World News In Brief

San Jose, Costa Rica Sept. 27.—(Reuters)—President Otilio Ulate of Costa Rica resigned last night after a 24-hour government crisis arising from the resignation of five military and police chiefs. He has been succeeded by Alberto Oreamuno Flores, one of the two vice-presidents, and a strong supporter of Ulate.

The resignation of the military and police chiefs followed congressional orders for an investigation of charges of aggression by the police.

Montreal, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Police started out on a cold trail today to investigate the death of a rooming house operator whose decomposed body was discovered yesterday.

A homicide squad officer said Theodore Werner, 50, may have died from a beating administered about two months ago and a piece of wood found near the body may have been a murder weapon.

A partial autopsy last night revealed Werner suffered multiple skull fractures which have come from a beating or a fall. A complete autopsy will be made today.

London, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The 46-year-old Duchess of Kent, aunt of Queen Elizabeth and leader of fashion for Britain's aristocracy, left by plane today for a tour of Singapore and the Far East.

She was accompanied by her 16-year-old son, the Duke of Kent whose father was the youngest brother of the late King.

St. Benoit du Lac, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Rt. Rev. Dom Odile Sylvain yesterday was elected abbot of the Benedictine monastery here by members of the Roman Catholic order of the abbey, first of its kind in eastern Canada. It was elevated from the rank of conventual priory a few days ago.

Observers Watch Two Hurricanes

Miami, Fla., Sept. 27.—(AP)—Weather observers watched two hurricanes today, one sweeping northeastward in the Atlantic well off the Carolina coast and another developing about 1,700 miles southeast of Miami.

Hurricane "Charlie," third of the season, was kicking up a much faster pace and moving in a northeasterly direction at 25 miles an hour.

Highest winds were about 125 miles an hour near the centre. The storm is about 390 miles east-south-east of Cape Hatteras, N.C.

The fourth storm, designated "Doc" by the Miami weather bureau, was reported last night by the San Juan, Puerto Rico, weather bureau to be about 450 miles east of Antigua, British West Indies.

Historian Queries Accuracy Of Atlantic Crossing Claim

New Glasgow, N.S., Sept. 27.—(AP)—Do our history books need revision? Michael Dwyer, 75, an affable, self-styled history student and former provincial mines minister, doesn't say as much, but he has challenged the accuracy of Canadian students' reading material.

The Royal William, for instance, wasn't the first steamship to cross the Atlantic, despite what all the history books say, according to Mr. Dwyer.

If he's correct, and weeks of research have convinced him that he is, it would make Canada's Royal William commemorative stamp, issued in 1933, look pretty silly.

The same would apply to the commemorative plaque in Ottawa's archives building, and, of course, all the history books from Pouch Cove, Nfld., to Shushartie, B.C.

Mr. Dwyer, who many remember as the stocky Irishman who directed rescue operations in the Moose River mine disaster in 1936, says the Royal William claim was simply founded on "negative information."

For example, Columbus believed until the day of his death that he was the first sailor to cross the Atlantic, and thousands of other people believed the story simply because they had never heard anything different.

Canadian Produces Movie Ballet

By MURIEL NARRAWAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
London, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Ottawa's Guy Cote, assistant director with the National Film Board of Canada, may find his ears burning. People in London are talking about his "Between Two Worlds," a novel ballet film without words.

The film made its debut at the Edinburgh Festival and was given a private showing in London. The preview audience seemed divided in its reaction.

Danced by Ute Lemkow, husband of film star Mai Zetterling, the film tells the story of a blind artist living in an abstract world of his own imagining.

Against a kaleidoscopic background of moving color schemes and colored masks, he takes the audience through his blind world to an operating room where his sight is restored.

Instead of a happy landing, the film winds to a climax where the artist, terrified by the new world of sight, loses his own personality completely. From a colorful world of gay patterns he descends to beating against grey walls and walking down endless corridors to an ever-receding light ahead.

Cote directed "Between Two Worlds" while attending Oxford University on a scholarship. The idea for the film came from American artist Sam Kaner, who advanced the proposal in a conversation over coffee cups, later acting as producer and set designer. It might have gone no further, but for a visit to Oxford by Miss Zetterling. The star sold the idea to her husband, who took over the choreography and persuaded 26-year-old Cote to take the director's job.

During his Oxford term, besides taking a first in chemistry, Cote successfully ran the film society, the film group and the university ski team. His first venture in filmmaking was in 1949 when he produced, co-directed and edited "Ses-trieres 1949," a documentary on skiing.

"Between Two Worlds" is an amateur production financed by the donations, grants and private subscriptions. Costing just over £1,000, it was shot in five weeks in a gymnasium in Cheltenham, Gloucestershire—the only "studio" the company could afford. Technicians and stage-hands were local amateur stage enthusiasts.

The picture has greatly appealed to the artistic minded. Its progress as a secondary film of futuristic design is still in question, but all who helped in production are eagerly awaiting its reception by the general public.

Release dates are not yet announced.

Rome, Sept. 27.—(AP)—George Santayana, a leading philosopher and poet, died last night. He was 88.

Korean Prisoner Tells Of Seeing Russians Dressed In Chinese Uniforms.

Seoul, Korea, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A captured North Korean security officer told in an interview today of seeing Russian troops at an airfield south of the Yalu river in North Korea.

Lieut. Lee Dong Yup said he saw about 20 Russians dressed in Chinese communist uniforms at Sinuiju airfield in June, 1951. He said he understood they installed anti-aircraft guns at the Red airfield, but that he did not know whether they remained to fire them.

The lieutenant was communist security officer at the Pannunjom armistice talks until he deserted September 5, 1952, and surrendered.

He related also that he had heard of a Soviet pilot flying communist jets in June, 1951, and of two last spring.

The 29-year-old North Korean spoke to allied correspondents through an interpreter at U. S. Eighth Army headquarters. He calmly answered questions during a 90-minute session.

The North Korean officer said he had heard Russian advisers are attached to the North Korean army officers' school and were sent to various government ministries in North Korea after the outbreak of the war.

He told of seeing the Russians near anti-aircraft guns at Sinuiju while he marched south from Manchuria, where he had undergone military training.

Eighth Army officers did not say whether they believed the officer.

The communists have consistently maintained that only the Chinese people's "volunteers" and North Korean troops are fighting in Korea except for a small Hungarian medical unit.

Seoul, Korea, Sept. 27.—(AP)—U. S. and Belgian infantry today beat off 300 Chinese Reds in a fierce seven-hour battle for a hill on the Korean western front.

The Reds broke off the fight at dawn.

Allied patrols reported "many, many Chinese dead" littered the battle area.

U. S. troops defended the peak situated three miles northeast of Kelly Hill in the Chorwon sector.

Police Seek Raiders In Kenya

Nairobi, Kenya, Sept. 27.—(Reuters)—Police dogs today tracked "Mau Mau" secret society raiders who slaughtered cattle and set fire to a power station in "the white highlands," a fertile tract of Kenya reserved for white settlers.

Seventeen arrests were made by police, who were convinced that the rain-soaked, wooded slopes of Mount Kenya harbored more "Mau Mau" members, pledged to drive the white man from this British colony.

Officials said 100 sheep and 84 cattle were slaughtered in the Nanyuki area, 300 miles from here, but farmers said losses were much heavier.

Meanwhile, members of the legislative council here debated new laws to check the terror campaign on the "Mau Mau" and other native groups.

Adherents of the bill told the council that "Mau Mau" activities have resulted in 23 murders and four suicides by terrorized African victims.

It is obvious that the terrorism campaign reflects native anger at being excluded from land holding in the "white highlands."

This oblong, 11,000-square-mile tract, containing the chief cities of Nairobi and Eldoret, has the most fertile land and the most favorable climate of Kenya. Former British colonial secretary James Griffiths has described it as "a slice of England dropped in the middle of Africa."

When the government set aside this 14,000-acre tract in 1911, the area was sparsely populated by natives, but now the area fringing it is rapidly becoming over-crowded by Africans.

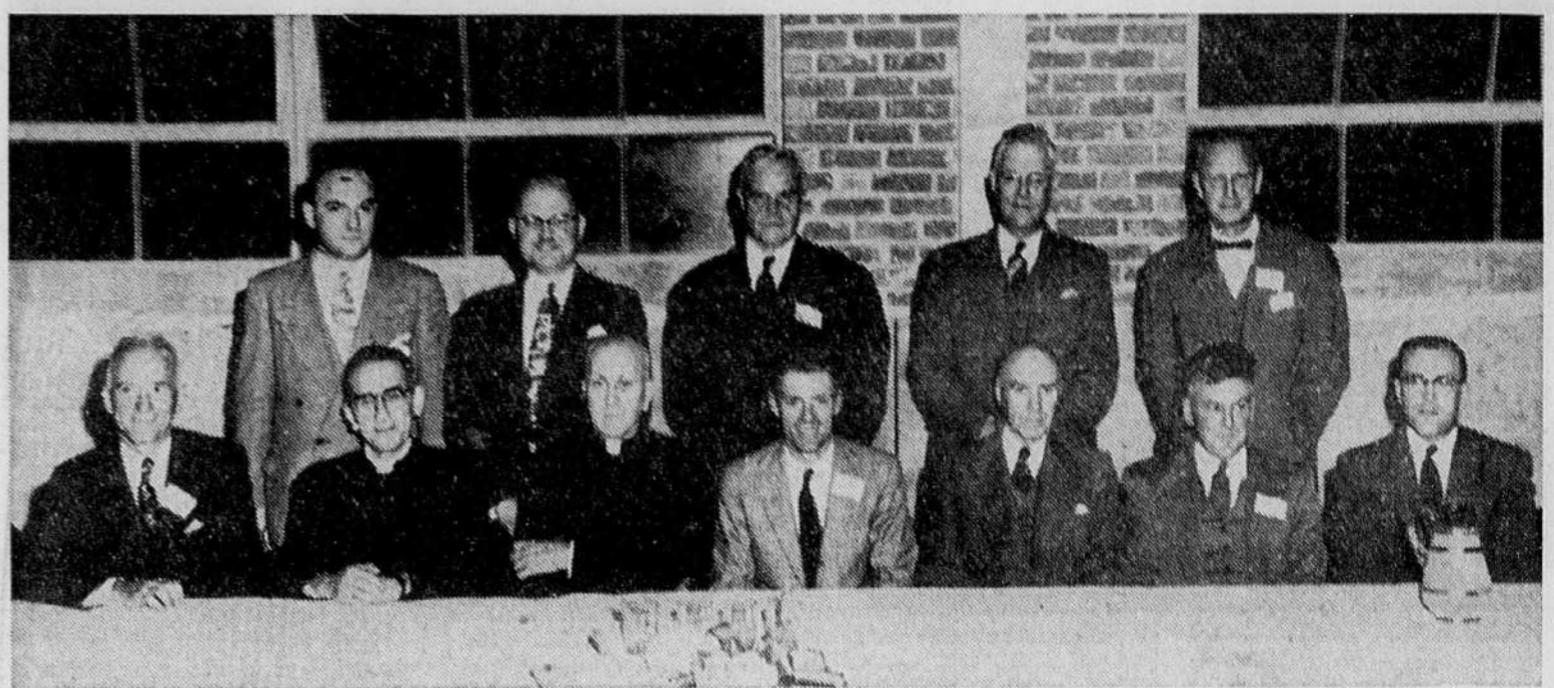

The farm land in the surrounding area is of poor quality except for one tract, but the Africans have come largely because of the proximity of white settlements, mean peace from tribal wars and access to social services.

Britain's present colonial secretary, Oliver Lyttelton, has proposed an official inquiry into the "land hunger" problem. Most probable solution seems a long-term project for revitalizing the area already reserved for Africans.

Convictions of "Mau Mau" members have been few because the society has either killed potential witnesses or frightened them into changing their original stories.

Boyd Gang Bank Robbers Convicted

Toronto, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Two members of the Boyd gang were convicted of bank robbery yesterday as a story of crime which goes back more than seven months moved toward its conclusion.

