BUSINESS ASSOCIATION TO HOLD GENERAL MEETING AT VICTORIA HALL TONIGHT

Session Open To All Members — Executive Committee To Outline Plans for Publicity and Advertising Campaign — Open Forum Will be Held and Members Given Opportunity to Express Views

The executive committee of the Business Association of Westmount completed final arrangements last night for the general membership meeting of the organization to be held in Victoria Hall this evening.

The committee has been studying a publicity and advertising program designed to improve business conditions locally and this will be outlined at tonight's session.

The meeting is open to all members of the local body and to those desirous of joining the organization. The agenda is confined to matters of direct interest to merchants and there will be no guest speaker or program of entertainment.

Originally scheduled to be held last week, the meeting was postponed until tonight in order to give the executive committee time to draw up the complete agenda. The session is to be featured by an open forum period in which members will be given the opportunity to express their views on the policies that should be adopted by the organization.

Details of the publicity campaign being formulated were not given out for publication yesterday as the committee feels that they should first be outlined to the general membership. C. A. James, publicity chairman, stated that they were of major importance to local businessmen and that they had been given considerable study before being approved by the executive.

IMPROVED TRAM SERVICE AIM OF CITY COUNCIL

Repeated Complaints Are Received From Residents of Upper Level

Following the meeting of the Council of the City of Westmount Monday night, it was stated that in view of numerous and repeated complaints from citizens regarding the inadequacy of the service provided by the Montreal Tramways on the upper level of Westmount, this matter had been under consideration for some time by the Mayor and Aldermen.

Steps have already been taken at irregular intervals to secure dependable information about the service actually provided and Westmount now has records to thoroughly prove that at times the service is very unsatisfactory.

The president of the Tramways Company has been interviewed by representatives of the City of Westmount and he claims that the service cannot be improved under existing conditions. The authorities of the City of Westmount are not satisfied that this is the case and intend to follow the matter up. They believe that with a little co-operation from the Tramways officials, an improved service at certain times of each day could be provided.

MANY PILGRIMS VISIT STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE SHRINE

Traffic was jammed for several minutes over the week-end as several thousand people crowded Victoria Pier to bid adieu to 800 pilgrims journeying to Ste. Anne de Beaupre Shrine aboard the S. S. Quebec. Many west-end residents made the trip under the auspices of the Redemptorist Fathers, returning here Monday.

Reverend and Mrs. Powles On Furlough From Japan

Full of colorful stories of the country on which the eyes of the world are focussed but reluctant to discuss the war in which it is now involved, Reverend and Mrs. P. S. C. Powles returned to Westmount last week on a year's furlough from missionary duty in Japan.

Mrs. Powles, who was at one time a teacher, and later secretary to the principal at Westmount High School, is the former Miss Ruth Mount.

Reverend and Mrs. Powles have been stationed for the past 22 years in Takata, a city of 30,000 population in the Province of Mito, situated in the northern section of the island.

Only outward signs of the Sino-Japanese conflict reveal themselves when the ashes of a soldier killed on the battle field are returned home to his family or when a warrior is sent back from the lines for hospitalization. To the occupants of the city in which the missionaries have made their home the war is known only as the Chinese Emergency.

Rev. and Mrs. Powles were sent to Japan in 1916 by the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada and are now here on their fourth furlough.

With one or two exceptions they are the only English-Christians in the Province and have had to learn to read and write Japanese in order to be understood. Only other Canadian in their part of the country is Miss A. F. Moss, of Toronto. A German Roman Catholic Priest is the one other non-Japanese in the northern part of the island.

The Japanese, Mrs. Powles stated yesterday when interviewed by a representative of this paper, are rapidly adopting the teachings of Christianity. Full co-operation to ministers and other church workers, is extended by the government, she said.

The conversion of the Japanese from the Buddhist and other native faiths was hampered considerably during the early period of the war but has now taken a turn and they are rapidly adopting the Christian doctrine.

Rev. and Mrs. Powles recently saw the completion of the church which houses their congregation. It consists of a main hall, and Sunday School. It can accommodate about 200.

