Huntingdon High School Board Considers Several Matters

Huntingdon Protestant School Board met in the library at the High School, on Thursday evening, for a regular meeting with all members present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and a number of bills were passed for payment.

Mr. Milton Lindsay brought a letter to the Board from the owner of the property on which he lives, regarding the picking up of his children on the Dewittville Sideroad. The board said this would involve the bus on the route going a little less than a half mile off the route. In turn this could mean an increase in the costs paid for operating the bus and the Board felt the extra expense was unwarranted and would probably start a precedent. The Board suggested that the bus could go to a corner and the children could walk to that point and be picked up there. It would not be too far to go. The parents however, objected to this on account of the danger from snowplows on the road. The Board admitted there was this factor, but they did not feel they could incur extra expense which might exceed the amount of taxes received from the area. The letter contained a threat that if the Board did not concede with the request, the owner would send his taxes to another school board. The final decision was as stated above and the parents left most dissatisfied.

A letter was read from the Department of Education notifying the Board of a T.V. program for schools and suggesting that the school be included in it. The program would be for use in Elementary and High School portions of the school. It would involve the purchase of a TV set and certain other equipment as outlined in the letter. It would also be necessary to move classes from their rooms to where the TV could be viewed.

The Board felt the cost was too much at this time and furthermore they wished to have the opinion of the Principal, so the matter was left for the time being.

A letter was read from the Principal of Ormstown High School asking Huntingdon Board if it would be willing to share in a suggested Health Nurse program. The suggestion was that a permanent health nurse be employed under provisions outlined and who would work between several schools in this area.

After consideration, the Board felt that this school is adequately supplied through the Health Department at Ste Martine and there was no need of having any duplication.

Two bus routes will be advertised for tenders — they are the one for Elgin and the one for St. Anicet.

Considerable discussion took place with regard to providing a drafting and finishing room in connection with the wood working class. The Board could not agree as a body that such was entirely necessary, or that the teacher in charge would be able to handle the arrangement as outlined. Alternative suggestions were made as the Board felt the plan was a good one and needed. The accommodation plan was the one that was not agreed with. Further study will be made before a decision is reached on the matter.

A tax rate of 27 mills was struck for the ensuing year, this is composed of 24 mills regular tax and 3 mills special tax. In round figures this means a tax rate of $2.70 in every hundred valuation, or $27.00 in every thousand. It is a little higher than the previous year, but expenses are up rather than down.

The board made an inspection of the classrooms to see if any of them needing painting while school is closed for the summer vacation. If this needs to be done, the work will be gone ahead with. It was also decided to repair a spot on the roof which is in need of some work being done to it.

The first Rotary meeting since the end of the Club's fiscal year was held on Monday, when the gavel was handed over to Rotarian Fred Anderson, newly elected President. One of his first official acts was to pin a Past President's pin on the lapel of Rotarian James Smythe. Following the brief ceremony he proposed a vote of thanks to two other Rotarians, Messrs. George Thompson and Cecil Brown, treasurer and secretary respectively, whose invaluable work on behalf of the Club is worthy of praise.

The financial report as prepared by Rotarian Thompson showed that the Club again had a successful year.

President Anderson named a committee to check on the whereabouts of a number of wheelchairs owned by the Club which have not been returned, or acknowledged, as requested. He also informed the members that a business meeting would be held once a month, when a guest speaker would not be invited. It was decided that the Club would participate in the events at Huntingdon Fair, and that a drawing to raise funds for the Club's benevolent work will be undertaken.

Three Small Accidents at Week-end

A few small accidents occurred in the area over the week-end fortunately none involving injury to persons. One occurred near Ste. Barbe on Route 3 at 2.15 a.m. on Sunday, July 7th. Robert Mercier of Montreal was driving toward Valleyfield on Route 3 when he lost control of his car and took the ditch. Damage to the car amounted to about $250. He was alone in the car.

At 3.55 p.m. on Sunday, a collision occurred at the intersection near Roy's Store in Riverfield. Jean Paul Laberge of Beauharnois was driving near the intersection and Vivian Haynes of Chateauguay was driving in the same direction. The cars ran into one another and $750 damage was done to the Laberge car and about $600 to the Haynes car.

At 5 p.m. on Sunday another accident occurred at Riverfield near the 5th range. Helmut G. Stache of Crediton, Ont., was driving along when he lost control of the car on a curve. The car struck a power pole and was quite badly damaged. The driver was alone in the car and was not hurt.

In the above photos — at the top, one of the many boats which will take part in the speed boat races and will provide thrills and excitement. The lower photo shows some of the crowd which lines the shore and all points of vision during these two great days in Valleyfield. In is a very pleasant spot as can be seen.

Where to go next Saturday and Sunday? Do you want sound advice? Just drive to Valleyfield and take all your family. There you will see a thrilling spectacle for the whole family. Le Club Nautique de Valleyfield, which this year celebates its 25th anniversary, has prepared a program to please everybody.

First you will see America's fastest boats in the different events of the program, outboards and inboards. The course situated on the St. Francis Bay in the very center of the town is the only one approved by the Canadian Boating Federation and the American Boating Association for records in Canada.

On Saturday night there are three dances, one at the club house, another one at the Tougas & Nicholson Hall and a third at the chalet of the Sauvé Park. This last dance is a high class social ball, the "Feerie Vénitienne."

At Sauvé Park, there are amusements for young and old, restaurants, picnic tables and a vast parking place. Let us not forget the BIG BINGO.

Sunday, more speedboat races, aerial demonstration by the Jets of the RCAF and an aerial acrobatic exhibition. At night fireworks at Sauve Park. Band concert.

The admission is only one dollar for the two days, and besides you can win a beautiful motor boat given by the O'Keefe Brewery.

So our advice! Drive to Valleyfield and see Canada's greatest International regatta on Saturday and Sunday.

We will meet you there.

This Is Cooperation!

Mr. Roland Anderson of Ormstown came to Le Club Nautique de Valleyfield and offered his services as driver on the two days of the Valleyfield regatta. Not only did he offer his services, but he will bring in his full equipment and for free. This is real cooperation and the officers really appreciated this gesture of Mr. Roland Anderson.

49th Annual Convention of Quebec Institutes Inc.

The 49th annual Convention of Quebec Women's Institutes Inc. was held at Macdonald College, June 24-28. The theme was Unity and Understanding. The weather was very hot, but well over one hundred women attended most sessions. Mrs. Ellard, President, vivacious, interesting and well-informed, kept the meetings running smoothly.

The highlight of the Convention was the address by the Pres. of A.C.W.W. Mrs. Gerda Van Beekhoff, in the crowded Assembly Hall. She received a corsage of pink roses, and a hooked wool picture of a Quebec winter scene. Mrs. Beekhoff is a charming woman, with an understanding husband and son, who lend her to the world for 3 months of every year. She keeps in touch with them by writing 3 airmail letters weekly and they file them. On her return she finds a complete record of her visit to a member country.

She said that we must bring the women along or you can't bring the world along. In every home, in every country, the women are interested in trying to keep the family happy. If children go home from school to parents who don't know what their education is about the children fall back immediately. Nine exchange of views between urban and rural women is needed. We must be careful of aid sent to other countries. ganster films are not needed for instance.

Mrs. Beekhoff gave a resumé of A.C.W.W. meetings held since 1929, when they first met in London, Eng. with Mrs. Watt presiding. There are 152 different organizations in A.C.W.W.

Pennies for Friendship was conceived by Mrs. Graham - now 90 yrs. of age. A multitude of gifts have come from Pennies for Friendship. During the war, Mrs. Beekhoff suffered great hardship. A snowsuit for her son was one of the best gifts ever received.

600 attended the A.C.W.W meetings in Holland; The W.I. was started by a Canadian Mrs. Rutman, in Ceylon; Aberdeen scholarships were started to educate and train less fortunate people; we have been trained to support worthy U.N. causes such as U.N.I.C.E.F.

Mrs. Beekhoff's closing remark was; May your life be enriched when you touch the lives of those you meet in this cause and the cause of peace.

A fashion show with Mrs. C.M. Oliver, Canadian Celanese Ltd. was of great interest to everyone. A rose celanese carpet on the stage floor, and coloured celanese materials draped for background, made an effective setting for this splendid show. Women representing 16 branches of W.I.; which included newly formed one in Northern Quebec among the Indian women, had made dresses and ensembles at sewing courses directed by Mrs. Wells. They were modelled by those who made them, and were so attractive the ladies must have been proud of their achievement.

Mr. Glen Brown in his speech suggested everyone get a copy of the B.N.A. Act and study it. Also to extend our goodwill to the French people.

Miss Lighthall, a lovely lady who has attended many Conventions (W.I.) visited Cape Dorset in the Baffin Islands and the Eskimos gave her a comb, carved from an elks antler. She composed a song for them that pleased them: You made a comb, I wear it. It makes me think of you and of the Hills of Dorset.

Many ideas were presented for us to think about for the Centenary Celebration.

Think about these and do something. They and many other things will appear in the annual report, which we can study at our leisure.

Projects for 1963-64 are: Pennies for Friendship, Lady Aberdeen scholarship, Conservation, clean up lake beaches and other places. Education, Pasteurization of milk, school Fairs, Vocational Training schools, safety on Farm and Highway, safety belts.

Salada Food Contest, a sample was won by Mrs. A. J. Coddington.

The exhibit of handicraft was varied and beautiful, including leather belts and wallets, tiles, knitted, embroidered and crocheted goods needlepoint pictures and seat covers, dresses, hooked rugs and pictures, braided rugs, catalogne bags and rugs, appliqued quilts, paintings samplers. We are urged to see that our children learn these handicrafts while they are young. Let us set an example by doing them ourselves or with our children. Our enthusiasm for handicrafts, music, reading, painting, etc. will create a desire for same in the children.

On Friday, the grand event of the opening of the playgrounds in Huntingdon took place. A parade was held at the two playgrounds in town, an event which marks the opening of summer recreation season.

All the children were full of enthusiasm which had to be seen to realize what their playgrounds and counsellors meant to them in joy and happiness during the summer season.

In the early afternoon, the children arrived in large groups, most of them already costumed and ready to take part in the parade arranged for them. The two playgrounds were as busy as beehives with the children eager to show off their costumes and hoping to win special mention for their costumes.

It would be impossible to describe all that was in the parade, because there were so many.

Here are a few notes picked here and there. The police car led the parade. An orchestra was also a part which provided music en route: decorated bicycles, stock cars, tricycles, scooters, etc. . . .A multitude of children all lined up and paraded along joyously; costumes of all kinds and colours, attracted many spectators during the parade.

Songs, bravos hurrahs came from the different groups of boys and girls. One thing noticed was the way the children dressed according to their imagination, the habits and clothes of their elders and adults. Some were wearing costumes of imaginary beings that they had read or heard about: fairies Snow White, Robin Hood, Ladies of the Great Centuries, etc.

Existing figures such as: Baseball players, Ballerina Clowns, Indians, Cowboys, Savages, and many others.

Added to this, were numerous signs and banners. It was really a wonderful parade to be organized in the short time that was available.

On their return, the children, tired by the heat and the energy they had put forth were taken for a swim at the lake.

It would be well if parents would again warn their children to stay out of the cemetery unless accompanied by a responsible person. Especially should they be warned not to interefere with anything in or around the cemetery.

TOPS OF STONES AGAIN BROKEN OFF IN CEMETERY

Once again damage is being done in the Huntingdon Protestant Cemetery and it is believed the work of children.

At least three stones were damaged in the cemetery in the course of a few days. The time lapse was between last Wednesday and last Sunday. It was noticed that stones were intact as of last Wednesday, but on the occasion of the Decoration Day ceremonies it was noticed that three stones had been damaged. These stones are the type which carry a small urn on the top and it this which had been knocked off and damaged in each case.

It is believed to be the work of mischievous children, who have no right to be in the cemetery at all and if they are caught there, they will probably have to answer for it. This is not the first time that damage has been done and in one instance it was found to be the work of children. The parents of the children were warned and to give some punishment to the children.

Despite Rain, I.O.O.F. Decoration Day Parade A Success

The members of Excelsior Lodge I.O.O.F., Huntingdon, held their Decorations Day Parade and Service at the Huntingdon Protestant Cemetery, on Sunday afternoon, July 7th. Gathered with the members were some from Valleyfield and Ormstown Lodges and Rebekahs and also the Rebekahs from Pioneer Lodge in Huntingdon.

The Huntingdon - Ormstown Band led the parade and played several selections at the cemetery and during the special service. Three hymns were sung and accompanied by the band, Rev. P.R. Stote gave a very inspiring address. The service was held at the cemetery building inside the gates and a large gathering was on hand.

The day was quite wet, but the rain held off long enough for the graves to be visited and the service to be held. It was one of the best decoration day services ever held here.

Dewittville Summer Fair Enjoyed by Many Friday P.M.

About 250 attended the Summer Fair sponsored by the Dewittville W.I. last Friday evening and although the weather was rather cool reports indicate that a good time was enjoyed by all.

The fair was held on the site used for the skating rink last winter and was loaned to the ladies by Mr. Royce Ruddock. Additional lighting, flags and bunting as well as lively music provided a gay setting for the festivities.

Games included "Ring a Coke" Toss a Penny in the Saucer", Get a Ball in the Glass" "Shoot the Candle With a Water Pistol" and Bingo. Excitement ran high as children waited their turn, with baited breath, at the various booths. Shouts of "Prize Please" echoed through the night air from lucky winners judging from the look of merriment in the eyes of some of the onlookers, they were enjoying the games as much as the participants. Over 900 pennies "flew their way" into the pool of water in the "Toss a Penny" booth. About thirty games of Bingo were played throughout the evening and the pony rides proved a big attraction for the children.

Guests were asked to take a chance at guessing the weight of a beautiful cake, made and decorated by Grant's Bakery, and also at guessing the number of pennies in a bottle. Lucky winners were Mrs. Nelson Beattie who won the cake, which weighed 7 lbs. 2¾ oz. and Mr. J. Major won the bottle of 652 pennies.

The refreshment booth was well patronized, too. Strawberries, ice cream, cake and soft drinks were sold.

The ladies of the Dewittville W.I. extend their sincere thanks to all those who attended the fair and to all those who helped in any way to make it such a success.

At the Dewittville Summer Fair

The Dewittville Summer Fair sponsored by the Dewittville W.I. on Friday evening attracted a large number of children and adults who thoroughly enjoyed the evening. In the photo above, a couple of youngsters are trying their luck at snuffing candles with water pistols. This booth, operated by Mrs. Elva Moore, was well patronized as were other games of skill.

82nd Birthday Celebration for Miss Struthers of Ormstown

Mrs. Everett Forrester of Ormstown entertained at her home in honor of Miss Lillie May Struthers. Miss Struthers was presented with a corsage of red carnations by Miss Florence Winter. A birthday cake was baked in the form of an open book and was the subject of admiration by the many friends who called to wish Miss Struthers a happy day and continued health.

Among those who called were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smaill, Miss Annie Smaill and Mrs. Susan Dunn of Huntingdon; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sweeny of St. Albans, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and children of Riverfield; Mrs. Wm. Stacy of Ste. Clothilde; Mrs. Elmer Stimson of Richmond, Que.; Miss Anna Struthers, Miss Dorothy Morrison and Mrs. Thelma Peddie of Ormstown.

Miss Struthers received many cards and good wishes, but the one she received that impressed her most was the card from her church at Beachridge. All her friends and neighbors who were not able to be present at her party, wish Miss Struthers a happy and healthful year.

Canada's Centenary

Its Importance To The Chateauguay Valley

Part VIII

ONE, TWO, THREE - - -

by DOUGLAS R. LAMBIE

Editor of Waiting Room Digest, freelance writer, Past President and Centennial Committee Chairman of the Chateauguay Valley Historical Society

Canada's national holiday — known by some as Dominion Day, by others as Confederation Day, and still others as Canada Day — has gone for this year. The most dramatic method of commemorating Canada's 96th. birthday which Canadians could find was to kill off an unprecedented number of our fellow citizens in one weekend!

We are an undemonstrative bunch — but when we do decide to celebrate we can kill them off as fast as anyone. What a ghastly commentary on Canadian life. How tragically unnecessary, how deplorably futile! And what a challenge!

One, Two, Three. . . .Three and a half years to go to the beginning of a year — a whole year of celebration. Think back three and a half years. . .it doesn't seem very long does it? It isn't long in which to plan and carry out an ambitious program. Let us not take the example of some of our peers. . .let us not, for instance, emulate the "off-and-on-again", municipal - versus-federal" halting progress of the World's Fair in expediting our own ideas.

