ALLIED TROOPS TAKE 5,000 HUN PRISONERS ON WESTERN FRONT; GAINED SEVERAL STRATEGIC POINTS

German Artillery Active Northeast of Amiens Where Australians Captured Valuable Ground—Americans Completely Repulsed Attempted Assaults on Several Points on French Front—Success Achieved in Attack South of the Somme Highly Commented Upon.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 6.—The German artillery was active last night in the region between Villers-Bretonneux and the Ancre, northeast of Amiens, where the Australians have captured valuable ground, according to today's War Office statement.

FAILED TO RAID AMERICAN SECTOR.

(Associated Press Despatch)

PARIS, July 6.—German troops last night attempted to raid the American sector in Lorraine, at Xivray. The War Office announced today that the enemy was completely repulsed in this effort, as he was in raiding attempts at points on the French front.

ALLIES GAIN IMPORTANT STRATEGIC POINTS.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 6.—During the last week the Entente Allies on the western front have taken more than five thousand prisoners. A series of minor operations also resulted in their gaining possession of several important strategic points, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy and obtaining valuable information as to his plans for the immediate future.

Another satisfactory feature of the last week's operations was the work of the Allies in the air. Great damage was done by the aviators to German communications and concentrations of men and material behind the lines. The superiority of the British air fighters is shown by the fact that during the last week, on the British front alone, 173 German airplanes were downed, while only 36 British machines are missing.

AUSTRALIANS AND YANKEES HOLD NEW GROUND.

(Associated Press Despatch)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, July 6.—Along the whole British front today the main topic of conversation was the remarkable success achieved in Thursday's attacks south of the Somme by the combined Australian and American troops, assisted by a fleet of English-manned tanks.

Even the German prisoners were admitting ruefully that the drive had been conducted with cleverness and invincible courage. To this praise was added a telegram from Field Marshal Haig to the forces involved, expressing his warm congratulations on the victory which attended the operations and on the skill and gallantry with which it was executed.

STILL TRYING TO AVERT STRIKE ON RAILWAYS

Conference of Representatives of War Board and Men Was Continued in Montreal Again Today.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

MONTREAL, July 6.—The conference between the Canadian Railway War Board and representatives of the Federated Railway Trades Brotherhood on the demand of the latter for wage increases was continued this morning.

The men having refused a modified form of the McAdoo schedule offered to the employees of the Government controlled railways in the United States, the conferees went to work on a new proposition this morning, upon the acceptability of which they hang the decision to strike if they are not satisfied, which the Union men have spoken about.

Asked about the chance of a conciliation board being appointed, Charles Dickie, secretary of the Federated Trades Brotherhood, this morning said: "Conciliation! The Railway War Board. It might be called a conciliation board of itself."

CHARGES AGAINST FRENCH DEPUTY

Louis Turmel Held on Accusation of Having Revealed Information to the Enemy.

(Associated Press Despatch)

PARIS, July 6.—Revealing useful intelligence to the enemy will be the charge against Louis Turmel, Deputy for Cotes du Nord, in his approaching trial. The Chamber of Deputies voted yesterday afternoon to suspend his parliamentary immunity in this grave accusation. Deputy Turmel formerly was charged with trading with the enemy, conviction for which would have entailed a five years prison sentence, while revealing useful intelligence to the enemy is a crime punishable by death.

SILVER WEDDING OF KING GEORGE AND QUEEN MARY

25th Anniversary of Marriage Celebrated in London Today—Rejoicing Curtailed on Account of the War.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 6.—Today is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of King George and Queen Mary. The popular rejoicing with which such an event would ordinarily be celebrated was refrained from in consequence of the war, and the only public ceremony commemorating the event in which the royal couple participated took the form of a special thanksgiving service in St. Paul's Cathedral. This was followed by a visit to the Guild Hall, where a congratulatory address and a gift from the City of London were received.

Driving from Buckingham Palace in what is known as a "semi-state," the King and Queen passed through the main streets in an open landau drawn by six horses, attended by outriders and escorted by a troop of Life Guards and Royal Horse Guards.

Upon reaching the boundary of the city—the square mile of London under the jurisdiction of the Lord Mayor—the time-honored ceremony of surrendering the city's sword of state to the sovereign was observed. After the sword was returned to the city official, in accordance with custom, the procession continued to the Cathedral. The Lord Mayor of London, the Bishop of London, the Dean of St. Paul's, and others of the Cathedral clergy, received the sovereigns here, the procession following along the nave, until the allotted places were reached under the great dome, where the other members of the royal family had already taken their seats. There was a large attendance of official representatives, and the vast nave was filled with wounded sailors and soldiers.

The special service, which lasted 45 minutes, included an address by the Archbishop of Canterbury. From the Cathedral the King and Queen were driven to the Guild Hall, whither the Lord Mayor and the city (Continued on page 8.)

BRITISH CASUALTIES TOTAL 17,336 FOR WEEK.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, July 6.—British casualties reported during the week ending today reached an aggregate of 17,336.

The losses were divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds—Officers, 140; men, 2,596. Wounded or missing—Officers, 413; men, 14,187.

These figures show a considerable falling off in the rate of British casualties reported as compared with those of week after week during May and June, when the effects of the heavy German attacks on the British front were revealing themselves in the casualty list. The June casualties reported, for instance, averaged approximately 35,000 a week, and for the last eight days in June they were more than 37,000. The casualties reported during May were 166,802, or an average of more than 40,000 a week.

NEW PHASE OF BIG BATTLE IS DEVELOPING

Washington Believes that General Foch is About Ready to Take Offensive on Western Front.

(Associated Press Despatch)

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 6.—Increasing man power and rapidly extending control of the air have permitted the adoption of a new policy by General Foch, Supreme Commander of the Allied armies on the western front, in the opinion of many observers here. They believe the sequence of hard local blows that have been struck recently by French, British, American and Italian troops show that a new phase of the great battle is developing which might expand into a major operation on any part of the front where the situation was found favorable.

BRITISH DOWN 122 GERMAN AIRPLANES

During Past Week Fourteen Separate Towns Were Raided and Bombed—Attack on Enemy Naval Bases.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 6.—The official weekly summary of aerial operations issued last night by the Air Ministry follows:

"On the British western front, since the last weekly summary was issued, shows that 122 German machines were downed, and 73 driven down out of control, against 52 British machines reported as missing. During the same period fourteen separate towns were raided and bombed. The airframe at Boulay was raided six times; the railway triangle at Metz-Sablon, four; Mannheim, four; Saarbrücken and Thionville, three; Treves and Frescati, twice, and seven other towns once each including Karlsruhe, where a large explosion was caused in a metal works.

"Naval airmen in the course of the week vigorously bombed docks, submarine bases and naval works in the neighborhood of Zeebrugge, Ostend and Bruges.