Mrs. Powles stated that the country had made amazing advances in industry during the past 60 years and the living standard of the people was little below that of Canadians. The Japanese are a particular intelligent race and their intelligence quotient would compare favorably with that of people of the New World, she stated.

Rev. and Mrs. Powles are now residing at 222 Metcalfe avenue. They will be on leave for one year.

PRINCESSES ARE DOING ALL RIGHT

When the King and Queen departed for America, they left behind two little princesses. Margaret Rose wiped away tears, while Princess Elizabeth held a handkerchief—just in case. But the tears turned to smiles and whoops of glee when they were taken to the London Zoo, and, as shown above, watched the clownish antics of the giant panda.

APPROVAL OF SAFETY UNIT'S WORK IS GIVEN

W. R. Bulloch, M.L.A., Officiates at Banquet for Safety Brigadiers

W. R. Bulloch, M.L.A. for Westmount, and Ald. J. M. Savignac, chairman of the executive committee of the City of Montreal, welcomed the Safety Brigadiers of the schools of Greater Montreal at a special banquet, held in the Mount Royal Hotel on Monday. The boys were congratulated on behalf of the city and province, on the work that the safety patrols are doing in the schools to prevent traffic and industrial accidents.

Mr. Bulloch suggested that some junior sections of the Province of Quebec Safety League be formed to offer an opportunity of service to those who were leaving school. Many boys, he said, became interested in the safety movement in school through the brigades and would be willing to carry on the work when they graduated.

The boys were welcomed by the Hon. A. Leduc, president of the P.Q.S.L., on behalf of the association and thanked them for their work in the past year.

Peter Young of the High School of the Town of Mount Royal and Jean Paul Lebrun of St. Gerard school spoke on behalf of the English and French-speaking boys. Paul Marceau of Olier school acted as chairman.

Head table guests included Mr. Leduc, Norman Holland, Fernand Dufresne, director of the Montreal police department, Mr. Bulloch, Mr. Savignac and Hon. Cyrille Delage, Superintendent of Public Construction.

NEW SANITATION BY-LAW GIVEN FIRST READING BY CITY COUNCIL MONDAY

Strict Supervision Will be Exercised Over Hairdressing Establishments, Massage Parlors and Similar Places of Business — Premises Must be Kept Clean and Employees Given Health Examinations

In future, strict supervision in regard to sanitation will be exercised by the city over barber shops, hairdressing establishments, massage parlors and similar places of business, it was decided at a regular meeting of the City Council Monday night.

A by-law empowering the municipal health department to enforce strict sanitary conditions in such establishments was given first reading by the Council. It will be given second reading a week from Monday.

Massage parlors, barber shops, etc., will have to be approved by the municipal health department in order to secure a licence to operate.

Under the new ordinance, the premises must be properly lighted, the floors, walls and ceilings constructed of durable materials and all shelving and equipment kept free of dirt.

The by-law also demands that all such establishments must have a constant supply of hot and cold water. It makes it prohibitive for proprietors of the shops to live on the premises. All employees must be examined for contagious diseases.

MUSEUM COURSE IS COMPLETED BY C. WILSON

Honored at Reception Given by Director of Newark Museum on Monday

Clifford Parnell Wilson, of 52 Summit Circle, has just completed his course as a member of the 14th Apprentice Class at the Newark Museum in Newark, N.J., and was a guest with other members of the class at a reception given by Beatrice Winsor, director, and the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Newark Museum, on Monday evening. Mr. Wilson was graduated from McGill University.

The Newark Apprentice Class in Museum Training was established in 1925 by John Cotton Dana, founder and first director of the Newark Museum, to provide an opportunity for college graduates to obtain training in the practical aspects of museum work. Mr. Dana felt that there was a definite need for training museum workers and the Newark course was the first of its kind to be offered by a museum.

The course is open to any man or woman who has a college degree, or its equivalent, and is under thirty years of age. Applications for admission to the class each year number well over seventy-five, although not more than six or seven are accepted in a class. Applicants have come from most of the states of the Union and from Canada, with the largest group coming from the leading colleges of the East.

