May 28 to June 4

Mainly fair and bright. Days hot but some risk of gusty winds and night showers, with thunder. Morning mists probable. High humidity, with a wide temperature range of 35 to 75 or even 80°F this week, with 65 sunny hours.

Generally sunny and quite warm into the middle of the week, with cooling breezes, heavy dews and risk of thunderstorms. Delicate plants should be protected from cold dews to avoid frost damage. Gales around the Great Lakes, the northern States and the Townships, with risk of thunder and hail.

A little drizzle or wet mountain mists, but improving generally for the end of the week with warm days and cool nights. Fishing good all day.

INTRUSION OF PRIVACY: Leo Lefebvre, peacefully attending the Unity Boys' Club annual Talent Caravan and Hobby Exhibition last Friday night, took exception to Photographer Ernie Capstick's intrusion while he was enjoying a well-earned soft drink. House painting hobbies

By VALENTINA RAHR

People all over the world have unusual hobbies, and it is interesting to note, says one authority, that a person's hobby very often provides a healthy outlet for excess energy.

A unique hobby is that of Mrs. Walter Jackson, Argyle avenue. "I paint houses," says this petite, well-groomed woman.

And of course everyone assumes that she paints pictures of houses. But her remark is as literal as can be. Mrs. Jackson actually paints houses for her relatives and friends, while visiting them. They buy the paint and supplies, and she climbs up a ladder and paints the exterior of the residence where she happens to be staying.

"I love climbing up to the second storey," she adds with an engaging smile. "It's so exciting.

And the houses look so much prettier after the work is finished."

In her own comfortable living room on Argyle avenue, she painted the walls in about four hours one evening, "just on the spur of the moment."

What makes the above more commendable, is that both Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson have reached an age when most couples have terminated many strenuous activities.

Almost anytime that a well known landmark is demolished, a rash of stories appear about that particular spot. St. Catherine street near the Westmount Athletic Grounds, is no exception.

It seems that many years ago some little tots, wandering away from their mother while shopping in a downtown department store, walked along until they came to a row of houses that stood along St. Catherine street just east of the W.A.G. The weather was cold, and the children rang a doorbell and hoped to get shelter. But as they spoke French, and the woman who opened the door did not, they wandered off again.

The next morning, they were found huddled together under one of the balconies, frozen to death. The tragedy was supposed to have occurred around Christmastime.

Sunday, June 12, will be "Family Sunday," in the Church of the Messiah. Children and parents will attend the service together. This day will mark the closing of the church school for the summer months, and no classes will be held until the Fall. Retiring chairman of the church school committee is R. G. Goddard, Burton avenue. Newly appointed J. Churcher, Ingleside avenue, will replace Mr. Goddard.

Swimming pool, other works program in plan

A swimming pool in Westmount is getting closer to reality as the result of the first reading of the second draft of a motion providing funds for civic improvements, including $150,000 for a swimming pool at Council Tuesday night.

The total works program will be $1,724,000. $310,000 of this will come from an excess of money left over from previous work programs. In short, costs were less than estimates or funds provided for the work. The balance, $1,414,000, will be raised by debenture when and if necessary at a rate of interest to be later decided.

The loan for roads, sidewalks, of roadway, roadway improvements and subway reconditioning on St. Antoine, Grosvenor, St. Antoine, Victoria and Westmount avenues and other locations; discounts, etc.; total $102,000.

The list of works is broken down into four groups:

Group one — Public Works automotive equipment; office equipment; radar speed meter equipment; tree spraying equipment; traffic lights; renovations and rehabilitation of facilities at Westmount Athletic Grounds; resurfacing roadways; discounts, debenture issue expenses and contingencies; total $313,000.

Group two — Reconstruction

You can be sure of your booking before leaving by calling HU. 1-2771

Group three — Sidewalk improvements, reconstruction, replacements for Grosvenor, St. Antoine, Victoria and Westmount avenues and other locations; discounts, etc.; total $158,000.

Group four — Buildings and grandstands at the Westmount Athletic Grounds; municipal buildings, improvements, additions and extensions thereto at City Hall, City Hall Annex, the Police and Fire Station, and the purchase and remodelling of the land and building at 95 Cote St. Antoine road; swimming pool; discounts, etc.; $1,151,000.

GROUP FOUR

The fourth group in the list is by far the largest, and probably the most important. A further breakdown of this portion of the list shows, besides the $150,000 swimming pool estimate, $40,000 for work on buildings and grandstands at the Westmount Athletic Grounds, which will soon be in reality the Westmount High School.

Under the general buildings, renovations and improvements section of the group is an unnamed amount for the purchase and remodelling of the land and building at 95 Cote St. Antoine road — the present Westmount Senior High School.

Mayor J. C. Cushing, at his "State of the City" talk to the Westmount Municipal Association earlier this month said the City should think about the possible purchase of the building for expansion of offices in the City Hall.

Previous to that, when news was announced that tenders had been let for the new High School, a request for the donation, or purchase, of the old school as a home for retired Protestant teachers was turned down.

Council has maintained they have not had a preliminary plan for the swimming pool; no idea of what type they will build; where it may be built; whether the people want it; if it will be built.

WHO PAYS?

As always, when civic works programs are to be carried out, the question arises, who pays?

Council has provided for payment of interest and principal on the debentures by a special general assessment against the taxable immovable property of the whole City each year according to the Valuation roll.

The amount of the tax has not been set, but will be decided as the debentures are raised.

