School Boards Association fears exodus of Quebec Protestants over proposed school changes

The Parent Royal Commission's latest propositions are deemed by the Quebec Association of Protestant School Boards to be too radical to be considered as applicable in the immediate future.

In a prepared statement by the executive committee of the Protestant Association, it is pointed out that the objectives of education are different in the Protestant and Catholic systems.

Also different are the relative roles played by Church, State and parents. (In this connection the Association uses the word State to mean Province).

Their feeling is that if control of all schools were to pass to a single administrative unit, as proposed by the Commission, there would be many areas in which the effective result would be to put Protestant schools in the hands of Roman Catholics.

Even given the best of good will, (which the Association states does not exist in all parts of the Province) the statement says that the Protestant cultural outlook differs to a sufficient extent that it is very doubtful that the Protestant school tradition could be preserved. It is the opinion of the Quebec Association of Protestant School Boards executive committee that putting confessional education under the control of a non-confessional body may be a violation of the British North America Act.

The Parent Commission suggests that local school boards be replaced by committees elected by parents in each school. The School Boards Association views this suggestion with concern. It is convinced that a local Board elected by the community at large could carry out the necessary functions far more effectively and impartially than a committee at the school level whose members are likely to be emotionally involved in many school problems.

The Association wishes the responsibility for school administration to be vested in the Regional Boards. They feel that direction of a modern educational programme requires competent professional people who can only be obtained when the administratve unit is large enough.

They feel this professional staff should not be subjected to pressures from a multitude of committees interested only in one particular school. The local board, they state, is better qualified to safeguard the community interest before the Regional Board.

"There is a grave danger" states the QAPSB Executive Committee report. "that in attempting to ensure participation at the grass-roots the Commission is proposing to destroy an effective existing structure—the local board by replacing it with what would probably be an ineffective unit—the school committee.

Membership on school committees, commissions and councils has been open to all adults in the Commissions proposal, however certain taxpayers have been excluded from voting for these bodies which seems to the QAPSB to be a case of taxation without representation and therefore to be deplored.

In many areas of Quebec cooperation between Protestant and Roman Catholic School Boards is now under way. This is a new development which the QAPSB finds most encouraging and should be fostered in every possible way. They believe that it may lead to eventual unification of administrative structures. as envisaged by the Commission report.

However, they feel it would be "utterly wrong to try to enforce such co-operation by a modification of the law to eliminate dissentient school boards."

"Furthermore" they state, "a radical change might well lead to such confusion that the education of children would suffer. Many changes have been introduced in the last two years. The educational system needs time to adjust to these before additional modifications are introduced".

The QAPSB Executive Committee feels there has been deep unrest among Protestant educators and teachers over the present changes and the prospects of further radical changes to traditional Protestant structure can only augment this and lead to an exodus to other Provinces.

The above opinions of the QAPSB executive were made public last Thursday and on Friday a letter went out to all member Boards enclosing the press release and an invitation for them to submit their thoughts on these proposed recommendations to the QAPSB.

Lucky winner

Lucky Mrs. Ronald McGuire won twenty dollars in the Easy Cash arrangement at Dean and Merritt's in Shawville. Her winning was discovered on Friday evening which made it a very nice weekend for the McGuires.

Elections at Campbell's Bay and Bryson

Nominations were held Wed. at the Village of Campbell's Bay for the office of three (3) Municipal Councillors whose term of office has expired.

Renominated were the three (3) outgoing Councillors:

J. E. O'Neil, electrical contractor; Fred Martin, Plumbing Contractor, Joseph McGahern owner of the Pontiac Bus Lines.

Also nominated were two (2) newcomers to the Municipal Politics; Raymond Shea, restaurant owner. and Eric Belanger salesman. Since nobody withdrew their nomination an election was held on Monday the 16th day of May.

Receiving nominations was the assistant town secretary, Mrs. Linden R. Quaile.

