BROOKLYN FIRE CLAIMED SEVERAL VICTIMS French Hope Reply Will Prevent Rupture Of Entente

Look To Britain To Postpone Any Separate Action

French Reply to British Government's Note on Reparations Question Was Delivered to British Embassy This Morning—Considerable Confidence Is Expressed in French Official Circles that British Cabinet Will Find Reply Conciliatory and See in It a Basis for Continued Discussion of Ruhr Occupation and Reparations Problem Generally—Said to Be a Tendency to Look More Favorably on a New Reparations Conference Among Allies.

(Associated Press Despatch)

PARIS, August 21.—The French Government's reply to the recent note of Marquis Curzon, the British Foreign Secretary, on the reparations situation, was handed to the British embassy at nine o'clock this morning.

The hope in French official circles is that this note, indited by Premier Poincare, will prevent a rupture of the Entente. Considerable confidence is expressed that the British Cabinet will find it conciliatory and see in it a basis for continued discussion of the Ruhr occupation and the reparations problem generally.

There is no concealment of the fact that the reply is largely controversial, that Premier Poincare is unyielding on the outstanding features of the situation, and that it is not expected Premier Baldwin will find the reply conclusive.

It is hoped, however, that he will regard it as encouraging and will withhold any plans for separate action toward Germany until the points in dispute are further elucidated.

There is said to be a tendency to look more favorably on a new reparations conference among the Allies, and it is thought to be certain that Premier Poincare will see Premier Baldwin when the latter returns from his vacation today at Aix-les-Bains.

The French reply takes up fifty pages of a Yellow Book, which will be issued tomorrow, together with a summary in both English and French.

He conferred with President Coolidge during the day, the announcement being made later that he would continue as head of the Treasury Department.

Mr. Mellon, who is chairman of the United States Debt Commission, was declared to be pessimistic regarding completion in the near future of additional funding.

They adjourned their meetings in July for the purpose of returning to their capitals and reporting to their respective governments. While the decision to re-open the meetings is regarded as an encouraging sign, British officials profess to see little hope of an agreement unless France is ready to make more liberal concessions and to relax her military and economic domination in Tangier.

TEN FIREMEN LOST LIVES WHEN ROOF AND WALL OF BUILDING AT BROOKLYN COLLAPSED; MANY HURT

Seven of Injured Not Expected to Recover—Exact Toll Cannot Be Known Until the Still Smouldering Heart of Wreckage Can Be Reached—Fire Was in Fifty-Year-Old Building, the Lower Portion of Which Was Used for Stores and the Upper Part as a Dancing Hall—Wall Crashed in Without Warning—Rescue Squads Still Hard at Work.

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Tragedy descended on the city during the night, when the roof and one wall of the New Plaza Hall, located at Grand and Havemeyer Streets, in Brooklyn, crashed during a spectacular fire and hurled a number of firemen into the blazing ruins.

For hours rescue parties worked frantically in the debris, and first reports placed the number of dead at ten. Hampered by darkness and the intense heat bursting from the smoking, flame-lit pile, firemen and police at 9.30 o'clock this morning were able to compile only an unverified casualty list.

According to this list, two firemen—Raymond Carroll and James Sullivan, both members of the same engine company—were killed, and forty-seven men, most of them fire fighters, were seriously injured, six perhaps fatally.

The search of the ruins, however, has not yet been completed, for the fire was still smouldering, with fitful bursts of flame.

The fire, of unknown origin, was in a fifty year old building, that formerly housed a Masonic temple. Of recent years it has housed two stores on its ground floors, while the second and third stories were given over to dance halls. Firemen found a stubborn blaze, and as the building was in the heart of a close packed tenement district, three additional fire alarms were rung in.

WALL CRASHED IN WITHOUT WARNING.

Working under the glare of a half dozen hastily erected arc lights, the fire fighters apparently had the fire under control at two o'clock. The curious crowd had begun to disperse. A score of firemen were on the lower floor with hoses. Six hook and ladder men were taking hoses roofward by way of the fire escapes. Seven men were on the roof, chopping at a cornice.

CRASH HEARD FOR LONG DISTANCE.

The crash was heard for blocks around and thousands of men, women and children flowed from the close packed tenements to crowd about the tragic spot and add to the confusion. The women, most of them of Latin extraction, capped their horror with hysteria, and their cries rose above the shouts and groans of the injured.

RESCUERS SET TO WORK.

The rescuers worked, at first, under the glare of the flames which flared up anew with the crash. They continued their task under the light of several arc lights hastily installed by their comrades. It was slow work. The debris was hot and great clouds of smoke and steam arose as tons of water was poured on to cool the pile and facilitate rescue. The first body removed was that of a fireman, killed by bricks. Then five injured were removed. From then on the victims were extricated one at a time. It was daylight before the wall's wreckage had been cleared from the street and the dead and injured removed.

Then the rescuers concentrated their efforts on clearing away to the fateful central heap of debris beneath which they believe their comrades to lie. This entails a tremendous task, as the remaining walls, now tottering, must be shored up, and the hot wreckage, more than four feet in depth at this point, must be cooled before the final burrowing can begin.

The end of the cabinet, it is said, is united in the conviction that the situation can be saved only by most energetic measures, the nature of which will be announced today.

C.G.I.T. CAMP IS IN SESSION AT KNOWLTON

Over One Hundred Girls in Attendance—Daily Programme Interesting.

KNOWLTON, Aug. 21.—The Knowlton Conference grounds present a very lively appearance this week. The C.G.I.T. camp is in session in the interests of the Canadian "teen girls." The first was the leaders' camp. This consisted of leaders of groups and teachers in Sunday schools. There is a course of these, consisting of the psychology of the child, the principles of teaching with a view to efficiency as leaders. About forty were at this gathering. Then there was a camp of C.G.I.T., which did very efficient work. The one in session at present is the third gathering. It is under the guidance and superintendence of Miss D. L. Gass, who has every department under control. One can see in this group not the discipline of the military leadership, but rather that of the larger family and that of loving friendship. There were fifty-eight girls and ten leaders in the second gathering and each leader had some specific training in girls' work. The present camp consists of one hundred and four girls in training and fourteen leaders.

The girls rise at 6.45 and take the setting-up exercises, the flag salute and the morning dip. The lake, with its splendid beach, is within two minutes' walk and a great asset to the enjoyment of all. From 7.45 to 8 is a period of silence, which is called the morning watch. It is a period of personal prayer. Breakfast is then served. The rooms are made tidy, and "as you please" until 9 o'clock, when the period of Bible study takes place until 9.45. This is taken by one of the "tribal chiefs," and is for the entire camp, the camp being divided into nine tribes, with big and little chiefs. There are also "wampum keepers," "flint engravers," which correspond to secretary and treasurer. There is also the tribal editor of the camp paper.

After Bible study there are the business sessions, when each tribe meets by itself to attend the business for the day. One tribe is then assigned to keep the grounds clean, another sees that fresh flowers are placed in the auditorium and other plans are made. From 10.30 to 11.15 there is a free period, and one may purchase "tuck" or "stand at ease."

