Britain Renews Appeal To Russians In Chinese Crisis

World News In Brief

New York. — (AP) — Dr. Adolph Magnus-Levy, 90, who introduced the method of determining basal metabolism and did important research on diabetes, died Sunday. Dr. Magnus-Levy taught and practised most of his life in his native Germany.

Hollywood. — (AP) — Harold Lloyd, Jr., 23, out of the air force only a week, was an route to England to resume a movie career. Young Lloyd had some movie and television work before his four-year air force service.

Buenos Aires. — (AP) — Argentine police have arrested another Roman Catholic priest on charges of disrespect to President Juan D. Peron. The priest, Father Hector Maria Monguillot of La Tablada parish, was taken into custody while on a speaking tour. Ten other Catholic clergymen have been arrested in Argentina since Peron started a campaign three months ago to combat what he called church influence in politics.

Chislehurst, England. — (Reuters) — Geary Gardner, owner of prehistoric caves running for miles under this village south of London, is planning to rent 8 x 10 foot spaces for £1 a year to people who would want shelter if war breaks out. During the Second World War the caves sheltered 1,500 persons a night.

Pinay, Ignoring Former Pledge, Seeking Cabinet

By HARVEY HUDSON

Paris. — (AP) — Antoine Pinay, a conservative who once said he would "never go back into that bear cage," sought support today for his second term as French premier.

The 63-year-old owner of a small-town tannery agreed Sunday night to try to form France's 21st post-war government, succeeding the cabinet of Pierre Mendes-France. Pinay told reporters he hoped to have his list of prospective ministers ready by Thursday.

Pinay headed the government for 9½ months in 1952. He won considerable personal popularity with his "save the franc" fiscal policy, which checked rising prices though it did not solve France's basic economic ills. Facing three confidence votes and considered certain to lose all of them, he resigned Dec. 23, 1952, and vowed never again.

Pinay tried again to form a government, however, during the record 37-day government crisis in the summer of 1953. He failed when the followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the Catholic MRP did not support him.

Says Canadians Lack Knowledge Of U.S. Affairs

Montreal. — (CP) — Just how well acquainted are Johnny Canuck and his shrewd Yankee cousin?

A. D. P. Heeney, Canadian ambassador to the United States, said today Canadians have a lot to learn about their southern neighbors.

The U.S. often had been accused of ignorance of Canada, but in recent years Americans, alert to economic promise, have learned a great deal about this country, said Mr. Heeney.

Increasingly there is an awareness of Canada's national and international position and importance... in fact, at all levels one encounters expressions of admiration for our country in terms which are often embarrassing.

Mr. Heeney's remarks were contained in the text of a speech issued to the press before delivery.

In a talk to the Women's Canadian Club, the ambassador said Canadians do not make sufficient effort to understand Americans.

"I wonder whether we have not tended... to proceed on an easy assumption we have not really scrutinized, the assumption that all Canadians, instinctively or automatically, know and understand Americans," he said.

There were various reasons for the "unobjective" view of Canadians. One of these was that "whether conscious or not, there is among Canadians almost a 'racial' memory of the days when Americans were thinking out loud of expansion northward, of the 'manifest destiny' of their country."

Canadians know little of the "American system, of the actual workings of the U.S. public institutions, the presidency itself, the Congress, the Supreme Court—the constitution itself. These are very different indeed from our own arrangements."

Canadians known "many intimate personal details" of prominent public figures in the U.S. and "some of their senators seem as well known to us as their actresses and athletes."

"... Because Canadians do not in general appreciate the many and fundamental differences between our systems of government, we often draw wrong conclusions as to the course of U.S. policy and misjudge the motives and intentions of Americans."

Mr. Heeney added: "Another reason perhaps why our understanding of things American may be less perfect than we think is to be found in the sources of information..."

The American scene is for the most part reported for Canadians by Americans, who are writing not for us at all, but for other Americans. The number of Canadian newspaper correspondents in the U.S. is increasing and will, I hope, increase a good deal more. Canadian Journalists can contribute better than anyone else to Canadian understanding of American affairs."

London. — (AP) — Foreign Secretary Eden said today Britain has asked the Soviet government to urge restraint on the Chinese Communists in the delicate situation now existing off the China coast.

Approaches were made on Jan. 28 by the British ambassador in Moscow, Sir William Hayter, Eden told the House of Commons. Eden himself has seen the Soviet charge d'affaires here.

Eden refused to be drawn into a detailed discussion of the moves, saying:

"Conversations are taking place between a number of governments and diplomacy must be given its chance to do some work about this..."

Eden rose in the House as news dispatches said that Chinese Communist anti-aircraft guns had fired on American Carrier-based jet planes screening the Chinese Nationalist evacuation of the Tachens islands.

Regarding this evacuation, Eden said:

"The government shares the hope, which has been expressed by the United States government, that these steps will contribute to a cessation of Communist attacks and to the restoration of peace and security to the west Pacific."

United Nations, N.Y. — (AP) — New UN Security Council moves on the Formosa cease-fire question hinged today on plans brought back from Washington by U.S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr.

Delegations recessed consultations over Sunday while they waited for a clue to U.S. intentions. Lodge announced after a Saturday breakfast with President Eisenhower that the U.S. program would be made known by midweek.

Victor A. Belaunde, Peruvian president of the council this month, said the talks today and Tuesday would determine when the next council meeting will be held. He said the weekend had produced no clear agreement on what the next step should be.

Taipei. — (AP) — Chinese Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek said today the evacuation and redeployment of his Tachen island troops were "positive preparations for the counter-attack against the Red mainland and not a negative stand."

Chiang, in a written statement said evacuation was a "painful decision" but the latest military developments had made the Tachens lose their military value. "The most important task of the government forces is to counter-attack the Communists and recover the mainland," Chiang said. "Under the present military situation our government forces, in order to conserve their counter-attack potential, should under no circumstance be allowed to be dissipated at such a time and place as the enemy might choose."

"To insure victory... our first duty should be to consolidate Taiwan (Formosa), Penghu the Pescadores and the other islands that shield them, such as Kinmen Quemoy, Matsu, etc."

London. — (AP) — T. S. Eliot, 66-year-old American-born poet and playwright, leaves London clinic today after a checkup. His condition is "quite all right," a physician said. Eliot had been in the clinic two weeks.

Britain contends that all the islands the Nationalists hold just off the China mainland — except Formosa and the neighboring Pescadores — belong to the Communists but Foreign Secretary Eden has warned the Reds against any attempt to seize the islands.

The nine-nation conference was reported relieved that the Chinese Nationalists, after a week of wrangling with the United States, had agreed to pull out of the Red-threatened Tachen islands.

The U.S. refusal to be more closely committed to defence of the other Nationalist-held coastal islands of Quemoy and Matsu was welcomed here.

Industry Attitude On Workless Hit

Hamilton, Ont. — (AP) — George Burt of Windsor, retiring president of the Ontario Federation of Labor, said Sunday employers are not trying to solve the unemployment problem but rather are taking advantage of it at the bargaining table.

The Canadian director of the United Automobile Workers, said the Ford and Massey-Harris Ferguson strikes could have been avoided but for this attitude.

Mr. Burt spoke at the final meeting of the three-day convention of the Ontario Federation of Labor. He was succeeded as president of the 20,000-member organization by Sam Hughes, assistant Canadian director of United Packinghouse Workers.

Dulles Faces New Fire On China Defence Pact

By LEE GARRETT

Washington. — (AP) — A week-end go-ahead on U.S. plans to aid in evacuating the Tachen islands posed new questions for State Secretary Dulles today as he prepared to ask Senate committee approval of a mutual defence treaty with Nationalist China.

The Nationalists announced the evacuation began Sunday night.

Orders sending the powerful U.S. 7th Fleet within range of Communist guns for the Tachen evacuation were issued Saturday amid expressed hopes for peace and a navy warning that any Red attack "will be considered as interference with the mission of the fleet."

Dulles, who returned Sunday night from a vacation in the Bahamas, faced almost certain questioning not only about that action but also about possible new cease-fire moves and the entire Far Eastern situation at a closed hearing before the Senate foreign relations committee.

U.S. Naval Task Force Is Covering Evacuation Of Tachen Island Group

Brutality Of Murder Stuns Cop

New York. — (AP) — A young woman graduate college student was found Sunday choked and stabbed to death in a dingy, sixth-floor Manhattan tenement.

"One of the most brutal murders I've ever seen," said Police Capt. William Schnabel. The body of Anne Yarrow, 23, was discovered by a friend who had gone home to South Carolina for 10 days and allowed Miss Yarrow to use the apartment in her absence.

Herta Payson returned to her frugal, sixth-floor lodgings to find the front door almost ripped from its hinges and the latch smashed. Her friend's mutilated body was sprawled on a mattress on the floor, clad only in a sweater and stabbed at least 40 times. No weapon was found.

There had been some kind of sexual assault. A neighbor told police of having heard screams around midnight, and another said the phone had rung in the Payson apartment around 3 a.m.

Police figured this ringing might have been a return call from Miss Yarrow's father, whom she had tried unsuccessfully to reach earlier in the evening. The father, Don Yarrow, a photographer, lives in Ventura, Calif.

Miss Yarrow's parents are divorced and her mother, now married to Ship Captain Alex Kaele, lives in Astoria, N.Y. The slain girl was a 1953 honor graduate of Guilford College near Greensboro, N.C., and had lived with her mother and stepfather until she recently took an apartment with two other girls in Brooklyn.

Miss Yarrow was a "very intelligent girl" who enjoyed music and reading and painted a little, said Miss Anny Lubene, 28, a social worker and one of her roommates in Brooklyn. Although she had occasional dates, Miss Lubene said, the slain girl did not regularly date any particular person.

She said Miss Yarrow had asked to use the apartment because she wanted to be alone after splitting up with a boy friend who knew the location of the Brooklyn apartment where she had been living.

By SPENCER MOOSA

Taipei, Formosa. — (AP) — A formidable U.S. Navy task force stood protectively around the Communist-threatened Tachens today covering the evacuation of some 30,000 Chinese Nationalist troops and civilians — while two Red torpedo boats cruised 17 miles away.

A patrol party of U.S. Marines went ashore. The evacuation was well underway tonight. Reports from the American ships were hours behind those reaching this Nationalist capital, but they indicated there was no Communist interference.

Low clouds dimmed the rocky shore. There was no sign of activity on Communist-held Yikiangshan, eight miles to the north of upper Tachen island.

Associated Press correspondent Jim Becker, aboard the flagship Estes anchored off the Tachens, reported "the Communist torpedo boats were spotted by air, but officers aboard the Estes said it is customary to see them in that area."

The torpedo boats made no sign of moving southward. Helicopters were hovering over the fleet. Signal blinkers flashed in the dim light.

Becker had sent this earlier report:

"Cruisers and destroyers bobbed at anchor in the choppy blue-green waters, within sight of the low, brown and craggy islands."

"Nationalist and U.S. Minesweepers combed a path through waters known to be infested with Communist-strewn mines, while underwater demolition teams probed the icy, angry waters for mines, obstructions and the ruins of wrecked ships."

A report from the Tachens evacuation fleet said an unidentified submarine had been sighted in the vicinity of a convoy. Radio silence was imposed and guns were manned.

It was also reported that the Chinese Communists on Tateng island fired four shells today toward Quemoy island, 350 miles south of the Tachens. The Nationalist Defence Ministry said it was a minor incident.

