ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE WITNESS IS OVER AND GONE AT LAST. THE DAYS OF SNOW AND COLD ARE PAST.

THAT'S VERY BALD PROSE!

The rain is—spring.

Everybody will forgive the rain if it will only unlock the wintry door that holds spring in bond.

At the same time, nobody has yet managed to look pleasant with the rain dropping down the back of his neck.

The rain means green grass—that's poetry.

The rain means—rheumatism and pneumonia—that's the saddest kind of prose.

WHAT THE MOTHER TAUGHT!

"But one upon earth is more beautiful and better than the wife—that is the mother."

Who cannot go back in memory to the happy days when mother dressed her boys and girls with her own hands, put fresh collars round their necks and sweet, clean handkerchiefs in their pockets, and sent them, with eyes dewy with love and pride, to school with "shining morning face?"

Mother thus taught the beautiful lesson that neatness of person and pure white linen are worth more than the discovery of a gold mine, or the title deeds of a planet.

And in these days the mothers of Montreal are more happily circumstanced, in that at their very door is an establishment whose prompt service makes both the Home and the Person, wholesome and sweet, and gracious, and thus produces without effort, what could only be realized in the early days (and then most imperfectly) at the cost of pains and aches, and faces "dragged" with toil.

There is one establishment that can do this—the

A PRESENTATION.

Mr. George E. Irwin, the assistant secretary of the Board of Trade, was presented, this morning, by the President and the members of the Corn Exchange Association, with a handsome gold watch with inscription as a token of their appreciation of his faithful services and his courtesy to the members during the seven years of his connection with the Board. The President, on behalf of the Association, congratulated Mr. Irwin on his approaching marriage and wished him all happiness. Mr. Irwin has been for several years a prominent and active member of the Young Men's Christian Association.

LEDA LAMONTAGNE.

Mr. Pillett, advocate of this city, returned from Sherbrooke to-day, where he had been in the interest of Leda Lamontagne, sister of Remi Lamontagne hanged last fall for the murder of his brother-in-law, the husband of Leda, who is serving a year's sentence in Sherbrooke gaol for contempt of Court during her brother's trial. Mr. Pillett promises some interesting developments.

LOVELL'S CENSUS.

Mr. Lovell's census directory is not quite ready. It was to have been issued on March 25, but delay in furnishing "copy" renders that impossible. Mr. Lovell said this afternoon that it would be out about Saturday. It was impossible to give totals at present, the work not being in a sufficiently forward state to admit of accurate calculations.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

The celebration of the Queen's birthday is almost sure to take the form of a brigade parade to church. No definite information has been received from Ottawa yet regarding the above proposition, but it is not considered likely that any objection will be made to the parade.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

For about a year past workmen have been engaged in putting a new skylight into the Custom House. The work will soon be completed and may help to relieve the interior of the building of that dingy and dirty appearance upon which everyone remarks who goes there.

HUNTINGDON ELECTION.

RETURN OF THE LAST OF THE GALLANT THIRTEEN.

MR. JULIUS SCHRIER ELECTED BY 255 MAJORITY—
SOMETHING ABOUT MR. SCHRIER'S LIFE—A NEW BRUNSWICK NEWSPAPER ON HUNTING-DON.

A Huntingdon election was never more closely nor anxiously watched by outsiders than was that of yesterday. In Montreal the questions asked at the G. N. W. Telegraph office were numerous, while in the evening there was a regular stream of interrogatory electricity conducted to and from the different offices and residences. Aside from the political element there was a feeling of resentment, deep and broad, that so fierce an effort had been made by the Government to defeat Mr. Schrier. Cabinet Ministers do not usually travel in pairs with a retinue such as were in the wake of the Hon. Mr. Chapleau and the Hon. Mr. Tupper on nomination day. They made a strong rush to swamp Mr. Schrier. There was felt by a large number to be more than the trade policy of the Government in the balance. Mr. Schrier was evidently compelled to fight for his seat because he gave a conscientious vote on the disallowance of the Jesuit Act. Mr. Chapleau was ill when he took the journey. He was worse afterwards, and if Mr. Tupper was then in good health the reaction may now set in. Conservatives in the country could hardly claim that it was not so much Mr. Schrier, the Liberal, who was aimed at as it was