COBLENZ AND SAARBRÜCKEN ATTACKED.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 6.—The Air Ministry last night issued the following communication on bombing operations:

"On the morning of the 5th of July our machines heavily attacked the railway station at Coblenz. Observation was difficult owing to clouds. "Saarbrücken also was successfully attacked. Our formation was attacked while over Saarbrücken by hostile airplanes, one of which was brought down in flames and another was driven down. All our machines returned safely.

ELEVEN ENEMY MACHINES DESTROYED.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 6.—British aerial forces co-operated with the land forces in yesterday's attack against the Germans south of the Somme, according to an official statement on aviation operations issued last night. Eleven German airplanes were destroyed and ten driven down out of control as a result of combats. Four British machines are missing.

LUOYD-GEORGE'S MESSAGE TO U. S. TROOPS

Germany Can Have Peace if She Accepts Conditions Laid Down by President Wilson, Says the British Premier.

(Associated Press Despatch) WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE BRITISH FRONT, July 6.

—Unless Germany accepts the conditions laid down by President Wilson she cannot have peace, and she can have peace tomorrow if she accepts them. David Lloyd George, the British Premier, gave this message to the American troops training on the British front, after he had seen them at review yesterday.

The arrival in France of one million American soldiers had made the German Emperor realize that his defeat was certain. The Emperor, the Premier said, had had many illusions regarding the war. One of these was that the new American troops would not be capable of meeting those of Germany, trained to the minute.

Premier Lloyd George reiterated forcefully that the Allies do not covet a single yard of German soil, and do not desire to dispossess Germany of her rightful inheritance or the German people of their legitimate rights.

FATEFUL HOUR OF WAR AT HAND, SAYS BONAR LAW

German Blow Will Be Dangerous But Men Responsible for Command of Armies are Confident of Result.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 6.—The coming German blow will not be less dangerous because of the time employed in preparing for it, but it is comforting to know that the men responsible for the command of the allied armies are confident of the result. Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, declared last night at a dinner of the delegates of the Parliamentary Commercial Conference.

"It is impossible to foresee the future," he said, "but I do believe that the fateful hour of this war is upon us, and if in another three months our enemies have won no strategic object, then their campaign will have failed and it will, I hope, be a decisive failure."

The Germans possessed the most perfect military machine that ever existed, but the Chancellor said he believed that when the history of the war was written it would be seen that Germany had made greater military mistakes than any other power. He instanced the submarine warfare, which had brought the United States into the war. He doubted whether Germany would get as much out of Russia as she expected. Wherever the German soldier had planted his foot the name of Germany will be loathed for generations.

Mr. Bonar Law said he trembled to think what would have been the position of the Allies after Russia went out of the war, but for the United States. He had not despaired of Russia, who was like a patient in a delirium. It was impossible from hour to hour to tell what the future might bring there. The population of the enemy powers was 154,000,000, that of the Entente Alliance 1,200,000,000. That in itself was a league of nations with a military force that was terrible, but the economic force was also strong. Of one thing, he said, there was no doubt, just as the Allies were standing together, so they would stand when the war was over to repair the ravages of the war.

The Chancellor concluded: "I see no immediate hope of peace. There is no road to it, I fear, except the rugged road through victory. It will be fatal to the world, and fatal to the Germans themselves, if they are not taught the lesson that war does not pay."

CANADIAN CASUALTIES

CANADIAN TROOPSHIP ASHORE—ALL ON BOARD SAFE.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

OTTAWA, ONT., July 6.—It is officially announced through the office of the Chief Press Censor that the City of Vienna, a Canadian troopship, having troops on board, has gone ashore on the Atlantic coast during a dense fog. The troops and crew have all been safely landed, and it is thought that the ship herself may become a total loss.

USE WOOD WHERE IT IS POSSIBLE INSTEAD OF COAL

Situation Today Much Better Than It Was a Year Ago—Cannot State What Advance in Coal Will Be.

While the coal situation in Sherbrooke apparently is much better at the present stage of the year than it was at this time last summer, householders are warned that where wood is obtainable it should be gathered in at once, so that it may take the place of coal and thus relieve any fuel shortage during the next winter. Mr. J. S. Mitchell, in discussing the local situation, stated that the outlook was much better than it was at this time a year ago, but pointed out the advisability of using coal sparingly and substituting with wood as much as possible.

Just what the latest advance in coal caused by the increased freight rates would be, Mr. Mitchell could not say. "There will be an increase in coal, but the amount of the increase depends entirely on the increased cost of shipping, etc.," said Mr. Mitchell.

Fuel Controller Magrath warns the householders to use as much wood as possible and to order their fuel immediately. In a notice sent out he says: "Every additional day of war aggravates coal mining and transportation problems. No one can give any guarantee regarding Canada's future coal supply."

(Associated Press Despatch)

LAKE CHARLES, LA., July 6.—Major John Purroy Mitchell, former Mayor of New York City, and an officer in the army aviation service, was instantly killed this morning at Gerstner aviation field here, while flying in a scout machine.

SAYS GERMANY HAS NO DESIGNS ON INDIA

Foreign Secretary Informs Questioner that Such a Campaign Forms No Part of Policy.

(Associated Press Despatch)

AMSTERDAM, July 6.—The German Government has no intention of undertaking a campaign in India, Foreign Secretary Kuehlmann told a questioner in the Reichstag.

"As regards a campaign in the direction of India," he said, "I regret to have to tell the inquirer that brilliant as are the prospects which he thinks might be opened up for our supply, an Indian campaign forms no part of our official policy."

The Foreign Secretary's remarks were greeted with laughter.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY LIVES LOST WHEN EXCURSION STEAMER SANK IN THE ILLINOIS RIVER

Vessel Collided With Obstruction in River When Returning from an Amusement Park to Peroria, Ill., and Sank Almost Immediately—Panic Followed, and Many Were Trampled to Death in Dance Room—Work of Rescuers Handicapped By Darkness.

(Associated Press Despatch)

PERORIA, Ill., July 6.—Approximately 150 people were drowned or trampled to death at midnight last night when the excursion steamer Columbia, carrying more than 600 people, struck an obstruction in the Illinois River and sank.

The excursion party started from Pekin, fifteen miles distant from here, early in the evening, spent several hours at an amusement park near this city and, when the return trip to Pekin was about half completed, the steamer ran into the obstruction on the Peroria shore, in the fog, smashing a big hole in her bow. The pilot signalled full speed astern, and as soon as the vessel pulled clear of the log or rock, she began to settle and within a few minutes sank, carrying many persons down.

Panic Followed.

Soon after the steamer struck, a panic occurred among the passengers, and many men, women and children jumped into the water without securing life preservers. Those who could swim reached shore, which was only a few feet away. The second deck of the boat, where the dance hall was located, was crowded when the crash came, and it was here that many were crushed to death in the panic.

Darkness Hampered Rescuers.

