World News In Brief

Charleroi, Belgium, May 11.—(Reuters)—Thirteen miners were killed today when coal gas exploded in the Mariemont-Bacoup coal mine near here. At least 23 more were reported trapped below the surface.
Women and girls with tear-stained faces thronged the mine gates waiting for news as rescue squads worked to reach the trapped men.

Chicago, May 11.—(AP)—A strike by railroad firemen against four major rail systems threatened sharp cuts today in many segments of industries in the United States.
Prospects of an early settlement in the long dispute appeared dim.

Winnipeg, May 11 (CP)—About 550 flood evacuees were stranded early today at St. Norbert, eight miles south of here, when the Canadian National Railways track gave way.

The train was on its way from the semi-submerged Red river valley with most remaining residents of flooded towns and villages.
Flood-control headquarters said a navy amphibious duck was en route to the washout, near Portage Junction. It carried a railway superintendent, civilian engineers, nurses and Red Cross supplies.

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—American military officials are considering the idea that the United States should arm its North Atlantic allies with atomic bombs.
Discussions are in the preliminary stage, and the military authorities are still far from a recommendation on which President Truman might base a proposal to Congress.

The idea of placing atomic bombs within reach of Britain, France and other allies is being explored thoroughly, however, and military arguments are developing both for and against it.

London, May 11.—(Reuters)—The Colonial Office announced today that Earl Baldwin of Bewdley, 51-year-old governor and commander-in-chief of the Leeward Islands has resigned the post for "health and personal reasons."

He will be succeeded by K. W. Blackmore, 43, director of information at the Colonial Office since 1947.

Budapest, Hungary, May 11.—(AP)—Hungary's supreme court of justice refused today to cut the 15-year prison sentence of Robert A. Vogeler, American businessman who was convicted last February on spy charges.

The court also rejected the appeals of Edgar Sanders, a Briton who was sentenced to 13 years on the same charges.

Pearson Outlines Canada's Worth As A Middle-Power

London, May 11.—(Reuters)—L. B. Pearson, Canadian minister of external affairs, last night received a personal ovation when he was called to speak at the Pilgrims society dinner given in honor of Dean Acheson, United States secretary of state.

Replying to a call from the chairman, Sir Campbell Stuart, Pearson paid a graceful and humorous tribute to Acheson and foreign secretary Bevin, whom he described as "my fellow members of the trade union of foreign ministers."

He recalled that both Acheson and Bevin had narrowly missed being Canadians. Acheson's father had migrated to Canada and married a Canadian, and but for an ecclesiastical appointment in the United States, Acheson himself would have been born in Canada.

Bevin had told Pearson that as a young man he once decided to go to Canada, "but," said Pearson, "he did what he rarely does and changed his mind."

Evacuation From Winnipeg Speeds Up As One Eighth Of City Is Under Water

Russia May Invent New "Confession"

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—The United States won't be surprised if Moscow eventually produces an alleged confession from a crew member of the American navy plane lost in the Baltic April 8.

A government official in a position to know said this today on the basis of what he asserted to be American "knowledge" that Russia made prompt efforts to salvage remnants of the plane and to pick up its 10 occupants, dead or alive.

He said also that the U.S. "knows" the following facts, entirely apart from diplomatic interpretations of Moscow's version of the incident:

1. Four Russian fighters opened fire from the rear of the slower moving American patrol plane;
2. The attack took place over the Baltic Sea "more than 30 miles" from the coast of Russian occupied territory;

3. The plane was on fire before it hit the water.
This official said the government would not reveal how it got this information because it would give vital information to Russia. He said he did not know whether the Russians had any success in finding the plane or its occupants.

He agreed with U.S. Navy officers who said yesterday that the chance of survival for any of the crew members was "very remote."

He recalled, however, that communist authorities customarily wring confessions from political prisoners and foreigners involved in incidents.

Only this week, the Chinese Reds announced that they were freeing two American flyers, missing for nearly 19 months in North China, after they had "confessed" to "spying" on Red military installations.

American searchers, assisted by the Scandinavians, have found no trace of the missing navy men in the Baltic and have picked up only secondary pieces of equipment of types the plane is known to have carried.

Although official spokesmen have remained steadfastly silent about how the government got the information about the Russian incident, experienced professionals suggest the following lines of speculation:

1. A second radar-equipped plane could have been in the air over the Baltic beyond the sight or easy pursuit range of the Russian fighters. Its radar could have picked up a reasonably accurate picture of what happened.

The U.S. protest to Russia said that the lost plane was the "only American military aircraft" over the Baltic April 8. There has been no mention of any plane of some other country being in the area.

At 6 a.m., the level of the rivers was 29.4 feet, the highest they have been since 1926. The rise since the same time Tuesday was six inches. When it would stop could not be forecast. The flood crest was submerged somewhere to the south.

And in North Dakota and Minnesota, where the Red rises, a new flood threat was poised on Emerson, the Manitoba border town which got the first century-record crest 10 days ago.

The whole Red river valley was no-man's-land. The Royal Canadian Mounted Police were hastening evacuation of the last settlers yesterday. At least 10 towns were isolated and deserted. Communication, except by boat, was wiped out for many villages.

Inestimable damage has been done to the rich farms along the Red.

A Canadian Press survey showed one-eighth of greater Winnipeg now is under water. Thousands of homes are flooded and likely to remain that way for several weeks. No drop in the Red river's level is anticipated for some days, and even when it comes it will be slow.

More than 500 square miles of southern Manitoba, provincial government experts said, is inundated. That huge lake must be drained off.

Thousands Seek Safety In Other Manitoba Towns—No Immediate Relief Is Expected.

By JOHN DAUPHINEE, Canadian Press Staff Writer.

Winnipeg, May 11.—North, east and west they fled beleaguered Winnipeg today—women, children and old folks squeezed out by the relentless inroads of a muddy, flood-crazed river and its tributaries.

And even as they left, more thousands poured from suburbs and the submerged Red river valley to the safety of this Prairie city's shrinking heart.

"Get out while you can go in comfort" was, in effect, the army's warning yesterday to those not needed for the fight against the rivers.

By daybreak the voluntary thinning of the city's 350,000 population was well started. Trains, buses, trucks, cars—even aircraft—were hustling along the few remaining traffic arteries to points of safety outside the flood-risk zone.

Jammed extra coaches on all east- and west-bound trains took refugees to Brandon, Man., Kenora, Ont., and points farther away. Tuberculosis patients and the aged from flooded institutions left for Saskatchewan. Special trains and motor convoys went to resort towns on Lake Winnipeg, where the Red empties 50 miles to the north.

Two thousand or more left from dark to dawn. Today the movement speeded.

But whether the voluntary answer to Brig. R. E. A. Morton's getout appeal would be enough could not be gauged.

Plans were being made for mass compulsory evacuation of the city if required. Civic, Red Cross and military officials in Saskatchewan said they have been asked how many refugees can go to Regina, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon and Dundurn military camp.

The fight to save power, gas and water supplies will probably determine how many of greater Winnipeg's 200,000 women and children have to go.

Reports from Brig. Morton's headquarters in the legislative buildings here were that the outlook for utilities is better than a couple of days ago.

In Winnipeg proper, huge dikes around the river-buried power plants and gas works were holding firm early today. W. D. Hurst, city engineer, said Wednesday night "the situation has been somewhat improved."

Helicopters patrolled the pipelines bringing water from Shoal Lake, Ont., 100 miles outside the flood zone on the Manitoba border. Extra chlorine put in to prevent infection made Winnipeg's water taste bad but the supply seemed safe.

At tottering dikes protecting residential areas in greater Winnipeg, the situation was precarious. One dike went out last night, letting the Red pour over part of East Kildonan suburb at the city's northern outskirts.

Even more critical was the position of the bridges. Hour by hour communication between the half-dozen, river-separated sections of the metropolitan area became more difficult. Most bridges were closed and those still open were almost at restricted to essential traffic.

The Red, and the Assiniboine and Seine which join it in the city, all lapped at bridge roadways and overflowed approaches.

At 6 a.m., the level of the rivers was 29.4 feet, the highest they have been since 1926. The rise since the same time Tuesday was six inches. When it would stop could not be forecast. The flood crest was submerged somewhere to the south.

More than 500 square miles of southern Manitoba, provincial government experts said, is inundated. That huge lake must be drained off.

Members of Canada's delegation, here for next week's meetings of the foreign ministers of the 12 North Atlantic pact countries, generally welcomed the French proposal. L. B. Pearson, Canadian Minister for External Affairs, said the proposal appeared to be a constructive and important one but further study is necessary.

Start Of Disaster

Precautions Taken At Cabano Against Spread Of Disease From Polluted Wells

Ontario Man Says He Was Kidnapped

North Bay, Ont., May 11.—(AP)—Fred Anselmi, 32, of Shelburne, Ont., missing since April 25, turned up here today and told police he had been kidnapped, robbed and held prisoner by two men who offered to sell him a tractor.

Anselmi said he got into a car at Shelburne with two men after one of them promised to demonstrate a tractor. A cloth smelling of medicine was thrown over his head and he lost consciousness. He came to on a bed in a cabin in which he was held for 16 days, he said.

He believes the cabin might be a summer cottage in the Huntsville area.

Even the placid Assiniboine was causing trouble. Its runoff halted

He said he was released early today between Callander and North Bay, Hargard, red-eyed and trembling, he walked several miles to Callander and got in touch with police. He was brought here while police notified his wife in Shelburne that he was safe.

Cabano, Que., May 11.—(AP)—Orders to prevent disease from polluted well waters in this devastated lumber town in the heart of rugged Temiscouata county have been issued by provincial health department authorities.

Two doctors of the Riviere du Loup health unit on duty here, Dr. Sarto Sirois and Dr. Jean Marie Tremblay, found that residents, deprived of their normal water services, were turning to old abandoned wells formerly in use here.

The physicians warned that all water from stagnant wells should be boiled before drinking, otherwise the polluted waters might start an epidemic of disease.

There are 1,500 homeless in this isolated community where the industrial section and 118 homes were reduced to ashes in a few hours Monday.

With few resources of its own, this town of 3,200 inhabitants, largest centre in the country, is looking for outside help to rebuild the town.

Mayor Emile Morin told The Canadian Press he would appeal to Prime Minister St. Laurent and Premier Duplessis for housing assistance.

The mayor added that because the town had to use the Temiscouata railway, Cabano paid additional freight costs from the town to Riviere du Loup. Although the railways had been purchased by the Canadian National Railways, the higher rates were still in effect, he said.

Mayor Morin said that the sooner Cabano could ship goods and bring in goods at regular rates, the sooner the town's industry could be rebuilt.

With immediate food and shelter services functioning smoothly local Red Cross volunteers, under the direction of the Riviere du Loup chapter, took over the job of running the organization already set up by regular Red Cross staff.

Riviere du Loup president, Georges Tremblay, said he would spend most of the day here today making arrangements for smooth functioning of the organization. He said the Red Cross would decide on the use of food and clothes gifts and would buy some supplies if necessary.

Last night, in a statement on the situation, Mayor Morin said: "Damage is tremendous and it is absolutely true that our population cannot face the problem of reconstruction alone."

He said that the fire devastated the equivalent of two thirds of the town, because the ruined section was the most concentrated and populous. Damage was estimated at $5,000,000.

The mayor said there was some consolation in the prospect of work for 400 men at Fraser Camp for the next few months. The mill is the only important industry in the community that survived the blaze although most of its cut lumber was lost.

There was no indication when electric power and water services would be restored to the town. Damage to telephone and power lines was extensive and crews today continued the job of restoring the services.