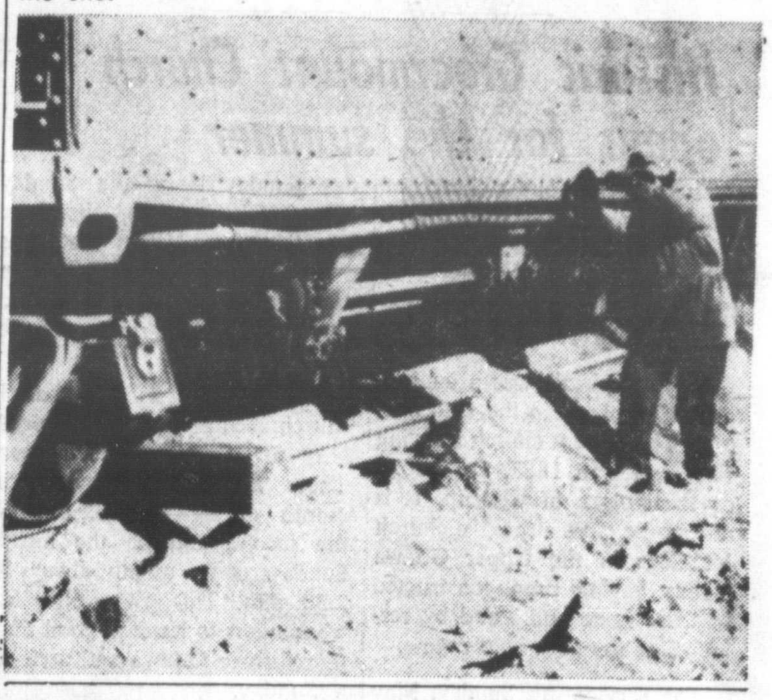
After the ballot count on Monday it was discovered that of a possible 465 electors only 277 had voted and the votes polled by Joseph McGahern, Jack O'Neil and Fred Martin were the greatest, so they were all returned to office while newcomers Raymond Shea and Eric Belanger were not elected. The count was McGahern 177, O'Neil 160, Martin 146, Shea 121 Belanger 94.

Meanwhile at Bryson both Jean Lanoix and Roy Trudeau decided not to run so there was no election after all and the three seats were filled by Clarence Walls, Gordon Brennan and Peter Kluke by acclamation.

Train at the Millsite

BALLAST FROM CAPREOL

180 carloads of gravel have come 200 miles to form ballast on the spur line from the CNR Portage du Fort Station to the Consolidated Millsite. The first diesel drawn train to come right to the end of the line was stopped briefly last Monday at the Pinkerton office by the inner gate. Reason for the stop was a derailment as ballast was being laid and levelled. Getting the train back on the tracks took mere minutes and work proceeded. The line is now in service bringing heavy machinery into the site.



Lefebvre speaks on rural help bill

A debate in the House of Commons in Ottawa, on the subject of a special fund for the economic and social development of special rural development areas, was enjoined by Pontiac's Member, Mr. Tom Lefebvre. Tom stated that the new resolution deals with granting the Department of Forestry fifty million dollars to set up a fund for rural economic development and he believes that in the two counties of Pontiac and Temiscamingue there are areas in which this new measure can be applied.

He referred to the recent report of an inquiry on rural poverty in four counties, one of which was Pontiac. In some remote areas of Pontiac, he said the report found extremely poor people, lacking in education and means of improvement.

"In as prosperous a country as ours" said Mr. Lefebvre, "it is abnormal to have regions in which people live in misery, poverty, ignorance, without hope of ever knowing such improvement as would give them as decent a standard of living as the majority of our citizens enjoy."

According to the program set up by the department, solving the problem of the people who live on farms where climate will not allow profitable operation becomes a matter of moving people to a place where their work and their skills would be better rewarded.

"The problem of rural ridings is one of the major problems in our country" said Tom. "During the electoral campaign I visited many unfortunate families, where the father was out of work or was paid a salary which did not allow him to enjoy or even come close to a normal standard of living, where children had a long way to go to reach school and often did not even have the necessary clothes to go." He congratulated the Minister of Forestry for his interest in rural areas and urged the passing of the bill.

He said the Economic Council of Northwestern Quebec has asked that a study be made of the county of Temiscamingue regarding the economic situation and possible projects that might be undertaken to help improve the conditions that exist, and that such a study has been announced to be undertaken by a joint federal-provincial plan and

CBMC claims Sunday should not be "profaned by politics"

Strong objection was taken by the local CBMC at their May meeting to the holding of a Provincial Election on a Sunday. The members felt that the Lord's Day is a sacred day and should not be profaned by politics. They decided to write to Premier John Lesage voicing their disapproval.

Rev Enos Brubacher of Eganville, Ontario, spoke at the meeting. He told of his experiences in building Gospel signboards, and brought a stirring message from the Bible with the warning that Christians now face dangerous times. He claimed that false modernistic teachings are undermining the very foundations of our society. Mr. Brubacher is President of Gospel Text Publishers and planned the erection of the well-known Gospel sign on the eastern limits of Shawville.

