Returned by the Grand Jury at the Fall Term of the Court of King's Bench.

Montreal, Que., Nov. 2.—Eight true bills for attempted murder were brought in this afternoon by the grand jury, which was empanelled at this morning's session of the fall assizes of the Court of King's Bench.

Peachey was up last spring on the murder charge, following the death of Emile Lisotte, who died following a street row in which Peachey was involved.

Dackter, Smith and Skringie are accused of attacking a woman who refused to admit them into her house.

Hayes is charged with having entered a boarding house and assaulted a young woman, firing at her when she resisted him.

The others were involved in street fights.

Julian Zerbo, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of a man named Brinzak, during a quarrel, did not answer to his name, and his bond was estreated.

R. & O. COMPANY MAY

BUILD FOUR NEW BOATS.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—A meeting of the directors of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company was held this morning, and consideration was given a proposal to purchase four new boats. Nothing definite was done at the meeting, though it seems that it is imperative that the company's fleet be augmented. It is understood that a new vessel will be built for the upper lakes service, a new one for the Saguenay service, one for the Montreal-Toronto service and one for the Rochester service.

REDUCING ITS EMPLOYEES.

Sedalia, Mo., Nov. 2.—A second curtailment of the shop force of the Missouri Pacific Railway within a week was made here to-day when 280 men were dropped. Five hundred and thirty shovellers in all have been laid off this week. The only explanation given was that a cut had been made in the month's appropriation.

FIRST SPEECH OF HON. W. W. WHITE

Minister of Finance, Since Entering Borden Cabinet—He Explains His Position.

Lansdowne, Ont., Nov. 2.—Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, made here to-night his initial speech since becoming a member of the Borden Ministry. It was on the occasion of the opening of his campaign for election to the Commons for the County of Leeds, where George Taylor resigned to make way for him.

At the outset he expressed appreciation of Mr. Taylor's act. Continuing he said in part: "When, as the result of the election, reciprocity was laid at rest and I returned to my desk I had no thought whatever of entering the field of active politics. It was at this time that I was honored by receiving from Mr. Borden an invitation to join his Cabinet, which I conceived it my duty to accept."

Proceeding Mr. White expressed his sympathy with the farming community. He said he had discontinued his financial connections and was free to serve the country, unfettered and untrammelled by any interest.

Dealing with the tariff he enumerated his policy, he said: "I have always believed in a policy of reasonable protection for Canada, including protection for the farmer. Especially is such protection desirable for him during the constructive stage of a nation's development."

G. G. Stewart, K. C., and Hon. A. Taschereau, K. C., for the appellant; L. N. Belleau, K. C., for the respondent, Bernier; M. Chouinard, K. C., for the City of Quebec.

LEVIS FERRY CASE BEING ARGUED

Before the Supreme Court—It Is the Appeal of Ray vs. the City of Quebec.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 2.—In the Supreme Court today the appeal in the case of Ray vs. City of Quebec et al. was heard. The appellant, a ratepayer of the city and a shareholder in the Quebec & Levis Ferry Company, brought the action to set aside a by-law and contract whereby Alphonse Bernier obtained the exclusive privilege of operating the ferry across the River St. Lawrence between Quebec and Levis for fifteen years from May 1, 1910.

The defects charged were that there was no quorum of the council present at the passing of the by-law, that conditions necessary to make it effective had not been observed, and that the licensee was Mayor of Levis and an official member of the joint committee of the councils of Quebec and Levis at the time he obtained the grant of the ferry privilege.

WANT A TAX REMOVED.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—A big delegation, representing the Montreal Board of Trade, Chambre de Commerce, manufacturers' Association, and the Builders' Exchange, together with representatives of commercial bodies in thirteen outside cities in the Province, will wait on Sir Lomer Gouin, the Premier of Quebec, and Hon. P. S. G. Mackenzie, Provincial Treasurer, to-morrow, to urge the abolition of the tax on commercial corporations.

STOLEN MONEY FOUND

UNDER SIDEWALK

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 2.—About $25,000 of the money recently stolen from the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster has been recovered. The money was found this afternoon under a sidewalk in front of Dr. Walker's house on Fourth street, New Westminster. It was discovered by George McCleary, foreman for the Power Construction Company, which has the contract for laying new sidewalks along Fourth street.

SERIOUS FIRE AT

PEMBROKE, ONTARIO

Pembroke, Ont., Nov. 2.—The plant of the Thomas Pink Company, Ltd., was almost entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour today. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $35,000 and is fully covered by insurance. This firm manufactures lumbering tools and as they were soon to make shipments for the early spring demand it will prove a serious handicap, though they propose rebuilding at once. It was situated in a hazardous section of the town and if a wind had been blowing the entire business section might have been wiped out.

MONTREAL CITIZENS' ASSOCIATION MEETS.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—The Montreal Citizens' Association, formed during the last days of what was known as the "old regime" to establish clean municipal government in place of the rule of graft and corruption, which was found to exist at the City Hall, held its annual meeting to-day. The new board of directors elected were as follows:—The officers are to be elected by themselves at a meeting which will be held later: The Hon. Arthur Boyer, Alfred Brunet, Charles Chaput, Hon. Alphonse Desjardins, Charles R. Hosmer, H. J. Kavanagh, C.R.; E. H. Lemay, Peter Lyall, Jas. Morgan, C. S. J. Phillips, Hon. J. D. Rolland, J. A. Vaillancourt, Hon. T. Chase Casgrain, L. J. O. Beauchemin, C. A. Harwood, Senator Dandurand, and ex-Mayor Laporte, two of the leading spirits in the successful fight for a board of control, a reduced city council, and the suppression of the patronage evil, refused to be re-elected, but promised to support the association. The annual report took up a number of civic questions. It

ITALIANS LOCKED UP IN TRIPOLI

Is the Claim of the Turkish Commander—Dare Not Go Outside Fortifications.

Constantinople, Nov. 2.—The commander of the Turkish forces at Tripoli telegraphs his government under date of October 30 as follows: "The Turks have occupied all the forts surrounding the town. The Italians are demoralized and do not dare to venture outside the zone of fortifications."

Tripoli, Nov. 2.—The Turks this morning brought up a few guns to the south of El Mosri an opened fire. This was not effective, as most of the shells failed to explode. The Italian artillery soon silenced the guns, and forced the enemy to retire. About five o'clock last evening Turks appeared before the line of defenses and forced the Eighty-second Italian infantry to fall back from their position. The cruiser Carlo Alberto soon located the Turkish artillery, and by a well directed and vigorous fire silenced it.

Frankfort, Germany, Nov. 2.—The Frankfurter Zeitung's Milan correspondent says that the Italians are strengthening their active fleet with ships from the reserve. Twenty-three gunboats are proceeding from Spezia to Tripoli.

Malta, Nov. 2.—It is reported that the whole Italian fleet has left Tripoli for Turkish waters. The Italian government has suppressed direct sailings between Tripoli and Malta, owing to the leakage of news to foreign papers. All the mails from Tripoli have now to run the gauntlet of censorship at Sicily.

NOMINATED A CANDIDATE.

Owen Sound, Ont., Nov. 2.—North Grey Conservatives to-day nominated Geo. M. Boyd, of Owen Sound as standard bearer at the coming provincial election. Colin S. Cameron, of Owen Sound, received a substantial number of votes and James McLaughlin, of Owen Sound, and Geo. B. Carnahan, of Meaford, were also the choices of several delegates. Mr. Boyd is a veteran of many campaigns and was a member of the Provincial Legislature several years ago.

D. BRUCE RIDPATH RUN DOWN BY AN AUTOMOBILE

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 2.—D. Bruce Ridpath, the well known hockey player, is in St. Michael's Hospital, in an unconscious condition and the chances for his recovery are very slim. He is suffering from concussion of the brain, his face and head are badly cut and bruised and although the doctors are not yet positive, he apparently has a fractured skull. Ridpath's injuries resulted from an automobile accident at Yonge and Alexander streets tonight. He was struck by an automobile owned and driven by Colin A. Campbell, 62 Havelock street. Ridpath alighted from a Yonge street car and walked behind it, when the automobile containing a party of men and women came down Yonge street, and Ridpath was struck down. He was thrown to the side of the street with great force, as the automobile was travelling fairly fast. Campbell stopped his machine and after carrying Ridpath to a drug store hurried for medical aid. Two doctors worked over Ridpath but could not restore consciousness and he was then taken to the hospital in the ambulance. Campbell followed the injured man to the hospital and also found Ridpath's brother and informed him of the accident. Campbell was arrested shortly after midnight, charged with causing grievous bodily injury and lodged in the cells. At 2 a. m. Ridpath's condition was unchanged.

TO APPEAL TO THE PRIVY COUNCIL.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 2.—Four directors of the defunct Sovereign Bank were granted permission today by Justice MacLaren, of the Court of Appeal, to appeal direct to the Privy Council from the decision of the Court of Appeal, reserving the decision of the chancellor in favor of the directors. The deposit of $2,000 as security was held by His Lordship to be sufficient, although the Sovereign Bank opposed it. The action was originally brought by Mr. W. E. Stavert as curator. The directors appealing are Donald McMillan, D. D. McMillan, James McPhee and D. A. Campbell. The amount involved is large, being sums claimed from the directors on notes signed by them.

MAN TRAVELING UNDER MANY DIFFERENT NAMES

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 2.—A man variously known by the names of John Cross, John Copeland and John Victor is now under arrest in Hamilton, and the police believe that he is one of the men who escaped from Toronto Jail on the 17th of July, 1908. He was of the Rose and Churchill party, who made the sensational departure from Governor Chamber's lodging house across the Don. Seven escaped at the time, and four have already been accounted for. Copeland, the name under which he was serving time, was arrested for a number of thefts in Toronto, and was waiting trial when he made his escape. He was arrested in Hamilton last Monday on a charge of vagrancy and was following the vocation of a peddler at the time. His photograph was taken and sent to Toronto with his description.

FOUR CHILDREN MEET DEATH BY DROWNING

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 2.—Four deaths by drowning in Netley Creek near St. Louis, about thirty-five miles from this city, in the direction of Lake Winnipeg, occurred at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon. The victims are Melvin McNair, aged 15; two cousins named Eddie Kirkes and Emma Sette, and Veronica Berthold, aged 8. The oldest of the victims owned a sleigh and a team of dogs, and at noon recess invited the children of the school to go for a ride on the ice of the creek which in places is about an inch thick. All refused but the three that were drowned with him.

TRIED TO KILL HIMSELF.

Thamesville, Ont., Nov. 2.—A man named Alex Baxter, from near Rodney, either fell or jumped in front of a Wahash train today. He was badly cut about the head, but was not rendered unconscious. The accident took place just east of the Northwood station, and it is said by bystanders that when he was brought to Thamesville on the train that struck him, he got off and tried to jump in front of another one near the station here. He was taken in charge by Constable Richards here.

REIGN OF TERROR IN ALABAMA.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 2.—A reign of terror exists in the vicinity of Lewisburg and Arcadia, about four miles north of Birmingham, as a result of recent assassinations for which so far no arrests have been made because it is reported the entire community is intimidated into not giving information. Six white men and eleven negroes have been slain in that section in the past 18 months. Six of the negroes have been killed within the past six days. A deputy sheriff has received Black Hand letters not to approach the section, but steps were taken to-day by the sheriff, which, it is believed, will result in a sensational raid and clean up to-morrow or Saturday.

THE NAVAL PROPOSAL.
The military editor of Le Soleil is greatly shocked to hear that the Borden government is reported to be contemplating a naval programme, whereby the same vessels may be used both for commerce and war. Naturally, this is far from pleasing to the minds of those experts who would much prefer the Dominion to continue to rely on the sorrowful Niobe and the radiant Rainbow as our bulwarks.