The Eyes Of The World

As never before the world's eyes will be upon this nation in 1967. Since the last war Canada has made a number of significant marks for herself internationally — particularly in the role of mediator. More recently, however, we have suffered more of a loss of face among the world's nations. Let us encourage our government and our leaders to regain our international place of leadership among the smaller nations.

It is hard to see what we — you and I — can do to effect such a national situation — except to make sure that our voices are heard. In quiet, retiring, modest Canada — the Canada whose mediocrity so many people saw fit to cite recently as our national characteristic — it is not hard to be heard if we have something positive to say.

However, closer to home there is plenty to be done — to which we can all contribute in order to see that our part of Canada is a truly fine place for the eyes of the world to rest upon three and a half years from now.

This is a beautiful Valley — but there are a good many places in it that we cannot take a pride in showing off. Many of them lie right beside the main highway, so that visitors cannot possibly miss them. And neither can we . . .wouldn't you rather drive through enjoyable surroundings, walk or drive on safe roads, swim or fish in safe waters, look at our beautiful rolling countryside rather than at a conglomeration of the worst in commercial signs?

Safety First

The safety of our roads should be paramount in our plans for the future. Some of the worst places are in the towns and villages — a menace to drive through, dangerous to residents and drivers alike. The main streets of Ormstown and Huntingdon during business hours are an absolute nightmare to drive along, with traffic parked both sides and only reasonable room for one car to go between . . . this is Canada's main highway to Malone and Syracuse! There's nothing new in the Twist - ask any driver who has driven through Ormstown!

There are two aspects to this. One is that some form of rerouting should be devised for Route No. 4 through or around these main centres. How many transients ever stop to benefit the merchants on Main Street? In any case they would be more inclined to stop if it was a more inviting prospect. The other aspect is the appearance of Main Street, P.Q.

Oakville, Ontario is one community which has undertaken a face lifting of their main street as a centenary project. Over one hundred centres in Great Britain have carried out similar projects. Combined with off-street parking facilities it can improve business tremendously - people want to come and shop. But they don't want to play catch with each other's cars and trucks and get frustrated trying to park.

This need not be a major expense. It requires central, sensible planning; elimination of some of the worst signs; new paint - with thought given to interesting colour schemes; the occasional architectural change - which will tend to increase business any way. But less ruination of lovely old buildings by slapping enormous featureless plate glass in the fronts, when a little imagination could provide good display which looks as though it belongs - please. Such a project will benefit citizens and business men for years to come.

Our Natural Assets - Invaluable

What advantage do Ormstown, Huntingdon or Chateauguay take of the rivers through their communities? What a delightful opportunity is presented for beauty in the heart of town. Stratford, Ont., did a major job. Other communities have done less and achieved major improvements. Each of these Valley communities literally has a God-given opportunity which is not being utilized.

Suggestion in last week's Gleaner regarding the possibility of continuing the riverside wall to Walker Bridge in Huntingdon, is an example of the type of project which should be carried out to improve these sites. The river at Ormstown offers dramatic possibilities for really interesting beautificaton development. The river banks in many places through the Chateauguays offer wonderful park development potential.

Meanwhile. . . .On The Farm

The remarks made by Ian Watson, M.P. at the Farmers' Picnic demand further consideration. His suggestion is excellent: that dairy people in this area develop an agricultural showplace with tours of the Valley to inspect some of the facilities and farms. This could be built up gradually, focussed on Ormstown Exhibition activity, with a well planned and publicized program for the centenary year to encourage thousands of visiting farm folk to sidetrack from the World's Fair and compare notes here in the Valley.

It has been suggested before in this column that since accommodation in the Montreal area will be at a premium, this Valley should open up its accommation to World's Fair visitors and what is more natural than to encourage those interested in dairy farming to stay right here in the Valley during the visit.

1963 Festival of the Arts

Mount Orford hums to the sound of music these days, as do several other places in the Greater Montreal area. There is room for more. In the Valley are musicians, artists, writers — amateur and professional. We already have a Music Festival. The Valley should plan its 1963 Festival of the Arts to encompass the Music Festival, open up and encourage other artistic activities and showings, and tie-in with whatever enlarged activities are planned in the way of Agricultural exhibitions.

It would be very easy to develop a whole season of continuous activity, rotating round the Valley, from centre to centre, bringing visitors to see our fine agricultural developments; gaze at our lovely scenery; listen to fine music; enjoy wonderful food; and buy - whatever imaginative groups can produce for them to purchase. Furthermore, if we make them happy, many will return in the years to come.

Let's Swap!

Miss Alice Lighthall - well known in these parts - was entertaining some of us the other evening with tales of her grandmother's girlhood ride through the night to rouse the men at the blockhouse - and several other fascinating anecdotes. If you will share your stories of the Old Valley, I'll share mine.

This does not need to be a Centenary project, though like so many discussed here, this is the ideal time to aim at - a deadline, a definite date by which to complete compiling the old stories. There are literally hundreds, many of which can be said to have happened "here - at this house - down this stretch of road - across that field" . . . it will make good reading, so let's continue what Robert Sellar started . . . contribute the tales you have gleaned to me in care of this column, and we shall see that they are compiled for the happy reading of many.

And so - On to the Centenary

Things are developing - at on ever-increasing pace. Something happening, and I'm getting the feeling that - like "Spring is busting out all over" - all of a sudden we are going to be deluged with Centenary plans, with little time, and no co-ordination. Out in Edmonton over 200 organizations got together on their planning . . . one of the results is a 15 million dollar university project. How far could any one or two of the organizations have got without such getting together?

Maybe we don't want a university in this Valley, but then again — why not?

And there are still many other things we can do - if we do them together - let's get going on that Regional Centennial Planning Committee - results of our request for information from groups so far is disappointing. There are many groups in the Valley who are interested - we hear of them verbally - but who simply haven't written to let us know who they are.

Let't hear from you.

HUNTINGDON TEL. 264-2315

Read what "Bill" has to say:

"Early in April my former garage was destroyed by fire, and I needed a new garage, but fast. First, basically it had to be 50 feet wide by 132 feet long, absolutely free of posts, and designed for fast erection. Secondly, combined with versatility it had to have good appearance, and thirdly, economically priced.

"After checking on various types and makes of structures, I found Graham's building incorporated the desired basic features, and was reasonably priced, and I sincerely recommend it to anyone."

Stunned by the fall and partially paralized he was rushed by ambulance to the Huntingdon County Hospital where Dr. McCrimmon found he had a broken bone in his neck and advised his removal to the Neurological Institute in Montreal. Her matching headdress was a band of shantung with circular veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaides, Mrs. Kenneth Dunn, Miss Cheryl Park and Miss Mona Devine, wore matching dresses in lilac taffeta, headdress with band of shantung and circular veils of tulle illusion, and carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

Howick

W.I. Meeting

HOWICK — Howick Women's Institute met at Miss Jean Ritchie's home on Tuesday, July 2 with Mrs. R. B. Ness presiding. This was not a formal fashionable gathering. Due to the intense heat, with temperatures hovering in the low nineties, everyone was dressed as coolly as her modesty would allow.

Fifteen members and four guests were present answering the roll call with — An idea to postpone old age. Some of these were chase your grandchildren, don't worry, zinc being tested as a help, ride a bicycle, keep busy, keep up with the young people and think young. A paragraph commenting on old age by Gen. Douglas MacArthur and read by Mrs. Bradley was of special interest.

Mrs. H. Kerr spoke of the school closing for pupils up to and including Grade VII, where she had presented prizes from W.I. for Home Economics and woodworking to Jacqueline Verdurmen, Jill Mattinson, Dorothy Reddick, Lorne Templeton and Stephen Wright

$5.00 was donated towards the United Nations Association. Cottons were collected for cancer. The first share-a-loaf card was started. Mrs. J. D. Lang, delegate to the W.I. Convention and Mrs. A. Kerr who attended the Wednesday meeting gave interesting reports on what they had seen and heard. Mrs. J. Crawford reported that the new convener of Publicity for the province is Mrs. H. Palmer of Hemmingford.

Mrs. H. Brady made her debut as a baker of angel cakes. Two cakes were displayed and Mrs. Brady told of the method used to ensure success on this her first effort. The Howick ladies served the cakes with a generous helping of ice cream and crushed strawberries, making a refreshing dessert on this hot day.

Mrs. Margaret Lynch, Regina and Mrs. D. Gault, Deseronto, Ont., were guests from a distance.

Genevieve and for 5 years as farm manager for Mr. Ayerst, Ormstown. For 17 years he was employed by the Canadian Hoosier Co. Ltd., Montreal, where he became ill.

The funeral service conducted by the Rev. Wm. Brown, was held at Riverfield Presbyterian Church. on Sun., June 30, at 3 p.m. and was attended by many friends and relatives. Numerous floral offerings and other gifts were received. The burial was at Riverfield Cemetery.

Barbecue and Dance

Howick Athletic Club sponsored a Chicken Barbecue and Dance on Monday evening, July 1st at the ballfield and Brault's Garage.

The Chalet at Montreal supplied the chicken, but more than 500 people came so finally a third order was sent to the Rustic at Chateauguay. The weather was ideal for such an affair and it is hoped to make it an annual event to raise money for the Athletic Association. President Oakley McRae reported more than $300 was realized which will help to finance 12 senior and junior ball teams and one hockey team. Music for the dance was supplied by Lindsay Cullen's Orchestra and for square dances Oakley and Dorothy McRae, with Math McKell doing the calling.

Mr. and Mrs. Oakley McRae attended a Field Day at Three Rivers on July 4, when Oakley gave the official placing of the cows used for the judging competition.

The Misses Carol and Sherrill Carson are attending special music classes at Vincent D'Indy Institute, Montreal, where students come from many parts of the country — a wonderful experience for young musicians.

Carol has received her marks from McGill University, taking 75 in theory and very high distinction in piano with a mark of 93, placing her 3rd in a class of 60.

Chateauguay, N.Y. Fire Kills Cows and Burns Down Three Buildings

A roaring fire, apparently caused by spontaneous combustion in newly-mowed hay, destroyed a 170 by 31 foot barn, two smaller outbuildings and seven head of young cattle July 1st, on the William Cosgrove farm in Chateaugay, N.Y.

The total loss, Mrs. Cosgrove said, will probably be at least $30,000. Mrs. Cosgrove said they lost about 1,200 bales of hay, all of their milking equipment, a large quantity of farm machinery including a tractor, manure spreader and hay elevator, and a silo.

Firemen from the Volunteer Departments in both Chateaugay and Burke were called. A small number of firemen returned to make sure the smouldering remains didn't flare up again.

During the height of the blaze sparks set fire to newly-cut hay in a nearby field and burned down the field for nearly a quarter of a mile before firemen could check the spreading flames. Her husband estimated that at least 150 more bales of hay were lost.

Mrs. Cosgrove said her husband, her son Thomas and a neighbor, Eric Peck, were storing hay in the barn shortly after 1 p.m. when they found two bales of hay that had been put in the building earlier in the week on fire.

She said the men tried to put out the fire by using feed sacks and buckets of water but the flames mushroomed through the other hay, forcing them to flee from the building.

On entering the room she was escorted to a gaily decorated chair by Bernice Chisholm and presented with a corsage by Miss Mille Bryson. The strains of the wedding march played by Miss Shirley Dunn filled the room as Norma was led to the seat of honor. After opening her gifts and passing them around for inspection by her friends Miss Dunn very graciously thanked all for the honor given her. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Bernice Chisholm and Miss Mildred Bryson, assisted by Mrs. Arnold Bryson and Mrs. Russell Marshall.

Ormstown Guides Entertained

About three campers are enjoying the rugged countryside in the Franklin area near Dorea. These campers belong to the Catholic Guide Association of the Province and on Monday night they presented a very interesting programme for the benefit of their sister guides. The nineteen guides and their parents were thoroughly impressed with the hospitality shown them and the programme presented for them. One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of an enactment of the joining of the provinces to Canada. The guests were invited to explore the two acre area and were most impressed with a cabin of Special Guides. All guiders in that particular cabin were crippled and our own guides felt secret pangs of shame at the work and dexterity of these handicapped girls. Three super huge bonfires were a feature of the evening as was lashing of birch twigs to make shrines and learn to shelters. A singsong was also enjoyed. Special guests included Msgr. Caza and Mrs. Marc Trepanier Commissioner of Valleyfield. Those who accompanied the Ormstown Guides were, Mrs. Hollis Rowe, Mrs. Andrew Kelen, Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mrs. L. Laberge, Mr. R. McNichol, Mrs. Rorrison, Mrs. W. Rennie of Ormstown and Mrs. W. Seale and Mrs. Ed. Brugess of Valleyfield. The girls returned to their homes enlightened and full of ambition for a renewed interest in their own Guide Troop.

Ormstown W.I.

The July meeting of the Ormstown branch of the W.I. was held on Tuesday, July 2nd, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John McKell with 14 members and six visitors present. The meeting opened with the Ode followed by the collect. The roll call was responded to by "pay 1c per inch of your waist measurement."

A letter was read from the Secretary of "Save the Children" fund, thanking the branch for the 14 Christmas stockings sent in June

A meeting of delegates from all Junior Red Cross branches is to be held in August, in Newfoundland, and one of our local school girls is going as a delegate so our W.I. was asked to make a donation $10.00 toward her expenses.

A report of the Provincial Convention held at Macdonald College was given by the delegate Mrs. Jas. Bruce, who said the theme of Convention was "Unity and Understanding", that there was a goodly number of delegates including two Indian women from Notre Dame du North" W.I. who brought some samples, in miniature, of their handicraft.

The speaker at the Convention was Mrs. Van Beekoff from Holland, President of the A.C.W.W., a most interesting speaker who spoke her own language as well as several others and who travels on A.C.W.W. business all over the world.

A discussion was held re our August meeting and it was decided there would be no meeting until Sept. 3.

A very interesting demonstration was put on by Mrs. French, of Lachine, on the very practical uses of Tupperware — of which she had a great variety of samples on exhibit. This ware is manufactured in Florida, but a plant for its Canadian Manufacture is being built in Cowansville. She suggested that club and home parties be held and that through the sale of these products money might be raised

LETTRE A L'EDITEUR

Mon séjour à l'hôpital me permet de me concentrer dans mes idées, de les méditer et de me livrer plus librement à la lecture.

J'en profite également pour féliciter les docteurs et les gardes pour leur grand dévouement et leur belle charité. Que la Providence veille sur un tel hopital.

En parcourant le "GLEANER", j'ai lu qu'on voulait enlever l'eau sur le terrain de l'exposition; je me demande à quoi on pense en voulant agir ainsi. Tout les jours, une quantité d'enfants y viennent, voir évoluer les chevaux, jouer sur ce terrain; l'endroit est assuré comme surveillance; il y a là des adultes de 6 heures a.m. à 10 heures p.m.

S'est-on demandé en passant: "Qu'ont-ils ces enfants comme loisirs, durant la belle saison. Pour eux, l'eau est indispensable. Sûrement que la ville de Huntingdon peut assumer une telle dépense, 3 à 4 mois d'eau à payer, c'est là une somme bien minime en pensant à tout ce qui se fait sans utilité aucune.

Je remercie tous mes collaborateurs, espérant avoir justice à ma demande, c'est à dire continuer ce qui se faisait dans le passé.

Merci

Bonjour à chacun

Achille Picard, Huntingdon

Annexion de Herdman à Huntingdon

Un assemblée de la Commission Scolaire a eut lieu le 3 juillet 1963, à l'école St-Joseph de Huntingdon avec le nouveau secrétaire M. Hervé Tessier, en remplacement de M. Claude Pilon. A cette occasion, il fut décidé par la Commission Scolaire d'effectuer des réparations dans deux classes de cette école. Les réparations consistent à enlever des vestiaires en vue d'aggrandir ces classes pour les nombreux élèves qui y feront leurs prochains cours.

Lors de cette réunion, on décida aussi de convertir l'entrée de la salle paroissiale en classe aussi. Des réparations et vernissages seront également effectués sur les pupitres de l'école.

A cette occasion 3 délégués furent nommés pour assister aux assemblées de la Commission Scolaire régionale; ceux-ci sont: M. Albert Saumier, président, M.M. Raoul David et Lawrence McCallum, commissaires.

L'assemblée fut ensuite ajournée au 8 juillet.

