which does not give much shade, will be greatly preferable. Poplars should be avoided in either case since their greedy roots frequently cause serious trouble with sewer and water lines.

Conifers such as fir, spruce and pine are poorly suited for city planting, since their evergreen leaves tend to accumulate soot and dust which usually results in a gradual decline in health and in early death.

Shrubs

When planting shrubs one must take into account the height they will reach once they are fully grown. Certainly, it is rather distressing to discover too late that the highbush Cranberry (Viburnum) reaches over 10 feet in height and with its branches completely obscures the living room windows. It may have to be cut down to clear the view just when it has developed its full beauty and commences to fruit heavily. Lilacs also become very tall and must never be planted in front of windows. Besides, lilacs more than all other ornamental plants, seem to hold a fatal attraction for the inveterate vandal, and, for this reason, are better not planted where they offer temptation. Low shrubs, or shrubs which can be kept low, and which are ornamental in appearance are, for instance, Berberis, Spirea van Houttei, Hydrangea paniculata, Malus Sargentii and Philadelphus virginalis. The flowering Almond (Prunus triloba), the nippon cherry (Prunus tomentosa), the flowering quince (Chaenomeles) and the shrubby cinquefoil (Potentilla fruticosa) are the dwarf shrubs which deserve to be considered and are much too rarely employed.

Among perennials, the following deserve mentioning as being exceptionally well suited for planting in front of city homes: Ox-eye (Heliopsis scabra incomparabilis), Garden Phlox (Phlox paniculata), Garden Iris (Iris germanica), Daylilies (Hemerocallis), Peonies (Paeonia), Regal Lily (Lilium regale) and Candlestick lily (Lilium umbellatum). All of these are of neat appearance, flower freely and brilliantly, live for many years, require little care and do not look unattractive even when their flowering periods are over. Phlox, Iris and Daylilies are available in many varieties which not only provide a wide choice of colors, but also flower at different periods, covering most of the summer.

Daylilies alone, if a proper choice of varieties is made, may now be had in flower from late spring until the beginning of fall, with the colors ranging from pale lemon and golden yellow over pink to red and bronze. It is also worthy of note that Daylilies shade as in full sun and do not even resent the root competition of nearby trees. All the other plants mentioned so far require a sunny position. Peonies, to be sure, provide only a comparatively short, though brilliant display, extending over the four weeks in early summer. However, their dark green foliage remains attractive and, if the clumps are planted not less than 3 feet apart, white Regal lilies and orange Candle-stick lilies which flower later, may be set out between them.

Lilies appreciate the shelter given their bulbs and their young shoots by the peony foliage, and this combination, therefore, is an extremely happy one. Tall Zinnias of the California Giant or Dahlia-flowered type may also be planted between Peonies and are very effective in such arrangement. Gladiolus may be planted between properly spaced clumps of Iris.

For an early spring display Jonquils and Daffodils may be set out in front of the other perennials. These can be considered as the easiest and longest-lived of all spring-flowering bulbs, since they can be left undisturbed for many years. Some clumps of daffodils, at the Botanical Garden which have never been touched for eight years are still getting stronger and more beautiful every year. Dwarf Chrysanthemums, such as the so-called Azaleamums, should be considered for a fall display. They flower from the middle of August until heavy frost stops them and are available in white, yellow, pink and red-flowered varieties.

Annuals

Annual summer flowers of which there is a wide choice may, of course, also be planted in front of the house if there is sufficient sun to satisfy their needs. Among those which flower profusely and over a long period and which succeed most readily may be mentioned: Petunias, Marigolds (especially such varieties as Golden Bedder, Spry and Harmony), Sweet Alyssum (Snowcloth and Violet Queen), Phlox Drummondii, Portulaca grandiflora, and Zinnia.

If the house is raised much above the street and faces either south or west, one may consider to lay out a small rock garden, although one must not forget that weeding in a rock garden is much more tedious than in an ordinary flower bed. Yet, if weeding is neglected for any length of time, the rock garden will soon be anything else but an ornament.

Shady Spot

With the house facing north or east towards the street, the plot in front will be shaded for a large part of the day. However, it is possible to have a very pleasing display of flowers even in such a rather unfavorable exposure. Some of the most satisfactory of the shale enduring or shade loving perennials are the following: Columbines (Aquilegia), Astilbes (usually called Spiraeas), Bleeding Hearts (Dicentra), Plantain Lilies (Hosta or Funkia), Blue Phlox (Phlox divaricata) and the still little known but highly desirable Creeping Phlox (Phlox stolonifera). The Astilbes as well as the two last named species of phlox must be provided with a good humus soil in order to assure success. Incorporation of a fair amount of peatmoss will render dium podagraria variegata) may be used in the most unfavorable heavy soil or even light sandy soil suitable for these plants. Lily-of-the-Valley (Convallaria) must be mentioned as succeeding even in very deep shade. Its sweetly fragrant white flowers, appearing during the later part of May, are always welcome and the fresh green leaves, remaining after the flowers are gone, form a pleasing ground cover.

TO THOSE WHO NEED MONEY... once again we say:

When you ask for a loan at the B of M...

you do not ask a FAVOUR*

WHEN the housewife calls at the grocery store and orders a supply of provisions, she is not asking a favour . . . she is buying goods for which she will pay on delivery . . . purely a matter of business.

So with your bank. It is a business proposition just as much as the grocery store.

The grocer deals in groceries . . . the banker deals in credit. And as the making of loans is one of the principal ways by which his bank derives its revenue, he is as anxious to sell his credit as the grocer is to sell his groceries. And like the grocer, the banker naturally wants to know that he is going to be paid for his goods . . . that his loans will be met when they fall due. That, too, is only good business.

When you have occasion to ask for a loan, look at it this way. Come to the Bank, not feeling that you have to ask a favour, but to offer the manager a sound business proposition which will be of profit both to you and to his institution.

BANK OF MONTREAL

"MY BANK" TO A MILLION CANADIANS

*We published this message last July; we published it again in September . . . and we believe it bears repeating.

On each previous occasion the reponse from people in all walks of life was widespread, and tens of thousands of private citizens, farmers, fishermen, lumbermen, merchants and business concerns alike have since proved for themselves by actual experience the sincerity of this advertisement.

For personal purposes alone, well over 10,000 people are borrowing each month at B of M branches from coast to coast.
