Dr. Alton Goldbloom — the 75-year-old miracle-working pediatrician and author — with well-whetted scalpel tilted at hatreds before the members of the Westmount Rotary Club Wednesday noon at Victoria Hall, in a reasoned presentation entitled "The Anatomy of Prejudice".

Scrivener president of B. of T.

Change is inevitable — and "we must participate in it if this change is to reflect the active cooperation, the interest and the practical participation of all elements in the community, including business."

This was the message of R. C. Scrivener, 655 Grosvenor avenue, new president of the Board of Trade, as he took over reins of office at the weekend.

Other officers elected to the board included:

Dr. H. S. Sutherland, first vice-president; J. Eric Harrington, second vice-president; C. F. Carsley, treasurer.

New members of council are: J. K. Allison, E. Guy Carmel, J. M. Courtright, F. L. Parsons, R. C. Pearce, J. B. Porteous, and R. G. Thacker, Junior Board of Trade representative.

June month dedicated to plants

June is to be dedicated to planting, in the parks of Westmount, and if it turns out to be a good growing month, the improvement in Westmount Park particularly should be well worth nothing, and photographing — even in color.

Monday night, when council meets, there is every prospect that a tender for some $26,000 worth of shrubs and plants and flowers, etc., for Westmount Park will be let.

Monday's agenda will be a lengthy one — in fact it is already lengthy, but most of the items, according to report, are of a routine nature.

Proposed new signal system for The Boulevard, Westmount Avenue, Cedar and Clarke avenue intersection is on the agenda for commitment and motorists both in and out of the municipality will be wishing for a speedy solution to this bottleneck.

For a half-hour the white-haired and soft-spoken physician-turned-philosopher rang a myriad of changes on the emotions of his listeners as he switched swiftly from poignant anecdote to Holy Writ, and always with a conviction that held his audience in the palm of his hand, hanging on his slightest word.

From the outset the good doctor revealed that he was as familiar with the anatomy of prejudice as he was with the human anatomy as he spoke of the many unconscious prejudices to be found almost daily in expressions many consider as routine.

'Hip-hip-hurray' he traced back to a battle-cry voiced by Prussian Knights sacking Jewish villages; 'Hokus-Pokus' he revealed as the slangy translation of an Anglican sailor, explaining what he had heard in a Roman-Catholic church he had entered in error.

IGNORANCE

While much prejudice is born of ignorance, Dr. Goldbloom saw a great deal of it inculcated in children by parents, and added that he personally had suffered greatly at the hands of an anti-Semitic school-teacher in his early days, developing a trauma that had continued for many years.

Prejudices, he said, are against every race — and he himself had known of advertisements in a Winnipeg paper shortly after the turn of the century that read, in help-wanted sections, "no

Blaze in car doused

Two minutes before 11 p.m. Sunday Westmount firemen were called out to quell a blaze under the hood of an auto on Cote St. Antoine Road, west of Grosvenor.

When the apparatus arrived, smoke and flames were pouring from beneath the hood of the vehicle and it was discovered that the gasoline line was also ablaze. One stream was employed to extinguish the fire.

There were no reports of injuries.

High-rise dwellings inspected

Westmount Fire Department has begun its annual inspections — and this year something new has been added.

Initial inspections are being made on buildings under construction and the new high-rise apartments, to acquaint the men with the 'ins and outs' of the new buildings.

Newest building, of course, is mainly fireproof, but during the period of construction is the most dangerous time for the fire department, which keeps a close watch on all buildings in the area, and particular while wood is in use around the forms which are set up to the poured concrete.

For some time now the Westmount Fire Department has stressed with contractors the need for special protection at shafts after dark, as they are a potential danger to firemen who may be required to move about in a building under construction after dark and fall down an unprotected shaft-opening.

The advent of high-rise apartments in Westmount has brought about a great many changes in the mode of fire-fighting and these are being explained to the men as they inspect these new-type buildings.

Air Cadet Squadron inspection is held

Annual Inspection of No. 1 (West Montreal) Squadron of Royal Canadian Air Cadets took place at the armoury of the Royal Montreal Regiment, 4625 St. Catherine street west, Monday evening.

Before a gathering of parents, friends and relatives the young men of the Squadron were reviewed by Wing-Commander S. S. Whetstone, C.D., RCAF, a native of Western Canada by birth, who has a 25 year record of service with the RCAF, in both peace and war.

Early in the Second World War he was one of the first of the RCAF loaned to the RAF for the night-fighter control stations. He also spent some time in Russia and participated in the landings in North Africa.

Commissioned in 1943 (in the field) he became a field engineer for RAF/USAAF Coastal Command — standardizing tactical radars in the Mediterranean theatre.

The West Montreal Squadron was commanded by S. L. A. J. Lowe.

V. Houghton, representing the Quebec Provincial Committee of the Air Cadet League of Canada delivered a short address in which he praised the service in general and particularly the smart display put on by the Squadron under review.

Trophies presented included: Tud Hope Trophy for the most proficient cadet, won by Sgt. W.