AWARD WINNERS: Mr. and Mrs. Dave Youngston look over some of the award winning hobby exhibits at the Unity Boys' Club last Friday night. The Club members put on a good show for parents and friends. Mr. Youngston is honorary treasurer of the Club, and a Rotarian. Mrs. Youngston is in charge of the Club library. —Tedd Church Photo

City light and power gets $1,000,000 boost

Westmount City Council Tuesday night provided for a loan of $1,000,000 to go with its works surplus over costs of $55,000 to provide for extensions and improvement of street lighting, the electric light and power system, and the purchase of equipment for the electric light and power department sometime during the next year.

Provisions for the loan are set out in two groups of estimates:

Group one — Metering equipment, $30,000; water heaters, $90,000; instruments, shop and radio equipment, $17,000; automotive equipment, $20,000; discounts, debenture issue expenses and contingencies, $15,000, for a total of $172,000.

Group two — Various laterals, 12 KV distribution, conduits at various locations, distribution transformers, poles, sub-station switchgear and installation, sub-station improvements, and a tie cable at Olivier and Glen substations will total $657,100 of the $1,059,000 group grand total.

Street lighting will be improved on Grosvenor north of The Boulevard; Victoria north of The Boulevard; Sunnyside from Bellevue to Belvedere; Belvedere from The Boulevard to Sunnyside; St. Antoine street; Lansdowne from Westmount avenue to The Boulevard; Greene from Dorchester to St. Catherine; Dorchester; Atwater from St. Antoine to Dorchester; Clarke from St. Catherine to Sherbrooke; Edgehill and part of Lexington.

This bylaw, providing for such substantial public works, is part of a long-time Westmount policy of bringing up to date its light and power system, as well as its street lighting in some of the older areas.

In order to pay for the debentures to be raised, Council has reserved the right to use, when necessary,

Quick action on fire call saves tankers

The prompt action of the Westmount Fire Department in answering a call for a fire at the Merchant Coal Company, 4 Hillside, averted a possible disaster Tuesday night when flames from a shed threatened to spread to three gas tankers parked nearby.

The call to the department was placed by Sam Gardner, a caretaker of the Hillside Armory where the 11th Signals Regiment was holding a parade, who, with George DuVall, steward in the Officer Mess, noticed what appeared at first to be steam coming from the coal company and contacted police.

In less than three minutes the fire fighters were on the scene and quickly brought the blaze under control.

Chief Harper reported Wednesday that a coal and sacking storage shed in the rear of the main building was damaged, but that a fire earlier in the morning with nobody about to give a prompt alarm could have resulted in far more damage.

Armed troops urged to curb bank raids

COUUPLE of years ago Judge Bernard Rose, a frequent contributor to these columns, made a suggestion worthy of more consideration then and calling for urgent study now.

The Montreal area at that time was in the grip of a wave of bank holdups.

Judge Rose urged collaboration by the various levels of government whereby our peacetime soldiery would be employed on sentry duty at the various banks dotting the metropolitan area — in uniform, armed, and ready to shoot if necessary.

The real problem then, as now, is the chronic shortage of policemen.

Let there be no doubt, there is a state of emergency in Canada's metropolis, even if it has not been officially declared.

The tragic death Friday of Bank of Montreal Manager Royce Smith by hoodlums robbing his Darlington bank struck very close to home. When utter bums can shoot leading citizens — Mr. Smith was just that: a church and community leader and respected bank officer — then the situation is little short of anarchy.

If the victim had been a political leader, and the motive assassination instead of robbery, a state of emergency undoubtedly would be declared.

If human life is sacred and public safety is the first duty of authority, then the underworld has presented authority with a challenge.

Police Director Langlois would have much support if he were to seek, through the proper City, Provincial and Federal channels, for employment of the militia in an all-out move against crimes of violence.

Banditry calls for drastic actions

Sir:—Armed and brutal banditry has reached an all-time high in this city. The murder of a highly respected citizen, who endeavored to frustrate the robbing of the bank of which he was manager, has shocked the whole community. After committing the murder the trio entered the bank and stole all available cash.

The despicable and cowardly cur who killed a brave and upright citizen, together with his accomplices, had evidently made up his mind that nothing would be allowed to stand in his way when he participated in the hold-up.

The present situation calls for drastic and urgent action on the part of governments on all levels. I have all along contended that banditry can be curbed if the authorities will take the necessary steps to deal with the crime epidemic. I have, with your kind co-operation in printing letters addressed to you, suggested what these measures should be. I regret to say, that the apathy of the public and important organizations has made the situation more difficult for the police to whom we look for protection of life and property.

I have for several years expressed the view that major crimes, those committed by armed bandits, could be substantially reduced if it was made almost impossible for lawbreakers to obtain revolvers or other lethal weapons. Through your columns I advocated that the manufacture, importation, and distribution of revolvers should be an absolute government monopoly. Further, that no persons be allowed to enter Canada in possession of a lethal weapon of any description. This should apply to visitors and immigrants whether they enter by rail, car, plane, or ship. If possessing a revolver, it should be delivered to a government officer to be returned when they depart, and, in the case of an immigrant, confiscated.

Possessors of a weapon should likewise declare under oath they have no other weapons of an offensive nature. A false statement should be severely punished.

It should likewise be made mandatory for judges and magistrates to impose penalties so severe that they would constitute a deterrent. We must not forget that the armed thug is a potential killer who is not entitled to the slightest consideration. He is a social outlaw since he is a constant menace to the person and property.

We have gone altogether too far in our leniency toward potential murderers. In other words, we save them from the gallows and bury their victims in the cemetery.

The law breaker is a serious liability, hence the duty of both police and public is to reduce it to as near zero as possible. In the matter of protection for our banks, to which they are fully entitled, since they are heavy taxpayers and trustees of the funds deposited with them; I suggest that during the epidemic two armed soldiers with loaded rifles and bayonets, and revolvers in their holsters, should be stationed in each branch bank. Thugs would hardly dare enter and hold up a bank thus protected. There are thousands of soldiers available in this and other provinces to perform this duty. The Canadian Bankers Association should make representations in this connection to the Federal Government.

