HYDE IS ELECTED BY HUGE PLURALITY

SUNNYSIDE PARK OPENED; COUNCIL MAY MODERNIZE COLLECTION OF GARBAGE

Park Lamps and Benches Installed in Area Extending From Lookout to Sunnyside Avenue — Winding Path Leads to Lookout — New Garbage Collection By-law Planned

The steeply inclined area of land that extends from Westmount Lookout to Sunnyside avenue has been officially opened to the public as a municipal park, it was announced at a regular meeting of the City Council, Monday night.

Park lights and benches have been placed at numerous points and a winding path, well illuminated, leads from the Lookout to Sunnyside avenue. The stretch of ground will, for the most part, be left in its natural state although suitable shrubbery has been planted.

No swings, sand-boxes, or other playground apparatus are to be installed as it is felt that they would impair the natural beauty of the site.

The land has been the property of the city since 1898 when it was purchased for use as a park. However little work was done to achieve this end until this summer when the Parks Department was instructed to proceed with the project.

It was also announced at the meeting of the Council that steps will shortly be taken to modernize the City's garbage collecting system and a by-law to this effect will probably receive first reading at the session next Monday.

Submitted to the Council were new regulations drafted by the road and health departments. Second reading of the new by-law designed to give the City strict supervision over the operation of laundries located within the boundaries of the municipality, was postponed until next meeting.

Mayor Walter A. Merrill, K.C., occupied the chair.

Meeting Held By Girls Hi-Y Club

The second meeting in the new season of the Girls' Hi-Y Club of Westmount High School was held last Thursday. It was open to the girls from the third form, who wished to attend a meeting before joining the club. Ken Murray, advisor of the Boys' Hi-Y and physical instructor at Westmount High, addressed the girls on the history and aims of the Hi-Y movement.

An outline of possible activities for the new season was presented to each girl, who indicated the items in which she was most interested. Among the suggestions were social service work in local settlements, discussion groups on various subjects, and several types of Red Cross work.

The president, Elaine Seger, adjourned the meeting with the hope that a huge membership would be enrolled from the new third forms.

PLAN PARTY

The graduating class of St. Paul's Academy is entertaining at a Halloween party on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Brenda MacDonald, Prince Albert avenue.

Westmount Rotary Club Marks 9th Anniversary

The ninth anniversary of the Westmount Rotary Club was celebrated at the regular weekly luncheon meeting in Victoria Hall with William Harrison, immediate past president of the Montreal Rotary Club as the guest speaker. A large birthday cake, marking the occasion, was cut by John Hand, first president of the Westmount Club.

