THE CATHEDRAL REV. J. TROUTBECK, D.D. PARAGRAPH PSALTER

CONTAINING THE
CANTICLES, PSALMS, AND PROPER PSALMS

ARRANGED IN PARAGRAPHS AND POINTED FOR CHANTING

TOGETHER WITH

A SCHEME OF APPROPRIATE CHANTS AND BRIEF
NOTES ON THE PSALTER

EDITED BY THE

REV. J. TROUTBECK, D.D.

(Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen and Minor Canon of Westminster).

PRICE THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE.

The principle of Pointing followed is that of the Cathedral Psalter, with slight modifications here and there, suggested by experience, in the treatment of individual verses. For the accents which are used in the Cathedral Psalter to indicate the beginning of the bar of duple time, which connects the free recitation with the metrical part of the chant, are substituted super-imposed musical notes, in accordance with the principle set forth in the Preface to the Cathedral Psalter, so as to indicate exactly, in every verse throughout the Psalter, the best method of dividing the bar into the component parts of a semibreve. Other means also have been adopted to ensure clearness and promote facility.

Prefixed to the new Psalter is a Scheme of Chants and some brief Notes on the History of the Psalter and the Characteristics of each Psalm.

THIRD EDITION (REVISED AND GREATLY ENLARGED).

Containing 600 Chants. Price 2s. 6d.; Cloth, 3s.

REV. J. TROUTBECK, D.D.

(Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen and Minor Canon of Westminster),

AND

J. FREDERICK BRIDGE, Mus. Doc.

(Organist of Westminster Abbey and Gresham Professor of Music).

This Edition has been arranged in connection with the CATHEDRAL PARAGRAPH PSALTER, prepared by Dr. Troutbeck on the lines of the Cathedral Psalter.

It has been enriched by many fresh contributions, including Single, Double, and Triple Chants—specially written for the Psalms to which they are set—by Dr. J. F. Bridge, J. Foster, Myles B. Foster, Dr. G. M. Garrett, Battison Haynes, Dr. A. C. Mackenzie, John E. West, Dr. G. C. Martin, Sir Herbert Oakeley, Sir John Stainer, B. Tours, and others, besides many now printed for the first time, by Sir Joseph Barnby, H. Smart, &c.

THE REDEMPTION.

COMMENTARY BY THE AUTHOR.

THIS work is a lyrical setting forth of the three great facts on which depends the existence of the Christian Church. These facts are: 1. The Passion and the Death of the Saviour. 2. His glorious life on earth from His Resurrection to His Ascension. 3. The spread of Christianity in the world through the mission of the Apostles. These three parts of the present Trilogy are preceded by a Prologue on the Creation, the Fall of our first parents, and the promise of a Redeemer.

THE PROLOGUE.

A. The Creation. An instrumental introduction, descriptive of Chaos. "And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light."

B. Creation of Man, priest and king of Nature. His Temptation and Fall. Sacrifices ineffectual. A Divine Mediator necessary. First occurrence of a melody typical of the Redeemer, both God and Man.

C. Promise of the Redeemer. (Second occurrence of the typical melody.) The decree of Redemption in the counsels of the Eternal. Mystic Chorus. — Annunciation of the Mystery of the Incarnation to the Holy Virgin. (Third occurrence of the typical melody.)

PART I.

"CALVARY."

I.

Recitatives. Condemnation and sentence of Jesus. Insults and outrages. Answer of Jesus.

The going up to Calvary.

This division of the first part of the work includes six distinct numbers, which, however, are linked together so as to form a single musical series.

1. An instrumental march, representing the brutality of the pagan force dragging Jesus to execution.

2. A lamentation, for female voices, representing Christian compassion, of which the musical setting, accompanied by the wailing notes of the orchestra, is borrowed from the Hymn in the Catholic Liturgy, "Vexilla Regis prodeunt" ("Forth the Royal Banners go").

3. Resumption of the instrumental march No. 1.

4. Lamentations of the Holy Women, on seeing Jesus fall under the weight of the Cross.

5. Words of Jesus to the Holy Women: "Ye daughters of Israel, weep ye not for Me, but weep ye for yourselves, and weep ye for your children."

6. Resumption of the instrumental march No. 1, but this time combined with the setting of No. 2, the continuous union of the two themes signifying the duration of both persecution and compassion throughout the ages of the world.