Nationalist sources reported an advance guard of U.S. and Nationalist forces got the evacuation under way Sunday night, while ships of the U.S. 7th fleet were still some distance away from the threatened island, 200 miles north of Formosa.

U.S. marine and navy shore parties totalling about 50 men are scheduled to go ashore today, along with U.S. military advisers from Formosa, Becker reported.

The first evacuation ships are not expected to arrive in Keelung harbor, Formosa, before Tuesday (late Monday, Canadian time).

Delay Broadcast Of Canadian Play

Springfield, Ore. — (AP) — The manager of a Springfield radio station announced Saturday that he is holding up the broadcast of "The Investigator," a recording of a radio play presented originally by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, because of a protest by the American Legion.

Glen Stadler, manager of station KRGA, said he interprets "The Investigator" as a satire of the investigative activities of Sen. Jos. McCarthy (Rep.-Wis.)

Let that Jack Larson, state vice-commander of the Legion, has asked him not to play the record because it is "somewhat subversive" and ridicules congressional investigations.

Famed Name Disappears From Army

Ottawa. — (AP) — Canada's Korean fighting force, the 25th Brigade, has been renamed the 4th, it was learned Sunday.

The redesignation of the force that left 400 dead in Korea added to feelings here that Canada will withdraw its last soldier from the Far Eastern country late this spring.

Informants said an indication that the 4th Brigade may become part of the 1st Infantry Division is the fact the brigade is scheduled to hold manoeuvres at Camp Gagetown, N.B., this summer with units of the division.

Only two of the 4th brigade's three battalions are in Canada. The 2nd Battalion, the Black Watch, is stationed at Aldershot, N.S., and the 4th Battalion, Canadian Guards, is at Ipperwash, Ont.

Still in Korea is the 2nd Battalion, Queen's Own Rifles. It is scheduled to come home in May, and there is a good possibility it won't be replaced.

If the Queen's Own are relieved, however, it likely will be by the 1st Battalion, the Black Watch.

The name 25th for the Korean brigade apparently was pulled from the air and since the army's brigades now are numbered from one, it is unlikely the name 25th will turn up again, in peacetime.

Canada's three other infantry brigades are the 1st in West Germany, the 2nd at Edmonton and the 3rd at Valcartier, Que. In addition, the army has a mobile striking force of three parachute battalions.

Wellington. — (Reuters) — A giant kingfisher towed three fishermen in a 14-foot dinghy about Tauranga harbor for five hours. The kingfisher, hooked on a 23-pound-test nylon braided line, finally towed the dinghy outside the harbor into the heavy seas, so the men were forced to cut the line for safety.

Health Minister Lauds Eisenhower Leadership

Washington. — (AP) — What is done now and in the next few years to achieve effective co-operation among nations will largely determine the future of human society, Canadian Health Minister Martin said today.

It would decide "whether the heritage of our children will be social chaos, economic disorder and military conflict or peace and lasting security from want and from fear."

The United States and Canada, he said, have shown by their close, neighborly relationship that national progress and development are not incompatible with international friendship.

He spoke to the Canada-United States conference on mutual relations.

His remarks were contained in a text of his address issued to the press prior to delivery.

Reviewing Canadian-U.S. defence co-operation, he said it was a melancholy thought that today, at the highest point in North American development, "we must again reckon with the possibility of a third and perhaps final world war."

Pilots Say Sabre Jets Beat MIGs

Tokyo. — (AP) — Two American jet fighter pilots who shot down a pair of cannon-firing Russian-built MIG-15s over the Yellow Sea reaffirmed today what the world knew for a long time — that Sabre-jets are far superior.

The MIGs will never compare with F-86 Sabrejet," said Lieut. Charles E. Salmon, 23, of Port Jervis, N.Y.

Capt. George F. Williams Jr., 31, of Austin, Tex., agreed.

Both pilots told a press conference of a dramatic five-minute battle with eight MIGs who jumped their patrol of 12 Sabre-jets and an RB-45 reconnaissance plane Saturday 40 miles southwest of Pyongyang, capital of Communist North Korea.

Both said there was absolutely no damage to any of the U.S. planes. They saw no markings on the attacking Red planes.

Williams said they had flown about 40 miles up the North Korean coast from their base at Osan and had turned south when the fight began.

"There was no warning," he said. "They came from above and behind us," and started firing.

Salmon took up the story: "I saw their tracers streaking past our plane, like red balls."

"They were firing from too far away. They dove past my flight and attacked the reconnaissance bomber. I rolled over on my back, slipped down to the left and rolled out on the tail of one of them. Both were firing at the RB-45."

"I fired five or six bursts and he started to smoke, he burst into flames and slipped off down toward the sea."

Williams, in a different flight of Sabres, said he saw the leading MIG come in fast. "I broke to the left, and got in position. I opened up and hit him. He began to burn."

The fliers said the other six MIGs had come in higher than the two shot down in flames, made a brief firing pass at the Sabres and the bomber, then fled to the north as the two lower MIGs were hit.

Williams rated the flying ability of the MIG pilots as "not so good," but added: "They weren't really so poor; we're just pretty good; the 335th Squadron is the best in the world."

This is the squadron which shot down more than 200 Red planes in the Korean war. It was the first encounter with MIGs for either pilot.

New Methods Cut Wounding Deaths

Montreal. — (CP) — The mortality rate for Canadian soldiers wounded in the Korean war was almost half that of the Second World War rate and one-third the First World War rate, the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps reports.

In an article in the current issue of the Canadian Medical Association Journal, the Corps said mortality in Korea was 34 for every 1,000 wounded. In the Second World War the rate was 66 deaths for 1,000 Canadian wounded and 114 per 1,000 in the First World War.

The decrease was attributed to speedy evacuation, armored vests, more abundant and varied antibiotics and improvement in resuscitation and treatment.

Health Minister Lauds Eisenhower Leadership

Washington. — (AP) — What is done now and in the next few years to achieve effective co-operation among nations will largely determine the future of human society, Canadian Health Minister Martin said today.

Reviewing Canadian-U.S. defence co-operation, he said it was a melancholy thought that today, at the highest point in North American development, "we must again reckon with the possibility of a third and perhaps final world war."

The events of the last 10 days (Formosa) had provided a grim reminder that the temperature of the international climate "may change with dramatic suddenness."

"But we cannot afford, either financially or psychologically, to turn our defence programs on and off in response to Communist moves," he said.

"Steady effort, constant vigilance and a tireless endeavor to negotiate from strength on outstanding differences, whenever possible, should be our watchwords."

Mr. Martin praised American leadership and particularly President Eisenhower's atom-for-peace proposal. Canada, he said, also is working with atoms for peace and this spring will become the third nation to begin work on an experimental atomic energy plant for the production of electric power.

If used for war, atomic power could wipe out life on this planet; for peaceful purposes, the possibilities were unlimited.

Mr. Martin said Canada would not attempt to meddle with U.S. tariff policy. But as an exporting nation whose biggest customer was the United States, he hoped the U.S. would stick to the principle of free trade.

The Doofer Family

By ALMA SIOUX SCARBERRY

VALENTINE STORY
It was evening at the Doofer's. The family was gathered in the living room in front of the fireplace. Daddie was popping corn over the fire. Mommie was knitting. Baby Jollie was asleep in her crib. Ooofie-Goofie was snoring with one eye open—so he wouldn't miss anything. Dollie was sitting at a little table making valentines for her friends. It was a happy scene. Dollie, cutting out a big red paper heart, begged her mother:
"Tell me a Valentine story, please Mommie. Tell me all about why we have Valentine's day."
"Is it a doofer?" Mommie asked, smiling.
"It's a doofer," Dollie jumped up, ready to do anything her mother asked her to do.
"All right! You doofer me the picking up of all that paper and ribbon and paste and scissors and things you've been using to make valentines. And I'll do for you a really, truly story."
Dollie started at once to pick up everything and put it into a big brown envelope—very neatly. Mommie began her story:
"Long, long ago," her voice was soft and sweet, "in ancient days the Romans held a great feast every February in honor of a god called Lupercus. The day was called 'Lupercalia.' It got its name from the many wolves in the forest. The Romans thought they must have a god to watch over and protect the shepherds and their flocks from wild beasts."
"On the feast day in honor of Lupercus, one of the games they played was the placing of a young girl's name in a box. The boy who drew the name of a certain girl accepted her as his lady love. The Christian priests did not want their peo-

Importance Of Nurturing Good Ideas Stressed At Local Holy Name Rally

Ninety per cent of the average man's creative ability is lost because he can't be bothered nurturing good ideas when he gets them, Stanley Engel, of Montreal, told members of St. Patrick's Holy Name Society and their wives last night.

Speaking at the banquet concluding the annual Holy Name rally held at the church hall, Mr. Engel was introduced by the newly-elected president, Charles Frost. He is a noted Montreal speaker, a Dale Carnegie instructor and a past president of the Montreal Debating League. In business he is a director of the Federal Press.

The topic of Mr. Engel's address was "Your Ivory Tower." Every one has an ivory tower where he can be by himself with himself, said the speaker. It doesn't have to be a building. Sometimes it is only the time of day when he can sit down and meditate. Some men get their ideas while riding on trains. One noted artist-farmer gets his inspiration while doing the farm chores, another famous writer has a cabin in the woods. But no matter what it is or where, every man's ivory tower is when or where he gets his creative ideas. Every one gets ideas, said the speaker, but 90 per cent of the time he discards them without a second thought because he can't be bothered pursuing them further.

Mr. Engel urged the Holy Name Society to get behind a movement to further classes for creative thinking in the schools. A mind trained to creative thinking visualizes, foresees and generates ideas, and the world can't get enough of a good idea, emphasized the speaker.

If only business men would detach themselves from their surroundings for one hour each day and meditate by themselves the results would be amazing, pointed out Mr. Engel. Nor should a man think he loses his creative ability after 30, he stressed. Imagination is ageless and a man reaches his peak at 50, provided of course he doesn't have physical aches and pains to occupy his mind.

Every one gets inspired now and then and has an ivory tower where he can retire to wait for that spark of inspiration that is not always easily forthcoming but is worth waiting for when it comes, stated Mr. Engel.

The speaker was thanked by Ed. Langevin, former secretary of the Society. Father Bernard Quinn, of Ottawa, said grace following the dinner and Msgr. R. Moisan gave the blessing before the meal.

Msgr. Moisan spoke briefly congratulating past president, Mr. Hoyer, on the good work he has done for the Society. He urged members and their wives to be active Catholics as the emphasis in the church is on the lay people who may play an important part in the work of the church.

Father Quinn, who was a guest of the Society in connection with the rally, also spoke briefly followed by Father Julian Clark spiritual advisor for the Society. Richard Hoyer acted as chairman during the banquet.

New members who were inducted into the Society at an induction ceremony in the church prior to the banquet are: E. C. Alsop, E. R. Lussier, B. Fortier, Lee Brown, Jacques Villeneuve, Jeffrey Ruel, John Branswell and Jack Ferrier.

Head table guests included Richard Hoyer, retiring president, Mrs. Hoyer, Stanley Engel, Msgr. R. Moisan, Father Bernard Quinn of Ottawa, Charles Frost, new president, Rev. Father Julian Clark, Ed. Langevin, former secretary, and Douglas Daniel, newly-elected secretary.

PROVINCIAL MINISTER RECEIVES DELEGATION — Hon. J. S. Expansion Of Tree Nurseries Will Receive Attention, Minister Claims

Some thirty members of the Eastern Townships Forestry Association were received by Hon. J. S. Bourque in his office at the Court House on Saturday morning. The purpose of the delegation was to ask for more nurseries and extensions to existing ones and also to ask the Minister for more forestry engineers in the region.

