(Special to the Record)

QUEBEC, QUE., February 9.—The Quebec Liquor Bill was distributed in the Provincial Legislature, yesterday afternoon. It applies to the whole Province, but its provisions shall be suspended in every municipality where the Canada Temperance Act is in force.

Under its provisions the Quebec Liquor Commission shall consist of five persons, constituting a corporation and vested with all rights and powers belonging generally to corporation members.

Wide powers are conferred on the Commission, whose headquarters will be in Montreal. It will sell in its own name alcoholic spirits, wines and other liquors, of which the alcoholic contents are more than five per cent. by weight. Each sale by this Commission of alcohol or spirits delivered in one of its establishments made to a person not authorized to resell or purchase the same for industrial purposes, shall be limited in quantity to one bottle. Any person in charge of a store or grocery may sell beer only in quantities of not less than a bottle, provided it is not consumed in the premises, and provided that a permit has been granted by the Commission. Sale and delivery of beer is forbidden in the Province unless made by the brewery, who must obtain a permit from the Commission on payment of $5,000.

Any person in charge of licensed premises may sell beer by the glass provided it is consumed on the premises, and provided also a permit to that effect has been granted by the Commission. Any person in charge of a banquet may sell beer and wine consumed on the premises on a permit from the Commission, provided that the alcohol, wine and spirits have been bought from the Commission and the beer from the brewery.

Unauthorized persons selling beer, wine or liquor, or persons contravening the law shall be liable to a fine of $1,000 and costs for a first offence or three months in jail, and on any subsequent offence to imprisonment for the three months without the option of a fine.

No liquor will be exported to other parts of Canada from the Province of Quebec after May 1st, under the new legislation. The sales will be made to private individuals without prescriptions of one bottle only.

BILL CONCERNING SHERBROOKE TECHNICAL SCHOOL GIVEN FIRST READING IN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

(Special to the Record)

QUEBEC, Feb. 9.—A bill concerning the Sherbrooke Technical School came up for first reading before the Legislative Council last evening. Other public bills before the Council yesterday were concerning oaths by justices of the peace, the jurisdiction of magistrates in civil, criminal and penal matters, amending the revised statutes relative to the clerk of the Crown, amending the revised statutes relative to the annual report made by railway companies.

STORM BROKE OUT WHEN SCHOOL BILL PRESENTED

(Special to the Record)

QUEBEC, Feb. 9.—The fact that sixty-eight teachers of the Montreal Catholic School Commission refused re-engagement at the commencement of the school year last September is responsible for a little storm which broke out yesterday before the legislation committee when the bill of the Commission was before the committee, which is presided over by Hon. L. A. Taschereau, and is quite a committee of class, as distinct from the noisy deliberations of the private bills committee. The main result is that the bill went over until today.

A committee of the Teachers' Union, whose members suffered by the action of the Montreal school authorities, wishes to have an amendment inserted in the bill to the effect that teachers cannot be discharged, or rather, refused re-engagement, except for cause, and wish to make such a clause retroactive so as to prevent a repetition of the case of the sixty-eight teachers. The effect of such a clause would be that the four district Catholic School Commissions would have to take the teachers back or show cause for dismissal.

BOLSHEVISM IS A REAL MENACE TO ANY NATION

Movement Is Making Headway in Norway, According to Sir Ernest Shackleton.

(Associated Press Despatch)

OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—Sir Ernest Shackleton, Antarctic explorer, intimated on his arrival here last night that his next venture into the unknown wilds would be to the Arctic regions. Beyond this intimation Sir Ernest would not discuss his plans.

The noted explorer has just returned from Norway, where he spent some time, and before that served with the British forces in North Russia, where he had abundant opportunity of observing Bolshevism at its best and worst.

"Bolshevism is a real menace to any nation that has not experienced it once," he said with much earnestness. "It panders to cupidity and does nothing to encourage the decent standard of living. I have seen it and I cannot speak too strongly against it."

He also expressed the opinion that the doctrines of Lenin and Trotsky were making considerable headway in Norway. Other European nations, too, are feeling the effect. "You on this continent do not realize what it means," he continued. "Bolshevism is certainly a great menace to the world and the sooner this is realized the better it will be for civilization."

Sir Ernest Shackleton recently arrived from England on the Aquitania. He landed at New York and spent last week in Montreal.

HAS PROTESTED TO BRITAIN RE THE MANDATES

Content Mandates for Mesopotamia and Palestine Are Not in Accordance with Pledges.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, Feb. 9.—Prince Emir Feisal, former King of Syria, in behalf of his father, King Hussein, of the Hedjaz, has protested to the British Government against the mandates for Mesopotamia and Palestine, contending that they are not in accordance with the pledges given to Hussein by the British Government. The Arabs, he adds, do not object to help from Great Britain and desire the continuance of the alliance existing during the war, but suggests that the great expenditures Great Britain is making might be saved by helping the Arabs to form a government of their own under British advisers for territories in question.

Such a solution, he urges, would realize the Arab aspirations, meet the approval of the British taxpayer and redeem the pledges of the British Government.

"The Arabs' return do not expect a subsidy," says the Prince, "but merely a Government loan guaranteed by the riches of Mesopotamia, which will soon become a second Egypt."

NEGATIVE REPORT ORDERED

(Associated Press Despatch.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—A negative report was ordered yesterday by the Senate Naval Committee on the resolution of Senator Borah, Republican, asking for the committee's opinion with regard to proposals for government to suspend naval building operations for six months.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

LACHUTE, Que., Feb. 9.—Three children, aged six to five years, and their maid, were burned to death on Monday night by fire which destroyed the house of Leo Carriere, mill owner, at Pine Hill, twelve miles northwest of here. A dumb man discovered and gave first alarm.

DELEGATIONS RECEIVED BY HON. MITCHELL

Catholic Commissioners Asking for Authority to Borrow $100,000 if Necessary.

(Associated Press Despatch)

A delegation of the Immigration Society of the Eastern Counties, was received yesterday by the Hon. W. G. Mitchell; the Society's requests being submitted by Mr. M. S. Armitage.

Mr. J. H. Lemay introduced the delegation as well as a delegation of the Protestant commissioners of Ascot county. The school commissioners' bill for the City of Sherbrooke, both Catholic and Protestant, was also discussed before the committee of private bills. The commissioners were represented by Messrs. J. A. Leblanc and F. S. Rugg.

Authority is being asked to borrow the sum of $100,000 if necessary; this amount would probably be used in connection with the construction of the new schools, but the present bill is not to borrow this amount of $100,000 but merely to obtain the necessary authority in case it should be found advisable to do so later.

The Protestant commissioners are also asking authority to increase their tax rate in order to provide for last year's deficit and further to pay better salaries to their teachers and other employees.

Party Headed By General Smuts Returned In South African Elections--The Chief Feature Was Collapse Of Labor Party

Latest Returns of the Election Give the South African Party Thirty-eight Seats, the Labor Party Eight, the Nationalists Five, and the Constitutional Democrats One--Urban Results Encouraging to Smuts' Party.

(Associated Press Despatch)

ONDON, Feb. 9.—A Johannesburg cable to the Canadian Press says that at one o'clock this morning the returns showed that the South African party had elected thirty-eight candidates, the Nationalists five, the Labor party eight, and the Constitutional Democrats one.

General Smuts has been returned for Pretoria West by a big majority. The features of the results, so far as known, is the collapse of the Labor party, which lost eleven seats, including nine to the South African party. Apparently the Labor party will only have eight members in the new Assembly, against twenty-one in the House. Col. Creswell, leader of the Laborites, was defeated in Trevelyan.

The urban results have been very encouraging to the South African party, but the country returns are causing anxiety to the Government. The Minister of Justice in the Smuts administration has been defeated by a Nationalist in Potchefstroom. Sir Abe Bailey, well known in racing circles, retains Krugersdorp.

WORKINGMEN SUPPORTED SMUTS

(Associated Press Despatch)

CAPETOWN, S. A. Feb. 9.—Enormous majorities were given the South African party in Durban and Capetown yesterday, while the Labor party suffered a severe reverse in the Rand district. In Capetown the (South African party gained two seats, in Durban three, in the Rand eight and in East London one. The victory of the party headed by Prime Minister Smuts is attributed to the fact that workingmen voted against the session issue raised by General Hertzog, and did not pay much attention to the sectional issues raised by Labor leaders.

Tuesday's elections in the Union of South Africa were considered as vitally important to the future status of that British Dominion.

General Jan Christiaan Smuts, Prime Minister of the Union, headed the larger British element of the population and Dutch, who believe that in the Union they had found the solution of the political problems of the country.

General Hertzog sponsored a policy which virtually amounted to secession from the British Empire and numbered among his followers many of the men who fought with the Boers against Great Britain.

