*'Twas in an olive garden long ago
A lovely Mary sat with head bent low;
White lilies, dew-wet, silvered by the dawn,
Like candles round a bier shone pale and wan,
While She sat facing life's great mortal blow.*

*And in a garden glorious with blooms
Triumphantly rang forth the angel's word
'For evermore he lives, not here to seek,
Through all that He has made, His voice is heard.*

Passover Story Told On Tuesday By Dr. H. J. Stern

"Passover is the story of flight from oppression. It recalls not only our struggle for freedom with mighty Egypt of old, but also does it remind us of our continuous war upon tyranny everywhere." Dr. H. J. Stern said Tuesday at Temple Emanu-El.

"On Passover 1957, we indeed ponder on this world of refugees of many races and creeds. Behold the exiled hosts of our day! The thousands who fled from troubled modern Egypt and from crucified Hungary. Terror stalks in many lands of our contemporary world," he added.

"Passover rebukes tyranny wherever it appears. Alas the wealth and skill of this world are again being directed toward catastrophe: Passover is the harbinger of freedom not for one race or one creed, but for all mankind. The emergence of the State of Ghana is a sign that a new day is on the horizon for the peoples of Africa; that serfdom cannot be maintained. On Passover 1957, we must seek to free ourselves from the menace of the mass mind which negates individual responsibility and hence of freedom. The truly free individual must ever seek and love truth," the Rabbi concluded.

Call Nuns' Island Bridge 'Maisonneuve' Says Mooney

The name of Maisonneuve for the new Federal bridge that will shortly interconnect the island of Montreal with the South Shore, via Nuns' Island has been suggested by George S. Mooney, director of the St. Lawrence Municipal Bureau.

Mr. Mooney made the statement recently in connection with the question of a name for the CNR hotel. Said Mr. Mooney: "The hotel is not the last, nor the most important structure to be built in this community . . . we have already honored Jacques Cartier . . . why not honor the man who followed him a century later . . . and name the new bridge the Maisonneuve bridge."

V. Estano Makes Hobbies A Business

Verne Estano, 71 Arlington Ave., has made hobbies something more than just a way to use time. In nearly every hobby he has excelled and the ribbons he has won would cover more than one large sized table top.

Born in the Maritimes, Verne was educated for the most part in Montreal. While a student at Westmount High School he became keenly interested in a wide variety of hobbies.

For one thing he was the most outstanding competitor in the history of the Montreal Boys' and Girls' annual Hobby Shows and in two successive years won the senior Grand Championship Award. At the same time he was all-round senior athletic champion of Westmount Y.M.C.A. for several years in a row.

Also Verne became a well known junior stamp collector around Montreal for his interest in British North America stamps. He became so interested in fact that he wrote a Stamp Collectors Guide for Beginners.

Mr. Estano became adviser and judge of hobby shows in the Montreal area. He was the instigator of the Westmount Boys' and Girls' Hobby Show which is now in its 21st year and most probably the longest continuously run annual hobby show in Canada.

All his efforts are characterized by a remarkable thoroughness and intensity. For example, after a rather weakening illness, Verne Estano took up the "gentle art" of Jiu-Jitsu. He excelled and for several years was the Jiu-Jitsu instructor at Central Y.M.C.A. and McGill University. In 1943 he organized the first large scale public display in Canada of advanced Jiu-Jitsu techniques.

After visiting the Montreal International Audio Show held last year in the Windsor Hotel, Mr. Estano became greatly interested in quality high fidelity systems. At this show he discovered that in order to get the finest quality reproduction of records it was essential to have the speaker system entirely separate and in a corner of the room away from the turntable and other equipment.

Hi-Fi is now Mr. Estano's most engrossing hobby. He has done a great deal of research and has discovered that better reproduction is possible if the audio system is made up of carefully chosen components made by different manufacturers. He explained that some companies have an international reputation for making only one type of audio equipment, for example, turntables.

Mr. Estano feels particularly indebted to Hector Savard, proprietor of H. R. Savard Radio Company who is a well known local Hi-Fi specialist and who gave him much sound advice.

SISTER SHIP

Old Ironsides, famed and still preserved U.S.S. Constitution, had a sister ship, the U.S.S. United States, which was launched in 1797 and nicknamed Old Wagon because she was notoriously slow and heavy.

'How Hi The Fi'

"From little things grow big things — Have a Hobby!" This has been the motto of Verne Estano for many years and it has led him to excel in almost every one of his many interests and more recently in Hi-Fi.

A little over a year ago Mr. Estano became interested in Hi-Fi equipment as a means of improving the listening pleasure of his record collection. He not only made enquiries from the local Hi-Fi dealers but contacted and obtained advice from top authorities in sound equipment on two continents.

This research and effort has paid off for Mr. Estano now has a top quality installation with a wonderfully mellow tone quality.

Mr. Estano explained that the two-tone and smooth response throughout an entirely wide nine octave range is reproduced in perspective balance through the Klipschorn corner horn loud-speaker system.

The other components of this audio system are similarly of the highest quality broadcast studio standards and each unit is perfectly compatible or "matched" to the rest of the units, said Mr. Estano.

This equipment includes the British made Connoisseur variable three speed turn-table which in operation is as silent as the hush of an empty church.

In the playing of records Mr. Estano pointed out that it is impossible to detect audible flutter, wow or rumble. This is due to the virtual non-vibration of the drive motor which always remains in synchronization with line voltage variation up to 25%.

The Swedish styled cabinet housing the record playing equipment was designed entirely by Mr. Estano who supervised the mountings and installations.

There are several unusual features in the construction of this cabinet Mr. Estano explained. One important feature is that the Connoisseur turn-table, which itself is a beautifully shock mounted piece of equipment is mounted on a wooden board that is not fastened to the cabinet sides.

The four corners of the motor board are suspended by bolts on Lord Vibration Control shock mounts of the same type as is used for the mounting of delicate electronic equipment in airplanes. These Lord shock mounts are fastened to the base to wooden supports attached to the cabinet sides.

This method of mounting has a two-fold advantage. First, additional shock mounting and also a simple means of levelling the motor board from the top regardless of how slanted the

Teen Club Plans An Easter Dance

The Y's Teen Club will hold their First Easter Dance, April 20th, commencing at 8:30 and lasting up until 11:45. Chris Keating's "Moneymakers" will be a big feature of the evening.

There will be no dance on April 27th due to the closing day of the Hobby Show.

There will be life-saving commencing at 7:30 with instructor, Dave Annesley this week.

floor might be.

In addition to the cabinet described here which has record space for 150 long playing records, Mr. Estano has another much larger cabinet for records only, which he also designed himself.

True to his motto, Mr. Estano has taken a little hobby of collecting records and made it into a big Hi-Fi installation valued at several thousand dollars with a richness and realism of sound production which is phenomenal.

With Easter, Spring Rebirth in Nature Paralleled By Rededication of Man

Easter comes in Canada at a time when we are thinking in terms of the coming of warm weather and the new season of warmth and growth.

Some years, we have fine spring weather for Easter; others find winter lingering. But, at Easter, there is always the hope that summer is on its way, because we always celebrate this great Christian festival in a season of hope and new beginnings.

So, as it is a time of rebirth through all nature, as the seeds begin to grow down in the earth and plants show faint green sprouts above its surface, it is a time for planning by the Christian nations as they rededicate themselves to the service of their God.

Hope has been given them as their birthright by the greatest sacrifice ever made and never is this hope so fully expressed and so definitely realized as in the services which precede Easter and those which commemorate the death and resurrection of Our Saviour.

We have too little time today, unfortunately, to think and to meditate as people used to in the quiet interval before Easter. But we still have the will and strength to make this season a time of new beginnings, to resolve once more to work for the cause of peace and goodwill of which we sang so lustily at the earlier fete of Christmas.

We still have the will and strength to make sure, so far as lies within our power, that the Christmas promise and joy will be consummated in the Easter sacrifice and victory.