The delegation was headed by Paul Emile Cliche of Lake Megantic, president of the Eastern Townships group, who presented a six-page brief outlining the forestry situation in the Eastern Townships.

In reply to the request for more forestry engineers, Mr. Bourque said that he would be very glad to name more to the Eastern Townships if the group were ready to name candidates. He explained that forestry engineers just graduated prefer to enter the employ of a private company as the salaries offered are far greater than the government can afford to pay.

Mr. Bourque also promised that he would be glad to do as much as he can for the reforestation projects of the Association. He congratulated the group on the work they have done so far in educating and interesting the farmers of the region in reforestation projects.

The delegation told the minister that it was possible that the Southern Canada Power Company would sell their nursery at Drummondville very soon. Mr. Bourque said that he would study the situation as soon as an official announcement was made. He also promised that the Sherbrooke nursery would be enlarged in the near future.

First Bishop's Winter Carnival Proved Success

Lectures have resumed today at Bishop's University, after a four-day Carnival respite.

The snow sculptures have melted slightly out of shape in the warmer weather of the past two days; the tuxedos have been packed away, and the academic gowns donned again.

But Bishop's first Winter Carnival was a wonderful success, looked at from any angle — bigger and better things are definitely in the wind for next year.

On the sports picture, things couldn't have been arranged better. The hockey Gaitors overwhelmed the University of Sherbrooke pucksters 10-2 Friday night at the local Arena to cop the new Skinner-Nadeau Trophy. In presenting the trophy to team captain, Blair Whittemore, Dr. A. R. Jewett, principal and vice-chancellor of Bishop's paid tribute to Jean-Paul Nadeau, who donated the trophy for an annual match between Bishop's and the University of Sherbrooke; to the University of Sherbrooke hockey team who provided two hours of good entertainment to a large Arena crowd; and to the Bishop's Carnival Committee who had arranged the whole week-end.

The ice show before the game was also a tremendous success — Bishop's own Rockettes surprised and pleased all with their smart numbers, while soloists Ann Goode, Dick Nutter, Andree Dubois, Diane Montgomery and Di Young, and Claude Dubois added to a fine performance.

The basketball team came through with a fine win on Saturday afternoon against their arch-rivals, Johnson State Teachers' College, while Pete Phippen and this team of gymnasts provided half-time thrills.

The day-long winter outing at the Hillcrest Lodge on Friday was attended by well over 150 students and friends, who took part in a ski meet arranged by Jim Quares, skated, tobogganed, and skied informally. Top ski honors in the men's section went to John Pratt who won both the downhill and slalom events, while Nola Ryan copped the aggregate prize in the women's division, and won the women's downhill.

COOKSHIRE—

Commencing February 12th, 1955 the Cookshire Branch of the Bank of Montreal will be closed on Saturdays. To offset this change a special Friday night service will be given from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. starting the 11th instant.

Two Carnival casualties were reported during the day-long festivities. Freshman John Ridner sustained a shoulder separation skiing, while second year Divinity student Bob Calderwood is in the Sherbrooke Hospital recuperating from concussion, and cracked ribs sustained in a tobogganing accident.

The residents of Old Arts captured two honors in the snow-sculpturing contest on Saturday, according to the decision of the judges, Mrs. K. Baker, Prof. T. A. Judson, and Rev. Lewis Clarke, for their finely-worked giant ice Indian head. Second place went to the Fourth Floor Norton Hall residents for a colored effort depicting the staging of "Macbeth," this year's major play.

Mr. Clarke presented cups at half-time of the basketball game Saturday afternoon to Nick Powell, representing Old Arts, and Tom Stirling, representing Fourth Floor, Norton Hall. Carnival rejoicing reached its height Saturday night at the New Sherbrooke Hotel where the Carnival Ball was held, attended by more than 400 faculty members, alumni and students of the university. Music was supplied by Russ Meredith and his orchestra till midnight, after which private parties carried the Carnival spirit well into the dawn.

Yesterday was a day of rest — a well-deserved one for all concerned — but all agreed that justice had been done to Bishop's first Winter Carnival.

Accolades for the success of the carnival must go to Carnival chairman Hugh Welsford, and his hard-working committee of Bob Webster, Peter Morand, Richard Berryman, Jim Quares, Jim Anderson, Jim Williams, Michael Mather, Harry Cullen and Dolce Narizzano.

Local Woman Is Seriously Hurt In Motor Crash

A woman is in serious condition in the Sherbrooke Hospital today, while one man is in the Hotel Dieu, the result of a car-truck crash on the Magog-Georgeville road early Saturday evening.

Mrs. Bert Paquet, of 79 Metcalfe Street, Sherbrooke, the driver of the car, is suffering from a broken neck, while Don McGee, of Deauville, a passenger in the car, is in the Hotel Dieu with several broken ribs and cuts about the face. Maurice Bessette, the driver of the truck, owned by La Cooperative d'Electricite de Magog, was uninjured.

The accident happened early Saturday evening in front of the Lantern Inn on the Georgeville road. The collision occurred when the truck, travelling from Georgeville to Magog, being unable to stop on the slippery surface, crashed into the right side of the late model sedan, as it was backing out of the driveway.

Dr. J. L. Bergeron, of Magog, rushed the pair by ambulance to La Providence Hospital, in Magog, where they were later removed by Ledoux's Ambulance to the local hospitals. They were admitted at approximately nine o'clock.

Maurice Lecours, Provincial Police traffic officer of the district investigated the accident.

OLD RESIDENTS RETURN TO MAGOG

A Divided China Next?

Right now, optimists about a proposed UN cease-fire affecting Formosa and the Chinese coastal isles are hard to find. But if it did happen, there would be considerable change in the Far East situation.

Presumably a new stability would enter the picture, with Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists forces yielding up their fragile hopes of reconquering the Chinese mainland, and the Communists abandoning their predatory concern for Formosa.

Tensions that have gripped the area since Mao swept over the mainland in 1949 and Chiang retreating to Formosa would relax greatly. The atmosphere has been constantly supercharged by the threat that the Reds would thrust eastward in the hope of crushing Chiang, or Chiang would attempt to regain the mainland to the west.

But a substantial price would be paid for stability. In one more region of the earth, we would be accepting an unhappily divided situation as a most practicable solution to a difficult problem.

Already we have a divided Germany, a divided Austria, a divided Korea and Indo-China. Even for all the stability gained, there would be nothing to cheer about if massive China were to be added to the list of divided territories.

Millions of Chinese in China, on Formosa, or in more distant Asian lands would have to put hopes for a free China into cold storage. The great goal would inevitably become remote.

This way, freedom-loving Chinese would join the ranks of other divided lands to wonder when the world power struggle would cool off enough for them to become whole nations again.

Diplomats used to say that lands torn in two contain seeds of new war. But in today's curious stalemate which exists between Communist and non-Communist worlds, division is often resorted to as the best war preventative — immediate preventative, that is.

For the longer pull, it does seem fair to assume that the diplomats' old warning still holds good. There is no lasting confidence in arrangements which so poorly serve the aspirations of the peoples involved.

But total atomic war would serve them still poorer. It would appear better to defer the fulfillment of national dreams for even centuries, than to inherit a group of nations unified by H-bombs. For that would be the unity of annihilation.

Though divisions are not happy settlements, happiness is not everything. It won't necessarily buy survival, and that's what is at stake when evil governments and colossal destructive forces are placed side by side in the same turbulent era.

Trophy Room P-51

Vice-President Richard M. Nixon now has a trophy room in the Capitol. This is in addition to his vice-presidential suite behind the Senate Chamber and the suite assigned to him for his staff in the Senate Office Building.

The trophy room is P-51, on the second floor of the Capitol, referred to as "the floor." Into this hard-to-find room have gone some trophies of the Vice-President's trip around the world.

There's a set of gold spoons from Sydney, Australia, a silver vase from Iran, a set of model Indonesian houses in silver filigree, a set of ceremonial gavel mounted on the wall, and a collection of cartoons on his career — nice cartoons, of course.

We were just wondering when he'll mount his first "bore's" head.

Perish The Thought

Scientists have predicted that in about one year an electronic weather forecaster will be developed which is capable of giving weather forecasts up to 48 hours in advance, and far more accurately than our present human forecasters.

Obviously there's a gain here, but we can also foresee a loss.

Next to howling about the weather people like to complain about the weatherman. But what on earth can you say to a collection of wires and gauges?

What Other Papers Say

LIKE DOUGHNUT
(Sydney Post-Record)

The world's deepest well—a 21,484-foot hole near Bakersfield, Calif.—has been abandoned because it produced only water instead of oil. Loss on the venture will run more than $2 millions said a spokesman for the oil company. They just didn't know when to stop digging, which reminds one of the explanation, relative to a doughnut, of the difference between an optimist and a pessimist. Only in this case the optimists mistook the hole for the doughnut or did until they go down 21,484 feet. And that's their nightmare. We have one of our own.

EXPENSIVE FUN
(North Bay Nugget)

There won't be much flying done for pleasure until small planes are mass-produced and made available cheaply to the public.

Take North Bay, for instance. We've had an airport here since 1938, but the amount of pleasure flying done by the public has been almost nil. The purchase and operation of even a small aircraft is still beyond the pocketbook of the average citizen. Men with above-average incomes may be able to afford pleasure planes, but young men who might turn into future pilots certainly can't. Flying clubs are far too scarce.

There's still fun in flying, but it's expensive fun. That's the main trouble.

DISTANT FIELDS NOT SO GREEN!
(Ottawa Journal)

An editorial writer of the Calgary Albertan tells the sad story of his winter motor trip southwards in search of summer.

In Oklahoma he ran into a blizzard and 10 inches of snow—first in four years, said the natives. Kansas and Missouri had up to two feet of snow, and Northern Texas had its share. Western Texas gave the tourist a cold drizzle. Southern New Mexico had heavy rain—first in three years, said the residents. Icy roads in Southern Arizona, and the Grand Canyon area snowbound. Phoenix, "sunshine capital," was shivering.

Yuma, "supposed to be warmest and driest spot in the United States," was wallowing in cold mud. Heavy rains in the famous Imperial Valley in Southern California. Fourteen-inch blizzard in the hills back of San Diego. Snow north of San Francisco—first in eight years! An inch of rain in Los Angeles. Eight inches of ice and snow on Reno streets. Northern Nevada, Southern Idaho and Northern Utah buried in deep snow.

Having endured all this the writer came back eventually to Southern Alberta—to the balmy weather, the brightest sunshine, the most glorious skies of the whole trip. Which doesn't prove a thing of course except that good weather—and bad—is where you find it.

THAT FAT DADDY'S HOME!
(Milwaukee Journal)

It's comforting news to a great many of us to hear the views of Dr. Jean Mayer, Harvard faculty member, who says that it's time to stop criticizing fat people for overeating. Don't criticize, says Dr. Mayer—fat people just can't help it.

Still, comforting or not, we can't go along completely with Dr. Mayer's tendency to throw up his hands over the problem of fatness.

Criticism can do the job. Nothing can put a man on a diet and make him lose weight faster than judicious comments by a never loving and ever persistent wife who repeatedly points out that he no longer looks like the trim, jaunty guy she married.

Nothing, that is, unless it's a daily greeting by Junior as father comes in the door: "Mommy! That fat daddy's home!"