At 11.15 the camp council meets, when all phases of discipline, camp etiquette and "done" are discussed and plans for the programme settled. For example, one good plan was made. The girls decided they would have a self-denial day and the proceeds are to be devoted to purchasing or making a box of toys and candy for a Christmas tree for sixty or more children in China. This is being packed and shipped by the campers themselves.

Dinner is at 12.30, and there follows an hour of rest and complete silence. Then all are eager for the recreation period—the baseball, basketball and all kinds of tournaments possible are entered into. There are also picnics and hikes to points of interest, and nature studies. The supper hour is followed by vesper service near the lake, taken by one of the tribal chiefs or one of the older girls. The evenings are given out to camp ceremonies, pageants, stunts, talks on various subjects as books, nature studies and the many things that are vital to the "teen age girls."

The girls' training movement is within all denominations at present, and is an endeavor to make the Sunday school life of the girls in the churches a vital one. It is based on the psychological principle that the "teen age girl finds her ideal embodied in the older woman. The Sunday school class is taken as the unit to which the girl belongs. This organized class meets once through the week and on Sunday. The whole programme is based on the ideal of womanhood and development of Jesus, who grew "in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man." The C.G.I.T. seeks to make possible to every girl such a four-fold life. A regular programme is followed by each unit and talks on every conceivable subject of interest to girlhood are attempted. These talks are followed by some activity on the talk; for instance, if the talk has been on "first aid," there follows a demonstration; if on social service, some demonstration follows.

This girls' movement is scarcely seven years old and has grown to large proportions. Each nation and province has its own secretary. It is carried on by the united boards of the various denominations now known as the Religious Education Association. The work is made possible by the subscription of individuals rather than by the hope that Sunday schools afford, though it is hoped that the Sunday schools will aid materially as time advances.

Miss D. L. Gass, whose address is 121 Bishop street, Montreal, is fully alive to the great hopes for the future, and is ready to aid in any section of the province of Quebec. She appreciates the kindness of the people of this community.

There are girls present from Quebec city, Sherbrooke, Three Rivers, Waterloo, Mansonville, all sections of Montreal, Asbestos, Danville, Lennoxville, Ormstown, Brigham, Laduke, St. Lambert, Cowansville, Granby, Knowlton, etc.

Application had to be refused, owing to the large number attending, no accommodation for others being possible.

Much sympathy is felt here for Principal and Mrs. W. O. Briegel, of Montreal West, in the loss of their little daughter, Elizabeth, who passed away in Peterboro, Ont., where they were staying. Mr. Briegel was the principal of Knowlton High School a few years ago, and he and Mrs. Briegel made many warm friends while here, who feel deeply for them in their sorrow.

The hostesses at the Brome Lake Boat Club tea on Wednesday will be Mrs. A. J. Wood and Mrs. A. L. Patterson.

The Brome County Monument has been completed, and the unveiling will take place on Labor Day, September 3.

PREPARE FOR EXHIBITION TRAFFIC.

The road department is making preparations for the heavy traffic which will travel over Park avenue during Exhibition week, and many loads of crushed stone have been spread over the street where the surface had become rough. The work will be appreciated by local motorists, who have been forced all summer to drive over a rough and bumpy road. Visiting motorists, too, will no doubt appreciate the smooth street, especially if they realize that it is made smooth for their benefit.

Repairs have been made on King street also, where several holes have been filled in and levelled with asphalt.

MRS. SEAWARD FOUND ALIVE.

After a search which lasted for many hours, during which it was thought that she had been drowned, Mrs. William Seaward was found by the banks of St. Francis River about noon yesterday. Mrs. Seaward, who is eighty years of age, disappeared early yesterday morning from the home of her son, Mr. Walter Seaward, where she resides. When she was missed from the house a search was instituted but no trace of her could be found, except for her kimono and shoes, which were found lying on a rock by the river bank.

She was found wandering on the river bank after long hours of searching, during which the river was dragged by the searchers, who were under the impression that she had been drowned.

Between one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and fifty more men from Sherbrooke and vicinity left here yesterday to join the second big harvesters' excursion, which left Montreal yesterday.

This number is considerably less than the total reached for the first excursion, which left on August 8th, when nearly five hundred men made the trip. However, the rush is now nearly over, after many thousands of men have been transported from Eastern Canada to the West to assist in taking in the crops.

Nearly all the trains which left here on Sunday and Monday carried a quota of harvesters. A special colonist car was placed here by the Canadian National Railway for the transportation of the excursionists. On Sunday, finding that one car was insufficient to take care of the party, a second coach was sent out from Montreal.

GEODETIC SURVEY OF CANADA.

Engineers who have been working in and around Lennoxville during the last few days, and who placed a copper bench mark in the front foundation wall of the Royal Bank building, are members of a geodetic survey party engaged in running a line of precise levels from Newport, Vt., through Stanstead, Lennoxville and Sherbrooke to Mazow, At Massaz, the line will terminate upon bench marks established there by Government engineers some years ago. The levels are permanently marked at intervals throughout the country by concrete piers built on carefully selected sites. In towns and cities the elevation is marked by a copper bolt placed in the masonry of the most substantial buildings. The elevation of Lennoxville (499 feet approximately above mean sea level) is determined from a bench mark of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, an organization doing similar work south of the international boundary.

This is part of a Dominion-wide system of precise levelling and triangulation which is being carried on by the Department of the Interior. The purpose of the survey is to provide a permanent, reliable base, or control, for all future survey and engineering projects, as well as to co-ordinate surveys carried out by various organizations in the past, and thus eliminate depreciation of effort and reduce to a minimum the probability of errors in such work.

The head office of the Geodetic Survey of Canada is at Ottawa, and is under the direction of Mr. Noel Ogilvie, M.E.I.C.

Special County W. I. Meeting.

The meeting of the County Women's Institute called for Monday afternoon at the headquarters of the Lennoxville branch was of special importance, having to do with arrangements for the annual short course held in January. Miss E. M. Rouch and Miss E. F. Macdonald, assisted with advice and suggestions. The county president-elect, Mrs. W. S. Armitage, presided, the chief business being the deciding on the various kinds of work to be exhibited by the women of the county. In addition to knitted wool socks, double and single mittens, sweaters and scarfs, a "thrift exhibit" was asked for, consisting of a useful article made from a useless one. Articles made from homespun, crocheted work, rugs and colored embroidery were also included in the list. The competition is open to members of the Women's Institute, farmers' wives and daughters of members of the Farmers' Club, and the articles shown must not have been previously exhibited at any fair. The girls' competition includes curtains, sweaters, white embroidery and crocheted.

It is expected that the short course for girls, which proved so successful last year, will be repeated this year along similar lines.

It is the intention of the Institute to maintain its reputation for good cooking, and to this end several inviting prizes for bread, rolls, doughnuts, apple jelly and orange marmalade will be offered in the women's section. A "thrift" cake, accompanied by its recipe, will, for the best for the least expense, be awarded. The girls are also urged to exhibit bread and cake.