Frederick H. Creswell, was the leader of the Laborite party during the campaign, and it was charged that a strike was called in the Rand district for the purpose of consolidating the ranks of the Labor organization.

General Smuts was also a prominent officer in the Boer army which fought against the British in the South African war twenty years ago, but with many other Boers he has become reconciled to the union with Great Britain, and is now a stout defender of British principles and connections. He led the South African contingent with the British in the recent great war.

A train going from Burtonport to London-derry was derailed by unknown persons, who placed barriers on the track, but there were no casualties.

RUSH OF APPLICANTS FOR THE HOUSES BEING CONSTRUCTED BY THE SHERBROOKE HOUSING CO.

Mr. J. D. Sterling Gave a Very Interesting Address Before the Rotary Club--Explanation of Conditions Governing Building of Houses in Sherbrooke--Conform with Plans of Government Town-Planning Expert.

A most entertaining and educational evening was spent at the Mayor House yesterday evening, under the auspices of the Rotary Club. Dinner was served, as usual on such occasions, at 6.15 p.m. and after regular routine business had been transacted, Mr. J. D. Sterling, of the Sherbrooke Housing Company, gave an instructive address dealing with the construction of one hundred houses under the housing plan submitted by the Province of Quebec and approved of by the Federal Government.

Mr. Sterling addressed the members of the Club along the following lines:

"The outbreak of the war, followed by a drop in residential building to about 20 p.c. of normal, together with the sharp advance in prices of material, labor and of building loans gave rise in 1914 to what is known as the Housing Problem and it has since then continued to be a live question with individuals, industrial groups and governments. On representation of certain municipalities and other organizations to the Federal Government funds to the amount of $25,000,000 were set aside for loaning to the Provinces according to their population at a rate of 5 p.c. on condition of their complying with certain requirements as set out by Mr. Thomas Adams, the Government Town Planning expert, these requirements having reference to:

1.—Preparation and submission of scheme, as regards grouping of houses, size of rooms, character of materials; 2.—Maximum cost of dwellings; 3.—Ownership of land; 4.—Period of repayment.

1.—May 1919, the Federal Government approved the general housing plan as submitted by the Province of Quebec. The provincial authorities were then empowered to advance funds to any municipality that passed a by-law setting forth the sum required to purchase land, construct improvements or to advance to persons who desire to build houses in conformity with the act.

2.—That the loan should be direct from the province to the municipality at a rate of 5 p.c. for a term of either 20 or 30 years, depending on the value, that is, the houses were divided into two classes, the cheaper ones being a detached or semi-detached house wholly or partly built of frame stucco or brick veneer having 4 or 5 rooms upon which $800 would be advanced or if of 6 or 7 rooms $3500. For more expensive houses, viz those in groups of three or more, or duplex, built of brick and concrete with roof of fire proof material $4000 for 4 or 5 rooms, and $4500 for those of 6 and 7 rooms. The Sherbrooke scheme came under the latter class. It will be noted that these figures are considerably below what is considered to be an average cost for dwellings in these times of high prices, but is in keeping with the spirit of the act which was framed to meet the needs of a certain community, that is to say its object was, to quote the act itself "to put within reach of all working men the opportunity of acquiring their own homes at actual cost of the building and lands acquired at a fair value, thus eliminating the profits of the speculator." To further provide for the loans getting into the hands of right persons two clauses might be quoted as of interest,

1.—In order to ensure that the money shall be loaned to those who most need it, no persons in receipt of an income exceeding $3000.00 per annum shall be eligible as a purchaser or tenant of a house erected with the aid of government funds except by special permission of the Minister of Municipal Affairs upon the application of the municipality.

2.—Money shall not be advanced to individuals who make application therefore, for the purpose of erecting houses except to such persons as are owners of lots, for the purpose of erecting houses for their own occupancy.

A good number of municipalities have desired to take advantage of these loans but for various reasons only 85 have so far done so. The total amount allocated to the province was $6,942,255.01 and to date there has already been taken up $6,430,000. Twelve municipalities have adopted a programme for the construction of houses in groups, the largest being that in Sherbrooke. It is interesting to note that 5 of the 12 were occasioned by the expansion of the Pulp and Paper industry, namely those at Cape Madeleine, Chicoutimi, East Angus, Grand Mere and La Tuque, in connection with the activities of the Wayagamac, Price Bros., Brompton, Laurent and Brown Company respectively. Three might be said to have been the result of building up of large cotton plants at Sherbrooke, Drummondville and St. Lambert, while the remaining four were on the Island of Montreal at St. Laurent, St. Anne de Bellevue, Point Aux Trembles and Montreal East and were designed to relieve the crowding in the city. The city of Levis opposite Quebec, had all arrangements made to take a large loan but the city council being unwilling to comply with certain conditions turned it down. It is estimated that to the present there are 260 houses ready for occupation or occupied.

Heartburn Liver Trouble

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs; and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, jaundice, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not gripe weaken or sicken like the old-fashioned purgatives generally do.

Mrs. Mary Strome, Glanville, Sask., writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine, and I can highly recommend them."

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

NEWSY NOTES OF INTEREST OF SCOTSTOWN

Presentation Was Made by the Ladies' Guild to Mrs. Soles—Other General News.

SCOTSTOWN, Que., Feb. 9.—Mrs. R. D. Farley and Mrs. Scott Parsons pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Farley on Saturday afternoon for Mrs. C. E. Soles, when the Ladies' Guild took pleasure in presenting Mrs. Soles with a very pretty umbrella, and the following address was read by the Rev. Mr. Templeman on behalf of the Guild:

Dear Mrs. Soles—It is with very much regret that we learn you and your family are leaving Scotstown. Both as a personal friend and conscientious church worker you will be very greatly missed by us.

As a member of St. Alban's Ladies' Guild, and for the past year its president, you have especially endeared yourself to us. Your sympathetic co-operation and wise direction have encouraged and stimulated us in that labor of love for God and His church in which we have been so happily associated.

To say our loss will be others' gain is perhaps an unselfish comfort which to console ourselves in your departure, but we do trust you will be blessed with health and long spared to carry on in another sphere the good works you have so diligently occupied yourself in amongst us.

As a small tangible expression of our good wishes we trust you will accept the accompanying little souvenir, inadequate it is indeed to express our sentiments, but such as to serve, in a measure, to convey our regard and affection towards yourself.

Signed on behalf of the Ladies' Guild of St. Alban's Church, PERSIS A. FARLEY, President.

REV. M. W. TEMPLEMAN, Incumbent.

SOUTH DUDSWELL

FUNERAL OF LATE WILLIAM T. HARRISON.

On Monday, January 17th, William Thomas Harrison, son of Thomas and Esther Harrison, passed away at South Dudswell. He was born on the farm where he died, on September 4th, 1872, and for the greater part of his life had been a cripple and a sufferer, his suffering becoming intense during the last months of his life. His confinement and suffering, however, were borne with remarkable patience, scarcely a word of complaint falling from his lips.

The funeral took place on January 20th from the home, and was attended by a large number of relatives, friends and neighbors. A quartette from the choir of East Angus Methodist Church sang three hymns, "Eden Home," "The Way of the Cross Leads Home," and "Peace, Perfect Peace." His pastor spoke words of comfort from II Corinthians 4:17 and 18. The bearers were Messrs. Lewis Orr, Dalby Orr, James Mackay and Ray Campbell. Interment was made in the new Westbury cemetery.

"Willie" will be greatly missed by the members of the home and family who did all for him that loving hands and care could do, as well as by the many friends and neighbors who knew and respected him. Besides his father and mother, he leaves to mourn his loss four brothers—George, of Bishop's Crossing; Frederick, Herbert and Irving, and one sister, Mrs. Howard Andrews, all of South Dudswell.

SLEEPS FINE ALL NIGHT LONG NOW, DECLARES ANCIL

Quebec Man Says He Feels Just Like a New Person Since Taking Tanlac.

"Nothing ever helped me until I got Tanlac, and now I just like a man made over," declared Alfred Ancil, of St. Louis de Courville, Province of Quebec, Canada.

"For three years," said Mr. Ancil, "I couldn't eat sleep or work to do any good and felt bad all the time. I had no relish for food, and even a juicy steak failed to tempt my appetite. What little I did manage to eat caused me to suffer agonies from indigestion. My nervousness and misery robbed me of many a nights sleep and I became so weak and run-down I could hardly drag through my work, in fact most any little exertion would tire me out."

"But Tanlac helped me right from the start, and now it has made a brand new man of me. I have a corking appetite, never suffer from indigestion, sleep fine, and wake up feeling in the pink of condition. I am as spry as a fox, my health is new life and energy, and my work is a pleasure to me. I never paid out when I bought Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Sherbrooke by Griffith's Drug Store and by A. E. Duberger and in Lennoxville by W. J. H. McKindsey; under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. (Adv.)