Joseph Jackson and Allister Gibson each were convicted of the armed robbery last March of a branch of the Bank of Montreal, Edwin Boyd, described as the king-pin of the group, previously had pleaded guilty to the same charge.

Norman Boyd, Edwin Boyd's brother, was convicted of harboring an escaped prisoner—his brother during the latter's first jail-break last November. Sentences were deferred until all charges have been heard.

In his address to the jury, Crown counsel A. O. Klein said "there can be no doubt that Norman Boyd was engineering things and making arrangements for a hiding place for his brother with his arsenal of guns and ammunition."

"If we are to make it tough for criminals to perform their acts of violence and law-breaking, we have got to deal with them severely when caught," he added.

Mr. Klein said the evidence against Jackson and Gibson was "overwhelming" and the question of their guilt "superfluous."

At the outset of his charge to the jury, Judge Robert Forsyth warned them not to be influenced by anything except the evidence adduced in court.

The name Boyd might have a sinister sound to you, also the name Jackson, because of an escapee from jail and a marauder. Well, Norman Boyd was not the man who escaped from jail and neither was the accused Joseph Jackson.

The judge was referring to the escape two weeks ago from Don Jail of Edwin Boyd, William Russell Jackson, Leonard Jackson and Steve Suchan. The quartet was at large eight days before being captured in a North York barn.

In another court-room, the murder trial continued of Leonard Jack and Steve Suchan charged in the fatal shooting last March of detective Edmund Tong.

Importance Of School Teacher Emphasized At Board's Meeting

By ARNOLD BARON
Asbestos, Sept. 27.—"I suggest the schoolmaster is the most important person in the whole world. I say this with boldness, shamelessness, arrogance and aggression. The teacher is the soul of life. He holds in his hand the only hope of escape from the distressing life that man faces today."

"We must hire teachers of the finest character and see that their working and home conditions measure up to the aim we set forth."

These statements were made last night at the banquet which concluded the 23rd annual meeting of the Provincial Association of Protestant School Boards, held in the Iroquois Club at Asbestos.

Dr. Robert Westwater, of Ottawa, was the speaker. A distinguished educator, he has recently resigned as chief inspector of Ottawa's public schools to accept a post with UNESCO which takes him to Lebanon late in October. In the Middle East, he will work among the Arab refugees from Palestine, charged with the onerous duties of setting up a school system for some 200,000 children among the million outcasts.

"We are going," he said, "because children are being pushed around. I feel if there is any hope of peace in the world, it is through education. We must inculcate idealism in the children. Children are very wise people. They sometimes resent we adults. It is in the children that our hope lies."

Dr. Westwater recalled a get-together of teachers with the school board at the start of a new term, at a party thrown by the latter. The lady teachers were presented with roses. Later, when he visited Saskatoon, Sask., for an educational conference, a westerner said to him: "Oh yes, Ottawa, that's where you give roses to your teachers."

"In the old days, our relationship with our teachers was limited to trying to give them $2.50 a year less than the salary for which they asked. We must remember that the young people who come to teach in our schools are often away from home and lonely."

In the matter of school board relations with the public, Dr. West-

By CUTHBERT JONES

Waterville, Sept. 27.—Hundreds of citizens of Waterville and vicinity gathered last evening for the formal opening of the new plant of the Canadian Sponge Rubber Products, Ltd., the new industry which it is hoped will restore the progress and prosperity of this Coaticook river town which has been in the doldrums since the woollen mill, its chief employer of labor was destroyed by fire several years ago.

The new plant which is employing seventy hands in the present stage of its operations plans the addition of more lines to its production so that the payroll will be expanded gradually until an ultimate 300 employees will find their livelihood from the new industry.

The central theme stressed by the officials of the Canadian company and the parent American Sponge Rubber Co. was that it had located in Waterville because of the spirit of aggressiveness and co-operation shown by the local citizens which more than compensated for such advantages of location and terrain that might be enjoyed by other Eastern Canada cities.

The ceremonies last evening were under the direction of Fred M. Daley, jr., general manager of the Canadian company, and were attended by officials of the parent concern, representatives of the Southern Canada Power Co. Ltd., financial institutions and of the principal customers from as far away as Windsor, Ont.

After calling the gathering to order, Mr. Daley stressed that the chief reason the company had chosen Waterville was because the people had indicated their willingness to co-operate with the company so that both could advance and prosper together.

He called upon Rev. T. Butler to deliver the dedicatory prayer after which Mayor Gerald H. Millmore, of Waterville, welcomed the new industry to Waterville and reviewed the many benefits which had already accrued to the community from its operations.

Hon. Charles D. French, Minister of Mines in the Quebec Cabinet and M.L.A. for Compton, also voiced his pleasure at the resurgence of Waterville and promised the aid of the Provincial Government in meeting its problems.

The company had a total investment in Waterville at the present time of $1,600,000 and its weekly payroll amounted to some $2,500 said W. N. Todd, the secretary-treasurer, during his remarks.

Fred M. Daley, jr., president of the company also spoke briefly. The plant was formally blessed by Msgr. L. Heuereux, vicar-general of the Archdiocese of Sherbrooke, who was introduced by Rev. Father Archambault, parish priest at Waterville.

Others on the platform were James Jackson, Ottawa, representing General Motors of Canada, Ltd.; James Hackney, of Windsor, representing Ford of Canada; J. B. Woodruff, vice-president and general manager of the Southern Canada Power Co., and C. J. Moreau, of Montreal, superintendent of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Prior to the formal opening, the visitors were shown through the plant and light refreshments were served during the evening.

Toronto, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Albert Edward (Red) Newman, member of the internationally famous Dumbells, died of a heart attack yesterday at Wasaga beach where he owned a hotel.

He joined the original Dumbell troupe during the first world war organized to entertain troops at the front. After the war, he toured Canada and the United States with the troupe.

He was best known with his song "It's a Lovely War" which he sang while dressed in a tattered uniform, caked with mud.

Canadian Brigadiers Change Jobs

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The army yesterday announced shifts for the original commanders of its two overseas brigades—Brigadiers John Rockingham and Geoffrey Walsh.

Brig. Walsh is coming home from Europe to take over from Brig. Rockingham as director-general of military training at army headquarters.

He will be succeeded as commander of the 27th Brigade in Germany by Brig. John Pangman, D.S.O., 44, of Toronto, another veteran combat leader.

Brig. Pangman is going to London to attend Britain's top flight Imperial Defence College for a year. He came home from Korea earlier this year after training and commanding the 25th brigade in action.

The shifts take place in November.

Brig. Pangman now is commanding the replacement group for Korea at Wainwright, Alta. His original pre-1939 regiment was the Queen's Own Rifles of Toronto but in the second world war he commanded both the Carleton and York from New Brunswick and the Essex Scottish from Windsor, Ont.

Since the replacement group is being scattered now that its summer training is over, no successor to Brig. Pangman as over-all commander is likely to be named. One of its units is due to go to Korea shortly, the others early next year.

Brig. Pangman won the D.S.O. in the violent Hochwald fighting west of the Rhine in the winter of 1944-45. After the war he directed the national defence college in Kingston and held other posts.

Brig. Walsh is 43 and hails from St. Catharines, Ont. He commanded the army's engineers in the second world war and in 1951 was assigned the tough job of training and taking overseas a new forma-

Seven Naval Men Receive Decorations

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The navy yesterday announced awards to seven men for outstanding service in Korea, including a third galleantry award for one combat veteran.

Capt. James Plomer, who won the Distinguished Service Cross twice in fighting German submarines in the second world war, was given the Order of the British Empire (military division) for "great devotion to duty... great determination and dash" in leading Canada's destroyer Flotilla in patrols off Korea. He comes from Saint John, N.B., and Winnipeg.

Two other senior officers—Capt. Dudley King of Victoria and Vancouver and Capt. Paul D. Taylor of Victoria—won the D.S.C. Capt. Taylor got a mention in despatches for a previous spell of duty in Korean waters.

The four other awards are mentioned in despatches. They went to Surgeon-Lieut. Chris Alfred West of Toronto, Lieut. Nelson Ralph Banfield of Victoria, CPO. Ralph E. Davies of Saskatoon and PO. Samuel H. Shaw of Medicine Hat, Alta.

All seven men have since returned to Canada. Twenty-three awards now have been granted navy men for service off Korea.

Capt. Plomer commanded H.M.C.S. Cayuga in those waters and headed the three-destroyer Flotilla at the same time in 1951-52. He now is commanding the recruitment base, H.M.C.S. Cornwallis, near Digby, N.S.

His citation says: "For great devotion to duty during long hours"

Domestic Exports Dropped For Second Straight Month

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A slump in export prices drove down the value of Canada's domestic exports during August for the second straight month, the bureau of statistics reported yesterday.

Export prices, slipping since last November, have been consistently below those of corresponding months of 1951 since last May.

However, the slump was not great enough to bring a similar decline over the eight-month period since the first of the year.

During August, the value of exports dropped to $345,100,000 from $349,800,000 during August 1951 and $371,000,000 during July 1952. The July figure was down from $374,500,000 a year ago.

Substantial increases during the first six months pushed the eight-month value to $2,805,900,000 from $2,464,500,000 in a similar period last year.

For the first time over an extended period, wheat replaced newsprint as the biggest contributor to the value of exports in the first eight months of this year. And in August it was the biggest contributor for the second straight month.

Grain and copper exports increased sharply. Fish and fishery products and newsprint paper moved ahead moderately. Wheat flour, alcoholic beverages, fresh beef and veal, planks and boards, pulpwood, woodpulp, farm implements and machinery declined.

The United States, chief market for Canadian products, took 51.1 per cent of Canada's total exports to all countries during August, down from 55.1 per cent a year ago. The eight-month proportion fell to 52.7 per cent from 61.5 during a similar period a year ago.

The August value of exports to the U.S. dropped to $175,854,000 from $192,836,000 a year ago. In the eight-month period, it declined to $1,478,300,000 from $1,504,611,000 in January-August, 1951.

August exports to Britain rose in value to $71,366,000 from $69,397,000 a year ago. The eight-month total rose to $534,118,000 from $393,855,000 in a similar period a year ago.

Shipments to other Commonwealth countries during August dropped slightly to $19,705,000 from $18,805,000 a year ago. However, they rose to $190,395,000 from $152,693,000 during the first eight months of 1952, compared with a similar period last year.

European countries took $50,557 worth of Canadian goods, up from $41,928,000 in August 1951, and $292,516,000 in the first eight months of this year compared with $197,947,000 in a similar period last year.

Agricultural and vegetable products increased in value in August and over the eight-month period, mainly as a result of large gains in wheat and grain exports. The group rose to $161,632,000 in August from $78,273,000 a year ago and to $717,273,000 a year ago and to $717,389,000 in the eight-month period from $529,260,000.

Exports of wood and paper products dropped to $114,455,000 in August from $133,906,000 a year ago but rose slightly in the eight-month period to $909,849,000 from $908,501,000.

Non-ferrous metal exports increased in value to $56,084,000 from $51,613,000 in August due mainly to a sharp rise in the value of copper exports. In the first eight months, they climbed to $470,355,000 from $362,499,000 a year ago.

Exports of iron and its products dropped to $24,400,000 in August from $27,600,000 in the first eight months of this year and to $231,049,000 from $198,504,000 over the eight-month period.

The miscellaneous commodities section climbed to $6,400,000 in August from $4,600,000 and to $72,200,000 in the eight months from $40,300,000 with aircraft parts a big factor in the overall gain.