A good way to start is by worshipping at your church this weekend.

The Cop On The Beat His Job Is Not an Easy One; He's Servant of Citizens

To many people, the word "cop" conjures up an image of a stern, remorseless

You very rarely read about the many small acts of kindness the patrolman does during the course of his daily round. The child with the cut knee who receives consolation and treatment, the hard-boiled toughs of sixteen who are talked to in a fatherly manner while it is still early enough to have some effect.

The job of the policeman is hard enough, but it becomes far more difficult when he has to face the unreasonable hostility of certain sections of the population who think that "everybody is out of step except my Johnny." The teenage hoodlums are a direct result of parental indifference, and too often it is the cop with the big heart who has to take over the role which the father has chosen to reject.

The policeman on the beat has his job to do, and it is not an easy one. When the rest of the population is sleeping soundly, he is walking or driving round the deserted streets, keeping the night secure for you and me. He is the servant of the law, and not the maker of the law. Remember that the next time you are tempted to let off steam.

By the Way...

THE owner of an Alsatian dog which bit a man is reported to have said, "He only wanted to play." And if a dog's idea of play is to attack people it is extremely dangerous to deny him this sport. The dog becomes frustrated, mixed-up, misunderstood, and ends by being an angry young dog, with a grievance against life.

Below Decks On A Russian Tanker

By SHIRLEY AYER

West End residents who would like to know more about the average Russian citizen had, in one American's opinion, an opportunity to gather information in the city's East End this week as the 17,000-ton tanker Slavgorod docked in Montreal's harbor.

With the absence of squads of police and immigration authorities usually found in Communist countries, crew members of the tanker were free to travel in Montreal. Montrealers were free to view the ship and meet the crew. So with usual North American brashness my Canadian husband and I drove down to the dock and attempted to satisfy our curiosity about Russian seamen and their living conditions.

We had never met Russians before, and we, unfortunately, do not speak Russian. But when we approached the tanker in her dock Monday evening, we found a seaman on deck who spoke a few words of English. He called the third mate, who spoke a few more words of English, and the third mate called the first mate who spoke several sentences of English. The first mate of the Slavgorod is a small, slender, dark-haired man who shrugs frequently while he talks. He took us on a tour of the tanker.

KITCHEN

Our first stop was the kitchen. We found two "kuuks" who showed us everything from fresh baked bread made in — "luuk, see, electric" — stoves to a — "luuk, see, electric" — refrigerator patterned after an old Western model. As we walked outside we passed a pall of sauerkraut topped with dill pickles.

Our second stop was at the crew's dining quarters where we found, underneath Malenkov and Molotov portraits hanging on the wall, a manish room with heavy drapes over the portholes, bright colored cloths on the tables, and a bulletin-board newspaper.

Stepping to a lower level, we were led into the crew's smoking room where several seamen were playing dominos. There we met the ship's doctor, a slight, brown-haired man with twinkling eyes who spoke no English. The doctor accompanied us during the rest of our tour, and willingly showed us his hospital.

HOSPITAL

The hospital appeared to be two small staterooms with three cots, a large basin and ample cupboard space. A lone portrait of Lenin hung on one wall. The first mate told us they had had a long, uncomfortable — "rough seas, fog, ice, cold" — voyage from the Black Sea to Montreal without sickness.

We were then given a quick look into a seaman's sleeping quarters. On this new ship, only a year at sea, each seaman has his own small room with bunk, porthole, closet, basin, table and chair.

Leaving the crew's quarters we walked on deck over the remaining drops of 80,000 gallons of benzol being unloaded here for an American firm. Noticing a redish full moon on the edge of the St. Lawrence, the first mate said, "The moon, she luuks like apple."

RECREATION

We stepped up to the officers' quarters in the ship's bow. Walking into the recreation room we found the third mate, a young fellow with an unruly shock of brown hair, playing the piano. On the wall facing the doorway pictures of Stalin and Lenin were hung side by side, and I noticed velvety maroon curtains at the portholes and between two sections of the room. We sat in easy chairs near a large round table and exchanged cigarettes.

Because conversation was difficult, we spent most of our time trying to discover if the Russians had visited Montreal and how they liked our city. The first mate said he thought Montreal was like other cities in Western Europe he visited. This was his first trip to North America.

As we were leaving the officers' room to go up to the chart room we noticed two loaves of bread which the first mate proudly said were given to the seamen by Russians living in Montreal. In the chart and control rooms we were shown a magnetic compass, radar, and a Russian chart.

We stepped down into the officers' quarters again and the first things we saw upon the first mate's cabin were ten cases

Easter Eggs To Be Hunted

The Westmount Y.M.C.A. will be the scene of a gigantic Easter egg treasure hunt Saturday at 10 a.m. All Westmount children 6 to 14 are invited to meet in the "Y" gymnasium for the start of the annual hunt.

Following the hunt, prizes will be awarded and there will be a mixed swim for all participants.

In the afternoon there will be the regular Saturday afternoon movie.

of Canadian beer and a pin-up calender. The first mate's quarters consisted of two rooms, a small sleeping area, and a larger lounge with three portholes, a table, desk and chairs. While we drank a glass of Canadian beer, the first mate showed us a picture of his wife and small daughter in Odessa, their home on the Black Sea.

During this conversation the doctor was thumbing through a small Russian-English dictionary in which one word attracted my attention. As we were leaving the ship I showed our two Russian companions the English word, Easter, which they immediately recognized and their faces brightened as they said, "yes, yes, nacaxa."

Artist and Antique Collector

By E. G. CRAFTS

At an art exhibition a week or so ago, this reporter was introduced to Miss Frances B. Sweeny who lives at 337 Kensington Ave. The invitation to visit her home was quickly accepted, with no regrets.

Her home, which is one of the oldest in Westmount, would most certainly provide a happy hunting ground for any one interested in collecting rare old antiques. Miss Sweeny's many paintings would provide a field day for anyone interested in art.

Miss Sweeny is a prolific artist and her many paintings are fascinating works.

She began painting while on a trip to England in 1928. Encouragement came largely from two brothers, James Fielding Sweeny, then Archbishop of Toronto and Metropolitan; and Henry William Sweeny, treasurer of Canadian Pacific Railways for forty-eight years.

This well known Westmount painter has worked mainly in three mediums, oils, pastels and watercolour. While the first two have been interesting, Miss Sweeny prefers to work in water-colour.

Flowers and landscapes provide the more usual subject matter for the artist although she has done portraits.

The most striking feature of her work is her versatility in treatment of subject matter. Miss Sweeny has such a wide range of expression that in some cases it is hard to believe that the same artist could have created such contrasting work.

This feature Miss Sweeny believes is due to the fact that she may have been influenced by various artists with whom she has studied. However she readily admits that she enjoys making a complete change in her manner of painting and doing something different.

Her versatility extends to poems written for friends, articles written for a Literary Society and at one time clay modelling.

The Westmount painter has had many exhibitions and has won awards in various competitions.

However her most prized possession is a letter of thanks from Queen Elizabeth for a painting of trilliums which the Queen chose to hang in Buckingham Palace.

Miss Sweeny gave her last ex-

Portrait Of Late Colonel Is Hung In Hussars Mess

A portrait of the late Lt.-Col. Bruce C. Hutchison was unveiled by his widow Sunday in a special ceremony at the 17th Duke of York's Royal Canadian Hussars armoury, Cote des Neiges Road.

The oil painting, which was placed above the commanding officer's chair, was presented by the members of the officers mess.

H. Wyatt Johnston, a former C.O. of the regiment, outlined the career of the late colonel to the assembled officers and their wives, and former officers, many of whom had enjoyed close association with Col. Hutchison.

Col. Hutchison joined the 17th Hussars after the armistice of World War I, and obtained his majority in 1924. He later joined the reserve unit and commanded it through World War II. He was appointed honorary lieutenant-colonel in May 1939.