A good attendance of the members of the W. C. T. U. gathered for the monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Blier, on Tuesday, February 1st, with the president, Mrs. O. W. Swanson conducting the devotional exercises.

The Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, which were accepted, and also gave the roll call, each member answering with an appropriate verse. A favorable report was given by the superintendent of foreign missions. The President, Mrs. O. W. Swanson and Mrs. Ayer, were appointed as delegates to the Institute, to be held in Lennoxville on February 15th.

An appropriate reading was given by Mrs. Rowe, which was much enjoyed by all, and several matters of importance were discussed. The meeting adjourned, to meet with Mrs. F. H. Rowe, on the first Tuesday in March, closing with the peace benediction.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. A. Blier.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, this mixture saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the cough thin out, and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for coughs and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Beware of Bronchitis.

Bronchitis is generally caused by neglecting a cold, or exposure to wet and inclement weather. It begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty in breathing, and a wheezing sound comes from the lungs. There is a raising of phlegm, especially the first thing in the morning. This is at first white, but later becomes a greenish or yellowish color, and is occasionally streaked with blood.

On the first sign of bronchitis you should check it immediately by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, thereby prevent it becoming chronic, and perhaps developing into some more serious lung trouble. Mrs. Brice Culham, Sheffield, Ont., writes: "In December, 1919, I was very sick with bronchitis, and had to stay in the house all winter. One day I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so I got a small bottle which helped me very much; I then got a six size, and it completely relieved me. I cannot praise 'Dr. Wood's' enough for what it did. Two of my neighbors are now using it for colds."

How are you?

WHY Jack, you look the picture of health. I envy you your energy and pep. How long were you in camp, last Summer?

"Camp! Why Bob, the re-organization of the firm came in June. I had to buckle down to the hardest kind of work. Vacation was utterly out of the question. I went stale after a while and began to worry, but Helen started me taking a tonic the doctor prescribed for her when she was getting over the 'flu'—Carnol. Great Stuff!"

How do you answer that question—the people say of you 'how I envy you pep and energy'? Have you reserves of strength you can draw upon when an emergency stares you in the face? Have yourself? Are you glad to meet people? Do you energy enough to put over a big business deal to-morrow? Can you keep your hand-clasp a friend-winner? Do your competitors on the defensive?

Frankly, how are you?

Carnol

The Tasty Tonic

Carnol is made from a physician's prescription. Your own doctor could not prescribe a better or a safer tonic. It contains such essential therapeutic stimulants as Fluid Extract of Beef, Glycero-phosphates, the important elements of Cod Liver Oil, and other valuable constituents in easily digested form. Carnol is not a cure-all. It is a preventive and reconstructive. It wards off sickness, and builds up the system quickly after sickness. It arouses a sluggish appetite, promotes the assimilation of food, aids digestion, and gives tone to starved nerves. Delicate stomachs digest it readily. Children like it both because of its flavor and because it does them good. One tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime (or a teaspoonful for children) is sufficient. A large size bottle costs only $1.00, at all first-class drug-gists. Is it worth $1.00 to you to be able to look your troubles in the face and smile at them, undismayed? FRANK W. CHILDREN CELEBRATED IN THEIR OWN WAY

Dinner parties, card parties, dances, masquerades, and sleighing parties were much in evidence last evening, while the youthful element of the city not included in the above social events were imbued with a madrigal spirit that resulted in a rather unique out-door gathering. "Dress Parade" apparently seemed the most popular way to show their exuberance of spirit and desire to join in the evening's celebration, and their activities might be termed a modernized idea of the old days in New Orleans.

"Hoboes" and "boogie men" were the favorite characters portrayed while a sprinkling of ghosts and other weird figures added due effect to the scenes. On the whole, the kiddies out-door celebration was harmless, and made the participants feel that they had their part in the evening's festivities.

TO AID TEACHERS TO UNDERSTAND PUPILS.

An important meeting was held at the Sherbrooke High School yesterday afternoon, one of a series arranged by Principal H. G. Hatcher for the teachers of the city in order to aid them in understanding the child mind and to assist them in dealing with the problems which are constantly met with.

The principals of all the schools and their staff, with one or two exceptions, were present, anxious to avail themselves of an opportunity which will have far-reaching results. Mr. Hatcher presided, and the study of "The Learning Powers," by Colvin, was taken up. Miss Ina Cobleigh, of the Central School, reading a paper, which gave a resume of one of the opening chapters of this valuable and practical work. The chapter dealt with the fundamental instincts and habits, the former, which could not be eliminated, must be guided and directed into proper channels for the good of the individual and society. Instincts, which seemed harmful, could be made use of for the benefit of the child. For instance, if a boy runs away from school, this may simply be from a love of adventure, the very spirit which has inspired the great explorers and made the British the greatest colonists in the world. The instinct of dependance was emphasized in the case of the early settlers in Canada, and the Russian peasants of a later day.

The right and wrong method of dealing with these fundamental instincts was pointed out, also the value and importance of play, and the lessons of selfishness and sympathy for others learned on the playground. Many other points were touched upon, including the adolescent age rewards and punishments, supervised playgrounds, school gatherings, excursions, the formation of habits of civility, courtesy and honor in the boy, modesty and good taste in the girl, the constant drill, teaching by example and the inculcating of the religious idea. Education, said the writer, is not merely the absorption of knowledge from books, but the adaptation of the present to the future environment.

At the conclusion of the paper an animated discussion was joined in by the principal and teachers, who referred to incidents drawn from their own experience, and expressed their pleasure at the inauguration of the study of psychology and their conviction that these meetings would not only be most interesting, but helpful, in their work. Mr. Hatcher made arrangements for the next week, and the meeting adjourned.

ST. ANDREW'S Y.P.S. MEETING

The regular weekly meeting of the Young People's Society of St. Andrew's Church was held last evening in the Church Hall, Mrs. N. May, the vice-president, in the chair. After the devotional exercises, the subject of the evening, "The Great Men of Today," was introduced, a paper being read by Mr. Robert Robertson on Sir Douglas Haig, Thomas Edison, Sir Wilfrid Greig, fell and Lloyd George. The paper was one of real merit and revealed careful preparation and study. Mr. W. J. Humphrey gave a splendid address on Ralph Connor and Bonar Law, and Rev. Alfred Bright spoke of certain eminent Presbyterian ministers well known in the world of letters, Ralph Connor and Rev. R. E. Knowles, also of Marion Keith and Miss Montgomery, wives of Presbyterian clergymen, authors of popular books, and Colonel John McCrea, born in Guelph, Ont., whose poem "In Flanders Fields" was won for him under the name. Being dead, he still speaks. Miss M. Miltimore made a few remarks, and the paper and addresses were heard with keen interest. A vocal solo was contributed by Mr. Stanley Davis, who was accompanied on the piano by Miss J. Mayhew. A letter was read from the Methodist Y.P.S. inviting the St. Andrew's society for an evening next month, which will be accepted.

APPOINTED HONORARY COLONEL OF THE HUSSARS.

Colonel E. A. Williams, officer commanding the 7th Hussars, has just received the following letter, which explains itself:

Brooke House, Isle of Wight.
January 17th, 1921.
My Dear Colonel Williams:

Today I received my commission forwarded by you as honorary colonel of your regiment.

I hope you will tell the officers and all ranks of the 7th Hussars how highly I appreciate the honor that has been conferred upon me.

Will you also kindly convey to them my most cordial good wishes, individually and to the regiment as a whole, for this year and the years to come.

It will always be a precious memory to me that I was privileged to command Canadian cavalrymen for so many years of the great war, and to rejoice that my appointment as honorary colonel of your regiment enables me to retain official connection with my most gallant comrades.

Yours sincerely,
J. E. B. SEELY,
Major General,
Hon. Col. 7th Hussars of Canada.

TODAY IS ASH-WEDNESDAY

Today, Ash-Wednesday, the first day of Lent, received its name from the custom, in the early church, of placing ashes on the head in token of penitence, and is solemnly observed by the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches. At St. Peter's Church Holy Communion was celebrated at 7 a.m., and morning service, with second celebration, at 10. At St. Michael's Cathedral, Mr. Paul LaRoque officiated, and the sprinkling of the ashes on the heads of the faithful, kneeling before the altar, was performed, with the significant words: "Know, O man, that dust thou art, and into dust shalt thou return." Mass was celebrated, with the usual music.

ANNUAL MEETING OF KING GEORGE V. CHAPTER

The annual meeting of the King George Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, was held in the assembly hall of the Y.W.C.A. Mrs. Jones, the regent, presiding. The reading and adoption of the minutes took place, and the annual report and financial statement of the treasurer, which showed a balance on hand. The report of the convener of the "thes dansants," which have been carried on under the auspices of the Chapter during the early winter, was submitted. The afternoon dance, although not as remunerative as last year, owing to increased expenses, had been successful and had been enjoyed by the young people of the city especially.