II. THE CRUCIFIXION.

Recitatives. Jesus arrives at the summit of Calvary. He is stretched upon the Cross :— His hands and feet are pierced by nails. The crowd insults and blasphemes Him. Chorus.— Mocking by the Priests. Chorus.— (Fourth occurrence of the typical melody.) Prayer of Jesus: "Pardon their sin, My Father." (Fifth occurrence of the typical melody.) The Saviour reproaches His people. Mystic Chorus.

III. MARY AT THE FOOT OF THE CROSS.

Recitatives. Jesus says to His Mother, concerning St. John, "Woman, behold thy son!" and to St. John, concerning the Virgin Mary, "Behold thy Mother!"

Quartet and Chorus. Mystic lamentation. The Holy Virgin. Chant of the "Stabat Mater" from the Catholic Liturgy, assigned to the orchestra, and accompanying the solo voice in the mystic lamentation.

Choral. The same combination, the chorus, in unison, singing the theme of the lamentation, the organ intrusted with the liturgical chant of the "Stabat Mater," and the orchestra expressing compassion for the sorrows of the Mother of Jesus.

IV. THE TWO THIEVES.

Recitatives.—Taunts of the impenitent thief. Humility and resignation of the penitent thief. Jesus promises him Paradise as the recompense of his faith. (Sixth occurrence of the typical melody.)— Choral. "Lord Jesus, Thou to all bringest light and salvation."

V. THE DEATH OF JESUS.

Recitative.— The darkness. Orchestra alone.— The last agonies of Jesus. His death.— The earthquake. Recitatives and Orchestra.

VI. THE CENTURION.

Recitative. The Centurion confesses the Divinity of Jesus.— Choral. The Church. Apostrophe to Death, conquered by the death of Jesus. Adoration of the Cross.

PART II.

"FROM THE RESURRECTION TO THE ASCENSION."

I.

Mystic Chorus. The doctrine of the Resurrection. Trumpets above: Orchestra, choirs, and organ. Christ is raised. Solo for horn and orchestra during the trumpet-calls from above. Choir and organ combined with the continuous trumpet-calls.

II. THE HOLY WOMEN AT THE SEPULCHRE.

Recitative.—Orchestra alone.—Recitative.—Conversation of the Holy Women on their way.—Recitative.—An Angel appears to them: he announces to them the resurrection of Jesus. This musical setting is supported by a harmonic combination in which the treble and the bass instruments of the orchestra maintain contrary motion, by a diatonic progression of tones and semitones, up to the moment when, at the words "He is risen," the melody and the bass suddenly move by the interval of a third, thus expressing that Christ, by His divine power, has triumphed over the grave and over subjection to Death.

III. JESUS APPEARING TO THE HOLY WOMEN.

Orchestra alone. The Holy Women, filled with both agitation and joy, set out again on their way, according to the command of the Angel, to announce to the Disciples, who have taken refuge in Galilee, the Resurrection of Jesus. (Instrumental theme of the preceding number.) Jesus appears to them in the way. Seventh occurrence of the typical melody in the orchestra, while Jesus is speaking. The Holy Women, after having worshipped the Saviour, rise up . . . Jesus disappears. They continue their journey.

IV. THE SANHEDRIM.

Recitative. Meanwhile, they that guarded the sepulchre, coming to themselves, find the tomb empty. They run in haste to the Sanhedrim, (Council of the Synagogue.) Chorus. "Christ is risen again. Vainly we kept a watch. Lo! the tomb open stands." Amazement of the Pharisees. Chorus. "Say ye that in the night His Disciples have come and stolen Him away." Humanity protests. Chorus. Denunciation of this mercenary imposture:—

"Now behold ye the guard, this your sleep-vanquished guard!"—

"For ages on your head shall contempt be outpoured."

V. THE HOLY WOMEN BEFORE THE APOSTLES.

Recitatives.—The Holy Women hasten to announce that they have seen Jesus. Trio.—Incredulity of the Apostles. Chorus.—"Blessed are they that believe." Soprano Solo and Chorus.

VI. JESUS APPEARING TO THE APOSTLES. THE ASCENSION.

Recitatives.—(Eighth occurrence of the typical melody.) Jesus gives the Apostles their mission. The orchestra takes up again the harmonic progression which accompanied the words of the Angel to the Holy Women at the sepulchre.

In the presence of the Apostles, Jesus ascends into heaven.