The CBMC received a letter of thanks from Dorcas Gih, wife of Dr. Andrew Gih who spoke here on March 24th. They both expressed their appreciation for the kind reception given to Dr. Gih in Shawville, and the generous gift of money toward the Evangelize China Fellowship. Plans are going ahead for the June 2nd Banquet of the local CBMC at which the International President, J. Elliott Stedbauer, will be the honored guest and special speaker.

Lesage hopes for Liberal MP from Pontiac County

Pontiac's Liberal candidate for the June 5 Provincial election Mr. Cliff Robillard of Campbell's Bay was on the platform with Roy Fournier MP of Gatineau and Oswald Parent MP of Hull when Premier Jean Lesage spoke at Hull during his grand pre-election tour of Quebec.

Mr. Lesage emphasized that a strong Canada could not be achieved without a strong Quebec.

He confirmed information published in The Equity about the construction of Highway 8 from Aylmer to Quyon.

He said that in the past Western Quebec had been neglected and forgotten and that this is why his government attaches

AN ACT IS JUST AN ACT

It will be a good thing when people stop saying "OH Gracious, it's against the BNA Act" as if they were proclaiming the end of the world.

THE BNA Act was never intended to be the Gospel to be handed down through the ages as the very last word in legislation. It was law to suit the times and got Canada together as one nation.

If the Fathers of Confederation could hear us now they would be rather disgusted. They were modern thinking men fearlessly in tune with their times and thinking ahead as far as they could. Considering the obstacles they had before them did remarkably well.

What we need now in this famous year of 1966 is some more like them.

Our new Pontiac citizen, the rector of Campbell's Bay, hopes that God's Will will be done if everyone gets out and votes in this coming election. This could only happen if either of the alternatives of Liberal or Union National governments were acceptable to Him. unfortunately, from outward appearances neither of them completely measures up, because they are made up of mere men, some of whom might not be fearlessly in tune with the times.

But to get back to the poor old BNA Act. Time has come to review and renew it; not to quote it as scripture. In any field, be it education, elections, language or religion, we should be deciding what is right for 1966 and rewriting the Act to suit the need.

Historic Greermount Church opens for the summer

The historic pioneer church of Saint Stephen, the Martyr will re open at Greermount near Charteris this coming Sunday May 22nd, the Sunday after the Ascension Day at 2.30 p.m.

Saint Stephen's was a congregation well back in the 19th century. The present church building was erected in 1887. the second or third place of worship. It is one of the most attractive church buildings in the Upper Ottawa Valley having been constructed of local stone and wood by residents of the area at the time.

The Service this Sunday, May 22nd falls on the May 24th holiday weekend. Visitors, as well as former members are especially invited, along with present members. The service will be the Anglican Service of Holy Communion and there will b especial hymns and Blessing of the Seeds this Sunday being the Sunday immediately following the three Rogation Days. (Rogationtide is a time, each year, when prayers are offered for all farmers and gardeners in their sowing of the seeds.)

Saint Stephens is a "summer" church, being open for services, May to October, each year. There are two services each month during this period, on the second and on the fourth Sundays of the month, always at 2.30 p.m. This gives time for weekenders to leave in good time to return to Ottawa and area on a Sunday.

Saint Stephen's Church is named after one of the first seven Deacons in the early Church of the first century in the Christian era.

It is one of four churches in the Anglican Parish of North Clarendon.

Family Pride

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Belanger of Campbell's Bay are justly proud of their daughter Faye who has graduated from the School of Nursing at Sudbury. Faye now is a Registered Nurse Assistant and is already at work in the Pontiac Community Hospital. She is a former graduate of St. John's High School at Campbell's Bay. The picture was taken on her graduation day at Sudbury.

A miscellaneous shower, sponsored by the Clarendon Women's Institute and the friends of the community was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Elliott on Friday evening, in honor of Mr. Lennon Thomas and his bride, the former Miss Alfreda Elliott.

On Friday of last week during the forenoon, the number who took part in tree planting on the Shawville Fair grounds were rather limited, but by arrangement Mr. Alf Armstrong had almost 100 small trees mostly evergreens in readiness for loading when Mr. G. A. Howard's truck and driver. accompanied by Vice-President Lorne Armstrong, arrived there to convey them to the Fair Grounds. There was not sufficient labour to place all that day, some being left over to Saturday. However something has been done. May the trees and the labor gang increase in size by 1942.