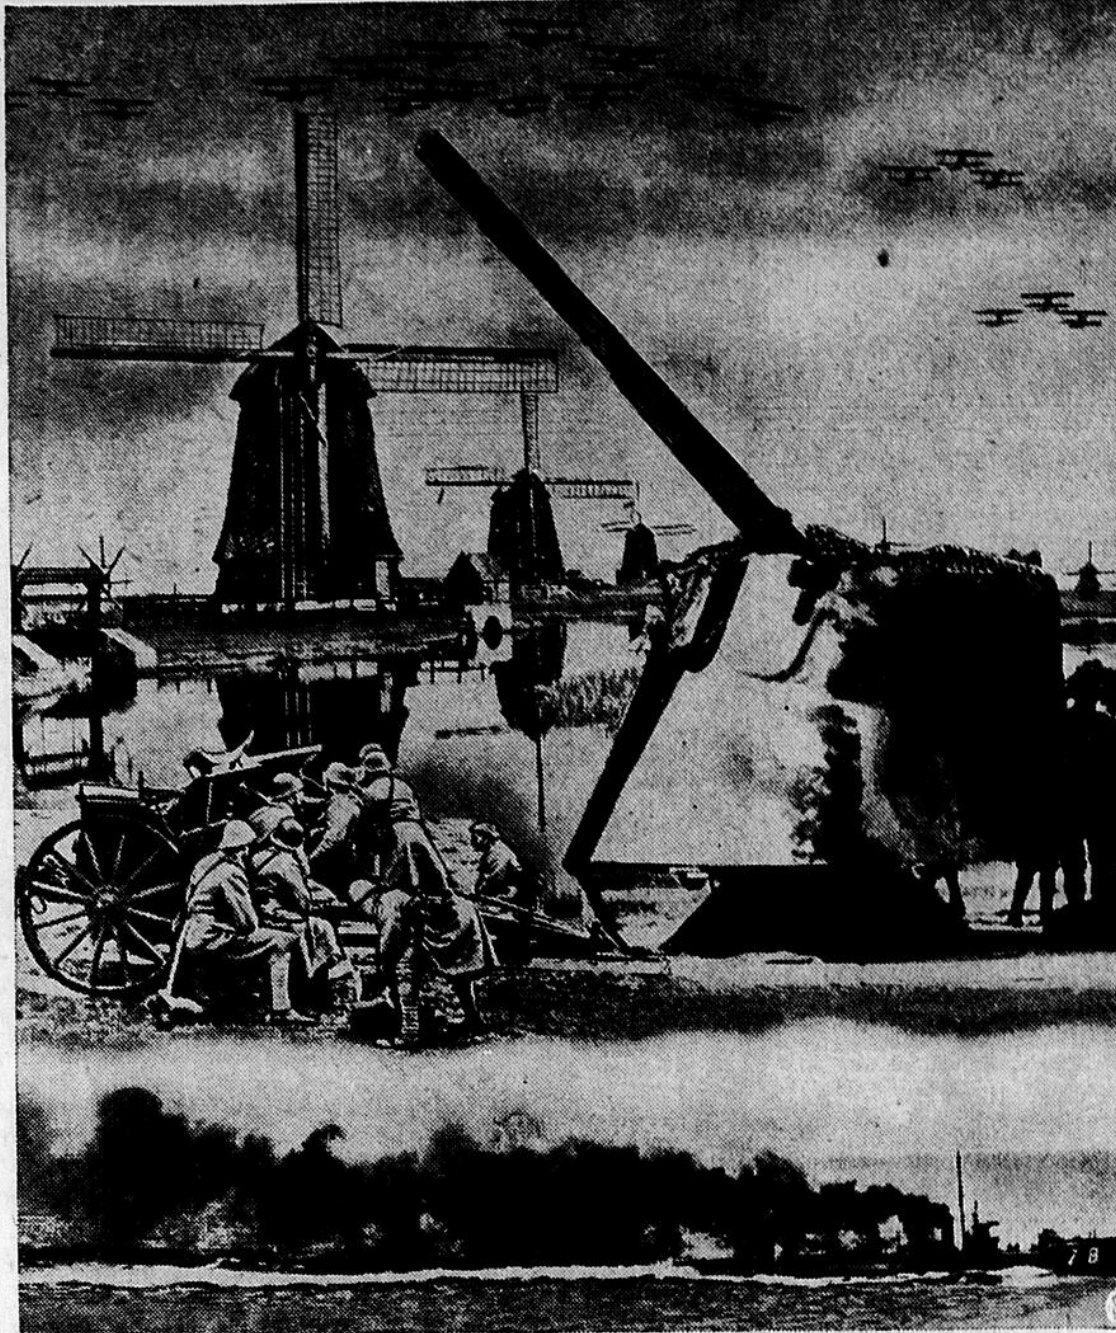

In his address Mr. Harrison congratulated the club on the great amount of community service it had accomplished since its inception. He cited the annual carnivals held in aid of the Montreal Children's Hospital which have netted a total of $80,000; Weredale Camp maintained by the club at Lac l'Achigan for the boys of Weredale House; the free membership to the Y.M.C.A. given to needy boys; the part the club plays in the Province of Quebec Crippled Children's tag day and the Christmas parties held for needy families.

The speaker also referred to the club's supervision of recreational activities here prior to the appointment of a municipal recreation director by the city. Mr. Harrison, who had as his subject "Rotary in the World of Tomorrow," stated, however, that while Westmount Rotarians had much to be proud of regarding their past accomplishments, the real success of the club depends on its future activities. Rotary must strive in every way to abolish the evils that exist in the world today, he said.

Rotary's four great objectives: fellowship, development, vocational service, community service and international service, must be brought closer to their goal, he declared. The expanding influence of Rotary and other service clubs is being felt throughout the world, and much good is being accomplished, he declared.

The president, J. deLalonde, occupied the chair.

HOLLAND PREPARES ITS DEFENCES

A panorama of Dutch defence — war planes reputedly equal in quality though not of course in quantity to those of any major power; canals that can be blasted to spread their waters in the path of invaders; adequate anti-aircraft weapons at strategic points; a small but powerful army; a navy that features swift destroyers patrolling the coast line.

BOYS BRIGADE BAND IS BEING MADE LARGER

First Westmount Company Reports Greatly Increased Membership This Season

Due to a marked increase in membership this season the First Westmount Company of the Boys Brigade is greatly increasing the size of its band. Formation of a bugle section was commenced last week. Boys who have made application for instruments will be given a try-out within the next fortnight. John Johnston is instructor of the bugle section.

Special awards will be presented to the following boys who took part in the membership campaign tomorrow night: Privates Tom Hannah, Duncan Jones, Sinclair Dixon and Allan Dibble, will receive cycle pennants while Privates Jim Wilson, Willy Dryden, Bryan Pearce, Derek Ramsay, Roy Howard, and Gordon Kearns will be awarded cap crests.

Enrolment Service

Company enrolment service will take place on Sunday, November 5th on which occasion new boys will officially be enrolled and the re-enrolment of all old boys and officers, will follow. One or two promotions are scheduled to take place at this time as the company's rapid growth necessitates additional leadership.

The company's Bible Class, meeting each Sunday in Melville Hall has shown steady increase and the N.C.O.'s are to be commended for the part they are taking in conducting the opening service. The Company is pleased to announce a change in the meeting night for Life Boys, the junior section, to Fridays. Boys under twelve years will be welcome at the hall between 7 o'clock and 8.30. An active program under the leadership of Ross Way and Herb Wilson awaits them.

TO PREACH SUNDAY

This Saturday morning the pulpit of Congregation Shaar Hashomayim will be occupied by Rabbi S. Gershon Levi.

Horses to Play Small Part Here in Snow Removal

Westmount Will Use Mechanical Equipment Almost Exclusively During Winter — New Snow Loader Has Been Purchased — Eleven Tractors Form Large Fleet

Mechanized equipment has almost completely replaced horses for snow removal work in Westmount and within a few years they will probably not be used even during the heaviest snowfall, it was learned at the City Hall this week.

By the time snow really sets in this year Westmount will be able to combat storms with eleven sidewalk tractors, three automatic snow loaders which will feed the snow into as many chartered trucks as are required, and some half-dozen municipally-operated trucks equipped with snow-plows and mechanical sand spreaders.

Within recent years tractors have been used almost exclusively for the clearances of sidewalks, their greater speed giving them great superiority over the old horse-drawn plow. Last winter horses were used in but one or two sections where closely-separated poles would have hindered the speed of tractors.

The principal purpose to which horses were put was the drawing of sleighs used in the sanding of sidewalks. The horses being able to pull the sleigh practically unattended while its driver and a helper spread sand on opposite sides of the street.

Dobbin was also used to a certain extent pulling snow scoops that transported their load over very short distances and required constant dumping.

In running up this remarkable score nine members of the team scored the possible 100, eleven dropped a single point for 99's seven made 98 each. ### Automobiles Damaged In Collision Monday

An automobile driven by Corey Thompson, 3219A The Boulevard, noted radio announcer, was slightly damaged when it was involved in a collision with a car driven by Andrew Grant, of 5281 Ponsard avenue, in front of Thompson's home at 9.15 o'clock Monday morning.