Finale. Above, celestial voices, harps and trumpets.

Chorus on earth; Orchestra, Organ.

The gates of heaven open before Him Who has conquered death.

Demand from the celestial choir: reply from the terrestrial choir.

The two choirs united: Orchestra, Organ.

Ninth and last occurrence of the typical melody, employing all the orchestra in unison, and supported by the full power of the organ.

PART III.

"THE PENTECOST."

I.

Prophetic Chorus. This number is a hymn in praise of the last age of Mankind, an age which will see the reign on earth of a great brotherhood, through peace and love, in a kind of last earthly Paradise, a foretaste of the blessedness of eternity.

1. An instrumental prelude, descriptive of the dawn of this age of bliss.
2. Chorus.
3. Soprano solo, celebrating the blessings of peace.
4. Repetition of the Chorus No. 2.

II. THE DESCENT OF THE HOLY GHOST.

Recitative.—The Apostles, in prayer, are awaiting, in the upper chamber, the fulfilment of the Divine promises.

Orchestra alone. The prayer of the Apostles.

Recitative.—Suddenly a sound as of a tempest fills the place where they are assembled. Tongues like as of fire descend upon the Apostles.

Recitatives.—A voice from Heaven proclaims to the Apostles that they may now go forth to the conquest of the world.

III. HYMN OF THE APOSTLES.

This division of the third part of the work, the last and one of the most highly developed of the Trilogy, comprises seven numbers, and gives a summary of the Christian faith.

1. The Apostles first proclaim the three great doctrines of the Incarnation of the Word, His eternal generation, and His continual presence with His Church. This first number is written in a style which is intended to recall the form and rhythm of the chants called "Proses" in the Catholic Liturgy.

2. Quartet and Chorus. "By faith salvation comes, and by peace consolation."

3. Chorus. His power manifested by miracles.

4. Quartet. "O come to Me, all ye that are sad and that weep."

5. Semi-Chorus. The Beatitudes.

6. Repetition of the theme of No. 1, with the whole choir, the orchestra, and the great organ.

7. Final Coda. Glorification of the Most Holy Trinity throughout all ages.

NOTE.—It was during the autumn of the year 1867 that I first thought of composing a musical work on the Redemption. I wrote the words at Rome, where I passed two months of the winter 1867-8 with my friend Hébert, the celebrated painter, at that time Director of the Academy of France. Of the music I then composed only two fragments: 1. The March to Calvary in its entirety; 2. The opening of the first division of the third part, the Pentecost. Twelve years afterwards I finished this work, which had so long been interrupted, with a view to its being performed at the Festival at Birmingham in 1882.

THE REDEMPTION.

PROLOGUE.

THE CREATION.

ORCHESTRA.

THE FALL.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

O Lord, when Thou didst rest from the work
of creation,
Thou didst call very good the things which Thou hadst made:
Of the works of Thy hands, by Thy predestination,
Was the father of men appointed to be head;
And he, placed in a land of abundance and beauty,
Lived a pure happy life, under guidance of Duty;
And at length, of decay and of death knowing nought,
While in slumber infolded, would have been heavenward caught.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

But since he, in revolt, blindly refused to hearken
To Thy Divine command, that which Thou wouldst have done,
The deep shadow of death did his life newly darken,
As the shadow of sin on our faith has been thrown;
And to Man heaven was closed. Not by blood flowing often Could Mankind ever hope the Lord's anger to soften:

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

But of the spotless Lamb whom Thy love doth provide
All the types incomplete shall be now set aside:

Thou by Thyself, O God, wilt accomplish this wonder,
So filling up the gulf which earth and heaven
doth sunder:
In our flesh One will come, to be born and to die,
To prevail over death, exalting Man on high.
Thy blessed Son hath said:

THE PROMISE OF REDEMPTION.

CHORUS.—Celestial Choir.

The earth is My possession:
I leave My heavenly home
To atone for transgression:
O My Father, lo, I come.

PART I.

CALVARY.

No. 1.—RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

Then is Jesus condemned; and they bind Him, and they mock Him, on the head do they smite Him, in His face even spitting; the blood is also gushing out beneath the scourge. Then, when His tormentors ended their insult, He said, upon them casting a look sad and sweet:

SOLO.—Jesus.

If My deeds have been evil, bear ye witness against Me; if indeed I am guiltless, then wherefore smite ye Me?

