Woman Killed As Auto Collides With Fire Truck

In one of the most spectacular accidents that has occurred in Westmount for a long time, Mrs. Alice Kirton, aged 63, of 458 Elm Avenue, was instantly killed on Saturday afternoon when the car in which she was a passenger was involved in a crash with a fire truck at the intersection of Westmount and Victoria avenues.

Police said that the truck was answering a fire call at the time of the accident, and that Mrs. Kirton was a passenger in an automobile driven by Edwin P. Wallace, of 4260 Madison Avenue. The latter suffered head injuries and was taken to the Homoeopathic Hospital, where he is reported to be progressing favourably.

An inquest is to be held today.

Know Your Homoeopathic Hospital Fund Campaign Has $67,000 Objective

On Monday, the Homoeopathic Hospital opened a campaign for $67,000. This money is vitally needed to cover such items as a sizeable deficit, new X-Ray equipment, and replacement of other worn out or obsolescent equipment and instruments. These funds must be obtained in order that the Homoeopathic Hospital may continue to serve its surrounding communities as effectively as it has in the past.

Review of recent articles under the heading "Know Your Homoeopathic" in recent issues of the Examiner will reveal to the discerning reader the manifold services that the Hospital performs for this community.

It cannot be too strongly emphasized that the Out Patient Department is always ready to serve our citizens in case of emergency.

The Campaign Fund Divisional Chairman for Westmount is Robert E. Cameron. Working with him on the general canvas of the community are the following: Mrs. Robert E. Cameron, Mrs. Arthur Lang, F. H. Clements, R. R. White, Miss Dorothy Hay, Miss Kay Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Page, Mrs. A. T. Tremaine, Mrs. J. Carin, Mrs. Edward Solomon, W. Dawson, and Wm. McGregor, Sub-Chairman.

Tram Hits Horse Delivery

What might have been a serious accident was narrowly averted on Saturday morning when a horse and wagon belonging to the Inter City Baking Company was brushed by a street car. The horse became startled by two men coming from a store at 1345 Greene Avenue, in front of which it was parked, and it started away from the curb by itself. A tram, going north on Greene Avenue, lightly struck the wagon, causing minor damage to wagon and harness.

3 Cases Where Parked Vehicles Run Down Hill

An automobile, owned by LeBlanc, of 2383 St. James St., was parked opposite 672 Roslyn Avenue around 10.30 a. m. on Monday. A truck in front of the car backed up to clear the curb, and struck the car which started down the hill. It attained quite a momentum before it jumped the curb, and struck a tree on the property of Allan McDougall, 617 Roslyn Avenue. The damage was severe, both front springs being broken, an axle bent, and the left front wheel torn off.

2nd Car Involved

It is reported that Michael Lucas, of 631 Roslyn Avenue, was sitting on the gallery of his home, saw the accident, and had been able to stop a second car which had been struck by the runaway car and had started down the hill.

2nd Case

An automobile, owned by C. D. Y. Thomson, of 4129 Dorchester Street, rolled down hill last Monday evening after being parked on Argyle Avenue. The runaway car travelled a short distance and struck the rear of a car owned by W. Jackson, 469 Argyle Avenue, which was parked in front of his home. Damage to both cars was light.

Driverless Truck

J. D. Viveau, of 4781 Dagenais Street, Montreal, parked his G.J.C. truck on the west side of Clarke Avenue on the morning of September 4th, while making a delivery to 455 Clarke Avenue. While he was away from his truck, it started to roll down the hill and picked up speed until it smashed into a tree on a lawn at 411 Clarke Avenue.

The force of the impact smashed the front end of the truck, driving the radiator into the engine; both windshields were shattered and buckled, and the right half of the cowling was torn off. The truck was owned by Le Pain Moderne, 2250 Papineau Avenue.

Westmount Will Get $187,297

Suburban towns in the Montreal sales tax area will divide $1,532,128 of the proceeds of the 2 per cent tax collected by the City of Montreal, Lactance Roberge, director of finance of the city, having issued the cheques. The procedure requires formal approval by the Montreal Metropolitan Commission, and when this is given each municipality will get its share.

The amounts are: Verdun, $525,690; Westmount, $187,297; Outremont, $221,262; Hampstead $18,061; Montreal east, $21,057; Montreal North, $61,175; Montreal West, $24,344; Mount Royal, $54,525; Pointe-au-Trembles, $45,750; Ville St. Laurent, $67,727; St. Michel, $38,296; Lachine, $186,696; Lasalle, $48,698; Ville St. Pierre, $32,136.

The money is divided on a population basis, and not in relation to what is collected in the shops of any particular municipality. The collection is done by the provincial government when collecting its own 2 per cent sales tax.

2 On 1 Bicycle Badly Injured

Two boys were badly injured when the bicycle they were riding went out of control Saturday afternoon. Peter Menard, age 12, of 768 Sherbrooke Street West, lost control of his bicycle while coasting down Mount Pleasant Avenue, and crashed into the rear of a James Strachan bread wagon with considerable force, damaging both the bread wagon and the bicycle.

His passenger, Louis Richard, of 484 Elm Avenue, sustained severe injuries, and was conveyed to the Western General Hospital in an ambulance, where he was examined and treated by Doctor Lingard. His injuries required two stitches on his chin, and two stitches on his left hip. Young Menard was transported to the Hospital in a Police Radio Car where he was found to have sustained a badly bruised hip.