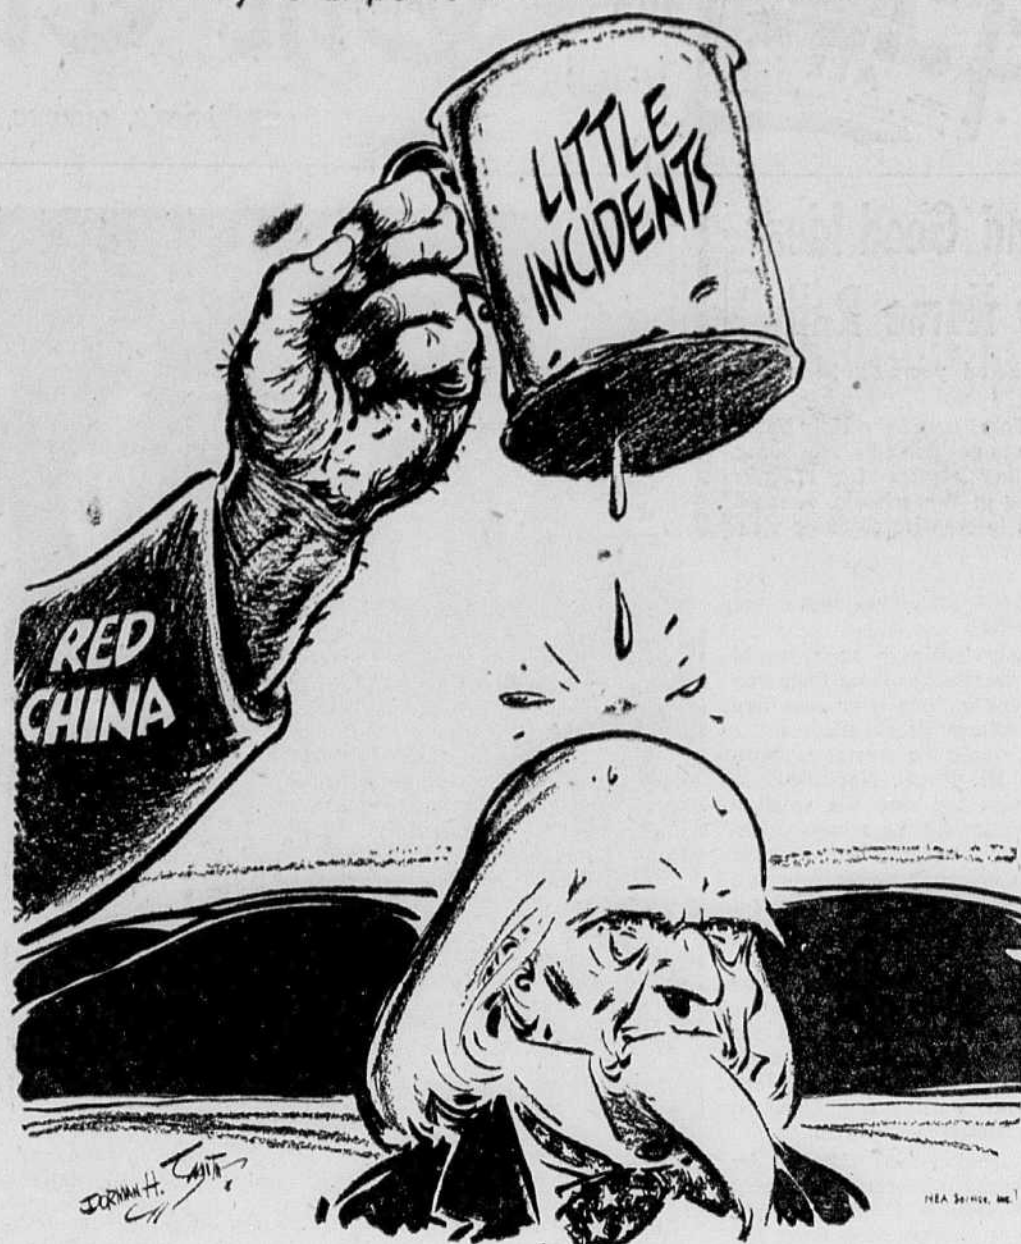

THE LENGTH OF BREVITY
St. Thomas Times-Journal

If there is one word that is almost criminally misused it is "brief" or "briefly," particularly as it is employed by the various forms of public speaking pests and annoyances.

Some long-winded drone will start off with "May I state briefly," or "I wish to indicate my stand in a brief remarks"—and then he goes on and on and on, elaborating each point, while those who have to stay and listen to him squirm on their chairs and wish they had brought along foam rubber cushions, or look at their watches to see if they've run down. And then they wonder why so many people sneak out of service club luncheons and other gatherings when the speaker starts getting on his feet! They're not the folk who should be chastised by the chairman.

Even in a democratic state there should be some limit imposed on freedom of speech of this painful kind.

Book Raises Wide Comment; It Shines With Scholarship - Winnie

By ARCH MacKENZIE
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

London—The "British Political Parties" by R. T. (Bob) McKenzie of Vancouver, a book examining distribution of power within the Conservative and Labor organizations, has evoked wide newspaper comment.

All praise his work. Most agree with his findings. Some critics have reservations about the range of his survey, contained in 600 pages and more than 1,000 footnotes.

McKenzie, a 37-year-old lecturer in political science at the London School of Economics, has two main general conclusions: That the Tory leader is by no means the all-powerful figure advertised, and that conversely the Labor party rank-and-file often fails to exert on the parliamentary group the power it is generally believed to wield.

In short, both parties are "overwhelmingly similar" in the distribution of power despite sharply contrasting origins—the Conservatives having added a mass organization and Labor having evolved from one.

McKenzie sets at rest the bogey raised in the last similar work 50 years ago, which held that the British parliamentary system was endangered by forces operating from without Parliament. McKenzie sees the chief danger now, as the Conservative Glasgow Herald puts it, lying in the "tightly-knit and rigorous efficiency of the party machines in and out of Parliament."

"British Political Parties" is clearly a classic, says The Economist, independent weekly journal, which objects mildly to the plenitude of footnotes.

"A remarkable book," says The Observer, independent Sunday newspaper, "within its limits it is thoughtful, scholarly, perceptive and a 'must' for every serious student."

Randolph Churchill, the Prime Minister's son, who reviewed the book for The Evening Standard, calls McKenzie a "brilliant political observer." Churchill adds:

"He has achieved one of the hardest of literary tasks, that of writing a definitive text book which shines with scholarship without being marred by pedantry."

Says the Manchester Guardian: "This thorough and well-documented work is of such evident value that it is hardly necessary to stress its merits. But, like all pioneering works, it suggests as many questions as it answers itself."

"Though he does much to uncover the relationship between parliamentary leaders and the various organs in their parties, he still leaves hidden the great deposits of power and influence which lie in the subsoil of politics."

Kingsley Martin, editor of the left-wing weekly New Statesman and Nation, says McKenzie deserves all the credit he is getting for quarrying out his elaborate book from mountains of material.

But Martin chides the University of British Columbia graduate for passing lightly over party finance, and the "fundamental question" of Labor party relations between politicians and union leaders.

"My fear is that this able book will mislead the next generation at home and abroad about the nature of the British political system," says Martin, who nevertheless foresees a "brilliantly successful career" ahead of the Canadian.

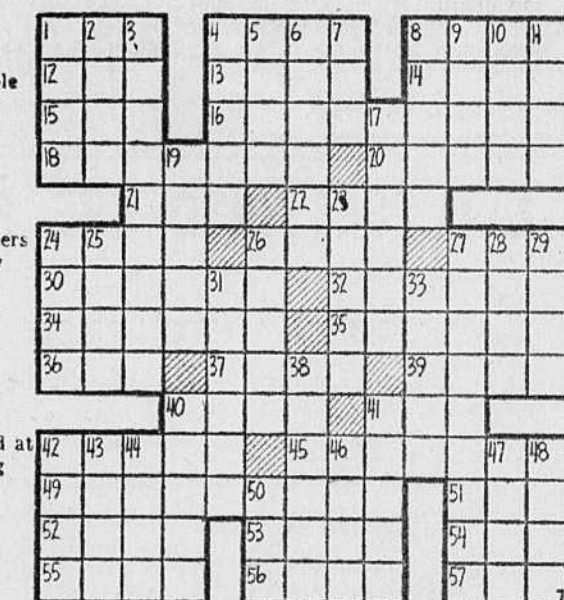

McKenzie came to Britain with the Canadian Army during the Second World War. He took postgraduate studies at the London School of Economics and returned as a lecturer several years ago. He is well known here as a radio political interviewer and discussion chairman.

When today's hand was played recently in a French team match, Pierre Albarran managed to fulfill the difficult slam contract in spades. Even with all the cards in full sight it isn't easy to make the slam, and Albarran had the task of winning 12 tricks with only the dummy and his own hand to guide him.

West opened the king of diamonds and continued at the second trick with the ace of diamonds. This continuation forced dummy to ruff, the best defense.

Albarran next led the ace of spades from the dummy, expecting an easy time. With a normal spade break he would be able to draw trumps and spread the hand. When West discarded a diamond on the first round of trumps, however, Albarran saw that he had a real problem on his hands.

After some thought he led the king of hearts from dummy and discarded the deuce of clubs from his hand. His next step was to lead dummy's ace of hearts and to discard thereon—the ace of clubs.

This spectacular play was absolutely necessary. Declarer continued by ruffing a heart, led a club to dummy's queen, ruffed another heart, and led a club to dummy's king. The two club entries to dummy were possible after South had discarded the ace of clubs, but would not have been possible if South had discarded two low clubs.

Now declarer could lead a club from dummy and ruff in his hand for the third time. This series of plays reduced South to two trumps and a diamond. It was then easy to lead the care-

U.S. Surpluses Major Problem

New Zealand Finds New Competition

By J. C. Graham
(Canadian Press Correspondent)

Auckland, N.Z.—For the first time in years, New Zealand is facing keenly competitive conditions in the marketing of her produce. And she sees as the chief threat to development of new outlets the huge food surpluses built up through price supports in the United States.

From the start of the Second World War in 1939 until recently New Zealand sold nearly all the food she was able to produce to the United Kingdom under long-term bulk contracts. The world shortage made it a sheltered market, with regularly rising returns and little to worry about.

The end of rationing in Britain completely changed that outlook. At the same time the search for alternative markets has been greatly handicapped by U.S. attempts to dispose of its surpluses abroad.

The situation has drawn a steady flow of New Zealand protests to Washington. These culminated in a vigorous protest last month at a U.S. proposal to sell surplus butter on the open market for whatever it would fetch.

There would be no objection to the United States developing a legitimate trade in a commodity she was well able to produce at a competitive price. But New Zealand claims the U.S. policy of heavy subsidies and sales abroad at less than cost is "to export a domestic difficulty at the risk of grave injury to the economies of smaller and weaker countries."

New Zealand maintains the whole American approach amounts to a breach of the General Agreements on Tariffs and Trade. It says efforts to find new markets have already been "armed" and that the surpluses have had a depressing effect on world prices of dairy produce.

New Zealand leans heavily on her exports of food, which have enabled her to build up a standard of living which vies with that of North American countries.

When the first white settlements were made in New Zealand more than 100 years ago, the pioneers found grass grew better there than anywhere else in the world.

The mild climate and regular rainfall meant grass grew all the year round. And animals did not have to be wintered indoors.

New Zealand was in fact an ideal pastoral country where wool, meat, butter and cheese could be produced more cheaply than in practically any other country. The big drawback was the distance from markets. Only wool could be sent to the other side of the world without deteriorating.