Mrs. Jones, the regent, made a brief address, outlining the work for the year along educational and humanitarian lines, the fight against tuberculosis being the slogan of the Chapter. The annual meeting of the National Chapter at Calgary, which she had attended as a delegate, had been a great pleasure and had made her realize that the L.O.D.E. is a power in the Dominion. In conclusion the regent thanked the officers and members who had given her their unfailing support and help during the year.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Hon. regents, Mrs. William Farwell and Mrs. A. Steele; regent, Mrs. S. A. Jones, re-elected; first vice-regent, Mrs. W. E. Loomis, re-elected; second vice-regent, Mrs. John Leonard; recording secretary, Mrs. J. B. Beach; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. S. Fry; educational secretary, Miss A. Edwards; "Echoes" secretary, Mrs. J. D. Palmer; treasurer, Mrs. J. D. Palmer; standard bearer, Mrs. Kinkead.

The scrutineers were Mrs. Kinkead and Miss Hunt.

The regent thanked the Chapter

for the honor of re-election. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. W. S. Allen for the use of her house for the recent successful bridge, and a very sincere and cordial vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. W. E. Loomis, seconded by Mrs. Allen and carried unanimously, to Mrs. J. A. Wiggert for her devoted work in connection with the "thes dansants" as convener of the entertainment committee.

RECORD STAFF HOLD ENJOYABLE SLEIGH DRIVE.

"L'habit ne fait pas le moine" was an axiom deeply impressed upon the minds of the record staff as a result of the hilarious buoyancy so conspicuously exhibited by a certain selected few lady members of course, who, until last night, had been considered to possess the innumerable high qualities attributed to the proverbial "quaker girl." How the mighty have fallen!!! Censer was fortunate in not having sleighs.

It was a jolly party that left the Record office in two big sleighs at 8 p.m., held up on account of a certain young lady thinking the scheduled hour of 7.30 p.m. meant the regular "Record" hour.

Competent chaperones were provided for both sleighs, but their failure to reprimand certain young ladies gave the impression that they had been "bribed handsomely." This will be the subject of further investigation by the unbiased editorial staff, who were continually complimented upon the valuable assistance frequently rendered to "lost, fallen, or failing" members of the party.

After a splendid drive in every sense of the word, coupled with thrilling jumps from sleighs travelling approximately 83 miles an hour, not to mention strenuous efforts to keep out of the barrel containing!!!! the party reached the residence of Mr. Chas. Pearson and stayed as long as they actually dared. A miniature "Monte Carlo" proved the ruination of an unsuspecting young lady who on thirty-two occasions drew a four-card straight.

After a cheerful expression of appreciation on behalf of the host and hostess, the party returned home by the short way, and it was really pathetic to watch the tender manner in which the young ladies insisted on attaching themselves to the same parties they were with coming up.

Mrs. A. L. Windsor will be "At Home" on the second Thursday of each month at her residence, 34 Montreal Street.

Mr. Fred A. Stockwell, B. & M. conductor, with Mrs. Stockwell, leaves today for California. Mr. Stockwell will have charge of a Raymond and Whitcomb touring party, and will be absent about six weeks.

The outdoor skating rinks have been exceptionally well patronized during the past two weeks, the weather having been the finest on record; and last evening the skaters put on their "moss" and had a lively "moccasin dance" at the Dew Drop Inn Rink, and at Goslin's rink in East Sherbrooke a masquerade was held, the ice being excellent in both places, and the evening an ideal one for outdoor recreation.

Among the numerous social events of last evening was the "50" party given at the Princess Rebekah Lodge room, at which a large number were present. The guests were received by Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. B. Dean, vice-grand, the former taking the place of Mrs. Robertson, noble grand, who was unable to be present. The card tables were fully occupied, and the prize winners were Mrs. J. W. Bean, lady's; Mr. Clifford Bailey, gent's; Mrs. G. Stocks and Mr. Ben Laporte, consolation. Delicious refreshments were served and all joined in a happy social hour before the gathering broke up. The committee in charge were Miss Stewart, convener; Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. King, and their efforts in providing a pleasant evening were crowned with success. The proceeds, in aid of the Wales Home fund, were very trying.

DEATHS REPORTED

MISS PICKERING, FRELIGHSBURG.

FRELIGHSBURG, Feb. 9.—Miss Maria Pickering passed away on Thursday evening at the advanced age of eighty-six years, after quite a few months' illness, although not confined to her bed at all times. She had lived nearly if not all her life within two miles of Frelighsburg, just on the edge of Dunham. She was of a quiet disposition, a kind and industrious woman, but for many years had been unable to get about much. She leaves one sister, Miss Annie; one brother, John, with whom she lived; one nephew, John Pickering, of Barre, Vt., besides numerous relatives and friends.

The funeral service was held at the B.S.M. Church, of which she was a lifelong member and worker, on Saturday, February 6, at 2 p.m., Rev. H. C. Winch officiating.

APPLICANTS FOR HOUSES

organization of the Sherbrooke Housing Company and its policy here are probably all familiar with. In May 1920, the Company let the construction contract to E. G. M. Cape and Company on the cost-plus-fee plus or minus a division of profit or loss basis. This is probably a complicated enough statement to merit a few words of explanation. There seems to have been an impression about the City that this work was on a percentage basis and this false impression has caused us no little trouble throughout the contract. The three bases upon which most contracts are let are first the Straight contract in which a contractor quotes a lump sum and for this consideration he does the work, whether he has strikes, or runs into any other kind of difficulty. It is by far the most satisfactory basis for both the owner and the contractor in practically every case. The second most popular method of letting a contract is the straight percentage contract in which the contractor gets a certain percentage of the cost of the work no matter how high the work may cost. This is probably the most iniquitous system ever invented, neither the owner nor the contractor being able to tell what the final cost of the job may be, the average contractor losing interest in his job and the morale of the men falling so low that their efficiency rates about 50 p.c. Possibly the only one who gets any good out of this kind of a contract is the man who goes on strike, for he almost invariably gets his demand. In the cost-plus-fee plus division of profit, and loss basis, the cost of the work is first estimated, not including profit and quoted to the owner. If given the contract it is understood that his fee for carrying out the work is from 3 to 6 p.c. of what it actually costs. If he makes a saving on his quoted price he divides this with the owner in the proportion of 50—50 or 25 to the contractor and 75 to the owner. In this case we took the work on the basis of a 6 p.c. fee and 25—75 division of saving. On the other hand if there is a loss, i.e. if the actual cost exceeds the tender then the contractor has deducted from his fee an amount equal to 25 p.c. of that loss. In this way the incentive is for the contractor to save as far as possible as this is really his profit.

VARIOUS TYPES

The general layout may be seen on this large print, and a very good general view of the site on the panorama view. You have also the progress prints of the work as it progressed. The present building is being done on the east end of the area. The blocks are laid out 200 x 650' and the individual lots 100 x 50 with respect to local improvements, the work on the sewers and water lines has just been completed, it being necessary for the city to construct a large trunk sewer to take the sewage from the area on account of its general fall being towards the west. The electric wiring and street lighting has also been completed by the city. The Chief of Police even put the numbers on the houses this year. It seems regrettable that this was not carried down the backs of the lots, or that no lanes were provided in the rear of each of the building lots. Building restrictions require that all buildings be at least 15 feet back from the street lines. It is expected that the streets will be graded early in the spring and steps taken to have the streets taken over by the city. There are in all 60 units of various types, making in all 100 dwellings. They may be subdivided as follows, 16 fully detached houses approx 27 x 30', 38 semi-detached each half of these are approx of same dimensions as the detached houses, 5 two story apartments containing 2 apartments each. 2 four apartment houses. The arrangement of the houses was made with a view to avoiding having houses of similar type near each other. In this respect as well as others, we have a development far more desirable than the one at Drummondville which is the second largest in the province. There are 64 houses with practically no variation in design, and look like so many boxes standing in a row. There is one feature about the Drummondville development which is not altogether undesirable and that is the spreading of the houses about town. In a general way they are clustered about the Jencks plant but they are in groups of possibly four here and eight on another street and ten on another.

The two-apartment houses which are 27 x 50 are all located on corners with the longest dimension parallel the avenues to give a maximum of unobstructed view.

CONSTRUCTION

The Architects employed by the Company were Messrs Ross and MacDonald, thereby gaining the experience of this firm, gained in the design and construction of the Halifax and Kipava schemes. Their local resident architect, Mr. Morris, was also the resident at Halifax.

The basements are full size of house, 8' deep walls, in all cases 12" concrete. Two x four framing on outside walls and 2 x 3 on partition walls. All framing of walls and roof sheathed with 7-8" spruce. 4 types are all brick veneered and 4 types are brick veneer to the first story only and stucco to the roof. The stucco is done on bishoppic board which is thoroughly wind proof and in other ways superior to metal lath which is often used in stucco construction.