The accident occurred as Thompson, who was proceeding west on The Boulevard, attempted to turn into the garage driveway adjoining his house, situated on the north side of the street. When Thompson slowed his machine down to make the turn Grant's car, following in the rear, collided with it.

LIBERAL CANDIDATE IN WESTMOUNT - ST. GEORGE RECEIVES 5,335 VOTES

Unofficial Count Places Him Ahead of Layton by 4,091 — Charles Petrie, N.U., Gets 431 — Westmount Votes Liberal for First Time in 40 Years — Residents Went to Polls in Record Numbers

G. Gordon Hyde, K.C., Liberal Party candidate, was elected to represent Westmount-St. George constituents in the Provincial Legislature yesterday by a plurality of 3,660 votes, according to an unofficial count last night. He polled a total of approximately 5,335 votes, Hon. Gilbert Layton, Minister Without Portfolio, who retired from the Duplessis Government, polled 1,244 votes, while Charles Petrie, National Union candidate, was supported by 431 electors.

In the Westmount section of the riding, excluding St. George, Hyde polled 3,274 votes; Layton 728; and Petrie 214.

The Westmount electorate voted in favor of a Liberal candidate for the first time in 40 years. With no Conservative in the running they had to choose between a Liberal, Independent, and National Union man. In the light of current issues they went to the polls in favor of the former.

Westmount residents, realizing the importance of the issue, went to the polls in record numbers. Generally feeling that they faced the larger issue of Canadian unity against the forces of disunity and disloyalty, they submerged all party considerations and voted for the candidate they thought best able to put their wishes into effect.

Poll by poll results in the Westmount section of the riding are as follows:

- POLL No. 1 (680 Victoria Avenue) Layton 11; Hyde 105; Petrie 6.
- POLL No. 2 (680 Victoria Avenue) Layton 18; Hyde 133; Petrie 6.
- POLL No. 3 (Roslyn School) Layton 17; Hyde 120; Petrie 6.
- POLL No. 4 (Roslyn School) Layton 24; Hyde 124; Petrie 7.
- POLL No. 5 (536 Mt. Pleasant Avenue) Layton 14; Hyde 150; Petrie 4.
- POLL No. 6 (Roslyn School) Layton 16; Hyde 138; Petrie 2.
- POLL No. 7 (St. Matthias Church) Layton 14; Hyde 110; Petrie 5.
- POLL No. 8 (St. Matthias Church) Layton 12; Hyde 134; Petrie 3.
- POLL No. 9 (528 Mt. Pleasant Avenue) Layton 15; Hyde 137; Petrie 4.
- POLL No. 10 (400 Claremont Avenue) Layton 23; Hyde 105; Petrie 3.

Says Tragedy Of Poland Is Beyond Comprehension

A lady who has flown over 30,000 miles a year for the past several years, and who has travelled more than 1,000,000 miles in the interests of oppressed minorities will address the Friday evening services at Temple Emanu-El this week.

She is Mrs. Archibald Silverman of Providence, Rhode Island, who is in town this week after a flight from Mexico in the interests of the Hebrew University at Jerusalem—the only university in the world teaching purely secular subjects in Hebrew. The University's corner stone was laid in 1920, while the sound of canon still echoed over its site.

Mrs. Silverman was in Danzig two weeks prior to outbreak of hostilities, after an extensive tour of Poland where she studied minority problems. "You will never fully know the tragedy of Poland," she told this reporter. "The country was filled with poor refugees from surrounding states—and when the German invasion occurred these persecuted souls were in many cases stood up against stone walls and shot. It was claimed that the German army could not afford to feed them."

Mrs. Silverman is internationally known as a worker on behalf of oppressed minorities of all races and creeds, and is the organizer of the Rhode Island Committee for the Relief of Oppressed Minorities. She makes her home in Providence—but is seldom there. However, she hopes to be able to take a year off in the near future and become acquainted with her family!

BABE SEIBERT BENEFIT

Sunday night at the Forum the Canadiens professional hockey club team will meet a team of professional all-stars in a match for the benefit of the family of the late Babe Seibert. The all-stars will include top ranking players, and will be managed by Art Ross. The match is attracting wide attention, not only because of the purpose for which it is being staged, but because local fans will be able to get a line of the team that will represent the Canadiens (Seibert's old team) in the coming campaign. The Babe was one of the most popular players ever to don the steel blades here, and his tragic drowning last summer cast gloom over the entire sporting world. The Babe made his home in Notre Dame de Grace, and was a familiar figure around local softball diamonds during the summer months. It is expected that a capacity crowd will turn out to pay tribute to his memory.

OVER THE TOP

Once again workers in the annual Federated Charities campaign have gone "over the top," and this city has maintained its reputation as being one of the most generous in the world when appeals to its charity are made. The objective was a huge one—three quarters of a million dollars — and its attainment is no small achievement, even for Montreal. The effectiveness and efficiency of the federated system of charity is now well known, and workers can devote most of their time to selling the idea of larger contributions, rather than of explaining and defending the federated system. Montreal has again shown its deep concern for those in want in the most practical way — with dollars.

NOT TOO FAST WITH PRICES

Rises in prices or rumors of rises have become a familiar story to any woman who is doing much family shopping these days. Actually the rumors are more numerous than the rises, and it is interesting to note that the index for retail foods in the United States showed a slight decline for the week ended October 10, though still well above the prices before the war in Europe.

If the war continues to be fought cautiously it may be a long time before any sharp effects are felt in demands in markets. Hence, while gradual increases may be normal in some commodities, apart from the war, there is concern among some economists lest industry go too far in piling up stocks of goods against a demand which may not develop as rapidly as expected. Even in wool, which may be accounted a war commodity, a manufacturer's spokesman testified the other day in a tariff hearing that stoppage of British peace-time orders has turned back a considerable volume of woollen textiles on American markets.