Troops, whose swift arrival eliminated problems of property protection and maintenance of order almost from the start, remained on

Three Years Work Needed At Rimouski

Rimouski, Que., May 11.—(AP)—A town planning commission today looked forward to three years of heavy reconstruction work to rebuild a large part of Rimouski destroyed by a $20,000,000 fire earlier this week.

"We think it will take us about three years to complete the commission's program," said town manager Leopold Garon. "It will mean a great deal of work but so far the population of Rimouski is responding very well to the challenge."

Many of the 2,500 Rimouski citizens made homeless by the terrible blaze have already sought building permits, town manager Garon said.

The town planning commission started work about a year ago, the official said, and completed its plans after the fire was put under control.

Meanwhile workers yesterday started the heavy job of clearing the debris caused by the fire which destroyed about a third of the town. Ten bulldozers and three steam shovels have been put in operation.

Rescue Comes Too Late For Trapped Man

New York, May 11.—(AP)—A guy with a lot of courage—trapped for more than 27 hours at the bottom of a well shaft—died in agony late yesterday five minutes before rescuers finally reached him.

Well-digger Dominick Atteo was game to the end.

But burns, pain, exhaustion and the pressure of rocks and earth were more than his strong frame could stand.

Atteo, 49-year-old father of six children, died five minutes before he was lifted out of his tomb, 20 feet beneath a Brooklyn garage.

Only a few minutes during his agonizing imprisonment did he falter in faith, hope or courage.

A hospital interne and Roman Catholic priests administered to body and soul through the long hours as rescue workers feverishly dug a trench to reach him.

Doctors said Atteo—crushed, seared and half-blind—put up an almost superhuman show of courage.

Five hundred persons, many of them with rosaries, prayed outside during the ordeal.

Atteo's attractive, 32-year-old second wife, Marie, became hysterical when her long vigil of prayers and tears ended in despair.

"What am I going to do without him?" she cried. "He was the most wonderful man in the world, and so brave."

A friend told her that her husband might have been blind and crippled if he had lived. "He couldn't have stood that," the widow said.

Dr. Harold Bersen, 25, worn out by perilous trips down the well shaft to administer to the tortured victim, said: "I thought he was going to make it. His courage and endurance were beyond belief."

Atteo, a contractor, had been digging the well under the garage seeking water for washing automobiles. Use of city water for that purpose is banned the current shortage.

A cave-in trapped him early Tuesday afternoon. And he was badly burned later in a flare-up when a lighted cigaret lowered to him came in contact with oxygen being pumped down the shaft.

Rimouski Triplets Are Identified

Montreal, May 11.—(AP)—The Red Cross reported today that Rimouski's unidentified eight-month-old triplets have at least been identified and a nurse is being sent from Montreal to the fire-stricken lower St. Lawrence river town to look after the babies.

A man called at Red Cross headquarters in Rimouski yesterday to report that the children seemed ill. He said the three had been taken from a hospital there and turned over to him to look after. He thought their name was Chenard but could not find their parents.

The Red Cross said here this morning the children had been identified as those of Mr. and Mrs. Aime Chenard and their mother now is believed to be with them. In any case, they needed medical attention and the Red Cross flew a nurse down to take care of them.

The Senate could be regarded as "meddlesome and mischievous" if it tried to dictate government taxation policy.

2. Policies of the margarine manufacturers tended to destroy the dairy industry.

3. The butter-substitute producers were trying to "beat the gun" and consolidate their position in Canada on the matter of legality of margarine production which now was before the Privy Council.

4. Senator Farris questioned who would benefit by the elimination of the tax. If the tax, which amounted to three cents a pound, was discriminatory to the margarine producers, then he would like to see "these gentlemen come out and declare themselves."

Ottawa, May 11.—(AP)—The government was urged in the Commons yesterday to encourage the development of Canada's rich northwest territories.

George Murray (L—Cariboo), publisher of the weekly Alaska Highway News, said that as far as the defence of this country is concerned "it is in the interest of Canada to get as large a population in northern British Columbia and the Yukon as possible, especially in the territory contiguous to the Alaska highway."

Resources Minister Winters said it is "definitely the policy of the government to encourage people to go into the north country and develop that vast and rich area."

Mr. Murray said the government should encourage settlement in fer-

Noel Talarico To Be Soloist At Concert

NOEL TALARICO

At the age of 24 Noel Talarico is one of the best known trombonists of the province, and has achieved a prominence in Montreal music circles equal to that of many longer established musicians. This young musician will be the principle soloist scheduled to take part in the annual concert of the Sherbrooke Harmony Band, Sunday, May 14, in the Christ-Roi Hall.

Noel Talarico, who will play the second movement of Berlioz' Fanfare Symphony and Handel's Concerto in F Major, began the study of music at the age of 12. He entered the Quebec Provincial Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art when it first opened in 1943, and has since studied under the supervision of Julien Fisher, former first trombonist of the orchestra of Les Concerts Symphoniques and Charles Guskoff, first trombonist of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

He is the first trombonist of L'Orchestre Symphonique des Jeunes in Montreal, and has appeared as soloist with many bands in the province. He combines an active career in radio, with concert work under such well known conductors as Emil Cooper, Wilfrid Pelletier and Alexander Broth.

Last fall, he participated in the first Canadian performance of Berlioz' Requiem, presented at Notre Dame Cathedral by the Montreal Festivals Orchestra under the direction of Sir Thomas Beecham.

At the express recommendation of Mr. Harry Long, intermediary director of the Sherbrooke Harmony Band, he has been invited as soloist in Sunday's concert.

C. W. I. Held Meeting In Cleveland

Cleveland, May 11. — The May meeting of the C.W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Pease with 15 members and one visitor present. The president, Mrs. Hazel Taylor, opened the meeting.

The treasury showed a good balance of $219.98. It was decided Miss Birch would give a demonstration on rug-making and weaving on April 16-20 of 1951. Mrs. Flora Monahan thanked the members for the gift she received. Mrs. Ross offered to pack the next box for England.

It was decided to have a food sale on May 19. The agriculture convener, Mrs. R. Pease, held a contest with Mrs. Flora Monahan and first prize. Mrs. Maud Healy came second. The Ways and Means reported $2.41, sales of remnants $3.75, slip and food sales $9.68. Mrs. Flora Monahan acted as auctioneer. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Raymond Pease on June 1. Mrs. Clarence Pease served fancy bread and tea.

General Notes
Miss Abbie Pease, of Sherbrooke, was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Florence Pease and visited Mrs. G. Tozer and Mrs. Flora Monahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Fowler and son, Bruce, of Sherbrooke, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pease.

Mrs. Flora Monahan and Mr. and Mrs. Ford Monahan and family have left for their new home in Elmont, Alta. Mrs. Flora Monahan, before leaving, received a lovely housecoat. Mr. and Mrs. Ford Monahan also received a beautiful lace tablecloth from friends and relatives.

Mrs. Charles Morey, of Windsor Mills, and Master Gerald Bushey, of Richmond, were tea guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke and visitors of Mrs. Flora Monahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke and family spent a day in Windsor Mills with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morey and Mr. Douglas Morey.

der the direction of Sir Thomas Beecham.

At the express recommendation of Mr. Harry Long, intermediary director of the Sherbrooke Harmony Band, he has been invited as soloist in Sunday's concert.

IN HOLLYWOOD by Erskine Johnson

NEA Staff Correspondent

Hollywood — Close-ups and Longshots:

Harold Lloyd is trying to keep it mum, but he's hatching plans for an independent starring film for himself to go before the cameras before the year is over. Howard Hughes is still keeping Harold's "Mad Wednesday" frozen.

Bob Sterling is explaining his split-up with Betty Hutton with: "If you could believe newspaper romances everything would be easy. I hate cliches, but I think she's a great girl. If any statements are to be made, Betty, I think, should make them."

Jim Davis and Republic are talking terms contract. Jim's career was almost blighted with "Winter Meeting" but he's been working almost constantly at the valley studio. Ben Petroff will produce the life story of Mabel Stark, the world famous tiger trainer, under the title, "Hold That Tiger."

"I'll Get By" is Dennis Day's first movie in nearly six years. He says he's had screen offers from time to time but turned them down because he didn't feel he was right for the part or the role couldn't do anything for him. This role, he says, is a natural:

"It's easy to do. I just have to be myself. I'm somewhat of a jerk, not very bright in a very bright kind of way."

Short Of Space

Hedy Lamarr's Romeo, Herbie Klotz, is asking columnists to call him Herbert in print. Too bad, Herbie, there's a shortage of newspaper space. Bright note: The Screen Writers Guild reports that 75 per cent of its members are working. Hollywood's eyebrows have been lifted plenty by Danny Thomas' big hit at the London Palladium. He arrived billed as "the second Danny Kaye" and left as "the first Danny Thomas."

UI scarcely finished cutting and scoring "The Sleeping City," story of New York, when Republic announced preparation of "The City

That Never Sleeps," a story about Chicago. Civil wars have been started over less.

It seldom happens dept.: Paramount boss Y. Freeman opposed filming of "The Lawless" by Bill Pine and Bill Thomas. After its rave reviews, Freeman sent the Bills a piece of chalk "to mark up victory for the courage of your convictions."

Waste Space

Cary Grant's "Crisis" looks like the year's best turnabout. Playing it straight and icy, he out-deadpans Bogart. In "The Milkman," Donald O'Connor plays a South Pacific vet suffering from battle fatigue and emotional stress "who actually is quite normal except that he quacks like a duck when he gets excited." Oh well, the war ended five years ago.

Alan Ladd and Robert Keith went to the Apache Indian reservation in Arizona for location scenes on "Branded." The parched, rough land, says Keith, is the dirtiest trick the white man has ever played on the Indians. The noble redmen seem to appreciate the grim humor of the joke, too. One of them, when asked by Keith what lay over the next hill, replied: "Nothing there but rocks, rattlesnakes, cactus and actors."

Ida Lupino is toying with the idea of playing the fond mama role in "Mother of a Champion," story of a tennis star. It depends on her luck in borrowing her discovery, Sally Forrest, from MGM for the rolt of the daughter... Mickey Rooney just signed a two-year song-writing contract with BMI which will pay a big weekly salary as well as royalties... Bob Preston may be headed for Broadway to star in a prize-fight play, "Come Out Fighting."

Kiwanis Club Presents $1,000 Cheque For Ward At New Sherbrooke Hospital

The Kiwanis Club of Sherbrooke last night presented a cheque for $1,000 to the Sherbrooke Hospital, to be used in equipping a four-bed public ward in the new hospital.

Rick Allen, chairman of the club's community auction and white elephant sale, staged last Friday and Saturday, presented the cheque which was accepted by J. Gordon Armitage, president of the hospital.

Mr. Armitage, accepting the cheque, congratulated the Kiwanians on the work they have been doing in Sherbrooke. He thanked the club for its gift, voicing his own appreciation and that of the hospital's governors.

The hospital president said work was going forward rapidly on the new hospital and nurses' home and that it was hoped to take over the home by the end of this month.

"We are going to have one of the finest hospitals in Canada," he added.

Last night's presentation was made at a "ladies' night" dinner held at the New Sherbrooke Hotel. Newman Hunter, past president of the club, presented Ray Demers with a club bag in appreciation of his work as auctioneer at last week's sale. Mr. Demers was made an honorary member of the club following last year's auction.

Balance of the program consisted of vocal selections by a guest, Dave Trudel, of Noranda, now living in Sherbrooke, and a sing-song to the accompaniment of animated movies.