CENTRAL POLICE STATION WELL PROVIDED FOR

Fire Department to Have Modern Equipment—Building Is Well Laid Out and Contractors at Work.

Sherbrooke's new fire and police station on Marquette Street is now definitely under way of construction, and men are at work digging the excavations, while actual work on the building proper will be commenced as soon as the foundations have been prepared.

The new building, plans of which have been prepared by Mr. Louis N. Audet, architect, is of rather plain appearance, giving the impression that service has been made the chief consideration. The different floors have been laid out in a very economical manner, intended to take advantage of every inch of space available.

The contract for the erection of the building was awarded to the Newton Dakin Construction Company, and the amount authorized by the by-law was $55,000. Its completion is called for during the month of January, 1924.

The total length of the building will be eighty-three feet, the height will be forty-four feet, while the width, over to main section, will be forty feet. There are two side extensions, one providing for the chief's living quarters, the other providing for the tower and the morgue.

The front of the building will be constructed of plastic brick, with granite trimmings, and the construction will distinguish many features common to the Colonial and Renaissance styles of architecture.

Trucks Supersede Horse Vehicles.

The cellar will extend only at the rear of the building and under the chief's quarters. This will be sufficient only to provide for the heating systems, storage batteries and the chief's private cellar. One furnace, hot air system, will provide for tower requirements, where the hose is dried, while the other hot water system, will provide for the heating of the building in general.

The ground floor is devoted practically entirely to the apparatus. Five large double automatic doors take up practically the entire front of the building, while entrances are placed at the extreme left and right. On the left will be the entrance to the offices, Recorder's Court, etc., and on the extreme right will be the entrance to the chief's quarters. At the rear of the building, within the tower, the morgue, measuring sixteen feet by eleven, is located, and in the centre are the men's cells, with accommodation for about eight men.

The alarm system occupies a section to the right. The entire centre is left free for the automobile trucks, three major and two minor runways having been provided for. The entire ground floor will be finished in brick, and the floors will be in cement.

First Floor.

On the first floor, the general offices and women's cells are located. Coming up the main stairway on the left, one enters a large hall from which a passage leads to the chief's quarters. On the right is the vault and adjoining same is an enquiry office. The captain's office comes next and adjoins that of the chief. Across the passage from the vault is a toilet room and ante-chamber for the recorder's court. The recorder's court is nicely arranged and is directly opposite the chief's office. Adjoining the recorder's court and directly opposite the chief's private room, are the women's cells. The cells have sound proof partitions. The entire right wing, forming the extension, is devoted to the chief's living quarters.

Second Floor

The second floor is largely devoted to the men's sleeping quarters and recreation room. There is a large dormitory, a big recreation room, several showerbaths, the captain's private room, in addition to which the right extension is devoted to the sleeping quarters for the chief's family.

When completed, the new fire station promises to be one of the best of its kind in the province. It is being built essentially to provide for the increased requirements of the fire and police departments, and its complete automobile equipment will be second to none. These present location is a fairly central one and should be of greater advantage to the police force in their activities to maintain order throughout the city.

CLEVER PERFORMANCE AT HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE

Toe Dancing and Clog Dancing
Featured Bill — A Crowded House Witnessed Performance.

A crowded house enjoyed a very creditable performance by Jack Singer's company of twenty-five artists at His Majesty's Theatre last night. It was something of a variety performance, but differed from many that have been staged here during the past year inasmuch as it was snappy, genuinely humorous and clean.

Altogether the performance was well staged and the costumes colorful and attractive. The comedy furnished by Messrs. Singer and Sher gained favor with the audience, but the outstanding acts were undoubtedly the toe dance furnished by Miss Glad Bryant, who executed a really clever dance. In a most delightful manner, and the clog dancing of Ed Calame, whose efforts received well merited applause.

The Calame-Byrnes Trio were heard to good advantage in their vaudeville specialty, while several members of the company displayed fairly good vocal talent. In fact, the chorus is the best that has visited this city in some time.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.

The Federal Government has at last recognized the fact that the problems of immigration and colonization are of such prime importance as to demand the whole attention of a minister and require the regular departmental organization. Hitherto they have been looked after by the Minister of the Interior.

Hon. James A. Robb, Minister of Trade and Commerce, has been called upon to take the new portfolio, Hon. T. A. Lowe being named to head the department of Trade and Commerce.

Hon. James A. Robb is member for Huntingdon and Chateauguay, and is the English-speaking representative from Quebec in the Federal Cabinet. His business experience and good judgment have been employed to good purpose in the department from which he now retires to take hold of the great problems of immigration. The present Government and its predecessor have been greatly criticized because of their policy with regard to immigration. People generally believe that a steady flow of immigration of the right class is essential to the development and prosperity of the country. In years past, Ministers of the Interior, always Western men, have pursued a course in the matter of immigration which little provided for the needs of Eastern Canada. All efforts were concentrated on filling up the West, not only through immigration but by transfer of people from Eastern Canada. It will be readily admitted that the vacant spaces of the prairie are crying out for population but the needs of agricultural Eastern Canada are, also, great and the likelihood of successful absorption even greater. Hon. Mr. Robb, an eastern man, will readily recognize the fact that the Maritime Provinces, the Eastern Townships and Ontario are greatly in need of farm workers. Many thousands of men of the right sort, with families, can be absorbed in these eastern provinces. Besides, farmers with capital will find opportunities here that are unexcelled. The lure of the cities and the job lure in the States have left a thousand farms in the Eastern Townships without occupants. These farms are fertile and can be bought at favorable prices. Canada wants men who know and like the land, if such can be found.

A more vigorous immigration policy may be expected in the future and the new minister will have the best wishes of all in his undertaking.

The Montreal Gazette regards favorably the appointment of Hon. Mr. Robb, and says in this connection: "Good results should follow the Cabinet changes announced on Saturday, the most notable being the selection of Hon. J. A. Robb as Minister of Immigration and Colonization. Mr. Robb has, in an unostentatious way, done good work as Minister of Trade and Commerce, as was confidently expected of him. He brought to the administration of a moribund department a quiet energy, a wide and successful business experience, and a ripe judgment with which that branch of the public service had been for many years unfamiliar. His visit to Australia for the purpose of establishing better trade relations upon a reciprocal tariff basis with that important branch of the Empire was not immediately successful, but it was far from being a flat failure that had characterized previous efforts in the same direction; he made an extremely favorable impression upon the statesmen and business men of the Commonwealth, and the work of erecting a new commercial structure upon the foundation which he laid is still in progress. His removal will be a loss to the Department, but he goes to a still more important and potentially fruitful field of administrative activity."

"The development of immigration and colonization upon broad and sound lines is so vital and paramount a national necessity that the re-establishment of the Department of Immigration and Colonization as a separate branch of government, with its own minister, is more than justifiable. Had the course now being pursued been followed at the outset by the King Ministry, much valuable time could have been saved and much good accomplished; that this was not done has always been a matter of mystery to the public and an occasion of reproach to the Government. A late start is being made, but, under the direction of a minister of Mr. Robb's proven capacity, it should be a good start, and the public will look with confidence for the inauguration of an aggressive and comprehensive immigration policy, one that will promote a steady and sustained movement of population and will give to the Dominion the additional man-power which it so sorely needs."

