Mines Claim Further Neutral Shipping

Italians Now Suffer From Undersea War

Large Italian Freighter Reported Badly Damaged Off English Coast by Floating Mine — German Merchantman Intercepted Off Iceland as British Intensify Economic Blockade as Reprisal Move.

London, Nov. 22.—(P)—Warfare between Great Britain and Germany intensified today as Britain planned a blockade on German export trade in reprisal for recent shipping losses.

Six German planes bombed the Shetland Islands, north of Scotland. British sources said the raiders failed to hit any objectives.

The Admiralty announced a British warship had intercepted the 4,110-ton German freighter Bertha Fisser off Iceland's coast, stating the crew started to sink the ship, took to their boats, and were picked up by the warship.

The 6,660-ton Italian freighter Fianona was added to the list of mine victims off England's southeast coast. Although badly damaged by an explosion last night, she was still afloat today.

She was the sixteenth victim of mine and torpedo warfare off the British Isles in the last five days.

In the air German planes reconnoitered the East Coast for the third successive day. A German plane flew over villages along the mouth of the Thames. Beset by anti-aircraft fire and Royal Air Force fighters, it dived and hedge-hopped to shake off the pursuers. No air raid warning was sounded.

The Government announced that three German planes were shot down over the English coast. One of the planes was seen to be in flames as it fell. The other two were seen to be in flames as they fell. The third plane was seen to be in flames as it fell.

As the export seizure reprisal was imposed on Germany the British Government said that neutral traders would receive "the most sympathetic consideration possible." The new measure calls for seizure of all German exports on the high seas, regardless of whether they are in the neutral vessels or German.

A spokesman said the sole aim was to drive German products off the seas and thereby shut off foreign exchange to Germany. He added that "the Ministry of Economic Warfare is giving the deepest study to the problem of application of the new measure in a manner not to work hardship on neutrals."

France has decided to take similar blockade measures.

Tugs were trying to bring the badly holed Fianona into port today. None of the crew of 33 was reported injured. It was not at once clear if the Fianona carried any passengers.

The damage to the Italian liner was announced just as observers in London foretold swift acceleration of the war at sea in view of Britain's new measures of retaliation for what Prime Minister Chamberlain described as the "ruthless brutality" of German attacks on merchant shipping.

Stirred by the sinking of fifteen ships—including five neutrals in the last five days, the Admiralty moved to intensify the blockade against Germany by seizing all German exports on the high seas.

The blockade hitherto has been directed only against German imports.

New Brunswick Premier Seeking To Fill Three Vacancies In Cabinet

Saint John, N.B., Nov. 22.—(P)—New Brunswick speculated today over the choice of successors in the Provincial Cabinet to three ministers defeated in Monday's general election while the possibility arose that the victorious Government's representation in the Legislature might be increased by two.

J. B. Leger, returning officer in Restigouche County, indicated last night an official count next Monday of votes cast in Restigouche might give victory to two Liberal candidates defeated on the basis of unofficial returns election night.

According to Leger corrected returns gave majorities to Philbert LeBlanc and Samuel Moers, Restigouche Liberals, over Conservative Henry Dittie and David Stewart.

Confirmation of the returning officer's corrected count next Monday would increase the re-elected Government's following in the 48-seat Legislature from 27 to 29 and leave

OPERATORS AND MINERS FIGHT TARIFF CHANGE

Claim that Reduction in Duty on Venezuelan Oil Will Increase Unemployment in Mine Fields.

Washington, Nov. 22.—(P)—Soft coal operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers, often at loggerheads on other issues, joined hands today in opposing the Roosevelt administration's reciprocal trade programme.

Spokesmen for both groups disclosed that they planned efforts to modify, if not terminate, the law authorizing the trade pact if its extension is considered at the coming session of Congress. The law expires June 12 unless renewed.

The coal men were incensed by the new agreement with Venezuela, provisionally effective December 16, which cut the excise tax on crude petroleum and fuel oil in half—from one-half cent a gallon to one-quarter cent. The reduction will apply to imports not in excess of one-fifth of the United States production.

Assessing the practical effect of the reduction was to give the im-

TWO MURDERED OVER FOUR-DOLLAR FIGHT

Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 22.—(P)—Two men were shot to death and a woman injured in a replay and fire that climaxed a quarrel over $4.

Police Chief George Dean tells it this way:

William Gessner, mill worker, accused a son of his landlady, Mrs. Glenice Ostich, of stealing $4. Mrs. Ostich fled. Gessner opened fire. A bullet nicked her finger.

Frank Ferguson, filling station operator, attempted to protect her. Gessner then set fire to the Ostich house with gasoline and was badly burned as the fluid exploded.

The other two men, who fatally wounded Gessner, who confessed killing Ferguson before he died.

SEES GERMAN OIL SHORTAGE

Albany, N.Y., Nov. 22.—(P)—Hugh Gibson, former United States ambassador to Belgium and Brazil, told the Foreign Policy Association here last night he believed "Germany's pressing need for oil" will be felt "by the Hitler machine some time early in 1940."

"Some armchair strategists think Russia's products will offset the German shortage," he said. "That is an optical illusion. They overlook the fact that most of Russia's goods are needed to supply its own huge population."

A MAN OF COURAGE

Cleveland, Nov. 22.—(P)—The man of courage who bobs up in the crisis appeared today among relief clients whose rent and support were cut off as Cleveland ran short of relief funds. He reported to the relief office: "My landlady said she would let me stay if I'd marry her. But I'll be darned if I will."

FRANCE SEEKING TO SPEED UP MARRIAGE

Paris, Nov. 22.—(P)—The French Government will relax its war measures—and in the interest of tradition and marriage—permit Parisians to dance next Sunday for the first time since the war began.

They will celebrate the festival of the 1914 class of "Catherinettes," girls who have reached the age of 25 without marrying.

The fete of Saint Catherine every year is one of the most picturesque of Paris carnivals. On this day the "Catherinettes" don special bonnets and set out in search of husbands.

In the evening there are balls to which the "Catherinettes" invite their special candidates for matrimony.

JEAN PARKER SEEKS DIVORCE

Hollywood, Nov. 22.—(P)—Actress Jean Parker says she will divorce George MacDonald, New York newspaperman. "The fact Mr. MacDonald must remain in New York and I must stay in Hollywood has ruined our marriage," she said. Married in March, 1935, they separated six months ago.

STORM TROOPERS RULE IN PRAGUE

Nazi storm troopers now reign over Prague's Wenceslas Square, where 12 persons were injured in Czech Fascist demonstration following general students' uprisings. Nine students were executed, 1200 others arrested, all Czech universities closed for three years as result of outbreak.

PREDICTS REAL START OF WAR AT EARLY DATE

British Under-Secretary for Air Condemns Talks of Early Internal Break-Up of Germany.

Ottawa, Nov. 22.—(P)—The war so far has been a diplomatic contest which has gone in favor of the Allies and the second phase of the conflict involving active and large-scale military operations is approaching.

Captain Harold Balfour, British Under-Secretary for Air, said here.

Captain Balfour, who is also a member of the British Air mission now in Ottawa, told the Canadian Club yesterday that the British Government had no illusions about the war and was preparing for a long and arduous fight.

Wishful thinking about possibility of a German internal collapse is dangerous as it was likely to induce a slight diminishing of effort.

The German pact with Russia was an attempt to terrorize the Allies but failed and the Nazis could find little comfort in the present situation which did not make it clear whether the Soviet was their friend or foe.

He said that the mere announcement of the Empire air training plan had a depressing effect on Nazi leaders and might prove to be the decisive factor in the war.

The Royal Air Force has given a good account of itself in air fights and its machines have stood the rigors of battle "but fine as our aircraft is today, there are even better aircraft coming in the near future," he stated.

CANADIAN ARMY FINDING MANY NEW SERVICES

Auxiliary Services to Operate for Educational, Religious and Recreational Needs of Troops.

Ottawa, Nov. 22.—(P)—Canadian soldiers will be assisted by auxiliary services operating with the forces in meeting many of their educational, religious, recreational and entertainment needs and comforts, the National Defence Department believes.

A spokesman of the Department, in the fifth of a series of weekly talks over the national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, last night outlined the scope of the auxiliary services.

The aim will be to conduct the life of the soldiers so that they may be fitted physically and mentally for the war and also be equipped for their return to civil life better than when they enlisted.

"It is our earnest hope that by provision of auxiliary services on a scale and at a standard worthy of our volunteer army and worthy of Canada itself, we may, in future, reap a rich harvest in young men disciplined in the comradeship of service, broadened in outlook, and fitted to face and overcome the difficulties of post-war reconstruction," the spokesman said.

There will be five actual spheres of auxiliary service. The educational aspect will be looked after by direct instruction and by establishment of libraries and other facilities for study.

Chaplain services will be in charge of the religious sphere and athletic sports and games of all kinds.

Southeastern Nations Given Pledge Of Hungarian Peaceful Intentions

Budapest, Nov. 22.—(P)—Nations of southeastern Europe had Hungary's assurance today that she is eager for peaceful relations with her neighbors, although determined to protect her own interests and those of "Hungarian populations beyond her frontiers."

The assurance was delivered by Foreign Minister Count Stefan Czakay, who told Parliament last night Hungary was "not inclined to war-like adventures."

At the same time, however, Czakay declared Rumania's attitude toward Hungarian minorities in Transylvania "had not made too encouraging an impression on Hungarian public opinion."

Czakay said Hungary would enter no "neutral or other blocs" with countries against which she has claims, unless an effort first were made to ease the differences.

While avoiding direct mention of Hungary's claims to Transylvania, which she lost to Rumania after the last war, the Foreign Minister suggested Rumania should co-operate "in the formation of a modern world in the Danube."

Czakay also sought to allay anxiety over relations between Hungary and

ESKIMOS FACE STARVATION IN ALASKAN WILDS

Unseasonable Weather, Preventing Regular Walrus Catch, Plays Havoc with Diet of Northerners.

Barrow, Alaska, Nov. 22.—(P)—Eskimos of this farthest north outpost had no juicy walrus meat nor even an abundance of the usually plentiful whale or seal meat in their ice cellars today as they prepared for a bleak Thanksgiving Day of prayer and feasting on freshly-killed Polar bear.