Club President Len Keeler presided at the meeting, following which the Kiwanians, their wives and guests adjourned to the artillery officers' mess at the Belvidere street armory for dancing and a social evening.

Kiwanis' Cheque For Hospital

The Kiwanis Club of Sherbrooke last night presented a $1,000 cheque to the Sherbrooke Hospital for use in furnishing a four-bed public ward in the new hospital. This picture shows Len Keeler, club president, and J. Gordon Armitage, president of the hospital, who accepted the cheque on behalf of the board of governors. (Ivan Boisvert Photo.)

Burlington Band To Play Here May 21

The story of the Burlington High School Band which is to take part in the Youth Festival being held here on Sunday, May 21, dates back to 1922 when Adrian Holmes, principal of the school, induced the educational authorities of that Vermont city to purchase a number of instruments upon which the pupils could practise.

It was not until 1927 that Mr. Holmes believed the aspiring musicians had had sufficient training to permit them to appear as an organized unit. In that year the first band consisting of twenty-six boys made its appearance and despite its rather modest size was enthusiastically received at the dedication ceremonies of the new gymnasium. The band appeared at many other school functions that year.

In 1929, the same year that two girls were admitted into the band, new uniforms of plain navy blue gabardine jackets and pants, white waist belts, white school emblem and navy blue Pershing style caps were purchased.

The following year the band extended its activities beyond strictly school affairs and took part in concerts and other functions in the town. The same year, 1930, the band went for the first time to the New England Music Festival at Pawtucket, R.I.

The next years were rather revolutionary ones. Because of popular demand for drilling and marching exercises, a special drill squad of a choice thirty of the fifty band members was established and the newly-appointed drum major led the seven or eight ranks of four members each through the drilling routines.

Now a drum major leads the ten or twelve ranks of eight which comprise the entire band and marching squad.

In 1933-34, due to the expanded activities of the band and its increasing size, a more complete organization was established with a captain, lieutenants, corporals, manager, assistant manager and librarians.

The band has travelled far and wide—by special invitation to the New York World's Fair, to Montreal and to all parts of New England. It is one of the bands of longest continual standing in New England festivals and one which has travelled farther as a group than any other band in that region.

It has always made an impressive showing at the New England Festivals, and at one of the recent annual meetings of band leaders in New England, it was rated as the best in that festival. It was used as an example of the type of band and twirling corps which was a credit to high schools and the type which officers of the organization hoped to see more of in the future.

Roncarelli's $118,000 Damage Suit Against Premier Duplessis Opens

Montreal, May 11.—(C)—A $118,000 damage suit against Premier Maurice Duplessis, stemming from cancellation of the liquor licence of a Montreal restaurant owner, was scheduled to continue in Superior Court today.

When the hearing opened yesterday, Premier Duplessis was the first to testify to allow him to return to his government offices. He was not expected to appear today.

Start of proceedings was delayed for more than 35 minutes when it was discovered that none of the court officials had summoned an English-speaking stenographer to take down the testimony.

Mr. Justice Gauthier C. MacKinnon commented: "It is unreasonable that the court and the Premier should have been immobilized for 35 minutes when the function of office needs Premier Duplessis very urgently at this time."

The Premier told the court that he had no alternative but to approve cancellation of the liquor licence of Frank Roncarelli if "public order was to be maintained and trouble avoided" in Quebec.

He said that Roncarelli, who launched the action against the Premier personally in June, 1947, had hindered the work of the courts by acting as bondsman for arrested members of the Jehovah's Witnesses sect three years ago. The Premier had charged the sect at the time with distributing "sedition propaganda."

"I studied, examined and analyzed every aspect of this case carefully and there was nothing else I could do as a matter of conscience but to cancel the permit if trouble was to be avoided," he said.

The Premier, also attorney-general of the province, insisted that he did not actually give the order but approved it after it was suggested to him by Chief Judge Edouard Archambault, then general manager of the Quebec Liquor Commission.

On further questioning, Mr. Duplessis said a suggestion by Mr. Archambault, when approved by the attorney-general, is equivalent to an order.

He testified that he had received complaints from many parts of the province regarding the Witnesses of Jehovah. His attention was further directed to the matter when he was informed that the business of the recorder's court was being complicated by a backlog of cases against the Witnesses who had a systematic way of providing bail bonds.

"At the time, I didn't even know Roncarelli, never saw him, never knew he existed and further, I never knew he held a liquor permit," Mr. Duplessis continued.

"I received a phone call from Judge Archambault informing me that the person who was acting as professional bondsman for Witnesses of Jehovah arrested in Montreal was one Roncarelli who held a liquor licence. I asked him to verify this and call back."

"When the facts were established the license was cancelled."

Roncarelli, 45, then testified he was "an adherent" of the Witnesses, but had never organized, directed or encouraged any propaganda of the sect.

He said he had acted as bondsman for many witnesses but had never paid cash. The attitude of court officials had always been one of "cordial acceptance."

He was "astounded" when his liquor permit, which he held since 1940, was cancelled. He previously held a permit jointly with his mother from 1928 to 1940.

He termed "an abominable fabrication and abominable lie" a report allegedly found in his liquor file that he allowed "fast women" to frequent his restaurant and permitted police to hold parties there.

He sold his restaurant for $58,000 in 1947, he said, and estimated his loss on the deal in excess of $100,000.

Ernie Chalut New President Of Y's Men

Following the weekly dinner meeting at the Chateau Frontenac Hotel last night Ernie Chalut was elected president of the Sherbrooke Y's Men's Club. He succeeds Archie Mitchell.

At the same time Jeff Wilson was elected first vice-president and Charles Roy second vice-president. Leo Tracy was returned for a second term as secretary and Ross Hunting was elected to the post of treasurer.

New directors of the club include Mel Porter, Hally Evans, Craig Bishop and Jim Mitchell.

The officers take over their posts this fall for the 1950-51 term. Four new members were inducted into the club. They include Leo Tracy, Dick Crotty, Garnet Weston and Ed Severeight.

Final plans for the eighth annual Eastern Townships Interscholar Track Meet, to be held here May 28, were formulated last night. The names of the participating schools have not yet been announced but it is expected that entries will be much the same as last year.

Women's Group Bridge Winners Are Announced

At the monthly business meeting of Maple Copse Chapter, I.O.D.E., the convener of a recently completed bridge marathon, Mrs. Darcy Bennett, stated that the first prizes went to Mrs. Sadie Hall and Mrs. Austin Scott, the second having been won by Mrs. Basil Baker and Mrs. E. E. Demison. The recent Mrs. Austin Scott, who donated the prizes, therefore found herself in the unusual position of presenting a prize to herself, and in consequence she decided that the prizes should also go to those with the third highest scores, Mrs. A. Hill and Mrs. A. Rowat.

Routine reports were received from secretaries and conveners, covering various activities of the chapter since the previous meeting. A successful rummage sale and well attended tea held at the home of Mrs. A. R. Jewitt in April had helped to swell the satisfactory balance in the treasurer's financial statement. The entertainment convener, Mrs. Everett Bayley, thanked the members for their help with these two efforts, mentioning particularly Mrs. D. Bennett, who convoked the birthday tea.

Two large food parcels were sent overseas by Mrs. Arthur Preston, post-war service convener, and a charming letter of thanks from one recipient, an 86-year-old resident of Devonshire, was read. Miss M. B. Reyner, educational secretary, gave a report regarding the selection of prize books for local schools, the provision of pictures of Their Majesties the King and Queen, which have been requested; also a further gift of books to add to the library already given to the chapter's adopted school, Lennoxville High School.

Miss Reyner spoke of the bursary voted last year to Jack McCallum, who was then entering Bishop's University. This student has made good progress and it was decided to continue the bursary for another college year. The regent gave a short report on the annual meeting of the provincial chapter of Quebec which she had attended as a delegate. A request for financial assistance by the provincial chapter was presented by Mrs. Scott and the members voted to send $15 in response to this appeal. Correspondence regarding the annual meeting of the national chapter in Montreal from May 26-31 was read. The regent expressed the hope that as many members as possible would attend this golden jubilee meeting to be held in the city where the Order was first founded. The secretary, Miss E. F. Molony, was named chapter.

Our Congratulations To: DON WATSON and FRED WILSON, who are celebrating their respective birthdays today.

The standard bearer, Mrs. Arthur Preston, raised the standard and the National Anthem was sung, after which the meeting adjourned. Hostesses for the tea were Mrs. H. A. Wootton and Mrs. E. F. Molony, was named chapter.

Hospitals Will Be Dangerously Short Of Blood If Clinic Objective Fails

Red Cross Blood Clinic officials, noting a sharp decrease in the number of blood donors as compared to last year, said today that unless a marked increase in the number of donors was forthcoming in the next two days the objective of 1500 bottles would not be realized and that the Sherbrooke hospitals would be critically short of blood this year.

"Twenty-two bottles of blood have already been used by a single patient here," said Captain Louis M. Potras, Director of the clinic, in an effort to explain the seriousness of the situation. "And unless we reach our quota in the next two days our hospitals here will be dangerously short of blood."

The clinic, which arrived for a five day stay here May 8, collected only 104 bottles on opening day. Following the first day's count Red Cross officials appealed for more donors, who so far, have failed to report in sufficient numbers. On Tuesday the total amount collected dropped to 100 bottles and rose to 175 bottles yesterday, still far below the required minimum per day.

The Red Cross clinic, eyeing the general situation with considerable anxiety, today continued its appeal for more donors. "Should we reach our objective," declared

Magog, May 11.—Fire of unknown origin yesterday destroyed the farm house, home of Robert Smith, 2½-miles west of Magog on the Montreal Highway.

The blaze was first discovered in the roof of the two storey building at approximately 1 p.m., and swept by a strong wind, soon spread throughout the entire house causing some $4,000 damage.

Firemen from the Magog Fire Department answered the call, but were unable to gain control of the blaze.

Last Monday fire completely destroyed a two storey house and garage owned by Harold MacAuley, situated ¼ mile from the Smith farm.

Market Days For Holidays Are Changed

As the St. Jean Baptiste and Dominion Day holidays this year fall on Saturday, June 24 and July 1 respectively, the City Council, at the request of the Association of Butchers and Grocers has advanced the market days for these two weeks to Thursday instead of Friday.

The decision will permit the grocers and butchers to keep their establishments open Thursday evening and close Friday at six o'clock, an arrangement which it is believed will better serve the interests of the public.

Town Councillors Are Re-Elected

Three councillors were elected by acclamation in Orford County yesterday.

The re-elected councillors are: Gordon McElrea, seat no. 1; Jean-Thomas Faucher, seat no. 2; Joseph Rancourt, seat no. 6.

Secretary-treasurer A. S. Mills presided at the elections.

Women's Group Has Meeting

The Lennoxville Women's League held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Raymond Stevenson with a good attendance of members.

The president, Mrs. Fowles, presided and the meeting was opened by Mrs. Stevenson reading a portion of Scripture and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

Plans were made for the closing tea. Meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction and the hostess served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held May 16, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. A. MacKenzie when Mrs. Trenholme will be the hostess.

delegate. The standard bearer, Mrs. Arthur Preston, raised the standard and the National Anthem was sung, after which the meeting adjourned. Hostesses for the tea were Mrs. H. A. Wootton and Mrs. E. F. Molony, was named chapter.

War On Arthritis Now Nation-Wide Led By Mary Pack

Vancouver. — (P) — A Vancouver woman has become the champion of Canadians suffering from arthritis.

She is Mary Pack, a school teacher who stirred governments into legislating and medical scientists into research on behalf of the 600,000 Canadians ridden by arthritis.