During the past week the clothing firm of A. Fraser and Son, of Renfrew purchased the local business of Norris R. Horner Mr. Horner will continue in charge of the business for a month or so.

Mr. J. B. Corrigan. his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs Foster Corrigan, were given a pleasant surprise on Friday evening when a number of their friends and neighbors gathered at their home to extend last wishes before their departure from their farm to take up residence in Ottawa.

The engagement is announced of Evelyn Rebecca, daughter of Mrs. Dale and the late Robert A. Dale, of Shawville to LAC Harold Allen Walker, RCAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Walker of Hartington, Ont. The marriage will take place early in June.

Quyon Dramatic Club presented their play, "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works" under the auspices of the Shawville YPU on Monday evening at the theatre to a large crowd. The stars of the cast were: Miss Ellen Bronson in the title roll, Lois and James McCann in coloured servant parts, and Lois Boland as (Madame Zola, a fortune teller. Other excellent presentations were given by Miss Margaret Moyle, Anne Coyle, Justine O'Connor, Edith McAndrew, Percy Moyle, Gervase O'Reilly and Richard Curran.

The sixth class of student pilots, most of them members of the Royal Australian Air Force, received their wings at No. 4 Service Flying Training School in Saskatoon on May 16. The graduates included G. J. Strutt, son of Mrs. Herbert Strutt, Shawville

George Cater, Shawville's expert water man, wants his patrons to know that he will supply water during the summer months at 10c a barrel. War time, but not war prices.

Don't forget that next Monday is Nomination Day for the Provincial election. Try and be at Bryson that day if you can spare the time.

A tennis club has been organized in town by the devotees of that healthful game, with the following officers Rev A. T. Phillips, Mr. S. McMullan, Miss E. Shaw. Mr. H. Shadel, Miss L. Shaw, Mrs. Dr. Powles, Miss L. Armstrong, Mr. C. Shaw, Dr. Powles, W. E. N. Hodgins.

From what The Equity learns through local Red Cross Workers, the latter are often handicapped in their efforts to do what they can, by the fact that insufficient funds are placed at their disposal wherewith to purchase supplies. The women should not be obliged to go on a begging expedition every month or two to secure funds, but these should be placed in their hands regularly by the men who squander far more than is requisite for this purpose in other useless ways.

May 17, 1916

Our soldier boys of the 136th battalion, with those also who enlisted at Portage du Fort and Campbell's Bay, left for headquarters at Port Hope. Ont. on Monday.

The most important question to decide in the present election is whether the ring of plutocrats in Montreal who have been exploiting the Legislature of this province for their own personal gain, are to be allowed to continue or are they to be driven out.

A very heavy thunderstorm passed over this section on Wednesday night last, but no damage is reported to have occurred there from in the immediate neighborhood. Violent gales continued throughout the whole of the day following with decidedly cool weather. Foster's hot wave predicted for the 10th must have got side-tracked somewhere before it reached the Ottawa Valley.

An extensive deposit of molydenite situated in the neighborhood of the Steele Line. in Onslow, is being developed by a considerable force of men, in charge of Mr. Arch McLean. Several carloads of the ore have been shipped, and are said to indicate a high percentage. From what we have learned, the prospects of an important industry being established are bright.

Mr. Wm Orr who lives about a mile southeast of the village had his house and all his outbuildings except barn and silo destroyed by fire on Saturday forenoon. A considerable portion of the contents together with a quantity of wood and lumber were also consumed.

Rev. Alton Gould will be at Campbell's Bay June 3

On Friday, June 3rd a most interesting evening will be held at the Campbell's Bay Intermediate School when the Rev Alton A. Gould will show slides and give a talk on China and Hong Kong.

Rev A. A. Gould, B.Th. is the son of Mrs. Innis Gould and the late Mr. Gould of Brockville. He went to China with Rev S. G. Caswell, a pioneer missionary to China, in the year 1947. They were accompanied by two other workers, Miss Mildred Cook and Miss Margaret Christie.

After being evacuated from China in 1949 he returned to Canada and married Miss Phyllis Joynt of Smiths Falls, in August of that year. In 1954 Mr. and Mrs. Gould went to Hong Kong accompanied by their two children Ann and Gail and did not return until 1959. After a five month furlough the Goulds went back to Hong Kong until 1965.

All are welcome to come and see these interesting slides and to renew acquaintance with Mr. Gould and his wife before they return to their field of labour on July 15. We are sure many of you remember them as they lived in Campbell's Bay for some time. The meeting starts at 8.00 p.m. and refreshments will be served.