The interior planning is a radical departure from the conventional style. The kitchen, as you may see from the plans, the main room of the house, and in nearly every type, all other rooms downstairs may be reached from it by opening the door. The originator of this idea was Mr. O. Butler whom you all may know more or less.

Every available space under stairs and roofs has been plastered and converted to cupboard space.

The flooring consists of an under-

INTEREST IN STREETS.

The reports submitted at the Council meeting this week, indicate a vigorous paving programme for the year. The citizens, through the work of the past few years, are able to appreciate the value of paving.
Public opinion will undoubtedly support its continuance. There is a feeling that the work has not been done
as economically as it might have been. Perhaps the greatest loss has been in connection with labor. The costs have been high compared with results as the city "boss" has not the faculty of getting the same day's work per individual as the contractor's overseer. The public will be in accord, however, that the paving
work must go on.

It is, also, interesting to note that the police department is preparing for a better control of traffic
through the placing of traffic policemen at other busy corners. If men can be secured who are adapted for this work much benefit will result.

RENTAL INCREASES.

In Montreal, the housing situation
is more serious than in Sherbrooke.
There is a shortage there as here,
but the vast number of tenant
dwellers makes it possible for proprietors, who are inclined to do so,
to extort tremendous increases in rents. In a proportionate degree this is probably the case in the smaller
as in the larger city.

As a result of the situation a bill
is before the Legislature to limit the increase which may be charged to twenty per cent. In cases where rentals for 1920 were on an adequate basis, the bill is certainly sufficiently generous to tenant
owners and if adopted will annul
many increases that have been made.

The Star, discussing the Montreal
rental advances, says:
"The house renting situation in Montreal is serious. All over this city hundreds of families, thousands of people, have been driven into a condition of extreme exasperation, in some cases to real desperation, by what they believe to be a policy of unlicensed profiteering by some landlords, out to get the last cent the tenant will bear, or, in the words of a Montreal judge, possessed of an
"unquenchable thirst for gain."

"There are two sides to this as to every other question. It is unfair to insist that Montreal landlords as a class are unscrupulous; it is almost equally unfair to consider the present increase in rentals without realizing what has been the condition
governing the income of landlords
during the past six or eight years.
"As a matter of fact there was no
class of investors in the community which received a smaller return on its money than Montreal landlords from 1915 to 1920. Large areas in the outskirts were built up rapidly;
there was competition among the owners of these places for tenants
and the return upon the investment,
even previous to 1914, was small.
Then came the war and the general
dislocation that followed. Rents sank, there was little or no buying,
and the landlords' returns dwindled.
Money, which invested in the open market, would bring seven and eight
per cent., when tied up in houses
seldom earned for its owner more than three per cent. The landlord was the victim of a condition he could not change.

"The turn of the tide came with the beginning of the renting season
of 1920. There was a natural demand for houses, there had been little or no building for five years, and rents
rose rapidly. There was loud objection on the part of the tenant class,
but it might fairly be said that the average landlord was doing nothing
worse than attempting to make up
a little of the loss he had undoubtedly suffered during the five or six years previous. Of course, there were, even then, some cruel and greedy exceptions.

"Between a legitimate return upon
a legitimate investment and squeezing the last cent out of harassed and defenceless tenants there is a big difference. The Star does not believe that the landlord class is naturally
rapacious and without conscience; it has, however, been forced to believe that a certain number of them are
acting in a manner to bring discredit
upon the whole fraternity. The un-wisdom of attempting to force up rents to unwarranted levels in the face of falling wages and other living costs ought to be apparent, unless the "unquenchable thirst for gain" of which Mr. Justice Lane speaks prevents realization of the consequences.

"The landlord has just as much
right to a fair return on his money
as his tenant has a right to a fair
salary or a fair profit from his business. He has no moral right to take advantage of a temporary condition to the serious detriment of other classes and of the whole community. These landlords who are doing so are doing the worst possible service to the class they represent."

A WEATHER BEATEN BUD

year out."
"Why, she's been out four seasons."
"Well, I suppose she counts four seasons to the year."

USUAL W.C.T.U.
MEETING AT NORTH HATLEY

Interesting Paper on Life of Frances Willard Read by Mrs.
H. Merrill.

NORTH HATLEY, Feb. 9.—(Special)—The February meeting of the local W. C. T. U. was held in the Universalist Vestry. There was a good attendance of members and
one visitor, Mrs. E. G. Davidson of Ayer's Cliff was present and gave a very interesting report of the Provincial Convention held at Orma-
town. It was reported that the petition for franchise for women had been circulated. A picnic lunch was served. Mrs. H. Merrill gave an interesting paper on the life of Frances Willard; as follows:—

The subject of this paper was born Sept. 28th, 1839 in Churchville, Monroe Co., N. Y. She was the fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Willard.
After some consultation she was named Frances Elizabeth. She was described by her mother as being very pretty with sunny hair, blue

Letters to the Editor

A PROTEST.
Editor of Record:

Dear Sir:—Will you please allow
space in your paper for the enclosed letter.

As a citizen of Ayer's Cliff and
one of the mothers whose children
were recently examined by Dr.
Styles, of Montreal, I wish to protest against the erroneous and misleading article in your issue of Friday,
the 4th, under the caption of "Child Welfare Survey at Ayer's Cliff."

We are proud of our beautiful,
clean little village, of our healthy,
normal children and have always felt justified in pointing to our Academy with pride. It was built within a few years according to plans and specifications of a well known architect and accepted in every respect by the Department of Public Instruction of Quebec. It is entirely sanitary and the water system is A1. The locality
has been pronounced by Inspector Parker as one of the finest in the whole province. There are two acres of land contained in the plot, level,
high and dry. Trees have been planted and it is surrounded by a fence.
Just behind the grounds is a beautiful woods. The Academy building is brick, modern and up to date, admitted by authorities to be one of the best schools according to the size of the place in the province. The lighting is good. In regard to the Child Welfare examination, it was conducted in a hurried manner. The questions were hurled at us in an abrupt, confusing way. Our replies were sneered at and open contempt
expressed for all our doctors and dentists and their work. I entered the presence of Dr. Styles accompanied by my three, strong, active, healthy, bright, normal children. I retained, the bewildered mother of flat footed, flat chested, flabby
muscles, angel winged, under nourished, imperfect specimens of humanity. It will be noted that the parents will in future profit by the personal talks given them by Dr.
Styles. It was ten minutes past three when he began to examine my three unfortunates and there were fifteen
to follow, so one may judge how much time was devoted to personal talk. I have not yet found one mother who received any real benefit. He told me he regretted the necessity of haste and gave me three pamphlets informing me if I learned
their contents I would know more than any doctor in the country. I was anxious over the eyes of one of the children and asked if he would test them. He glanced around the room and remarked to his assistant
that "he had forgotten to bring that." He then pulled down the lower eye lid and said "conjuncti-vitis." I asked what that was and he told me I would not understand these terms. I then enquired if the child should have glasses, or if I should let it say the eye specialist. He asked if the child made grimaces. I said not to any noticeable degree, so he pronounced it eye strain. Having discovered one bad tonsil I enquired about adenoids. Dr. Styles said anyone can find adenoids. "Just stick
your finger into their mouth, so,"
indicating the proper curve of the finger. He could do it but had no water. The assistant offered to fetch some but he said "Never mind." My diet was pronounced good and correct with exception of the deadly doughnut. Yet my children were categorized 7 1/2 per cent. mal-nourished because they fell three and five pounds under weight. On objecting to this term being applied to children who had been properly fed
and well cared for, he again informed me I did not understand such terms as he used.

The article claims fifty per cent.
of the children never take milk.
There were seventy examined and
the report gives seventeen abstainers from milk. This cannot be fifty per cent. of seventy. In regard to late retiring it is never the truth
that the majority of the children
"as a rule" are in bed at half past eight. We mothers do not object to being told of defects in our children and are anxious to do all
we can to remedy them, but we do
emphatically and indignantly protest
against such a misleading report
being published throughout the country in regard to our school and the stigma it has placed on us as intelligent mothers. When the report states "the affairs were in a lamentable condition," we feel the report
should have been submitted to those concerned and not placed before the public. In article nine we are recommended to have a further survey in a year's time to detect further deterioration. There does not seem to be much farther for them to deteriorate. We scarcely expect them to be here in a year. If this survey is thought advisable let us have an examiner who will at least treat us
with an equal degree of kindness
that was extended to Dr. Styles and his assistant during their visit here.

A MOTHER.

Ayer's Cliff, Feb. 8, 1921.

eyes, delicate features, fair complexion and was called the doll baby of the village. She was a very affectionate little creature and could talk quite wisely at fourteen months, but could not walk until two years old.