"ONE OF THE DEVIL'S THIRTEEN."
Thus, Huntingdon Conservatives said days before the election. "If I vote, my vote will be for Julius Schrier," Mr. Schrier had no organization up to Thursday evening. There was some talk then of trying to get some organization and a little money for legitimate expenses. "If the spending of fifty cents would win this election for Mr. Schrier, it will not be spent." This was the abrupt remark of the gentleman with whom Mr. Schrier's success is chiefly associated, and upon whom Mr. Schrier seemed to rely most. It was felt that the Conservatives were well organized and that they expected to spend money. It was felt that this had already been arranged for and that on the Sunday a special effort would be made in St. Andrew and St. Barthelemy, as well as in St. Antoine. At the French-Canadian vote into line against Mr. Schrier. It was surmised that the whole arrangement which postponed the election from the general election day, and had it then fixed for Monday, to catch the Sunday clerical influence, was part of a plan to carry the county for the Government. It is due to the good sense of the farmers of Huntingdon county that this latter arrangement did not succeed. It was with the majority of them not so much a contest of trade or dollars or cents, as of honor.

THEY HAVE WON.
Mr. Schrier represents the majority and has honestly won his title to do so. His simple trust in his neighbors and friends to believe that he was an unambitious man, that he was true to the sentiments which placed him as the successor of loyal ancestors in a loyal county was well placed. When it became known through the press that Mr. Schrier was ill, and that he had but few friends to assist him at public meetings, offers of assistance reached him from many quarters in Montreal. Temperance men and Equal Rights men volunteered to hold meetings without it costing Mr. Schrier anything—without respect to party. Mr. Schrier was content to abide by the decision of his neighbors. There was no over-confidence on his part. He is congratulated, and so is his county, to-day, by thousands of men in Montreal whose trade sympathy is with the Government of the day, but who prize Mr. Schrier's independence highly.

INDICATIONS OF THE CITY INTEREST.
"Have you any news from Huntingdon?" This query came over the wires of the Gazette's telephone only eighty-nine times last evening—Gazette.

"Have you heard from Huntingdon?" Is Schrier elected? How did Huntingdon go? Hundreds of such queries came to the Herald office in one steady stream of eager inquiries. The telephone bell was kept almost constantly ringing, from 1 o'clock till 9—Herald.

IN THE Windsor Hotel was the same eager tone of enquiry, and when the result was made known, Mr. Schrier's many friends and Huntingdon's well-wishers were highly pleased.