Ray Jones, fireman on the steamer, estimated that between 150 and 200 persons were on the dance floor when the boat struck, and he believed many of these perished. When the boat settled on the bottom, the water reached the state rooms immediately below the pilot house on the listed side. The pilot, when he found his boat was sinking, sent distress signals, and within a short time boats from various directions came to the rescue and began to pick up those struggling in the water, but on account of the darkness their efforts were badly hampered.

Estimate of Dead.

The police of Pekin early today estimated the number of dead at 150, but Captain H. F. Mehl of the steamer said he believed the number of dead was not more than 100.

20 Bodies Discovered.

Search for the bodies was abandoned at four o'clock this morning until daylight came. Approximately twenty bodies had been recovered, only a portion of whom had been identified.

This morning only the hurricane deck of the steamer is visible above the water.

DIVERS SEARCH FOR BODIES

With the break of day divers went down into the sunken steamer to bring up bodies of the one hundred or more victims of the disaster believed to be between the crushed decks of the boat. Almost at the same hour hearses began arriving from Pekin the scene of the disaster, bringing the first of the dead.

All known victims were residents of Pekin or neighboring villages.

Serious Accident Averted

A serious accident was narrowly averted here on Wednesday evening, about 6:30. A car with a gentleman and lady, going at high speed, across the village bridge from the south, could not make the turn and ran on the ground to the right within a few inches of the telephone pole, striking a large stone with great force, then turning suddenly partly across the road where stood a car belonging to an Ayer's Cliff man, but which escaped injury. It is predicted that unless the speed is regulated to four miles across the bridge as plain notices determine, that some serious accident will take place there.

Mr. Archie Burns was re-engaged as policeman on same conditions as last year. It was decided to purchase a road grader.

Under the Red Cross Banner

The local Patriotic Society was fortunate to secure the services of Dr. Maude Abbott, of McGill University, to lecture, taking for her subject "Under the Red Cross Banner." The much looked for event took place in the town hall on Tuesday evening. The president of the Patriotic Society, Rev. E. B. Husband, presided. The opening number of the programme was a song, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall," sung by Misses Eula Reed and Gertrude Husband, the audience joining in the chorus. Mrs. H. L. Call presiding at the piano. The chairman, before introducing the speaker, gave some very interesting statistics of the magnitude of the Red Cross work not only here, but in England, France, Italy and many other places. He also spoke very highly of the American Red Cross, which is so well organized and doing such a great work, although they have been in the present struggle a much shorter time than we have.

Dr. Abbott prefaced her address by a talk about the extreme needs of this great society, which is doing so much in every way for our boys from the time that they leave home until they reach the trenches; yet, after that when they are in the hospitals and even to the valley of the shadow of death itself. No nurses but those from this organization are allowed to go anywhere near the front, but here you see them rendering first and sometimes last aid. As the casualty lists lengthen, as they have been for some time, the need of supplies is greater, and those who are doing all they can now should inspire others to aid in the work. One of the most urgent needs of the Society at this stage of the war is the providing for the re-education of the men who have returned unfit for further overseas service and who have been incapacitated from doing the work they formerly did. Dr. Abbott urged that a Red Cross Society be organized here, so that those who have been donating to the cause should have credit for same and more interest in the work would be aroused thereby.

The programme closed with the American and British national anthems.

W.C.T.U. Meeting

The W.C.T.U. met at the home of the vice-president, Mrs. H. Merrill, on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Turner, the president, in the chair. A report was received that one of the boxes sent by the Union had not reached the one to whom it was sent (Albert Dooley) as he could not be found. It was decided that the post office order that it be handed over to some needy soldier. The matter of serving refreshments at the meetings was discussed, but left for final discussion until a larger number of members were present. Miss E. A. Bryant gave a very interesting report of the county convention, which was acknowledged by a rising vote of thanks. Owing to the much regretted absence of Mrs. McConnell, recording secretary, her place was taken by Miss Seymour. After the singing of another hymn and the Mizpah benediction, refreshments were served by Mrs. Merrill and Miss Seymour.

WHAT IS DOING IN GRANBY CITY

Mrs. Ellis Henderson Longan Held Post-Nuptial Reception—Poor of City Given Spell in Country Air.

Granby, July 6.—(Special)—Mrs. Ellis Henderson Longan (nee Evelyn Francis Giddings) held her post nuptial reception on Thursday afternoon and evening, July 4th, at "The Gables," the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Giddings. Mrs. Longan looked very lovely in her reception gown of beaded chiffon over silver lace, and carried a bouquet of Jack roses. She was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. W. F. Giddings, who wore wisteria crepe meteor with a corsage bouquet of yellow roses. The decorations in the reception room were flags and ferns. In the dining room the table was arranged with a silver basket of mauve sweet peas and tulle on a centre piece of cluny lace, and Mrs. Remi Guillet, of Marieville, gowned in cream duchess satin, poured tea, and Mrs. F. S. Baker, of Newport, Vt., wearing apricot satin poured coffee. The attendants in the dining room were the Misses Helen Cowley, Helen Payne, Estelle Lynch, Marjorie Kitzridge, Florence Bradford, Daisy Cunningham, Hilda Graham, Mildred and Marguerite Dozois, all wearing pretty summer gowns. Two dainty little Misses, in white frocks, Dorothy Travers, and Katherine Smith, opened the door for the guests and Miss Connie Travers discoursed sweet music both afternoon and evening from the beautiful Sonora, the gift of the bride's parents. The many beautiful presents arranged in the drawing room, where the decorations were sweet peas and roses, testified to the esteem and popularity of the young couple, among which was a handsome dinner set of Lemonges china, the gift of the directors of the Imperial Tobacco Co., and a beautiful Queen Anne tea service, given by the office staff and foremen of the Imperial Tobacco Co. of Granby. There were many callers both afternoon and evening, and numerous were the good wishes for the future happiness and prosperity of bride and groom.

True Missionary Work

This makes seven boys and one adult that the Fresh Air Society has sent out from Montreal to Mrs. Swett from time to time. If there were more of the Granby ladies in this good work, it would be a great blessing to the many poor who never have a chance to leave the city.

DOMINION DAY CELEBRATIONS BY CANADIANS

Sporting Events Carried Out By Troops Within Sound of Big Guns—Duke of Connaught and Premier Borden Pay Visit.

(Special Cable to the Canadian Press Limited)

LONDON, July 5.—In France, within sound of the guns, with air-men holding the air marshes, a great meeting of Canadians celebrated Dominion Day and welcomed the Duke of Connaught, late Governor-General and Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of Canada. In a great natural amphitheatre our national holiday was celebrated with an enthusiasm never equalled at home, and an event and a programme unique in the allied armies.

"Like a scene from ancient Rome," said a famous Polish representative to the commanders of the Canadian forces as he surveyed the vast multitude of soldiers.

Watching the picked men from every division compete in every known athletic sport, swinging round the track came four hundred athletes representing each division, picked men eager to uphold the honor of their units.