Refrigerated ships revolutionized New Zealand's economy. Beginning in 1822, meat and later dairy produce were exported in rapidly growing quantities. For more than half a century in peace and war, Britain has depended on New Zealand's abundant output for important parts of the people's diet.

Today while Britain remains New Zealand's best customer conditions have changed. The end of rationing, rising world supplies and the return of competition from margarine have made it necessary for New Zealand to find outlets for that part of her produce Britain no longer can absorb.

Lois Marshall Will Appear In Concert Series

As the second concert of the season the Community Concerts Association will present Canadian-born Lois Marshall in a recital at the Granada Theatre on Tuesday, February 15.

"Any descriptive comment one could make concerning tone, technique, volume or grace would be mere hairsplitting. She has to be heard to be believed," the New York Herald Tribune wrote of Lois Marshall the day after her Naumburg Award-winning Town Hall debut on December 2, 1952. With further ecstatic comment from this and other newspapers, the young Canadian soprano became the overnight sensation of the music world. She was engaged by Arturo Toscanini to sing in Beethoven's Missa Solemnis; was chosen to sing at the traditional Christmas Eve broadcast on Columbia Broadcasting System, and was signed for tours by Columbia Artists Management.

Success was a crown to years of hard work and discipline, and to the approval Miss Marshall had already won throughout Canada. For seven years Sir Ernest MacMillan had chosen her to sing the annual performance of Bach's St. Matthew's Passion with the Toronto Symphony. She was the winner of Canada's highest musical award, the Eaton Award, and was honored as the outstanding graduate of Toronto's Royal Conservatory. Canada sent her as emissary to the Sesquicentennial in Washington, D.C., in 1950, when she sang with the National Symphony, and she has since been heard with every big Canadian orchestra, as well as in recitals.

Born in Toronto of Scotch-Irish parentage, Lois was one of seven children. The others did not take up music professionally. Lois chose music as her one sure solace during a period of six years when she suffered the results of a polio attack. At eight she was allowed to go to school, and at twelve she entered the Royal Conservatory, working with Weldon Kilburn, who has remained her constant advisor and friend, and who is her accompanist on tour.

Her operatic experience includes performances over the Canadian Broadcasting system of Leonora in Beethoven's "Fidelio," Donna Anna in Mozart's "Don Giovanni," and the Queen of the Night in Mozart's "Magic Flute."

With her pure, perfectly produced voice of extraordinary range and flexibility, Lois Marshall seems destined, as the New York Times put it, for a "long and distinguished singing career." The Times further said that "her vocal technique is of a sort not often heard nowadays, and she displayed an understanding of the essence of a song and the ability to convey it to listeners." Other comments by the Herald Tribune included: "She is one of the most superb singers this reviewer has ever heard. There is simply nothing this singer cannot do with ease, with insight, and with the eloquence of the great artist."

Queen's Printer Will Contribute To Local Library

Following several interviews with the Queen's Printer, Edmund Cloutier, on the subject of federal publications for the Municipal Library of Sherbrooke, Mayor Emile Levesque recently met with two officials of the Federal Printing Department. As a result of this last interview, the Municipal Library of Sherbrooke will be included on the list to receive government publications.

The library will receive a list of current publications from which they will choose those judged of interest to local readers. On this list will be such things as parliamentary publications and different periodicals published by the different ministries.

Publications sent will be limited to current ones but could also include certain publications printed in the past, whose free distribution is authorized.

The Queen's Printer stated at the interview that he would be very pleased to send a man from his department to Sherbrooke to study the needs of the library so as to assure a complete service as possible.

Another Comedy Scheduled By St. Peter's AYPA

St. Peter's Anglican Young People's Association will present a three-act farce, "Aunt Sally from Cherry Valley" on February 15 and 16, Tuesday and Wednesday, at St. Peter's Memorial Hall, at 8:15 p.m.

The group, under the direction of Barbara Wark, will be remembered for the excellent production of Tom Taggart's hilarious "Maid to Order," which they put on last year as their feature drama presentation, and for "Saturday Evening Ghost," which they produced the year before.

The story of Andrew Jameson's farce, is, as usual, rather complicated. It all begins when Aunt Sally, a wealthy Victorian spinster, arrives in New York City on her way back to Cherry Valley. She has stopped off to pay her respects to Georgia, her favorite niece, and to meet Georgia's new husband. But alas, Georgia hasn't a husband.

The man she was to marry stood her up at the altar, so she has borrowed her best friend's husband for the occasion.

His name is Tony, and he is the famed Antiope of Fifth Avenue, the proprietor of the exclusive beauty salon where the action of the play occurs. Tony's wife, Laurel, has loaned her husband to build up the business. Among the salon's customers is the rich Mrs. Dinwiddie, who arrives with her chauffeur, Baker.

Georgia, to her horror and surprise finds that Baker is her missing fiancé, the man who left her at the altar. She also discovers that he is involved in some mysterious undertaking involving his employer.

You can imagine the complications that arise from there on—but only up to the point where Slash Comingo comes out of hiding and holds them all prisoners at the point of a gun. From then on there is so much action, and so many laughs leading up to the rejuvenation of Aunt Sally that no one could keep track of them all.

McCann, an Irish detective; Pearl, the maid; and Louise the rapid-fire entangler.

In the role of Aunt Sally is a newcomer to St. Peter's AYPA drama circles, Sandra Neilson, while Paul Montgomery takes the part of Antoine Duval; other new faces include Greydon Woolerton as Slash Comingo, Jim Tribble as Pat McCann, and Joanne Murphy as the redoubtable Mrs. Flora Dinwiddie.

Veterans at AYPA stage work take the remainder of the parts. Director Barbara Wark is Laurel, Aline Cassar plays Georgia, Bob Chapman is the chauffeur and missing fiancé, Baker, Lorna Ross is Louise, and Beth Welter plays the part of the maid, Pearl. Tickets will be 50 cents for adults, and 35 cents for children.

IGLOO IS OVERNIGHT HOME FOR THREE HATLEY BOYS — Seen above are three Hatley Boy Scouts and the igloo they spent Saturday night in. Richard Johnson, 12, is at the left of the entrance, Gordon Mosher, 13, in back of him, and Lester Drew, who accepted the same challenge last year, is standing in the rear. Kneeling at the right is Gordon Sarasin, 15. (Record Photo by Charles Catchpugh)

Hailey Scouts Camp Overnight In Igloo Home

Hatley, Feb. 7. — As part of their winter training, the Hailey troop is concentrating on their survival and self-reliance program. Last Saturday the group built a snow igloo at the Sarasin farm, just out of Massawippi, which measured seven feet inside diameter, and has an inside height of six feet. To prove the efficiency of their handiwork, three of the troop spent Saturday night in the Eskimo style shelter and all agreed that their night had been comfortable, although very uncommon.

Fifteen-year-old, second patrol leader, Gordon Sarasin, Richard Johnson, 12 and Gordon Mosher, 13, were the three who took the challenge of the cold.

Troop leaders stated that their principal objective was to train boys to be able to take care of themselves in various circumstances, in this case being able to shelter themselves from the cold if the necessity ever arises.

They said that although this igloo would accommodate a half dozen persons, the boys would be able to construct a similar shelter for one or two.

Prompt Action Quells Blaze Near Sweetsburg

Sweetsburg, Feb. 7. — But for the neighborly efforts of Bert Wells, John Snow and Hugh Wilson, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams on the Knowlton highway would have been totally destroyed by fire.

The blaze started in the garage on the east side of the house while Mr. and Mrs. Williams were attending the Vaughan-Clark wedding on Saturday, January 29.

Fortunately the three men were driving up the highway in a truck carrying ladders, shovels, etc., and they immediately went into action, fighting the fire with snow after they had pumped the well dry. They called Mayor E. G. Persons for more assistance and small articles of fire-fighting equipment were dispatched to the scene.

A garden tractor, furniture, pictures, tricycles, a new $60 bicycle and about 2,000 feet of dry lumber, stored in an adjoining part of the garage added to the intensity of the blaze. The side of the house became ignited at times and the heat cracked several windows.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams are deeply grateful to all their friends who worked so courageously to save their home from certain ruin. The loss is only partly covered by insurance.

land, opposite major ports which might well be assembly areas for an invasion of Formosa. On that basis, it was believed that the United States would help meet any massive attack on either Quemoy or the Matsus, but in view of possible changing conditions, a public commitment was avoided.

Senator William Knowland (Rep. Calif.), Senate minority leader, said he is confident the mutual defence treaty will be approved. But Dulles apparently faced some questions.

Senator John Sparkman (Dem. Ala.), chairman of the committee's Far Eastern subcommittee, said he wants to ask Dulles whether ratification of the treaty would have the effect of recognizing a National Chinese title to the islands.

Dulles faced questioning also about further moves in the UN to bring about a Formosa strait cease-fire. Red China rejected an initial invitation to discuss cease-fire proposals. Whether a new invitation should be extended is a matter sharp dispute among some senators.

Tropic Sun Likely Lure To Princess

By HAIG NICHOLSON

St. George's Island, Grenada — (Reuters) — The sparkling blue sea and the inviting white sands of this Caribbean island may lure Princess Margaret into a swim-suit today for the first time since she arrived in the British West Indies.

The fun-loving British princess has a break between a luncheon and an eight o'clock reception during which she can splash to her heart's content.

But duty will come before any sun bathing. This morning she will step ashore from the royal yacht Britannia to open a radio station connecting the four Windward islands of Grenada, St. Vincent, St. Lucia and Dominica.

At Queen's Park, named for Queen Victoria, Margaret's great-grandmother, the 24-year-old princess will address several thousand islanders as she declares the radio service open. The station will broadcast her speech.

Princess Margaret began her visit to Grenada with sunshine and power. A few hours after her arrival she was caught in a downpour at a garden party but received quick protection from a police officer's umbrella.

The day ended with a Government House dinner to the music of a steel percussion band such as the princess enjoyed so much in Trinidad.

She embarks on the royal yacht at the end of the day to sail to St. Vincent.

BIRCHTON — The Birchton Farm Forum met in the Birchton Hall for "Visitors" night, on January 24, with a goodly number present. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Dunn, of Lenoxyville, accompanied by Mrs. O. F. Bailey, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gill and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lefebvre were afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Williams in Lenoxyville.

Mr. Walter S. J. Hodgman, president of Quebec Farm Forums, attended the Agricultural Conference in Edmonton, Alta., returning to his home on January 29. While in Edmonton, he spent a few hours with the Rev. Charles Johnston, a former minister of the Bulwer-Birchton United Church charge. Walter reports Rev. Charles as in good health and spirits, and pleased to get news from his "first church".

How to KEEP FIT after 50

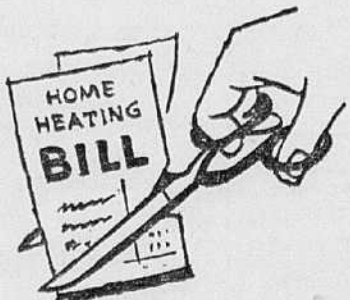

In the old days fifty seemed the signal to slow down—take things easy—watch your diet—get more rest. It's still good advice. But these days you can face fifty with many interesting and active years ahead, —active, that is, if you can avoid backache and the "tired-out" feeling, due to kidney and bladder disorders, that often develop around that age. For more than 60 years Dodd's Kidney Pills have been helping men and women of all ages to keep kidneys and bladder in good order, —helping them to feel better, to work better, and get more fun out of life. If you are approaching fifty, or past it, Dodd's Kidney Pills may help you, too. You can depend on Dodd's. 54

She emphasized the importance for members of keeping posted on C.W.L. doings from Coast to Coast, which were published in the Canadian League, monthly, and mentioned outstanding articles in the February periodical, namely: the editorial, "Queen of the Home," "The Heart of the Foster Mother," "The Power of God's Word" and League By-laws and commented upon them.

