French Heads Declare All Forces Move

War Ministry Announces that Operations of "the Entire Land, Naval and Air Forces" Have Begun—Newspaper Reports Indicate Opening of Hostilities on Western Front in Effort to Relieve Pressure on Poland.

Paris, Sept. 4.—(P)—The French War Ministry announced today that operations of "the entire land, naval and air forces" have begun.

The Ministry's "Communiqué No. 1"—marking the actual opening of hostilities in the French and British war with Germany—was issued at 11:30 a.m. (6:30 a.m., E.D.T.).

It said simply: "Operations have begun, involving the entire land, naval and air forces."

The theatre of action was kept a military secret. A clue to the action, however, was given by a notice in the newspaper Paris-Midi which said, "Great silence is observed on military operations on the Western Front, but it can be assured that we are not inactive."

"The German armies are going to be forced to loosen their grip on heroic Poland whose troops at several points have passed to the offensive."

Authorities started emptying Paris hospitals for military use. The first night of France's state of war with Germany had passed without word of the firing of a shot.

The communiqué came as the first indication that France's 8,000,000-man military machine had gone into action.

Shortly before 11 a.m. French heavy bombers flew low over the capital, heading eastward toward the German frontier.

The weather, dismal during Sunday's final flurry of ultimatum and declarations, turned favorable to military operations this morning.

The sun broke through and dried out the terrain for the movement toward the Rhine frontier.

The Official Journal published a short notice which was sent to the foreign powers yesterday in conformity with a Hague Convention requiring notice of the opening of hostilities.

"Following the aggression directed by Germany against Poland," the

British Atlantic Queen Now Safely Berthed In New York

The $25,000,000 Liner Queen Mary Reached New York this Morning with a Record List of 2,385 Passengers—Whereabouts of German Liner Bremen Still Undetermined—U.S. Liners Speed Up Schedules.

New York, Sept. 4.—(P)—The $25,000,000 British liner Queen Mary reached New York safely today with a record list of 2,385 passengers after a swift voyage through North Atlantic waters made perilous by prowling sea raiders.

The giant ship was at sea when war was declared.

On board were J. P. Morgan and hundreds of war refugees, happy to escape the fate of others on the British liner Athenia, torpedoed and sunk off Scotland.

As in the Great War, sudden death lurked on the surface and below to endanger war refugees at sea.

Fears for the safety of those fleeing European war zones deepened with the torpedoing of the British liner Athenia off the Scottish coast in a renewal of submarine warfare that sent 5,408 allied and neutral ships to the bottom in the Great War. Rescue craft were reported to have saved 1,000.

Hundreds of Canadians were reported among the 1,400 aboard the Athenia.

Many British and French craft and some German and Polish ships were in danger.

At sea, and therefore subject to seizure or sinking, was the greatest ship of the German merchant marine, the $20,000,000 Bremen.

The $60,000,000 French luxury liner Normandie was berthed indefinitely in her New York pier, saved from possible destruction by the foresight of French officials who cancelled her sailing Friday.

The Queen Mary, with a record passenger list of 2,385, was sighted off Sandy Hook early today, nearing the neutral New York harbor, her ports blackened, her wireless silent to keep her exact position a secret from German U-boats.

Exact position of the Bremen was unknown. The German liner, which sailed from here last Wednesday without passengers, was believed by some shipping men to have sought the safety of a South American port.

His Majesty's Address To Empire

ADDRESSED THE EMPIRE

LONDON, Sept. 4.—(P)—The text of the address of The King to his subjects in all parts of the world yesterday follows:—

In this grave hour, perhaps the most fateful in our history, I send to every household of my peoples, both at home and overseas, this message, spoken with the same depth of feeling for each one of you as if I were able to cross your threshold and speak to you myself.

For the second time in the lives of most of us, we are at war.

Over and over again, we have tried to find a peaceful way out of the differences between ourselves and those who are now our enemies; but it has been in vain.

We have been forced into a conflict, for we are called, with our Allies, to meet the challenge of a principle which, if it were to prevail, would be fatal to any civilized order in the world.

It is a principle which permits a state in the selfish pursuit of power to disregard its treaties and its solemn pledges, which sanctions the use of force or threat of force against the sovereignty and independence of other states.

Such a principle, stripped of all disguise, is surely the mere primitive doctrine that might is right. And if this principle were established through the world, the freedom of our own country and of the whole British Commonwealth of Nations would be in danger.

But far more than this, the peoples of the world would be kept in the bondage of fear, and all hopes of settled peace and of security, of justice and liberty, among nations, would be ended.

This is the ultimate issue which confronts us. For the sake of all that we ourselves hold dear, and of the world order and peace, it is unthinkable that we should refuse to meet the challenge.

It is to this high purpose that I now call my people at home and my peoples across the seas, who will make our cause their own.

I ask them to stand calm and firm and united in this time of trial.

The task will be hard. There may be dark days ahead and war can no longer be confined to the battlefield, but we can only do the right as we see the right, and reverently commit our cause to God. If one and all we keep resolutely faithful to it, ready for whatever service or sacrifice it may demand, then with God's help, we shall prevail.

May He bless and keep us all.

RAYDON, England, Sept. 4.—(P)—When Alex. Keeble, 18, went to London to join the Royal Navy, he did several things he had never done before. It was his first trip in a train, and he had never seen the capital.

Paris, Sept. 4.—(P)—The British Air Force started its "hostilities" last night with "propaganda raids" on Germany.

French reports here were that British planes during the night dropped "one million tracts" printed in German declaring that the German Government, "deliberately and cold bloodedly," started the war.

The text of the British appeal to the German people was given as follows:—

"Notice from Great Britain to the German people:—

"Germany! Deliberately and cold bloodedly the Government of the Reich has imposed war on Great Britain. It knew very well the consequences of its act would plunge the world in a tragedy even greater than that of 1914.

"In April your Chancellor gave you and the world assurances of his peaceful intentions. They were as

PROVINCE ACTS AGAINST FOOD PROFITEERING

Hon. J. H. A. Paquette Announces Government Will Also Seek to Prevent Food Hoarding in Time of National Emergency.

Mont Laurier, Que., Sept. 4.—(P)—Hon. J. H. A. Paquette, Quebec's Health Minister, told a public meeting here yesterday that Premier Maurice Duplessis had authorized him to announce the Provincial Government would take steps to prevent food hoarding and profiteering as a result of war.

Dr. Paquette, who also is Provincial Secretary, said the Premier told him Saturday that there already had been abuses in the selling of sugar and flour in Quebec Province.

Premier Duplessis' message said the price of sugar had advanced in some cases from six to fifteen cents a pound. With hundreds of thousands of pounds of sugar in Canadian warehouses, there was no justification for the increase, the message added.

Other speakers at the Union Nationale rally in this LaSalle County town included Hon. Onesime Gagnon, Minister of Mines and Fisheries; Hon. Henry Auger, Minister of Colonization; Alexandre Tache, M.L.A. for Abitibi.

Quebec, Sept. 4.—(P)—Notice of appointment of Rene Gobeil as chief of the Entomological service, Department of Lands and Forests, is announced in the Quebec Official Gazette.

Dar-Es-Salaam, Tanganyika, Sept. 4.—(P)—Redistribution of the Southern brigade of the King's South African Rifles has begun in this colony, with the aim of strengthening defences.

Presumably the Athenia was torpedoed around midnight, Greenwich time (8 p.m. Sunday, E.D.T.) while running without lights in a smooth sea.

Added to this was the fact that rescue operations were aided by the Athenia's more than adequate lifeboat seats. There was reported to have been lifeboats for 1,830 persons.

It also was presumed that Captain Cook had been rescued before he sent his latest message, and that he would not have left the ship until the last passenger or crewman alive was off it.

The captain and most of his crew of 246 were Glasgow men. Some of them had been in vessels torpedoed in the Great War.

Both the King and the Canadian Prime Minister have impressed the seriousness of the situation upon the Dominion. His Majesty spoke from London yesterday in an appeal for British Empire unity to "my people at home and my peoples across the seas who will make our cause their own."

The policy of the Canadian Government is one of "effective co-operation at the side of Great Britain," was the response made by Prime Minister Mackenzie King a few hours later, speaking from the capital here with three other cabinet ministers over the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's national network.

The extent of the co-operation, Mr. Mackenzie King added, will be decided by Parliament which opens an emergency session on Thursday.

Many House of Commons members and Senators have already reached the capital for pre-session caucuses.

Canada, declared the Prime Minister, "is a free nation, is joining her co-operation voluntarily." In closing his address, the Prime Minister said that "there is no home in Canada, no family, no individual whose fortunes and freedom are not bound up in the present struggle. I appeal to my fellow Canadians to unite in a national effort to save from destruction all that makes life itself worth living and to preserve for further generations those liberties and institutions which others have bequeathed us."

