Verdict - Accidental death

Lacey inquest: many questions unanswered

A coroner's inquest under Dr. Georges Lefebvre in Huntingdon March 13 returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of six-year-old Andrea Lacey, killed on her way to school Jan. 20. But the verdict left many questions unanswered.

During the one-hour hearing eight witnesses testified to have seen a milk truck strike the youngster as she crossed the intersection of King and Dalhousie Streets in Huntingdon on her way to her first-year class at Huntingdon Academy. But no identification of the truck has been made.

Michael Murphy, the principal witness, testified to driving a milk truck belonging to his father's transport firm on the morning of the accident. He said he passed the intersection at the moment the school bell sounded for class opening, the time the accident is judged by police to have occurred. But Murphy declared that he saw no child and "As far as I know, I was not involved in the accident."

Agent Guy Beaudin of the Huntingdon Town Police, in reply to questioning from Crown Prosecutor Claude Blanchard, stated that he was called to the scene at 8:35 a.m. where he found the child's body and two other people, Gerald Brisebois and Annette van Saundert, both of Huntingdon.

Agent Beaudin said he could not identify the victim, but with the aid of Sergeant Philippe Cardinal and Gerald Brisebois, drove her to Huntingdon County Hospital.

No one then on the scene had seen the child hit, he said. Beaudin testified that road conditions were perfect and the weather was fine.

Next witness was a classmate of Andrea Lacey, six-year-old Valerie Descombes, who accompanied at the inquest by her father told what she had seen on the morning of Jan. 20.

Hit by truck

Valerie was on her way to school, walking along the sidewalk across from the Academy on King St. She stated that the Lacey child was crossing King St. when she was struck by a truck which continued on its way.

The child explained that the truck had stopped at the in-

Fear for children

Franklin W. I. want wolf bounty back

The Franklin Women's Institute at its March meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Barr on the First Concession Road expressed concern at the increasing prevalence of wolves in the area and decided to request that the government of Quebec restore the wolf bounty.

"Wolves are present in such numbers from Franklin west to Powerscourt that one wonders are our children safe outside alone," said Mrs. Robert Barr, the group's agricultural convener.

It was moved by Mrs. C. Lawrence and seconded by Mrs. Barr that a letter asking for restoration of the wolf bounty be sent to MNA Ken Fraser to be forwarded to the Quebec government.

"From Powerscourt to Covey Hill one can see them running in the daylight, many of them so large that they could well be timber wolves," Mrs. Barr said later, in talking to The Gleaner.

"We feel the restoration of the wolf bounty system has now become very necessary as a safety measure.

"Around George Atcheson's farm near Powerscourt large wolf tracks are very numerous. It's a good thing that children from that area don't have to walk, say, a half mile or so to school. Then we'd really be worried.

"The fear is that deer, colts, sheep and small dogs are no longer safe."

"Those people who are so against the killing of wolves might feel differently if they and their children lived on the Upper Concession where they can see these wolves almost any day or any time of day."

There have also been reports from the Hemmingford area to the agronome's office in Hemmingford that the wolf population has reached worrying proportions and plans are afoot for a wolf hunt under the direction of the agriculture department in the St. Chrysostome-Havelock area.

Pierre Poisson of the Quebec Department of Agriculture who is a wolf-hunting expert using specially trained dogs will chair a meeting in St. Chrysostome at the beginning of April in cooperation with the mayor of that municipality to organize the hunt.

Hospital given acute care role along with LCSC

The Huntingdon County Hospital this week received from the Quebec Health and Social Services department its authorization to continue as a hospital for short-term treatment with a capacity of 22 beds but without obstetrical services."

The authorization was contained in a letter to Jon Proudfoot, hospital board president, from Deputy Minister Gerard Nepveu.

The letter also instructed that the hospital was to "put into effect the Local Community Service Centre and assure its operation and development as well as the other hospital services."

Since the LCSC in Huntingdon comes under the Hospital Centre charter, the letter emphasizes those aspects of social and medical services which will be given to members of the community not actually patients in the hospital. These services will be offered mainly through the LCSC personnel, with the co-operation of the Hospital itself.

Services to be maintained outside the hospital itself are of two types: nursing care by authorized nurses and household help services provided by the auxiliary organization.

For nursing care priority is tobe given to residential patients in most need. I.E. Elderly people, chronic cases and released patients.

Under social and community services, the directive says these "should be limited to matters of prime importance such as : Simple psycho-sociological consultation, orientation or reference, assistance to individuals and families, trouble shooting and social emergencies."

Authorized for the LCSC are one coordinator and one stenotypist, both positions which are already filled, and two nurses, one medical secretary, one professional social worker, three family auxiliaries and one community organizer.

Fire destroys Gore Road barn

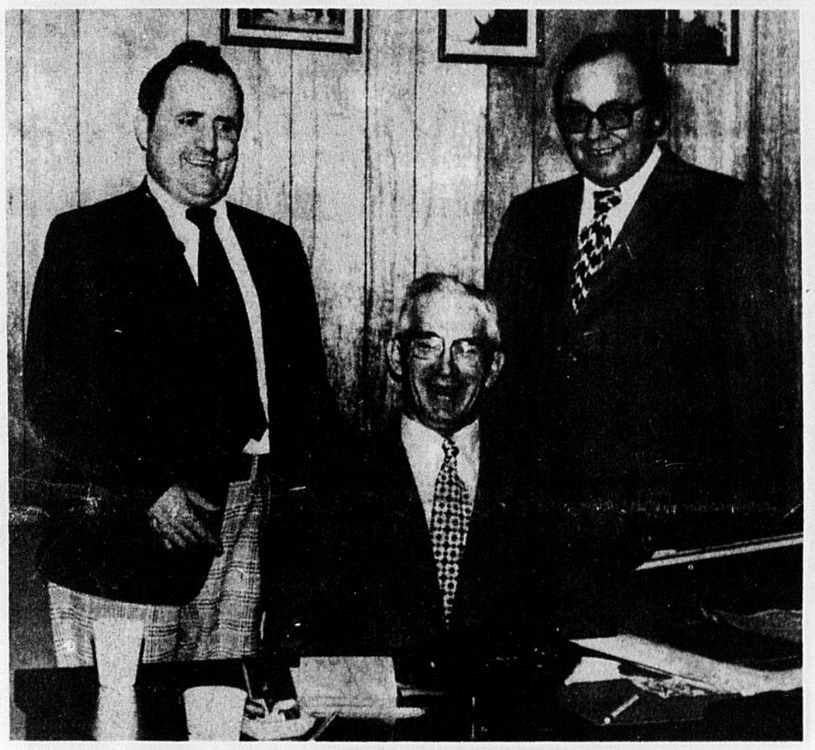

A Saturday morning fire destroyed the barn and a car along with 400 bales of hay and some machinery on the farm home of Lawrence Murphy on the Gore Road at Anderson's Corner.

The blaze was first noticed about 10:30 a.m. In a matter of minutes the old wooden building was engulfed in flames and there was little the Hinchinbrooke Volunteer Fire Brigade could do except keep it from spreading.

"The firemen were terrific," said Mrs. Murphy, "I was very impressed with the way they worked."

Hinchinbrooke had about 20 men, a pumper, and a tanker on the scene within six minutes of being called and this was followed up by calling in Ormstown and Franklin Departments to provide a tanker each. Firemen stayed on the scene from about 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and were served lunch by the Ladies Auxiliary

Quebec antes $2,321,690 toward H'don water works

JUBILANT TRIO: MNA Ken Fraser, flanked by Mayor Claude Pilon and Alderman Gerry Brisebois, rejoice over news of Quebec grant for Huntingdon waterworks.

Ken Fraser's effort lauded by mayor

by ALAN RANDAL
of The Gleaner

MNA Ken Fraser brought good news to Huntingdon this week - the Quebec Government will grant $2,321,690 toward the cost of renewing and enlarging the town's water filtration plant. This amounts to about 80 percent of the total cost of the vital project.

"This sounds like a reasonable solution to financing this project in Huntingdon which is hardly fallow ground for raising this sort of money by taxation," said Fraser.

The Liberal member of the National Assembly for Huntingdon made the announcement in his King St. office in the old Municipal Building at a press conference late Monday. With him were Mayor Claude Pilon and Alderman Gerry Brisebois, member of the council.

Elating news

All three were jubilant at this giant stride toward completion of a project which dates back several years and was undertaken at the direction of the Quebec Water Board because Huntingdon's facilities are outdated and inadequate for needs of the town and Huntingdon industry.

Said Mayor Pilon: "The Council, and all of Huntingdon for that matter, can only be most happy over the news."

Fraser said he had received word of the approval of the grant at his Huntingdon office in a telephone call made on behalf of Municipal Affairs Minister Victor Goldbloom with whom the mayor, the water committee and Fraser held discussions last Dec. 30 on the financing difficulties of the project.

"We are deeply grateful to Mr. Fraser for his unrelenting work on the waterworks undertaking," said Mayor Pilon.

Spring start

With financing assured, the mayor said work could begin in the late spring. If all goes well it should be completed within 10 months.

First step, added the mayor, will be to consult with the town's engineers and reconsider bids on the job which were held in abeyance because of their size last January. Council wants to see if they are still valid.

These were from: Sogerpro of Montreal at $2,498,498 and Marcelen Co. of Montreal at $2,516,370.

After consultation with the engineers, Council's next

Public speaking

'Everybody wins' at W. I. contest

Highlight of the W. I. Public-Speaking finals last Friday in Howick was the prize-winning talk on "The Problems With Public Speaking" given by Stephen Leslie, a grade six student at Huntingdon Academy.