LEGION LOG

SHERBROOKE BRANCH, NO 10 FULL STEAM AHEAD—$5,000

An old time locomotive, with box car attached, will steam out of St. Johnsbury today (Sat.), cross our Canadian Border and barge into Lennoxville at approx. one or one-thirty this afternoon, "toot" along Main Street and come to a halt at a hitching post near the Post Office. Here a temporary "March of Dimes" will be carried out along the main side-walk. The proceeds, of course, are in aid of our Poppy-Polio Campaign. Later in the afternoon this "Cook's Tour Special" will take off for Sherbrooke landing here on all points at approx. three to three-thirty o'clock. After "tooting" around the main streets of our City the aggregation will exchange greetings and felicitations, at the City Hall, with his Worship the Mayor and several representatives of our local Legion Branch. Immediately following this "indirect approach," we will get down to business with a "March of Dimes" along the "Sidewalks of Strathcona Square," where John the Citizen will be intercepted and we will endeavor to "Liberate" his Dimes and Quarters and perchance, some "folding-money." After all, no Financial Campaign was ever successful unless a reasonable amount of money changed hands. We are indebted to our own Legion Member, Major William Foote, for the visit of this "Iron Horse" to our Community; his first appearance in Canada, so we are told. This "Iron Horse" was designed and built by the St. Johnsbury Branch of the American Legion, who are also supplying the Air-crew for this Expedition. Local arrangements are under the supervision of Victor Crotty and Ernest Marshall.

DRUMMONDVILLE

Maryse Henaire, aged six, and infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Henaire, of St. Simon, was fatally injured on Thursday afternoon, after seeing her grandmother get aboard a Drummondville bound bus. According to police officer, Paul Gauthier's report of the tragedy the little girl had accompanied her grandparents as far as the bus stop, and instead, however, of leaving the highway at the rear of the bus she made a detour around it, and in crossing the highway, she was struck by a truck driven by Mr. Walter Lacharite. After the impact the rear wheels passed over her body. She was rushed immediately to the St. Croix Hospital for medical attention. It was found that she had suffered a possible skull fracture, besides internal injuries and she passed away a few hours later. The coroner's inquest into the sad fatality opened Friday afternoon, but was postponed until all facts in the tragedy were made known. Mr. Henri Leduc, aged 38 years, well known throughout the Eastern Townships as a horse racing jockey, and a native of Waterloo, passed away Monday afternoon at the St. Croix Hospital, from injuries he had received Sunday afternoon in a harness racing contest at the local race track. Mr. Leduc was driving his horse, Doctor B, in the eighth straight heat of the meet, when one of his wheels got tangled into another sulky, with the result the light vehicle overturned, throwing Mr. Leduc against the outside fence. Dr. Gilles St. Onge, coroner, decided that an inquest into the fatality was unnecessary as the victim met with accidental death. Five persons were seriously injured in a highway accident that occurred around 2 a.m., on Monday morning, in the vicinity of Notre Dame. Provincial Police Officer Maurice Dupont in his report stated that Mr. Germain Morin's car was parked by the side of the highway, when it was struck by a truck operated by Direct Motor Express, of Montreal. The vehicle was being driven by Mr. Paul Emile Nadeau, also of Montreal, who declared that he had been blinded by the headlights of a car approaching in the opposite direction. Further deliberation also proved beyond a doubt that no tail light was visible in the parked automobile to indicate its presence on the highway, with the result the parked car was badly crushed under the heavy vehicle, carrying a load of 45,000 pounds. How the passengers in the rear seat of the parked automobile escaped instant death still remains a mystery, all of whom are residents of Mansouet County, Nicolet. They included Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Lefebvre, both 47 years of age; Miss Jeannine Morin, 23; Mr. Germain Morin, 25, and Mr. Jerome Dubord, aged 22 years, all five victims are hospitalized undergoing medical care at the St. Croix Hospital here, latest reports by medical authorities state their present conditions as favorable.

Six persons were injured in a highway mishap that occurred Saturday evening in the vicinity of St. Nicéphore, according to the police report the collision took place between an automobile driven by Miss Marie Favard and a truck owned by Mr. Raymond Brown, who was passing a farm wagon, when the two vehicles collided head on at the regular meeting. Mrs. Napoleon Favard is reported to have a possible fracture to the spine and was rushed to hospital in Montreal for immediate medical attention. The husband and their four children, Marie, Yolande, Michel and Guy, all suffered severe cuts and bruises but their conditions are not serious. Damages to both vehicles, however, are estimated to be around the $1,500 mark.

The printing of the programs was left to the discretion of Comrade F. Stanton, chairman of the remembrance service. Discussion was given regarding the reading of the honor roll at the service, and was held over for further study. The name of Comrade William Hall is to be added to those on the Dufferin Heights memorial monument, the engraving to be done by Comrade Fred Osborne.

President Couture announced that Comrade Henry Crawford, who has been very ill, was taken a sunshine basket by Comrade R. Reynolds.

It was suggested that each member of the branch bring in another member to help increase the attendance at the regular meetings. Comrade J. A. Bacon gave a report on the business which took place at the district meeting in Sherbrooke on Sept. 20. The meeting adjourned and all enjoyed the sandwiches served by the committee.

The next regular meeting will be held on October 29.

Bible Teacher Will Conduct Services Here

The visit of John Parschauer, vice-principal of the New Brunswick Bible Institute, and general secretary of the Canadian Sunday School Mission for the Maritimes, brings to Sherbrooke an evangelist with a colorful background and an unusually wide experience.

The Parschauer family had lived for generations in the German district of the Russian Ukraine, and had considered themselves well established. However, the anti-Christian persecutions of the Bolsheviks, following World War I uprooted and almost destroyed the family. Mr. Parschauer's father was sent to the Siberian prison camps and vanished from sight forever. By a miracle the rest of the family escaped to Germany. There was turmoil here too, and by the grace of God the whole family was gotten out of Germany and finally arrived in Saskatchewan, at the house of an uncle, who had years before settled in the Canadian west.

Here the family found Canadian freedom and young John Parschauer felt led to dedicate his life to the spreading of the Christian Gospel. After training in two western Bible Schools, he went to New Brunswick to establish the Canadian Sunday School Mission work in the rural areas. With his friend, Mr. Robins, he also founded the New Brunswick Bible Institute, now a flourishing Bible School.

After World War II Mr. Parschauer was sent over to Western Germany on two occasions by the interdenominational Youth for Christ movement. Here he found desperate spiritual and moral conditions and again the presence of godless communism. However, he also found a ready ear for the Christian Gospel; thousands came to his evangelistic meetings.

Mr. Parschauer is conducting two weeks evangelistic services in Sherbrooke, having dedicated his life to the preaching of the Christian Gospel, the only antidote there is to atheistic and soul-destroying communism.

Overseas Pen Pals For 12 Years Meet Here For First Time

By ARNOLD BARON
 It took 12 years but Eileen Burke and Patricia Buzzell, who had known each other only through letters, finally met in Sherbrooke this week.

Miss Burke, of London, England, a stewardess with British Overseas Airways Corporation, and Patsy, now Mrs. Jack M. Corcoran, got together at the Corcoran home, 681 Belvedere South, on Thursday. "Someone called me from Montreal," says Mrs. Corcoran with a smile. "When I heard the British accent, I thought the party must have had the wrong number. But I caught on quickly. I knew it was Eileen and that we would meet at last."

Miss Burke had arrived from England on her newly-assigned North American run. Apart from a flight to Gander, Newfoundland, she had not been to Canada before.

It all began in May of 1940 when Mrs. Corcoran was Patsy Buzzell, a student at the immaculate Conception school on Short street, and Miss Burke was attending Loretto Convent school in Manchester, England, her native city.

Miss Buzzell used to listen to a shortwave radio program during which names were read of British school children who wanted pen pals from Canada. She chose Miss Burke's name and the two have been fast friends ever since, through the mails.

The girls had a lot to tell each other. They would write about once a month in the early days of their 12-year's friendship by mail, exchanging interesting information about life in the two countries, their schools, families and, the inevitable, beaux.

As the years went by, the letters were not so frequent for very good reasons. Miss Buzzell became Mrs. Corcoran, Miss Burke joined the Women's Royal Naval Service. But they continued to write to each other, if less frequently.

Kiwansians, Boys And Girls Join In National Kids' Day Observance

Today is National Kids' Day and in Sherbrooke and Magog many hundreds of boys and girls were entertained by members of the Kiwanis Clubs of the two cities.

Special showings of movies were arranged by the clubs as part of the annual entertainment program that the Kiwanians draw up on Kids' Day.

John W. Swallow, executive secretary of the National Kids' Day Foundation, has this to say in a "report to the public" on this day: "If ever an observance belonged to the public it is National Kids' Day."

Four short years ago—on Saturday, November 19, 1949, we observed the first annual National Kids' Day.

I say "short years" because when the National Kids' Day Foundation and the Kiwanis International first announced sponsorship of a new day dedicated to helping children, experts said it would take 15 to 30 years to accomplish any "noticeable results."

You—the public—have proven these experts wrong by your very purchase of this newspaper today—for which we can only say a very warm: "Thank you."

The results of the first year were almost discouraging for those of us who had dreamed of millions of dollars being raised for youth work and millions of children entertained.

Yet our critics, who were at first our friends, considered these first year results phenomenal.

In cold, hard figures there were: 1,239 Kiwanis Clubs participating; $109,344.85 raised for youth work at the local level and 239,904 youngsters entertained, aided or recognized by special events.

The second year, 1950, National Kids' Day continued to grow in importance. The results tabulated that year were: 1,261 Kiwanis clubs participating; $277,218.66 raised for youth work at the local level and 699,684 children entertained.

Last year on Saturday, September 22, the third annual observance of National Kids' Day was the most gratifying. For last year—with 1,505 Kiwanis clubs participating—$432,784.53 was raised for work with youth and 1,066,371 children were entertained and honored.

Analyzing these figures we have come to the conclusion that the success of Kids' Day is based largely upon four main points:

First—the public is becoming increasingly aware of its responsibility to our nation's youth.

Next—all local level activities are carried out by choice by the nearly 225,000 leading businessmen in the country who belong to Kiwanis clubs.

Thirdly—all national publicity, radio shows, newspaper stories, etc., urge the public to support local level activities as carried out by their friends and neighbors.

And last, and possibly most important—every cent raised by a Kiwanis club on National Kids' Day remains in the community in which it was raised to work with children. The Foundation neither asks for nor receives any percentage of the money raised by a Kiwanis club.

This year we believe that most of the 3,500 Kiwanis clubs will participate in National Kids' Day activities. We are hopeful that more than a million dollars will be raised by past results we're confident that more than 2,000,000 children will be entertained and made to realize that their community "does care."

An important part of this latter phase of Kids' Day activities is the national recognition given Kids' Day this year by the United States Air Force.

Following lengthy conferences, the United States Air Force has agreed to co-operate to the fullest extent of their ability in our celebration of National Kids' Day, 1952.

Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Chief of Staff of the U. S. Air Force, has issued a directive to all bases urging them to hold open house for youngsters on Kids' Day.

This means that literally hundreds of thousands of youngsters, brought to the bases by bordering Kiwanis clubs, will get a behind-the-scenes look into the mechanism of one of our country's major defense agencies.

NATIONAL KIDS' DAY

More than 3,500 Kiwanis clubs throughout Canada, the United States, Alaska and Hawaii, with a membership of some 212,000, are joining today in paying tribute to children.

This is National Kids' Day, a joint undertaking of Kiwanis International and the National Kids' Day Foundation. Kiwanis has been working with underprivileged children for the more than 37 years of its existence and the Kids' day program is now entering its fourth year.

Last year, on Kids' day, some $432,784 was raised to be spent on underprivileged boys and girls and 1,066,371 children participated in Kids' day activities.

The funds raised on Kids' Day are not spent on Kids' Day but are used throughout the year for needed youth projects or, perhaps, for an individual boy or girl who required an expensive operation or some other form of rehabilitation.

In 1951, for example, Kiwanis clubs sponsored 2,241 Boy Scouts, Cub Pack, Sea Scout and Air Cadet troops. In addition, 1,171 Boys Clubs and Girls Clubs were assisted last year. Kiwanians were able to send 114,769 children to medical clinics for treatment or observation. And 26,836 boys and girls were given a vacation in summer camps. Hungry children were provided with 183,623 school lunches and 349,384 bottles of milk were purchased. This, of course, is only a sample of Kiwanis International activities in the youth field.