Up here, where turkey is unknown, the Eskimos ask nothing better for a holiday feast than walrus meat. But hunger has come to many of the native families and more than half of the Eskimos' dogs have died of starvation or have been killed.

Summer and fall weather (strong offshore winds drove the ice from the northern beach in early July, and it didn't return until mid-October) has robbed the Eskimos of their hunting on the ice for walrus.

Even the reindeer supply has been cut.

British Operatives Are Charged With Plotting Munich Bombing Tragedy

In Announcing Arrest of Two Men for Explosion Which Nearly Claimed Life of Adolf Hitler, Gestapo Claim that Plot Was Hatched by Two Members of British Secret Service Seized in Netherlands.

Berlin, Nov. 22.—(P)—The Gestapo announced today that a Munich plotter had confessed the November 8 attempt on Adolf Hitler's life, and that two British operatives had been seized.

Heinrich Himmler, Chief of the Secret Police, said Georg Elser, 36-year-old resident of Munich, planted a time bomb in the Nazi beer cellar shrine there at the instigation of Otto Strasser, long-time Hitler foe, and with funds furnished by Great Britain.

He did not link the two captive Britons specifically with the blast, but accused them of organizing plots in Germany.

Himmler said that in trying to reach Switzerland, Elser was caught the night of the explosion, which killed eight persons and which Hitler escaped by eleven minutes.

Elser did not confess until November 14, he said. Several accomplices were arrested, but the information was kept secret until last night to expedite other seizures. Himmler appealed for further information regarding Elser or former associates.

He did not mention the Government's offer of rewards totalling 900,000 marks ($360,000) for arrest of the Munich plotters, and authorities declined to comment on it. Eight Nazis were killed in the Munich blast.

Himmler said a "Captain Stevens" and a "Mr. Best," of the British intelligence were captured November 9 while attempting to enter Germany from Venlo, The Netherlands.

He said the Britons had been duped by German agents posing as disgruntled officers. He said that in attempting to organize plots against the Reich, they supplied wireless equipment with which the Germans kept up deceptive communications until yesterday.

(In London, the Foreign Office denied any agent of the British Government had "any knowledge" of a German "described as having placed a bomb in the Munich cellar.")

(The Foreign Office said there was "no connection" between the bombing and "the kidnapping of two British subjects on the German-Dutch frontier.")

The Gestapo report said of the Britons: "Contradictory claims whether they were captured while still in Holland or when in Germany are at present being examined."

(Varying reports at the time of the Venlo incident agreed that after a shooting affray, several persons were carried across The Netherlands border into Germany. The Netherlands Government was reported as intending to ask that Germany investigate.)

(Strasser, accused of organizing the Munich plot, broke with Hitler in 1930, before the Nazi rise to power.)

Elser, credited by the Gestapo with actually building the bomb "in a manner unique in criminal history," was said to have started machinations in September and October, 1938, and to have begun putting his plans together in August, 1939.

First, said Himmler, he built a six-day time clock into a pillar of the beer cellar and, seven days before the annual Nazi celebration there, the explosive was planted.

On November 2 and 3, Elser failed in attempts to place a detonator in the burning chamber for the Gestapo Chief, but succeeded during the night of November 4-5. Then he left for Switzerland, but returned to Munich November 7 to make sure all was in order and to

Japanese Determined To Rid China Of Communist Menace, Premier Says

Tokyo, Nov. 22.—(P)—Premier Fumimaro Toyota today announced that Japan would keep troops in China until "China is entirely free from the Communist menace."

In a statement published by the Japanese press, the Premier said the garrisons would operate under an anti-Communist pact with Japan would conclude shortly with a new government for China along the lines of the anti-Communist pact of Japan, Italy, Germany, Hungary and Spain, but separate from it.

"The Japanese Government," he said, is trying to establish peaceful relations with the Soviet Union and after demarcation of the border between Japanese-protected Manchou and Soviet-supported Outer Mongolia another commission likely will be established to mark other borders.

The newspaper Asahi in a dispatch from Moscow reported Russia had asked that a Soviet-Japanese conference in Chita, Siberia, No-

Expect Increased Demand For Dairy Products Of Dominion

British Government Making Immediate Inquiries for Cheese and Evaporated Milk with Butter Demands Likely to Follow if War Lasts Any Time—Prices of Cheese on Canadian Boards Jump.

Toronto, Nov. 22.—(P)—Canadian dairymen may be called upon to supply Great Britain with butter, cheese and evaporated milk if the war is of long duration, J. F. Singleton, Associate Director of Dairy Products Marketing for the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, told the Ontario Creamery Association Convention here today.

"These are products," he said, "which the Canadian dairying industry is most suitably organized to supply in volume. Quantities of these commodities which may be required are as yet unknown, but the British Ministry of Food has made inquiries concerning only cheese and evaporated milk."

"That inquiries have not as yet been made concerning butter is probably due to the fact that officials of the British Ministry of Food are aware that there is no important surplus of butter in Canada, and that maximum prices of butter in the United Kingdom and the Canadian market are not in such relationship to each other as will permit of export."

Demand for cheese, which will apparently be freely used in troop rations, probably will be more urgent than demand for butter as there is no similar substitute for cheese as margarine provides for butter.

But if hostilities are prolonged, it is possible and indeed probable that increased quantities of all three commodities, namely butter, cheese and evaporated milk, may be required from Canada.

"It is highly desirable," said Mr. Singleton, "that inquiries as to the Canadian dairying industry should be permitted to expand unduly during the duration of the war at the expense of other branches of the industry, and thereby accentuate the inevitable shock of the postwar adjustment period."

Available butter supplies for

Britain, he judged, might only be sixty per cent, or even less of the volume available in 1938, and butter consumption would be about half the peacetime average, with margarine making up the difference. Anticipating a butter shortage, the British Government accumulated large stocks of vegetable and whale oils before the war for the preparation of margarine.

Butter prices in Great Britain had been stabilized by a fixed maximum of 34.38 cents a pound to the consumer compared to the present Canadian price of around 28.48 cents a pound on the Toronto market.

Adequate stocks of Canadian butter for domestic consumption during the non-producing winter months were assured, said the Government. Stocks now are about the same as they were a year ago.

Prices of cheese on rural cheeseboards had risen sharply since the outbreak of war, advancing from about 10 1/2 cents to slightly more than 16 cents a pound, largely due to speculative buying. Canadian cheese has been selling in Britain, he said, at about 16 cents ex-warehouse in Montreal for the Canadian product.

Exports of Canadian cheese from Montreal in one week of November totalled 106,338 boxes to the United Kingdom, 1,546 boxes to Newfoundland, the West Indies and the United States compared with a normal average weekly export of some 50,000 boxes. Stocks of cheese in the hands of Canadian exporters, he said, were "extremely low, and if not lower than ever before at this time of year, are lower than for many years."

GERRY WIGGETT RENAMED HEAD OF MINOR LOOP

Officers of E. T. Juvenile, Midget and Bantam Hockey League Re-elected at Annual Meeting—Satisfactory Statement Presented.

Gerald M. Wiggett was last night re-elected president of the Eastern Townships Juvenile, Midget and Bantam Hockey League at the annual meeting of the organization held in the New Sherbrooke Hotel. Forrest Keene and Francis Kenally were renominated vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively.

Representatives were present from Bishop's College School, East Angus, Canadians, St. Patrick's Academy and St. Pat's Grads.

A satisfactory statement was presented by the secretary-treasurer, showing the league to be in a healthy financial condition. To date, it was revealed, three applications for membership in the juvenile loop have been received, three bantam teams have applied and two midget teams are ready for action.

Sherbrooke High School and Lennoxville High School are expected to enter juvenile teams in the loop. The matter of schedules was left over until the next meeting, which will be held on Tuesday, December 5.

There is no limit to the number of teams which may be entered in any of the three divisions of the league, since its officials are anxious to be of service in the development of young hockey players. Any group wishing to enter squads may make application to Francis Kenally care of the Sherbrooke Record.

their country was compelled to accept a position of naval inferiority to Britain and the United States.

Shiratori, who was recalled after his attempts to forge a military alliance among Italy, Germany and Japan failed, praised Germany and Italy in an interview. He said Japanese relations with those powers were still close despite the Russian-German agreement.

"If the United States enters the war it will be a world war in a literal sense," he asserted, "because then it would be extremely difficult for Japan to remain neutral."

"The totalitarian nations work to establish a new order throughout the world. Japan is doing its job in the Orient. Germany and Italy are doing theirs in Europe."

Shiratori said Germany was assisting a move for Russian-Japanese understanding by acting as a go-between in their negotiations. A movement within Japan for a non-aggression pact with Russia is growing, he asserted.

JAPANESE PLANES RESUME ATTACK

Hong Kong, Nov. 22.—(P)—Japanese planes were reported today to have repeated attacks on Nanning, Kwangsi Province capital, looting, mixed cargoes of bombs and propaganda leaflets.

The Japanese reported no further progress in their drive toward Nanning and China supply lines through French-Indo-China and British Burma, but Chinese advisers told of heavy fighting and numerous casualties on both sides.

The bombardment damage was not specified in the war reports, but the Japanese pamphlets were said to urge the populace to cease resistance and co-operate with the Japanese.

French Chinese troops—Kwangsi is one of the most militarized provinces—were rushed to the border region and appeared to have stemmed the Japanese offensive.

SCHOLARS GIVE IMPRESSION OF LONDON LIVING

National Gallery at Ottawa to Exhibit Works of London Children Reflecting Childish Impressions of Events.

Ottawa, Nov. 22.—(P)—Visitors to the National Gallery of Canada today saw life in London as it appears to youthful eyes at an exhibition of paintings by British school children.

The 140 paintings—colored drawings to be more accurate—by boys and girls of London from five to fifteen years, will be shown here during the next two weeks and then exhibited in cities across Canada.

The enthusiastic response across the Dominion last year to pictures by Canadian boys and girls led H. O. McCurry, acting director of the National Gallery to arrange the present exhibition when in England a few months ago.

These pictures are no cramped copybook imitations. They depict what the youngsters saw or imagined in Old London Town and then set down on generous sheets of paper. Some children even chose wrapping paper.