When Frances was about seven
Mr. Willard decided on going West with his family. The journey lasted three weeks as it had to be made
with horses instead of by train.
They drove three white covered wagons. Their journey ended at Oberlin, Ohio. "The parents desirous of getting a more thorough education
attended school for 5 years at Oberlin College.

Mr. Willard was a great lover of nature and early taught his children
to learn the ways of birds, squirrels, butterflies, etc. As a gardener
he had few equals and later on was President of the State Agriculture
and Horticulture. All these observations were made at Forest Home
a farm in Wisconsin, where the Willards went to live after leaving Oberlin, Ohio, as Mr. Willard's health began to fail and the doctor ordered him to go farther west to do light farming.

Frances was now twelve years of age. The house was situated in the woods of oak and hickory and the form was prairie land.

After building Forest Home, Mr.
Willard put benches into the house
and procured a teacher, Miss Burdick from the East who went daily
to teach the children. Here for seven happy years these children lived
an idyllic life of love and labor, play,
study and prayer.

The opportunities that came to the children of Forest Home were opportunities to be useful, to read,
to study, to work with their hands,
to love each other, to reverence nature and Nature's God.

Mrs. Willard was an ambitious refined, scholarly Christian woman,
but she says: "I disappeared from the world that I might again reappear in my children."

"Frances is described as being affectionate, confiding, intuitive, unfashionable, original. She believed in civility, original. She believed in herself and also called occupations
She strongly felt that it was not
not to her taste, but was eager to grapple with principles, philosophies
and philanthropies and was unwearingly industrious along these lines.

When Frances was 14 her pioneer
father and some neighbors (for the sake of their children) bestirred
themselves to build a little brown
school house 7 miles from Forest Home in the winter woods. This was a great time for the Willard children,
they had a real school and a graduate
from Yale for teacher.

From this time Frances went on
with her education with leaps and bounds. At 17 she attended a Ladies' Seminary at Milwaukee from
there she attended the Evanston, Ill. As at Milwaukee she was acknowledge leader in scholarship and school activities. The girls at the College smiled somewhat at the plainness of the Willard girls' dresses and at Christmas, Mr. Willard sent two red woolen hoods. While the hood might be becoming to Mary,
with Frances' complexion, it looked with a hatred and a half. She says the girls gazed her unmercifully about
the plain homespun thing, but one guessed her once too often and she turned on her and threw her down
and crumpled her under a desk and walked off defiantly tying the strings
of that despised bonnet. Hood or no hood there was no discounting
position she soon held in school.
She was 19 now and it was June 1859. Sickness had prevented her from being present at the graduating exercises of her class, it was typhoid fever. The doctor had said the crisis was near. As I lay awake I seemed to hear two voices. My whole soul was intent, one voice seemed
to say "My child, give me thy heart."
I called three long by joy I called
now by chastisement, but I have always called thee because I love thee."

The other voice said "You are a
reasoner and never yet have you
been convinced of the reasonableness
of Christianity, hold out now and you will feel just as well, when you get well as you used to feel. One presence seemed warm, sunny, safe,
the other cold and dismal, and damp.
The controversy seemed to last a little while and at last solemnly and
with my whole heart I said "If God
lets me live I'll try and live a Christian girl!" I was not at peace until I had told my mother, then I fell sweetly asleep.

About this time the Willard home
was sold and the family moved to Evanston, Ill. to a home by the name
of Rest Cottage. Miss Willard
taught in country schools, in seminaries and in different Colleges and continued her studies and literary work. In 1871, she was elected President of the Evanston College for Ladies, the first woman to whom such a title was ever given. She was also Dean of North Western College
and Professor of Aesthetics in the N. W. University. About this time
Miss Willard and Miss Jackson planned a trip abroad, after resigning
her college position.

They were away two and one half years and visited Ireland, England,
Scotland, France, Germany, Belgium,
Holland, the Rhine, Italy, Egypt,
Palestine, Greece, Constantinople,
the Danube, Hungary, Vienna, Paris,
again. No wonder they had a good time; think of it! It must have been a great chance for the girl
brought up in such isolation on the kinds of reform and the cultured, re-
had stood in the barn door and exclaimed: "Shall we never go anywhere, or know anything or see anybody?"

As she traveled she took great interest and studied the conditions of women in the old countries and her great love for humanity in general
and special interest in the individual caused her to plan to begin a tour
of lectures.

On her arrival in America or shortly afterwards she was offered
good positions to teach, but God
seemed opening the new way when
in 1874 the great temperance movement or Crusade in Ohio, armies of women filled the streets praying and pleading with the rumrunner. This whirlwind of the Lord in 50 days
swept the liquor traffic out of 250
towns and villages. This was what terminated in the organization of the W. C. T. U. for Miss Willard decided to seek these women and go with them to the saloons. It was in Pittsburgh.

"We passed in front of Shefferd's saloon on Market Street. The ladies ranged themselves along the curbstone for they had been forbidden in anywise to incommode the passersby. We sang and prayed right there and at the next place

we entered the barroom and after singing, one of the ladies asked Miss Willard to pray. She says that this was the crusade baptism. The next day I left for the West," and within a week was made President of the Chicago W. C. T. U.

She worked now with heart and zeal in the temperance work and all kinds of reform and cultured, refined and grandest of women gave up salaries, positions to work for humanity's sake. She even at times
went about the city actually hungry
in trying to help others. She traveled 30,000 miles in different States
working writing, studying as she traveled.

Her works are too numerous to mention, a few of which were the editorship of the Union Signal, heroic work for the Temple, the National Temperance Hospital, etc.

The polyglot petition was a stu-
pendous work of which Miss Willard
and others presented to President Cleveland. It contained 1,121,200
names from all over the world. It was circulated in 50 nations. It was for the suppression of liquor, opium,
and all legalized vice. It crossed the ocean the following spring and was presented in London, in Albert's Hall
at the 3rd. Biennial convention of the W. C. T. U.

In 1897 the petition again came back to America to Massy's Music Hall, Toronto, to be presented at the 4th, world's W. C. T. U. convention.

Through Miss Willard's efforts
thousands and thousands have been educated up to the level of the woman suffrage movement and have been enthroned in all places of power before its edict will be heeded.

On Feb. 1898, after a brief illness Miss Willard fell asleep. Her

LOCALS DOWNED STANSTEAD

A very fast and interesting game took place at Stanstead on Saturday night when Lennoxville High School ran against Stanstead College 2nd team. A few minutes after play started Sterling put L. H. S. in the lead. Play followed through, but neither side scored.

The second period started fast. Grant making a nice rush and beating Channel. Soon Sterling took a nice shot and made 3 to 0. Just a few minutes before time Grant got another, which made it 4 to 0. The third period started with Stanstead on their toes. They soon put one by Bennett and soon McMurray evened up things for L.H.S. In the last few minutes, Stanstead got one in which made it 5 to 2 for L.H.S. This makes the sixth straight victory for the L. H. S. boys.

The line up was as follows:
L. H. S. Stanstead
Bennett Goal Channel
Towne Defence Millet
Goodhue Forward Reed
Sterling Forward Henderson
McMurray Forward Richardson
Grant Forward Meigs
Referee: Mr. L. Spafford.

FALCONS DEFEAT HAWKS

The Falcons and the Hawks put up a good game at the Scotstown rink, the former winning three to one. The game was not very old before neat combination work between R. and L. Scott saw the latter score the first goal of the evening. B. MacKay increased the lead but C. McDonald of the Hawks reduced the score with a perfect side shot which gave Young no chance. In the final period L. Scott added the last tally and shortly after the game finished with Falcons winner three to one. Efforts are being made to have a return game next Saturday.

The line up was as follows:
Falcons Hawks
Young Goal Clark
Taylor Defence MacDonald
B. Scott Forward Willis
MacKay Forward MacLean
R. MacKay Forward Nicholson
L. Scott Forward Start

COOKSHIRE DEFEAT STANSTEAD

Stanstead's visit to Cookshire proved a very interesting game, and although the visitors were defeated four to two, there was little difference between the teams. It was good clean hockey and was much appreciated by a fairly large crowd of supporters.

After the game Cookshire entertained the visitors who stayed in town overnight and then proceeded to East Angus next morning for another exhibition game.

The line up was as follows:
Stanstead Cookshire
Hebert Goal Taylor
Perry Defence Drennan
Labaree Forward Barlow
Coulombe Forward Larrabee
Dorman Forward Warren
Lucas Forward Hebert
Coulombe Spares Leonard
Bangs Forward Gadley
Referee: Oscar W. Rand, Cookshire.

An interesting but equally amusing hockey game was played at Sawyerhill when the "White Collars" and "Teamsters" took the ice.

It was a well contested game and during the course of the first period the "Collars" scored on a long shot. This was the only point scored in the first period and in spite of strenuous efforts the "Teamsters" were unable to drive one home.

The "Collars" lost their scoring pad in the second period and were unable to register any additional score, whereas the "Teamsters" cracked in two lovely shots with Sherman beaten all the way.