In many respects, this is a year of decision in national affairs and also in every-day living. Our problems — both personal and business — seem to take an increasing share of our time to the point where the problems of others become almost unimportant. With the problems of underprivileged children, however, we cannot permit this to happen. The promotional resources of The National Kids' Day Foundation and the indomitable will of thousands of Kiwanians comprise a team that will continue to make the fourth Saturday in September a memorable occasion for the millions of boys and girls who need help.

ON SIGNING PETITIONS

The fighting mayor of Ottawa, Miss Charlotte Whitton, has challenged the signatures on a petition asking for a vote on Sunday sports. She claims that at least eighty per cent of them were written by one person — in other words that they were plain forgeries. She is demanding an investigation and an examination of the signatures by handwriting experts.

From experience with petitions, it is just as well that she call in the experts. It is doubtful if all the people whose names appear on petitions could say positively if they signed the petition. Anyone who has ever circulated a petition knows that the great majority of people who sign these documents do so haphazardly, either to please or get rid of the person asking them to sign and as often as not without the slightest actual knowledge of what they are endorsing. There are numerous cases on record that a man will sign petitions both for and against some particular proposal and can see no inconsistency in doing so.

But when those circulating petitions simply slap down names either with or without the consent of the owners, a different situation arises and if Mayor Whitton is right in her claim, she has reason for indignation.

WHY THE DELAY?

Finance Minister Douglas Abbott told a gathering of automobile dealers in Montreal this week that taxes were too high and ought to be reduced "as soon as conditions make it practicable."

For several years in succession, the taxes imposed by Mr. Abbott's Government have yielded hundreds of millions of dollars more than he budgeted for and it would be interesting to know what he would have done for money this financial year if he had not made these enormous surpluses which he applied to the reduction of the national debt.

Under existing conditions are, the excise tax on automobiles, radios, gramophones, cameras, clocks and watches, tires and a great many other things is 25 per cent, and on top of that there is the 10 per cent federal sales tax. Then residents of this province pay an additional retail sales tax varying from two to five per cent for the province, municipalities and school boards. This means that more than one third of what the buyers pays for them is tax. It is little wonder that many people balk at buying new cars when they have to allow from $500 to $1,000 for taxes — with nothing to show for it.

We are not economists, but it seems that with Canada in such a strong position that our dollar is worth more than the mighty United States dollar, the conditions mentioned by Mr. Abbott are nigh. He has imposed taxes between budget times, and therefore he will find it difficult to argue that he cannot remove them without waiting until next April or May.

Of course, if the levies were reduced this fall, people might forget the "blessings" the Government has given them by the time elections roll around.

PRESS COMMENTS

GLAMOR DIES IN A BARN

Ottawa Journal

The indomitable law has caught up with the Boyd gang and these four gunmen are brought back to custody by ordinary policemen who did their job in the ordinary way of going out and looking.

In the chase was a helicopter, machine guns, speeding autos and the busy radio, but in the end the capture was made by two policemen searching barns in the Toronto area.

A triumph for the forces of justice, this incident. The escaped prisoners had been advertised far and wide as men who would shoot if cornered; they surrendered meekly despite their automatics and pockets full of ammunition, surrendered to policemen carrying old-fashioned-issue revolvers. Whatever underworld organization may have helped them in their escape from the Don Jail failed them in their getaway. At last they found themselves deserted, cold and hungry, thin shadows of bombastic crime lords.

In some stages of their career the members of the gang may have appeared to make crime pay, not least when they were able to make their escape from prison with indictments they had been able to find assistance from the outside. Youthful imagination may have seen some glamor in the bandits at that hour, and there might have been misguided respect for them had they fought to the last when the police found them. But now they have nothing.

Their fame died as witnesses saw their pale unshaven faces, when they cringed like hoboes in a comfortless barn, when they admitted by their demeanor that their courage had left them and they would welcome the warmth of a prison cell.

The community is fortunate the chase should end thus, all that remains is to investigate fully the circumstances of their escape and see that their trials for the crimes of which they are accused are carried forward with expedition and their cases closed.

RESISTANCE TO OFFICERS

Chatham News

In Windsor police court the other day, a magistrate imposed a fine of $200 on a man found guilty of striking a police officer in the discharge of his duties.

The officer had been called to eject the offender from an hotel, and the accused put up a fight. The heavy penalty is, or should be, a reminder that the law takes a decidedly dim view of resistance to its officers.

The principle, that the person of a law officer must be inviolate, is derived by Canada from England, where it seems to have been first established by Henry II, in his time known as "the lion of justice."

Henry strove to have disputes settled, not by lethal weapons, but by impartial courts; and from that time was slowly and painfully developed the rule of law, to which we owe it that our own lives are orderly and peaceful.

Resistance to a law officer is not merely an assault on an individual; it is a resistance to the law itself, which, if the state is to survive, must be supreme.

There have, unfortunately, been too many instances in recent years of resistance to law officers; and, also unfortunately, at least a few instances where judges and magistrates forgot or ignored the duty they owed to the humbler men who did their work.

THE BOYS IN THE BACK CAR

Montreal Gazette

Governor Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic candidate in the United States, is having trouble with his speeches. It is not that they are not good enough. The trouble is that they are too good. Governor Stevenson himself works over them with the utmost care every day of his speaking tour. And he has the assistance of the same speech-writing team that worked with President Roosevelt, including Robert Sherwood and Archibald McLeish.

The product that emerges from this meticulous collaboration is so very good that it seems to some listeners a little unreal.

Certainly the methods of speech-making in election time are far different than they used to be. Back in the old days when Sir John A. Macdonald was on his election tours in Canada he never bothered with assistants, or even with manuscripts. His method has been described by one who travelled with him while he was touring the Meritimes in one of his campaigns. As the boat neared each little port, he would go up to the bow and look over the crowd that had gathered to hear him. Just by looking them over as the ship put in, he would make up his mind what he would say. It was all so shrewdly informal.

No doubt the very publicity nowadays given to every word of a political leader has made any freedom of speech impossible. A chance phrase might lose him the election. But perhaps politics has lost a good deal, now that the old homely, casual ways have gone.

Even before the candidate reaches the merest whistle-stop, the boys in the back car have been busy at it. And what the people finally get is not likely to have much humanity left in it.

A NEW WAY OF LIFE
 By BARBARA CORRIGAN

I knew I was no longer the same person the minute I snipped the light in the old parlor. There it was, just as Aunt Hermione had left it — the shabby overstuffed suite, the square piano, the marble mantelpiece cluttered with bric-a-brac, the sombre portraits on the walls — just as I had left it when Aunt Hermione died. A year had passed, and now I was back. I had been prepared to feel lonely, perhaps to cry a little, but I didn't. I merely felt very real, it was the house that seemed strange and unreal. That's how I realized how deeply I had changed. Before, it was the house, the house and Aunt Hermione who were real. I was the one who was insubstantial, who didn't fit in.

I looked at myself in the pier glass. That wasn't the Rosalie Fielding I had been accustomed to seeing reflected there, the old young schoolteacher dressed in the uniform-like navy blue dictated by her maiden aunt. This was an undeniably young woman, shapely in her English suit and cape taking off a small French hat to set free a fluff of auburn curls.

I wondered what our high-school principal would think of me now. Certainly I had never impressed Fred Alsted much before, although he had called on me once. Only once. Aunt Hermione had made sure of that. Still, he had been very helpful, almost attentive, when Aunt Hermione died, and it was he who suggested the trip abroad and arranged for my leave of absence. And he had written while I was in Europe, quite regularly, even if his letters had been brief and non-committal.

Fred Alsted would have to make his mind up about me, and soon or—well, an impolite French expression for him! I had changed, and there were going to be a lot of other changes made! The parlor was as good a place to begin as any.

As I was lifting down the last door "ancestor" from his nail the doorbell rang. Fred! I'd misjudged the man! I hadn't been able to tell him exactly when I would arrive, but here he'd been home for scarcely 15 minutes and he'd come to me! I was half-way along the hall before I discovered it wasn't the front bell at all, but the back.

I reversed my steps to the kitchen and opened the door on Elly. "Miss Rosalie!" she shrieked in welcome, then added doubtfully, "Miss Rosalie?"

"Elly!" I cried and threw my arms around her. "Miss Rosalie," she shook her head, "first I think that you and then I think that ain't you. You done change. But you look good, real good."

"Thank you, Elly. You look grand yourself. Everything looks grand."

"Oh, I get that telegram and I do just like it say, Miss Rosalie, clean up the house, fetch in the groceries, turn on the gas and electric. I just drop in now to see can I fix you some supper."

"No, thank you, Elly. I ate on the train. But tomorrow we'll talk our heads off while you help me get settled in."

"I'll be here first thing in the morning." On her way out she turned to me slyly. "What for you tell me bring in that bottle of wine and them cigarets along of the victuals?"

"For guests," I smiled. She grinned at me. "Honey, you done change. You sure done change."

Back in the parlor it was nine o'clock by the mantle clock. Sure-o'clock by the mantle clock. Sure-o'clock by the mantle clock. Sure-o'clock by the mantle clock. Sure-o'clock by the mantle clock.

He was infuriatingly vague. "You mean this room? It looks swell. Much more homey."

"I don't mean this room! I mean here! Haven't you noticed that I'm different?"

"Are you?" Fred looked into the fire, sucking steadily on his pipe. "Can people really change? A new environment, a new way of life may alter their habits, their appearance, but those are superficial."

"I angered me to have my own doubts on the subject tossed back at me. 'You will admit my appearance and habits have changed, I hope.'"

"Yes." "But you aren't surprised?" "No."

It was my turn to stare into the fire. "No," I concluded, "you deliberately sent me off to Europe to remind me—superficially! Wasn't that a sort of third-rate Pygmalion trick?"

"I thought you needed a rest. That's all! I'd finally succeeded in putting him on the defensive, and perversely, I was sorry, and a bit frightened. In another moment he would be saying it was time for him to run along."

"Fred," I spoke swiftly, "could you help me move the piano?" "Be glad to." He turned upon me menacingly that I giggled. I didn't mean to. Anybody knows men loathe being laughed at, but I

HOPELESS?

By REV. B. S. MURRAY, M.A.

There are some letters you remember! I happened upon one this morning. Its author was an educated man who, in trying to keep up with the Joneses, acted dishonestly and consequently served a penitentiary term. "Tell the people who read your Saturday sermon that there is real Devil!" he wrote, "and tell them too, of the Holy Spirit Who still performs the miracle of remaking broken lives. No power on earth or in hell can conquer the spirit of God."

Enclosed with the letter was a poem entitled Hopeless? — the source of this sermon. Those who keep their ears to the ground know that the complexities of life succeed in baffling people so completely that they are frustrated, neurotic, psychopathic, held in the chains of a rigid negative defeatism. Then there are those who are bitter because of the unfair treatment Society has accorded them. For one misdeed, society condemns the ninety and nine which are commendable. Here is crooked thinking that is both uncharitable and unchristian! It is impractical, too, for does not an axiom in Geometry declare that the whole is greater than the sum of its parts? In future then, when a fellow pilgrim "misses the mark" let us remember that the whole of his life may be much better than this one ailing spot. There is always hope! Jesus saw the possibilities within each sinner. Of course,

He knew that "out of the mire of things His lilies grow."

LIVE HOPEFULLY
From the lilies then, there comes a message of hope. Consider them! Do some straight thinking! From the dirty dark blyb there emerges a pure white lily that is both dynamic and beautiful. So, too, by the grace of God a sinner emerges a new man in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17).

Are you sick? Fearful, Trembling? Hurt and afraid? The Book of Hope—the Holy Bible—bids you remember that you are a child of a heavenly Father Who loves you! "Be not dismayed" He urges. Jesus who lived without worry, worked without hurry and advanced without fear bids you do the same. So take all your problems to Him in prayer and you will find a solution. Earth hath no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Discouraged? Discover, as David of old did, that the encouragement of the Lord is a sure cure for defeatism. God is our refuge and strength! Christ and His Church through sacrament and prayer and kindred "offices" provide paths of hope for stout hearts and new men, born from above (John 3:3) face, with courage, life's tasks and live hopefully. This, of course, implies confidence, trust and expectancy. "Hope thou in God" expecting great things from and attempting great things for Him for the Christian cannot expect too much. Therefore the future which God

HOW TWO IN THREE BIDS, WENT TO SEVEN

Today's hand shows the most startling bid made in the entire national tournament conducted by the American Contract Bridge League a few weeks ago in Cincinnati. Bill Hanna, of Los Angeles, bid a suit for the first time at the grand slam level—with only a singleton in that suit!