Most are familiar subjects such as "The Oxford and Cambridge Boat Race," "The Royal Family," "Old Ladies Sitting by the Window," or honest drawings of father and mother or other family portraits with an unconscious and not intentionally unkind sense of caricature.

Too there are market and street scenes, complete with shoppers and buses; impressions of Mickey Mouse; a battle between cowboys and Indians; and Jewish refugees sitting in a railway station.

In some of the English children's work there is that kindred touch that marked "Expulsion from the Garden of Eden" by a 15-year-old Canadian boy who showed Adam and Eve in red bathing trunks, eating apples, and riding out of the Garden on an elephant preceded by an ostrich, while a well-fed snake hissed a jubilant farewell from its spot in the grass.

The children are not necessarily artists but in their own way they express themselves pictorially and with unmistakable similarity of approach.

The work is such that after a close scrutiny of "Grandmother" the observer turns away feeling that should "Grandmother" stroll up Parliament Hill sometime soon, she would easily be recognized.

German reconnaissance planes have made several flights over the British Isles in the past two days. One bomber, a big Dornier-17, was shot down by Royal Air Force craft yesterday. It landed in the ocean near Deal.

Anti-aircraft batteries on the East Coast sprang into action at 7 p.m. yesterday for the second time in the day as British pursuit ships went aloft to intercept enemy planes.

No bombs were dropped, and the clear signal was sounded after 75 minutes.

A British civil aircraft, meanwhile, inadvertently flew into London's balloon barrage, crashing to the ground. Its two occupants were killed.

Leslie Hore-Belisha, Air Secretary, issued an order restricting residence in the Orkney and Shetland Islands, which have been raided several times by German planes, to persons holding special permits. The order, effective December 21, also requires those desiring to visit the islands to obtain permits.

SICK PLANT IS AIDED THROUGH MIRACLE PILL

Scientists Report that New Drug Can Be Scattered on the Ground and Be Absorbed by Plant Roots.

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE, (Associated Press Staff Writer)

New York, Nov. 22.—(P)—Pills for sick plants are a new prospect for agriculture.

A medicine which in the laboratory cuts stem rust of wheat from 90 down to 20 per cent is reported in the plant journal, Phytopathology, by Helen Hart and J. Lewis Allison of University Farm, St. Paul, Minn.

Drugs to cure commercially important crop diseases have been sought many years with little success. Why plants do not respond like humans is an interesting scientific puzzle.

For one thing, plants have no circulatory system, other than a series of pipes carrying water up from roots to leaves. Another is ability of roots to exclude many substances. A third is the probability that a medical compound must break into its chemical parts before it can enter roots. Finally there is the problem of finding a chemical which will not harm the plant.

This is what the St. Paul scientists appear to have accomplished. Rust is caused by a parasite, making it a disease comparable with human infections.

The medicine for it is toluenesulfonamide. It is not related to the war explosive suggested by the first half of the name, nor to sulfanilamide, the human miracle drug, which is spelled almost like the last part. The compound is one of the early stages of saccharine, the sugar 100 times sweeter than cane.

The St. Paul treatment suggests that plant doctors may be able to scatter pills on the ground. The drug was mixed in quartz sand and scattered on the soil of laboratory plants, where watering dissolved it into the ground.

CANADIAN AIR FORCE TESTING NEW AIRPLANES

Speedy Bomber and Co-operation Plane Among Latest Acquisitions of Royal Canadian Air Force.

Ottawa, Nov. 22.—(P)—The pride of the Royal Canadian Air Force is its latest first-line acquisition—a Bristol Blenheim bomber that streaks across an airfield like a thunderbolt and sears into the heavens with the ease of a gull.

The twin-motored reconnaissance plane which hits a 300-mile-an-hour clip has been put through its paces at Rockcliffe airbase here by Squadron Leader Larry Wray, R.C. A.F. test pilot, and is the first of eighteen similar machines being manufactured by Fairchild Aircraft Limited at Longueuil, Que., for the Government.

It is the Canadian version of the Bristol Blenheim which flew from England in the first week of the war to bomb the German North Sea naval base at Wilhelmshaven.

The plane is equipped with three machine guns, one firing forward from the top wing and the others from a gun turret near the tail. It carries 1,000 pounds of bombs with a range of 1,000 miles at a cruising speed of 220 miles an hour with a four-man crew aboard. The bombs are dropped through a hatch in the belly of the craft.

Another new arrival for R.C.A.F. is the Canadian-made Westland Lysander army co-operation plane. They have a top speed of 220 miles an hour and are used as a liaison between the Air Force and the ground troops, carrying a pilot and an observer.

POLICE INTENSIFY SEARCH FOR FUGITIVE

Guillemette Remains Free As Leads Prove Fruitless

No Trace Found of Jail Breaker as Police Push Hunt Through-out Townships—Believed He Stole Overalls from Yard of Residence Near Jail—Investigator Sent Here to Probe Jail Break.

Object of an intensive hunt throughout the Eastern Townships, Ernest Guillemette remained free today as police continued their search started yesterday morning after he escaped from the local jail. Sentenced last summer to thirty years in the penitentiary for a series of robberies, Guillemette, also known as Ernest Gilbert, was brought here to stand trial on three statutory offence charges and one of robbery.

Since advised of Guillemette's successful bid for freedom, Provincial Police under Inspector Donat Mayer have followed many leads furnished them by persons who believed they had seen the wanted man. A number of suspects have been taken into custody and questioned, but released later.

One of these leads sent officers to the Canadian Pacific Railway tracks near the highway to Lennoxville, where a man answering the general description of the fugitive was reported seen. The man was found walking along the tracks and apprehended, but was allowed to proceed when it was established that he was not Guillemette.

Municipal police were notified yesterday afternoon that a man thought to be the escaped prisoner was walking along the Canadian Pacific Railway tracks in the vicinity of the trestle near the Franciscan monastery. Radio cars were dispatched to the scene, but no suspicious characters were found. Provincial Police also investigated the report.

Soon after the break was discovered, local police searched the houses of two Guillemette families in the city. The occupants denied having seen the hunted man and no trace of him was found in the residences.

It was learned by authorities yesterday afternoon that Guillemette had been seen shortly after six o'clock in the morning on King street west near Nadeau's garage, and later on the C.P.R. tracks near the Belvidere street trestle. He was said to be walking in the direction of Lennoxville.

Police were also informed yesterday afternoon by a local resident living near the Winter street jail that a pair of overalls, washed the night before and left on the line to dry, had disappeared. This information led to the belief that Guillemette, clad in a gray shirt and a pair of brown trousers when he escaped, had taken the garment. The overalls, of one-piece construction, were blue with red trimmings and brass buttons worn on the front. Guillemette was also said to have been wearing glasses when he disappeared.

Officials of the Winter street jail claimed today that Guillemette had made his escape from the cell block by picking the lock with a piece of wire which he had found. The door on the cell block is doubly guarded, with a lock in which the key must be turned twice before it is properly fastened, and a heavy metal bar fastened by a padlock.

Had the door to the cell block been properly locked, with the key in the first lock turned twice, the bar pulled across and the massive padlock snapped, it would have been a virtual impossibility for a prisoner to escape as Guillemette did.

A special investigation from the Attorney-General's Department has been sent here to probe the jail break, it was learned this morning.

Arrested here last July, Guillemette pleaded guilty to a long list of robberies and was given the thirty-year sentence by Judge J. S. Courty. He was serving the sentence when brought here to stand trial on four additional counts. After breaking from the jail, he escaped by scaling the wall around the yard, using a plank laid in the yard by workmen to reach the top of the enclosure.

LENNOXVILLE W.C.T.U. GROUP HOLDS SESSION

Cash Prizes to Be Donated to Prize-Winners in District Temperance Contests—International Economics Discussed.

Those in this district obtaining highest marks in the annual Dominion-wide temperance campaign now being carried on in the Sunday Schools will receive cash prizes offered by the Lennoxville Women's Christian Temperance Union. This decision was reached yesterday afternoon at a largely attended meeting of this organization held in the Parsonage, with Mrs. F. R. Matthews as hostess.

During the business session, which was conducted by the Union's president, Mrs. Lansing W. Smith, it was reported that a quantity of magazines had been distributed since the previous meeting, and persons confined to their homes or in the hospital had received visits and showers. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Ethel L. Seale.

Yesterday's programme took the form of study groups who discussed international economics under the leadership of Mrs. M. Elizabeth McCurdy. This discussion proved to be both instructive and stimulating. The afternoon's activities were pleasantly climaxed by an hour's enjoyable conversation and the serving of a dainty tea by the hostesses, who were assisted in her hospital duties by several of the members.

FINAL PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS SALE

Members of the Lennoxville Women's League of St. Andrew's Church, Sherbrooke, were busily engaged in making final plans for the annual Christmas sale and tea in Sherbrooke early in December, when they were pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon at their regular meeting by Mrs. James Stewart at her residence on Main street.

Mrs. J. G. Tremblay, Sherbrooke, president of the League, conducted the business session, when Red Cross work was discussed with a view to this League working as a unit under the local Red Cross branch. The matter was tabled until the next meeting.

At the conclusion of the agenda a dainty afternoon tea was served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. M. Cathcart.

RESOLUTION LIVELY DEBATED

A lively debate on the resolution, "Life Favors a Short Person," was given the largely attended regular Tuesday meeting of the Anglican Young People's Association of St. George's Church last evening in the Lower Parish Hall. Miss Joan Jones and Bob MacKie upheld the affirmative, and the negative side was taken by Miss Marjorie Waite and Douglas Glass. The decision was given to the negative side by half a point. Judges were Miss Bernice Glass and Leslie Cann.

During the business period, conducted by the president, Miss Norah Moorehead, plans were made for a musical evening next week. Mrs. L. M. Watson presided at the piano for the usual enjoyable sing-song, and later games were played, after which the singing of the National Anthem brought the evening's activities to a close.

BRIDGE PARTY SUCCESS

Society en masse turned out yesterday afternoon to ensure the splendid financial success of the bridge party held in St. Anthony's Hall under the auspices of the Lennoxville Maple Cope Chapter, I.O.D.E.