Syrup fit for a Queen

Ten gallons of the very finest maple syrup goes forward to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth today — another instalment in the gift that started here some years ago when the Queen was personally presented with a silver syrup container, and a promise that syrup for it would be despatched each tree-tapping.

The delivery is a little late this year, city officials explained, as the season is slightly later than normal.

Norm Dawe returns from U.S.

Uneasy lies the head that wears a city-manager title, and not always for the same reasons.

Norman Dawe, Westmount's city manager, is back from what many might feel was a holiday junket — but the truth is Mr. Dawe has been swatting up on the latest wrinkles in his job.

Several days were spent in Washington at a conference called by the vice-president of the U.S., Hubert Humphrey, former mayor of Minneapolis. There the main topic was the U.S. government's preparations in the war on poverty, and from this 5-day session Mr. Dawe brought home one full case of data and documents, books and booklets, for midnight oil burning.

Then it was 'on to Chicago' for a similar session, again with city managers from both sides of the border, and again the collection of new material on and about municipal administration and its mounting problems filled another valise.

Much of it all, Mr. Dawe feels, will be of interest and value in September when the International City Managers convention is held here and he joins other local-area city managers as host to some 1,000 city-managers and their wives.

Howard Atwood quits Westmount High post

By KATHI KRISTOF

The end of the school year at Westmount High is finally upon us. It is a time for mixed emotions for us all. We feel sorrow at leaving the school, in some cases for good; we feel amazement at how fast the year has come and gone; but the main emotion should at this time be a sense of accomplishment on the part of teachers, parents, and students, as all should have learned something worthwhile this past year.

Last week at an assembly, honoring many for different and varied accomplishments, more than a few tears were shed as the school honored a retiring member of the faculty, a man beloved by his students and admired by his colleagues — Howard Atwood.

This dedicated teacher has taught many many students through the many years since he received his diploma. I, myself, can vouch for the fact that he has given to each of his students not only a wonderful knowledge of English Literature but also a valuable lesson in high moral ideals.

After graduating, Mr. Atwood taught at Macdonald, Sherbrooke, and Quebec High Schools, after which he spent three years in the R.C.A.F. In 1945, after the war, he came to the old Westmount Junior High and rendered valuable service there until 1961 when he came to teach at the new Westmount High, and has taught here ever since.

But any teacher's life must also include activities in the school's extra-curricular programme, and Mr. Atwood has been active in more than his fair share. In sports, he has coached the basketball team as well as helping in several track meets. Also as a good and able English teacher, he was able to contribute to the newspaper, was adviser to the Debating Club and was always called upon to help with all public-speaking events.

In 1955, Mr. Atwood was named the school's prime contact with the Westmount Teachers Association; it is going to be difficult indeed, to imagine anyone but him handing out the annual teachers' Award of Honour to deserving students.

As to his immediate future plans, Mr. Atwood maintains them to be "vague". Besides resting, he plans to go on to university work next summer, probably to show Mrs. Atwood Merrie Olde Englands and other parts of Great Britain. Whatever lies in the future, may we on the behalf of all students, teachers, and citizens of Westmount, wish Howard Atwood luck and success in all that he may do, and also thank him for a job well done in a career which we are sure was as satisfying to him as it was to those associated with him.

In our thanks and gratitude we must not, however, forget our two vice-principals who are both leaving Westmount this year. Our thanks are extended to Mr. McRae, who will be Principal of Westmount Park School, and to Mr. Mackie, who will be Principal of Dunton High School. The enormous task of replacing them will go to Mr. K. Campbell, Vice-Principal of Mount Royal High, and to Mr. R. McEwan, the head of the Mathematics Department at John Grant High.

To all these men the best of luck. And to you, the reader, the best possible summer holidays to all!

Flip for Easter Seals

The Quebec Easter Seal Society, with the co-operation of the Montreal Flying Club, will sponsor a Flyathon, Sunday, June 6 at Cartierville Airport, 2300 Bois Franc Road.

"Last year we had almost 400 Montrealers show up to take a look at our city from the air, society president Robert E. Meagher said, in announcing the Flyathon. "We charge $3.00 a flip and almost every cent of that goes towards the work of the Society, which is helping the physically handicapped. The gasoline, the use of the planes and the services of the experienced pilots, are all donated."

Mr. Meagher pointed out that the flights are ten minutes each, "and at $3.00 that's a bargain, to say nothing of the fact the money is used to help people who badly need our help".

Flying starts at 9 a.m. and continues until dusk.

Light fare

With the advent of the summer reading season — when more and more Westmounters seem to be curling up with a good book — the fiction stacks have been well-stocked with the latest from a long list of popular and newer authors.

Some of the titles are quite intriguing too — but then, you can't always tell a book by its title these days, any more than you can from its cover.

A quick glance through the latest list offers such tempting morsels as:

In the biography section the list includes:

The Virgin Mistress, by Elizabeth Mavor; The Duchess of Jermy Street, by Daphne Fielding, and Now, The Duchesses by James Frere.