Two of the teamsters, A. French and N. Bain got mixed up in their teams and G. Powell and E. Leonard of the "Collars" endeavored to use facts and figures in pointing out their errors—result—general mix-up. Messrs. French and Graham handled the game to the entire satisfaction of all concerned but their ability to chalk up penalties gave the impression that they were both "white collars".

The final period was a constant onslaught on the "Collars" goal, time and again the "Teamsters" drove up to the goal only to find Sherman in remarkable form and capable of stopping shots from all angles. Finally Graham succeeded in placing the "Teamsters" in the lead, but the "Collars" figured that the score was wrong and immediately added another couple of points and doggedly refused to allow the "Teamsters" to make any further alterations. The "Teamsters" waited until the gong sounded and then decided to leave the ice, with the score 3-2 against them.

JUNIORS PLAY DRAW GAME

Bury and Cookshire junior teams played a remarkably good game at the Bury rink, and after playing ten minutes overtime it was decided to leave the game a "tie" of three all. The first period was very even and both sides scored once, while in the second period Cookshire had the advantage and counted two further points. In the final end, Bury came back strong and succeeded in equalizing much to the satisfaction of their many supporters.

SPORTING NOTES

NEW HIGH RUN RECORD

(Associated Press Despatch)
CLEVELAND, Feb. 9.—A new United States record for class A competition was established by Chas. Heddon of Dowagiac, Mich., when he made a run of 139 points in a match in which he defeated Dr. A. I. Brown, of Cleveland, 390 to 75 in the only National Amateur 15.2 bulk line billiard championship tournament held last night. The former champion here last night. The former champion here last night. The former champion here last night. He had complete control of the ball, making his record along the short rail any without any long drives. By his perfect cushion nursing he made other high runs of 57 and 53. His average 16 14-19 is the highest of the tournament. Dr. Brown's high run was 101 and his average 4-18.

CURLING

SHERBROOKE CURLING CLUB

An interesting feature of last night's games was the fact that out of all four rinks engaged there was only one substitute requisitioned. McKee's rink had a sterling contest with J. B. Bangster's and won by the odd point. In the other game Watson's rink recovered a portion of the prestige lost through its defeat at the hands of R. H. Fuller's rink, and easily won from Phelan. The scores:

ANOTHER WIN FOR ST. PATS IN CLOSE GAME

Defeated Bishop's Collegé 4 to 3
—No Substitutes Available—
Good Clean Hockey.

The St. Patricks went to Lennoxville last evening and played the Bishop's College boys on their own ice. It was an excellent game and St. Patricks deserved to win by the odd goal in seven. They were unable to put their strongest team on the ice and were obliged to play their six men for the full three periods as they had no substitutes. Emmett Kenalty turned out again for the first time since his accident, and while his leg was somewhat stiff, he played through the whole game and made a good showing.

The Collegians started off at a great pace, and the game was scarcely a few minutes under way when Macintosh beat Workman from close quarters, but M. Hawkins evened matters up by beating Napier with a rather easy shot.

In the second period St. Patricks went into the lead after ten minutes' play, Mitten accepting a pass from M. Hawkins and beating Napier with a well judged shot. The Collegians continued to press, and just prior to the close of the period managed to equalize matters again, Moore scoring.

St. Patricks again assumed the lead through M. Hawkins, only to have the College boys equalize through Abbott, and it became anybody's game. The St. Patricks felt the lack of substitutes and tired somewhat in the closing stages, but R. Hawkins got away on a nice run, stickhandling his way through the opposing defence and tallied the winning point. It was a good clean game and was well handled by Referee E. D. Baker, assisted by L. Spafford, judge of play. The line-up was as follows:

Bishop's College—Napier, goal; Macintosh and Price, defence; Abbott, Moore and Harrison, forwards; McCoun, Mosely, spares.
St. Patricks—Workman, goal; E. Kenalty and F. Mitten, defence; C. Steele, M. Hawkins, R. Hawkins, forwards.

were as follows:
Section C—F. Keene, A. F. Knapton, L. E. Allen, J. W. McKee (skip), 10; J. G. Roy, A. C. Stevens, A. E. Wiggett, J. R. Sangster (skip), 9.
Section D—O. R. Webster, Geo. Povey, H. G. Pawson, J. P. Watson (skip), 22; Chas. Wolfe, L. V. Parant, W. P. Rapley, J. M. Phelan (skip), 5.

The games scheduled for this evening are:
Section A—Geo. Baker, H. W. Fuller, H. W. Ames, A. P. Blue (skip) vs. Ed. Beall, A. Echenberg, H. C. King, J. K. Edwards (skip).
Section B—L. H. Farrell, S. J. Forbes, E. G. Graves, L. D. Hyndman (skip) vs. H. M. Davies, C. S. Ives, N. L. Wiggett, W. R. Moore (skip).

MACDONALD'S CUT BRIER

MACDONALD'S "BRIER" has become a Canadian institution. Smoked by the men who made history. In the bush, on the trail, in mining camps, prospectors' huts, factory yards, on trains, steamships, in the luxurious homes and downtown clubs of our Canadian cities—Macdonald's has always been recognized as the smoke.

MACDONALD'S CUT "BRIER"—the same tobacco but in new form—maintains every Macdonald tradition since 1858, and gives to smokers—more tobacco for the money.

SPANISH RIVER DISPOSES OF BOND ISSUE

Bonds Valued at $3,000,000 Purchased by Royal Securities Corporation.

At the close of the conference held in Montreal between officials of the Spanish River Pulp and Paper Mills Limited, and of Royal Securities Corporation Limited, purchase by the Corporation of $3,000,000 of bonds of the pulp and paper enterprise was announced.

In line with unofficial forecasts, the new issue in which interest has been very keen in the street for the past few days, will take the form of an issue of $3,000,000 8 p.c., General Mortgage Bonds, Series "A." The bonds are twenty year obligations maturing March 1st, 1941, principal and interest payable in Canadian funds only, at Montreal and Toronto. They are part of the general mortgage of $20,000,000, authorized for the issue of which will be obtained at the special meeting of the Spanish River shareholders in Toronto on March 10th.

As already announced, the purpose of the new $3,000,000 issue is to partially reimburse the Spanish River treasury for sums totalling $7,000,000, mostly out of earnings, re-invested in the property since 1915, with a resulting increase in annual output from 110,000 tons to 230,000 tons and a large enhancement of earning power.

Including proceeds of the issue, and after making full allowance for current liabilities, net liquid assets of the Spanish River Company in an unassailable financial position.

NEW YORK PRESS MARKET COMMENT

Furnished by McManamy & Walsh

Times—Whether or not the recovery will be sustained time alone will tell, but yesterday's advance at least did create a more hopeful outlook.

Wall Street Journal—The money situation does not seem to be worrying brokers. They believe that there will be a decided easing off in money rates as soon as contemplated financing is out of the way.

Tribune—Efforts of the professional traders dominating the market to bring about a reaction in other parts of the list brought meagre results.

Herald—In view of the irregular tendency of money rates in the last six weeks it is possible that too much emphasis was laid in yesterday's stock market upon the reaction.

RALLY TOWARD NOON ON WALL STREET EXCHANGE

Prices stiffened later, however, when call money opened at yesterday's low rate of seven per cent. Ralls derived only slight benefit from the passage of the Winslow Bill. Wisconsin Central rose 2 1/4 points and Coalers rallied on the firm tone of Delaware and Hudson and Lehigh Valley. Foreign exchange was dull, the London rate easing slightly from yesterday's highest quotations.

MATERIAL DECLINE IN THE PRICES FOR WHEAT

(Associated Press Despatch.) CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Profit taking on the part of some of yesterday's buyers disclosed a lack of support in the wheat market today, and prices underwent a material decline. Bears meanwhile circulated messages from the southwest making light of talk about crop damage from green bugs. It was said to be too early in the season to take damage reports, except at a heavy discount. Opening prices, which ranged from 3 1/4 to 3 1/2 cents lower, with March $1.60 1/4 to $1.60 3/4, and May $1.51 1/4 to $1.52 1/4, were followed by moderate rallies and then downturns lower than before.

Corn gave way with wheat. After opening 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents down, including May at 67 to 67 1/4 cents, the market reacted a trifle and then sagged again.

Oats were weak as a consequence of the action of other grain, starting unchanged to 1/4 cents off, with May at 43 1/4 to 44 1/4 cents, and continuing to decline.

Provisions reflected the downward tendency of cereals and hogs.

THE MONTREAL CATTLE MARKET QUOTATIONS

(Associated Press Despatch.) MONTREAL, Feb. 9.—(Canadian Livestock Branch.) Cattle receipts 206. There were 125 cattle left over from yesterday. Trade was very dull and cattle were hard to dispose of at any price. Calf receipts were 60. The market for veal calves remained firm in spite of declines on other kinds of stock. Good milk fed calves were sold today for $15.00. There were only a very few grass calves on sale. Quotations: Good veal $13 to $15, medium $10 to $13, grass $6.