Before she began her one-woman war against the "great cripple" five years ago, no one was very interested in the disease. People who had it moved quietly and painfully out of society into a retreat where they lived out their lives as helpless cripples.

Today, Mary Pack's lone battle has become nation-wide under the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society. "Operation Bluebird" has mobilized to prevent crippling by the disease. Medical scientists are searching for the cure for this dread illness that has maimed bodies as far back as the time of the Egyptian Pharaohs.

The main reasons these things are happening is because Mary Pack was a witness to the ravages caused by arthritis on a 15-year-old pupil and on her mother. In 1945, she wrote more than 2,000 letters, using her sister's name to prevent any possible embarrassment to her employers, the school board and metropolitan health department.

She spent her lunch hour writing hospitals, research groups, leading Canadian doctors and government bodies to see what was being done in this country for rheumatic disease. Her answers showed little was being done in other countries and even less in Canada.

8,000 Sign Petitions
Then Miss Pack got out petitions. Some 8,000 Canadians across Canada signed them and sent them to members of parliament.

The matter was first brought before the House May 31, 1946, by W. G. Blair, member for Lanark. In October, 1947, Health Minister Martin called together provincial deputy ministers of health, representatives of the Red Cross, Cancer Society, Tuberculosis Society, Department of Veterans' Affairs, occupation and physical therapists, heads of medical schools—and Mark Pack. The meeting resulted in formation of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society.

Miss Pack didn't stop there. She, with others, formed the first provincial division of the society in British Columbia in July, 1948. She took leave of absence from her job to become executive secretary of the branch.

Two months later, the B. C. Medical Association called a public meeting on arthritis and rheumatism. Some 850 were expected. Three thousand came.

Now with medical advisers and a fairly substantial amount of money, Mary Pack swung into action. She set up headquarters and started "Operation Bluebird." One of the world's largest organized projects for preventing crippling by arthritis.

Mobile clinics bring physiotherapy to homes of bed and wheelchair victims in the lowest income group. Clinics were set up in Vancouver's two biggest hospitals and there the city's foremost medical men are in attendance once a week.

These doctors and physiotherapists have prevented crippling in hundreds of cases. They have not

Brig-Gen. Riley Sees Peace Near In The Holy Land

Ordered not to make war, but to insure peace, the tall, blue-eyed, cigar-smoking United States Marine is confident he and his United Nations Observers Corps are nearing their goal—the final pacification of the Holy Land.

"Armistice agreements, even if the parties are living up to them as is the case here, are only the stepping stones on the road to peace," said in an interview. His job is to keep the parties—Israel on the one side, Egypt, Hashemite Jordan, Lebanon and Syria on the other—advancing along that road.

Riley's number one spare time hobby here is reading.

"First of all, there's the Bible—all the more inspiring in the country where it was born. I'm also very interested in modern history, but most of the books I read are on the Palestine question."

Riley himself has just written an important contribution to this literature. That's the report which he, as chief of staff of the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization, submitted to the U.N.

His conclusion: "The work done in the four mixed armistice commissions has been reasonably successful so far . . . there is reason to assume that provided continued co-operation is forthcoming, the main aim of the agreements can be achieved; to facilitate the transition to a permanent peace in Palestine."

Gruelling Work
Behind this sober optimism is 20 months of gruelling hard work by General Riley and his American, Belgian and French observers and endless wearisome discussions since midsummer 1948.

There have been top level negotiations between Riley and statesmen he visits frequently in Tel Aviv, Cairo, Amman, Beirut and Damascus. There have been hundreds of discussions within the four armistice commissions to smooth out misunderstandings between the former foes.

There have been 50 or 60 "cease fire" violations since July 15, 1948, General Riley said, but all of them could be dealt with on the mixed armistice commission level and none was reported to the United Nations Security Council.

About a thousand complaints concerning non-military incidents also were settled in the talks. In cases where the mixed armistice commissions, composed equally of Jews and Arabs, could not come to an agreement, the U.N. chairman had the deciding vote.

The most controversial part of General Riley's report, however, was that he recommended to decrease the number of official truce observers from 550 to 30 in the last 14 months. That shows more than anything else how the tension on the Palestine front is subsiding—although there are some circles in the Middle East who still are convinced the "second round" of fighting is just around the corner.

General Riley is convinced that common sense will win the race between arms and reason. "My great aim in life," he said, "is to assist in bringing peace to this part of the world."

At first Riley, who is 53 years old, was senior military U. N. observer and commanded all U. S. military personnel in Palestine. After the assassination of Count Fokker Bernadotte he was appointed chief of staff of the U. N. observers.

From Sept. 17, 1948, he directed the whole of the truce supervision organization and in January 1949, he joined Dr. Ralph Bunche, the acting U.N. mediator, in the negotiations which led to the armistice agreements.

only eased pain but have shown patients exercises to keep body parts from stiffening and eventually solidifying. In the last five months, this work has fanned out to five other B.C. centres with mobile and hospital clinics in each unit.

Now Miss Pack is asking the public to contribute money to keep the work going.

Makes World Jaunt After Empire Games

Victory. — (P) — Oh for the life of an athlete when the athletic chores are done!

This remark is prompted by the itinerary of Joan Morgan of Victoria, young Empire Games swimmer, who is virtually travelling around the world to return home.

Her tour following the games in Auckland, N. Z., included such places as Australia, Aden and Colombo, and a trip through the Indian Ocean, the Mediterranean, into southern France and on to England.

And the year, which began early in the year, is not yet completed. Joan sailed from England aboard the Queen Elizabeth May 10.

Predicts Big Future For Dark Continent

Vancouver. — (P) — J. Gordon Stephenson, African missionary on holiday in Vancouver, says development of Africa is only a matter of sufficient capital.

Mr. Stephenson told reporters of the changes that have taken place during his 32-years in the jungle. "Savage natives," claims Mrs. Stephenson, "have become Christians and good citizens, jungles are being turned over to giant plantations producing tea, coffee, sisal and grains."

Suitcase Is A Cot And High-Chair Too

London. — (P) — British mothers worried about the quantities of nursery equipment necessary for holiday travel have had their problems solved by Robert Chivers of Camberwell District Nursing Association.

Chivers has designed a suitcase-cum-high-chair-cum-cot.

A deep, roomy suitcase with jointed middle and flap-end, it can be opened out and supported on any ordinary chair. One half touches the floor in a leg-rest, the other forms the chair back with flap resting backwards to give head-room. A fitted tray keeps baby safely secured.

At night the case is opened flat on the floor and forms a cot.

Wife Of Botanist Says Scientists Make Ideal Mates

Miami, Fla. — (P) — A daughter of Alexander Graham Bell says it's simple to have a happy and fruitful life—marry a scientist.

"I did and I've never regretted a moment of it," explains Mrs. Marian Hubbard Bell Fairchild. "I can't imagine anything that could be more fun."

At 70, the graying, alert wife of the noted botanist, Dr. David Fairchild certainly should know. She's a daughter of the inventor of the telephone, wife of a botanist, mother of an entomologist, mother-in-law of an authority on malaria, and grandmother of an 18-year-old boy very much interested in snakes.

Strangely enough, it's the mother-in-law role that is attracting public attention at present.

Dr. Marion Bates, formerly of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and husband of Mrs. Fairchild's daughter, Nancy Bell, has just written a book called "The Nature of Natural History."

He dedicated it to Mrs. Fairchild this way: "daughter, wife and mother of scientists, she knows well how the species should be fed and exercised and forgives its foibles as she esteems its virtues."

Mrs. Fairchild's brown eyes twinkled when reminded of this dedication during an interview in the charming Spanish-style home she and her husband occupy in the Coconut Grove section of Miami. Both Dr. and Mrs. Fairchild still think of Alexander Graham Bell as the "greatest and kindest" person they ever knew.

Marian Hubbard Bell was born in Washington, D.C. in 1880.

Santa Claus On Phone

"I remember when I was a little girl being held up to talk to Santa Claus over the telephone," she says. "Father had a big, white beard and he always smelled of pipe smoke."

Most summers the Bell family went to their summer home, "Beinn Bhreagh," on Cape Breton's Bras d'Or Lakes, near Baddeck, N. S.

"We children would go out in the fields with father and watch him fly kites. He was studying lifting surfaces then, as he was very much interested in flying."

"Father always said it was a great mistake to work in confusion. He believed in 'freedom from interference' and spent two days a week on an old houseboat down at the beach."

"Even back in Washington he often worked at night. Sometimes I'd wake up and hear him playing the piano. He was very musical, you know, and the family often sang together."

It was in Washington that she met Dr. David Fairchild. They were married April 25, 1905, and went to Spain for a honeymoon. It was the start of her career as the wife of a scientist.

Dr. Fairchild was the head of the plant introduction branch of the U.S. department of agriculture from 1906 to 1928. He is credited with introducing the soybean to this country, as well as a great variety of tropical plants and food producing species.

Mrs. Fairchild accompanied her husband on many of his expeditions, visiting Africa, Europe, Sumatra, the Philippines, the Dutch Indies and South America. As recently as 1940, the Fairchilds journeyed to the Moluccas Islands in the Malay Archipelago.

He'll Celebrate With Truman

Bobby Cowell, polo victim of Queen City, Mo., will celebrate his ninth birthday in Ottumwa, Ia., on Monday, along with President Truman, who will be 66. Bobby wrote Ottumwa city officials saying he would "so like" to exchange birthday greetings with the President. As a result, President Truman asked to "shake hands personally" with Bobby when he gets to the city.

KNOWLTON

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. M. Bancroft, with Mrs. K. H. Battley for the tea hostess. There was an attendance of twelve members and two visitors. The meeting was opened with religious exercises, followed by the study period conducted by Miss E. Brown. Preparation of a study chapter for the next meeting was assigned to Mrs. E. Pilson. Minutes of the February and March meetings were read by the assistant secretary, Mrs. J. H. Welsh. The treasurer's report showed a substantial balance. Letters were read by Miss Mary R. Knowlton from Mrs. Ian Laurie and from Mrs. Jones, of the M.D. W.A., who sent a questionnaire concerning annual meetings. The president, Miss Knowlton, thanked the members for work done in connection with the Easter Sunshine tea. Contents of the United Thank-Offering boxes were brought in to Mrs. A. T. Woodley. Clothing and hospital supplies were contributed for the sale. The Prayer Partner secretary read items of news covering the consecration of the new bishop of Brandon, and the radio broadcast was in Cree language for Indians in the district of the Pass and Cedar Lake. It was announced that Mrs. Harold Laws would be present for the showing of films on Japan on the evening of May 9, to which the congregation would be invited. A rummage sale was arranged for June 2, for which clothing and household articles are required. The meeting adjourned and tea was served. Mrs. Dodge was named hostess for the May meeting.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. Sidney Taylor with the president, Mrs. E. H. Gray, in the chair. The meeting opened with the W.C.T.U. Pledge repeated in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Harold Spence, and approved. The roll call was answered by all giving temperance quotations. A report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. H. L. Hastings. As this was the annual meeting a few reports were read and the dues were paid. A motion was passed that all officers and superintendents be re-elected for the coming year. Mrs. Taylor had charge of the devotional period and gave a very interesting talk on "In The Garden," referring to the beautiful world in springtime and second to the garden of the soul, stating that Our Heavenly Father would always strengthen us to grow strong and straight giving us the sunshine of His love and showers of blessing along life's way. Clouds would come at times but with the clouds the silver lining and His Providence to be always near us. The hymn, "Count Your Blessings," was sung and the sacred song, "In The Garden," was read. Mrs. Gray read a Scripture passage and Mrs. Taylor led in prayer. The study period was taken by Mrs. Gray. Her topic was "Youth and Alcohol." Press clippings were read by different members. Some facts stated were "There are more teetotalers in the athletic world than in any other walk of life, 99 per cent of British and World Champions are such. The meeting closed with the benediction. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Association of the United Church took place at the home of Mrs. Frank Tricarten, with the president, Mrs. Leroy Bullard, in the chair. There were seventeen members present. The opening devotions were conducted by Mrs. George Coote. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Elton Bockus and were approved. The treasurer, Mrs. H. L. Parkes, gave her report. Mrs. Parkes also reported on work being done at the church and it was decided to have the church entrance redecorated. Mrs. H. Raynes was added to the church committee. It was also decided to plant shrubs at the church. Miss Ethel Marsh kindly offered to look after contacting W. A. members re flowers in the church each Sunday during the summer. Miss Marsh offered to entertain the June meeting with Mrs. H. G. Wright for the co-hostess. The meeting closed with the benediction, after which Mrs. Tricarten with Mrs. Raynes as assistant hostess, served refreshments.