Au cours de l'assemblée du 8 juillet, la Commission Scolairee décida d'établir un classe de maternelle dans Huntingdon. A cet effet, la Commission Scolaire est à la recherche d'une institutrice qui devra toutefois être acceptée par Québec.

Les commissaires ont ensuite décidé que l'école de Herdman serait fermée et que les enfants de la municipalité de Hinchinbrook seraient transportés par autobus de leur domicile à l'école St-Joseph et au Couvent Notre-Dame. La route doit être tracée cette semaine pour les autobus qui desserviront ce secteur et des soumissions seront demandées dans ce journal la semaine prochaine avec tous les détails concernants.

Le Secrétaire, M. Hervé Tessier profita de l'occasion pour lire une lettre adressée à M. Florian Tardif, principal à l'Ecole St-Joseph, afin de le féléciter pour le beau résultat obtenu des élèves de cette école pour l'année 1962-63.

Nous aimerions profiter de l'occasion pour faire remarquer aux contribuables l'intérêt qui a été porté à la Commission Scolaire par M. Claude Pilon, Notaire et ancien Secrétaire de la Commission Scolaire.

La prochaine assemblée de la Commission Scolaire aura lieu le 15 juillet, 1963, à 8 p.m., en la salle de l'Ecole St-Joseph de Huntingdon.

M. Hervé Tessier Sec.

Laberge et à $600. sur la voiture de Vivian Haynes.

De nouveau à Riverfield vers les 5.00 p.m., dimanche, un autre accident près du 5ième rang. Helmut G. Stache de Crediton, Ontario, conduisait sur la route de Riverfield, lorsqu'il perdit contrôle de son auto pour aller s'écraser sur un poteau soutenant des cables à haute-tension. L'automobile de M. Stache fut très endommagé et le conducteur, qui était seul dans le véhicule, s'en tira indemne.

Athlétisme

Les enfants des écoles reviennent nombreux encore cette année sur les terrains de jeux, impatients de profiter pleinement de leurs vacances d'été. Ils y viennent pour jouer et s'amuser d'abord. Les moniteurs les occupent agréablement et profitent de l'occasion fournie pour leur donner quelques notions techniques sur les différentes épreuves athlétiques qu'ils sont appelés à pratiquer.

L'athlétisme tel que pratiqué sur nos terrains de jeux, c'est l'école de la bonne humeur, de l'optimisme, des résolutions viriles et de l'équilibre moral. L'homme au regard droit, à la volonté ferme et au coeur généreux est bien souvent dans la vie celui qui a appris à connaître l'obstacle et à mesurer exactement ses forces pour la franchir, celui aussi qui n'hésite pas à porter secours à ses semblables, parce qu'il prend des décisions rapides et qu'il a l'âme virile. L'enfant encore peu initié aux règles de la société mais plus près de la nature que l'adulte, trouve donc dans la pratique de sains loisirs des joies profondes que lui refusent les mouvements abstraits et artificiels.

C'est d'abord la joie de l'action; tous les enfants aiment l'action. De là, le plaisir qu'ils éprouvent à atteindre un objectif à la course, à franchir un obstacle, a lancer un projectile sur une cible. Cette joie est mêlée d'une certaine fierté; c'est l'orgueil du réalisateur, de l'homme qui prouve sa valeur par des actes.

Cette joie et cette satisfaction sont celles de l'athlète qui a réalisé un record, de l'enfant qui vient de réussir une grande performance en se surpassant lui-même. L'athlétisme, en créant de la joie, donne le goût de l'effort du travail utile, elle fortifie en même temps la volonté, enseigne le courage devant l'obstacle.

Et comment la pratique de ces mouvements ne nous donnerait-elle pas aussi la santé, puisque c'est pour elle que nous luttons constamment?

Les terrains de jeux offrent aux petits et aux grands d'Huntingdon, l'opportunité de se récréer sainement, d'apprendre tout en jouant les grandes leçons de la vie, les bons moyens de réussir par la bonne humeur, le courage, l'esprit de décision et la santé.

Locale de H'don

M. et Mme Henri Bergevin (née Thérèse Provost) se réjouissent de la naissance d'un garcon, né à l'Hôtel-Dieu de Valleyfield, le 27 juin dernier. Le bébé a été baptisé à Beauharnois le 8 juillet, sous les noms de Joseph, Hector, Michel, Marc. Le parrain et la marraine étaient les grands-parents du bébé, M. et Mme J. Hector Provost de Huntingdon.

Corps de Clairon

L'année du corps de clairons de l'école St-Joseph de Huntingdon a pris fin lors d'une parade à Valleyfield pour célébrer le 25è anniversaire des régates de Valleyfield. Mercredi le 3 juillet, avait lieu une assemblée des membres du corps de clairons et pour la première fois, nous avons formé un exécutif dans ce mouvement. Yves Nadeau, fils de M. et Mme Laurent Nadeau de Huntingdon, fut nommé président, tandis que Jean Lepage, fils de M et Mme Charles Edouard Lepage de Huntingdon était nommé à la Vice-Présidence et Guy Fournier, fils de M. et Mme Earl Fournier, également de Huntingdon, recevait les fonctions de Secrétaire.

A leur première assemblée, les membres ont décidé de faire une campagne afin de venir financièrement en aide au Corps de Clairon; durant les vacances, les instruments seront remis à neuf par Pete Musical Supplies, de Montréal.

Nous profitons aussi de l'occasion pour remercier les Lieutenants Rolland Duval et Serge Bayard pour l'aide indispensable qu'il nous ont apportée durant l'année.

Nous devons mentionner aussi que nous avons eu des garçons avec beaucoup de talents dans la personne de André Nadeau et Pierre Guérin. Ceux-ci fréquenteront bientôt le Collège de Rigaud. Bon succès à ces deux cadets. Nous ne les oublierons pas.

Toujours marcher à la gauche du chemin

Marchez toujours toujours à la gauche du chemin en bordure d'une grande route de façon à voir venir les véhicules de votre côté, recommande aux piétons le Comité de Sécurité Routière (PRUDENTIA). Cette recommandation n'est pas nouvelle, mais elle n'est pas assez écoutée et nombre d'accidents de la route surviennent parce que des piétons ont présenté le dos aux automobiles qui venaient en leur direction sans même savoir si l'homme au volant de la voiture qui approche est en état de conduire. Ne vous fiez qu'à vous-même et marchez à la gauche du chemin.

CANDIAC – DELSON – LAPRAIRIE

Candiac United Church Picnic — June 29th, 1963.

This is just not supposed to be — I had taken the summer months off — Then came the words "Mrs. Leach — would you give out the prizes?"

So first let me say how nice it was to welcome our new residents attending their first Candiac United Church picnic. Those who couldn't join us owing to previous commitments occasioned by last week's unfavourable weather — I'll bet you are sorry.

I must say giving out prizes is new to me and with the two, three and four year old children lined up, ready and set to go, I was enveloped with a feeling of sadness knowing days long past could not be recalled.

Event No. 1 — Everyone a Winner — although some of them had to be coaxed to come and get their prize.

Event No. 2 — The Best — Brenda Smith and Richard Mertl — way out in front!

Event No. 4 — Girls — Nancy Duncan and Gail Hincliffe. Boys — This was when the boys decided to see if newspaper reports were accurate and explore a little on their own before paying their small amount of money for a tour of the museum, etc.

Lunch Time: This is where John Sauvey proved to be the most popular man at the picnic. Giving out the soft drinks with both hands — Thermos bottles didn't even play a part — Back to you later John. VI: personally let me say those chicken sandwiches were delicious — especially with a plate of cold meat, etc. Now you know it can be done.

Event No. 5 — Sack Race — A — John Gelhay and Debbie. B — Glenn Middleton and Robin Battle.

Event No. 6 — Three Legged Race — Nancy Duncan and Gail Hinchliffe; Carl Duncan and Cathie Lawton.

Event No. 7 — "Longest Line of Possession" — Even I didn't see this until my own son, Kent, came up for his prize. On this I had to have a judges' decision. He won — the only entry — How could he fail with his own Bible Class Teacher one of the judges, thanks Mr. Neil Baxter.

Event No. 8 — Not the same excitement as last year — you know what I mean — This year they were just too good. So congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. H. Perley — (I think you must practice this) Who takes the eggs out of the frigidaire in the morning and calls "Here".

Event No. 9 — Balloon — A B C and D. Not for anything would I be brave enough to blow a balloon until... Glenn was again right in there with little Victoria Mertl. Carol Duncan made me think of getting into practice for going into space, so much effort was spent before that balloon finally went bang. Kent Leach in the boys group, 10 and over — I don't believe he put his finger nail through it — knowing Kent I believe he was taking vengeance on it thinking about the lawn that had to be cut when he arrived home.

Event No. 10 — Needle and Thread Race — Our Champions — Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Brown — You had to see this to appreciate it — back and forth, with and without ran the contestants.

Event No. 11 — Shoe Kicking Contest — Ladies (who else). Our winner — Mrs. Shiela Gelhay. I'm hoping I'm not around if you do that at home. Incidentally if you don't think you can kick your shoe off backwards — try it — (stand far back away from the mirrors). No names — it's all in the game.

Event No. 12 Men- This was a special with a special prize. Champion — Mr. Carter — Who ever heard of grown-up men getting a second chance at the starting line - after the whistle sounded, three of them were still at the starting line — with a second chance — yet there was still one.

This is where John came back into the picture for a second rush — not only soft drinks but ice cream which kept the Mothers on their toes looking after prizes, balloons and Lollipops.

Mothers, take heart! Once a year but name me anyone who doesn't catch that excitement when the lunch is being packed and then shared when we see smiles, tears and the weary walk to the cars which says "What a nice day".

Thanks to the Committee — Messrs. J. Sinclair, N. Baxter, K. Duncan, A. Gray, D. Sauer, John Springer and Harry Butler.

Thanks also to Mr. Andre Rivard for his co-operation, with permission from Mayor John Leman, in extending the swimming pool hour which enabled the chiidren to swim after returning from the picnic.

Candiac Residents Make Good Use of Their Pools

With the weather going up into the 90 degree figure, Candiac residents made good use of their three swimming pools over the July 1st weekend. The photos above give some idea of fun that people were having during those warm days, when it was a treat to get cool.

At Candiac United Church Picnic

Thought For To-day

It is when you give of yourself, that you truly give.

Birthdays

A very happy birthday to Donald Irwin, who will be 12 years old on July 14th. His little sister, Kathy Irwin, will celebrate her fifth birthday on the same day. Many happy returns of the day.

Belated birthday greeting to Ross Oyen who celebrated last week. The gang enjoyed the bowling, Ross. Do hope you enjoyed your day

Illness

Mrs. G. Faubert has been quite ill with mumps this past week. Our very best wishes for a quick and speedy recovery.

W.R.A. News

The opening Club Tea was very successful, about forty attended. Mrs. Thelma MacKay was in charge of refreshments. Under her care, Miss Barbara Chave, age 6½ and Miss Heather MacKay, age 8 served the ladies. The mothers of these two young ladies, may well be proud of them for doing such a fine job. Mrs. F. Charlton and Mrs. Watson poured tea. A wonderful afternoon was spent by all.

Bazaar and Tea

Tea and Bazaar was held last Friday, July 5th for St. Edward's Church, Beauharnois on the spacious grounds of Mrs. D. Hains of Woodlands. It was a lovely afternoon and everyone attending enjoyed the cool breeze after such a hot week. The Homebake table was laden with goodies. The White Elephant Table and Fish Pond were the main attraction for the children and many lovely articles were on display at the worktable. Many thanks to those hard-working girls who gave so freely of their time to make this Summer Bazaar and Tea a wonderful success.

Good Wishes

Our very best wishes to Mrs. A. Rawson who entered hospital, Tuesday, July 9th. To you, Ruth, all the best for a quick and speedy recovery.

Games for W.R.A.

Anyone having games that they have no more use for and would like to donate them to the Club for the children, may do so by calling Mrs. Pat Rae 692-6480. She will be very happy to pick them up.

Week-end Guests

Mr. Robert Waters of Miami, Florida spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Butler of Woodlands.

Armand and Noel Hebert of Woodlands had another week-end of racing at Lake St. John St. Felicien, Que.

Armand won 2 firsts in Class B, 1 first in Class C and 1 third in Class C.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Brown and family of Winnipeg are spending their holidays with Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Perkins of Bellevue. Happy holidays to all.

Miss Janie Wright entertained many young friends at her home last week. Everyone had a wonderful time.

Miss Carol Stark held a pillow party on Monday evening. I don't know if much sleep was had, but a good time was enjoyed by all.

ful for catching up on odd jobs. One or two mornings a bit of extra heat in the house was even welcome! Teenagers have been "having a ball" tenting. Although I heard more than one say they were nights later, to get some sleep!

Our congratulations to Johnny and Grace Fenlon, old Nitroites, now living in Point St. Charles, on the arrival of another son. Gracie, Debbie and Jill are visiting at the Taylor home for a few days. Jill still has a brace on one leg, but the other is free. I was particularly glad to see this young lady again.

The Latour children, Michael, Carolyn and Kittyanne have also been visiting Nitro.

Sunday visitors at our home were Mr. and Mrs. Hama and Gordon of Duvernay. Ever since Mr. Hama boarded here while building the Esso garage a few years ago, we always have one or two visits a year from the family.

Forgot to mention last week the party Linda Halliday had for her friends prior to her departure to a new home. Also a party held at Barrie Brown's home as a farewell from all her friends Mrs. Halliday, Linda and Arlene left by plane, stopping off at Ste. Catharines, Ont., before going on to their new home at Stratford, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Phené are all enjoying a vacation in the British Isles and I think, Europe.

Our sincere sympathy to Mr. Gardner of Robb St. whose wife passed away last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jan Czech have moved from their old home on Lapointe to their own home on the Golf Course Road. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Talbot have moved from Riverview to a new home on Purvis. The Brunette family are leaving tomorrow (Tuesday) for a new home in Ottawa.

Mrs. H. Daws has been a patient in the Barrie Memorial Hospital, Ormstown, for another operation on her knee, plus treatment for an ulcer. Reports are good; she's feeling much better. Sheila is enjoying a holiday with Mrs. Art Brown and Barrie at their camp. Nitro's "good neighbours" again!

Glad to know Mrs. Loney is home and on the mend. The children told me she was beginning to give orders and that meant she was getting better! They were all glad to come and tell me mother was home.

Children's Bingo Great Success

Ninety-five happy and noisy children of the West-End enjoyed a bingo put on by the Ladies Committee last Thursday, July 4th, from 2 - 4.30. For a while it looked as if the weather would not cooperate with us, but the sun came out and it was a grand afternoon. Mr. Leduc of the Biscuiterie at the Center donated 2 boxes of humbugs for the children which they enjoyed very much, and we sincerely thank him for this kindness. Chips and orange drinks were supplied by the L.C., who also bought and wrapped the boys' and girls' parcels which they picked as they won each game. We were glad to see so many gather at St. Denis St. and hope to see even more of you on the 30th for another happy afternoon.

Thanks go to Bill Hulshoff who took over the calling from Mrs. Mitchell and did a very fine job, to Larry Gee and Robert Sproston for being the workmen of the day, to Mrs. Hilloch and Mrs. Roy for using their cars, to the Mesdames Smeall, Hillock, Roy Golden, Smith, Rankin, Cherrier, Proulx, Belair, Rochette, Gauthier and Cuerrier for looking after the cards of the little ones, to Gisele Savard for repeating the numbers in French, and to the one man who turned up to help us, Mr. Adelard Proulx, who kept the supply of candy and chips going around.

Winners were as follows:

Girls. — D. Chiasson, R. Chevrefils, G. Chevrefils, L. Savard, L. Fuller, W. Roy, K. Roy, L. Marshall, C. Smeall D. Hillock, C. Hillock, D. Sproston V. Sproston, L. Golden, P. Smith, J. Golden.

Donna Smeall has been accepted as Chateauguay representative on the Theatre Panel of the United Amusement Corp. whose director is Mike Stephens. Donna was chosen by last year's Rep. for her interest and enthusiasm. The U.A.C. Theatre Panel is concerned with the motion picture industry and the parts our youth of today play in the industry and will do in the future. A queen is chosen from each year's panel and we here in Chateauguay could not wish for a nicer teenager to represent all our youth. So, Donna, good luck, enjoy your passes and we will look forward to another report in the fall.

Social Hi-lites

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, who celebrated their wedding anniversary on Monday, July 8th, from their many friends and neighbors. Many more happy years folks.

Lesley Gourley leaves July 8th for C.G.I.T. camp at Lake Memphremagog. It brings back many memories to hear about C.G.I.T. and I hope you have a wonderful time, Lesley.