He was active in veterans' affairs and was a past president of the CMR association and of the Remembrance Branch of the Canadian Legion. He died May 11, 1955, at the age of 61.

A descendant of Lt.-Col. A. Ogilvie, who commanded the original Montreal cavalry in 1837, fore-runners of the 17th Hussars, Col. Hutchison was the son of Col. Dr. J. H. A. Hutchison, CBE. He was educated at Bishop's College and McGill University where he received his first military training.

He enlisted in the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles at the outbreak of World War I, and was commissioned in the Black Watch's 42nd Battalion while in France.

Teenagers Road-e-o

West End teenagers have little more than three weeks to sharpen wits and pencils for the first lap towards the second annual national Teenage Safe Driving Road-e-o. The national finals, set for July 12, will have a dozen of Canada's best teenage drivers competing for valuable scholarships and prizes.

But first come the district competitions. On Saturday, May 11, hundreds of youthful drivers will converge on the Plateau School Yard in Parc LaFontaine with the winner to advance to the provincial finals.

The contest to find a Montreal winner is composed of a written quiz, a practical test and overall ability. Competitors must have a driver's licence or permit, have a clean record of no moving traffic violations within the past six months and must not have reached their 20th birthday by July 12, 1957.

Created to improve knowledge, attitude and driving habits and to demonstrate ability behind the wheel, the Teenage Road-e-o is jointly sponsored here by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Young Men's Section of the Montreal Board of Trade. From the district winners, three are chosen to represent Quebec in the national finals.

The vote by secret ballot was first used in a national election in Canada in 1878. — Quick Canadian Facts.

Why is the telephone still working, Mummy?

It's most unusual when a storm affects your telephone. It's reassuring to know that it has a habit of staying on the job.

The reason is that your telephone operates from banks of giant batteries in the telephone exchange. Should power go off for any reason, these are charged by a Diesel motor standing by for just such an emergency.

So the uninterrupted service you enjoy is no accident. It takes forethought, equipment—and money. All are necessary if you are to have the best possible telephone service 24 hours a day.

Prison Life Described To Westmount Rotary

Prison life and penitentiary affairs were described to this week's meeting of Westmount Rotary Club by Major J. B. Martineau, director of the federal training centre of St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary.

"The normal conception that every man who commits a crime is a criminal is false," he said. "Most of the centre's inmates — 19 years of age on the average — are poor unfortunates, ignorant, alone and lacking love, security and happiness. Our policy is to treat them as we would want to be treated if our positions were reversed."

The training centre, explained the guest speaker, was originated in 1952 and is operated under federal jurisdiction. Food, accommodation, clothes, medical care, freedom of movement, special vocational training and counselling are provided at the centre — four two-storey dormitories. "Some 20 newcomers, ranging in age from 12 to 30 years, are admitted each month," he continued. "Each is closely interviewed and examined before an individual program of physical program of physical education, schooling and vocational training is mapped out. We find that 50 per cent have the desire to learn a trade but have not sufficient schooling. Since our vocational training program conforms with regulations in provincial schools, we must gear our curriculum to that particular need."

Mr. Martineau explained that inmates work a five-day week, are periodically tested and sentences are reduced for good behavior. "The purpose of the centre is not to keep men confined, but rather to train and educate them for the future." He listed several trades taught at the centre including plumbing, steam fitting, oil burner installing, carpentry, upholstering, furniture finishing, forging, welding, motor mechanics, brick laying and electrical wiring.

The speaker was introduced by J. L. Sladen and thanked by H. H. Griffin. During a question period, Mr. Martineau said that a placement officer visits the centre once a week to help those to be released within the month.

"The percentage of those returned to penitentiary after being released is 40, as compared with 50 per cent 10 years ago. At the training centre only 16 per cent are returned."

Visiting Rotarians were welcomed to the meeting by Jack McKee, Chairman at the session in the absence of president W. G. Moxley, was president-elect William J. Tawse.

Final tribute to Paul Grattan McCaffrey, a former reporter on the staff of The Examiner, will be paid tomorrow morning with service from the Thomas Kane Funeral Home Decarie Boulevard and interment in Cote des Neiges Cemetery.

A news editor with British United Press in Montreal, Mr. McCaffrey left his desk at midnight Tuesday and died in his sleep. He was 29 years of age. Mr. McCaffrey had suffered from a heart ailment and had returned to work in February after spending several months in Montreal General Hospital.

He graduated with senior matriculation and came to work with The Examiner in 1946. Mr. McCaffrey was a staff writer with this newspaper for five years. He then worked with the Chatham Daily News and in Timmins, Ont., before joining B.U.P.

Roberts Provisions Ends Business

By ELLEN CRAFTS

D. Roberts, proprietor of Roberts Provisions will close his store at 1259 Greene Ave. by the end of this month, after having been in business in that neighborhood for the past fifty years.

Born in Wrexham, North

Wales, Mr. Roberts served in the Denbighshire Hussars as a trooper from 1900 to 1902 during the Boer War.

On May 7, 1907, he brought his wife and two sons to Canada. As Mr. Roberts put it, they started in Montreal on a shoe string and worked very hard to get established.

The Westmount provisioner was first employed by the West-mount Windsor Market, then located at 4167 St. Catherine St. West. He worked for that firm for twenty years and was then taken into partnership with them.

Later the partnership was dissolved. Mr. Roberts took over the business by himself and opened his present store on Greene Ave. in May of 1939.

He willingly shares the credit for the success of his store with his wife whom he declares is a "real manager".

The storekeeper also credits hard work for his success. He observes that many of the messenger boys who worked for him after school or on Saturday seemed to have a better sense of responsibility than other children who didn't have to earn their spending money.

There is a note of pride in his voice as Mr. Roberts recalls how one and another of his messenger boys either distinguished themselves in the Armed Forces or entered the professions.

Looking back over the years Mr. Roberts recalls the "good old days" of gas lamps which were apt to freeze in cold weather and need thawing out with Metholated spirits. He also recalls the days when horse-drawn sleighs with steam boilers would have to make the rounds of every hydrant and thaw out the frozen ones in case of fire.

Mr. Roberts has watched the changes around the neighbourhood of Greene Ave. for the past fifty years and is keenly interested in all new developments.

One thing in particular that he is concerned about is the stringent traffic regulations. He feels that the no-parking policy as it now exists on Greene Ave. is no longer necessary now that the street-cars have been removed.

Mr. Roberts declares that a 30 minute parking rule would do much more for business on Greene Ave. than those four dollar tickets which customers are constantly getting when they stop to pick up a few groceries for supper. Parking meters would be another alternative.

"I am not retiring" declares Mr. Roberts. "I am merely closing my store and after my vacation I will work as a fill-in for anyone needing trained help."

STAMPS by Margaret Ward

Since the Westmount Hobby Show opens next Wednesday, the following suggestions might be helpful to local junior collectors.

Once you have chosen the topic and stamps for your exhibit, you should decide upon the arrangement of your stamps on the page; for it is this which largely determines your success or failure as an exhibitor. Originality and neatness are two of the most important qualities to keep in mind, and many pleasing arrangements will come to mind once you get away from the more usual symmetrical designs. It is often a good idea to use as a foundation for your layout the design made by one of the capital letters Z, L, V, O, T, N, or S.

Keeping these tips in mind, you will be able to enter in the Hobby Show a stamp exhibit which will be not only fun to prepare, but also something that will make you feel proud and successful when you see the result.

Under the Canadian constitution the provincial and federal legislatures must meet at least once a year. — Quick Canadian Facts.

EASTER

By
The Venerable
R. Kenneth Naylor, D.D.,
Rector, Trinity Memorial Church

We come again to that season about which the whole Church year revolves — commemorating the event which divides all history into two parts. We divide our history at the Birth of Christ, but it is the Resurrection of Christ which justifies our action. If there had been no Resurrection no one would ever have thought of the Birth of Jesus of Nazareth as being a significant fact in world history.