The W. A. of St. Paul's Church held a "Sunshine" tea in the Guild room celebrating the Easter season and receiving Lenten offering for Mission Work through the return of "Sunshine" bags. About sixty friends and members gathered to hear a moving address by Dr. Minnie Gomery, who has returned to Canada, after 49 years of Medical Missionary experience in Kashmir, India, where she and Miss Newnam ran a small hospital started by themselves. Dr. Gomery's desire is to return to India to help our people, and asked church people at home to pray continually for Kashmir and all Missions. Rev. T. E. R. Nurse opened the meeting and Miss Mary Knowlton thanked the speaker. Mrs. S. C. Robinson was in charge of tea arrangements and those waiting on table were, the Misses Brenda Carmichael, Mary Strange, Faye Armstrong, Joan Clark, Lois Thornton and Susan Clark.

Collax Rebekah Lodge, No. 29, met in regular session on Tuesday evening, May 4, in the I.O.O.F. Hall, with the Noble Grand, Sister Oda Tuxen, in the chair. The minutes of the previous session were read by the secretary, Sister Pearl L. Windle, and approved. The treasurer, Sister Agnes McClay, also gave her report. Sister Muriel McInnis reported for the committee of the "Benefit Dance" and final arrangements were completed. Sister Rebekah Porritt was appointed to replace Sister Helen McKerrill, as delegate to the Rebekah Assembly, as Sister McKerrill will be unable to attend. Lodge was brought to a close in ritual form after which refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

St. Paul's Junior Guild held its regular meeting on Thursday evening, with the president, Mrs. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. K. Birks, and the treasurer, Mrs. D. Taylor, gave the financial statement. The work convener, Mrs. E. Bruce Bailey, gave out work and several completed articles were turned in. At the conclusion of a pleasant meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Donald McLellan and Mrs. K. M. Birks.

The christening of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Partridge took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church, on Sunday, April 23, at 4 p. m. The rector, Rev. T. E. R. Nurse officiated. The baby received the names, Wayne Richard. The godparents were Miss Joan Clark, Mr. Robert Henry and Mr. Fred Partridge. Following the ceremony the family were entertained at a tea at the home of the parents. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Partridge and sons, John and Peter, Mrs. William C. Partridge, Mrs. H. Clark, the Misses Eunice and Joan Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry and three children and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Partridge.

Six families were left homeless here, when a fire swept through the Robb tenement block on Main Street, shortly after midnight Saturday, May 6. Fire equipment from Waterloo and Sutton were called to assist local firemen and deserve much credit for confining the fire to one building as there was a strong wind and for a time it looked as if the entire street would go.

CLAPHAM

Beautiful Easter lilies were placed on the altar of Christ Church, on Easter Sunday and were given by Mr. A. W. Christie in memory of his grandmother, Mrs. A. Christie.

Messrs. A. W. Christie and D. Ward have returned from Montreal, where they spent a few days. Mrs. Christie was the guest of her father, Mr. L. O. Ward, during their absence.

Miss A. P. Johnson was in New York for a few days with her niece, Miss Joan Briggs, and of her sister, Mrs. G. Briggs, of Rampton, N. J.

Mr. C. Bennett was a guest of his brother, Mr. O. Bennett and Mrs. Bennett, in New Ireland.

Mr. W. Wright has returned to his home, after spending six months here in the employ of Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Olson and family are living in the Johnson cottage here, where Mr. Olson is working for Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. W. A. Christie was an overnight guest of Mrs. A. W. Christie, in Thetford Mines. It was with sincere regret that the people here learned of the death of Mr. G. G. Kerr, at his home in Canterbury on Tuesday, April 18. Mr. Kerr, who lived here until 1930, is always remembered as a Christian gentleman, ready to help with any good work in the community. He was a member of Christ Church and was seldom absent from church services. He was the people's warden of the church for the years 1911 and 1912 and again from 1917 to 1930, when he left here to reside in Canterbury. The funeral service was conducted in the Anglican Church here on Thursday, April 20, by Rev. A. McLaren. Among those who accompanied the remains here were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison of Pefferlaw, Ont., and his daughter, Miss Marjorie Kerr, student nurse, of the Montreal General Hospital, Montreal; his sister, Mrs. F. Bennett, of Canterbury; Mrs. C. H. George, of Lennoxville, Mr. T. Bennett and Mr. H. Mayhew, of Canterbury; Mrs. H. Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew, of Bury. Others attending from a distance were Mrs. W. A. Christie, Mr. and Mrs. E. Porter, Messrs. A. Wright, T. Smith, D. Smith and R. Mitchell, of Thetford Mines; Mrs. I. Little, Mr. and Mrs. T. Little, Mr. A. Edwards, Mr. W. G. Little and Mrs. G. Little, of Inverness; and Messrs. M. McKinnon and D. Currie, of Adderley.

WEST BOLTON

Mrs. Frizzle, of Knowlton, is helping in the care of her sister, Mrs. Derby, who is with her sister, Mrs. C. B. Marsh, and is still seriously ill. Other guests and callers on Mrs. Derby and Mrs. Marsh were Mr. and Mrs. Milan Derby, of Montreal; Messrs. Norman Palmer Marsh, of Cowansville, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marsh, of West Brome; and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Marsh and three children, Melanie, Michael, and Peter.

The Ladies' Association of the Brill met in the church for dinner on May 3, and cleaned the church. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. A. W. Harvey. Services will be resumed in the church at the usual time on Sunday evening. The chimney on the Creek Church has now been rebuilt and the 8:30 a.m. services will be held.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Salisbury and family were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hersey and son, Gordon, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Salisbury of Granby; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marsh and Miss Janet, of Waterloo; and Mr. C. W. Goddard, of Ottawa.

Mr. A. B. Mizener, of Montreal, spent the week-end at his parental home, "Hillside Farm," coming and going on his motorcycle.

May 3 was Mrs. F. A. Hovey's birthday. Members of her family spent the evening with her. Those included, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Salisbury, and Master Howard and Percy Hovey. It was also announced over station CJAD.

A very large number attended the Farm Forum Rally, in the Foster Town Hall, one Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. R. Worden and Mrs. H. C. Salisbury called on Mrs. E. H. Perkins, who remains in poor health.

Artists Without Arms

Despite the handicap of no arms, these two painters in Deisenhofen, Germany, run a flourishing art publishing business and have become well-known painters. Bruno Schmitz-Hochburg, left, lost his arms in an accident 30 years ago. Arnulf Erich Stegmann, right, was paralyzed when he was two years old and never regained use of his arms. They employ several handicapped persons in their business.

Marjorie Moir
Elected President
Of B. & P. W. Club

Miss Marjorie Moir was elected president of the Business and Professional Women's Club at its 18th annual meeting held on Monday evening, May 8, in the hall of the Baptist Church. The business meeting was preceded by a supper served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the church, at 6.30 p.m.

Miss Yvette Campbell, president of the club, was in the chair for both the regular and annual meetings, when reports were submitted by the officers and conveners. Miss Ethel Taylor, secretary, presented the review of the year's activities, as follows:

The July meeting and outing, held at Armitage's Dining-room, was graced by the presence of Miss Isabel Menzies, Provincial president. The program featured Miss Ina Cobleigh, who had been recently made a member of the Venerable Order of St. John of Jerusalem, and who on this occasion described the ceremony of investiture, held in Ottawa.

At the first fall meeting, Miss Margaret Haight displayed the trophy bearing the names of the winners of the public speaking contest, which was subsequently presented to the Lennoxville High School. A donation of $10 was voted to the V.O.N., and following the meeting, the club was entertained with an illustrated address on Australia, New Zealand, Honolulu and the Fiji Islands by Miss Margaret Newton.

It was decided at the October meeting that each member would be responsible for a table of bridge or the equivalent, and refreshments to be added to the convention fund.

A collection was taken at the November meeting to defray the expenses of a box of food to be sent to the Poole Club, in England. An excellent account of the Provincial Convention, held in Montreal, in October, was given by Miss Yvette Campbell, president, who attended as delegate from Sherbrooke. The president remarked she was gratified at the attendance at this meeting, of eight local members. Miss Ina Cobleigh was appointed to take charge of the scrap book at this meeting.

The program consisted of the presentation of the films, "Across Canada and Down by the Sea," by Mr. Guy Bachand, manager of the Rex Theatre.

At the December meeting plans were discussed for the distribution of baskets to the less fortunate at Christmas. A letter was read from the I.O.D.E. asking for the co-operation of the B. and P. W. Club on behalf of the needy. A collection was taken up among the members and Mrs. P. D. Mathias was appointed convenor of Christmas cheer, with Miss Lillian Hawker and Miss Leta Seymour, as assistants.

Mrs. Mathias also acted as chairman for the Christmas program. Those taking part were: Mr. David Trudel, baritone; Mr. M. Lacroix, violinist, and Belle Willard, pianist, in duets; Mrs. Jennie Desrosiers, readings; Miss Luce Triggane, dramatic soprano; Miss Flossie Dawson, as accompanist.

Miss Anne Van Vliet, member of the B. and P. W. Club, in Burlington, N.J., gave the Sherbrooke Club the benefit of their ways and means of raising money and their achievements at the first meeting in 1950. At the time, Miss Van Vliet was heading a committee for the purpose of buying a home for elderly retired women.

A supper meeting was held at Rockcliffe, on February 14, when international night was observed. Following the business meeting, the message from Miss Hilda Hesson, chairman of the International Relations Committee, was read. Miss Cobleigh, chairman for the program, took for theme, "The Peace Garden." She described its location and its scenic beauty and had arranged that National Anthems and appropriate songs be sung, under the direction of Miss Leslie Fales, with Mrs. Enid Reid at the piano. Two Estonian ladies, in costume, were guests at the event.

At the March meeting voluntary donations from club members were made to assist small European clubs to send delegates to London, where the Congress will be held in August. Miss Campbell took charge of the food parcel to be sent to the Poole Club, that month. The nominating committee was appointed, with Miss Evelyn Hall, as chairman, assisted by Miss Alice Milford and Mrs. Lella Aikenhead.

A very interesting program followed, when Mrs. A. F. White spoke on "Cuba," its situation, climate and exports, the status of women, their education and social life on the island.

At a brief meeting, on April 3, the annual donation of $5 to the Princess Alice Foundation Fund, was voted.

The public speaking contest sponsored annually by the club for High School girls, took place at this time, when the speakers were, Phyllis Wells, Lennoxville; Beverly Dawson, Sherbrooke; Margaret Home, Lennoxville; and Miss Anne Savage, Sherbrooke. The winner of the contest was Miss Beverly Dawson. The judges were, Mrs. J. E. Dorrian, Miss Eva McConnell and Mrs. Howard Moffatt.