IN MEMORIAM

PASCHE—In loving remembrance of a dear husband and father and grandfather, Otto Martin Pasche, who passed away one year ago today, May 20, 1965.
Those whom we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind,
They are cherished in the hearts,
Of those they left behind
He would not ask for sorrow
Nor would he ask for tears
But just to be remembered
Throughout the passing years.
Always remembered by wife, Martha, daughter, Emily, son Earl and grandchildren. bm19

ACRES—In loving memory of a dear son and brother Norman who passed away May 16, 1961.
Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf
And while he lies in peaceful sleep
His memory we shall always keep.
Ever remembered by
Mother, Dad, Martha and Henrietta x

MOORE — In loving memory of a dear son and brother David Moore who passed away on May 20, 1957.
The Gates were open 9 years ago today
Without goodbye unspoken you gently passed away
You couldn't say goodbye to us,
Perhaps it was just as well
We never could have said goodbye
To the one we loved so well.
Only a cluster of memories
Sprayed with many tears
Wishing God had spared you
A few more years.
Mom, Daddy, Faye, Richie, Bert, Charles bm19

THOMS—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. William Thoms who passed away May 19, 1965.
God knew that she was suffering
That the hills were hard to climb
So he closed her weary eyelids
And whispered "peace be thine".
Away in the beautiful hills of God
By the valley of rest so fair
Some time, some day we know not when
We'll meet our dear Mother there.
Ever remmebered by
Ruth, George and family
Vera, Reuben and family x

RICHARDSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. John Richardson who passed away May 21, 1934.
Heart of my heart I miss you so,
After my mother my tears will flow
Dimming your picture before my eyes
But never the one in my heart that lies
The stars seem dim as I whisper low
My own dear Mother I miss you so.
Son and daughter-in-law,
Perly and Cora x

METCALFE—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Roland Metcalfe who passed away, May 2nd, 1951.
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear,
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near.
Wife and family x

Court Report

Court was held at Campbell's Bay on May 13th with District Judge Orville Frenette presiding.

Gerald Lavigne, 41 yrs of age a farmer of Fort Coulonge paid a $100 fine and the court costs when he pleaded guilty on a charge of impaired driving. His driver's permit was also suspended for a period of 3 months.

The Court was told that a QPP constable while on patrol, caught up with a car careening from one side of the road to the other, and driven by the accused. The officer then stopped him and found that Lavigne was well under the influence of liquor and was put under arrest.

For indecent exposure of his person on main street of the Village of Quyon, and for causing a disturbance at the same place by being drunk and breaking beer bottles on the street, Romeo Andre Payer 21 yrs of age of Braeside, was fined and paid $35 plus the Court costs.

Garry Brent Nelson 19 yrs of age ot 4th Ave Arnprior was fined $50 and ordered to pay the Court costs on a charge of dangerous driving. The accused was arrested at the Village of Bryson by the QPP after a chase at speeds up to 70 miles per hour on main street, after he was sighted by them driving recklessly in the village.

A Camp Petawawa soldier with the Provost Corps, WO MacNichol 20 years of age was found guilty of assault causing bodily harm to one Laurent Lebouthellier of Pembroke.

He was ordered to reimburse $100 to the victim as a compensation for lost wages while the latter was unable to work and under the doctor's care for injuries sustained in the assault. The accused was further ordered to post a personal bail bond of $200 to keep the peace for a period of six months.

In default of paying the $100. compensation and of signing his bail bond MacNichol had the choice of spending one month in jail but he declined this alternative and paid.

The evidence at the trial revealed that the accused while on a drinking bout in a hotel at Demers Centre seemingly took a dislike to the victim and without any apparent valuable reasons savagely assaulted him by throwing him to the ground and then hitting him in the face and body with his feet.

-- There's a Boy Scout Camp at Otter Lake for the use of all Pontiac Scouts and there are a few things which anyone might have around and not need, which the Boy Scouts could use in their camp. For instance: Any old wood stove would be gladly picked up by the boys to transport to their camp; any chairs, kitchen or otherwise, good or broken, as long as they are repairable any odds and ends of cups and saucers or any dishes or cutlery or glasses. If any readers in this neighborhood has anything the boys might use at their camp they could call Ron Richardson and he will dispatch a Boy Scout to pick it up.