Stephen's remarks on the nervousness and amount of work involved for every aspiring public speaker drew laughs from other contestants from five area elementary schools and from the audience of some 200 people.

His speech, delivered with a great deal of poise, won him first prize for his grade.

Other winners were: Grade 3: Lisa Rennie of Ormstown, who spoke on "How Old Would I Like To Be?" deciding that though other ages had their attractions, it was nice to be nine;

Grade 4: Jayne McNaughton of Hemmingford, humorously describing "My Trip to Florida"; and Grade 5: Amy Goodall of Ormstown, whose "First Baking Experience" was a real disaster.

The finals sponsored by the Chateauguay-Huntingdon County W. I. marked the culmination of elimination rounds held in Howick, Ormstown, Hemmingford, Huntingdon and Franklin over the last few week s.

After the singing of 'O Canada' Mrs. Cameron Bryson, president of Chateauguay-Huntingdon County Women's Institutes, welcomed all on behalf of the County W. I. In her opening remarks she said thatin public speaking all participants are winners because they are showing their ability to communicate with other people.

Mrs. Rhoda McFarlane, the newly-elected president of the Howick W. I., briefly explained the rules and regulations. In judging, 40 per cent goes for organization of the material, 40 per cent for delivery and 20 per cent for overall effectiveness.

Mrs. McFarlane then introduced each student who spoke on a topic of his or her choice.

Two of the three judges were Miss A. Robb and Miss S. Somerville, teachers from the English Department of C.V.R. School, who had acted in that capacity last year. The new guest judge, Miss C. Phillips, a Lakeshore specialist in teaching children with learning difficulties, gave the commentary on the speeches.

Miss Phillips congratulated the students upon their fine presentations and pointed out important factors for improving their speeches.

First of all, she said, it is important to choose a subject with which one is familiar and comfortable. It is also important to keep within the specified time limit. In a speech the introduction is the most vital part,as one is trying to set the tone and trying to capture the attention of the audience. The speaker is among friends and should be relaxed. Casual hand gestures help to achieve this as well as helping to express an idea and feeling.

It was suggested that they try not to memorize, but to be sufficiently familiar with the topic so that the use of a few notes as a key would be adequate. She described their humourous endings as "super."

Miss Phillips concluded by congratulating the parents for encouraging their children to communicate.

Figure skating for everyone interested - boy or girl, child or adult may become a reality for Huntingdon and area next winter.

It all depends on recruiting enough people so that steps can be taken to reserve ice time at the Huntingdon Regional Arena before hockey and broomball teams make their substantial demands for next season's scheduling.

Before deciding on figure skating lessons, people deserve a chance to find out what is involved, and they will have the opportunity to see for themselves at a special evening demonstration at the Arena on Tuesday, March 25, co-sponsored by the Arena and the Southwestern Quebec Figure Skating Association.

Young figure skaters from Chateauguay, Beauharnois, Valleyfield, Hudson and Vaudreuil will be on hand to demonstrate their skills, and their professional instructors will give examples of lessons at various levels.

Admission free

The 8:15 demonstration is free, and all are welcome, says Arena Manager Florian Tardif, who has long been interested in seeing figure skating come to Huntingdon.

"There are lots of children who do not play hockey and who would love to try figure skating," said Art Coulombe of Ormstown, who with his wife Miriam, secretary of the Southwestern Quebec Figure Skating Associaton, is taking an active interest in the

Injuries fatal to truck driver

Bernard Francoeur, 57-year-old truck driver of Montreal for the Arco Stone Company, died in hospital early last Thursday from injuries received when his stone-laden semi-trailer jackknifed into the ditch on Route 202 near the Cleyn & Tinker mill.

The accident occurred in mid-morning last Wednesday when Francoeur was returning from Chateaugay, N.Y., where he made some deliveries, and where police in Huntingdon were informed, he had been involved in a minor accident.

The truck's cargo of stone was strewn about the field beyond the road and the deep ditch opposite from the mill. The cab was twisted back along the trailer body.

The injured driver badly hurt but still alive was removed from the cab and taken by ambulance to Huntingdon County Hospital where his injuries were seen to be so serious that he was quickly transferred to Montreal where he died next day.

Francoeur was reported to have failed to stop at the Canadian customs at Herdman and Huntingdon Provincial Police had been asked to stop him for questioning.

Police said that a witness in Chateaugay had described Francoeur as seeming unwell during his stop there.

He lost control of the truck just as he approached Huntingdon around 11:30 a.m. No other car was involved.

An autopsy will be performed to determine if Francoeur had suffered a heart attack or stroke before the accident.

This and That in Town

JOHN PETERSON'S CANTATA - "No Greater Love" will be presented again this year on Easter Sunday at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Huntingdon. The presentation was very well received on its initial performance locally last year and by special request is being repeated. Mrs. F.G. McCrimmon is organist and choir director. Lee Ann Ruddock is assistant organist.

HOME FROM FLORIDA - Mr. and Mrs. Avila Genier of St. Anicet and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lefebvre of Huntingdon. The two couples travelled by car, leaving on February 4 and returning March 9. They stayed at Hollywood where Mr. and Mrs. Genier have been spending their winter vacations for the past nine years. Needless to say, they are quite attached to that area.

MARGARET WILSON - reports that she saw four robins March 13 on the First Concession of Elgin near her home.

IT WON'T ALL BE FUN AND GAMES - during Huntingdon's 150th Anniversary celebrations. Various rallies are also being planned by Huntingdon's service clubs, the Optimists, Lions and Rotarians. Some will be to historical sites ... by car, bicycle and even Shank's mare.

OH JON - claims he forgot O Canada lines when he led the singing of the National Anthem Monday evening when the Huntingdon Rotarians met for their weekly meeting. It all came out "When Irish Eyes are Smiling".

TALKING ABOUT THE IRISH - it was a grand party the PTA sponsored Thursday night at Nore Dame Hall in Ourtown. A packed house and lots of fun.

GREAT SAP WEATHER - below freezing at nights and 40 degrees in the afternoons. Closer to 50, probably.

news from huntingdon's

craft and recreation centre

by Buff Wilson

It is always a pleasure for the Centre to welcome people from the community when they come to give us demonstrations or share their particular talent with us in the form of music. This is especially so when the guest is as young and as enthusiastic as was Mary Ann Levine last Wednesday.

For almost an hour she played a wide variety of music on her electric organ, a variety which must have appealed to almost every musical taste. We hope that our enthusiastic response to her program will encourage her to keep up the hard work and that she will come back soon and play for us again.

April is going to be a busy month for us all at the Centre so get out your calendars and mark down the following dates:

Mrs. Wendy Kell, folk singer and composer, will be with us on Wednesday, April 2. On Wednesday, April 16 a group of men and women from the Adult Centre in Burke, N.Y. will pay us a visit. As part of our experimental film program, we have arranged a screening which is sure to appeal to many of our sports enthusiasts. That will be on Wednesday, April 30. Details pertaining to these special events will follow as the date of each event approaches, so keep watching!

Some members have expressed an interest in learning more about travel clubs which have special rates for senior citizens. The Senior Citizens Travel Club Reg'd may be just what you are looking for. Membership fees are $7.50 and information about the club may be had by writing to them at 35 Aberdeen Ave., Montreal, Quebec, H3Y 3A5.

Material needed

Due to the increasing interest in quilting of all kinds and a special project we are beginning in aid of the 150th anniversary project, a residence for Senior Citizens, we find ourselves badly in need of good quality cotton scraps.

Pure cotton, polished cotton and any of the modern blends in small prints, soft or bright colors, as well as solids are what we require at this time.

If you have no need for your left-over cotton pieces, please save them for us and send them over any Wednesday to the Legion Hall.

During the tea break last week, which was beautifully prepared and served by the Maple Leaf Grange, we sang birthday greetings to Leon Beaudin, Hazel Leamon and Margaret Alexander, Congratulations to all of you.

It's going to be an exciting time at the Centre during the coming months because of our special events and participation in the 150th anniversary of our town. Why not join us in the fun? A warm welcome awaits you at the Legion Hall each week.

St. Malachie starts year with deficit

The Parish Council of St. Malachie d'Ormstown adopted By-Law 114, setting a maximum charge for a building permit at $25, at its March 14 meeting.

The same road inspectors were approved for the current year.

A donation of $50 to the Boy Scouts was passed.

The financial statement for 1974 was approved. It showed revenues of $87,178.46 and expenses of $103,090.04. Included in the latter figure, however, were capital expenditures of $38,198.73.

"So we actually had an operating surplus," Municipal treasurer J.C. Marcil told The Gleaner.

The Parish had started 1974 with an accumulated surplus of $34,746.03. The total deficit for 1974 was $15,911,58.

The council passed a resolution asking consulting engineers Derome and Leblanc of Valleyfield to make a cost estimate for replacing the six-inch water main on the Jamestown Road, a distance of some 3,000 to 3,500 feet.

"The present pipe is in such bad shape that we can stick our fingers through the rust," said Marcil.

CVR adds gardening classes

The latest in the multi-faceted series of Adult Education courses at C.V.R. is to be a five-week, 10 hour course in gardening, starting March 25.

An appropriate subject it is too, whether your object is to save on the family grocery bill or to grow organic vegetables free from the taint of "chemical" fertilizers.

In any case, the instructors will know what they are talking about, as most of them will be from Macdonald College.