The treasurer's report was given by Miss Leta Seymour. Mrs. J. E. Johnson reported on the social committee, stating refreshments were served at practically every meeting. She thanked Mrs. J. Chapman, contact convenor who Midnight Snack?—Smorgasbord!

SMORGASBORD SPECIALTIES, such as Swedish eggs, salmon rolls and potato salad, make a midnight snack even more welcome.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
For the "get-together" after the movies or theater, go Swedish. Arrange a few smorgasbord specialties on a large tray and serve with hot coffee. If some guests have sleeping problems, give them decaffeinated coffee. A good hostess keeps everyone happy.

Stuffed Eggs (Fyllda Ägg)
Hard cook 6 eggs. Plunge into cold water and chill. Split in half lengthwise and scoop out yolks. Mash yolks with 2 tablespoons of anchovy paste. Moisten with a little mayonnaise and season with salt and pepper if desired. Stuff back into egg white shells. Sprinkle with paprika and chopped dill.

Salmon Rolls (Lax Rullader)
Cut thin slices of smoked salmon into narrow strips about 3/4 to 1 inch wide and 2 to 3 inches long. Wrap around chunks of dill pickle and fasten with toothpicks.

Stuffed Sausage (Fyllda Korf)
Cut thin slices of pressed ham or other firm sausage into wedge shapes. Spread with cream cheese moistened with cream or mayonnaise and seasoned with mustard. Roll up, starting with large end and going toward point (or roll into cornucopias). Garnish open ends with tiny sprigs of parsley.

Potato Salad (Potatisallad)
Six medium sized potatoes, 3/4 cup mayonnaise, 1/2 cup sliced onions (very thin), 1/2 cup white or tarragon vinegar, 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley. Wash, boil and skin potatoes. Cut into small slices. While potatoes are still hot, blend with remaining ingredients (except parsley) mixed together. Chill, and when ready to serve, pile on a chilled platter, sprinkle with parsley and garnish with watercress. Salad may also be garnished with slices of hard-cooked egg and strips of pimiento if desired.

Serve also several different kinds of cheese.

BREAKFAST: Stewed strawberries, shredded wheat, crisp bacon, cinnamon toast, butter, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Swedish stuffed eggs, Swedish salmon rolls, assorted cheeses, rye bread, butter, raw carrot sticks, scallions, apple cake, tea, coffee or milk.

DINNER: Fried fillet of flounder, tartar sauce, parsley, new potatoes, buttered fresh asparagus, enriched rolls, butter, radishes, raw carrot sticks, rhubarb pie, coffee, milk.

OBITUARIES

MRS. DIANA (BYRON) NORRIS, OF DIXVILLE

Dixville, May 11. — The death of Mrs. Diana Norris, widow of the late Hollis Norris, occurred on April 4, at the home of her son, Mr. H. A. Norris, following a long period of ill health.

The deceased was born on July 16, 1856, and was one of the oldest residents of this place, where her entire life was spent.

In 1876 she was united in marriage to Hollis Norris, who passed away on March 16, 1918. Three sons were born to them, Horace Albert, whose death took place on the day following his mother's; Edgar J. and William W. who predeceased her.

The funeral service was held at the same hour as that of her son, in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Coaticook.

She is survived by two daughters-in-law, Mrs. H. A. Norris, Mrs. W. W. Norris, a granddaughter, Verian, Mrs. H. A. Norris, of Rock Island; two brothers, Messrs. Jerry and Arunah Norris, and many other relatives.

MR. GEORGE MARTIN HARRISON, OF CEYLON, SASK., FORMERLY OF GUTHRIE

Guthrie, May 11. — The death of Mr. George M. Harrison occurred at the home of his son, Mr. Herbert Harrison, at Ceylon, Sask., on April 18, in his 92nd year.

Mr. Harrison with his wife and family came over from England in 1884, and settled in this district and resided here for nearly sixty years. The past four years were spent in the West with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harrison, at Ceylon, Sask.

A mason by trade, he assisted in erecting many brick and stone structures in the surrounding districts and was well and favorably known. His wife predeceased him in 1930.

He is survived by six sons, Henry, of Greenfield, Mass.; George and Alva, of Hardy, Sask.; Ernest, Herbert and Melvin, of Ceylon, Sask.; one daughter, Mrs. A. Brown, who with her family resides on the home farm; twenty-four grandchildren; and thirty-nine great-grandchildren. One daughter predeceased him in 1894, and one son Charles, in 1948.

The remains, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harrison, were brought to Frelighsburg, where funeral services were held in the B. S. M. Church, on April 28, 1950, with the Rev. Donald Andrews, of Phillipsburg, officiating. The hymns sung were "Nearer My God, To Thee" and "Abide With Me."

The bearers were Fred Clough, George Hayes, Ernest Boucher, Alden Corey and Robert and Herbert Brown.

Among the relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harrison, of Ceylon, Sask.; Mrs. Henry Harrison and Mrs. Robert Chamberlin, of Berkshire, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ploof, of Franklin, Vt.; Mrs. A. Brown and Mr. Herbert Brown, of this place; Mrs. O. Bordo, of Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Alden Corey, Mrs. John Corey, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, of Stanbridge East; as well as a large number of friends and neighbors.

Interment was in the family lot in Frelighsburg Cemetery.

Fashion Borrows Burlap From The Farm

New York — (NEA) — Burlap gives a rustic texture to play clothes for juniors. However, there is nothing of the country bumpkin look about these sleek separates designed in St. Louis. The shorts which the girl wears (left) are lined for comfort and cut for a smooth fit over the hips. Dressed up for market (right), she changes to a skirt and vest wide pleats in front and deep pockets on each hip. Green and white checked gingham blouse has tiny cap sleeves. The skirt has two

W.M.S. Thank-Offering

The Easter thank-offering of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of the United Church took place on Wednesday evening, April 26, in the lecture hall, with the president, Mrs. N. D. Patterson, in the chair. The W.M.S. thank-offering creed was recited during the worship period and assisting were Mrs. C. Marcotte and Mrs. D. L. Brunet.

Mrs. Patterson welcomed all guests and members of the family of the Women's Missionary Society, the Baby Band, the Mission Band, the Gleaners Mission Circle and the Evening Auxiliary.

It was announced that the Baby Band party would be held in June when a number of the children would graduate to the Mission Band. A solo by Carol Hawke, "Tell Me the Stories of Jesus," and a reading, "Patrick's Easter Fire," were contributed by the Band, and Miss Harriet Shufelt and Mrs. William Porter gave the duet, "Song of Heaven and Homeland." Mrs. R. V. Nickerson introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. William Yeudall, of Point Claire, who is dean of the School for Leaders of the Montreal Society. Mrs. Yeudall told her audience there were 116 missionaries on active service and requests are in for 60 more. Schools in China can accommodate 4,000 while applications are in for 50,000.

Gingham, Dimity Fashion Party Frocks

New York — (NEA) — Gingham and dimity party frocks, pepped up with velvet ribbons and sequin sparkles, rate a double-take in Emily Wilken's first collection in two years. The popular young designer bows back into the spotlight with fashions that keep young figures in mind—bodices hug the ribs, skirts are gracefully flared.

The dress (left) is a two-part harmony of dimity and gingham. First part is a strapless slip-dress of mauve dimity printed with green and purple flowers. Second part is the sheer, short mauve organza over-dress with off-shoulder necking and full, scalloped hem. Black velvet streamers dangle from the waistline bow.

Sequins twinkling on mauve and white checked gingham catch a second and then a third look for the short formal (right). The sparkle spatters the front of the fitted bodice and full gathered skirt. Around the waist is tied a black velvet sash adding the final formal touch. —KAY SHERWOOD, NEA Staff Writer.

EAST ANGUS

Miss Jean Westgate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Westgate, of East Angus, Quebec, has been advised by the secretary of the Compton County Protestant Teachers Association that she has been awarded the County Teachers' Bursary which goes annually to the pupil receiving the highest total marks in Compton County in the Grade XI 1949 Quebec Examinations.

Miss Westgate graduated from East Angus High School and is at present enrolled at the O'Sullivan Business College, Sherbrooke, where she is taking the secretarial course.

D. Farley, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Edson, grandparents; and an aunt, Miss Glenna Farley.

Those from out-of-town attending the funeral were: L. W. Farley, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Edson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pickering, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. K. Goff, of Compton; Mr. Charters, of Valois; Mrs. J. Sheridan, of Pointe Claire; Mr. and Mrs. C. Dunsmore, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. V. Parker, of Sherbrooke; Mr. A. Ward and Miss M. Ward, of Bury; J. Stalker, A. Stalker, F. Burrill, Miss N. Burrill, of Melbourne.

Interment was in the United Church Cemetery in Drummondville.

Principals Of Schools To Meet At Drummondville

Montreal, May 11. — Some 50 Protestant high school principals will meet at Drummondville, Que. high school May 12-13 to review a perennial problem of Quebec schools for the last three years—the writing of supplemental examinations for students living off the island of Montreal.

Students normally write their supplementals in Montreal but the principals hope to set up regional supplemental examination centres throughout the province.

Their immediate goal is to establish centres at Sherbrooke and in the St. Maurice valley or at Shawville.

An annual spring conference of the Quebec Provincial Association of Protestant school boards will meet at the same time and place under the chairmanship of A. R. Almond, chairman of the Hudson school board and president of the association.

Clan Plaids Turn To Warm Weather

New York (NEA)—Sprightly plaids make news in sheer cotton weaves for warm weather dresses. Textile designer Hope Skillman sets the pace with plaids borrowed from such varied sources as men's handkerchiefs and Scottish tartans. The bold satin-plaided handkerchief sheer shows off to fine advantage the harem-draped skirt and soft shirt top of the patio dress (left). This design is the creation of Tina Lesser.

An authentic clad plaid makes an eye-catching pattern for the simply-styled sheer cotton afternoon dress (right). A permanent finish protects the crisp texture of the fabric through repeated launderings. This dress of Peggy Thayer design has a scoop neckline banded in washable black nylon velvet. — KAY SHERWOOD, NEA Staff Writer.

OBITUARIES

MR. H. ALBERT NORRIS, OF DIXVILLE

Dixville, May 11. — This community was saddened when they learned of the sudden passing of Horace Albert Norris, at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, in Sherbrooke after a very brief illness.

The deceased was born in Dixville, on August 19, 1816, being the eldest son of the late Hollis Norris, and his wife, Diana Byron Norris. He was united in marriage to Mabel Maude O'Donnell, of Averill, Vt., on December 23, 1863.

Mr. Norris was a man of sterling character, and a very devoted and faithful husband, and will be greatly missed in his home and in his large circle of friends.

He was a faithful member and staunch supporter of St. Catharine's Episcopal Church, in Dixville, acting as a delegate to the Quebec Synod for many years, and also taking an active part in all of the church's activities. The funeral service was held at Coaticook on Thursday, April 6. The body rested at Akhurst's Funeral home, where prayer was offered, followed by the service at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. Rev. W. Howe officiated and spoke very touching words to the family.

The beautiful floral tributes lying on the casket spoke eloquently of the great love and esteem in which Mr. Norris was held by all his family and friends.

The bearers were Messrs. Laurin, Drew, Homer Wright, Henry Chamberlain, Herbert Ferris, Lawrence Melrose and Edward E. Wright. Burial was made in the family lot in the Crocker Cemetery.