St. Paul says "He died for our sins and rose again for our justification." That is, His Death on the cross made atonement for our sins, but it was His Resurrection with power, which restored us to our original position with God. St. Luke in his Genealogy of Christ says that Adam was the son of God. St. John says in his First Epistle that we are sons of God, and that when Jesus shall again appear we shall be like Him. It is no wonder that St. Paul says to the Romans that Jesus was declared to be Son of God with power by the Resurrection from the dead.

A good many years ago a man named Thomas wrote a book called "When it was Dark." It was a fictitious account of what would happen if it were proved that Jesus never had risen. Another man named Morrison wrote "Who moved the Stone?" It is a fresh examination of the evidence for the Resurrection. To each of them the essential thing as the Resurrection. Without it there was no possibility of the survival of the teaching of Jesus except as an addition to the prophetic movement of the Old Testament. That would have been of great value but would have lacked the explosive force exhibited by Christianity backed up by the Resurrection. The great Jewish scholar, Rabbi Klausner saw that. In his very sympathetic study "Jesus of Nazareth" he says that the Resurrection must have taken place, for it alone can explain the Christian Church.

St. Paul spoke of the Resurrection as being for the justification of the sinner. But it is also the justification of God, using that word in a different sense. The Resurrection restores our faith in the nature of the universe. Many a prophet had died and had remained in his

Cardinal Leger Catholic Hour Guest Sunday

His Eminence Paul Emile Cardinal Leger, Archbishop of Montreal, will give an Easter Message on the Catholic Hour broadcast on Sunday over Station CJAD at 2:05 p.m.

Special Easter music will also be featured on the programme which is under the direction of Reverend George F. Thoms of St. Malachy's parish.

Christian Science

The vital importance for men today of Christ Jesus' victory over death will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Readings from the King James Version of the Bible and from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will comprise the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement." From John will be read the account of Christ Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection.

Correlative passages from Science and Health include the following (45:16): "Glory be to God, and peace to the struggling hearts! Christ hath rolled away the stone from the door of human hope and faith, and through the revelation and demonstration of life in God, hath elevated them to possible at-one-ment with the spiritual idea of man and his divine Principle, Love."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:10): "Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins."

direction of the Choir Master, Mr. Eric J. Adams. The Minister, Dr. D. M. Grant, will bring the message of Easter in his sermon, "From Sunset to Sunrise". The Ministry of the Word and the Ministry of Music will thus provide a fitting background for the joy and triumph of the great Christian day.

The evening service will consist of a Choral Service in which the choir will render Easter music from Handel's "Messiah".

The church school will meet on Easter Sunday morning at the usual hours, the Intermediates and Seniors at 10.00 a.m. and the Primary, Beginners and Junior Departments at 11.00 a.m. The Young People's Union will meet following the evening service.

The Woman's Association will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 2.00 p.m. and the evening group of the Woman's Association on the same day at 8.00 p.m.

St. Andrew's will observe its annual Good Friday service commencing at 10.30 a.m. The music under the direction of Mr. Eric J. Adams will consist of "The Seven Last Words" arranged by Dubois. Dr Grant will deliver a message appropriate to the meaning of the day.

grave, and there was no explanation. But here was a Prophet who had in every respect done God's will; who had given Himself to the uttermost; who in word and deed had convinced His disciples that he was very Christ; had His Death been final it would have seemed a deadly blow to our understanding of God. There would have seemed something wrong with the very nature of the universe. But as St. Peter said, "It was not possible that He should be holden of death. The nature of God's universe is such that it would rebel at the death of the one Perfect Man. God raised Him from the dead and so justified His own nature and the nature of His world."

Sunrise Service Atop Mount Royal Easter Sunday

Easter Sunday, at 7.30 a.m., the 26th Annual Easter Sunrise Service will be held at the Chalet atop Mount Royal. This interdenominational service is sponsored this year by the Montreal Christian Youth Council, the newly formed youth committee of the Greater Montreal Council of Churches. Weather permitting, the service will be held out of doors. Both young and old are invited to attend.

Rev. R. S. Dunn, minister of the First Baptist Church, will deliver an Easter message. The singing will be led by an interdenominational choir composed of young people, under the direction of Miss Vera Jamieson. Miss Moira Notman, soloist, will sing: "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked" by Geoffrey O'Hara. The Conn organ will be played by Mrs. R. Darlington.

SINGS "MESSIAH" TONIGHT: J. Christie Scott, who will direct The Messiah tonight at Westmount-Park Emmanuel Church and sing a major role in the Handel production. The church choir will be augmented to 100 voices for the occasion. Other artists include singers Maureen Wark and Kevin Doherty. O. R. Gliddon will be at the organ and the trumpeter is Arnold McLaughlan.

Baptist Groups Join For Service

An annual event toward which the Baptist Churches of the Greater Montreal Council of Baptist Churches look forward each year is the co-operative Good Friday worship service and communion. This united service of some ten Baptist churches will be held this year on Good Friday, at eleven o'clock, in the First Baptist Church, corner of Guy and Dorchester Sts. The Baptist Council, under the chairmanship of Mr. Wilfred Williams, selected First Baptist for the service this year, mainly as this will be the last opportunity of Baptists to worship on Good Friday in the present building occupied by the congregation of First Baptist. This church has been busily engaged in a re-location project and by September of this year will be worshipping and conducting its many-sided activities in its new building on Cote St. Luc Rd., at Holtham Rd., adjacent to the town boundary of Cote St. Luc. Chairman of this united Good Friday service will be the vice-chairman of the Baptist Council, Mr. L. G. Barnard. The speaker will be the Rev. R. S. Dunn, B.D., minister of First Baptist. His Good Friday sermon subject will be "He Stood In Our Place". Others assisting in the worship service will be the Rev. B. G. Smith, Temple Baptist Church, and the Rev. E. J. Bailey, minister of Westmount Baptist Church. Conducting the communion service will be the Rev. Stanley Stock, minister of Madison Baptist Church, assisted by

West District VON Auxiliary Meets Weekly To Assist Needy

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Victorian Order of Nurses, West District, is a group of thirty-four, which has been organized for over forty-five years. At present membership consists of women who have given many years of devoted service to the Order.

Every Wednesday, during the Fall and Winter months, Victoria Hall in Westmount is the scene of industrious activity, when the ladies meet for a sewing and quilting bee. Money raised from the sale of quilts helps to buy a few comforts for some needy patients, and materials for campers' clothes. Extra nursing needs, such as professional magazines, physical facilities, etc., are also purchased.

Mrs. T. D. Handrahan, the chairman, is assisted by an executive committee and twenty active members. Mrs. D. Johnston, and Mrs. J. M. Horton, are representatives on the general auxiliary. Mrs. D. Johnston is also a member of the Board of Directors. Mrs. T. C. Stokes is representative of the publicity committee.

Although the material help which is given by the Auxiliary Group to the nursing group is of value, the intangible of good will and the publicity of the work of the V.O.N., add to the ease with which a voluntary nursing organization like the V.O.N. can serve.

Functions of the V.O.N. groups vary according to the needs of the district and the purpose for which the group has been organized. This may range from clerical, library, publicity, and sewing work, to the making of dressings or raising of funds for a specific nursing service need.

One of the Red Feather Agencies the Greater Montreal Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada is a Public Health Organization that does home nursing on a per visit basis and offers its services to the English community of Greater Montreal. Although the nurses' work under medical supervision, anyone may request the service.

Because Public Health nursing is a community responsibility, it requires both professional staff and citizen participation. Better service is rendered to the public when these two groups work together.

In Montreal the V.O.N. works with a Board of Directors, a group of volunteer citizens who direct the affairs of the organization in collaboration with the Director of Nursing.

Some of the activities of this lay board include assistance with Program Planning, Policy Making, Public Relations, Personnel Policies and Publicity.

Within the framework of this organization, auxiliary groups of women work with the branch districts, under the auspices of a general auxiliary.