MONSEIGNEUR IRENEE LUSSIER, performing his last official function as rector of the University of Montreal, was guest of honour and guest speaker at the third investiture of life governors at the Jewish General Hospital, recently. At the traditional ceremony, Monseigneur Lussier praised the hospital governors for their humanitarian efforts in aiding the institution. J. Julius Block, hospital president, noted that the third investiture, marking the enrollment of 88 new governors, brought the total of life governors to 500; and expressed the hope that in the future many more would join the ranks of those who, through their interest and generosity, have done so much to strengthen the investigative and teaching programs of the hospital. Co-chairman of the governor's program, Philip Garfinkle and Allan Bronfman, looked on as Msgr. Lussier presented the certificates.

Chancellor leaves distinguished post

After five years as chancellor of Sir George Williams College, Dr. B. W. Roberts, prominent local resident, retired as of June 1.

His successor is Fraser F. Fulton, former chairman of the University's board of governors.

Although Dr. Roberts' retirement decision had been known to members of the corporation and Board and some of the university's top administrators, it came as a surprise to most of those assembled for the university's graduation ceremony.

Dr. Roberts has served the university since 1940 when he became a member of the board of governors. He was appointed vice-chairman in 1941, and in 1947 was elected chairman of the board — a position he held until being named chancellor.

A retired vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, he is a past president of the Rotary Club of Montreal, a past provincial president of the Boy Scouts of Canada, and a past president of the Canadian Railway Club.

Dr. Roberts is married to the former Effie Johnston. They have a son, Ian, and a daughter, Cynthia, now Mrs. Peter Johnston.

He is an active member of the Rotary Club, an adviser to the Boy Scouts of Canada, a governor of the Montreal General Hospital and the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, and a member of the Metropolitan Board of the Montreal YMCA.

Appointment of Brig. Fulton to succeed Dr. Roberts was announced by the corporation of the university. He took up his new duties on June 1 and will be officially installed at special ceremonies next fall.

Brig. Fulton, vice-president for administration of Northern Electric Co. Ltd., is a graduate of Mount Allison and McGill universities.

He is an officer brother of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, a vice-president of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, a governor of the Montreal Technical Institute, a life governor of Montreal General Hospital and a director of the Metropolitan Board of the Montreal YMCA.

Canada's population is made up of 50.6 per cent males and 49.4 per cent females; in the Northwest Territories the proportion is 56 per cent men to 44 per cent women.

'65 Rotary Carnival has a 'fun' emphasis

June 15 is the big date — that's the day when Westmount Rotary Carnival gets away to what is expected to be its biggest week in all the 35-year history of the club.

That's right — Westmount Rotary Club is celebrating its 35th birthday this year, and as a celebration achievement the members are aiming for the biggest, brightest and best carnival yet.

And this isn't an easy mark at which to shoot — not at all.

Facing the challenge the special carnival committee is making 'FUN' the keynote of the carnival yet.

WE SAY

Mr. E. T. Asselin and the Press

MR. Edmund Tobin Asselin, Member of Parliament for neighboring Notre Dame de Grace, is an experienced politician.

How strange, then, he should attack the press, the very medium he has skillfully used in his climb to his present lofty — and exposed — eminence.

The press, he declares, unfairly attacks him still though he has been "cleared," he says, by court judgment in the Protestant School Board action which he invited the board to take.

He was, indeed, cleared on the specific claim against him.

Whereupon our two distinguished daily contemporaries, The Montreal Star and The Gazette, both reminded Mr. Asselin's constituents and the public generally that still left unanswered is the charge that he had made an "unconscionable" profit at the taxpayers' (the school board's) expense; that this is not a good thing; and that it is especially ungood in a public figure.

That others may have made like or even higher profits in similar land deals is irrelevant and doesn't make it right in this instance. To the average N.D.G. elector, $62,605.25 is a sum one works hard and long to earn and pay taxes on.

The Gazette slipped by saying that at the time Mr. Asselin was an M.P., and next day corrected — forgetting or failing to mention that Mr. Asselin was then in fact a Montreal City Councillor.

To our mind, this is highly pertinent since a city councillor should have even more reason than an M.P. to keep his personal business clearly separated from local municipal and, by association, school board affairs.

The Star has stood firm in its criticism.

Mr. Asselin has attacked The Star in the House of Commons.

He should know better. Successful public figures regard newspapers as friendly and useful, as has Mr. Asselin, when they are on the way up.

Wise ones continue to seek Press favor or at least neutrality once they have "arrived" and are exposed, fairly or unfairly, in situations both flattering and embarrassing. And those politicians who stay on top, popular and seemingly serene for decades, never never attack those who may have helped put and keep them there.

This is a good lesson for Westmount students of practical politics, being played out close at hand — in fact, by a man whose current residence on Northcliffe avenue lies within the new boundary of Westmount's federal constituency. (No threat to Mr. Drury; we understand Mr. Asselin is moving!)

More deeply, we believe Mr. Asselin has forgotten that, for all their failings, newspapers generally outpull politicians in the long-haul faith of readers-citizens-voters.