Severe Injury In Fall From Ladder

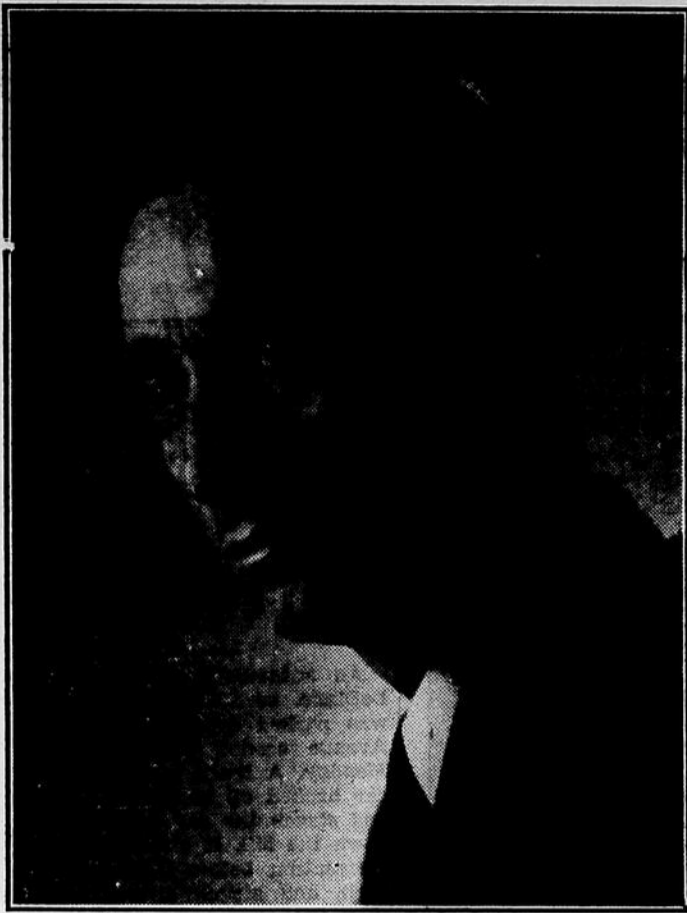

Late on Tuesday morning, Hector Romitite, painter of 1935 St. Antoine Street, slipped and fell from his ladder while working near the stairway of a vacant residence at 379 Olivier Street. Two other men were working in the house at the time, but were not near him when he fell.

Help was called, and first aid was rendered to the injured man by Dr. Akin and Lt. Porter. He was conveyed to the Western General Hospital by ambulance, and found to have suffered a fractured femur.

R.C.A.S.C. Training Resumed This Week

The third Division of the R. C. A. S. C. resumed training for all ranks at the Hillside Barracks, on Hillside Avenue, Westmount, on Tuesday.

A refresher course on general military training is scheduled to begin today at 8.15 p.m., for officers, non-commissioned officers, and specialists. Major A.J. Grant is to be in charge of all training.

CHAS. MILLER OF CBC

Popular member of the staff of the Children's Theatre, conducting classes in radio, public speaking and a special radio announcers' course.

Children's Theatre Opens Fifteenth Annual Season

The Children's Theatre, Montreal's popular training centre for young people offer courses in stage and radio work. Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, the capable directors of the school are now busily engaged enrolling new pupils in both the north and west-end studios.

The course in speech consists of basic voice production,—producing the voice correctly in relation to the tone, quality, resonance, projection, pitch and color of speech. Clear, unaffected good speech is of advantage to the individual, no matter what profession he or she may choose.

The theory and practise of the basic techniques of acting and development of the student's individual talent, showing how to analyze a part and create a characterization, and acquainting students with a knowledge of theatrical make-up,—this is all a part of the dramatic training.

Children of all ages learn acting techniques within the limitations of the inabilities, and are encouraged to extend themselves in imagination and performance. Improvisation are also part of the class work.

Eurythmics, good poise and deportment are also emphasized.

Radio Course

The radio course under the direction of Charles Miller of CBC can be taken separately or in conjunction with the dramatic course, but applicants for radio are required to take a voice test on the microphone before acceptance.

Mr. Miller who has gained such popularity since his association with the Children's Theatre in the past two seasons has a valuable course to offer students eager to improve their speech, and his wide experience in radio is an invaluable asset in training pupils, some of whom may have ambitions in the radio field. Students are instructed in the art of microphone technique, voice training, characterization, pronunciation, station routine and radio acting.

Radio Announcers Course

This is a new course which Mr. Miller has added to his season's work. Young men having ambitions to become announcers can take the special announcers training course.

Pupils who progress and show ability, have the opportunity of appearing on the popular "Calling All Children" Programme, which will again be heard weekly over CFCF during the current season. The Children's Theatre have placed many of their young artists on professional programmes.

Four major productions will be given this season including: "Anne of Green Gables," Rumpelstiltskin," "Little Women" and "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs".

Kindergarten, juniors, intermediates and senior groups are rapidly being filled, and registrations should be made now at the west end studio, 3835 Girouard Avenue, DEXter 6620.

GOING STRONG

Rory Calhoun is one of the most up-and-coming leading men in Hollywood. He has the lead for Pine-Thomas in "Adventure Island," Paramount color release adapted from Robert Louis Stevenson's "Ebb Tide." He is currently playing opposite Shirley Temple in a picture.

M. R. T. Reopens Fall Activities

Doreen Lewis will again act as Producing Director for M. R. T. This year M.R.T. enter their 18th successive season of play production. They succeeded last year in playing to capacity houses as well as winning the Dominion Drama Festival award for the best production of a play in English. Miss Lewis is also responsible for instigating the revival of the M.R.T. School of the Theatre after the wartime hiatus.

An extract from an article written by Percy Jacobson, published recently in Saturday Night states:—"Someone has said that an institution is the lengthened shadow of one person. This was certainly true in the days of Martha Allan. It is true again today. The person is Doreen Lewis, the full time supervising director of M.R.T. She was one of the pupils of the old M.R.T. School . . . There is nothing about the treatre than can faze her. She is a good actress, an expert on production problems, as well as direction and costuming. And what is more, she can talk to any stage technician in his own language. Doreen Lewis is what we might term a practical idealist. She keeps a wary eye on the budget which pleases the President and his Board of Directors."

Miss Lewis states that the same high standard of production will be maintained throughout the year by the excellent staff who worked with her last year.

In choosing the plays for the coming season the Play Reading Committee, composed of Marie Stehle, Charles Rittenhouse and Doreen Lewis will strive to find originality as well as variety sufficient to appeal to the wide tastes represented by an MRT audience.

Roberta Beatty, Director of M.R.T. School of the Theatre, announces two newcomers to the teaching staff of the School. Eleanor Stuart will conduct a course in Voice and Diction and George Tully will teach Fencing. Miss Stuart is one of the most talented stage and radio personalities and one of the outstanding authorities of Voice Production in Canada.

