BRITAIN TO DECLARE CZECH POLICY

Strong Stand Predicted On Independence

Adviser to Unofficial British Mediator in Czech-Sudeten Problem Makes Sudden Trip to London for Conference With Principal Ministers—Decisive Development Appears Imminent as Observers Predict Friendly Agreement or Open Break.

London, Aug. 25.—(P)—A decisive development in the issue between the Czechoslovak Government and its Nazi-supported, autonomy-seeking Sudeten German minority appeared imminent today after a hurried conference of British Government officials here.

Diplomatic observers expressed belief a crisis probably had been reached, pointing either to a complete agreement on a friendly basis or an open break between the Prague Government and the Sudeten Germans.

Speculation was aroused by the hurried return of F. T. A. Ashton-Gwatkin, right hand man of Viscount Runciman, British unofficial mediator in the issue, for conferences with Viscount Halifax, Foreign Secretary, and Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

British officials said Mr. Ashton-Gwatkin flew to London on private business and merely happened to see the Cabinet members.

But none would specify the nature of his private business or why he came from Prague by airplane. Also unexplained was why Mr. Ashton-Gwatkin wanted to see Lord Halifax late last night, or why he was persuaded to postpone his conference with the Foreign Secretary until today.

No official would acknowledge that the three men even discussed the Czechoslovak problem but, it was said privately, that was their only concern.

Diplomatic quarters heard that Britain may have evolved plans for a new step toward solving Czechoslovakia's minority problem.

Three possible developments were reported:

1—Lord Runciman may be working out his own peace plan.

2—The British Government, possibly acting with other states, may make a new effort to lessen the general European tension resulting from the dispute between the Sudeten Germans and the Czechoslovak Government.

3—It was felt in British ministerial circles that the intensive German press campaign against Czechoslovakia adds an unnecessary complication and that some steps may be taken to modify it.

It has been suggested in London that Lord Runciman may make a personal appeal to Chancellor Hitler with the object of stopping the press campaign which he feels is undermining his efforts.

It was officially denied that any specific event brought Mr. Ashton-Gwatkin back to London. He returned for personal reasons and Lord Halifax seized the occasion of his visit for the conference.

No attempt was made in official circles to hide the disquiet resulting from the Central European situation. This was due to no particular development, but resulted from prolongation of the Czech-Sudeten German problem which is becoming more intense if anything.

Deny New Policies Heralded

Officially, it was denied Mr. Ashton-Gwatkin's sudden dash back to London heralded new policies by the British Government.

At the same time it was admitted the central European situation "occurred."

Canada And United States Studying Orderly Marketing Of Wheat Crops

Ottawa, Aug. 25.—(P)—A conference between Canadian Government officials and representatives of the United States Agriculture Department was scheduled to open here today to discuss marketing surplus wheat and other farm products of mutual interest to the two nations.

Canadian officials will include experts from the Departments of Agriculture, Trade and Commerce and External Affairs. It is understood no policies will be determined and the conversations mainly will concern exchange of information.

Secretary Wallace of the U. S. Agriculture Department has indicated

Geneva, Aug. 25.—(P)—A member of the Swiss Federal Parliament has proposed to the National Defense Committee a plan to store reserves of wheat and gasoline at the bottom of Swiss lakes to remove them from the danger of destruction by enemy attacks.

Germany Presses Campaign Of Strengthening Hungarian Tie

Follows Up Guarantee of the Integrity of Hungary with Its Greatest Post-War Military Display Before Hungarian Regent—Sixteen Thousand Troopers, Two Thousand More than Witnessed by Mussolini, Parade Before Germany's Guest-of-Honor.

Berlin, Aug. 25.—(P)—Germany followed up a guaranty of the integrity of Hungarian frontiers today with its greatest post-war military display before Admiral Nicholas Horthy, Regent of Hungary.

In an exchange of toasts at a sumptuous state dinner last night, Chancellor Hitler as a "friend and neighbor" promised the Hungarian ruler that "we as neighbors have found our definite, historic boundaries through historic events (German annexation of Austria on March 13)."

Admiral Horthy replied: "The wish for continuation of peaceful reconstruction which animates us and our friends is safe insurance that our people can pursue successfully the high aim of peace based on mutual good will and justice through further close collaboration, thereby serving best their own interests and those of the rest of the world."

Long before dawn 16,000 drab-uniformed, steel-helmeted troops of the Third Army Corps—2,000 more than marched before Premier Benito Mussolini, of Italy, on his visit last September—began concentrating in Berlin for the goose-step parade in honor of Horthy and the Hungarian officials accompanying him.

Newspapers said the display was intended to give "our Hungarian friends an indelible impression of our army and our air force, thus, after the days at Kiel, on the sea, and at Heligoland, founding out the picture of our armed forces."

At last night's state dinner both Hitler and Horthy discussed the friendship of Germany, Hungary and Italy and the common ideal of which Hungary and Germany fought in the World War.

Chancellor Hitler said he was convinced German-Hungarian co-operation "not only serves the interests of our countries alone but also, in close collaboration with our befriended Italy, is a pledge of a dignified and just general peace."

Monsieur Georges Orsenigo, Papal Nuncio in Germany, who had never been known to attend military displays like today's, sat in the diplomats' stand, apparently as a compliment to predominantly Catholic Hungary.

He would seek Canada's co-operation in some arrangement for marketing the probable wheat surplus without "throat cutting," and it is understood the U. S. officials will make informal overtures to the Canadian Government on this matter.

Secretary Wallace has said that it might be necessary to give a subsidy to market 100,000,000 bushels of the U. S. crop this year. Canada's surplus for export from present estimates will be about 200,000,000 bushels and it is on the basis of these figures that the conference is expected to try to reach some conclusions.

Mr. Roosevelt presumably wanted to talk with his political generalissimo about campaign developments in a half dozen states. Farley's advice was expected to determine in part whether the President will make a personal bid in Maryland for the defeat of Senator Millard Tydings, an aggressive foe of the Administration.

Also among probable topics of conversation between the two were the political situations in New York, Idaho, Georgia, South Carolina and Connecticut.

Thus far, Farley has had no part in the President's drive against anti-administration Democrats seeking renomination.

Mr. Roosevelt presumably wanted information from Farley as to what the administration might accomplish in states now politically questionable.

GERMANY PLANS FOR RETURN OF LOST COLONIES

School to Be Opened in October for Instructing Nazi Officials in Matters of Colonial Administration.

Berlin, Aug. 25.—(P)—Confident that in time she will regain her war-lost colonies, Germany will open a school October 15th to drill Nazi officials in colonial administration.

The Reich leaves no doubt that it expects to get the colonies back eventually. The colonial question, Germany's right to and need of colonies, provides steady material for the press and for orators even at a time when the conflict with Czechoslovakia over the Sudeten is engrossing German attention.

The school, which will be under the patronage of Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, is partly the result of an argument used against restoring the colonies—the contention that Germans in the pre-war days proved themselves unfit and incapable of colonization.

Wellington, New Zealand, Aug. 25.—(P)—Pensions for all persons at the age of sixty are provided under the New Zealand Government's security bill, now before Parliament.

It provides that ultimately all persons at sixty shall receive a pension of thirty shillings ($7.50) weekly. Other advantages proposed include disablement, sickness and unemployment benefit. The scheme also embraces free hospital and medical treatment for all.

A special section provides for maternity attention and maintenance in hospital for fourteen days.

A married couple, both aged sixty or more, will receive $3 ($15). They may also receive $1 each from other sources. If their income other than pension exceeds $1, their joint pension will be reduced so that their total income does not exceed $4 weekly.

A married person whose spouse is less than sixty years of age may receive a pension of thirty shillings weekly, provided the pensioner's other income does not exceed fifty shillings.

The scheme applies to all persons more than sixteen years old. It will be financed by an annual registration fee of £1 and a charge of a shilling in the pound on all salaries and wages.

Hendaye, France, Aug. 25.—(P)—Government dispatches reported today that main line defenses of the Ebro front in South Catalonia, were holding firm against diminishing fury of insurgent attacks.

Although the Government admitted the insurgents had taken some advance posts by storm, they insisted actual battle lines were changed little since they were established a month ago.

On the Tagus river front, about ninety miles southwest of Madrid, the insurgent offensive also came to a near halt.

Insurgents said it was necessary to slow their advance to clear out the three hundred square miles they captured in the past four days of operations.

Further south, on the Estremadura front, the Government reported its troops had straightened their lines along the Zuñar river, forcing insurgents from several front line positions.

Denies Jap Planes Fired On Craft

Tokyo, Aug. 25.—(P)—Japanese airmen did not open fire on the "mystery plane" which they shot down between Macao and Canton on Wednesday, Rear Admiral Kiwashi Noda, spokesman for the Japanese Naval Office, declared today. All the occupants of the plane escaped, he contended.

Admiral Noda said Japanese forced the plane to alight but justified their action on the grounds that international aerial war regulations provide non-combatant planes pass through war zones at their own risk.

Convinced Twelve Persons Aboard Chinese Air Liner Died In Attack

Hong Kong, Aug. 25.—(P)—Airline officials said tonight they believed at least twelve persons died inside an airliner which was forced down and machine-gunned by Japanese warplanes yesterday between Canton and Macao.

A spokesman for the China National Aviation Corporation, the plane owners, said the line's reports indicated the plane, riddled by machine-gun bullets, was entirely submerged in the small river on which the American pilot, H. L. Woods, of Winfield, Kas., set it down.