More concrete than words, the Government moved suddenly, too, to bring Canadian preparedness to wartime pitch. Following a Cabinet meeting Sunday, it was announced that the "Defence of Canada Regulations" had been placed in effect, empowering the Government to de-

Destroyers Guard Fleet Rescuing Victims From First Atlantic Attack

Brief Reports Indicate that All Passengers and Crew Members, Except Those Killed in Explosion, Have Been Rescued from Liner Athenia, Montreal-Bound, Sunk by Torpedo from German Gunboat.

London, Sept. 4.—(P)—A rescue fleet, guarded by the guns of British destroyers, was reported officially to have saved all but the first explosion victims from the Montreal-bound Donaldson liner Athenia, torpedoed and sunk early today by a German gunboat in the open North Atlantic.

There were 1,347 passengers, mostly Canadians, and crew aboard. Bulletins from British Government agencies failed to give the number of dead. The main basis for hope was the announcement which the Athenia's master, Captain James Cook, wirelessed:

"Passengers and crew, except those killed by explosion, took to boats and were picked up by various ships."

This announcement was made by the ship's line and was confirmed by the Admiralty.

Officials did not announce from what ship Captain Cook's message was sent, nor were the names of the rescue ships made known.

It was established officially, however, that British destroyers were on the scene of the disaster, 250 miles west of Inishtrahull, Northern Ireland.

The Ministry of Information said that of 311 United States passengers, all fleeing European war zones, 65 had boarded the 13,591-ton ship at Belfast, 101 at Liverpool, and 143 from Glasgow.

Presumably the Athenia was torpedoed around midnight, Greenwich time (8 p.m. Sunday, E.D.T.) while running without lights in a smooth sea.

Added to this was the fact that rescue operations were aided by the Athenia's more than adequate lifeboat seats. There was reported to have been lifeboats for 1,830 persons.

Sinking Of Athenia Violent Reminder Of War's Outbreak

Attack on Canadian-Bound Liner Served to Place News of Actual Outbreak of War in Background for London Journals—Admiralty Moves Quickly to Enforce Blockade on Shipments to Goods to Reich.

London, Sept. 4.—(P)—Great Britain was actually at war with Germany today.

First concrete indication that hostilities had begun came yesterday to Britons today in the announcement that the Montreal-bound liner Athenia, with 1,400 Canadian and American passengers aboard, had been sunk by a German submarine.

Newspapers flared the news that the German, under-water prowler had struck at the refugee-laden liner 200 miles off the Hebrides at dawn.

(Dispatches from Paris said the French army, navy and air force already were engaged in "operations." The theatre of war was not disclosed. Neither was it known whether British forces were yet engaged on the continent.)

Admiralty orders for control of contraband and searches of ships indicated Britain's blockade of Germany was put into force quickly following the declaration of Prime Minister Chamberlain yesterday that a state of war existed between Great Britain and Germany.

The state of war began at 11 a.m. (6 a.m. E.D.T.) when a British ultimatum to Germany to call her armies out of Poland expired without an answer from Berlin.

Seven hours later a similar French ultimatum to Germany expired. Thus, Great Britain and France were joined as they were in 1914, this time in fulfillment of pledges to help Poland defend her independence.

Plans, carefully made against the fearful day that Mr. Chamberlain said could be no longer avoided, were rushed into force.

A high war command was named. The King approved appointment of Viscount Gort as commander-in-chief of the British field forces; General Sir Edmund Ironside as chief of the Imperial General Staff; and General Sir Walter Kirke as commander-in-chief of the home forces.

The Prime Minister installed a war cabinet.

Winston Churchill was made First Lord of the Admiralty, the post he held at the outbreak of the Great War.

War restrictions, to protect life, conserve precious supplies and maintain order and morale, were put into immediate effect.

Twice within the first eighteen hours after the Prime Minister's historic proclamation, the air raid alarm sirens sent Britons scurrying to shelter. But they proved false alarms both times, and "all clear" signals sounded without signs of dreaded enemy warplanes.

The first alarm came hardly before Mr. Chamberlain had finished speaking the words from the cabinet room of 10 Downing street that told the British Empire "this country is at war with Germany."

Men with flags, whistles and steel helmets—Britain's diligently rehearsed Air Raid Precaution wardens—sprang into the streets. Pedestrians fled for shelter.

Seventeen minutes later at 11:00 a.m. a long clear note of the sirens ended the suspense, and the Air Ministry later explained an unidentified airplane off the south coast had proved "friendly."

In the early hours of this morning, a large area of England experienced the terror of an air alarm in the darkness of a blacked-out country at war. The first warnings screamed at 2:28 a.m. (9:28 a.m. E.D.T. Sunday), and the danger signal was not lifted until almost two hours later, at 4:12 a.m. (11:12 p.m. E.D.T. Sunday).

The Ministry of Information said the alarms were sounded over London and parts of the midland and northeastern counties. Cause of the alarm was unexplained. "No details are yet available," the Ministry said.

BANNER YEAR IS ENDED BY BEDFORD FAIR

Another in Long List of Eastern Townships' Exhibitions Ends After Three Successful Days.

Bedford, Sept. 4.—Another in the list of Eastern Townships' exhibitions—the Bedford Fair sponsored each fall by the Missisquoi County Agricultural Association—ended here Saturday after three days of intense activity in all departments and with large crowds at all times. A complete programme of attractions and harness racing was given Saturday afternoon, with the grandstand acts running in the evening. Saturday's crowd was considered better than average and the Fair was judged a complete success in every way. Fine weather added to the success enjoyed by the event.

Mrs. George Provost was the winner in the hope chest raffled off under the auspices of the Bedford branch of the O. O. D. E., of which Mrs. A. E. Chadsey is regent. A shawl raffled by the Catholic Missionary Society was won by Miss Lucinda Larocque.

H. R. Fadden, president of the Missisquoi County Agricultural Association, and P. Short, general superintendent of the exhibition, were untiring in their efforts to make the Fair one of the most successful in the history of the group.

deceptive as the words he spoke last September at the Sportsplatz: "We have no more territorial claims in Europe."

"Never has a Government sent its citizens to death on such futile pretexts. This war is completely futile. The territory and rights of the Germans were threatened from no direction. No one prevented occupation of the Rhineland, achievement of Anschluss (with Austria) and bloodless incorporation of the Sudeten in the Reich."

"All Germany's claims could have been satisfied as long as they remained just. Roosevelt offered you peace with honor as well as the prospect of material gain. Instead your government has condemned you to the massacre, the misery and the privations of a war you cannot hope to win."

"It is not we who were deceived, but you. Long years of iron censorship have concealed from you truths which were known even to non-civilized peoples. This censorship has imprisoned the soul of the German people in a concentration camp."

"How otherwise could one have dared to represent as hostile encirclement the collaboration of peoples who are friends of peace for the maintenance of that peace?"

"We cherish no hostility against you, the German people. Nazi censorship has ridden from you the fact that you have not the wherewithal to wage a long war. Despite the overwhelming burdens of taxation you are on the verge of bankruptcy. We and our allies have at our disposal immeasurable reserves, virile determination, armaments and food supplies."

"We are too strong to be shattered by attacks and we can fight you pitilessly until you are totally exhausted."

"You German people have right to demand peace now and at any time. We too want peace and we are ready to conclude it with any sincerely pacific German Government."

DRUMMONDVILLE FLOATING PUBLIC WORKS LOAN

Quebec, Sept. 4.—City of Drummondville, according to notice in the Quebec Official Gazette, will receive tenders up to September 19, for purchase of an issue of $106,500 in bonds, bearing interest at 3 1/2 per cent, per annum.

The bonds will be redeemable annually, serially, in the course of a period of twenty years. The purpose of the loan is for the carrying out of certain public works.

Edmonton, Sept. 4.—Cancellation of the annual meeting of the House of Bishops and various boards and councils of the Church of England in Canada, scheduled to begin in Vancouver on Friday, was announced here yesterday by Archbishop Derwyn T. Owen of Toronto.

Polish Forces Abandon Border Town In Face Of Superior German Attack

Warsaw, Sept. 4.—(P)—A communiqué from the Polish general staff today announced withdrawal of Polish forces from Czechochowa, a town of 120,000 in Southwest Poland, after a strong offensive by greatly superior German forces using tanks and heavy artillery.

During the struggle for the town, twenty miles from the border, there was a sharp conflict between Polish planes and a German armored unit, official reports said. The planes bombed and machine-gunned the troops, dispersing two columns and inflicting heavy casualties. The Poles admitted loss of four planes.