Mr. Tully, who coaches the R. V.C. and McGill Fencing Teams, is considered one of the most expert masters of fencing in Canada, having himself held Dominion Foil, Epee and Sabre title.

Other members of the teaching staff who return again this year are Charles Rittenhouse who will teach directing; Virginia Watt who will give a course in costume history and design; Hans Berends who will conduct lessons in stagecraft and Herbet Rose who teaches make-up. Roberta Beatty will be in charge of a Studio Workshop for students who have completed the full term of the 1946-47 season.

Miss Beatty wishes to point out that Voice and Diction, Fencing and Make-Up must be taken as a unit.

Doreen Lewis, producing director of MRT, will be registrar again this year.

Rotary Hears About Nationalism In Democracy

Guest speaker at the regular Wednesday luncheon of the Rotary Club of Westmount this week was Desmond Killikelly, Chief Inspector of the Steel Company of Canada, who spoke on the subject of "Nationalism within a Christian Democracy."

He was introduced by Ted Clark, who told the assembly that he was a native of the British West Indies and had come to Canada more than 50 years ago, and that he has for many years made a hobby and a study of the subject of his address, and has spoken on it before many other service clubs.

"Nationalism has a definite place in democracy, and there must be a definite correlation between the two," said Mr. Killikelly at the beginning of his address.

We must recognize the fact that we are an independent nation with individuality, influenced by geography, dual language and races, etc., a national individuality in the process of development, requiring a growing need of nationalism fundamentally Canadian character. He thinks we should try to understand that "nationalistic" sentiment, as a whole, is a patriotic manifestation, regardless of how we may disagree with certain nationalistic ideas.

Canadian Nationalism Needed
 What is needed in this country is greater Canadian nationalism. Loyalty to the Commonwealth is too intangible and nebulous a sentiment on which to build the future greatness of our country, he stated. We must have a clearly defined interest in public affairs.

To encourage that attitude the Canadian Citizenship Bill was passed recently, he declared, for it gives us all the right to call ourselves Canadians, although we retain the distinction of being British subjects.

The control or restraint of evils connected with nationalism does not require its suppression. Basically, it is the nerve centre of the body politic of every nation. Because of the turbulent chauvinism

Jeep Delivery Jumps Curb

Shortly after 2 a.m. on Saturday morning, a Jeep delivery truck, owned by Rochman's Drug Store, 4625 Wilson Avenue, Montreal, was proceeding eastward on Cote St. Antoine Road. Approaching the Kensington Avenue intersection, the driver noticed he was going the wrong way down a one way street, and turned to go down Kensington Avenue. He struck the curb on the east side of the street, and lost control of the vehicle, which jumped the opposite curb, and went over the lawn, colliding with the synagogue.

Handwriting Talk At Victoria Hall

An interesting talk and demonstration of the interpretation of character from handwriting has been scheduled for Victoria Hall next Tuesday, at 8.30 p.m.

Although not a full-time graphologist, the speaker, T. W. Deachman of Westmount, has made an intensive study of his subject for many years, building a reputation for accuracy in his analyses which has opened many eyes to the value of a knowledge of graphology in everyday life. He is well known to many local young people for his lectures on this subject to church groups last year.

"The subject is accepted as a science in European countries," Mr. Deachman points out, "and is taught in many universities. Psychiatrists the world over acknowledge the fact that character does show in handwriting. In the United States, and to a lesser degree in Canada as yet, large business organizations are retaining graphologists to facilitate employee selection and to give them a better knowledge of their customers."

Mr. Deachman has received numerous requests to teach the subject, from business men and women, from those who want a keener insight into the character of their friends and associates, and from those who just want a new and fascinating hobby. Tuesday's lecture is free to those seriously interested in joining classes to be formed at the time. The course will take one night a week for a period of ten weeks. "At the end of that time," Mr. Deachman states, "the attentive student will have a working knowledge of graphology which he will find useful in countless ways, for the rest of his life."

Those attending should bring a pen, as the speaker will give a short analysis of as many writings as possible from the audience.

Recreational Facilities Survey Made Here

Representatives of the National Recreational Association, a nation-wide organization based in the United States, were in Westmount on September 3, 4, and 5, to conduct a comprehensive survey of recreational facilities in the city, in response to a request by City Council earlier this year, the office of the City Manager announces.

The two representatives, Dr. Hutchins and Mr. Burritt, made a complete survey of the city, including present recreational facilities, how they are used, and by whom, survey of population, general interests, and much other and varied information about the city.

The information they have gained, they have taken with them, to correlate, and study in the light of statistics from other progressive centres throughout the country.

On the basis of the report and recommendations they make to the City Council, it is expected that Westmount will be able to much improve its already high standard of public recreational facilities.

City Hall Closed on Saturdays
 The City Hall will be closed on Saturdays throughout September and October, as it has been in June, July, and August, it has been announced from the office of the City Manager.

Does Handwriting Reveal Character?

Yes, very definitely! Furthermore, you can now learn this fascinating science yourself. Think what it will mean to you to be able to pick up a scrap of a stranger's writing and know instantly those hidden facets of character which might otherwise take weeks or months of close association to learn.

This is not quackery. It is a serious study, recognized by psychiatrists and taught in many universities. If you are seriously interested in joining a class which will provide you with a thorough grounding in this subject in ten weeks, come to Victoria Hall Tuesday evening for a free lecture and demonstration. Care In Crowds

The assembly of young people, as at a large educational institution, creates a special danger of spread of infection (such as influenza), should disease occur. Medical officers warn that individuals are particularly susceptible when they are chilled, fatigued or worried.

CANADA — WORLD'S MOST PROSPEROUS NATION

"Far more goods are being produced and many more people are employed in Canada than during any previous period of peace," says the current Monthly Review of The Bank of Nova Scotia.

In most areas, the changeover from war to peace has been completed without serious consequences, the most significant exception being the industrial portion of Nova Scotia. Unemployment has been very low and employment has been increasing since the late Winter. In many areas and in many industries, acute shortages of labour have developed and there are few peacetime industries which have not increased their operations to an appreciable extent over the past twelve months and to a very marked extent over pre-war.