North's opening bid of three no-trump was unusual, but not startling. Most experts use such an opening bid to show a balanced hand of tremendous power, but a few experts use the opening bid of three no-trump to show a solid suit with perhaps some slight hope of winning a trick elsewhere. In other words, the bid is largely gambling and preemptive in nature.

Bill Hanna, holding the South hand, decided to add one gamble to another. His partner could probably win seven tricks with his solid suit. The South hand was good for five tricks in spades or diamonds. Hence there would probably be a good play for twelve tricks if the opening lead happened to be favorable, so Hanna took a shot at six no-trump.

This was more than East could stand. He was going to be on lead against six no-trump and he could see the ace and king of hearts nestling in his hand! So he doubled with great firmness and even greater speed.

Incidentally, this was one of the most unnecessary doubles ever recorded. The opponents were obviously in an unsound contract. East would surely get a fine score for beating six no-trump even if he failed to double. What could he gain by doubling? Maybe he didn't see what he could lose, but he soon found out.

Hanna looked at the South hand and reflected about that double. It certainly sounded ominous and positive. Evidently East was ready to take the first two tricks against six no-trump. The only hope was that West would only guess the right opening lead!

Why did he double? North's opening bid showed a minor suit. It had to be clubs. And, of course, it was.

West would have been a hero if he had led a heart, but he happened to choose a low spade instead. And Hanna rolled thirteen tricks home with great calm, as though he had grand slams that way every day of the week!

CARD SENSE
Q—With neither side vulnerable, the bidding has been: North East South West
1 Diamond 1 Heart ?
You, South, hold: Spades K-8-5, Hearts K-Q-9-5, Diamonds 7-3, Clubs K-J-4-2. What do you do?
A—Double. If North is a fine player he will treat your double as a co-operative effort. That is, he will let the double stand if he can help in the defense against hearts; but he will tend to bid again if he has a singleton heart (or none at all).

TODAY'S QUESTION
The bidding is the same as in South, hold: Spades A-5, Hearts the question just answered. You, 8-4, Diamonds Q-7-3-2, Clubs K-J-8-4-2. What do you do?
Answer Tomorrow

controls holds great expectations. So, whilst I look to today, I anticipate Tomorrow with hope.

DON'T FORGET THE ANGELS!
In travelling hopefully we must carry that indispensable—Hope—in our kit to the very end of the road. And don't forget the companionship of those messengers, and heavenly guides, the Angels whose ministry extends from the cradle to the grave at the Altar, at the hour of death and beyond to the Paradise of God. Their work which the Church of God recalls on the Festival of St. Michael and All Angels, September 29th, is very real and precious. For to the care of Guardian Angels God has committed you and charged them to enlighten, protect, direct and defend you this day (Psalm 91: 2).

... HIS LILIES GROW
If you encounter stormy weather along the Road of Life or mayhap find its duties, disciplines and weights heavy, invite both Hope which insists on getting music out of life's remainders and the Angels whom God has appointed to succor and defend us on earth, to go along with you. The Church needs those in whose hearts dwelleth Hope for from Hope made strong by faith springs our best endeavours. Alleluia! The Holy Spirit has a unique way of focussing His rays on life's bright side revealing a God of all grace, able to do all things. Even save sinners. Venture on Him! Venture wholly! None but Jesus can save (Acts 4:12) Full of pity, love and power, He stands ready to do that! Able and willing is He to receive and pardon all who, with repentance and faith, come unto Him determined that their lives henceforth shall be ordered by the governance of the Holy Spirit. And forward go, determined to serve Him duly in their work with thanksgiving!

In conclusion, if someone should read these lines who is still down in the mire and hasn't much to show from life, let him or her say farewell to Hopelessness knowing that "Still out of the mire of things His lilies grow."

The moon is receding from the earth at a rate of five feet every 100 years, and has been doing so for about 4,900,000,000 years.

R. C. A. F. Officially Ends Search For Missing Pilot From Asbestos

Asbestos, Sept. 27.—A letter received from the R. C. A. F. this week stated that no information had been discovered which would give any definite clue to solve the disappearance of a Harvard trainer piloted by Flying Officer Donald George Laxson, of Asbestos.

The search for the aircraft, which disappeared August 11 while on a flight from Summerside, P.E.I., has now ended officially but planes flying out of the navigation school have been instructed to keep a watch.

Flying Officer Laxson was accompanied by Pilot Officer Claude Labonte, of Masson, Que., radio officer. They were to have flown the plane to Trenton, Ont., the following day.

Flying Officer Laxson joined the R.C.A.F. in November 1950, and completed his basic training at London, Ont., where he was selected for pilot's training and posted to Centralia, Ont., where he received his wings in November, 1951.

He spent two months at the air gunnery school, Macdonald, Manitoba, and three months in jet training at Chatham, N.B. prior to his posting to Summerside on March 27 of this year, the day he celebrated his 21st birthday anniversary.

He had received his captain's rank on the Dakotas and Expeditors' week previous to his disappearance and had 700 flying hours to his credit.

The plane was last seen and identified over Charlottetown, flying in the direction of its home base, a 15-minute flight.

Flying Officer Laxson was considered one of the most efficient pilots at his station and had obtained the highest number of flying hours for the month of all the officers at the station. The loss of so capable a man cannot only be felt greatly by his parents but also the R.C.A.F. and the country he was serving so well.

water urged board members to sit in with various other bodies to deal with education. The public must be kept informed of what the board is trying to do in the educational field. Board members must appreciate the needs of education in turning out a whole child.

Boards, the speaker thought, gave too much time to detail. The prime responsibility of boards is to establish policy but the carrying out of policy should be left to the administrators. In the matter of some university professors decrying the "poor" crop of university students today, Dr. Westwater pointed out that the entrance exams for a good many universities were set by the schools of higher learning themselves.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. W. P. Percival, honorary secretary, who had brought greetings from the Ontario Public School Trustees' Association, and was thanked by Ald. Wesley H. Bradley, of Sherbrooke, newly-elected first vice-president of the P.A.P.S.B. Other P.A.P.S.B. officers are: Dr. W. P. Percival, honorary president; Dr. C. N. Crutchfield, Shawinigan Falls, past president; Robert Flood, Waterloo, president; H. E. French, Drummondville, second vice-president; executive: W. H. Baglow, Bedford; O. R. Jackman, Granby; J. P. Roy, Montreal; J. T. White, Ormstown; J. E. Morrison, Asbestos; William Redpath, Buckingham; H. L. Land, St. Lambert; A. R. Almond, Hudson; and A. W. Whitehead, Bury. A. W. Lang, of Montreal, was re-appointed executive secretary.

Owing to the illness of Dr. Crutchfield, Mr. Flood was chairman of the two-day annual meeting at Richmond, Danville and Asbestos. Yesterday's session began in the A.D.S. High School with the invocation by Rev. Cyril Foggo, of Danville United Church. The address of welcome was given by Mr. Morrison and Mr. Flood read a message from Dr. Crutchfield.

The secretary-treasurer's report by Mr. Lang showed that membership had dropped from 111 schools to only 59 in one year. Higher membership fees, an increase of four times what they were a year ago, were thought to be the reason. However, plans have been drawn up to assess schools by enrollment in the future.

Professor John Hughes of McGill was guest speaker at the luncheon held at the Iroquois Club. In "Rambling Thoughts of a Former School Trustee," he said that the real wealth in life were boys and girls. He commented on the shortage of teachers and said the money must be found to pay teachers better salaries.

L. Mowbray Clark, president of the Quebec Federations of Home and Schools, brought greetings from this organization and was speaking prior to a panel on "the Home and School looks at the School Board." He thought it desirable that there be a more friendly co-operation between these groups and stressed good public relations. Elmer Giles, Inspector General of Protestant Schools, brought the greetings of Dr. Percival, Quebec Director of Protestant Education.

A resolution was brought up asking that Central Boards make available grants to promising prospective teachers. However, the majority in the gathering felt that there were already enough financial drags on the Central

East Angus Man Receives Trial On Three Charges

Armand Grandbois, 38, of East Angus, charged with having seduced his 17-year-old stepdaughter and with having set fire to his barn, was sentenced to appear at the next criminal assizes when his preliminary hearing came up in Court of Sessions here yesterday.

A third charge—of having attempted to murder his wife—was thrown out by Judge Joseph Marier on the motion of non-suit made by defence counsel, Pierre Beaudry. Roland Dugre, Q.C., acted for the Crown.

The Crown contends that Grandbois tried to burn down his barn at East Angus some time ago. It had charged he wanted to burn his wife, the former Mrs. Leclerc, in the same fire, but the latter charge was dismissed because of no evidence.

In the matter of the seduction of his 17-year-old stepdaughter, the Crown charges this was first effected seven years ago.

But whatever Fred says, I could never have allowed myself to be kissed so abandonedly in navy blue serge.

Boards. A. R. Almond, head of the nominating committee, then presented the slate of new officers.

The permanent advisory committee is unchanged and consists of Dr. C. S. Harris, of Magog; Dr. R. H. Stevenson, Danville; Harry W. Jones, Bedford; B. W. Draper, Bedford; and J. V. Waddell, Ste. Rose.

A further resolution was adopted, to urge the Federal Government to remit the 10 per cent tax on building supplies to alleviate the burdens on extensions to new schools.

A reception tendered by the Canadian Johns-Manville Company preceded the concluding banquet.

Besides the guest speaker at the banquet, brief addresses were made by: E. Dyson, chairman of the R.D.A. School Board, official host at the annual meeting; H. G. Greene, president of the High School Principals' Association; Dr. L. P. Patterson, president of the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers; Mrs. A. D. Tector, president of the A.D.S. Home and School; and L. Mowbray Clark, who expressed the Federations' regret at Dr. Crutchfield's illness.

Mr. Flood expressed the thanks to the entire gathering about 75 persons were present at the banquet, O. Mr. Dyson, Mr. Morrison, H. P. Stone, C. W. Dickson and L. P. Somerville, for arranging the annual meeting in this district. He expressed the regret of all present at the retirement from her executive of H. B. Lee, of St. Lambert, after 17 years of service. A scroll of honor was presented to past president A. R. Almond and W. J. Piper, Hudson Heights, extended thanks to the host board.

Local Artists Will Appear With Symphony

Two young local artists will appear as soloists at the fourth and final concert of the Symphony season, Mimi Bachand, contralto, and Laurette Codere, pianist, both well known to music lovers of the Eastern Townships.

Mimi Bachand, daughter of the eminent local pianist, Leonidas Bachand, has already participated in concerts of Jeunesses Musicales. As the final Symphony concert, she will interpret a work of the local composer, Paul-Marcel Robitoux, with orchestration by Sylvio Lacharite, conductor of the Sherbrooke Symphony Orchestra. Words are taken from a poem "Attente" by Clara Lantueau, a blind poetess, an extract of "Visions Encloses."

Miss Codere, granddaughter of Mrs. L. E. Codere, eminent Sherbrooke composer and pianist, has won prizes at the Youth Festival, and has participated in many concerts sponsored by musical circles here—appearing as guest artist at the annual concert of Beta Sigma Phi, Jeudi Musical, Schubert Club and recitals of the Cercle Vincent d'Indy.

She received her baccalaureate in music from the Vincent d'Indy school and Claude Champagne was her composition professor for several years. She studied piano with Jean Dansereau for four years. At the Symphony concert, Miss Codere will play a Haydn concerto for piano.

Symphony Tea Will Be Held Sunday Afternoon

The first tea of the season by the local Symphony Orchestra Society will take place tomorrow at the Social Club, from four until six p.m.