A Christian involvement in Politics

by the Rev David C. Bolton
Parish of Campbell's Bay
(Anglican)

The Sunday election. like any moral crisis. is an opportunity as well as a threat. Rather than drawing battle lines between people, as it is beginning to do, it can be used as a chance to think through both the proper Christian use of Sunday and the proper Christian involvement in politics.

The place to begin is surely to accept the fact that, whether we like it or not, this election will take place on Sunday, June 5. It is one thing to protest the IDEA of Sunday elections before one is called; it is quite another thing to decide what to do about an election that has been called. It is about this particular election that each of us has a decision to make.

The second step if our thinking is to be helpful and creative, must be to admit that we do not know why weare being asked to vote on Sunday. Many people are assuming that it is just because France often votes on Sunday; many people are assuming that the government intends to disfranchise some minority groups of voters. Both these assumptions betray unnecessary fears, and add unnecessary bitterness to the discussion. It is possible that this election is merely an experiment, which may or may not be repeated, according to the results. And it should be remembered that in a democracy it is not the minority but the majority which decides.

The third step is to examine the Christian's alternatives. There would seem to be only three, but there are at least that many. A Christian may refuse to vote, he may vote unwillingly. or he may vote willingly.

Those who adopt the first position sum it up in the words of the fourth commandment, "Remember the Sabbath day. to keep it holy." They begin with a certain view of Sunday and its meaning for Christian behaviour; and they hold that one of the things a Christian may not do on Sunday is to vote. Part of the reason for this is that elections require workers, to be on duty all day. A Sunday election puts the voters in the position of requiring others to work and of making it impossible for them to attend Christian worship on that day. Thus, not only responsibility for our own conscience, but responsibility towards our brother, forbids us to vote on Sunday.

The second position begins, not with a particular view of Sunday as the Christian Sabbath, but with a particular view of the Christian's responsibilities as a citizen. People who hold this view regard it as irresponsible citizenship not to vote, even if they are forced to vote on Sunday. In a Communist country, not to vote is the only way to vote against the Party; but in a free and open election, not to use the vote is the way to lose the vote. The Christian must vote; but he votes under protest on Sunday — and perhaps the only way to protest effectively against Sunday elections is to vote against the government which calls one. The motto for this view might be, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath."

People who take the third position refer to another saying of our Lord's, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's." Christ first looked at the tribute money, and asked "Whose is this image and superscription?", and then declared that his disciples have real and positive obligations to Caesar.

Christians who hold this view see no incompatibility between their obligations to God and their obligations as citizens of a particular society. We are made in the image of God, as all men are; and we are stamped with the superscription of Christ in our Baptism. We are not religious one day of the week and secular all seven days of the week. We are God's men, soldiers and servants of Christ the King, not only in Church on Sunday, but in the mine on Monday, in the mill on Tuesday, in school on Wednesday. in the kitchen on Thursday, at the bowling alley on Friday, in the store on Saturday AND in the polling booth on election day.

The essence of Christianity is liberty to do God's will in this world. That liberty is a gift of God through his Son; and it cannot be taken away by any government. For Christians who take this liberty seriously, all of life becomes sacramental, and "every common bush aflame with God". Voting, for them, is a holy act, a sacred responsibility what might be called 'the sacrament of Christian citizenship' It cannot be inappropriate or unchristian to vote on Sunday. It is as Christian citizens that we are called to live in this world; and it is as citizens of this world that we work out the meaning of our citizenship in the kingdom of heaven. A 'Christian' society is not a "super-Church" but a truly human society and it is towards this that Christians must work, through political. social, economic and personal action, seven days of the week.

This is the view I hold, and the view I commend to any who ask me. But I am not so concerned that other Christians share it as I am that they recognize it as a really Christian view, arrived at out of real Christian conviction and held in real Christian conscience. Respect for conscience runs in two directions. If we indignantly demand respect for the conscience of those with whom we agree, we must be scruplously careful to extend it to those with whom we disagree. Enough strain has already been placed on people's consciences by the calling of a Sunday election, without any Christian—and particularly any clergyman—suggesting that his view is the only right view, and his decision the only Christian decision. Some people, in Christian consciences, will not vote; others will vote under protest; still others will vote willingly. Some will find that their decision costs them considerable pain; and the pain is real, even though to others it might seem unnecessary.

The basic obligation of all Christians is unchanged: to love God with heart and soul and mind and strength, and to love the neighbor as oneself. If every Christian in this country approaches June 5 in that spirit, the will of God will triumph in spite of a Sunday election or, it may even be, because of it.

such great importance to this area.