When an epidemic takes place affecting the health and lives of the people, the government takes the necessary action to meet it. A like situation now confronts the people who are the prey of bandits, and the government is justified in taking the necessary steps legislatively and administratively to let the bandits know that crime does not pay.

Military training for all teen-agers

Sir: Re: hoodlums. Don't you think it's about time psychiatrists, and sociologists realize they've been pampering, excusing teenage acts long enough?

There may be good in everyone, but those who want to play rough should be dealt with in the same manner. Don't forget there'll be another crop of tough ones tomorrow. If the first ones could get away with but a slight reprimand, why not they?

You'll probably argue that it's their first time. Yes, the first time they've been caught. They finally get to do big things because they slowly build up to it by committing small irresponsible acts and were gently scolded.

Of one thing I'm sure, don't ever abolish capital punishment because these tough teenagers will certainly feel free to let themselves go all the way.

The best thing that could happen in this country is military training, where discipline is rigidly enforced, and that's what is lacking here — discipline and respect for authority.

You say

Teachers' degraded is student's claim

Sir: On Thursday, May 19, 1960, on page four, column one, under the heading of "We Say", an article appeared degrading our teachers. After reading this distasteful work I waited for five hours to cool off before writing to you.

Below are listed some behind the scenes facts:

A) Teachers in outside or in other business would earn $10,000 NOT $4-6,000, by the way $6,500 or near there is the most teachers in high schools may earn.

B) Holidays at Easter and Christmas are either spent correcting exams, or if they have been done earlier possibly a few lost hours of sleep may be caught up; also if exams are corrected before these holidays, our teachers must prepare next term's work.

Summer holidays are not spent at the beach, but most teachers are attending summer courses so that they may be fully prepared for next year's class, on modern methods, better teaching aids.

C) Hours: — From nine to three are the actual school hours with the R.C. going from eight to four or nine to four. These are only school hours, no one thinks of the extra NON-PAID time spent at home, correcting papers, and for planning the next day's lessons, making notes for the students.

D) Best terms they can get: — Simply quit teaching and go into another business where more money would be earned, but instead of doing this OUR teachers spend most of their time helping if asked by students, after school, doing their best with in many cases improper, unfit, unuseable tools, books, blackboards, desks, which do not help one in trying to receive a better education but rather hinder them.

I do not have the slightest hope of my letter being published, for even though you are in the wrong, you don't have to admit it to the public, and therefore will let the matter drop rather than facing up, and making the best of a bad thing.

Personally, if any more such articles appear, without any objection being raised, and being published, your paper as far as I am concerned may stop coming to our house, for we are not interested in degrading GOOD PEOPLE, but doing something about the bad is our concern.

Prof. Christie hired by City as consultant

Professor C. V. Christie has been engaged by the City of Westmount as a consulting engineer for the design and office supervision of the third power transformer and controlling switchgear to be installed at Park Substation, and as a consulting engineer for the design of a 12 KV switching station.

The motion, making the hiring official, was made by Alderman Backler in Tuesday night's City Council meeting.

The same motion authorized a payment of $5,000 to Professor Christie for fees of services rendered in the reinforcement of infeed arrangements at Glen and Olivier Substations, and with the third benchboard section for the Glen Substation.

The motion concluded with: "The fees for this work consulting engineer to be at the minimum rates published by the Corporation of Professional Engineers of the Province of Quebec."

Victoria Hall to get new floor covers

The Westmount City Council Tuesday night approved the expenditure of $3,315 from By-law 616 to provide for the supply and installation of new floor coverings in the Oak, Green and Banquet rooms of Victoria Hall.

The expenditure will be part of a modernization program which will eventually include a completely new heating system and other works.

The expense of $240 for two special four-door filing cabinets for use in the Finance Department was also approved.

Alderman Common explained that some years ago a change-over was made from books to card ledgers for both the Appropriation Ledger and the Earning Record of Employees and that the new cabinets were required to house the records for past years.

Sirens to warn of nuclear attack

By LARRY McINNIS

Starting sometime this Fall — probably in September — people in Westmount will hear the wail of powerful sirens installed by the Army to provide warning in the case of nuclear or thermo-nuclear attack.

The sirens will be part of an over-all plan for Montreal and vicinity, using 65 devices in total.

In Westmount the proposed site of the tower is atop the YMCA building on Sherbrooke street.

Lt.-Col. James Lang, Command Engineer, Quebec Command, announced today that the sirens should be in place by September and the first practices held sometime soon after that—barring further opposition from some citizens.

"It has long been the contention that most people are out for what they can get," he said, "but we've found that most of the people we've asked have given us permission to install the sirens because they consider it their civic, or patriotic, duty."

The sirens, 10 h.p. models, will be installed on government or civic buildings where practical, but in some cases this cannot be done because it would not fit in with the overall plan.

The Royal Canadian Engineers have been making a study of noise levels in and around Montreal for some time, and they have finally completed the survey as to the best locations for the warning devices. The effectiveness of the sirens ranges from one-quarter to one mile, depending on the level of the buildings in the area, topography, traffic noise level and many variables.

According to the terms of an Order in Council dated September 1, 1959, the Army is responsible, among other things to provide warning in case of attack. The sirens represent the first step.

Other plans, to be introduced soon, are sketches of home-made fallout centres, which can be easily and cheaply built by home-owners. One has been built as a demonstration model at the 3rd Field Engineers Armoury on Hillside in Westmount.

Once the Engineers get permission to install the sirens, they must make agreements with the power authorities, and they are looking for some effective method of warning the public of their intention to conduct practical tests at regular intervals.