Dr. Jacques Olivier, president, also announces that the first concert of the Symphony season, scheduled previously for November 18, has been postponed until December 2 because of difficulties in booking the Granada Theatre.

Indians Fail So Culp Has No Shave For Year

Cleveland, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A pennant for New York Yankees concerns no one more than bearded tavern owner Lloyd Culp. A shave for at least another baseball season would cost him $400. Culp, 40, started the beard in May, 1951, when he bet business man Tommy O'Toole $400 he wouldn't shave until the Indians took a flag. So now, glancing at the beard, he thinks about $400.

In the 16 months since May, 1951, the beard has grown to a 10-inch length that covers an impressive part of Culp's chest.

The Doctor Says

SULFAS HELP BRIGHT'S DISEASE CAUSED BY ACUTE INFECTIONS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Nephritis, or Bright's disease, is a result partly of inflammation and partly of degeneration of the kidneys. It interferes with some of the functions of the kidneys.

Richard Bright, for whom the disease is named, was born in Bristol, England, in 1789, and was graduated from the University of Edinburgh in 1813. He was one of the famous men attached to Guy's Hospital in London, which is one of the famous voluntary teaching hospitals situated in that city.

His classic report on nephritis appeared in 1827. In it he pointed out the connection between dropsy (or edema), the presence of albumin (a kind of protein) in the urine, and hardened or shrunken kidneys.

He even found that there was an excessive accumulation of a substance called urea in the blood of patients with the particular condition which he was studying.

Nephritis, unlike a great many other disorders of the body, is not really a single disease. It can come on without any apparent cause or it can follow acute infections such as scarlet fever, tonsillitis or pneumonia.

Just how these infections produce Bright's disease—and they do not always cause this difficulty—is not quite clear.

There is often quite a long time between the acute infection and the appearance of the first signs of nephritis. It remains for future research to discover the way in which nephritis is brought about and to improve the means of preventing this complication.

The trouble in the kidneys is not always the same. Sometimes one part of the kidney is damaged

HIGH FOREST

A meeting of the Red Cross Society was held at the home of Mrs. Clive Thompson on September 17. This was the opening meeting after the summer recess. There were seven members and three visitors present. After a busy work period, the business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Graham, in the usual manner. The minutes were read and approved. A member who is ill is to be remembered with fruit. All bills were ordered paid. Twenty-nine finished articles were turned in and more work was given out. The meeting closed and all enjoyed the delicious refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McConnell and two sons were in Lake Megantic calling on old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin Lowry and son were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Merrill, in Bulwer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith and son, Wayne, of Sawyerville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John McBurney.

Miss Gareth Forgrave, R.N., of Montreal, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Forgrave.

Mrs. R. E. Lowry and son, Roland, visited her father, Mr. James Kingsley, in Birchton.

more than another. Sometimes the damage seems to be so slight that it fails before symptoms begin to show up.

At other times the condition may progress gradually over a period of months or years, destroying more and more of the functions of the kidneys. When this happens there is a constant worsening of the symptoms.

Burden On Kidneys
A reader asks if the drinking of beer has anything to do with nephritis. Beer alone probably cannot cause a true nephritis, but if taken in considerable quantity, it throws an added burden on the kidneys, and would therefore be considered inadvisable, as a rule, for a person with Bright's disease.

It looks as though there will be fewer cases of nephritis in the future because several of the diseases commonly causing it, like pneumonia and scarlet fever, yield quite well to the sulfa drugs or penicillin. This hoped-for result should show up as time passes.

CHOW TIME—A French soldier buys a meal in the market-place of a town in Indo-China. The woman is one of the 1,000,000 adherents of the Cao-Dai sect, one of the politico-religious bodies in the southeast Asia country, torn by six years of civil war. The 27-year-old sect is headed by a white-garbed "pope," a former Roman Catholic, and it has a college of cardinals and its dioceses are headed by bishops and archbishops. Canadian missionaries in Indo-China say Cao-Dai exercises a "terrible influence." Once a family joins the sect it cannot leave without risk of death. (CP Photo)

REAL BUSH-BUTTON WAR BLASTS FOE—When the U.S. Navy used guided missiles to bombard Korean enemy targets 150 miles away, it was the pay-off on hundreds of experiments in "push-button" warfare. Pictures below, taken during those experiments, show just how guided missiles are used. Essentially, the routine is simple. A deck controller manipulates electronic instruments to take the pilotless drone plane off the carrier's deck into the air. When the drone, guided from the deck, reaches 500 feet altitude, the "mother" plane, which has been circling above, takes over. It guides the missile plane into the target, hovering safely above flak range. On the drone is a television transmitter. TV receivers on the mother plane and the carrier enable officers to follow every second of the drone's flight. In actual combat, the drone was an obsolescent Hellcat fighter, carrying a 2,000-pound bomb. It was guided by two AD-2 Douglas attack planes, one on the deck of the carrier USS Boxer, the other aloft as the "mother" plane. Each was loaded with secret electronic equipment.

This is the heart of "push-button" warfare. A pilot, manipulating buttons on electronic switch-boxes like the ones seen in the photo, above, guides a pilotless Hellcat fighter plane along a carrier's deck and into the air. At proper altitude, pilot of mother plane, with a similar "keyboard" before him, takes over the robot plane and guides it to its target. Robot pilot here is Lt. Comdr. W. G. Maurer.

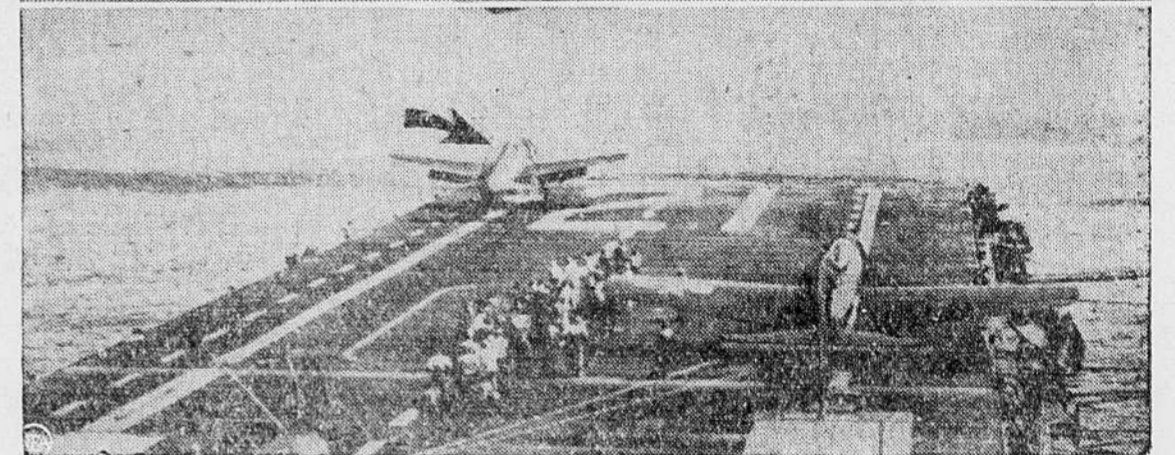

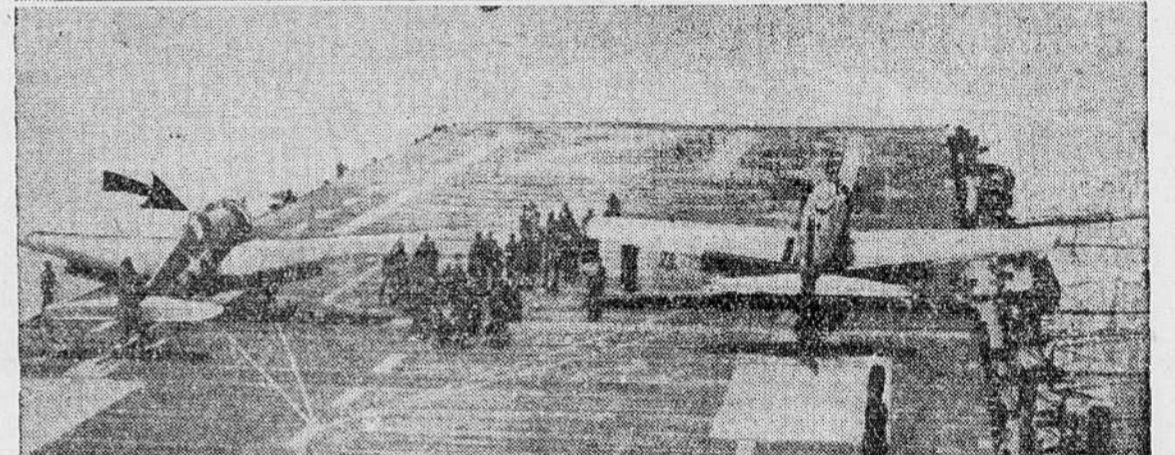

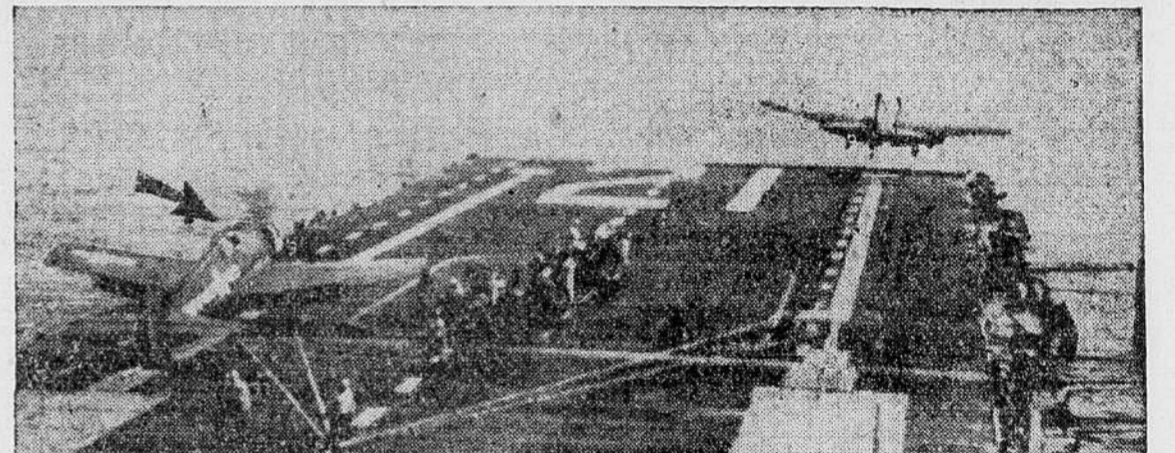

Here, as awe-struck crewmen watch, robot plane is catapulted into the air by remote control.

The drone plane, right, soars on course to the target, guided by the mother plane at its rear.

URANIUM CLAIM—Bob Calder, veteran prospector and said to be one of the best men with a geiger counter in the northland, marks his claim stake in the uranium staking rush in northwestern Saskatchewan. The geiger counter is carried by prospectors seeking uranium-bearing ore. A special series of clicks tells the prospectors where the ground is promising.

GUIDED MISSILE TAKES OFF FOR KOREA—These pictures, first to be released by the Department of Defense, show the launching of a pilotless Navy F-6F plane, armed with a powerful warhead, against a Communist target in Korea. At top, an AD-2 guide plane (right) takes off from the deck of the carrier Boxer to stand by overhead while the drone, or guided missile (arrow), is readied for launching. The drone is then launched (center photo) by another guide plane at right which waits until it is aloft (bottom photo), then follows it into the air and guides it until control is taken over by the guide plane which took off previously. This latter plane then directs the drone to its target and causes it to crash into its objective. (U.S. Navy Photos from NEA Telephoto)

MAY BE BARRED FROM U.S.—The Immigration Service has been ordered by Attorney General James P. McGranery to bar screen actor Charlie Chaplin from re-entering the U.S. until a hearing determines whether he is "admissible." Chaplin is now en route to England for a movie premiere. Above, he is shown with his wife, the former Oona O'Neill, in New York prior to his sailing. (NEA Telephoto)

MEET TITO'S BRIDE—Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia stands by beaming as his bride, Jovenka, 23, is greeted by U.S. Ambassador George Allen and Mrs. Allen (left) in Belgrade. Occasion was a reception for British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden. The Yugoslav dictator, 60, kept his wedding a secret for three months. (NEA Telephoto)

TOP PILOT—Flt. Lt. Ernest Glover of Leaside, Ont., who has the best score of the half-dozen R.C.A.F. pilots serving with the U.S. air force against the Communists in Korea, is on his way to becoming an ace. In two days he destroyed two Red MIGs; an "ace" is a flier with five destroyed. Glover also has damaged three Communist planes. During the Second World War the 29-year-old pilot flew Hurricanes for the R.A.F. until shot down and taken prisoner.

