Dr. N. Williamson Addressed Rotary On Welfare Work

"Problem of Crippled Child" Was Topic at Meeting Wednesday — Outlined Functions of Society For Crippled Children — Urged Support For Campaign Tomorrow — Archie Callard in Chair.

The importance of supporting welfare work for crippled children was outlined before the Westmount Rotary Club at the regular weekly meeting Wednesday in Victoria Hall by Dr. Norman Williamson, orthopaedic surgeon. Introduced by Dr. George Little, Dr. Williamson drew attention to the tag day tomorrow in aid of the Province of Quebec Society for Crippled Children, and then launched into his subject "The Problem of the Crippled Child."

There are two ways in which a child may become crippled, declared Dr. Williamson. It may be crippled when born, or it may acquire its defects later. These acquired cases come through two channels, accidents and disease. He pointed out that in recent years medical science has succeeded in reducing the number of crippled children born or crippled through disease, while mechanical science—the automobile—has increased the number of invalid children.

Dr. Williamson outlined various diseases which lead to crippling. He traced the history of care given to physically unfit children, from the time of the Spartans, who put misfits on the hillsides to be carried away by wild beasts, to the present day. The problem of caring for crippled children was largely neglected for many centuries, until Sir Robert Jones aroused interest in this direction in England during the nineteenth century.

When the Children's Memorial Hospital was first organized, Dr. Williamson said that difficulty was experienced in getting crippled children's mothers to send their children to an organization for assistance, and the work of interesting them was put in the hands of a ladies' committee. This was supplemented in later years when service clubs such as the Rotary became interested, and now the hospital has no difficulty in finding cases.

Dr. Williamson gave some interesting statistics regarding the work of the Province of Quebec Society for Crippled Children, and briefly outlined the various phases of work carried on. Children have been placed in healthful country homes, clothing has been distributed to needy young folk, social entertainments have been staged, visits to the two famous travelling Doll's Houses here were arranged last summer, Christmas toys and dinners were given, Easter treats arranged, and scores of other activities carried on.

The annual "Forget-Me-Not" tag day appeal tomorrow was stressed, and support for it was urged. Public aid plays an important part in the work of caring for crippled children, declared Dr. Williamson. In order to extend its facilities, the Society has opened a branch in Quebec City.

In closing, Dr. Williamson thanked Rotary for its help in past years. He was thanked by George Cavey, Bert Cuthbert led the community singing, and Leslie Raper sang. Percy French was at the piano.

Rotarian Archie Callard was in the chair.

VICE PRESIDENT
 Walter E. Harris, of Westmount, was elected vice-president for Canada of the National Restaurant Association at its annual convention in Chicago on Wednesday.

Membership Drive Of 'Y' Postponed

Will Begin Tuesday Instead Of Today — Supper Meeting Will Launch Campaign.

Unforeseen circumstances have necessitated the postponing of the Westmount YMCA's annual membership campaign until Tuesday evening, when a supper meeting will be held in the local building to launch the drive. A business engagement on the part of one of the officials is believed to have caused this changing of date.

Organization on the campaign is now practically complete, with H. J. Griswold as chairman and C. A. Smith as vice-chairman. The workers are divided into two general divisions, called The Furs and The Feathers, the groups in each division being named after some animal or bird bearing either fur or feathers. Lovell Carroll has charge of The Furs, while Eric Allison is looking after The Feathers.

The campaign objective this year is 216 new members, or renewals, divided as follows:—80 boys, 72 men, 64 ladies. The campaign went well "over the top" last year, and it is expected that it will well exceed expectations this time.

Robert McNeish, of the Central YMCA, will be the guest speaker at the dinner Tuesday evening, at which leaders and team captains will discuss plans and begin the drive, which will last until the end of the month.

Team captains under Lovell Carroll include Lloyd Adams, Bill Grindlay, G. H. Penrose, Percy Pink, E. Swain, Peter Cameron, Jack McCreath, Campbell Mussels; under Eric Allison, Stan Ross, John Annesley, John Lewis, Paul Kenwood, Ramsay Brown, Ross Seaman and Garnet Rogers.

Lady captains' names have yet to be announced.

Last Honors Paid S. Lane

Victoria Avenue Resident Died Thursday Aged 93 After an Illness of 15 Years

Many friends joined relatives in paying final tribute Saturday afternoon at the chapel of Jos. C. Wray and Bro., Mountain street, to Shadrack Lane, who died at his Victoria avenue home on Thursday after a lengthy illness. In his 94th year, Mr. Lane had been an invalid for nearly fifteen years.

Rev. G. E. Trueman conducted the services at the chapel and at the cemetery.

The chief mourners were two sons, James A. Lane, of Ottawa, and Shadrack Lane, of Montreal; a daughter, Miss Agnes R. Lane, with whom Mr. Lane had resided; a grandson, Arthur R. Lane, of Ottawa, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Brigman, of Montreal.

A reception will be held for new and continuing members, and a musical programme will be given under the direction of Mrs. A. Pichet.

AMERICANS IN SHANGHAI VOLUNTEER CORPS

Organized as part of Shanghai's famous Volunteer Corps, a militia unit with 83 years of service behind it, Americans are on duty with other foreigners in protecting the International Settlement. American volunteers, left, march past the branch of the Chase National Bank. Notice the American flag and the sand-bag-barricaded windows. At right, two of the American militiamen help to safety a tiny Chinese refugee in the Hongkew area. Civilian members of the British, American, Portuguese, and other foreign communities serve in the volunteers, and are called to active service in emergencies like the present one.

Two silver salvers were presented to Lt.-Col. J. Eric Slessor, E.D., officer commanding the Royal Montreal Regiment, on Saturday night at functions held in the Officers' and Sergeants' messes, on the occasion of his forthcoming marriage.

The presentation of the gift by the non-commissioned officers was made by R.S.M. W. R. Duncan, D.C.M., prior to the dinner given by the officers at which Col. Slessor was the guest of honor. The inscription bore the date October 6th, 1937, the day of his wedding.

Major H. W. Wood presided at the dinner at which Col. John Jenkins, Mayor of Westmount, and honorary colonel of the regiment was present, together with Col. G. V. Whitehead, V.D., immediate past commanding officer, and now commander of the 12th Infantry Brigade; Col. F. W. Fisher, Col. C. B. Price, D.S.O., D.C.M., V.D., A.D.C. and Lt.-Col. R. H. Gilbert Oliver, M.C., a chaplain, arrived later in the evening.