Under the capable convener of Mrs. Robert M. Boright, backed by the members of the entertainment committee, consisting of Mrs. R. H. Fletcher, Mrs. A. T. Speld, Mrs. L. V. Parent, Mrs. George Doak, Mrs. R. E. Baker and the Misses Cora Davis, L. McKindsey and Doreen Stewart, cards were played at some twenty-five tables, some guests playing in the hall and some at private homes. Much credit is due these ladies, whose untiring efforts added over thirty dollars to the treasury of the Order.

Mrs. M. G. Stewart, the regent, and Mrs. R. H. Fletcher, the vice-regent, extended a cordial welcome to the many guests. Attractive prizes were given at each table. At the conclusion of the card games a delectable afternoon tea was served by the same committee. The long table was artistically centered with a low silver bowl of yellow and bronze "mums, and tall pale yellow tapers in silver holders. Mrs. M. G. Stewart and Mrs. R. H. Fletcher did the honors at the silver tea services.

General Notes. Mrs. C. M. Boright, of Sutton, is spending a week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Boright, at their residence on Clough avenue.

R. Alex Smith returned to town yesterday afternoon after attending the meeting of the Rural Problems Club at Macdonald College and a planning session for the Co-operative Congress scheduled to meet this weekend in Montreal.

Miss Alice Hutchison will journey to Montreal this week-end to attend the Co-operative Congress. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace G. Robinson have returned from their honeymoon to Ste. Eustache and Toronto, and have taken up residence on Main street. Mr. Robinson is on the local agronomy staff of the Provincial Government.

CROWN LAWYER IS NAMED FOR ASSIZE TERM

Ashton Tobin to Act Jointly with Crown Prosecutor Cesaire Gervais During Present Term of Court of King's Bench — Raoul Gagne Appointed Liquor Commission Counsel.

In a return to the traditional custom of having joint French and English-speaking Crown Attorneys nominated in the District of St. Francis, the Attorney-General's Department at Quebec yesterday made public the appointment of Ashton Tobin to act with Cesaire Gervais, K.C., during the present session of Court of King's Bench. Ratification of Raoul Gagne's nomination as advocate for the Quebec Liquor Commission in the district was also received yesterday.

Prior to the advent to power of the Duplessis administration in 1936 there had been a tacit understanding here which provided that the Senior Crown Prosecutor in St. Francis District would be French-speaking while the other nominee would be of English extraction. This was changed however with the naming of Antonio Drolet, K.C., and Raoul Gagne as prosecutors after the Union Nationale victory.

Son of the late Senator E. W. Tobin, of Bromptonville, Ashton Tobin attended Bishop's University, Loyola College and McGill University before entering the Law School at Laval University in Quebec. Admitted to the Bar of St. Francis in 1936 he practiced law in this city and in 1936 was named Crown Attorney to act jointly with Wilfrid Lazure, K.C., now Justice of the Superior Court.

After receiving his primary education in the Sacred Heart Academy and St. Charles Seminary, Raoul Gagne came to the Liquor Commission, was admitted to the Bar after his graduation from the University of Montreal in 1932. He entered the local firm of Nicol, Lazure and Landry and in 1933 became associated with Gaston Desmarais, of Richmond, to form the legal firm of Gagne and Desmarais.

The new Commission's president of the Sherbrooke County Liberal Association and is a member of the 20th Century Liberal Association of Canada. He was also a former Chancellor of the local Council of the Knights of Columbus. In the sporting world Mr. Gagne was particularly well known for his tennis achievements, winning the city men's singles championship in 1931 and 1932 and being co-holder of the men's doubles title in 1938. Mr. Gagne married Lillian Doyon in 1933 and has two daughters, Lyse and Lillian.

REJECTS APPEAL FOR REDUCTION OF C.P.R. VALUATION

In a ruling handed down in Judge J. Lemay's court this morning the appeal of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for a reduction of $100,000 in the value of its properties in Sherbrooke, last summer Judge Lemay gave a similar ruling, the validity of which was contested in a "re-quete civile" instituted by the C.P.R. and dismissed by Judge J. S. Courty.

In commenting on his decision, Judge Lemay remarked that as far as he was concerned the municipal valuations had been conservative in their estimate of the railway property's value.

COMMENTS ON GAS WARFARE
Niagara Falls, N.Y., Nov. 22.—The chief of chemical warfare of the United States army believes nations lacking "great resources for production of war chemicals" will not begin toxic gas warfare. Major General Walter C. Baker added, however, in an address before the Western New York section of the American Chemical Society last night that "without adequate protective equipment chemical warfare might well be decisive."

REMEMBER THE RED CROSS CAMPAIGN!

YOUNG PEOPLE STAGED SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT

Among the various activities staged in Plymouth Church hall during the week-end visit of Mr. T. A. Kirk to Sherbrooke was the programme featuring moving pictures of the Young People's camps across Canada.

DEED OF SALE DECLARED VALID IN JUDGMENT

An attempt by a resident of Rock Forest to have a transfer of property declared fraudulent was nullified today in a judgment handed down in Superior Court by Mr. Justice C. D. White, who dismissed the action instituted by Joseph Dumont against Henri Marchand, of Little Lake, and Mrs. Ernest Beauchene, of Bromptonville.

Dumont's claim was that Marchand, who owed him $400, tried to place himself beyond the reach of his creditors by making a deed of all his property in favor of his father-in-law, Ernest Beauchene, in return for which he only received one dollar, although the chattels were worth about $1,200. In dismissing the action, Mr. Justice White concluded the transfer had been made in good faith and that circumstances did not warrant nullifying it.

SCOUTS STAGE ENTERTAINMENT FOR ROTARIANS

Demonstrations in First Aid and Knot Tying Feature Programme Presented at Regular Rotary Club Meeting.

Featured by clever demonstrations in first aid and knot tying, an interesting entertainment was presented by members of various troops in the Sherbrooke Boy Scout Association at last night's meeting of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club in the New Sherbrooke House.

Following the regular business session of the Rotarians, presided over by President Gerald Wiggitt, the chair was taken by Troop Leader Dennis Veasey, of the St. Patrick's Troop, who reviewed the activities of the local Scout troops, mentioning the Christmas Toy Shop, ushering in the Sherbrooke Fair and the campaign for eggs at Easter as among their efforts designed to help others.

Three leads from St. Patrick's Troop, Donald Heineath, Kenneth Doiron and Milton Kenalty, danced an Irish jig, accompanied at the piano by James Strickland. A number of intricate knots were tied and shown to the Rotarians by Scouts Robert Simpson and Fred Allsop, with their uses explained by Robert Bell. The three boys are members of the St. Peter's Troop.

His reasons for being a Scout were told by Patrol Leader Alfred Allen, of St. Patrick's Troop, and with Wayne Molyneux acting as the "patient," the Scouts demonstrated skill in administering first aid to an injured person. Among the boys participating in the first aid exhibition were Denhardt Vincent, of St. Patrick's Troop, Robert Thomas, a member of the 7th Sherbrooke Troop, and Donald Shaw, of the St. Andrew's Troop.

Rotarian Everett Goodenough extended the thanks of the club to the Scouts for their programme.

Guests at the meeting introduced by Rotarian Francis Hoyer and welcomed by Past President Doug Stevenson were District Scout Master Ed Walker, Scout Master Earl Turner, Cub Master Gerald Groux, Rev. A. V. Ottewill, curate of St. Peter's Church, Stephane Boly, of Ottawa, a former member of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club, and Rotarian Lloyd Freeman, a member of the Westmont branch.

During the evening Rotarians J. R. Sangster and A. C. Skinner were remembered on their birthdays and President Wiggitt reminded the Rotarians of the raffle held under the auspices of the Junior Welfare League, proceeds of which are used to provide Christmas cheer to needy children.

Dismissed Claim Local Firm Violated Terms Of Wage Act

Action of Joint Committee of Eastern Townships Construction Industry Against L. O. Noel Company Set Aside in Superior Court Ruling—Alleged Company Paid Lower Salaries than Stipulated by Law.

A claim that a local firm had violated the stipulations of the Collective Agreement Act by paying too low a scale of wages to four employees, was set aside in Superior Court this morning when Mr. Justice C. D. White rendered judgment in the action instituted by the Joint Committee of the Eastern Townships Construction Industry against L. O. Noel and Company.

Attorneys for the Joint Committee had alleged that Oliva Pichette, Joseph Beaunoyer, Jean Bousquet and Lionel Duranleau worked for three months for the defendant company and received only twenty cents an hour in contravention to the Collective Agreement Act that specifies day laborers should be paid thirty-five cents an hour for regular time and fifty-two and a half cents for overtime.

According to labor legislation the Noel Company should have paid the four employees a total of $485.95 during the three months, the plaintiff committee further contended, adding that actually only $262.10 was given out. The action was instituted for $268.15, including the difference in the two amounts and interest charges to date.

Principal point in the defence of the Noel Company was that the work done by the laborers was such that it fell under the terms of Ordinance Four of the Fair Wage Act and not under the Law of Collective Agreement. This argument was upheld by Mr. Justice White in dismissing the action.

REMEMBER THE RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

THE RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Although the local campaign for funds for the Canadian Red Cross Society, which is called upon to play an important part in the national effort of prosecuting the war, draws officially to a close tonight, there is no indication that the need for funds has been in any way diminished nor does it relieve the individual who has not been called upon to subscribe from making his or her contribution to the cause.

The work of the Red Cross has only commenced, and the money they seek is but the initial quota set as a minimum to cover the reasonably anticipated needs. Thus the demand for money will be ever-present and the officials in charge of the local branch, situated in the Quebec Central Railway building, will be ever grateful for any donations which may come in, even after the campaign closes. Furthermore, promptitude in forwarding these donations or in fulfilling the pledges made to the Society makes them of added value, for like anything else, the greater the supply of working capital, the greater can be the efficiency of an undertaking. A continuation of the struggle is bound to be reflected in advancing prices, and the more supplies the Red Cross can lay in at present price levels, the more work they can do with the money available.

Loyal Canadians are called upon to give generously to this campaign, and the City of Sherbrooke has given a lead to the other towns and villages in the district, and to many industrial concerns, with a donation of $1,500. The need is great and it is not too late for those who have not subscribed to do so.