The course is being co-sponsored by Continuing Education and the Department of Agriculture, and topics will include soils, fruits and vegetables, seed selection, flowers, lawns, and organic methods of gardening.

Registration for the Tuesday evening classes is now open at C.V.R.

Meanwhile, a full time secretarial course is in full swing every week-day from 4 to 10 p.m. and is scheduled to finish in June.

And for next fall, there is the distinct possibility of a similar full-time high school course for adults at the local regional high school.

WANTED: FOUR TOTS

If four more aspiring kindergarten children are not found pretty soon, Franklin Elementary School is in danger of losing its kindergarten class for next year.

So far, only six registrations have been received and thegovernment norms demand a minimum of 10 children for a kindergarten class in any school.

Says Principal Rollie Greenbank: "You may be able to help! There may be someone you know, within the area covered by the Franklin school buses, who has a child of kindergarten age, one who will be five years old by Sept. 30. That child may not yet be registered. You may also know of properties that have changed hands recently. Do the new owners have kindergarten-age children?

"Our kindergarten is a good one, but we need four more children to ensure its survival."

Ormstown-HowickSeniors enjoy day's fun together

Attendance doubled at the Seniors Club on Wednesday March 12 when visitors from the Ormsmtown club brought the crowd up to 85. The usual program was followed.

An Ormstown rink with skip Archie McCaig, Frank Hope, Bill Hope and Ken McDonald defeated the local rink. The men held their own at cards too. Roy Younie had the highest bridge score, with Bea McGerrigle second; Arden Douglas and Frank Martin were tops in 500; Edith Creswell and Ida Gallie shared the wins in Chinese checkers.

Archie McCaig had the lucky cup and happy birthday was sung to Mrs. Robert McGerrigle and Olive Greig.

Prizes were presented after lunch when the president Sophia West welcomed everyone.

Ken McDonald on behalf of the visitors thanked the Howick folk for their hospitality.

The program started with a reading by Martha Logan "Recipes by 6-year-old girl".

The finished products must have been awful but the recipes were priceless.

Irwin Orr's joke cheered everyone. Piano and violin music by Lois and Everett Orr was enjoyed and requests for more music brought Margaret Angell, Martha Logan and Florence Crawford for solo and duo numbers, until the hostesses finished their work and the guests were leaving for home. It was a happy gathering of old friends.

At least two of the visitors are in their 90's. Mrs. Kilgour and Bill Hoyer of Rockburn. The pianists hope to play Mr. Hoyer's favorite tunes next time around.

H'chbrooke to give junior fire awards

March 27, a Thursday, is to be Family Night at the Hinchinbrooke Volunteer Fire Brigade hall in Athelstan when fathers and mothers will see certificates awarded to those young people who have been taking courses in fire fighting, first aid and home safety.

The training course for boys and girls has been going on for the past several weeks with classes on Monday and Wednesday evenings.

For the boys instruction in fire fighting techniques and use of equipment has been given by Jim Hutchings while Janet Grant has been teaching the girls first aid, home safety and everything a baby sitter should know in the event of fire.

This is the second year these courses have been given and the pupils seem to have enjoyed the sessions as much as their instructors, Mrs. Grant said. Those who took the course last year have also been invited to attend March 27 and they too will be given newly-printed certificates of recognition.

Rev. John Anderson named 1975 president of Ministerial Assn.

The Chateauguay Ministerial Association met in the United Church Hall, Howick, on Wednesday, March 12. The gathering was smaller than expected but those who came enjoyed lively and interesting discussions.

The Rev. A. R. Reid of Dewittville, now in his second retirement -- first from the Bell, second from the active ministry in the Anglican Church -- continues to give much of his time to the church and led a discussion on preparing for retirement. Who should know better?

The five main points under discussion were religion, activities or hobbies, health, money and family relationships.

The best wishes of the C.V.M.A. go with the Rev. Ken McLaughlin of Huntingdon who is moving to a new charge in Verdun.

A letter was read from the Rev. Alex MacDonald, of Georgetown and Riverfield, who had been advised by his doctors to avoid extra duties until his health permits.

He was to have been association president, to which office Rev. John S. Anderson of Howick was elected.

The Rev. Richard Gillespie, Church of the Nazarene, Huntingdon, will act as vice-president. The Rev. A.R. Reid of Dewittville will continue as secretary-treasurer - an office he has held for eight years but he is willing to continue for a longer period.

A hot casserole lunch was served by the Unit C ladies.

Inquest rules boy's death accidental

A verdict of accidental death was handed down last Thursday by District Coroner Dr. Georges Lefebvre at an inquest into the death of 12-year-old Louis Smoke of Hogansburg, N.Y. The boy was run down by a snowmobile on the Snye Road on Dec. 22, 1974.

Testimony by several witnesses indicated that the boy was crossing the road with a shovel when the accident occurred. It was dark at the time and driver Roy Adams, 37, of St. Regis stated he did not see the boy until too late. He tried to avoid the child but could not.

Witnesses stated that Adams had not been drinking before the accident.

In the midst of life

Four years ago friend Pierce Fenhagen, returning from a Canadian fishing trip to his job with the Baltimore Sun, stopped off at the Montreal Gazette and did a coupe of hours' work on the news desk. He was a natural and soon thereafter joined The Gazette. Last week he was the recipient of the National Newspaper Award for editorial writing. So that The Gleaner readers may enjoy his mellow, piquant style, his prize-winning submission is reprinted here.

Dr. Balfour Mount and the Royal Victoria Hospital deserve the thanks of us all for their efforts to humanize dying. Hospitals are not much given to treating this universal affliction. It is only natural for those devoted to cures to regard the terminally ill patient as one whose priorities must give way to those who will carry on. Natural, but cruel too.

We are all dying, of course, but so long as we can avoid pegging our death in time, we are free to deny it. It is when we learn there is but a week, a month, a year to live that denial becomes impossible and terror pierces the heart.

The terror comes easy in our modern society because we work so hard to separate death from life. Our accent is on youth, and happiness is a technological gadget.

Life in our crazy-value world may be drinking the right Scotch, or suppressing the wrong smell in an armpit, but, like an unwanted odor, definitely death is not "in"--it is offensive.

Yet death is indispensable to the great cycle of life as we know it. All the food eaten by every worm and insect, by every reptile and mammal was once alive. As we are benefactors so must we be contributors. There would be no surer way of destroying life on earth than the gift of immortality to a single species.

A century ago our ancestors were all familiar with death.

Walk through any old cemetery and observe the ages at which people died. Every family grew up with death, but now medicine has taken away the old childhood acquaintance and given us nothing to take its place, leaving the dying to learn about death as best they can, just as their Victorian predecessors were left to learn about sex and conception.

It has been observed that occupants of homes for the aged are less afraid of death than are their guardians; that 78 per cent of terminally ill patients at the Royal Victoria last summer felt they should be told of their condition, while only 13 per cent of the doctors agreed.

The patients insight appears to outweigh the doctors' fears. After all, reconciliation, not ignorance, is the goal. Only through understanding can we work through fear to peace.

Easter Seals time

Easter Seals time is here again - time for everyone to remember the work done for crippled children and adults by the Easter Seals Command, and the wheelchairs and financial assistance for local nursing trainees made available by the Huntingdon Rotary Club, which runs the local campaign.

The wheelchair service is available to anyone needing such a conveyance following an accident or illness, and the Rotary has a stock of 30 to 35 of them on hand.

Though nurses' tuition is now paid by the government, the Rotary helps out with bursaries to offer uniforms and equipment, as well as monthly allowances, on the understanding that the nurses will return to benefit the community by working at the Huntingdon Hospital.

All this is made possible by Easter Seals donations, which are divided equally between the Easter Seals central organization, and the Rotary's local projects.

The last few years have seen about $2,000 raised in Huntingdon. Organizers, under Huntingdon Postmaster Ghislain Naud, would like to equal or exceed that figure before the campaign ends after Easter.

So decorate your cards and letters with the brightly colored Easter Seals, remembering the terrific work which they make possible.

City-bred teachers short on farm understanding

Howick
March 10

Editor
The Gleaner
Dear Sir:

I was delighted to read the letter concerning the farm image by the St. Anicet Young Farmers Club.

Maybe a good place for them to start their campaign for a better understanding of farming as a profession would be at C.V.R.

Now we have at our school city-raised teachers who have much to learn about farm ways.

They just don't have any understanding of farming and they have a very negative attitude towards it.

Here is an incident which happened at CVR last September. A grade eight student was kicked out because he failed to stay after school for a detention.

Now this boy had chores to do at home that night, but you can't expect city-raised teachers to understand about cows having to be milked and fed.

This boy is now getting on-the-job training on his father's farm.

Sincerely
Wilma Cullen

Many new phone book listings now incomplete

Dewittville
March 16

The Editor
The Gleaner
Dear Sir:

I wonder how many people have checked their listing in the new telephone book? It appears that all people with the postal address of Dewittville have had their telephone book address changed to Godmanchester or Hinchinbrooke only.

According to the Bell Telephone Company's Valleyfield office, the explanation, very politely given, is that the listing in the new book is the "civic address" and that this is used in the telephone book on government instructions.

When I suggested that for the next book the Bell people put Dewittville in ahead of the Godmanchester reference I was told it could not be done because Dewittville was not my "civic address."

Baloney!

Who has the right to change my address in the telephone book without my consent? When the telephone company installed the phone 20 years ago I had to certify my address as Dewittville which still stands. Now I wonder how it is that this can be changed without my knowledge. Admittedly Godmanchester is my municipality but not my address and it doesn't exist as a post office.

