NATIONAL STOCK-TAKING

Within a few days organization preparatory to the taking of the census will be well under way throughout the country. The counting of the population and the gathering of vital statistics concerning the nation every ten years was provided in the British North America Act by the Fathers of Confederation as a necessary adjunct to the nation's growth. The job is a big one, each resident being required to provide the census-takers with information listed under some forty headings. This information is later used widely by business concerns, and by various governments in framing legislation. This year, because of the war, there was some consideration given to postponing the taking of the census, but as such postponement would have required an amendment to Canada's constitution, which would have required the consent of all the Provinces and an Act of the Imperial parliament, and also because the information to be gleaned will be of inestimable value to the country following the war, it was decided to go ahead with it. When the present conflict is over, this nation is expected to experience a tremendous development due to the influx of hundreds of industries from Europe and the information to be gleaned from the national stock-taking will be of great assistance in handling this growth. Locally, the census will be under the administration of John F. Woodcock, who has opened an office in the Post Office building on Sherbrooke street, where the appointment of some seventy census-takers will be made and instruction given them between now and June 1st. The local district comprises Notre Dame de Grace, Hampstead, Montreal West, Ville St. Pierre and the eastern part of Lachine, being one of the largest in Canada.

TAXES FOR EVERY PURSE

As expected the new Budget figures, announced Tuesday by the Minister of Finance, contained tax increases right down the line. Some of the increases are startling. For example, a man in the medium salary class with a couple of children who used to complain that he had to take a ten spot out of his April fiftieth pay to settle up with the income tax authorities, will now be required to lift a ten spot out of his pay envelope on the fifteenth of each and every one of the twelve months of the year to settle with the government. Similarly, we'll be paying more for national defence, building materials, gasoline, motion picture entertainment, sugar, soft drinks, playing cards, rouge and powder, hand cream, face cream, long distance telephone calls, lighters, low price automobiles, and—if you roll your own cigarettes—paper tubes. There will be a certain amount of grumbling, but most Canadians will take it in a patriotic spirit, for it's going to beat Hitler and if Hitler isn't beaten our present taxes will seem trifling compared to what a victorious Germany would impose on the British Empire.

COUNSEL OF DESPAIR

Although he admits that collapse of the British Empire would be a tragedy to the world and even to Germany, Colonel Lindbergh believes the war was lost for the Allies before it began. He implies acquiescence in that assumption. Did he and his backers ever hear of Washington at Valley Forge, John Paul Jones, the Alamo, the Greeks at Thermopylae, the Dutch against Philip II, Drake, and the Armada, Lincoln's long search for a winning general in the Civil War, or Wellington's late start against Napoleon?

Westmount Baptist Church Notes

Rev. J. A. Johnston will preach at both services in Westmount Baptist Church on Sunday. The theme of the morning sermon will be, "The Realism of Jesus." Nothing but utter reality will stand the crucial test of these stern days. The topic of the evening address will be, "The Wonderful Kingdom of the Twice-Born." What did Jesus really mean when He insisted that men must be born again? How and when does this miracle, that make the sons of men sons of God, take place. Strangers and visitors are very cordially welcomed to these services.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ Scientist throughout the world on Sunday May 4th. The Golden Text is from Proverbs 28:13. "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." (James 4:7). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "You are conquered by the moral penalties you incur and the ills they bring. The pains of sinful sense are less harmful than its pleasures."

The Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest

The Westmount Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest is run with the kind co-operation of Mr. Godel, manager of the Westmount Theatre. Each week twelve passes are given to the six lucky winners who comply with the following requirements:—
Simply find the two "ads." in the current issue of The Westmount Examiner in which the names of the two feature pictures being shown at the Westmount Theatre during the first half of next week are hidden. Submit all answers to The Contest Editor, The Westmount Examiner, 2191 Hampton Avenue, using the special coupon provided in each issue for the purpose.
Contestants must be over 16 years of age. Residents of Westmount, only, are eligible.
All answers must be in this office not later than Wednesday, and the names of the winners will be published in Thursday's issue.
A convenient coupon will be found elsewhere in the paper.
The winners are drawn from among those who submit the correct answers, as, unfortunately, it would be impossible to give passes to every one submitting the right answers.
The winners of last week's contest are as follows and their passes will be received in Monday's mail.
Mrs. S. Burnett, 4831 Sherbrooke West, Apt. 11; Miss June Sutherland, 7 Park Place, Apt. 12; D. C. Jennings, 780 Upper Belmont Ave.; Mrs. T. B. Earle, 22 Chesterfield Ave.; Miss A. C. Kirk, 4921 Sherbrooke West, Apt. 3; Mrs. E. M. Catton, 425 Metcalfe Ave.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.
In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed
The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

According to Senator Meighen Canada is failing to get maximum production during the war, because business men are not finding production sufficiently profitable. He wishes things to be made easier for them. The more profit, he says in effect, the more production, the less profit, the less production.
According to the Earnest Bevin of the Churchill War Cabinet, profits stand in the way of maximum production.
Senator Meighen said: "Human nature is the same in war times as in peace, and instead of helping the war effort you are defeating it by stripping people of the stimulus to toil and run their business right. I do not exaggerate at all when I say that I have had business men by the dozens tell me they are leaning on their oars. They have nothing to work for. They say, 'We might just as well take it a little easier now, for we are only working for taxes any way.'" He stated further: "If property, profit, the reward of toil, the fundamental instinct of the human race is to gain, to acquire to have, to reach somewhere, is taken away, then I, for one, do not feel we have anything worth fighting for."