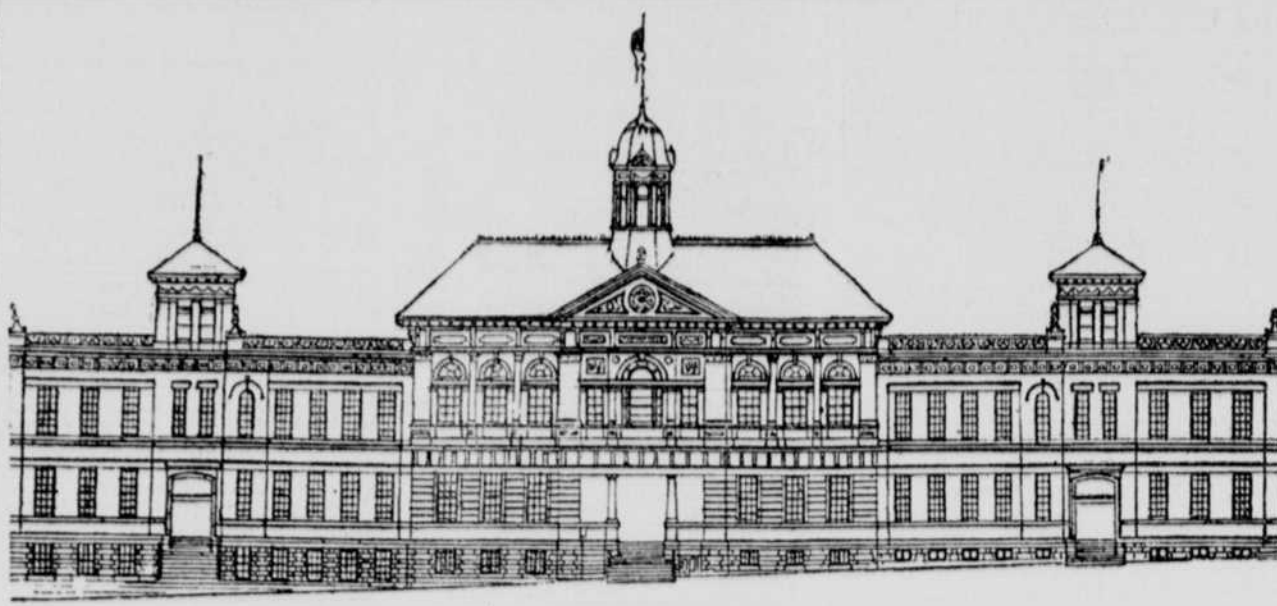

A PROGRESSIVE TOWN

SOME RECENT IMPROVEMENTS IN ST. HENRI.

Operations for the extension of St. Joseph street from St. Henri to Côte St. Paul, by which the distance between the two places will be shortened by over a mile, began at St. Henri last week, and in view of such a meeting of the Road Committee of the latter Council was sent the same week to secure the necessary permission of expropriation for carrying out the same. Mr. Trudel, the municipality's valuator, reported that the whole ground had been gone over in company with Mr. Seymour, engineer, and the total amount of property that would require to be expropriated as per their estimate was in the vicinity of $1,500. The largest single expropriation was that belonging to the Dissecting school and the matter was already settled by the school authorities offering to take $6,875, which the Council agreed to give. The property consists of brick schoolhouse and 9,000 feet of land. The next largest property for expropriation is that of Mr. Brodie and the Grand Trunk. The valuator recommends $5,000 for it, but the owners have not yet signed their acceptance. The balance of $1,847 is represented by several smaller properties along the line of road in regard to which answers as to acceptance are shortly expected. In case of rejection arbitrators will have to be appointed, but the Council expect to settle without the aid of the latter. Property holders have till May 1 to vacate their properties.

The Dissecting St. 301 Board some time since acquired a very desirable plot of land on the corner of Holloway, Richelieu and Delisle streets, on which to erect a successor to the diminutive and long since inadequate building about to be demolished by the expropriators; and there will be begun, almost at once, a structure that will do honor to the educational interests of St. Henri no less than St. Cuthbert, with which latter it is joined for school purposes. The new school will cost in the vicinity of $30,000. The grounds and yard will embrace an area over four times that of the present, the whole giving accommodation to about seven hundred children. Plans have recently been completed by the architect.

There are in all nine streets in St. Henri on which expropriations have yet to be made which the $100,000 borrowed by the Council lately for the purpose of street improvements will, it is expected, be about all expended.

PEEL STREET FRONT OF THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

The result, however, will compensate amply for the outlay, making St. Henri one of the best suburbs as regards street travel we have.

LIBERTY OF A WIFE.

WIVES HAVE THE LEGAL OPTION OF LEAVING THEIR HUSBANDS WITH OR WITHOUT CAUSE.

New York, March 23.—The Times London cable letter says:—It is a long time since England has had a social drama which excited such universal interest as is still felt in the case of Mr. Jackson, who, a fortnight ago, forcibly abducted his unwilling wife and kept her in captivity in his house until the courts finally compelled him to let her go free. The lower court, indeed, supported him, but on appeal he was beaten, and all the untamed husbands of the realm are writing indignant letters to the papers about it. If a husband is not to coerce his wife, then they feel that the British constitution is truly in a perilous state. The decision does, indeed, create an absurd anomaly in the marital relation, for the Lord Chancellor has, in substance, decided that the wife may, with or without cause, leave her husband, refuse to return to him ever again, but this gives him no ground for legal complaint, much less for divorce.

QUEEN CITY TOPICS.

(Special to the Witness.)