Of course, we should have known better. But, now that we have heard Le Soleil's opinion, we realise that the vessels now proposed would never delight the warlike soul of the gentleman who prefers the tin-pot navy. For one thing, they have never been scrapped. For another, they are likely to be too busy to be utilized as political sideshows at Old Home Weeks, etc. And, yet again, they are more likely to avoid the dangers of the rocks than to follow out the tradition established by the Laurier Atlantic squadron, and to impale themselves upon them.

We apologise to the expert of Le Soleil for having thus rudely interrupted his dream and violated the canons of the Laurier naval policy. We might have known that the commercial and utilitarian aspect of the latest plan could never have found favor with those who had cherished visions of awful ultra-Niobes and terrible super-Rainbows that might have come into existence if Father Vaughan's indiscretion had not driven the Laurier government out of existence!

UNNECESSARY FEAR.
The local organ of the Liberal party, or of what is left of that party, is willing to concede that the government members in Quebec are anxious to do something for the port, but thinks that the schemes for the improvement of the port will come to nothing.

"We know from old experience," it says, "the value of all such whooping up as is going on and of all such gush as is being indulged in at present."

There are few people who will not admit that the above gratuitous admission on the part of our contemporary is fully justified. Who should know better than it? For fifteen years the journal in question has been "whooping up" and "gushing" around, and what has come of it? The amount of good done to Quebec by the late government during the whole period of its administration would hardly suffice to cover a salt-spoon. It becomes a journal that has sacrificed the interests of Quebec to party spirit as far as it was able to rise up on its hind legs at this juncture and dictate with brazen and shameless arrogance to the men whom it alternately reviles and fawns upon as to what shall or shall not be done for the port. It would be a sorry situation for Quebec if nothing could be done here without the permission of our evening contemporary.

FIRE LOSSES.
It is pointed out that if the figures given by the Monetary Times of the fire losses throughout Canada in 1910 were multiplied by four, the resulting total would represent the value of the same year's wheat crop. In other words Canada's fire losses amount to the burning of the wheat crop every fourth year. The consideration of ways and means to lessen this huge destruction of the results of human labor might well claim greater attention in this era of aroused public interest in the conservation of natural resources. According to the statistics furnished by the Monetary Times for the first eight months of the present year, Canada's fire losses amounted to $15,381,000, which is practically $1,922,000 a month, $63,000 a day, $2,600 an hour, and $44 a minute.

THE SLAUGHTER OF HUNTERS
From the fact that the slaughter of hunters by other hunters goes on year after year one is forced to the conclusion that those who pursue the beasts of the forest are unable to contrive any plan whereby these lamentable killings can be prevented. This seems strange enough. But, if we accept this conclusion, it does not follow that those who do not go hunting, cannot take some steps to prevent the annual slaughter of human beings in the woods. Some of these cases, especially certain of those that have occurred across the line in the Adirondacks and in Maine, have been pretty near murder, and it is quite evident that a certain percentage, who, in the careless, loose language of the populace, are misnamed hunters, should be carefully locked up during the fall season instead of being allowed loose in the wilds with rifles that will carry a mile or two, and with an utter ignorance of that rifle's capacity or of wood-craft. It has been shown by experience that most men who are fond of moose or deer hunting will take any chances, put their lives into any peril, for the sake of gratifying their passion for the sport. It has also been demonstrated that no agreement which hunters may make among themselves to prevent men from "thinking it was a deer" may be relied upon. They go right on shooting at any moving object, however imperfectly seen, or even at no visible object when they see, or imagine they see, the bushes stirring. Within the last few weeks there have been several cases of this kind which resulted in the killing of men. And it appears that those who indulge in this kind of hunting are not all amateurs. A little while ago an experienced guide in the northern part of the State of New York killed his friend, another guide, by firing into bushes when he saw something moving.

There is small probability that these killings will be checked until effective regulations governing the use of firearms in the forests are made and enforced by public authority. As the number of hunters will increase, rather than diminish, so the killing of hunters will continue until it is prevented by some means more effective than any that the hunters are likely to adopt.

THE U. S. STEEL CORPORATION.
The United States Government has promptly met the declaration of the heads of the United States Steel Corporation that no dissolution of that gigantic combine was contemplated by filing suit in the federal courts for the dissolving, not only of the merged corporation, but its constituent companies as well. The government's action was a foregone conclusion, after the announcement of the Steel Trust management that it would continue business with no change in its corporate character. The administration declined to accept the trust's assertion that it was legal, in view of the report of H. K. Smith, the government trust hunter that the combine was operating in defiance of the provisions of the anti-trust law.

President Taft has met the charge that in his campaign against the "interests" he is disturbing business with the straightforward statement that no accusation of this character will suffice to turn him from a course which he considers one of plain duty. In bringing suit against the greatest of the industrial mergers the administration has evinced its courage. Reduced to the simplest language, Mr. Taft proposes that big businesses as well as little ones will be carried on according to law.

That the corporation will fight to the limit is accepted as certain. But the success of the government in prosecutions of similar character under the anti-trust law will strengthen the expectation of its success in this latest step to reduce industrial business in the States to a basis of healthful competition.

KYRLE BELEW, ACTOR, DEAD.
Salt Lake City, Nov. 2.—Kyrle Bellew, the well-known actor, died here at five o'clock this morning of pneumonia. The funeral services will be held here and the body sent to New York.

JURY FAILED TO AGREE.
Opelousas, La., Nov. 2.—The jury in the McRee murder trial was locked up at 6 o'clock to-night with instructions to report to the court at nine o'clock to-morrow morning when it is expected the court will order a mistrial. The jury reported that it was impossible to reach an agreement.

NOVA SCOTIAN LIBERAL-CONSERVATIVE MEET.
Halifax, N.S., Nov. 2.—The annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Liberal-Conservative Association was held to-day and was very largely attended. The reports for the year were read and adopted. One resolution expressed satisfaction with the accession to power of Hon. R. L. Borden and with the personnel of his Cabinet. A resolution felicitating the country on the appointment of the Duke of Connaught was adopted. At a caucus of the members of the Provincial Opposition in the Legislature this morning, C. T. Tanner was chosen as leader. A resolution notifying him of this was adopted by the association. Mr. Tanner formally accepted the office.

A PATHETIC CASE OF POVERTY IN NEW YORK
New York, Nov. 2.—Deputy Marshals who went to-day to dispossess Mrs. Olive Moriarity, a young widow, from the tenement rooms she occupied with her aged mother on the East side, found her dead in bed. The elder woman went out early to-day to try to raise the single dollar they needed to make up their $9 rent. While she was gone the marshals came and began dismantling the place. As they started to roll up a mattress they discovered the dead body of Mrs. Moriarity under the sheets. Her husband died a year ago and since then both she and her mother had been ill and unable to work.

FALL OF 146 FEET COULDN'T HURT HIM
Workman Drops From Ninth Story of Building and Sustains a Few Scratches.

New York, Nov. 2.—After plunging 146 feet down an elevator shaft in the new Cuyler Building, which is being erected between Thirty-first and Thirty-second streets, west of Sixth avenue, Stanislaus Shymga, twenty-two, of No. 484 East Seventy-fourth street, yesterday, arose from the ground, rubbed the small of his back which was wrenched, and ascending the elevator cable hand over hand met a surprised surgeon from the New York Hospital and a party of his fellow workmen who had expected to find him dead. "Get out of the way," Shymga ordered the doctor who had started to climb down. "Let me get some air." The physician laid the workman on the scaffolding and started to examine him for injuries. "I'm all right; leave me alone!" protested Shymga. "I don't need any doctors." The physician searched in vain for bruises. Two or three scratches and a slight wrench of his back were the only injuries the man had sustained. Shymga, who runs an elevator for which building materials are hoisted to the upper stories of the new structure, was standing on a plank placed across the elevator shaft on the ninth floor when the thin board broke beneath him. The hoist, whose control rope the elevator man struck as he fell, plunged down below him, and Shymga was only three feet or so above the hoist during the entire descent. Several times he struck the cables which lift the elevator. This broke the force of his fall. Despite his protestations that he was able to return to work, Shymga was taken to the New York Hospital in the ambulance. He was able to walk to the surgical ward and continued to grumble when he was ordered to stop and go to bed. Careful examination by the hospital physicians brought to light no internal injuries, and Shymga will probably be allowed to leave the hospital to-day.

ROBBED OF $10,000 ON THE STREET.
Winona, Minn., Nov. 2.—Mrs. W. F. Jahn, of Rollingstone, told the Winona police that she was robbed to-day of $10,000 in cash which she carried in a suitcase, as she had no faith in banks. She said she was about to board a street car when a stranger who got off the train from Rollingstone offered to carry her grip. She allowed him to do so. When she turned around she saw the man disappearing up a hill with the satchel. The empty grip was found later by the police in some bushes.

ROCKEFELLER'S BREAKFAST NOT GOOD ENOUGH FOR A BAILIFF.
New York, Nov. 2.—The frugal breakfast of a multi-millionaire was not hearty enough for United States Marshal Henkel, who carried a fine appetite with him when he went to Pocantico Hills to-day to serve additional papers in the Government's suit against the United States Steel Corporation upon John D. Rockefeller and found the oil magnate eating his morning meal. The marshal, when he returned to his office later to-day said he had declined the invitation to partake of the meal. "What was it?" he continued. "Now, Mr. Rockefeller treated me like a gentleman and it would not be fair to tell what he had to eat, would it? I explained that the paper should have accompanied the previous document and expressed the hope that he was not put out about it. "Oh, no, marshal," he said, "I know that you fellows have many vexatious things to do in your line of duty. I admire a man who performs his task well." "Now, that is the last of the bunch, except the one I have for my friend Charley Schwab, but there won't be any trouble serving that."

CONTRABAND OF WAR.
Washington, Nov. 2.—Vessels whose cargoes are made up either in bulk or weight, of one-half contraband of war, will be confiscated by the Turkish Government, according to advices to-day from Ambassador Rockhill at Constantinople. The Turkish Government defines as contraband of war all material which can be used without further preparation in promoting warfare.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.
New York, Nov. 2.—Emory McClintock to-day tendered his resignation as Vice-President and actuary of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, which he had served since 1888. His health was given as the cause. He will remain, however, a trustee of the company. The board of directors elected to succeed him as vice-president W. H. BARGE BADLY DAMAGED.

Montreal, Que., Nov. 2.—Leaking badly, the barge Bella, of the Montreal Transportation Company, crept into port last night with 27,000 bushels of wheat. The other day the vessel struck the bank near Iroquois and opened her seams badly. An engine and pump were taken aboard and the pumps were kept going all the way into this port. This morning the unloading of the barge began at No. 1 elevator. It is thought that much of her cargo must be damaged by the water.

CLOSING LETTER

New York, Nov. 2.—The market, as a rule, showed slight losses at the opening due to realizing sales and a lower level of quotations from London, but prices did not long remain on the downward trend.

The early orders had been executed the market rallied and gains of 1 point or over were scored on Steel, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Reading and Lehigh Valley. Consolidated Gas gained 1 1/2 points. Practically the whole list enjoyed a spirit of buoyancy which lasted until after the noon hour.

In the later dealings the market was somewhat reactionary and irregular, with less activity, but the feeling is growing that we have turned the corner and that the low prices of last month will not be duplicated for some months at least to come.

The short interest has not covered extensively as yet and has been fighting the rise all the way up. London sold 25,000 shares, principally Steel in the early trading. Rumors continue that the government will attack the Smelting Trust, but on heavy buying by Content the stock rose three points.