The guest speaker of the evening, Miss Laure Germain, Victorian Order Nurse-in-charge, introduced by Mrs. B. W. Murray, began her talk in a humorous vein, then swiftly launched into her serious subject: "The V.O.N. is a Home Nursing Service Given under a Doctor's Direction." The nurse, she said, takes care of a sick person confined to the home, teaches the family how to give care between her visits, advises expectant mothers, informs about nutrition, safety, family health problems and the use of community health and welfare facilities.

The goal of the V.O.N., she declared, is to reach promptly all those who need professional home nursing service, including all rules of ethics, such as courtesy and economy of time and material.

In public health, said the speaker, the methods of teaching are: Demonstration, discussion, visual aid, pamphlets, etc., in order to ensure that work is done safely, correctly, quickly, economically, comfortably and conscientiously.

Nurse Germain gave the number of visits made from August 1, to January, divided as follows: Nursing care, 1354; educational visits, 455; home deliveries, 4; night and Sunday calls, 71. Child welfare clinic is held at the Sherbrooke Hospital the first and second Thursdays of each month. For the same period the attendance was 261. And children whose parents cannot afford a doctor are provided with check-ups, patch tests, immunization, vaccination and at times, dressings.

The value of the service to those who receive it is an obvious one, but the place that the public service deserves in the economy of the community is not as widely recognized.

Miss Germain concluded her talk by quoting a child who said:

Encouraging Reports At Meeting Of St. Paul's United Church, Waterloo

Waterloo, Feb. 7 — The annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's United Church, Waterloo, was held on Thursday evening, January 27. A congregational supper preceded the meeting when over seventy members and adherents of the church enjoyed a meal prepared and served by the ladies of the congregation. Following a sing song led by Reverend Colin West, the meeting opened with a hymn, Scripture reading and a prayer.

All reports were most encouraging and showed an increase in attendance and interest in practically every case.

The Sunday School report showed that services were held for thirty-seven Sundays with an average attendance of over one hundred members.

The C. G. I. T. reports were most gratifying, showing great activity and interest here as well. The Young People's Union, after a period of inactivity, in their report showed a very active and prosperous year, with the possibility of increased membership and projects.

A new group, the Young Adult Group, in their report, showed that four monthly meetings have already been held with attendance of from twelve to twenty five, and the idea of the group is to appeal to as many different tastes, ages and interests as humanly possible. The past meetings have proven to be most successful in this manner, and increased attendance is anticipated as time goes on.

In the report of the W. A., a most satisfactory year was realized both financially and in the interest shown. Much work was done by this group both in the manse and in the church kitchen. Equipment was purchased for both places and necessary repair was conducted as well.

The treasurer, Mr. Orval

Lewis, presented a very encouraging financial statement showing that all commitments had been met, and that the new double windows installed this past fall were paid for.

Bishop's University Cagers Stop Johnston State Teachers' College 61-47 In Wide-Open Exhibition Tilt

Bishop's University basketballers, getting into the winning spirit of Bishop's 1955 Winter Carnival, Saturday afternoon defeated the visiting Johnston State Teachers' College quintet from Vermont by a comfortable 61-47 score. Playing before a capacity crowd at the university Memorial Gym, the Purple and White cagers were never headed as they revenge two previous losses this season to the Teachers.

A sparkling half-time exhibition of gymnastics was given by Peter Phippen, former Ontario Junior Gymnastic Champion, and Canadian Open Parallel Bar Champion, accompanied by Len and Gordie Mather, and Marcel Beauchamp, former Mr. Canada. The group went through a short program of mat exercises, parallel bar exercises and a high bar display. Pete Phippen also gave a special demonstration of free hand calisthenics, and featured on both the parallel bars, and the high bar, climaxing the whole demonstration with his famous "fly-away" from the high bar.

In the basketball tilt, Bob MacMurray, star freshman forward for the home team led the Purple and White scorers with 18 points, followed by centre Bill Johnson and guard Don Stringer with 11 each. For the Teachers, big Ralph Barrows potted 18 points, while co-captain Lee Emmons shot for 12. Bishop's started the tilt fast, driving in under the basket to pot 12 points without a reply in the first seven minutes of the game. Johnston couldn't cope with the fast breaking Bishop's offense, while their passing was kept off balance by a tight Bishop's man to man defense. Ken Chadwick finally broke the scoring ice for the visitors after more than seven minutes of play had gone by, but Bishop's continued to press, and built up an imposing 26-6 lead before the Johnston aggregation could get untracked.

Near the end of the initial half, Ralph Barrows went on a scoring spree for the visitors, potting six straight points without a reply to put the Teachers back in the game. Emmons added two more field goals while Bishop's could only put together a few points, and at the half, the home team's lead had been cut to 33-21.

In the second half, the visitors managed to get their passing patterns working, but had trouble driving in under the basket for lay-ups. Don Stringer did stalwart work under the Bishop's basket retrieving rebounds, while Bill Johnson sparked offensively snapping rebounds off the Johnston backboard. However, the teams battled on even terms throughout the final half, and the pace of the game increased.

The Purple and White team took a slight edge in the half by virtue of superior work under

Toronto Rink Wins At Seignior Club

Seignior Club, Que. — (CP) — Mrs. M. C. Code of Toronto High Park won the 24th annual bonspiel for the Sewell Trophy Sunday to give the Toronto club its second victory in the competition.

The finals were an all-Toronto affair, with Mrs. Code defeating Mrs. E. H. Coon—another High Park rink—9-4 for the trophy. Mrs. Code skipped the winning rink in 1951.

In the three preliminary rounds, in which the four undefeated teams with the greatest margin of victory qualify for the playoffs, Mrs. Code's squad downed Mrs. R. Defried, Royal Montreal 9-6, Mrs. H. Stanfield, Pointe Claire, Que., 10-3 and Mrs. A. E. Horsburgh, Mount Royal, Que., 13-6.

Mrs. Code defeated Mrs. Cyril Chapman, Montebello, Que., 12-7 in the semi-finals, while Mrs. Coon put away Mrs. E. Northey, Peterboro, Ont., 17-7.

The first consolation award, open to the two rinks with two victories and the highest net margin of score, was won by Mrs. C. B. Westbrook, Peterboro, who defeated Mrs. L. B. Unwin, Royal Montreal, defending champions 10-8.

Mont Tremblant Event To Tommy

Mont Tremblant, Que. — (CP) — Andy Tommy of Ottawa braved heavy fog and hazardous snow conditions Sunday to win the Mont Tremblant giant slalom ski event and the Ryan Trophy.

Of the 71 contestants in the men's and women's events, only 29 finished.

Amateur Tommy's time was one minute, 52.4 seconds over the treacherous flying mile. Cullough, head of the ski school here, hocked down a flag on his run.

Frantz Gabl of Mont Tremblant was second in 1:55.1 and Bob Dawson of the same club placed third in 1:57.1.

Over a shorter course, Monique Langlais of Quebec, provincial women's champ, led the ladies with a time of one minute, 49.1 seconds. Lucille Wheeler of St. Jovite, Que., was second in 1:49.3 and Carlyn Kruger of Montreal Nordik third in 1:51.4.

Sweden Wins First Skating Title In Eight Years

Falun, Sweden. — (P) — Tall Sigge Ericsson of Sweden Sunday captured the European speed skating championship, breaking the Russian stranglehold and giving Sweden its first skating title in eight years.

Ericsson, skating over a rough snow-covered ice in perfect form won the 10,000-metre race in 18 minutes, 32.8 seconds.

Earlier Sunday, he finished in third place in the 1,500-metre race and in the two heats Saturday, the 24-year-old Swede won the 5,000-metre race and finished 19th in the 500-metre dash.

The winner was determined on the results of all four events.

Lightweight Champ Jimmy Carter And Welterweight King Saxton To Pick Up Little Extra Cash This Week

New York — (P) — Two world boxing champions, lightweight Jimmy Carter and welterweight Johnny Saxton, stray over the weight limit this week to pick up some cash in non-title bouts.

Carter's Friday bout at Boston with welterweight Tony DeMarco, a hometown favorite, could well be the bout of the week. It probably will sell out the Boston garden. The champ gets a $25,000 guarantee plus a privilege of 30 per cent of the gate.

Since Carter stopped Paddy DeMarco, no relation, Nov. 17 to win back his title, he has had only one bout, a 10-round decision over Bobby Woods.

De Marco, No. 6 among the welter contenders, hasn't fought since Nov. 6 when he stopped Pat Manzi in one round.

In travelling to Akron, Ohio,

Saxton ventures into the hometown of Ronnie Delaney, a clever southpaw middleweight who has lost only once in 63 starts. The Akron bout, also set for Friday, will be the second for Saxton since he upset Kid Gavilan at Philadelphia Oct. 20 to win the crown.

BIG CROWD IN SIGHT
 Although the match was set back once from Jan. 14 when Saxton was injured, it is expected to attract a big crowd.

After some fast switching, the International Boxing Club came up with a Wednesday show at Baltimore where Bob Baker, Pittsburgh heavyweight, will box Willie James of Boston.

It is a new main event. Joey Giardello was to have met Al Andrews in a rematch of their Jan. 26 fight at Norfolk, Va., but Andrews was injured in training.

Sweden Wins First Skating Title In Eight Years

Falun, Sweden. — (P) — Tall Sigge Ericsson of Sweden Sunday captured the European speed skating championship, breaking the Russian stranglehold and giving Sweden its first skating title in eight years.

Ericsson, skating over a rough snow-covered ice in perfect form won the 10,000-metre race in 18 minutes, 32.8 seconds.

Earlier Sunday, he finished in third place in the 1,500-metre race and in the two heats Saturday, the 24-year-old Swede won the 5,000-metre race and finished 19th in the 500-metre dash.

The winner was determined on the results of all four events.

Valleyfield Wins Curling Trophies

Ottawa. — (P) — Two rinks from Valleyfield, Que., Saturday won the Governor-General's Trophy, emblematic of the double rink, iron-curling championship of Canada.

The champs split their two games with a pair of Ottawa curling clubs but won 23-20 on the round.

It was the first time in the 81-year history of the Governor-General's bonspiel that a Valleyfield rink has captured the event. The Valleyfield rinks pulled a surprise by trouncing Montreal Heather to enter the championship round.

A Valleyfield rink skipped by J. D. Cluff, Jr., scored an impressive 15-4 victory over Jack Bradley's Ottawa foursome, while the other Valleyfield rink skipped by Harry Whitehead went down to a 16-8 defeat at the hands of C. B. Hermann's Ottawa four.

Huntley Ferguson's Bathurst Rink Cops Quebec International 'Spiel Two Top Trophies And Main Event

Quebec — (CP) — Huntley Ferguson's Bathurst, N.B., rink skipped by 35-year-old Charlie McArdie, emerged as the outstanding outfit in the 42nd Quebec International Bonspiel, winning one of the bonspiel's two top trophies and a main event during the week-end.

Ferguson's rink took the Grand Aggregate Trophy by default Saturday when the only two rinks with a chance to match Bathurst's seven wins and one loss were defeated. Earlier, McArdie led the rink to an 11-6 victory over Mr. Justice D. P. J. Kelly, Toronto Granite, to win the Omega Trophy.