CONVENTION AT THE MEETING OF THE TORONTO MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

Toronto, March 24.—The Ministerial Association yesterday discussed the question of the sensuous in church worship. The debate resolved itself into something like a controversy between Presbyterian advocates of gown and bands and Methodist advocates of plain clothes, but the whole episode was spiced with good-humored chaff.

NEW BOARD OF TRADE SECTION.

The wholesale stationers have organized themselves as a section of the Board of Trade.

TRADE DISCRIMINATION DEBATE.

The Young Conservatives last night voted down a resolution in favor of a trade arrangement with Great Britain which would discriminate in favor of colonial food products.

INVESTIGATING THE RESULTS.

The young Liberals have appointed a committee to ascertain by correspondence the significance attached by the different localities to the late general election.

WIDER AND FREER TRADE.

Principal Grant's plea for wider and freer trade encourages the impression that important political and fiscal changes are impending.

MR. SCHRIER'S SUCCESS.

There is great rejoicing amongst Liberals and Equal Rights over the election of Mr. Schrier.

REPLACEMENT AGREEMENT.

The Grand Trunk Railway object to some parts of the proposed replacement agreement with the Canadian Pacific Railway and city. But as these are of minor importance, and as Mr. Seagrave has agreed to a conference, which will come off at Montreal on April 1, there is good hope of a settlement without closing the prospect of a viaduct in the future.

STREET RAILWAY QUESTION.

The question as to whether the city will run the street railway by commission or will lease the franchise is to be submitted to a vote of the freeholders.

MR. MACDONELL'S TOUR.

The Rev. Dr. Warden, of Montreal, preached on Sunday morning and evening in St. Andrew's Church. As previously intimated, the pastor, the Rev. Dr. J. Macdonnell, has been troubled for a short time with loss of voice, and by his physician's order is to rest for six months. He has left for England, to join there the C.P.R. new steamer on a trip round the world.

The funeral of the late Mr. J. M. Young was, as briefly mentioned in our issue of yesterday, attended by a very large number of our leading citizens. The Rev. W. S. THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

"The old High must go!" has been often said. It has gone. Memories of it will remain, some of them painful. The new building, a front view of which we give to-day, is designed to much more comfortably accommodate the school boys and school girls. The aim of the Board of Protestant School Commissioners has been comfort, usefulness and economy. With this view impressed upon him Mr. Alex. Hutchinson, the well-known architect, has endeavored to put his best thought upon use rather than ornament, combining both, however, as far as economy will permit. The style of architecture, as far as it goes is Renaissance. The building will be of pressed brick, and it will be of such a size as almost to cover the present area of the High School site, leaving the interior and the basements for the playgrounds. The commissioners have purchased such property as carries them down to the lane in rear of the St. Catherine street properties. Two stories high, stone up to the sills of the windows on the ground floor, cut-stone dressings and terra cotta trimmings, the Peel street front walls connecting half a story above the wings which the main entrance upon Peel street, with Corinthian pillars on each side, while over the entrance is a handsome tower, which is to be repeated on the Metcalfe street front. Two other entrances on Peel street at equal distances from the main entrance will admit the boys and girls. Mr. Arthy's office is on the right and the accountant's office on the left of the main building, and across the passage a library in which a hundred people can be accommodated, seated. Lavatories for lady and gentlemen teachers, rooms for the principal, tailors place here. Opposite the Metcalfe street front will be a drill hall and gymnasium 60 by 90 feet, to be used in common by boys and girls. On the second floor above the main entrance will be an assembly hall capable of seating 1,200 people, seats arranged as an amphitheatre. On the Metcalfe street side will be two large lunch rooms and two drawing rooms, the rest of the floor to be made up in class-rooms. Interiors will be finished in light woods, oiled and varnished. Tenders are to be called for and work commenced as soon as the snow leaves the ground.

SHAMROCK LACROSSE CLUB.

Mr. McNulty, captain of the Crescent lacrosse team, will, in all probability, captain the Shamrocks next summer. It is expected that he may induce some members of the Crescents to join the Shamrock Club, which this year will be entirely independent of the Canadian Athletic Association.