Apparently Senator Meighen's remedy for slowness in production is to give profit-making freer rein. Labor Minister Bevin revealed his attitude when he said "I hope that the War Cabinet will not allow vested interests, profits, or anything else, to stand in the way of maximum production. If that is the policy of the Government, I will ask my people to work hard to save the lives of our lads."
Charges of profiteering against the Ottawa Clinics were dismissed by Magistrate Strike.
The Co-operative Insurance Society in Britain has invested $86,000,000 in government funds.
Corporation profits in the U.S. last year rose above five billion dollars — the highest since 1929.
Asked whether he would run for President, Wendell Willkie, during his recent visit to Toronto, said, "What I'm interested in is serving liberty; so that we can have elections."

CALVARY CHURCH NOTES

The preacher at both services on Sunday in Calvary Church will be the Interim Minister, the Rev. Colin R. Rudd, B.A., B.D., at 4:30 morning service the subject will be "Meditation" in preparation for the Communion of the Lord's Supper which will follow the morning service. At the evening service Mr. Rudd will give a lantern lecture on "Missions Along the East Coast." The Mission Band will meet during the morning service at 11:15 a.m.
The Sunday School will meet in all departments at 3 p.m. and the Men's Own Brotherhood will hold its regular session at the same hour.
Monday at 7:15 p.m. the Boy Scouts will meet as usual.
On Tuesday the Red Cross will work from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and the evening branch will meet at 7:30 p.m. More workers are urgently needed in this important branch.
Wednesday, 2:30 p.m. the Women's Association will meet for the regular monthly session.
At 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday, May 7th, the members and friends of the congregation are heartily invited to meet in the church hall to say "Farewell" to the Rev. and Mrs. Colin R. Rudd. Mr. Rudd has accepted a call to become the pastor of Knox United Church, Cornwall, Ontario, and they leave Montreal in the middle of May. The last Sunday that the Rev. C. R. Rudd will preach in Calvary will be on Mother's Day, May 11th. Mr. Rudd has served Calvary well and efficiently as the Interim Minister since August 1940, and their many friends are invited to come and wish them joy and happiness in their new sphere of labour.
On Friday, May 9th, at 6:30 p.m. the Father and Son banquet will be held under the auspices of the Square Circle Club. A fine program has been arranged and a well chosen speaker will inspire all who attend this annual function.
Sunday, May 11th, Mother's Day. Preacher, Rev. C. R. Rudd.

"That's a fine girl you've married," said the old friend. "Yes," said the angler absentmindedly, "but you should have seen the one that got away."
Mineral production in Canada during 1940 reached a record point, output being valued at $529,179,434.
"I feel in my very bones that things can never be as they were. A new age has to be built, and what greater contribution can we pay to those who are suffering at the moment than to say that this time it is really not in vain? ... I suggest 'at' at the end of this war, and 'indeed' during the war, we accept social security as the main motive of all our national life." — Ernest Bevin, of the Churchill War Cabinet.

BOOK REVIEW

BY HOWARD S. ROSS

Our Generations, Its Gains and Losses
By The late Dr. Oscar D. Skelton
Being the Inaugural Course of Lectures Delivered at Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri, 1937
The University of Chicago Press

The democratic peoples of North America will doubtless continue, by trial and error, by compromise and experiment, to try to combine the advantages of state control and individual initiative, of forecasting and of flexibility. They will no more be persuaded to adopt a full-blooded socialism than they will be content with rugged and ragged individualism. Tomorrow, as today, it will not be a choice between doctrinaire extremes but a question of the proportions in which individual self-reliance, co-operation in the countless economic and social and cultural groupings of men, and control by the state will be blended in their economy.
They will seek more than ever to hinder the hindrances to individual development, to aid in the attainment of individual security, and to balance the excesses of individual action. They will not seek to give handful of men or a doctrinaire group the task of deciding and controlling the destinies and manifold activities of tens of millions of men in their daily and familiar tasks. They will look to the state to control traffic but not to take the driver's seat in the million cars. They will, from all appearances, avoid like the laissez faire of the old economists and the Gospels of the new bureaucracies.
"Some Educational Trends" were then discussed and the speaker was again on familiar grounds. As is well-known, he was, before going to the Department of External Affairs at Ottawa, an assistant to Premier King, the head of that Department, a prominent member of the faculty of Queen's University.
While aware of some defects he saw the bright side of the educational scene, the changes in objectives and the endeavor of a democracy to equip itself for its task. "The social sciences have attained a new importance in the training of youth and have undergone a marked change in content and reality. History has been given new life and range, with new courses in world-history. Gone is the limitation to affairs of state, wars, diplomacy, and politics. Nothing that is human is alien to the newer history, which takes as its field the past life of mankind and takes in economics to help interpret the past, geography to bring out the abiding factors in shaping of destiny and anthropology and archeology to throw light on dark places; and if he can re-study the tendency to ride a hobby to death, and avoid a wholly economic interpretation of history or a geograph determinism, he has found much profit in the contacts with the bordering disciplines."
The political scientist, again, has got away from the legal and formalistic approach that was widespread a generation ago. If (the historian) has ceased to be absorbed in description and analysis of constitutions and statutes and has tried to pierce behind the form to the reality, in order to inquire how the system really works and who works it, how public opinion is formed, what light political psychology has to throw, and how political power is organized and applied. He is giving more attention to practical problems of administration and deeper thought to political theory, past and present. The sociologist has acquired a more definite field; he is less concerned with classification and more with synthesizing its neighboring fields. The economist is less dogmatic, more realistic. He is less sure of what should be, more aware of what is. Economics today is wider in its range, more skilled in its collection and utilization of statistics, more practical in its applications, and definitely broader in its social sympathies.
In his seventh and last lecture of the series "Conclusion" he recalls some of the more obvious gains and losses of the first third of the twentieth century in the main fields which he has discussed. He noted the tragedy of World War No. 1 and the aftermath of intensified economic nationalism and "armaments gigantic and perverse, and the spread of the contagion of aggression complicated by new doctrinaire