Glad to see Mr. Neil Madden is home and hope you are feeling much better.

Mother Lowe celebrated her 73rd birthday June 29th, and she assured me she felt younger now than at 30 after raising 4 boys. Harold Lowe is one of the boys. Many more birthdays, Mother Lowe.

Patricia Mackey received a prize for the highest average in grade IV, St. Paul's School. Congratulations Patty.

Last week I mentioned in the item listing the prizes that Debbie Sproston's was for sustained effort. It was for General Proficiency. Sorry Deborah.

Hearthfelt sympathy goes out to Mr. C. Cotton, whose uncle, Mr. Eugene Hall, of Sweetsburg, Que., passed away on Sunday. Mr. Hall was the last blood relation on the one side of Mr. Cotton's family.

(By Mary Myers)

The Mary Gardner School Assemblies were held on Tuesday, June 25th, and Wednesday, June 26th. Each of these Assemblies was attended by a large number of parents and guests.

Special guests on these occasions included Miss Mary Gardner, Mr. R. S. Kallmeyer, Member of the Chateauguay Protestant School Board, Mrs. Barbara Fraser, President of the Mary Gardner Home and School Assoc., Mrs. Meyers Mrs. Prange, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Page of the Home and School Executive.

Mr. Kallmeyer spoke briefly and complimented the students, staff and Principal for a very successful year in the new school.

In presenting the Mary Gardner Home and School Prizes, Mrs. Fraser paid tribute to the parents and the Mary Gardner School Staff for their fine co-operation throughout the year.

Mr. Shufelt outlined briefly some of the highlights of the year in which the enrolment reached 452. Paying tribute to the Staff for their excellent work, he reported that 90.3% of the students had been promoted.

Following the memorable Official Opening and Laying of the Corner Stone Ceremony in November, other important events during the year included the Fashion Show, the School Concerts, the wonderful success of the School Choirs in the Music Festivals, the outstanding Ballet Recital and the winning of four Inter School Athletic Championships.

Mr. Shufelt thanked the members of the School Board for their co-operation throughout the year and Mr. Mosher, Principal-Supervisor, for his assistance at all times.

He mentioned particularly the fine contribution that the Home and School Association made by donating the Stage Wing Curtains at a cost of over $300.00 and making available to the School the purchase of $450.00 of equipment for Music Appreciation, Science Studies, Choir Development, and the latest type of "daylight" screen for classroom teaching films.

A special vote of thanks was given to the Cafeteria Committee for the very efficient manner in which the Cafeteria was organized throughout the year.

In closing he thanked the Staff and Students for making the first year of operation at Mary Gardner School such a successful one and setting standards of accomplishment that will be difficult to surpass.

Local Scouts Leave on Camping Trip

(By Mrs. E. Vetland)

In preparation for an upcoming camping trip to Camp Tamaracouta in the Laurentians, five local boys undertook a two-day camping trip of their own last Wednesday and Thursday. These scouts, ranging in age from 11 to 13 are members of the Cougar Patrol, 1st Chateauguay Pathfinder Scouts, and include David Lepine, patrol leader; Ross Murdock, assistant patrol leader, Jimmy Lanigan, Ralph Colley and Gregory Richard. Mrs. Nelda Murdock transported the boys to their chosen spot, Roy's Campsite at Missisquoi Bay. From then on until Mrs. Murdock returned the following day to bring the campers home, these lads were strictly on their own.

Most of the equipment such as 2 tents, pots, pans, dishes, grill, ropes and various other needs, belong to the patrol but each boy provided his own sleeping bag. They took turns cooking meals and then cleaning up afterwards. All meals were prepared outside over fires the boys attended to themselves.

To pass the time, they explored the surrounding woods, finding and watching the antics of a gopher. They also came across a bird which, through some accident lost one wing. The bird was captured with the hopes of helping him overcome his difficulty, but at an unguarded moment, the bird escaped back into the wilderness.

Swimming and games of Trail Signs were also part of the young scouts' activities.

The only casualty was Jimmy Lanigan who cut his knee on a steel tent peg as he was crawling into the tent.

All in all, the boys seemed to have fared very well even in such chilly weather. It certainly did them no harm and can be chalked up as another step toward further independence and manhood.

Le Club Nautique, Valleyfield To Honor The Canadian Press

The population of Valleyfield and Le Club Nautique de Valleyfield owes a debt of gratitude to the Canadian press for the cooperation it has given this organization in the past 25 years. Without this cooperation, le Club Nautique would never have attained so great a celebrity.

The Valleyfield Regatta is now known all over the world.

Every year, le Club Nautique de Valleyfield honours a personality who has helped its organization, by naming him honorary commodore of the year. This year, le Club Nautique de Valleyfield wants to honour the press, the newspapers, the reporters who for 25 years have given this club its entire cooperation. But all the reporters, sporting directors cannot be named honorary commodores, so the officers of le Club Nautique de Valleyfield have decided to name one man who will represent all the newspapers all the sporting directors, all the sport reporters, all the press. They have chosen one man who has rarely missed a regatta for 25 years.

He is well liked by his companions and we are sure that all will accept this choice made by le Club Nautique de Valleyfield.

He will represent all the newspapers, the sporting directors, the sport reporters, the press, radio and television.

VIGILANTIA

Chateauguay Civic Group

(by Gilles Germain)

It will soon be a year, on July 18 to be exact, that the Civic Group has been formed. Like any exploring body, the time has come to take our bearings. The needle still points in the same direction — our purpose, formation and civic action, has not changed. Have we reached our objective? No, and it was not meant to be reached in one year. Civic action is something that must become as permanent as the rock of Gibraltar. During the past year we followed many paths, some leading us astray, others closer to our goal, but each path, either true or false, gave us new experience and knowledge. Before becoming active again in the Fall, we will have to reevaluate our position according to what has been learned, and then reorganize to establish a simple yet effective machinery.

A few years ago, I was highly impressed by what I saw and learned of parliamentary procedure while a member of the Young Men's Section of the Montreal Board of Trade. This is probably the reason why my articles have often criticized procedure at Town Chateauguay Council Meetings. Proper procedure ensures justice and the right of all to be heard; it also leads the way for prompt business without any loss of time. I would not want people to believe that proper procedure is non existent at Town Hall Major failures have been emphasized, but in all honesty Mayor Jos. Laberge knows what he is doing and at times is outstanding. I have often attended meetings in Montreal and although most people present were above average in regards to knowledge of parliamentary procedure, I witnessed many meetings where procedure became entangled like a neglected fishing line.

There has also been a lot of criticism from other sources about other aspects of municipal administration, but the fact remains that congratulations are in order to the Mayor and Aldermen for providing us with the Ranney Well which supplies us with clear and pure water. This system was acquired at a cost of approximately $235,000. A conventional filtration system would have amounted to over $600,000. if not $800,000. Besides this impressive saving, maintenance is practically nil. Those who know about and understand the problem of water shortage in certain outlying sectors sympathize with the afflicted. We are happy to see that the situation will be rectified soon with the installation of a new supply line and of an automatic electric system at the pump house. Saying "too slow" is debatable, saying "too late" unthinkable.

Also congratulations for providing the Town with a new Police and Fire Station which can result only in better services. And for renovating Town Hall and making it comfortable and attractive, a place pleasant to visit even if only to pay taxes.

Gerry and his family were vacationing at Murray Bay and he succumbed following a heart attack. Further details were not available at press time.

BE A BLOOD DONOR ON FRIDAY, JULY 12th

On July 12th, the Red Cross Mobile Blood Unit will be in Chateauguay, at the Plaza Shopping Center. The clinic will be operating between 3:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. To keep an adequate supply of blood in the hospitals, it is necessary for us to provide 350 donors.

The successful operation of this clinic has been under the capable hands of Dr. Gilles Labarre, Chairman of the Blood Transfusion Committee for the Chateauguay Branch of The Canadian Red Cross Society.

The clinic will be manned mostly by volunteers from our Red Cross Branch. When donors arrive at the clinic they will be greeted by volunteer ladies who will offer a glass of fruit juice or a soft drink. The donor will then be registered by another volunteer and will move on to the Red Cross technicians. Here a sample of blood will be taken from the finger tip, the blood grouped, and a test will be made to see if the donor's blood has a high enough iron content. Any donor whose haemoglobin is below a count of 80 has to be refused, both for the sake of the donor and for the patient who will be receiving his blood.

If the haemoglobin count is satisfactory, the donor is taken into where the donation is given. Trained technicians and a nurse are on hand although the actual process takes just about 5 minutes. Only ¾ pint is taken, which represents approximately one-twelfth of the body's supply of blood.

After the donation has been given, another volunteer will take the donor into a resting room, where he is expected to stay for about ten minutes. Then the donor is served coffee and cookies.

The whole process takes not more than half an hour, and is under the constant supervision of a trained staff, who work as a team going from one place to another in the central part of Quebec.

This is the 6th clinic to be held in Chateauguay and with the support of the community, it cannot help but be a success. By being a blood donor on July 12th, 1963, we can be assured of our hospitals having a constant supply of blood on hand when perhaps we need it most.

A BLOOD DONOR

If you are an adult, of average weight, you have ten to eleven pints of blood in your body - or, in other words, about 200 ounces. When you go to your Canadian Red Cross blood donor clinic to give your blood - or when you share your good health with others when the Red Cross mobile clinic visits your community - you give only six per cent of the blood you have when you fill one blood donor bottle.

Six per cent is very little - but, for a new mother, a victim of a traffic accident, a neighbour undergoing an operation - that six per cent means a lot . . . . it could mean their lives! Throughout the nation your Red Cross operates your free Blood Donor and Blood Transfusion service. And, because the service is yours, don't you think you should play your part in it? You can, if you will be a Blood Donor!

Call your Red Cross for an appointment or sign up for the next visit of the Red Cross mobile clinic in your community, or the place where you work.

Be a Blood Donor . . . . for life!

Caughnawaga Has Society For History

Akay-na-muka (Many Guns — better known as Sen. James Gladstone — was in Caughnawaga over the last week-end and promised the local historical society "at least" his fullest support.

The organization, formed about a month ago on the initiative of Prof. William B. Newell, Caughnawaga born ethnologist, (one who deals with the division of mankind into races, etc.) is dedicated to preserve records of Indian history in Northeastern America.

Caughnawaga's new historical society holds its first meeting today at 8 p.m. in the local Knights of Columbus Hall.

Main item on the agenda is a planned campaign to raise $100,000 for the construction of a fire-proof museum and archives building.

Association Vice-President L. E. Beauvais says he has been assured of Sen. Gladstone's "fullest support and co-operation" in the society's present and future ventures.

Notes and Jottings FROM Robert Sellar's Historical Writings

Before Mr. Merlin came Hemingford was visited at rare intervals by ministers from the States and Townships who held services. Among these was the famous Bishop Hedding, who preached at Scriver's corners. Mr. Judd an Englishman, who had lived in Roxham, and who was a Methodist local preacher, made stated visits to the corners, and after him Mr. Kilburn, an American, who pursued his trade as cooper on the outskirts of the village and did something in medicine, held alternate services with Mr. Merlin. He was a Baptist and a consistent Christian. From the first Methodism had obtained a strong hold upon the settlers of American descent, prominent among whom were the Scrivers and Odells, and quite a number of the immigrants fell under their influence, for those were the days of protracted meetings, at which personal influence was exerted in the most direct and stiring form to awaken souls to a sense of their duty. In 1834 the Methodists set about raising a church, in which they succeded with much difficulty, the greater part of the subscriptions being made in produce and labor. When closed in, its use was tendered to the Presbyterians for, to them, a somewhat singular use. The holding of revival services had been adopted by the American Presbyterians who were his neighbors, and Mr. Merlin had resolved on following their example. He announced that "a four days' service" would be held, in which he would be assisted by the Rev. Mr. Foote of Champlain, N.Y. The announcement aroused widespread interest and it became evident that the schoolhouse would not hold all who intended coming, whereupon the Methodists tendered the use of their church. The order of the services was to open with an enquiry meeting in the schoolhouse, which was held at about 10 o'clock, and from it those who attended walked to the Methodist church, at 11 o'clock, where an expectant congregation was found in waiting, and a service similar to that of Sunday, except that the prayers and sermon were of an awakening character. was held. Like meetings were held in the afternoon and evening. So deep an interest was awakened that the meetings were continued for a fortnight instead of four days and a large number declared their resolve to turn to God. Of these the greater part became Methodists or fell away, for the regular ministrations of Mr. Merlin were not calculated to draw and hold the young, being monotonous and prolonged, never lasting less than two hours. The second year after the Methodist church was built, 1836, Hemingford was included in the Odelltown circuit, and thereafter enjoyed stated services.

The Episcopalians, of whom there was a fair proportion among the North of Ireland immigrants, were late in organizing. In the fall of 1838 William Dawes was engaged by a society in Montreal as a travelling missionary among the settlements bordering on the Richelieu. He was an active and earnest worker and established stations in every settlement where there was sufficient encouragement, which he visited once a month. In January, 1840, Bishop Mountain visited Hemingford for the first time, confirmed 65, and stimulated the movement to build a church, and one was raised in 1845 in the north-eastern part of the township, known as the Starnes neighborhood. The Rev. Mr. Bond succeeded Mr. Dawes, who was ordained and died the death of a martyr while attending immigrants stricken with ship-fever during the dreadful summer of 1847.

The Roman Catholics were not numerous in the township until after 1840, for there was no influx of them while the Ulstermen were pouring into it from Sherrington. There were however, a few families, the first to come that of Daniel Heffernan and the second that of John Ryan, in 1828, who lived first on 145 and afterwards bought out the Nortons on 112. In 1843 they united to raise a church, forming a cemetery in rear. Previous to the building of the church, the Catholics buried in a small plot near Johnsons station, close to the railway-track.

The settlers of Hemmingford were peculiar in that few of them came directly into it from Montreal. The majority lived one or more years in Sherrington, which they crowded into under the belief that it was ungranted crown land and left owing to a dispute similar in nature to that waged between the settlers of Russeltown and Ellice. Sherrington was debatable land, and on those who contended that it was granted land winning the day, the Old Countrymen left, being resolved that they would not pay rent. They were the more induced to do so from the and not being inviting, consisting in great part of stony ridges with marshy intervales and from the neighborhood being a rather turbulent one. For instance, in April 1823, after a row of more than usual violence, part of Captain Walis's company of militia was sent to arrest the ringleaders. Two of them, John and Michael Kenny, they found working in a fallow, when they ran to the house, and on the militiamen surrounding it, John thrust a gun throught a chink of the door and threatened to shoot. Col. Scriver rushed forward and grasped the barrel, and in turning it upwards the fellow drew the trigger when the bullet lodged in the shoulder of Ben Spearman. The brothers were seized and sent to Montreal but were not punished. After repeating application, the legislature granted $300 indemnity to Spearman. In surveying Hemingford, a portion as already described, set apart for crown and clergy reserve, which, by mistake, was in excess of the one-seventh prescribed by law. The excess was designated blank lands, and were left unsurveyed. The reserves constituted the eastern and northern parts of the township, and into them the people from Sherrington passed, among the first being John Orr, a county Cavan man, Henry Figsby from Monaghan, and John Jackson, also from Uster. They found on the crown reserves a number of French and American squatters, who had gone into the bush to make potash, with no intention of remaining and who readily sold their betterments at from $50 to $100 and moved to another part of the bush to repeat their speculation. If there was nobody on the lot and it suited the immigrant he forthwith took possession by raising a shanty. The government had made no provision for selling the lots, and its agent who had charge of them lived at Sherbrooke. In course of time he (Mr. Felton) visited the township and demanded high prices for the lots under penalty of ejectment. Col. Scriver, when matters were coming a crisis, went to Quebec to intercede for the settlers. During the disastrous attack on Plattsburgh, he had an opportunity of showing some kindness to the captain of one of the regiments. That captain was now governor-general, and Colonel Scriver sought and obtained an interview with him. Sir James Kempt recognized in his visitor the brave backwoodsman whom he had met on the Richelieu and cordially acceded to his proposal, namely, that the settlers should pay 50 cents an acre, for, being reserves set apart for the benefit of certain funds, they could not be given free. This favorable arrangement quieted the apprehensions of the settlers. Many years afterwards, on the bank lands being surveyed, patents were issued to those in possession on paying from 75c to $1.25 per acre according to the quality of the land and situation. By this time Col Scriver was carrying on an extensive and profitable business at the corners then known by his name and now designated Hemingford village. The first store there was opened by Bartlett Nye, in a 10-foot square shanty, which he abandoned in a year or two, when Joseph Corbin and the colonel undertook the business, which Corbin left in 1826 to build, in company with Finlay McNaughton, a sawmill on Norton creek. Born with the trading-faculty and always ready for a dicker, the business prospered in the Colonel's hands, and although the settlers had no money they never need leave his store without what they wanted, for they could "turn in" their lumber, their produce, or their labor in payment. He was considerate in his dealings with the settlers, and to his help in their struggles during the early days, many owed their subsequent prosperity. At first he kept liquor and sold large quantities, but becoming convinced of the immoral character of the traffic, in 1831 he gave up keeping it and became a rigid total abstainer himself. Probably there was not, at that time, another country store in the province that did not sell intoxicating liquor, and in this, as in several other respects, Colonel Scriver was in advance of his age. His shrewdness, energy and executive ability would have made him a leader anywhere, but in Hemingford his preeminence was enhanced by his being then the only man possessed of resources that enabled him to assist others. He always kept a number of hired men and whether it was lumbering or potash-making or clearing up land did so on a scale that nobody else could emulate. To the improving of existing roads and the opening of new ones he labored strenuously. When the government grants to roads were being made, he was a persistent petitioner, but Hemmingford got less than its just share. His request was that assistance be given to open the road between the 3rd and 4th ranges, to complete the road eastward, and to make good the road from the Napierville line to the province line. To the latter, in 1832, $800 was given to make "the road the province-line on No. 10 to the house of John McFall." In 1834 $600 was given to make passable the road from Stockwell to Vicars (then called Mannagh's corners), when communication was possible from Hemingford to Franklin, and the upper road was less used. The same year an additional grant of $600 was made to the road from Clelland's northwards. In October, 1831, a mail was granted from St. Remi to Hemingford, Colonel Scriver being postmaster.