The resurgence of popular courage, inspired by the entry of Great Britain and France into the war as allies of Poland, was spurred anew by the claim of official sources that Polish troops had penetrated German territory for the first time.

The official reports said fast-moving Polish cavalry on Saturday had recaptured Leszno and Rawicz, Posen province towns occupied by Nazi forces in their initial attacks, and drove the invaders back across the border. The Polish vanguard, it was said, had advanced into German Pomerania, north of Litvsk, Kalisz and Tuszcz.

Statement On Price Board

Ottawa, September 4.—(P)—By authority of Labor Minister Rogers, the Labor Department last night issued the following statement on the newly-created Prices and Trade Board to prevent wartime profiteering.

Labor Minister Rogers announced provision had been made today by the Dominion Government by Order in Council under the War Measures Act for additional safeguards against any undue enhancement in domestic prices of foods, fuel or other necessities of life. A wartime Prices and Trade Board has been established with powers to be exercised where required for regulation of the operation of manufacturers and dealers in necessary domestic commodities.

In order to provide some machinery to deal with conditions of immediate concern, the Government has taken over for this work for the present and immediate future, the services of three senior officers of the Government service.

The members of the board are H. B. McKinnon, Commissioner of Tariff, who will be chairman, David Sim, Commissioner of Excise, and F. A. McGregor, Commissioner of the Combines Investigation Act.

The wide powers available to the Board are indicated to be largely reserved powers which will be promptly invoked if there should be any necessity to check unjustified trade demands in connection with classes of necessary goods. The new Board, if it should deem it necessary for the prevention of excessive demand or excessive prices in regard to any necessary of life, may license manufacturers or dealers, fix maximum prices, or take steps to require equitable allocation of quantities of goods among distributors and regular distribution to consumers. Such powers would not be exercised, however, without the specific approval of the Governor in Council. It is not anticipated that there would be any early necessity for the employment of measures of this type.

With the passing of this Order in Council it is an indication of the Government's intention to prevent or lessen the manufacture, supply or distribution of any necessary of life, or to sell or offer for sale any necessary of life at a price higher than is reasonable. The provisions against the offences of charging excessive prices or hoarding include the following:

"No person shall sell or offer for sale any necessary of life at a price that is higher than is reasonable and just, and if a maximum price has been fixed by the board for the sale of such necessary of life, that price shall be conclusively deemed to be reasonable and just."

"No person shall unduly prevent, limit or lessen the manufacture, production, transportation, sale, supply, or distribution of any necessary of life."

While the Government has taken these immediate steps to provide against any eventuality, Mr. Rogers announced that three senior civil servants had been appointed to the board. They are: Hector B. McKinnon, Commissioner of Tariff; David Sim, Commissioner of Excise; and F. A. McGregor, Commissioner of the Combines Investigation Act.

DEATH OF EASTMAN BOY RULED ACCIDENTAL

Death of Roger Lefebvre, five-year-old Eastman boy, who passed away in the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital from injuries received in an accident last week, was ruled accidental by a jury under Coroner Maurice Delorme. The inquest was held Saturday evening.

Lefebvre was struck by a car a week ago Sunday and died last Friday.

LARGE NUMBER AT BROME FAIR ON FIRST DAY

Holiday Crowd and Ideal Weather Today Combined to Make Success of Opening of Brome County Event.

Brome, Sept. 4.—A large holiday crowd and weather that could not have been more favorable combined today to make a decided success of the opening day of the annual Brome County Fair sponsored jointly by the Brome County Agriculture and Horticulture Societies.

Although entries in the varied departments of the Fair are limited to exhibitors of Brome County, the number of these bids fair to surpass the total received at other regional exhibitions throughout the Eastern Townships. Much interest was displayed today when judging in several departments was started.

Many residents of centres other than those in Brome County took advantage of the long Labor Day week-end to visit the Fair and hopes for a record first-day crowd were high as visitors continued to stream through the gates all day long. The many attractions offered in the Midway were being patronized at an early hour.

Highlighting tomorrow's programme will be the grand parade to be headed by a detachment of Frontiersmen and the Waterloo Concert Band, under the direction of George Young. These will be followed by the pick of the county's saddle horses and ponies and draft horses and carriage teams. The various breeds of pure-bred cattle raised in Brome County will also form a major part of the parade.

The grandstand performance this afternoon was well attended and was featured by the Skating Eights, Dr. Bernard and his Trained Elephants, the White Brothers, Mac's Trained Steers, the Joyous Cyclo-manians and many other attractions. Especially well received was Leo Domingue and his trained colt.

During the afternoon several races were run off in front of the grandstand.

UNITED STATES WEST PREPARED FOR HOSTILITY

American Farm Belt, Although Expressing a Dread of War, Adopts Fatalistic Attitude U.S. Entry Is Inevitable.

By W. B. RAGSDALE, (Associated Press Staff Writer) Blue Earth, Minn., Sept. 4.—(P)—A dread of war, yet what almost amounts to a fatalistic acceptance of the idea that sooner or later the United States will become involved in the European conflict, is plainly evident in the American farm belt.

Bankers, politicians, farmers, store clerks, filling station workers all expressed the same general thought: "We don't want war but we probably will be in there fighting before it is finished. Our sympathies lie naturally with England and France. Just let London and Paris be bombed, beat a few drums and a tremendous war sentiment can be whipped up overnight."

The United States middlewest has been following the developments of the last two weeks with sharp interest. In Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Minnesota, thoughts have been turned more pointedly toward the onrush of European happenings and the possibility of a domestic nature, be it politics or even the prices for a bumper corn crop.

Rogers pointed out that there are ample stocks of foods, fuel and other necessities now available in Canada, and adequate sources for further supplies. Consequently it is considered that any necessity for invocation of the wider powers which are provided in the Order in Council will be extremely limited.

Maintenance of normal business practices by those engaged in production and supplying necessities of life during an emergency is assumed normal regularity of supply, adequate distribution, and to avoid any of price increases, also is expected to minimize the need for direct Government control of trade.

Where regulations by the Board may be found to be required, to assist in maintaining efficient distribution of any commodity, the co-operation of manufacturers and distributors will be sought in the establishment and execution of these regulations. Mr. Rogers emphasized that in all fields of trade and industry, whether subject to special war-time regulations or otherwise, reasonable business conduct in the public interest will be expected. If profiteering is attempted by its severe penalties are available for its severe suppression.

The board's powers will not be applied to commodities which are regulated as to supply or price by other existing Government agencies. Farmers and gardeners are exempted from the provisions of the Order in Council in respect to their own production of any agricultural product. The Minister made it clear also that there was no intention of having this Board take over the functions of any existing agencies such as the Wheat Board and the Salt Fish Board. Its best results could be obtained if it effected the fullest co-operation with such bodies, and in general made use of existing government facilities rather than set up new machinery to displace or duplicate them.

One of the duties of the Board will be to confer with manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers with the view to enlisting their co-operation in ensuring reasonable prices, adequate supplies and equitable distribution of the necessities of life. Another will be to arrange, wherever possible through existing agencies, for the assembling of statistical data regarding prices, costs, stocks of goods, volume of production, productive capacity and related matters.

The Minister repeated the statement which he made in his Sunday afternoon broadcast to the effect that a committee of representative citizens is being set up to act in an advisory capacity to the Board. This committee will be chosen with a view to seeing that all the varied interests in the country—producers and consumers, men and women, employers and employed—have opportunity to keep the board informed of popular response to measures which may be proposed or adopted and to give the board the benefit of their advice and generally to keep the central organization in closer contact with the general public.

SHERBROOKE UNITS SPEED MOBILIZATION

Sherbrooke Regiment, 35th Battery Are Encamping At Local Exhibition Grounds

Young Men, Eager and Determined to Serve Their King and Country, Began to Flock to Colors in Eastern Townships Over Week-End as Grim Spectre of War Became a Reality—Barracks Being Constructed on Fair Grounds for Accommodation of Men.

With the grim spectre of war now resolved into a reality, young men, eager and determined to serve their King and country, began to flock to the colors in this city over the week-end as Sherbrooke's military units rushed ahead with mobilization and speeded efforts to ensure the security of the city and surrounding district.

Similarly, units throughout the Eastern Townships began active war preparations, the armory bustling with activity as peace-time soldiers left behind them their "war games" and marched to the defence of their King, their country and the British Empire.

And while the youth of the Eastern Townships stood ready to answer the call, others in various spheres of life, too old, infirm or for other reasons unable to don khaki, announced their readiness to service in whatever capacity might prove most useful.