Third Avenue four per cent bond receipts were bought in large quantity by the bond dealers and sold above 71. Tobacco bonds were also active and higher. Copper market continues full, quoted 12 1/2 at 12 1/2 cents per pound. The heavy sales of last month should show in reduced stocks on publication of the producers' statement. Norfolk & Western earnings increased $76,206 for September and $322,009 for the three months. Atlantic Coast Line for September gained $149,609 net, and Southern Railway $114,972, indicating in all these instances the prosperity of the south. Business was in slightly reduced volume today, amounting to about 648,000 shares up to 2 o'clock.

The closing was generally about half to one point below the highest, with Smelters strong at top notch. We look for a continuance of better feeling and barring natural moderate reactions, higher prices.

OTTAWA LAUGHS AT NEW LEAGUE

Bilsky Says Big Four Lacrosse League Will Be a Boomerang.

Toronto Star.—The new four-club lacrosse league tentatively organized in Montreal Saturday by Chas. Querrie, of Tecumseh's, Percy Quinn, of Toronto, and the Nationals, of Montreal, has made a whole lot of stir for two reasons. In Toronto the cause of comment is because Fred Thompson's proposed new Rosedale Toronto, originally a big factor in the project, are side-tracked for the Scarborough Beach team. In Montreal the talk is raised by the attitude of the M.A.A.A. in the matter. They got a straight chance to come in, and are desired, but are hanging back, because they do not desire to hand a bump to the good old Shamrocks. However, it is a fact that if the Montreal team does not come in by Nov. 15 a combination Irish-English-speaking team will take up the second Montreal franchise.

In Ottawa Sam Bilsky professes to laugh at the new "Big Four." He says it will be a boomerang, and says that the N.L.U. will continue, in spite of the move.

"Officers of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association have informed us that they will have nothing whatever to do with the proposed new league," said Mr. Bilsky. "The Cornwall, Shamrock, and Capital clubs will certainly stick together, and we thus have the majority of clubs. We will continue the N.L.U., and if the Tecumseh and National clubs do not like it they can get out."

"What a fine league Ottawa, Montreal, and Cornwall would form," remarked Charlie Querrie. "They would have to take in Smith's Falls, Carleton Place, and Renfrew to get a league at all."

However, Querrie forgets that there is still a chance for the Rosedale field owners getting into the game and making the fourth team in the old N.L.U., with the Shamrocks of Montreal, Ottawa, and Cornwall.

WOULD ELIMINATE THE PAID COACH

National Collegiate Association Wants to Bar the Professional Tutor.

That the United States National Collegiate Athletic Association is hot on the trail of the professional college coach is evident from the circular letter which the association is sending out broadcast. In it it requests the members of the association to give their opinions as to the value of the professional coach and asks whether he is a detriment or a help to the sport. It states that at the next meeting of the association, which will be held at the Hotel Astor on December 28th, night sessions will be devoted to the discussion of this phase of the sport. That the association is against the professional coaches in college athletics was shown last year when the following resolution was passed:

"It is the sense of the National Collegiate Athletic Association that coaching and training are confined to the regular members of the teaching staff employed by the governing board of the institution for the full academic year; and further, that athletics be made a regular department or, combined with physical education, constitute a regular department and receive the same consideration and be given equal responsibility and be held to the same accountability as any other department in a college or university."

The circular says that the association does not expect all institutions will be able to conform to this resolution immediately, but it says that it expresses an ideal toward which all the universities and colleges should progress.

"GHOSTS" FRIGHTEN BOY TO DEATH

Faints After Seeing Body Dangling at Window—In a Critical Condition.

South Norwalk, Conn., Nov. 2.—One of the Halloween pranks of boys here last night may result in the death of Mrs. Samuel Comstock, who is now lying in her home in an extremely serious condition as the result of a fright she received. The police are trying to round up the young offenders.

For more than a week the boys have been invading Mrs. Comstock's apple orchard, and she has caught them each time before they got away with any of her fruit. When she threatened this afternoon to cause their arrest the boys determined to retaliate. They got their revenge with dramatic success.

They stuffed an old coat and a torn pair of trousers with straw and fastened a fendish looking false face above the awkward figure. Putting a rope around the "dummy," the boys threw it over a telephone wire in such position that it was directly in front of the window of Mrs. Comstock's bedroom.

When she entered the room to retire for the night Mrs. Comstock saw the gruesome figure swaying from side to side just outside the window, with the false face leering at her. She screamed and fell to the floor in a faint, from which neighbors who had heard her cry were unable to revive her for more than a few moments at a time.

Several physicians were called in and were unable to revive Mrs. Comstock.

While celebrating Halloween at Hartford, Conn., five-year-old Freddie Taylor, of South Manchester, was seriously, possibly fatally, burned. He was wearing a mask with long whiskers and carrying a jack-o'-lantern, when the flimsy whiskers ignited. Before he could rip off the mask his face was terribly scorched and he had inhaled the flames.

AKRON'S ESCORT NAMED.

Commander Chandler, U.S.N., Will Cross Ocean in Boat Under Derigible.

Atlantic City, Nov. 2.—Commander Lloyd Chandler, U. S. N., has been ordered to command the gunboat Salem and the torpedo boat Roe as an escort to Melvin Vaniman and his daring crew in their transatlantic flight on the dirigible Akron.

The real cause for the Akron not making a flight yesterday was discovered this afternoon when Louis Loud, chief engineer of the expedition, found a small nut and slipped down one of the cylinders to the engine that furnishes the motive power for the propellers.

The nut had worked loose from the top of the valve and damaged the delicate mechanism. Loud hopes to have the damage repaired by tomorrow.

The aviator is anxious to have at least two good trial flights before he leaves for the trip across the sea. The escort of naval vessels is allowed him on condition that he start on or before Nov. 15.

JAMESTOWN, VA., MEET

Jamestown, Va., Nov. 2.—The fall meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club opened today under favorable circumstances although there was a chilly breeze. The fields were much lighter than they will be on future days, due to the non-arrivals or delay of horses which were shipped from Laurel. Many did not arrive until noon. It was an off day for first choices. The first run up of the meeting came when Sam Louis took Richard Reed from H. G. Bedwell.

GRIFFITHS MANAGER FOR THREE YEARS

New York, Nov. 2.—The announcement that Clarke Griffith, former manager of the New York Yankees and later of the Cincinnati Reds, had purchased the largest block of stock owned by any individual in the Washington Americans, came as a surprise. Although Griffith does not own a controlling interest in the club, he will be its manager for the next three years. Griffith carried on his negotiations so quietly that Garry Herrmann of the Reds knew nothing about them. It is believed that Hermann expected to sign Griffith for next year. The result is that the Reds' chief owner has no manager in sight for 1912.

IN AND ABOUT TOWN

AN APPEAL FOR CHINESE PRISONER

Made to the Prince Regent by Viceroy Chang Ming Chi—Terms of Peace.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 2.—Advices from Canton today state that Viceroy Chang Ming Chi, of that province had wired a memorial to the Prince Regent, asking for the pardon of Wang Ching Wei, who had attempted to assassinate the Prince a year ago last April. Pardon to the prisoner, he said, would go far to placate the people and to show the liberal attitude of the government toward the republicans.
 Full pardon was also asked for the revolutionary General Li Yuen Heng. According to another message, General Li has refused to consider peace offers unless the Manchu dynasty yields the throne to the republicans.
 Revolutionists are said to occupy all the railway stations near Hankow and to have inflicted a loss of more than a thousand men on the imperials in battle yesterday.

FAREWELL TO BISHOP FARRAR

Departing Prelate Presented With an Address and Substantial Cheque.

The Right Rev. Dr. Walter Farrar, who has been acting as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese, for some time past, and who leaves with his family for home next week, was the object of a very flattering demonstration last evening, when a large gathering of prominent members of the Anglican community assembled to bid him farewell. The Church Hall, in which the function took place, was crowded, and the high esteem in which the departing Bishop is held was amply testified to by the attendance of all classes, who assembled to say farewell to His Lordship.
 During the evening Bishop Farrar was presented with an address and a substantial acknowledgment of his many services in the form of a cheque for $1,050. The address was read by Dr. Laurie, chairman of the committee, and was as follows:
 To the Right Reverend Walter Farrar, M. A., D. D.
 My Lord Bishop:—Some months ago, when it was first intimated that Your Lordship would, at this time, bring to a close your stay in Canada, the clergy and laity of the Diocese of Quebec, felt that in some way it would be fitting to mark their appreciation of your coming to our assistance during the temporary illness of our Bishop, and to express their admiration for the manner in which you have fulfilled the arduous duties of the high episcopal office, with the most unflinching courtesy and kindness to all. So, this evening, we have come together to voice these sentiments and to hope that Your Lordship will carry back to England many pleasant memories of your sojourn in our midst.
 We trust that the future will hold for you many happy years in the service of Him who guards and is Father of us all.
 On behalf of the Clergy and Laity, I ask your acceptance of the accompanying token of their appreciation of yourself and your work and rest assured that our good wishes and prayers for the future happiness of yourself, Mrs. Farrar and your family will follow you.
 Signed on behalf of the Committee,
JAMES LAURIE, M. D.
 P. G. OWEN, Secretary-Treasurer.
 Bishop Farrar, in reply, heartily thanked his friends in Quebec for their kind wishes and said that he would take back with him to England many affectionate memories of his sojourn in Canada. His Lordship stated that he had spent a very pleasant time in Quebec and he was bringing back with him to England two rebels, his own children, who had evidently become thorough Canadians and who would leave Quebec with even deeper pangs of sorrow than he did himself.
 After the presentation of the address, refreshments were served and a very pleasant time was spent by all, though the proceedings were, of course, tinged by the sadness of the parting of Bishop Farrar, who has so endeared himself to all.

Eight Years of Bad Eczema on Hands

Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.
 Miss Mary A. Bentley, 93 University St., Montreal, writes, in a recent letter: "Some nine years ago I noticed small pimples breaking out on the back of my hands. They became very irritating, and gradually became worse, so that I could not sleep at night. I consulted a physician who treated me a long time, but it got worse, and I could not put my hands in water. I was treated at the hospital, and it was just the same. I was told that it was a very bad case of eczema."
 "Well, I just kept on using everything that I could for nearly eight years until I was advised to try Cuticura Ointment. I did so, and I found after a few applications the burning sensations were disappearing, I could sleep well, and did not have any itching during the night. I began after a while to use Cuticura Soap. I stuck to the Cuticura treatment, and thought if I could use other remedies for over seven years with no result, and after only having a few applications and finding ease from Cuticura Ointment, it deserved a fair trial with a good and substantial case. I used the Cuticura Ointment and Soap for nearly six months, and I am glad to say that I have had no return of anyone. It is my wish that you publish this letter to all the world, and if anyone doubts it, let them write me."

SOVEREIGN BANK SHAREHOLDERS

May Not Lose a Dollar, Except the Use of Money Since the Suspension.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 2.—"Sovereign Bank shareholders may not lose a dollar, except the use of their money since the suspension, when everything will be settled," said a banking authority this morning. "Mind you, I do not say this as an inevitable certainty, but you may take it as a reasonable possibility." The assets have been taken over the International Assets, Limited, reorganized from the Sovereign Bank shareholders. When the other banks came forward and protected the Sovereign Bank depositors, one form of criticism hinted that the banks were conserving their own interests.

"Now the banks did deserve some thanks, whatever unkind critics may say. The Ontario Bank deposits totalled about $12,000, and the Sovereign Bank deposits reached $20,000,000. The Bank of Montreal stepped forward in the case of the Ontario Bank, and the other banks did the same thing when the Sovereign Bank needed help. In neither case were the depositors required to wait until the final settlement, as has been the case with the York Loan, and will be the experience of the Farmers' Bank depositors. When the Sovereign Bank shareholders put up their double liability amounts, that money went into the International Assets, Limited, and was used in paying off part of the bank's liability, those banks took bonds for the rest, and agreed to wait for three years. No winding up order has been asked for, and no general double liability levy has been made. If the shareholders not in the holding company do not come in, there is nothing to prevent a double liability assessment from being made. If they join the others, however, they will share in whatever is realized from the bank's assets. It does not follow that the money locked up in the Chicago & Milwaukee Railway and the Alaska Central is money lost. The two roads are the bank's main assets, and the shareholders may get back, not only what they pay to the holding company, but their original share outlay."