Col. Whitehead paid a high tribute to Col. Slessor's extremely hard work while second-in-command, and felicitations were also extended by other speakers. Col. Slessor briefly responded.

Municipally Run Swimming Pool Is Asked By Brother

Director Merry Alphonse of St. Leo's School Has Worked for Three Years to Interest Authorities in Desirability of Project — Has Petition With Five Thousand Names

Brother Merry Alphonse, director at St. Leo's School, has secured approximately five thousand names to his petition asking that a municipally run swimming pool be constructed in Westmount. An indefatigable worker, Brother Alphonse has directed strenuous efforts for the past three years to arouse the citizens of this city to the desirability of having a municipally run pool locally, and he has made countless calls, and had hundreds of interviews with prominent residents.

The Reverend Brother has visited local school and municipal authorities, and has at various times had petition forms posted in all Westmount public schools, both Protestant and Catholic, to be signed by the pupils.

About three thousand school pupils have appended their names to the petition, and perhaps two thousand adults have also offered their support in the matter.

The emphatical denial two weeks ago by city general manager P. E. Jarman that the city was contemplating the erection of a municipally run swimming pool indicates that action on the matter will not be forthcoming in the near future.

"It is a lengthy process to get people interested; to get them to see the desirability of having a pool in the city; to get them to realize that every young person should be taught to swim as a part of the school curriculum," declared Brother Alphonse to an Examiner representative this week. "In this direction my work is purely educational; once the general public can be made to see that a municipally run swimming pool is important, it will just be a matter of time before it becomes a reality."

Swimming Season
 "The swimming season of our school begins today; we have always recognized the importance of teaching our pupils to swim, and have availed ourselves of every opportunity to get them accustomed to water. Due to restricted facilities in Westmount, we must go to the Notre Dame de Grace Community Hall tank, which we can secure only at a rather awkward hour. We have always been shown every courtesy and consideration at this establishment but we feel that it would be more convenient in all respects to have a municipal pool in Westmount which we could use."

Municipal and educational authorities here have been approached on numerous occasions in this regard; it is believed that feeling is generally in favor of such a project, but that the customary cautiousness with which the city views an undertaking of this magnitude will make the day none too near when construction will be started on a city-owned swimming pool.

Meanwhile, Brother Merry Alphonse continues his work.

Mentions Survey
 Mr. Penrose mentioned a survey conducted among one thousand boys in Westmount schools last year, and said that only seventy five boys out of that thousand had no home responsibilities; all the others, he said, had some little chore or job to do daily, such as dishes, making their own beds, taking out ashes, etc.

In passing Mr. Penrose mentioned the "learn by rote" method of teaching academic subjects, and denounced it as unfair to children. "In the 'learn by rote' system the poor pupils forget everything before an examination; while the good ones forget after." He suggested that pupils be given more freedom and responsibility in their assignments.

The Association will not meet every month this year as has been the custom in the past, but will hold its next gathering early in December. Four meetings will thus be held during the year.

WESTMOUNT, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1937

THINGS FOR WHICH TO BE THANKFUL Monday is Thanksgiving Day, and of the many things Canadians have reason to be thankful for, perhaps the greatest is that, geographically, we are three thousand miles by water from both Europe and Asia. We can also be thankful that on this continent the great majority of the people still believe in the things their fathers held sacred: freedom of thought, of speech, of the press, of conscience. In the office of our Prime Minister there is engraved on the walls the words—"toleration," "moderation," "conciliation," the guide posts of government in a country where, due to conflicting interests of tongue and religion, they have special significance. We can also be thankful that to the south of us, as our only neighbours, we have a people of the same race, of the same love of liberty. Between our two nations there is an unguarded boundary of three thousand miles—a monument to mutual trust and affection, and an example that other nations could well take to heart.

BAD DETOURS The manner in which the authorities have handled the road repairs between St. Jerome and St. Jeanville, where there are presently two detours, leaves plenty to be desired. One would think that even the most elementary knowledge of the situation would convince those in charge that a narrow, bumpy road, wide enough for only one car, is hardly capable of handling the traffic that goes and comes on that important highway on a Sunday afternoon. Yet that is all that is provided, and last Sunday the traffic jam caused by these detours was one of the worst that has ever occurred on the Laurentian highway. It would have been little extra work to have made the detours capable of handling two-way traffic, which would have greatly alleviated the situation.

HIGH COST OF MOTORING Local car owners, in common with motorists throughout the province, are intensely interested in the campaign being waged by the automobile clubs, particularly by Mr. T. C. Kirby, to have license fees in Quebec lowered. The campaign has been given added impetus by the recent cut in license fees in the sister province of Ontario, where, even before the cut, the costs of driving an automobile were considerably less than in Quebec. Driving a car in the province that borders the St. Lawrence is indeed a luxury, to be indulged in only by those possessed of luxury purses. Even the cheapest used cars are as expensive to run, and to own if one disregards depreciation, as the most expensive. There seems to be plenty of room for exploration here by the tax experts. A graduated scale, based on selling price of new cars, and on the list price of used cars, would meet with general favour, we believe. It is a rather foolish situation that makes a man who buys a fifty dollar car on a parking lot pay as high a license fee as the man who buys a thousand dollar car in a showroom. There is the further consideration that the real problem of the automobile business is the used car. Were licenses to be reduced to the proportionate level of used car prices, what a boon that would be to the vendors. It would, indeed, greatly assist in the solution of the problem.

The Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest

The Westmount Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest is run with the kind co-operation of Mr. Godel, manager of the Westmount Theatre. Each week twelve passes are given to the six lucky winners who comply with the following requirements:— Simply find the two "ads." in the current issue of The Westmount Examiner in which the names of the two feature pictures being shown at the Westmount Theatre during the first half of the coming week are hidden. Submit all answers to The Contest Editor, The Westmount Examiner, 2191 Hampton Avenue, using the special coupon provided in each issue for the purpose. Contestants must be over 16 years of age. All answers must be in the office not later than Wednesday, and the names of the winners will be published in Friday's issue. A convenient coupon will be found elsewhere in the paper. The winners are drawn from among those who submit the correct answers, as, unfortunately, it would be impossible to give passes to everyone submitting the right answers. Winners in last week's contest are as follows, and they will receive their passes in today's mail. Mrs. Thomas, 2096 Claremont Ave., Apt. 36; Miss M. G. Deeth, 513 Claremont Ave.; Albert Briggs, 580 Lansdowne Ave.; Mrs. H. R. Rowe, 400 Kensington Ave.; Aline Alain, 1215 Greene Ave., Suite 5; Mrs. N. W. Dundas, 389 Roslyn Ave.