Since its inauguration, ninety-two have completed the apprentice course, of whom a large percentage are now engaged in museum work. Institutions whose staffs include former Newark Museum apprentices are as follows: The National Gallery of Canada, the Berkshire Museum, Brooklyn Museum, Boston Children's Museum, Hartford Children's Museum, Cooper Union Museum, Los Angeles Museum, Philadelphia Academy of Sciences, Montclair Art Museum, Museum of Modern Art, New Jersey State Museum, Fitchburg Art Center, Red Cross Museum and Museum of the D.A.R. in Washington, D.C., Currier Gallery of Art in Manchester, N. H., The New York Museum of Science and Industry, and the Newark Museum.

Members of this year's class, in addition to Mr. Wilson are: Miss Margaret Baker of Palo Alto, California, Miss Persis Clark of Natick, Massachusetts, Miss Dorcas Hope Delabarre of Providence, Rhode Island, Miss Edith Lewis Miles of Fairfield, Connecticut, and Roland Dumais of Quebec.

WESTMOUNT, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1939

DOMINION DAY

This being the year of the Royal Visit, Canadians will celebrate Dominion Day on Saturday with a fuller realization than ever before of the advantages their citizenship in the Empire offers.

It has been driven home to all of us, for example, what a vast difference exists between "leadership" as understood in the totalitarian countries and as understood in British "countries." In Germany, Italy, and Russia, "leader" means a man whose every word and whim is law, whose assemblies are called together not to reason together on the important problems of the day, but to sit in silence and hear the decision of one man, the "leader." In British countries, on the other hand, the leader is the king, but his leadership is symbolic only—symbolic of the decision of the Ministry of the day, whose advice he must take. The strength of our Crown is the strength of the collective mind, and as such, it is on a firmer foundation than that of any of the dictators of today. And we can be thankful that it is so.

Indeed, Dominion Day is a good time to review the British system of government under which we live—a system developed over many centuries, by many people and groups of people, by many different methods, a bit here and a bit there. In brief, it has been a story of the slow but steady rise of the common man, from slavery to democracy, and the evolution of his government. Basically, we are governed by the party system, which provides a party in power and a loyal opposition, the functions of the latter being equally as important as that of the former. The people always have an alternative government immediately the party in power falters. Furthermore, under the British system, the government must win every vote in the House or resign. The one party is always a check on the other. Our methods of government are bound by traditions, many of them so old that their origins are lost in the dim past. It is these traditions, these ancient landmarks of our development that give us stability and greatness.

A WELCOME FOR FDR

There were loud cheers in the British House of Commons when Mr. Arthur Greenwood, acting leader of the Labor Party, expressed the hope that President Roosevelt would break with tradition and repay the recent visit of the King and Queen to Washington. Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Greenwood remarked, would receive in England a welcome equal in warmth to that extended their Majesties in the United States.

Nothing would please the British people more than to extend the hand of greeting to the gracious President and his lady. And should it be possible for the President's mother to be present also, British enthusiasm would know no bounds. The elder Mrs. Roosevelt was entertained at Buckingham Palace some five years ago and played a prominent part in the recent reception to their Majesties at the Roosevelt home in Hyde Park.

It may be that the President will decide against an official visit to London during his term of office, but millions of persons would like to see him make the trip while he is still President. Were he to accept nomination for a third term and be elected, it is difficult to see how anything would then stand in the way of an official voyage to Great Britain. And, incidentally, a great many persons believe Mr. Roosevelt could win a third term in the White House despite the age old tradition against keeping Presidents there that long.

THOSE CLOSED THEATRES

The people of Quebec City are probably getting very much disgruntled with their city council, the reason being that the 11 moving picture theatres there are closed, and the city council is held responsible. A heavy civic amusement tax was imposed, and rather than have the public pay it, the theatres merely closed their doors three weeks ago. Now the city council is trying to find a way out of its own dilemma. It offers to repeal the amusement tax within a year if it proves "harmful to business." This is an effort to get the theatres to re-open.

People like to see moving pictures. If they are prevented from doing so as a result of a civic tax, they are apt to make it very uncomfortable for members of the council when another election comes around. The Quebec mayor and aldermen are on the spot, and wondering how they can get off it without losing face.