Only three survivors who reached Macao were definitely accounted for tonight—Woods, the radio operator, Loe Loh, and a passenger, C. N. Lou—although earlier reports said two wounded Chinese passengers were in hospital at Shekhi north of Macao. Passenger Lou also was wounded.

Woods, who reached Macao aboard a sampan and was then brought to Hong Kong aboard the United States gunboat Mindanao, said he believed all the missing were killed or wounded in the machine-gunning of the plane. Moreover he reported he heard bomb explosions while lying in a semi-conscious con-

New Speed Monarch Believes Limit Of Land Travel Near

Wendover, Utah, Aug. 25.—(P)—The world's high speed king, Captain George E. T. Eyston of England, feels that at almost 360 miles an hour he virtually has reached the ceiling of speed on land.

His chief rival, John Cobb, also of London, holds, however, that there is no limit to the rate of motion man can attain on the ground.

Eyston yesterday was officially timed at 347.16 miles an hour as he rocketed his Thunderbolt automobile through the measured mile on the Bonneville Salt Flats just east of here.

He admitted today dash-board instruments showed he hit "devilish close to 360" in the return run through the mile when failure of an electric timing device nullified his certain new speed record.

Wild Scene At Inquiry Into Policy Racket

New York, Aug. 25.—(P)—George Weinberg, called a liar by James J. Hines in open court, blandly faces a resumption today of the attack on his testimony that Hines accepted $500 a week to shield Dutch Schultz's $200,000,000 policy racket from the law.

A poker-faced gangster who admitted with a shrug that his conscience was rarely acute, Weinberg remained the least ruffled man in the courtroom yesterday when Hines, his face reddening with rage, rose to his feet, snatched off his horn-rimmed spectacles, glared at Weinberg and said: "You know you lie!"

Defence Counsel Lloyd Stryker shouted to Hines, "Don't do that!" and another attorney held him in his chair as he attempted to continue.

Not a flicker of emotion crossed Weinberg's countenance. He repeated flatly testimony that he had visited Hines' apartment to pay the Tammany district leader protection money for the Schultz mob.

"Do you still say under oath that you went to Mr. Hines' apartment at 444 Central Park West between April and October 1st, 1932?" demanded Stryker.

"Yes," said Weinberg.

"And do you still say that you paid him money either in front of 444 Central Park West or in his apartment?" Stryker persisted.

"I do," Weinberg answered evenly, and his answer remained the same when he was shown telephone, gas and electric bills, leases and rental records indicating that Hines did not occupy the Park Apartment until October 1st.

"Yes," said Weinberg.

RAIN CURTAILS ANNUAL EVENT AT COOKSHIRE

All Activities on Final Afternoon Cancelled Because of Weather Conditions—Acts Staged in Main Building Last Night.

Cookshire, Aug. 25.—Unfortunately victim of the weatherman's caprices, the Cookshire Fair ended yesterday after two of its three days had been marred by an almost steady fall of rain. Blessed with fine weather on the opening day—when gate receipts were double those of any previous first day—the exhibition was expected to easily surpass any yet presented here, but rain on the second and final day dashed these hopes.

All events on yesterday afternoon's programme were cancelled by the rain, although judging in the many departments was continued in the buildings. Last night, however, the main building was cleared of exhibits and the complete programme of vaudeville attractions presented. The acts were followed by a dance.

Entries in the judging were unusually numerous and of an especially high quality, with keen contests for the winning ribbons. A highlight of the exhibition was Children's Day on Monday, when countless Compton County youngsters swarmed over the grounds and through the buildings. The Fair was held under the auspices of the Compton County Agricultural Society No. 1.

DRUMMONDVILLE WILL HAVE NEW CITY BUILDING

Tender of $63,850 Accepted by City Council for Construction of Municipal Building.

Drummondville, Aug. 25.—Construction will start shortly on Drummondville's new municipal building, to be erected on Lindsay street, opposite the Bell Telephone building. The contract for the building was granted to Edwidge Malouin, of Drummondville, whose tender of $63,850 was accepted by the City Council at their last meeting.

Other tenders submitted were Benjamin Robidas, $64,000; Monplaisin and Archambault, $68,657; J. A. Verret, of Sherbrooke, $63,900 and J. P. Desrochers, Limited, of Montreal, $79,200.

This fine new edifice, which has long been badly needed, will be a two-story cement structure and will house the city fire apparatus and police force.

BACHELOR PARTY TENDERED LOCAL MAN

At the Manoir Drummondville Hotel a party was given to Alex Swanson on the occasion of his marriage on Saturday to Miss Marian French, of this city.

George Jackson in an eloquent speech wished Mr. Swanson and his bride a long life, health and happiness. Mr. Swanson was presented with a club bag as a memento of the occasion.

Following the presentation, a programme of monologues, songs and solo dances was given by a number of the guests, including Bill Seaward, Frank Parker, Gault Parker, George Jackson, Ernest Bieber and Jack Strain.

ENGLISH HELD UNNECESSARY IN DIRECTORY

Sheriff Sees No Reason Why Court House Telephones Should Not Be Listed Under French Title Only.

Although thousands of English-speaking citizens reside in communities served by the local telephone exchange there is no need for listing descriptive phrases to be printed in English in the directory, according to Dr. J. P. C. Lemieux, Sheriff of St. Francis District.

Questioned by a Record reporter today concerning the fact that in the latest issue of the telephone directory the Court House is listed under a French title, "Palais de Justice," with the English wording omitted, the Sheriff said when he had written corrections in numbers of the House of Commons for Jacques Cartier division, has been named by the Provincial Government, Mayor of Ville St. Laurent, near Montreal, it was announced from the Premier's Office yesterday.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—Flood conditions which caused damage in villages north of this city last week-end, shifted to the south side of the St. Lawrence following the incessant rain downpours of the past twenty-four hours, according to reports reaching here last night.

The little town of Charny across the river from Quebec was under water in its lower sections. Many of the town's narrow streets were covered with water and numerous basements and ground-floor flats of houses were inundated.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—Georges P. Laurin, notary, former member of the House of Commons for Jacques Cartier division, has been named by the Provincial Government, Mayor of Ville St. Laurent, near Montreal, it was announced from the Premier's Office yesterday.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—Annual convention of the Quebec Province of the Federation of Junior Boards of Trade will be held here September 24th and 25th, President Paul Audet announced last night. About four hundred delegates are expected to attend.

Breakerville, Que., Aug. 25.—(P)—Coroner Paul V. Marceau was to open today an inquest into the death of twenty-four year old Rose Dubois, whose body, a bullet hole in the head, was found in his home two weeks ago.

A coroner's jury had decided the youth had died by his own hand.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—Brother Marie-Victor, eminent French-Canadian botanist, has received a $500 grant from the Provincial Government to assist him in his work of cataloguing the plant life of Quebec Province.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—Twelve-year-old Gemma Plante drowned by the force of the waves of swimming companions at nearby Lake Etchemin yesterday. The girl got into difficulty while swimming several yards from shore.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—The political editor of the Financial Times said well-informed circles were of the opinion Sir John Simon would devote most of the speech he is scheduled to make at Lanark, Scotland, Saturday to Central European affairs.

The Times (Independent) said yesterday's Whitehall conference had for its primary purpose discussion of the note from Insurgents' General Franco rejecting the plan for withdrawal of foreign troops from Spain.

"The technical difficulties raised by the Burgos note, however, are coming to seem as a reflection of the wide difficulty of Europe in which the Spanish question plays a great but no predominant part," The Times said.

"Its connection with Anglo-Italian relations is obvious. Beyond this, in the eyes of most observers, is perceived the link binding both these problems with the situation in Central Europe, particularly Czechoslovakia."

The diplomatic editor of the Daily Express understood Britain has decided to take steps to halt the unbridled attacks on Czechoslovakia in the German press.

"Britain will in the next few days declare afresh her attitude towards events in Europe," said the Daily Mail. "The declaration will take the form of an unmistakable assurance to France that Britain will support her should she become involved in any conflict as a result of her fulfilling her treaty obligations to Czechoslovakia."

Ultimate Agreement Possible
"There is no reason, however, to despair of an ultimate agreement in Central Europe. The British Government has wisely made clear its intention to refrain from direct contact with the Central European quarrel."

The News Chronicle (Liberal) urged the Government to realize that the "bluffer and bully will pay heed" if Britain puts her foot down.

The real danger to peace comes from ignoring the obvious," the paper said. "Indications that the Government may at last face facts and that the flow of mechanical reassurances from Downing Street will cease would be the best of news. But there must be action to support any change of attitude."

"Czechoslovakia will only be the victim of aggression if the aggressor believes that he can get away with his attack unchecked by the larger powers. If the British Government allow it to be definitely known in Berlin that should Czechoslovakia be attacked Britain will stand firmly behind France, the murder of the Czechoslovak democracy will not take place."

LOADED CIGAR CAUSED OF DAMAGE SUIT
Columbia City, Ind., Aug. 25.—(P)—A loaded cigar proved anything but a joke to Farmer Heber McNabb. He asked $5,000 damages from Schultheis.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—Annual convention of the Quebec Province of the Federation of Junior Boards of Trade will be held here September 24th and 25th, President Paul Audet announced last night. About four hundred delegates are expected to attend.

Breakerville, Que., Aug. 25.—(P)—Coroner Paul V. Marceau was to open today an inquest into the death of twenty-four year old Rose Dubois, whose body, a bullet hole in the head, was found in his home two weeks ago.

A coroner's jury had decided the youth had died by his own hand.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—Twelve-year-old Gemma Plante drowned by the force of the waves of swimming companions at nearby Lake Etchemin yesterday. The girl got into difficulty while swimming several yards from shore.