The Press ranks with Parliament and the Law as a cherished free institution. Mr. Asselin talked nonsense in the House Tuesday on Press opinion of an M.P. (himself) and a judgment. The Press is fulfilling its highest role when it is keeping a critical and jealous eye on Parliament and the Courts and on those in whose hands these precious trusts temporarily rest.

Samuel Bronfman has been elected by acclamation as honorary president of the Allied Jewish Community Services at the first general meeting of the new central organization for the Montreal Jewish community, Sunday night at the Windsor Hotel.

MUSIC For the very Young

Music for the Very Young is group music-making on instruments designed especially for children.

The pupil learns to play music with other children without theory, notation, scales or examinations.

Through free improvisation, orchestra work, singing and drumming, music becomes a second mother-tongue as well as a social activity.

To play together with a group requires flexibility, listening to the other players without depending on them. It is not only a musical but also a social achievement when the class develops into a little orchestra.

After a while the simpler forms of music-making are not sufficiently satisfying. The traditional instruments will now appear. With them comes notation and with music reading, the ensemble work steps into a new phase: chamber music with the combination of the group instruments and also the solo instruments. The class becomes a chamber orchestra with mostly a baroque and folk music repertoire.

Saul Levine, Mrs. Ben Mintz. The first president and executive officers of the Allied Jewish Community Services will be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Trustees which is expected to be held within the coming month.

CSPCA Says 'Thanks'

On behalf of the C.S.P.C.A. I would like to thank you very much for the publicity you gave us during Be Kind To Animals Week.

It is necessary to continually remind the general public of the need for humane treatment of animals and your assistance in the past and during Be Kind To Animals Week is greatly appreciated and most worthwhile.

Mrs. J. O. McCutcheon
Honorary Secretary

Irate reader waxes wroth!

Sir: After reading your editorial of May 28th concerning Mr. Pelletier's address to the Westmount Rotarians, my husband and I were appalled by the fact that the point of Mr. Pelletier's words had so evidently been missed, and by an editor who made the punch-line of his editorial an insistence that none of our travelling Rotarians had ever had battles with the police on Victoria Day. Really! Mr. Pelletier may be given credit, I am sure, for more intelligence than to have intended any such implication. Why not begin all over again by looking back at what Mr. Pelletier did mean?

As for the article in the same issue of The Examiner, reporting Mr. Pelletier's address, we wonder again at an editor who would allow a reporter to submit work riddled with such amazing English spelling, grammar and rhetoric. Again, really!

Very truly yours,
MRS. A. FRUEH

Louis H. Marrotte

Final tribute was paid recently to a former student of the old Westmount Academy and a McGill graduate of 1904 — the late Louis H. Marrotte, a retired superintending engineer of Hydro-Quebec's city stations division, who died at the age of 82.

Although born where Chaboillez Square now stands, he was well-known in the west-end of the city and was a long-time member of Knox-Crescent and Kensington Presbyterian Church.

Once associated with electrical companies in Ontario and in Georgia, he was with the old Montreal Light Heat and Power Company from 1916 to 1948 when he went on pension.

He was a member of the Quebec Corporation of Professional Engineers and the Engineering Institute of Canada.

He is survived by his wife, the former Louise Lawrence; two sons, Lt. Col. Gordon Marrotte and Albert, a brother, Edgar and three grandchildren.

Burial was in Mount Royal Cemetery.

Mrs. D. M. Riddle

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Douglas Munroe also survived by a sister-in-law Riddle, who was buried this week Margaret Riddle MacLeod of Victoria, B.C. She was a daughter of the late Rev. Arthur Watson Main, founder of the former Main Memorial Church in Point St. Charles.

She was 77. Mother of Douglas Bayne Riddle of Westmount and John Ar-

WESTMOUNT ROTARIANS have really begin to step up the pace of their preparations for the June 15-19 carnival and if you see a member of the club with paint on his hands there may be a good reason . . . the skating rink staff at the Glen are expecting the Rotarians to move in early next week to start preparing the spot for the five-day extravaganza . . . Frank Carlin, Frank Starr, Phil Everson and a half-dozen more straw-bosses have started turning on the heat and mean to keep it up till c-day, which, of course, is Carnival Day, June 15, the opener.

Leslie Roberts, well-known scribe and radio voice has joined the long list of pen-pushers who finally get down to posing for photos while opening book-shops . . . he officiated recently at the opening of Julian Wedgewood's new emporium on Sherbrooke street west . . . Westmount stores will now be able to stay open evenings on the eve of a holiday, when the holiday falls on a day on which they would have remained open in the evening, notice having been received officially from a superior government to that effect.

Union of Christendom hope of Rev. J. N. Doidge

Rev. John N. Doidge, rector of St. Matthias Church, Cote St. Antoine Road, is well ahead of the latest church-union document which forecasts "one organizational structure" for the Anglican and United Churches.

He's looking ahead to "the eventual union of all Christendom" but he doesn't think it will come overnight.