Overhead a famous Canadian aviator thrilled the crowd with daring turns and dropped a message of good luck to his compatriots and sped away to lead his squadron across the German lines to hold the Hun while the national day was fittingly celebrated.

Following the athletes came massed pipe bands, two hundred strong, playing "Bonnie Dundee," halting in front of the Duke of Connaught and Sir Robert Borden.

Later, each divisional band entered the enclosure playing the Divisional March. Marched in front the guests and all the thousands of Canadians present bared their heads as the bands played "O Canada." Representatives from every allied army were there, and most all gave credit to the Maple Leaf men of giving the greatest and most unique holiday ever seen in Europe. It was a wonderful Canadian re-union. Men of Ypres, Festubert, Somme, Vimy and Passchendaele met for the first time since they went against the Huns on those glorious days.

The nursing sisters came from base casualty hospitals, and they were cheered by men who had been brought back to health and strength by their watchful care and devotion. From the British army came many great leaders to do honor to the Canadian force and witness the Canadian celebration. The navy was represented by prominent officers who had commanded Canadians in the naval service.

"Like Derby Day," was the comment of a British general. Perfect weather permitted Canadians from all parts of France to get there. Early in the morning men from all parts moved towards the great gathering places. The Prime Minister and his colleagues arrived from Vimy and received great ovations. The Duke of Connaught was received by one of the finest guards ever paraded in France. The guard was drawn from a famous brigade commanded by an officer from the first force, who has had a great record in the field. The guard was cheered by the whole army, proud of their fine showing.

Fine Sports. Baseball, lacrosse, football, tennis were all carried on at the same time, while the famous circus of the Western Brigade furnished a humorous part. A baseball game final went 11 innings, won by three to two. The game was witnessed by the Duke of Connaught, Sir Robert Borden and the ministers.

Foules, of Victoria, and McAvity, St. John, played a draw in the tennis singles, while Foules and Maynard won the doubles final from McAvity and Bessey.

The hundred yards race was run in ten seconds, and the mile done in 4 minutes 41 seconds. During the sports, aeroplanes photographed the scene. The pictures were developed and the airmen returned, dropping them in the grand stand.

The grand stand was three hundred yards long with special stands for distinguished visitors.

The Canadian Y.M.C.A. furnished bunting and other decorations, and paid other expenses.

Premier Had Great Day.

Sir Robert Borden says it was the greatest day of his life. Hon. Mr. J. A. Cadier remarked that he had seen many thousand Canadian gentlemen gathered at one point in France. Hon. Arthur Meighen could not comment on the programme as he said he was too busy meeting old friends to witness the sports. No unfavorable incident marred the day. Despite the immense crowd there was no wrong act or sign of ill-feeling. Hon. N.W. Rowell was much impressed by the wonderful order and conduct of the great assembly.

The sports concert party gave an entertainment, there being present over ten thousand. Sir Robert Borden received a wonderful reception. He addressed the men.

"How about leave, Sir Borden?" yelled someone.

"Every Canadian has long leave to do his best to beat the Hun," retorted the Prime Minister, and ten thousand soldiers sprang to their feet, cheered and waved their hats at this sentiment. There never was seen such a gathering or programme in Europe. It was Canada's day and Canadians are proud of its great success.

Before going to the sports Sir Robert and his colleagues with corps and divisional commanders, visited Vimy Ridge. The ridge was ablaze with blood-red poppies aiding the devastation. They visited the graves of Canadians who died on that glorious day when they swept the Hun from Vimy. With the party were men who led Canadians over the ridge and they explained the operation that brought fame to Canada and heartened the Allies.

POSTMEN MAKE ONLY ONE DELIVERY ON SATURDAYS IN JULY AND AUGUST

Special Arrangements Being Made for the Business Concerns that are Expecting Important Mail.

Citizens need not worry about letters which they were expecting to receive late on Saturday having gone astray owing to the non-appearance of the postman on his second round on Saturdays during the months of July and August. During this period the postmen will only make one delivery on Saturdays, in accordance with instructions received from the Post Office Department at Ottawa.

Mr. A. A. Norcross, acting postmaster, stated that special arrangements were being made to handle a second delivery of mail to business concerns that were waiting for the arrival of important letters. Many will call for their letters which arrive after the first delivery on Saturdays has been made, while a delivery will be made specially for those concerns that require the letters that are expected with the second delivery.

PLAN HOLIDAY BY SEASHORE

A holiday by the seashore is the cherished desire of thousands of city dwellers. The big Atlantic combers crashing into spray on rocky shores, or spending their force on broad sandy beaches, the bathing, the fishing, the beating and the bracing sea breezes combine to make an irresistible appeal. Why not, therefore, take that seashore holiday this year? Accommodation can be secured at a minimum of expense. The Grand Trunk Railway System has just issued a booklet of information that will help you plan your tour and choose your hotel, cottage or boarding house. This publication is "Portland, Canoe Bay, Atlantic Seaside and Maine Resorts," and describes one of the greatest holiday territories in America, a summer playground with mountains and lakes in addition to seashore delights. Copy of booklet and all information may be had on application to any Grand Trunk Agent, or to A. M. Stevens, City Passenger Agent, 2 Strathcona Square.

PATRIOTIC WORK

PATRIOTIC ASSOCIATION MEETING.

Important and very interesting business was transacted at a special general meeting of the Sherbrooke Patriotic Association held yesterday afternoon in the association rooms, Art building.

The new set of by-laws were read, approved and adopted, and the Charitable Association's license, renewal license and charter were produced and read to the members present.

A motion was passed that the officers and board of doctrine be re-elected and remain for the coming year, and both the work committee and the entertainment committee were re-elected.

As this concluded the special general meeting, the regular meeting was proceeded with. It was resolved to close the fund for the Queen Mary silver wedding shower this Monday, and Mrs. Drury was authorized to forward the total amount received to the Queen Mary Needlework Guild headquarters, Montreal.

In response to the appeal for "France's Day Fund" from the executive committee of the Red Cross, which was read by Mrs. Morrill, the association voted $100, to be sent through their French hospitals' committee.

It was left in the hands of Mrs. Parmelee, convener of the entertainment committee, to make arrangements for the drawings of raffish from the garden fete, and the treasurer, Mrs. Drury, was authorized to transfer the Victory bond to the entertainment committee, in readiness for the lucky winner.

Authorization for issuing permits to branches was given to the president, vice-president, and the convener of work and entertainment committees.

"It is kind of you to offer it, but Fred left us beyond need of financial assistance. Three years ago he was persuaded to buy an Imperial Monthly Income Policy."

"I opposed the idea then, but I have learned the sad lesson that though wives may object, widows never do."

"The hundred dollars that I am to get from the Imperial Life every month, as long as I live, makes it unnecessary for me to become a burden to my friends."

"It is not until lately that I have realized how many good friends we

Thousands of good wives and mothers, made destitute by circumstances, are literally compelled to fall back upon the practical kindness of those whom they have known in "better days."