Sincerely
Otto Bulow

Rennie's work 'memorial to the pioneering spirit'

Dewittville, March 10

The Editor,
The Gleaner
Dear Sir:

I've intended to drop a note to you ever since the article on Leslie Rennie appeared in The Gleaner (Enhancing a Sense of History, Dec. 11, 1974).

I was delighted to see his so-unobtrusive but sustained efforts, over so many years, recognized by The Gleaner.

It seems to me he has created a kind of memorial to the pioneering spirit that carved our farms out of the forest in our Valley here.

I believe this work will be of immense importance to future generations. From the tone of your interesting article, I think we agree on this!

Yours sincerely,
Keitha K. MacIntosh

Accidents mar Valley weekend

Five accidents, involving total damages of $3,500 occurred over the weekend in the territory covered by the Huntingdon Provincial Police.

No one was injured in any of the accidents.

In Havelock on March 14 around 9 a.m., a truck driven by Marcel Sauvé of Howick collided with a Jeep driven by James Sassen of Ormstown.

A single car accident on the New Erin Road around 11:30 p.m. March 14 occurred when Fernand Gariepy of Ste. Barbe lost control of his car.

The same road was the scene of a two-car collision early in the morning of Mar. 15 when Noel Bernier of Valleyfield lost control of his car and collided with that of Nelson Brunette of Huntingdon.

Heavy damages to both vehicles resulted from a collision in Hinchinbrooke, at the intersection of the Provincial Line and First concession shortly after noon on March 16. Involved were Roland Delisle of Glenelm and Jacques Moise of St. Antoine Abbé.

Around 10 a.m. the same morning, Joseph Monette of Valleyfield lost control of his car on the Montee Ste. Barbe.

Conservation association suggested for Valley

Huntingdon
March 12

The Editor
The Gleaner
Dear Sir:

Today we find environmental concern right up there with apple pie and motherhood. Rightly so but there is a danger that it will wane.

Given this interest plus the many problems that do or will affect the Valley in the years to come I propose the founding of an association dedicated to the conservation and improvement of our local resources for future generations.

This association would ideally offer something to everyone whether basic information, a resource library, monthly guest speakers, a sense of involvement, sanctuaries for bird watchers, or areas for walking, snowshoeing and cross-country skiing as alternatives to snowmobiling. Obviously, an association becomes what the members make it.

The Outdoor Education Program of which I am Animator has made some progress in this area.

One of my aims is to extend the activities and services of the program to the community. With community involvement, the program can grow for the benefit of the students, tomorrow's citizens, and adults, separately or as family recreation opportunities.

In summary I would like to quote the April-May 1974 issue of the Natioanl Wildlife:

"To many, the wilderness is little more than a retreat from the tensions of civilisation.

"To others, it is a testing place - a vanishing frontier where man can re-discover basic values.

"And to a few, the wilderness is nothing less than an almost holy source of self-renewal.

"But for every man, woman and child, the ultimate lesson that nature teaches is simply this: man's fate is inextricably linked to that of the world at large and to all of the other creatures that live upon it."

What say you? I would appreciate hearing from interested people.

Yours sincerely,
Roy T. Younie

Fire station cost too great to bear

The Howick Council decided unanimaously at its meeting of March 3 to forsake the project of constructing a new fire station in co-operation with the Parish of Tres St. Sacrement as the cost would be too great for a small community to bear.

A copy of this resolution will be sent to Maurice Girard, of Quebec Fire Prevention Department.

A report on drainage in the public park will be submitted to the Council at a future date.

The Council has agreed to purchase a lot from Allister Rorison jointly with the Parish.

Ste. Martine Provincial Police will be asked to help prevent heavy trucks from using Colville St. in order to protect the surface.

It was resolved that Howick will pay half the cost of a 3,000 gal. tank for the fire station, and that the Parish will pay for the truck.

The following accounts were approved:

Waterworks account; Hydro-Quebec $122.07; Bonds and coupons $8,125; General Account: Emmus Patenaude $6.30; Hydro-Quebec $426.65; Lucien Soucisse $252.31; Industrial Oxygen $15.12; Victor Crete $29.45; Charles Turcot $9.08 ; P. Perron and Son $7.28; Aimé Lemieux $40; Bell Canada $111.60; Ross Irving and Sons $2.22; Adrien Pilon $82; Reddick Garage $50.23; Claude Lacoste $307.50

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOL CHOIR: Their performance last Thursday night was highlight of St. Patrick's entertainment put on by the P.T.A.

St. Pat's card party most successful yet

A crowd of more than 600 gathered in Notre Dame School on Thursday March 13, to make the Parent-Teacher Assoc'n card party and Irish entertainment the greatest success ever.

The entertainment part of the evening was opened by the choir of St. Joseph School under the direction of Messrs Denis and Camil Frederick. Among the entertainers were Russell Reid and his daughters accompanied by Elmer Duheme, Jon Proudfoot, Mrs. Anita Smith accompanied by Mrs. Micheline Latreille, Yvon Frederick, Anne-Marie Laberge and Bernadette Ovans accompanied by Marie-Therese Laberge and Albert Godin, Orrick Thurston accompanied Rene Foran.

The hit of the evening was young Yves Frederick accompanied by his brother Camil singing "Nobody's Child".

Harold 'Jake' Higgins was in his usual good form as master of ceremonies.

After the card playing, prizes were given to the winners. Many door prizes, which were donated by merchants and friends of St. Joseph School, were drawn for. Refreshments were then served.

Miss Isabelle Smyth, Convener of Ways and Means and Mrs. Beryl Legros of the Refreshment Committee, as well as all the members of the executive of the PTA wish to thank anyone who helped in any way to make the evening such a great success.

Hemmingford jumps with St. Pat parties

St. Patrick has many friends in Hemmingford it would seem, judging by the many celebrations held in and around the village last Saturday.

The St. Andrew's U.C.W. started the ball rolling with a grand tea-party in the Church Hall. Appropriate decorations graced the walls and on the tea tables were dainty green doilies in the shape of a shamrock leaf with napkins to match. Even the delicious salads, in the main, wore the same delicate colour!

It was a most successful event, the fine weather brought out a large crowd and a most enjoyable program opened the affair.

In the evening the annual St. Patrick's party was held at the Golf Club.

This was attended by 211 enthusiasts who enjoyed a supper of - what else! - corned beef and cabbage and Irish stew followed by a huge cake in the form of a shamrock.

The Club house was gaily decorated with green top hats and streamers and all the men were issued with bowler hats or straw hats in white and green. Dancing followed.

Members of the Hemmingford Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion and their guests held a party in the Legion Hall and here, also, there was a good attendance at a most enjoyable party.

And finally, the young people held a dance in St. Romain's Hall and, judging by the music (which could be heard at a considerable distance!) they, too, had a good time!

Area farmers hear experts

A successful "Crops Day" was held at CVR on Friday March 14, co-sponsored by the Continuing Education Department of the Regional School Board and John Brown of Howick, and attended by 80 area farmers.

The day-long session featured speakers from industry and educational institutions speaking on a variety of topics.

Donald Sutherland C.A. explained "Registered Retirement Savings Plans", followed by Robert Guy, District Sales Manager from Funk's, speaking on "Forages and Corn Hybrids".

Murray Ellis of Toronto, sales representative for Monsanto, spoke on "Weed Control in Annual Grasses," assisted by Brodie Blair, Quebec sales manager for Fizon's.

After a lunch served at the school, Jack Shewburg, Salesmanager for Warwick Seeds, discussed "Research on the Future Development of Hybrids".

Next to speak was John Curtis, Director of the Kemptville College of Agricultural Technology, with a report on past weather conditions in the area and statistics on crop production, such as the recent increase in corn silage, and a corresponding decrease in hay.

Accompanying him was Agrologist Bob Jenkinson, who stressed the importance of weed control and of planting the earliest possible hybrid for local climatic conditions.

Final speaker of the day was Ev Thomas of the Miner Institute, Chazy, N.Y., who also spoke on weed control, and the importance of using lime.

Girls hockey

Gap narrows in trophy race; locals win two exhibitions

Games 18 and 19 of regular play in the girls division o f the Huntingdon Minor Hockey League saw Team B pick up two points on the rival A squad.

Only one more game is scheduled and if Mons Duke's team continues its winning ways the season will end with the teams tied.

The last game will be played Friday March 28 at 7 p.m.

Two score twice

In Game 18 Judy Renaud picked up her second shutout of the season as her team won 4-0. Jennifer Coulombe was the big gun for the Bs, picking up two goals and one assist. Joanne McGerrigle maintained her lead as her team's top goal getter by netting the other two goals of the night. Teri Smythe and Nicole Taillefer each gained a point with an assist.

Last Friday night - game 19 - the growing number of girls' hockey fans were treated to another fast-skating, exciting game. From the outset it appeared as if the B squad was out for another decisive win. In the opening minutes Joanne McGerrigle clicked for an unassisted goal. Before the period ended Gail Henderson found the target, scoring on a pass across the goal mouth by Sheree Smythe.

The score held until the third period when Claude Remillard's team finally got on the board with a goal from a pile up in front of the net. When the players sorted themselves out, Referee Bernard Rougerie awarded the goal toLouise Brisebois.

Going down to the wire, Carol Middlemiss scored a "picture" goal, skating across the goal mouth and backhanding the puck into the short side of the net. The tally,Carol's 23rd of the year, tied the score at 2-2 and play ended with each team gaining a point on the night's action.