Interviewed this week on the latest church-union document, Mr. Doidge said he had no special pre-publication copy to go by, and has read of it only in the newspapers, though he was well aware of the movement for union which has been in the talk stage for years with not too much apparent action until now. Mr. Doidge added, however, that in his opinion it was essential to make haste slowly, so as not to set up some barrier, in the union of the Anglican and United Churches that might make it more difficult for other Christian communities to be added later.

The document entitled: "The Principles of Union Between The Anglican Church of Canada and The United Church of Canada," is the work of two Committees of Ten of the parent organizations, and will be presented to the General Synod of The Anglican Church which meets in Vancouver in August of this year, and the General Council of the United Church which will meet in Waterloo, Ontario, in September of 1966.

The report begins by announcing that the two Committees have reached "full and unanimous agreement" on the principles of faith and order, and on the principles that should govern union. It points out that if the two churches are agreed in principle, there is nothing to prevent them from coming together in fact. The report concludes with a recommendation that "the two churches enter into a solemn and formal commitment to proceed immediately to prepare concrete and detailed plans for organizational union."

Spokesmen for the two churches here hailed the report as a major break-through in the long struggle to bring the two communions together. They spoke with pride and gratification about the thoroughness of the report, and the precise phraseology used in spelling out the principles upon which such a plan must be built.

They pointed to the following paragraph as one of the main keys to the break-through that has been achieved. "We are united in our intention to bring into being, not a merger of two existing ecclesiastical bodies, but rather a new embodiment of the One Church of God."

News of St. Leo's, St. Paul's

Well, after long, arduous hours of cramming facts and figures, the fourth high students of both St. Leo's and St. Paul's have finished their final exams. Their last exam, French Grammar and Composition, was written this afternoon. At 3:30 p.m. today, the seniors should be extremely happy and relieved, that is until the reports arrive in a few weeks!

Third high are scheduled to begin writing exams on Monday, with senior metric in Canadian History.

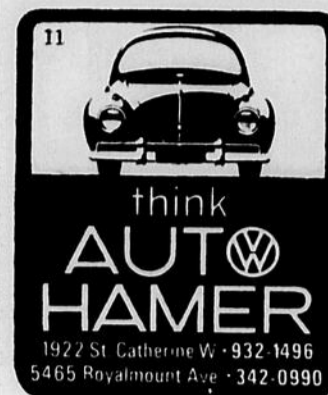

Amidst the excitement and worry of this past week, there was a note of sadness among all the pupils of St. Paul's. Their beloved Superior, the very Reverend Sister St. Francois, passed ing. This was Sister St. Francois' first year at St. Paul's, and during the year she certainly did her utmost to help the pupils, and to participate in student activities, one of her favorite being the basketball games. Funeral away suddenly on Saturday morning was held Tuesday morning at the C.N.D. Mother House. — Beverly Jones.

Wright - Macarthur

The marriage of Dorothy Jean, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Macarthur, of Westmount, to Mr. David Cushing Wright, son of Mrs. A. J. D. Wright and of the late Mr. Wright of Westmount, took place recently in Dominion-Douglas Church, Westmount, the Rev. R. Douglas Smith, DD, officiating. Mr. John Robb played the wedding music and standards of white snapdragons, daisy chrysanthemums and lilacs with dark green foliage, were used to decorate the church.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was in a gown of antique satin, fashioned on empire lines, the skirt falling into a cathedral train. Her fingertip-length veil of tulle illusion was held by a circlet of matching satin and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Janet Macarthur, as maid of honor for her sister, and Mrs. Gary Sharpe, Mrs. John Walker and Miss Marjory Wright, as attendants, were in frocks of coral shantung, fashioned on empire lines. They wore matching head-dresses and carried bouquets of white baby chrysanthemums and greenery.

Master Jimmy Macarthur, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Mr. Anthony van Blokland acted as best man for his brother-in-law, and the ushers were Mr. Ronald Wright, brother of the bridegroom, Mr. Nicholas Le-moine and Mr. John Walker.

Following a reception at the St. George Club, Mr. and Mrs. Wright left on their wedding trip, the bride travelling in a suit of off-white under a pale blue coat and wearing black accessories.

and an enjoyable lunch in the Parliament Buildings. Also included in the trip, was a very interesting visit to the mint.

On committee for Montreal Hadassah-Wizo Bal Aviv are Mrs. Martin Markowitz, chairman of the ball patrons committee; Mrs. C. Shapiro, B. Lieberman, A. Landsman, decorations committee; Mrs. S. Persky and Mrs. Meyer Wenger, ticket chairman; Mrs. Marvin Schachter publicity chairman; Mrs. Louis Steinfeld. President of Mtl. Hadassah is Mrs. Herbert Sacks.

Red Cross volunteer hospital visitors remember our hospitalized veterans by bringing them cheer and companionship during regular bedside visits throughout the year.