THE FORUM In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed Conducted by Howard S. Ross, K.C. NOTE:—The opinions expressed in these columns are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them. They are published for their general interest, variety and originality of treatment.

The British North America Act written by the Fathers of Confederation may have fitted conditions in a young country like Canada in 1867 but it is quite clear that it is not suited for conditions in 1937. It too often stands in the way of progress. It divides Canada into nine provinces each with its own laws and makes Canada's cost of government exceptionally expensive considering our population. It stands in the way of attempts to get national legislation which will give us unemployment insurance, national housing, financial relief to provinces, some phases of labour laws, marketing acts, traffic control and jurisdiction over insurance and the incorporation of companies.

Occasionally the charges of radicalism have grown out of a misunderstanding of the policy of the College, which is to seek enlightenment on all aspects of controversial social, political and economic issues. It is in the nature of "news" that those who speak in protest against the existing order, or in favor of drastic change, receive far more public attention than those who take the conservative side of the argument. Moreover, it has not always been easy to obtain speakers willing to uphold the conservative position. But the passage of time and vigorous explanation of the position of the College have done much to reduce the sort of misunderstanding here referred to.

F. A. Macquisten, K.C. (Conservative-Argyle) celebrated his 67th birthday by keeping the House of Commons amused with a speech about milk. He said in part: "Many people think pasteurized milk is milk from the pasture. It is nothing but half-baked milk lacking in nourishment. If you give it to rats they fail to reproduce their species. It is a form of birth control."

The manufacture of armaments is a profitable business. In peacetime, even, it is very profitable. A flow of money is started by the purchase of munitions, battleships and the like which is paid out partially in wages. The wages are spent for food, shoes and the peaceful equipment of day-to-day life. But the other side of the situation is tragically bleak.

Mainly such war manufactures are artificial stimulants, however, which have become habitual and absolutely necessary to the continuous functioning of business in the world. Business and commerce cannot do without its trade in war materials. In fact, the traffic in them must be constantly increased.

In 1931 all the great nations of the world spent $4,232,000,000 on national defense; in 1936 these same nations spent $9,552,000,000. The U.S. alone spent two billions of dollars of 1930-1931-1932 for national defense. In the period for 1935-1936-1937 this amount was increased to three billions. Trade throughout the world has increased because Europe has recovered itself somewhat by its own armament boom; war expenditures have given a false and hectic measure of prosperity which will end if peace comes.

An account of Reed College during its first quarter-century would not be complete without reference to charges of radicalism in economics, morals and religion which have been made against it from time to time. For the most part these have been an inevitable accompaniment of the career of a progressive college. If there were no such charges, the College might well look to its arteries. Occasionally these charges have been due to thoughtlessness on the part of the members of the College community, which is peculiarly subject to public notice, since Reed almost alone among institutions of its type is located under the glaring light of publicity afforded by a large city. Happily the students themselves are taking

CALVARY CHURCH NOTES

Harvest Thanksgiving Services will be held in Calvary Church, Dorchester St. at Greene Ave., Westmount, on Sunday next in keeping with the National Festival. Gifts of flowers, fruit and vegetables for the decoration of the Church and for distribution to worthy institutions, should be sent to the Church on Saturday, October 9th. The Minister of the Church, the Rev. T. W. Jones, will preach at both services on Sunday on Thanksgiving themes, combined with the two series of sermons now being delivered. At the morning service the subject will be—"Garlands and Stones," Triumph, Tragedy and Thanksgiving in the life of St. Paul, in which Paul's own teachings and experience will be interwoven in a lesson of the harvest life. The Children of the Friendly Home will sing uplifting and inspiring messages in sacred song at this service. At the evening service at 7.30 p.m. the subject of the sermon will be—"The Sower, the Seed and the Soil," wherein the parable of Jesus will be interpreted, setting forth its challenging ideals for Christian living as the third in the series of sermons on the Christian Life.

The Sunday School will meet at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. At the afternoon session the Minister will give an illustrated address setting forth the glories and the lessons of the Creator's works in nature. There will be no meeting of the Y.P.U. on Monday, Oct. 11th, on account of the National Festival Day. On Wednesday, Oct. 13th, the Women's Missionary Society will meet at 8.15 p.m. in a special session of Thanksgiving and Worship.

The Annual Thanksgiving Banquet under the auspices of the Women's Association will be held in the Church Hall on Friday, October 15th at 6.30 p.m. The address on this occasion will be delivered by Mr. W. Allen Walsh, M.P., on the very appropriate theme, "A Canadian Thanksgiving." A splendid programme of vocal and instrumental music, featuring the Misses Robb, Mr. Arthur Davidson, and readings by the Jean Williamson School of Dramatic Art and Rhythmic expression, will assure a most enjoyable and profitable evening for all who can attend this function. Tickets 50 cents each may be secured from members of the Women's Association and should be secured as early as possible.

HANG THE COST The young married man met his clergyman. "Well, John, you never paid me anything for marrying you as you promised you would." "No," John replied, "but I will pay you much more if you leave me the way you got me."

boys and girls of the church school. The doors open at 7 p.m. Only pupils of St. Andrew's school can be admitted.

Westmount Baptist Church Notes

All organizations of the congregation are now geared up to their Fall work. The supreme desire of the minister and officers is that all the people may find that wonderful fellowship and friendship in Christ which so beautifully characterizes the early churches. Prayer is being increasingly emphasized in the church's programme. Prayer creates the atmosphere that somehow releases the Power of God. The Wednesday evening meetings are planned to bring enrichment to lives and to qualify for the high service which is the privilege of all.

Sunday morning will be a Thanksgiving Service in the Church. The sermon theme will be: "Things that call for thank." The choir, under the direction of Mr. Shirley McKays, will render appropriate music. In the evening, Dr. Robert Hall Glover, F.R.G.S., director of the China Inland Mission will speak. The fact that China is at present the focal point of World Tragedy will add interest to the address of Dr. Glover who will speak of Triumphs of Grace in War-torn China.