RESTRICTING SOUND TRUCKS

In their decision to restrict the activities of the operators of sound trucks or perambulating loudspeakers, the Sherbrooke City Council deserves the thanks of all those citizens who have found their nerves slowly wearing down under the constant blare of these contraptions announcing this or that event in which the average persons may or may not be interested. The order reducing the volume to be used by these instruments fifty per cent is admittedly a temporary measure, recording the opinion of the Council against the principle of these noise-makers, and the decision of the Aldermen should be made clear to the operators that their licenses will not be renewed upon their expiry, thus giving them an opportunity of disposing of their equipment over a reasonable period of time or of converting it to other use.

The appearance of the first such vehicle on the streets limiting itself to a few brief announcements was more or less ignored by the citizens, who regarded it as something of a novelty to be tolerated. But their number increased and the length of their discourses expanded until the climax was reached on the eve of the Provincial general elections, when three different machines were on Wellington street at the same time, each setting forth at length the virtues of one or other of the three parties in the field.

This case just reflects another example of riding a willing horse to death and shows public indignation has about reached its limit.

THE NEW BRUNSWICK VOTE

Unlike the results which often follow a straight party fight, the party representation in the coming New Brunswick Legislature will approximate the popular vote cast. Preliminary figures indicate a total vote of 328,626, of which the Liberal party polled 288,723 or approximately fifty-five per cent. The Opposition gathered in 238,616 votes or virtually forty-five per cent. The two Independents in the field amassed the grand total of 1,285 votes or 24 per cent.

Of the forty-eight seats in the Legislature, the Liberals took twenty-seven seats or fifty-six per cent, the Conservatives twenty-one or forty-four per cent, and the Independents none.

This is a somewhat sharp contrast from 1933, when the Liberals polled 340,737 or 59.33 per cent of the 371,344 votes cast but elected forty-three of the forty-eight members, while the Conservatives with 229,689 votes or 40.19 per cent had to be content with five members, while the Independent vote of 1,482 got exactly nowhere.

Perhaps after all, the result of Monday's election is more a matter of evening things up rather than any particular criticism of the administration.

THE TRADE WAR

The decision of the British Government to extend the economic side of the European struggle to the ban on German exports threatens to seriously disrupt the internal economy of the Reich, already badly undermined by the imports ban. While the Reich has a number of neighbors quite prepared to sell it some of the materials it badly needs, these powers seem to have one little peculiarity—they want to be paid for the goods they sell. This has placed Germany in a somewhat embarrassing position in that it lacks supplies of ready cash and as a result is forced to dispose of many of its products in the world markets, such as they are, at distress prices.

The Allied ban threatens to break off this trade and consequently deprive Germany of foreign exchange. This would result in a reduction of available supplies and hasten the fall of the Reich, the main objective of Allied policy at present.

CAPONE IS BACK AGAIN

Al Capone steps back into a world that must look as strange to him as his own glittering era of big business bootlegging looks fantastic to us. He went into prison seven and one-half years ago a swaggering bully; he comes out a whimpering psychopathic case.

The scar-faced, gun-toting, blustering Capone once personified the more sordid side of the frenzied twenties; today he is a left-over fragment of an age we would just as soon forget. There are reports that the ex-king of Chicago's underworld is fearful of his life and that the federal agents who once hounded him as a prize will now stay close at hand to protect him from possible underworld justice.

Capone was part of hangover America had from

REMEMBER THE SHOPPING EARLY SLOGAN

The annual clamor urging you to do your Christmas shopping early will soon be heard again, but, as in former years, stores on Saturday, December 23rd, will probably be just as jammed with riotous last-minute shoppers as they always are just before the holiday.

This is too bad, because merchants can't very well save their choicest merchandise for the convenience of harassed eleventh hour buyers. It is also a pretty well established fact that getting your toes stepped on and your hat pushed down over your face amid the frenzy of late shopping doesn't help to develop Christmas spirit. And sales-persons who should be singing Christmas carols and hanging holly wreaths will probably spend Christmas Eve with their feet in a mustard bath.

Folks who have tried checking off their holiday purchases early have found the holiday season to be a lot less strenuous, and a lot more fun.

The last war. He steps back into a country that is watching another war and has no possible use for his kind. Capone once had almost a social standing in an era of jumbled moral codes. Now he rubs his eyes in the sunlight of a society that knows rackets and racketeers for what they are and is determined to stamp them out.

Certain radio stations announce a new series of programmes for "your listening pleasure" and then hand out the same old records.

GERMAN PEOPLE VIRTUAL SLAVES

(Le Monde Ouyrier)

Some of the notorious methods by which Hitler's Nazi government imposes virtual slavery on the German people were forcefully described by Gerhard S. Seger, a former member of the German Reichstag and now representing the German Labor Delegation in the United States, in an address before the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor at Cincinnati. According to Mr. Seger, German citizens are arrested and imprisoned without trial and strikes are outlawed, with jail terms for workers who take part in them.

"We have in Germany today," Mr. Seger said, "an institution which, by a rather disgusting term, called 'Protective Custody,' it means you are taken away from which this institution was inaugurated six years ago, that anybody in prison any length of time, without having done anything, without any trial, without any charge, without any indictment, without any legal or judicial procedure whatsoever, if the secret police force of the dictating Nazi Party officials suspects the person involved, feels that he or she might do something in the future which might be dangerous to the State, to the dictatorship. That means you are just taken away and you can rot in any of these 32 concentration camps throughout Germany—and that has been the case with many trade union officials of former times."

And so on the basis of this general terror a special terror is organized against what was formerly organized labor. Let me describe to you the situation of labor in Germany today. Organizing a strike is punishable with capital punishment. Participating in a strike is punishable by at least ten years in a penitentiary. It is punishable to bargain collectively. It is punishable with three months in jail if someone goes individually to his employer and asks for a raise."

FOOD PRICES IN WARTIME

(L'Information)

History always seems to repeat itself, and we have proof of this in the sensational rise in food prices, the necessities of life from the first days of the war. The increase, in the United States among other countries was 20 per cent on an average in the first week of the war. At the time of the war of 1914 it was only a few per cent. The increase in the price of wheat attained that level. That increase, however, is due to local influences, to speculation far more than to the demand created by war needs.

In 1914 the rise in prices was felt first in food, because reserves of these were not great. That was certainly not the case this year and nothing indicates that it will be the case next year. The fact that almost every government in the world gives subsidies to farmers because the price of their products is too low, surely does not signify that there is a scarcity of them. In other directions it will be much easier than in 1914 to augment production and this is what will be done as soon as the need of it is felt. In a number of countries the production of such and such things has been diminished by agreement.

It will be easy to abolish these agreements whenever desired. The facilities of production are increased all through the fact that certain countries which were at war in 1914—and in which agricultural production was necessarily reduced—are neutral today and can furnish the belligerents with what they need.

PRESS COMMENTS

"THE LIMITLESS LUST OF HITLER"

(Kington Whig-Standard)

Mr. George McCullagh, in the first broadcast of the "Canada at War" series of the CBC, has brought out a point that is deserving of much more attention in the wartime thinking of Canadians than it has been receiving. It is the certainty that "if Britain falls, the limitless lust of Hitler will be directed toward us."

Both the distance of this Dominion from the principal theatre of war and the assurance of the application of the Monroe Doctrine if Canada is physically attacked help to produce a sense of security that is not entirely justified. If Britain were defeated and the Royal Navy were to be surrendered, as the German navy had to be surrendered at the end of the last war, all the strength of the United States would be of little avail to us until that country could triple its naval forces to provide adequate protection for its own Atlantic coast, to say nothing of Canada's. But entirely aside from the possibility of armed aggression directly against Canada, which is the only point on which we have had assurance from the United States, this Dominion could be enslaved by a victorious Hitler without the necessity for a German troopship, airplane or naval craft crossing the Atlantic. So called "peaceful" economic penetration by the Germans placed the freedom and independence of certain South American countries in jeopardy for a considerable period a year or two ago when the Reich was theoretically at peace, and this economic penetration was accomplished in spite of the efforts of the United States to resist and nullify it. The fact that American efforts in South America have subsequently been more successful in restoring these countries to the democratic way of trading can be partly attributed to the fact that Hitler has been too busily engaged elsewhere to keep up the pressure upon them. If the Nazis should win the war, they would have very little difficulty in carrying out a degree of economic penetration of this Dominion that would make anything that has occurred in South America appear of small importance. And with sufficiently strong economic penetration, the next step would be the imposition of a totalitarian form of government upon Canadians. Mr. McCullagh has done a service in pointing out that from the Canadian point of view the war is very definitely one of self defence.

AS WELL BE AT WAR

(Belmont Telegraph)

It is evident that Germany is bent on a reckless campaign of sinking shipping of any and every nationality when opportunity serves. Steamers proceeding from one neutral port to another have come off no better than if they were conveying cargoes to one of the belligerent countries. In one day eight Swedish steamers were captured by Germans near the Island of Oland in the Baltic. If this goes on, unchecked, the external trade of some neutral nations stands a risk of being ruined. The lot of many neutral countries at present, harassed by the activities of German spies, suffering losses by an attempted blockade at sea, and never knowing when they may be subjected to other by the Dictator at Berlin, is not a happy one. From the British point of view it is preferable to be actually at war with people capable of such enormities. At least we know where we stand and are prepared to meet the worst that can be attempted against us.