Actually, the idea of installing sirens as a warning device is not new. The City of Montreal did some extensive work on it in the past, but did not carry it through.

PUBLIC APATHY

Although Lt. Col. Lang said most people were co-operative about the installation of the sirens, the public is apathetic about the value of warning, or the possibility of survival. Montreal should have about three hours advance notice of attack from manned aircraft.

But what about missiles? "We don't think there are too many of them around right now," he said.

Army authorities, working on a bomb the same size as the one dropped on Hiroshima, believe that the top of Mount Royal will be the target area because of the greater explosion effect. In any case, everything in a radius of 15 miles from this point will be destroyed or severely damaged.

However, with adequate warning, which the Army is rapidly trying to provide, people who have been foresighted enough to provide for an attack with a realistic attitude that survival is possible, will be all right.

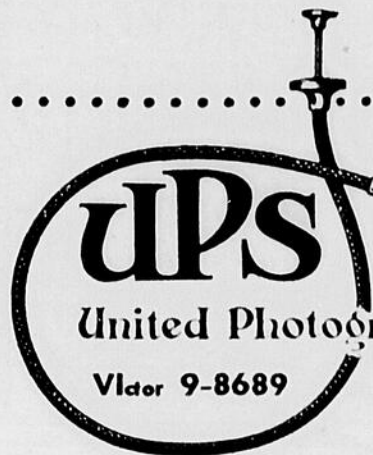

WARNING NECESSARY

It is because survival is possible that the Army is asking the co-operation of citizens when they are in a position to start the siren tests. Their problems are many:

summer. On the other hand, the siren sound should bounce off the sides of the Mountain for greater range. Downtown, large buildings and the high traffic noise level will cut the range down considerably.

Eventually, when the Army has completed their warning system, the wail of sirens will no longer be heard from fire engines, police cars and ambulances.

"The Americans have already done this," Col. Lang said. "In many parts of the U.S. fire engines, for example, use horns or bells."

Judge gives loiterer top fine

Judge Bernard Rose warned Tuesday in Westmount Municipal Court that loiterers caught in the City would receive maximum penalties under City bylaws.

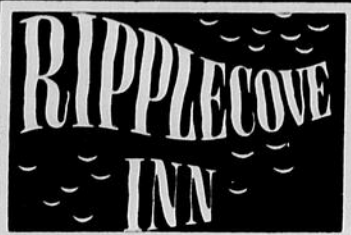

He made his remarks as he passed sentence on Rolland Perrier, who had been picked up for loitering by police May 22 at Roxboro and Devon.

Perrier pleaded guilty to the charge and was told to pay

$40 and $5 costs or serve two months in jail. Perrier paid. Judge Rose told attending police officers to issue a warning that any future loiterers caught within the City would receive a like treatment.

The fine levied is the maximum allowed under a City bylaw.

City Council urges Ottawa to get tough on gun sales

In the wake of steadily increasing violence in and around Montreal, the Westmount City Council, at its meeting Tuesday night, passed a motion to advise the Federal Government of its suggestions to control the possession, sale and use of firearms.

The official motion will be submitted to the Union of Municipalities at its annual convention August 28-31.

"The present control of possession, sale and use of firearms is grossly inadequate," the motion reads, "and whereas private citizens and law enforcement personnel are at present subjected to unnecessary risk due to increased criminal activity involving the use of said firearms, and whereas the criminal in possession of a firearm is a potential murderer, it is recommended by the City of Westmount that the Union of Municipalities of the Province of Quebec request the government of Canada to enact legislation."

The legislation asked for in the motion would control strictly the possession sale and use of firearms, and establish severe penalties for infraction of the legislation.

Although there have been relatively few armed hold-ups in Westmount, the surrounding municipalities have been the subject of daring bank robberies, muggings, hold-ups and pitched gun battles.

Fires in cars keep firemen going on calls

The Westmount Fire Department was busy last weekend answering calls for fires in automobiles, with three cases of actual fires and one near-miss.

The near-miss occurred when the occupant of Apartment 42 at 4324 Sherbrooke phoned to say there was a strong smell of gasoline throughout the building. Investigating firemen discovered the small was coming from the leaking gas tank of a car in a basement garage owned by a Mr. Beck of Apartment 27.

The car was taken outside and the floor of the garage thoroughly hosed down with water.

On Monday, a taxi driven by B. Lech pulled up to the Stanton street station with the back seat on fire. Firemen quickly doused the blaze.

On Sunday the department was called to Melville, north of Westmount, where a car owned by a Mr. Day, 820 St. Croix, St. Laurent, had its interior on fire.

Last Saturday they were called to Lewis and St. Catherine for a similar case when the interior of a car owned by C. Mallon, 4602 St. Catherine, went ablaze.

In all cases the fires were quickly extinguished, but brought the caustic remark from Chief Harper, "Probably forgotten cigarettes."

New Brunswick was so named in 1784 to honor George III, who was of the House of Brunswick and whose family had once ruled the German Kingdom of Brunswick. —Quick Canadian Facts

Ran into road, girl hits car

Little 6-year-old Sheila Molyneux, 358 Olivier, has probably learned to look up and down the street before crossing as a result of running into the rear door of an automobile on Western avenue Tuesday.

Driver of the car, R. Quesnel, 4206 Northcliffe, reported to police that he had been driving along Green, heading north, when he turned west on Western avenue. Opposite 4205 Western he noticed Sheila darting from the south side of the street to the north. He applied his brakes, but the little girl banged into his rear door.

A police radio car took the little girl to her home, where the family doctor was called to treat her for bruises to her forehead.

Ambulances were used in war as early as 1792.