Quebec, Aug. 25.—(P)—The political editor of the Financial Times said well-informed circles were of the opinion Sir John Simon would devote most of the speech he is scheduled to make at Lanark, Scotland, Saturday to Central European affairs.

The Times (Independent) said yesterday's Whitehall conference had for its primary purpose discussion of the note from Insurgents' General Franco rejecting the plan for withdrawal of foreign troops from Spain.

"The technical difficulties raised by the Burgos note, however, are coming to seem as a reflection of the wide difficulty of Europe in which the Spanish question plays a great but no predominant part," The Times said.

"Its connection with Anglo-Italian relations is obvious. Beyond this, in the eyes of most observers, is perceived the link binding both these problems with the situation in Central Europe, particularly Czechoslovakia."

The diplomatic editor of the Daily Express understood Britain has decided to take steps to halt the unbridled attacks on Czechoslovakia in the German press.

"Britain will in the next few days declare afresh her attitude towards events in Europe," said the Daily Mail. "The declaration will take the form of an unmistakable assurance to France that Britain will support her should she become involved in any conflict as a result of her fulfilling her treaty obligations to Czechoslovakia."

Ultimate Agreement Possible
"There is no reason, however, to despair of an ultimate agreement in Central Europe. The British Government has wisely made clear its intention to refrain from direct contact with the Central European quarrel."

The News Chronicle (Liberal) urged the Government to realize that the "bluffer and bully will pay heed" if Britain puts her foot down.

The real danger to peace comes from ignoring the obvious," the paper said. "Indications that the Government may at last face facts and that the flow of mechanical reassurances from Downing Street will cease would be the best of news. But there must be action to support any change of attitude."

"Czechoslovakia will only be the victim of aggression if the aggressor believes that he can get away with his attack unchecked by the larger powers. If the British Government allow it to be definitely known in Berlin that should Czechoslovakia be attacked Britain will stand firmly behind France, the murder of the Czechoslovak democracy will not take place."

Stanstead, Aug. 25.—Court's friends throughout the border district and the Eastern Townships to-day mourn the death of Mrs. Sidney Stevens, one of Stanstead's most highly esteemed residents, who died suddenly at her home, "Ingle-side," yesterday. She was in her eighty-third year.

Member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in this border community, Mrs. Stevens was a daughter of the late Rev. C. Planders, of Waterloo, and a sister of the late Dr. Charles Planders, principal of Stanstead College for fifteen years. Mrs. Stevens, whose maiden name was Harriet Jane Planders, came to Stanstead from Waterloo many years ago.

Her husband, who predeceased her about five years ago, was manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Rock Island for many years until his retirement.

An active member of Centenary United Church for a large number of years until failing health forced curtailing of her labors, Mrs. Stevens was a past president of the Women's Association of the church, corresponding secretary of the Women's Missionary Society and an active member of the Stanstead chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire.

Left to mourn her loss, besides a host of friends, are one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Lamb, of Stanstead, widow of Professor Henry Lamb, of Montreal; one son, Gardner, of Boston, Mass., and five grandchildren, Ruth, Martha, Margaret, Barbara and Sidney, children of Mrs. Ruth Lamb, and all of Stanstead.

URGE INVESTIGATION OF WATER SITUATION

Two Members Of City Council Would Have Experts' Opinion

Warnings Voiced by Number of Prominent Local Physicians That Drinking Water Is Contaminated Apparently Carry Little Weight with Remainder of Council—Finance Committee Chairman Would Muzzle Press.

The opinion so strongly expressed by local physicians that the city drinking water is bad and that, in fact, it constantly carries the danger of an epidemic has made little impression upon the City Fathers, with the exception of Aldermen Guy Bryant and Maurice Delorme who advocated at a meeting yesterday afternoon that experts be appointed to study the situation.

Warnings voiced by a number of prominent local doctors that the drinking water is contaminated—civil officials and employees themselves refuse to drink it and obtain their supply from springs—carries little weight with the aldermen. They think they know better. They insist, despite what doctors may say, that the present process of chlorination is a sufficient safeguard. They are against filtration.

The Record's campaign for purer water has irked Ald. Eugene Thibault. He is chairman of the Finance Committee and as holder of the municipal purse strings he cannot visualize the expenditure needed to render the local water supply safe and fit for drinking purposes.

In fact, judging from his outburst at yesterday's special meeting of the Council, he would muzzle the press.

"It is time," he thundered with appropriate gestures to emphasize, "that the brakes be applied to a local paper."

Ald. J. W. Genest, chairman of the Parks Committee, introduced the water question when he asked permission of Mayor Marcus Armitage to present a report dealing with the water supply. He explained that his report would refute the statements of local doctors that chlorination was not sufficient to protect the health of the city.

Ald. Thibault desired to hear the report. So did the other aldermen. The Parks Committee president said that he respected the opinions of others favoring filtration. He declared he was surprised at the attitude taken by the Record. He added that he was further surprised at the fact local physicians had supported the Record's stand and issued a warning that an epidemic would eventually break out if steps were not taken to establish a filtration plant.

Ald. Genest's chief objection to a filter system appeared to be the cost. Construction of such a plant, he said, would cost between $375,000 and $450,000. Maintenance cost, he added, would run to approximately $40,000 annually, if not more.

"I challenge anyone," he stated, "to prove to me that filtration will purify the water. I will admit that it will clear the water of earth and refuse matter—but I maintain it will not purify it."

The Parks Committee chairman declared that Sherbrooke had better water (Government reports notwithstanding) than cities and towns equipped with filtration systems. Mayor Armitage congratulated Ald. Genest upon his report. The Chief Magistrate admitted the water had a "bad taste." But he could see no reason to be alarmed about the matter. A few days ago he described the drinking water as "reasonably safe." He declared yesterday he was opposed to the Record's campaign. He feared the adverse publicity. It might result in dwindling of the tourist trade, might keep industries from establishing themselves in Sherbrooke.

"But something could be done to improve the water," he admitted. At this stage Ald. Thibault exploded again.

"I like the water and I find nothing wrong with it," he exclaimed. He added that he believed "outside interests" were pushing the filtration campaign "in the hope of making money."

Here the Chairman of the Waterworks Committee put in his word. He is a mild-mannered man. He declared that his department was doing everything possible to give the community good water. He admitted that certain sections of the city were not receiving "very pure water," but he believed this to be a defect in the water mains.

"I'm no expert," he confessed, "and I suppose something should be done to improve the water, but I don't see any reason to be alarmed about the matter. A little earth in the water will do no one any harm."

Better drinking water was favored by Ald. Alfred Cinq-Mars, chairman of the Police Committee. He said he had heard that in certain parts of the city the water was not pure but believed, as Ald. Vincent did, that the fault might lie in the water mains.

Ald. Alex Ross suggested that the matter be given more complete study. "The water certainly can be improved," he said.

Aids, Bryant and Delorme recommended that experts be appointed to make a survey and place their findings before the Council. While not in favor of filtration, Ald. Delorme emphasized that some steps should be taken to improve the water.

A report was prepared by a Federal Health Inspector regarding the condition of the water," Ald. Cinq-Mars said, "and I don't see the

INSURANCE MEN HOLD MEETINGS IN THIS CITY

Two-Day Conference in Session Here Under Eastern Division Superintendent of Agencies—Interesting Addresses Heard.

Continuing a series of educational conferences launched throughout the Eastern Townships in January of this year, officials and salesmen of the Confederation Life Association Company opened a two-day programme in this city yesterday. Organized by S. H. Gallinger, divisional manager, of Sherbrooke, the gathering was presided over by P. Sewall Roberts, of Toronto, superintendent of agencies, Eastern division.

Matters dealt with at the sessions consisted largely of salesmanship methods, the training of men to serve the public and the explanation of policies to prospective buyers. It was reported that the firm had enjoyed a fine increase in sales since 1937 and that it was now world-wide in scope, embracing such lands as Egypt, India, Europe and South America.

With Mr. Roberts in the chair and Mr. Gallinger as vice-chairman, the conference opened in the New Sherbrooke House yesterday morning. The address of welcome to the delegates was delivered by Mr. Roberts and responded to by Mr. Gallinger. An address on life insurance sales, "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," was then given by the agencies superintendent, followed by a talk given by K. J. McLeod, of Lennoxville, on the experience gained in one year's selling. Remarks by J. A. Couture, Sherbrooke district manager, and Mr. Gallinger were followed by a general discussion led by Mr. Roberts, after which the group adjourned for luncheon.

The members were joined by their wives at the luncheon and an enjoyable period was spent, highlighted by a recitation given by Mrs. K. J. McLeod and piano solos by Miss Mimi Shea. Miss Shea also led the group in singing familiar songs.

Neil Houston, of the firm's Montreal head office, opened the afternoon session with an address on "Group Insurance." During the afternoon meeting remarks were also made by W. Fortin, Sherbrooke district manager, J. U. Tourigny, of Asbestos, and E. Demers, of West Shefford. These addresses were followed by another open discussion led by Mr. Roberts.

Present at the conference were P. Sewall Roberts, Toronto; S. H. Gallinger, Sherbrooke; K. J. McLeod, Lennoxville; W. Fortin, Sherbrooke; J. U. Tourigny, Asbestos; Rene Tanside, West Shefford; O. Benoit, Foster, E. Demers, Waterlool; L. Bergeron, West Shefford; J. A. Couture, A. Beauchemin, L. Belanger, R. Olivier and R. Joyce, of Sherbrooke; F. Labrecque, of Coaticook; E. G. Probyn, of Georgeville; O. Seguin, of Waterville; Neil Houston, of Montreal, and Gilbert Pradeaux, of Princeton, B.C.