The Sovereign Bank's action against directors has resulted in judgment in the bank's favor in the Court of Appeal. There is some talk of an appeal to the Privy Council, but, at the present stage, the bank is on top, and for a considerable amount.

500 PRIESTS CHEER NEWS FARLEY TELLS

Clergymen at Monthly Meeting Send a Message of Thanks to the Pope.

New York, Nov. 2.—A large assemblage of priests cheered and clapped hands yesterday in the auditorium of the Cathedral College when Archbishop announced that the Pope had made him a Cardinal. The priests were gathered for the regular monthly recollection of devotions. They came from every part of the archdiocese.

"I can scarcely find words to make known to you my feelings," said the Archbishop. "Our Holy Father has deigned to nominate me, your and the people's Archbishop, to the Sacred College. It is not so much an extraordinary manifestation of the Holy Father's friendship for me personally as an honor conferred upon this great archdiocese and city of ours and this wonderful nation that we live in."

The priests in the name of Senior Vicar-General Mooney, sent this message to the Pope:

Holy Father—Five hundred priests of the Archdiocese of New York assembled at the monthly recollection, giving expression to the great joy not only of themselves and their own people, but also to that of all other peoples irrespective of denomination, thank most profoundly Your Holiness for having named for the honor of the Cardinalate our beloved Archbishop.

Archbishop Farley said yesterday he might not be able to start for Rome by Nov. 10, but surely would get away not later than Nov. 15.

The Catholic Club yesterday cabled to the Pope as follows:

The Catholic Club of the City of New York desires to express its deep sense of gratitude for the high honor conferred upon our beloved Archbishop Farley.

Archbishop Farley will attend the reception that the Gaelic League will hold in Carnegie Hall, Nov. 10, for Shane Leslie, representative of the Gaelic League of Ireland.

MELVIN SHEPPARD IS DISCHARGED

Failure to Attend Military Duty May Prevent Joining the Next Olympic Team.

New York, Nov. 2.—Melvin W. Sheppard, the world's greatest middle distance runner, has been dishonorably discharged from the Twenty-second Regiment, where he had been a soldier for nearly four years.

Col. Hochkin notified the runner of his discharge and immediately forwarded the necessary papers to the Governor at Albany. A notice of his discharge was also posted on the bulletin board at the armory. The cause of Sheppard's trouble was his failure to attend to his military duty, missing drills and failure to pay fines.

For more than a year the champion athlete has been in trouble with the officers of the regiment. Time and again he has been court-martialed and on practically every occasion he was fined.

Always the fines were paid but never by him, and until yesterday it was a mystery as to who advanced the money. Then it was learned that the captain and members of his company subscribed to a fund to pay the amount imposed on their champion.

The final crash came several weeks ago when Sheppard was notified to appear before the Delinquency Court and answer to charges of not attending camp. He was fined $40, and when he refused to pay, Major Dyett of the Delinquency Board recommended his discharge.

"Shep" Had to Work.

In explanation for his failure to attend to his military duty Sheppard said: "My work made it impossible for me to attend the drills. I often was employed in the customs service and preferred to work for them rather than the regiment."

What effect Sheppard's dishonorable discharge will have upon his athletic standing is not known. While it will not interfere with his standing in this country, there is a doubt as to whether or not it will prevent him from being selected for the next American team which will compete in the Olympic championships at Stockholm next year.

James E. Sullivan of the Amateur Athletic Union said yesterday that he was unable to answer that question offhand. "I shall submit the matter to the Olympic Committee, which will take it up at its next meeting. In the meanwhile I shall ask for the particulars in the case."

"It often happens that a man is dishonorably discharged from a regiment for a cause that is so trivial in the minds of the public that it would be unjust for the Amateur Athletic Union to add to his hardships. When we get all the facts the Olympic Committee will decide whether or not he will be selected for the team."

THANKSGIVING DAY AT BISHOP'S COLLEGE SCHOOL

A large number of parents, friends and old boys visited the School on Thanksgiving Day. The weather was delightful and greatly added to the enjoyment of the visit, groups of parents and boys were to be met on all sides, while groups of small boys were ever ready to gather round an "old boy" and hear of the glories of the past, and the great part taken in them by the particular "old boy" who happened to be talking.

The annual football match, Past vs. Present, took place at 2:30 p.m., and was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic audience. The game was finely contested and was just won by the "Old Boys." Both teams played good, clean football, and it was a pleasure to see a game contested in such a sportsmanlike, friendly spirit. The captain of the school team, Harold Greenwood, has worked hard this term to turn out a good team, and his energy and sound sportsmanship has produced a team perfectly trained, keen from start to finish, and one which has worthily upheld the traditions of the old school, playing as they have done a clean, manly game; courteous to their opponents at all times.

After the game the Headmaster and Mrs. Williams gave a reception in honor of the Old Boys, which was largely attended by the parents, the masters, the old boys, the prefects and school team, and many friends. Mrs. Williams was assisted in receiving by Miss Jeffery, Lady Matron of the Upper School, and Mrs. Holt, Lady Matron of the Preparatory School. It was, altogether, a most enjoyable afternoon, and on all sides were heard expressions of pleasure at the happy conditions existing at the school at the present time. The Headmaster and his staff received many congratulations, and when one saw the friendly feelings which existed between the Masters and the boys, and the evident desire on the part of all to work together for the good of the school, one could not help feeling that there were bright times ahead of the old school.

KILLED WHILE AT PLAY.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—While engaged in a game of tag with some of his playmates in the recreation room of St. Laurent school, Cote St., today, little Julien Grenon, aged 10, whose home is in St. Faustin, Que., met his death. The lad was being pursued by one of his comrades and jumped from a table to a bench. Missing his footing he fell to the floor, landing on the side of his head. He never regained consciousness and died shortly after from hemorrhage of the brain.

PRESIDENT TAFT REVIEWS FLEET

Considers It Is Efficient, but There Are Not Enough Vessels—Wants Fast Cruisers.

New York, Nov. 2.—Following the review of the fleet President Taft issued the following statement:

"Those who saw the fighting fleet, which was assembled in New York harbor today, could not fail to be struck with its preparedness and with its high military efficiency, and must have been proud of its personnel."

"The demonstration has had an educational value in arousing patriotism, in increasing the general knowledge of, and interest in the navy, in illustrating the ability to mobilize on short notice, and in showing the skill of the officers who turned the whole fleet in the narrow river and sent it to sea at the rate of 14 knots per hour. The equipment of the fleet is excellent, except as to the number of destroyers, and cruisers and colliers in proportion to the whole number. We had in the fleet today 22 destroyers, and to meet the full requirements there should have been approximately one hundred destroyers, or an average of four to each battleship. It is true that there has been a marked improvement in the type of colliers and fast cruisers in our navy, but it is also true that we haven't a sufficient number. In addition to building great battleships, other nations are building enormous high speed cruisers—28 knots per hour—and it is believed that our navy should be similarly equipped. Unless a navy is maintained at the highest possible state of efficiency, it is a needless extravagance. I am more than ever convinced of the desirability of conferring upon the commanding officer of our fleet the title of Admiral, or at least of Vice-Admiral. At present the ranking officer is Rear Admiral, and this title cannot commensurate with the importance of the fleet. At the review of the German fleet at Kiel, a smaller number of ships was under the command of a full admiral; two squadrons were commanded by Vice-Admirals, and each of four divisions were commanded by a Rear Admiral."

After the review the President left Hot Springs, Va. After a few days there he will visit Kentucky and Tennessee, returning to Washington on Nov. 12.

STRIKE OF MINERS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Fernie, B.C., Nov. 2.—The Coal Company here has posted notices that the mines are open and asking men who want to return to work to report to the company. This is done for the purpose of cleaning up the mines, but the miners claim that there is no agreement yet completed and passed upon by the men and that this should not have been done and out of this more trouble has arisen. Officials of the miners and the city officials were to-day in consultation with Mr. Elias Rogers, President of the Company, now here, regarding the situation. Mr. Rogers stated to the representatives of the miners that the negotiations at Frank, where Manager Wilson was then in conference with the scale committee, were progressing rapidly and if no hitch occurred it was thought that the work would be completed by Wednesday. It will be fortunate if such turns out to be the case as the tension between the men, who went back to work before an agreement was consummated, and those who insisted upon remaining out until everything had been definitely settled, is growing more taut every day and it would be a most calamitous affair if at the very end of the trouble anything should occur to upset this last effort to bring the warring factions together in an agreement, which, if adopted, will last for at least three and a half years.

DESERTIONS FROM VESSELS IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—According to a statistical record kept by Mr. Thomas Robb, Secretary of the Shipping Federation of Canada, there have been upwards of a thousand desertions of ships' stewards, firemen and seamen from vessels in the port of Montreal so far this season. While May, June and July are, in the opinion of Mr. Robb, the worst months for ships' employees taking French leave and while the number of desertions during the latter months of the season drops to practically nil, the Secretary of the Shipping Federation said this morning that the shipping interests would have to immediately begin to devise steps to prevent the wholesale desertion of their men next summer.

NEW POSTMASTER TAKES OFFICE.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—The Hon. Louis Olivier Taillon, K.C., has received official notice of his appointment as Postmaster for Montreal. The post office authorities here have as yet received no official notification, but that is expected almost any moment. This morning the Hon. Mr. Taillon visited the general post office in which his offices are now being prepared on the fifth story, and was introduced to all the departmental heads by Mr. L. J. Gaboury, the assistant postmaster. He was given a hearty welcome by these, and he made a speech to them in Mr. Gaboury's office. Afterwards he was taken on a tour of the whole building by Mr. Gaboury, and he was initiated into the details of the business over which he will now have the general supervision in succession to the late Mr. H. S. Harwood.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 2.—The valuable pacing stallion Exmore (2:10), a son of Expedition, owned by Henry B. Reah of Pittsburg, dropped dead here today at the trotting track. Exmore was at the stable of Lee Darnaby and was one of his best offerings on the trotting track.

LAST CHILD TO ENTER A CONVENT

With All His Daughters Immured, Mr. Potts, Is Down-cast Over Lonely Future.

Baltimore, Nov. 2.—Sad and lonely in his library at the Severn apartments, Rear-Admiral Robert Potts, retired, admitted to-day that he had been unable to persuade his third and last daughter, Miss Frances Potts, to abandon her desire to follow her two sisters into a nunnery. To-morrow Miss Potts is to enter a Carmelite convent in this city and become a member of that exclusive order. Her eldest sister, Miss Marie, was the founder of a convent in Manila, and her other sister is in the Carmelite convent in Philadelphia.

"Why did all three of your daughters choose to the convent life?" the Admiral was asked.

"I cannot tell," he answered, "but from childhood they all seemed to lean toward it. I tried my best to persuade each not to enter a convent, but it did not seem to do any good. I have often thought that it was because my wife was thinking seriously of entering a convent when I began my courtship."

"I have one son, Lewis J. Potts, who is a lawyer in New York, but in my declining years I am left without any of my children and am all alone. My wife died some time ago."

Admiral Potts cherishes some slight hope that his third daughter may return to him. He recalled that the nuns have one year after they enter the convent in which, if they have become dissatisfied from any reason, they may withdraw, "and," he said, "I am hoping that before the year is over she will come back to me, as I am very lonely."