CINDERELLA AND RUSSIAN MORALITY.

"Cinderella," with its mystic romance, its fairy God-mother, its gorgeous coaches, jealous sisters and gallant prince is banned from the Russian stage. The idea is hardly conceivable but such is the case, for the delightful story of the world's nurseries does not quite agree with the Russian code of morality, with its theoretical levelling of all mankind. To the North American mind there is no harm or power of perversion in "Cinderella," but the incident merely goes to show the vast differences which may be found in the minds of individual peoples. Some good burghers, in Montreal, for instance, were horrified at Gay's charming work, "The Beggar's Opera," but this masterpiece created a furore in London, and its successor, "Polly," long submerged by censorship, is enjoying widespread popularity. Under the caption, "Censoring Cinderella," the Brooklyn Eagle deals with geography and its relations to morality from an interesting angle. The Eagle says:

"Morality, as has often been pointed out, is largely a matter of geography. In the United States, last spring, the courts declared immoral 'The God of Vengeance,' a drama long respected in Germany. The possibility of a private reproduction of Schnitzler's 'Reigen' was here greeted as an outrage, though you may see the play performed publicly in Berlin or Vienna almost any evening. 'The Demi-Virgin' attracted police attention in Manhattan, though it was mild in comparison with the farces of the boulevard theatres of Paris. And yet, moral as we are, ever zealous in our consideration of the minds of our country's youth, we have nothing to say—or, if we have, have never said it—against 'Cinderella.' We are still slightly horror-stricken at the sight of a one-piece bathing suit, thinking ourselves ever so much more respectable than the pagan Russians of Moscow, who bathe in the river in the very middle of their city arrayed solely in the air of the most perfect self-consciousness. In Russia 'Cinderella' is banned."

"In no theatre under Soviet control are performances of the play allowed. It was presented not long ago in the Children's Theatre of Petrograd. But the reaction of the critics proved so violent that it will not be played again. The story gives a false view of life, the critics any, because in it 'kind, good kings and noble Prince Charmings are doomed to the skies.' They thought it might at least have been 'toned down.' Instead, it indicated that kings and princes and czars, of which Russia today will have none, were just and fair to all poor and humble citizens and under their guiding hands life was as merry as could be. The Russians are very like ourselves after all—they are determined not to have the minds of their children perverted. We merely differ in our conceptions of what is and is not perverse."

(Regina Leader.)
The population of Canada in 1871 was 3,689,257. A year ago it was 8,788,483. The increase has not been phenomenal; but it has been steady and may be said to have been on the whole satisfactory. And during all of those years Canadians flocked to the United States and settlers from the United States flocked to Canada. There has always been give and take between the two countries, as there always will be. The process should cause no concern to either country.

FIREBRANDS NOT PATRIOTS.

(Kingston Whig.)
It is not patriotic to excite and strive to keep alive racial and religious animosities, and the politician who by such means tries to catch votes should be severely denounced by every honest Canadian. He would not get very far if our people would study for themselves Provincial and Federal issues, for they would readily detect deceit and camouflage and treat it with the contempt it deserves.

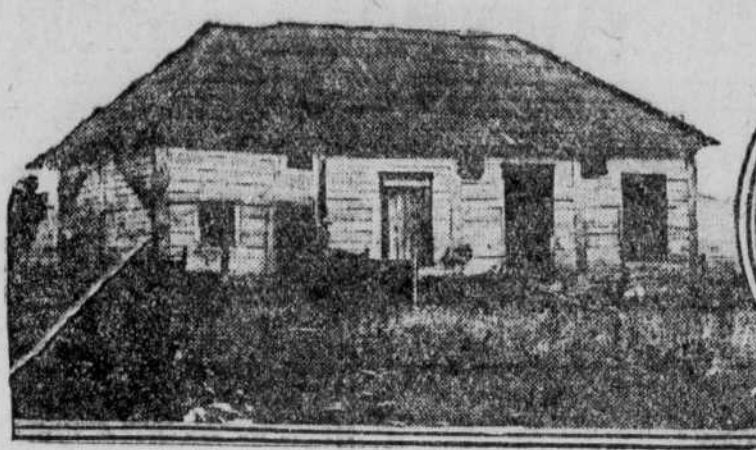

CANADA AND EUROPE.

(Toronto Globe.)
We do not regard the European countries with Pharisaical superiority, or attribute the happier position of America entirely to our own merits. The troubles of Europe cannot be laid entirely at the door of its present inhabitants. They have their roots deep in a long history, and in their graves, we have happily escaped these evils, ought not to look coldly on the perils and calamities of our brethren. But what can we do? Let any sympathizer with Europe suggest a practical measure within our power and we can assure him at least a fair and friendly hearing.

DISSATISFIED WITH CALIFORNIA.

(Vancouver Sun.)
Thirty per cent of the people of northern California are dissatisfied with the sun-baked, waterless conditions under which they live, and would move to British Columbia gladly if they understood conditions here, says George M. Gibbs, of California, in a letter to the local Board of Trade.
Mr. Gibbs suggests that Vancouver maintain a publicity office in Los Angeles for the purpose of steering dissatisfied settlers this way.
There is no reason why this dissatisfaction should not be capitalized by British Columbia. California has exactly the kind of settlers that would do best in this province.

TRADERS' PROTECTION AGAINST INDIANS

A recent celebration in Langley municipality, British Columbia, recalls the stirring times which followed the location of a fort at Fort Langley by the Hudson's Bay Company in 1840. Prominent residents gathered to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the oldest incorporated district in that province. The fort shown above was built by the trading company as a protection against marauding tribes of Indians. It still stands. Among guests of honor at the celebration was Philip Jackson (inset), who is one of the few remaining survivors of the original company of Royal Engineers who came out from England to New Westminster in 1859.

CHANGES ARE PROBABLE IN QUEBEC GOVT.

W. S. Bullock, M.L.A. for Sherbrooke, Being Mentioned as Possible Member of Cabinet.

MONTREAL, Aug. 21.—It is now being stated in fairly reliable circles that Premier Taschereau will turn over the portfolio of Attorney-General to Hon. A. Galipeault, Minister of Public Works. The work entailed upon Mr. Taschereau as premier and as Attorney-General is very heavy, and is constantly growing, and the feeling has been for some time that one minister should give his time entirely to the work of the attorney-general's department.
The work devolving upon Mr. Taschereau as prime minister is very heavy, even more so than his work as Attorney-General, and there is also the fact to be remembered that as prime minister, Mr. Taschereau is leader of the Liberal party in the province and party politics necessarily takes a considerable amount of his time.