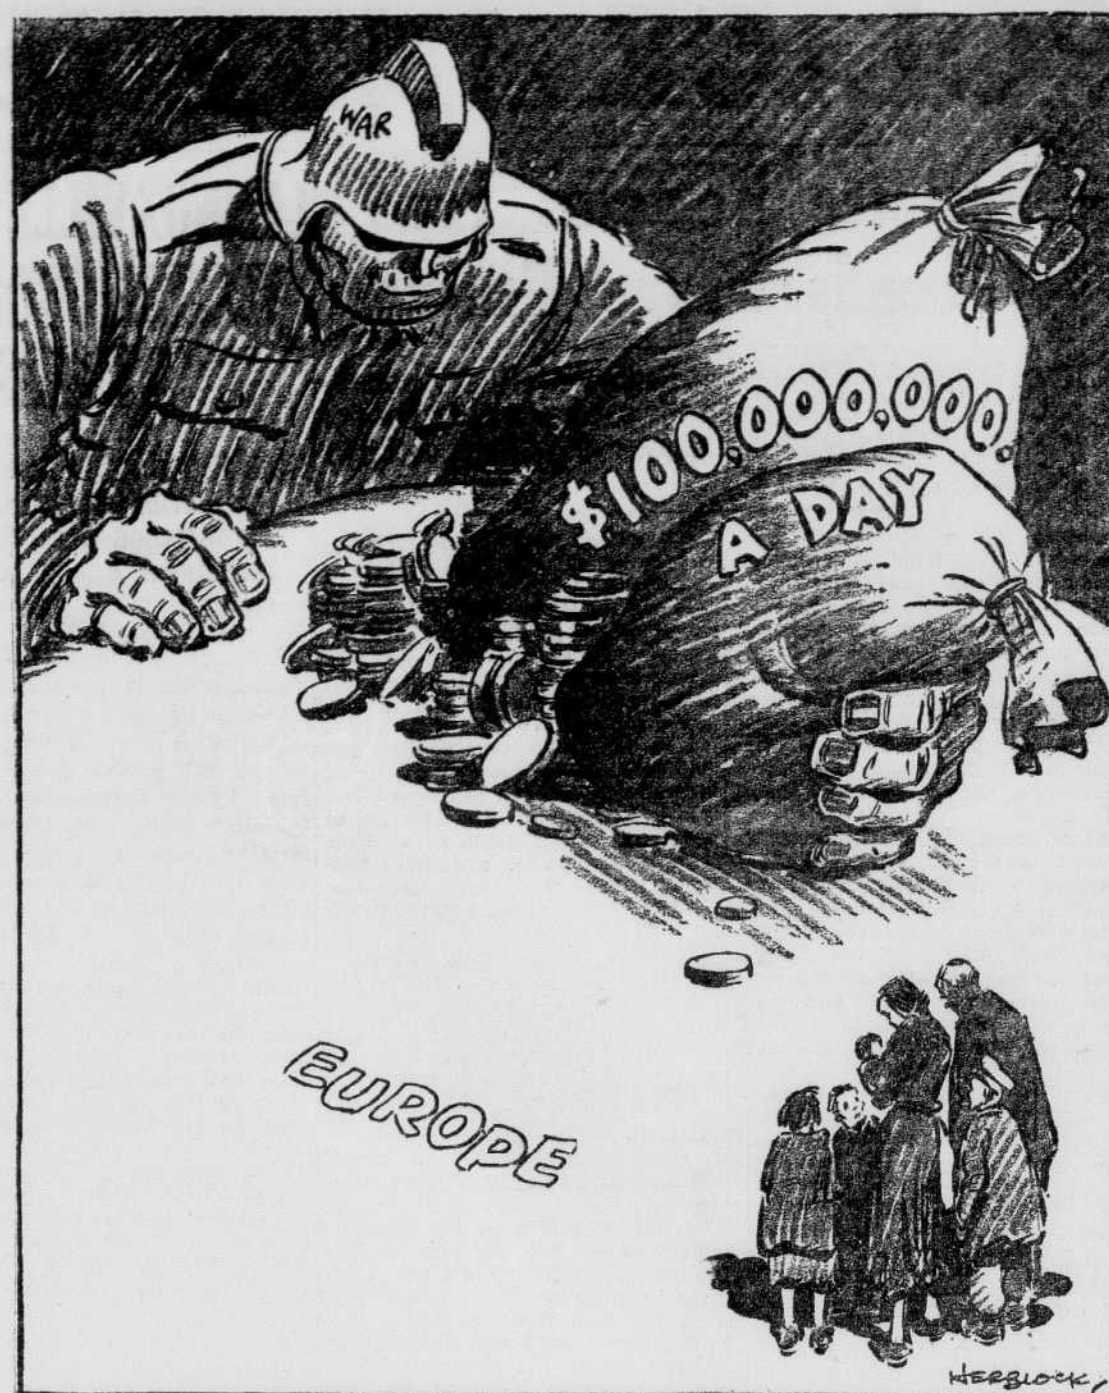

LEVIES A SIGN OF GERMAN WEAKNESS

(New York Post)

Hitler has ordered a new property levy against the German Jews. By November 15 the Jews who remain in the Fatherland must produce $100,000.00 in cash, an amount estimated as 5 per cent of their total property.

A year ago the Jews were fined 20 per cent of all their possessions, supposedly as punishment for the murder of Ernst vom Rath, a secretary of the German Embassy in Paris, by the seventeen-year-old Polish Jew Herschel Grynszpan. The last of the instalment payments on that fine was due August 15.

There has been no official statement about how much of the 20 per cent levy has been collected. According to the best estimates it was approximately $300,000,000, only three-quarters of the amount expected.

Now the ante has been raised and the speed of the legalized theft quickened. The German Jews have one month to produce an additional hundred million. If they fail? There are half-hints of further levies, of increased penalties against the wealthier Jews.

The new decree indicates the turmoil within the German economy. For eleven months the sadistic pogrom against the Jews has been conducted with reduced energy. Not long ago the Government even appealed to German Jewish doctors who had escaped to return to their country and relieve the shortage of medical staff.

We might expect a nation at war, faced with the problem of financing wartime expenditures to pass some sort of capital levy, as Great Britain has done. But a well-ordered nation in which the determination to fight is universal obtains financial help from all the people. It does not heap the burden of one religion, making them at once the excuse and the chief sufferers for the military conflict.

at the annual convention of the Hotel Association of the United States and Canada, at Montreal. According to A. A. McVittie, president of the National Restaurant Association of the United States, eating gives the nation its biggest commercial turnover. There are 153,000 restaurants, cafeterias and others units serving five million meals yearly at a monetary value of one and two third billions of dollars. Other stores selling food have a turnover of between eight and nine billion dollars. Last year, the high-class hotels of the United States used fifty-one million pounds of meat; sixteen million dozens of eggs; twelve million pounds of fish; five million quarts of oysters; forty-six million gallons of milk; forty-one million pounds of coffee and two million pounds of tea.

The estimate for Canada would add at least ten per cent to these figures. It can be concluded that the eating industry readily leads all others in volume of business for not alone does it provide a living for thousands of people who are directly engaged in the catering operations but it provides the principal revenue for many other important industries such as farming, meat-packing, coffee raising, fruit and vegetable culture, of which it uses almost the complete output, and it also contributes to the support of hundreds of other undertakings in the manufacturing line.

When the visitor to a large city looks at the number of eating places and concludes that the entire population must spend most of its time and resources eating, he has made a shrewd guess for it. Restaurants, cafeterias and hotel dining rooms were to be closed up, the industry of the place would suffer a great setback.

Refreshments were served at the home of the bride, after which the couple left by motor for Sherbrooke and other points.

For travelling the bride wore a grey boue coat, grey hat and navy accessories.

HARRIMAN—NICHOLSON

Scottsboro, Nov. 22.—The marriage was solemnized of Catherine (Cassie) Harriman, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Nicholson, of Scottsboro, to Rev. Robert B. Harriman, pastor of Federated Church, Fletcher, Ohio, son of Mrs. W. P. Harriman, of Cedarville, Ohio, and the late Dr. Harriman, on Saturday afternoon, November 11, in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. D. MacLellan, assisted by Rev. A. D. MacLellan, Rev. Malcolm MacDonald, of Avonmore, Ont. Potted plants were used for church decorations.

Mrs. W. E. LeGallais, of Drummondville, presided at the organ and rendered suitable wedding music. "I Love You Truly" was played during the signing of the register.

Miss Georgina Lovett, of Drummondville, was bridesmaid and Mr. Rodney MacDonald, cousin of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Malcolm and Hector Nicholson, brothers of the bride, and Murdo MacDonald and Gordon Buchanan, cousins of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white chiffon velvet, simply fashioned in princess lines buttoned down the back with high flaring collar caught with jewelled clips and long sleeves finished in points over the hands. Her finger ring veil of tulle illusion was arranged in heart shaped halo effect framing the face. She carried an arm bouquet of deep red roses.

The bridesmaid was gowned in Tunis blue velvet interwoven with a silver thread, her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion fell from a coronet of velvet flowers, matching shade of gown, and carried an arm bouquet of bronze mums. The bride's mother wore a chic afternoon dress of alpaca crepe in Bishop violet with black accessories small velvet hat in matching shade and a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses, while the groom's mother was becomingly gowned in Victorian mauve crepe with hat to match and corsage of white roses.

WIFE HAS MOST TO LOSE WHEN DIVORCE COMES

Before she threatens divorce, a woman should realize that she will be giving up much more than a husband.

From the time that she married him, she rightfully had an equity in his life. If he made money—it was also hers. If he was successful, she shared the honors. His friends and their wives became her friends. Her position in the community was for the most part an equity in his position.

If she divorces him she gives up her equity.

That is the thing she should remember when she is tempted to get a divorce for any reason—good or foolish. Even if she gets enough alimony to live on comfortably, she still will be giving up her place in the community. She will be giving up her right to share her husband's success and his position.

That is why a woman loses so much more by divorce than a man loses. All that he has cause for regretting is the loss of a wife's love. While a woman must come to realize that she has given up her rights—her stake in life.

Compares With Business Partnership

If the situation isn't quite clear, she can compare herself to a business partner who becomes dissatisfied. And instead of trying to work things out as a partner—walks out one day and slams the door behind him—leaving the other partner with all that both have invested in money and years.

Of course, there are times when a woman is better off for slamming the door behind her. But there are probably more times when she lives to regret the fact that her pride stood in the way of her common sense.

We women are so easily fooled by all the talk about "Today a woman needn't stay in a marriage that doesn't suit her."

What we are apt to forget is that when a woman walks out of marriage she is taking heavy losses on the most important investment she ever made.

- (a) You want to close a friendly letter and don't quite know how to wind it up.

- (c) Write "Well, I must close and get to work."

- 4—No.
- Best "What Would You Do" solution—(a).

meat juices with water added if necessary and thickened. Add the mock turtle soup and cook 34 minutes. Put the roast back in the gravy and continue cooking for one hour. During this final cooking it is well again to put the roast back on the rack or bones so that it does not stick to bottom of roaster. Keep tightly covered.