Exhibition wins

The weekend saw the Huntingdon A and B squads take on two Montreal Island high school teams and win both games.

On Friday the As travelled to Pierrefonds to meet the unbeaten team from the Comprehensive school After two periods of no-body-contact hockey the Huntingdon girls led 6-2. Playing the opposition at their own game in the final period our girls managed another two markers with no reply from the opposition. The final count was 8-2, Carol Middlemiss picking up four and Louise Brisebois and Joanne McGerrigle each scoring two.

On Saturday morning the A team shut out Marymount High School 5-0 in a contest played at the Huntingdon Arena.

Experience tells

Teri Smythe counted twice in the first period against the less experienced city squad. Louise Brisebois added a goal in the second and the final counter of the match in the dying minutes.

Jennifer Coulombe, on a great end-to-end rush, completed the scoring. Elaine Donnelly and Judy Renaud shared the shut-out.

Huntingdon will play a rematch in Montreal on Wednesday March 26 at Confederation Arena.

Other upcoming games will be the rescheduled match against John Abbott at the Huntingdon Arena at 7:00 p.m. Friday March 21. This game will feature the All Stars. On Saturday morning at 11 the A team takes on the Chateauguay girls.

Men curlers win Battle of Sexes

Last week's so-called "Battle of the Sexes" curling match between Lee Tobin's Caledonia rink, the Canadian ladies champions and the men's rink of Jimmy Ursel of St. Laurent which represented Quebec in The Brier competition, went to the men, 9-5.

The match at the Caledonia Club drew 500 spectators, reportedly the largest crowd ever to watch a curling event in Montreal. Ursel's rink picked up first place match money of $500.

Nonetheless Lee Tobin, who learned her early curling in Huntingdon, wasn't too put off.

"We're just as good shooters as the men," she said.

Edmonton bonspiel

CVR schoolboy team wins 4, plays well

The CVR curling rink which represented Quebec at the National Schoolboy Curling Championships in Edmonton last week returned on the weekend with a record of four wins and seven losses, though as the mother of one of the boys said, "Their record does not tell the whole story".

Skip Barry Ness, Third Steve Borland, Second John Stewart, and Lead Rick Gamble came home with many souvenirs and lots of memories, although they were not in the running for the championship, won for the second straight year by Alberta.

In a televised interview in Edmonton, the Alberta skip gave credit to the CVR team, saying that his rink's toughest game was against the Quebecers.

Among the extras laid on for the schoolboy curlers during their Edmonton stay were school visits, a trip to the St. Albert Curling club where they visited with curling great Hec Gervais, a Klondike breakfast and banquets galore.

This week, the boys and Coach Elmer Black of Howick have their noses back to the grindstones of school and work. All four team members are Grade 11 students, and the Edmonton trip was the culmination of two years of curling together under the late Bruce Ness and after his death last fall, under Coach Black.

Howick held their annual Mixed Bonspiel Friday, March 7, through Friday, March 14, with the eight qualifiying teams curling a final playoff Saturday.

Though a highly competitive event, the emphasis was on a funtime with a gala evening each night of the bonspiel at the Club.

The Ormstown Club merits honorable mention if only because of their 11 entries. And it was perhaps indicative that three Ormstown teams qualified for the finals.

With Harold Robertson as Bonspiel Host and Ken Roy as Chairman, this proved to be a highly successful undertaking.

Winners in the "A" Section and the Logan Memorial Trophy after a well-called closely contested match was Riverfield's Kyrke Nussey, Susan Nussey, Mel Reddick and Elaine Piché over Howick's Ken Whyte, Jane Whyte, Gord Petrie and Barb Petrie. In the "B" series it was Ormstown all the way with Erskine McClintock's team of Jean McClintock, Earle Templeton and Agnes Howie emerging winners over Don McCormick, Hope McCormick, Jim McGerrigle and Betty McGerrigle.

Annual outing

Two hundred and forty curlers from south of the border descended on the Montreal curling scene last weekend. The occasion, the Gordon International Medals competition.

This event is played on each year with Canada and U.S. alternating as hosts, it is not intended to be a serious competition, the emphasis being placed on sociability, fellowship and hospitality.

The winners are determined by total points.

Canada won last year's event 126-104.

From the District to the competition Howick's Bill Ness, John Cluff, Tom Brown and Charles Leblanc, Riverfield's Kyrke Nussey, Brent Butler, Alex Templeton Gary Allen; Valleyfield's Fred Soucy, Bill Weed, Bruce Clarke and Charlie Zaegman.

The Lacolle ladies held their annual one-day Bonspiel Thursday, March 13. Winner in the "A" section was Beauchateau - Dot Johnson, Mary Hurley, Marjorie Rowe, Frances Rolph over an entry from C.F.B. St. Jean. In the "B" series it was Ormstown - Alice McMahon, Bernice McGerrigle, Joyce Templeton, Beryl Keeler, Runners-up - St. Lambert.

Center winners in the McCallum Filly Ladies competition played at the Ormstown Club, Saturday, March 15 Huntingdon - Maddie Curran, Eleanor Ryan, Heather Tannahill and E. Lepardo.

This is an LCA competition for ladies with seven years or less curling experience, the winners now advance to a District playoff in the Lacolle Club, Saturday, March 22.

Forty-eight teams from four centers competed in the Ladies Maple Leaf competition. This is an annual LCA event. The final results are as follows: 1st place Sherbrooke, 2nd Bedford, 3rd Beauchateau, 4th Lacolle, 5th Cowansville.

COMING - Howick Ladies one-day Bonspiel, Thursday, March 20; Huntingdon Mens' March 21-22. Ladies Moore - Riverfield - March 25, 26, 27; Riverfield's Wooden - Block tournament, April 1-5.

T—LINES - Brier winners Bill Tetley and his team will represent Canada in the World Curling Championship competition for the Air Canada Silver Broom Tophy to be held in Perth, Scotland, March 17-22.

The final game will be televised Saturday afternoon, March 22 and should be a good show.

Would you believe: Alex McCaig flogs a broom to death in three games? Erik the Red met the greatest "chick" ever in Fredericton? Bob Tennant has been advised to buy a hair piece? And Harold Robertson is considering renting space for a room in the Howick Club?

Huntingdon Curling

On Saturday night, March 15, the Huntingdon Curling Club hosted the Optimists Club, the Lions Club, Knights of Columbus, Masons, Rotary Club, Farm Implement Dealers, Cleyn and Tinker employees and Rotary Club of Chateaugay, N.,Y.

The winning team with 66.6 per cent was the Chateaugay Rotary Club skipped by Jack Perry, Junior Gillette, third, Thomas Lattart, second and Nick Cincotta lead.

Tied for runners-up honors with 60 per cent was the team skipped by Ignatz Primus, Ken McCleneghan, third, Pierre Laplante, second and Dave Niles lead, and the team skipped by Bernie Bonenberg, David Tannahill, third, Ken McLaughlin, second and Stanley McDonnagh, lead.

Following the games lunch was served by the ladies club. Dr. Sweet, president of the men's club, presented curling glasses to the winners and runners-up. He also congratulated and thanked Alex Deme, Bill Goodall and Michel Beaudin, the organizers of these games, for all their work and time spent in lining up the teams and a special thanks to the ladies for serving lunch and to the club members, who were out on the ice instructing the new curlers.

The evening of April 5 has been set aside for another night of curling for these clubs and it is hoped that their ladies will be curling along with the men that night.

On March 21 and 22, Huntingdon Men's Invitational Bonspiel will be held with 12 outside clubs playing for the Bourgon, Cluff, Latreille Trophy. Anyone wishing to see good curling is cordially invited to the club to watch. On March 21 games will be played at 7 and 9 p.m. and on the 22nd games will start at 2 p.m. and continue through the afternoon and evening.

At Ormstown

Curlers honor Archie McCaig

One of the area's oldest active curlers, 86-year old Archie McCaig of Ormstown, was guest of honor on Saturday March 15, when the Ormstown Curling Club Ladies staged a smorgasbord supper attended by 210 people, amidst gay St. Patrick's Day decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaig were presented with a boutonniere and corsage to mark 'Archie McCaig Night' by Mrs. Jim Peters and Mrs. Bill White.

In a short address, Bury McGerrigle mentioned that Archie has been curling for the past 15 years, since he moved to Ormstown from his farm near St. Louis de Gonzague.

The remarkable part is that at the age of 86, he still curls two or three times a week, wielding his broom with the best of them.

Club President Jim Peters then presented Mr. and Mrs. McCaig with a small gift on behalf of all the members, and Archie expressed his thanks for the evening and the thoughtfulness of the members.

The evening continued with curling for experienced and beginners alike. As usual, a goodly number of plate glass skips made all the tough shots. Later, music for dancing was supplied by the Kenny Lamb orchestra.

Ormstown downs Huntingdon 16-11

Games for the Men's District Challenge Cup, which is played approximately every two weeks, were held in Ormstown Curling Club on March 7 when two Ormstown teams played two teams from the Huntingdon Curling Club with Ormstown winning with a score of 16-11 in total points.

The teams from Ormstown were skip B. Brunet, A. Borland, W. Keeler and B. Stewart playing against the Huntingdon team of skip T. Brooks, D. Robidoux, M. Beaudin and R. Ouimet.

The other game was played between Ormstown's skip G. Hebert, J. Whitehead, R. McKell and W. McClintock and Huntingdon's skip J. Abraham, C. Stewart, B. Lansche and G. McClenaghan.

in the Huntingdon demonstration.