City Fathers Adopt Motion For $30,000 Temporary Loan

Council Will Ask Permission from Quebec Municipal Commission to Borrow Amount Necessary to Carry Out Repairs to Wolfe Street Bridge—Routine Matters Discussed at Special Session Yesterday Afternoon.

The City Fathers adopted a resolution to be submitted to the Quebec Municipal Commission for authorization to float a temporary loan of $30,000 for repairs to the Wolfe street bridge at a special session of the Council held at the City Hall yesterday afternoon.

The resolution was proposed by Ald. Henri Vincent, member of the Roads Committee, who announced that Government engineers had urged the necessity of reinforcing the bridge. The sum of $30,000 was needed to strengthen the bridge with steel girders and to tighten the rivets. The amount will also be used to re-pave the bridge and construct a concrete sidewalk.

The Council decided to send two men, Thomas Tremblay and W. L. McSwiggin, to survey the land reported flooded at Weedon and to make a tentative offer to the tenants who are claiming indemnity for damages caused by water. Report of their findings will be presented to the Electricity and Gas Committee and later to the Council.

A resolution submitted by the Electricity and Gas Committee for authorization to purchase from Webster Motors, Limited, a truck complete with chassis and cab, was adopted by the Council.

The Council also authorized the Electricity and Gas Committee to extend the six-inch gas main on McManamy street, a distance of 160 feet, at an approximate cost of four hundred dollars. The gas main on Perry street will also be extended at an approximate cost of $175.

The Council decided to buy equipment for the various municipal departments, including a horse for the Roads Department.

HOSPITAL BLOOD TRANSFUSION FUND DEPLETED

Owing to the large number of patients who are unable to pay for blood transfusions at the Sherbrooke Hospital, the Blood Transfusion Fund is now fairly well depleted and the Hospital authorities would greatly appreciate any donations, large or small to replenish this very important and necessary fund.

There are many cases at the Hospital where lives are saved by blood transfusions. The blood is always available and no patient who is unable to pay is denied this treatment. Those who can pay are expected to do so, but it is only through donations that needy cases can be handled.

Anyone desiring to contribute to this worthy cause is asked to send his or her contribution to the Sherbrooke Trust Company.

SHERBROOKE, THURSDAY, AUGUST 25, 1938.

We know God easily, if we do not constrain ourselves to define Him.—Joubert.

The Fixed Price For Wheat

The extent to which the Federal Government has committed itself in establishing a fixed price of eighty cents a bushel for No. 1 Northern wheat is vividly illustrated when it is realized that on an indicated crop of 300,000,000 bushels, each cent a bushel drop involves a loss of $3,000,000 for the Wheat Board, which is directly financed by the taxpayer. Thus on the basis of the prevailing world price of seventy cents the treasury already stands to lose $30,000,000.

But the limit has not been reached definitely, as the glut of wheat in the chief world markets due to good or bumper crops in the leading producing countries may cause further price declines, some experts now forecasting that it might slump to the fifty cent level which prevailed during the period of 1931-33. At this level it would involve the Federal Treasury in a loss of $90,000,000, which represents one-fifth of the Dominion Government's entire revenue for 1937-38, which was a year of high revenue, while for the current fiscal year the slump in revenues would make the loss proportionately greater.

This represents a rather heavy call on the taxpayers of Eastern Canada towards the support of the Prairies when taken in conjunction with the large appropriations for unemployment and drought relief.

German Religious Troubles

The latest announcement of the German Government that the time in which the fifteen hundred pastors of the German Evangelical Church in Prussia may comply with the order to take the oath of allegiance to the State had been extended to September 30th, indicates that Reichsfuehrer and his associates are still finding the religious problem in that country a really tough nut to crack. This marks the second time such a delay was fixed, the first period of grace having expired July 31st.

As the very basis of a totalitarian state demands blind obedience to the leader, it is essential that no movement not strictly controlled by Government agents be allowed to function in the country lest the groundwork be built for the creation of a rival organization which might ultimately overthrow the powers that be. To this end, on assuming power, the Nazis sought to bring all the religious institutions of the country together under a state-controlled church organization. But here they ran into their hardest problem. The might of the Roman Catholic Church was placed behind the bishops and priests who resisted state domination while the Protestant Church leaders risked prison terms for their refusal to blindly subscribe to Nazi doctrines, the latest order indicating that this opposition is still strongly entrenched.

But it is not against the Protestants alone that the Nazis have turned their guns in the last few days, the officially-inspired organ of the Nazi students publishing an article attacking the World Congress of Catholic Students taking place at Bled in Yugoslavia. This article declared that German students could not participate in such a movement without being forced to be anti-Nazi, as the Pope by his recent pronouncements on the race issue had made it a duty for the students to oppose the National Socialist ideology in all domains.

Adolf Hitler will probably find, as many a better man has done before him, that in interfering with the religious convictions and inclinations of his people he is stirring up a mass of opposition that may ultimately cause his downfall.

Another Sore Spot Cleared Up

Another sore spot on the map of Europe, the arms restrictions placed upon Hungary by the terms of the Trianon treaty signed at the close of the Great War, has been cleared up by the action of the Little Entente nations—Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Yugoslavia—in sweeping away these military clauses and granting Hungary military equality. This followed a similar move by the Balkan Entente which wiped out the restrictive clauses of the Treaty of Neuilly which limited the rearmament of Bulgaria.

Announcing the agreement "in the interests of peace," Dr. Milan Stoyadinovich, Premier and Foreign Minister of Yugoslavia, also declared that the principle of an understanding had also been reached with Hungary on non-aggression pacts and the minority problem details which would be negotiated individually between Hungary and the three other nations concerned. The formal communique expressed satisfaction over improvement in the international situation in Europe, particularly between the Little Entente countries and their neighbors.

While the trouble formerly existing between Hungary and its Danubian neighbors was of no great importance in itself, being essentially a local issue between the powers concerned, it represented another sore spot on the face of Europe which held great potential danger of becoming involved with some of the major issues troubling the statesmen of the Old World and thus creating a situation out of all proportion to its importance. Thus, the action of these four nations in ironing out their difficulties to their mutual satisfaction takes another obstacle out of the path of those seeking to preserve the peace of the world.

An Important Conservation Move

One of the most important projects undertaken by the Dominion and Provincial authorities towards the preservation of the game resources of Canada is the creation of a huge 13,000-square mile beaver reserve in the northern section of the Province of Quebec. This will adjoin a similar reserve of 7,000 square miles which has been operated for the past four years by the Hudson's Bay Company.

Officials of the Company believe that ultimately it will be possible to increase the beaver population of their limits to 25,000, it having grown from 162 to 1,545 in four years, while the population of the Government "farm" to be situated along James Bay, south of the Rupert River, should be proportionately greater. The Company officials will manage the new project assisted by the heads of eight Indian families, who will act as game wardens and census takers. Trapping will be forbidden in the Dominion area until the beaver population has reached 4,000, after which limited privileges will be extended to the Indians.

This project is part of a general campaign to make the Indians of the district self-supporting, as the beaver pelts are a valuable article of commerce while the food is regarded as a great delicacy. The scheme should also aid the general conservation drive and add to the natural wealth of the Province as the overflow from the sanctuary spreads to surrounding areas in a manner similar to the buffalo of the western National Parks in repopulating the Northwest Territories.

Perhaps after a few years the beaver will again be Canada's national crest in more than a name.

QUEBEC'S SHARE?

To the Editor, Sherbrooke Record.

Dear Sir:—An article recently published in Le Canada, under the caption, "Get Quebec's Share," calls for some reply, containing, as it did, statements "not in accordance with the facts." The views of Mr. MacKenzie King, which the article states were "accepted with much cordiality by the British Government," are not the same views as given by him at the opening of informal approaches made by emissaries of that Government. In reply to direct questions, representatives of the Canadian Government in both Houses of Parliament vehemently denied that any such tentative advances had been made but it developed, upon investigation, that not only was such the case, but that Mr. King had definitely turned down flat the proposal of the British Government to spend approximately two hundred and fifty million dollars in Canada for the establishment of air-fields and other aviation projects in the Dominion. We have to thank Hon. Senator Meighen and other good Canadians for probing into the facts, with the result, that Hon. Mr. King, alarmed at possible results if in a provincial election, climbed meekly down from his perch, changed his views and accepted the terms of the British Government. So much for the cordiality claimed by Le Canada.

It certainly takes a phenomenal display of what is now called politeness, "intestinal fortitude" to publish an article entitled "Get Quebec's Share." It may well be asked what possible share can the many politicians and their followers expect, who, for years, have been shouting from the housetops, that under no circumstances would Quebec fight for, or with, Great Britain even if danger threatened the Empire, from which they ardently long to be separated and look forward to the day when a French-Canadian State would be established on the banks of the St. Lawrence. From the exhibition of will and animosity to King and Empire shown on recent occasions, it would be absolutely dangerous, not to say suicidal, to employ people holding such views, in a service where loyalty and fidelity are simply indispensable and whose plans and projects must be guarded in the deepest secrecy from possible alien spies and enemies.

Thank Heaven, there are also many real-hearted French-Canadians in this Province who stand up and sing with fervor, the National Anthem, which by the way is not "O Canada" but "God Save the King." Applicants for employment or contracts in this new air service ought to be obliged to take an oath of allegiance to King and Empire before being considered as entitled to what Le Canada calls "Quebec's Share." Le Canada goes on to ask:

"What shall we do to obtain from the Federal Government the creation in Quebec of several aviation schools and what shall we do to inculcate the British nation to give to our Province a large part of the contracts, which it is prepared to accord to Canadian manufacturers."