WVS Welcomes Help For Community Work

The Women's Voluntary Services situated at 1019 Sherbrooke street West, at the corner of Peel, welcomes all volunteers. Those having any spare time during the day or evening are asked to register at the office. For further information please telephone Miss Sparrow, BE 4442.

Mrs. T. G. MacLean Elected President Inner Wheel Club

Mrs. T. G. MacLean was elected President of the Inner Wheel of Montreal at the Club's 15th annual meeting. Mrs. D. L. Morrell, the retiring president, thanked the members and her executive for their co-operation during a successful year of operation. Meetings were held in the mornings and surgical dressings were made for the Canadian Cancer Society.

During the year the President and members entertained new Canadians at tea, and assisted the Rotary Club of Montreal at the Student's International tea, and with the Easter Seal Campaign.

Representatives to other boards brought back news of the work of the General Council of Service Clubs, the Montreal Council of Women, the University Settlement and the Eventide Home.

Membership is now 116, six new members having been admitted during the year.

Funds which were raised from the annual dues, birthday fund, military whist and the bridge marathon, made it possible to give financial assistance to needy elderly women, the hearing handicapped children, the occupational therapy and Rehabilitation Centre, the Canadian Girl Guides, Friendly Home and University Settlement.

Mrs. J. D. Ross Feted At Tea Prior To Departure For Africa

More than sixty friends gathered in the Ladies' Parlors of Calvary United Church, Westmount, for a "send-off" tea given in honor of Mrs. J. D. Ross, a devoted and beloved leader in Calvary W.M.S. Auxiliary. Mrs. Ross was feted prior to her departure for a long dreamed of visit to her birthplace in Angola, Portuguese West Africa, where her parents and her sister, the late Miss Elizabeth Read, had devoted so many years of long service in missionary work.

A particularly happy feature of the afternoon was a presentation to Mrs. Ross of $100.00 from members of the Calvary Auxiliary, the Elizabeth Read Auxiliary and other friends. The gift was given as a love-offering towards the work so dear to the heart of the late Miss Elizabeth Read. Mrs. Ross was asked to use this gift as she saw fit upon her arrival in Angola. A personal token of affection was also presented to her in the form of an emblematic maple leaf brooch.

Mrs. W. D. Lighthall, an esteemed and long-time member of Calvary Auxiliary, now in her ninetieth year, delighted everyone by being able to come out of a retirement necessitated by frail health to join in this happy occasion.

Through a happy arrangement Mrs. Ross and Miss Edith Clark — returning to her work in Angola — were able to travel on this long journey together having left New York on the steamship "Saxonia" and having spent ten days in England. Sailing from Southampton, Miss Clark will disembark at Lobita and go inland to Chissamba while Mrs. Ross will continue by ship to Durban where she will visit her brother, Frank Read, who is also engaged in missionary work. Mrs. Ross will spend May and the early part of June visiting Miss Millicent House at Chissamba and some of the other mission stations. She will meet many of the native Christians who knew and loved her sister, the late Miss Elizabeth Read and perhaps a few of the older ones who knew her parents. Mrs. Ross herself was eight years old when she left Africa and still remembers quite well some early African experiences. She will return to Montreal via England early in September.

List Of Westmount Residents Participating In SA Campaign

Well-known Westmount residents are today completing organizational details for the local campaign of the Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal, which gets under way on May 1. The drive, seeking $250,000 in the Montreal area is headed by J. L. Walker of 23 Anwoth road as general chairman, with H. W. Tingley of 75 Rosemount Crescent as vice-chairman. Leadership in organizing Westmount canvassers and district chairmen has been given by Mrs. Dent Harrison. District chairmen include: Mrs. A. M. Minnion, 662 Belmont avenue, Mrs. A. H. Billham, 266 Lansdown avenue, Mrs. J. L. Walker, Mrs. H. W. Tingley, Mrs. P. B. Reid, 452 Strathcona, Mrs. Leslie A. Tucker, 512 Clarke avenue.

Plans for all districts in the metropolitan area were discussed this week at a tea given by Mr. Walker at the Ritz Carlton Hotel. It was noted that there is still a great need for volunteer workers and anyone anxious to assist in this way was asked to contact the campaign headquarters at Room 927, University Tower Building.

Sr. Major A. H. Dale, campaign director for the Army, noted that every dollar collected is earmarked for the relief of suffering and the reclaiming of human lives. The Salvation Army maintains 24 branches of service in the Montreal district, where the needy, erring, and distressed find an open door and sympathetic understanding.

Through its hostels, havens, homes, hospitals, and trained devoted workers, the Salvation Army strives to restore to those who have fallen the opportunity and desire for upright, self-reliant living, Major Dale declared.

Other members of the central campaign organization, in addition to Mr. Walker and Mr. Tingley, include: Ross T. Clarkson, Chairman, advance gifts; Mrs. G. Gordon Hyde, chairman, special women's advance gifts; R. J. Wilson, chairman, special names; H. H. Bland, chairman, commerce and industry; D. R. Thompson, vice-chairman, commerce and industry; John G. Harper, vice-chairman, commerce and industry; E. F. Lyons, chairman, industrial division; R. Henderson, vice-chairman, industrial division; W. T. McFarlane, chairman, publicity; Mrs. Barbara C. Cordeau, chairman, women's special names; Mrs. Frank C. Carlin, joint chairman, women's special names.

Easter Seals Bring Dollars

As the Easter Seal Campaign progresses, many heartwarming incidents occur, some of which can and should be taken about.

Earlier this week, a cheque was received from the boys and girls of room 17 of the Connaught School; these children anxious to do their little bit in the interests of their less fortunate fellow Montrealers.

On Tuesday evening, just before the night shift of volunteers were commencing their duties at Headquarters, an elderly lady put in an appearance carrying with her a container with hundreds of pennies which, as she puts it, had been accumulated since Easter 1956. She positively re-

Out of a cast of 20, there are 13 Pennypackers in O'Brien's The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker, the Montreal Repertory Theatre production opening next Wednesday in Van Horne Auditorium. Jean de Savoye is directing the large cast, which varies in age from child to grandparent. Jean de Savoye directed MRT's two opening productions last season:

Joan Watt will play young Kate Pennypacker, whose engagement starts the series of crises which lead to the climax of the play. Joan Watt played the lady in MRT's The Lady's Not for Burning last October, and she was the daughter in The Glass Menagerie, produced by Le Théâtre du Nouveau Monde.

Her mother and father in the play are Jill Showell and Norman Etlinger. Jill Showell, a student of the Old Vic Theatre School, has recently arrived from England, where she played with the English Stage Company, the Nottingham Repertory Company and at Stratford-upon-Avon. Norman Etlinger is coming to Montreal to play the remarkable Horace Pennypacker, the role created by Burgess Meredith in New York.

Joan Watt's Aunt Jane Pennypacker is Kay Tremblay, an experienced English player who last appeared with MRT in The Lady's Not for Burning. Mrs. Tremblay's two sons appear as two of the Pennypacker children.

Basil FitzGibbon, who has played frequently with MRT, and also with Trinity Players, the Lachine Civic Theatre and Joy Thomson's Tent Theatre, is Grampa Pennypacker, another MRT player of many parts is Alfred Gallagher, who is Dr. Fifield.

Paul Brennan, Keith Coulter, John Trennaman, George Carron and Paul Arno are amongst those in the large cast.

Viewmount Division Girl Guides Prepare For Rally In Forum May 4

Lord Baden-Powell, the founder of the Girl Guide movement, was born in London, England, on February 22, 1857. The centenary of his birth is therefore being celebrated this year throughout the world, and Guides everywhere will share in a B-P tribute of service.

In Montreal, approximately 3,000 Girl Guides, including Guides, Brownie Sixers, Land and Sea Rangers, Cadets and Leaders, will take part in a Rally at the Forum on the evening of Saturday, May 4. As it is 17 years since a similar event was held locally, the Rally will be a novel and exciting experience for those participating. The story of Guiding will unfold as each of the Montreal Divisions, in turn, demonstrates certain phases of the Guide-Brownie program.