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

When the hour was at hand, the Lord with resignation
Went forth up to the mount, as a sinner to die.
For us gave He Himself as a willing oblation,
That in His holy blood, Man, by a new creation, Might again be invested with grace from on high,
And at last might attain to eternal salvation.

MARCH TO CALVARY.

Orchestra, Soli, and Chorus.

CHORUS.

Forth the Royal Banners go,
 Before our eyes appearing;
 The Cross, in mystic glow,
 Is power and love declaring:
 To make us free doth One its bondage know;
 As Man, the Lord Himself the weight of sin
 is bearing.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

And while Jesus went up the mount, and bore His Cross, there followed after women, who wept and bewailed Him.

SEMI-CHORUS.

Alas! they go then to put Him to death; it must be the Just One will perish. Behold, how He has fallen, a second time has fallen!

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

And the Lord heard their words, and, turning to them, spake thus:

SOLO.—Jesus.

Ye daughters of Israel, weep ye not for Me, but weep ye for yourselves, and weep ye for your children. Jerusalem is faithless found.

CHORUS.

Forth the Royal Banners go,
 Before our eyes appearing;
 The Cross, in mystic glow,
 Is power and love declaring:
 To make us free doth One its bondage know;
 As Man, the Lord Himself the weight of sin
 is bearing.

No. 2.—THE CRUCIFIXION.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

Behold, when they are come to the place appointed, they extend on the Cross the Saviour's sacred limbs. He, though His eyes are dim with more than mortal anguish, yet turns on them a gaze full of Divine compassion. From His feet, from His hands, that are torn by the nails, the blood drops on the ground.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

Then with words they blaspheme Him, with looks do they deride, unrestrained is their fierceness. The passers-by come near to behold what is done.

CHORUS.—The Passers-by.

Ha! Thou that dost declare Thou de-stroyest the Temple, Thou that canst in three days build it again, hast Thou not power to save Thyself? Canst Thou not now come down? Save Thyself! Son of God, come Thou down from the Cross.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

The priests, hearing the cries, with mocking voices said:

CHORUS.—The Priests.

Can He not save Himself, He, the Saviour of others? See Him there! None to help, not a friend, no disciples. Is He King of the Jews?
 Let Him shew it to-day. If He be the Son of God, let His Father give ear, and release Him. Behold, let Him now come down from the Cross, and at once we believe on Him.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

And the Lord, in His love for Mankind never failing,
 On behalf of His slayers for pardon implores:

SOLO.—Jesus.

Pardon their sin, My Father, for they do not know what they do.

THE REPROACHES.

CHORUS OR QUARTET.

O My vineyard, come tell Me why thy grapes are bitter. What have I done, My people?
 Wherein hast thou been wronged? Did I not bring thee out from the land of the stranger?
 Made I thee not to pass through the depths of the sea? Sent I not food from heaven, and gave meat in abundance? Did manna ever cease till thou camest to Canaan? Reply, unthankful race! And thou, for all this love, preparest Me the Cross whereupon I shall die.

No. 3.—MARY AT THE FOOT OF THE CROSS.RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

And Jesus then, as down on the ground He was looking, saw at the foot of the Cross the disciple whom He loved; the same that on His breast at supper had reclined. Near unto him He saw His Virgin Mother. On her bent He an eye full of tender regard; and, shewing filial love unto her who had born Him, He said:

SOLO.—Jesus.

"Woman, behold thy son!"

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

Then, speaking unto John, He said :

SOLO.—Jesus.

“Behold thy mother !”

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

And the disciple took her that day to his home ; her, as the sacred trust of an eternal love.

QUARTET AND CHORUS.

Beside the Cross remaining,
A face the Mother wears
Unresisting, uncomplaining,
And yet the grief she bears
Her heart in sunder tears.

Though He claim adoration,
On the Cross Jesus hangs ;
Her soul, past consolation,
Knowing but lamentation,
Has a share in His pains.

SOLO.—Mary.

While my watch I am keeping,
Ye that go by, sinners,
Gaze at the Mother weeping,
Torn by anguish unsleeping :
Ask if any one bears
Any grief like to hers.

CHORAL.

While her watch she is keeping,
Ye that go by, sinners,
Gaze at the Mother weeping,
Torn by anguish unsleeping :
Ask if any one bears
Any grief like to hers.