Art and Miriam are the parents of 10-year-old Joanne, who is already making her mark in local skating circles after only one year's lessons.

"These lessons are not only for the especially talented," said Art, "but for anyone desiring to learn something about a sport which can be enjoyed over many years.

"Even if a child never becomes outstanding, he or she learns the same kind of poise and pride in physical achievement that other ahtletic disciplines provide."

Coulombe stressed that if such lessons can be set up in Huntingdon, the cost to parents will by no means be excessive.

"Beginners need only one 15-minute lesson per week with a professional instructor, and the fee for this would be about $3.50" he said. "In addition, there would be a membership fee of maybe $30 to help defray the cost of renting the ice for practice sessions."

It now costs $20 per year to register a child for Minor Hockey in Huntingdon.

The only other requirement is a good pair of skates.

Boht Coulombe and Tardif stressed that anyone from six to 60 who is interested in participating in figure skating should turn out on March 25, when additional information and application forms will be available. Next fall might be too late.

Wolves . . .

The government has received numerous complaints about wolves from Hemmingford-Havelock-St. Chrysostome area farmers. The meeting is to inform farmers and other interested in participating in the hunt about the manner in which it will be carried out, using dogs.

At the agronome's office in Huntingdon it was pointed out that the Chateauguay Valley is not alone in the problem of an expanded wolf population. Attention was drawn to recent notes put out by the Canada Sheep Marketing Council stressing a new predator control study for all agricultural areas aimed at bringing uniformity to provincial regulations.

Among steps suggested is an extensive public relations campaign to make the general public aware of the problem posed in the farm community by predators such as wolves and establishment of properly organized predator control officers with adequate staff, training and financing.

Another point made in phase one of the study committee's work suggests that government permission be obtained for the use of aircraft and snowmobiles in hunting killer predators.

Still another point asks "media involvement to convince the public that the purpose of predator control is not extermination but reduction of the species to levels where its natural food will suffice."

What did you do in school today?

Mum knows - she was there

by JUDY TAYLOR
of The Gleaner

EXTRA CHAIRS in the back of the French class are for Ormstown parents, several of whom brought pre-schoolers along to get a taste of school.

Most parents' ideas about their children are based upon what they observe at home and at play, but some 75 Ormstown parents had a chance to see their children in a real classroom situation at the Ormstown Elementary School Open House held Wednesday March 5.

In some cases it was a revelation.

"What I noticed in particular was the feeling the children have for each other," said one mother who spent the day in school, moving through various classes in different subjects.

"In a Grade 3 art class," she said, "the youngsters made a point of praising their classmates' Easter pictures, and in a public speaking class, there was only friendly laughter at mistakes or hesitations.

"The atmosphere in the school must be good, when the pupils are so happy with themselves and each other."

First hand view

The idea for the Open House resulted from visits to the school by School Committee members earlier in the year. As Principal Bill White said, "You cannot understand how a school works unless you see it in operation at first hand."

So, rather than an evening visit to an empty classroom containing only carefully laid out samples of a child's work, Ormstown parents saw a school filled with busy, lively children, only too happy to show mummy or daddy what they spend some 30 hours doing every week.

Lively chatter

Another mother, watching Grade 2 pupils climbing ropes in Phys. Ed. class, commented, "Things have certainly changed since I was in school - it's never silent now. There is a constant hum of noise and chatter going on, and most of it would seem to be about the schoolwork they are doing. In my day, we didn't dare open our mouths."

As well as the selection of open classes from 9:30 to 3 p.m., visitors could see an assortment of videotapes, slides, and displays of pupils' work.

Assisting the teaching staff were senior students from Grades 5 and 6 who hosted the parents and ran the audio-visual equipment. Coffee was supplied by the School Committee.

Feedback from parents to the School Committee indicated that the new methods of teaching reading to primary students, and the French immersion class were prime attractions.

Such an Open House has not been held at Ormstown Elementary for several years, and, with an estimated 60 per cent of families represented at this one, and uniformly enthusiastic comments from all those present, prospects would seem excellent for making the Open House an annual affair.

H'don W.I. welcomes newcomer

Huntingdon W.I. met March 4 at the home of Mrs. George Lindsay, with 21 ladies present and one new member was welcomed. Mrs. Ottney conducted the meeting.

It is requested that a married woman use her husband's name on her subscription because in some cases it might be given as Mrs. Jane Smith, next time Mrs. John Smith, and this means duplicating in mailing of copies of the magazine.

It was moved and seconded that at the Christmas meeting, the usual exchange of gifts, be discontinued. In their place, each member would donate the price of a gift to the Senior Citizens Home Huntingdon) Fund.

the truck had stopped at the intersection before turning onto King St., and that Andrea was struck by the right front portion of the truck near the wheel.

Valerie stated that there was a driver in the truck; that the vehicle was blue with a silver tank, and looked like a milk truck.

Kevin Thurston, 18, a student at C.V.R. said he was about 300 feet from the intersection when the accident occurred. Seated in the rear of a regional school bus momentarily stopped near the office of Dr. McCrimmon on King St., Thurston had turned around to talk to a friend at the moment of the accident, and so saw it happen.

According to his testimony, the little girl was crossing the street, and when the bell rang, she started to run. He said that from what he could see, it seemed that the child hit the side of the truck, about six inches from the back wheels.

Ran over her

He told the Coroner: "The truck ran over her .. I heard a sort of 'bang'...the truck was not going fast at the time."

Questioned by he Prosecutor, Thurston said that the back windows of the school bus were clear. He stated that the truck shook slightly at the moment it passed over the child's body. He said that the truck looked familiar, but had no writing on the back that he could see from his distance of 300 feet.

David MacPherson, 14, said he was a passenger on the same school bus headed for C.V.R., was sitting in the back seat, and saw the truck turn from Dalhousie onto King St. He said he had observed Andrea before the accident happened, and described her as wearing a blue snowmobile suit and having scarves wrapped around part of her face against the cold.

MacPherson also stated: The truck was blue with an aluminum tank and had no writing on the back.

Neither boy was able to identify the truck positively. Neither saw the driver

Annette van Saundert, of Wellington St. in Huntingdon, declared that she saw no truck or school bus at the intersection, where she discovered the child's body on her way to work.

Main witness

Michael Murphy was the principal inquest witness.

Rocking back and forth in his chair, Murphy described his actions on the morning of Jan., 20. Driving a milk truck for his father's firm, Murphy said that about 8:25 a.m., he was on Dalhousie St., preparing to turn onto King St.

"As far as I know, I was not involved in the accident," he told Prosecutor Blanchard.

While turning west onto King St., he saw a Huntingdon Woollen Mills truck going south on Dalhousie St., and a school bus going from west to east on King St.

Murphy stated that he saw no children near the Academy. He said he did not run over anything, nor did he hear a "bang".

He told the coroner that the truck which he was driving had the word "Guaranteed" written on the back, contrary to the previous testimony of the two students.

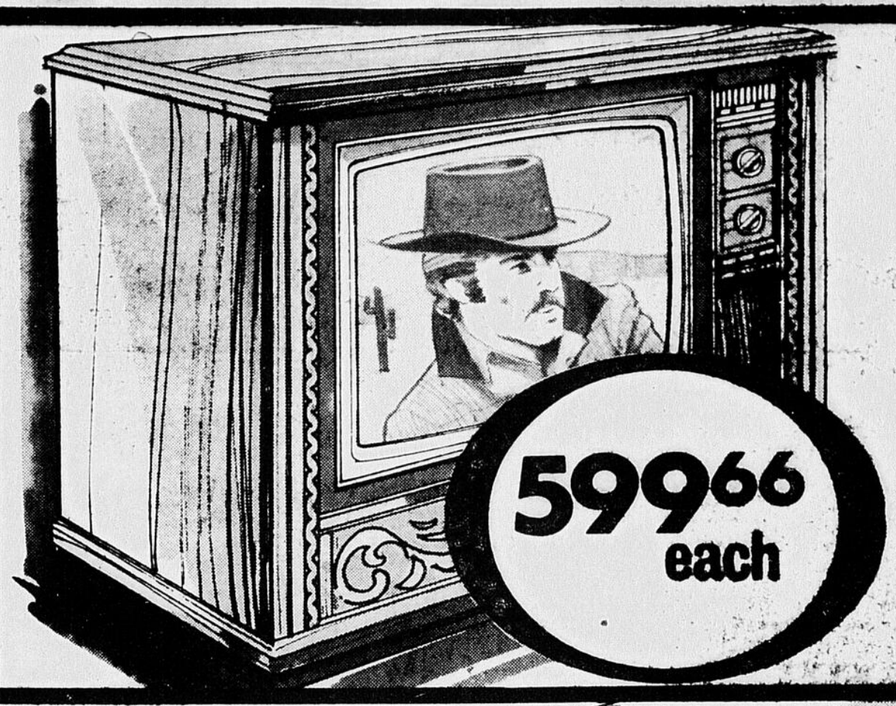

"I heard the school bell ring as I passed the front doors of the Academy," he said. "I don't take that route every day, more like once a week."

After finishing his route on the day of the accident, Murphy heard about the death of Andrea Lacey. He said he felt no curiosity about the accident and his possible involvement in it, and did not look at or examine his truck.

He completed his testimony by saying that his truck was at no time shaken or jarred, and that it would have been impossible to strike a child without knowing it.

Sergeant Philippe Cardinal of the Huntingdon Town Police confirmed that Murphy's truck was examined on the day of the accident and that no traces of involvement were found.