An English Minister.
Should Mr. Galipeault be given the portfolio of Attorney-General it would mean a re-casting of the portfolios, and presumably an addition to the cabinet. The portfolio of Public Works and Labor is not one which takes a great amount of a minister's time, and it is well known that W. S. Bullock, M.L.A., for Sherbrooke, would prefer to have that department, if he enters the Government. Mr. Bullock's entry has been mooted on several occasions. He is the oldest English member of the Legislative Assembly, and promotion has passed him by on each occasion, not only into the cabinet but into the Legislative Council lately when Hon. Henry Miles got the English vacancy in the upper Chamber, towards which Mr. Bullock aspired.

There is every prospect also that the Department of Municipal Affairs, now in charge of Hon. Jacob Nicol, Provincial Treasurer, will be given its own minister shortly. Mr. Taschereau practically told the Union of Quebec Municipalities that this was to be done, so it will mean a larger cabinet, and consequently strengthen Mr. Bullock's chances to be made a minister. Mr. Bullock's entry would mean a strictly English-Protestant representation, for Hon. Mr. Nicol, while a Protestant, is regarded as bi-lingual as far as nationality is concerned.

Council Vacancies.
Another important matter which the premier is expected to deal with shortly, is appointments to the Legislative Council. That body is four members short. There are plenty of aspirants, Walter Reed, M.L.A. for the Assomption, is ready to be transferred, Edouard Quillette, M.L.A. for Yamaska, is almost a certainty. Raoul Grothe, manufacturer of Montreal and P. R. Du Tremblay are also prominently in line. This is as regards the three Montreal district seats. In the City of Quebec there is a vacancy due to the death of Hon. John Kaine, and there are several candidates, with prospects indicating that Arthur Cannon, K.C., the ex-M.L.A. for Quebec Centre, will be selected, and that Martin Madden, M.L.A. for Quebec West, will go into the cabinet as minister without portfolio in succession to Mr. Kaine.
These appointments have been delayed for some time, but it is presumed that the Government will fill the vacant seats in time for the next session. They necessarily affect the matter of by-elections, the time set for these being dependent upon the appointments.

BURY

Misses Mary and Esther McLeay, of Brightlook Hospital, are home for their holidays and are with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. McLeay.

The Bury Council held a special session on Saturday evening to appoint a councillor to fill the vacancy caused by the removal from the municipality of Mr. L. E. Rainey. The choice of the council fell on Mr. Maurice T. Stokes, whose appointment received an unanimous vote. The appointment is for the remainder of Mr. Rainey's term of office, which expires in January next.

The two church socials held during the past week were both very successful affairs. On Wednesday in spite of the rain which persisted until well into the afternoon, the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church held their lawn social as planned. A sum exceeding $60 was netted for their funds. On Friday evening the Catholic Church held a very successful social on the grounds beside the church. The total proceeds were some $116.
The Bury School fair will be held on Friday, September 14th, not on the 4th as previously reported.

WOMAN KILLED IN A COLLISION AT BURLINGTON

Cars Crashed Together with Fatal Results—Mrs. P. E. Lachance Died of Injuries.

BURLINGTON, Aug. 21.—Mrs. P. E. Lachance, of St. Johnsbury, was almost instantly killed, and her husband was slightly injured, when two cars, a Buick and a Ford, collided at the junction of Pearl and Willard Streets.
The Lachance car was driven by the victim's husband. In it were three other persons, Mr. and Mrs. Weatherbee and baby, of this city. Mr. Lachance was slightly injured, but was not forced to remain at the hospital, where his wife died soon after her arrival there in a police ambulance. The Ford car was driven by Alexander Myers, with no other occupants in the car. He suffered no injuries as a result of the crash.

The accident happened when Mr. Lachance was driving up Pearl Street, while the Ford car was driving north on Willard. The former claimed to be driving about twenty miles an hour, and the Ford driver says he was going about five. Neither driver saw the other until a collision was unavoidable, but both drivers tried to prevent the accident by a quick sideward turn. The Ford driver cranked his wheels sharply up Pearl Street to the right, and the Buick driver turned abruptly to the left. But a crash was inevitable and the two cars came together on the trolley tracks, both being thrown directly over.

Mrs. Lachance was pinned beneath the car, her jaw being broken and her head badly injured. Pedestrians and others quickly rushed to the scene and lifted up the car, removing Mrs. Lachance's body. In an unconscious condition she was placed on the grass near the roadside and taken to the hospital in a few minutes by the police ambulance. There she died without regaining consciousness.
State Automobile Inspector Asa A. Griggs, of Montpelier, was at the police station when the accident occurred and accompanied the ambulance to the scene, where he immediately took photographs of the wrecked cars and investigated the cause of the collision.

T. O. Kane, of Brooklyn, N.Y., an eye witness, reported to the State's Attorney today giving the details of the accident as he saw them, and was examined at the police station. The driver of the Ford was taken to the police station, charged with careless and neglectful driving. He was later released on bail.

SIX CHINAMEN BEING HELD AT NEWPORT

Man and Woman From Lowell Arrested on Smuggling Charge—Officers Had Merry Chase.

The four Chinamen seized at Beebe Junction, Que., by Inspector James Ford, of Newport, are still in the jail at Newport, and with them are two others who are said to have been of the same party, making six in all. The Newport story also points to Lowell, Mass., parties as those who were seeking to smuggle the Celestials into the States. These parties, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Girouard, of Lowell, are under arrest, charged with attempting to smuggle Chinamen.

The circumstances of the seizure of the four Chinamen by the American officer after they had got back across the line into Canada are being denied at Newport.

Keeps Officers Busy
The Immigration Department at Newport, as well as other places on the border, are kept continually on the alert to try and intercept the constant efforts of aliens who wish to enter the United States in defiance of the immigration laws. In the case of the Chinese, there is known to be a well defined organization which for a given sum will take over the whole expense and worry of getting the Celestial safely into the United States in other than the regular way. A restaurant or laundry needing help, or wishing to help their countrymen, will employ an agent to land the newcomer safely at their door for the sum of $500, and the newly arrived immigrant goes to work and serves his time, a bondman until his debt is paid.

THE STORY AS TOLD IN NEWPORT
NEWPORT, Vt., Aug. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Frederick Girouard, of 470 Moody street, Lowell, Mass., were brought before U. S. Commissioner W. F. Cleary, to answer to the charge of attempting to smuggle into the country six Chinamen in violation of the Chinese Exclusion Act.

Both Girouard and his wife were placed under bonds to the amount of $5,000 each, for their appearance at the next session of federal court, at Rutland on October 2nd. Girouard was allowed to sign a bail bond for his wife in order that she may be released to go home to Lowell and look after their four small children. Girouard is still in jail and will remain until he may be able to furnish bail. The six Chinese were also questioned and are held under bonds of $2,500 each as material witnesses. Girouard is the owner of a garage in Lowell and he and his wife look to be about forty years of age.

The rounding up of a pair of smugglers and their load of Celestials, by United States authorities on August 15th had sensational aspects, and led the officers a merry chase over hill and dale for the latter part of two days, between Newport and West Burke.