UNBROKEN LEADERSHIP

The best of the past, and the present for the future — that is the administrative theme of the National Union on the eve of another provincial general election.

Quebec's highly-successful policies of autonomy and expanding economy lead onward and upward unbroken under three great leaders.

As always, each citizen shares in the brilliant future, based on effective guarantees of the National Union that leave no room for doubt in the minds of the electors on June 22nd.

Here the 'big 3' of the National Union are caught by the camera in Ottawa — officially representing the province at an intergovernmental conference where they stood, shoulder to shoulder, defending the constitutional rights of Quebec, and of every other Canadian Province.

At the time no one suspected for a moment that the Honourable Maurice Duplessis, premier of Quebec and leader of the National Union, had with him a pair of ministers who in such short time would be called upon to succeed him in the two posts, and to take up the fight for provincial rights, liberties and prerogatives as well as for administrative autonomy and provincial sovereignty . . . so essential to the progress and development of every province, and of Quebec in particular.

Ascension
 By
 The Venerable
 R. Kenneth Naylor, D.D.,
 Rector, Trinity Memorial Church

TODAY we celebrate another of the mighty acts of God — the Ascension of Our Lord. I can well imagine people saying: "I can see the necessity of the Resurrection. It was not possible that such a one as Jesus of Nazareth should remain in the grave. The whole universe is of such a nature that perfect righteousness must be vindicated. Hence the necessity of the Resurrection and of the Appearance of Jesus to those who had followed Him." But the same people might also say: "But why the necessity of the Ascension? What purpose could it serve in the working out of salvation?" That, of course, is the purpose of all the mighty acts of God — by them He worked out our salvation. It was obviously the purpose of the Incarnation — "He shall save His people from their sins." It was equally the purpose of the Crucifixion — "He bore our sins in His own Body on the tree." But again the questioner asks — "Why the Ascension?"

The answer lies in the fact that the whole visible life of our Saviour was lived on the earthly plane and emphasized earthly and material things. The Incarnation itself was an emphasis on a human, material body like ours. In His Ministry our Lord not only forgave sins, but He healed diseased bodies and distracted minds. He fed the multitude with bread. He even restored the dead to physical earthly life. And when He rose from the dead He was restored to the world of things. It is no wonder that His disciples took it for granted that He would restore the kingdom of Israel. The Hebrew ideal had always been a great earthly kingdom; the idea of Resurrection was a late comer in their thinking.

But Jesus had said before Pilate: "My Kingdom is not of this world." He was concerned in this world, for He had prayed not that His disciples should be taken out of the world but that they should be saved from the evil.

However, if he was to lift their thoughts to a higher level He must do the lifting. As long as He was in the world their love would centre there. If he merely passed out of their sight as He had done more than once after His Resurrection, they would still look for His return.

So He led them out of the City to the Mount of Olives, and there He was parted from them and a cloud received Him out of their sight. They realized that the parting was final for the time being, and they returned to Jerusalem with joy, prepared to carry out His order to remain in the City and wait for the next manifestation of God's power.

If Jesus was to lift the vision of His disciples from purely earthly things and to have that vision concentrate on heavenly things, it is hard to see how He could have accomplished the transfer of interest more effectively.

Juvenile delinquency is linked by Rabbi to delinquent society

Juvenile delinquents are merely the products of a delinquent society. Rabbi Dr. Harry J. Stern of Temple Emanu-El, said here Tuesday.

In an address to the Canadian Progress Club of Montreal at the Windsor Hotel he said that wholesome children came from happy homes, while juvenile delinquency tended to develop from unhappy homes.

Dr. Stern said that the home, school, and the church or synagogue, played the most important roles in developing the youth. It was essential, he asserted, that parents should pour out love and understanding to their children.

He deplored the fact that some teachers in the Montreal area had recently announced they were going to another province for better paid positions.

"In a society where the teacher is underpaid we do not get the best results. We need the best possible brains and devotion in our society to help the youth," he said.

Dr. Stern added that too many parents had forgotten the value of church and synagogue as an element in helping mould the child.

He added that juvenile delinquency had to do with the moral climate of the community.

"When it reads about cheating in industry, cheating at tolls, easy money and payola, youth must be affected."

Hayes defends his choice as NU candidate by Party

By MARK P. DANIELS

Top aides to Premier Barrette indicated today the National Union nominated Murray Hayes as its candidate in Westmount-St. George as a first step in preparing a "new deal" for Greater Montreal.

Mr. Hayes, who holds the No. 2 civic post in Canada, was asked to run in the riding by Premier Barrette to guide his government's planning for the metropolis.

As vice-chairman of Montreal's policy-making executive committee and head of the committee on capital expenditures, Mr. Hayes has had an opportunity to establish at first hand the needs of the area.

He also played a key role in metropolitan studies, and was largely responsible for an investigation now being made on how the City of Montreal could better be administered.

"There has been help from the Provincial Government for Greater Montreal in many fields in recent years," Mr. Hayes declared, "but much remains to be done."

"I agreed to run because I had the personal assurance of Premier Barrette that he wishes to do major things for the area."

It was felt that because of Mr. Hayes' experience as a civic administrator and a businessman, he would be a leading advisor to Premier Barrette, spokesmen declared.

Mr. Hayes has long been a resident of West End Montreal, including Westmount.

Born in Sherbrooke, Que., he was one of four children of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hayes.

He was only four when his parents moved to Windsor avenue, Westmount, in 1905 and he lived there until 1921.

He was educated in Westmount schools and served with the 74th Battery of Ottawa, going overseas in 1918 as a gunner. On his return, he entered McGill University, graduating from the Faculty of Law in 1921.