"The main factors behind this great activity are the high level of consumer demand, the very large volume of business expenditures for expansion, re-equipment and replenishment of stocks, and the tremendous demand for exports." Rising employment, higher rates of remuneration, and a reduced rate of saving have sustained consumer spending at a level sufficient to absorb the mounting production of automobiles, washing machines, refrigerators, radios, and other household goods and generally to sustain the demand for food, clothing and other current necessities despite appreciable advances in their prices. The substantial tourist trade is an additional factor swelling demand at this season. Business expenditures, the demand for housing, and requirements for highways, schools, hospitals and churches have combined to produce a level of construction activity comparable only with 1928-29. Exports reached a new peak of approximately $1,325 millions in the first half of this year which dwarfs any pre-war figures and is almost as large as the figure for the full year of 1928, the pre-war record.

TEN MILLIONS TO BENEFICIARIES

Death claims payments under life insurance policies paid to beneficiaries of persons who died in the Province of Quebec during the first six months of 1947 amounted to $10,261,508, it was announced this week by the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association.

For the whole of Canada, life insurance companies paid out in death claims the total of $34,678,940 during the period. Next to the U.S.A., Canadians are the best insured people in the world.

By far the largest amount of Quebec's $10,261,508 was paid out under ordinary life contracts, 3,474 policies paying $7,470,790. A further $1,326,444 was paid under 919 group policies and $1,464,274 under 6749 industrial policies.

The figures were compiled by the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association based on the data of companies representing more than 95 percent of the life insurance in force in Canada.

THE PRE-ENLISTMENT DISABILITY BOGEY

Probably the most contentious question among veterans today is that of pre-enlistment disability and the deductions made from the disability pensions. It has always been the cause of the greatest dissatisfaction amongst veterans of both World Wars I and II, who have found it difficult to understand why such deduction should be made from the disability pension of a man accepted for service as physically fit and who, in many cases, served for years in a theatre of war.

It is true that Section II, subsection (c) of the Pension Act, provides that there shall be no deduction for pre-enlistment disability where the pensioner has served in a theatre of war, but the joker is contained in a proviso which is as follows,—

"Provided that no pension shall be paid for a disability or disabling condition which, at the time he became a member of the forces, was wilfully and deliberately concealed, was obvious or was recorded on medical examination prior to enlistment."

It is these exceptions which cause all the trouble. In an effort to remedy the situation, the Canadian Legion made the strongest representations to the 1945-46 House of Commons Committee on Veterans' Affairs, who gave this question much consideration. Many members of the Committee expressed themselves quite definitely that, when a man was considered fit to serve in a theatre of war, he should be pensioned for his entire disability. However, the only change actually made was to add the word "deliberately" to the clause regarding "wilful concealment". Judging by the statements made by Members of Parliament on July 16th last, during the debate on Veterans' Affairs, there seems little doubt that this matter will receive further serious consideration by the 1948 Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

WEEKLY REVIEW

"There's Something About A Sailor"

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

"There's something about a sailor—well, you know what sailors are." That was written and sung in the days of the "windjammers" when a life on the ocean wave was much harder and more perilous than it is today. There was adventure and romance in the sea in those days which lured youth with visions of far-off lands and held them in its spell of wanderlust to the end of their lives. This "sea-fever" found expression in the lines of John Masefield:

I must go down to the seas again,
To the lonely sea and the sky;
And all I ask is a tall ship,
And a star to steer her by.
Masefield knew whereof he sang, for he sailed out of the port of Liverpool before-the-mast in those old sailing ships on long voyages to Africa, India and the Orient. There was scarcely a family in Liverpool that did not have one or more members who early "took to the sea." Some of them "swallowed the anchor" in the first voyage and were dubbed "longshoremen" by their former sea-mates. An elder brother of mine ran away to sea as a lad, and finally became boatswain of a schooner which sailed out of Liverpool on eleven-month trips to India, carrying coolies from Calcutta to the sugar plantations of Demarara. Although he married and tried to settle down ashore, he always had a hankering to be "off to sea again," and when the first Great War broke out he joined the Marines and was wounded in the landing at Gallipoli.

But that is an old story, and the romance has gone out of the sea with the passing of the sailing ship and the advent of the machine age. Kipling tried to make poetry out of a steamship, but his attempt was forced and mechanical, and in desperation he cried, "Lord send us a Robbie Burns to sing a song of steam!" There is no poetry in steam—at least not the kind that Burns wrote, or that of Allan Cunningham with its free, lyrical sweep that transports us immediately out into the open spaces and salt air of the ocean:

A wet sheet and a flowing sea,
A wind that follows fast,
And fills the white and rustling sail,
And bends the gallant mast, my boys,
While, like an eagle free,

Away the good ship flies, and leaves
Old England on the lee.

No poet that I know of has yet written anything like that about a steamship. The reason is that the steamer has within itself the means of propulsion and makes straight for its goal, while the sailing ship spreads its wings like a bird to the varying winds and has to wrestle with the elements to make headway. The modern ocean liner is a majestic and purposeful thing, but it is not to be compared for beauty and romance with a full-rigged ship slantingly tacking against a head-wind.

With the disappearance of the old time sailing ship has gone the old time sailor, and we no longer sing the old songs of the sea, such as Tom Blowing, The Anchor's Weighed, The Bay of Biscay, Larboard Watch and Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep, which were so popular on concert platforms up to forty years ago. From the sailor's point of view, we need not regret the passing of the old windjammers, for it was a hard and often a wretched life on the rolling deep in those days. But life in general was harder than it is today, and the modern sailor does not seem to be as happy and contented with his easier lot as the jolly old shellback was with his rough and perilous one. Perhaps the explanation is that the sailor has become obsessed with the economic aspects of his job, and no poet has yet arisen who could make a song about economics.

THE FORUM.

Conducted by Howard S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

The mysterious "flying saucers" for a time in the spot light. Psychiatrists put it down to mass hallucinations, horseplay, insecurity or outright psychopathy. Scientists found "no evidence to substantiate the existence of heavenly disks."