He mentioned that only one County in Western Quebec was not represented in his government and that this was Pontiac County.

Mr. Lesage then said that his government wished this County to advance with the rest of Western Quebec and that after June 5 they would have a Member of his government representing them.

His greeting of his fellow Members, Fournier and Parent, and of his "prospective Member" Robillard. was duly recorded on film and Cliff now has among his cherished possessions a large photograph of Quebec Prime Minister The Hon Jean Lesage congratulating him on his nomination in Pontiac with a handshake and a shoulder pat.

A large representation from Pontiac County was on hand to greet and hear Mr. Lesage, who some had prevoiusly met on Pontiac soil during the groundbreaking at the new pulp mill.

There has been a rumour to the effect that one of the Ministers of the Lesage government will be in Fort Coulonge in support of Cliff on Friday, May 27 and there is a possibility that a tour of progress at the mill site can be arranged at that time.

Meanwhile meetings and rallies carry on apace for both candidates in Pontiac and a sign of the very imminent election day is the large box of ballot paper which has arrived at the printshop. There are almost twelve thousand voters eligible to cast ballots in this coming election.

that $12,000 will be spent on the study.

The Pontiac Member said that in Pontiac and Temiscamingue one can find all of nature's unspoiled beauty and natural resources—operating mines, saw mills, a pulp mill in Temiscamingue and another on the way in Pontiac, lakes and streams abounding with fish, and big game hunting available. Farming occupies a large segment of the population and Tom Lefebvre told Parliament on last Tuesday that ours is truly a region where ARDA and its programs can certainly help to upgrade the living standards here, which have not kept up to the more prosperous sections of Canada.

He urged the advisory board set up to administer this fund to take into serious consideration any requests for this region and said there is no doubt that Pontiac-Temiscamingue qualifies in respect of physical, economic and social conditions and has a good potential for economic and social development, including tourism, which is attracting more and more people to this region.

Pony and Saddle Club hopes to build rodeo ring

The horse riding people at a meeting Wednesday evening, officially changed its club name from "Shawville Pony Club" to "Shawville Pony & Saddle Club" as an indication that riders, no matter whether their mounts are ponies or horses are welcome in the club.

Other matters of business included the arrangement of a weekend on horseback for a group of adult members and plans for many trail rides and Saturday pony parties for the younger members.

The officers for this year were named, being president Phil Thompson of the Diamond T Ranch; secretaries Ruth Belsher and Barbara Cruikshank; treasurer, Beulah McDougal; chuck committee Mrs. Jack O'Neill, Ethel Hodgins and Sally Thompson; vice president Neil Hodgins; parents committee Ken Cruickshanks, Jack O'Neill. Mrs. Ken Belsher. David and Rosaleen Dickson, Roly McDougal and Art Strutt.

A second meeting on Friday at Ken Cruickshank's home on King Street was needed to formalize plans for a rodeo ring which will be built by the club on the Zion Line. The choice of location on the old Thompson homestead was unanimous and materials are now being collected to have the ring ready for the Annual Rodeo which will be on August 6 this year.

YES Singarama was a popular weekend event

Mr. Cedric Landers from Moncton, N.B. and Rev and Mrs. Coy McGinnis from Columbus Ohio worked as a team to make the 1966 YES Convention of the Standard Church a success. It was held on the April 29-May 1st weekend.

Mr. Landers was Soloist and song leader. Rev McGinnis was the Special Speaker. Together the McGinnis Landers Trio accompanied on the bass violin by Ross Hobin, son of Clem Hobin of Ottawa brought many inspiring numbers in song.

The YES which means Youth Evangelistic Service, with its local organization functioning in each Church is climaxed each was held, the subject being "A Christian should or should not marry a non-Christian. The negative won. But Rev Craig disagrees with them. Judges were Mrs. McGinnis and Rev John Pearce.

Many challenging messages were brought by Rev McGinnis. Meals were served Saturday and Sunday in the basement of the Church.

The real purpose of the Convention is to bring the Young people together for fun, fellowship and furthering and deepening them in their Christian life. It has accomplished its mission.

Next year the Convention will be held at Foresters Falls, Ontario.

year with the Convention which has been a highlight of the Youth for many years. This year is was appointed to Shawville Quebec.

Some of the Highlights this year were the Sing-a-rama, a singing contest to help young people develop their singing talents. The Emphasis of the judges was placed on eye contact, expression, diction, memory, poise. etc. The Ivanhoe topped the list with 96% and Shawville not far behind with 95%.