Approximately 450 Brownie Sixers will represent the five Montreal Divisions, fifty of whom will be from Viewmount Division under the direction of Mrs. Allison Walsh. The Brownies will form five large circles around a giant toadstool to represent five Brownie sixes: Elves, Fairies, Gnomes, Little People, and Sprites. They will begin with songs and a singing game, followed by a display of Brownie Tests: Compass, Darning, Health Rules, Skipping, and Table Setting. A rehearsal is scheduled for Saturday, April 27 at 1.30 p.m., at the Boy Scout Headquarters, Bishop Street, and all Viewmount Division Brownie Sixers are reminded that it is imperative to be present.

Mrs. Jean Oliver, Division Training Secretary, will be in charge of the Westmount Guides. They are performing international numbers: an African Zulu War Dance, and the Maori Stick Dance. Our local Gold Cord and All-round Cord Guides will participate in the Guard of Honor.

Remembering the Guide Rallies of their own childhood, it was Mrs. A. S. Keator, 510 Grosvenor avenue, former Divisional Commissioner for Riverside, and Miss Daphne Montefiore, 4331 Western avenue, Commissioner of Mountain Division, who first conceived the idea of this present Rally planned for May 4. Miss Montefiore has the honor of being Guider-in-Charge, assisted by Mrs. J. L. McDougall, 222 Melville avenue, chairman of publicity. Mrs. J. Robb, 419 Roslyn avenue, is program chairman, with Mrs. E. S. Mathews, 33 Thornhill avenue, chairman of ticket sales.

Tickets to attend the Rally may be obtained from Mrs. Mathews or from Mrs. Clifford Swift, 466 Strathcona avenue, GL 4378, until April 20. After that date they will be on sale at the Forum.

One of the highlights of the Rally will be a personal message from Lady Baden-Powell, World Chief Guide, which has been specially recorded for the occasion and will be played over the P. A. system there. The evening will close with a colorful march-past, at which Mrs. John Bishop, 785 Upper Belmont avenue, retired Montreal Area Commissioner, will take the salute. Music for the event will be provided by the Royal Montreal Regimental Band, by kind permission of the Officer Commanding, Lieut.-Col. C. J. Pratt, C.D.

NEW ZEALAND STICK GAME: Girl Guides of the 66th Company, St. Matthias Church, Westmount, are shown playing the Maori stick game a folk game popular in New Zealand. Taking part in the game are: Heather Maclean, Pat Lessor, Sally Laing, Susan Foster, Barbara Aylett, Nadine Sekel, Susan Heath, Mary Harbert, Elizabeth Beach, Anne Hewitt, Patsy Fitzpatrick, Karen Keator and Mrs. R. G. Goddard.

MISS MERCEDES P. MCKINNEY who has been appointed local chairman of Secretaries Week by the Montreal Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) and Miss Cecile Leduc of Notre Dame de Grace, Public Relations Director for the Chapter. Secretaries Week will be held from April 21 to 27 with Wednesday, April 24 being designated as Secretaries Day. The Montreal Chapter will mark this occasion with an illustrated fashion talk by Mrs. Doreen Day, Wednesday evening, April 24 at Victoria Hall, Westmount.

MEASURING PUPIL PROGRESS

By E. George Cochrane, B.A., M.Ed.
Northmount High School

Last week I discussed the use of objective tests — true or false, multiple choice, matching, and the like — as one means of evaluating a student's progress. It was pointed out that the biggest argument that has been advanced in favor of the use of the objective type of test is that it eliminates completely any element of subjectity that might enter into the marking. An answer is either right or wrong and any prejudices which an individual teacher may have can have absolutely no bearing on the student's test score.

On the other hand, it was pointed out that the objective test is not a very good means of measuring a student's ability to organize his facts into a meaningful pattern, although it is true that a skillfully constructed multiple choice test can do this to a degree. But the best test of this nature remains the essay type question.

William Clark Trow, of the University of Michigan, lists these four abilities as among those tested by an essay question (the extract is from his book "Educational Psychology"):

1. To select from what is known those items which bear upon a particular point and delineate their relationship to it.

2. To organize this information and the related ideas according to certain esthetic principles, such as unity, coherence, and emphasis.

3. To exhibit such accepted qualities of prose style as good diction, sentence structure, and possibly spelling and punctuation.

4. To reveal a modicum of originality and critical insight in the treatment of the subject.

This last one is, in my own opinion, the most important of the four.

After a decade in the classroom, I have come to the conclusion that the best type of examination in history, and in a good many other subjects, is one which is half objective and half essay. The objective questions determine to what extent a student has mastered the subject content of the course. The essay questions measure the degree to what he can apply what he has learned.

Placement Bureau At Loyola College Growing Steadily

In 1953 Rev. Thomas Moylan S.J. started the Loyola College Placement Bureau which was formed to assist the graduating class in choosing the firm or organization best suited for them on leaving Loyola. Now at the end of its fourth year the Bureau is well established on the Campus and is also well known to many local industrial organizations. Its growth is best shown by the fact that nineteen big firms visited the College this year to interview members of the graduating class. Among these visitors were: The Civil Service Commission, Molson's Brewery, McColl Frontenac, Imperial Tobacco, C.I.L., Dupont, and Dominion Textiles to give an idea of the range of firms.

All of the interviewers were seen by many students and so the latter were able to form a fairly accurate picture of what is waiting for them when they leave College. In addition to the companies which send men to Loyola to see the students there are many more who send folders and other literature advertising their opportunities of advancement for the right man and urging the graduates to consider them. This year is again a good one for students graduating from College and there seem to be many opportunities.

The average Loyola graduating class is of about sixty students of whom 50% continue to further study. A big proportion of those who go to work find their position through the Placement Bureau and the number is growing each year as the success of the Bureau becomes more

Anglican Religious Order Is Subject Of Talk Locally

By LESLIE BELL

Westmounters recently had an opportunity of learning something about Anglican religious orders in Canada when Sister Rosemary Ann addressed a group in the Church of the Advent at Wood and Western.

The Sister belongs to the Sisters of St. John the Divine whose motherhouse is in Toronto. She pointed out the similarity between Christian marriage and the religious life. Both were instituted by God; both are based on sacrificial love. "The bond of Christian marriage is a deep and holy mystery. It was instituted by God, according to the book of Common Prayer, for the procreation of children, and with the spiritual object of bringing souls to God," she said.

If Christian marriage is to mean all it is intended to mean, there must be discipline, harmony, and sacrifice of personal wishes. Having entered "the state of Holy Matrimony," the partners are no longer free to act as they please.

"Side by side with this ideal of marriage," the Sister said, "goes the ideal of a dedicated life, bound by the threefold vows of poverty, chastity and obedience." Both are of God; both are bound by indissoluble vows. In these vocations (Christian marriage is a vocation, the Sister insists) God is the great reality. The same command is given to all, to bear the cross.

In religious life the cross takes the form of adherence to the three vows. The first vow of poverty means freedom from the tyranny of possessions. The Sister reminded us that earthly possessions bring cares. They demand time and energy in fulfilling our obligations of stewardship. She said, "If you own nothing, you are free to leave at any moment to go wherever you are sent. The second vow, chastity, means that we may not marry. Chastity draws us away from family ties, it frees us from the cares and responsibilities of family life. The third vow, obedience, is the hardest of all. It takes a life-time to attain to complete obedience." Commenting on religious discipline, the Sister said, "the discipline of periods of silence and stated times of prayer are planned to strengthen and uphold us, spiritually and physically."