The same year, he married Dorothy Mead, of Westmount, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Mead. They set up their home in Notre Dame de Grace, living there until 1945. They have two sons, Murray, Jr., an insurance agent, and George, an account executive, of Winnipeg.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes now live at the Shelbourne Towers, Cote des Neiges road.

In 1926, Mr. Hayes was president of the Citizens' Association of Notre Dame de Grace and from 1930 to 1936, he was president of

New believers to be baptized by immersion

The ordinance of Believer's Baptism will be observed at the morning service of the Westmount Baptist Church when a number of Sunday School scholars will be baptized by immersion.

The Minister, the Rev. E. J. Bailey, will preach at the morning service on "The Church with Golden Windows", and at the evening service on "Choosing a Church Home".

The Prayer meeting meets on Wednesday night at 8 p.m., and the BYPU on Friday at 8 p.m.

the Notre Dame de Grace Conservative Association.

He was employed by Sheet Metal Products, later to become a constituent company of General Steel Wares, in 1921 and became branch manager six years later.

In the Second World War, he joined the 2nd Reserve Battalion Victoria Rifles of Canada, retiring in 1945 as a captain and company commander. He also served, in the same period, as chairman of the N.D.G. Ration Board, and chairman of the National Committee of Canadian Commercial Travellers.

In 1942, he founded Hayes Industries Ltd. of St. Lambert and in 1948, became executive vice-president of Mount Royal Dairies and Co. Ltd. Three years later he formed and became president of Hayes Durham Forgings Ltd.

He was appointed to the Montreal City Council in 1954 as representative of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and re-appointed to a second term in 1957. At that time he was elected to his present post as vice-chairman of what is, in effect, the cabinet of Montreal's civic government.

He was also named chairman of the Montreal Civil Defence Committee, the Committee on Capital Expenditures and the Municipal Golf Commission.

He is a former member of the Redivision passed for second time

Because redivision papers of a group of lots on Montrose and Clarke avenues became involved in a technical legal violation between Westmount and Quebec City in 1950, City Council was forced to pass a new motion Tuesday night again granting the redivision.

The complicated story of why the motion was again before Council after 10 years was given by Alderman Ouimet.

He explained the redivision was approved by Council on October 16, 1950, but the approval was never registered by the Department of Lands and Forests in Quebec.

The original surveyor, Mr. Ruel, died after preparation of the original plan. The owner, Robert Bruck, was advised of the fact that a technical violation of bylaw 555 existed.

Mr. Bruck authorized preparation of the new plans and Council recommended the original approval be re-affirmed.

Madame Rabbani guest speaker at Baha'i meet

This Sunday evening, May 29 at 8.15 p.m. the Baha'is of Montreal will have as their guest speaker, Madame Rabbani, the former Mary Maxwell of Montreal and daughter of the distinguished Canadian architect William Sutherland Maxwell, designer of the Chateau Frontenac.

She will speak in the Blue Room of the Ritz Carlton Hotel on the subject "Neighbors in a Shrinking World".

Madame Rabbani is the wife of the late Guardian of the Baha'i World Faith. She is the author of the book "Prescription for Living".

The public is cordially invited to attend her talk this Sunday evening.

Montreal Metropolitan Commission, forerunner of the present Metro system, and served as vice-chairman of the committee which recommended a metropolitan scheme to the Provincial Government.

He has served on three boards of arbitration, appointed by the Minister of Labor, and has represented the city on all bond issues since November, 1957. He is regarded as the finance expert on the executive committee.

It was he who initiated the study by Woods, Gordon and Co. to improve city efficiency. A report of the management experts' findings is due shortly.

He also considered the study of Montreal's ambulance situation and was largely responsible for the newly-introduced police ambulance system, as well as the Mitchell Report on traffic and mass transportation needs.

He is a member of the Canadian Legion, the University Club, St. George's Club and the Shawbridge Golf and Country Club, where he has a summer home.

His hobbies are golf, fishing and gardening.

His candidacy in Westmount - St. George -- at the personal invitation of Premier Barrette -- was applauded by Montreal civic officials as a concrete step towards speeding up improvements in the whole of Greater Montreal.

Police witness car accident

It is usually difficult to go green light. Going through the intersection, he was struck by Poitras' car.

All the while Peace and Brown were following Poitras in their police cruiser, witnessing the whole thing. The collision drove Poitras' and Perron's cars up on the lawn of Mrs. R. Brunner, 401 Metcalfe.

Oh, yes! Constable Peace gave Poitras a ticket for going through a red light.

Ten per cent of the farms in the United States produce about 51 per cent of all farm products of the nation, these being the larger farms, which are tilled by machines.

Paul Poitras, 39, 1645 Provost, told Westmount Police Constables Gordon Peace and B. Brown Monday that he was driving east on Sherbrooke when he approached the intersection of Metcalfe. He didn't notice the light was red and kept on going.

Meanwhile, Dr. Stanislas Perron, 65, 4411 Coolbrook, was proceeding north on Metcalfe on a

After bridge of which some twenty tables were filled by members as well as friends of Altrusa, the distribution of prizes won by members who played in the several panels, as well as door prizes contributed by various firms and individuals who are sympathetic to the good work being carried on by the Club, was made. Subsequently, refreshments were served, the generous gift of our genial hosts.

Unfoldment

Just like a bud, our lives unfold,
So simply done, by one who knows,
As it unfolds, and spreads its leaves,
With colors of the perfect rose.

The life that forms us, is Devine,
No broken links, — no careless flaws,
To mar the beauty of the plan,
Of perfect order, — changeless law.

Time's greatest mystery is life,
We need not strive, nor yet repine
To gain the secret golden goal,
For God, supplies the gift devine.