The Carmelite convent in Baltimore is at Biddle and Caroline streets. The nuns never go out and are not allowed to talk with visitors even through bars. Permission to raise their veils must be obtained from the chaplain. They wear brown robes and devote their time, when not occupied with their religious duties, to making altar cloths, priest's vestments and other articles used by the Church.

ENGINE DRIVER'S BRAVERY.

Toronto, Nov. 2.—To prevent a string of stone-laden runaway flat cars on a down grade from dashing into an approaching passenger train, Grand Trunk Engineer Fred Lowney deliberately ran his yard engine into the cars, stopping their progress. Lowney stuck to his post and had his left foot badly crushed. His fireman and a brakeman jumped and flagged the passenger train before it reached the wreck.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS MAY BE STOPPED

Massacre of Natives by Imperial Troops at Hankow the Cause of Trouble.

Peking, Nov. 2.—The massacre of natives at Hankow by imperialist troops, intelligence of which has reached both the War Board and the German legation, may prove a serious hindrance to the peace negotiations which Yuan Shi Kai has been endeavoring to inaugurate with the rebel leaders. The population of Hankow is estimated ordinarily at 500,000, but it is believed that every non-combatant who was able to escape proceeded into the country prior to the conflict. The Hankow streets are very narrow and the houses are closely packed. There are many wealthy Chinese merchants and manufacturers in gold and silver.

The concessions are divided from the native city by streets fifty or sixty feet wide, and it will be difficult to protect the foreign houses from fire or even from attack as the imperialists have evidently got beyond the control of their officers. The foreign defenders include marines from twelve gunboats of eight or nine nations and also volunteers from among the missionaries and business people. The exodus from Peking continues, the doors of many shops, as well as private houses being closed in anticipation of a massacre.

The diplomatic body will meet tomorrow to reconsider the question of allowing the Chinese troops to enter Tien-Tsin, a consul there having made serious objection.

An official despatch from Shih Kai Tan, Shan-Si province, says that a regiment of Shan-Si troops, which had been despatched to assist the imperialists, has mutinied. The mutineers killed their brigadier-general and then bombarded a Manchu city, massacring a thousand Manchus, including the governor and his family. The governor's yamen was destroyed.

General Yin-Tchang, who until a few days ago was commander of the imperial forces at Hankow, returned here today.

It is understood that the National Assembly is showing determined opposition to the foreign loan, for which arrangements have been made, arguing that such a loan is unnecessary as many millions are hoarded in the forbidden city.

Letters dated Oct. 29 and 30 from the Associated Press correspondent with the imperialist army at Hankow say that in the struggle for the possession of the city there was hand to hand fighting in the streets, the quarters being too close for shooting. The rebels, mostly raw recruits, not understanding the use of rifles, were driven back with much slaughter, their dead piling up on the quay. The casualties among the imperialists for two days, Oct. 28 and 29, were thirty killed and 150 wounded. The rebels had about 700 killed or wounded.

The fighting continues the correspondent, until the last three days had not been serious. The rebels had the advantage in number of guns, but their shells did not explode. The imperialists had the advantage in troops but they were poorly provisioned. The latter force, aggregating 25,000 men, advanced in three columns—the Third Mixed Brigade in advance, the Fourth Division, supporting and the Eleventh Mixed Brigade as a reserve. The fighting was done by the Third Brigade, the two others not being requisitioned. No prisoners were taken. Rebels captured alive were shot or decapitated.

It is learned that the most barbarous outrages were perpetrated on innocent persons in the villages. An officer of Yin-Tchang's staff explained that the outrages were committed by only forty men of the Hu-Peh Division.

The chief of staff, Col. Yih, is now at the front directing the operations of the soldiers of the Tenth Division along the railway line. A temple, five hundred yards from the encampment, is used as a hospital, but its accommodation is limited. Only the slightly wounded are treated there, the more serious cases being sent to the mission hospitals at Siaokan. The doctors are of mixed degrees, some belonging to the school of old Chinese medicine while others have been trained in Japan and elsewhere abroad.

The general staff consists mostly of German and Japanese trained men, but the campaign does not reflect much credit upon them, as they are seemingly ignorant of the country. The soldiers are in good spirits, but apparently are indifferent to the proceedings at the front. They are not bothered by their officers. They do as they please. Coming from the northern provinces they have no sympathy with the rebels.

Trains come and go at all hours. The military and railway authorities are constantly embroiled. The railway employees complain that the soldiers and officers beat them, and many of them have taken to flight. As a consequence, some of the trains are run by soldiers, who do the work badly. There are no roads sufficiently wide for carts, and there are many swamps, creeks and fields between the imperial headquarters and Hankow. This results in delay in bringing up the cannon for action.

Prior to the opening of operations on Oct. 27, General Yin-Tchang told the respective commanders that the advance must be made, and rewards were offered to the soldiers for every gun captured. The advance was slow because the imperialists had to wade through pools for much of the distance. The rebels, who at first numbered not more than 1000, shot from the house tops, until compelled to retire, the shells from the warships settling the houses on fire.

General Wang Chou Youen, commanding the Third Brigade, and General Wong Yih Chat, commanding the Fourth Division, stood bravely holding revolvers and shooting the soldiers who refused to fight. The casualties in the first day's engagements were officially reported as forty killed and 150 wounded. They were probably much larger than that. The rebel losses were 400 killed or wounded. Only eight guns were captured from the rebels, two of which had previously been rendered useless.

Despatches received in Peking today that the rebels occupied Chin-Hain-Sen on Monday last but on the following day the imperialists drove them to Liang-Tse-Kwang, an impregnable pass in the mountainous country. The rebels have torn up a half mile stretch of railroad and blocked the tunnel and now hold the pass with a small body of men.

Hankow, Oct. 31, via Wu-Hu, Nov. 2.—In the fighting at Han-Tang Sunday night, the imperialists were victorious and entered the native city. Looting was permitted, and there were many incendiary fires. Late at night the imperialists withdrew to their camp, and the rebels, reinforced, reoccupied the city. It is reported they numbered 6,000. On Monday morning an artillery engagement began, but it was not decisive.

The rebels at Hankow have beheaded Colonel Chang Sin Yang, who commanded the battle on Friday, when the rebels met with a reverse. Other officers in the revolutionary cause, who were also suspected of treachery, have met a like fate. A foreigner reports that he saw the rebels kill twenty imperialist prisoners and a thousand of the wounded.

Shasi, in Hu-Peh province, and Yochow, in Hu-Nan, are flying the revolutionary flag.

TENDERS FOR THE TORONTO TUBE LINE

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 2.—Will Toronto vote $2,500,000 for the beginning of a tube line from Front street to St. Clair avenue? Fourteen tenders were opened by the Board of Control for the work of constructing the tube line, and the lowest tender is approximately estimated to total $2,600,000. Other tenders go as high as $4,000,000. The controllers decided not to extend the time for tendering, as English tube contractors asked, and all 14 tenders were referred to City Engineer Rust, who is to report on them as satisfactory. There are two Toronto firms among the fourteen, M. J. Haney & Company and A. M. Orpen & Company. The St. Catharines firm of Larkin & Sangster also tendered. The other tenders came from New York, Boston, Brooklyn, Chicago and Lowell, Mass. One of the Toronto tenders is alleged to have struck the lowest figure, though the names were withheld when the tenders were opened this morning. The tenders opened today were for the work of excavating for the tube and concreting the inside of it, including the walls and ceiling and floors for the stations, and the entrances, but not including the finishing of the stations and the entrances. There will also have to be added, of course, the cost of laying the track, securing the cars, and electrical equipment, etc. Estimates of the cost of these other items are being prepared now. The tenders were made in six sections, most of the contractors stipulating that they would not take a contract for less than the entire job. The figures are rather involved to laymen, a separate price being put in for each item of construction, including excavating, massed concreting, grouting, fabric, etc., and the total depends on the quantities. Of course, the big items in the present contracts are excavating and concreting. "I am greatly disappointed that we have no English competition," said Mayor Geary, after the tenders were opened. "They evidently did not get time to tender, and it would have been better if we could have given them another month, but Controller Hocken was anxious to get the project before the people on Jan. 1."

WILL NOT CHANGE HANDS

New York, Nov. 2.—Reports that the Newark Baseball Club of the Eastern League was about to change hands were denied by Manager Joe McGinnity tonight. McGinnity stated, however, that a one-third interest in the club would be disposed of within the next 48 hours to an individual whose name he would not make public, but who would not take any active part in the club's management. "Control of the club will remain in the hands of myself and of H. Clay Smith, my present associate," said McGinnity after a conference. "I shall still be the manager and expect to have a winning team."

EDDIE MCCARTHY IN THE TOILS ONCE MORE

Burlington, Vt., Nov. 2.—In the arrest at Rouse's Point, N. Y., today of three alleged yegmen, Post Office Inspectors believe they have solved the mystery of various post office burglaries in Vermont, Maine and New Hampshire during the past two years. The men under arrest, who were brought here tonight and placed in the county jail, are Arthur Burns, alias "The Kid"; Eddie McCarthy, alias "54," alias "Columbus Eddie," and Charles Everett, alias "Jed Prouty."

NEW PLATFORM OF ONTARIO LIBERALS NOT COMPLETED

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 2.—It is probable that the new platform of the Provincial Liberal party will be completed by tomorrow or Saturday and at once made public. The special sub-committee working in conjunction with C. W. Rowell, K.C., made good progress today, and after Mr. Rowell got over the completed platform it will be published as a manifesto. It is probable that no mention will be made of bi-lingual schools as the party may wait for Dr. Merchant's report before taking any action on that question. The temperance question, however, will be one of the main planks in the platform. The abolition of the three-fifths clause will be demanded, as it has been demanded in the Legislature for the past five years, and other advanced legislation will be favored.

THE SEVEN DAY ADVENTISTS

Washington, Nov. 2.—The fall council of the General Conference Committee of Seventh Day Adventists, at its closing session here today reiterated its opposition to every movement tending to the union of the church and state and included under that category all legislation requiring cessation of labor or amusements on Sunday. Many changes among the working force of the denomination were voted. J. E. Nofsinger of Ottawa, Ont., will become secretary of the West Caribbean conference with headquarters in Panama, and Prof. Harley Stevens of the University of Chicago was elected president of the Seventh Day Adventists in Argentine Republic.

THE FRANCO-GERMAN AGREEMENT

Paris, Nov. 3.—According to the Petit Parisien, by the second part of the Franco-German agreement on Morocco, which was initiated at Berlin tonight, France cedes to Germany a strip of territory east of Kamerun, from Bonga, in the French Congo, south to Logone on the north. Germany cedes to France a tract known as the "Ducksbill" from its shape, extending from Lake Tohad to Logone, and further concedes all the territory claimed by France in the long standing controversy over the delimitation of the Togoland-Dohomey frontier, and confers upon France the right to establish a line of posts along the Benue River and the Mayo Kebbi in her Kamerun territory. This will assure passage between the basin of Lake Tohad and the basin of the Niger.

FOUR PEOPLE KILLED BY RAILWAY TRAIN

SCHOLAR SCOFFS AT SOUL IMMORTALITY

Professor Verworm Classes the Belief With Faith in Spirits and Demons.

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—Professor Max Verworm, of the University of Bonn, Germany, celebrated as a physiologist, told seven hundred faculty men and medical students of the University of Pennsylvania today that the individual soul is no more immortal than the individual body. Most of his auditors were Christians. To these the German scholar held out no hope for a life after death, except in the deeds that earthly life leaves behind.

"At all times and in all places," said Professor Verworm, "life and death go hand in hand. 'What then, is immortal? Life? Surely not. At most there is only a continuity of living substance. But this also has a beginning and an end. 'Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return.'"