No. 4.—THE TWO THIEVES.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

While the crowd at their feet was gathering to view, from one of the thieves did railing proceed, and to Jesus he said, crying out, and blaspheming :

SOLO.—The Impenitent Thief (Bass).

Thou canst not be the Christ, else wouldst Thou save us all : first Thyself, us then likewise.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

The other replied :

SOLO.—The Penitent Thief (Tenor).

Ah ! and fearest thou not, inasmuch as thou art in the same condemnation ? For that which we have done a due reward we suffer. As for Him who hangs here with us, wherein hath He offended, what hath He done amiss ?

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

Then he turned toward Jesus a look as of hope, and said :

SOLO.—The Penitent Thief (Tenor).

O Lord, wilt Thou remember me when Thou comest in Thy Kingdom ?

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

And the Lord was touched by the faith in pardon which he shewed, and, turning to him, spake thus :

SOLO.—Jesus.

In very truth say I to thee, To-day shalt thou be with Me in Paradise.

CHORAL.

Lord Jesus, Thou to all bringest light and salvation.

The man that trusts in Thee over Death will prevail ;
And, though he die, in Thee will find his restoration.

O Saviour true, O mighty God, Thy Name we hail.

No. 5.—THE DEATH OF JESUS.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour the light of the sun was obscured, and darkness, as of night, came over all the land, from sight all things concealing.

THE DARKNESS.

ORCHESTRA.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

And about the ninth hour Jesus, in bitter anguish, with a loud voice cried out, as if, in face of death, invoking the unchangeable love of His Father :

SOLO.—Jesus.

My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me ?

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

When, at the last, the shadow of death was descending, raising His eyes to heaven, with a loud voice He cried :

SOLO.—Jesus.

My Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

Then gave He up the ghost, and all came to an end.

THE EARTHQUAKE.

RECITATIVE.—The Narrators.

And then the air was filled with a murmur unwonted, as if Nature herself for her Lord were lamenting; and the veil of the Temple was rent in twain throughout, and the rocks were rent, and the earth did quake, and the tombs were unclosed; and many of the saints that had fallen asleep rose again with their bodies; and they, after His resurrection coming forth, to the city returned, and by many were seen.

No. 6.—THE CENTURION.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

And when the Centurion, and they that were with him, saw the earthquake, and all the things that were done, they were amazed and afraid; and, glorifying God, they said, This man then was in truth the Son of God.

CHORAL.

For us the Christ is made a victim availing,
Yea, unto death, and the death of the Cross;
In vain our ancient foe will mankind be assailing.
To Him who now has died shall be triumph
unfailing.
O Death, thou art discrowned, thou gainest only loss.
Faith unswerving, holy Hope, that unconquered
remaineth,
Heavenly Love, ever young; for them thanks
do we raise.
Thou, by Whose Death and Passion Man unto heaven attaineth,
O Christ, Thee we adore, and unto Thee
give praise.

PART II.

FROM THE RESURRECTION TO THE ASCENSION.

No. 1.—CHORUS.—Prophetic Choir.

Saviour of men, we know that for ever Thou livest:
We know that to the dead resurrection Thou givest:
Yea, all them that are sleeping from the grave
Thou wilt bring,
So that, to life restored, we shall see Thou art glorious,
Whenas Death, over whom this day Thou art victorious,
Has fled before the Lord and King.

No. 2.—THE HOLY WOMEN AT THE SEPULCHRE.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

Now when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, came, bringing spices wherewith to anoint Him; and they came to the tomb of the Master whom they loved. Day was dawning, as on their lonely way they were going, their hearts full of the thought of their sweet ministration. They as they went said to themselves.

TRIO.—The Holy Women.

How shall we by ourselves have strength to roll away the stone from the tomb? Is there no one who will aid us? Who will look on our distress?

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

The newly risen sun with his life-giving rays the hill of Calvary was gilding, ere these devoted women had arrived at the tomb. To the threshold at once they directed their eyes, and they saw the stone rolled away from the entrance into the tomb. Behold, one that in face was like unto lightning, and was arrayed in dazzling apparel, stood at their side, as they thought thereupon. When the Angel appeared, the women were affrighted. Then said the Angel to them:

SOLO.—The Angel.