LEADING THE FIRST BRIGADE

Appointment of Lieut.-Col. Armand A. Smith, M.C., of Winona, to command of the First Infantry Brigade of Canada's first overseas division, is interesting in view of the recent proclamation by Ottawa that merit, not influence, is to decide promotions and appointments.

Inasmuch as Col. Smith is a brother-in-law of Attorney-General Conant, some might be inclined to the hasty conclusion that this relationship might have had something to do with his selection. It would be erroneous so to think, however. Col. Smith comes of a staunch Conservative family, his father, Hon. Ernest Disraeli Smith, being one of the oldest members of the Senate, both as to age and service. Now in his 85th year, Senator Smith was a Tory member of the House of Commons from 1900 until the election of 1908. He was one of Sir Robert Borden's lieutenants in the reciprocity campaign of 1911, and was made a senator in 1913. Even though his sister is the wife of a Liberal attorney-general, Col. Smith is a Conservative. His appointment is based upon merit. His four years' service as an infantry officer in the First Great War, and his winning of the Military Cross in 1918, speak for themselves. He voluntarily reduced his rank in the First Great War so as to get into action. He was the acting officer commanding the 161st Battalion when the Fifth Division was broken up to provide reinforcements for the other four. Incidentally, he is relinquishing an important business position to accept his appointment, being vice-president and general manager of the E. D. Smith and Sons, Ltd., fruit growers and shippers.

A SUCCESSFUL APPEAL

According to reports, the tag day on behalf of the School for Handicapped Children last Saturday was an outstanding success, particularly the results in this district. And the success was achieved in spite of the fact that rain in mid-afternoon forced a suspension of activities for the balance of the day. The school authorities were particularly pleased with the conscientious work of the children. The cause is a worthy one, and general satisfaction will be expressed with the results of the appeal.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

And finally, a vital factor in the permanence of the recovery is the restoration of equitable trading relations between the various segments of the economic system. There is ready recognition of the claim that the employing corporations shall pay the wage-workers a fair share of the value of the joint product, but there should be recognition also of the need for fair exchange relations between agriculture, transportation and the numerous branches of industry in which labor is employed. In the large sense the workers of all industries are supplying each other with the necessities and comforts they want for their homes. The workers, themselves, are the largest consumers, and "prosperity," including employment, depends upon right relations between them.—From Bulletin of National City Bank of New York City.

Cleveland, Ohio, is to have three more government housing projects costing $10,170,000 and to house 1,804 families at an average rental of $4.25 a room, thus making apartments available to those in lower income brackets than the three projects completed and occupied but with few of the tenants of the former slums.

64 Students ...

W. Lee O'Daniel who won the primary election for Governor caused a political revolution in Texas. His platform is the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule, with common sense and the application of business methods to government.

Several of the candidates were seasoned politicians, men who had never known a major defeat. All were for social security. Some, including O'Daniel, favored paying a generous pension to all persons over sixty-five, irrespective of need. He violated every sacred political tradition.

"Bureaucracy" linguistically a mixture of a French and a Greek word—literally means "the government of the desk."

Said National Youth Act Administrator Aubrey Williams about the decentralization policy of the Life Camps: "At a time when the youth of many countries are being hoodwinked into easy regimentation, our tasks here in America is to turn youth away from marching columns and uniforms into pursuits where intelligent self-reliance and independent thinking are taught. I regard the opportunity for thoughtful discussion offered by small-group camping as one of the most effective ways of accomplishing this end."

Rt. Rev. Edward Rodhe, bishop of Lund, Sweden in his farewell address after his second trip to America said: "Europeans have always looked to America for fresh, youthful courage. You are not so sure of yourselves now. Uneasiness in the minds of some has become fear in the minds of others. Not only do Americans fear the future. They fear themselves."

Architects of world reputation are invited to submit plans for the erection of an up-to-date college of medicine at Ankara. A sum of $6,800,000 has been provided for the buildings. As was demonstrated by the census taken in 1935, that the school has been in existence. He stressed the point that students were given individual consideration.

In order to accomplish the school's aims it is necessary to discover the abilities and interests of the pupils and to develop them, he said. Although working against tradition had its handicaps he expressed confidence that Argyle was developing into a real and unified junior high school.

Health Exhibition

One of the outstanding projects undertaken during the year was health exhibition held in April, he continued. It was conducted with the co-operation of the municipal health department and proved interesting and useful. "One of the most fruitful phases of our school life" was the work of guidance under the tutorship of K. H. Murray. Mr. Brunt said. The library continued to be one of the busiest sections of the school.

Making special note of staff changes the principal declared that Miss Florence Cousins had retired and that two former teachers had been appointed to principalship in other schools. A number of younger members of the staff are presently serving in the militia or have joined the McGill C.O.T.C.

Pointing out the service that education can render in a continuously changing world, H. G. Hatcher, Superintendent of Schools, Lachine, addressed the graduating students.

Rev. W. Orr Mulligan, bishop of Lund, Sweden in his farewell address after his second trip to America said: "Europeans have always looked to America for fresh, youthful courage. You are not so sure of yourselves now. Uneasiness in the minds of some has become fear in the minds of others. Not only do Americans fear the future. They fear themselves."

FIRST MEETING HELD TUESDAY BY GIRLS' CLUB

Mona Piper Was Elected President of Hi-Y Grads Group for Current Term

The first meeting of the Girls' Hi-Y Grads took place on Tuesday in the form of a supper meeting at the Westmount "Y." The chairman of the meeting was Miss Eleanor Laing, who was president of the Grads last year. Business was discussed first of all, and it is probable that the group will do Red Cross work; this will not mean war work, but helping underprivileged children in the community. It was decided to take on the work of giving the soldiers, especially those from out of town, some kind of entertainment on different Saturday nights.

