P R E F A C E .

THE Publisher of "Mackay's Directory" trusts, that in laying the 19th Edition before the Public, it will meet with the kind indulgence which it has hitherto received.

The many obstacles to be contended against when collecting the information required for a work of this kind, renders it almost impossible to make the Directory as perfect as might be desired.

The Compiler has, however, endeavored to make the present volume as accurate and useful as possible, and although many hundreds have left the City since the completion of the "VICTORIA BRIDGE," 16 pages of names have been added.

The undersigned presents her grateful acknowledgements to the Public for the liberal patronage already bestowed, and trusts she will continue to merit their approbation.

CHRISTINA MACKAY.

The Publisher of "Murray's Dictionary" trusts that in every the Edition before the Public it will meet with the kind reception which it has hitherto received.

The many obstacles to be contended against when editing the paper manuscript for a work of this kind renders it almost impossible to make the Dictionary as perfect as might be desired.

The Compiler has however endeavored to make the present volume as accurate and useful as possible, and although many omissions have taken the City since the completion of the "Vocabulary" 12 pages of names have been added.

The undersigned presents his grateful acknowledgments to the Public for the liberal patronage already bestowed, and trusts they will continue to assist their approbation.