The first years of his married life were spent here, being active in farming and millwork. In 1829 he worked as clerk for Baldwin and Grady in their general store and Post Office. Resigning from that position he took up restaurant work and was employed by the Union News Chain of Restaurants in N. Y., and was stationed in Bellows Falls, Vt., Taunton, Mass., and Rochester, N. Y. Owing to ill health he returned here and purchased the John McCoy farm on the Coaticook Road, where he was residing at the time of his death.

Mr. Norris was a charter member of the Canadian Order of Foresters in Dixville, and was financial secretary at the time of his passing.

He leaves to mourn, his wife; sister-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Norris; brothers-in-law, and sisters-in-law, Mr. Thomas Oldfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. O'Donnell, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Eggleston; and several nieces and nephews.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. A. Eggleston, of Claremont, N. H.; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fraser, of Rock Island, and Mr. Norton O'Donnell, of Rumford, Me.

MR. JOSEPH P. CLOUTIER, OF ST. HERMAS

Bedford, May 11.—A funeral service was held at 9 a.m. on Thursday, April 27, in Notre Dame des Neiges Church, Montreal, for Joseph Philippe Cloutier, father of Judge Armand Cloutier, of the Court of Sessions of the Peace.

Mr. Cloutier died on Tuesday, April 25, at St. Hermas, after a lengthy illness in his ninetieth year. The body was taken to the Deslauriers Funeral Home, 5650 Cote des Neiges Road and burial was made in St. John's.

A well-known resident of this district for many years, Mr. Cloutier was born in Sabrevois. During the past years he had made his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Antonio Page in St. Hermas, following his retirement from business some years ago.

His wife, the former Marie LaTour, died in 1946.

In addition to Judge Cloutier and Mrs. Page, he is survived by another son, Louis Philippe Cloutier, of St. John's; two other daughters, Mrs. Edouard Papineau, of Lachute; and Mrs. Victor Page, of Montreal.

The sole remaining surviving member of Mr. Cloutier's immediate family is a sister, Mrs. Eliza Rouiboux, of Bankfield, Neb.

Mrs. W. B. Holmes is spending a week in Montreal.

Last Rites Are Accorded Elizabeth Hall

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth C. Hall, widow of the late W. H. Hall, was held at the home of her niece, Mrs. R. H. Bartlett, 16 Melbourne Street, on April 25. Services were conducted by the Rev. Canon Russel Brown, of St. Peter's Church, and the Rev. R. C. Tait, of Plymouth United Church. Mrs. Hall was born at Inverness in 1862, the daughter of the late Henry Cummings and his wife Annie Plummer.

The bearers were Russell Bartlett, Dean Shearn, Willard Ross, Leland Hall and Len Gillam, all nephews of the deceased. The beautiful floral offerings and messages of sympathy received illustrated the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Jackie Robinson Portrays Real Self In Film Story Shattering Color Line In Major Baseball

Hollywood, May 11—(AP)—Jackie Robinson, generally identified as the efficient second baseman for Brooklyn Dodgers, may now be styled a movie star.

Robinson plays himself in the soon to be released picture, "The Jackie Robinson Story," and it may be reported that Robinson does not try to act. He merely plays the role of a most unusual athlete named Robinson.

As a production, the picture has its shortcomings, his can be explained by the story behind the filming of the story—how 80 people, few of them influential by Hollywood standards and many small-fry employees, pooled resources to produce the picture.

Ignoring this phase—the absence of vast sets, extravagant and often unnecessary props and mob scenes—the story is told with an honesty unusual in screen biographies.

It tells the story of how Robinson became the first negro to scale the high walls into organized baseball and events in his youth leading up to this unprecedented phase in sports.

All these events are told in sequences as fast and pungent as one of Robinson's cracking basehits.

A good part of the picture deals with Jackie's breaking into pro baseball with Montreal Royals of the International League.

Strangers to movies may get a shock as to what the screen can say these days compared to a few years ago.

Director Alfred E. Green used no kid gloves and neither did the writers. Shown and recited are the prejudices in baseball against a negro, the sectional feeling, the threatened "strike" of a clique on the Dodger club itself. And shout-out, too, are such heretofore unrecorded insults thrown at Robinson as "black man," "nigger," "live-lip," "shine" and the like.

The part played in the whole drama by Branch Rickey, headman of the Dodger organization, is a vital one in the story as it was in the real account. The dialogue is Rickey's and actor Minor Watson, while looking nothing like the mahatma of flatbush, makes the words ring true.

Robinson's story is well known here because it was in Pasadena that he grew up.

Seashells And Jewels To Meet In Playoffs

Seashells and Jewels won their way into the finals of the Ladies' Afternoon Bowling League and will battle it out for the loop championship in a six-string play-off.

The Seashells won their way into the finals when they eliminated the Emeralds by 143 pins in the six-string playoff. Jewels pushed the Pearls to the sidelines when they amassed a total of 78 pins. In the first game the Pearls were out in front by 24 pins but the Pearls staged a comeback and rolled up a 102 advantage to overcome their deficit and emerge the winner.

Tighten Rules For Occupancy Of N.Z. Homes

By J. C. GRAHAM
Canadian Press Correspondent
Wellington, N.Z. — (C) — The New Zealand government has ruled that only families whose annual income is less than $1,600 may occupy state-owned houses in future.

Rents for the 32,500 houses have been raised by about $1 to $2 a week.

The National Party government had previously announced that tenants will be permitted to buy the houses. Under the former Labor government which built the houses, tenants were not permitted to purchase their homes.

New rentals will be about $5 to $5.50 a week for four-room houses and $5.75 for five-room homes. Rents for privately-constructed homes of the same standard are about twice these figures.

The $1,600 top income figure for tenants does not eliminate as many families as it would in Canada, as incomes and living costs are considerably lower in this country.

The houses, which have been built throughout the country under a scheme inaugurated by the Labor government in 1937, were financed by loans from the Reserve Bank at an extremely low rate of interest.

Although the houses occupy whole suburbs in some cases, they were built of different designs so that no two in the same vicinity are exactly alike.

Modern in design and equipped with the latest labor-saving devices, they compare favorably with the latest small homes built by private interests. Each is set on an individual lot.

Despite a large increase in building costs, the rents set for the houses at the inception of the scheme have never previously been increased. There has therefore been a steadily-mounting loss on state built houses. The president government estimated that if rents were not raised the loss would amount to $750,000 annually in future.

The rent increases will not apply to tenants now living in the government-owned houses, nor will tenants whose incomes are above the $1,600 limit be required to leave.

In New Zealand most laborers, tradesmen, artisans, shop assistants and clerks earn less than $1,600 a year.

The government is making it clear that it would prefer the tenants to purchase their own homes. In order to encourage purchases, it is offering to loan the tenants money at unusually-low rates of interest.

Until recently he served as assistant zone manager of General Motors Products at Montreal.

Teach Canadian Art To Arctic Children

Ottawa. — (C) — Eskimo and Indian children in the Arctic will get a chance to study Canadian art from paintings by artist A. Y. Jackson.

This was decided at a recent meeting of the Northwest Territories Council presided over by Deputy-Commissioner Roy A. Gibson.

Mr. Jackson spent some time in the north last summer and made a number of sketches which will be put on silk screens, one for each Eskimo and Indian school in the Northwest territories. In addition, each child will receive a small print of the picture to take home.

A special committee headed by Mrs. Irene Baird has been selected to choose the pictures.

The committee consists of James Wright, C.H.K. Caplain and E. N. Grantham.

Notes Improvement
But Major Brosseau feels he is making some progress with his patients.

An Indian clinic is held weekly. More and more patients travel long distances to have their babies in hospital.

Some of his experiences in field visits are hair-raising enough for a Jack London novel.

One time he flew almost 1,000 miles north to Arctic Bay for two patients. After he landed he spent 48 hours on an ice floe at 35 below zero, trying to keep his patients warm and fed with virtually nothing on hand. He termed the feat "rather difficult."

Another time at North River he examined a suspicious Indian settlement during an epidemic. Chief Peter Bussido, stern in his belt of office, accompanied Maj. Brosseau on the rounds.

When he pointed to the ones who needed hospitalization they all refused to move.

The impasse was almost dangerous until the Chief, fixing each patient in turn with baleful eye, jerked his thumb at the door.

The Chief's reward: two gallons of cough syrup.

Springfield Dumped 13-4 By Montreal

Johnny Yuhus, budding St. Louis Cardinal pitching prospect, is the brightest star on the Red Birds' Rochester International League farm club.

Yuhus turned in his fourth straight victory without a defeat last night as he pitched the Red Wings to a 10-5 victory over Syracuse Chiefs in the second half of a doubleheader. The victory was only Rochester's seventh of the season.

The 26-year-old righthander signed a contract in 1945 but didn't pitch a pro game until 1947 as he spent years in the United States Armed Forces.

Yuhus, injured last time out, stopped the Chiefs on eight hits. His mates gave him an 8-0 lead in the first six innings. He eased up a bit and was tagged for five runs in the seventh before slamming the door. Don Richmond pounded a pair of homers and Russ Derry one to ease Yuhus' task.

The Chiefs won the opener, 3-1, behind the seven-hit pitching of former Red Wing Bud Beyerly. The Chiefs jumped on Bill Reeder for all of their runs in the sixth inning of four successive hits.

Paced by Chuck Connors who drove in seven runs on a pair of homers, the league-leading Montreal Royals trounced Springfield Cubs, 13-4. The Royals sewed up the game with seven runs in the seventh.

Bill McCahan, former no-hit star of Philadelphia Athletics, limited the Cubs to seven safeties including home runs by Carmen Mauro and Smokey Burgess, former Southern Association batting king. The runner-up Jersey City pair of hands" for which they so often wish.

Under the direction of Mrs. Joy Dunford, the "aunts" are all friendly, "motherly" types. And there's hardly a problem, from standing in line for tickets to cooking meals, with which they are not prepared to deal.

"We're ready to tackle anything," says Mrs. Dunford, who established a similar bureau in Edmonton in 1948.

Part of the success of her Edmonton bureau—and the one here—she attributes to the choice of a name.

"Children like the idea of an 'auntie' coming back to look after them," she says.

The aunts are all responsible women, over the age of 25. The organization is modeled after the "Universal Aunts" in London, for which Mrs. Dunford once worked.

New York, May 11—(AP)—Nat Rogers, former Madison Square Garden matchmaker who is back in circulation after a long illness, is negotiating to handle the American appearances of England's Terry Allen, the new flyweight champion... Nat also is looking for a few other good fighters to manage... New York University, winner of the last Metropolitan Intercollegiate track titles, likely will make it nine straight Saturday... The meet marks the final collegiate appearance of four 1952 Olympic prospects, Reggie Pearson, Stan Lampart, Ira Kaplan and Hugo Malocco... Frank Boydston, Baylor football captain and student body president, plans to study law after his graduation in June. Pro scouts may give him an argument on the subject... Lou Gelfand reports that the best fight pickers in Minnesota are Berglund and Beaulieu of the St. Cloud reformatory pillar. Obviously they must have the inside dope... Cleaning The Cuff... Sammy Sneed and Cary Middlehoff both tab the No. 2 course at Pinehurst as the best they've ever played... Harvard's footballers, whose black pants caused as much discussion as George Gossie's the past two seasons will switch to tan next fall... That shows their future isn't as dark as their past... Oregon State College will stage a three-season triple-header Saturday—a track meet, then the final spring football game and the wind-up of spring basketball... New York Yankees' Bobby Brown gets to the ball park at 11 a.m. daily for extra batting practice to make up for his late start in training... Have you read the Want Ads lately? Perhaps there is something advertised you would like to buy.