The chairman moved that the new executive be composed of a president, secretary and treasurer from the immediate graduating year and that the vice president be a member of the other year, for the time being.

The results of the nominations and voting were: president, Mona Piper; vice president, Janet Kingsland; Secretary, Marjorie Owens; treasurer, Olive-Jean Smith.

The club decided to meet every two weeks in the "Y" and all members who intend to come to the next meeting on Nov. 7 should phone WA. 2526.

An interesting function will be held in the Church Hall on Friday, Nov. 10th, when the celebrated Negro choir, the Wooding Southern Singers composed of twenty-four young men and women from the Southern States, will render a program of spiritual and plantation melodies, similar to those they have been singing for two weeks at the World's Fair in New York.

PROFESSIONAL MEN TO PREACH SERMONS HERE

Novel Experiment Being Tried at Evening Services at St. Andrew's Church

A novel experiment is being tried at the evening services in St. Andrew's Church, when certain young professional men in the congregation will be given the opportunity to preach. Some months ago six young men were approached by the minister, Rev. F. W. Kerr, who asked them to put into a single sermon the message they would like to deliver if they could preach just once.

The same idea was carried out in England when men like Sir Philip Gibbs, Bertrand Russell, John Drinkwater, Lord Hugh Cecil and others delivered each one sermon. These were later published in a book. The speaker on Sunday evening will be Mr. John McDonald, assistant-minister at Erskine and American Church. He will interpret the youth movements of today, and the general attitude of young men to morals and religion.

Other young men taking part are Cuthbert Gifford, secretary of McGill Student Christian Movement, Mr. Ted Piper, Mr. Alfred Piek, Dr. Preston Robb, and Mr. Colin R. Rudd. The young folks in attendance will gather for a social time and for discussion at a Youth Forum after the Evening service.

announced to the club that Gordon Hendry, the club's president, had been elected to the office of president of the grand chapter of the Hi-Y Clubs of Montreal.

RIGHT NOW!

JUICY, perfectly-ripened Canadian apples are in... fresh from Canada's finest orchards! Plenty of them, too—those that normally would be exported overseas, as well as our own usual, generous supply. And—thanks to the higher minimum grade requirements—there are greater-than-average quantities of the finer, fancier, higher-grade eating apples.

So, all through this year's apple season, order liberal quantities of Canadian apples... for eating, cooking, entertaining... and for jellifying and preserving. You'll enjoy them immensely—and you'll be doing your country a SERVICE at the same time.

And remember, Canadian apples are Government Graded. Ask to see the grade-mark on the container when you buy!

Mrs. Hughes, mother of the bride, wore a frock of frozen violet wool crepe, black accessories and a corsage bouquet of baby mums. The bridegroom's parents, who are in England, were unable to be present at the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Elm avenue, where bronze caryatid columns and oak leaves were used to decorate the rooms.

The couple are spending their honeymoon at Wolfe Lake. For travelling the bride wore her wedding costume under a beige coat trimmed with beaver.

They will reside in Montreal. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. James Geggie, grandmother of the bridegroom, of Beauport, Que., and her daughter, Miss Elsa Geggie; Mr. and Mrs. Edouard Hamel, of Quebec, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Chaplin, of Abbotsford, Que.

THE WAY TO A MAN'S HEART

Proper Table Decorations Make Hallowe'en Party a 'Spirited' One

Amusing to look at but wonderful to eat — a special pressed veal loaf with Jack O'Lantern Eggs for the Hallowe'en Party.

Lots of eats but no frills. That's the best suggestion for the Hallowe'en supper. Make your decorations yellow, black, and "spooky". But don't use your fine linen. Paper napkins and runners are more appropriate for this kind of party. Apples must be on the table. So should doughnuts and a bowl of nuts. Sandwiches and coffee are essentials, too.

A baked ham to be sliced as wanted, sandwich mixtures in bowls to be spread on large, buttered slices of bread, and a pitcher of cider are other suggestions. Special cakes and cookies add to the informal bounty of this witches' party. A gay-looking meat loaf could appear at the party, too. Especially if you have plenty of men who like plenty to eat.

Pressed Veal Loaf with Jack O'Lantern Eggs

(Serves 6 to 8)

LOAF: 1 package salad gelatin (aspic), 1 1/4 cups boiling water, 1/4 teaspoon salt, few grains pepper, few drops onion juice, 3 cups cooked veal, chopped or finely ground.

Dissolve salad gelatin in boiling mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold on platter and garnish with Jack O'Lantern eggs.

JACK O'LANTERN EGGS: Cut 5 hard-cooked eggs in half length-wise.

Take out yolks and mix with mayonnaise and seasonings desired. Make them rather spicy. Refill whites, spreading yellow mixture to edge.

Make faces with pieces of pimiento and insert parsley stem in top.

One cup shortening, 2 cups brown sugar, 1 egg, beaten, 2 tablespoons cinnamon, 3 cups flour.

Cream shortening and add sugar, slowly, stirring constantly until mixture is smooth; add beaten egg and cinnamon. Add flour gradually, roll out and cut with round cookie cutter.

Place on baking sheet. Decorate with raisin eyes, almond nose and cherry mouth. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 7 minutes.

DINNER: Creamed codfish with eggs, parsley potatoes, Brussels sprouts, cornbread, compote of fresh fruits, Hallowe'en cookies, coffee, milk.

water. Add salt, pepper and onion juice. Pack veal into lightly-buttered loaf pan. Pour on dissolved gelatin

THE DRAMA COMES TO TOWN!

Montreal's season of professional theatre — which generally dies soon after its birth — reached second base last Monday night when Messrs. Maurice Colbourne and Barry Jones unveiled their stage portrait of "Charles, the King." His Highness was in good company for many of the village's top hats and ermine wraps were conspicuous by their presence; and the usual nonsensical chatter of social climbers was well in evidence at intermission and before the play. A few lovers of good theatre had seats in the balcony.