On Tuesday evening, there will be a public meeting in the church under the auspices of the China Inland Mission. Dr. Glover and others will speak.

Westmount Authorities Help To Prevent Fires

During Fire Prevention Week Schools, Pastors, etc., Aid in Bringing to General Public Fire-loss Situation in Canada — Lessons Learned Now Valuable All Year

Local authorities are co-operating with Federal and Provincial governments in the present "Fire Prevention Week," a nation-wide campaign being sponsored to reduce fire-hazards throughout the country and to make the general public more and more conscious of the great losses to be attributed every year to fires, most of which can be traced to human carelessness.

The following letter has been received at the headquarters of the local Fire Department from the Provincial Fire Commissioner's office of the Department of Public Works of the Province of Quebec, and dated September 27th.

W. Wren, Esq.,
Chief of Fire,
Westmount.

Dear Sir:—
Re:—Fire Prevention week, October 3rd to 9th 1937.

During Fire Prevention Week we are looking forward to a concerted effort on the part of all municipal and school authorities to bring to the attention of the public the great losses caused by fire and which are very largely due to human carelessness.

If you would respectfully solicit the support of the various pastors within your limits to briefly mention the question of Fire Prevention at the Sunday services it is certain that the result will be to the advantage of this great cause.

May we rely on your co-operation during this campaign as in the past.

Yours very truly,
(Sgd.) F. X. AHERN.

Deputy Fire Commissioner.
It would be difficult to estimate the number of fires caused every year through human oversight. While some fires, such as those caused by lightning cannot be prevented, the great majority of outbreaks can be traced directly to some human failure to take proper precautions.

To mention a few of the causes of fires in dwellings: poorly insulated stoves; faulty chimneys; leaving fires burning in fireplaces or stoves after the oc-

Auto Theft Is Charged; $2500 Bail

A. Langlois Allegedly in Possession of Car Belonging to J. H. Dunlop

Charged with being in possession of an allegedly stolen automobile, Paul Langlois, 32, of no address, was accorded bail of $2,500 when he appeared in arraignment court Monday. He appears today to face the charge. The car in question is claimed to have been stolen Thursday night from J. H. Dunlop, 250 Redfern avenue. Langlois was also charged with being in possession of a loaded revolver.

The high bail is part of a new policy followed under Judge Perreault in the Arraignment Court. Six other persons, accused of fraud, assault, theft and possession of an illegal weapon, were denied bail. Crown prosecutors have recently been demanding that bail be refused persons accused of serious charges, or that high bail be levied.

YMCA Held Conference At Week End

Association's Work With Youth Discussed at Conference Held at St. Margaret's Saturday and Sunday

At the Alpine Inn, St. Marguerite's Station, fifty of the Directors of the Montreal Y.M.C.A. met over the week-end to discuss the purposes and obligations of the Y.M.C.A. in its work with youth.

With beautiful weather prevailing a golf game was enjoyed on Saturday afternoon. In the evening, after dinner, Dean W. Graham of Oberlin, Ohio, led the group in discussing "The Place of Religion in the World today." A lively discussion ensued, which was directed by Mr. Guy Tombs.

The morning session was addressed again by the conference leader, Dean Graham, on the "Message and Purposes of the Y.M.C.A."

In the evening the meeting was presided over by Mr. John Frost and led by Mr. Gerald Birks, on "The Place of the Layman in the Association." This was held to be the most significant part of Association work.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD SCHOOL DAYS ARE HERE

The many school activities offer countless opportunities for snapping pictures that you will enjoy in years to come.

If there was ever a snapshotter's paradise, it's school for those who attend it. It may be a one-room school or it may be a great university. Wherever, whatever it may be, it's crammed with unbeatable picture possibilities.

Yet we might as well face the fact of the matter—few snapshotters make the most of school's snapshotting opportunities.

Perhaps they are dazzled by the very wealth of the material at hand. More likely they assume that somebody else is going to take the pictures. And that's a fatal mistake. For nobody else can see things as you see them. And it's what you see that means most to you—and to the folks at home, now or years from now.

The question, then, is how to make the most of school's picture possibilities. A little planning will do the trick.

First, about the right camera for school. Any camera will do, providing it is clean and in good order and uses a size of film that is easily available anywhere. If yours has a fast lens and a fast shutter, you'll have an advantage in taking shots at sporting events, but such a camera is not at all essential. With a

Boy Is Hurt In Tumbling From Slide

Brother Admits Pushing Lad From Playground Apparatus — Few Traffic Mishaps

The accident record at the Station street police station carries few reports of local mishaps this week, the traffic division having not been overworked. Minor smashes and bent fenders are for the most part all that have occurred here in the past few days.

Six year old Gilles de Bellefeuille, 930 Agnes street, was taken to the Western division of the Montreal General Hospital on Tuesday afternoon in police car No. 35 following a fall from a slide in Selby Park at about three thirty. Police on arriving found J. Walls, superintendent at the park, carrying the boy at the corner of Greene avenue and St. Antoine St. He was rushed to the hospital, where he was reported to be suffering from concussion of the brain. Police report that the boy's brother, Claude, said he knocked him from the slide when the two slid down one immediately following the other. Constable Rene Tremblay investigated.

On Friday at 6.10 p.m. a car collided with the rear end of a truck opposite 334 Cote St. Antoine Road and careened wildly across the sidewalk through the fence and smashed into the wall of a house owned by S. W. Jacobs, K.C.

The driver of the car was brought to the police station by Constables Belec and McRae, and was examined by Dr. McNaughton, who reported that the man was under the influence of liquor and not fit to drive a car. He was brought up for trial this week, but hearing was postponed till next Tuesday.

Trees and shrubbery were badly damaged in front of Mr. Jacobs' house. It is understood that the driver of the car, tried to pass a truck while proceeding west along Cote St. Antoine road, but misjudged his distance, struck the rear end of the truck and then lost control of his car.

Of Interest To Teachers

Because of her work, not to mention her extra curricular activities, a teacher must be perfectly groomed at all times—but the difficult thing about it is she's so frightfully busy. It's something of a problem to find time for beauty services every week—isn't it?