Chicago took advantage of four Boston errors to trim the Braves, 6-3. Doyle Lade needed help from Paul Minter to earn his first triumph at the expense of Warren Spahn.

Rain washed out the big goings in the American League, postponing the Detroit-Boston game at Fenway Park and the New York Yankee-St. Louis Browns game. All concerned play doubleheaders today.

Nothing seems to stop that Washington club which clicked off its fourth straight, 7-6, over Chicago. The Senators broke loose for five runs in a big fifth inning rally sparked by Ed Stewart's ninth triple.

Cleveland snapped a four-game losing string by scoring three unearned runs with two out in the ninth for a 6-4 victory over Philadelphia.

TORONTO MARLBOROS COP ALLAN CUP WITH WIN OVER CALGARY

Run Roughshod Over Stamps To Win 9-5 And Take Series 4-1; Armstrong Completes Hat-Trick

Edmonton, May 11.—(P)—After 18 years of fruitless effort, Toronto last night corralled another Allan Cup as their Marlboros whipped the leg-weary and injury-ridden Calgary Stampede 9-5 before 8,000 fans here.

Youth was the telling factor when the chips were raked in. Stampede, an older club, wilted against the fast-skating attack of the young Eastern champions who took the final series four games to one. The last time Toronto won the Allan Cup was in 1932 when the Nationals defeated Fort William.

Captain Flash Hollett, former National Hockey League star who at 39 was the oldest player in the series, received the cup at the end of the game from Harold Brandreth, president of the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association.

All the Stampede players had departed to their dressing room before the cup was presented.

A devastating first period settled the issue, Marlboros holding a commanding 6-3 lead at the first intermission. The second session went scoreless. The Marlboros came back in the third frame to outscore the Cowbys 3-2.

Young George Armstrong completed a hat trick to lead Toronto scorers. Al Buchanan, Red Johnson, Scott Mair, Johnny McLellan, Danny Lewicki and Chuck Blair rounded out the total.

Dunc Grant with three goals, Stan Devick and Herb Lovett scored for Calgary.

Stampede missed the services of burly defenceman Julian Sawchuk, sidelined with torn knee ligaments. Dame left his wing spot on the third line to fill in on the rear guard.

Rookie Ross Tyrel also was forced out of action with a charlie horse. Two rookies, Lovett and Gunnar Carlson, filled in on the third string.

Grant opened scoring at :44 of the first period but Armstrong evened the score less than a minute later. Then the Marlboros rattled in four goals within seven minutes — Buchanan, Armstrong, Johnson and Mair scoring in rapid succession.

In the second period goalie Russ Dertell rose to great heights to keep the Easterners off the score-sheet. Over the whole game he made 41 saves compared with 18 by young Pat Boehmer at the other end of the rink.

The big Edmonton crowd cheered lustily for the Calgarians but gave Marlboros a deserving ovation at the end of the game.

Eleven penalties were handed out, Stampede getting the nod six times. Dertell was among those penalized. He also required medical attention during the second intermission for a face cut.

Marlboros won the first game of the series 6-5, lost the second 5-4 and took the next two 4-1 and 3-1, all on Calgary ice.

Lineup: Calgary: Goal, Dertell; defence, Wilder, Coffin; centre, Scott; wings, Grant, Devick. Subs: Taggart, Dame, Pechet, Millard, Heximer, Cairns, Lovett, Carlson.

Toronto: Goal, Boehmer; defence, Hollett, Bolton; centre, Hassard; wings, Mair, Buchanan. Subs: Sullivan, Johnson, Armstrong, McLellan, Blair, Rope, Gilhooley, Lewicki.

Officials: Red Storey and Ernie Munday, both of Montreal.

Joe Primeau Has High Praise For His Team

Edmonton, May 11.—(P)—It was waltz-me-around Willy and don't mind the skates as Toronto Marlboros swung each other in mid-air at Edmonton Gardens last night after winning the Allan Cup.

Victors over Calgary Stampede 9-5 on the game and 4-1 on the final series, Marlboros hugged each other and frolicked around a group of officials as supporters swept onto the ice to congratulate them.

They paused long enough for Harold Brandreth, president of the Alberta Branch of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association to present the glistening trophy to Frank (Flash) Hollett, team captain.

Back in the Marlboros dressing room, Coach Joe Primeau said all the team deserved great credit. He mentioned especially George Armstrong and Danny Lewicki, who were shooting forwards.

"Every man on the team gave everything he had," said Primeau. "At different times in the series, every man has risen to the occasion."

Calgary had the "tickest team we met all year."

One of the first to congratulate Primeau was Coach Butch McDonald, of Stampede. He found it hard to hide his disappointment.

McDonald took over as ramrod of the cowboy outfit in mid-season, guided them out of a slump and into the championship series.

Back in his own dressing room, McDonald said "I figure they have a better club. Their men are young. Ours average about seven years older. They were getting pretty tired."

Nevertheless he did not think the margin should have been 4-1.

Official Opening Of Knot-Hole Gang

YVES TESSIER is seen receiving a few tips on how to toss them from Lou Shapiro, the Athletics' hurler. Young Tessier was chosen as the pitcher for the official opening of the Knot-Hole Gang held at the local park Tuesday evening.

JOHN WILLIAMS is being shown how to hold his bat properly by Manager Roland Gladu prior to taking his place at the plate to take part in the official opening of the Knot-Hole Gang.

SIMON JULIEN is receiving his final instructions from Laura Pascual, the A's regular backstop. Julien was the third member of the Gang to be chosen to officially open the local season. All members of the trio were presented with brand new baseballs by Ivan Dugre, president of the team.

Avelino Canizares Joins Locals; Athletics To Fete Mother's Day; Seminary Students Guests Of A's

Avelino Canizares arrived in town yesterday afternoon and will be in uniform this evening when the Athletics tangle with Drummondville at 7:15 at the Park Avenue Stadium, stated Amedeo Roy, business manager of the local baseball team, this morning.

Canizares is a Cuban, plays shortstop and comes to the local club very highly recommended. He has performed with the Cleveland Athletics. He was a four-hit pitcher for the four-hit team over the Pirates, Mike Rollins poled out a circuit blow in the third inning with a mate aboard. The locals played errorless ball and gave their hurler good support

whereas the Farnham crew was guilty of four miscues.

Athletics To Celebrate Mother's Day

The executive of the local club with the generous co-operation of Robert Gauthier, local florist, will present the first 400 ladies entering the Stadium with corsages on the occasion of Sunday being Mother's Day.

Manager Gladu will no doubt throw Armando Roche at the Cubs this evening when they meet for the first time. He was undecided if he would use Canizares in tonight's tilt or not and would only know at game time.

Following tonight's game the A's will journey to Drummondville for a twilight fixture Saturday, and on Sunday they will tangle with St. Johns. The first tilt of the doubleheader will be played in St. Johns with the evening fixture slated here for 6:30.

The students of St. Charles Seminary will be guests of the local club at tonight's game. This was made possible through the co-operation of Rev. Father Michel Couture, Superior of the Seminary, and Rev. Father Paul Emile D'Arcy, Director of Studies.

Those who have found no fault with the rule, or rather the new interpretation of the rule, included Joe McCarthy, Red Sox; Jack Onslow, White Sox; Red Rolfe, Tigers; Connie Mack, Athletics; Zack Taylor, Browns; Bucky Harris, Senators; Burt Shotton, Dodgers; Billy Meyer, Pirates, and Eddie Dyer, Cardinals.

With one or two exceptions, however, they insisted on more uniformity in the interpretation of the rule by the umpires.

"The umpires should get together and call it as of one mind," was the general reaction.

According to Frank Shaughnessy, one of the committee which "re-wrote" some of the rules, the rule is the same as last year.

"There's really nothing new in the 1950 rule," he said. "Rules-makers always intended the pitcher to come to a full (one-second) stop before starting the delivery to a batter. However, many pitchers cheated and the umpires were simply too lenient in interpreting the word stop."

There have been 48 balks called against pitchers thus far, 29 in the National League. Last year only 46 were called in both leagues all season.

Shower Held At Georgeville For Miss Huse

Georgeville, May 11. — A very pleasant event took place on Saturday evening, when a miscellaneous "shower" was tendered Miss Catherine Huse, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Huse, whose marriage takes place on May 27.

The Community Hall had very tastefully been decorated for the occasion. Miss Huse was taken completely by surprise and on her arrival was escorted to a chair which had been decorated in pink and white by her cousin, Mrs. Matthew Ramage.

A prettily decorated basket well filled with gifts was presented to her by Miss Edna Young and Miss Antinette DeLong.

Miss Huse was assisted in unwrapping her lovely gifts by her mother, Mrs. Huse, her mother-in-law to be Mrs. S. D. Keet, and Mrs. Leonard Young.

After the gifts had been passed around to be admired Miss Huse in her usual happy manner thanked all for their good wishes and the gifts.

Refreshments were served by her aunt, Miss Victor Robinson, and Mrs. George Hornby, assisted by Miss Young and Miss DeLong.

General Notes
Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hutchins, Mrs. William Rediker and Mrs. K. Vancorn motored to Montreal on Sunday to spend the day with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Maskell, of Montreal, and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Ramage, of Magog, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Robinson.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the B.E.S.L. was entertained at the home of Mrs. George Hornby.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Anderson and two children, of Hudson, N. Y., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John George.

Miss Margaret McEwen, R.N., and little nephew, Todd Reader, are spending a few days with Mrs. William McEwen.

Paralysis Victim Parachute Jumper In Success Story

By HAL BOYLE
Seattle—To some people a physical handicap is a death of the spirit. To others it is only a spur to victory.

There is a woman here whose life story is a living example of the truth that a courageous heart can rise above any affliction. She is Mrs. Edith Melhine, better known as Hildegarde, one of the leading restaurateurs of the northwest.

At the age of nine, Hildegarde—born Hilda Drahoid, one of nine children of a landscape gardener—was stricken with infantile paralysis.

"For eight long years I had to wear a plaster cast from my hip to my neck," she recalled. "But I made me determined to lead a normal life—to be like other girls."

When she was 17 she drove with some friends to the Tacoma airfield. "Stub" Campbell, an old-time daredevil who wanted a new stunt to thrill crowds as a forthcoming Fourth of July air show, asked the group of spectators:

"Is there any girl here daring enough to make a parachute jump?" "I will," volunteered Hilda.

And jump she did—from 2,000 feet. "I was still supposed to be wearing my cast at the time," she said. "But I wanted to prove to my six brothers I could do something they couldn't. I didn't get paid for it, but someone passed the hat and collected $27."

Made 26 Jumps
In the next two years she made 26 parachute jumps in barnstorming tours with such fliers and stunt men as Campbell, "Tex" Rankin and Jimmy Doolittle. The most she ever earned for a jump was $50.

In 1928 the strapping on Campbell's chute snapped during a routine jump, and he fell to his death. That ended Hildegarde's career as a stunt girl, too. Her mother made her quit.

"Of course, I had no business making jumps anyway, as the paralysis had left me with a twisted back," she smiled.

Hildegarde then started selling hamburgers at a local fair. She saved up $300 and started her first restaurant. She did all the cooking and table-hopping herself.

Then she opened a larger restaurant near McChord field, and likes to remember how once a general helped her wash dishes at 5 o'clock in the morning.

Today she and her husband, Emil, a mechanical engineer, plan a chain of west coast restaurants featuring fried chicken prepared by her own secret formula. They also have formed a firm market pre-cooked chicken on a national basis.

"I never say 'can't,'" said Hildegarde, now in her 40s. "I just don't believe in it. No one can afford to let himself go—or to give way to self-pity. People who do that can never win over their handicaps."