A GOOD BICYCLE LAW

The Town of Lasalle has enacted a by-law making it compulsory for cyclists to ride single file on the roads of the village and to remain close to the curb. The town authorities do not want to discourage the use of bicycles, but they have found it necessary to regulate their use in the interest of the cyclists themselves. The law is a good one and could well be enforced on all roads and highways in the province. Too many cyclists are careless of the safety both of themselves and of motorists. They ride two and three abreast and too often seem to make their own traffic rules as they go along, so that motorists never know what to expect as they approach a group of riders. The 'Indian file' rule will solve much of the difficulty, for bicycles ridden in this rashion take up very little room and the danger of accidents is reduced to a minimum.

A Moist Welcome

A few weeks ago a company of soldiers was transferred from the East to sunny California—arriving in the midst of the rainy season.

The commander of the company, making a night tour of the camp, was challenged by a sentry who had been standing at his post for two hours in a driving rain.

"Who's there?" called the sentry.

"Friend," replied the C. O.

"Welcome to our mist," said the sentry.—Pasadena Post.

Ah!

An advertising concern commissioned a sky writer to take his plane over the city to write the name of a certain brand of soup. It was a very clear day; but the pilot, instead of writing the name of the soup, wrote simply: "Ah! Ah! Ah!"

When he returned to the field a telephone call awaited him. It was the advertising executive.

"What goes on here?" shrieked the executive. "We instructed you to write the name of the tomato soup, and all you wrote was: Ah! Ah! Ah! What's wrong with you?"

The pilot sighed. "I just couldn't help myself," he murmured. "The sky was so beautiful!"

"That's no good to me."

THE FORUM

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C.

NOTE—The opinions expressed in these columns are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them. They are published for their general interest, variety and originality of treatment.

It is now a little more than a year since the Congress party in India assumed responsibility for government in seven provinces. Those who know the facts and are impartial believe the Congress ministers have done well. Measures for bringing relief to farmers, for promoting rural education of a type suited to conditions in India, prohibition, reform in land tenure laws are being given attention.

As in other parts of the world language difficulties are making trouble. Surely the world will before long see the necessity of a world language in addition to our present languages but with the hope that before many years there will be one language—Esperanto or I do which many experts believe is ally and unfortunately there is at present a serious breakdown in international relations. It is true that our troubles are because of the unsound fear that there is not ample for all of the good things which can so easily be produced and distributed once our economic system is based on the fact that there is plenty for all rather than our present plan of making things scarce so they will dear to the consumer and as a rule with a low price to be paid the producers. If the obstructions, rent of land, rent of money and the wasteful profit incentive could (by agreement and because it would pay everyone well) be removed and a system of production for use put in its place we would have permanent peace and prosperity which is impossible under our present system.

In Russia, the Joint Distribution Committee, in co-operation with the government, has helped 250,000 Jewish farmers on the land. Russia alone among the traditionally anti-Semitic countries of Eastern Europe has completely eliminated anti-Semitism.—From Look Magazine.

I am utterly amazed at the difference between the American estimate of the Roosevelt and the foreign estimate. It is the general impression abroad, so far as I have observed it, that Roosevelt and his wife will occupy a considerable place in the history books of the future. But it seems to many who see him from afar, and therefore do not see small defects, that morally and intellectually he measures up to the stature of such men as Jefferson and Lincoln.

There is no man in the world today who comes anywhere near as close as he does to expressing the aspirations of humanity. I can't tell you how astonished I am to find how many Americans fail to realize this. You have a major prophet and you don't know it.—Howard Vincent O'Brien in the Chicago Daily News.

Co-op Hospital in 8th year of steady growth has 2,500 members in western Oklahoma at Elk City. It started with 25 beds and now has 105 beds and the demand is so great that 35 beds were added during 1938.

Each of the 2500 families belonging to the association owns a share of stock costing $50. A paid-up share of stock entitles the owner—usually the head of the family—to one vote at the annual stockholders' meeting. No stockholder has more than one vote. The share entitles the holder and his family to medical, surgical, and hospital service for himself and family for one year for $25 and additional charges which are small and are specified in advance of treatment.