The Sherbrooke Regiment (machine gun) under the command of Lieut.-Col. Lee M. Watson, is to go into camp on the Exhibition Grounds, where barracks will be constructed for the men. At present the regiment is recruiting only for cooks, butchers, clerks, orderlies and batmen, and volunteers in these services are needed, it was learned from authorities this morning.

Also in camp on the Exhibition Grounds will be the 35th Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, under the command of Major Crawford Grier. Recruiting in the Battery is now under way and the response yesterday was very satisfactory, officers of the unit stated. The 35th Battery was ready for recruiting by ten o'clock Saturday night and since that time hundreds of "recruits wanted" placards have been placed in the city and district.

To enlist in the Battery applicants must be between the ages of eighteen and forty-five and physically fit. A recruiting office has been set up in the Belvidere Street Armory and another at Lennoxville, at the store operated by Donald R. Clark, Main street. The Lennoxville office was opened at eleven o'clock yesterday morning.

Only the Canadian Parliament can decide whether troops can be sent from the Dominion to serve Overseas. In the event of it so doing, the Active Service Force will be the first body of soldiers to be sent, it is believed.

According to an official list of the units which are now mobilizing in the Sherbrooke area as announced by headquarters in the Montreal

SHIP'S SINKING BRINGS TRAGEDY OF WAR NEARER

Several Local Residents, Vacationing in Old Country, Possibly Passengers on Athenia, Sunk Today Off Scottish Coast.

News of the sinking of the Cunard White Star liner Athenia two hundred miles off the coast of Scotland brought the tragedy of war directly home to anxious citizens of Sherbrooke as well as hundreds in all parts of Canada and the United States.

Among those who had been vacationing in the Old Country and possibly passengers on the sunken passenger boat were Mrs. John Imrie, of this city, and her daughter, Mrs. M. Lothrop, of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniels, of Short street, and Mr. and Mrs. John Stein, of Montreal, parents of John Stein, formerly employed here with the Bell Telephone Co., and at present here with the Sherbrooke Regiment.

Mrs. James Donald, formerly Miss Marjorie Smith, niece of J. K. Edwards, of Sherbrooke, is on her way to Canada from India, but relatives believe she has not left the Old Country yet, since a few days ago word was received she would probably sail on September 8.

Mrs. George Hume and granddaughter, Nancy Hume, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Hume, of this city, were, according to last word received here, sailing for Canada aboard the Empress of Britain, which was scheduled to leave Southampton Saturday.

Only word received from official circles is that most of the 1,400 passengers on the boat were saved. Every effort is being made to identify those rescued.

Military District yesterday, Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke have not yet received orders to mobilize. The unit, however, is doing guard duty at the 54th Armory on Belvidere street.

WAR IS TERMED BATTLE OF SIN AGAINST RIGHT

Local Churchmen Hold Democracies Defenders of Christianity and Ideals of Civilization—Express Loyalty to Britain.

Man is marching against his brother today in a battle in which Christianity is pitted against godlessness, Rev. Canon H. R. Bigg, rector of St. Peter's Anglican Church, told the Record today when asked for a statement in the light of the history-making developments of the last few days that have brought about a state of war in Europe.

"Germany has officially announced herself a godless nation," Canon Bigg declared, "and Hitler claims himself more important than God to the people of the Reich."

"To me, the war sends the forces which stand for God and righteousness against a power seeking the overthrow of religion and all for which it stands."

Mr. Phillips Desranleau, Bishop-Coadjutor of Sherbrooke, interviewed at the Bishop's Palace today, refused to comment on the situation, although visibly moved by the startling and tragic developments.

"Nothing could be clearer than the issue which has forced the democracies to declare war on Germany," Dr. A. H. McGee, principal of the University of Bishop's College, said today, "it is the Nazi rulers' contempt for all that we mean by Western Civilization and their deliberate attempt to dominate the world by force."

"There can be no freedom, security or peace so long as national leaders, afflicted with such lunacy, are in control of Germany. The German people must be liberated from their bondage and iniquitous and inhuman tyranny must be defeated."

"Every possible effort has been made by Mr. Chamberlain and other democratic leaders to avert this conflict."

"No Christian in possession of all the facts can doubt where the right lies. With a courage worthy of our Christian profession we must play our part until the victory is won."

Rev. J. R. Graham, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, issued the following statement: "Since the battle of words has failed to convince the Nazi regime, there is only one course open to freedom-loving people, and that is the use of force."

"Now that the Motherland is involved in war, I believe it the duty of every loyal Canadian to serve not only in the ranks but by every form of self-denial that will further our cause."

Speaking in St. Patrick's Church yesterday morning, Rev. Canon J. C. McGee stated it was against all principles of Christianity for one man to set himself up as a supreme leader in complete disregard of the authority of God, and condemned the lawless manner in which the Nazi governmental machine has been operating in recent years, and more particularly, in the last few days. Declaration of war by the democracies was inevitable, Canon McGee maintained.

"Much as one regrets it, the sheer inevitability of the war becomes clearer as day succeeds day," Rev. Fred Williams, of Trinity United Church, stated today.

"More it is seen not as a diplomatic failure but as the clash of ideals that are mutually antagonistic and exclusive. The ideals of democracy and Nazism simply cannot live together in peace in the same world."

"As perhaps never before, we are fighting against a destructive ideal rather than against a nation as such, and

"Since God is God and right is right: And God and right must win, To doubt would be dishonor—To falter would be sin."

LAUDS CHAMBERLAIN'S EFFORTS
Toronto, Sept. 4.—(C)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and his advisers "did everything humanly possible to avert the calamity," General George L. Carpenter, newly-elected Commander-in-Chief of the Salvation Army, said yesterday on learning of the declaration of war. The Prime Minister had made secure for himself and Great Britain an enduring place in the world's esteem through his struggle for peace.

The Commander-in-Chief is in Toronto closing his tenure as Territorial Commander for Canada and Newfoundland. Before he left London arrangements had been made to carry on in training camps and war areas social service as in the Great War.

The fighting troops will find the Salvation Army's spiritual and physical aid available in full measure. General Carpenter remarked that the Salvation Army deprecates war as an infringement of everything beautiful in life.

BAPTIST HEAD GIVES VIEWS
Winnipeg, Sept. 4.—(C)—The conviction that justice and right will triumph and a fervent hope that human suffering will be spared wherever possible were expressed yesterday by Professor Watson Kirkconnell, president of the Baptist Union of Western Canada, when he learned that a stage of war exists

Record Providing Special Bulletin Service

As another indication of its eagerness and readiness to keep local citizens informed upon the latest developments in the war situation, the Sherbrooke Record has gone to additional trouble and expense to provide an up-to-the-minute bulletin service throughout the day and early evening.

War news flashing over the Record's Canadian Press teletype machines will be bulletined in front of the Record building at regular intervals, and the News Department (telephones 164 and 94) will gladly co-operate in keeping Sherbrooke citizens advised of latest developments.

Close Guard Is Maintained On City's Strategic Points

As a result of a special meeting of the City Council held late Saturday morning a police guard has been mounted over Sherbrooke's supply of dynamite and the municipal water reservoirs while close watch is being kept on power plants and strategic points within the city. The move to prevent possible attempts at sabotage was decided by the Aldermen at the conclusion of discussions held behind the closed door of the caucus room in City Hall.

Director Arthur Maranda, of the Municipal Police, was present at the gathering and afterwards supervised arrangements for guards at the stores and reservoirs.

Some members of the City Council were of the opinion that all of the sub-stations in the municipally-owned chain of power plants should also be placed under guard but the majority of the Aldermen thought these precautions were not necessary. It was decided, however, that only persons with passes issued by the city would be permitted entry to public utilities.

This morning Pro-Mayor J. W. Genest and Director Maranda personally supervised erection of "no trespassing" signs at power stations and other municipal properties. They also inspected the guard placed at the reservoirs and at the city's stone crushing plant where dynamite is kept.

FRONTIERSMEN GUARD MAGOG MILL

Magog, September 4.—A detachment of Frontiersmen is keeping watch over the Magog mill of the Dominion Textile Company in order to guard against possible attempts at sabotage.

The Frontiersmen are under the command of Capt. Ed. Kingsland and are working in conjunction with the R.C.M.P. officials at Sherbrooke. Saturday evening Sergeant James Lemieux, of the Mounties, supervised organization of the guard which is concentrated especially at the power plant that supplies the mill's electrical requirements.

Customs Receipts For August At Higher Peak Than In 1938

Increase of Fifty Per Cent in Import Duties Contributes to Upswing in Revenues—Collections of Sales and Excise Taxes Below August, 1938, with Excise Duties at Same Level.