He rightly believed that the problems of a surplus economy are vastly more cheerful to contemplate and easier to solve than the problems of a deficit economy. "If the problem of production which faced past ages—the problem of 'how to stretch inadequate supplies to cover modest needs—is in large part in the way of solution, the problem of distribution which faces our time, of how to make available for all the wealth that at last is becoming available, will not prove insoluble. And equally may progress be hoped for in the field of consumption, in the choice and direction of demand and of spending. Standards of living will doubtless continue to rise faster than means of living; if ever fact catches up with dream, it will mean not perfection but stagnation. But we may reasonably hope for a lessening in that wide measure of waste that comes not from unfairness in distribution, but from blindness in the use of what is available—individuals preferring the tawdry and the transitory to the enduring; nations preferring wars to schools or houses, cannon to butter, and butter to freedom."
His final words in this series of lectures were: "It would be rash to attempt to balance the profit and the loss. We may hope that the Archangel Gabriel, in his final reckoning, will remember that it has been a pretty difficult problem that has been set. We may be sure that the generation which will come after us will not remember this; that it will forget our efforts and recall our blunders. If it has time to think of us at all. But in anticipatory forgiveness we may extend our sympathy to its own efforts in adjustment and express our conviction that it will maintain and justify democracy."

"Big Stick" Legislation Under Consideration to Curb Defence Strikes," says a Washington headline. The legislation would have been unnecessary if Uncle Sam hadn't so eagerly handed labor most of the big sticks in the bag.

MASONIC CHOIR WILL PRESENT ANNUAL CHORAL

Masons Raising Sum of $50,000 for Alleviation of War Distress in All Forms — Stanley Presbyterian Church to Be Scene of Event

As has already been announced in the Press, the Masons of Quebec, with the approval of the Department of National Services, Ottawa, are presently engaged in raising the sum of fifty thousand dollars which will be transmitted to the Grand Lodge of England for the alleviation of War distress in every form. To supplement this fund, the Montreal Masonic Choir will give their annual concert in Stanley Presbyterian Church, Westmount, on Wednesday, May 14th, at 8.30 p.m., under the direction of Walter Clapperton, Hon. A.R.C.M. with Doris Killiam at the piano and George M. Brewer at the organ.

Two soloists will be introduced to Masonic Choir patrons at this concert in the persons of Barbara Burton Patterson, soprano, and Max Putman, baritone.

Barbara Patterson is a native of Iowa who lived for some years in Saskatchewan where she attended the University of Saskatchewan, following which she studied voice production in New York under Blanche S. Blackman, the teacher of such world-wide artists as John Charles Thomas, Jessica Dragonette, John Carter and others. She has also appeared on important radio programmes and was soloist in several New York City churches.

Max Putman comes from Smiths Falls, Ontario and has yet to be heard in Montreal, where he is now stationed as a member of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, Canadian Active Army. He has been heard over the radio where he was the winner of several contests.

The choir will sing numbers by Bach, Handel, Wagner, DeRille, Elgar, Balfour Gardner, Vaughan Williams and will be heard also in arrangements of Negro spirituals by H. T. Burleigh and H. W. Pierce. They will also introduce a new patriotic number written and composed by Irvin Cooper, a resident of Notre Dame de Grace and supervisor of Music in Montreal schools. This number entitled "There's an Empire Back of the Union Jack" has been effectively arranged for the Montreal Masonic Choir by the composer.

The choir and all artists are giving their services gratis and tickets may be obtained from any member of the choir or at J. W. Shaw & Co., Ltd., 710 St. Catherine St. West, at very nominal prices.

The public are urged to support this concert when they may be assured of not only a splendid performance but also the knowledge of having the opportunity of assisting the people of Britain who are feeling the impact of Nazi hate.