The hospital has a record of nine years of successful operation and continuous growth.

From Birdland

The Cuckoo

By Winifred E. Wilson

Unfortunately we have an erroneous conception of our American Cuckoos owing to European writers. We have come to think of them as sounding like cuckoo clocks and laying their eggs in the nests of other birds. Those are the Cuckoos of which the British poets sing.

Ours are quite different. Their voices may not be as melodious, but their wild notes have a mysterious charm. The loud, startling "Kaow-kaow-kaow" is their best known song; if song it can be called at all. This carries for a quarter of a mile or more through the woodlands. The other sound is a gentle "Kuck-kuck-kuck" that sometimes seems to go on indefinitely, reminding the listener of the ticking of a huge clock.

As for their parasitic habits, although it would not be entirely true to say that they never drop their eggs in other birds' nests, nevertheless this is seldom done. Our Cuckoos build homes of their own: crude platforms of twigs placed at low elevations in thickets or on the lower branches of trees. Their four greenish-blue eggs are nearly one and a quarter inches long.

The American Cuckoos are tropical birds, but two kinds breed as far north as Canada. The Yellow-billed never comes much beyond the border; the Black-billed may be found much farther north and in every province east of the Rockies. Naturally, then it is with the right to withdraw both currency and credit from circulation by taxation and otherwise, need not and should not borrow capital at interest as the means of financing governmental work and public enterprise. The government should create issue, and circulate all the currency and credit needed to satisfy the spending power of the government and the buying power of consumers. The privilege of creating and issuing money is not only the supreme prerogative of government, but it is the government's greatest creative opportunity.

By the adoption of these principles, the long-felt want for a uniform medium will be satisfied. The taxpayers will be saved immense sums in interest, discounts, and exchanges. The financing of all public enterprise, the maintenance of stable government and ordered progress, and the conduct of the treasury will become matters of practical administration. The people can and will be furnished with a currency as safe as their own government. Money will cease to be master and become the servant of humanity. Democracy will rise superior to the money power.

PRAM TROUBLE AT FAIR

Regulations at the New York World's Fair forbid the use of baby carriages in the fair grounds and have considerable confusion. The experiences of several parents have caused some unofficial discussion as to what might be done. The conclusion was the inhabitants of the World of Tomorrow deserve a comfortable preview of that world, as seen at the Fair.

Dream Realized After 15 Years In Ice Follies

Fifteen years ago a couple of kids answering to the names of Eddie Shipstad and Roy Johnson skated about the frozen lake surfaces of their home towns and formulated plans for someday staging a gigantic ice follies, a show similar to that produced by Florenz Ziegfeld, only on ice.

Those boys, their dream realized, have watched some of the struggles encountered in putting across their idea, brought to the screen by James Stewart and Lew Ayres who portray their counterparts in "The Ice Follies of 1939" starring Joan Crawford is now playing at the Snowdon United Theatre.

Both boys were born in St. Paul, Minnesota, and many of the troupe members appearing in their show today were childhood friends. The entire troupe appears in key scenes of the film production, and Shipstad and Johnson are seen in specialty acts. The film was brought to the screen by Harry Rapf, directed by Reinhold Schunzel.

GRANITES WIN THREE GAMES IN SUCCESSION; LEAD LOCAL SENIOR SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Hold Wide Margin Over Second Place Grads—Excellent Team Work Responsible for Success of Leading Squad — Loop Providing Best Brand of Ball Seen Here for Many Seasons

Granites, by virtue of splendid team work, have piled up a formidable total of points in the senior softball league, and are proving their claim that they were the team to watch. They won their last three games and hold just that margin over the second place Grads, who sprung the surprise of the season to date by losing to the up and coming Eagles on Monday night.

The league this year is providing the best brand of ball seen on Westmount Park for many seasons, and the increase in the number of spectators shows a real appreciation of first class softball.

The Royals, who were slated on paper, to repeat the Blues' victories of last year, are in a temporary slump and are missing by only a score or two in the final count on a game.

On Monday, Granites defeated Royals 4-3 while Eagles beat Grads 8-3.