In spite of the depressing influence on business of the events leading up to the European war, collections at the local Customs Office during August were almost $6,000 ahead of the same month last year, it was revealed in statistics issued today by W. L. Greenland, Collector of Internal Revenue.

Total receipts in Mr. Greenland's department during the past month amounted to $107,680.89 as compared with $101,735.69 during August, 1938. Revenues for the five months ending August 31st were $504,667.70, $30,525.16 below the corresponding period last year.

An increase of almost fifty per cent in import duties was the contributing factor to last month's upswing in revenues. $43,311.47 was the amount received in duties on imported goods compared with $28,969.29 last year, a difference of $14,342.18.

Receipts from sales and excise between Great Britain and Germany "While war is a grave tragedy to the nations, there is no question as to where justice and right stand in this struggle against ruthless aggression," he said.

"We hope and pray that the conflict may be brief, the outcome on the side of right and that human suffering may be minimized in this time of great calamity."

FORMER GENERAL STAFF CHIEF VOLUNTEERS
Ottawa, Sept. 4.—(C)—Major General A. G. L. McNaughton, former Chief of the General Staff and at present seconded to the National Research Council as chairman, reached Ottawa early yesterday from the United Kingdom. General McNaughton had accompanied to England a group of Canadian industrialists who placed before the British War Office the situation of Canadian industry and voiced their wish to co-operate with Great Britain in the manufacture of war supplies.

Asked if he had been instructed to report back to the Defence Department, McNaughton said he had placed his services at the disposal of the head of the state, to be used in any capacity which the Prime Minister deemed most advisable.

"At this time it is the duty of all Canadians to serve their country to the utmost of their usefulness," said General McNaughton.

ARCHBISHOP URGES CALM
Edmonton, Sept. 4.—(C)—Archbishop Derwyn T. Owen, of Toronto, Primate of the Church of England in Canada, in a statement issued here urged Canadians to pray for mercy, strength and guidance during the war between Great Britain and Germany.

The statement: "Stand steady. Another hour of great testing has struck. Once more the awful processes of destiny are laid bare before our eyes. As Christians we know that the God whose heart has been revealed in Jesus Christ is working his purpose out, even through the mistakes and wickedness of them. We must seek to unite ourselves with that purpose."

As Christians and churchmen, let us by private and public prayer seek mercy, strength and guidance for ourselves and our fellow men.

Let us keep the faith as our fathers did.

In such a time the remembrance of the history of our people brings strong comfort. They turn to God in faith and repentance. They stood together facing whatever dangers came, and they carried through to the end. So must we now.

PLEDGES UNITED CHURCH LOYALTY
Ottawa, Sept. 4.—(C)—Rev. Dr. J. W. Woodside, Moderator of the United Church of Canada, said in a statement issued yesterday that "members and adherents of the United Church of Canada were not unprepared for the fateful announcement by Prime Minister Chamberlain that a state of war now exists."

"Our commitments together with the events of the past few days seemed to make this inevitable," the statement continued. "We have labored and prayed that peace and freedom might prevail throughout the earth."

HOLIDAY FINDS CANADA MAKING READY FOR WAR

Confidence and Calm Follow Days of Tension as Canadians Complete Preparations for United Effort Against Enemy.

Labor Day, the holiday heralding the end of summer, found Canadian industry completing the country's readiness for war. There was a noticeable letdown in the tension of the past few days, however, and with relaxation came confidence and calm.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, in a nation-wide broadcast, asked his fellow countrymen to unite in a national effort. But prior to this there already had been a rush to enlist, military authorities at Toronto saying the response there was "wonderful."

The Red Cross Society and the Canadian Corps Association rushed their organization plans for war-time activities. It was announced 2,500 nurses have enrolled with the Canadian Nurses' Association and the Red Cross for service overseas.

Ministers in the various churches exhorted the people to face the future with courage and faith. Ven. Archbishop Frederick George Scott of Quebec, famed war-time padre, told a Welland audience there must be "complete unity" in Canada. He added: "We shall win, no matter how long the war may last."

Different national groups, including Czechs, Slovaks, Ukrainians and Poles, pledged their loyalty to Canada at meetings yesterday.

The International Hospital Congress, scheduled for Toronto, and the Canadian Good Roads convention at Quebec were among the many gatherings postponed indefinitely. The Fredericton exhibition was cancelled. The Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, catering to capacity crowds during its first week, will continue for the remainder of this week.

There was a possibility that sport schedules, particularly those of rugby football, would be interrupted by the enlistment of players. The international tuna angling matches to have been held off Wedgeport, N.S., were cancelled.

Adding a humorous note to the somber situation was the appearance of three "fighting" men wanting to enlist at Fort Erie, Ont. Hailing from Buffalo, they were Al Greenwood, former welterweight boxing star, Edward (Tiger) Jankowski, heavyweight champion of the Civil Conservation Corps camps, and Carl Hanson, 32-year-old boxing promoter.

Labor Day sports programmes, in most cases, were to be carried out as scheduled. An intermediate baseball final on Prince Edward Island was called off when many of the players enlisted.

Newsletters published Sunday extras and huge throngs gathered around the newspaper offices to read the bulletins and talk of only one subject—war.

LENOXVILLE

Rev. P. R. Matthews' sermon at the Lennoxville United Church yesterday morning was based on the subject "A Time for Faith." A mixed quartette, composed of Miss Frederick Fox, Miss Maude Cota and Messrs. Frederick Fox and Allen Willard sang Emerson's "From Shore to Shore." The evening services, which were discontinued during the summer months, were resumed last evening, when Rev. Mr. Matthews' preached on the topic, "Eternity in the Heart" and the lovely soprano voice of Miss Norma Hunting was heard in "Hear My Prayer" by Will James.

Miss Barbara Fletcher won the driving competition held by the ladies of the Lennoxville Golf Club on Saturday afternoon, with Miss Caroline Taylor in second place. Later the usual enjoyable tea was served at the clubhouse, with Mrs. J. C. Layton, Mrs. H. Moffatt and the Misses D. Wiggitt, M. Sutherland and D. Ellis as hostesses. A two-halves mixed tombsone competition is being held this afternoon.

Mrs. H. F. Pierce and daughter, Adrienne, and little Miss Shirley Kerr, of Westmount, were holiday week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pierce, at their residence on Belvidere street.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Campbell returned to Montreal today after spending the summer months visiting Mr. Campbell's mother and sister, Mrs. J. B. Campbell and Miss Jean Campbell, at their residence on Belvidere street, and Mrs. Campbell's parents, Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Quiboun, at their home in Waterville.

Mr. Alex Healey and his sister, Mrs. Martha Silver, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., were calling at the home of Miss Anna Robertson on Clough avenue over the week-end, en route to Windsor Mills, to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. J. B. Cox, which took place yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brunz, of South Portland, Me., spent the Labor Day week-end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Pegz at their home on Rock avenue.

Prof. and Mrs. H. C. Burt and family have returned to their residence on Belvidere street after spending their summer vacation at their cottage, "Fernbank," on Lake Massawippi.

Citizens Face World Struggle In Spirit Of Determined Calm

Hundreds Watch Record Bulletin Boards for Latest News of War—Churches Crowded Yesterday as Congregations Ask God's Blessing on Empire Cause—Labor Day Finds Little Holiday Spirit in Air and Majority of Residents Remain in City.

With war at last a grim reality and with local units mobilizing, the power station, the city reservoir, dynamite stores, railway bridges and other key points, residents of Sherbrooke are today realizing that what the world dreaded has come true—armed conflict between mighty forces.

Since the fateful hour yesterday morning when Prime Minister Chamberlain announced that the British Empire was at war with Germany, local citizens have watched developments with intense interest. Members of the Record staff were at their posts yesterday and the public was informed of the latest news in the swiftly-changing pattern of events by means of a bulletin service. Hundreds gathered in front of the Record building during yesterday and again today, anxious for news of the war, and telephones in the editorial rooms rang unceasingly.

Today even more interest was shown as residents inquired as to the fate of the passengers aboard the Athenia, torpedoed off the Scottish coast by a German ship. Exaggerated radio reports of the number of lives lost resulted in numerous calls to the Record from persons seeking accurate information concerning the disaster.

Although shocked by the outbreak of war, Sherbrooke citizens in general were taking the situation calmly, with an "it had to come" attitude. In local armories this morning, where mobilization is proceeding rapidly, officers and men were ready and prepared for what may come in the days that lie ahead.

On Saturday night, before the actual declaration of war but when it was realized that the declaration could only be a matter of hours, entertainment spots in the city and district were crowded with patrons, especially younger men and their wives or sweethearts, seeking relief from troubled thoughts. An air of forced gaiety hung over the entertainment places, however, and to more than one table girls whose men will be the first to go could be seen bravely trying to hide tears that persisted in coming.