Not a single lazybones on Howick W.I. roster

By Florence Crawford

The annual pot luck lunch of Howick Women's Institute was held at the United Church hall on Tuesday March 4.

The Chateauguay members were in charge with Margaret Ness and Isabel Templeton as hostesses.

Tables were set up and decorated by Mrs. Templeton, who on this occasion used her green thumb to advantage. Some of the greenery was the work of Mrs. Shirley Ness' class at H.E.S., all symbolic of St. Patrick's day.

A delicious variety of hot casseroles, salads and desserts on the buffet was served at 12:30 to 28 members and four guests. This was a leisurely meal with time for fellowship.

Before and for a time after lunch was served, the members examined and admired a display of framed picutres done in crewel, needle point and other stitches - the work of Mrs. Archie Roy.

Mrs. Donald Chisholm presided at the business meeting. The roll call - a hobby or craft I enjoy doing - gave the impression there wasn't a lazy bone in the crowd.

When they aren't "busy" they make afghans, knit, crochet, sew, study the Bible, nutrition, raise tropical fish, read, delight in gardening, flowers or house plants, do crewel, needlepoint, etc. enjoy preparing meals or baking or working with clay.

One senior member a retired R.N. with many talents is busy at some hobby by 4:30 a.m., swings into the Eddie Allen exercises at 6 a.m., does most of the Yoga later on, shovels snow, skis, grows things, paints, etc. She didn't mention these things particularly but merely said, "Everything I do is a hobby except housework."

Plans were made for finals of the public speaking contest for school children to be held at Howick on March 14. All were encouraged to attend and to be present also at the local semi-finals on March 10.

The Salvation Army will be asked to send their truck to Howick sometime in May to pick up used but useful articles.

The treasurer, Mrs. Lillian Chisholm read a letter of thanks from Mrs. Graham, nurse at CVR who spoke of the project which provides breakfasts for 30 students. There was a balance on hand of $46.27.

Good year

The secretary, Mrs. Huntley Greig in her annual report showed that the past year had been a good one in many ways - stimulating speakers and conveners' reports, interesting demonstrations.

Twelve members had perfect attendance.

Two conveners gave regular reports. Lila Hamilton, education, spoke of drug education which has changed now from the scare approach to an informative one.

Marna Brown, education, spoke of improving the status of women to promote awareness of the changing role of women in today's society.

She said the government has allocated money to promote projects for Women's International Year to promote the full equality of women in Canadian society and would continue to promote the status of women after the International Year.

Hazel Robertson read a letter from a W.I. member in PEI mentioning their work. She reported that a meeting will be held at Valleyfield CEGEP on April 10 organized by the Cercle de Fermieres with invitation extended to Women's Institutes.

Margaret Chisholm thanked Helen Roy and Isabel Templeton for the extra effort they had made towards the interest and enjoyment of the meeting. She thanked also the retiring officers and everyone who had cooperated with her during her term as president.

After the election of officers, the newly elected president, Rhoda McFarlane took the chair, thanked the members for their confidence and asked for their help and support; thanked the outgoing officers and spoke briefly of the April meeting when an interesting speaker will be heard.

The 1975 slate of officers: Past pres. Mrs. Donald Chisholm; president Mrs. Robert McFarlane; 1st vice-president Mrs. James Templeton; secretary Mrs. Robert H. Tolhurst; treasurer Mrs. Lillian Chisholm.

Conveners: agriculture Mrs. Archie Roy; citizenship Mrs. Charles Mills; education Mrs. Una Gruer; home economics Mrs. Huntley Greig; publicity Mrs. Donald Chisholm; welfare & health Mrs. Melville Brown.

Dundee W.I. reviews 1974 -- active year

The Dundee Women's Institute will sponsor a truck pick-up for the Salvation Army in the Municipal Hall April 24. All good used articles of clothing, furniture, electrical appliances and so on, books and magazines will be accepted.

The pick-up date was announced at the branch's annual business meeting March 5 held at the home of Mrs. Jos. Nieuwenhof with President Mrs. Wm. Leslie conducting.

To mark the approach of St. Patrick's Day the roll call was answered by each member providing an Irish joke. One was the story of a fair Irish lass from the city on her first visit to a farm where, with Farmer O'Leery she watched two little calves scampering across the pasture.

"Oh," she said, "What pretty little cowlets."

"You're mistaken, mam," answered Farmer O'Leery. Them's bullets." bullets."

With the joke period completed members got down to business and revised the list of members receiving the Macdonald Journal so as to eliminate suplicate mailing due to the Dundee postal address being changed to Ste. Agnes de Dundee. A motion was passed to donate $15 to the Quebec Service Fund.

A 500 card party is planned for March 22 in the Municipal Hall. Look for details of this and the SA pick-up in later issues of The Gleaner.

The annual provincial convention of the Quebec Women's Institutes will be held in Macdonald College, May 26-29 inclusive.

Members expressed their appreciation of a donation of ballpoint pens and match books from Anthony Van Winden to be used at card parties.

The annual treasurer's report, read by Mrs. N.D. McPhee, showed a profitable year. Mrs. W. Arnold and Mrs. Jos. Nieuwenhof audited the books and found them correct.

Year reviewed

Among the year's activities of the Dundee Women's Institute were the sponsoring of card parties; a truck pick-up for the Salvation Army; serving of refreshments at a local field corn demonstration as well as at a general meeting of the L.C.S.C. in the municipal hall; a visit to the House of History in Malone; a sewing bee to make a quilt; donation of a trophy to the municipal winter carnival; cash donation to the Huntingdon County Agricultural Fair as well as to other projects of the Women's Institutes.

Members feel it was a successful year and are grateful to all those who helped make it so.

New members are always welcome and any interested lady in the community may contact a member for further information.

Miss Thelma McMillan took the chair for the election of officers and conveners.

The following slate was elected: president - Mrs. Wm. Leslie (re-elected); 1st vice-Miss Thelma McMillan; secretary - Mrs. Hugh Ferguson (re-elected); treasurer - Mrs. N.D. McPhee (re-elected).

Conveners: Agriculture - Mrs. Jos.Nieuwenhof; Citizenship - Mrs. Carol Stark; Education - Mrs. Wilbur Stowell (re-elected); Home Ecnomics - Mrs. Jos. Platt (re-elected); Publicity - Mrs. Hugh Ferguson (re-elected); Welfare & Health - Miss Thelma McMillan.

The hostess, Mrs. Nieuwenhof, assisted by her daughters, served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Hinchinbrooke brigade expands

The Hinchinbrooke Volunteer Fire Brigade at its monthly meeting for March agreed to change its by-laws to allow a membership increase from 27 to 28, thus giving the brigade additional strength while reducing the individual workload of the volunteers.

Also the brigade decided to step up its integration of those on the waiting list for membership into more active participation in the brigade functions. Henceforth the top four applicants on the waiting list will fit into a rearrangement of work crews so that they can assist them in their duties.

As vacancies occur in the regular membership, those filling the positions will, as a result of the rearrangement, have had practical experience in the normal operations of the brigade.

The meeting was chaired by President Lorne McNaughton, assisted by Secretary Stanley Erskine at the Athelstan Fire Hall where Treasurer Earl Elder presented the financial statement to an almost full membership turn-out.

Applications for membership were received from Douglas Grant, Douglas Hayter and Gerald McCormick. There are now seven applicants on the waiting list. Also Richard Panunzio, who has returned to full time in Athelstan will rejoin the brigade as a member from his previous status as exempt member.

Two important purchases were authorized at the meeting. The first will be for the procurement of a 16 mm. sound movie projector. Due to the youth training program and public education work the demands for this piece of equipment have increased to the point where renting or borrowing projection machinery is no longer feasible. It will serve as a valuable addition for public service requirements. The second purchase will be for two new radios which will integrate into the new mutual aid communications network now on order.

100 turn out for Hi-C breakfast

Those who belong to the Howick Hi C group, were up with the birds on Sunday morning preparing to serve breakfast to all hungry folk who arrived at the United Church Hall between the hours of 9:30 and 10:15 a.m.

Farmers rise early so it may have been the second meal for some, and one youngster admitted it was his third.

Pancakes, sausages, syrup, and coffee or milk were relished by the 100 or more who attended . The tables looked inviting with pretty St. Patrick's decorations and everything ran like clockwork with everyone doing his or her job and no confusion.

The net proceeds of approximately $95 will help this group in one of their worthy projects.

Special music has added much to theLenten services. The Old Rugged Cross, favorite of many, was sung by Leslie Orr on March 2, with chorus by the choir. Some 30 children from the Sunday School were delightful in the singing of two anthems on March 9 -- Standing in the Need of Prayer, and Down in my Heart.

Thanks go to Joan Knox, superintendent of the school, who trained the children and played the organ accompaniment. The choirs are working now on the Easter music in all the churches.

Ormstown W.I.

Bilingual flavor given to meeting

The Ormstown W.I. celebrated its Annual Meeting March 4 by lunching at Caza Venezia before proceeding to the Senior Citizens Club Room where 14 members and six guests gave a touch of bilingualism to the occasion by answering the roll call with year and date of birth in French.

The financial report showed that the "pennies for friendship" had doubled during the past year.

Conveners' reports

Agriculture: Egg quotas will be reduced by 10 per cent except in the Maritimes.

Education: Prizes for public speaking at Ormstown Elementary School were presented on Tuesday March 11.

Citizenship: An article on the life of Flora MacDonald, prominent in the Federal Conservative Party, was read.