As Hans Laufer might say, "Can ye have it?" In Quebec, the answer would be, to point out to his compatriots the necessity of qualifying for any positions to which they aspire—to get rid of the idea that simply because they are French-Canadians they must be appointed to positions qualified by education and experience. It is probably the only part of the world calling itself civilized, where compulsory education is strongly opposed, there is an immense proportion of illiterate and consequently unintelligent citizens. Everywhere but in Quebec, it is admitted, that in this 20th century education is a "sine qua non" for success in any sphere of life and until those responsible for the present conditions waken up to the injury being done along this line "Quebec's share" in any worth-while enterprise will probably be negligible.

Then the education given in secondary schools and colleges is, generally speaking, classical rather than practical. A knowledge of classics is very good but would not be of much assistance to an aviator crossing the Atlantic.

But the most important step to be taken to "Get Quebec's Share" would be to stop this foolish talk about severing Quebec from the Empire and get rid of this disloyal and anti-British attitude so manifest in certain quarters at present. Let Quebec citizens of whatever nationality qualify themselves to occupy positions of responsibility and show, by word and deed, that they are loyal members of the British Empire and they may be sure of justice and consideration irrespective of nationality.

Meanwhile, Le Canada may find itself in trouble with those Quebecers who would scorn to ask or accept favors from the British Government and would rather starve than do so.

LIVED FIFTY-SEVEN YEARS IN ETHIOPIA

(Peterborough Examiner)

Monsieur Jarousseau, the aged prelate who spent fifty-seven years with the French mission in Ethiopia, has returned to France where he will live in retirement in a monastery. He said it had been difficult to carry on missionary work in Ethiopia since the conquest of the land by Italy. He had been deprived of the residence in which he had lived for many years, but in a statement which he made for a French newspaper there was no evidence of personal bitterness.

The prelate said it was not right to state there was any danger of an uprising in Ethiopia, as the country is under military rule and things in general are very quiet.

Both Ethiopians and Italians had been disappointed in the outcome. In the first place many of the people of Ethiopia saw the Italians arrive as liberators because they had been so heavily taxed. The Italians had been under the impression that they were entering a rich country whereas it was actually very poor. Hence both are mistaken.

A large number of people in Ethiopia are today living on the charity extended to them by Italy, and at the same time the Italians are going ahead with a view of making the land productive, and Mons. Jarousseau believe they will eventually succeed in doing so. The policy of the Italians appears to be to win the confidence of the Ethiopians and in that the French prelate believes they will succeed, adding that in a few years the Ethiopians will be completely won over to their new masters.

Mons. Jarousseau was in Ethiopia for fifty-seven years and he was not overly impressed by the conditions under which the people had to live under the rule of Haile Selassie.

HOW GOVERNMENT BEST SERVES PEOPLE

(Toronto Daily Star)

The government which does most for the area which it controls is one which concerns itself most with the least fortunate of its people. Whether its misfortune is due to age (and alleviated by old age pensions), or to sickness (and alleviated by health insurance), or to injuries while at work (and alleviated by workmen's compensation) or to unemployment (and alleviated by relief, or by jobless insurance) or to widowed motherhood (and alleviated by mothers' allowances) from whatever cause the misfortune arises, it is accomplishing one of the finest things that any administration can achieve.

It is encouraging to find the present Ontario Government working upon an ambitious programme of increased hospitalization for mental cases, including a great new $8,000,000 project now under way near St. Thomas.

It is also a cause for congratulation that the Hepburn administration is taking new measures to cope with tuberculosis and thus reduce the mortality from a disease which is particularly dangerous among the people who cannot pay for the expert treatment which so often cures it, or who cannot afford to leave their homes to take treatment.

Freedom from worry, including financial worry, and the opportunity to take a sufficient rest in a sanatorium are two of the factors in achieving a cure. And they are factors which operate against the victim whose means are small and worries many.

Last year the municipalities of Ontario provided $1,350,000 of an enforced payment towards the treatment of indigent consumptives in sanatoria. The Ontario Government has now assumed this burden, but municipalities must provide for the after-care of the patients.

The Government is to be congratulated upon this new health measure, which became effective July 1st as it is also to be commended for the enforced pasteurization of milk in cities and towns and their suburbs commencing October 1, and in a

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

WISE REFUSAL OF RUFF SAVES CONTRACT BID ON SHORT TRUMPS

The selection of a suit, rather than a trump, as the final contract in today's hand is made because the trump suit acts, in part at least, as a barrier against the cashing of adverse aces and kings.

The trump barrier should be strong enough to withstand forces, and for this reason, most good players agree that at least eight trumps are required in the combined hands. The ideal cannot always be attained, however, and some times seven trumps have to do the work of eight—a situation that tests the mettle of the player.

Today's hand was played in a recent city tournament by Edna Goldsmith, president of the Chicago unit of the American Contract Bridge League and one of the leading players of Chicago. When the dummy went down and two club tricks were cashed, Goldsmith realized the danger of ruffing the third round of that suit.

He wisely discarded a heart, and East returned a trump. Goldsmith won in his own hand and cashed the king and ace of hearts, then ruffed a third heart with the jack of trumps.

Three more rounds of trumps picked up the last of West's four, and Goldsmith's precaution was rewarded.

Had he ruffed the third round of clubs, West would have defeated the hand with his long trump,

SUBURBAN HEIGHTS

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

HAVE A SMILE

While on his visit to the United States, Marshal Foch was a guest at a dinner party when one of the other guests took exception to French politeness. "There is nothing in it but wind," he said with questionable taste.

"Neither is there anything but wind in a pneumatic tire," retorted the gallant Marshal, "yet it eases the jolts along life's highway wonderfully."

that they are standardized and therefore simplified. They do not fluctuate with the vagaries of the fashion winds and save the wearer much worry and nervous energy. Women have expressed envy of men when it came to packing for a journey. One bag for a change of clothing can suffice a man, in contrast with the number of bags required by a woman. But now this comforting argument is losing ground. The clothing and luggage designers have apparently been working together on this problem, and the modern woman can now pack enough clothing for twenty changes into one suitcase. The wonder of it! The modern woman trips off on a holiday outfitted with pieces of clothing that will give her enough variety for twenty changes, and it all weighs but thirty pounds, suitcase included; all can be packed in one handbag.

One of the curiosities in the comparison between men's and women's clothing is that they reflect the exact opposite in the characteristics of the sexes. Men are known to be enterprising, daring, bold in the willingness to try out new things, to experiment and make changes. But in their clothing they are basically conservative. Women are said to be inately conservative, not given to accepting quickly any changes in thought, customs or habits of life. But in their clothing they are extremely radical, accepting change and variety unquestioningly and eagerly.

THE CLOTHES OF WOMEN AND MEN

(Toronto Star)

Most designers of women's clothes are men. Men also design and make men's clothes. Why they dress women in cool, filmy, light, gladsome, comfortable clothing and leave men to swelter in layers of heavy garments seems to be one of those enigmas.

An enterprising fashion scout made a comparison of the weights of men's and women's clothing. The comparison is astounding. According to weight alone, women's summer clothes are about five times more comfortable than men's. Here is a girl and hence in a restaurant. The fashionable clothing, which the girl wears weighs just one pound and eleven ounces. The well-dressed man's outfit totals five pounds and nine ounces. The girl is dressed in proper, conventional summer clothing, observing all the fashion nuances. She wears a light-colored crepe dress, which weighs five ounces. Her hat weighs three ounces. The white mesh shoes weigh eleven ounces. The foundation garment tips the scales at three and a half ounces. The silk stockings come to one and a half ounces, and all of her underwear totals three and a half ounces. The man's summer suit of clothing weighs two pounds and ten ounces. Right there he starts off with a major handicap. His shirt weighs eight ounces, his shoes come to one pound and ten ounces, his underwear is three and a half ounces, his socks, tie and belt total six ounces and his hat adds three ounces.

The long-standing argument in favor of modern men's clothing is

BURY LADIES' GROUP HELD A FINE MEETING

United Church Women's Association Made Plans for Oyster Supper—Several Bills Ordered Paid.

Bury, Aug. 25.—A meeting of the Women's Association of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Ronald Costes, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Cook, as joint hostesses. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Lily MacLeod, the president, who also conducted the devotional exercises.

Routine business was dealt with and bills ordered paid, after which plans were made for the annual harvest oyster supper. The roll was called and dues received, after which several members gave suggestions for enlarging the funds of the association. This took place during the time allotted to the entertainment committee. The mizpah benediction closed the meeting and lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. MacRae and Miss Lily Cook.

General Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Britton Haskell Doyle, of Nashua, N.H., have been guests for a few days of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Stokes. Their young son, Richard, was a guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Doyle, in Claremont, while his parents were absent from home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brett have had as their guest Mr. Brett's brother, of Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. L. W. Powell, Mr. James Powell and Mr. Colin Cavenhill, of Grimsby, Ont., who were visiting Mrs. Powell's father, Mr. James Stormont, at the home of his son, Mr. William Stormont, returned to their home in Ontario, on Friday. They were accompanied as far as Sherbrooke by Mr. Stormont, Sr. During their stay they also visited Quebec City, accompanied by Mr. Stormont, Sr., Mrs. William Stormont and Miss Maisie Stormont.

Miss Hilda Goodenough, of Sherbrooke, has been a guest for a few days of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Goodenough.