Adding soup to gravy 1 hour before cooking is done means that gravy is all ready when meat is thus saving time at the serving end.

Social and Personal

Mr. Milton Largy was a guest of friends in East Angus during the week-end.

Mr. J. A. Largy has returned from Toronto where he spent the week-end visiting his mother, Mrs. J. M. Largy.

Miss Nora Naylor, of Compton, is spending a week in Sherbrooke, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Largy, First avenue.

Mrs. F. A. Cutter entertained the members of the Women's Auxiliary of Trinity United Church yesterday afternoon at her home on Magog street. Mrs. E. Hodge presided and Mrs. J. Blake took charge of the devotional period. The only business comprised making plans for an "imaginary" supper, when the members will buy a ticket and "dream" they have had a delicious banquet. Several guests came in for tea when the hostess served dainty refreshments, assisted by Mrs. J. Blake and Miss Leona Pegg.

Mrs. Alfred Savage and Mrs. Harry E. Grundy were hostesses last evening at the former's home on Woodward avenue for the monthly meeting of the Sherbrooke Hospital Alumnae Association. The members under the presidency of Mrs. Gordon Sangster voted twenty-five dollars for the Red Cross, and that the Nurses' Dance recently held at the New Sherbrooke had been financially as well as socially a splendid success was reported by Mrs. Harry E. Grundy, treasurer. After the brief business session bridge was played for the remainder of the evening and at its close the hostesses served delicious refreshments. Mrs. H. S. At the tea hour a large number of guests joined the many members already assembled in the hall to enjoy the pleasant social hour. Tea was poured by Mrs. Charles Ross, the table being prettily centered with bronze mums in a silver basket, the same flowers in small crystal vases also adorning the small tables placed about the hall. News of Women's Clubs

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Girls' Branch of St. Peter's W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Bayley, Wellington street south. There was a good attendance of members with Miss Vivian Ward, the president, in the chair.

After the opening devotional period the minutes were read and adopted. Likewise the financial report, and that of the thank-offering.

Miss Margaret Kinkaid, thank-offering secretary, gave a most gratifying report on this, one of the chief objectives of the W.A. Final plans were made for the tea to be held in St. Peter's Church hall on Saturday.

During the pleasant social hour which followed the hostess served dainty refreshments.

At a largely attended meeting of the Municipal Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire held yesterday afternoon at the MacKinnon Memorial, Mrs. W. E. Loomis, Sherbrooke's Municipal Regent, welcomed Mrs. R. L. Duberger, Regent of de Laval Chapter, and seven of her officers.

This Chapter, which was organized a few weeks ago, yesterday through its war work conveners, Mrs. Michael Stenson and Mrs. Ludger Forest, handed in a generous supply of knitted garments, tangible proof that the members of the Chapter have already waxed enthusiastic over the work which is to supply comforts for Canadian soldiers.

Reports from conveners of the several departments were most encouraging and clearly showed that the general work of the Order was not being neglected in the present enthusiasm evinced in war work, but rather that the extra responsibility has spurred the members on to even greater effort to carry on to the best of their ability the many good endeavors sponsored under their motto, "One Flag, One Throne, One Empire."

Miss Helen Conway, who has been spending a few days in Montreal, has returned home to Sherbrooke.

Mrs. A. B. Somerville is a guest of her sister, Mrs. David Wilson, and Mr. Wilson, Victoria street.

Friends of Mrs. Kenneth Kinder, of Sherbrooke, who is a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal, where she underwent a serious operation, will be pleased to hear that she is progressing favorably.

Friends of Rev. Peter M. Dennis, rector of the Church of the Nativity, in Wingrave, Alabama, and of his wife, the former Miss Hazel Moffatt, daughter of Mrs. C. Moffatt, Island street, will be interested in hearing that he has been appointed Scout Commissioner of the Southeast Alabama Scout Council. Mr. Dennis has been connected with Scouting for a number of years, being one of the first Scoutmasters in Sherbrooke in 1909. He holds a Scout commission signed by "Arthur," the Duke of Connaught, and has received a Thanks Badge for outstanding service with the Boy Scouts of Canada. His son, William, is a student-in-science at the University of Alabama.

AND AFTER ALL HUSBAND PAYS

Albany, N.Y.—A husband who will not leave a bar when his wife calls from outside is equally responsible with her if she tosses a brick through the window, Police Justice Edward Kampf ruled.

Kampf made the decision when the woman in the case pleaded guilty to breach of the peace after the brick slightly injured the leg of another woman inside the bar. He suspended sentence, reprimanded her husband and ordered him to settle for the damage.

CO-EDS DENOUNCE CORSET CORSET COMEBACK

New York—There won't be any waist-pinchers co-eds wearing bustles around the campus of Hunter College for a while. Eighty-four per cent of the co-eds answering a questionnaire termed wasp-waist corsets as "unnatural, unhealthy and instruments of torture." Others recommended them "only for their enemies." The average waistline of the girls measures 25 or 26 inches. Bustle, they say, are clumsy, uncomfortable and hideous.

and later plans were formulated to meet this request.

Ways and means of carrying on Christmas work were discussed and committees were formed to make preliminary surveys of the situation in order that this branch of work may be carried out successfully.

Mrs. A. W. Reid, war work convenor, reported that the war work campaign for funds had been gratifying and that war work was being carried on regularly and most satisfactorily.

A largely attended meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held Monday afternoon at Mrs. E. G. Pierce's home on Stanley avenue.

Miss M. Heath, the president, was in the chair and Mrs. Fred Williams was in charge of the devotional period.

Before closing the business session a motion of regret that Mrs. A. J. Milligan, a highly esteemed member was leaving Sherbrooke was unanimously approved and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The members considered themselves most fortunate in having Mrs. Charland as their guest speaker, more especially as her address was illustrated.

Temperance slides have been obtained by the W.C.T.U. and will be shown at the Sherbrooke High, the Mitchell and East Ward Schools, and also in Sunday Schools throughout the city.

It was announced that Mrs. Charland would lecture at the various schools when the aforesaid temperance pictures are shown.

The meeting closed with the mizpah benediction.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Ada Yates, assisting.

The War Auxiliary sponsored by the Daughters of England, under the presidency of Mrs. H. Hamel, is continuing its work most successfully, this week's meeting at the home of Mrs. Alfred Perry being an enjoyable and profitable event.

After the opening prayer by the president, the minutes were read by Mrs. George Leke, and then final plans were made for a card party and food sale to be held at Mrs. W. Cotterell's home on St. Charles street this evening.

Cards were played at five tables, the prizes being won by Mrs. C. Dunsmore, Mrs. Phelps, Mrs. Cotterell, Mrs. E. Conley and Mrs. Hamel.

The latter donated articles for a miscellaneous auction which, together with the proceeds from the members' fees and the sale of homemade bread, made the gratifying receipts for the evening amount to six dollars.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Millicent Craig, Miss Joan Perry and Mrs. Hamel.

NO FURBELOWS FOR WAR TIME

Paris, Nov. 22.—Tailored suits and simple hats have become almost a uniform in Paris. Fancy footgear has been vetoed and underpinnings for wartime are heavy-soled, low-heeled shoes.

Curls are being chopped off right and left—no time for arrangement and no coiffeurs to arrange them since many hairdressers have been mobilized—that's the reason.

Uniform capes and overseas caps in terra cotta wool are regular uniforms worn on the streets by women volunteers in the Passive Defence group. Women truck drivers garb themselves in ski trousers and wind-breakers and shooting jackets with four flap-buttoned patch pockets are worn by women drivers and cyclists.

An anti-gas suit of beige-colored rubber with ski-type trousers and a hip-length blouse with attached hood is selling well in the shops.

Hay and straw gas masks which fold up into small cases, de luxe leather-covered flashlights decorated with your own initials are new wartime accessories. An extra wartime touch for a handbag is a white water-proof slip cover with a flashlight porthole to aid the pedestrian during black-outs.

The Canadian Red Cross contributed an additional 6 million dollars to the British Red Cross to assist in its great work. The Canadian Red Cross also sent to the front 347,000 bales of goods conservatively valued at 20 million dollars. The total contributions of the Canadian Red Cross in the last war amounted to approximately 35 millions in cash and goods.

Now the Canadian Red Cross has again swung into action. Faced with definite tasks which had to be undertaken at once, the Canadian Red Cross has already pledged itself to carry out the following undertakings:

1. To build and equip a 300-bed hospital for Canadian soldiers at Taplow, England. This is to be called Canadian Red Cross Hospital Number One. The cost of this undertaking is conservatively estimated at $250,000
2. To purchase wool, cloth and all types of materials for the immediate needs of Red Cross branches throughout the Dominion. For this purpose, the Canadian Red Cross has already borrowed from Canadian banks and has expended, or appropriated for immediate expenditure $408,000
3. To furnish all branches of the Red Cross in Canada with the wool and other materials they need for the next eight months (conservatively estimated at $150,000 a month) $1,200,000
4. To carry on the normal work of the Red Cross in Canada, to maintain the Red Cross outpost hospitals and nursing stations, to carry on the work of the Red Cross in frontier districts. During the last two years the cost of this work was $2,293,000. For the coming year the Red Cross will endeavour to keep the cost of this effort down to $950,000

These Four Items Total $2,808,000

Canadians are being asked to contribute $3,000,000 in this drive, which will leave but a small margin to provide for unexpected emergencies, to assist the allied Red Cross Societies with goods and money, and for other needs which are almost sure to arise.

FARNHAM

Remembrance day was fittingly observed here. A large number of Farnham citizens assembled about the cenotaph to take part in the impressive service to commemorate the signing of the Armistice and to pay reverent tribute to those from here who gave their lives in defence of King and Empire. The cold November morning no doubt kept many from attending, but those who gathered about the cenotaph thought lightly of the cold compared to the hardships and sacrifice of those who so proudly marched forward but did not return. The veterans of the first Great War and khaki clad youth ready to do their part in the prosecution of the second Great War marched in a body from the Town Hall. The First Troop Farnham Boy Scouts and the guards of St. Romuald Church attended under the direction of their leaders. The Citizens' Band and the Catholic Young Men's Christian Association Band were in attendance. Suitable addresses were given by the Rev. R. Gordon Asch, rector of St. James; Rev. A. B. Lovelace, of Grace United Church, and the parish priest of St. Romuald Church, Bugler Robert Ferris sounded the "Last Post" previous to the two-minute silence which was broken by the "Reveille," also played by Bugler Ferris. Wreaths were placed on the cenotaph by representatives of many organizations. Poppies were sold throughout the day by the young ladies of the town, and the proceeds were quite satisfactory.