Home Economics: Recipes for cooking wild rice were given.

Health and Welfare: People need more exercise for good health, and should walk instead of riding whenever possible. Also mentioned was safety in footwear. Non-slip stickers, like those used in bathtubs can be applied to soles of boots and slippers.

Round ones are best.

Publicity: A new branch is being formed in St. Lambert. All reports are to be sent to County Conveners immediately after meetings, and the 1975 slate of officers is to be forwarded to the Macdonald College Office.

Special guest Mrs. Greig of Howick told the meeting about a Scottish W.I. which sent a haggis as a gift to the Howick group. Unfortunately, it did not travel well and was in pretty poor shape on arrival. The exchange gift of maple syrup sent by Howick fared better and was enjoyed.

The new slate of officers was presented by Mrs. Anderson, the only change being the replacement of Secretary Mrs. Gillard by Mrs. A. McGerrigle. The coming year was presented, subject to tentative program for the change.

the engineers, Council's next step, said the mayor, will be to pass the enabling by-law which must be approved by taxpayers at a public meeting. If more than 20 oppose the expenditure as outlined in the by-law it would then have to go to a town referendum.

"The obtaining of this grant is a major event in every respect," said Mayor Pilon. "Mr. Fraser has always worked hard for Huntingdon County and this is another example."

New mission

In great good humor, the mayor said Huntingdon was not going to let Fraser rest on his laurels.

"He is leaving tomorrow (Tuesday) for Quebec with the Town's resolution for a low rental housing project for retired people and we have asked him to seek government aid for this," said Mayor Pilon.

The housing project is the primary goal of the 150th anniversary celebrations of Huntingdon in late June and all monies raised by various organizations engaged in the commemorative rites and events will go toward that project.

"But of course it is not to be expected that we will raise the whole total in the course of the anniversary events alone," added the Mayor. "That is why we shall have to ask Quebec to help and that is why we are depending again on Mr. Fraser's assistance."

Already, he said, Cleyn & Tinker Ltd., and Bouchette Enterprises Ltd. have given the Town a letter of intent expressing a willingness to donate sufficient land for the housing project for the elderly.

As at present conceived, this project calls for 50 housing units at an estimated total cost of $1,000,000.

Textile shipments down

Shipments by Canadian textile mills of fabrics made from man-made fibres totalled 338,896,000 square yards in 1974, down more than 19 million from the 1973 total of 357,993,000. The statistics were issued by Canadian Textiles Institute recently.

The 1974 year closed with December shipments totalling 27,067,000 square yards, more than 20 per cent below shipments of 34,126,000 square yards in December 1973, the report said.

dernier.

Se balançant sur sa chaise, Michael Murphy témoigna et déclara ce qu'il fit le matin du 20 janvier dernier. Il nota qu'il conduisait un camion à lait de la firme de père, Gérald Murphy Transport, le matin de l'accident.

Vers les 8:25 heures a.m. ce matin-là, Michael Murphy emprunta la rue Dalhousie pour ensuite touner sur la rue King. "A ma connaissance, je ne fus pas impliqué dans un accident", déclara-t-il au procureur.

Ce matin-là, il vit un camion de la Huntingdon Woollen Mills circulant en direction sud sur la rue Dalhousie; l'autobus scolaire circulait de l'ouest vers l'est sur la rue King, tandis que lui, il se dirigeait du nord vers l'ouest.

Donc, le camion de Murphy, de la rue Dalhousie en direction nord, emprunta la rue King, direction ouest.

Michael Murphy déclara ne pas avoir vu d'enfants près de la Huntingdon Academy. Il déclara qu'il ne passa pas sur quelque chose, et qu'il n'entendit pas de "bang".

Michael Murphy expliqua au coroner que le camion qu'il conduisait, le 20 janvier dernier avait le mot "Guaranteed" d'écrit à l'arrière, contrairement à ce que les deux étudiants avaient préalablement déclaré.

"J'ai entendu la sonnette de l'école lorsque je passais entre les deux portes de l'Academy. Je ne passe pas par ce chemin à chaque jour, plutôt une fois par semaine", de dire Michael Murphy.

Après avoir fait son trajet de travail, Michael Murphy entendit parler de l'accident qui causa la mort de la jeune Andréa Lacey. Ce dernier ne fut pas curieux à savoir s'il aurait été impliqué dans un tel accident, ne regardant pas ou n'examinant pas son camion.

Toutefois, il se rendit au garage où les enquêteurs de la police examinèrent le camion, le tout s'avérant négatif.

En terminant, Michael Murphy nota que le camion qu'il conduisait, ne fut en aucun temps secoué, et qu'il était impossible d'avoir heurté l'enfant sans s'en être aperçu.

Le Sergent Cardinal à la barre:

Le Sergent Cardinal de la Sûreté Municipale de Huntingdon déclara au coroner que les enquêterus examinèrent le même jour le camion conduit par Michael Murphy, et qu'aucune trace ne fut découverte.

Il nota toutefois que le jeune Murphy venait de faire son parcours régulier de travail, et que cette examen sur le camion se fit vers les 16 heures, le 20 janvier. Le Sergent nota également qu'une recherche sur d'autres camions fut effectuée, mais en vain.

Cercle de Fermières

La dernière réunion du Cercle de Fermières avait lieu le mercredi 12 mars dernier avec une bonne assistance. Après lecture du procès-verbal de la dernière assemblée, la présidente commenta les activités du mois en cours; le 19 mars, voyage des Fermières à la Canadian Schenley de Valleyfield; le 18 mars, invitation à assister au défilé de mode pour hommes tenu aux Joyeux Lurons de St-Antoine Abbé; le 5 avril, invitation à une partie de cartes à St-J. Baptiste Marie-Vianney de Châteauguay. Le 10 avril, Journée de la femme au Centre de Loisirs de Bellerive; le 11 mai, Salon de la Femme à Montréal; le 20 avril Partie de sucre de notre cercle à la Cabane à sucre de Roger Imbeault sur la route 14.

Le Rév. P. Poirier est venu nous entretenir du Chantier '75 dont le thème est: La Famille. Il releva le contraste qui existe entre la famille de 1930 et celle de 1975. Il a dit vouloir nous aider à réfléchir sur la valeur de la famille, son importance pour la survivance de notre peuple. Son but est d'organiser des rencontres pour rendre les foyers plus humains.

La conférencière invitée, Mme Marcelle Trépanier, de Valleyfield, diététicienne, avait intitulé sa causerie: "La nutrition à la portée de tous". On est ce que l'on mange, dit-elle. Elle fut présentée par Mme R. Forget et remerciée par Mme Gérard D'Aoust qui lui présenta un souvenir au nom du cercle - des napperons tissés par Mme R. Forget.

Les membres comme d'habitude avaient apporté de magnifiques travaux que toutes ont pu admirer.

Pierre Marois écoute et parle aux gens

Une quinzaine de personnes assistaient à la reunion de samedi dernier. Pierre Marois est avocat, a été président de l'ACEF pendant plusieurs années et il travaille encore avec cet organiseme à titre de conseiller juridique. Il fut donc beaucoup question des problèmes des consommateurs et des producteurs agricoles à cette réunion. Un des cultivateurs présents avait apporté des documents pour prouver qu'il avait vendu des veaux en 1974 au même prix qu'en 1952, vingt-deux ans auparavant. Le prix - 15c la livre.

M. Jean-Guy Léger, de Huntingdon, qui avait organisé la rencontre de samedi dernier et qui poursuit des études en économie à l'université, a mentionné les chiffres suivants - de 1941 à 1971, les coûts de production sur la ferme ont augmenté de presque 1500 pourcent pendant ce temps, la valeur des expéditions provenant de la ferme n'a augmenté que de 450 pourcent.

Quant au consommateur, il se trouve tout aussi coincé à l'autre bout de la chaîne alimentaire. Et s'il a recours à l'emprunt - s'il emprunte par exemple $3,000 pour acheter une auto avec remboursement en 36 mois, il va payer en réalité 2½ à 3 fois cette somme si l'on calcule les intérêts. M. Marois fit remarquer là-dessus que si le PQ prenait le pouvoir, les compagnies de finance n'auraient plus le droit d'opérer.

Pierre Marois terminait, samedi soir, à Huntingdon sa tournée dans le comté.

A un participant qui s'inquiétait de la "fuite des capitaux" advenant la prise du pouvoir par le PQ, M. Marois a expliqué comment ça se passait lorsqu'une grosse compagnie vient s'installer dans un pays. D'après le rapport Porter, une telle compagnie apporte seulement 20 pourcent de l'argent nécessaire (le rapport Gray dit 15 pourcent). Le reste de l'argent, la compagnie le trouve dans le pays même où elle s'installe, par des hypothèques et des emprunts auprès de banques et institutions financières locales. Et c'est l'argent de qui, dans ces banques et compagnies d'assurances etc. a demandé M. Marois.

– C'est votre argent, mon argent, l'argent de nous tous, a affirmé M. Marois. Selon les derniers relevés, les Québecois tous ensemble ont $25 milliards dans les institutions financières. "Nous sommes les gens les plus "assurés" au monde, a dit Pierre Marois. Mais la plupart de nos primes d'assurance sont payées à des firmes à l'extérieur du Québec. En 11 ans, il y a eu $11 milliards exportés hors du Québec; tous ces milliards ont servi à développer "les autres".

Cette réunion d'information s'est terminée par un goûter. Pour Pierre Marois, cela marquait la fin d'une journée chargée.