ADVANTAGES OF BUYING CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS EARLY POINTED OUT

Not Only from Financial But Also from Patriotic Standpoint It is Best to Purchase Tickets Immediately.

Plans have been completed and all details arranged for the Community Chautauqua which is to be held here from July 18th to 22nd, and while the adventure last year proved an immense success, the officials in charge of the programme this season have high hopes that the affair will even prove a greater success than in 1917. A very high-class programme has been drawn up for the occasion, and the indications are that the funds of one of the many patriotic societies will be swelled considerably before "finis" is written on the Chautauqua in 1918.

There is one point which the officials of the Chautauqua wish to emphasize to the public, and that is the advantages, not only from a financial, but also from a patriotic standpoint, of securing their tickets immediately. Tickets are being sold at the present time for $2 a book, but after July 17 the price will advance to $2.50 a book. In addition, the funds of the Patriotic Society, to which the proceeds of the Chautauqua are to be donated, will benefit to a greater extent if the tickets are purchased early. Up to July 17 the local officials receive 50 per cent. of the proceeds over the first five hundred tickets sold, while of the tickets sold after July 17 the promoters take as their share $1,400, and then divide the receipts over that sum with the local officials on a fifty-fifty basis.

Mr. Montville Flowers, president of the Chautauqua Association, has received the following letter from President Wilson:

My Dear Mr. Flowers—It has been on my mind for some time to thank you for your organization for the very real help it has given to America in the struggle that is concerned with every fundamental element of national life. Your speakers, going from community to community, meeting people in the friendly spirit engendered by years of intimate and understanding contact, have been effective messengers for the delivery and interpretation of democracy's meaning and value.

perative needs. The work that the Chautauqua is doing has not lost importance because of the war, but rather has gained new opportunities for service.

Let me express the hope that you will let no discouragement weaken your activities, and that the people will not fail in the support of a patriotic institution that may be said to be an integral part of the national defence, and sincerely yours,

WOODROW WILSON.

USEFUL THINGS THAT A BOY CAN MAKE

I guess every boy likes to hunt and trap. It gets him out of doors and that is an excellent thing for any boy—lots of fresh air and exercise. Traps are of various kinds, some dangerous to handle and some not. The one shown herewith cannot cause you any injury like a steel trap might and so is safe to have around.

At first thought you perhaps think only of the catching of rabbits, squirrels, etc. That is all right of course, and the trap will do it for you but I want to call your attention to another animal that it is necessary to get rid of. I have reference to the rat, which has been a pest so long that we simply take it for granted that it will always be here and so do not take the steps we should to destroy it. Perhaps this is due to the fact that most people do not realize what a menace to the human family the rat is. The destructive powers of this animal are enormous, and efforts are being made to combat its depredations in many countries.

It is said that food will win the war and we are all asked to do our bit. One way in which boys can be of service is to help destroy rats and in order that you may have a better understanding of the amount of serious damage being done by rats, I will quote a few figures. It is said that rats are destroying in the United States alone each year foodstuffs and other property value at $200,000,000. Think of it. And it requires the labor of 150,000 constantly to supply the food these pests destroy. In Australia where immense quantities of grain are being held for shipment, mice are destroying great quantities of it. Ships are not available for shipping it now and the grain is being stored out of doors. Tons and tons of mice are being killed in the efforts to protect the grain. And, of course, mice can be trapped as well as rats so they should be killed also.

Besides destroying such great quantities of food, rats are the carriers of many terrible diseases. It has been proven that rats practically are the sole carriers of that dread disease bubonic plague.

At this time of so great a food shortage, the menace of the rat is a serious one and if we can aid in destroying them, we will be doing a good service.

As shown in the drawing, the trap is ready for trapping rabbits, etc., but for use in catching rats and mice it should be lined with tin to prevent the animals from gnawing out.

I believe the drawings show all the details very clearly. Part is shown in section, that is, a portion is cut away in order to better show the details.

Get out the stock for the various pieces as shown. Make the box first. The sides are 1-2" x 9 1-2" x 18"; the bottom is 1-2" x 12" x 18"; the back is 1-2" x 9 1-2" x 12," and the top is 1-2" x 12" x 15 1-4".

Now build the door H and the slides for same. See top view of corner of door and slides at M. Be sure to allow a little play to ensure working easily. On the back of the door board a small black (Z) 1-4" x 1-4" x 1 3-4". This is the catch which holds the door open when supported on end of part B. Part A is next fastened to the top with nails 3" back from door as shown in section view.

Part B is nailed to the long arm O. The latter is pivoted in A by a nail. Be sure that O works freely on the nail.

Piece C is not fastened to arm K. Its purpose being to act as a guide. Part D is pinned as indicated to long arm O and to F, which supports the platform K at its outer and inside of the box. F is pinned to E, which is to be nailed over a hole to be cut in back of box as indicated by dotted lines in sectional view.

The setting of the trap is evident from the drawing. The bait is suspended above the small platform. A fish hook is useful for this as the barbs hold the bait securely. When the animal steps on the platform in its effort to secure the bait, the downward motion is transferred through the arms to the trigger, which is drawn back from the door and the latter is released, thus imprisoning the animal.

Inasmuch as there is a considerable amount of mechanism to this trap, I feel sure every boy will find a great deal of pleasure in constructing it. The average boy likes to make something that works.

Resists Fire, Sheds Water, Wears Long

Flying sparks and embers from a burning building often cause roofs near by to catch fire, especially in a dry, hot season. Under like conditions, roofs covered with are in no danger from flying embers, because any that fall on Brantford Asphalt Roofing die out harmlessly. Build a bonfire on a roof of Brantford Asphalt Roofing and the fire will not spread and the boards underneath the roofing will be protected in a surprising manner.

If a fire starts in the interior of a building, Brantford Asphalt Roofing acts as a retardant and keeps the fire from spreading. Fire chiefs and insurance companies endorse its use in the most congested cities.

Brantford Asphalt Roofing does not absorb water, but sheds the heaviest rain with ease. Acid proof and alkali proof. Reliable, durable, economical. Three weights—60 lb., 70 lb., 80 lb. per square.

Brantford Rubber Roofing

is the same quality as Brantford Asphalt, but has a smooth, rubbery surface instead of the sand. It is particularly suitable for verandah decks and floor coverings. Three weights—40 lb., 50 lb., and 60 lb. per square.

Standard Mohawk Roofing

is made of the same materials as Brantford Asphalt Roofing, but is lighter in weight. A thoroughly reliable roofing at a low price. Tested for years and has given entire satisfaction. Sanded on one side. One weight—40 lbs. per square.

Mohawk Rubber Roofing

The same quality as Standard Mohawk but with a smooth surface. Used for all classes of temporary work—sheds, bunk-houses, camp sites, even dugouts in the trenches. 35 lb., 45 lb., and 55 lb. weights.