Mrs. Ida Campbell of Campbell's Beauty Parlour at 4870 Sherbrooke St. W. believes she has solved the problem. Mrs. Campbell says her new Teachers' Noontime service requires exactly one hour and fifteen minutes for a complete "hair do" and manucure. It sounds impossible, perhaps, but she has carefully tested the timing and knows it is possible to maintain the schedule. The secret of it is they don't waste any time. You needn't go without lunch either. You may order whatever you wish and eat your lunch while your hair is drying.

When you have a little extra time and are preparing for that important date or when you need an uplift after a particularly hard day—when you're feeling as bedraggled and forlorn as yesterday's newspaper reach for your phone and make an appointment for a "Cinderella Treatment"—including facial treatment, hairstyle and manucure—then you'll feel and look like next month's "Vogue."

Send us a report of that party, dance, club meeting or social.

Phone Call Fills Baby's Bottle For Patrons Of Capital Service

SUPPLIES OF CORRECT FEEDINGS DELIVERED DAILY

Preparing baby's bottle gets on your nerves? Then you'll envy Washington, D.C., mothers who can call up Mrs. John McGee, left, and let her take care of the task in scientific fashion. Mrs. McGee's service eliminates everything except giving baby the bottle. She furnishes everything, including sterilized nipples. At right, you see how carefully bottles are sterilized before filling.

Naturally, the particular formula your doctor has prescribed for Jane or Junior, prepared under hospital conditions of sanitation and care, goes into the bottles. After sealing, the bottles and sterilized nipples are packed, a full day's supply at a time, and rushed by truck to the waiting infant. Mrs. McGee's idea in launching the venture is to give mothers more time to spend with their families.

THE GREATEST VOICE IN RADIO

Aiming "bristling of warning" at national targets of evident identity, President Roosevelt sent the inspiring — and greatly strengthened message of peace thundering to all corners of a sickened world this week. It was the second time in ten days that the finest voice in radio had echoed in all cities of all lands carrying with it words of foresight and wisdom most annoying to tender dictatorial ears.

"America—hates—war."
"America—wants—peace."
"America engages—in—the fight—for—peace."
Strong words, these. Perhaps, historic words. Undoubtedly more than oratorical phraseology.

There, for all the world to hear, was definite warning to those who would toy with others' lives and happiness.

You have, perhaps, seen this in the press of recent date. We think, as the greatest broadcast message of the day, it bears repetition. Read it slowly. Digest each word, each thought.

"Things have been growing progressively worse in the world of today. A haunting fear of calamity pervades the air."

"It is not impossible that we may see a time when men, exultant in the technique of homicide, will swarm all over the world until all is lost, wrecked or totally destroyed."

"If those things come to pass let no one imagine America will escape, that it may expect mercy, that this Western Hemisphere will not be attacked, and that it will continue peacefully and tranquilly to carry on the ethics and arts of civilization."

"The peace, freedom, security and happiness of 99 per cent of the world's population is jeopardized by 10 per cent which threatens to destroy international law and order" — to break up homes, to spread death and destruction.

"Surely," argued the President, "surely the 99 per cent can and MUST find some way to make their will prevail."

It was an inspiring message

Kay Francis Errol Flynn Co-starring

Going far afield for a picturesque setting for a movie, Warner Bros. this time chose Iraq (which used to be Arabia) as a locale. They placed a British garrison there, had its members surrounded by wild natives, and offered the problem of how the soldiers and their officers and wives were to be saved—if saved they might be.

"Another Dawn" is the name of the picture. It is now playing at the Westmount until Saturday night.

Add to that situation the fact that Kay Francis is the lady most chiefly concerned—and that the two men who love her are Errol Flynn and Ian Hunter—and both have a chance to save her and the garrison—and you have the ingredients of real drama.

It all makes a very thrilling movie, and preview experts have put it up to the top of the list among the action and romance pictures of the year.

Errol Flynn is said to surpass his performance in that history-making movie, "The Charge of the Light Brigade." And it is said, too, that Hunter (once the idol of all the matinee girls in London) has the best opportunity that has come to him since the Warners imported him to play the Duke of Athens in "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

There are mountains and deserts and a lot of daring and some extremely daring airplane flying in "Another Dawn," the producers declare. Also a stirring climax when the time comes for one or the other of Miss Francis' admirers to save the garrison.

The man who directed "The Story of Louis Pasteur" and "The White Angel"—William Dieterle—guided the making of "Another Dawn." Besides the three stars, the cast includes such excellent players as Frieda Inescort, Herbert Mundin, Billy Bevan, Clyde Cook, Mary Forbes and G. P. Huntley, Jr.

Dick Powell Star Of New Film Musical

Just what the title indicates is the story of "The Singing Marine," which, with Dick Powell as its star, will have its local premiere at the Westmount Theatre on Sunday.

Dick is a Marine—a modest buck private at the San Diego base—and he can sing. So his comrades get up a purse to send him to New York to have a try at "Major Bowes" amateur hour.

At the same time, on her own, Dick's sweetheart essays to enter her voice into the competition. This is Doris Weston, a lovely and talented newcomer to movies.

She doesn't get by. The Major's famous gong stops her. But Dick becomes a tremendous success.

That was just too bad! It goes to Dick's head. Spoiled by the adulation of innumerable women, and the fawning of chisellers who surround him, the young Marine forgets his comrades out on the Pacific Coast.

But after all he's only on a leave of absence from the Marines, and when, at the end of his furlough he's shipped with the rest of his company to China, he has a chance to redeem himself with a splendid bit of heroism, which restores him to everyone's good graces.

A splendid cast surrounds Dick Powell in the gay song and dance fest, including Hugh Herbert, Allen Jenkins, Doc Rockwell from vaudeville, Jane Wyman and Veda Ann Borg.

into Chez Maurice one night while the quintette, with Henry Matthews on the clarinet, is on the stand . . . Emily Post, expert on etiquette, makes her air debut through Columbia October 19, with a series on "How to Get The Most Out of Life." Sponsored by Florida Grapefruit, the show will doubtless hit you in the eye.

FINALE

Charlie McCarthy has been signed by Universal Pictures and will accompany Edgar Bergen to the Universal lot following completion of their roles in "The Goldwyn Follies" at MGM The World Series, currently aired through three local posts daily, are unsponsored for the first time in several years It appears broadcast rights, like admission tickets, are slightly steeply priced Broadcast of the baseball classic, though carried by all local network affiliates, will probably spell cancellation of Sunday's Magic Key

Seymour Simon's Band, Baritone Barry McKinley and a girl singer by the name of Sally Jo Nelson have been signed for a new Columbia series starting soon.