WITH ROOM FOR HIS "JUNK" DAD WILL BE IN SEVENTH HEAVEN IN HIS OWN HOME

I like the way modern mothers fix up their children's rooms. Dickie no longer sleeps midway between the sewing machine and the clothes hamper, in the shabby hideaway delegated to utility, while the big south room waits in empty grandeur for the twice-a-year guest to justify its name.

Maybe Dickie does have the hall-room, depending on space and the size of the family, but now he has a bookshelf, more shelves for trophies, a desk and closet. One thing a man needs more than anything else, and of course boys, is a place for junk. We call it junk, anyway, women who prize our fluffs and our silks; but to the male heart, any kind of hardware is more precious than rubies. Skates, scroll-saws, hammers and flintlocks need stabling. Besides other articles too numerous to mention. Meaning that no man from five to fifty was ever known to throw away anything more precious than a burnt match. They are hoarders, men are.

So the modern mamma has at last acknowledged defeat and moved over. Now she makes a place for her menfolk. And Dickie has his heaven and Daddy has his den. At least we hope so. About daddy I

Tested Recipes

SQUASH ANY IDEAS YOU HAVE THAT GARDEN VEGETABLES MUST ALWAYS BE PLAIN

Simplicity is a virtue when not practiced too long. That goes for garden vegetables. Try something a bit fancier.

Panfried Corn and Squash Fritters

(Serves 4 to 6)

One and one-half cups corn and mashed squash in equal parts, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper.

Cut cooked corn from cob and add to it enough mashed cooked squash to make 1-2 cups. Beat eggs well and add. Combine flour, salt, baking powder and pepper and sift into mixture. Add more flour if needed to make stiff batter. Fry in fat until well browned. Serve with butter and syrup.

Corn Chowder

(Serves 4 to 6)

One-third cup chopped salt pork or bacon, 1 medium sized onion, 2 cups diced potatoes, 3 cups water, 2-1/2 cups corn, 1 tall can evaporated milk, salt, pepper.

Cook the pork or bacon in a heavy kettle until it is lightly browned. Add the onion which has been chopped and cook for a few minutes longer. Add the potatoes and water and simmer until the potatoes are tender. Add the corn and milk, season with salt and pepper and heat almost to the boiling point.

Squash Cooked in Butter

(Serves 4 to 6)

Two pounds crook neck or Italian (Zucchini) squash, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-2 teaspoon salt, pepper. Wash and scrape squash, cut into pieces, discarding seeds. Melt butter, add squash and salt. Cover and steam until tender, stirring occasionally. Add a little water, if necessary. Sprinkle with pepper and serve.

The next move toward the improvement of the human race will probably read "The Care and Betterment of Fathers." Then they'll be sure to have a corner to themselves, just as the children have now, and I am willing to be the first to endorse this campaign.

Privacy for Dad

Everyone in the house needs a place to himself, if possible. Mother, Dad, Dick and Joan each need an altar of freedom, to which they can retire and call their souls their own.

The instinct for privacy is strong. Yes, it has to be done, sister sharing with sister and brother with brother, when families grow faster than incomes. And in one way it is just as well, because sharing is good for everybody and selfishness thrives so nicely in aloneness. Too much comfort and undisturbed peace may undo us for fellowship. To live undisturbed fixes habit.

However, there is so much to be said for the other side that I think it wins. It does not follow that a private room to one's self always leads to selfishness.

Whenever children sleep and have their being, it should be a place to breed self respect. Pride beckons to care, and beauty to order. Boys love color as well as girls. Let's not forget that.

MAKING WHITE SAUCE

There are several methods of making white sauce. But a method similar to that used for gravy is satisfactory and quick. Unlike gravy, however, white sauce is cooked over water or very low heat to avoid browning or scorching. For starchy vegetables such as potatoes, a thin white sauce is suitable. That's one in which one cup of milk is thickened with one tablespoon of flour blended with one or two tablespoons of fat.

The guests included twenty former class-mates and friends, who spent a most delightful evening together reminiscing about college days and old times. Later delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted in her pleasant and capable duties by Miss Ailette Brochu.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Goodfellow gave a most enjoyable party at their home on the Brompton Road in honor of Miss Florence Kingsley and Mr. Cecil Dougherty, whose marriage takes place this week. Cards and other games were played during the evening and afterwards a delicious buffet supper was served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. E. M. Goodfellow and Mrs. A. J. Ross. The table was centered with a most attractive looking three-tiered wedding cake topped with a tiny bunch of the same dainty pink and white flowers which completed the pretty decorations. Upon being "cut" by the bride-elect the cake was found to contain a lovely crystal water jug and tumblers, a "shower" gift from the twenty-five guests which to the bride and groom was a most welcome addition. After the excitement of the camouflage cake had subsided, Miss Kingsley thanked her friends for their beautiful gifts, to which they responded by heartily singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noel Sarney, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Noel Sarney, were united in marriage to Rev. T. J. Dew officiating. Wedding music was played by Eileen Penelope Kusar. Mrs. A. A. Ogilvie sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white sateen lace redingote in princess style with scalloped front and train, long sleeves with full shoulders and points over the hands, all over heavy white satin. A long veil fell from a halo of lace over satin, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Bridal attendants were Norma Hodge, sister of the bride, and Mrs. J. B. Neeve, sister of the groom. They were gowning, respectively, in pink and blue mousseline over tulle with full skirt and ruffled net bolero. Their hats were of matching material in semi-bonnet effect, and they wore hand crocheted lace mitts. They carried old-fashioned nosegays of pink roses and blue cornflowers. Best man was Ernest Webb and ushers were James B. Neeve and James Scott. A reception was held at the Old Mill, where the bride's mother received wearing hyacinth blue sheer over satin back crepe with matching turban hat and face veil, and corsage of roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's mother wore a white embroidered organdy redingote over black tulle with black cartwheel hat and corsage of red roses. Leaving on a wedding trip to the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, Boston and the coast of Maine, the bride travelled in a navy crepe dress appliqued in colored flowers with navy doll's hat, navy coat with wolf collar. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Sarney will live on Queen's avenue, Richmond, Que., and is a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Profiles For Today

TACT NECESSARY IN LABOR POST BY WOMAN CHIEF

Miss Frieda Miller, close personal friend of Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, has stepped into the job from which the Secretary rose to her present high post. Miss Miller has just been appointed Administrator of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Law of New York State by Governor Lehman.

With C. I. O. and A. F. of L. on opposing sides, Miss Miller's new job will require much tact. She has had long training in the field of labor work and is eminently qualified for the job. Miss Miller, until her promotion, was head of the Bureau of Women in Industry in the Labor Department.

She is forty-eight years old, was born in La Crosse, Wis., and was reared by her grandmother. Both her parents died when she was quite young. She was graduated from the University of Chicago and her graduate work at that institution was what first inspired her interest in the field of labor legislation. She associated herself with the late Jane Addams of Hull House and Miss Sophonisba Breckinridge of the School of Social Welfare Administration at the university.

Miss Miller is a pleasant faced, genial woman. She wears her hair brushed off the forehead in simple style, and affects old-fashioned pince-nez glasses with a little gold chain that hooks around one ear, to save them from smashing in case they should loosen from their perch on her nose.

She knows both John L. Lewis and William Green, but only casually. She laughed and said she looked for no difficulties because of the opposing ideas of these labor leaders.

"New York State has a splendid and extensive body of labor legislation, covering hours, wages, safety conditions and such," she explained. "My job as Industrial Commissioner will be to administer that legislation, always with an eye to the rights of the individual under the law, whether he be a member of a trade union or not. It is a big job and a hard job, and I look forward to it with enthusiasm and with tremendous appreciation of the confidence reflected in Governor Lehman's appointment of me."

BROMPTON ROAD GROUP ENJOYED ANNUAL OUTING

Sugar Bush of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McElrea Made Ideal Setting for Women's Institute Picnic.

Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McElrea, the Brompton Road Women's Institute held their annual picnic amidst the attractive surroundings in their sugar bush, which formed an ideal setting for this largely attended and most successful event. The delicious picnic lunch was served at long tables and needless to say the many tempting edibles were very much appreciated by the merry crowd which gathered around the festive board, and were so lavishly entertained by the W.I.

Before commencing the sports programme a brief business session was held, with Miss Verna Hatch, the president, presiding. After the adoption of the minutes it was reported that cards had been sent to bereaved families and a donation voted to the Sherbrooke Hospital.

Mrs. F. Goodfellow and Miss Idell McLeod then took charge, the prizes for the several events being presented to the winners as follows:

Boys and girls four years and under: 1 Joan Billings, 2 Garth McElrea.

Girls five and six years: 1 Margaret McElrea, 2 Eleanor Goodfellow.

Boys seven, eight and nine years: 1 Annie Page, 2 Edith Lavallee.

Boys seven, eight and nine years: 1 Alton McElrea, 2 Wilfred McGinty.

Girls ten, eleven and twelve years: 1 Rachel Harding, 2 Jean Page.

Boys ten, eleven and twelve years: 1 Ellery Page, 2 Herbert Winget.

Girls thirteen, fourteen and fifteen years: 1 Janet Rose and Sylvia Goodfellow (equal).

Boys, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen years: 1 Malcolm McLeod and Ellery Page (equal).

Card race: Mr. and Mrs. Alden Clark.

The race: Lewis Jones and Rose Page.

Throwing rolling pin: 1 Mrs. Gordon McElrea, 2 Mrs. Irvin Page.

High jump, girls: 1 Sylvia Goodfellow, 2 Janet Rose.

High jump, young men: 1 Alden Clark, 2 Gordon McElrea.

Wheelbarrow race: Alden Clark and Wilbur Page.