LANDMARK DEMOLISHED—Two major fires, causing millions of dollars damage, failed to wipe out historic Bonaventure station in Montreal, but demolition men now are slowly tearing it down. The Canadian National Railway's terminal, once a railway showplace, handled millions of travellers since it was built in 1887. Shown is the interior of the concourse. A tottering steel pillar holds up the roof as ornate plaster frescoes, the huge fireplace and old plaques and carvings await the pick and sledge. (CP Photo)

"Reality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, this Sunday, September 28th.

This Lesson-Sermon brings out that God's creation, which constitutes reality, is spiritual, harmonious, eternal; whereas the apparent universe of matter, including all discord and decay, grows out of the mistaken belief that "the dust of the ground... became a living soul."

The Golden Text is from I Chronicles (29:11): "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all."

Bible citations include the following: "He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding." (Jer. 51:15).

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following: "The three great verities of Spirit, omnipotence, omnipresence, omniscience,—Spirit possessing all power, filling all space, constituting all Science,—contradict forever the belief that matter can be actual. These eternal verities reveal primal existence as the radiant reality of God's creation, in which all that He has made is pronounced by His wisdom good."

W. A. Heath, B. A., Speaker At N. Hatley W. I.

North Hatley, Sept. 27. — The members of the North Hatley branch of the Quebec Women's Institute were delighted to welcome to their September meeting, Mr. William Heath, B.A., principal of the North Hatley Consolidated School, and other members of the teaching staff.

Introduced by the convener of education, Mrs. Jack McKay, Mr. Heath spoke about some aspects of the school, and the work which he hopes to do. He stated that he found the buildings in excellent condition and the equipment good.

Extra curricular activities are bound to suffer to some extent, as a result of the pupils of Grades X and XI attending Lennoxville High School this year. He spoke particularly of the excellent Year Book which the school put out last year.

He referred to the difficulty of getting teachers of Domestic Science, who were willing to travel throughout the country to teach that subject in the smaller schools.

He expressed himself as hoping for a successful year and thanked the member of the Women's Institute for the interest, which they had shown in the school.

All present found his talk most helpful and were glad of the opportunity to meet the staff members, as well as welcome back those who have taught here before.

The meeting learned that Miss Gloria Nelson, was the winner of the North Hatley High School Memorial Scholarship for the school term just completed, 1951-52, and that Miss Nelson is entering Bishop's University this fall.

Another pupil of the school, Miss Gwen Conner, has won the County Scholarship offered by the Women's Institute of the county. This branch voted to support the Memorial Scholarship for another year.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Barnabas' Anglican Church, North Hatley, held its first fall meeting at the Community Hall.

The president, Mrs. C. S. Daintrey, was in the chair, and conducted the meeting through the several items of business on hand. The question of gifts of money and used clothing for the Madaglene Isle was discussed, and arrangements were made for a party for Miss Imogene Kezar, to be held in the Community Hall, on the evening of September 30th, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. John McKay presented $5.00 from the sale of sweet peas, which were donated by Mrs. Dickenson, and sold by little Misses Jinya McKay and Karen Pike, and Laddie McKay.

Mrs. Daintrey expressed the regret of all at the departure of Rev. Mark, and Mrs. Beaufoy, and plans were completed for a farewell party to be given them at the Community Hall.

Mrs. Daintrey then welcomed His Grace, Archbishop Carrington, who gave a brief, informal talk on his recent trip to Europe.

At the conclusion of this talk, which was enjoyed by all present, tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Dickenson and Mrs. Marshall.

LADIES' CIRCLE

The Ladies' Circle of the North Hatley Baptist Church held a regular afternoon meeting at the Community Hall.

The members were reminded of several important dates among them being the probable date of the induction service for the new pastor, Rev. F. C. Amery, which will be held in Sherbrooke, at the Baptist Church, on the evening of Friday, October 3rd.

Plans were outlined for a fall "Harvest Supper" to be held at the Community Hall, on October 22nd, and several committees were appointed to take charge of this work.

At the close of the business hour, tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Garland Conner and Mrs. Stuart Taylor.

The Circle was happy to welcome as a new member, Mrs. Fischer.

There's talk these days that a dollar doesn't go very far... but one thing is sure: you can go a lot further with dollars than you can without them.

TEMPORARY BRIDGE—The civil war in Indo-China is between the Communist-led Vietminh and the French and anti-Communist Viet Namese. The latter have the preponderance of men and armament but are held at bay by an elusive enemy fighting with nationalistic zeal. French officers say the pattern of warfare in Indo-China is being studied as a guide to the type of fighting the Communists would use in Europe in a Third World War. There are conventionally grouped armies, regional troops recruited locally to battle police forces and well-trained "fifth columns" to conduct guerrilla warfare (blow bridges for example) and sabotage civilian activities. ## Baseball Game To Aid Fair-Share Campaign

The Independent Baseball League All-Stars will play against Sherbrooke Athletics in an exhibition game at Dufresne Park tomorrow afternoon. Proceeds of the collection taken up will be given the Fair-Share campaign in aid of the Seminary. The game commences at 2:30 o'clock.

All-Stars coach Nelson Adams, who piloted the Duquette entry in the Independent Baseball League this year, has lined up a strong squad to do battle against the intermediates.

Coach Adams requests that members of the chosen squad phone him sometime today or early tomorrow, at 2-9500.

The following are the players lined up by the Independent loop: Jacques Hamel, pitcher; Charles Warner, catcher; Al Hunting, first base; Fern Bolduc, second base; Dupont, third base; Claude Burrell, short stop; Tony Camirand, centre field; Charlie Clarke, left field; Fern Cote, right field; Gauthier and Norris are the only two alternates lined up so far.

Stan Musial May Get Chance To Hurl Tilt

St. Louis, Sept. 27—(AP)—Versatile Stan Musial of St. Louis Cardinals, alternately an outfielder and first baseman in recent seasons, may get a chance Sunday to pitch against his rival for the National League hitting championship.

Cardinal Manager Eddie Stanky disclosed plans for the bit of nonsense for the club's final game of the season—if the Cardinals have clinched third place before then and if League President Warren Giles approves.

Musial will be shooting for his sixth league hitting championship in the three-game, season-ending series with the Chicago Cubs starting last night. He had a .336 average before tonight's game, with Frankie Baumholtz of the Cubs trailing by only six points.

Musial is no stranger to the mound. He broke into pro baseball as a pitcher. But he hasn't pitched since an arm injury 12 years ago turned him from a class D pitcher into one of the greatest hitters in the major leagues.

SAINTS OPEN EXHIBITION SLATE TOMORROW

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 Coach Ivan Dugre will trot out the 1952 edition of the Sherbrooke Saints when they tangle with the Canadiens Juniors of the Quebec Junior Hockey Association in the first exhibition game of the season at the Sherbrooke Arena.

The game will serve as a test for the local pilot to try out the new members and will at the same time afford him an opportunity of seeing the squad in action as a whole unit. Several newcomers have joined the team and during the practices they have showed up well but the opposition hasn't been very strong.

On Thursday Coach Dugre and Forest Keene travelled to Montreal for a conflag with General Manager Frank Selke and we can say that the trip turned out to good advantage to the local hockey moguls. They secured the rights on Gilles Dube, Tod Campeau and Jacques Locas in return for a bundle of cash and Jacques Prefontaine. At the same time Mr. Selke agreed to loan them a fourth player for the season following the end of his training session.

We were not informed of the amount of money involved but looking at the deal we think that the locals made a good bargain. Campeau and Locas were anxious to come to Sherbrooke and we think that they will prove very useful to the Saints. It was a known affair that the future of Tod Campeau was hanging in the dark and that the Canadiens didn't want him to return here. That was after his famous interview, which appeared in a Montreal sport magazine, last spring but things had a chance to cool off a little since then.

We think that Tod should consider himself very lucky he has come back to Sherbrooke instead of being shipped to the minors somewhere. As for Locas he was very dissatisfied with the Royals and last year didn't exert himself to any great degree. When notified that he was sold to Sherbrooke he was very pleased with the deal and was anxious to join his new club mates.

We know that at first the Canadiens wanted close to $5,000 for Campeau alone and that he was going to be sold regardless of where he went. Mr. Selke notified the local club to that effect and gave them first chance at his contract. We don't know what amount of money was paid out but we figure that it was below that sum as Prefontaine was used to offset it a little. The Royals can make use of a good player like Jacques but we won't be surprised if he fails to see service with the Morin-coached club.

The main job of the Royals at present is to try and develop players for the major club and anyone over a certain age limit with no future in pro ranks will have a hard job of catching a berth on the club. Dube should come through with something this year and with Campeau back in the pivot slot they should prove a pretty valuable combination to the Saints.

The Smelle twins have been ordered back to Sherbrooke and Toe Blake's Braves will get their fingers burned, if they offer them a contract as it has been proven that the boys accepted terms with the Saints previous to going to Valleyfield. It will cost Mr. Vinet the cool sum of $2,000 if he insists on holding them.

The team is shaping up pretty well and when everybody reports back at the beginning of the week it will be better. Each practice the new comers are coming along and we think with a little more time they will hold their own with the best of them. We especially like Pete Wywrot, Marcel Clements and John Lumley up front with Ronnie Matthews, Roger Roberge and Gerry Furlong on the blue-line and with the addition of a couple more players the Saints should prove a real driving team able to look after itself when the going gets tough.

So fans tomorrow afternoon you will see these new men in action but don't expect too much as they seem to be a little short on the conditioning as it takes more than five days to get back in good shape after a summer layoff. Anyway come up on and take a glance at them. We are pretty sure you won't be disappointed.

A few of the boys are still hunting for apartments so if anyone has one don't hesitate in calling J. R. Manseau at the Arena. If Pete Wywrot has his better-half here with him and he is very anxious to locate a place to settle down. A small three or four room furnished place would be just the thing says Pete, the hard working pivot man. So fans if you know of a place don't forget to give the secretary-treasurer a call. The number is 2-3222 and is the busiest phone in the city just at present.

Big Chief Reynolds practically assured the New York Yankees of their fourth straight American League pennant Thursday afternoon when he tossed an eight-hitter and then broke a 2-2 tie with the game winning single in the top of the ninth.

The win gave the Stengel crew the edge in the fight with the Indians. The Yanks seem to possess what it takes to make a championship team and should cop the pennant. It was a pretty close battle the whole way and as we predicted it will finish at the wire.

The Dodgers have been resting their regulars the past week for the World Series but the experts are putting their money on the Yanks to take the Series and we are stringing along with them. We figure the difference will be in the pitching and in this department the Yanks hold the edge.

The football scene this week-end should produce some pretty good ball as the American imports will be going all out in order to try and land themselves a job for the rest of the season. The decline for reducing the number is next week and that is the reason why we figure that the boys will be going all out.

The Als have yet to cop a game but perhaps they may upset the Argos for their first win. Stranger things have happened. The Walker crew have come along in fine stride lately and should finish strongly, at least that is what all the experts predict. So don't forget to tune in for the games and enjoy yourself.

The Textile team copped the championship of the Sherbrooke Industrial Softball League when they knocked off the Sermac squad in three straight and proved that they deserve the title.

If anyone watched the last game there should be no doubt in their mind regarding the better team. The Textile club just was too good for the Cochrane aggregation and they had things pretty much their own way.