"This is true of all living substance, from the one-celled amoeba to the most gifted man. 'What of the immortality of the soul? Our individual soul is no more immortal than our individual body. 'The idea of the continuance of life after death originated not later than with the uncivilized men of the New Stone Age."

"Here may be clearly recognized the idea of the continuation of life after death. Here clearly appears the conception of dualism of body and mind. Here we find the disquieting idea of an invisible dominion of dead souls, an idea which became the firm basis of faith in spirits, demons and gods. Here contemplation of the fact of death evoked a host of fanciful notions, among which faith in immortality, the idea of the soul and the idea of God gradually assumed, after manifold transformations, the forms with which we are all familiar to-day."

THE RIVAL AVIATORS.

Yuma, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Aviator C. P. Rodgers, in his coast to coast flight, was compelled to alight on the Arizona desert, sixty miles east of here, this afternoon because he ran out of gasoline. He flew 225 miles to-day and will resume his flight early tomorrow.

Benson, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Robert G. Fowler, who is eastward bound on his transcontinental aeroplane flight, arrived in Benson at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon. Leaving Tucson at 2:15 he immediately "bucked" into a strong head wind which continued throughout his flight of two hours and five minutes. He will resume his flight tomorrow.

HENKEL'S EXPERIENCE.

Marshall Who Served Steel Trust Men Says Millionaires Treated Him Well.

"Millionaires treat me so well," said United States Marshal Henkel in relating his experiences with the defendants in the Steel case, "that I wish I could be with them always. But then I always act as a gentleman and they treat me as one."

"When I go to arrest a millionaire or to serve a subpoena on one I don't go with a hand organ or a fife and drum band. I go in a proper way, quietly, and I am always well received."

"For example, when I went up to Mr. Morgan's the other night—we got him in his home, 219 Madison avenue—I told who I was, and when I was shown into his room, I said: 'Mr. Morgan, I have a petition for you.' 'Huh,' he said; then he wished me the time of day, politely, and then I went out, wishing him luck. 'Judge Gary we got in his rooms in the Waldorf-Astoria also on the same night. He was just as polite as Mr. Morgan. I never had any trouble with any of them."

"Andrew Carnegie did not get until late to-night, but we caught him at his home, 1093 Fifth avenue, and he was glad to see us. He took the paper and bowed us out. 'The nicest of all, however, was John D. Rockefeller, Jr., whom we caught in his office in 17 Battery Place.'"

Such an address for the son of the Standard Oil magnate, whose building is at 26 Broadway, wherein John D. Jr., heretofore has made his headquarters, was somewhat astonishing to those who heard. The marshal insisted that 17 Battery Place was the correct address for the young oil millionaire, and that the office he was in was his own.

"John D. Rockefeller, Sr., continued the marshal, "has agreed to accept service at his country home, Tarrytown, I shall go up there first thing on Saturday. 'Daniel G. Reid I found in his office, 115 Broadway, and Charles Steele was in his office, 23 Wall St. 'The others I expect to serve Saturday.'"

One of the features of the Government suit which seemed to strike Wall street as curious was the fact that from the list of defendants published had been omitted the name of Geo. F. Baker, Morgan's right-hand man in the scheme to establish the Steel Trust, as well as in most of the other ventures which Morgan has headed.

It was also noted that the name of William E. Corey, who succeeded Chas. M. Schwab as president of the corporation, also had been omitted.

Almost all day the directors of the trust were in communication with each other over the telephone. In the afternoon Gary was summoned to the Morgan office, where he met Morgan, Chas. Steele and Geo. F. Baker. The conference lasted almost three hours, and after it had been concluded Gary hurried to the offices of the Steel Trust, at 71 Broadway, where he caused his typewritten statement to be prepared and issued.

ANGRY FARMER LASHES J. H. TYSON BY PROXY

Autoist Objects to Being the "Goat," Thrashes Assailant and Arrests Him.

Greenwich, Conn., Nov. 2.—John H. Tyson, the young millionaire autoist of Riverside, with a country-wide reputation for speeding, was horse-whipped by proxy to-day by a farmer, who said he had planned to horse-whip Tyson, asserting that he had crowded him on the road on several occasions.

The man who acted as proxy, though unintentionally, was Alexander Howell, President of the Howell Motors Company, a singer of note and State agent for the S. P. C. A.

Howell was turning the corner of Post road into Riverside avenue when he met a farm wagon in which were three men. As the car reached the wagon the driver of the horse reached out with his whip and cut Mr. Howell twice with the lash across the head, leaving a mark and drawing blood. Howell quickly backed up his car, jumped out and grabbed the driver, pulled him from the wagon, thrashed him soundly, and then informed him he was under arrest. Just at this time John Boles came along, stopped and inquired, and, knowing the farmer, asked him why he had hit Howell.

"Hit who?" asked the farmer. Explanations were offered. The farmer said he thought he had met Tyson, and was sorry that it wasn't he, and awfully sorry that he had struck Howell. Having punished him sufficiently, Howell decided to let the farmer go with a caution.

CARRIED BY ONE

The late Senator Frye of Maine was presiding in the Senate. A big appropriation bill carrying one hundred and fifty million dollars was on passage. As is usually the case, no Senator took the trouble to vote when the eyes and nays were called for except the Senator in charge of the bill. He vote "aye." "The aye has it," announced Mr. Frye, "and the bill is passed."—Washington Post.

CHILDREN BLOW OFF THEIR FEET

Pupils Leaving Grace Chapel School, New York, When Explosion Takes Place.

New York, Nov. 2.—Pupils in the night school in Grace Chapel, in Fourteenth street, near First avenue, were hurrying out through the rear door in Thirteenth street at 10 o'clock last night, when the concussion of an explosion swept many of them from their feet. They scrambled up and boys and girls fled, many dashing back into the chapel and not to Fourteenth street.

The explosion came from the fifth floor of the six-story tenement house Nos. 410 to 414 East Thirteenth street just across from the chapel. A bomb that burst at the door of Leonardo Reina's home blew down every door on the fifth and sixth floors, wrecked Reina's home and smashed every window in the house.

The lights went out and frightened tenants took to the escapes, screaming for the police. The reserve came from the Fifth street station. The excitement was such that for an hour police lines had to be maintained.

Mrs. Reina was found, hysterical, in the hall outside her rooms. She was carried to the street and treated by an ambulance surgeon from Bellevue. This is the fourth bomb explosion within a month in houses in Thirteenth street between First avenue and Avenue A. Two weeks ago a bomb was placed in the doorway of Barracato & Rizzo's banking house, and the place was almost wrecked. Tenants in the house damaged last night denied they had received Black Hand letters.

A SONG OF POCKETS.

"It's hard on a fellow I do declare," Said Tommy one day with a pout, "In every one of the suits I wear The pockets are most worn out. They're about as big as the ear of a mole, And I never had more than three, And there's always coming a mean little hole That loses my knife on me."

"I can't make 'em hold but a few little things, Some cookies, an apple or two, A knife and a pencil and bunch of strings, And marbles, of course, and a top and a ball, And shells and potatoes and such, And some odds and ends—yes, honest, that's all, You can see for yourself 'tisn't much."

"I'd like a suit of some patient kind, With pockets made wide and long, Above and below and before and behind, Sewed extra heavy and strong, I'd want about a dozen or so, All easy and quick to get at, And I should be perfectly happy I know With a handy rig like that."

TRUST'S IMMENSE DEALINGS

(From the New York Times.) Although the United States Steel Corporation has been popularly known since its organization as the biggest corporation in the world, it is doubtful if the immensity of its operations in sheer weight of monetary values has been generally understood. Gross receipts have ranged as high as $75,014,767 in a single year, and from the date of organization, on April 1, 1901, to the close of the last fiscal year, December 31, 1910, have reached the staggering aggregate of $5,813,243,724.

The United States Government's total receipts from customs and all other sources of revenue in the fiscal year ended June 30 last were only $700,109,906, a total which the Steel Corporation not only exceeded in its banner year, 1907, but again in the year ended December 31 last, when the gross earnings were $703,961,424. The next largest corporate earnings in this country, if not in the world, are those of the big railroad systems, and these are only a fraction of the Steel Corporation's showing. The Pennsylvania system, for instance, which comes next in line, showed gross earnings last year of $346,215,000. The Southern Pacific, which is next, showed for the fiscal year ended June 30 last gross earnings of $132,620,000, and the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe, $107,565,000. All three of these aggregated only $586,400,000.

Perhaps a more impressive measure of the corporation's position in the industrial world is the fact that its output of steel is larger than that produced in all the plants of Germany, more than twice as large as Great Britain's, and more than three times as large as that of France. The latest statistics available for foreign countries are those of 1909. In that year, one of low-pressure production in this country, the United States Steel Corporation turned out 13,355,189 tons of steel ingots, against Germany's 11,856,000 tons, the United Kingdom's 5,931,000 tons, and France's 3,020,000 tons. Last year the corporation's output was 14,179,369 tons.

THE CROCODILE'S TOOTHPICK

In the countries where crocodiles lives there is a bird called the zicac. This bird lives by eating insects which they find on the body of the crocodiles. Should a hunter approach wishing to kill the crocodile, the zicac warns it by uttering loud cries. The most wonderful thing about these birds, however, is they way in which they act as toothpicks for the reptile. The latter lies for hours with his jaws open. The little birds run in and out of his mouth and peck off the fragment of flesh which have collected about the crocodile's teeth.

COUNTESS DE SWIRSKY IS A SUCCESS EVERYWHERE

She Will Appear at the Auditorium Tonight.

The artistic dancing of Miss de Swirsky has delighted last week audiences of Halifax and St. John, where she opened her Canadian tour.

The St. John Evening Times said: "To most of those who witnessed the dancing of Countess Thamar de Swirsky last evening in the opera house, the performance was a revelation of the possibilities of this art. Her interpretation of the music which was both her inspiration and her accompaniment, is poetic and artistic to a degree difficult to describe. What the work of a master musician is to the hearing, her dancing is to the eye. The spirit of the music translated by the poetry of motion, but feebly describes her performance. The grace of her every motion makes her seem less like an ordinary human being than like a fairy at play."

BRYAN BELIEVES IN CRIMINAL PUNISHMENT

(William J. Bryan, in Telegram to New York World from Norfolk, Va.)

Answering your inquiry, I would say that I believe in criminal punishment of those who violate the Anti-Trust law, but I believe that the Supreme Court's decisions in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases make it practically impossible to punish trust magnates as criminals. I am satisfied that was the purpose of the decisions and that the court was packed to secure such decisions. The fact that the President does not attempt to punish Oil, Tobacco and Steel magnates criminally proves either that he knows the law is now worthless as a criminal law or that he does not want to punish big criminals.

ACCORDING TO THE CHARWOMAN

When Lyman J. Gage went out as Secretary of the Treasury and Leslie M. Shaw came in, two charwomen, cleaning the corridors in the Treasury Building at Washington were discussing the change. "Pears to me," said one of the charwomen, "this yere new man ain't so smart as Marse Gage. This yere new man an' his clerk—they ain't so smart!" "How do mek that out?" asked the other charwoman. "Why, Mr. Gage an' he's clerks they come down at 10 o'clock in the mawnin' an' they all done at 3 o'clock in the evenin' an' gone home; an' this yere new man an' he's clerks they come down here sometimes early as seven o'clock in the mawnin' an' don't go home so's I kin clean out they office until away long about six o'clock in th' evening. These geman ain't smart like Marse Gage, I tell you!"—Washington Post.