Three-legged race: Vera McLeod and Marion Goodfellow.

After the enjoyable sports events, which created much excitement and added greatly to the success of the day's outing, the picnic was made complete with ice cream and soft drinks, the sale of which was sponsored by the W.I. Prior to dispersing Miss Verna Hatch, on behalf of the W.I., extended a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. McElrea whose kind hospitality all had so much enjoyed. The president also included each and every one who had helped in any way towards making the picnic such a grand success, especially mentioning the St. Francis Club and their generous donation.

Mrs. Lemuel Clark and Mrs. Samuel Clark will be hostesses for the September meeting of the Brompton Road W.I. at the former's home.

NEW SCHOOL PLANS COMPLETED

Plans for the new boys' school to be built by the Catholic School Commission have been drawn by Alfred Potvin, architect, and will be sent to Quebec for approval.

The new structure will be one hundred and twenty-six feet long and thirty-five feet wide. There will be a large, well-equipped basement, a Brothers' residence on the first floor and six class rooms on the second and third stories.

The class rooms will extend across the building from north to south, and the plans lend themselves admirably to additions.

Tenders will shortly be called and it is expected the school will be ready for occupation by September 1939.

The school will be a creditable addition to the public buildings of a town. Plans call for the opening of a new street from South to Oxford streets, connecting with Cambridge street.

FINE READINGS ARE DELIVERED AT SCOTSTOWN

Women's Christian Temperance Union Members Study Interesting Articles Dealing with Narcotics.

Scotstown, Aug. 25.—The August meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Scott. The president, Mrs. R. A. Scott, opened the meeting and conducted the Evangelistic session. The theme, "On taking a journey," was based on Samuel I, chapter twenty, with splendid comments written by Mrs. W. Fugatey, Dominion Evangelist Superintendent.

It was decided to send for copies of the anti-narcotics law and also for temperance posters to be used in rest room at the Fair. A letter of appreciation was read from Mrs. D. A. MacLean, of Marsboro, a member who had been ill in the hospital.

It was reported that a handkerchief shower had been given Mrs. L. J. Fairfield prior to her departure for Shawville. The presentation was made by Mrs. A. G. Sherman and Mrs. R. A. Scott, while the gifts were presented in a flower-decorated container. The members deeply regret the loss of Mrs. Fairfield, who was a faithful and valued member.

EXAM RESULTS PUBLISHED AT EAST BOLTON

Very Gratifying Showing in Tests Made by Pupils of East Bolton School—Nine-Month Term Held.

East Bolton, Aug. 25.—Results of June examinations held at East Bolton School were very gratifying to the pupils and commissioners, the school, at East Bolton, district No. 11, being more or less of an experiment. After it had been in operation two years, Grade VIII was allowed along with the lower grades.

In 1937-38 Grade's VII, VIII and IX were under the direction of Ian Hume, B.A., the following percentages were obtained, with but a nine-month school period:

Grade IX: John Patterson, 87.9; Ruth Dingman, 81.1; John Taylor, 74.4; Marion Stark, 67.8; Roswell Jersey, 67.1.

Grade VIII: Roland Royce, 70; Mary Butters, 69.2; Rhoda Westover, 68.7; Ross Juby, 65.1; Elsie Patterson, 65; John Butters, 63.5.

Grade VII: Alice Dingman, 73.9; Betty Fuller, 69.9; David Rawlings, 68.9.

The two latter pupils in Grade VII came from district No. 4 and No. 14. Exceptional mention should be made of Miss Ruth Dingman, who received 81.1 with only 108 days attendance because of sickness.

This school will re-open on September 7, Ian Hume, as teacher, and through the Department of Education, Quebec, permission has been received to teach Grades VIII, IX and X. It is hoped parents recognize the advantage of this extra education within the confines of their municipality and will co-operate in every way to make the coming year even more beneficial than the last to the eleven pupils in Grades VIII, IX and X and also to any others within the municipality who may wish to attend.

LEMESURIER
The regular monthly meeting of the W.M.S. Auxiliary was held in Reid's Presbyterian Church. The devotional period was conducted by the president, Mrs. Smith. The business session followed and plans were discussed for the sectional meeting in Inverness on August 26.

A very interesting and instructive address was given by Rev. H. Gilmour, in which, while not minimizing the importance and difficulties of the foreign fields, he showed there were obstacles to be met by the home missionaries, especially in the Canadian Northwest, where he had served as a student preacher some years ago. He spoke of the gratitude of his hearers and their appreciation of the services, and of the difficulties they had to overcome in order to be present. A new interest was aroused in home missions. The Misses Lila and Elizabeth Oliver sang a duet and the meeting closed with prayer.

W.M.S. HEARD FINE TALK

Mrs. F. A. Johnston, of Ayer's Cliff, was the guest-speaker at St. Paul's United Church, when the service was held under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society, with Mrs. E. Ball in charge.

Mrs. Johnston gave the message from Dr. Margaret McKellar, who was for fourteen years missionary in India. When Mr. and Mrs. Johnston attended the Dominion Board at Toronto it was their privilege to stay at her home and to convey Mrs. McKellar to and from the meetings.

In her remarks, Mrs. Johnston quoted the poem, "The Tide Is Sure to Win." In China, during the war-torn days, the missionaries are getting into closer contact with the suffering people, said the speaker.

In India, too, where the people are group-conscious, there is an inspiring for Christian instruction. The trouble with the Christian religion today is not in the foreign fields but at home in our churches. It was declared that at home are failing; we must push up the shade and keep looking and face the problems of the day. Christianity is the only thing today to alter the conditions of a restless and upheaved world.

Mrs. A. E. Sandell sang a solo, "Cast Thy Bread On the Water," accompanied by Miss Doris Smith.

PUERTO RICAN FLASH K.O.'S DROUILLARD

Montanez On Warpath In Lightweight Class

Referee Arthur Donovan Stops Tilt While Windsor, Ont., Veteran Struggles to Regain Feet—French-Canadian Gallant in Defeat—Canadian Tussler Wins Over Frankie Castiglia.

New York, Aug. 25.—Orville Drouillard saw his big chance to crash boxing's inner circle fade into oblivion today but the freckle-faced French-Canadian maintained his brilliant record of never having heard the count of ten over him.

Battered and helpless in his fight with Pedro Montanez in Madison Square Garden last night, Drouillard was saved from the first knockout of his career when Referee Arthur Donovan stopped the bout in the fifth round while the Windsor, Ont., veteran struggled to regain his feet.

Montanez, seeking his second shot at the world lightweight title, weighed 138 3-4 and Drouillard, trying gamely to fool the expert, weighed him no chance, sealed 137. But Orville wasn't in the same class as the "Duke" Destroyer, who dominated the fight in each of the five rounds.

Late in the fourth heat, after absorbing countless punches to the head, Drouillard slumped to the floor for a nine-count. He regained his feet, and weathered Pedro's attack for the remaining few seconds of the session.

Badly beaten, the Canadian had no defence to offer in the fifth round and after stepping into an avalanche of leather aimed at his head and body, collapsed as though from exhaustion. He tried to raise for a final stand but Donovan tapped him on the back and waved Montanez to his corner.

For the Puerto Rican it was his second straight win in his comeback campaign since losing to Lou Ambers in a lightweight title fight here last September. It was his thirtieth victory in thirty-one fights since coming to the United States and his eighteenth knockout.

Stealing the show from the headlines was another Canadian, twenty-four year old Walter Franklin, who was born in Hamilton and learned boxing in Windsor, Ont. A Yemite Jew who came here from Detroit six months ago, Franklin scored an impressive technical knockout victory over Brooklyn's Frankie Castiglia.

Weighing 156, four pounds lighter than his stocky opponent, Franklin, son of an East Side rabbi, drew loudest ovation of the night from the crowd of more than 10,000 fans as he systematically hammered Castiglia into a state of helplessness.

MONARCHS HOLD ONE-GAME EDGE IN PLAY-OFFS

Defeat Acton Vale in Twelve-Inning Tussle as St. Francis Baseball League Eliminations Get Under Way.

Acton Vale, Aug. 25.—After battling for eleven innings to a four-all tie, Richmond Monarchs pushed over a run in the twelfth to win five to four over Acton Vale in a thrilling St. Francis Baseball League play-off game.

The encounter was the first in a two-out-of-three series between the first and fourth teams for the right to play the winner of a similar series between the second and third squads for the league championship.

The feature of the tilt was a hurling duel between Rooney, of Richmond, and Lemoine, of Acton Vale. The former allowed eleven safeties, walked four and fanned eight over the twelve-inning routine while Lemoine gave out only nine bingles, walked none and struck out six.

After two scoreless frames, Acton Vale pushed over a run in the third and three in the fourth to assume a commanding lead. Richmond came back with four tallies in the sixth, to even up the game, and from then right through to the twelfth both teams were retired in short order.

Lemoine cracked out two doubles for the losing outfit while Meunier hit four-for-six. Roy, Rochford and Lacroix led the Monarchs with two safeties each.

Score by innings:
Richmond 000 004 000 001—5 9 2
Acton V. 001 300 000 000—1 11 1
Batteries: Rooney and Cabana; Lemoine and Meunier.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Outstanding players in the major leagues yesterday were:

Curt Davis, Cardinals—Handled cutters with one hit for five to nothing win.

Bruce Campbell, Indians—Hit two homers drove in three runs in five to three victory over Red Sox.

Pep Young, Pirates—Tripled to spark winning rally in six to two defeat of Bees.

Wally Moses and George Caster, Athletics—Former hit two triples and three singles in doubleheader win over Tigers; Caster pitched five-hitter for eleven to two nightcap decision.