Hello, again! I trust you have all fully recovered from the July 1st week-end heat wave. We spent those days at Missisquoi Bay and were glad of it. The swimming of course was just wonderful.

But, did you hear? The Old Men of the Gardens played a game of softball on Dominion Day, against the men of the Legion. The heat must have really fired up our boys because the score was 30 to 7 for the Old Men! There was a slight mishap, though. The ball bounced and hit poor Bill Sottiaux in the eye! So, please believe Bill when he explains that black eye! Hope it feels much better now, Bill.

I've been hearing stories regarding boys of 13 to 15 years of age causing damage to the boats tied up at the wharf at the foot of Lang Street. These boys are known to the residents of Lang and by some of the boat owners, who have given these boys permission to fish off the wharf. The boys while fishing, have been throwing stones at the boats. Is this the way to repay a kindness? School is now over for summer vacation. May I humbly suggest to all parents to check up on the activities of their children, even the teenagers. They are not yet responsible adults and still need your guidance.

It is amazing that despite the many newspapers carrying public notices re usage of water hoses in the Town of Chateauguay, how many people are not aware of the new system. If your house number is even, you can water your lawn on even days of the month, all day. If your house number is odd, you can water your lawn on odd days of the month, all day. It's that simple and sounds like a very fair and effective way to keep our area green.

Birthday greetings go out to Mrs. Joy Davies of Lang Street, who celebrates her birthday on Tuesday, July 9th.

Happy birthday wishes are also sent to little François Charbonneau of Beauchamp Street who will be 3 years old on July 14th.

Lyn Appleton of the Gardens was one of many Chateauguay residents in view on the taped "Like Young" T.V. show from Seigniory Park, seen here last Saturday. Lyn participated in two events: a paddle boat race and a swimming race in which she came first with a fine exhibition of the crawl stroke.

Farewell Party

Ida and Lou Essiambre were feted at a farewell party held recently in their honour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes of Lang Street. As a token of remembrance, Mr. and Mrs. Essiambre were presented with a bedroom clock and an electric kitchen clock. This family have now left to take up residence in Quebec City and will surely be missed by all the friends they had to leave behind. Good luck to the Essiambre family!

Another family have also travelled but only as part of their vacation. Gertie and Ernie Hughes with their four children have spent the past three weeks in various locales such as Toronto, Ontario and Chazy, New York. It was a time for visiting friends and relatives. That very warm week at the end of June was perfect holiday weather and the Hughes family spent it in Chazy, just sunning and swimming. What more could anyone wish?

Vacation time is here. When you return, how about giving me a call and telling me about your adventures and where you travelled. Such news can be very interesting to those of us who must stay at home. My number is 692-2659. Please call.

In closing I would like to send get well wishes to little Susan Cadieux of Lang Street, who has been feeling very much under the weather.

Well, we have had quite a change in weather since our heat wave, haven't we. I hope that wasn't our summer. One consolation, what with the water situation, we can certainly use the rain.

Welcome Home

Welcome home to Mrs. Julia Robinson of Vetville who has been visiting with friends. Also welcome back to the Longs of McLeod Ave., who were visiting in Ontario and had a very enjoyable time.

Visitors

The Power home on Macoun Ave., was a busy place on Saturday, visiting were Mr. and Mrs. J. Welch of Cartierville, Mr. and Mrs. J. McCann of Rosemount and the Youngs of McLeod. Everyone had a great time but a few of them had sore legs and arms on Sunday after the badminton game.

Birthday Greetings

D.V.B.S.

As you probably all know by now, the Daily Vacation Bible School, sponsored by St. George's Anglican Church and Maplewood Presbyterian is well underway. The school opened last Tuesday and the children have been attending faithfully. Mrs. Betty Blankhorn is in charge and is doing a wonderful job, as are all the leaders. Very few people are aware of the time and study that goes into this worth-while school, but I'm sure the teachers feel very rewarded when they see the children return day after day. The music is wonderful and the youngsters are also enjoying the crafts.

Household Hint

With the summer here and the small fry with their backyard swimming pools, I'm sure many of you mothers are noticing water spots on your hardwood floors. Try covering the spots with cold cream, leave on twenty-four hours, rub off, if the mark is still there, start over. This can also be done on furniture with a whit ring. If you notice an odour in your fridge — try a little vanilla extract in the water tray, it really works.

That's it for this week, please give me a call with your birthdays, anniversaries or where you went on your holidays, see you next week.

LETTER FROM SEIGNIORY PARK

(by FERGUS HORSBURGH)

There is much talk and a lot of propaganda these days about the injury to health caused by smoking. Should one give up smoking? I can't help thinking of my father, weighing the pros and cons about 40 years ago, asking our family doctor if giving up smoking would prolong his life. "Yes", said our doctor, one of whose claims to fame is that he helped me into this world, "by about twenty minutes".

Congratulations — I think that is the word — to Mr and Mrs. David Walker of Montcalm on the birth of twins — a boy and a girl, last week. The Walkers had arranged to borrow a crib from neighbours for the expected baby, and our bearded David called up to ask, "you don't have another one, do you?" How neighbourly can you get? This is a happy First for Seignory Park, not counting the Mackay twins who were born before they came here. That sounds a bit odd, doesn't it?!

Although Seigniory Park kids have enjoyed it, the softball season has been disappointing to date, both from the point of view of results and parents' attendance. A near record 69-10 loss was recorded by one of our teams — sounds like Peanuts! I'm sure more Seigniory Parkers would attend if they knew how to find the Ball Park. It's very simple — just drive up St. Francis to Maple, turn right and drive 400 yards. You then see the sign "Seigniory Ball Park", though unfortunately the sign is hidden by overhanging scrub, a condition which we hope will be remedied shortly. The full season's schedule is shown elsewhere in this issue, and the games to watch this next week are: Squirts, home Thursday 11th vs. CRVC, home Tuesday, 16th vs. Terrace. Mosquitoes, home Wednesday, 10th vs. Parkview, home Monday 15th vs. Terrace, away Wednesday, 17th vs. CCRA. Pee Wee, away Wednesday 10th vs. Terrace, away Monday, 15th, vs. Chateauguay Park, away Tuesday, 16th vs. CCRA., Bantams home Friday 12th, vs. Park View, away Monday 15th vs. West End, home Wednesday 17th vs. Terrace. Girls, away Friday, 12th vs. Terrace, away Saturday, 13th vs. CRVC, away Tuesday, 16th vs. Park View. Weekday home games start at 6.30 p.m. Times Saturday games are still to be decided.

Town Police confirm that odd street numbers may water gardens on odd days of the month, and even street numbers on even days, for one hour at a time. This is rather tough on the even numbers, come ends of July and August, but like Li'l Abner, ah respex the law, and ah shall conform, except when I get caught. Seriously, this would seem to be an improvement on previous arrangements, as it does not restrict watering to the evening, which should in turn give us more constant pressure. So let's hope Seigniory Drive residents will now be able to get in the evenings.

It was the day of reckoning last week for the Seigniory Parkers who moved here in the Spring of 1962. Our monthly mortage payments to the Trust Company were $100. plus in arrears. The Trust Company claims that such adjustments are unavoidable, but we poor guys who have to pay are unconvinced. Surely if Trust Company and Town authorities were to work together, a more realistic estimate of taxes payable within the next twelve months could be assessed. This increase purports to be for the next twelve months only — but who ever heard of taxes coming down?

Last Saturday we saw the youth of Seigniory Park on Channel 12's "Like Young" show. Second and final episode, filmed at Seigniory Park a couple of weeks ago, will be shown on Saturday, July 13th at 6.30 p.m.

Mrs. Margaret Kennedy was hostess at a farewell tea in honour of Mrs. McDonald of St. Aubin St., June 18th., Mrs. McDonald has left for a two-month vacation in Scotland with her little daughter Diane. The Tea was attended by the neighbors of St. Aubin St. (Sorry I was unable to attend due to the fact I was a patient in the hospital at that time, but believe me, my thoughts were with them) Mrs. McDonald was presented with a lovely hand bag, also personal lingerie, little Diane was given a hand bag and gloves. By the way, How do you like batching Tom?

The Mary Gardner School Closing Assemblies were held June 25th., and June 26th., in the school Gym. These assemblies were attended by a large number of parents and guests. I found it most impressive, and made me realize more than ever, as a parent, as an executive of this school, just what we are working for. So many little faces looking up listening so attentively to what was being said, trying to grasp every word, believe me it was very touching. These youngsters are part of our future generation and they need our support and encouragement lets make sure we give it to them. You will find a complete write up regarding Mary Gardner Closing Assemblies elsewhere in this newspaper.

One, Two Three, and you're out at the old ball game! Yes folks, Softball season has started here in Parkview, so come on Moms and Dads lets see you at the ball park which is at Champlain and Dube Streets giving the youngsters our support and encouragement they need. Eleven C.G.I.T. members under supervision of Miss Peggy Pappin spent a most enjoyable week-end (July 1st) at Charlottenburg Park, Ont. The weather was lovely, and from what I heard, the girls had a wonderful time! Am I right gals?

Jim and Mary McCallum of Dube Street have returned home after spending a vaction visiting relatives in Boston. Hope you enjoyed every moment of it.

Mr. Ives of King Circle had an unexpected and unwanted guest awaiting his arrival into his new home, Saturday, July 6th., There on the front steps of his home sat a ground hog who refused to let the new comers enter (maybe the ground hog felt he had priority, who know?) but alas he had no alternative but to give up his stand as the police were called to the rescue and had to destroy him, apparently he was a rather vicious character, snarls, etc., not very pleasant I'm sure. However Mr. Ives, a great big welcome to you and your family.

The Ladies Association of the Third and Seventh Girl Guides and Brownies wish to extend their sincere thanks to Mr. Houde, manager of Zeller's, for his co-operation in providing space in his store for their Bake Sale which was held June 20th., ...also many thanks are extended to the Chateauguay Bakery for their donation of cake boxes.

LEGION NEWS in CHATEAUGUAY

The July general meeting was held on the second of the month, at which the monthly Booster Club drawing took place. Cde. Nurse S. Roland was asked to draw the ticket and the winner was Dave Trottier of 200 Deslauriers, St. Laurent.

The president introduced and welcomed two visitors, one being Cde. Bill Tomlinson of No. 4 Branch who is applying for a transfer to Chateauguay Branch. The other visitor was Cde. Stan Hassel, Zone Adjutant for a district of California. He informed us that Zone Adjutant corresponds to our District Commander and that he is visiting as many branches as possible this summer.

A successful and enjoyable Field Day was held last Saturday at Malone for children and grandchildren of Chateauguay Branch members. Two buses left the Branch at 8 a.m. in charge of Norm Palmer, entertainment chairman. The weather was fine, and games, races and swimming were enjoyed. The rest of the time appeared to be taken up in eating and cashing in tickets at the park concession. Six o'clock came all too soon when "all aboard" was sounded for the bus ride back to Chateauguay.

Norm Palmer and his committee are to be congratulated on the efficient running of a very pleasant event.

World Fair Site Now Set

AFTER an "On Again, Off Again" series, the World Fair Site in Montreal has now been finally decided and will be at the St. Helen's Island choice. Work will now proceed and the site is supposed to be in readiness for the Fair Corporation by June 30th, 1964.

There has been considerable controversy about this site since announcement was made that this is where it should be. There have been disputes as to ownership and what could, or could not be done as a result of this. It would seem that now all is settled and the way is clear to proceed. Of course there are still some who feel other sites could have been picked that would have meant less outlay to get the Fair going. However, the site has been fixed and it will be St. Helen's Island, as per the early suggestion. Work is to start this very week and maybe going on by the time this newspaper is printed. There is plenty to be done and it may have the effect of easing unemployment to some extent. If it does that, it will assist the economy and that is worth-while.

We feel that there are many angles in connection with this World's Fair and Canada's Centenary celebration that should have a beneficial effect upon our economy. Properly organized and publicized, opportunities should present themselves that will mean more employment for a greater number of our people. In this way our economy will right itself by our own effort and be less dependent upon outside sources. However, it should be seen that Canada benefits and not some outside country. No souvenir articles should be imported into Canada to be sold as Canadian Centennial souvenirs. This is Canada's Birthday and the products which mark this event should be of Canadian manufacture. In other words the people of Canada should benefit from their own Country's birthday. In order to make this so, manufacturers of such articles in this country should design or be designing such articles now. In this way they can go into production and thus provide needed employment for many people. Souvenir designs can be many and varied, there is lots of scope for ideas from the history of 100 years. There can be provincial and federal souvenirs and in this way sales can be made right across the country. With the Fair site and plans definitely settled, plans can go right ahead.

Community projects can now be lined up and especially those communities which are adjacent to the Fair site of Montreal. There are many plans that can be followed and will be necessary to accommodate the great influx of people into this area from all parts of this continent and from the world in general. We cannot minimize the possibilities which this great event will hold for this area and all of Canada. Individual projects are already being lined up by a number of communities in various parts of Canada and all of these are going to help other parts of Canada too. It is not only the employment created by these projects in themselves, it is that which is created by the demand for the materials which may be involved. This goes right back to the raw products as well as the finished work. It can create a tremendous circle of economic endeavor and mean a great deal to Canada at this time. Therefore, a concentrated effort on the part of all should be put into making the World's Fair and the 100th birthday of Canada the huge success it should be.

Projects to commemorate the birthday of Canada should be of a permanent nature that will stand through the ages as a memorial of the occasion and the community effort that went into it. We believe that such projects should be of a useful nature and from which citizens now and in the future will continue to derive benefit. Councils should plan in their budgets over the next few years to set aside a sum toward such projects. Public contributions could be collected and placed in a fund for the same purpose. A project should be decided upon very soon and then work toward this goal could be commenced with a view to having it completed for 1967. Suitable local ceremonies could then be a part of the general country-wide celebrations. In this way the people will be helping their country and giving it the greatest present it could ever have. It is something we should be thinking about and right now while there is still plenty of time.

Russia, China and The World

THE rift between Russia and China over whom should be the leader in the Communist world, seems to be going far worse at this time. Russia is the birthplace of Communism and which sprang from the Russian revolution in 1917. From this great uprising there has come the ideology which we know as Communism today. It was first known as Bolshevism and the followers of it as Bolshevists. It was to be worked out on a five year plan, that is five years for each part of the world revolution and so to a final conclusion of world revolution and then control by Communism.

Russia has been spreading the doctrine of Communism and using the five-year plan to do this. There is no doubt but what every country has been infiltrated with at least segments of the belief and at times it has become positively dangerous.