ADMIRING THE JUNIPERS at Westmount Conservatory are Ian Scobell, Mrs. Mackay Smith and Susan Hamilton, committee members for the annual Champagne and Strawberries dance to be held on Friday, June 11, in the Museum garden. Flowers, lights, balloons and lanterns will highlight the garden which plays its last role in this event before the expansion of the Museum causes its disappearance. The public is invited and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Mackay Smith, at 19 Renfrew avenue, Montreal 6, HU. 2-5442.

Miss Andrée Charest
weds Jean Rinfret Jr.

The marriage of Andrée, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clément Charest, of the Town of Mount Royal, to Mr. Jean Rinfret, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Rinfret, of Westmount, took place recently in St. Joseph de Mont Royal Church, the Rev. Father Norbert Lacoste officiating. Mr. U. Jacques Saucier sang during the service and seasonal white flowers were used to decorate the church.

The bride who was given away by her father, was in a gown of pale blue poul de soie, fashioned on princess lines, the bodice, fastened with tiny buttons from the Chinese collar to the hemline, having long fitted sleeves and the skirt falling into a train. Her veil of tulle illusion was held by a soft blue bow and she carried a bouquet of dark blue cornflowers with bristle fairy.

ATTENDANTS

Little Miss Marie Rinfret, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Suzanne Rinfret, cousin of the bridegroom and Miss Michèle Brière, cousin of the bride, as flower-girls, wore pale blue poul de soie frocks, similar to the bride's gown, with little kerchief headdresses. They carried bouquets of dark blue cornflowers.

Mr. Andy Hamilton acted as best man for Mr. Rinfret, and the ushers were Mr. Denis Charest, brother of the bride, Mr. Pierre Rinfret, brother of the bridegroom and Mr. Daniel de Yturralde.

Mrs. Charest, mother of the bride, was in a gown of blue-grey lace, the bodice having long sleeves, and wore a matching hat.

mother, wore a Raoul Jean Fouré model of mousseline de soie in two shades of blue, under a matelasse coat, with a Breton hat in the same shades.

RECEPTION

Following a reception at the Social Centre of the University of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Rinfret left for Nassau, The Bahamas, the bride travelling in a frock of soft pink crepe, under a navy blue coat, and wearing a pink hat and navy blue accessories.

Objects of art for show, home

Flower Design with Accessories, by Merelle Soutar. Published by D. Van Nostrand Company (Canada) Limited. 167 pp. and appendix. $6.95.

An appendix of twenty ideas for using accessories has been included in this book of sumptuous array of beautiful objects of art, to help the novice meet the exacting standards of today's competitive field.

Mrs. Soutar tells in detail and illustrates what can be done with driftwood, using a little imagination and ingenuity — with figurines combined with flowers or small objects of art. Art illustrations are clear and simple to follow.

She discusses the origin of flower arranging terms, how to make a flower composition for show or for home display, how to recognize a good accessory, use drapes, relate textures and hues and apply all these skills in the home or for competitions.

The author, Merelle Soutar, has taught art in London, and all over Britain for many years. She has contributed articles to a number of magazines and is the author of two successful books on flower arrangement.

This book is beautifully illustrated, is instructive, and should appeal to novices as well as experts.

The Rosemount Boys' Club were the winners in 1957 and the Dawson Boys' Club of Verdun in 1962.

The Unity Track and Field Meet is open to boys and girls from eight years of age to sixteen and the events include: 100 yard dash, 220, 440, softball throw, 440 relays, high jump, broad jump, hop, step and jump, 1/2 mile and as a special feature the one mile open.

Fernand Nault named

Preparing for its fall and winter seasons Les Grands Ballets Canadiens has announced the appointments of Fernand Nault as assistant artistic director of the company and Brydon Paige as resident choreographer.

In making the announcement Uriel Luft, company general manager, said that these appointments are a part of a general rounding out of artistic requirements in the over all on-going program of company development. Mr. Luft pointed out that, although the company had reached a level of wide acclaim, it must spread the artistic goals as broadly as possible to attain a balanced programme in keeping with the trend toward satisfying not only the sophisticated audience who have provided the nucleus of earlier company support but the new audience of people who have come to the theatre for the first time since Les Grands Ballets Canadiens was formed.

He said that Mme. Ludmila Chiriaeff, founder and artistic director of the company, although broadly international in education and ballet training has always been idealistic, and realistically so, about maintaining the stream of Canadian born choreographers and dancers within the structure of the company.

Fernand Nault, is Montreal-born. Following three years of Canadian army service during World War II, he was one of numerous young people who were forced to go elsewhere to seek a dancing career because Montreal was without a professional ballet company.

He chose New York City and studied for a time with the A. Vilzak School, later joining the American Theatre Ballet Company as a dancer, leading up to soloist, star character dancer, assistant ballet master and finally ballet master.

With the American Ballet Theatre for some 20 years, he has danced in every country in Europe and in 1960 was the first dancer from the western world to go to Russia, teaching both at the Kirov-Leningrad School and the Bolshoi, and has made a variety of tours in South American countries.