On the night of August 14th, a big seven passenger Marmon car rolled silently along Main street, about one o'clock and was observed by a U.S. customs officer Walsh and an immigration inspector, who were quietly waiting for a suspected runner. As the car passed the officers in the vicinity of the Vermont Tap and Die plant, they noticed it was heavily loaded and signalled the driver to stop. He put on speed and hastened on, regardless of a shot fired by the officer. They then followed the speeding car, losing sight of it near West Charleston but kept up the chase until it was overhauled this side of West Burke.

The only occupants of the car were the man and the woman, and they were arrested and taken to Newport for failure to report at port of entry and not stopping when signalled. Girouard was placed in jail and his wife allowed to go to the hotel.

That afternoon, Inspector James Ford and U. S. Marshal Allie Fuller, trailed the highway and cross-roads to Willoughby but found no trace of the fleeing aliens. At midnight Deputy Sheriff Hatch at Westmore telephoned that four Chinamen had been seen at the north end of Willoughby. They had applied for supper and tried to make arrangements to put up for the night. Mr. Fuller and Mr. Ford set out again and after following along the road from Westmore, Barton or Orleans they were finally found headed towards Canada and were brought to Newport by the officers and lodged in the jail at Newport. About noon of the 15th, Sheriff Barry of West Burke telephoned Inspector Ford's office that he was holding two Chinamen, so they made another trip and rounded up the whole lot.

The story told by Girouard, who owns a small garage in Lowell, was that he and his wife left their home in Lowell on August 10th, on a perfectly legitimate mission and that they did not stop because they feared they were being held up by highway robbers. Mrs. Girouard also told the officers a tale at first but later broke down and admitted that they had the six Chinese in the Marmon car.

The six Chinamen looked rather downcast, as they filed back to jail after the inquiry. They were young looking all of them, two looking to be very young men. They gave their names as Hoo Yoh Lom, Lee Hee, Ly Fook, Wong Ching Sue, Leou Guy and Leou Sue. The six prisoners are still held here, awaiting trial before Commissioner Cleary.

From a story—"She stepped into the bath, surrendering herself to the water's voluptuous familiarity. But the sensuousness of its embrace, repleated her with its implication of luxurious security; seemed an alien and perfidious presence in whose contact there was something improper."

My Dear Friends:—

This is an old-time riddle, and the old-time answer was, of course, "Noah's Ark."

But, no, that's wrong. It was at Ayer's Cliff Fair. If you don't believe it, visit the show tomorrow and you will be convinced.

But the rooster is not the only bird that crows. Have you tried a Record Want Ad? You will be surprised at results.

The Wings of the Morning

A Great Story of Adventure and Romance

BY LOUIS TRACY.

REALITY V. ROMANCE— THE CASE FOR THE DEFENDANT.

Residents in tropical countries know that the heat is greatest, or certainly least bearable, between two and four o'clock in the afternoon.

At the conclusion of a not very luscious repast, Jenks suggested that they should rig up the tarpaulin in such wise as to gain protection from the sun and yet enable him to cast a watchful eye over the valley. Iris helped him to raise the great canvas sheet on the supports he had prepared. Once shut off from the devouring sun rays, the hot breeze then springing into fitful existence cooled their blistered but perspiring skin and made life somewhat tolerable.

Still adhering to his policy of combating the first enervating attacks of thirst, the sailor sanctioned the consumption of the remaining water. As a last desperate expedient, to be resorted to only in case of sheer necessity, he uncorked a bottle of champagne and filled the tin cup. The sparkling wine, with its volume of creamy foam, looked so tempting that Iris would then and there have risked its potency were she not promptly withheld.

Jenks explained to her that when the wine became quite flat and insipid they might use it to moisten their parched lips. Even so, in their present super-heated state, the liquor was unquestionably dangerous, but he hoped it would not harm them if taken in minute quantities.

Accustomed now to implicitly accept his advice, she fought and steadily conquered the craving within her. Oddly enough, the "thawing" of their scorched bodies beneath the tarpaulin brought a certain degree of relief. They were supremely uncomfortable, but that was as naught compared with the relaxation from the torments previously borne.

For a long time—the best part of an hour, perhaps—they remained silent.

The sailor was reviewing the pros and cons of their precarious condition. It would, of course, be a matter of supreme importance were the Indian to be faithful to his promise. Here the prospect was decidedly hopeful. The man was an old sower, and the ex-officer of native cavalry knew how enduring was the attachment of this poor convict to home and military service. Probably at that moment the Mohammedan was praying to the Prophet and his two nephews to aid him in rescuing the sahib and the woman whom the sahib held so dear, for the all-wise and powerful Sirkar is very merciful to offending natives who thus condone their former crimes.

But, however willing he might be, what could one man do among so many? The Dyaks were hostile to him in race and creed, and assuredly infuriated against the foreign devil who had killed or wounded, in round numbers, one-fifth of their total force. Very likely, the hapless Mussulman would lose his life that night in attempting to bring water to the foot of the rock.

Well, he, Jenks, might have something to say in that regard. By midnight the moon would illumine nearly the whole of Prospect Park. If the Mohammedan were slain in front of the cavern his soul would travel to the next world attended by a Nizam's cohort of slaughtered slaves.

Even if the man succeeded in eluding the vigilance of his present associates, where was the water to come from? There was none on the island save that in the well. In all likelihood the Dyaks had a store in the remaining sampans, but the native ally of the beleaguered pair would have a task of exceeding difficulty in obtaining one of the jars or skins containing it.

Again, granting that all things went well that night, what would be the final outcome of the struggle? How long could Iris withstand the exposure, the strain, the heart-breaking misery of the rock? The future was blurred, crowded with ugly and affrighting fiends passing in fantastic array before his vision, and mouthing dumb threats of madness and death.

He shook restlessly, not aware that the girl's sorrowful glance, luminous with love and pain, was fixed upon him. Summarily dismissing these grisly phantoms of the mind, he asked himself what the Mohammedan exactly meant by warning him against the trees on the right and the "silent death" which might come from them. He was about to crawl forth to the lip of the rock and investigate matters in that locality, when Iris who also was busy with her thoughts, restrained him.

"Wait a little while," she said. "None of the Dyaks will venture into the open until night falls. And I have something to say to you."

DEATHS REPORTED

GRANBY, Que., Aug. 21.—The remains of the late Mrs. C. T. Ashton, who passed away at the General Hospital, Montreal, were brought to Granby on Saturday morning last, August 11th, and taken to St. George's Episcopal Church, where the funeral service was held. In the absence of the rector, Ven. Archdeacon Longhurst, Rev. Mr. Knowles officiated, in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends, who came to pay their last tribute of respect to one whom they loved so well.

The late Mrs. Ashton was born at Brigham, Que., and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Miller, of that place. Fifteen years ago she was married to the late Charles Thomas Ashton, of Warden, who predeceased her by ten years.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Ashton removed to Granby, where she continued to reside until February last, when she met with the serious accident which ultimately caused her death. On February 22nd, she was severely burned and on the 27th of the same month she was taken to the Montreal General Hospital for medical treatment. For a time hopes were entertained for her recovery, but she gradually grew worse until Thursday, August 9th, when she passed peacefully away.