Conditions in China became such that poverty and want caused an uprising and the Communistic plan became firmly established there and caused the flight of Chinese Nationais to Formosa. Now the Communistic hold has taken a very firm grip in China and the leader of that group is threatening the power of Russian Leader Khrushchev, who of course is the dominating power of the Communistic World as we know it.

The Chinese Leader's view of how Communism should work is different from that of the original plan and he has inserted a few clauses of his own. He thinks that the plan is a better one and he wants to force it all on to Russia. Russia on the other hand has been easing off on her plan and making life a little more livable for those under her domination. China has been tightening the screws and also seeking to take more territory for herself. Russia has sort of cramped the Chinese Leader's style and clamped down on some of his ideas and plans. These two groups have held several meetings, but a large convention is now to be held and the whole matter is to be threshed out. It could mean that China and Russia will go their separate ways on the Communistic plan and it could mean a conflict between the two to decide who is the boss.

Russia has appealed to the west that in such an event, the west would co-operate with Russia in order to defeat the aims of China.

Once before the West was an ally of Russia and in this case the tide of battle was turned against Hitler. However, as their share of the bargain, the West has not fared so well and the present trouble in the world is still an upshot of having Russia as an ally. Could we afford to again take a stand with Russia? If the aim of Russia was achieved, what restitution would fall to the west? On the other hand if China gained the victory, how would the West fare then? Such a breakdown could mean world war three with a vengence. Two of the most populated counties of the world sending their hordes against each other with the West waiting to take a stab if needed. All three have something of nuclear weapons, but no one knows to what extent China has this means. Truly it could be a holocaust.

Must They Die?

DURING the summer months Canadians are accustomed to seeing in their newspapers every Monday a sad total of week-end fatalities in accidents on the highways and the lakes.

When it's a holiday week-end the toll is correspondingly increased. The final solemn reckoning of this year's three-day Dominion Day holiday week-end was a record-breaking 169 accidental deaths across Canada. The count by The Canadian Press showed the death toll passed the previous Dominion Day week-end record — 122 in 1960 — early on the third day and mounted steadily.

It was Canada's deadliest week-end on record, surpassing even the nation's highest five-day week-end count of 130 deaths during the 1962 Christmas period.

On the Dominion Day week-end this year 83 were killed on the road and 77 were drowned. Quebec's total more than doubled from a record 38 in 1958 to 78 this time, including 41 drownings and 33 traffic fatalities. Ontario's total of 53 included 26 road deaths and 25 drownings. Newfoundland was the only province that did not report a fatal accident.

Predictions of the highway deaths can be made with gruesome accuracy for every holiday week-end. Provincial authorities constantly issue safe driving cautions. Safety leagues and other organizations endlessly warn of the dangers in swimming and boating.

Is everyone so accustomed to these warnings and safety tips that they no longer pay any heed? Do the great majority feel that an accident always happens to someone else?

How are you going to cut down this tragic waste?

The obvious answers are increased highway patrols, closer supervision of swimming beaches and of boats and boating equipment.

But no laws that could ever be devised will prevent the accidents on road and on water that are caused by momentary carelessness.

It is up to every individual to keep in his heart the three simple rules — care, courtesy and commonsense.

INTERMINGLING OF PASSENGERS

Passengers are requested to remain in the accommodation allocated to the class in which they have been booked.

It may be noted here that, co-incidental to my move to the First Class, I picked up a flea.

However, despite such barriers, I am pleased to announce that contact has been re-established with the aforementioned "medium young" ladies so all is well.

The day I moved coincided with the Captain's Cocktail Party to which I, with all the other first class passengers, had been invited. This caused another unexpected alarm for, during the afternoon, the room steward popped his head in the door and asked if my Tuxedo needed pressing and brushing. I had to hurriedly muster up a convincing air of nonchalance and inform him that I and my Tuxedo had parted company when the trousers of the latter suddenly shrank and refused to button up where it was absolutely essential that it should button up. It is gratifying for me to tell you that the Captain was kind enough to hide his real feelings when I was introduced to him and greeted me with the utmost cordiality.

Let me tell you that the compensations far outweigh such minor complications and that I am living the life of Riley. I occupy a beautiful and spacious cabin, air conditioned, complete bathroom, all kinds of electric switches to play with, tea and biscuits before I get up, splendid service from room steward and wonderful meals in a beautiful dining room.

I am fortunate in having been seated at the Surgeon's table and, in addition to him, I have the great pleasure of the company of a charming couple from Switzerland an equally charming couple from Peterborough and an equally charming lady from Kent, England. I note that I did not describe the Surgeon as charming but, of course, that goes without saying. He pretends to be a bit of a cynic but that is all eyewash. He looks upon everything with somewhat of a jaundiced air but that, too, I suspect, is just a pose and, if pressed on the point would even admit to being kind to his mother.

With such a galaxy of good people surrounding me you will understand that I am somewhat in the shade but content myself with listening to their words of wisdom and knowledge. What I mean to say is, I can hardly get a word in edgeways.

As I anticipate that this will be my concluding item whilst on board the good ship CARMANIA, I want to be completely sure that you will not misunderstand anything that I have written regarding anybody or anything on board. As befits a voyage of a holiday nature, everything I have written has been in a spirit of levity and good humour. My table companions have shown a wonderful spirit of endurance and tolerance and not once have I been asked to leave the table. We have all had a wonderful time, the weather has been good and the seas calm. In these days we are all saturated with the propaganda put out by the advertising fraternity and, unfortunately and in many instances, the performance does not come up to the promise. But, in this particular instance, the advertising has been placed in good hands for the long cherished reputation of the Cunard company has been most worthily upheld. I am sure that my fellow passengers will agree that the attention and care given to us by the staff with whom the passengers normally come into contact has been of the highest order and, although, to them, it is just part of their everyday work, they have made us feel that we are just about the most important people that they have encountered for many a long day. Most probably their innermost thoughts of some of us would not be fit to be printed in a family newspaper.

For myself, I am so contented with my life on board ship that I really do not care if the ship reaches Southampton on its due day of Friday or if it gets there next Tuesday. And if I do not get a gold watch or something out of this plug for the company I will stay home in future. But, on reflection, I have a sneaky feeling that the passengers and crew who have had the misfortune to endure me for these last seven days would not be too upset at that threat of mine.

Reduction In Electricity Rates In September — Huntingdon Will Benefit

QUEBEC (CP) Families in many parts of the Province will be paying less for electricity in September.

Rates from the suburbs of Montreal to the farms of the Gaspe will go down, with the farmers getting the greatest reductions because they already pay the most for power.

Montreal and Quebec City residents still will pay $4.92 for 400 kilowatt hours of electricity. Their suburbs, some of which paid slightly more, will be reduced to the same figure.

In communities of between 6,000 and 50,000 residents, the minimum fixed rate would be 35 cents and the cost of 400 kilowatt hours of electricity would drop to $5.43 from $5.85 a month.

Lachute, in Argenteuil County, and Trois-Rivieres would be among the communities to fall into this category.

In rural communities like Huntingdon, with a population of between 1,500 and 6000 the basic minimum would be 50 cents. The rate for 400 kilowatt hours would drop to $5.58 a month from $9.50.

Localities with from 250 to 1,500 inhabitants would pay a basic 75 cents and $5.83 for 400 kilowatt hours, down from $6.40.

The fifth category involves localities with fewer than 250 inhabitants. These would pay a flat $1 rate, with the cost of 400 kilowatt hours lowered to $6.08 from $7.15.

The reduction will mean a drop of about $3,500,000 in hydro-Quebec's annual revenue, with another drop of $1,000,000 resulting from adjustments to commercial rates later this year.

Resources Minister Rene Levesque, whose department has jurisdiction over Hydro-Quebec, noted during the week another factor that will affect Hydro-Quebec's revenues: The 11-percent building materials tax laid down in the Federal Budget.

Hydro, he said planned to spend $1,000,000,000 in the next five years and the new tax would add a minimum of $50,000,000 and a maximum of $100,000,000 to this program.

"If this measure is not rescinded or amended, it will hurt us," Mr. Levesque said. "It will be an intolerable injury."

He hinted that the tax seemed to be aimed directly at Quebec, which was putting all its efforts into industrial expansion that would be affected by the tax.

British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec had the major hydro programs, he went on. In B.C., hydro projects involved non-taxable rock fill. Ontario had termal projects that also were not as seriously affected.

But Quebec's big dams would be directly affected. The Tax could have "a brutal effect." Hydro had just sacrificed revenue to adjust its rates and also had increased its investments for the expansion of the province.

The Tax seemed "particularly discriminatory" as a result," he said, obviously angry.

Opposition Leader Daniel Johnson again said the Government could count on Union Nationale support in any steps it might take to have Ottawa modify the Tax.

With the legislature expected to adjourn July 13, and the government obviously angry, some such steps seemed imminent.

Decoration Day Service

The annual decoration day service of the Oddfellows' Lodge was held on Sunday at which there were representatives present from Valleyfield, Ormstown and Malone besides the Huntingdon Lodge. The main address was given by Rev. J.B. Maclean, D.D. This marked the thirtieth time that Dr. Maclean has delivered the address at this decoration day service. This is quite a record.

Lawn Bowling Tournament

Members of the Huntingdon, Ormstown and Valleyfield Ladies Lawn Bowling Clubs cast aside household cares Thursday afternoon, and headed for the Huntingdon Bowling Green where they put on a demonstration of the fine art of bowling that made the men sit up and take notice. Mrs. W. Goundrey, the genial President of the Huntingdon Club, was in charge of the tournament, which was followed by a tea.

Medical Men Confer.

On Friday last the Clouston cottage at Port Lewis was the seat of a discussion that may mean a great deal to the relief of one young man at least, and perhaps several others. It so happens that one young man living in Western Ontario is suffering from a nasal trouble that is particularly obnoxious to the individual and all other people he may be associated with. Professor J.B. Collip of McGill, Prof. Hector Mortimer, McGill and Dr. Percy Wright, nose and throat specialist of Montreal, were the three specialists who met with Dr. Clouston on Friday. It seems that the research Dr. Clouston has made ties in with work that is essential to relieve the young man of the nose disorder.

School Board Meeting

The first meeting of the Ormstown Consolidated School Board was held on Monday evening. R.E. Walsh was appointed chairman.

The Secretary was instructed to ask the Quebec board to sell the six old parish schools. Three year tenders for school buses will shortly be asked for. A six year course in manual training is to be started during the coming term of the Ormstown High School.

Grant For H'don Fair

Secretary John Smaill of the Huntingdon Fair reports the good news received from Donald E. Black, M.P., that the Fair is to receive a grant of $600.00 from the Ottawa Government. This $600. is to be used in making repairs to the buildings on the exhibition grounds. One of the principal undertakings will be that of raising the red building and renewing the sills. Much work is required about horse stalls and the fences.

Annual Conference

The eleventh Annual Conference of leaders in Sunday School and Missionary work in the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, was held in St. Andrew's Pres. Church, Huntingdon, from July 4 to the 10th. There was a large attendance and the weather was all that could be desired for comfort. The Conference was under the direction of Dr. A.S. Reid, Clerk of the Synod.

Report From Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) With 1963 shaping up as a vintage year for non-confidence motions, the Liberal government survived another one last week.

Not a bead of perspiration was shed for this one. For the first time this year, a minority government found itself in a majority position as division bells clanged through the House.

The 96 Liberal members seated in the Chamber outnumbered all opposition when the Commons decided the motion, by Opposition Leader Diefenbaker, alleging that "confusion and chaos" exist in Canada as a result of the budget proposals.

But the Liberals got help anyway. Eighteen Social Credit members and one New Democrat — Frank Howard (Skeena) — joined them in turning back the motion, 115 to 75.

This was the first time that Prime Minister Pearson missed hearing the division bells this year. As his government faced its fourth non-confidence test in this youthful session of Parliament, Mr. Pearson was recuperating from a minor operation which resulted in the removal of a cyst from his neck. He spent most of the week at his Harrington Lake cottage, about 20 miles north of Ottawa in the Gatineau Hills. A cabinet meeting was held there Thursday.

Kept to Fore

Mr. Diefenbaker's non-confidence motion kept Finance Minister Gordon's controversial budget in the forefront as members denounced and defended it through a smothering Ottawa heatwave.

The motion said: "This House regrets that the government, by its failure to clarify many doubts and uncertainties, has created and continues to create confusion and chaos in various sectors of the economy, thereby contributing to a lamentable slowing-down of expected expansion and growth."

The motion was aimed primarily at clarification or even withdrawal of the 11-per-cent manufacturers' sales tax applied by the June 13 budget to building materials and production equipment.

Mr. Gordon promising a clarifying statement on the tax, said that "if the people of this country are not willing to back a government which has a program, and are not willing to pay more taxes in the interim, we shall have to go on drifting and inevitably, sooner or later, we shall end up on the rocks.

Charged Hoax

Mr. Diefenbaker had made a bitter attack on the budget proposals and said Liberal promises of expansion have proven to be "a great hoax perpetrated on the people." He said industry is in the doldrums and the people are afraid and angered. Mr. Gordon, he said is "the self-appointed tribune of the people."

When State Secretary J. W. Pickersgill entered the debate he said Mr. Diefenbaker now is behaving as "a man on horseback, a man of decision" when the electorate had showed that it had enough of him because of his inability to make decisions.

Meanwhile, the Commons got around to passing its first piece of legislation — after sitting for 34 days.

The House Wednesday found itself with 10 minutes to spare before the usual 6 p.m. adjournment and it used the time to pass a minor bill that extends the life of the export and import permits act for three years to July 31, 1966.

No Need Say PCs

But there was still no indication that this speedy treatment would extend to the bill which would establish a new department of industry. For the second week, the Commons battled through the bill.

Conservative speakers, generally, argue that the task of the proposed department could better be undertaken by the existing Department of Trade and Commerce and the new ministry will result in unnecessary administrative machinery. Defence Production Minister C. M. Drury, picked to head the proposed department, says it would tackle problems that are new and all existing branches of government.

With the Commons somewhat bogged down on the issue, there were indications that the House will soon be sitting on Friday nights and Saturdays with the possibility of extended hours on other days. Mr. Pickersgill indicated such plans would be dealt with this week.

There has been no indication just when the House will take a summer recess.

Searches Records

As the Commons was occupied with monetary matters during the week, H. W. Herridge, the NDP member for Kootenay West, took pains not to add to the country's burden. Mr. Herridge wants to peruse about 10,00 letters and other documents exchanged between the deputy minister of northern affairs and national resources, and the staff of the Water Resources Board, since Jan. 1, 1961.

So when he asked for them Wednesday he produced a $1,000 cheque to cover the cost of digging them out and having them reprinted. The cheque was delivered to the government benches and later it was returned to Mr. Herridge with the understanding that he would get his documents on the House.

Trade Minister Sharp indicated no agreement had yet been reached on a further wheat sale contract with Communist China.

Defence Minister Hellyer said he hoped to announce "very shortly" a decision on acquistion of three British conventional submarines.

Mr. Sharp said the government's stockpiling of uranium in the next 12 months may cost $20,000,000.

Agriculture Minister Hays said his department is watching the "serious problem" of the insect killer dieldrin being used where cattle feed.

Strike Threat Less

Transport Minister McIlraith said the prospects of a CNR strike by the so-called running trades Aug. 17 appear to have been reduced.

Justice Minister Chevrier said no government decision is imminent on the establishment of an appeal board for persons labelled by the RCMP as security risks.

Mr. Chevrier said the government intends to implement its campaign pledge to extend family allowances to students beyond age 16. He didn't say when.

External Affairs Minister Martin said there are "no complications" in negotiations with the United States about acqiring nuclear weapons for Canada.

Mr. Pickersgill said he is giving "most urgent consideration" to the legislation required to establish an independent commission on redistribution of Commons seats.

Dundee

DUNDEE — A very successful afternoon tea was held in Zion United Church, on Friday afternoon, July 5th, under the auspices of the U.C.W. Mrs Willian Black of Huntingdon. She spoke about the Wonderful World of Nature using several passages of Scripture where plants are mentioned. Isaiah speaks of the desert flower and several times Jesus speaks of the flowers around him. There is the feeling of contentment when working in the great outdoors. There is infinite variety of God's children — each has a different place and task — each perfect in His sight.

Only God can make a tree and a weed is really only a flower out of place. Everything works under a plan or law. The Junior Girl's Choir sang "Ivory Palaces" which was much enjoyed. After the worship service tea was served in the basement where small tables were laden with dainty sandwiches, pickles and cakes.