THE DIAMOND MARKET TODAY IS VERY DULL

The Great Majority of the Diamond Workers in Amsterdam Are Idle.

(Associated Press Despatch) AMSTERDAM, Feb. 9. — Nearly 8,000 of the 10,000 members of the Diamond Workers' Union here are idle and the bottom seems to have fallen out of the world's diamond market. Experts in precious stones in this city and in Antwerp say an era of financial stringency has supplanted the epoch of free spending to such an extent that precious stones have become a drug on the market, although prices are being maintained.

The industry received a serious blow through the Russian war, as that country was the greatest buyer of gems. Austria and Germany then fell out, and now the depression in the United States has cut off the last great market for diamonds. In addition, a large number of gems formerly owned in Russia have been placed on the market by the Bolsheviks.

SAYS LEVY ON CAPITAL WOULD INJURE TRADE

Sir Robert Horne States that There Are Signs of Revival of Trade.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Feb. 9. — Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, president of the Board of Trade, speaking at Sheffield last night, said that the gravity of the unemployment and distressed trade could not be exaggerated, but there were slight signs of a revival of trade, and a few months might bring a considerable change.

A levy on capital, he declared, would paralyze trade and bring disaster on the country.

And on he plunged with his crew in their lurching motor trucks—roaring through the storm—digging their way through the mountains—rushing life to a thousand women and children. But the dam had broken! And then this "worthless" racing driver did something that brought the girl who had scorned him sobbing to his arms!

EAST ANGUS TO PURCHASE NEW FIRE TRUCK

Council Also Decided to Put in a New Fire Alarm System.

EAST ANGUS, Feb. 9.—The Town Council met on Thursday last with a full attendance. The town will shortly be asked to authorize a loan for the purchase of a fire truck and to put in an automatic fire alarm system. This is certainly an essential step.

The designs of the new bridge have been returned by the Government engineers with a few changes and are again in the hands of the architect.

The Council adjourned till February 16th.

General Notes
East Angus has a new feature lately in two bulletin boards, one on each side of the bridge, painted a handsome white, and with all the latest news.

A very large crowd was present on Saturday to see the local team play Stanstead. The game took place at an early hour in order that the visitors might take the evening train home. The result was in favor of the Angus boys by 5 to 1.

The dance on Monday night brought quite a large crowd out. The music was supplied by Hecht's Orchestra, and a nice lunch was served. Mr. Harrington was responsible for the arrangements and deserves every credit for the pleasant time which took place.

A small fire occurred on Saturday morning at the residence of Mr. Walter Cameron, through an overheated stovepipe. But for promptness in bringing a hose into action, the result might have been serious. The Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church will hold their annual meeting on Thursday of this week for the election of officers and reading of reports. This will take place at the Parsonage, and all ladies interested in missions are invited to attend at 2.30 p.m.

There will be the first of a series of services in Christ Church on Friday evening at 7.30 p.m. this week, when lantern views will be used to illustrate the address. This week the story of the Creation and the Flood will form the subject.

JUDGE MULVENA HELD COURT AT BLACK LAKE

Many Cases Came Before the District Magistrate—Many Liquor Cases.

Judge Mulvena had a busy session at Black Lake and a large number of liquor cases were up for disposal.

Corporation of Black Lake vs Albert Angers. The accused was charged with violation of the Quebec Licence Act and was sentenced to a fine of $50 and costs or three months in gaol.

Corporation of Black Lake vs Georges Angers. The accused was charged with violation of the Quebec Licence Act by selling liquor on January 16th. He was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs or three months in gaol.

City of Thetford Mines vs Adjudor Bourgeault. The accused was charged with violation of the Canada Temperance Act with having sold liquor in his capacity of Secretary-Treasurer of the Thetford amusement club. The defendant was fined $50 and costs or thirty days in gaol.

The City of Thetford Mines vs Nazaire Couture. The accused was charged with violation of the Canada Temperance Act, with having sold liquor on January 9th. A number of witnesses were heard and the court over-ruled different objections raised by the defendant and sentenced him to a fine of $50 and costs or thirty days in gaol.

J. A. Dubuc vs Novat Chevalier. The accused was charged with driving a motor car in Thetford Mines at an excessive speed. After hearing the proof, the Court held that the evidence of identity of defendant and his car was insufficient to justify condemnation and the accused was discharged.

The King vs Albini Labaree. The accused was charged with stealing a small quantity of fire wood, about one-third of a cord, belonging to Audelin Aubin. The defendant, who pleaded not guilty, was finally convicted, but in view of the small value of the fire wood stolen, the Court condemned him to pay the owner the value of the wood, $3.00, fined him $2.00 and costs of the proceedings or thirty days in gaol. The defendant refused to pay the fine and was committed to gaol.

Alphonse Morin, of Coleraine, vs Charles Lafrance. The accused was charged with having stolen a load of spruce logs valued at $12.00. The defendant pleaded not guilty and the case was adjourned for hearing, by mutual consent, until February 21st.

Rev. Arthur Vincent, Parish Priest of St. Pierre de Broughton vs Theodore Gingras. The accused was charged with misbehaviour at midnight mass in the parish church and pleaded not guilty. A large number of witnesses were examined on both sides and the Court held that the charge was fully proven and condemned the accused to pay a fine of $2.00 and costs or in default thirty days in gaol.

USUAL SESSION OF COUNCIL AT DANVILLE

Newly Appointed Members of Council Take Their Seats—Other General News.

DANVILLE, Que., Feb. 9.—The council of the Village of Danville met in session in the Town Hall Monday evening last, for the first time since the new councillors came into office. The retiring councillors were Messrs. G. W. Adams, (Mayor) Henry Roux and J. A. Boivin. They were replaced by Messrs. George Hamilton, T. Gregoire and A. Lafrance respectively.

The full council was in attendance and comprised Mayor J. E. Guilmette; Mr. Fred B. Chadsey, Pro-Mayor; and Messrs. Bryon H. Bernard, Chas. H. Walsh, T. Gregoire, George Hamilton and A. Lafrance; Mr. C. C. Brown, Secretary Treasurer.

These councillors are certainly very representative men and judging from the way they went through the business of the evening, the affairs of the Village of Danville could not be left in more competent hands.

Many questions of interest and importance were touched upon. Some were dealt with and others left in abeyance, which appeared more fitting. The session was a long one, from 7.30 to well nigh midnight, and ran the whole gamut of town management; finance, upkeep, lighting, economy, etc., each receiving attention.

An application for a loan from the Quebec Government for the purpose of repairing our streets was brought up and discussed, as was also the sidewalk question, regarding maintenance and the building of new sidewalks this year.

The proposed license "Carters" was given careful attention and will no doubt be disposed of at the next meeting, at which session the usual several committees will be appointed to look after the various departments of our town management.

Some few electric light users were on hand to complain about their individual meter readings for the first month after their installation. Mayor J. E. Guilmette, who has ardently fathered the whole electric light cause, and who was so largely instrumental in bringing the Shawinigan Power to Danville, was appointed a committee to hear any complaints and to deal with each individual complaint upon the merits of the case. Although subscribers found the first month's charge high, it has been established that in almost every case the meter reading was correct and that the amount recorded was actually consumed.

An application was received by letter from representatives of The Irish League, for use of the Town Hall on the 17th or 18th. The applicant is being advised that the hall is available.

The Boy

ONE of the best things any mother can do, is to give her children Cocoa every day.

Children as well as their elders need something hot to drink, and Cocoa is the only thing adapted to their youth which at the same time they enjoy. It is not a stimulant, as are other beverages, but is nourishing and invigorating. It strengthens their power of resistance against cold and illness.

Cocoa is recognized by doctors and dietitians as one of the standard foods, and is particularly recommended for growing children. Taken in the form of a beverage at breakfast or lunch, or after school in the afternoon, it is easily digested and the children love it.

Give your children Cowan's Cocoa every day, and it will help them to develop sturdy constitutions which will be the foundation for good health all through life.

Follow the directions on the tin in preparing Cocoa.

It earns its own cost

An Electric Washing Machine in one year will save its own cost on your laundry bills alone, besides a 75 per cent. reduction on the wear of your clothes.

Then again, it will forever eliminate what is probably the most unpleasant of all household duties—for with an Electric Washer your wash-day is a play-day.

If you so desire, a deposit of $10.00 puts any machine into your home—then twelve easy monthly payments.

able so it is quite probable that we will have the opportunity of hearing several speakers in support of The Irish League.

One could not help, but be favorably impressed by the way our councillors "got together" and so satisfactorily disposed of each question brought up. This forecasts a year of thrifty management and careful economy on their part.