Heart Foundation receives bursary

Children, Save the Child Fund, Mackay Institute, University Settlement House.

Mrs. B. Engelstein, 5344 Cumberland avenue, president of the Dalse Welfare Club Ladies Auxiliary together with Mrs. H. Miller, 6275 McDonald and Mrs. M. Greenberg, 5582 Dunmore, both members of the club, presented the Quebec Heart Foundation with a Bursary of $500. Mr. William Gittes, director of the Foundation, accepted the cheque.

A few months ago, Mr. Irving Goldenberg, president of the Young at Heart Chapter of the Quebec Heart Foundation spoke to some members of the Dalse Club and stressed the importance of the work carried out by the Heart Foundation whose aim is to promote research against our No. 1 enemy: Heart Disease. Now convinced of the great role played by the Heart Foundation in its efforts to coordinate and support research projects in the cardio-vascular field, the Ladies Auxiliary passed a motion to present the Foundation with a bursary.

The Dalse Welfare Club Ladies Auxiliary has, in the past, helped the following institutions: Cecile Memorial Hospital, Emotionally Disturbed Children, First Mesifta of Canada, Golden Age Group, Hospital of Hope, Institute for the Blind, Montreal Children's Hospital, Rehabilitation Centre, Bursaries for Baron Byng High School, School for Retarded

The groom's mother, wore a street length gown of sapphire blue lace over taffeta with a matching hat and shoes and she carried a corsage of white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. E. B. Sims is elected head of CAC

Mrs. E. B. Sims (17 Lloyd street) Lennoxville, heads the new executive named by the Provincial English Branch of the Canadian Association of Consumers, meeting at the YWCA, Montreal, May 25. Mrs. Sims is a past president of the Sherbrooke-Lennoxville Branch and last year was vice-president of the provincial branch.

The English Branch of CAC in Quebec now reports a membership list of over five thousand with thirty-five branches, thirty groups and sixteen co-operating organizations.

The trading stamp committee noted that stamps continue to flourish in Quebec although they have been outlawed by provincial legislation in B.C., Alberta and Saskatchewan, controlled in Manitoba by prosecution under the provisions of the Criminal Code. In Ontario, a test case is now before the courts. Further representations will be made by Quebec CAC to the provincial government requesting investigation of the situation and enforcement of existing Criminal Code regulations.

Retiring president, Mrs. E. H. S. Piper, completing a two-year term of office, outlined some of the national projects in which the provincial branch is committed to work. These include educational work in connection with consumer credit and poison control; efforts to obtain better grading of potatoes, grading and inspection of meat, improvements and economies in the marketing of milk, regulations regarding the manufacture of butter substitutes, and regulations forbidding the use of unsanitary wadding in children's garments, sleeping bags, table pads, etc. Opposition to stamps will continue.

Under 15 age group swim meet May 28

The YMCA Open Provincial Age Group Swimming and Diving Championships sanctioned by the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association will take place Saturday, May 28, at 7:00 p.m., St. Laurent College Swimming Pool, 625 Ste. Croix Blvd., Saint Laurent.

This will be the first official swimming meet held in the Province to establish age group metric records. Another first is the diving competition to test the skill and technique of the Province's best young divers.

One of the highlights promises to be the 100 metre free style with Susan Conklin (MAAA) and Pauline Hubbard (Snowdon Y).

In the Recent Open Provincial Meet, Pauline nosed out Susan in a Special 12 and under 100 yard race. Candy Stevenson (MAAA), Provincial Breaststroke champion will be challenged by runner-up, Maxianne Berger of Concordia.

John Montminy and Catherine Fares, Provincial Inter-Y Diving champions are among the many diving entries received from the various swimming clubs. The youngest swimmer and diver is 7 year old Robert Montminy of the YMCA.

Among the outstanding swimmers are Claude Fournier, Laurent Trudel and Paul Caron from Palestre Nationale, Graham Wade (YMCA) who has been leading the 14 and under group, Tom Arusoo, holder of the Provincial Record for butterfly, Donna Conklin MAAA, Peter Mathon from Davis YMHA and many others.

Among the clubs to be represented are the MAAA, Palestre Nationale, Snowdon YW-YMHA, Davis YW-YMHA, East End Boys' Club, YMCA, YWCA, Concordia and, for the first time, entries have been posted by Dorval Recreation Association and other Lakeshore Swim Clubs.

This meet is organized by Fraser Wade, physical director of N.D.G. YMCA.

Rowers start season May 28

The first rowing regatta of the 1960 season will be held Saturday, May 29. Racing commences at 1 p.m. and the program includes the following events: 145 lb. four; 155 lb. single; 155 lb. four, 145 lb. eight; heavy four; 155 lb. eight; open single; heavy eight.

Crews start from the bottom of the canal and finish at the Lake St. Louis Angling Club. Four rowing clubs will be represented at the regatta: Montreal, Ottawa, Brockville and Lachine. At the 1959 regatta Brockville won by one point with the Montreal and Lachine clubs tying for second. It is hoped that the Lachine Oarsmen will reverse last year's defeat.

Regatta training at Lachine has been marred by a series of misfortunes: The training eight shell was damaged, two practice fours needed major repairs, the crews forced to make a hurried landing on Dixie Island after springing a leak.

The schoolboy A-crew of D. Nielson, T. Denny, B. Johannsen and D. Plesman appears to be in good form and are expected to do well. The new first-year schoolboy-oarsmen will be initiated at Lachine's opening regatta.

If they continue to improve at their present rate, several of these youngsters will soon be challenging the more senior schoolboys for their places in the A-four.

All the crews, plus friends and spectators will relax at the Regatta Dance which will be held at the Lake St. Louis Angling Club House, in the evening.