Why seek ye the living among the dead? Are the words of the Lord now no longer remembered? But let your hearts be glad, and full of comfort. Ye are seeking the Lord, but He is risen again; behold! the very place where His body was laid. His sacred limbs themselves have these grave-clothes been swathing. But depart, and tell His disciples He goeth into Galilee, according as He said; there shall ye see Him again.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

Bright with pure heavenly beauty did the face of the Angel at the moment appear. At the words they had heard, filled with sacred awe, the women went on their way.

No. 3.—JESUS APPEARING TO THE HOLY WOMEN.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

And behold, as they went on their way, the Lord Himself unto them came, and said, when He appeared:

SOLO.—Jesus.

All hail! Blessed are ye women. All the things ye have done, all the tears ye have been shedding, signs of a faithful love, have their reward in heaven. Be not afraid, but go, tell ye My brethren they shall see Me, and they shall then sorrow no longer. Depart quickly, and say to them that ye have this day seen the Lord.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

And they fell at His feet, and, holding them, they worshipped: and the Lord disappeared. The women then arose, and continued their journey.

No. 4.—THE SANHEDRIM.

RECITATIVE.—The Narrators.

Now when these things were done, lo, the watchers came to the city, they that till morning guarded the tomb; and they told to the priests all the things they had witnessed.

CHORUS.—Soldiers of the Watch.

Christ is risen again. Vainly we kept a watch. Lo, the tomb open stands. This in truth is a sign. Jesus Christ, He Whom some as a prophet regarded, the Just One, and was He more than mortal?

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

The priests and the elders were greatly amazed; but at length, consulting together, to the soldiers they gave large money, and they taught them:

CHORUS.—The Priests (Tenor).

Say ye that in the night His disciples have come, while ye were fast asleep, and stolen Him away. If the matter should come to the Governor's ears, and if he should resolve to punish guards who sleep, we will rid you of care. Rely on us, we will persuade him.

CHORUS.

Now behold ye the guard, this your sleep-vanquished guard!

Ah! ye priests who conspired, ye yourselves were in slumber,

What time ye to the shameless betrayer did number,

In return for his deed, that agreed-on reward. To the crime ye were blind; yet does Justice record

That through gold, which the hand of the traitor did cumber,

For ages on your head shall contempt be out-poured.

No. 5.—THE HOLY WOMEN BEFORE THE APOSTLES.

RECITATIVE.—The Narrators.

Now while by their bitter sorrow the disciples were dismayed, for their comfort they be-thought them of the promise of their Master, that they should see Him again. But so it was, when the tidings were brought them, their faith displayed itself as inconstant and doubtful.

TRIO.—The Holy Women.

The Lord, He is risen again:
To our sight and to our hearing
Have wondrous signs been appearing:
He doth Manhood yet retain.
The Lord, He is risen again.

Him we saw, when home returning
At the breaking of the day;
Our hearts are within us burning,
All grief and doubt passed away.
The Lord, He is risen again.

CHORUS.—The Disciples (Tenor and Bass).

Though we fain would have believed you,
Some form surely has deceived you,
Some phantom, seen in the night.
From trusting what you have told us
Lack of witness must withhold us:
We rely on hearing and sight.

SOLO (Soprano) AND CHORUS.

From Thy love as a Father,
O Lord, teach us to gather
That Life will conquer Death:
They who seek things eternal
Shall rise to light supernal
On wings of lowly faith.

No. 6.—JESUS APPEARING TO THE APOSTLES.—THE ASCENSION.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

The apostles that were left at evening met together, the doors now being shut; and, while they were assembled, the Lord Himself came, and stood in the midst. They were greatly afraid at the sight, but He said:

SOLO.—Jesus.

Be not afraid, it is I! your heart need not be troubled. Behold! for I am not a shadow, an apparition; I am such as I was when I walked on the sea. Behold! for a spirit can have neither flesh nor bones.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

And the disciples did obeisance; and they fell on their knees, in fear, giving Him worship: and the Lord then approached, and said:

SOLO.—Jesus.

Arise, and hear! All authority is Mine in heaven and on the earth, and by you shall witness be borne unto Me. To all the nations bear the news of salvation. Depart, give them the word which I gave unto you, baptising them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. I leave you My peace, and I am with you alway, yea, to the end of the world.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

After this to a mountain led He them forth, and then, lifting up His hands, as in blessing, He departed, and ascended into heaven.

CHORUS.

Unfold, ye portals everlasting,
With welcome to receive Him ascending on high.
Behold the King of Glory! He mounts up
through the sky,
Back to the heavenly mansions hastening.
Unfold, for lo, the King comes nigh.