Even the Soviet's Gromyko said "twinkling like a Russian tea-tray": "Some attribute (the 'saucers') to the British for exporting too much of their Scotch whisky into the U.S.A.; some say it is a Russian discus thrower training for the Olympic games who does not realize his own strength."

"Don't drive Russia into corner" says an Indiana farmer, Charles C. Rohrer, North Manchester, a member of the Church of the Brethren who has twice gone to Poland with shipments of "heifers for relief" talked with Russians in Poland. Whether or not one agrees with his point of view, it is very interesting and unusual. He said in part: "I am afraid we are driving a desperate people into a corner from which they know there is no escape. When they are convinced there is no hope in the United Nations or elsewhere, then look out! The animal instinct for survival will suddenly cause them to burst forth in a terrible claw and fang struggle. When I was in Poland, I realized how very close the Russian armies are to the heart of Europe. They could suddenly and secretly mass on their frontiers and swoop down through Europe and roll our forces into the sea. Then they would be masters of an enormous amount of land and peoples and productive potential. Recently I mentioned this to a newspaper man in Washington and he said: 'You are not the only one who is alarmed about this possibility. Some men in high places are doing some worrying also.' I wonder how the Russians would respond to men who were not openly hostile to them and who did not try to force our kind of peace on them? I devoutly wish some real peace-loving Christians would band themselves together and call on the Russians and have a man to man, Christian and neighborly talk with them on the peace and what it would take to have a lasting peace through real universal disarmament, the world court, an international police force and the rest of the United Nations in fact and act. We might get the surprise of our lives. At least it could do no harm and if the Russians refused to talk, the burden of responsibility would rest on them. I have called on them twice and was agreeably surprised at the favorable response I received."

I confess I have more than once wondered how the people of Russia, (not the dictators who rule with an iron hand, the people who do the useful and necessary work) would react if the democracies reformed one capitalist system so that we would have real free enterprise—a system based on the best of all the religious systems of the world—a system based on evenhanded justice which would give us abundance for all instead of, as present, artificial scarcity for most people.

When we recall that the last Dominion census was taken in 1941 with the complementary recollection that all its findings are not yet available to the public, it is interesting to go over a brief summary of the annual population estimate of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. According to this estimate, recently released, Canada's population last year was 12,307,000. This was an increase of 188,000 over the previous year. Since the last Dominion census was taken in 1941 the gain in population is estimated at 800,000 or over seven per cent.

According to the estimate, the Province of Ontario, Quebec and British Columbia made the largest absolute gains in population between 1941 and 1946. Ontario's increase during that period was 319,000; Quebec 298,000, and British Columbia 185,000. In the same interval the population of Nova Scotia increased 34,000; New Brunswick 23,000; Alberta 4,000; Northwest Territories 4,000; and the Yukon, 3,000.

The population, as estimated, for the year 1946, by province, was as follows, with the totals of the 1941 census given in brackets. Prince Edward Island, 94,000 (95,000); Nova Scotia, 612,000 (578,000); New Brunswick, 480,000 (457,000); Quebec, 3,630,000 (3,332,000); Ontario, 4,107,000 (3,788,000); Manitoba 727,000 (730,000); Saskatchewan, 830,000 (896,000); Alberta, 800,000 (796,000); British Columbia, 1,003,000 (818,000); Yukon, 8,000 (5,000); Northwest Territories, 16,000 (12,000).

Emperor Haile Selassie, as representative of the people of Ethiopia, deserves a pat on the back for their remarkable comeback and their spirit of independence. Cabling the United Nations secretary at Lake Success, N.Y., the Ethiopian Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs, declined proffered aid for reconstruction because, he says, notwithstanding heavy war damage, Ethiopia had made sufficient progress to manage by herself—and will stand aside in favor of some more needy nation. Maybe she will require aid at some future date, but not now.

The first is on Sunday, the organist being Arthur Collingwood, F.R.C.O., Dean in the Faculty of Music, University of Saskatchewan. The programme being: Choral Prelude, "Now thank we all our God," Two Hebridean Sketches, "Sea Croon," and "Sea plaint," Julian Nesbitt. Movement from cello suite. J. S. Bach. Stanley Presbyterian

Rev. J. D. Wilkie will conduct both services of worship in Stanley Church on Sunday. His sermon in the morning will be on "What is man?—a bit of rubbish, or a pearl of great price?" and in the evening—"In the Cross of Christ I glory. Be careful. It is not easy to accept the cross. It may mean crucifixion."

Sunday School will meet at 11 a.m., but Bible classes will not be resumed until October 5th. Beginning with Wednesday evening, October 1st, the Congregational Prayer Meeting which has been non-existent for some time will be revived in Stanley Church. This should be a vital part of church life and work.

St. James United

St. James United Church is starting the fall season without a regular minister; but with loyal, enthusiastic members, with Rev. F. W. Norwood, D.D., as Interim Minister and Rev. B.B. Brown as Visiting Minister, a great deal may be done toward the work of the Kingdom of God in this part of the city where east and west meet. St. James has been fortunate enough to secure Rev. G. G. D. Kilpatrick, D.D., Principal of the United Theological College, as guest preacher during the fall season.

The Sunday School re-opened last Sunday, with W. M. LeBrocq as Acting Superintendent, and with him a well-equipped staff of teachers. Gordon Donaldson has assumed the superintendency of Boys' Work, and the church is considering an advance step in the matter of youth organizations.

The Women's Association and W.M.S. (with two Evening Auxiliaries) are continuing their good work under the competent and devoted leadership of Mrs. C. H. Taylor and Mrs. B. B. Tarlton. The Red Cross group meets on Thursdays.

The Session, with Arthur Laing as Clerk, and the Board of Stewards with Albert A. Tousaw as Chairman, give the men their share of work. The choir, with Warner Norman as organist and director, plays an important part in the Sunday services and affords an opportunity for those who possess musical ability to serve in that way.

Local Juniors To Oppose NDG

Inaugural Tilt September 20

BY BOB LUNNY

The Westmount Junior Football Club will play against last year's provincial champions, the N.D.G. Maple Leafs, at Trenholme Park at 2.30 on September 20 in the curtain raiser of the Q.R.F.U. Junior schedule.