Leatheroid Roofing

Slightly lower quality than Mohawk Rubber. Used for same purposes. 35 lb., 45 lb., and 55 lb. weights.

Samples of any of these roofings and prices will be furnished on request.

WAR GARDEN BULLETIN.

PRACTICAL DAILY GUIDE FOR VACANT LOT AND BACKYARD GARDENERS ENLISTED IN GREATER PRODUCTION CAMPAIGN.

Issued by the Canada Food Board in Collaboration with Experts on the Staff of the Dominion Experimental Farm.

HOW THEY OPERATE.

Have you ever watched the bugs eat? They don't all do it the same way. Some bite out small portions of plants, then chew and swallow them in quite a human way. Other bugs belong to the nursing bottle class and suck their food—the juice or sap of plants. Most bugs are partial to tender young garden plants.

The chewing class is killed by feeding them with poisons; the sucking class by remedies which kill by coming in contact with their bodies and smothering or dissolving them.

The chewing insects are easiest to recognize since they eat the plants. They do a good deal of damage when they are worms. In maturity they become beetles, moths and butterflies and are a still greater menace.

The worms and beetles should be killed by spraying or dusting on the plants arsenate of lead or Paris green. Some of the chewing insects, like the cutworms, are killed by poisoned bait like bran mixed with molasses and Paris green. Garden slugs are also killed in this manner.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Keep the stomach well, the liver active, the bowels regular, and the breath will be sweet and healthy. But let poisons accumulate in the digestive organs, the system becomes clogged, gases form in the stomach and affect the breath.

THE ONLOOKER COMMENTS

OUR ALLY, RUSSIA.

If the time ever comes when Russia is able to thank its friends, it must turn in profound gratefulness to President Wilson and the United States. Not in the darkest moments of stricken Russia has the American Republic forsaken its hope of the resurrection of law and order in that anarchy-ridden nation, nor turned in scorn on the miserable, bewildered people of that partitioned and despairing land. That Russia shall rise again has been, and continues to be, the hope and the faith of democracy in America for democracy in Russia.

In his speech on the Fourth of July, President Wilson referred to the Russians in the same sympathetic way that characterizes all his references to them, and placed them alongside the fighting allies, "still among the rest, though they are for the moment unorganized and helpless."

Russia is still our ally. Difficult as it may seem to forget that forsaken line of trenches along the erstwhile Russian front, the retreating from which gave Germany another host of men to fight us on the western line, circumstances have proved that Russia's payment to Germany is heavier than our increased burden of resistance to Germany's enlarged army. Bolshevism is Russia's bitter cup, and she is drinking it to the dregs. But Russian people still hope, and if hope remains in that stricken nation it should not look to the world for sympathy in vain.

THE HOSPITAL SHIP.

The sinking of the Canadian hospital ship by a German submarine has occasioned world-wide indignation, and is an indication of the desperate game Germany is now playing. The submarine commander had false advice that eight American aviators were on board, and these men were considered sufficiently dangerous to the German cause to justify the sinking of this ship. When eight American aviators signify so much to Germany, the Allies may guess which way the wind is blowing for the Central Allies. Since the Austrian reverse the impression has been growing that the tide has turned in favor of the Allies. An irate submarine commander ruthlessly destroying the Llandovery Castle to reach eight airmen changes the impression to a conviction.

A MILLION AMERICANS.

It is officially announced that a million American soldiers have reached France, and the estimates provide for another million before the end of the year.

The strength of the New World is fast being mobilized for war, and in the concluding period of the struggle the weary Hun will realize that insult and defiance cannot be flung at a whole world with impunity.

This week's new outrage upon the seas, when the German submarine sank without warning a Canadian hospital ship and then charged the struggling passengers in the water, has strengthened the conviction that there can be no compromise with the perfidious Hun.

This war, terrible as it is, must go to a conclusion, and the resolute stand of the American people, as expressed by President Wilson in his Fourth of July address and on other occasions, gives us strong hope that the Allies in their united strength will be able to carry through to a successful end their great task of saving the world from barbarism.

THE NAVY LEAGUE.

It has been stated that one of the most important movements in the recent history of the United States was when that country decided to send a punitive expedition into Mexico. Not because this expedition, in itself, accomplished a great task, but because the necessity for it opened the eyes of the officials in Washington, and of the people in the United States, to the fact that that country was wholly unprepared for any kind of warfare, even so slight a venture as an expedition into lawless Mexico. From that day to this is a far stretch, not in time, for only a few years have passed since then, but in the state of America's preparedness for war. The United States today is measuring up to tremendous importance as a nation able to fight its own battles and to help other nations fight theirs.

As that punitive expedition marked a beginning for land preparedness in the United States, so the appearance of the submarine has emphasized finally and emphatically the need for this North American continent to prepare for a day when there shall not be a mile of coast unguarded, on either the Atlantic or Pacific coast lines of the United States and Canada. We must become a power on the sea, an addition to the influence of the English Navy, and building and maintaining ships of our own for Canadian trade on the seas, build also such ships, submarines and destroyers as shall make it impossible for the submarines of foreign countries to molest us along our coast lines.

If our coast lines are protected; our country is safe. Any effort toward trade expansion on the seas, coastal protection, or any movement that tends to shipbuilding, to a growth of our marine interests, to a building-up of Canada as a naval power, is of peculiar interest to us.

For this reason the Navy League appeals. Anyone who regards this league as apart from the great issues of the war does not see its possible far-reaching influence on the future of our country as a self-protecting Dominion. We must develop on the sea, must exhibit naval initiative, must have ships for trade and for protection, must see to it that no lurking submarine or enemy ships can pass the protecting line of our harbors and coasts, where should ride in abundance our trade and coastal-guarding fleets of ships.

RUN MORE SLOWLY.

Extra care and precaution are being taken by officials in regard to the running of automobiles, the licenses of chauffeurs, and other matters relating to motor driving, that affect the interests of the public. Carelessness in driving has been so openly demonstrated, not only by broken and ruined machines, but by accidents to individuals, this season, that some effort to impress upon the public the necessity for complying with the law was imperative.

The public generally would be quite indifferent to the fate of the fast and foolish driver if his haste and foolishness harmed only himself. But the careless driver is a menace to the life and enjoyment of others, and for this reason his disregard for the law should not go unpunished. How often he does go unpunished everyone knows, but the stricter the law the more, at least, the careless driver is restrained.

FOOD BOARD FLASHES FOR FEMINE FOLK

Do you know that four new booklets which every Canadian woman should possess for herself have now made their bow to the public? Hundreds of so-called war-time cook books have come out during the last two or three years until women are a little bored with what other people are trying to tell them.

But these are different. They deal with bread-making, the cooking of fish, the cooking of fruit and vegetables, and preserving and canning. They have attractive covers which are but the outward index to the authoritative and practical contents. In short, they are distinctive from any of the war-time cook books which have been issued in Canada up to date, and each is prepared by an expert.