WORKS OF MERCY

Works of mercy are the outcome, not the primary object, of The Sisters of St. John the Divine have done and are doing varied works. At one time they operated one of the best surgical hospitals in Ontario. Later they were in charge of a miner's hospital in Nova Scotia. There was the first residential school for mentally retarded children in Ottawa it operated for eight years. Today they have a convalescent hospital near Toronto, a girls' school in Regina, a home for unmarried mothers in Edmonton, and here in Montreal they have charge of a mission connected with a downtown church.

"There is no frustration in the religious life," the Sister concluded. "It is a happy, free life, and in it is found the fulfillment of the promise of our Saviour to those who have left father, mother, houses or lands for His sake. They received a hundredfold now in this time." (St. Matthew 19:29).

SPRING FLOWERS BLOOM PROFUSELY — INDOORS

Easter weather has been late in arriving in Eastern Canada, but at the flower conservatory at Niagara Falls, Ont., spring is in full bloom. There, thousands of flowers are being viewed by the public each day as part of the spring flower show which continues until Easter week-end. Lois Lizmore is here surrounded by calceolarias and schizanthus, two of the colorful varieties blooming to perfection. After the spring show is over 120,000 more flowers will be planted in the Niagara park system garden.

Record Of Achievement Reported By The Y.M.C.A.

A year of record achievement was reported by President L. W. Townsend at the Metropolitan Annual Meeting of the Y.M.C.A. of Montreal on Monday evening, completion of the building expansion program, a 20% increase in membership, over 4,000 volunteer leaders, committee and board members, 153 new clubs organized and in College registration an increase of 1,460, were some of the highlights of the year under review reported by Mr. Townsend and General Secretary, F. G. Hubbard.

Mr. Townsend referred to the completion of the building expansion program which included the construction of the new Sir George Williams College and two branch buildings at Lachine and St. Laurent, plus intensive renovations to three other branch buildings.

Mr. Hubbard said that with the completion of the building project a "Three Year Plan of Advance" in program has been adopted which by the proper use of these facilities and a modernization of Program the "Y" will be serving 50% more people by the end of three years. Strides have already been made in this direction with a 30.4% increase in membership reported for 1956. Mr. Hubbard also said "literally thousands of hours of volunteer leadership were given by over 1,400 volunteer advisors and counsellors plus 2,742 committee and board people. These people gave willingly of their time and skills" he added. The number of "Y" Clubs organized during the year were 153 making a total of 1,164 in the greater Montreal area.

Enrolment in Sir George Williams College were 1,460 over the previous year's total of 6,666 this increase was made possible by the new College Building.

At Monday night's meeting the following new directors were appointed: J. M. Breen, W. N. Clelland, G. B. Foster, J. B. Frosst, G. M. Hobart, George Hodge, W. S. Kirkpatrick, W. F. MacKlaier, T. R. McLagan, J. M. Pritchard, H. Greville Smith, I. R. Tait, W. Taylor-Bailey, M. M. Walter and James H. Webb.

Re-elected were: J. W. McConnell, Honorary President; L. W. Townsend, President; George M. Hobart, 1st Vice-President; O. B. Thornton, 2nd Vice-President; Collin W. Webster, 3rd Vice-President; J. R. Logan, Honorary Treasurer; James H. Webb, Honorary Secretary.

Aeromodelling, members of the club point out, is not only a hobby. It is more of a sport than anything else. A contestant has to spring across fields, jump ditches, climb trees and gates to retrieve his model. If the model lands in a lake or stream, he may have to swim.

Local contact for the club includes N.D.G.—The Hobby Centre, 6284 Somerled; Verdun — Mike Sarna, 1429 Valiquette; St. Laurent — E. V. Haisman, 3290 Goyer Road.

GERARD D. PILON, whose appointment as a district sales supervisor for Montreal has been announced by F. G. Quenneville, Quebec general sales manager of Oland's Breweries Ltd. Mr. Pilon is well-known in the brewing industry in Quebec Province. He served overseas with the R.C.A.F., as Flight-Lieutenant during the last war. His appointment is in line with the recent expansion of Oland's activities in this Province.

Modelers Preen Planes; Seek Third Win In Row

A dozen varieties of model planes — free flight, rubber power, gaspower, u-control and radio control types — are being groomed in the West End for the coming model plane season.

Three major meets are on tap, and as usual the west end will be well represented in them.

The meets are: May 19 — St. Lawrence Zone A-2 eliminator at Hawkesbury, Ontario with postal contest with clubs in Holland, the Isle of Wight and the New England States.

June 29 or 30 — Canadian National.

September 15 — Eastern Canada Open at Gananoque.

The Montreal Model Flying Club won the trophy in a contest with New England clubs in 1955 and again in 1956 and this year will be trying for their third-in-a-row.

Test flights are made regularly in fields at Cote de Liesse and Laprairie.

Many of the members are international aeromodellers and have been in competition against modellers all over the world, particularly at many of the world championships held in Europe.

Models are grouped as follows: free flight, gliders-Nordic or A-2,A-1 and unrestricted. Rubberpower-Wakefield, unrestricted and flying scale, Gas powered 1/2 A, B and C. Control-

The Sports Whirl

By George E. Jones

THERE'S trouble already for the Verdun Fastball Club and the season has not started, in fact the team has not had a practice. Players which are to be protected were announced this week. Some of these boys have been out with other Snowdon clubs, which could be called tampering. But, now that the list has been made public it's every man for himself. Gil Dupuis signed for an East End club. Pepsi Cola was interested in Dupuis, willing to make a deal with Verdun for his services. It seems that Dupuis has an iron bound contract, legal and what not. One official of Pepsi said that the contract is solid. The club in question that Dupuis signed for is not with the Association.

Otherwise there is good news in the Snowdon Major Fastball league. They came up with their sixth entry Snowdon Combines who will take over Dominion Provisioners players. Pat Peterson, that veteran of the fastball diamond as field manager and Dave Kaplan, no stranger to the local setup, is the president. The team came up with their application 24 hours after the deadline. The league opens May 5 with FBI and Steinberg's starting off where they finished off last fall. League officials are hard at work making up a schedule with about 12 home games for each team.

Cameron Grout did it again, breaking another swim record. The MAAA team won the Gazette trophy. . . . Rocky Rothwell rather upset over the way that residents are allowing their dogs to run loose. . . . He and John Garland of the Westmount

Westmount To Form 2 Clubs For Cricket

The Westmount Cricket Club is endeavouring to field two teams in the coming year. This has been due to the ever-increasing number of good players who are joining the club.

In the last four years, Westmount has won the Windsor Cup three times, which is an enviable record.

It is felt, however, that this fine standard can be better maintained by giving the maximum number of players a chance to play regularly, which was the deciding factor to create a second team.

The season will begin around the third week in May, and the club would be divided into an "A" and "B" team, each playing in the respective "A" and "B" cricket sections.

Col. Alan Liddell MC., of Westmount, was re-elected to the post of club president at the annual meeting. Geoffrey Pike, also of Westmount, was re-elected as secretary.

David Lawless and Richard Croney were elected captain and vice-captain respectively of the "A" team, while Jim Arkley and David Sheppard were elected captain and vice-captain of the "B" team.

Practices are expected to start as soon as ground conditions permit, and any prospective players are requested to call secretary Pike at FI 4084.

Snowdon Loop Opens May 5

The Snowdon Fastball League will open its schedule on Sunday, May 5, with five clubs in the fold.

The deadline for entries expired Monday night with FBI Golden Gift, Steinberg's, Dow, Pepsi, and Verdun Sportsmen listed as starters. FBI and Steinberg's, the only clubs going with American imports, will meet in the opener May 5 in Trenholme Park at two o'clock. FBI won the pennant last year while Steinberg's captured the playoff crown. Pepsi and Dow also announced a trade with Warren Hynes going to the Dow club in exchange for Connie Broden. Hynes and Donnie Marshall were drafted by Pepsi from the defunct Dominion Provisioners roster.

The new Verdun entry will be managed by Paul Moreau and coached by Les Hynes, junior Canadiens' hockey trainer, who won't be available until early May. Verdun has a list of 22 players and will probably sign 16 to contracts.