Mrs. J. Rainville and Mrs. K. Champagne have left for Detroit, Mich., and other points, where they will visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. H. Bullock has returned home after spending a few days in Montreal visiting relatives.

Mrs. Edith L. McGuire entertained the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary Lodge at her home. The evening was spent in playing cards. Mrs. W. J. Harris won the first prize and Mrs. H. A. Pickel won the consolation. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Miss Joyce McGuire and Mrs. R. G. Rutherford, and Mrs. K. C. Pattullo. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Russell Cook is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cook, after spending several months in Lennoxville, where he has been employed.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK MARKET

Montreal, Nov. 22.—Veals and hogs were steady on the Montreal livestock market today, the Dominion Department of Agriculture reported. Grass calves were steady but with only 21 cattle offered, there was not enough to establish a market.

There were 162 sheep and lambs, 218 hogs and 41 calves for sale. Veal calves were strong at $7. For common light veals to $10.50 for good kinds, with one top at $11. Grass calves were mostly $4.25.

There was a good inquiry for lambs.

Bacon hogs were firm at $9 red and watered, and $9.25 to $9.55 off trucks. Selects drew $1 per hog premium with the regular cuts on off grades. Sows were $6 to $6.50. Hogs sold on rail grade brought $12, hot weight.

HELP THE RED CROSS
HELP WIN THE WAR!

AFTER 11 WEEKS OF WAR, ALLIES LOOK TO THEIR COLONIES

Quite as in the 11th week of Europe's war gave the world a chance to look over the colonial empires that may be called upon to send troops and supplies to the embattled Western Front. While Dutch at home prepared to evacuate 2,000,000 women and children from flood defense area, her colonial powers wondered if they, too, might be called on to repulse invasion of the mother country. Troop figures are those of active and reserves stationed in British colonies. Principal exports for wartime use are shown.

UNITED CHURCH GROUP MEETING AT KNOWLTON

Much Business Transacted by Members of Women's Association at Meeting in Church Parlors.

Knowlton, Nov. 22.—The Women's Association of the United Church met in the Church parlors with a very good attendance of members. The president, Mrs. G. M. Ransom, was in the chair and called the meeting to order after which the members sang the hymn, "He Leadeth Me" and Mrs. H. L. Call at the piano. Mrs. Earl Mizener then read the Scripture lesson from the thirty-first Psalm. Mrs. E. D. Mitchell offered prayer and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

Several bills were ordered paid and various matters of business given attention. The meeting was brought to a close with benediction after which supper was served to about forty guests.

MILLIONS GET OLD YEARS TOO SOON

Rank carelessness the cause

Among your friends there are some of middle age who appear to have retained the exuberance and vitality of youth; while others accept premature aging as the lot they must bear. Do you want to feel younger, eager to tackle any kind of work or play?

Thousands of people just don't bother to do anything about constipation. They even refuse to take a laxative. They think that if a person is regular, it is a sign of good health. Occasionally they take a "good dose" of something when the need is urgent. That is the only way to keep the bowels moving. The way to keep feeling fit, to prolong the years of youthful exuberance and well-being, is to keep the entire system free at all possible times from impurities and poisons. That means the blood, the kidneys, the intestines and the bowels.

To do that your body must get certain minerals in some way. We make no exaggerated claims for Kruschen salts, but we recommend the "little daily dose" because Kruschen contains several valuable mineral salts in highly refined form. Each salt has its particular function. In combination they help rid your system of excess poisons each day. Thus free from the ageing effects of accumulated impurities you are much less apt to suffer from splitting headaches, acid indigestion, rheumatic pains, listlessness, because your excretory organs are encouraged to function normally.

Thousands upon thousands of people throughout the world refer to the general well-being it imparts as "that million dollar Kruschen feeling." Start "the little daily dose" right away and just you see for yourself! At all drug counters 25c, 45c, 75c.

Mosby's Tonic Just What I Needed Says Widely-Known Lady

Mrs. Georges St. Louis Was a Victim of Stomach Gas— Couldn't Sleep— Was Nervous— Had Constipation— Felt Worn Out Before She Found this New Scientific Compound.

People in all parts of Sherbrooke and this general vicinity are now taking—and praising!—this "new" mixture of roots and herbs and other splendid medicinal agents, known as MOSBY'S TONIC, which is now being introduced to the public daily in this city at The Chagnon Pharmacy, 11 Wellington Street North. And at the same time, many of the best known residents of this section are coming forward daily with grateful statements, publicly endorsing Mosby's Tonic in the newspapers. Druggists say they have never before seen any medicine receive so many voluntary endorsements from widely known people. Among the many people who praise Mosby's Tonic none is more enthusiastic than Mrs. Georges St. Louis, 882 Cooke Street, Three Rivers, P.Q. What Mrs. St. Louis has to say about Mosby's Tonic is truly worth reading. Her statement follows:

Stomach Gas and Bloat For Five Years

"For the last five years I had been a suffering person," said Mrs. St. Louis. "My stomach was giving me all kinds of trouble. Everything I ate would cause gas bloating, and my stomach would simply fill up with gas after meals. This condition became worse in the past eight months since I had an operation. It was almost impossible to sleep, because of stomach gas. Sometimes I could hardly get breath. Was also troubled with constipation and became very nervous and worn out, because I was losing sleep and I had no energy."

Now She Can't Praise Mosby's Tonic Enough

"Well, that's the condition I was in and I certainly was a discouraged person, for I tried about every medicine I heard of and never got any real results from anything. I

Grand, Sister Marjorie Crandall, presided.

The minutes of the previous meeting and the roll call were read by the secretary and several matters of business were brought before the meeting. It was decided to close all meetings in the future with the National Anthem and also that the members would offer their services to the I.O.O.F. Chapter here to assist in Red Cross Work. Sister Marion Pettes was appointed as convener of this project.

A degree practise took place and plans for refreshments for the next meeting were made.

NAMED GUILD OFFICERS

St. Paul's Club met in the Guild Hall of St. Paul's Church with a very good attendance. The president, Mrs. Spencer Symonds, was in the chair and election of officers for the ensuing year were held resulting as follows: Honorary-president, Rev. A. E. Rollet; president, Mr. J. Syburt; secretary-treasurer, Mr. George Williams.

The remainder of the evening was spent in bridge and chess checkers after which refreshments were served by the hostess and hosts, Mrs. K. C. George, Mr. George and Mrs. George Williams.

LENOXVILLE GOLF SEASON UNDER REVIEW

Officers Elected and Activities of Summer Reviewed at Annual Meeting of Lennoxville Golf Club.

Nearly the entire slate of officers of the Lennoxville Golf Club was re-elected for another year at the annual meeting held last evening in the Town Hall, at which the report of the secretary-treasurer showed the year had been a most successful and active one and there still remains a balance in the bank with which to carry on.

Considerable money had been expended during the year on the clubhouse, where new showers and lockers were installed. Membership had increased about twenty per cent over last year's registration, it was revealed.

J. P. L. Stewart presided for the election of officers, which resulted as follows: Col. Rev. A. H. McGreer, honorary president; F. R. Matthews, president; re-elected; J. Bell, elected vice-president; H. C. Desjardins, secretary; re-elected; J. E. Thompson, secretary-treasurer, re-elected.

Appointment of chairmen of the various committees resulted in H. B. Johnston exchanging the post of chairman of the membership committee with C. B. Christison, who was formerly chairman of the house committee; J. P. L. Stewart was re-named chairman of the green's committee, and Roy S. Clarke was re-elected to head the match committee. Representative of the University of Bishop's College will be Rev. Prof. H. C. Burt, and R. G. Ward will again act as auditor.

During the season good weather prevailed and matches were played with Dufferin Heights, Orleans, Vt., Windsor Mills and North Hatley clubs. A field day was held and the Eastern Townships Boys' Junior Championship was also played at Lennoxville.

Prizes won during the year were presented by the president to the following: Rosenbloom Cup, H. G. W. Fowles, C. J. Rose, runner-up; J. P. L. Stewart Cup, H. G. W. Fowles, Roy S. Clarke, runner-up; H. W. S. Downs Cup, C. J. Rose, Roy S. Clarke, runner-up.

Unpredictable Canadiens In Tie For Top Spot In N.H.L.

Montreal's Flying Frenchmen Conquer Harassed Bruins 2-1 on Boston Ice to Move Up on Even Terms with Toronto Maple Leafs—Earl Robinson and Marty Barry Combine for Winning Goal After Toe Blake Had Nullified Roy Conacher's First-Period Master.

Boston, Nov. 21.—(P)—There is a feeling around the National Hockey League today that the experts have been fooled again by the unpredictable Montreal Canadiens.

Rated as of championship calibre a year ago, Canadiens barely managed to squeeze into the play-offs and were eliminated in the first round of the post-season series. Consigned to a cellar berth this season, the Canadiens are perched on top in a tie with Toronto Maple Leafs.

Only Canadiens have the answer to the reason for this transformation, but from their showing so far this season it looks as though Coach Pit Lepine has instilled in them some of the greatness of the Howie Morenz era during which they won the cognomen of the Flying Frenchmen.

For Canadiens were flying last night as they beat the champion Bruins 2-1 last night for their fifth straight game without a loss. And it was their ability to come back as quickly as they went forward that brought them victory over Boston.

Roy Conacher, the league's leading goal-getter last season, sent the Bruins into a first period lead on a play with Mel Hill, but Toe Blake, who topped all point scorers last season, evened the count in the second period after taking a pass from Doug Young.

Two newcomers to Canadiens this season, Earl Robinson and Marty Barry, combined on the winning goal which came in the ninth minute of the final period. Breaking away from a Boston gangling attack, Barry shot a rink-wide pass to Robinson who banged in a hard shot from Frank Brimsek and then drove home the rebound.