CHORUS.—Celestial Choir (Soprano).

But Who is He, the King of Glory?

CHORUS.

He Who Death overcame, the Lord in battle mighty.

CHORUS.—Celestial Choir (Soprano).

But Who is He, the King of Glory?

CHORUS.

Of hosts He is the Lord; of angels and of powers: the King of Glory is the King of the saints.

Unfold, ye portals everlasting,
With welcome to receive Him ascending on high.
Behold the King of Glory! He mounts up
through the sky,
Back to the heavenly mansions hastening.
Unfold, for lo, the King comes nigh.

PART III.

THE PENTECOST.

No. 1.—CHORUS.

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach, and bring good
news of peace.

SOLO.—Soprano.

Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.

Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,

In the brightness of joy fade away, and are gone.

In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,

Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;

Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound;

Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.

Then the timorous doves, wheresoever they fly,

Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless cry.

CHORUS.

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach, and bring good
news of peace.

Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.

Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and
oppression,

In the brightness of joy fade away, and are gone.

No. 2.—THE DESCENT OF THE HOLY GHOST.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Tenor).

Upon the day of Pentecost it came to pass,
that in one place, with one accord, the disciples,
according as they were wont, were praying,
while they waited for the promise of God.

THE APOSTLES IN PRAYER.

ORCHESTRA.

RECITATIVE.—Narrator (Bass).

Lo, there came a mighty sound, a sound as of a tempest, and it filled all the place in which they were assembled. Then tongues to them appeared, and were parting among them. The tongues were like as of fire; and on each one of the chosen band it was sitting. On a sudden appeared the tongues that were like as of fire, parting among the band.

RECITATIVE.—The Narrators.

At once the Spirit came upon them: a holy rapture, their very souls possessing, both inflames and inspires them: these untaught simple men, these hearts with terror chilled, like to heroes appear, in their zeal for the faith.

SOLO.—A Voice from Heaven (Soprano).

Go ye forth on your way: the Lord Himself will guide you:

Unto death be ye faithful, whatever betide you.
Through the world go ye forth, unto you it is given

To preach the tidings glad of the Kingdom of Heaven.

NO. 3.—HYMN OF THE APOSTLES.

CHORUS.

The Word is Flesh become: thus begin we the
story:

Full of grace, full of truth, is He.

In the womb of a Virgin did He veil the glory
Of His eternal Majesty.

He is before the worlds, all light from Him we gather,

God, holy, just, and true, is He;

And, like the Holy Ghost, is one with God the Father

In everlasting Trinity.

He has given us His flesh, the life of men to nourish,

Whence we His wondrous love may see.

By His love are we drawn in our inmost souls to cherish

Blessed hope of immortality.

QUARTET AND CHORUS.

By faith salvation comes, and by peace consolation.

Hearken! let all give ear to the Lord's declaration.

He has said, At My word have the blind had their sight, and the lame have been healed; the deaf likewise have heard; the dead from the grave have been recalled, and have risen; back to life and to light at My summons returning. He has said to all the unhappy, O come to Me, all ye that are sad and that weep, and I will give your souls the rest they long to find.

SEMI-CHORUS.

He has said, They are blessed, the poor in spirit, for they have the Kingdom of Heaven.

They are blessed that mourn, for they shall have comfort.

They are blessed, they that are meek.

They are blessed that hunger and thirst to be righteous.

They are blessed, they that are kind, pure in heart, seeking peace, falsely blamed for My sake; they the earth shall inherit, they shall have their reward in Heaven.

CHORUS.

The Word is Flesh become: thus begin we the
story:

Full of grace, full of truth, is He.

In the womb of a Virgin did He veil the glory
Of His eternal Majesty.

He is before the worlds, all light from Him we
gather,

God, holy, just, and true, is He;

And, like the Holy Ghost, is one with God the Father

In everlasting Trinity.

No. 4. THE TWO THIEVES.

Allegro moderato. ♩ = 80.

f Str.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand has a treble clef and a common time signature. The left hand has a bass clef and a common time signature. The music is in C major and features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and a more active melody in the right hand.

This system shows the piano accompaniment for the first system of the vocal entry. It continues the eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and provides harmonic support for the vocal line.