Sherbrooke churches were crowded yesterday as congregations joined in prayers for a quick and lasting peace. Still finding it hard to believe that war had come to the British Empire because of the "senseless ambitions" of one man, thousands flocked to church to seek comfort through God and ask His blessing on the Empire's cause.

Meanwhile, preparations went steadily ahead for the defence of the city and surrounding district as the Sherbrooke Regiment and the 35th Battery mobilized. Key points in the city were guarded and everything done to minimize the dangers of sabotage.

Because of the seriousness of the situation on Saturday, decision was made then by the management of the Record that the paper would be published today as usual, although Labor Day has always been observed as a holiday.

There was little holiday spirit in the air today for anybody and the majority of local residents stayed in the city, keeping in touch with events.

Through the crowds which gathered on the street, in stores, restaurants and private homes ran an undercurrent of quiet resolution that came what may Canada and Canadians will play their part in the struggle that lies ahead.

As Britain Declared War

London, Sept. 4.—(P)—Following is the text of Prime Minister Chamberlain's proclamation that Great Britain is at war with Germany:

This morning the British Ambassador in Berlin handed to the German Government a final note stating that unless we heard from them by 11 o'clock (British Summer Time, 6 a.m. E.D.T.) that they were preparing at once to withdraw their troops from Poland a state of war would exist between us.

I have to tell you now that no such undertaking has been received and in consequence this country is at war with Germany.

You can imagine what a bitter blow it is to me that all my long struggle to win peace has failed.

Yet I cannot believe that there is anything more or anything different that I could have done that would have been more successful.

Up to the very last it would have been possible to arrange a peaceful and honorable settlement between Germany and Poland but Hitler would not have it.

He had evidently made up his mind to attack Poland whatever happened and although he now says that he put forward reasonable proposals which were rejected by the Poles that is not a true statement.

The proposals were never shown to the Poles nor to us and although they were announced in the German broadcast on Thursday night Hitler did not wait to hear comment on them but ordered his troops to cross the Polish frontier next morning.

His action shows convincingly that there is no chance of expecting that this man will ever give up his intention of using force to gain his will.

And he can only be stopped by force.

We and France are today in fulfilment of our obligations going to the aid of Poland who is so bravely resisting this wicked and unprovoked attack on her people.

We have a clear conscience.

We have done all that any country could do to establish peace. But a situation in which no word given by Germany's ruler could be trusted and no people or country could feel itself safe has become intolerable.

And now we have resolved to finish it. I know you will all play your part with calm courage. At such a moment as this the assurance of support we have received from the Empire are a source of profound encouragement to us.

When I have finished speaking certain detailed announcements will be made on behalf of the Government.

These need your close attention. The Government have made plans under which it will be possible to carry on the work of the nation in the days of stress and strain which may be ahead of us.

These plans need your help. You may be taking your part in the fighting services or as a volunteer in one of the branches of civil defence. If so you will report for duty in accordance with the instructions you receive.

You may be engaged in work essential to the prosecution of the war, for maintenance of the life of people in factories, in transport and public utility concerns and in the supply of the necessities of life.

If so it is of vital importance that you should carry on with your job. Now may God bless you all and may he defend the right. For it is evil things that we shall be fighting, against brute force, bad faith, injustice, oppression and persecution. And against them I am certain that right will prevail.

London, Sept. 4.—(P)—(Passed by British Senate)—The King and Queen heard Prime Minister Chamberlain's war declaration yesterday over the radio in their private apartments at Buckingham Palace.

Prime Minister King's Address

Ottawa, September 4.—(P)—Following is the text of the address given by Prime Minister Mackenzie King over the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation national network and which was repeated in French by Justice Minister Lapointe:

For months, indeed for years, the shadow of impending conflict in Europe has been ever present.

Through these troubled years, no stone has been left unturned, no search unexplored in the patient search for peace.

Unhappily for the world, Herr Hitler and the Nazi regime in Germany have persisted in their attempt to extend their control over other peoples and countries, and to pursue their aggressive designs in wanton disregard of all treaty obligations, and peaceful methods of adjusting international disputes.

They have had resort increasingly to agencies of deception, terrorism, and vengeance. It is this reliance upon force, this lust for conquest, this determination to dominate throughout the world, which is the real cause of the war that today threatens the freedom of mankind.

The fate of a single city, the preservation of the independence of a particular nation, are the occasion, not the real cause of the present conflict. The forces of evil have been loosed in the world in a struggle between the pagan conception of a social order which ignores the individual and is based upon the doctrine of might, and a civilization based upon the Christian conception of the brotherhood of man with its regard for the sanctity of contractual relations and the sacredness of human personality.

As President Roosevelt said on opening Congress on January 4: "When comes a time in the affairs of men when they must prepare to defend not their homes alone, but the tenets of faith and humanity on which their churches, their governments, and their very civilization are founded. The defence of religion, of democracy, and of good faith among nations is all the same fight. To save one, we must make up our minds to save all."

This belief is the position in which all nations that cherish free institutions, individual liberty and social justice find themselves today.

I need not review the events of the last few days. They must be present in the minds of all. Despite her unceasing efforts to preserve the peace of Europe, the United Kingdom has today, in the determination to honor her pledges and meet her treaty obligations, become involved in war.

Canada Answers Call

This morning, the King, speaking to his peoples at home and across the world, appealed to all, to make their own contribution to the cause, which Britain again has taken up. Canada has already answered that call. On Friday last, the Government, speaking on behalf of the Canadian people, announced that in the event of the United Kingdom becoming engaged in war in the effort to resist aggression, they would, as soon as Parliament meets, seek its authority for effective co-operation by Canada at the side of Britain.

As you are aware, I have all along felt that the danger of war was such that Parliament should not be dissolved, but be available to consider any emergency that might arise.

Parliament will meet Thursday next. Between now and then, all necessary measures will be taken for the defence of Canada. Consultations with the United Kingdom will be continued. In the light of all the information at its disposal, the Government will then recommend to Parliament the measures which it believes to be the most effective for co-operation and defence.

That Parliament will sanction all necessary measures, I have not the least doubt. Already, I have received from the Leader of the Opposition and from representatives of the other parties in the House of Commons, assurances of their full appreciation of the gravity of the situation, and of their desire to see that such measures are adopted as in the present crisis, will best serve the national interest.

Our first concern is with the defence of Canada. To be helpful to others, we must ourselves be strong, secure, and united. In anticipation of a state of war the Government has already availed itself of the provisions of the War Measures Act, to take essential measures for the defence of our coast, our land and our people. As has already been announced, the militia of Canada, the naval service and the Air Force are already on active service.

This morning these measures were supplemented by others including the putting into effect of the "Defence of Canada Regulations." Measures have also been taken to prevent profiteering in the necessities of life. Of the latter measures my colleague, the Minister of Labor, will speak to you in a moment.

In what manner and to what extent Canada may most effectively be able to co-operate in the common cause is, as I have already stated, something which Parliament itself will decide. All I need to add at the moment is that Canada, as a free nation of the British Commonwealth, is bringing her co-operation voluntarily. Our effort will be voluntary.

The people of Canada will, I know, face the days of stress and strain which lie ahead with calm and resolute courage. There is no home in Canada, no family, and no individual whose fortunes and freedom are not bound up in the present struggle. I appeal to my fellow Canadians to unite in a national effort to save from destruction all that makes life itself worth living, and to preserve for future generations those liberties and institutions which

March 31.—Great Britain pledged British-French aid if Poland's independence is threatened and she fights.

May 5.—Poles refuse German territorial demands, but offer to negotiate.

August 18.—Germany takes military possession of Slovakia.

August 21.—Plans for German-Soviet non-aggression pact announced, one day after trade agreement is reached.

August 23.—Hitler reported to have demanded all Polish territory once German-ruled, threatening revision if Poland resisted. Far-reaching British-French military measures taken.

August 25.—Hitler sends Britain his ultimatum. (His proposal, ultimately revealed, was for immediate return of Danzig, which he since has obtained through proclamation. He offered a plebiscite in the corridor in a year's time to determine by simple majority whether Germany or Poland should have it. If Germany should get the corridor, Hitler would give Poland a narrow extraterritorial strip to the port of Gdynia.)

August 27.—Hitler sends note to Daladier designed to justify German policy.

August 28.—Britain replies to Hitler in a closely guarded statement.

August 29 and 30.—Diplomatic exchanges continued in an atmosphere of dwindling hope for peace.

September 1.—Germany invaded Poland.

September 1.—Chamberlain, in Parliament, accused Hitler of "treasonable ambition," disclosed Great Britain and France had sent Berlin a "last warning."