Mr. Colbourne's efforts — the production, script, direction and headaches are all his — deserves more than the brief space available here. The honored gentleman took upon himself a gigantic task in recreating for modern theatre-goers the story of an English king who lost his head — but it is to his undying credit that Mr. Colbourne did no half-hearted job. The result is at least provocative, if not entirely good theatre.

Mr. Colbourne has done in thirteen scenes what Charles did in twelve years — but whether you like his portrait of the king will depend on your personal bias or view. The Charles of Colbourne is a sympathetic chap, filled with self-pity, fighting a gallant fight for the woe of England — and himself. His Cromwell is unorthodox, to say the least, and unlike the Cromwells of other dramatists — but Mr. Colbourne's Cromwell springs from intense research, and it may be that the real Lord Protector is only now coming to light.

Lloyd McLan, cast as the right-hand man of a dictator, finds lovely Patricia Morison an explosive armful when he tries to win her in the course of the daring new Paramount drama, "The Magnificent Fraud," which opens on Sunday at the Monklund United Theatre for a three day engagement. Akim Tamiroff and Mary Boland are also featured, in the picture.

Perfect Story Brings
Bergner Back to Films

All sorts of ingenious explanations have been offered as to why Elisabeth Bergner has been away from films for so many months. The incomparable one explains it simply, thus: "Only because I have been unable to find a suitable story."

But "Stolen Life," the English hit picture now playing at the York United Theatre and opening Sunday at the Westmount United Theatre, has solved Miss Bergner's problem. Margaret Kennedy, who scripted the sensational success "Escape Me Never," in which La Bergner won the hearts of millions, has adapted K. Benes' best-selling novel.

WINS NEW LAURELS AS "MR. CHIPS"

Fresh from his triumph in "The Citadel," Robert Donat brings another unforgettable characterization to the screen as the lovable and heroic schoolmaster, "Chips," in the filmization of James Hilton's celebrated novel, "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," which is the special attraction at the York United Theatre starting Saturday. Donat's new portrayal has been hailed by both critics and public as the finest piece of acting seen on the screen in recent years.

Every Actor Has His Own
Trick Of Learning Lines

A play is something like a game of football, according to Walter Pidgeon. Just as a football team cannot succeed unless every player knows the signals perfectly, so the lines of dialogue govern the success of play or picture.

This is why the actor, who plays Tyler Plagg, lawyer hero in "Stronger Than Desire," opening Sunday at the Snowdon United Theatre not only learns his own lines but the lines of every player in his pictures. It gives him perfect coordination, he declares, and makes remembering the lines practically automatic.

defense of Ann Dvorak, accused of murder. Leslie Fenton directed, with a cast that includes Lee Bowman, Ilka Chase, Rita Johnson, Richard Lane, Ann Todd, Paul Stanton and Ferika Boros.

Pidgeon, who has risen to outstanding popularity in his latest pictures, was a Broadway star before coming to the screen. He had planned a business career, then the World War started and he enlisted with the Canadian forces. He began entertaining in shows at the front and after the war went into an Elsie Janis revue in London. He returned to the United States,

Walter Pidgeon, Ann Todd, Virginia Bruce in "Stronger Than Desire."

"I like to do this because the character is more important than the lines and must have first attention," says Pidgeon. "The actor to be successful must know his character inwardly—how the character thinks and reacts to happenings in the play. This means a close study of people. If I play a newspaperman I talk to newspapermen. To try to play a character without knowing it would be simply walking and talking, not acting."

Pidgeon plays opposite Virginia Bruce for the second time in the New York society melodrama in which he stages a dramatic court tried working in a broker's office, but returned to the stage, then to pictures.

Though he sang in musical comedy in several stage engagements he does not desire to do any singing on the screen. He loves Hollywood, which he calls a "mad town but alive," because every day in the hectic activity of picture-making provides new adventure. He loves adventure and some day hopes to take a small boat with four companions and sail across the Pacific. He has already travelled all over Europe with the exception of Spain and Scandinavia.

Mack Announces Plans
For Plant Extension

Due to the enormous growth in the production and sales of Pepsi-Cola within the last year, a growth which has severely taxed the facilities of Pepsi-Cola's huge plant on the East River, in Long Island City, Queens, plans have been approved for an 150 foot extension to the bottling department of the plant, Walter S. Mack, Jr. has announced.

The firm of Harrison and Foulhoux, architects, of 45 Rockefeller Plaza, Manhattan, drew the plans for the extension of the existing plant, Mr. Mack said, and building operations are scheduled to begin not later than November 1. The cost of the construction was not made public by the company.

"Pepsi-Cola sales for the first eight months this year, and in the United States alone," said Mr. Mack, "are a fraction less than forty-four per cent ahead of last year, and this really remarkable increase has more than taxed to capacity the production potentialities of our East River bottling plant, already termed the 'largest soft drink bottling plant in the world.'"

"There have been days this summer," Mr. Mack went on, "when we shipped out in excess of 1,776,000 bottles of Pepsi-Cola, and we are now making efforts to gear up our production to more than 100,000 cases in a single day."

Irving Laing's
Orchestra In Battle Of Music

Practically all prominent band leaders in Montreal have thrown their hats into the ring to battle to a finish to determine which band shall wear the crown of Montreal's most popular orchestra.

The first band leader to issue the challenge against Irving Laing's orchestra is Maurice Meerte. He has a fine organization and can dish out plenty of swing. On the sweeter side he has excellent selections in his repertoire. The decision will rest entirely with the public. They will be the judges and the voting will be done by ballot.

These contests should be of interest to everyone. The first engagement will take place at the new auditorium ballroom on Saturday Nov. 4. Both orchestras will be in attendance and there will be dancing all night long.