Don't ever race other boats. Under high speed it is harder to avoid collision and the wash from your boat could capsize smaller craft.

NEVER BEFORE has football taken over a good part of the May sport pages. Never before has an exhibition game been played so early like the one that is slated for the Verdun Stadium, tonight. Canadian players attending Als spring training camp will test their muscles again for the last time, and the best will come back to attend the big camp early in July. With all the bad weather over the weekend, Friday could be an ideal night for a game of football.

George Mansfield, tennis pro working out of Toronto as his home city but England is his native country was in town and renewed acquaintances with old friends. This is his fifth year with Pepsi Cola, the place where Bill Bourne works, footing all expenses. His first stop was Snowdon YMHA, then Cote St. Luc and Chateauguay his last port of call. His next move will be Cornwall and then proceed west. From Toronto he moves into Western Canada then back to the East where he will finish up. He spent two months down Halifax way last year. During the winter, George takes up squash.

After spending nearly all day and part of Saturday evening at Leader Bowling Alleys, John Brunet, News Bureau of Dow Brewery found the traffic outside not as bad as the noise in the alleys with pins and balls clashing together.

Bill Sykes announced his juvenile fastball league will open come Friday June 3 at Willibrord park. Two games will be staged every Friday. Mickey MacDonald, QAHA minor registrar has a team from Cote des Neiges in the league.

Dan Ryan, well-known in the paddling and sporting circles has a new story to tell on seals. In the fall of last year, Dan got a report of a seal killed by some duck hunters. The seal weighed only 63 pounds and was about six months old, but after examining the stomach of the little fellow, 280 small fish up to seven inches long were found. Quite a pantry these seals carry around with them.

A fish story to end all fish stories. A sportsman battled for hours to land an enormous trout. When it was eventually landed, the awestricken on-lookers babbled their amazement at a fish of such gigantic proportions but the angler did not appear to share their excitement. He stared at the monster gloomily, then turned and asked for assistance.

"Give me a hand to push it back in again," he begged. It's a lie!"

Large boat entry for power meet

Over 50 boats are expected to participate in the Lakeshore Kewanis Regatta June 18-19, it was announced by co-chairmen Andy Simard and Clary Gray.

The regatta's fastest event, the 266 cubic inboard hydroplane race, will be for the Thomas Adams Trophy.

Two boats already entered are the Escapade, owned by Dr. P. Letour of Montreal and driven by Buffalo's Bud Schroeder, and the My Own, driven by Gerry Patry of Montreal.

You are compelled by the Steering and Sailing Rules to steer your powered boat clear of boats under sail, oars or paddles because you have more control over your movement than they.

Unity track meet May 28

Unity Boys' Club of Westmount will be the hosts to the 7th annual track and field meet to be held at the Verdun Stadium, Saturday, May 28.

All track heats will be run off in the morning and the semi-finals and finals in the afternoon. Each competitor may enter four events only. No competitor may enter more than three track or three field events.

The Rotary Club trophy will be presented to the club with the highest aggregate. Individual trophies and awards will also be presented.

The midget age is 8, 9 and 10; juniors, 11, 12 and 13, and intermediate 14, 15 and 16. There will be special events for six and seven year old boys and girls.

Clubs entered are: Rosemount Boys' Club, University Settlement, Point St. Charles Boys' Club, East End Boys' Club, Lions Boys' Club, Tyndale House, Weredale House, Negro Community Centre, Montreal Children's Hospital, Dawson Boys' Club, Westmount YMCA, St. Andrews Youth Centre.

Sam Cohen of Steinberg's Ltd. was selected as chairman of the golf committee of the Food Distributors of Montreal.

Gerard Carriere of Couvrette Sauriol Ltee. was named secretary. The 31st annual golf tournament will be held at the Lachute Golf Club June 15.

Four trophies will be up for competition. They are the Drynan, Freeman, Hiram Walker and Boudrias Trophies.

Other committee members are: P. Boudrias, G. Brunette, J. Berry, S. Wakefield, R. Messier, F. Raymond, C. H. Martel, M. Rowe, R. Duclos, W. Simpson, A. Nixon, B. Masse, J. Lecavalier and L. Roy.

Caledonia closes curling season

The Montreal curling season is over.

Caledonia Curling Club, the last club to open in this area, closed out an exceptional year with the playing of the Last Chance Bonspiel finals.

Bryan Hawkins of Town of Mount Royal Curling Club, with Frank McCarthy, Phil Everson and Tom Doran out front defeated McCormack of St. Lambert 10-4 in the main event final for the Hillside Trophy.

Playing with McCormack were Ross McConnell, Tom Cogan and Larry Elliott.

Jumping in to an early 5-0 lead, Hawkins coasted the rest of the way.

Three consolation event finals were also run off at the same time. In a competition, Doug McEwan of Outremont won 10-5 over Bob Little of Heather. K. Weldon of Caledonia, whose lone loss was to Hawkins 5-4 in the semi-final, defeated Pat Ross of St. Johns 10-3.

Closest consolation final was Ron Lister's 9-8 win over Hermar Barschel of Lachine. Lister turned the trick with a dazzling last rock shot.

Tex Coulter goes to soccer

DeWitt "Tex" Coulter, a top football lineman up until a couple of seasons ago when he retired from the Alouettes, is lining up with a new sport.

The affable giant has been named a director of the Concordia soccer team and will handle the office of public relations and promotions director and also look after the program.

For a fellow who has never been in soccer in any capacity before, Tex feels the job is a real challenge. "I think soccer is due to make big strides in Canada and I would like to feel I could help make it grow," he said.

Concordia is a member of the new International League and also of the Interprovincial circuit.

Powered boats should always slow down when coming to mooring and give swimmers a wide berth.