The bonspiel's championship went to Gaston Amyot, Quebec Jacques Cartier, who beat Gavin MacWilliam's Quebec Winter Club rink 12-9.

Nazaire Lemelin, Quebec Etchemin Curling Club, beat Sam Gunn of Brantford, Ont., 10-4 to win the Chateau Frontenac Trophy, and later won the Province of Quebec brooches, beating L. V. Vineberg of Ottawa West 14-5.

Second Bathurst Champ
 The Francois Jobin Trophy went to Robert Archibald, Bathurst, who whipped Summers Sam Wilson of Sudbury, Ont., 13-7.

The Chateau Frontenac, Omega and Francois Jobin trophies are the bonspiel's main events and quarter-finals in the three enter the Lieutenant-Governor's Trophy playoffs.

The Grand Aggregate goes to the rink winning most games in the three main events and in the playoffs.

Wilson and Montreal's Ira C. McEwen both had a chance to tie Ferguson for the Grand Aggregate, but lost them when they were knocked off in the semi-finals of the Lieutenant-Governor's playoff by Amyot and MacWilliam respectively.

Dr. C. G. Ted Teskey, of Kitchener, Ont., won the Holt-Renfrew Trophy with a 14-7 win over Pierre Amyot, Quebec Jacques Cartier.

Charland Of Three Rivers Wins Ottawa Centennial Ski Jumping Championship With Classy Display

Ottawa. — (P) — Jacques Charland of Trois-Rivieres, Que., won a pair of trophies and set an unofficial jumping record at the Ottawa Ski Club's twin ski meets this week-end.

Charland soared 156 and 158 feet in two jumps Sunday to pile up a style-and-distance total of 202.5 points and win the Gatineau ski zone class A jumping championship. Saturday he leaped 186 and 187 feet, amassing 200.3 points to top the Ottawa centennial ski jumping championship. Both meets were Olympic trials.

A jumper from Temiskaming, Que., Ken Therien, took the class B jumping title in both meets. He won Sunday's with leaps of 126 and 136 feet for 158.9 points and took the centennial championship Saturday with jumps of 159 and 152 for a total of 192.1 points.

Charland, who found conditions ideal Saturday as temperatures hovered near zero, keeping the snow crisp and fast, won the Devonshire Challenge Cup for his efforts Sunday, when 35-degree weather turned the snow sticky. For clocking the longest jump of the meet—his 187 feet Saturday—he was awarded the Lord Alexander Trophy.

Claude Richer Saturday won the 11-mile Gatineau ski zone cross-country race, another Olympic trial in one hour, 17 minutes and .06 seconds.

Another Trois-Rivieres jumper, Claude Trahan, won the junior class in both meets. He jumped 127 and 130 feet Sunday for 176.3 points and 150 and 152 Saturday for 178.3 points in winning the centennial meet.

Sherbrooke Edges Asbestos For Top Spot In Loop

944 Fans See Locals Come Up With Top Performance To Edge Meteors 3-2 In Hard-Fought Tilt For First Spot In Loop

Sherbrooke Intermediates displaying a strong two-way exhibition and backed by outstanding goaling by Jacques Doyon posted a close 3-2 verdict over the fast stepping Meteors of Asbestos yesterday afternoon at the Arena before 944 paid fans. It was one of the largest crowds to attend a game at the Arena for quite sometime. The victory moved the Roger Roberge squad back into top position in the Mac Wilson circuit by one point advantage.

The Meteors had moved ahead of the locals Friday evening when they downed the Rock Island club 7-3 on their home ice and were leading Sherbrooke by one point before yesterday afternoon's tilt. The two teams meet again tomorrow evening in the Mining Town.

The game was one of the fastest seen on local ice for quite sometime as both teams were going at top speed for the full sixty minutes. The Meteors were minus their playing coach, Champagne, and two other players while the locals were without the services of Claude Papineau, George Beaulieu and Bertrand Morin. Sherbrooke called up three juniors from their farm club and the youngsters gave a very good account of themselves.

Five attendance prizes were distributed at yesterday's game. The first number picked was 011128 for a prize presented by Talon Ltd. The second choice goes to the holder of seat 48 west, promenade for J. A. Pigeon's special prize. The third number was 011502 for the prize donated by the Royal Lingerie Shop. The fourth goes to the lucky holder of east promenade seat 35 for J. A. Couture's gift while the last ticket picked was holder of seat number two in box 5 for a gift donated by the Elegant Hosiery Company.

Boisvert opened the scoring in the first frame when he beat Doyon from close range to give the Meteors the lead. However, Dave Hayden got the equalizer when he snared a loose disc and batted it in the net over Beaudoin. Desrochers had carried the disc down the ice and when he was checked by the Meteors' defense the puck rolled loose and Hayden was on the spot to drive it home.

Dave Hayden and his mates kept the pressure on and the Asbestos crew were forced to go all out to keep the locals away from the net. Jacques Dussault went off for high-sticking with seconds remaining in the period. Ten seconds later Jean Dumas tallied the locals' second marker and this brought considerable protest from the Asbestos team. In the battle around the net Beaudoin went to the ice to block a shot and then kicked out another but Dumas was standing by to drive it home. Asbestos claimed their goalie had been hurt on the play but the referees allowed the goal as they claimed he wasn't seriously hurt to stop the play. During the debate Lussier drew a misconduct for charging the referee.

In the second frame Boisvert got the thumb for tripping and this was the signal for the locals to apply the pressure. Fern Desrochers drove down the ice and passed the rubber to Hayden on the wing and he in turn drew the defense into the corner and relaid it back to Desrochers in front of the net and the red light went on to give Sherbrooke a 3-1 lead. It was the only goal of the Hollywood—(AP)—Sonja Henie took over Ciro's Saturday night for a fabulous circus party that had everything including a callopie, a live hippo and Liberace.

Miss Henie, who has been called Little Miss Moneybags because of her financial skill, shelled out a sum conservatively estimated at $15,000 for the party. She was asked the reason for it.

"No reason," she smiled. "I just felt like having a party."

The ice show queen brought along her own ice—a diamond tiara and collar which were said to be worth over $100,000. She played her role to the hilt, arriving on a baby elephant borrowed from another night club, Moulin Rouge. She wore a brief spangled pink leotard.

The 200 guests found Ciro's transformed into a circus with sawdust, sideshow posters, a hippo and callopie in front. Inside, they were greeted with caviar, crab, shrimp and a huge ice carving of a clown. Amid a circus atmosphere they watched acrobatic acts and clowns perform and ate a filet mignon dinner with champagne served from huge bottles.

Disaster Strikes Terry Sawchuk In NHL's Vezina Trophy Race; Bruins Wallop Wings 8-4; Canucks Cop Two

Disaster struck Terry Sawchuk on Boston ice Saturday night. The Detroit goalie, three times a National League all-star and twice a Vezina Trophy winner, let eight goals slip by him for the second-worst performance of his NHL career as the Red Wings took an 8-4 lacing from the fourth-place Boston Bruins.

The temporary nature of the collapse was established the following night as Sawchuk kicked out 22 drives in holding the Bruins to a 2-2 tie. But Saturday's nightmare cost Terry valuable ground in his annual battle with Toronto's Harry Lumley for the Vezina award, property of the stingiest netminder in the league, which Lumley took from him last season.

Lumley, who has set the pace for months, went into the week-end with a bare one-goal edge over the 25-year-old Winnipeg native and emerged with a generous seven-goal lead.

Five-Point Lead

Paced by their big three—Maurice (Rocket) Richard, Jean Beliveau and Bernie (Boom-Boom) Geoffrin—Montreal Canadiens downed New York Rangers 3-1 in Montreal Saturday night and 7-3 in Madison Square Garden Sunday.

The double victory stretched their lead to five points.

In another home-and-home doubleheader Toronto Maple Leafs tightened their hold on third place, taking three points of a possible four from Chicago Black Hawks. The teams tied 2-2 in Toronto Saturday night but the last-place Hawks lost 4-2 in Chicago Sunday.

In Detroit's Saturday night game Leo Labine (2), Lorne Ferguson (2), Don McKenney, Real Chevrefils, Cal Gardner and Leo Boivin were the Boston marksmen. Ted Lindsay, Vic Stasiuk, Bill Dineen and Tony Leswick notched the four Red Wing counters.

In Sunday's game, Boston's Don McKenney got the tying goal with 64 seconds to go when

Minor Hockey Rolling Along In High; Carnegie Locknit Leading Midgets; B.C.S. Tops Bantam Division Unbeaten

Minor hockey has had its best season in years with the cold spell lasting since the schedule opened. No games have been postponed so far and if the weather can last the schedule will close on February 9, with the playoffs starting Saturday, February 12, in both midget and bantam sections.

Five clubs form the midget section and although Carnegie Locknit have yet to lose a game they have received stiff opposition from the other clubs in the league. Carnegie Locknit have won 7 games to lead the league with 14 points followed by Lennoxville High School with 7 points. B.C.S. Abenakis came third with 6 points with Sherbrooke High School and B.C.S. Mohawks with 4 points and 3 points respectively.

The first four clubs will take part in the playoffs which will be finished before March 13 as on that date the finals for the Eastern Townships championships in all classes will be played at the Border Arena in Rock Island. All winners in the Sherbrooke section will meet the winners of the Rock Island-Stanstead section March 13. Although it looks as if Carnegie Locknit would win the Sherbrooke section, there may be surprises caused in the playoffs. Dates will be announced later.

The league standing follows:

A new section has been added to come to the aid of their party this year which cannot be overlooked as this is the section which develops the players at the earliest age possible. Gene Littler Wins Phoenix Open

Phoenix, Ariz.—(AP)—Gene Littler shot a one-over-par 71 Sunday to win the $15,000 Phoenix Open with a 72-hole score of 275.

He collected the $2,400 top money to go with the $5,000 he won last month as first prize in the Los Angeles Open.

The 24-year-old national amateur champion of 1953 started Sunday's final 18 holes deadlocked at 204 with Jay Hebert and Johnny Palmer.

Hebert folded during the first nine.

Johnny was even with Littler through the 11th hole but couldn't maintain the pace, finishing with 72 in a second place tie with Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., at 276. Maxwell shot a last round 67.

Hebert finished well back with a 75-279.

Palmer and Maxwell each collected $1,600 for their second-place tie.

Springfield Moves Into First-Place

Springfield Indians have taken rapid strides toward capturing their first American Hockey League championship since 1942.

Springfield, which re-entered the league last season after a 13-year absence, moved into a deadlock for first place with Pittsburgh Hornets Sunday night by defeating Hershey Bears 6-5 in overtime.

Meanwhile, Hornets took a 4-1 beating by Buffalo Bisons and Cleveland Barons scored their sixth straight league victory by blanking the lowly Providence Reds 2-0.

Springfield and Pittsburgh have 52 points while Bisons and Barons are tied for third place with 47 points apiece.

Graham Hastings goal at 15 seconds of the overtime gave Indians a hard-earned victory. A pair of Hershey goals in the third period had given the Bears a 5-4 advantage, but Ross Lowe tallied for Springfield at 12:58 to send the game into overtime.

Goalie Emile "The Cat" Francis of Cleveland scored his second shutout of the season and Joe Lund and Glen Sommer tallied the Baron goals in the final period.

Kenny Hayden slammed home two goals in the second period that wiped out a 1-0 Hornet lead and enabled Bisons to register their fifth straight victory.