During her long illness she was lovingly cared for by her only sister, Miss Myrtle Miller, of Montreal, who accompanied the remains to Granby for burial. The interment took place in the family lot in St. George's Cemetery, of which church she was a faithful and consistent member.

MRS. JAMES BROOKS, HATLEY.

HATLEY, Que., Aug. 21.—After a short illness, following several years of failing health, Mrs. James Brooks passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. Desan, where she had been cared for during the preceding four months. For several years after her marriage to Mr. Perreault, father of the late Mr. Edward Perreault, of this place, Mrs. Brooks resided here, later leaving for North Hatley, where her mar-

THE MONTREAL CATTLE MARKET QUOTATIONS

Prices Paid for Cattle at the Montreal Stockyards—Other Details.

(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Aug. 21.—(Dominion Live Stock Branch Report.)—There were about 65 cattle, 457 sheep, 700 hogs and 75 calves for sale on the two markets today.

There was one load of common rough northwest steers and the balance of the cattle were mostly common to just fair bulls. There was no demand for either of these classes of cattle. Buyers were offering $2.25 for fairly heavy bologna bulls. There were no real good veal calves on sale. Buyers paid up to $8 for lots of fair average quality and seemed willing to pay more if they could get better calves.

Lambs remained steady at $9 to $10.50. Officially selected hogs were sold for $11.75. Ungraded lots brought mostly $10.75, with a few sales to local butchers up to $11. Small, light hogs brought $10 and up. Sows were mostly $7.

NEW YORK PRESS

MARKET COMMENT

Furnished by McManamy & Walsh

Wall Street Journal.—From a bullish standpoint, the outcome was all together satisfactory. Profit taking made its appearance at the scheduled time and the bear crowd added to the efficiency of the trial by renewing pressure on selected issues. From the limited character of the setback which resulted it was evident that the recent recovery was based on sound technical ground.

Journal of Commerce.—Week-end business news did not place any very new aspect upon the outlook and there were some features of it which afforded encouragement. The trade situation is apparently pointing to good fall business in staple lines.

New York Tribune.—After showing an advance for five successive days it was not surprising that the stock market yesterday should show some reactionary tendencies, particularly in those issues where the extent of the recovery had weakened their technical position and made them more susceptible to profit taking and short selling.

Wall Street Journal will say today:

SHORT SELLING QUITE EXTENSIVE ON WALL ST.

(Associated Press Despatch.) NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(Wall Street Noon.)—Short selling and liquidation were quite extensive during the first hour. Producers and refiners and Baldwin each dropped two points, the former touching a new low record for the year. Reactions in a score or more of other stocks ran from 1 to 1 1/2 points. The reactionary movement was suddenly checked before midday when a brisk demand arose for American Can and the Independent Steels. Strength of these issues brought about widespread short covering in other stocks. Woolworth jumped 4 1/2 points to 255, a new high and American Snuff advanced three points. Call money opened at five per cent.

TRADE IN WHEAT LIGHT ON CHICAGO MARKET

(Associated Press Despatch.) CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Trade in wheat was light at the start today with prices hovering near to yesterday's finish, during the early dealings. Liverpool started at an advance, but a reaction soon carried values to about the previous close. There were some scattered commission house business on both sides of the market here, but indifferent cables had a tendency to check the demand. Country offerings were light. Cash interests sold September and bought December in a small way.

Opening prices, which varied from 1/2 cent higher to 1/2 cent lower, with December at $1.04 to $1.04 1/2 and May at $1.08 1/2 to $1.09 1/2 were followed by a slight setback all around and then something of a rally.

Corn displayed some strength at the outset, which was followed by a break and then a fractional rally. Realizing sales being responsible for the easy tone. After starting at unchanged figures to 1/2 cent advance, with December at 64 1/2 to 65 cents, underwent a slight general decline and then something of a recovery. Oats started 1/2 to 3/4 to 1/2 cent up, with December at 39 1/2 cents and held near the initial range. Provisions were steady.

EXTREME DULLNESS TODAY ON MONTREAL EXCHANGE

(Association Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Aug. 21.—Extreme dullness marked the opening trading on the local market this morning. Only four issues made their appearance on the board during the first half hour. Brazilian at 45 1/2 and Spanish River preferred at 98 1/2 were unchanged. Twin City was off 1/2 to 69, and Illinois preferred registered an overnight gain of one point to 89 1/2.

PIRATES HAND OUT ANOTHER JOLT TO GIANTS

Morrison Held World's Champions in Check—Cy Williams Clouts Out Another Homer.

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Jughandle Johnny Morrison threw the Giants to defeat yesterday and won the second game of the present critical series for Pittsburgh by 3 to 1. He struck out five of the world's champions and allowed only six hits. This is the eighth game the Giants have lost in the dozen, and the Reds are beginning to wear the expression reserved for League champions.

The Gant pitchers were bad, but the hitters were worse, having scored only five runs in the last three games.

The Yankees swamped the White Sox in Chicago, pounding out sixteen hits for twenty-eight bases and winning 16 to 5.

The New York team started right off with a loud noise in the first inning, turning four hits, including a homer by Ward, into four runs.

Bunched hit by the Red Sox enabled them to win in Detroit 6 to 2. Piercy held the home team to four hits, which were scattered. Burns made a homer for the winners.

Washington won in St. Louis 7 to 2, in a lopsided game. The Senators took three runs in the second inning and four in the fourth, while Mitchell held the St. Louis team to only five hits.

The Reds won two games in Philadelphia, 6 to 3 and 8 to 3, and are now only four and a half games behind the Giants.

"Cy" Williams hit his thirtieth homer of the season in the second game, scoring Sand ahead of him.

The Cubs hit Grimes around the lot in Brooklyn, winning with ease ten to four. Grimes' collapse came after a record of twenty-four scoreless innings.

St. Louis was beaten in Boston five to two, Marquard pitching a fine game of ball and allowing only seven scattered hits.

BASEBALL

Y.M.C.A. DEFEATED WATERVILLE

Last night Waterville visited Sherbrooke and met the Y.M.C.A. at the Parade Grounds, but unfortunately didn't have much to show, the home team leading 12 to 0 when the game was called. The pitcher for Waterville, S. arvey, was fairly good, but did not have support. The first time up Y.M.C.A. scored three runs and in the third inning got nine. After the fourth inning it was agreed to call the game owing to darkness. Line-up: Waterville: Tigers—Harvey, Croteau, Kerowac, Parsons, Anderson, Brown, Meigs, P. Kerowac, L. Anderson.

Y. M. C. A.—Whitcomb Smith, Grime, Mitchell, Loomis, Mitton, Bryce, Stoyles, Colby.

MAGOG WON AT RICHMOND

RICHMOND, Que., Aug. 21.—The game Sunday between the Frue Cotton Mill team of Magog and the C. N. R. team of Richmond resulted in a win for the former team by a score of 10 to 5. The game, largely because of the weather conditions, was not very interesting and a very small crowd turned out. A high wind was blowing, and added to the fact that it was quite cold and a dazzling sun was shining at times, the lot of the players was a hard one.