A nominal five-cent fee is being charged for each, on the principle that people value more highly that what they have to pay for.

Send to the Food Board, Ottawa, without delay for these books. Every woman should give them a place of honor in her home and follow their advice day by day in her kitchen.

The Less Waste

The Better The Service

"SLOW" telephone accounts -- the accounts on which repeated efforts to collect must be made -- result in waste of time and labor.

Most telephone users pay their bills promptly and the labor and time of collecting them are reasonable.

But some subscribers overlook their bills or neglect to pay them promptly, and the work of collecting such accounts is laborious and time-wasting.

The elimination of waste in the telephone business means better telephone service. When we can do away with any waste time or labor that may be involved in furnishing service, we can put an equal amount of time and labor into the service itself to the benefit of all telephone users.

Help us, by the prompt payment of accounts, to avoid waste time and labor and to concentrate on the enormous amount of necessary work that war-time conditions demand.

MIR. MALOUIN SHOWS IMPROVEMENT.

Mr. Maxim Malouin, a well known resident of Stanstead, who suffered a fracture of the skull in the fatal automobile accident near Crossville on Saturday last, is reported to be slightly improved in condition today by the officials of the Sherbrooke Hospital. It was at first thought that an operation would have to be performed, but hopes are now entertained that Mr. Malouin will recover without an operation being necessary. His condition is still considered very serious.

PRICES AND DETAILS OF SHERBROOKE MARKET

With the exception of dairy produce and a few items which may be classed as luxuries, the prevailing prices this week at the Lansdowne Market displayed a little easier tone as compared with the quotations of a week ago. There is a big demand for eggs, and this fact, coupled with the great reduction in the number of poultry being raised this season, serves to keep the price up. As a matter of fact, eggs were slightly higher this week, the merchants quoting them at from 45c to 50c per dozen. Butter, too, holds firm and is being sold at the same old price that has been asked the past two weeks, namely, 48c per pound for the best creamery, and from 42c to 45c a pound for creamery and dairy.

Consumers that started out marketing with the idea of taking home with them a few new potatoes, received an awful job when they asked the price of that vegetable. In fact, new potatoes can be put down in the luxury class at the price they are being quoted today, namely, 75c to 80c a peck. Cabbage, too, is up in price to 15c to 25c a head, while cauliflower made its reappearance on the market at from 25c to 35c a head.

The fruit market remained very high, apples (new) being quoted as high as $1.20 per peck, while tomatoes were also up in price at from 20c to 25c per pound. Lemons took another jump of five cents per dozen. While the majority of the merchants were quoting them at from 45c to 55c per dozen, some were asking as high as 60c a dozen. Bananas eased off slightly, while the Montreal strawberries were being sold at 20c per box and the imported berries at 35c per box. Musklemelons were on display for the first time at from 20c to 25c each.

The pinch of the new restrictions placed on the importation of certain fruits into Canada is beginning to be felt at the market. Owing to these restrictions, no more pineapples are to be seen, while what remains of the watermelons which the dealers had in stock were being sold today.

There were no changes in the general ruling prices in the provision department, although there was a large quantity of meat on hand. However, the indications were that there would be a slight drop in the price of pork before the ensuing week is out. The general ruling prices at the market today were:

THE PROVISION MARKET

Beef hides, green 16c
Beef, roast, per lb. 25c to 38c
Beef, carcass, per lb. 18c to 22c
Bacon, per lb. 40c to 45c
Bologna, per lb. 18c
Boiling meat, per lb. 15c to 22c
Chicken, per lb. 40c
Calf skins 37c
Fowl, per lb. 38c
Ham, per lb. 33c to 38c
Ham, pressed, per lb. 30c
Liver, per lb. 12½c to 15c
Lamb, per lb. 30c to 50c

STAKE GOLD MINING CLAIMS IN QUEBEC

The Stakings Include Quite a Strip of the Mainland and Several Islands in Agotawekami Lake.

COCHRANE, ONT., July 6.—Considerable staking of gold mining claims has already taken place in the northwestern part of the province of Quebec, a few miles east from the inter-provincial boundary. The stakings include, in addition to quite a strip of the mainland, several islands in Agotawekami Lake. This lake is about eight or ten miles south from Lake Abitibi, and is readily accessible by canoe from Low Bush, on the National Transcontinental Railway. The canoe trip necessitates crossings of both the lower and upper Abitibi Lakes, a water trip of about sixty miles in all.

UNREST OF SO. AFRICAN NATIVES

Disloyalists at Work Among Workers—Police Arrest Large Number of Aileded Leaders.

(Associated Press Despatch)
LONDON, July 6.—The Times, commenting editorially on the situation in South Africa, refers to the unrest of the natives as "assisted by disloyalists."

A despatch from Johannesburg, July 2, to Reuters' Limited, says that 8,500 natives went out at the Ferreira deep mines, whereupon the police entered the compound and took away a quantity of secreted weapons. The authorities also arrested 75 leaders of the natives without encountering resistance. One thousand native employees of the town engineer's department refused to work, but returned to their stations before a display of armed force.

FARNHAM YOUTH LOST $4,000 IN CARD GAME

William Denoyer Claims He Was Cheated and Takes Action in Montreal Court to Get Money Back.

MONTREAL, July 6.—Another sensational story of an alleged card game swindle in which a youth from the country was victimized of $4,000, was told in the Enquete Court, Montreal, yesterday, before Judge Cusson, by William Denoyer, of Farnham, who charged W. M. Duckett and J. Cummings, with conspiracy. Cummings was not present in court. Denoyer, who is a mere youth, and works in his father's grocery store, in Farnham, told of striking up an acquaintance with Cummings while visiting Montreal. Cummings introduced him to Duckett. Following the introduction and a dinner in an up-town hotel, a game of cards was suggested, in which Denoyer and Duckett took part, the youth winning $300.

After the game Denoyer showed his gratitude to Cummings by giving him half his winnings. A week later Denoyer and Duckett took part in another game in which the country boy was allowed to win $1000. He did not depart with it, however, as the game was started up again and he lost the $1000 along with his own roll. By this time Denoyer's gambling spirit was thoroughly aroused, and he took a trip to Farnham and induced his father to let him have $4,000 to deposit in Montreal. From this he was to draw what was necessary to purchase exemption by buying a returned soldier's certificate.

On his arrival in Montreal, he was met at the station by Cummings and escorted to the hotel where he lost the whole wad.

After he had lost about $3,000 Denoyer says he observed Cummings who was standing behind him making signals to Duckett. He now contends that in this way Duckett was informed of what he was holding, hence the conspiracy to defraud.

Duckett through his counsel, W. P. J. Dagenais, denied the charge, but His Honor ruled that there was sufficient evidence to remand him for voluntary statement.

Denoyer did not explain what sort of a two handed game they were playing.