The Bryson Lions Club has been forced to cancel its High School Essay contest. The Club wishes to thank the three schools which responded to the invitation to participate—Immaculate Conception High School, Chapeau; Shawville High School; and St. Mary's High School, Quyon.

The highlight of the Shawville Pontiac's Senior Hockey team's season was their annual banquet, presentations and dance held in the Agricultural Hall on Saturday evening. About 35 hockey players and friends attended the banquet at 7 p.m. while about 200 or more attended the dance later.

Dale Thomson ably acted as MC and paid tribute in his remarks to the Pontiac's coach Keith Horner for the fine showing made by his team this year and also to Allan and Eleanor Black for their interest and work in Minor Hockey. Rev Emard offered Grace .

Presentations of awards were made to Jim Carmichael for the best goalie with the best average in the Algonquin Sr A League; the Ken Morrison Memorial Trophy donated by Cliff Dale went to Earl Powell for the most valuable player on his team; the Rae McTiernan Trophy for the player best combining sportsmanship and ability went to Royce Richardson. The team also won the Algonquin League Sr A Trophy for finishing the schedule with highest number of points.

Bruce Yemen, on the Editorial Staff of the Ottawa Journal, was the speaker and gave the guests a few humorous reasons as to why sports stories and reports lack the color we expect. He also commented on Shawville's ever increasing sports ability and successes and that should artificial ice be installed here, our success and fame in hockey should certainly become even more widespread. Irving Campbell thanked the guest speaker.

Head table guests were Mayor and Mrs. Orla Young; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thomson; Rev and Mrs. Ludger Emard Frank Finnigan Sr., former Maple Leaf NHL player; Bruce Yemen and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Black. Keith Horner and his wife sat among their hockey "boys". Glenn Richardson of Ottawa, leg cast included, was able to attend as well as his wife.

Keith spoke fine words in favour of his team and is quite hopeful that they will reach the top rung of the ladder next season. Mayor Young spoke favorably for the team, their coach and hoped this banquet and dance would always continue to be an annual affair.

The ladies of Austin United Church, served a delicious hot turkey dinner and all the trimmings. Music was supplied by Mickey's Movers who are to be commended for their fine music and singing. Keith Horner was in charge of the arrangements and organization of the banquet and dance which was a real success.

Government's reply to Sunday vote criticism

There's a form letter going out to people wro write to Mr. LeSage objecting to the Sunday vote. The letter is signed by Alexandre LaRue, Executive Assistant to the Prime Minister and states that "in the past there has often been illegal and immoral activities on election day. It is reasonable to hope that voting on Sunday would produce a salutary effect from this point of view at least."

And the letter concludes with "the Government considers that respect for the Lord's Day is not incompatible with the holding of an honest general election."

Don Richardson Rotary's guest in week at Ottawa

This week in Ottawa Donald Richardson, 17 year old son of Mrs. Robina Richardson of Shawville, is with 246 other Canadian young people having the time of their lives in Canada's capital.

For many of the youngsters the trip to Ottawa means a long journey away from home as they come from every Province and two have come from the Northwest Territories. For Don, it isn't so much the distance travelled which will count but the exciting and educational opportunities the group is having while there.

Ottawa is becoming, for these 246 high school students, the living and busy centre of everything Canadian. The entire trip and stay at Ottawa is provided by the Rotary Clubs of each centre across Canada which has sent a student. They call it an "adventure in citizenship" and Shawville Rotary Club has sent many local students on this advneture during the past years.

The choice is made very much on the basis of what the particular person will get out of the trip and what they might also contribute to the adventure for all the others there with them.

Every year. wide awake, intelligent and enthusiastic youngsters are given this opportunity by Rotary to find out about Canada from its Capital City.

The last "adventure in citizenship" member from Shawville was Eileen Schwarts who won second prize of all Canada for the essay she wrote subsequent to her visit.

Don Dichardson will be visiting the National Gallery, the Public Archives, the RCMP where a Musical Ride will be staged for the young visitors, the Parliament Buildings, the Supreme Court. There will be scenic tours, picnics, dinners and a dance at the Chateau Laurier. The Hon George McIlraith will address them as will also the Prime Minister and the Right Hon. John Diefenbaker, and the adventurers will have lots of opportunity to get to know each other and start friendships with students from across Canada.

Donald Richardson has been a member of the Anglican Young People's organization and is in his final year at Shawville High School. In the fall Don intends to attend Carleton University.