Sodality To Enter Original Production In Coming Festival

The young Ladies' Sodality of Ascension Parish has entered an original production in the Catholic Drama Festival which is to be held at Loyola Auditorium on May 7, 8, 9. This is the second year that the Catholic Drama Festival has been held and it promises to be even more successful than last year. Entries have been received from dramatic groups all over the city and a well rounded programme for each night's performance is assured.

Those taking part are: Helen Kennedy, Sheila Tremblay, Fred Browne and Fred McCaffrey. The production is under the direction of Rev. G. F. Thoms.

"The Mediator" will be presented on Friday evening, May 9 the final night of the Festival, at which the trophy will be awarded to the winning group.

LEAGUE FOR WOMEN'S RIGHTS ADDRESSED BY PREMIER GODBOUT

Premier Adélard Godbout, speaking at a dinner marking the first anniversary of the granting of the right to vote to women of this province, said that French Canadians are as British as any Canadian in this country, and that in this time of war it is the duty of every Canadian citizen to recognize what England is doing and help her in this task.

This anniversary dinner was held in the Windsor Hotel on Friday evening, and under the chairmanship of Mrs. Pierre F. Casgrain, president of the League, addresses were also given by Hon. Philippe Brads, Government leader in the Quebec Upper House; Hon. Hector Perrier, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education, and women delegates to the league's two-day conference from various parts of the province.

The women of Quebec must share the burden of the men, "especially in this trying time," said Mr. Godbout. Speaking at first in English and then in French, the Premier told the gathering of some of the things to which he thought women should devote themselves, especially that "the future, by which we mean after 'the war,' will be a better day for Canadians.

Mr. Godbout congratulated the women on the advances they had made since they had been given the franchise, and said that those women here who were doing necessary work were in their way soldiers the same as the men at the front.

The women of Canada should work to see that "our children get as good a country as was given us by our parents," Mr. Brads told the group. Their program during the convention showed that they were working towards this end by studying the problems with which they could best deal, said Mr. Brads.

Mr. Perrier felicitated the women on all working together, whatever their political beliefs, for the good of women and of the country.

New Type Hosiery Both Smart And Patriotic

New types of stockings are beginning to appear in the shops these days, made partly of silk, with a substitute material such as rayon or lisle added. The new hose is war's latest effect on Milady's wardrobe but, thanks to Canadian Manufacturer's ingenuity and adaptability, it is smart and serviceable.

A reduction in the use of real silk is being undertaken by Canadian mills in order to save on vital foreign exchange. Instead of all-silk hose milady is now to get a stocking made with "composite yarn", that is a yarn in which fine filaments of rayon or lisle have been twisted with filaments of silk. The maintenance of a percentage of real silk in the new hose is to guarantee a dependable product, since silk is the strongest natural fibre known.

The change-over to "mixtures" as the new stockings are known, means a great deal to Canadian manufacturers. First, large enough supplies of substitute materials must be available, and then the actual technical difficulties of new production methods must be dealt with. But Canadian workers have already earned themselves the reputation of producing the world's best full-fashioned stockings, and this new departure in manufacturing is a challenge to their talents.

These officer cadets are warrant officers and non-commissioned officers selected from the ranks to undergo training with a view to obtaining commissions, and will mix at the centres with officers who are undergoing the same course of training. The cadets, for the purpose of training and administration, will be considered on equal terms with their officer classmates in all respects, and their special badge will be a white band or square on their caps. Where a forage cap is worn a white band will be applied; a field service cap will show white on the peak, and cadets wearing glegarrays, berets or tams will wear a square of white material under the cap badge.

BETTY SPEIRS SHOW FOR NAVY ON SATURDAY

From the Betty Speirs-Peter Miller Dance Studios, comes the announcement that all is in readiness for the annual recital. As in other years, the main theme will be built around the children's classes, with an abundance of new scenic and lighting effects to support the children in their efforts.

This year's novelty consists of a huge basket in which most of the children will be seen, when the curtain rises, that is to say, if the basket is still intact, after the rehearsals. The usual program of selected items featuring the soloists of the school will also be presented. Such well known favourites as Jean Barnes, June Sidaway, Janie Allan, Dorothy Jean and Hazel Fitzgerald, Therese Landry, Peggy Cooper and Nancy Telfer will once more be to the fore; while newcomers Helen Lytella, Jack Hymander from Sudbury, Ontario, are sure to make many new friends with their smart work. The school assistant Alla Shiskina will present her own interpretation of the "Can Can" in "Parisian Night."

As is generally known, proceeds of this year's show will go directly to a worthy cause, the supplying of the canteen and recreation hut for our sailors at the Dockyard, Halifax, N.S. Altogether a splendid evening's entertainment will be given on Saturday, May 10th, at Victoria Hall, for a splendid cause.

ST. LEO'S SHOW RATED SUCCESS

"Spring Fever" Production By Scout Group Plays to Appreciative Audience

On Monday evening, the St. Leo's Scout Group presented a variety show entitled "Spring Fever" to a large and appreciative audience in the lower school hall. All in all the event was a great success, with top honors for the costumes and fine scenery.

Stars of the show were Leo Ciceri and Robert Bourassa, known as Robert and Leona to the audience, who provided many laughs with their dancing.