IN DRAMATIC ROMANCE

Errol Flynn is pictured in an action scene from "Another Dawn," which will play at the Westmount today until Saturday night. This feature includes in its cast Kay Francis and Ian Hunter.

IN SINGING MUSICAL ROMANCE

Repertory Theatre In 8th Season

Beginning its eight consecutive season as Montreal's leading source of legitimate theatre, the Montreal Repertory Theatre plans another programme which will bring interesting and entertaining plays to the public. The MRT's record in the past few years has proved that they have emerged from the "amateur theatrical" class and that their presentations come very close to regular professional standards in acting, setting and general production. Membership in the MRT is open to anybody without any restrictions and the membership fee of ten dollars for the season provides one of the most inexpensive and satisfactory entertainment values offered in Montreal as it entitles the member to two free seats to all MRT productions on the regular schedule.

In addition to the six major productions there are numerous interesting Studio and School of the Theatre plays and this season also a series of lectures on them which will be illustrated with actual scenes from the plays. The MRT's first major play will open at Victoria Hall on October 19. It is "Fresh Fields" which convulsed London and New York audiences and was voted one of the brightest plays of recent years. Martha Allan, producing director of the MRT and acknowledged one of Canada's most brilliant comedy actresses will be seen in the leading role.

The annual membership campaign under the chairmanship of J. Aird Nesbitt is reported to be progressing satisfactorily and it is expected will better last year's record mark. In a message to theatre-lovers of the city he says in part:

The Montreal Repertory Theatre's productions last season had an attendance of fifteen thousand, four hundred and eighty satisfied theatre-goers. In the past two years the MRT has grown to be the largest, most successful, most active Little Theatre in Canada.

The MRT record for the presentation of interesting and entertaining plays, as well as its ever-growing influence in the artistic life of the community, must compel the consideration of anyone who is at all interested in the spoken drama.

As an unendowed, non-profit organization the MRT depends financially on the subscriptions of its members. It seems almost superfluous to reiterate the reasons why you should become a member and why you should influence others to subscribe. The most obvious reasons are:—

- (1) You get good value for your money. A $10.00 membership entitles a subscriber to two free seats for each of the season's six major productions, two free admissions to all Studio and School presentations and a copy of the "Cue" each month. (2) You are doing your bit towards the MRT goal—the establishment of a permanent Little Theatre in Montreal—a goal which you will be pleased to know is evolving from the nebulous stage.

LITERARY FARMERS

No wonder labour is high, with so many farm hands writing bad poetry.

Mercado's Tipica Orchestra At His Majesty's On Sunday

Opening their second coast-to-coast tour in Montreal, Mercado's Tipica Mexican Orchestra will appear in His Majesty's Theatre, Sunday, at 3:00 p.m. under the direction of Angel J. Mercado, the eminent Mexican director.

At an early age Senor Mercado received his first musical education at the well-known Mexican Music Academy at Puebla, Mexico, and first came to the United States some years ago. Based on his wide experience he formed his present ensemble which combines the richness of orchestral effect with the delicacy, finish, and even balance of tone possible only to a group of modest size.

Senor Mercado is himself an accomplished violinist and plays clarinet, but he has learned through successful musical talent lies not only in directing groups but in composition and arrangement of orchestrations. Today he is one of the better known of the Mexican composers whose work as a whole has received favorable comment and high praise from seasoned and well-informed critics.

In arranging the program which he presents on his concert tours, Senor Mercado has recognized the talent not only of many of his fellow Mexican composers, but he has selected at wide range a number of the most beautiful compositions in all of Latin American musical history, thus not confining himself to the music of Mexico.

Several years ago when the Mexican Government determined to select one of its outstanding musicians to present with a Mexican company a series of weekly broadcasts over the facilities of the National Broadcasting Company, Angel J. Mercado was chosen for this honor.

During his first national concert tour last season, Mercado proved himself worthy of the trust which had been placed in him by the Mexican Government and his colorful group won high praise throughout the country. His great Tipica Orchestra is the only organization of its kind nationally known and nationally recognized. It will appear in His Majesty's Theatre, under the auspices of the Canadian Artists' Bureau.

Crippled Kiddies See Marionettes

When the Tony Sarg Marionettes appear at Victoria Hall next Saturday, October 16th, fifty members of the School for Crippled Children will be the guests of the Canadian Artists' Bureau at the afternoon performance of "Robinson Crusoe." Inspired by an article from the pen of Charles Dickens, in which the famed author said that "we have never grown the thousandth part of an inch out of Robinson Crusoe . . . we have never grown out of his parrot, or his dog, or his fowling-piece . . ." Tony Sarg has chosen this masterful story of Cannibals, the man Friday, Will Atkins, and other exciting incidents as his feature program for the current season. "Robinson Crusoe" will be shown at 2:30 in the afternoon.

A special show for very young children will be staged Saturday at 10:15 a.m. when Humpty Dumpty, Alice in Wonderland, Rip Van Winkle, and many other familiar characters will be woven into the "Episodes of 1938."

Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado" will be presented in the evening. All performances will be staged in the Victoria Hall, Westmount. The Tony Sarg Marionettes Company will make only three appearances in Montreal—all on Saturday, October 16th.

Samuel Levitan, a talented young Montreal pianist and radio-artist, a pupil of Paul DeMarkey, will give another piano recital at Tudor Hall on Monday evening, November 8th at 8:45.

Phoenix Island Group Extremely Interesting

Great Britain has sent the patrol sloop Leith from Suva, Fiji, to Canton Island, in the Phoenix group (with two wireless operators and materials and equipment to establish a radio station there. This makes it clear that Britain holds to her claim to Canton Island, which was the source of mild friction in June when expeditions from the United States and New Zealand visited that area to observe the eclipse of the sun.

Beyond the matter of sovereignty, however, New Zealand considers the move as a step toward establishment of a British commercial airline between Australia and Canada. The route has been surveyed by British warships; it has also been flown over by American airmen, a Pan American Clipper having made the trip from Alameda, Calif., to Auckland, N. Z., last March.

Canton Island is the chief spot of land among the tiny dots which make up the Phoenix group, 2,700 miles north of New Zealand. The importance of this archipelago, which lies just south of the equator, is readily seen on any map of the South Pacific. The Phoenix group lies almost on a line between New Zealand and Honolulu, practically half way between the two.