Vance Page, Cubs—Beat Giants, six to one, with four hits.

Jimmy Dykes, White Sox, and Tommy Henrich and Monte Pearson, Yankees—Dykes hit homer and two singles, driving in four runs, in eight to five opener win; Henrich hit two homers and Pearson pitched five-hitter in eleven to one nightcap.

Jim Weaver, Reds—Limited Philadelphia's hits in seven-inning relief trick to save three to one victory.

Ken Chase, Senators—Pitched two runless-hitless innings to stop Browns' late rally as Senators won, eight to six.

Any day now Mrs. Helen Willis Moody may announce she has turned pro.

Three Rivers Regains Full-Game Advantage

Trifluvian Nine Takes Quebec Nine-Four While Sherbrooke-Granby Game Is Rained Out—Fourth-Place Rivals Have Each Four More Games—Homesters Need Win Tonight.

Three Rivers' nine-to-four victory over Quebec Athletics last night increased their lead over Sherbrooke to one full game in the fight for fourth place and a play-off berth in the Provincial Baseball League.

Sherbrooke was idle last night and the Trifluvian nine picked up half a game through their win. The encounter, however, erased their advantage of a game to spare over the Hammondmen—as both squads have now played fifty-six games—and placed the battle purely on a win and loss basis from now on.

Both Sherbrooke and Three Rivers have four games left to play. Sherbrooke plays Granby twice and Quebec and Three Rivers once, while in addition to the tilt with Sherbrooke Three Rivers meets Sorel twice and St. Hyacinthe once. A win for the locals over Quebec here tonight, coupled with a defeat for Three Rivers, would place the two nines on even terms again.

The game in Quebec was halted in the sixth by darkness. Pete Gray, one-armed outfield star, collected three hits for the winners.

merely Jacobs' hired hand.

All roads should lead to the North Hatley end of Lake Massawippi on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Apparently some of the fastest out-board and inboard racing craft will be on parade. Classes "A", "B", "C" and "D" outboards will race, and there will be events in two divisions of the 225 class. In addition, there will be a Canadian championship race for single engine unlimited motor boats.

The programme is designed to provide first class two-day entertainment for racing enthusiasts.

If employees at the Kayser plant are wearing dark stripes around their arms these days it is because they are in mourning. They grieve because of the death of the Kleinman's championship hopes. It must have been a sad blow to the Kayser players to meet defeat with victory only inches from their grasp, after being through the regular schedule without defeat.

Conspicuous because of its absence was an exchange of congratulations and condolences between New Wellington and Kayser players after the game. No matter how much two teams may feud on the playing field, floor or rink, the losing outfit usually congratulates the winning crew, if merely to carry out a formality. There was none of that, however, as the City Softball League tide changed hands.

Over in Cowansville the players in the two softball leagues are in the midst of play-offs. Vilas and Bruck Silks will compete for the right to meet National Alliance, last year's champions, in the final. On some free Saturday afternoon it might be a good stunt to bring the winning aggregation here for an exhibition encounter with New Wellington.

The Cowansville outfit could probably give the local champs a good game, and perhaps beat them.

We wonder whether or not the Kayser softball squad, if they, instead of New Wellington, had won the City Softball League championship, would have been guests of the Sherbrooke Baseball Club as were the lads on the hotelmen's roster.

Directors of the Montreal Royals International Baseball League team are more than pleased with the way the lads are playing ball for Alex man.

GRAY IS GREAT ATTRACTION IN SEMI-PRO BALL

Story of Three Rivers' One-Armed Centre-Fielder Epic of Sheer Courage—Hit .381 with Scranton, Pa., Last Year.

Montreal, Aug. 25.—Handicaps mean little to slim Peter Gray, star outfielder and .300 hitter with Three Rivers' entry in the Quebec Provincial Baseball League.

Pete has only one arm. Eighteen years ago when he was a six-year-old youngster in Nantux, Pa., he fell from the running board of a moving automobile to lose his right arm—and develop into one of the greatest individual attractions known to today's semi-professional diamond wars.

For five years now this young Lithuanian-American, who changed his name from Wysner to Gray because the latter was more "pronounceable," has performed in the monied ranks. And each year he has topped the 300 mark.

Pete says his "biggest" season in organized baseball was one with Scranton of the Northwestern Pennsylvania League when he garnered a batting average of .381 in twenty-one games. And he is not "slipping" yet, says Pete, for his Three Rivers average is slightly over .300 and he likes to recall now and then.

Gray's fielding formula at his centre-pasture post is simple. When a high drive plummets out of the sky or a blistering grounder skims over the grass, Pete spears the ball in an unspurred, loose-fitting glove into which only his fingers fit, yanks off the glove by shoving it under his right arm stump and then whisks the pellet to the infield. The whole process takes only a second or two.

Pete also "plays around with a hockey stick" and once took a fling at football. But he has no illusions about his station in the ice game and ever since his first tackle broke his arm, football has been "out."

Hooks, the fans are calling them the "Hustling Hooksters" and swinging right behind them. As a result, speculation is rife as to whether or not the tall Texan will be signed as next year's manager.

Hooks feels that he has four or five good years of baseball left in his system and would rather continue as a player. Whether or not he changes his mind remains to be seen. Other possible managers are Tony "Pouch" em up Lazzari, former manager of Yanks and now with Chicago Cubs, and Rogers Hornsby, baseball's stormy petrel.

"Hank" Greenberg is still ahead of Babe Ruth's home run mark, but somehow not many of the experts give him much of a chance to set up a new record. The fences in Detroit's park are a long, long way from home plate, and, besides, all the pitchers will be laying for him. Sentimental attachment to the memory of George Herman Ruth in his glory days keeps many fans hoping that the Tigers' star will fail.

New York, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Charlie Comiskey, twelve year old son of the Chicago White Sox owner, is making the eastern swing with the Sox. He puts on a uniform, sits on the bench and is having the very best of a time. And he was in Jim Braddock's spot at 10:30 last night.

The Yanks say the reason you don't see more of Red Rolfe (he's just one of the two best third sackers in the majors) in the headlines is because Red is strictly a team player.

Joe Mack led a sixty-one-hit attack with a three-run homer and two singles to spoil Ollie Carnegie

Pirates Appear Cinch For Frick Loop Flag

Top Teams in National Show Off-Color Form While Reds and Cards Pep Up Pace—Yanks Twelve Games Up and Heading for Finish in Old-Time Style—Indians and Sox Tie for Second.

The fearsome prospect of having to tangle with those awful Yankees in another world series appears to have the National League's leading citizens scared to death of winning their own pennant.

At least, that's the way the current senior circuit race (if you can call it that) looks, what with Pirates having a tough time scratching an even .500 average in their last twenty games, Giants winning just thirteen in the last twenty-seven and the Chicago Cubs playing seventh-place ball for the past month.

In fact, the way the favorites have been doing their darnedest to kick their chances away, only Frankie Frisch's collapsible Cardinals and Willy McKechnie's raw Reds appear to have serious designs on the flag.

As matters have been progressing, however, Pirates have not much chance to sidestep during the closing drive. They announced Boston Bees, six to two yesterday, largely through Pep Young's triple with the bases loaded. Although that was only their seventh win in fifteen times out, it boosted their first-place margin to six full games.

Of course, Cards are now eighteen full games behind the pace-setters. But with Lonnie Warneke's lanky arm mowing the other fellows down, and Curt (Bargain Counter) Davis starting to click—as witness that one-hit, five to nothing decision he posted against Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday—"Onkel Frank" may still get his boys into the money.

Reds are generally regarded as too young to stand the gaff of the stretch drive, but the fact that no other first division club has as good a record in the past month makes it barely possible they may come through. They chalked up their seventeenth win in thirty starts yesterday with a three to one victory over the futile Phillies.

Since Vance Page, the "old man" rookie, tossed a four-hitter to give Cubs a six to one win over Giants, this left Reds just half a game out of second place.

Gehrig and Company split with Chicago White Sox to climb twelve full games in front in the American League fixtures. Jimmy Dykes' three-run homer paced the Sox to an eight to five opener win, and Tommy Henrich's two homers gave Yanks the afterpiece eleven to one.

Three changes in the brackets featured the junior circuit programme. Cleveland's Indians climbed "W" to a second place tie by tombling Boston Red Sox, five to three. Washington regained sole possession of fourth place with a close eight to six edge over St. Louis Browns, and Athletics pulled themselves out of the cellar with a lop-sided double win over Detroit, ten to five and eleven to one.

CHIEFS PITCH TENTS IN SECOND SPOT
Syracuse Chiefs, who generally show little concern for Newark Bears' success, are thankful today for a pair of Newark victories that has boosted them into second place in the International League.

Chiefs, who have been threatening to take over the runner-up spot from Rochester Red Wings for the past few weeks, finally moved in last night when they downed Buffalo Bisons eight to five while Bears were halting Red Wings two to one and five to one.

Joe Mack led a sixty-one-hit attack with a three-run homer and two singles to spoil Ollie Carnegie

Tommy Farr isn't booked to fight anybody; he isn't even in training, but his fan mail averages four hundred letters per week, most of them asking for photos.

The Cardinal front office (Breadon and Rickey) is said to have a mild feud on as to whether Frankie Frisch will get a new contract. Breadon is pro and Rickey anti.

Henry Armstrong is the world's welterweight champion, but can't fight over-the-weight bouts in that division because he can't build up to 148 pounds to save his life.

Note to Mel Harder: Joe DiMaggio says you give him more trouble than any other chucker in the American League.