BANQUET TO THE HON. R. L. BORDEN

The Biggest Function of the Kind Ever Seen in Halifax -The Premier's Speech.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 2.—The banquet in honor of Hon. R. L. Borden, Prime Minister, given to him in his own constituency to-night, was a splendid demonstration of love, respect and admiration. The company at the tables numbered 800 and constituted the greatest demonstration of the kind in point of numbers an enthusiasm that has never been seen in Eastern Canada, if not anywhere in the Dominion. The scene when Hon. Mr. Borden rose to respond to the toast with which his name was coupled was remarkable in the spontaneity of the enthusiastic outburst. The cheering was continued for several minutes and all through his speech, which lasted about forty-five minutes, there was renewed cheering, hardly less vociferous than that which greeted him when he rose and which rewarded him when he concluded his splendid address. There was no doubt about the feeling of Halifax toward Mr. Borden, if it is to be judged by the remarkable ovation given him at this great banquet. At the main table were seated seven of his Cabinet colleagues and the speakers designated of the House of Commons and Senate. All the Conservative members of Parliament of Nova Scotia were there as well as also the Conservative members of the Provincial Opposition in the Legislature. The chair was occupied by J. W. Regan, ex-President of the Nova Scotia Conservative Association. On the chairman's right sat Hon. Mr. Borden and on his left Hon. Geo. E. Foster. Telegrams and letters of regret at inability to be present were read from those Cabinet Ministers who were not there and from several others, among them Hon. MacKenzie Bowell and Sir Charles Tupper, Bart. A. B. Crosby proposed the toast to the Cabinet Ministers and there were vigorous responses which drew forth renewed cheering.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 2.—The banquet in honor of Hon. R. L. Borden in this city tonight, given by the Conservatives of Halifax and of the province of Nova Scotia, was the biggest function of the kind ever seen here. There were three toasts—The King, Mr. Borden, and the Members of Mr. Borden's Cabinet. Mr. Borden's response to the toast in his honor was in part as follows: "Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen:—I need not tell you that I am deeply moved by this splendid reception accorded to me in this city where I have spent the best years of my life and perhaps my happiest days, and which I have had the honor of representing for many years in the Parliament of Canada. I am proud of this reception because it is accorded to me by those with whom I've fought shoulder to shoulder and side by side in some of the fiercest political battles ever waged in Canada. A great soldier said some years ago that those who only knew the true meaning of comradeship who had marched and fought and bivouacked together. The same holds true of political comradeship. In the contests which we have waged we have not always proved victorious, but in 1908 and again in 1911 the results have more than made amends for the defeat which we sustained not only in this country but in this province in 1904. My own election in this constituency on 21st September, 1911, was marred by the defeat of my friend and colleague, Crosby. I desire to repeat tonight the tribute which I have paid to him more than once by stating what is only the truth, that no constituency was more faithfully and loyally served by its representative in the late Parliament than was this constituency of Halifax by A. B. Crosby. However, if for the moment defeated, he rejoices, as we all rejoice, in the wider victory which our party won throughout the Dominion. The issue which confronted the people of Canada in the recent contest was of surpassing interest and importance not only to Canada but to the whole empire. Its importance was realized by the people of Canada and it is not amiss on this occasion to express our appreciation of those Liberals who placed the interests of Canada above the ties of party allegiance and who fought with us in this campaign for the welfare of Canada and of the Empire. The Liberal-Conservative party would not be worthy of its record or its traditions and it would not be worthy of the name which it bears if it were not able to welcome the aid of such men; it would not be worthy of its record, of its traditions and of its name if it were not willing to recognize, as we have sought to recognize, as we have sought to recognize the aid which these men brought and the influence which they exerted in that contest. In some quarters, which I need not name, the claim has been made that the result of the election was due to some hostile or unfriendly spirit on the part of the Canadian people to the great neighboring republic. It is desirable that any such idea, if it exists, should be dissipated and dispelled. A brief retrospect will enable us to arrive at a just conclusion with regard to this. In 1879 Canada placed upon her statute books a standing offer of reciprocity which remained open to the United States for 18 years, or until 1897, when it was repealed by the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The United States always declined to entertain this standing offer and we never questioned their perfect and absolute right to take that course. In the meantime Canada had entered upon a policy which aimed at the development of the natural resources of this country, the growth of its industries and the preservation of its home market. Canada's fiscal autonomy involving the complete control of her tariff had been finally acknowledged in 1879 and it will never be relinquished. The reciprocity compact, proposed by the late government, would have interfered with Canada's complete control of its own fiscal system and in many respects it was properly regarded as a reversal of the policy which this country had pursued for many years. The Canadian people were startled and alarmed by the idea or suggestion that two members of the government without any mandate from the people should enter into a treaty which would materially alter that policy. Moreover the interlocking of our tariff with that of any country is undesirable from the standpoint of our fiscal autonomy. It should not be forgotten that similar arrangements made between British Colonies and South Africa proved unsatisfactory and irritating and in the end they had to be abandoned. During the recent election the opinion prevailed in Canada that in the interest of friendly relations it would be far better that each country should be absolutely free to frame and modify its own tariff in what it conceived to be the best interests of its people. We are also convinced that a tariff which must be accepted or rejected as a whole and which cannot be amended in any respect to meet even the most obvious injustice is an undemocratic and undesirable form of legislation and we believe that experience has proved this beyond question. Thus the recent decision of the Canadian people was in no respect induced by any spirit of unfriendliness to the United States; it was rather brought about by their determination to maintain complete control of their own fiscal system and to mould their own destiny along the lines of a policy which has been pursued in this country for the past thirty years. Canada is an autonomous nation within the British Empire and is closely and inseparably united to that empire by ties of kinship, of sentiment and of fealty, by historic association and tradition, by the character of its institutions, and by the free will of its people. By the like ties of kinship, by constant social and commercial intercourse, by proximity and mutual respect and good will, this country is closely associated with the United States. Canada's voice and influence should always be for harmony and not for discord between our empire and the great republic, and I believe that she will always be a bond of abiding friendship between them. I trust that the anniversary of one hundred years of peace will be commemorated in the two countries with a deep and solemn sense of national responsibility and that each will accomplish its destiny under the splendid inspiration of enduring and increasing friendship and good will. Turning again to the result of the recent elections I am glad to see among those assembled here tonight the men who carried nine of the eighteen seats in this province and the men who put up a splendid though unsuccessful fight in the other nine counties. "In 1904 Nova Scotia did not elect a single Liberal-Conservative to the federal Parliament. Today we hold nine of the eighteen seats and if a general election were held tomorrow I leave it to your imagination as to what the result would be. Considering the point at which we started only seven years ago in this province the Liberal-Conservative party has every reason to be proud of the results of the magnificent efforts which it has put forth during the past seven years. We hold 16 seats in the Maritime Provinces today, and considering the results in the two counties in New Brunswick there is good reason to claim that upon a fair reckoning there should have been 18 at least. But our gains have by no means been confined to the Maritime Provinces alone. Altogether we gained about 40 seats. Ontario today holds the record with its majority of 60 while in British Columbia not a single Liberal has been left to tell the tale. It is true that in the province of Alberta, and the province of Saskatchewan we sustained the loss of two seats, but that was the result of conditions which I believe will not prevail in the future and I look for a splendid representation of Liberal-Conservatives in the next Parliament from those provinces. But, Mr. Chairman, I did not come here to exult over our success. The recent victory has brought with it responsibilities to which no man in Canada is more keenly alive than myself. The Liberal-Conservative party must be true to its record and its traditions; it must give to the people of Canada intelligent, progressive and clean government. There are many problems which confront those who are responsible for the administration of public affairs in Canada to-day. Great problems have been solved in the past and no great problem was ever faced by any people than the binding together of the scattered communities of eastern Canada into one dominion and the extension of our boundaries over the vast area which today constitutes Canada. Looking back over the history of the past one is almost amazed at the audacity of the undertaking and the success which has hitherto attended it. There is every reason to believe that Canada is entering upon a period of development and growth even greater and more important than which we have witnessed in the past. The marvellous growth of our western country will undoubtedly continue and there is no reason to suppose that similar, if not equal development, will not come to eastern Canada as well, and especially to this little province by the sea which in its extent and variety of its resources is not surpassed by any equal area in Canada. Intelligent administration of public affairs must involve a wise conservation of our natural resources, as well as their development in the interest of the whole people. In a country like Canada with an enormous area and scattered population, the problem of transportation is of prime and vital importance and you may rest assured that the Liberal-Conservative party, which conceived and carried into effect the project of binding together the provinces of Canada first by the Intercolonial Railway and afterwards by the Canadian Pacific Railway will be always alive to the vital import-

An Elevator in your garage will cut your rent bill in half. GARAGE depends for its existence upon a convenient location. Central sites mean high rentals, restricted area, and reduced profits. The solution of this lies in a two-story garage, which will give the same amount of floor space at a cost exactly one-half or less. But to be successfully operated, a two-story garage requires the installation of a modern freight elevator. If the garage is equipped with OTIS FENSOM FREIGHT ELEVATORS. The initial expenditure will soon pay for itself in cheaper rentals, increased floor space, improved facilities for displaying and demonstrating the place and its surroundings. Prospective purchasers—and this is particularly true of the class who buy automobiles—are attracted by a neat, clean and orderly looking garage. It bespeaks the owner's pride in his business and the practice of progressive methods. Then, too, when your customer admires a car you have stored on the upstairs floor, your elevator must be ready to lower it to the bright light of the showroom, or so you can take it out on the street to demonstrate its running qualities. A delay may lose you the sale. The thoroughly substantial and workmanlike manner in which the Otis-Fensom Elevator is built is a guaranty of its reliable efficiency. Both the car and its running gear are built on modern and scientific lines that assure you of its always being in commission ready for instant service. The simplicity of its operation, ease of control and smooth running qualities simplify the work of the garage and reduce the business of showroom and repair department to a time-saving and labor-saving and systematic basis. We have prepared an interesting illustrated booklet on "Freight Elevators and Their Uses." Your copy will be mailed promptly on receipt of your name and address. Please send me your book. Name..... ance of that problem. There are many industries in this province to which transportation is of prime importance and perhaps to none is it more essential than to our great fishing industry. It has always seemed to me that Nova Scotia, with a coastline which adjoins and even projects into the best fishing grounds of the world, ought to supply fresh fish of the best quality and in the best condition to Ontario, Quebec and even to the western provinces. This can only be done by the organization of a system of cold storage and transportation facilities such as are to be found in other parts of the world with no greater opportunity than our own. The policy of the Liberal-Conservative party as presented to the people in the recent contest is before you. I will not dwell upon it tonight. Among some of its principal items are such encouragement of the great basic industry, agriculture, as will enable those who till the soil to receive the highest return for their produce, to farm and at the same time preserve turn out their products in the highest fertility of the land. Hand in hand with this is the aid and encouragement which we propose for the purpose of establishing and maintaining permanent highways of a character suitable to our conditions. Some such effort is needed in the interest of that effective scheme of transportation which ought to be the aim of any progressive government. The regulation of our tariff upon reasonable business principles is an important article of our policy that is to be carried out by the establishment of a permanent tariff commission which will ascertain all necessary facts in connection with the conditions and cost of production and which will advise as to the conclusion which ought to be drawn from the facts so ascertained. "We propose also to extend that reform of the civil service which we initiated while in opposition and which the late administration carried out in part upon our initiative. So far as trade relations are concerned we believe that the true idea of reciprocity can be found within the vast dominions of this empire with its wonderful variety of natural and other products which can be exchanged to the mutual advantage of all.