Possible Air Bases
Canton Island covers about eight and a half square miles, nourishes shrub vegetation and provides a salt-water lagoon navigable to boats which draw up to 5 feet. McKean and Birnie Islands, small atolls; Phoenix Island, thirty acres of grass, and Gardner Island, near by, has another powerful defense—swarms of sharks. As a boat pulls up to the anchorage there, frequently sharks even charge its hull. "Shooting the reef" at Gardner is an exciting business and is done amid a perfect cadron of foam. The thrill of crossing the knife-edged coral amid seething water full of

MUSICAL Sharps, Flats and NATURALS

by FRANCES GOLTMAN

What Radio Has Meant

For the past ten years, since the advent of radio, that magical invention of the twentieth century, everyone has become more and more music conscious. We all know that music is one of the soothing necessities of life, whether our taste lies in jazz or classic style and the future of music really is within the field of radio. Because of its limitless possibilities this wonder instrument has given to the budding musicians of our generation vast opportunities for advancement that our forefathers never had.

Through the radio the musicians have had to become better than just ordinary in their work, for their performance must be flawless to avoid the severe criticism of the great unseen audience listening to the rendition. People who did not bother to go to symphony concerts and claimed that they did not like the dry uninteresting classics found themselves listening through curiosity just because a well known sponsor would choose a great orchestra to advertise his product and strangely enough, found themselves looking forward with increasing ardor to the next broadcast. Why? Simply because before listening he had imagined he did not have a taste for this particular type of music but he did not have to leave his fire-place and thought he may as well listen since all his friends did, and found, much to his own amazement, that he liked it. Some people have to acquire a taste, others have it dormant within themselves and the radio has developed this taste until today, many persons have been educated musically, just through the radio.

Frances Goltman, author of 'Musical Sharps, Flats and Naturals'.

When one plays or sings over the air-waves he cannot resort to showmanship or platform personality but has to depend entirely on his own musical ability, therefore radio is laying the ground work for more thorough musicians and offers vast opportunities to those with true talent for it and brings about a more just way of judging the performance than before an audience.
Music has been called "The Magic Carpet of Radio." True, it really is, but what caused this? In dramatic programs, and there are a great many, music does play an invaluable part. It can put the unseen audience immediately into the mood of the play for it takes the place of stage settings and costumes and as one scene fades into another, use is made of the music to transport the imagination of the listener to the following act in the play. As for the programs devoted entirely to music, they have and will continue to dominate radio. Then again there is the "Theme Song" or Radio Signature of a certain program that puts us right away in the mood for that particular radio favorite. It opens and closes the program and we feel it as a friendly greeting. Many wonder about this surprising increase of interest in good music. What is the answer? It is simply that radio has caused great musical progress.

sharks is something few people want often.
Sydney Island Cats
Sydney Island is noted for its herds of ravenous cats. They are huge brutes and will wade through water, bane of the feline tribe, to reach small fish on the reef. Their advent dates from an attack on copra and on young coconuts by swarms of rats. The cats came, 150 of them, from Sydney, brought by an ill-advised planer. They made short work of the rats and then began breeding at a rapid rate.
Curious things, happen on the islands. Thus, though Sydney and Hull Islands are near neighbors the fish caught around Hull Island are edible while those at Sydney Island are poisonous. The natives can demonstrate this by a crude test. They place a bright silver coin in the flesh of a Sydney fish and after cooking reveal the presence of black spots upon it.

But today there is little use for the Phoenix group. Old traders say that the Samoa Shipping and Trading Company of Sydney held a lease of all the islands from the British from 1914, but that in 1926 the lease was sold to a shipping company. Little copra is raised there now and the group has been left to the birds and sharks and the giant cats.

Royal Connaught Hotel Now Under Vernon Cardy

Hamilton, Ontario.—(By Special Correspondent)—Accepted today by an overwhelming vote of all classes of security holders was the plan for the reorganization of the Royal Connaught Hotel submitted on behalf of Vernon G. Cardy, Managing Director of the Mount Royal Hotel, Montreal, and President of the General Brock Hotel, Niagara Falls, and the Prince Edward Hotel, Windsor, by the Montreal financiers George A. Ross and C. A. Ripley.
The ownership's passing into Mr. Cardy's hands does not effect a great change for he has been Vice-President and a member of the Owners Syndicate of the Royal Connaught Hotel, and has been the active Executive head of the hotel for the past four years.

The plan, as set forth by Mr. Cardy's representatives received practically the entire support of the local shareholders and stockholders in the Company. Under the proposed plan of reorganization it has been provided that the First Mortgage will be paid for in cash and the second mortgage bondholders would receive 25 per cent in cash and the balance in a new Secind Mortgage bond paying 4 per cent. The present Preferred and Common stockholders would exchange shares for a new Common. Under the new capital set-up Mr. Cardy has arranged a $700,000 First Mortgage; $190,875 Second Mortgage Bonds; $495,000, of 20 year Income Debenture stock of the bond issue for holders of present Series "A" and Series "B" Debentures.

THANKSGIVING

We thank thee Lord with full and humble hearts
For all good gifts which thou hast granted us
From out the earth. The summer of the year departs
And leaves us Harvest; Thy bounty has enchanted us.

Great fields of corn, and luscious waving wheat;
Lush gardens filled with all that man requires;
Who fails to understand this scene so sweet,

Let's raise our song in hearty jubilee
And thank the Lord for all his graciousness;
His bounty has fulfilled necessity;

WESTMOUNT HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS

W.H.S. vs. Argyle

Westmount inaugurated the Junior Football Season Monday afternoon with a terrific defeat over Argyle Juniors by a score of 27-0. Westmount's scrimmage line held well throughout the game, while the kicking was fair.

In the first period W. H. S. started the kicking and forced their way down to Argyle's 5 yard line, where Malabre took the ball over for a touch. It was converted by a pass from Mills to Whitaker. Fumbles, passes, penalties, Boxer and Fraser made up the rest of the first quarter.

Half-way through the quarter Argyle tried a pass, but it was knocked down and they were forced to kick. The Purple and White squad took the kick down to Argyle's 20 yard line for first down. Fraser, W.H.S.'s left-half, pulled an end run for a touch. However, the ball was not converted.