They have Paul Saindon and Albert R. an for mound work, catcher Ed McLeod, first baseman Ron McKenzie, infielder Al Gellately, and outfielders Ross Anderson, Gordie Cowie and George and Jerry O'Reilly. Steinberg's will have three import pitchers—Percy and Homer McCracken and Brooker Thomas — to toss at enemy hitters while Ace Holden will be back on the firing line with FBI.

President Gerry Snyder announced yesterday that the sixth team entry has been accepted following a special meeting. The application was made 24 hours after the deadline. Pat Patterson will be the field manager and Dave Kaplan is the club president. Players from Dominion Provisioners will form the club. They will be called Snowdon Combines.

Cagers Still In Action At Unity

While most organizations have called a halt to basketball activities for this year, the Unity Boys' Club continues with the annual Spring Basketball House League.

The junior members of the club are very keen and the House League has been the main topic of conversation for the past several weeks.

The Junior House League gets underway this week with Jets at Comets; Flyers at Wings.

The teams are as follows: Jets: Ian Gill, Brian Sullivan, Rodney Wilson, Charles Burton, Richard Blais, Michael Harper, Rodney Irwin, Howard Blanchette.

Comets: Kenneth Armour, Billy Hotton, Bobby Carter, Larry Dallas, Ralph Walton, Hugh Rosenberg, Michael Crouch, Michael Foley.

Flyers: Douglas Rowland, John Devlin, Bobby Stewart, Fred Power, Jimmy Crouch, Martin O'Halloran, Wayne Dallas.

Wings: David Tagieff, Billy Gloyn, Billy Stewart, Frank Robinson, Ray Mader, Jimmy Prince, Frank Gibson, Buddy McKaig.

Unity Captures Biddy Hoopla Championship

The Unity Boys' Club Biddy Basketball team with Doug Mariasine as coach won the City and District Biddy Basketball championship for the third consecutive year.

The final and deciding game of a best of three series was played at the Rosemount Boys' Club, with Unity winning 34-22, taking the series in straight games. The score of the first game, Unity 43 - Rosemount 22.

Biddy basketball which has been sponsored this year by the B'nai B'rith - Mt. Royal Lodge No. 728 has enjoyed a great year with 10 teams participating — this represents over 100 boys actively engaged in this popular sport.

Two sections were operated, one in the Eastern end of the city and one in the west.

Morgan Turner gave a stellar performance for the U.B.C. quintet and as high scorer with 13 points. Howard Blanchette had nine and Ralph Walton and Ray Mader each scored 6 points.

For Rosemount, Paul Leroy was the top scorer with 13 points.

Unity was leading 17-11 at half time.

Unity Boys' Club (34): Mader 6, Turner 13, McKaig, Adams, O'Driscoll, Blanchette 9, Walton 6, Hamilton, McDonald.

Rosemount Boys' Club (22): Seniw 4, Conroy 2, Leroy 13, Archambault 1, G. Campbell, R. Campbell, Goodhand, Pantelouis 2, Ruby, May.

Intermediate Ball League In Offing

The Westmount Recreation Department will organize an Intermediate Softball League this year, provided enough interest is shown.

To date, one team has signalled their intentions for the 1957 season.

Call Rocky Rothwell, Recreation Department Superintendent, FI 6975, for further information.

The Rhode Island Reds have concluded their 31st season in pro hockey and Terry Reardon and Jack Crawford have finished their second season as G.M. and coach, respectively.

Rugger Games For Week-end

In the opening fixture of the Rugger season, Town of Mt. Royal defeated Westmount 6-3.

Toronto Barbarians are in town on the weekend for two games. Friday afternoon they will play at Town of Mt. Royal with Toronto visitors first team meeting Westmount first team.

After that game, the Town will take on the Toronto second team. Two games are slated for Saturday at the Town.

Westmount seconds will meet Barbarians seconds and in the other game Town of Mt. Royal first team will play Toronto firsts. Lead off games will start at 2:15 each day.

Another exhibition game is slated for the weekend. Toronto Saarcens will play the Montreal Barbarians. The Montreal team won over Ottawa Beavers last Saturday.

Both teams scored a touchdown which was not converted and the winning margin was a smartly taken dropkick by Brennan.

The teams found the cold wind rather a difficulty, but they provided an interesting game for the few half dozen spectators.

In the opening game the Westmount second XV beat their opposite numbers by the score of 6 to 0.

I Monroe converted two penalty kicks. There was a creditable turnout of players for the second XV and, if the increase in playing members is maintained, it should be possible to run two divisions in the Fall.

Mrs. V. Allan Heads Swimming Group

Mrs. Viv Allan was elected president of the Amateur Synchronized Swimming Association of Quebec at its recent annual meeting.

With the Canadian championships in ornamental swimming taking place in Peterborough this summer, the Quebec association is now preparing its various club teams for the Ontario invasion.

Other officers elected with Mrs. Allan were: vice-president, Mrs. A. Lamontagne; recording secretary, Miss E. Lindell; corresponding secretary, Miss E. Rasmussen; treasurer, Miss H. Couture; executive members Miss N. Shephard, Mrs. D. Harris and

Fisher Heather's Rink Beaten By St. Lambert

J. 'Mac' McCormick's St. Lambert Curling rink, won its second major bonspiel in a row Saturday night and its fifth of the season, when it defeated Heather's Tom Fisher in the City of St. Lambert's Centennial Trophy tournament.

Consolation Trophy honors went to J. Soper's Town of Mount Royal Rink with a 13-10 win over Stan Ferry of Montreal West.

Winner of the City of Westmount 'spiel the Saturday previous, McCormick had to fight from behind to beat out Fisher.

The big break of the 12-end match came at the eleventh, when the home side chalked up four shots.

On the final end Fisher's rink tried desperately to get something in the house to pick up at least two shots for a tie and possibly three for a win, but McCormick, who had played brilliantly throughout the piece, kept the situations well in hand.

Larry Elliott, regular member of the St. Lambert team, was missing from the final and Jim Newman and Dick Tobin moved up a notch, with Berni DeBreyne taking over lead spot Soper's Town team got off to a good start against Ferry, but the former star Big Four foot baller fought it hard all the way and at one stage after popping a four end on Soper, it looked like the tide was turning.

But on the very next end the Town team, which included ex-schoolboy curling champ Bob Hawkins at third and two of his young confreres at lead and second, got the four shots back and rolled on to win.

Immediately following play prizes were presented in the clubhouse. Mayor J. L. Townsend of St. Lambert welcomed the curlers and gave out awards to the individual winners.

Grout Breaks Swim Record

Montreal Amateur Athletic Association's swimming team, led by captain Cameron Grout, captured The Gazette Trophy for the provincial senior men's championship at a meet in the YMHA pool.

Grout established a provincial record in the 500 yards free style to give his team a big boost in points. He swam the distance in 5:46.9, four seconds lower than the old mark.

Other M.A.A.A. point winners were Alex Crosthwait, who won the 100 yards free style; Richard Bolton, who was first in the 50 yards free style; Henry Polkki, second in the 200 yards free style; Glenn Murray, second in the 100 yards backstroke, and Al McDougall, third place finisher in the 100 yards breaststroke.

The team of Grout, Bolton, Crosthwait and Polkki finished a full length ahead of the field in the 400 yards free style relay.

McGill, Maisonneuve Reach Ball Playoffs

Regiment de Maisonneuve rolled into the finals of the Officers Section Military Football League playoffs with an 18-9 triumph over 17th Hussars.

The win gave Maisonneuve the best-of-three semi-final 2-1.

The winners will go against McGill COTC for the league championship. McGill, defending champion, eliminated Navy with a 2-1 series triumph.

Claude Bastien, veteran Maisonneuve southpaw went the route to gain the decision for the Maisies.

Andre Lalonde and Guy Prevost helped along the victory with home rounds. Lalonde also connected for seven hits in as many trips.