Some of his better known choreographies are: Carmina Burana; Lonely Ones, from ideas adapted from Steig cartoons; Cyclic from music by Morton Gould; and Roundabout which he did for the Robert Joffrey Company in New York.

In 1963, he did Nutcracker for the Louisville Civic Ballet Company and in 1964 interrupted a South American tour to do Nutcracker for Les Grands Ballets Canadiens.

Brydon Paige is Vancouver-born and is among the few who remained in Canada for much of his training. He started with Kay Armstrong in his native city, and early in his career danced in three Dominion Ballet Festivals, as well as in the well known Stanley Park Theatre Under the Stars in Vancouver. He got an early start professionally dancing in C.B.C. T.V. productions during the early years of programming.

He has been a member of Les Grands Ballets Canadiens since its beginning as soloist and in 1964 was appointed assistant ballet master.

Brydon Paige has shown a marked gift for choreography and shows this in his interpretation for Espagnola which is a feature production in the company's repertoire. He also created Medea, with its electronic sound track, for last year's programme which reached such popularity that he left for Portugal Wednesday June 2nd, to stage it for the national company there. As a dancer he has become extremely well known for his interpretations of character roles in ballets such as Commedia dell'Arte, Fille mal gardée, Cinderella and Graduation Ball.

He is very versatile in his artistic endeavors and as a side line he has for the past five years been choreographer for the Montreal Alouette football game Half-time Shows.

Continuing as the company's Artistic Advisor is Irish born Anton Dolin who is recognized as the greatest English Dancer of the past half century, and who for many years partnered with Alicia Markova and created the Markova-Dolin Company. Ballet Mistress is Milenka Niderlova, who has a leading dancer at the Theatre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels. Company manager is Roger Rochon, well known French-Canadian dancer, and one of the first member of the National company.

Total spending of public funds by all levels of government in Canada in 1964 was $14.5 billion, compared to $7.3 billion ten years earlier.

Who says that le Chantecler isn't the most expensive resort in the Laurentians?

We do, somewhat shamefacedly. Mind you, it should be, because you get so much more at le Chantecler. More luxury. More sheer resort life pleasure. More delight in those fabulous meals by Chef Carlo. More all-round friendly charm all-round the year. And more fun facilities being added all the time! With all its country club air, no wonder some think le Chantecler costs mountains to visit. Come to think of it, maybe we should raise our prices. We hate to disappoint all those people who think that a place so exclusive must be expensive!

O'Keefe golf is extensive

An extended program of program tournaments, a new series of tournaments for women golfers, and cash purses of over $12,000 for Quebec's golf pros are among the highlights of the 1965 O'Keefe sponsored Quebec amateur and professional golf circuit announced by the brewery.

The basic amateur tournament circuit of 12 regional or zone championship matches leading to the O'Keefe Quebec Amateur Medal Play Championship has been retained from previous years. Constantly increasing attendance at the popular zone championship events, however, has resulted in the scheduling of the regional tournaments on two days, in 8 of the 12 zones.

On the two day schedule Class B and C golfers will play on Saturday, and Class A on Sunday. In the four one-day tournament areas, all classes of golfers will play on Sunday.

As a new feature of the 1965 O'Keefe circuit, an additional amateur tournament has been scheduled for women golfers in each of the regional zones. The women's tournament will be held on the Friday or Saturday immediately preceding the first day of the men's tournament, in each zone. Play in the women's tournaments, as in the men's, will be for trophies and merchandise prizes.

Commenting on the new women's circuit, John C. Costigan, Honorary Secretary of the CPGA of Quebec, and Director of the O'Keefe Quebec Circuit, said: "The scheduling of a women's tournament in each of the 12 provincial zones is a first step toward what we hope will be a full separate women's provincial championship tournament series."

"Golf is increasingly becoming a popular women's sport and it is our desire to provide Quebec's ladies with the same tournament facilities we are providing the men, if there appears to be a need for them," he continued.

The regional 1965 amateur schedule starts with the Montreal zone tournament, today, Saturday and Sunday at Ste. Dorothee and runs through to the Montreal South Shore Zone matches on August 13, 14 and 15 at Sorel-Tracey.

RELIGION

How to fight prejudice? With religion, said Dr. Goldbloom, asking "How well do we know the Bible?" The Bible, he said, is exquisite literature, sublime poetry, magnificent philosophy, the basis of much ethical teaching.

Speaking of hatreds, he said "the hater is the one who gets hurt, not the hated" and added that a man hates because of some deep hurt in his soul.

In conclusion, he advised, "when you hate, and try to rationalize your hatred, remember this phrase — let us not mistake the throbbing of an abscess for the beating of a heart".

Carnival . . .

1965 extravaganza, and is leaving few stones unturned to round up a galaxy of events that will make the carnival all the more memorable.

As in recent years, the carnival is scheduled for five days — June 15 to 19 inclusive and will be held again in the mammoth indoor skating rink in the southwest corner of Westmount Park, at St. Catherine street.

For several weeks, members of the committee have spent evenings embellishing the various booth structures and designing the over-all decor that will translate the big rink into a veritable circust-ent atmosphere, and many entertainment-type features are being added to the general plan.