Seven clubs will compose the league with each team playing six games. Eastward will play host to Rosemount in the opener. The only difficulty arising from the arrangement of the schedule is that some clubs cannot play on Saturday while others are forbidden by city officials to hold games on Sunday. Pending any settlement that N.D.G. can make with the other teams the N.D.G. vs Rosemount fixture, which falls on a Sunday, will force the Q.R.F.U. to accept the Junior schedule as unofficial.

HEAVY DRILLS

The Westmounters donned heavy equipment Wednesday night after two weeks of light practices consisting of formation, chalk talks, fundamentals and calisthenics.

John Thornber has taken over the reins as assistant coach. He will replace Andy McGillis, well-known mentor of St. Leo's Academy. Johnny was the captain of the '36, '37 and '38 Westmount Junior Football teams. The 1938 team, coached by McGillis and Bruce Johnston, the present coach of the squad, were Eastern Canadian finalists. Thornber played for the Big Four Hornets two years ago.

52 TRYING OUT

A record total of 52 gridders are trying out for berths on the local club this year. Dressing accommodations are troubling the club at present.

Chit chat: A program has been made up and will be ready in a week . . . Action shots of last year's team will be included . . . At present Bruce Johnson has three squads working out. They're called the red, white and blue brigades. Couldn't be much more patriotic than that . . . Connie Fosey, Rev. Healy and Joe Taillon are St. Henry's gifts to the team . . . Ray Binmore, one of Westmount's star basketball players, is quite capable of securing a position on the squad . . . Jack Patterson and John Kay seem to be in excellent condition . . . The kicking assignment hasn't yet been handed out . . . Only three home games this year . . . Hal Platt, referee-in-chief of the Q.R.F.U., is a Westmount resident . . . Rumour has it that the fight for the league title will be largely a Westmount-N.D.G. affair.

JUNIOR SCHEDULE

DOWN TO EARTH
Favorite hobby of Phyllis Calvert, British star who is now making "My Own True Love" at Paramount, is gardening.

PROFESSOR NOW ACTOR
Frank Ferguson, who has a large role in Paramount's "Bliss at Noon," was once a professor of speech at Cornell.

"Just listen...
to Suzy's
new engine!"

HER NEW ENGINE has given the "Suzy M." a new lease on life. Now she gets out to the fishing grounds in double-quick time, and the hours saved mean her daily catch is just that much bigger.

A bank loan made all the difference. And the extra money Suzy's owner is making will soon pay off the cost of the engine.

Local bank managers along Canada's coasts are eager to help their neighbours catch fish, by making bank credit available for the purchase of engines, nets and other gear. Not only do they take care of funds left in their charge but they also supply credit to local businessmen, sawmill operators, farmers, people in every walk of life.

THIS IS ONE INSTANCE OF how Canada's 3,200 branch banks play their part in the daily life and work of Canadians.

School Football Loop List Three New Rules

The new rules as outlined by Jack Lang, Director of Physical Education for Protestant schools in Montreal are as follows:

- 1—There will be no kickoff at half time. The game will proceed as one game and the team in possession at the start of the third quarter will retain the ball in the exact spot at the opposite end of the field and the game will continue.
- 2—When a team kicks off and the ball goes out of bounds the receiving team will be given the option of bringing the ball in 10 yards and kicking off again or scrimmaging.
- 3—Time for huddles has been reduced from 20 seconds to 15. To offset this reduction each team will be allowed two times out during the game of two minutes duration.

MENDING MINDS

Illnesses of the Mind can be cured in the great majority of cases just as definitely as ills of the body. National Health experts in mental health declare that early treatment is the essence of cure in these, as in physical ailments.

Mental hospitals in Canada are now discharging 60% of their patients within one year of admission and some cases require treatment for only a few weeks.

The A.T.S. uniform which Phyllis Calvert wears in "My Own True Love" at Paramount is regulation issue. She bought it in England before coming over here last June.

Round the World In Three Days Is Fastest Trip

William P. Odom, twenty-seven-year-old veteran airman, completed the fastest trip ever made around the world.

When his blue and silver 4,000 horsepower former army bomber, the Reynolds Bombshell, flashed past the control tower of Douglas Airport at 2:58 E.D.T., he ended a 19,145-mile solo global circuit trip he had started just seventy-three hours and five minutes earlier.

Three minutes later at 3.01 p.m., he glided to earth at the Chicago Airport, twenty-two miles further south, and climbed from his cockpit before a shouting crowd without showing visible signs of fatigue.

Odom was pilot on the previous record flight which he made in the Bombshell with Milton Reynolds, Chicago manufacturer, and Flight Engineer T. Carrol Sallee last April in 78 hours and 55 minutes.

The former solo record was established by the late Wiley Post when he flew the single-engined monoplane Winnie Mae around the globe in 186 hours and forty-nine minutes in 1933.

Odom's new record cut five hours and 50 minutes from the former Bombshell record and beat Post's mark by 113 hours and 44 minutes. The intrepid traveller did not look as though he had gone nearly sleepless for more than three days.

Yet a few hours earlier while flying over the mountains of Northwestern Canada, he related, fatigue nearly cost him his life.

He said he dozed for an hour and forty minutes while using the manual controls of the plane—his automatic pilot was disabled—and awakened to find his altitude had dropped from 20,000 to 16,000 feet and he was heading directly toward a 19,000-foot mountain peak.

Odom said that during his nearly disastrous nap the plane apparently flew in a circle, and "I found myself flying nearly due north at practically the same place I dozed off."

It was this experience and icing conditions north of Edmonton, Alberta, which prevented a non-stop flight from Anchorage, Alaska, to Chicago, he said. He landed at Fargo, N.D., at 12.46 a.m., E.D.T., and replenished his fuel supply.

During the sixty-three hours and fifteen minutes flying time, he averaged 310.59 miles an hour.

Odom took off on his flight from Chicago Douglas Airport at 1.53 a.m., E.D.T., Thursday. His first stop was Gander, Nfld. From there, he flew to Paris, Cairo, Karachi, Calcutta, Tokyo, Anchorage, Fargo and back to Chicago.