League standing:
Granites 12 pts.
Grads 6 pts.
Eagles 4 pts.
Royals 2 pts.

Indians Must Pay Fee For Fishing

Indian fishing rights dating back to the treaty of 1855 have been involved in a decision recently handed down from the United States District Court by Judge J. Stanley Webster. Indians of the Yakima, Umatilla, and Warm Springs tribes, wards of the United States Government, must now pay to the State of Washington $5 for a license to fish commercially, just as their white brothers do.

Believing themselves within their treaty rights, which granted Indians the exclusive right to fish in streams running through and bordering their reservations as well as at other traditional sites on waters outside of the reserved areas, the tribesmen according to the testimony have been fishing in various parts of the State both in and out of season and for the purpose of selling the fish to white men.

This practice has been contrary to the conservation program for this area, and has long been an issue between the Indians and State officials.

TELEVISION EXTENDS "RINGSIDE" 55 MILES

BASEBALL'S NEW NAMES

Stories of Majors' Rousing Recruits Told by Art Krenz

John Henry Kramer started as a catcher for a New Orleans American Legion junior team. Lafayette of the Evangeline League decided to fire Jack Kramer as a pitcher in 1935, but kept him when Scout Ray Cahill of the St. Louis Browns agreed to pay the six-foot two-inch right-hander's salary.

Purchased by the Browns on Cahill's recommendation, Kramer won 20 games while losing 11 for San Antonio in 1938. A fast ball is his chief stock in trade, but he has developed curve and change of pace.

Sudeten Refugees Happy In New Homes

Sudeten refugees recently settled in the St. Walburg District of Northern Saskatchewan experienced many happy surprises when they arrived in the western farming areas. They were relieved when they learned there was no need to arm against Indians, pleased to know they will be able to grow potatoes and make sauerkraut in Canada.

J. J. Wieler of the Colonization Department of the Canadian National Railways in charge of three large parties of refugees found they are making excellent settlers. "What strikes them most in this country is the freedom of movement," Mr. Wieler asserted. "They have to adjust themselves to that. And the thing that overjoyed them is the abundance of good food. They are fond of pork and were pleased when told they will be able to 'raise pigs.'"

Sombrero and Derby Mingle

In the Ring of Fair Publicity

California's sombrero has officially been tossed into the ring with New York's brown derby in one of the nation's greatest publicity battles.

Competition between the two great World's Fairs of 1939 is just beginning. Before the summer is over there won't be a hog-waller or mountain hermit's shack that hasn't heard of the two Fairs and the occupants thereof received what amounts to a personal invitation to attend.

Juvenile League Is Planned

A meeting has been called for Friday night at the Westmount Athletic Grounds of juvenile lacrosse players—boys 15 and under—with the objective of forming a city league.

All boys interested in lacrosse are invited to attend the session, which marks the initial step to formulate a juvenile league here.

An important part of the program planned by the municipal recreation department in connection with the league will be to teach the game to non-players. Every effort will be made to equal the example established by the junior loop last season.

Queensland Drags Widen Hotel Chain

As part of a plan to establish a chain of hotels that do not sell liquor throughout the State, the Queensland Temperance League has authorized the erection of a Hotel Canberra at Cairns, the terminal point of the North Queensland tourist traffic.

Already the League has a Hotel Canberra in Brisbane and Toowoomba. The Cairns hotel will cost the Temperance League approximately $50,000 to build. It will have accommodation for 100 guests.

One Big Family: 'Frank' And 'Nev' Are Really Cousins

A high British authority on genealogies has announced his conclusions that Queen Elizabeth is related to George Washington and Robert E. Lee and that President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain are eighth cousins three times removed, with King Edward I of England as a common ancestor.

Those are findings of Mr. Anthony Wagner, holder of the 500-year-old title of Portcuillis Pursuivant at the College of Arms, home of British heraldry.

Mr. Wagner has just completed a genealogical table showing that Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Chamberlain descended from a daughter and a son of William Cotmore, an Englishman who lived in the 16th century.

Queen Elizabeth's relationship to Washington was discovered accidentally when Mr. Wagner was working on Washington's family tree for the British Pavilion at the New York World's Fair.