East Angus Wallops Brompton 7-4, 6-4 To Make Clean Sweep Of Series; Rock Island Holds Windsor To Draw

East Angus Pirates made a clean sweep of their series with the Brompton Eagles while Butterfield of Rock Island came up with the surprise of the week-end when they held the fast-stepping Paper Makers of Windsor to an 8-8 stalemate in the Massawippi Valley Hockey League.

The double win for the Pirates helped them to close the gap on their closest rivals, Windsor, in the race for a playoff berth. The double effort enabled them to pick up three points on the Paper Makers and they still hold two games in hand over the Gendron crew.

In Angus yesterday afternoon the home club managed to hold the upper hand the whole way although the Eagles rallied in the middle session. Gagnon opened the scoring in the first period for the only goal in the frame just before the half way mark.

In the middle session Martin evened the count but goals by Gagnon and Fearnley put the Pirates out in front once again.

G. Leblanc and Morissette tallied for the Eagles to knot it again but two quick tallies by Therrien and Frankie Reid moved the Pirates ahead and when G. Reid registered his marker the game was out of danger. DuBois tallied in the dying seconds of the tilt but it was the best the Eagles could do.

At Rock Island the Morehouse squad came up with an upset when they held the Windsor Paper Makers to a 8-8 tie. Ditchburn was in the nets for the injured Murphy, who suffered a facial cut in Asbestos Friday evening. It required eight stitches to close the gap.

Ditchburn turned in a good game while the Butterfield squad kept pace with the high flying Windsor squad to earn their draw. Desrosiers was the big gun for the Paper Makers with his four-goal effort while Couture notched two and Gendron earned the deadlock.

Pity Gunnar Neilsen, Sets World Record While Everyone Watches Wrestling Match Staged In Rear

New York—(AP)—Save a little sympathy for Gunnar Neilsen. The sorrell-topped Copenhagen runner holds the world indoor-mile record. But his 4:03.6 performance, which shaved 2-10ths of a second off West Santee's week-old mark, has been all but lost in the shuffle.

In fact, it is safe to say that not more than a handful of the 14,736 spectators who jammed Madison Square Garden for the Milrose games Saturday night saw him break the tape.

There was a better performance going on behind him. Santee and Fred Dwyer, a pint-sized edition of Man Mountain Dean, were engaging in a lively rassin' match.

Dwyer got the decision, breaking out of Santee's hold to cross the finish line behind Nielsen. But the referee, . . . er, judges, blew the whistle on him and he was disqualified. On the reversed decision Santee was awarded the place.

Return Match Saturday
"I want another crack at him," Dwyer gritted through his teeth in the best manner of the ring. He'll get it this Saturday in the New York A. C. games.

Santee appeared to be on the way to breaking his own mark until Nielsen came on from third place to pass him on the turn leading into the home stretch. West went wide to fight off the great Dane and Dwyer tried to sneak in on the inside.

Santee moved back into his pole position when Nielsen shot past and in the process shoved Dwyer right off the track. Fred hopped back on and there was some more pushing. Santee grabbed Dwyer's shoulder and Fred retaliated with a bear hug.

Then the two danced around and it appeared that Dwyer might toss Santee right into the boxes. But it still was a poor exhibition. Not a good hold by either.

Dwyer finally broke loose and staggered across the line. I shouldn't have been dis- least if they disqualified me, they should have disqualified him, too."

Santee shrugged it off, terming it an "unfortunate incident." Next bout . . . pardon, race, will be at 10 p.m. EST Saturday in the New York A. C. games. Nielsen and Santee have met four times, each winning twice.

Look for the bright new blue and gold label for an ale that is "light as a feather"—yet bright with all the zest and authority of a fine mellow brew.

STANSTEAD CHURCH RECEPTION — Mrs. A. McKinley Rose, wife of the pastor of Centenary United Church, Stanstead, is shown at the head table for the reception held in connection with the 150th anniversary of the church.

Dedication Of Pulpit Drapes Features Centenary Church 150th Anniversary

Stanstead, Feb. 7.—"The Right Accent" was the theme of the inspiring address delivered by Rev. Norman Coll, O.B.E., D.D., pastor of Parkdale United Church in Ottawa, Ont., at the sesquicentennial celebration service of Centenary United Church in Stanstead on Sunday morning, January 30.

The service opened with the hymn, "The Church's One Foundation," and the invocation given by Rev. A. McKinley Rose, pastor of Centenary church.

Mr. Rose announced that the lovely pulpit drape, of royal red velvet with the United Church of Canada crest, the matching velvet communion table runner, with a gold cross at each end, and a silk corded royal blue Bible marker, with the gold cross symbol were gifts of Mr. and Mrs. K. I. Curtis, of Rock Island, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Curtis, of Ottawa, in loving memory of their son and brother, P.O. Weidell Curtis, who paid the supreme sacrifice in World War II, and were given in honor of the 150th anniversary of this church.

The dedication prayer was given by Rev. Dr. Coll, as he asked for the blessing on these symbols of faith which were so precious to him, in whose memory they were given.

Rev. Frank Stanton, pastor of Wesley United Church in Beebe, led for the responsive reading of the Psalm, with Rev. E. Geoffrey Tenneson, pastor of Stanstead South United Church, reading the Scripture lesson from the 2nd Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians, chapter 4.

The pastoral prayer was given by Rev. Dr. Coll, and was followed by the church choir singing the anthem, "Prayer of Thanksgiving," (Dutch) with arrangement by D. D. Slater.

During the offertory, Mrs. A. P. Gordon, presiding at the organ console, played "Thanks Be to Thee," by Handel. The hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God," was sung by the choir and congregation.

Rev. Dr. Coll was introduced by Rev. Mr. Rose. Dr. Coll is a veteran of two world wars, and served as chaplain in the past conflict. He is a past president of the Ottawa-Montreal United Church conference.

In his opening remarks Rev. Dr. Coll said he felt it a privilege to be associated with his fellow ministers and this congregation in this historic event, as well as at the dedication which linked him with young men of the past.

After 150 years of continuous activity in this community, Centenary stands as a monument in these parts to the beginning of the Methodist Christian teachings in the early 18th century, and, he said, each succeeding generation must have continued to put the right accent in the church to make it what it is today.

"Beloved, now we are the sons of God," says the Scriptures, and the right accent is so essential, to give it the right meaning, said the speaker, who quoted the words used in Matthew XXVI, 27, when at the "Last Supper," Jesus took the cup and said, "Drink ye all of this." Again of the words in the Gospel of Luke when the words, "Take this and divide it among yourselves," were used by Jesus, and Dr. Coll again emphasized the "right accent."

"We are a troubled and unhappy generation, largely because we have put the accent in the wrong places and our primary concern was not for the need of Christ," he said.

God said: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God," and Dr. Coll stressed the important facts of this saying, and that outward success cannot take the place of inward defeat.

Religion, like a beautiful art or music, has a beauty to itself, religion does something for us and it is not just something to be "used," he continued. "Now are we the sons of God, nothing less than that accent can give us satisfaction. Now are we children of God. Use the book of Genesis, in the beginning . . . as our guide and make it the right accent."

His final remarks were the "150th anniversary of this church puts the accent in the right place — a house not made by hands but by the Eternal God." In conclusion he told of a true and touching experience of himself and a number of Canadian soldiers on the beaches of Normandy.

The choir rendered the anthem, "I Will Magnify Thee, O God," with the congregation joining for the singing of the hymn, "Let Us with a Gladness Mind." The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Coll.

Mrs. A. P. Gordon at the organ rendered "Honour and Arms," from Samson by Handel, and the postlude number "Heaven and Earth Display," by Mendelssohn.

The spring flowers on the communion table were the gift of the Allegro group, an active women's group of the church. The congregation of Wesley United Church of Beebe and Stanstead South church of the Boundary joined in fellowship of this beautiful and memorable service of Centenary church.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Marco, of Richford, Vt., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dustin recently. Mr. David Bureau, of Montreal, was a week-end visitor at his home here.

Large Attendance At Bedford Church Annual Meeting

Bedford, Feb. 7.—The United Church annual congregational supper was held in the church hall on Thursday evening, January 20th, when nearly one hundred persons attended the supper, planned and served by the social convener of the W. A., Mrs. E. A. Martin, and her committee.

Immediately following, Reverend T. F. Duncan called the assembly to order and opened the business meeting with prayer.

The minutes of last year's annual meeting were read followed by session report, read by the Pastor. A two minutes silence was observed in loving memory of Mrs. A. J. Sheltus and Mrs. J. Stevens, who had passed away in 1954 and who during their residence in Bedford had been faithful workers in the church.

Miss L. Casey read the financial statements for Sunday School and choir. Mr. Ronald Martin gave the Y. P. U. report, stating that $23 had been sent to the Tiny Tim Fund of the Children's Hospital, this amount being raised by carol singing.

Mrs. W. J. MacArthur read the W. A. report in which she reported a membership of thirty-seven, twenty-seven of which are active. Ten regular meetings were held during the year, 2 rummage sales and a sale in conjunction with the lawn social. In September the W. A. affiliated with the W. M. S. and interesting programs have been carried on under the leadership of Miss Nettie Lovering. Mite boxes have been given out with plans for financial aid to the W. M. S. in 1955.

Among the disbursements for the year was an amount of $50 to the Flood and Hurricane Relief Fund in Ontario, donation to Canadian Save the Children Fund, French Protestant Boys Camp and other similar projects. Locally, $168 had been put into the parsonage fund, $90 for vestry and choir curtains, sick and shut-ins have been remembered with flowers and cards. A substantial balance remains.

The M. and M. Fund report was given by Mr. R. V. Oakes, $530 having been raised and forwarded to Toronto.

Mr. A. J. Sheltus gave the Bell property report, some repairs having been done to that property, new storm windows for the church hall and forty new hymn books for use in the church services were purchased. Mrs. M. Short gave the church treasury report. Besides financing the usual running expenses, $68, had been spent in improving the driveway and parking lot. All accounts showed good balances to carry on the year's work.

A vote of thanks was tendered to all officers and Reverend T. F. Duncan expressed his own thanks to all for their cooperation, and for the gift presented to Mrs. Duncan and himself at Christmas.

Mr. R. Oakes, on behalf of the congregation, expressed appreciation to Reverend and Mrs. Duncan for their leadership in all phases of the church work and assured them of the people's continued loyalty and support. Mrs. Alex MacArthur, the church organist, voiced her thanks for her Christmas gift, and thanked the members of the choir for the assistance in the services of song.

The election of officers resulted as follows: secretary, Mr. T. Bird; treasurer, Mrs. M. Short; M. and M. treasurer, Mr. R. V. Oakes; committee of stewards, Mrs. M. Short, Messrs. William Campbell, W. Ford, M. E. Parsons, G. E. Wilkinson, F. Gilman, L. Ames, William Van Horn, E. A. Martin and K. J. Best; auditor, Mr. A. J. Sheltus; caretaker, Mr. J. C. Holland.

Reverend Duncan read some interesting facts and figures concerning the United Church as a whole showing that 20.46% of Canada's population were members or adherents of the United Church.

It was decided to have a financial statement for the year issued as usual and Mr. Alex MacArthur agreed to look after same.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. William Campbell for his interest and assistance in helping to keep the church property in good condition. Special mention was also made of Mr. Holland's excellent caretaking in and around the church and hall.

It was agreed to appoint Mr. F. Gilman as chairman of a building committee, who with a representative from each of the different groups in the church, will work out plans and obtain prices for a building to be erected at the rear of the church to provide space for a new kitchen and choir dressing room.

The benediction was given by the Pastor, Reverend T. F. Duncan.