Anne and Lynn Locey of Cornwall, are spending several weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smellie.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Rutledge and five boys left on Monday for Montreal. Then

Obituary

The Late Robert Anderson

Robert Anderson passed away Saturday morning, June 28th, in the Barrie Memorial Hospital, Ormstown, at the age of 93. He was a lifetime farmer and resident of the Gore. Widely known as quiet nature with an amazing "Robbie' he was a man of memory, an inexhaustible supply of 'years' that he loved to tell in his own inimitable fashion.

Extremely well in health, over the years, till Thursday, June 20th, when he fell and broke his hip, he entered Hospital, that same evening where he passed away eight days later.

Born on the Gore, June 15th, 1870. He was married to Elinor Brown on February 27th, 1895, who predeceased him on September 11th, 1948.

DOROTHY DAVIDSON

It was near Dalhousie, a hill-station high in the Himalayas that stretch between India's northern frontier and Thibet, when, by some strange chance, we found ourselves, one night, sharing a rocky ledge with three Ghurka soldiers, waiting under a full moon for a husband who tracked a band of Moslem refugees along a mountain trail. The circumstances which led us to such an out of this world spot must be explained.

It happened in August, 1947 ten days after India and the newly-formed country of Pakistan had been granted their independence. Scarcely had the papers been signed before the two countries were battling over partition — where the dividing lines between them were to be drawn.

While Britain ruled India she was able to control, for the most part, the religious differences between Hindu and Moslem which, from time to time, threatened to explode. But now, the White Raj was gone and all the bitterness and hatred that had simmered for years rose to a rolling boil. Like an epidemic, riots spread across the land. Hindu and Moslem alike used partition as an excuse to vent their hatred upon each other. No city nor hamlet along the hundreds of miles of disputed frontier escaped massacre.

Dalhousie, although close to the proposed boundary in the north, was one of the last places to suffer. Between seven and eight thousand feet above sea-level, the town sprawled atop and down the sides of a mountain, cut off from the world except for a narrow road which wound its way up from the plains for forty, tortuous miles of switchbacks and hairpin bends. Here, during the hot weather, came the Davidsons together with other "European" families to add to the mixed population of Hindus, Sikhs and Moslems who lived the year round in the remote hill station.

The worst had happened. For three days the town had suffered riots and killings; for three nights the air was thick with smoke from fires set in the bazaars by gangs of hoodlums, bent on destruction and looting. The military hospital which Jack commanded had been opened to the civilian overflow from the district hospital, and doctors and nurses worked round-the-clock to save some of these half-butchered people.

To make matters worse, the new Moslem commandant of the station, at the first sign of trouble, had ordered a network of barbed wire to be strung about his compound, then, barricading the doors and with machine gun at the ready, he had retired to the fastness of his bungalow and phoned to Jack begging him, as C.O. of the military hospital, to take over the affairs of the station — for the time being. Thus, the burden of civil administration was added to an already heavily laden doctor.

Now, on the third night, a weary man returned to his family to reassure them they were quite safe; never had the English been so popular in India — they were on the way out! Dinner was over, the children slept, and Jack had begun to recount the events of the last three days when the phone rang. It was the self-imprisoned commandant. Would the colonel-sahib please investigate the rumour that a band of Moslem refugees had been ambushed along a mountain trail. Jack demanded information as to their whereabouts and hung up. Next, he phoned the captain in charge of a company of Ghurkas who had arrived the day before to help the station force restore order, and asked for a detachment to stand by - he was coming with jeep to pick them up.

At this point we blew our top. "Go if you must," we said. "But we're coming, too." What a farce this independence was! No sooner does the white man drop the reins than the native begs him to pick them up again. We easily could have murdered the commandant, that chicken in a briar patch, for passing the buck to an overworked doctor.

"I don't know what we're getting into," Jack was saying. "Perhaps it would be wiser if you — " "Who cares?" We retorted. "For seventy-two hours we've sat and twiddled our thumbs. We're coming with you whether you like it or not." And off we stalked to fetch a sweater, our temper subsiding at sight of Jack's grin.

A hurried word with the bearer to mind the children and we were off, rattling down the hill to company headquarters where a sergeant with a Ghurka detachment and a native guide were waiting. There were eight of them and, somehow, they managed to stow themselves with their rifles and a machine gun in and on the jeep. The sergeant joined us in the front seat, three of them piled into the back, three more sat on the front fenders and hood, and the odd man rode on the spare tire at the rear. The jeep looked like an over-stuffed hedgehog as it crawled through the town and along the road, circling the mountain.

After a mile or two, we left the road and bumped along a mule track. The going was rough and slow. Now down, now up, the track wound through the forest towards another mountain where it climbed up and up until the jeep crept along a narrow ledge on top of a cliff. There was no end to it. Evidently, mules like cliffs, and the closer they can come to the edge the better they like them. Sometimes, the curves were so sharp even a jeep couldn't manoeuvre them. Then, the men would jump out, swing the rear end around and the car would crawl on. Laughing, joking, not caring two pins for the fearful drop to the side, these agile little Nepalese were having a ball. A ball? One look over the cliff at the thousand plus feet of fresh air which filled the dark valleys below and we decided to concentrate our attention on the boulders and pine-studded flanks of the mountain above us; good terra firma that might hide panther or leopard, but a lot safer, to our way of thinking, than all the "nothing" yonder. And when we came to a landslide that blocked the way and the men jumped out to remove the debris, it was a good excuse to get out and walk.

At last, the ledge widened a little and the track ended on a small plateau. The guide pointed to a break in the trees where a trail led down through the forest, and explained that it joined another trail along which the Moslems were reported to have been attacked. From now on it was to be shanks mare.

"This is as far as you are going," Jack said. "I'm leaving three men to see you don't get into mischief, Expect us when you see us," and he was gone with the others down through the trees.

We walked over to a fallen tree trunk and sat down. A full moon, unhampered by clouds, failed to soften the harsh, corrugated scene that lay before us. Black furrows of chasms and ravines, separated by moonlit ridges of rock, extended far to the great mountains in the north where range upon range of snowcovered peaks, looking like white caps upside down in a sky-sea, swept across the horizon. What giants had folded and wrinkled the earth's surface into such a cruel yet beautiful pattern? And what freak turn of fortune's wheel had landed a Montrealer and his New England-born wife at the top of the world where everything is so big and they are so small?

Somewhere in the dark, unchartered depths below there was a waterfall, and once a jackal barked. Three red eyes moved in the shadows under a tree where the Ghurkas sat and smoked. Our selfishness in wanting to be a part of the expedition had led to a dispersal of personnel. But surely, Jack would come to no harm. Wasn't he accompanied by four Nepalese, reputed to be the world's finest soldiers? Thus we reasoned with our conscience while time rode with the moon and a cool breeze blew down across the spaces.

Far off, an owl hooted and right behind us, there was an answering "too-whoo." One of the soldiers slipped from the shadows and walked to the edge of the cliff. He signalled the others and by their actions, we judged the party was returning. Five minutes later, Jack broke through the wood, followed by the others.

"What happened?" we asked. Jack laughed. "It was just a rumour, nothing more, thank God. Some fellow was out shooting bears. The sound of the shots started the ball rolling — that's how rumours grow."

The return journey was uneventful. We learned, later, that the jeep could claim the dubious honour of having been the first car ever to have travelled the mule track which brings us to the end of the story. But, often, when the moon is full and there are no clouds in the sky, we remember the long-ago hour or two we spent with three little nut-brown men high in the Himalayas at the top of the world.

Hemmingford Township Council

The monthly meeting of the Hemmingford Township Council was held in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening July 2nd. In the absence of the Mayor, Councillor Hector Poissant presided as Pro-Mayor. Also present were Councillors A. Hadley, M. Bouchard, W. J. Brown, W. Beatty.

Under By-law No. 180, Council agreed that the rate of tax to be levied for the year 1963 should be 25c. per $100. of real value.

It was unanimously resolved that the Department of Roads be asked to adopt the Hebert By-road on Covey Hill.

The Secretary read a communication from the Village Council in which they heartily endorsed the action of the Township Council is requesting a 30 mile per hour zone for the highway from Lake Hermas to the village.

Rural Inspector Mr. Vernon Ellerton reported he did not wish at present to continue with attempts to construct a fence between the property of Lloyd English and Henry Philion owing to the antagonistic attitude of William Betournay. Other complaints were also brought forward. After some discussion it was agreed that the Mayor and Councillor Beatty investigate and report to the next meeting what action could be taken.

It was decided that the brush along the roadsides should not be sprayed but that it should be cut under the winter works program and that an early start should be made in order to get the job done before snowfall.

The Secretary reported a number of Beaver Dams, east of the village, had been blown up and disposed of, at a total cost of $70.50, this included dynamite and labour.

The following bills were authorized for payment, Bell Telephone, $16.28, Electricity, Huntingdon Gleaner for Financial Statements, $77.64 and advertisement re Roll, $5.50, Rent of office (two months) $85. and the Secretary's salary and Office expenses.

A most unhappy ending to a pleasant holiday befell little Bonnie-Beth Trotter. She has been staying with Grandma, Mrs. W.F. Orr, and proudly exhibiting her little puppy. Just before leaving for home, a speeding car going towards the village struck the puppy which was frisking at the side of the road, killing it instantly. The driver did not stop! If the 30-m.p.h. limit for which the Council have twice petitioned, had been in force, this would probably not have happened It was a puppy this time, it might be a child next.

Mr. Hugh McAdam, Mr. Kenneth Campbell, with their boys and Mr. and Mrs. J.H. L'Esperance took advantage of Thursday evening's rain which stopped haying for a time and went to Macdonald College on Friday for the annual Farmer's Day. It was a beautiful day, weatherwise, much useful information obtained concerning pastures and in the afternoon a delightful visit through the Morgan Aboretum, (on a hay-wagon) to watch the new method of making a farm pond, quite inexpensively and, if intelligent precautions are taken, quite safely with the use of a new kind of explosive. A day well-spent.

W. I. News

A most enjoyable meeting of the Hemmingford W.I. branch was held on Wednesday afternoon, July 3rd, at the home of Mrs. E. Merlin. Sixteen members, thirteen guests from Franklin and six visitors were present.

The President, Mrs. F. Greer extended a cordial welcome to our guests and visitors. The Roll Call was answered by naming the flower of the month of birth.

The fortieth anniversary celebration of the founding of the Hemmingford branch was tentatively suggested for July or August 27th, but will now be held November 27th, the original date of its inauguration in 1923.

Home Economics Convener, Mrs. R. Petch, reported tha CAC have bought and tested thirteen brands of ASA (aspirin) tablets, all samples proving satisfactory. Aspirin is legally the trade name of the Bayer Co. The best buy of ASA tablets is the cheapest sold by Eaton's and Simpson's, but always be sure they are properly labelled. It is false economy to buy more than a two or three month's supply as if kept too long they become crumbly and smell of vinegar and have lost their effect.

Three boxes of cotton for dressings have been delivered to the Canadian Cancer Society

Mrs. H. Palmer and Mrs. C. Harris attended the 49th Annual W.I. Provincial Convention at Macdonald College from June 24th to 28th. Mrs. Harris gave a brief outline of the two-day session as follows— All conveners' reports were most interesting and full details can be found in the Annual Report book which is distributed to each member, Mrs Palmer stated it is very important that these reports be read and studied in order to learn just what is being done

The first experimental Q.W. homemaking course held a the College was so enthusiastically received by seven Indiar women and one French Canadian woman married to an Indian that it will probably be an annual event.

There is a tremendous need for social service in rural areas. People need drugs, but very often there is no money to buy them.

With the opening of the Northern branches — four in Abitibi County and two composed of Indian women in Temiskaming — there are now 105 branches with a membership of approximately 2426. A A projector and screen has been bought for the use of technicians. We had the pleasure of meeting Miss Janet Dettman who replaces Miss Runnells, technician in arts and crafts. Christmas stockings for Canadian Save the Children Fund sent from a number of branches totalled 748. Good press coverage has been given to our organization during the past year — not nearly as many people now ask What is W.I.? The UNESCO Gift Coupon No. 367 was used to extend W.I. work to Northern Canada.

Pennies for Friendship is still an extremely important project of ACWW of which we are each and everyone a member. As Mrs. Palmer reminded us when summarizing Mrs. Van Beekhoff's speech — a little bit of money from many persons soon makes a lot. In some countries money is very hard to get, so others have to pay a little more to even things up.

The Lady Aberdeen Scholarship should be strongly supported in order to further our world-wide programme. Here again Mrs. Palmer stated the Scholarship is a means of teaching native women to utilize their teaching to people in their own land. The Adelaide Hoodless home should not be forgotten. A suggestion was made that bus tours should be arranged by branches. A copy of Mrs. LeBaron's excellent report on Education in the Province is being forwarded to each branch. This deserves careful study and discussion. The poor attendance of members at the leadership short courses was discussed at length, and it was decided to send a questionnaire to each branch to find out what they desire to learn.

A talk by Miss Van Avery, Information Officer on the Centenary Council was most informative. She suggested a number of projects for W.I. to commemorate the Centennial. Projects of a lasting nature are recommended. A National Theatre is being built in Ottawa. Recreation grounds are being planned, Bank of Montreal Centennial Scholarships are being offered — to name but a few.

Mrs. Palmer very ably gave a brief summary of Madame Van Beekhoff's speech. She told the members that our ACWW President paid high tribute to Canada the birthplace of the W.I. All members belong because they want to, not because they have to. American women are tarnished by propoganda from films. Mme Van Beekhoff informs the women she meets in her world travels that this is not the true situation. Ours is not the only culture — we must appreciate what other people have in order to work together for a common cause happy homes, peaceful surrounding, healthy children in a peaceful world.

Mrs. E. Keddy, Secretary, announced that the August 7th meeting will take the form of a picnic at Lac Hermas and will be Grandmother's Day. Members were warned of the danger of viewing the Solar Eclipse on July 20th with the naked eye.

A very friendly and enjoyable social period followed. A written flower game of scrambled letters was unsolved, prizes being given to the winners, Mrs. D. Laurie and Mrs. C. Harris. The popular TV game "Password" was played, Franklin alternating with Hemmingford on the panel. Keen wits and perception made this quite exciting entertainment.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Merlin and her co-hostesses Mrs. H. McAdam and Mrs. F. Barr. Mrs. Lawrence Towns of Franklin thanked Mrs. Greer for an enjoyable visit, and both felt that visiting among branches should be encouraged.

Elgin

W.M.S. Meeting

ELGIN — The Elgin Presbyterian W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Geo. D. Elder on Friday afternoon, July 5.

The meeting was conducted by Miss Lillian Murdoch with Mrs. Robert Cunningham at the organ. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. D. L. Macfarlane and Roll Call taken with members responding with Scripture. An article in the Glad Tidings was read explaining how our Supply Money was spent. Mrs. Angus Stark having completed the autograph aprons, strips of which were embroidered by different members turned over to the Treasurer the money received for names and the sale of them, which amounted to $38. It was decided to forward $50 towards our allocation. Cards were signed for shut-ins and a gift to be purchased for a valued helper who was in hospital was decided on.

Mrs. Cunningham then gave a very inspiring talk on her work in Africa, basing her remarks on the three calls to service as found in the Bible — the call of Zaccheus, of Isaiah and Paul's call to the Romans.

The president thanked Mrs. Cunningham for her informative message. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. J. A. Macfarlane, and refreshments were served. The offering amounted to $12.75.

"I'll be over–after I do my banking!"

Nowadays it's natural for the lady of the house to do much of the family banking, because it's so convenient to look after money matters at one place —the local chartered bank, an all-round banking service-centre.

This busy homemaker is on her way to deposit part of her husband's salary in their savings account, cash a cheque on their joint chequing account, and pay the monthly instalment on a personal loan. All this taken care of under one roof—quickly, easily, simply.

Any bank service you use is an introduction to many others. And the chartered banks are always on the lookout for new ways to be helpful to more people. Good reason why the number of deposit accounts has doubled to 14 million in just 10 years, and 3,500 new accounts are being opened every banking day.

SAINT-JOSEPH de Huntingdon (suite)

C'est le 24 février 1854 que la reine Victoria, par l'intermédiaire de William Rowan, administrateur de la Province du Canada, concédait à John Massam, James Flynn, Owen O'Reilly, Peter Flynn et James Narey, syndics de l'église catholique de Huntingdon et à leurs successeurs légaux, les lots 117, de la rangée 8, borné au sud-ouest par la rue Wellington, et 140, de la rangée 9, borné au nord-ouest par la rue York, dans le village de Huntingdon.