"South Sea Island Madness" was put on by members of the Cub Pack. Here the young lads drew between the ages of eight and 12 drew much applause with their hulu-hulu dancing in grass skirts and leis. The scenery in "South Sea Island Madness" was particularly good, with palm trees and all.

A trio comprised of John Kieran, Jack Martin and Gerald Fegan sang in a plausible manner of a railroad in "Muddleton-Moor." "The Champion" was rather disappointing, although the young members of the audience thoroughly enjoyed it.

"Students of the Dance" was the number introduced by Leo Ciceri and Robt. Bourassa. Here they displayed the Minuet and after a quick change act, became a pair of Jitterbugs of A-1 category.

The St. Leo's Acapella Choir (the entire Cub Pack) sang two songs in an effective manner, namely, "It's a Hap' Happy Day" and "Home on the Range." The fashion show displayed styles of 1900 - and introduced a new way of pawning off candy on the unsuspecting audience.

"Ballet Moderne" brought back Ciceri and a host of "chorines." Here they displayed the art of the ballet in a very pleasing manner. Their version of the Rumba was especially well done, enhanced with beautiful costumes.

The grand finale saw the group singing appropriate versions of "Whistle While You Work" by the Cubs and "Hi Ho - Hi Ho" by the Scouts.

Hale, Alexander Knox, Louise Henry and Patrick Barr.

Frank Morgan has the lead in the second feature on this splendid double program entitled "Hullabaloo," which is one of the funniest pictures you will see this or next year. It is one riot of laughter from beginning to end, and in the supporting cast are Dan Doley, Jr., Virginia Grey and many others.

St. Stephen's To Hold 9th Revue

One of the highlights of the ninth annual St. Stephen's revue will be the presence of Christopher Ellis as master of ceremonies. There will also be vocal solos by Arthur Dirkman, young Montreal tenor who is a favorite with followers of local operatic productions.

Featured in the revue will be the tap dancing of Pat Meaney, Spanish taps by Madeline Willis and bright chorus routines by the ensemble. Gertrude Parsons and Joan Withers share leading parts in the various skits while male leads are taken by Arthur LeRiche, Charles Langston and Bill Taylor. Muriel Sykes will be featured in marimba solos and Angus Sweeting, the producer, will be seen in "Music Hall Memories." The whole show moves to the rhythm of Frank Cobbett at the piano.

The revue takes place at St. Stephen's Hall, Westmount, corner of Dorchester and Avenue Avenue on Wednesday and Friday, May 7, 8.

The second official corn crop of Argentina shows that the acreage to corn is 15,061,072, as against a final estimate of 17,784,000 acres for 1939-40 and an average of 15,956,302 for the five-year period ended 1940.

Senior Football League Plans Opening May 16

4 Teams Will Play In Municipal Loop On Local Diamond

Squad from R.C.A.F. Headquarters Squadron Will Add Color to Circuit — Defending Champion Royals, Staynor Tigers and Unnamed Club Will Round Out League

The Westmount Municipal Senior Football League held an organization meeting on Wednesday evening at the local hall.

Five teams were represented at the meeting. The champion Royals were represented by Donnie Maher and Bert Dalzel, the Staynor Tigers by Solly Kalit and Roy McKissock, the Swans by Normie Harris and Owen Clarkson, the Grads by Garry Fee, Dougie Alexander was present in the interests of an unnamed club.

The rules for the season were drawn up and adopted. The league will retain its high rating attached last season by using paid umpires, uniformed teams etc. Owing to the fact that most of the players on the teams will be away with their militia units at camp, the league will make an early start with the tentative date for the inaugural set for Friday May 16th and the scheduled game for July 11th. The league play-offs will take place in the latter part of August when the boys expect to be home again.

The R. C. A. F. Headquarters Squadron situated at the corner of Sherbrooke St., and Metcalfe avenue have signified their intention of entering the league, and should prove a colorful addition to the league.

Most teams have been out practicing and with the opening date but two weeks away, the team managers have been kept busy getting the prospects to sign on the dotted lines.

Dougie Alexander's "nameless wonders" had a work-out on Saturday with the following turnout: Bob McNeil, Art Mann, John Hutcheson, St. Beaulne and Garry Fee are expected to do the coaching while John O'Connell and the veteran Johnnie Cronin will split the hurling duties. The outfield will be composed of Bill Cameron and Garry Fee and one new man.

The Royals had Johnnie Mahaffey pitching for them Saturday and if the going gets tough will call in Connie Tudin. Emmett Cloran veteran infielder also made his first appearance.

Adults' Tickets Will Not Be Issued

Adults' tickets will not be issued this year for the use of the public Tennis Courts in Westmount. It has just been announced by E. J. Anderson, Superintendent of Parks.

Persons twenty-one years of age and over wishing to use the courts will be allowed to play on presentation of their National Registration Card.

Students' and scholars' tennis tickets will again be issued to persons under twenty-one.

With the fine weather now prevailing, it is quite possible that the courts will be opened on the week-end or soon after.

"Y" POOL IS MADE READY FOR CLASSES

Filter System is Overhauled in Preparation for Annual "Learn-to-Swim" Classes

For the past 15 years, Westmount Y.M.C.A. has conducted "learn-to-swim" classes for boys and girls in preparation for summer vacation days.