September 2.—Chamberlain, revealing Mussolini had suggested a five-power conference, said Britain was willing to participate only if Hitler took his advancing troops out of Poland. Britain gave Germany until the next day to desist.

September 3.—Great Britain, receiving no answer, declares war on Germany.

ROGERS' STATEMENT

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—(P)—Following is the text of the statement made by Labor Minister Rogers over the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation national network and which was repeated in French by Pensions Minister Power:

In the plans of the Government to meet the present emergency, steps have been taken today to provide safeguards against any undue increase in prices of food, fuel, or other necessities of life, and to ensure adequate supplies and equitable distribution through the existing organization of wholesale and retail trade.

Provision has been made by Order in Council for the immediate establishment of a war-time Prices and Trade Board which will co-operate with those engaged in production, manufacture and distribution throughout Canada in any regulation deemed necessary to maintain efficient operation in the marketing of goods.

The board will consist of three members having wide powers to license and regulate operations of manufacturers and distributors of any necessity of life if circumstances should so require. It is not the intention that this board shall interfere with the Wheat Board, Salt Fish Board and other boards with similar functions, for the time being at least.

The formation of this board is essentially a precautionary measure. The co-operation of business men and of consumers in ordering no unnecessary loads will be placed upon channels of distribution which would tend to produce needless temporary additions to costs and selling prices.

One immediate and practical expression of the same and public-spirited outlook of the Canadian people at this time is available to every man and woman of the Dominion. If we remain calm and carry on our daily tasks and household duties as normally as possible we shall ourselves provide an effective safeguard against possible abuses of speculation and profiteering.

A committee of representative citizens is being set up to act in an advisory capacity to the board. This committee will be chosen with a view to seeing that all the varied interests in the country—producers and consumers, men and women, employers and employed—have opportunity to keep the board informed of popular response to measures which may be proposed or adopted and to give the board the benefit of their advice and generally to keep the central organization in close contact with the general public.

In this time of national emergency the Government is confident that it can rely on patriotic citizens to co-operate for the common good. At the same time it is resolved to apply whatever penalties may be necessary to curb profiteering and hoarding, and ensure a proper equality of sacrifice and opportunity for our people.

Lille, France, Sept. 4.—(CP-Havas)—Achille Cardinal Lienart, Archbishop of Lille, yesterday addressed a pastoral letter to the faithful of the Archdiocese, denouncing "the injustice for which the present leader of Germany makes himself responsible."

France, he said, would enter the war "strong in the righteousness of her cause and resolved to reduce to impotence the unjust aggressor."

Chamberlain Outlines Position

London, Sept. 4.—(P)—Following is the text of Prime Minister Chamberlain's statement to the House of Commons:

When I spoke last night to the House I could not but be aware that in some parts of the House there were doubts or bewilderment as to whether there had been hesitation or vacillation on the part of the Government.

If I had been in the same position as members and not in possession of all information I might have felt the same.

We were in consultation all day yesterday with the French Government and we felt that the intensified action which the Germans were taking against Poland allowed of no delay in making our position clear.

Accordingly we decided to send our ambassador in Berlin instructions which he was to hand at nine o'clock this morning to the German Foreign Secretary which read as follows:

"Sir, in a communication which I had the honor to make to you on September 1, I informed you on the instructions of His Majesty's principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs that unless the German Government were prepared to give satisfactory assurances that the German Government would suspend all aggressive action against Poland and were prepared promptly to withdraw their forces from Polish territory, His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom would without hesitation fulfil their obligations to Poland."

"Although this communication was made more than twenty-four hours ago no reply has been received. German attacks on Poland have been continued and intensified."

"I have accordingly to inform you that unless, no later than 11 a.m. British Summer Time, today, September 3, satisfactory assurances to above the effect have been given by the German Government and have reached His Majesty's Government in London, a state of war will exist between the two countries as from that hour."

No such undertaking was received by the time stipulated and consequently this country is now at war with Germany.

I am in a position to inform the House that, according to arrangements made between the British and French Governments, the French Ambassador in Berlin is at this moment making a similar demarche accompanied also by a definite time limit.

The House has been made aware of our plans and as I have said we are ready.

It is a sad time for all of us but for none is it sadder than for me.

Everything I had worked for, hoped for, and believed in during my public life has crashed into ruins.

There is only one thing left for me and that is to devote what strength and powers I have to forwarding victory of the cause for which we have to sacrifice ourselves. I cannot tell what part I may be allowed to play but I trust I may live to see the day when Hitlerism has been destroyed and restored and liberated Europe has been re-established.

Let no man or woman thoughtlessly or falsely talk of America sending its armies to European fields. At this moment there is being prepared a proclamation of American neutrality. This would have been done even if there had been no neutrality statute on the books, for this proclamation is in accordance with international law and with American policy.

This will be followed by a proclamation required by the existing Neutrality Act. I trust that in the days to come our neutrality can be made a true neutrality.

It is of the utmost importance that the people of this country, with the best information in the world, think things through. The most dangerous enemies of American peace are those who, without well-founded information on the whole broad subject of the past, the present and the future, undertake to speak with authority, to talk in terms of glittering generalities, to give to the nation assurances of prophecies which are of little present or future value.

I myself cannot and do not prophesy the course of events abroad—and the reason is that because I have of necessity such a complete picture of what is going on in every part of the world, I do not dare to do so. And the other reason is that I think it is honest for me to be honest with the people of the United States.

Condemns Profiteering

I cannot prophesy the immediate economic effect of this news of war on our nation but I do say that no American has the moral right to profiteer at the expense either of his fellow citizens or of the men, women and children who are living and dying in the midst of war in Europe.

Some things we do know. Most of us in the United States believe in spiritual values. Most of us, regardless of what church we belong to, believe in the spirit of the New Testament—a great teaching which opposes itself to the use of force, of armed force, of marching armies and falling bombs. The overwhelming masses of our people seek peace—peace at home, so in other lands which will not jeopardize peace at home.

We have certain ideas and ideals

Paris, Sept. 4.—(CP-Havas)—Following is the text of Premier Daladier's broadcast speech to the French nation last night:

Frenchmen and Frenchwomen: Since dawn of September 1st, Poland has been the victim of the most brutal and cynical of aggressions. Frontiers were violated. Civilians are being bombed. Her army is resisting the invaders heroically.

The responsibility for the bloodshed rests entirely on the Hitler Government. The fate of peace was in the hands of Hitler: He has chosen war.

France and Great Britain multiplied their efforts to save peace. This morning they once more made pressing representations at Berlin, addressing to the German Government a last appeal to reason and asking it to halt hostilities, and to open peaceful negotiations. The Reich met us with a refusal.

It has refused already to reply to all the men of goodwill whose voices were raised in recent days in appeals for world peace. It wants destruction of Poland so that it can then rapidly assure its domination over Europe and impose vassalage on France.

I greet with emotion and tenderness our young soldiers who are going to accomplish now, the sacred duty which we ourselves have accomplished. They can have confidence in their leaders, who are worthy of them, and who have once before led France to victory.

The cause of France is mingled with that of justice and that of all peaceful and free nations. It will be victorious.

Frenchwomen and Frenchmen: We are waging war because it was forced upon us. Each one of us is at his post on the soil of France, on this soil of liberty, where respect for human dignity finds one of its last bastions.

You will join all your efforts in the profound feeling of union and brotherhood for the salvation of the fatherland. Vive la France!

President Roosevelt's Speech

Washington, Sept. 4.—(AP)—The text of President Roosevelt's broadcast message to the United States last night follows:

Tonight my single duty is to speak to the whole of America.

Until 4.30 this morning I had hoped against hope that some miracle would prevent a devastating war in Europe and bring to an end the invasion of Poland by Germany.

For four long years a succession of actual wars and constant crises have shaken the entire world and have threatened in each case to bring on the gigantic conflict which is today unhappily a fact.

It is right that I should recall to your minds the consistent and at times successful efforts of your Government in these crises to throw the full weight of the United States into the cause of peace. In spite of spreading wars I think that we have every right and every reason to maintain as a national policy the fundamental moralities, the teachings of religion and the continuation of efforts to restore peace—for some day, though the time may be long, we can be of ever greater help to a crippled humanity.

It is right, too, to point out that the unfortunate events of these recent years have been based on the use of force or the threat of force. And it seems to me clear, even at the outbreak of this great war, that the influence of America should be consistent in seeking for humanity as far as it is possible to do so, the continued use of force between nations.

It is, of course, impossible to predict the future. I have my constant stream of information from American representatives and other sources throughout the world. You, receiving news through your radio and your newspapers at every hour of the day.