McGILL TAKE ON WESTERN HERE THIS SATURDAY

COLLEGE BOYS WILL BE OUT TO DEFEAT STARRY WESTERN SQUAD IN IMPORTANT GAME

Defeat for McGill Fatal to Chances — Westmount Play At Sarnia — Royals Will Try for Win at Hamilton — Bill Storen Has Classy Squad of Kickers — Westmounts on Top O.R.F.U.

McGill is in the spotlight of this week's local football scene as the Redmen return home to get another chance to harness the untamed Mustangs of Western University. Coach Clarry Foran takes his undefeated Westies to Sarnia and Montreal's third senior squad, the hapless Royals, carry their hunt for their initial victory to Hamilton. The three leagues find the same opponents matched together as last week but the turn-about in home-grounds should afford considerable variety.

It's do or die for the title hopes of old McGill on Saturday. If the Redmen get swept away by Western's aerial attack again this week they can consider themselves as ex-champions of the Intercollegiate loop. Last week everything was in control during the first half of the game at London but the second half saw the Mustangs sprout wings and soar to a one-sided victory. All Coach Kerr has to do is drill his charges in an effective aerial blockade and perhaps then the undefeated Mustangs will bite the dust.

Backfield Stars

Coach Bill Storen has more than a normal share of star backfielders for any one team. He has three kickers if the going gets really tough. They are Krol, Kennedy, and Thompson. It's always a toss-up for the honor of flinging forwards as Krol, Hilton Faust, and Hurley can throw the pigskin as it should be thrown. Szamliński, another half, seems to get around a bit as he is the leading scorer in the college circle. However McGill's elusive runner, Bob Keefe doesn't take a back seat to anyone and the Red front line boasts great power.

On Top

Westmount sits safely on top of the O.R.F.U. with a lead of three points and seems assured of a play-off with the winner of the Big Four. Certainly if the Foran Legion continues its powerful brand of play they can repeat their previous victories over their league opponents. Burns, Ferraro, Riddell and Mullins packed too much punch for Sarnia last week in the mud and should be able to match anything the Imps dish out in their own backyard.

The Royals will be out to avenge the last-minute loss they suffered here last week against Hamilton. It was hard to take for Ted Reeve's winless gridders when the

MANY SERVICES RENDERED BY ASSOCIATION

Brigadier Foster, D.S.O., Comments on Service Rendered by Y.M.C.A. In Wartime

Conversations have been held in Ottawa between Brigadier Foster, D.S.O., Director of Auxiliary Services for the Department of National Defence, and representatives of the National Council of the Young Men's Christian Association in Canada. The purpose of discussion was to determine specific services which the Y.M.C.A. could render most effectively to men of the Canadian Active Service Force.

The representatives were R. S. Hosking, General Secretary of the National Council of Y.M.C.A.'s J. W. Beaton, General Secretary of the Metropolitan Board of the Montreal Y.M.C.A., William R. Cook, Secretary of the Young Men's Committee of the National Council, and E. J. Jenkins, General Secretary of the Ottawa Y.M.C.A.

Brigadier Foster announced that the Y.M.C.A. will be recognized officially by the Government as one of the national civilian agencies for auxiliary services, retaining autonomy within its own organization. He emphasized his statement (made in a previous informal conversation in Toronto) that the Y.M.C.A. will be needed more in the present struggle than ever before, and outlined some of the general activities which the Department of National Defence will look to the Y.M.C.A. in Canada to provide.

Activities

These activities include, in camps and barracks, the operation of recreation huts with reading, writing and social facilities, entertainment including the cinema, the organization and promotion of sports and athletics, educational activities both cultural and religious, and the operation of canteens if required. In cities where troops are quartered, the continuance is suggested of recreational and social facilities in local Y.M.C.A. buildings, such as have already been furnished from coast to coast by the Y. The Young Men's Christian Association will be looked to also to organize such services on advice of the Department as new camps are opened.