The carnival this year is being designed to provide fun for the whole family, it is announced by the committee heads, and with this in mind the accent has been switched somewhat so as to appeal more completely to the younger set.

In the ten years from 1955 to 1964 total registrations of motor vehicles in Canada increased from 3,948,652 to nearly 6,450,000.

Tennis instruction for city residents

The City of Westmount Recreation Department will be holding Tennis instruction periods during the months of July and August.

Professional instructors supplied by the Province of Quebec Lawn Tennis Association and under the direction of Lucien Lavardure will be doing the teaching.

Players must have their own racket and three marked tennis balls. It would also be appreciated if all players dressed in white. Tennis shoes are absolutely necessary.

Registration fee must be paid by Friday, June 25th, at the recreation department office, at the artificial rink.

Students will receive awards and prizes for their year's scholastic achievements at the ceremonies.

Check your car before a trip

Have your car safety checked before you start your holiday trip and invest in a safe return, urges John Atkinson, general chairman of the Canadian Highway Safety Council; "Above all, fasten your seat belts every time you drive or ride in a car," Mr. Atkinson warned.

Start your holiday trip early, recommends Atkinson. Take time to take it easy, so that you can enjoy it.

Lorne Greene honored at Bond dinner here

Thursday a Testimonial Dinner was held in the Grand Salon of the Queen Elizabeth Hotel, sponsored by the State of Israel Bond Organization.

Guest of honour was Lorne Greene (Ben Cartwright of Bonanza) who was accompanied by his wife and mother.

The purpose of the dinner was to promote the sale of the State of Israel Bonds and also the collection of funds from past pledges. There was a turnout of approximately 1,100 people representing the various Jewish communities of Greater Montreal. Senior chairmen of the State of Israel Bond Organization were very pleased with the over-all turnout.

On hand, along with other distinguished guests were Mark Thatcher, (known in the United States as Kenny Karen, a well known popular recording star) who gave a magnificent performance. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Sally Lazare a well known Montreal musician, whose brilliant accompaniment also deserves words of high praise. Mr. Thatcher's singing and overall performance was especially highlighted by Mr. Greene's opening remarks: "Never have I been so moved, in so short a time, by two so young and talented performers. So gifted, and . . . ooh so young!" Mr. Greene was also referring to 16-year-old Pinchus Zuckerman a young and accomplished violinist who was accompanied at the piano by Mr. Anthony Makas, an outstanding American pianist.

Also present, was J. Alphonse Ouimet, President of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation who reminisced about Mr. Greene's past association with the CBC. He referred to Mr. Greene's wartime newscasts where he was known to most Canadians as The Voice of Doom.

Following Mr. Ouimet was George I. Harrison, vice-president, Record Division, RCA Victor Company, who made a short address on Mr. Greene's contribution to the record industry. He also announced that Mr. Greene, that afternoon, had been named "TV Father of the Year" by the Father of the Year convention, held at the Waldorf Astoria in New York.

Edwin Friendly Jr., Vice-President, Special Programs NBC, gave a short address on the popularity of the TV series "Bonanza." He informed us that Bonanza is the number one rated television series in the world today and that it is dubbed in 17 foreign languages throughout the world.

Mr. Greene's remarks were along the humorous side and he certainly came up with some rib-tickling Jewish stories. He stated that tragedy and humor go hand in hand with the Jewish people; throughout the ages, the Jewish people have been the consistent targets of depression, atrocities, and disaster and that today the Jewish heritage has learned to take and live with these facts. The Jewish sense of humor, he added, is unique in that a Jew will laugh not only when he is happy, but also when he is sad, and he has learned down through the ages that there is nothing else he can do. He said when a Jew laughs, it is a laugh of happiness or an attempt to curb sorrow, but when a Jew sighs ("crechtz") this is something else. He puts his whole heart into it! He then gave some very audible and hilarious demonstrations which appealed to the entire audience and was noted by their loud laughing responses.

A sterling silver plaque bearing the map of the State of Israel was presented to Lorne Greene, Star of TV's "Bonanza," by Mr. Milton L. Klein, Q.C., M.P., chairman, board of directors, Montreal Israel Organization. The plaque was inscribed:

"Presented to Lorne Greene by the State of Israel Bonds, Canada, in tribute to a dedicated son and servant of his people for his generous and devoted personal interest in the welfare and development of the State of Israel."

It was signed by Samuel Bronfman, President of State of Israel Bonds in Canada; Sam J. Davidson, Montreal chairman; and D. Lou Harris, national chairman.

In a later interview, Mr. Greene confirmed the story of Pernel Roberts' (Adam Cartwright of Bonanza) intentions of leaving the show. Asked if this would affect the image of the close-knit family that "Bonanza" has created, he stated that it would not as Roberts' appearances in the past on the show were few and infrequent and that the future plans were to refer to him occasionally as though he were away on a trip. Mr. Greene also stated that there were no future changes to the "Bonanza" show in sight.