You are, I believe, the most enlightened and the best informed people in all the world at this moment. You are subjected to no flood of news, and I want to add that your Government has no information which it has any thought of withholding from you.

Warns Against Rumors

At the same time, as I told my press conference on Friday, it is of the highest importance that the radio and the press use the utmost caution to discriminate between actual verified fact on the one hand, and mere rumor on the other.

I can add to that by saying that I hope the people of this country will also discriminate most carefully between news and rumor. Do not believe of necessity everything you hear or read. Check up on it first.

You must master at the outset a simple but unalterable fact in modern foreign relations. When peace has been broken anywhere peace of all countries everywhere is in danger.

It is easy for you and me to shrug our shoulders and say that conflicts taking place thousands of miles from the continental United States, and, indeed, the whole American hemisphere, do not seriously affect the Americas—and that all the United States has to do is ignore them and go about our own business. Passionately though we may desire domestic peace, we are forced to realize that every word that comes through the air, every ship that sails the sea, every battle that is fought does affect the American future.

Let no man or woman thoughtlessly or falsely talk of America sending its armies to European fields. At this moment there is being prepared a proclamation of American neutrality. This would have been done even if there had been no neutrality statute on the books, for this proclamation is in accordance with international law and with American policy.

Kidney Acids Rob Your Rest

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—lie awake and count sheep. Often the blame is on "nerves" when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons from the blood. If they are faulty and fail, poisons stay in the system and sleeplessness, headache, backache often follow. If you don't sleep well, try Dodd's Kidney Pills—for half a century the favorite remedy.

Dodd's Kidney Pills

ECZEMA

Relieves itching quickly, thoroughly heals the skin, a most effective treatment for Eczema and other skin troubles. A record of 60 years.

Hockey And Football Heads Are Undecided

Michael Stenson, President of Red Raiders, Discusses Future of Provincial Hockey League in Light of War Developments—Officials of Athletics Gridiron Squad to Meet this Afternoon to Probe Situation.

The future of hockey in the Provincial League this winter is now undecided as a result of the state of war now existing between the democracies and the powers of totalitarianism in Europe, the Record was informed this morning by Michael Stenson, president of Sherbrooke Hockey Club, while it is not known whether or not this city will be represented in gridiron wars.

Mr. Stenson expressed the opinion that the hockey circuit would operate if possible, but naturally would be dissolved if the players on the various teams were called for service overseas.

It was pointed out by the Red Raiders head that the situation abroad would cause players planning to cross the seas to play for teams in Europe to change their plans and stay at home and that possibly squads in the Provincial League would benefit by the addition of performers who otherwise would be unavailable.

President Stenson announced today that Henry "Hark" Harris and Roger Cormier, familiar figures with Sherbrooke ice outfits, have signed their contracts to play with the Red Raiders again this year. Bastarache, Conny Dion, "Guidoo" Roy, Harris and Cormier are now practically certain starters, while word is being awaited from George Bell as to his plans for the coming campaign.

Clint Benedict has not sent word to headquarters yet about the men he will bring here in a short time.

Officials of the Athletics football team are meeting at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon to decide their course of action. It had been planned to decide whether or not Sherbrooke would be represented in a proposed five-team provincial intermediate league and to name delegates to a meeting in Montreal tomorrow night.

Late developments will probably make for discussion tonight as to whether the team will be able to operate either in a league or as an independent outfit with many of the players placed on active service in defence of Canada by a ruling passed by the Dominion Government.

ENGLISH FOOTBALL SUSPENDED

London, Sept. 4.—(Cable) Official announcement was made today that the English Football League has ordered suspension of all football. Players' contracts were automatically suspended.

LITTLE GIANTS GUARD LEAD IN INTERNATIONAL

Jerseys Wallop Syracuse 3-1 to Sweep Series While Buffalo's Second-Place Bisons Split with Montreal.

Going into the final week of the regular International League campaign, the four-game lead Jersey City Giants hold over the field looks big.

Little Giants haven't clinched the pennant yet, although they took a long step in that direction yesterday by walloping Syracuse Chiefs, three to one, to sweep their three-game series while Buffalo's second-place Bisons could get only an even break in a doubleheader against Montreal.

Newark's Champion Bears finally moved into a fourth-place tie with Syracuse yesterday while Rochester, by conquering Toronto, one to nothing, cut Buffalo's second place margin to a single game.

Buffalo went down before Montreal, seven to one, in the opener, but came back to take the second game, two to nothing.

After Newark Bears had hammered out a fifteen to nine decision in the opener, they had to be content with a four to four tie in the second game when darkness halted hostilities after seven innings.

Umpire Declares Yankees Winners 9-0 Over Cronin-men in Second Game of Boston Doubleheader to Discipline Unruly Fans.

Lots of jests have been made that opponents of the world champion Yankees should forfeit their games and be done with it, but it was an ironic joke that this should actually happen to the one team that can cope with them.

After Boston Red Sox had won their seventh straight game from New York yesterday, twelve-eleven, Umpire Cal Hubbard forfeited the second half of a doubleheader, nine-nothing, to discipline 27,000 fans who littered Fenway Park at Boston with straw hats, pop bottles and newspapers in protest against high jinks on the diamond.

Joe Kraskauskas, Washington's unpredictable southpaw from Canada, checked a three-hitter to stop Philadelphia Athletics six to one. Six-hit hurler by Thornton Lee enabled Chicago White Sox to beat the Detroit Tigers, eight to one, in the first game of a double-header, but the Tigers won the nightcap seven to two.

Johnny Allen struck out ten and spread eight hits for Cleveland to beat St. Louis Browns, six to two. Paul Derringer got his eighteenth triumph with a five to nothing shut-out on five hits against Chicago Cubs.

Another veteran, Carl Hubbell, stopped Brooklyn Dodgers on eight hits as New York Giants won, seven to one. John Lanning of Boston Bees gave only five hits to beat the Phillies, four to three, and teammate Joe Sullivan bettered him with a four-hitter in taking the nightcap, six to two.

St. Louis Cardinals swarmed over Pittsburgh Pirates for twenty hits and a fourteen to six victory in one game, then took the second, three to nothing, on Bob Weiland's five-hit elbowing.

Playoff Berths Are Decided In Provincial Ball Circuit

Granby Red Sox Gain Fourth Position Automatically When Sorel Loses 6-3 to Quebec Athletics — Three Rivers Hands A's Double Setback in Playoff to Decide First Place, Necessitated by Quebec's Win Over Last Year's Champions.

Playoff berths in the Provincial Baseball League all were settled during the week-end when Granby Red Sox automatically gained fourth place by Sorel's loss in the last game of the schedule and Three Rivers defeated Quebec Athletics in a best-of-three series to decide first position.

Quebec's six to three victory over Sorel Saturday in the concluding scheduled contest eliminated Sorel and raised the Athletics into a tie with Three Rivers for the top berth. The Trifluviens downed Quebec five to nothing and fifteen to four, to take the tie-breaking series yesterday in two straight games, however.

Sorel, needing a victory to gain a tie for the last playoff berth with Granby, lost out at home to Quebec. Winning three to nothing going the seventh frame, Hebert weakened and the Athletics clubbed him from the mound. They continued on relief hurler Kimball for a five-run rally that gave them the verdict.

Paying the first game for the head position at home, Three Rivers banked Quebec behind the six-hit hurling of Joe Dickinson. The Trifluviens walloped the same number of hits off Duncan but bunched them better, scoring two runs in the sixth inning and three in the seventh.

Three Rivers clinched the berth at Quebec last night. They walloped twenty base blows off Glenn Leihardt and Art Lepine, scoring three runs in the first inning, two in the fourth, one in the fifth, six in the sixth and three more in the last two frames.

Jim Skelton hurled the triumph for the Trifluviens, allowing Quebec five hits that were good for three runs in the second frame and only one more over the rest of the route.

CANADIAN DAILY NEWSPAPERS THE BACKBONE OF BOVRIL ADVERTISING!

A quality product, plus continuous advertising over a period of fifty years, have made Bovril a household word throughout Canada and, in fact, the World. Here is what Mr. W. J. King, Vice-President, Bovril (Canada) Limited says about advertising:

"We say without hesitation that the daily newspaper has been and still is the backbone and mainstay of all Bovril advertising campaigns.

"In our opinion, the daily newspaper provides the best medium for telling the consumer not only about our name and trademark but also the reasons why Bovril is good for people and the many ways in which it can be used.

"For these reasons we consider the daily newspaper practically indispensable; in fact, we would not consider any campaign complete unless the daily newspaper formed the major part of it."

This conclusion is shared by many other successful national advertisers of long and wide experience who find that for building sales through advertising, nothing takes the place of the daily newspaper.