M. Doyle ouvrit une petite classe pour ses enfants catholiques. En 1856, M. Doyle, malade, dut abandonner son poste. Il eut pour successeur M. Louis-G. Gagnier, le 9 septembre. La besogne qu'il assumait sur ses épaules, l'administration spirituelle et temporelle de quatre missions, était énorme. Il en sera parfois épuisé.

A Ormstown, il s'occupera du Portage qui, en devenant paroisse canonique, sera transporté à Durham. Il verra alors à la construction de l'église en même temps qu'au ministère jusqu'à la venue du premier curé, le 25 décembre 1861. Il veillera au développement de S.Patrice où sera nommé un curé en 1858. La Rivière-à-la-Truite sera pour lui, une cause d'ennuis, de dépenses inutiles, de démarches multiples mais paroisse en septembre 1863, un gros mois avant la mission de St-Joseph.

A Huntingdon même, à côté de l'oeuvre de son ministère, il dirigera ses activités vers l'organisation d'écoles catholiques pour ses enfants. Il n'aime guère "l'Academy" qu'il considère comme un danger pour les moeurs et la religion. Il fera reconnaitre officiellement ses écoles: ce seront les écoles dissidentes, et il y en aura 5 à son départ de sa paroisse. Son oeuvre principale, dans ce domaine, ce sera la fondation d'un couvent pour les filles. Il achète la propriété de M. Doyle, y construit son couvent où il appelle, en 1862, les Soeurs de la Congrégation, de Montréal. Elles sont 4 qui arrivent, fin d'août à Port-Lewis, par le "Salaberry", à trois heures du matin et, sous la pluie, atteignent Huntingdon à six. Le couvent s'ouvre pour les filles. Il est bénit le 11 septembre 1862. Après des temps héroiques, il deviendra une institution solide que fréquenteront non seulement les catholiques et même les protestantes de Huntingdon, mais encore celles des endroits circonvoisins.

Le Club Nautique de Valleyfield

La population de Valleyfield et le C. Nautique de V'field doivent un dette de reconnaissance aux membres de la presse, radio et télévision pour la coopération donnée à cette organisation pendant 25 ans. Sans cette coopération, le Club Nautique de Valleyfield n'aurait jamais atteint une aussi grande renommée. Les régates de Valleyfield ont maintenant une réputation mondiale. Chaque année, le Club Nautique Nautique de Valleyfield honore une personne qui a aidé à son développement, en la nommant commodore honoraire de l'année. Cette année, le Club Nautique de Valleyfield, désire honorer les membres de la presse, des journaux, les membres de la radio, de la télévision, qui pendant 25 ans ont coopéré pour faire connaitre les régates de Valleyfield. Cependant, les officiers de ce club ne pouvaient nommer tous les membres de la presse. C'est pour cette raison qu'ils ont choisi un membre de la presse bien connu et bien estimé de tous, pour les représenter. Il s'agit de M Marcel Desjardins, directeur des pages sportives de La Presse. Pendant 25 ans, M. Desjardins a rarement manqué d'assister aux régates de Valleyfield.

M. M. Desjardins sera nommé commodore honoraire du Club Nautique de Valleyfield pour l'année 1963. Il représentera toute la presse canadienne, les membres de la radio et de la télévision.

Voici les noms de quelques anciens commodores honoraires: M.M. Bourbonnais, ancien député de Vaudreuil et Soulanges, M. W.G. Tigh, président de la Canadian Schenley Ltd. et Mgr. Percival Caza.

Nouvelle graduée

Melle Madeleine Leboeuf fille de M. et Mme Ernest Leboeuf de Huntingdon, qui a passé ses examens avec distinction. Elle est maintenant une graduée de l'Hôtel-Dieu St-Valier de Chicoutimi et a reçu son degré de R. N. de l'université Laval de Québec. Félicitations et meilleurs voeux dans sa future carrière.

25ième Anniversaire de Prêtrise

Récemment avait lieu à St-Chrysostome de grandes célébration de réjouissances à l'occasion du 25è anniversaire de prêtrise du curé Chanoine Médard Montpetit, pasteur depuis deux ans de St-Jean Chrysostome. Ces réjouissances qui étaient d'une grande simplicité avait pour but de marquer l'événement important dans la vie d'un prêtre et aussi pour but de rapprocher de plus en plus les fidèles avec leur prêtre. Tous les paroissiens ont rendu hommage à leur pasteur dévoué que ce soit les jeunes étudiants et les personnes d'âges plus avancés. C'était fête dans la paroisse lors du 11 juin dernier. Une Grande-Messe fut célébrée le soir à neuf heures auxquelles participaient parents et amis du jubilaire. Dans la photo ci-haute saisie à la suite de cette messe d'actions de grâces l'on reconnait: M. l'abbé Gilles Daoust, vicaire de St-Chrysostome; Mgr. Paul Lebeuf, curé de St-Pie X de Valleyfield; M. l'abbé Georges Cartier, aumônier chez les frères du Sacré-Coeur à St-Anicet; M. le curé Ernest Levac de St-Antoine Abbé; M. le curé Josée Larocque, d'Hemmingford; le jubilaire, M. le curé de St-Jean Chrysostome; M. le chanoine Omer Tessier, procureur du Séminaire; M. le curé Laurent Bergevin, curé de St-Clothilde; M. le curé Donat Crête; d'Howick; Mgr. Une tornade soulève un Autobus et force celle-ci à quitter la route près de Ormstown

Une tornade qui est survenue dans la fin d'après-midi du 2 juillet dernier, a été la cause d'un accident dans laquelle une autobus du Transport Provincial a été soulevée par la force du vent et jetée dans un fossé. L'accident est survenue à 4 miles à l'est de Ormstown et comme par miracle, aucun des treize occupants du véhicule ne fut blessé.

Le chauffeur, Frank Cole qui conduisait l'autobus à travers un orage de pluie et de grêle, sentit soudainement son véhicule soulevé de la grêle, sentit soudainement route. Les passagers à l'intérieur éprouvèrent une étrange sensation tandis que le chauffeur s'efforcait de maitriser l'autobus. Un des occupants révéla à un photographe du Gleaner qu'il eut une belle frousse alors qu'il se pensait en sûreté comme l'autobus avait ralenti et soudainement il vit le chauffeur diriger son véhicule dans le fossé, du côté gauche de la route.

Ceci, selon les dires de M. Gordon Green de Ormstown, un des douze passagers et éditeur du Family Herald et du Weekly Star c'est probablement ce qui sauva la vie des 13 passagers à bord de l'autobus.

Cole, s'appercevant que la tornade frappait le véhicule de côté et la jèterait sur le flanc, dirigea littéralement son véhicule qui rebondissait dans un pâturage qui appartenait à M. G.N. Henderson ou celle-ci s'arrêta finalement debout.

Les passagers se servirent de la sortie d'urgence pour émerger du véhicule et M. Alfred Burton de Ormstown et notre photographe du Gleaner, Walter Edwards conduisirent les passagers à leur destination. Selon les dires des passagers, ceux-ci n'eurent que des éloges pour le chauffeur Frank Cole qui demeura calme durant cet incident.

Mme Simone Soucisse, du personnel enseignant de Huntingdon révéla qu'elle fut projetée d'un côté à l'autre de son siège et aperçut ensuite l'autobus qui se dirigeait dans le fossé. M. R. Sauvé aussi de Huntingdon qui occupait une place à l'arrière du véhicule, nous confia qu'il ne s'aperçut de rien que lorsque l'autobus fut dans le fossé. Kermit Hoyer de Athelstan, dit qu'il savait à peu près où ils étaient et sachant qu'il y avait une voie ferrée dans les environs, crut que le véhicule public avait été happé par un train lorsque l'autobus fut soulevé par cette tornade improvisée.

Bertram Palmer qui travaille à la ferme Henderson et qui occupe une remorque juste en face où l'autobus s'arrêta, révéla que sa femme et ses enfants étaient dans la remorque lorsque la tornade survint. Mme Palmer annonca que la remorque fut durement ébranlée par le vent et qu'elle était certaine que celle-ci avait été dérangée de sa fondation.

Palmer, qui s'affairait dans la grange des Hendersons nous dit que la pluie semblait être versée dans l'étable. Une fenêtre était ouverte, environ 7 pouces du bas et la pluie pénétrait comme si elle était lancée d'un boyau d'arrosage.

Clinton Henderson, fils du propriétaire de la ferme annonca que quelques minutes avant la tempête, des chevaux qui étaient dans un champ voisin semblèrent être devenus fous et courèrent autour du champ. De l'étable, où il s'était réfugiés, il aperçut le capot d'un tracteur Case s'envoler dans les airs.

M. Green qui a voyagé par autobus dans plusieurs parties du monde et qui a une expérience considérable derrière le volant de différents véhicules dans l'armée et dans la vie civile, révéla que Cole est demeuré remarquablement calme lorsqu'il essayait de manoeuvres son véhicule alors que les roues étaient soulevées du sol. Le journaliste bien connu annonca aux membres du Gleaner plus tard dans la soirée qu'il attribuait sa vie sauve à la présence d'esprit du chauffeur Frank Cole.

Cette tornade avait probablement faite d'autres dommages sur sa route et plus tard, des membres du Gleaner parcourèrent plusieurs routes différentes pour questionner des personnes. A St-Louis de Gonzague, un arbre avait été abbattu par la tornade et selon M. Stanley McCuaig, de la grêle aurait succédée à la tempête.

Mme T. Gourley de la Route rurale no. 2 Ormstown, nous annonca qu'elle n'eut pas le temps d'avoir peur, même si le vent et la grêle fauchaient les branches des arbres. Mme Gourley courrait dans la maison pour fermer les fenêtres tandis que la tempête s'en alla aussi vite qu'elle avait commencé.

D'autres tornades du genre ont fait leurs apparitions durant la récente vague d'air chaud que nous avons eu dernièrement. Un commentateur de la météo de la T.V. annonca qu'une tornade semblable à celle-ci se dirigeait vers la région de la Vallée du St-Laurent.

Heureusement, comme nous l'avons mentionné précédemment, personne ne fut blessé dans l'incident de l'autobus et celle-ci fut conduite à Montréal dans la soirée. Si l'autobus avait frappé une bande de ciment qui était à six pieds de l'endroit où le véhicule s'est arrêté, l'autobus aurait été démolie et plusieurs personnes auraient sérieusement blessées.

Quelques temps après, nous apprimes que la remorque des Palmers avait réellement été soulevée de sa fondation et que des réparations devaient être faites pour réparer les fils de conduits électriques qui s'étaient brisés lors du soulèvement de la remorque.

Parade d'ouverture des terrains de jeux à Huntingdon

Nous avons assisté vendredi dernier à ce qui était en quelque sorte l'événement marquant de l'ouverture des Terrains de jeux à Huntingdon. C'était en effet à la suite du grand Branle-Bas de la semaine, jour de parade sur nos deux terrains. Manifestation qui inaugure la saison du jeu, du plaisir et de la détente.

Il fallait voir les enfants pleins d'enthousiasme pour comprendre tout ce que les terrains de jeux et leurs moniteurs représentent pour eux de bonheur et de joie pendant la saison d'été.

Dès le début de l'après-midi, les enfants arrivent en grand nombre, quelques-uns sont déjà costumés et prêts à prendre part à cette magnifique mascarade conçue pour eux et par eux. Les deux terrains sont grouillants de l'activité de tous ces petits êtres souriants et désireux à la fois de faire belle figure et qui sait, de gagner une mention individuelle ou de groupe, pour le plus beau costume ou la plus belle réalisation.

Il est quasi impossible de décrire tout ce que nous avons vu lors de cette parade, d'abord parce qu'il y en avait trop et que nous n'avons pu tout voir.

Voici quelques faits glanés ici et là. La voiture radio-patrouille de la police municipale ouvrait le cortège. (Bravo! chef et merci constable Cardinal! C'était solennel!) Les ainés de ces petits ont offert une belle collaboration en improvisant une fanfare de musiciens libres. Comme c'était gai et comme ils ont bien joué! Félicitations à Yves Emond et à ses gentils camarades; merci pour leur bel esprit et le service rendu.

Des cris de ralliement, des chants, des bravos, des hourras stimulaient les différents groupes de garçons et de filles. Une chose que nous ne pouvions pas nous empêcher de remarquer est l'observation dont les enfants ont fait preuve. Plusieurs ont transporté à leur échelle, et tels qu'ils les comprennent, les habitudes et les vêtements des adultes. D'autres portaient les costumes et avaient la personnalité d'êtres merveilleux dont ils ont lu la vie, ou admiré les actions d'éclat: Fée des Etoiles, Blanche-Neige, Robin-des-Bois, Dames du Grand siècle, Arlequins, etc. ...Personnages réels: joueurs de baseball, Pierrots, ballerines, bouffons, sauvages, cowboys, indiens, et combien d'autres accoutrements, mélange indescriptible, mais savoureux de spontanéité.
Il faut ajouter à tout cela, les pancartes et banderolles témoignant d'une grande imagination.

Au retour les enfants, passablement fatigués par la chaleur et l'énergie dépensée furent invités à se rendre au Lac prendre un bon bain réparateur.

CARNET de VACANCES

"LA JOIE DE VIVRE"

"La joie de vivre": tel était le thème choisi par la Société Saint-Jean-Baptiste pour les célébrations du 24 juin dernier. Mais à certains moments on peut se poser la question: Y a-t-il moyen de posséder la joie sur cette terre? Mais, bien sûr! Et aujourd'hui, je voudrais apporter un message à tous ceux qui voudraient arriver à quelque chose de meilleur, à ceux qui sont fatigués, déprimés; puissent-ils dans ces quelques lignes, puiser du réconfort, de l'enthousiasme, de la "joie"!

"Commencer jeune"...

Combien de fois on entend dire: "Si j'avais commencé jeune"... Eh! oui, dans n'importe quel domaine, on peut dire la même chose, mais je serais près d'affirmer qu'il le faut encore davantage dans le domaine de la joie. Combien j'en ai entendu déjà depuis le début des vacances qui se plaignaient de leur sort! Les uns ont un beau chalet, mais ils vivent loin des autres; pour un certain nombre de jeunes, ils aimeraient travailler, mais personne n'a besoin d'eux. Un autre groupe a trouvé un emploi, mais ce n'est pas celui qu'ils désiraient Et combien de choses encore...

Peu de gens m'ont dit, par contre, qu'ils étaient heureux de leur sort... pourtant, il y en a sûrement. Habituons-nous donc, dès maintenant à être contents de ce qui nous arrive, de notre situation et tirons-en le meilleur parti possible. Pour les "jeunes", il est temps de commencer, ce sera plus facile en vieillissant de se trouver heureux. Pour les "moins jeunes", il faudrait s'exercer aussi à voir le beau côté des choses; ça aiderait beaucoup dans toutes les situations.

"Le carnet du bonheur"

Certaines personnes, pour apprendre à garder la joie autour d'eux, à la semer, ont essayé une méthode à la portée de tous: celle d'écrire chaque jour un petit bonheur, "une joie obtenue au cours de la journée." Savez-vous le résultat? Au bout de quelques jours, de quelques semaines, ils jugeaient mieux les événements et voyaient davantage les joies placées sur leur chemin. Pourquoi ne pas essayer la même chose! Nous verrions très bientôt combien nous sommes comblés: c'est la belle nature, le temps des vacances, la joie des belles rencontres de nos amis négligés parfois au cours de l'année. Qui n'a pas une minute de bonheur au cours de la journée?

Philosophie de la joie

Chacun de nous, donc, essaye de vivre une "vie joyeuse" à partir d'aujourd'hui. Pensez: quel changement s'opérerait si chacun de nous pratiquait "la vraie joie" et tâchait de convaincre son entourage d'agir de même! Ceux qui s'habituent à voir le beau côté des choses, à "vivre dans la joie" réussiront mieux dans ce monde. Ils pourront mettre de la poésie dans la vie la plus monotone, faire entrer le soleil dans le foyer le plus sombre et répandre de la beauté et de la grâce dans le milieu le plus terne. Ainsi, il y aurait moins de malheurs et de maladies.

Conclusion:

"Le bonheur ne dépend pas autant des circonstances extérieures que de notre état d'esprit.

Il n'est pas difficile de trouver le bonheur dans des conditions idéales; tout le monde en est capable. Mais celui-là seul qui est bien équilibré, et sait se dominer, le fait surgir des conditions les plus désavantageuses. Le paradis est ici et nulle part ailleurs; nous devons avoir le bonheur en nous-mêmes ou nous ne le trouverons jamais.

Soyez tous heureux!