LOCAL BOY TOOK PART IN GREAT NAVAL RAIDS

Lieut. Jack Dresser Had a Hand in the Successful Attack on German Submarine Bases.

Sherbrooke has sent many brave boys to the front since the beginning of the great world-war, now a titanic struggle among the nations of the earth, and many are the names that have appeared in the lists of those to whom decorations have been awarded or promotion given. Every church and every society has its "roll of honor," and alas! the little white crosses mark the quiet resting place of the splendid men and fine legs who will return no more, nor see their native country, but who died gladly for God and the Empire.

Sherbrooke is proud and sad, but uplifted in spirit by the tale of bravery and sacrifice. Few, however, know that the little Canadian city had the honor of being represented at the recent attacks upon Zeebrugge and Ostend, the German bases, which will go down in history as the most daring and brilliant naval exploits of the four years' war. Lieut. Jack W. Dresser, a Sherbrooke boy, who has been overseas for some two years, and is second in command of a motor patrol boat, on hearing of the projected plan for "beating" the naval bases of the enemy, immediately volunteered, and was accepted.

The smart little launch to which he was attached was one of those which escorted the block ships to be sunk in the entrance to the harbors, and came through the terrific storm of shell and hail of fire unscathed.

In his letter, Lieut. Dresser spoke of going on board the old Vendictive after the action was over, and described the sight as one never to be forgotten. He re-ventured for the Ostend advance, and his boat assisted in furnishing the smoke screen, which was to hide the Vendictive from watchful eyes on land. The scene was wonderful—the star-lit night, the aeroplanes overhead waiting to aid the attack, the great high-decked vessel forging over steadily and silently, the motor launches racing ahead to place buoys to guide the Vendictive, and blowing great breeches in the mole with their torpedoes; then the awakening of the tremendous land batteries, the sniping of decks of the large and small boats alike, and finally the sinking of the Vendictive, the death of her gallant commander and many of the officers, the destroyers and motor boats suffering equally.

Many of the latter were hit over and over again and went down, but Lieut. Dresser's boat came through safely and did good work in picking up the dead and transferring the wounded.

The whole action took place in an hour and a half, and the men who remain to tell the great story returned to their posts of duty with memories that a lifetime could scarcely dim.

officials had preceded them. An address was read and a handsome illuminated copy of it was presented to King George. This ceremony was followed by a presentation of a cheque of a large sum, to be distributed among such charities as Their Majesties should decide upon, and the gift of a piece of silver. These were the only public silver wedding gifts the sovereigns consented to accept, they having decided that at the present time nothing should be diverted from charitable purposes. The gift was subscribed for by the City Guilds, the Stock Exchange, the leading banks, insurance and commercial companies and others.

After the double ceremony Their Majesties drove again to the palace, cheered along the entire route by enthusiastic crowds.

As is customary when the sovereign makes a visit of state to the city, the King created the Lord Mayor, Charles A. Hanson, a baronet and conferred knighthood upon the two sheriffs, George Rowland Blades and Harry Frankland Hepburn.

The commemoration of the silver wedding throughout the country is taking the form of the collection of gold and silver articles and money for the Red Cross.

WILL INCREASE STRENGTH OF INDIAN ARMY

Government Issues Statement in Provinces Following Lines Approved at the Conference in Delhi.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, July 6.—A despatch from Simla to Reuters' Limited says that the Indian Government has caused it to be known throughout the provinces that it is the intention, as indicated in the Delhi conference, greatly to increase the strength of the Indian army. The Government also is suggesting urgent consideration of the problems of obtaining an additional number of British officers and subordinates, proportionate to the contemplated increase in the size of the Indian army, from Europeans of a military age now employed in commercial business and occupations in India that are not essential to the war.

Viceroy Baron Chelmsford has emphasized that at the present time the development of man-power is the paramount consideration, and that commercial interests not directly essential to the prosecution of the war must be regarded as of secondary importance.

BOLSHEVIKI PLACE MONEY IN SWISS BANKS

Billions of Francs Transferred Through German Banks to Aid Revolutionary Propaganda.

GENEVA, July 6.—The Swiss Federal Council is making serious inquiries concerning reports that enormous amounts of money have been placed in Swiss banks by Bolsheviki. Several billion francs have been transferred to Swiss institutions through German banks, according to the Gazette de Thurgovie.

The funds are destined to aid revolutionary propaganda along the Bolshevik lines in Allied countries, with Switzerland as a centre of the intrigue, according to the Geneva Tribune. It is stated that the movement is encouraged by the Germans.

OUTRAGE ON HOSPITAL SHIP PREMEDITATED

Submarine Commander Followed Orders of German High Command to Sink the Llandoverly Castle.

(Reuters' Ottawa Agency.)

LONDON, July 6.—Reuters' Limited is authoritatively informed that the outrage on the hospital ship Llandoverly Castle, which is the fourth hospital ship torpedoed this year, was deliberate and premeditated, following upon orders given the submarine commander by the super-German authorities, which alleged the presence of eight flying officers. The allegation is foundationless, and could easily have been tested by the right of search. There is no doubt but that the submarine endeavored to slaughter all witnesses of the crime, according to Count Luxburg's famous phrase, "Spurlos versenken." It is clear the German high command has settled on a plan to destroy hospital ships as far as possible.

Dunlop and Auto History

- Practically speaking the automobile has been in existence in Canada only since 1903.
- Years before that we made hundreds of thousands of tires for the bicycle.
- And since that time we have made hundreds of thousands of tires for the automobile, until the manufacture of Dunlop Auto Tires—"Traction," "Special," "Plain"—has become a big industry in itself. To you it is as important that Dunlop preceded the automobile as it is that Dunlop grew with it—became an every-day factor in this new utility of the nation.
- The automobile knows no better running mate—than Dunlop Tires.

Furnace Management

Ease of the Sunshine

Feeding the furnace;

- shaking down the ashes,
- removing the ashes,
- keeping the health-giving water pan filled,
- fixing the drafts for the night,

—those are the five major operations in managing a furnace—and what a trial of the temper and destruction of your raiment any one of them may be.

If your furnace is the famous McClary Sunshine these operations will cause you little more trouble or effort than winding up the clock.

The feed door of the Sunshine is big—you don't hit the side and damage your shovel and temper and scatter coal and naughty words all over the basement.

You don't shake the Sunshine grates, you merely rock them a few times,

—and the ashes drop from the perpendicular fire-box walls and grates and are guided into the big ash pan, —and you lift the ash pan out with handles that are always cool.

—No shovelling of ashes—no ashdust on your clothes or in your hair or in the house.

And at night, without going down to the basement, you drop the damper and open the check with pulls that always work.

And the water pan is right above the fuel door—very accessible—in plain view, where you can't forget it.

Sunshine furnace management is not even exercise.

Engineering Service Free. McClary's own heating engineers are at your service when you buy a Sunshine Furnace, to give you free expert advice on your home-heating requirements.