The musical score is written for a vocal ensemble and piano. It begins with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is marked 'Andante (quasi moderato)'. The piano part features a delicate texture with pizzicato strings and sustained woodwinds. The vocal parts enter with the lyrics 'Now while by their bit - ter sor - row the dis - ci - ples were dis - mayed, for their com - fort they be - thought them of the pro - mise of their Mas - ter, that they should see Him a - gain. . . . But'. The score is divided into systems, with the piano accompaniment spanning the bottom two staves of each system. The vocal parts are arranged in three staves: Tenor, Bass, and Narrators. The piano part includes various markings such as 'p Str. pizz.', 'Fag. sustain.', and 'Str. arco.'.

The musical score for "The Rose Tree" is presented in two systems. The first system consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a melody with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 2/4 time signature. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The second system continues the piece, featuring a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with a harmonic accompaniment. The key signature remains two sharps. The piece concludes with a double bar line. The title "The Rose Tree" is written in a decorative font at the bottom of the page.

The musical score is written for a choir and piano. It features four systems of staves. The first system includes vocal staves for Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass, and a grand staff for piano. The piano part begins with a 'dim.' (diminuendo) marking and a 'p' (piano) dynamic. The vocal parts enter with the lyrics 'At My word have the blind had their sight, . .'. The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The third system shows the vocal parts with the lyrics 'and the lame . . . have been healed; . .'. The piano part continues with a steady accompaniment. The fourth system concludes the phrase with the same lyrics. The score is marked with various dynamics including 'p' (piano) and 'dim.' (diminuendo). The piano part includes a 'Str. arco.' (string arco) marking.

THE CATHEDRAL PRAYER BOOK

BEING THE

BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

WITH THE MUSIC NECESSARY FOR THE USE OF CHOIRS

TOGETHER WITH THE

CANTICLES AND PSALTER

POINTED FOR CHANTING

EDITED BY

SIR JOHN STAINER, M.A., MUS. DOC., OXON.

(Professor of Music in the University of Oxford)

AND

THE REV. WILLIAM RUSSELL, M.A., MUS. BAC., OXON.

(Succentor of St. Paul's Cathedral).

EXTRACT FROM EDITORS' PREFACE.

THE inconvenience and costliness of the number of separate Books usually requisite for the members of a Choir, in the performance of an ordinary Choral Service, have long pointed to the desirableness of a manual which should, as far as possible, unite under one cover all that is necessary for the choral rendering of at least, those portions of the Church's Services which are less liable to variation.

The Music of the Versicles and Responses—Festal as well as Ferial—a Psalter and Canticles pointed for chanting, are almost indispensable for the careful and accurate rendering of a Choral Service. And yet, hitherto, it has been scarcely possible to procure these, unless in separate numbers; involving not only much additional expense, but also the disadvantage arising from the continual shifting of books during Service time, which is such a hindrance to a devout participation in Divine Worship.

To remedy these evils, and to assist in promoting, as it is hoped, a more careful and reverend performance of the Divine Offices, the Cathedral Prayer Book has been compiled.

The Editors are fully aware that they are not the first to make an effort in this direction. But they believe that several circumstances have tended to favour their attempt, and ensure its success, which have been wanting in other instances.

This manual provides not only for the daily Morning and Evening Prayer, and the choral celebration of the Holy Communion, in all its completeness, but also for the whole of the occasional Offices contained in the Book of Common Prayer. A special feature of it moreover, is that it includes an Appendix, in which are contained not only Tallis's Festival Responses and Litany, but a great deal of other additional and miscellaneous matter which it is conjectured will add greatly to its usefulness and value.

The Versicles and Responses throughout the Book (exclusive of the Appendix) and the Litany are from the arrangement used in St. Paul's Cathedral (Stainer and Martin, founded on Goss). They follow Merbecke, although with one or two slight variations which have become traditional in the Cathedral of the Metropolis, and, more recently, in many other Churches.

The Music to the Order for the Administration of the Holy Communion follows the Edition of Merbecke given in "A Choir Book of the Office of Holy Communion" (Stainer), and published some years since. The Order for the Burial of the Dead has also been arranged from Merbecke by the same Editor.

The pointing of the Psalms and Canticles is after that known as the Cathedral Psalter, edited by the Rev. S. Flood-Jones, the late Mr. James Turle, Dr. Troutbeck, Sir John Stainer, and Mr. Joseph Barnby.

An Edition can also be had in which the Cathedral Psalter Chants to the Canticles and the Psalms are included.