This year the "Y" again is able to render this service to the community and to assure that facilities are in perfect condition for opening classes May 7, the pool and filter system has been overhauled with Westmount health authorities supervising the work.

As swimming is one of the most healthful recreational activities, it is hoped as many boys and girls as possible will take advantage of this opportunity to learn the art of swimming.

Pee Wee Hockeyists Hold Closing Dinner

The Westmount Pee Wee Hockey League held its annual post-season get-together last week at Victoria Hall and a large gathering was on hand. C. L. Masterman acted as master of ceremonies.

E. J. Anderson, superintendent of Westmount Parks, gave a short address, later presenting the Rimmer Trophies. Mrs. Lyons led the sing-song which followed.

DIES SUDDENLY

William Chipchase Was Popular Here

Softball and the Westmount Municipal League in particular, lost a popular figure in the death of William Chipchase this week.

Although Mr. Chipchase was in demand to officiate in softball leagues throughout the Island, he always found time to umpire in the Municipal loop where he was a respected figure.

The teams and players were always bringing their knotty problems to him for an explanation and he always obliged them. The sympathy of the players and officials of the Municipal League goes out to Mrs. Chipchase and her two daughters.

NEWS ITEM: LONDON GOLF CLUBS POST NEW RULES COVERING AIR RAIDS.

Speed and spirit characterize the baseball club which represents Montreal in the International League this season. For most local fans, the first opportunity of seeing the 1941 Royals in action will be Sunday, when Clyde Sukeforth's sun-tanned, streamlined athletes will tackle the Jersey City Giants at the Stadium in Montreal. Game starts at two o'clock.

You won't recognize the 1941 Royals. Messrs. Racine, MacPhail and Sukeforth have done a thorough job of rebuilding the club. It looks like they have improved the team in almost every department. But the biggest transformation will be noticed immediately. The Royals of 1941 are alive, alert, hustling.

Among the pitchers are Steve Rachunok and Max Mason of the 1940 Royals. Then there is Roxie Lawson, Tex Carlton, well-known former major league stars. Al Sherer, Charlie Gassaway and Wes Flowers are among the best young pitchers in the game, while Chet Kehn, who twirled a three-hitter in Syracuse, borders on the sensational. Making his first International League start, the 19-year-old youngster "shut out" the Chiefs and showed the polish of a seasoned veteran.

Paul Campbell is the fanciest fielding first baseman imaginable. And he can fly on the bases. Not long ago he stole three bases in one game. Last year he led the American Association in stolen bases; Johnny Hudson, Roy Hughes and Sammy Bell give the club adequate protection at second and third. Claude Corbett, the new shortstop, is a sight for sore eyes. He too, can really make tracks in a hurry.

Charley Gilbert is back in centre, at least for the present, and there's none better in the league. Don Ross is getting acquainted with the outfield, and his big bat is as potent as ever. Woody Jensen, George Stallor and Jack Graham give Manager Sukeforth dandy outfield material.

Behind the bat Herman Franks has shown the kind of game that will appeal. He hustles every minute. And he has proved he can hit.

The 1941 Royals have "it." You'll be proud of them.

PANTHERS WIN OPENING GAME BY 46-8 EDGE

Gain First Victory in Pee Wee Softball Loop Behind Ross Gillingham

The Westmount Pee Wee Softball League opened its season Monday afternoon at Westmount Park, Ross Gillingham's Panthers running over Ronnie George's Spitfires, 46-8.

The result was a surprise at least as far as the high count was concerned, as the two clubs had previously played an exhibition game which resulted in a close win for the Panthers.

The Spitfires could do nothing right on Monday, making errors repeatedly or losing fly balls in the sun. At the same time Ross Gillingham's pitching gave them very little chance to get started.

Gillingham, Ian Forrest, Robert Burriss and Bob Woodburn were the heavy hitters for the winners, while Ronnie George and Don Ross were the only Spitfire batters with much success against Gillingham.

Four home runs were hit during the game with Panther players accounting for all four. Steve Galley, Robert Burriss, Manley Burriss and Garth Gillingham were the circuit-clouters.

Spring Cleaning To Get Rid Of Last War Trophies

Recent developments in Canada's coast-to-coast salvage campaign centre around spring cleaning, both private and national. Hundreds of thousands of Canadian housewives are taking advantage of the salvage drive to clean out garrets, basements and back sheds, as they have never been cleaned out before—and to donate the discarded articles to their local salvage committees.

The national spring cleaning is of an equally interesting nature. Over twenty years ago trophies of the first World War—German howitzers, field pieces, machine guns, mortars, and the like—were loaned to municipal and military organizations for display purposes. The proposal now is to clean out the unsightly decorations and return them to their former owners—in the form of bombs and other implements of war.

These two kinds of spring cleaning are giving Canada's great drive to prevent waste added impetus.

Housewives are making brooms, vacuums, dusters fly in domiciles from Halifax to Victoria, and out of the str is coming a huge stream of articles which are going to help win the war.

The first of these are metals. They come to light as the cleaning progresses, and out they go to worry Adolf.