Magog started out by gathering in two runs in the first inning, aided by some lackadaisical fielding by some of the Richmond players, who unlike the last two games in which they played, seemed unable to field the ball cleanly. Coderre led off with a double and stole third. Crevier's single after Kenney struck out scored him and Crevier himself took second on Blais' error. Schwab's pop fly went safe when Brown and Tenney each left it for the other, and Crevier scored. Richmond could not score in their half. The second inning was featured by a nice stop and fine throw of a grounder off Kenney's bat which ended the inning with two men on bases. In the third, Richmond finally got to Schwab for several hits and four runs. Cabana got on, Tenney struck out and Brown scored. Cabana with a hard two base hit, Lussier advanced Brown with a nice single and Gordon Pender connected with the first ball pitched with a nice three base hit into far centre field. Good fielding by Joy prevented him from scoring then, but Blanchette's single brought him in with C. N. R.'s fourth run. Magog got three runs in their half, aided by Coderre's two base hit and a couple of errors. The fourth, fifth and sixth passed scorelessly, with Taylor and Schwab both pitching nice ball. Schwab was touched fairly often in these innings and was pulled out of a hole in the fifth by some nice fielding by the Frue infield.

The "lucky" seventh was Magog's big inning. A three base hit by Coderre and successive hits by Kenney, Crevier, McKinnon and Schwab, aided by another error by the C. N. R. team, scored four runs.

Richmond got their fifth and last run in the sixth through Tenney's second two-bagger of the game, while Magog scored their tenth run.

Schwab, although touched up for twelve hits, pitched well, and Taylor turned in a nice game, and with better support, might possibly have turned in a victory over the ex-Eastern Canada League star. The Magog team fielded well, Coderre, Crevier and Schwab all making nice stops and catches. The C. N. R. team, although they outthrew the Frue team, could not make their hits in opportune places and marred chances by errors and poor base running. Pender hit well, while Tenney's errors in the field were made up for by his two doubles. Coderre, who got two doubles and a three bagger, was the best slugger for the Frue team, while McKinnon and Crevier also batted well.

On Wednesday next the Sherbrooke team will play here. The teams lined up as follows:—MAGOG—Coderre, ss; Kenney 2b; Crevier 3b; McKinnon 1b; Schwab p; Joy cf; Vanotti c; Turcotte 1b; Gaunt rf.

RICHMOND—Cabana 1b; Tenney ss; Brown 3b; Lussier 2b; Pender 1b; Blanchette c; Taylor p; Allard rf; Blais cf.

Struck out by Schwab 6; by Taylor 4.

Score by innings:— R. H. E.
Magog Frues—203 000 410—10 8 2
Rich. C.N.R.—034 000 010—5 12 6

TENNIS

ST. FRANCIS CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS

A number of members of the St. Francis Golf Club had anticipated taking part in the tennis championships at the Hermitage Club during the course of the coming week, but inasmuch as the finals, to be played Saturday, August 25th, clash with the Westmont fixture, this has been found inadvisable.

It has accordingly been arranged to play the club championships for the Mitchell Cup during the course of the present week and it is expected all tennis players, members of the club, will enter. The cup is at present held by A. W. Reid, but it would not be surprising to see it change hands this year.

SAYS DEMPSEY MUST END FIGHT IN FIVE ROUNDS TO WIN

(Associated Press Despatch)
CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—Unless Jack Dempsey wins from Luis Firpo within four or five rounds he will not win at all, in the opinion of Jess Willard, who is in Chicago on a visit.

"In my opinion it is a toss up," the former champion said. "They are both tough, tearing fighters, who rip and slash and hit with little regard for boxing, and it is merely a question of which one lands the first punch."

"I consider Dempsey the greatest quick starter in the business, but I do believe that unless he cops five rounds he will not cop at all. I honestly believe Dempsey is going to get the surprise of his life, when he goes against Firpo."

This week the first round matches in the Turnbull Memorial Handicap Cup competition are to be played, and some interesting matches will likely result. The draw in this competition is posted at the club house.

RICHMOND NEWS AND PERSONALS OF INTEREST

Elks Picnic a Decided Success and Many Enjoyed Outing — Mr. Max Pope Injured.

RICHMOND, Aug. 20. — Mrs. Katherine Lally, of Cornwall, and Mr. Cetus Lally, of Granby, have been guests of Mrs. Lally's sister, Mrs. John Delaney.

Mrs. L. Large and Miss Mildred Large have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. Leonard at Longueuil.

Mrs. R. Jones and daughter, of Sherbrooke, were in town on Friday.

Mrs. May Cleveland, of Boston, is visiting Mrs. W. Rattray.

Miss Mildred Large was the hostess at a dance on Wednesday evening in honor of the Misses Moisan, of Drummondville. The lawn, where the dance was held, was prettily decorated with lights and music was furnished by a three-piece orchestra. The guests numbered over fifty. Refreshments were served at midnight and the guests departed after having a most enjoyable time. The out-of-town guests were Messrs. Gerald Gargan, Wilbert Christman, Lawrence Gosselin, Calvin Christman and Dawson Garon, all of Drummondville; Gault, Parker and Fenwick Parker, of Sherbrooke.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Davitt and family left on Friday for a motor trip to Boston and other points in the New England States.

Friends of Mr. Max Pope will regret to learn that he met with a very serious accident on his ranch in Western Canada. As near as can be learned from the meagre details at hand, he was thrown from a horse and is now unable to sit up. His brother, Charles Pope, who is at McGill, and his brother, Wilton, left a week or ten days ago from here to visit their injured brother. Mrs. G. True Pope, his mother, and Master Clarence, left on Sunday to render any assistance that they can in the circumstances.

The Elks' picnic, which was scheduled for Wednesday, had to be postponed on account of rain, and took place at the Jeffrey farm, now owned by Roux brothers, on Thursday. The fine grove was the scene of a good time that will be long remembered by the kiddies and grown-ups of Richmond and vicinity. Favored with ideal weather, hundreds of people took advantage of the chance of an outing, and by means of cards loaned to the Elks for the occasion, made the short run from the town to the grove. During the afternoon there was not one dull moment. The kiddies were entertained by running some novelty contests, such as a frog race. In every contest prizes were given, some of them being very useful articles. During the afternoon the youngsters engaged in an exciting baseball match, and judging from the skill shown, Richmond is safe for a long time from scarcity of talent. After the sports the picknickers were treated to a feed of ice cream and other delicious dainties. On the whole it was a great success and the Elks are to be congratulated on the way everything was arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brooke Reeve, of Savannah, Georgia, have been the guests of Mr. G. H. Aymer Brooke for a few days, having made the trip by motor. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reeve, of Montreal, also spent the week-end with him.

The garden fete held on Thursday on Mrs. Arthur Wilcock's lawn proved a great success. The sum of $90 was realized. The grounds were beautifully decorated and great credit is due the ladies of St. Anne's Organ Guild.

A COLLEGE GIRL'S "NO."

"What were her reasons for refusing you?"

"Well, it sounded like an essay on eugenics, genealogy and finance."