To the winners congratulations and to Mr. Cochrane and Company as they used to say in Brooklyn "Wait until next year."

Native Dancer Heads Classy Field In Stake

New York, Sept. 27—(AP)—Native Dancer heads the field of 10 juveniles named for today's rich Belmont Futurity. The race is six and a half furlongs down the Widener Course. It carries a purse expected to be double that of the $50,000 added money.

All contestants will carry 122 pounds on a weight for age basis. Others in the field are the Cain Hoy entry of Dark Star and Count Cain, and Tiger Skin, Little Request, Platan, Mr. Paradise, Basanio, Tahitian King and King Pin.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27—(AP)—The New York Yankees clinched their fourth consecutive American League pennant last night when Billy Martin cracked a two-out bases loaded single in the top of the 11th inning to drive in two mates and pave the way for a 5-2 triumph over the fighting Philadelphia Athletics. The victory assured the Yankees of their 19th championship in the last 32 years.

Johnny Sain, 34-year-old right-hander, who pitched the Boston Braves to a National League pennant in 1948, was the winning pitcher, hurrying two and one third innings of scoreless relief after squelching a Philadelphia threat in the bottom of the ninth. Harry Byrd, brilliant rookie right-hander, who went all the way for the A's, was charged with the defeat.

The victory gave Manager Casey Stengel, of the Yankees, the distinction of leading a team to four straight pennants, previously accomplished only by Joe McCarthy and John McGraw. McCarthy piloted the Yankees to flags in 1936-37-'38 and '39. McGraw steered the New York Giants to pennants in 1921-22-23 and 24. Stengel is the first manager ever to win four in a row in his first four years in a row, and their 20th in the last 24 games. The Yankees now lead the second place Cleveland by three full games. Each team has two games left to play. Even should the Indians win their two, and the Yankees lose their two, the Yanks would still lead by one game at the close of the campaign. Until Martin wrapped up the Yankee victory with his decisive single, all runs for both sides resulted from home runs. Irv Noren, socked his fifth homer of the season in the third. Mickey Mantle rapped his 23rd round tripper in the fourth. Big Gus Zernial homered for the A's.

McMaster And Ottawa To Meet In Rowing Race

Ottawa, Sept. 27—(AP)—McMaster University will put the F.D. Ross Memorial Trophy on the line today when its crew meets Ottawa University in the third annual classic over the 3 1/2 miles Ottawa River course.

McMaster captured the trophy in its first year of competition in 1950 and retained it again last year. The race starts opposite the Rockcliffe R.C.A.F. Air Station and finishes upstream at the Ottawa Rowing Club, just east of the Parliament Buildings.

SAINTS MEET CANADIENS JRS. HERE TOMORROW

Sammy Pollock's Star-Studded Youngsters To Open Local Hockey Season; Campeau And Locals To Play

Coach Sammy Pollock will lead a band of twenty-two aspiring junior players into town tomorrow for a tussle with the Sherbrooke Saints at the Arena at 2:30.

The Canadiens will ice a strong squad comprised of several players who were members of the championship team last year. The Pollock squad copped the Quebec Junior Hockey Association crown last season when they defeated Phil Watson's club in the finals but lost out to Guelph Biltmores for the Dominion crown.

Coach Dugre will have fifteen men ready to go through their paces and will use several different combinations while doing so. Tod Campeau and Jacques Locas will be in uniform for the tilt as well as all the newcomers trying out for a berth on the team.

CHARLIE HODGE

On defense the locals will have Guy Labrie, captain of last year's team, and Ronnie Matthews working as one unit while Roger Roberge and Gerry Furlong will form the other duo. Up front the local pilot had not as yet made up his mind just how he will team up the players but he has ten to throw into the fray with the youngsters.

The arrival of Campeau and Locas will give Coach Dugre a little extra manpower. During the workouts Ken Biggs worked between John Lumley and Tom McDougall, while Pete Wywrot pivoted Gilles Dube and Bobby Pepin.

The other line was made up of Joannette, Pierre Cadieux and Marcel Clements. It is doubtful if Joannette will see action as he pulled a groin muscle and will be out for a few days. In the nets Roger Bessette will work the game with Paul Deschene standing by as the second net minder.

Charlie Hodge will be in the nets for the visitors and this youngster is considered as a future net minder for the Senior Canadiens. Gordie Hollingsworth is one of the top rearwards with the club and is headed for greater heights with Dick Irvin's Canadiens.

Dave McCready was with the club when they won the Memorial Cup the previous year and performed with the Senior Royals in a few games last season. He registered a total of 38 goals and 45 assists to finish as top scorer on his club. Ronnie Atwell is another promising junior who hails from Toronto. Bryan MacKay is another former Memorial Cup player and works on the blue-line.

Henri "Flash" Richard, a brother of Maurice Richard, played last year with the Nationales under Pete Morin and is considered as another coming star like his older brother. Guy Rousseau, brother of Rollie Rousseau with the Royals, patrols the wing position while Claude Provost and Claude Vinet, kid brother of Bernie Vinet who played with the Saints two years ago, also works up front.

Coach Pollock has one of the best junior aggregations in the ranks and packs plenty of power in all departments. Jimmy Slater of Montreal will handle the referee's duties with Gerry Mathieu and Frank Morehouse working the lines.

Tickets can be obtained this afternoon at the Arena and tomorrow before game time. Reserve ticket holders have first claim on their duets but tomorrow all tickets will be on sale.

Irish Jimmy Nolan And Yvon Durelle May Meet

Calgary, Sept. 27—(AP)—Boxing promoter Ernie Farr announced yesterday that Irish Jimmy Nolan of Calgary and Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., will meet in a middleweight match in Calgary early next month.

Nolan is the western middleweight champion and Durelle claims the east title.

Farr said he is awaiting word from the Canadian Boxing Federation as to whether the Nolan-Durelle go for will be an elimination fight or for the Canadian middleweight title now held by Roy Wouters.

Wouters, an ex-Calgarian, has not defended his title since July, 1950.

Dodgers Not Afraid Of Yanks After Giant Run

Brooklyn, Sept. 27—(AP)—The word "Yankee" on a uniform shirt no longer means superman to Brooklyn Dodgers.

Relaxed after clinching the National League pennant Monday, the Dodgers confidently wait for New York Yanks to end matters in the American.

When you've lived with the haunting memory of New York Giants and the 1951 collapse for 12 months, the Yanks can hold no terror. That nightmare of September, 1951, was a throbbing thing.

"Nobody would admit it," said Pee Wee Reese, Dodger captain. "But after it was all over we knew we had it in the back of our minds."

"Like I told Jackie (Robinson) after we clinched it we all were thinking 'Can we blow this again?' With the Giants getting close and us losing, it looked too much like the same pattern as last year."

"Why should we worry about the Yanks? All we have to do is get ourselves hepped up about the series."

The Yankees are 8 to 5 favorites to take the World Series.

Cotton-Daly Duo Down Locke-Brown In Match

Walton Heath, England, Sept. 27—(AP)—Henry Cotton and Irishman Fred Daly, British match play golf champion, trounced South African Locke, British Open Champion, and Scotsman Eric Brown 8 and 7 in a 36-hole four ball challenge match today.

A crowd of nearly 1,000 watched the play over Walton Heath course for a $1,400 prize.

Football Coaches Getting Soft; How They Are Throwing Bouquets At Opposition; Als Home To Argos

Say, what's going on in this big-league football business?

Here, a rough week-end is coming up in the East and West and a couple of the fellows—Coach Glenn Dobbs of Saskatchewan Roughriders and General Manager Lew Hayman of Montreal Alouettes in the Big Four are tossing bouquets at the opposition. According to custom, these would be "hate-em" days.

Says Dobbs: "Winnipeg Blue Bombers are the greatest team I've seen since coming to Canada."

Says Hayman: "This year's Argonaut team is one of the most formidable clubs I've coached or witnessed in Toronto." (Hayman coached Argonaut teams from 1933 to 1943.)

Maybe these fellows are right, but a look at the week-end schedule shows the winless Als meeting the league-leading and undefeated Argonauts in Montreal Sunday afternoon. Could Hayman be trying to soften up the Double Blues for a kill before those rabid Montreal fans?

Or did that 43-0 killer-diller Argonauts hung on the Als earlier this seasons convince Lew that this 1952 edition of the Toronto team really has it.

Gentleman Glenn, who came to Canada two years ago from Los Angeles Dons, probably is convinc-

Suggestion Of A Grey Cup Final In Winnipeg Receives Cool Reception

Winnipeg, Sept. 27—(CP)—A piece of business on the Canadian Rugby Union's annual meeting agenda next spring is likely to be: "Consideration of Winnipeg as a site for the Grey Cup final." From present indications, it will receive a mixed reception.

This city will have a new 10,000-capacity stadium with bleacher space for another 20,000, it was announced yesterday, but the idea it might "steal" the football classic from Toronto received some opposition. The stadium will be ready Aug. 1, 1953.

Club and league officials in Eastern Canada believe it is a good idea to have such a park but they all took the view that it is up to the C.R.U. to decide about venue of the last-Saturday-in-November spectacle. Some Western sports writers are afraid the frigid late-November weather conditions are against a Winnipeg final.

The C.R.U. constitution says the game must be held in Toronto and it is up to delegates — from the Western Canada Conference, Big Four and C.R.F.U. — to change it if they wish.

Maurice Smith, sports editor of the Winnipeg Free Press, said today that "Manitoba weather just isn't made for football late in November."

"Not only would it be tough on the players, but we don't think the spectators — even if 27,000 of them (Varsity Stadium capacity) did turn up — would be very comfortable sitting in open stands watching a game."

"No, we're afraid that neither Winnipeg nor any other prairie football centre will play host to the Grey Cup Final, unless they decide to play it in September. And there doesn't seem much chance of that."

Scotty Melville of the Regina Leader-Post, had this to say: "The only comment here... is that weather conditions must be suitable. Can Winnipeg guarantee it won't be 20 below the last Saturday in November? I see the weather as the only hitch (to a Grey Cup Final) on the Prairies."

Gorde Hunter of the Winnipeg Tribune said that "much as we would like to see such an event come to pass, we doubt if it ever will..."

"Regardless of how many people could be squeezed into such a new stadium, Winnipeg's cold November weather will make C.R.U. heads think twice about playing their big money-maker in the West..."

Much as we would like to see the grid extravaganza held right here in Winnipeg, it just would not be fair to the competing teams, or for that matter, to the fans who pay the shot."

General Manager Lew Hayman of Montreal Alouettes of the Big Four Union, said that "strong consideration" to Winnipeg staging the classic "would be given once we receive assurance that the 30,000-seat stadium would be ready by 1954."

Jack Welch of Ottawa, president of the Big Four, said it was "entirely a matter for the C.R.U. but personally I can't see why it should be changed."

"Toronto was decided on because of weather, and I don't think weather conditions are safe in Winnipeg at that time of the year, even with the (C.R.U.'s) tarpaulin."

Wes Brown, also of Ottawa, secretary of the Big Four, could see "no objection eventually of having the Grey Cup in Winnipeg. It might be done in alternative seasons, provided they have accommodation. Certainly, they could easily fill 30,000 seats out there. Of course, it's up to the C.R.U."

Jim McCaffery of Ottawa Rough Riders commented: "If the West has accommodation and suitable weather, I see no reason for not at least attempting the Grey Cup site."

Bob Moran, president of Toronto Argonauts, said only it is a matter for the C.R.U. to decide.

First work on the $500,000 stadium in Winnipeg's West End will start his fall and plans call for completion in the spring.

For anyone who needs a hearing aid. It provides a facility that makes life more worthwhile. It's fine to hear them say—

IT'S WONDERFUL TO Hear Again

—and my brand new Acousticon cost me only $69.50

Yes, that's right! Acousticon, the world's first and oldest manufacturer of electrical hearing aids, now makes a popular-priced aid for folks like me — who can't afford a higher priced aid. And am I thankful. One-piece, small, and lightweight, too—this aid is wonderful for me. Why don't you drop in, or write to the Acousticon people just like I did or phone (your number here).