Japanese Beetles Tour By Airliner

The Japanese beetle, since its arrival in New Jersey some 30-odd years ago, has given evidence of being much pleased with what it has seen and eaten of this country in more than a score of states, says the New York Herald Tribune.

The ambitious insect is well aware of the value of air transport in getting around a land so much larger than its original home in the Pacific. Every Summer it makes use of planes, travelling as a stowaway or hitch hiker, and coming aboard clinging boldly to some traveller who may be munching lima bean vines in Ohio a few hours later.

Now the Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine has employed five girls to serve as inspectors at LaGuardia Field, with the duty of watching for outbound beetles attached to the back of a gabardine suit or iridescently ornamenting a wash frock.

FILM MASTERPIECE! John Mills is starred in the magnificent film version of Charles Dickens' "Great Expectations," which starts on Saturday at the Snowdon United Theatre for one week. Valerie Hobson, Bernard Miles, Anthony Wager and Jean Simmons have leading roles in this great production.

"I See A Dark Stranger", Starring Deborah Kerr Now At Monkland

"I See A Dark Stranger", another in the list of successful British film hits, is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Friday night. Deborah Kerr, seen as Clark Gable's co-star in

"The Hucksters", plays the leading role in the picture teamed with Trevor Howard, who made a name for himself with his fine work in "Brief Encounter".

The story tells of a young Irish lass, who in her supposed hatred of England, tries to assist some Nazi agents in their plotting. Her inherited hatred is soon dispelled by her falling in love with an English army officer. How these two contrive to upset the plans of the German spies makes for a suspenseful film with many entertaining comedy touches.

On the same program is Rex Beach's popular story, "The Michigan Kid" in color, with Jon Hall, Rita Johnson, Victor McLaglen and Andy Devine.

"Wilson" Filmed In Technicolor Is Miracle Of Entertainment

Magnificent is inadequate to describe the picture, "Wilson" which is now playing at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday and which starts next Wednesday at the Seville United Theatre. The film brings to the screen in brilliant panoramic fashion, the globe-sweeping drama of an era and a nation; the most exciting years of President Wilson's private and public life; the trials and tribulations that faced the U.S. during the turbulent years of World War 1 and the inside story of world history in the making.

Each role in the exciting film with an intense reality by a superb cast headed by Alexander Knox as Wilson; Charles Coburn as his intimate friend "Professor Holmes"; the beguiling Geraldine Fitzgerald as Edith Bolling Galt; Thomas Mitchell as Wilson's secretary Joseph Tumulty; Ruth Nelson as the first Mrs. Wilson; Sir Cedric Hardwicke as the fiery Senator Henry Cabot Lodge; Vincent Price as William Gibbs McAdoo; William Eythe as Wilson's protegee George Felton; and lovely Mary Anderson as Wilson's daughter, Eleanor.

In addition to this formidable array of stars, you are made to feel that you, yourself, are an actual guest at the White House, a delegate to riotous political meetings, a member of Congress in war session and an observer at the Versailles Peace Conference.

While "Wilson" is overwhelmingly spectacular it is, at the same time, heartwarmingly human. Wilson's romance with Edith Bolling Galt, who was to become the second Mrs. Wilson, is treated in an utterly beautiful and deeply moving manner. The scenes which show the President tapdancing for the amusement of his family and friends; the "stealing away" with his daughters to see vaudeville shows; his

One Of The Best Films Of The Year At Avenue

One of the best films of the year, runner-up in the Academy Award voting for the Best Film of The Year, the comedy drama, "It's a Wonderful Life", is now playing a special engagement at the Avenue Theatre until Friday. It brings James Stewart back to the screen in a diverting story of life's ups and downs in a small town in upstate New York. Donna Reed is co-starred in this grand picture, directed by the famous Frank Capra.

The story revolves around the career of George Bailey (James Stewart). George's main ambition is to get away from small town life and see the world, but he never accomplishes it. His chief obstacle is the building and loan company founded by his father with the humanitarian object of providing decent homes for the townfolk who live mostly in slums owned by flinty banker Henry Potter (Lionel Barrymore), who does all he can to wreck the company now managed by George's kindly but confused Uncle Billy, played by Thomas Mitchell.

To save the company from liquidation, George has to go in as head. Almost resigned to his fate as a small town boy, he married Mary Hatch, (Donna Reed), his childhood sweetheart. His plans for an ambitious honeymoon tour collapse when he has to use his funds to stop a run on the company.

The crowning disaster comes when Uncle Billy loses $8,000 of the firm's money on the day the examiner is due to audit the books. George expresses the fervent wish that he never had been born. It is then that a "heavenly messenger" arrives and shows him what the town would be if he had never been born. What George sees so appals him that he resolves to face things. The whole community comes to his aid and he finds a deep and satisfying contentment with life.

James Stewart has one of the finest roles of his career and Donna Reed registers strongly, in her first starring role, as Mary. Lionel Barrymore is old man Potter, Thomas Mitchell is Uncle Billy and Henry Travers, the "heavenly messenger". Others prominently cast include Buelah Bondi, Ward Bond, Frank Faylen, Gloria Grahame, H. B. Warner, Sammie Hinds, Frank Albertson, Virginia Patton and Todd Karns.

After Service

Back from overseas in September 1945, where he served with the Royal Dental Corps as Major, followed on his return to Canada by a year with the Department of Veterans' Affairs, Dr. Rene Lavalley has resumed business in modern offices with latest equipment in the Medico Dental Building, 1396 St. Catherine Street West.

Dr. Lavalley formerly had his business on Queen Mary Road at Decarie for upwards of 12 years and is well-remembered, not only by residents of the Snowdon area, but from all parts of Notre Dame de Grace and Westmount. He was one of the first dentists in Snowdon and saw the area grow up and thrive even as his practice increased in pace with it, coming there in 1929.

Resuming dental practice in the Medico Dental Building he feels it would be of interest to many old friends and business acquaintances to know of his new location, made essential through leaving Snowdon to serve with the armed forces during the war years.