"It is with the greatest possible pleasure that I hail tonight the presence among you of many of my colleagues of the cabinet. They have come here at much inconvenience as we are new in office and the demands of public business in view of the approaching session are rather urgent and insistent. You will find, and the country will find, that not only those of them who are here present, but those who are absent, will give to the public service which they have been called upon to undertake the best of their energies and their abilities. The life of a cabinet minister, who is exceedingly busy life and any man who undertakes this high public service must be prepared to sacrifice ease and comfort at the behest of duty. I know that the men who have been called to the cabinet of Canada are prepared to make that sacrifice. We do not claim to be infallible but we do claim that as servants of the people of Canada, we shall give to our public duties the best that is in us and no man can do more. This little province by the sea have given to the province of Canada three prime minister and all of them have been of the same political faith. The names of Sir Charles Tupper, Sir John Thompson are honored today by every citizen in Canada irrespective of party. One of them passed away in the full maturity of his strength and vigor, leaving a great name behind him. The other, Sir Charles Tupper, the grand old man of Canada, has attained his ninetieth year, and beyond the seas in the old motherland, he takes as keen an interest in the welfare of this great dominion as he did in the days when he led with marvellous vigor and ability the Conservative forces in this province and dominion. The courage, the faith, the achievements of these great leaders will not fail to be an inspiration to us and I shall be more than satisfied if I may be enabled to perform my allotted task with such advantage to my country as that which characterized their aims and their efforts. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the honor which you have done me tonight and for the encouragement which this magnificent demonstration and your splendid reception will ever lend to me in the great work that lies before us."

LUNCHEON AT CANADIAN CLUB Halifax, N. S., Nov. 2.—Hon. R. L. Borden was the guest of the Canadian Club at a luncheon today. The Prime Minister spoke for about half an hour, began by saying that he considered the work of the Canadian Club very important indeed, and in this connection he applied the old adage: "Know thyself." When the confederation was constituted it was constituted of provinces separated by great barriers. This was a great project and looking back at it today one could not but be surprised at the courage which had made the attempt possible. Much had been done but a great deal remains and by bringing public men of Canada here and there to speak of the country's resources and by the learning of our great resources an important step is taken. He congratulated the Halifax Canadian Club on what it has been doing. Mr. Borden, addressing his colleagues in the cabinet, who were present, ventured to tell them that though other provinces in Canada might have greater area and more wealth than Nova Scotia, none has more varied resources. The port of Halifax was sure and other Maritime ports of Canada would, he had no doubt, be taken full advantage of and he was confident that his friends, the Minister of Railways and the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, would fully recognize the importance of Halifax and Canada's Atlantic seaports. Mr. Borden spoke of a defect in our system of government. One difficulty about it was that too much of the time of the ministers of the crown was taken up with matters of party concern at the expense of the administration of the departments which the public interests demanded. He said that so far as he and his colleagues were concerned their best efforts would be devoted to the welfare of the people and the public service.

One thing Mr. Borden wished to impress was that if the best interests of the people withdraw themselves from interest in public matters, democratic government, as we wish to have it should be in its ideal form, cannot be a success. The aim and object of democracy should be equal opportunity for all and to bring this about should be the purpose of government. Mr. Borden concluded by expressing his thanks to those who were not his political friends but were his personal friends for the warm welcome that had been given him today. It would ever be his aim by every reasonable means in his power to assist in bringing about the welfare of this city of Halifax.

PROSPEROUS NEWFOUNDLAND St. John's, N. F., Nov. 2.—The revenues of Newfoundland during the present fall are breaking all records, the increase during the past four months having been $80,000 over the same period in 1910. The Governor, Sir Ralph C. Williams, who returned yesterday from a four months' holiday in England, announces that a special message from King George to the fishermen that although the Prince of Wales will not cross the Atlantic next year, it is hoped that the Duke of Connaught will visit the colony next summer.

ALL SOULS' DAY IN ITALIAN CAMP How It Was Observed—After Mass the Troops Were Addressed by Their Generals. Rome, Nov. 2.—A despatch to the Gionial D'Italia from Tripoli describes the observance of All Souls' Day at the Italian military camp at Bumelina. The altar was surrounded by cannon and a forest of rifles, the bayonets of which flashed back the rays of the sun. Above all waved the Tri-Colored military band played the "Ave Maria," by Verdi. After the chaplains had celebrated mass each general addressed the soldiers, urging them to imitate the example of the officers and men who had won victory and honor for their country by shedding their blood. The thousands of soldiers responded with cries of "Long live Italy."

How Nervous Men Get Most Out of Life (From "Successful Men.") Every normal minded man wishes to get all he can out of life—but many a man knows that he is falling far short. The successful man, works, eats and plays with the keenest enjoyment, because his nerves are keenly sensitive. He tastes, hears, sees and feels all with the highest emotions of vigorous healthy nerves. As a consequence he has stamina, endurance and personal magnetism, which makes those near and dear to him, worship his manliness, chivalry and strenuousness. Without keen, sensitive, well nourished nerves, such a man would be an object of pity, and not the brilliant success he is. All men should have well-nourished nerves, but if the blood and vital organs do not supply the chemical or substance known as nervous fluid, then the waste of the nerves is not renewed daily and hourly as it should be. The nerves become exhausted, giving rise to such symptoms as trembling hands and limbs, cold feet and hands, melancholia, hysteria, timidity, nervousness, sleeplessness, dizziness, heart palpitation, pains in the back, headache, languor and weariness at all times. A most valuable nerve treatment, restorative in every sense, is to be found in the following prescription, emanating, it is said, from a brilliant and successful specialist on nervous ailments. The treatment can be prepared in the privacy of home and thus causes no one any embarrassment. First take three ounces of syrup of sarsaparilla compound in a six ounce bottle. To this add one ounce of compound fluid balmwort, shake well and let stand two hours. Then add one ounce of tincture cadomene compound (not cardamon) and one ounce of compound essence cardiol. Mix. Shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring. It is astonishing to feel the new nerve force, the steadied nerves, and the control of every muscle in the body after using this. Overworked office men, and the many victims of society's late hours and dissipation will surely find in this the restorative, rejuvenating force they are sorely in need of. The ingredients are used in various prescriptions and any good druggist can supply them.

NEW YORK CLOSING LETTER.

New York, Nov. 2.—London came lower this morning and foreigners were inclined to realize on our stocks as their market was closed yesterday. Selling from this source caused a somewhat lower start, and stocks receded fractionally during the first fifteen minutes trading. Stock was soon absorbed and market turned aggressively strong, nearly everything on list making new high record on this movement. Steel led the industrial while Union was the leader in rails. Steel at one time showed an advance of nearly ten points from the figures touched on the day after the announcement of the government suit with Union up practically as much. There was heavy trading but this was well taken care of by further enormous short covering and the strength of the market was well maintained all through morning session.

MONTREAL CLOSING LETTER.

Montreal, Nov. 2.—Toronto Railway and Richelieu were the leaders in today's market in points of activity and strength and there appeared to be good buying power in both these issues, although there were no definite reasons as signed for the advances. The Cement stocks showed a slight falling off and it looks as though their strength were spent for the time. Rio prices came in firm from London this morning and the stock held steady all day both here and in Toronto. Canadian Pacific was reactionary. There was a rumor today to the effect that Canadian Pacific was negotiating for the purchase of Quebec Railway. This led to some buying of the latter shares but up to the close there was no confirmation of the news. Detroit and Iron sprang into life during the late trading and showed small advances. Steel Co. of Canada acted well and was freely traded in. In the unlisted department Wagamac made a new record of 48 but receded fractionally and the bonds were traded in at 76.

MONTREAL STOCK MARKET

Montreal, Nov. 2.—Price movements on the local stock market today were irregular, there being some recessions, but some issues showed

TWINS BORN AT SEA SAFE FOR KAISER

German Woman Wants Child Born on German Ship, and Wish Is Doubly Granted.

New York, Nov. 2.—The great loyalty of Mrs. Otto Schlessinger to Germany was made plain in a wireless message received by Emil L. Boas, General Manager of the Hamburg-American line. Her husband is in business in Cuba, and of course she lives there, but her heart is across the sea in the Fatherland.

Mrs. Schlessinger, who was in delicate health, came aboard the steamer Prinz Joachim, which was about to sail from Santiago, the wireless said, and begged permission to make the trip around by way of Kingston, Colon, New York, etc., back to Santiago, the starting point, in order that her child might be born under the German flag.

"Certainly," said Capt. Fey and Dr. J. W. Flynn, the ship's surgeon. Mrs. Schlessinger got a good room and the Prinz Joachim started for Kingston. That night the piano and the orchestra were moved out on deck and the passengers gave a ball under the tropic skies.

In the middle of a waltz there came a hurry call for Dr. Flynn from Mrs. Schlessinger's stateroom. Soon he returned and asked for the assistance of three passengers, Dr. Walter L. Munro, Dr. Albert Burrows and idence, R.I.

Forty minutes afterwards the physicians came back to the ball and announced that all was well, in fact trebly well, for instead of one new passenger there were two.

"Yes, twins," said Dr. Munro.

"Twins, as I'm alive and afloat. One boy and one girl. Here, steward, bring us the same as we've had right along."

Mrs. Schlessinger had had her wish, but sooner and to a greater extent than she had expected. She named the babies Joachim and Alexia Fey Schlessinger, after the fourth son of the German Emperor and after Capt. Fey.

AN IMPORTANT INTERVIEW.

Mr. A. O. Wheeler, F.R.G.S., Director of the Alpine Club of Canada, has just returned to Vancouver from a summer spent in the Canadian Rockies in the vicinity of Yellowhead Pass, and is greatly impressed with his trip.

In an interview with Mr. Wheeler, he stated: "It has been the general impression that the Rocky Mountains of Canada attain their greatest average height not very far north of the boundary line. True, of late years much has been heard of Mount Robson, which dominates the region of Yellowhead Pass, but the popular notion was that there was nothing else in the neighborhood worth seeing, and that the Grand Trunk Pacific would pass through a region of little interest from the point of view of the tourist or mountaineer.

"There was no mistake about Mount Robson. It is without doubt, as was stated by one of the most travelled and skilled mountaineers of the day, Dr. Norman Collie, one of the most magnificent mountains in the world, whether seen from the south, the view that is most familiar, or from beautiful Derg Lake, it still stands supreme. In the hundred-mile circuit of the great massif on all sides were found mighty snow-clad peaks, widespread snowfields, huge icefalls, rushing torrents, waterfalls, flower-clad meadows and vast stretches of dark fine forest. Many of the peaks were named by the surveyors, but they are legion, and it will be many years before they are familiarly known as individual mountains."

In speaking of Robson Glacier, which lies on the east side of the monstrous mountain, Mr. Wheeler said: "It struck us dumb with amazement that anything so stupendous, so superb, so undreamed of should exist. At our feet flowed the great river of ice, every crevasse, every moraine, every icefall, clearly portrayed. Directly opposite rose the massif, its outline clear from base to summit for fully 8,000 feet. From the beautiful meadows at the head of Resplendent Valley twenty-five peaks were counted all unknown and unnamed. All lakes, which perhaps lend the most characteristic charm to Canadian mountain scenery were everywhere.

"At the summit of Yellowhead Pass Mr. Wheeler's party created a monument defining the boundary between Alberta and British Columbia at the intersection of the Great Divide. On the huge post set up, which is surrounded with a big stone mound, are carved the words 'British Columbia on the west face; Alberta on the east face; and on the south 3727-98 feet', being the altitude of the summit at the point where the post is set."

LAKE EDWARD

SANATORIUM.
The third Thanksgiving dinner at the Lake Edward Sanatorium will long be remembered by the patients. The dining-room was most tastefully decorated with emblems of the harvest by the Lady Superintendent, Miss Dodd, and presented an exceedingly cheerful appearance. After a most sumptuous repast, furnished by the Montreal friends of one of the patients, all adjourned to the Living Room, where a capital musical programme was provided, and immensely enjoyed. The Ottawa representative presided at the Victrola. Many snapshots were taken by the ever ready camera, to perpetuate the day as one of rejoicing. Dr. Lindsay, M.G.H., presided in his usual pleasing manner, in the absence of Dr. and Mrs. Craig, who are at present touring in Europe.