A little later Boxer, Argyle's quarterback, intercepted a pass and ran to Westmount's 30 yard line where he was pulled down. However, this did not benefit Argyle as the period ended shortly.

In the second quarter there was very little action until the end when Fraser made a 35 yard run to be pulled down on Argyle's 25 yard line. On Westmount's first Salesman: "Thank you sir. Will one pair be enough?"

TOO ROMANTIC

"Can you take me to the station?" the old lady asked the taxi-driver.

"Sorry, ma'am, I'm engaged," was the reply.

"Then I'm sure I wish you every happiness, but you musn't let love interfere with your work."

BOOK REVIEW

by HOWARD S. ROSS

"100% MONEY"
by IRVING FISHER, LL.D., Professor Emeritus of Economics, Yale University, Adelphi Company Publishers, 67 West 44th Street, New York. Price $2.50.

This new and important proposal is already the basis for several Bills introduced in the U.S.A. Congress. The author points out what he considers to be the dangers and defects of the present U.S.A. National banking system "evident to informed economists since the bank crash."

Professor Fisher, aided by a group of bankers and economists who have formulated memoranda on the plan, has developed a system designed to make runs on commercial banks practically impossible, prevent the dangers of both sudden inflation and deflation, and wipe out much of the national debt.

Over one hundred bankers and economists assisted in the preliminary criticism, and several national organizations have given the plan approval. Written for the laymen essentially this book will stimulate wide discussion.

In a Forward, Robert H. Hemphill, former Credit Manager of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta wrote: "In Professor Fisher's book, he presents in lucid detail the operation of this (U.S.A.) erratic banking-monetary system and the obvious remedy. It is the most important subject intelligent persons can investigate and reflect upon. It is so important that our present civilization may collapse unless it is widely understood and the defects remedied very soon. It is your problem and mine."

In the chapter "In Conclusion" he wrote: "The 100% proposal is the opposite of radical. What it asks, in principal, is a return from the present extraordinary and ruinous system of lending the same money 8 or 10 times over, to the conservative safety-deposit system of the old goldsmiths, before they began lending out improperly what was entrusted to them for safekeeping. It was the abuse of trust which, after being accepted as standard practice, evolved into modern deposit banking. From the standpoint of public policy it is still an abuse, no longer an abuse of trust but an abuse of the loan and deposit functions."

"England effected a reform and a partial return to the goldsmith's system when, nearly a century ago, the Bank Act was passed, requiring a 100% reserve for all Bank of England notes issued beyond a certain minimum (as well as for the notes of all other note-issuing banks then existing). Professor Frank D. Graham of Princeton, in a statement favoring the 100% money plan, says of President Adams that he "denounced the issuance of private bank notes as a fraud upon the public. He was supported in this view by all conservative opinion of his time."

"Finally, why continue virtually to farm out to the banks for nothing a prerogative of Government? That prerogative is defined as follows in the Constitution of the United States (Article I, Section 8): 'The Congress shall have power . . . to coin money (and) regulate the value thereof.' Virtually, if not literally, every checking bank coins money; and these banks, as a whole, regulate, control, or influence the value of all stitution, business, industry, agri-

Wandering Boys Return To Homes

Chicago — The three little Crofoot boys, who disappeared for twelve days, presumably to hunt Indians, turned up in new outfits of clothing the other day and with the stamp of juvenile financiers upon them.

Their love for pomes proved their undoing. Herbert Fritz, at whose park concession they rode ponies wildly, saw them asleep along the roadside in suburban Desplaines shortly after and turned them over to the police. The boys—William Crofoot Jr., 14 years old; Robert, 11, and Jack, 10—apparently had their ambitions sidetracked from redskin raiding to big business.

"We made $2.50 from selling home-made candy," William said. "We bought twenty-six tomatoes and sold them to some workmen at two for a nickel. We bought thirty peaches for 25 cents and sold them at two for a nickel. We did all right on candy bars, too. So we bought ourselves new clothes."

"Gosh, if we had known our dad and mom were worried we wouldn't have stayed so long."

Sad Story Of Nook For Two

Many villages in England commemorated the coronation of King George VI by placing seats—more or less permanent—along their roads and lanes. Pangbourne, near Winchester in Hants, did not. Although Pangbourne has asserted that it invented this desirable custom at the time of the Silver Jubilee of George V, it did not honour his son by perpetuating it.

The reason is that among the original seats distributed was one that had been allowed to remain where it had been installed in Lover's Lane on Pangbourne Hill. It was the last one put up by the village joiner and, because his lumber had given out, he made it smaller than the others—two moderately sized persons could hardly sit on it without crowding.

It was otherwise very popular. It stood in a natural alcove in the lane shaded on three sides by dense poplars. The fourth side giving on the lane was almost negligible until a surveyor found that the alcove intruded on adjoining property.

In the twilight of one evening, as one couple approached the favourite seat they found their way barred. A wire fence had been erected across its entrance with a warning that occupants of the seat would be regarded as trespassers and prosecuted as such.

The next thing the villagers knew was that the old seat had disappeared altogether. Inquiry located it in Pangbourne's recreation ground beside the river. culture, and banking require stable units of measure and no one but the Government can possibly furnish them.

"Stable money will enable capitalism to function far more successfully than hitherto. This means that any modifications which may be required in capitalism in the future will be far less than those which it will be threatened so long as the money question remains unsolved. At the present time our monetary system has money. Apologists for the present monetary system cannot justly claim that, under the mob rule of thousands of little private mints, the system has worked well. If it had worked well, we would not recently have lost 8 billions out of 23 billions of our check-book money."

"If our bankers wish to retain the strictly banking function, loaning—which they can perform better than the Government, they should be ready to give back the strictly monetary function which they cannot perform as well as the Government. If they will see this and for once say 'yes' instead of 'no' to what may seem to them a new proposal, there will probably be no other important opposition."

In the chapter "The Capitalistic System" he wrote: "Stabilizing the dollar under the 100% plan is not of itself socialistic; nor does it tend toward socialism. It merely does for the dollar what has already been done for the yard, bushel, and other units used in commerce, as provided for, a century and a half ago, in our broken down primarily because it has been unworkable, under the mob rule of twenty thousand private mints."

"To reconstruct this monetary system, to recreate the missing money and thereafter to maintain it at a prescribed normal, is the greatest service Government can render business as well as the most legitimate. It is not simply justifiable. It is indispensable."