Betrothal Announcement

MISS LILLIAN GERALDINE McFADDEN

Mr. and Mrs. S. McFadden, of Westmount, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian Geraldine, to Mr. James Kanelakos, son of Mr. Peter Kanelakos, of Smiths Falls, Ontario, and the late Mrs. Kanelakos (Christine Thornton). The marriage has been arranged to take place Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, September 27th, in Trinity Memorial Church.

"Fiesta" Mixes Excitement With Melody In Novel Musical Drama

"Fiesta", new Technical musical, which was filmed largely in Mexico, and which is now playing at the Snowdon United Theatre until Friday, is a beautifully photographed, brilliantly enacted production whose plot is as completely engrossing as are its melodic numbers and spectacular backgrounds — a rarity in film musicals.

Esther Williams once again demonstrates an amazing versatility in "Fiesta" in which she plays a feminine matador who saves the honor of her family when her twin brother is labeled a coward in the bull ring. The brother is played by Ricardo Montalban, Mexican film idol, whose looks, dancing ability and dramatic talent will undoubtedly keep him in Hollywood films from now on.

The story centres on the conflict between Morales, once Mexico's most famous matador, and his son Mario (Montalban), whom he has trained to follow in his spectacular career. Mario's first love, however, is music, and when, on the debut of his first bullfight, he learns that his father has sent away the great conductor who was to further his work as a composer, he refuses to face his first bull and leaves the ring in disgrace. In order to bring him back, his twin sister, Maria, (Miss Williams), takes his place in the ring. The ensuing happenings make for a plot filled with suspense and powerful dramatic action.

Woven into the dramatic episodes of "Fiesta" are colorful musical sequences against authentic Mexican fiesta backgrounds, in which the dancing and singing of Miss Williams, Montalban and Cyd Charisse are highlighted. Together with the principals, the cast features Fortunio Bonanova as the proud Morales, Akim Tamiroff as his former banderillero, John Carroll as Maria's fiance, Mary Astor as her mother and Hugo Haas as Contreras, the conductor, and all of them are expertly cast.

Skating Vanities Opening Night

Picture an eight-oared shell and a crew of trained oarsmen, their sculls entering and leaving the water with the exactitude of the second hand on the face of a watch. Multiply that a dozen or more times, and you may get a faint idea of the skill and precision with which the performers, some one hundred and sixty of them, go about their chores in the sensationally beautiful 1948 edition of the Skating Vanities, showing at the Forum for its sixth consecutive season from now until September thirteenth. It made its initial bow on Tuesday before an audience which received every one of the thirty numbers on the lengthy program with the wildest acclaim.

Among the host of talented exponents of the roller skating art appearing on the card are such famous figures as glorious Gloria Nord, star of the piece; lovely Eileen McDonnell, making her initial appearance before a Montreal audience, and already well on her way to the top; Melba Moreno, the scintillating "Samba Girl"; and the sixty ravishing "Vanity Fairs", who plainly established themselves as prime favorites on their very first appearance. The male element, too, is well represented, featuring as it does, among others, Frank Foster, Toni Morelli, Dennie Davidson, Bob Ritz, Bobby May and Terry Taylor, many of them already well known here and hereabouts either by reputation or through previous personal appearances. The setting and scenery, too, comes in for their full share of breath-taking admiration. As well they might.

Credit for this, a vital part of any production so elaborate as the Vanities, can be laid at the collective door of Russell Markert, America's foremost stage director, and long associated with Radio City Music Hall productions, who designed the scenery, and the equally famous Nat Karson, responsible for the sensationally beautiful costumes

De Marky Concert At Tudor Hall

For his concert at Tudor Hall on Saturday, September 20th, De Marky has followed his usual procedure. He has chosen selections from requests and the program bears the usual informality that characterizes all De Marky performances. The numbers will be introduced with brief comments.

The work to be featured will be Beethoven's Grand Sonata Opus 7. Chopin will also be represented, by his popular Fantasy-Impromptu. His most intricate Chromatic Etude In A Minor, and the G Flat and E Minor Waltzes. The rest of the program will include De Falla's Fire Dance, Debussy's Pensive Claire De Lune, and the Brilliant Dohnany Concert version of Debussy's Nalla Waltz.

The sensational "Vanity Fairs" precision line of sixty gorgeous girls appearing in the dazzling new 1948 edition of "Skating Vanities", now showing at the Forum.

However, a nation should not be measured by its might alone, but as a unit of responsible relation to other nations, each one of which can contribute to world commonwealth. The ideal is internal amity and international co-operation.

Canada's Unique Position

We are in a unique position to be an example to the world of the spirit of brotherhood, declared Killikelly. Our nationalism should be a Christian concept of national pride, which does not necessarily exclude world interdependence. Our future actions in relations with other nations will help make the difference between peace or war. Our people need a national spirit to arouse interest in the international decisions now being made toward world peace. Without the element of human-

Today, mankind is in the process of evolution. To progress we must be made conscious of nationalism and the responsibilities of citizenship before we can adequately assume the burdens of world citizenship.

It is a sad thing that men fall prey to false promises and perverted doctrines, he declared. This is due in great part to a definite lack of Canadian nationalism, which means an interest in citizenship.

He concluded by saying that Canada has grown in world stature in her sacrifices to the cause of humanity in recent years. We are a country strengthened rather than weakened by our ordeals, and to progress, we should foster a strong cultural and Christian nationalism.

Commencing October 1st, the Craft Shop will be open every day from 3.45 till 5 p.m. for boys wishing to take part in the craft program.

Four Grad-Y Clubs are now being organized in the Westmount Area. Grad-Y is a Y.M.C.A. Club for boys 9 to 12 years of age attending Grade School. Gra-Y is a Club of boys all living on the same street or in the same neighborhood, and sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. in co-operation with the parents. Gra-Y Clubs conduct their own meetings and take part in a program including swimming, hockey, gymnastics, overnight trips, track and field, suppers and craftwork. A number of parents are already actively engaged in assisting in this type of club program.

Parents living on Winchester Avenue, Roslyn, Victoria and Grosvenor Streets are now forming committees to sponsor Gra-Y. The Friday Nite Dance of the Westmount Y. M. C. A. will take place as usual this evening, commencing at 8.30 p.m.