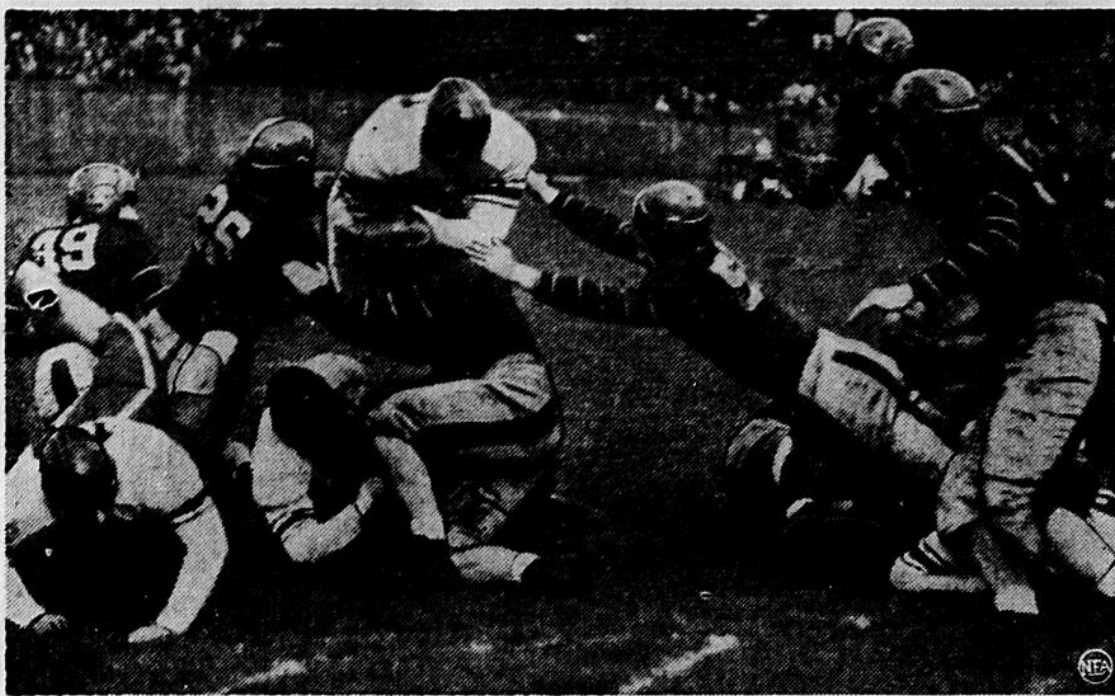

Brigadier Foster notified the representatives of the Y.M.C.A. that civilian services will be under the jurisdiction and supervision of Officers Commanding Military Districts where services are operated assisted by Deputy Directors of Auxiliary Services whose appointments to all Military Districts will be completed in a few days. They were informed that Auxiliary Services is a Military Establishment under the Adjutant-General, unifying such services for land, air, and naval forces, and available for advice and co-operation to all civilian agencies recognized for operating services. The Director and his Deputies also will initiate contacts with such agencies. Auxiliary Services functions as a clearing house for the prevention of wasteful competition, unnecessary overlapping, and possible "underlapping" among recognized civilian agencies working with men of His Majesty's Canadian Active Service Forces.

Important Services

Brigadier Foster was handed a communication from Canada's High Commissioner in London, the Honourable Vincent Massey, which had been received by the National Council of Y.M.C.A.'s of Canada. Mr. Massey cited the "very remarkable and all-important service which was rendered by the Y.M.C.A. of Canada on behalf of the Canadian Expeditionary Force in the last war", and requested information regarding the plans of the Y.M.C.A. for work overseas.

It is too early, the Brigadier said, to announce plans for Auxiliary Services overseas. He was definite, however, in saying that

LOCAL SQUADS LOSE 2 GAMES BY DEFAULT

Senior A Team Forfeits Match to Verdun — B Squad Also Unfortunate

Because of a ruling forbidding junior players from playing in senior company the game between Westmount and Verdun in a senior A fixture on September 29 in which the local squad chalked up a score of 17-11 in its favor, has been awarded to Verdun by default, it was announced this week by J. D. Dawley, secretary of the Protestant Schools Football League.

The decision means that the Purple and White boys dropped, at the time, from second to third place in the league standing. Announcement has also been made that the Westmount senior B team has had to forfeit its game of Oct. 2 to Montreal High. The latter was awarded a 1-0 victory because an ineligible player was used by the local squad.

According to the rules of the Protestant Union, players performing in senior A competition must be on September 1 under 20 and over 16, and weighing under 191 pounds.

In B competition the same requirements are observed by schools who do not field an A team, but for schools fielding an A squad players must be under 18 by September 1 and weighing under 171 pounds.

Junior players must be under 18 years on September 1 and weighing under 151 pounds and are not permitted to play in senior company.

PROVINCIAL HOCKEY LOOP OPENS NOV. 4

Provincial Hockey League will open its schedule on Saturday night, November 4, at Quebec City, when Boston Olympics play the Castors, new club coached by Boucher.

Art Lapierre said that the schedule was adopted by the league at a meeting held during the week end. The first game for Verdun was tentatively set for November 14.

On November 5 Quebec plays at Lachine, Boston at Shawinigan Falls, Verdun at Sherbrooke and Quebec at Valleyfield. On November 7 Sherbrooke plays at St. Hyacinthe on November 9, and Quebec play at Boston November 11 and 12.

Each team plays 19 games at home and 22 away, as Boston makes only one trip to Canada this season. Boston plays 28 at home seven away.

Sherbrooke is training at Lachine. Valleyfield is drilling with Providence at Valleyfield. All other teams have started.

WESTMOUNT DEFEATS SARNIA 12-5 IN GAME PLAYED HERE; LOCAL SQUAD IN TOP PLACE

Heavy Downpour of Rain Failed to Dim Enthusiasm of 5,000 Fans at Athletic Grounds on Saturday — Jimmy Riddell jr. and Ray Mullins in Top Form — Team Has Strong Championship Possibilities

Chalking up their third straight win, Westmount seniors defeated the powerful Sarnia Imperials 12-5 in a game played under a heavy downpour of rain at the Westmount Athletic Grounds on Saturday afternoon. The storm failed to dim the enthusiasm of a crowd of over 5,000 spectators.

The local squad has established strong championship possibilities. In top O.R.F.U. position, they have encountered every team in the loop.

Faced with the worst possible playing conditions every member of the winning squad displayed championship form. "Buddy" Atchison won the plaudits of the fans for his brilliant work as a catching half for Westmount. On several occasions he took the ball on the run, and slippery though it was to hold on to it.

Jimmy Riddell Jr., and Ray Mullins, the team's star kickers, were in rare form. Jimmy bootied singles in the first, second and final quarters. Ray Mullins accounted for a convert on Burns' touch and also marked up three points on outstanding booting. He also shone as a ball carrier.

Ploughing through the opponent's line and time again to register large gains, Tommy Burns lived up to his already enviable reputation. He dived on a Moroz fumble for a major count.

Johnny Ferraro equalled the playing of Burns, the two of them teamed together accounting for plenty of yardage.

Although playing in an unaccustomed position at flying wing, Eddie Barnabe made his presence felt strongly. Along with Jimmy Riddell, Ferraro, Burns, Hyslop, Ryan and Atchison, played the full 60 minutes of the game.

Conceded to be an important factor in Westmount's success was Coach Foran's "floating outside" system. It gummed up Sarnia's end runs on a number of occasions.

Norman Rennie was his old self once again at snap, and flanked by Ryan and Pigeon, proved a stone wall with only big Dick Norris of the Oilers able to make any kind of a dent in their front. Murray Hyslop, H. Adrian, Fred Brocklehurst, Alex Fleming, Joe Farha, Laurie Mathieu, and Beaver, all racked up top-hand performances.

For Sarnia Dick Norris towered over his mates, turning in a great exhibition of plunging, blocking and all-round play. It was Norris who galloped through to block