MODEL BOAT RACES HELD

During the past month four meetings were held and in all 34 races took place; winners of first, second and third places in each event were awarded ribbons by the Westmount Athletic Grounds.

These races will be discontinued for the months of July and August, but will be held on Saturday afternoons during September.

Results of last Friday's races are as follows—18" motors: 1st, Michael Wallace; 2nd, Michael Raymond; 3rd, Ross McEwan. 15" motors: 1st, Stewart Hamilton; 2nd, Michael Wallace; 3rd, Ross McEwan. 10" motors: 1st, Michael Raymond; 2nd, Graham Harris; 3rd, Richard Cross. The ladies' open tennis singles tournament was opened on Tuesday at the Municipal courts, with 24 players entering the first round. The men's open singles is quickly coming to a close, with the semi-finals and finals scheduled for Wednesday and Friday, if the weather permits.

The eight players who have survived the 62 entries are: E. Dowden, P. Oumet, G. Hooper, B. Macken, S. Quinton, G. Gillies, A. Osborn, W. Caldwell. The brand of tennis which the entries have displayed has been very good, and exceptionally interesting semi-finals and finals are practically assured.

The notices for the men's open doubles tennis tournament have been posted and entries may be handed in to the court attendants up until Monday.

Laurentian Mountain Fishing is in Full Swing

Despite a late opening due to high water and ice-covered lakes, fishing in the Province of Quebec is well underway. On July 1 salmon fishing will be permitted in the Barachois River in Gaspé until September 15 while the season for maskinonge will start also on the same day and continue until October 15. On the Ottawa River anglers will

Lake and Eagle Lake, while all of Murphy Creek and its 15 lakes have splendid fishing for speckled trout running to seven pounds, with a pound and a half a fair average.

Fish Plentiful
Closer to Montreal is the Mont Tremblant region, reached most conveniently from St. Jovite or Lac Mercier, which is a rugged and beautiful section of the Laurentians. Cradled by the Rouge and Devil Rivers, and dominated by Mont Tremblant, loftiest of the Laurentian peaks, the region extends in almost unbroken sweep far to the north and offers a field of unrestricted opportunity to the sportsman. This area is essentially the habitat of trout but in many places great northern pike and dore are also plentiful and fighting bass afford the fisherman a real thrill.

New Reserve Planned

To further the conservation movement, the Quebec Government has set aside in the Mont Laurier-Senneterre area, where the new highway from Montreal to the Northern Quebec mining district will pass, a new hunting and fishing reserve. This territory is studded with lakes teeming with fish and as a result the Order-in-Council provides that "no one shall have the right to take, per fishing day, more than 40 trout or 15 pounds plus one fish, or 10 dore or 10 pikes or five grey trout or five sturgeons or five maskinonges."

This Mont Laurier region, one of the best fishing districts of the Laurentians, is in the centre of a vast territory which for the most part is virgin forest. Flood Creek, Half Moon, Triplet and Travers Lakes are the best known for speckled trout. Grey trout and great northern pike are found in Big and Little Murphy lakes, Corbeau Lake, Serpent

Good Season Is Expected In Laurentians

The most successful winter season in their history behind them, resorts in the Laurentian Mountains this summer anticipate a record invasion. Their expectations are based on two things, first improvement of highways and second the growing popularity of these Eastern Canadian mountains as year-round resorts for both Canadians and Americans.

This summer there will be something on the program in the Laurentians every weekend. At Ste. Adele en haut where the Chantecler is open for its first summer season there will be swimming and boating events and other sports. At Gray Rocks Inn and Alpine Inn there are complete summer programs including every variety of hot-weather sport together with a complete round of social activities. Other resorts also report extensive preparations for the coming season and state that American bookings as a result of winter time popularity will break all previous records.

By plane, train and motor car summer visitors will invade Montreal's own mountains and visitors to the north country will spend holidays there varying in length from a day to the entire summer.

CHECK UNTIDINESS
Retired policemen are to be employed this summer to mix with the crowds on the South Downs of England and prevent the throwing of rubbish and uprooting of wild flowers.