Old iron frying pans, broken copper chafing dishes, outmoded electric irons, those horrid bronze statuettes and brass fire irons, which have been collecting dust for years—out they are going and into the general campaign for scrap metals! Old chains, broken down lawn mowers, and abandoned garden tools—they are flowing in a continuous stream to the local salvage committees and thence to the smelters for tanks, ships, guns, and ammunition.

The second kind of articles turned into the salvage collection by spring cleaning is rags. Canada imported something like $3,800,000 worth of rags last year for the manufacture of machinery wipers and rags and similar products. This figure is going to be sharply reduced by the efforts of our housewives.

The response from Canadian housewives is very encouraging to the efforts of the National Salvage Commission. An essential war job is being done and done well.

JUST LOOKING AROUND

By STAN HELLEUR

One of the most rapid springtime quick-change acts in the history of Montreal sport occurs this week with hockey bowing out officially on Monday and baseball bowing in officially this afternoon.

And from all indications, the baseball campaign will open with as much of a bang as marked the season's final hockey tilt at the Forum, for Clyde Sukeforth's Royals appear to be the strongest team Montreal ever has had in International League warfare.

But they'll have to be awfully good this afternoon to supply more of a wallop than Lorne White's fighting band of puckmen provided Monday night in topping Winnipeg 4-3, after being down 3-2 with but 49 seconds' play remaining.

They've been talking a lot about Bobby Carragher's first period goal that gave Royals a 1-0 edge but in our books Grant Morrison's tying marker ranks with the season's best. It was a picture effort.

The way the blond pivot took Carragher's blue-line pass, coasted a few feet across to his shooting left side and then beat goalie Hal Thompson with a knee-high, cross-fire as smart a bit of work as you'd care to see. Thompson, who played a really terrific game as did Royals' Ross Ritchie, was completely baffled by Morrison's manoeuvring.

It was too bad only a sparse crowd of 3,500 was on hand for the event for if ever a team deserved the utmost support it was this same Junior Royal club. They had two strikes on them since the start of inter-provincial playoffs, what with injuries, sickness and college exams, but still they came through.

It must be remembered, however, that this is Moving Week and it isn't unreasonable to assume at least 1,000 fans were kept away for this reason alone. A fellow probably wouldn't feel much like going to a hockey game, even a playoff tilt, if he knew he had to hurry home and pack a barrel of dishes before hitting the hay.

At any rate, White and his scrappers have put Montreal and the Province of Quebec back in the limelight as a major producer of potential National Hockey League talent and deserve as much credit as can be accorded them.

Getting back to the ball club, seldom if ever has a Montreal team arrived home with a .583 average for its opening road swing, and this means plenty, for any club playing .500 ball or better away from home can be counted on as a definite first division threat at least.

The popular summer beef of Montreal ball fans, "if we have the hitting, we don't get the pitching and vice-versa," at long last looks as if it might become obsolete this season. Sukeforth's team definitely has balance and it is for this reason chiefly that we

NO JONES? NO SMITH?
Lane Goldsmith, Wichita Falls sports writer and announcer over the public address system at the Wichita Falls West Texas-New Mexico Baseball League park, has challenged the world's best announcers to run through the lineup of the Lubbock Hubbers, and touch all bases.

The Lubbock lineup: Dan Kuzlarch, first base; Bernard Bengston, second base; Elvin Mahan, shortstop; Edmund Ledwin, third base; Ralph Wolszal, Stanley Bartkowski, and Eugene Schereth, outfielders; Earl Wieting and Nick Babich, catchers; Bill Sucky, Don Spyster, Steve Vrablik, Bernard Biementhal, Byron Adamitis, John Hyma, Stanley Spolar and Steve Sakas, pitchers.

"How," asks Goldsmith, "did Mahan get in there?"

WING CLIPPINGS

Aviation News and Gossip
BY BETTY BRUCE

When you come to think of it, there are very few biplanes in action against the enemy. Certainly some of the most famous machines — the Hurricane, the Spitfire, Flying Fortress, Liberator, Hudson, Lysander, Defiant and the grand old Wellingtons and Blenheims. Just to mention a few — are monoplanes. So it seems a good idea that Canada is to have a new monoplane primary trainer, the Fairchild M-62. One of these machines, built by Fairchild Aircraft at Maryland, U.S.A. and fitted with a Ranger engine, has undergone rigorous testing by the R.C.A.F. and come through with flying honours, and the Royal Norwegian Air Force, which has been using them at Island Airport, Toronto, report that they are excellent elementary trainers.

The biplane primary trainers at present in use, the Fleet Finches and the De Havilland Tiger Moths, which have been the backbone of the British Commonwealth Air Training plan, will, of course, carry on for many months yet.

The Canadian M-62 to be built under license will have, it is reported, a Gipsy 6 engine from England. Here, roughly, are a few specifications of what will be Canada's first primary trainer monoplane: overall span, 35'; overall length 27'; height 9'3"; gross weight 2,450 lbs.; weight empty 1,749; useful load (a crew of two and fuel and oil) 701 lbs.; speed 135 m.p.h., operating speed 120 m.p.h., and a landing speed of 48 m.p.h. Both cockpits are roomy, and a stout brace is supplied between the cockpits and extends well above the head level of the pilots to protect them in case of a turn-over.

TO STIMULATE AIRCRAFT PRODUCTION

Phiroze P. Nazir, A.F.R.Ae.S., M.I.Ae.S., who lectured the other night at Montreal on the latest methods of aircraft production, touched on the theory of flight and the history of aeronautics as well, avoids too many technical formulae and hard-to-understand terms in his talks. Simplicity of presentation of a difficult subject is a strong point of this gentleman from Bombay.

The output of aircraft workers in the United States has risen sharply under the stimulus of educational talks along the lines mentioned above. The very best that men and women in our own aircraft factories can give is vital to our war effort, and Ralph P. Bell, director general of aircraft production, who is sponsoring Mr. Nazir's talks, felt that similar sources of information should be available to our workers here. Sound and technical movies illustrate the lectures, which are free to all.

THE CANADIAN FLYING CLUBS ASSOCIATION

With the coming of the fine weather the member Flying Clubs and the Elementary Flying Schools of the Association are busier than ever. Though, goodness knows, they did well enough even in the depth of winter, when one school reported having flown 329 hours and 25 minutes in one day. "This same school," says the C.F.C.A. News Letter, "has also established some other records, and ones which are really much more important. Efficiency in operation and handling of aircraft, judged by the amount of time spent on the ground between flights, is a far more desirable objective than highly concentrated periods of flying. This school has demonstrated consistently that they can re-fuel aircraft in 45 seconds. On the day when there was 329 hours of flying, the average time planes were on the ground for re-fueling, changing pilots and attendants, minor adjustments, etc., was one minute and four seconds. That indicates efficient organization."

It is, of course, periods of bad weather that force the schools to make the best of the good weather and thus pile up hours of flying time.

MONTREAL-NEW YORK FLIGHT IS HONORED

Canadian Colonial Airways' Montreal-New York line has received the National Safety Council Award for another year of safe operation in 1940. The oldest international airline in the world, holder of both U.S. and Canada's number one international air mail licenses, C.C.A. has never had a passenger accident in its history. It runs the big Douglas DC-3 21 passenger planes that look so lovely silhouetted against the sunny sky these days (and which are such a contrast to the drab brown and green camouflaged bombers en route to the Old Country).

At a dinner in New York, attended by leaders of the aeronautical and allied industries, President Sigmund Janis of C.C.A. was presented with the Certificate by H. Guggenheim, acting for the National Safety Council. F. L. Duncan, vice-president in charge of operations, H. F. Mitchell, chief of pilots and superintendent of maintenance Packham also received tributes for the part they played in helping to gain the award, which brings home to one the truth of the saying ality." Thus, thoughtful victims of theft often undervalued the goods to allow the criminal to live. Upon one occasion a cow was valued at less than a shilling. "Perhaps the first 400 years are the worst," concluded Dr. Ross, "and in 400 years, it is possible that we shall be as honest as England is now."

At the beginning of the meeting, three solos were sung by Mrs. Aubrey Messenger, accompanied by Miss Armstrong. The speaker and the musicians were thanked by Miss M. R. Macnaughton.

Report of the nominating committee was read by Miss Marion MacNaughton, and the following executive was elected: president, Mrs. R. H. Robinson; vice-president, Mrs. Thomas Earle; treasurer, Mrs. Joyce Oliver; secretary, Mrs. H. W. Dorken. Mrs. Dorken read the minutes of the last meeting and Miss Oliver gave the treasurer's report.

Miss Emma G. Lawlor, giving the report of the scholarship committee, gave instance of the worthy and hard working students helped by the committee, saying that the Alumnae Association had reason to be proud of these students.

It was decided the next meeting would be held this time next year. Mrs. Harry Rowlands presided until the elections were held, and then handed over her duties to her successor, Mrs. R. H. Robinson.

PRINCIPAL

William Salera, Principal of the Fortin Business College, Snowdon Branch, which is moving to its new location at 5302 Queen Mary Road.

The new scholarship committee is under the convener'ship of Miss Millicent Dyke, assisted by Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Steeves, Mrs. Ingils and Miss Phyllis Brewer.

It was decided the next meeting would be held this time next year. Mrs. Harry Rowlands presided until the elections were held, and then handed over her duties to her successor, Mrs. R. H. Robinson.

Fortin Business College To Move To Larger Site

The Fortin Business College wishes to announce to the public that the Snowdon Branch will move to larger and more conveniently located premises, equipped with new and up to date equipment.

For the past year this branch of the College has been training all walks of life in commercial subjects and has found it necessary to increase its class room space to accommodate an increase in registration.

The College will be situated at 5302 Queen Mary Road (corner Decarie Blvd.)

Mr. William Salera, Principal, states that there are many positions open in the classical field and that they would like the High School graduates to take advantage of the special summer courses starting Monday. These courses consist of all commercial subjects at reduced rates and there is no need to wait. A visit to the College will prove this point. Act now! Classes will be formed starting this Monday and every Monday thereafter.

The habit of viewing things cheerfully, and of thinking about life hopefully, may be made to grow up in us like any other habit.

Talent without energy is like a steam engine without steam, and if you care not about it you will soon become incapable of labour, though filled with the wisdom of the ages.—Sir Donald Ross.
